THE COURT-MARTIAL.

Secretary Alger and Others Testify for the Defense.

All Agree That Egan Was Laboring Under Intense Excitement.

Witnesses Say They Never Heard Defendant Use Profane Language.

THE DEFENSE HAS RESTED.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The first witness before the Kagan court martial today was David B. McKee, for many years the agent of the Associated Press. He had known Kagan for forty-five years. After McKee gave his testimony before the war investigation commission, Kagan seemed careworn and much preoccupied. McKee said the impression Kagan made upon him was that he had become insane.

Secretary Alger testified that Kagan came into his office in an excited state and said it was his wish to prefer charges against Miles for what he said.

"I told him," testified Alger, "that under the president's order granting immunity to every officer who testified before the war investigation commission he could not do so."

Col. Alexander and Col. Davis said that never during their acquaintance with the accused had they known him to use vulgar or profane language.

Dr. William R. Hopkins, of California, Kagan's son-in-law, came to Washington after Miles had given his testimony.

He observed that Kagan was very restless and could not eat or sleep normally. The witness told his wife her father must be carefully watched. Kagan, the witness testified, felt that Miles had destroyed his honor and his life work.

Mrs. Hopkins, daughter of Kagan, said her father came home one afternoon with a paper in his hand and explained, "General Miles has crucified me." She said since that time her father had been greatly changed man. The defense then rested.

UNDER ADJUDGMENT.
The arguments in the Kagan case were made and the court-martial took the case under advisement.

SAILORS' HARD FATE.

Crew of the Ship Marble Captured and Taken by Cannibals.
Yankee, B. C. Jan. 27.—After escaping death by drowning eleven of the crew of the ship Marble were captured and eaten by cannibals at Guinea. The sailors were stripped, bound and killed, one each day. The wild orgy was participated in by a hundred savages who gathered for the feast. In most cases the men were beheaded, the heads being stuck on poles and paraded before the men who were to suffer the same fate.

One sailor, James Greene, was rescued by a steamer after tramping without food a day and a night to reach the coast.

Nicaragua Canal Question.
Washington, Jan. 27.—The Nicaragua canal question was further considered today by the house committee on commerce. The subject went over until Tuesday.

WAR TAX TESTED.
Missouri Judge Declares It Unconstitutional in Certain Respects.
Mexico, Mo., Jan. 26.—Judge S. M. Hughes, of the Aurora county circuit court, decided a test case in reference to the war tax law, declaring it either was not the intention of congress to require stamp upon certificates of a judicial character or if so intended it was unconstitutional. He held the states did not delegate to the federal government the power of taxation over its officers or courts or any other machinery necessary for the support and maintenance of a local state government.

SEVERELY INJURED.
George Pimpel Fell From a Tree at Depot and Fractured His Skull.
Shortly after 10 o'clock this morning, while George Pimpel was trimming the large tree near the Harvey eating house, the branch on which he was standing and doing his work, broke off and he was thrown headlong to the platform below and knocked senseless. He was removed to a way car near by and Dr. Wroth, the Santa Fe physician, called. He found that the skull of the injured man was fractured and his condition as to recovery critical. The doctor has done everything possible to alleviate the sufferings of the injured man and the offerings of the injured man and his friends will be sent to the Santa Fe hospital at Las Vegas, where he can receive the constant care and attention, which his condition requires.

George is the brother of Frank Pimpel, the day clerk at the Sturges European and his friends in this city hope to hear of his recovery.

The Parade.
The "South Before the War" company paraded the principal thoroughfares of the New Mexico metropolis last night, the members being led by Capt. H. Scott Knight, the well-known auctioneer, and Capt. J. A. Johnson, the retired

WORK OF CONGRESS.

Mason Wants Speedy Action on His Philippine Resolution.

Senator Platt Delivers a Speech in Favor of Peace Treaty.

Provision for Lieutenant-General Sfrick on out of Army Bill.

DEBATE IN THE HOUSE.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Mason, of Illinois, asked unanimous consent for a vote on his resolution, declaring it the policy of the United States not to attempt to govern the people of any other nation, next Friday at 1 o'clock, and for a vote on his resolution, declaring the Philippines ought to be free and independent. Carter, of Montana, objected to both.

Carter thought it proper the resolutions lie on the table until late in the session in order that all who so desired might submit remarks upon them.

Showing evidence of annoyance Mr. Hoar said: "I desire to give notice if we are not to have a vote on the question presented by this resolution, a question which is immediate and practical, I will keep my resolution or that of the senator from Illinois (Mason), before the senate during every morning hour until we obtain a vote upon them." Gallinger, of New Hampshire, intimated that Hoar would encounter some difficulty in carrying out his plan.

Carter said he viewed with regret the "irritation" of Hoar. He pointed out more important business before the senate, and urged that the time of the senate be not taken up with such pending matters.

The following resolution was offered by Sullivan, of Mississippi, who asked that it lie on the table: "That the ratification of the pending treaty with Spain shall in no wise determine the policy to be pursued by the United States in regard to the Philippines, nor shall it commit this government to a colonial policy; nor is it intended to embarrass the establishment of a stable independent government by the people of those islands, whenever conditions make such proceedings hopeful of success and desirable results."

"If I cannot get a vote on my resolution," said Mason, "I shall consider myself most unfairly treated. I never delayed the treaty twenty-four hours. I am ready to vote on it now, but I am anxious to secure a vote first on my resolution."

Platt, of New York, was recognized for his announced speech, bearing upon the several expansion resolutions. He favored a prompt ratification of the treaty without any qualification. The senate went into executive session. Senator Frye made a strong plea for the ratification of the peace treaty. The pension appropriation bill was passed.

IN THE HOUSE.
Washington, Jan. 27.—When the house met today, but little more than an hour remained for general debate on the army re-organization bill. Henderson, republican of Iowa, was the first speaker. He hoped it would not be necessary to establish a standing army of 100,000 men. He was willing to support a proposition to increase the army to 50,000 or 60,000, beyond that he hoped the only discretion would be lodged with president, who could be trusted.

Henderson defended the president's course as the only wise one but said he had grave doubts of the wisdom of holding the Philippines.

Congress, of Iowa, made a strong speech for the army bill, ridiculing the assertions that our army was a menace to our liberty. Fitzgerald (Massachusetts) closed the general debate in opposition to the bill. After Hull (Iowa) closed for its passage, it was read for amendment under the five minute rule.

The provision for a lieutenant-general of the army was stricken out.

HOSE WAGON CHRISTENED.
Hose Company No. 2 Royalty Entertainers Invited Guests.
The members of Hose company No. 2 christened their handsome new hose wagon last night in the most approved manner. The members of other companies of the Albuquerque Fire department as well as a number of laymen were present as the invited guests of the company.

The colored quartet had been engaged for the occasion and sang a number of their most popular songs.

The gathering did ample justice to an immense supply of solid and liquid refreshments.

After the meal, guests were passed around and all present enjoyed a good smoke. This part of the program ended, the exercises in connection with the christening commenced. W. C. Montfort, the secretary of the company, delivered an address explaining what the gathering had assembled for. Then while the quartet was singing he broke a bottle of ginger ale on one of the wheels of the wagon and it was officially christened "Albuquerque Hose Wagon No. 2."

When the time to adjourn arrived, the guests thanked the members of the company for the delightful entertainment they had given them and congratulated them upon the new wagon and its auspicious christening.

Capital Building Notes.
Parts of the great columns for the portion of the state house have arrived from Indiana, and are now being cut preparatory to being set up in the portion, says the New Mexican. The columns will be twenty-eight feet high and thirty inches in diameter, including the pedestal and cap. The tympanum, or diamond-shaped frontpiece over the portion, which was originally intended to be of metal, will now be made of stone, and present therefore a much finer appearance. The four steel dome trusses and

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

If you want to enjoy a good evening attend the show at Orchestra hall this evening.

Mrs. L. T. Delaney, who was at Trinidad on a visit to her sister, returned to the city last week.

Silas Alexander, the district attorney of Socorro county, returned to his home last night from Santa Fe.

Lieutenant Charles Ballard, deputy sheriff of Chavez county, returned home last night after spending a few days in Santa Fe.

Charles M. Fisher, who has charge of the fuel supply to locomotives on the Santa Fe and Santa Fe Pacific railways, is registered from Topeka, Kansas, at the Hotel Highland.

The Continental Oil Co., is the first to receive a supply of 1800 stamped envelopes from the postoffice department. The stamps of the 30 envelope are red, while those of 1800 were blue.

A new visitor arrived at the Borradale home, in Old Albuquerque, yesterday in the person of a smiling girl baby, who will join in welcoming her warrior papa, when he returns home from Georgia.

P. H. Curran, a regent of the agricultural college, who has been in Santa Fe working among the soldiers against a reduction of the appropriation for that college, returned to his home in Las Cruces last night.

On last Saturday night a bouncing boy came to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Albert, Old Albuquerque, and reports reach this office that mother and child are doing nicely. The happy father is the son of the well-known dairyman, L. U. Albert.

This office enjoyed a very pleasant call from Abraham Kempenich, the big general merchant and dealer in country produce of Peralta, this morning. Mr. Kempenich states that his section of the Rio Grande valley, down in Valencia county, is in a prosperous condition, and that the farmers are now arranging to prepare the ground for early planting.

George P. Hill, an architect who for ten years was connected with the Brunswick-Balke company, manufacturers of refrigerators in Chicago, is in the city and has decided to open up an office here. He will make a specialty of refrigerators, and has a house at which he is an expert, having put in all the refrigerators for the Santa Fe Pacific railroad company between Albuquerque and Los Angeles.

Mr. Hill was introduced at THE CITIZEN'S office this morning by Capt. Ben Manger.

Captain Brown, of the Indian school foot ball team at Santa Fe, succeeded in making arrangements for a game with the Indian school team of this city, and returned to Santa Fe last night. The game will be played on Washington's birthday, February 22. It is not definitely settled yet whether a game with the Albuquerque eleven will be played at the same time, for the reason that the boys have been doing no practicing since their game with the A. and M. college team during the holidays, and it may prove a little difficult to get them together again this winter.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Last Avenue Methodist church gave a social at the residence of F. G. Pratt last night, which was attended by a large number of people. A quartette, composed of Mrs. Robinson and Misses Pratt, Hutzell and Jenne, entertained the evening by singing a number of songs. The evening was very pleasantly occupied with games of different kinds. Not the least pleasing feature of the social was the elegant refreshments that were served.

PURE AND FRESH

butter puts a gilt edge on your table. There's nothing else to take its place. Your bill of fare can lack almost anything else better than this. To make yourself solid on the butter question, get your supplies from our grocery. Our butter is always fresh, pure and gilt edged in every respect except the price. Our platform is not to impoverish our customers with high prices, but to keep the custom we have and to make new by fair dealing. We put our figures as low as a living profit will permit, and make our business pay by making it pay our customers to trade with us.

I keep fine cigars, perfumery and all standard patent medicines, but pay special attention to prescription compounding. Three registered pharmacists employed. B. Ruppe, Corner Second street and Railroad avenue.

Not in Our Line, But—

We have just received on consignment by a noted post trader out in Arizona a collection of Indian rugs and blankets, which we believe to be the most artistic ever exhibited here; prices, $1 to $10. Inspection invited. Simon Stern, the Railroad avenue clothier.
