According to a report released Aug. 31 by business magazine Expansion, in 1991 10 of the country's largest 114 companies (includes conglomerates, holding companies, consortia) generated 52.5% of combined sales receipts, compared to 45.9% in 1990. The top 10 in 1991 were Vitro, Cifra, Alfa, Valores Industriales, Desc, Cemex, Ingenieros Civiles Asociados (ICA), Comercial Mexicana, Gigante and Telefonos de Mexico (TELMEX). These companies accounted for 51.6% of assets and 50.8% of employment among the top 114. Combined net sales receipts last year for the 114 increased by 5.8%. One hundred of the 114 are controlled by domestic investors, and 14 by foreign companies. The largest proportional increases in sales were recorded for Texel, Bufete Industrial, Grupo Bermudez, Conelec, and Anderson Clayton. In absolute terms, the biggest jumps were registered by TELMEX, ICA, Cifra, Cemex and Anderson Clayton. (Source: La Jornada, 09/01/92)
