THE GLORIOUS VICTORY.

SANTA FE, Nov. 11, 1908.

To the Republicans of New Mexico:

This committee congratulates you upon the gallant work done at the polls on Tuesday, the 8th, and upon the glorious results which have followed. They are more far-reaching than at first glance appears. By your votes you have shown that New Mexico believes in and endorses the cardinal principles of the republican party, protection to products and industry and "an honest dollar with a chance to earn it." You have not only elected a republican delegate who thoroughly believes in these principles, but you have elected a legislature which is almost unanimously republican. For the first time in twenty years the territorial legislature is in political accord with the administrations at Washington and Santa Fe. With this grand showing we can demand admission as a state with renewed confidence and assurance that our prayers will be favorably heard. The democratic and populist parties, the unionists and fusionists are practically dead. We are now together in the grand republican party. Let us stay together.

If we do we will carry the territory in 1909 by 19,000 majority. To do this however, we must be honest and earnest workers. The time has passed when traitorous republicans should be recognized. We have done well in spite of them at this election.

If we are to reap the fruits of our labor and gain additional victories we must stand firmly united, not only against the common enemy, but even more so against insidious foes within, those who scratch one name on the republican ticket and vote and work for his opponent; those who for "personal reasons" vote and work against our nominee, and those political pharisees who claim to be republicans and better than their party; each and all of these should be treated as enemies worse and more dangerous than the open democrat. Let us from this day until the close of the polls at the election of 1909 strive not only to sustain our present glorious record, but to improve it, and weed out from the party all those who do not heartily, honestly and faithfully support its principles and its nominees by their words and acts. To this great end we must organize now for the campaign of 1909. We have organization on paper, but it has been the custom heretofore for the territorial and county committees to disband immediately after election, and do nothing until the nominating convention meets two years thereafter, when new committees are appointed, and in the brief time of the campaign are expected to make a new organization. This is all wrong and productive of much loss of valuable time.

The congressional committee is in session all the time, and its work is being done effectively between the elections than during the campaign. This should be our plan. The present committees should see to the more perfect organization in their counties and precincts and report to the members of the territorial committee from time to time what they have done and are doing. The precinct is the basis of the organization from which all good results come, and on which we must depend for success. See that the precinct organization is in strong, true hands and the result is secured.

Again congratulating you upon your remarkable victory in 1908, and confidently predicting a greater in 1909, we are your faithful servants.

JOHN S. CLARK, Chairman.

Assistant Secretary Ryan, who has been campaigning in Kansas and has returned to Washington, in speaking of the election there said: "Populism, in my opinion, has been completely wiped out. Most of the populists were with us in this election, and I think we will hold them. The rest may keep up a semblance of an organization or drift into the democratic camp, but populism as a force in politics has, I believe, passed away.

"I attribute our victory to three causes —the prosperity which the state has enjoyed under the present administration, the popularity of the president and the splendid manner in which the campaign was managed. During the past year

Kansas has been remarkably prosperous.

Compared with the conditions which existed under the last administration, we are enjoying marvellously good times.

The farmers particularly have been benefited by the changed conditions. Property has increased, and the people are cheerful and contented. The people of California are very much pleased with the results of the election.

"A VICTORY FOR LABOR.

Carlinville, Ill., Nov. 12. — The differences between the Chicago-Virgin Coal company and the Virgin and Auburn and the striking miners have been settled, and the strike will soon be in operation. The company agreed to pay the state scale of 40 cents per ton, but did not want to test down the rock. Finally the company accepted the offer of the miners that they would take it down and charge the company nothing for the labor.

Adjutant-General Rose, of Springfield, notified Sheriff Davenport that the remaining troops guarding the Chicago-

Virgin Coal company's shaft at Virgin would be removed to day.

Readers of the press reports remember that the Virgin miners' strike has been one of the dearest labor struggles in the country. The coal company sought to reduce the scale of wages agreed to by

THIS TERRITORY REDEEMED.

Hon. T. A. Catron's speech at Santa Fe Republican Ratification Meeting.

A TRUE DELEGATE ELECTED.

Mr. Chairman, ladies and fellow citizens—As I understand, this gathering has been called to express our sentiments in regard to the victory which has recently been achieved only in this territory, but also in the territory at large. It is always agreeable, it is always pleasant for us to know that the people of the country and of the territory agree with us in our views as to political government, and as to what we desire in regard to the future welfare of our country. For the last seven or eight days—I may say ten days—since the county convention was held, it has been my aim, as well as that of many of our fellow citizens, to travel through this county, and through this territory, advocating the cause of protection, advocating the cause of a sound money standard throughout the government of the United States, advocating every principle that the republican party maintains, from President McKinley to the lowest constable in the United States, and I said before, it is exceedingly pleasant to know that the people of this territory, and this country, not only agree with me and my other fellow citizens, who contend for office, but that they agree with that party which carried its banner to victory two years ago and placed in the presidential chair, the greatest of modern statesmen, William McKinley. (Applause.)

It is pleasant to me to know that you all agree with me, and with that great party in its principles of protection to American industries and American labor. We are the party which has advocated protection to the industries of this country; we are the party which has sought to raise the price of every product of this land; we are party which has sought to increase the wages of every laborer man throughout the country (Long and continued applause.)

WE LOOK TO THE LABORING MAN

We look to the producer; we look to the capitalist throughout this broad country, from Maine to California, from British America to the Gulf of Mexico, to stand by the principles which we have maintained. Two years ago—a little more—the republican party assembled in convention at St. Louis in the state of Missouri, for the purpose of nominating a president, and for the purpose of declaring the principles on which that party should carry on its campaign, and for which that party should advocate the election of William McKinley. Its principles were adopted in its behalf and those principles consisted, in the main, of two single things: One was protection to American industries and American labor; the other was the adoption of a single standard for the money of this land, so that whatever money prevailed it would be determined by a single standard. That is, if you had gold, if you had silver; if you had paper money, the gold of this country would be the standard, and the paper dollar and the silver dollar should be worth just as much as a gold dollar wherever you went throughout the land. We favor the single standard; we favor gold; we favor silver; we favor paper money; but every dollar must be equal to every other dollar. We ask to get all the money we can; we wish to go in the mines and dig it out; we wish to manufacture it when we can do so legitimately; but we wish something as a standard by which to be governed, so that when we fix a standard and make a dollar in silver, or a dollar in paper, we say that it will be worth just as much.

AS A DOLLAR IN GOLD.

We don't desire to advocate that silver shall not be coined as the democrats would have you believe. We wish to make it all into money, but we want it all to be equal in value, never to become one dollar less than another. We want it money, but every dollar must be equal to every other dollar. We ask to get all the money we can; we wish to go in the mines and dig it out; we wish to manufacture it when we can do so legitimately; but we wish something as a standard by which to be governed, so that when we fix a standard and make a dollar in silver, or a dollar in paper, we say that it will be worth just as much as a gold dollar wherever you went throughout the land. We favor the single standard; we favor gold; we favor silver; we favor paper money; but every dollar must be equal to every other dollar. We ask to get all the money we can; we wish to go in the mines and dig it out; we wish to manufacture it when we can do so legitimately; but we wish something as a standard by which to be governed, so that when we fix a standard and make a dollar in silver, or a dollar in paper, we say that it will be worth just as much as a gold dollar wherever you went throughout the land. We favor the single standard; we favor gold; we favor silver; we favor paper money; but every dollar must be equal to every other dollar. We ask to get all the money we can; we wish to go in the mines and dig it out; we wish to manufacture it when we can do so legitimately; but we wish something as a standard by which to be governed, so that when we fix a standard and make a dollar in silver, or a dollar in paper, we say that it will be worth just as much as a gold dollar wherever you went throughout the land.

WE PROTECT YOUR INTEREST.

But we protect your money; we protect your labor. The republican party is progressive; it is the party of advancement; it is the party of education; it is the party of equality; it seeks to raise every one to an equal plane with every other citizen, and as an evidence of that it makes every man's vote equal to every other man's vote. The wealthiest man in this land has but one vote; the poorest man in this land has fully one vote; these two votes stand side by side without preference for either, and with an equal right to vote, and that is the way with our dollar in money. Every dollar stands side by side, each one equal to the other, each one having an equal right. That, ladies and gentlemen, is one of the principles of the republican party; and I say that in this election you have ratified this great principle; you have adopted the principles of the republican party; you have declared that money shall be of one standard; that every dollar shall equal every other dollar.

You have declared in favor of the American against the foreigner, against the outsider. You have said that your products shall have a preference over that of other lands; your wages are greater than others; you declare that your laboring man shall be better than the foreigner; that you shall have better clothing; that you shall have more to eat, and of a better quality than the man in a foreign country; you have declared for prosperity and harm your throughout this entire land, and that is what you have met to tonight to ratify. You have met to RATIFY THE ELECTION OF PEDRO PEREZ, and the election of your county officers, but to go back to Pedro Perez. You have met to ratify your approval of the act of your fellow citizens as yourselves, and you have thrown in the face of your opponents the challenge that has been given out heretofore—to say that Pedro Perez stands not only the equal of Ferguson, but that he stands 10,000 times higher in the estimation of the people, that he stands as a man who will never commit a fraud or misrepresentation. He stands as a man who will know how to represent what he needs to represent for your interest; he will know how to maintain his position on the floor of congress; he knows what you want, and knows where to go to get it; he knows when and how to ask for it, and I say to you that his opponent and his friends, who have undertaken to ridicule Perez, say that he does not know enough to go into the halls of congress, cannot face the public any more in this land and say that they are entitled to consideration for the frauds or misrepresentations which they have set before the people. What right had he to go to congress? What had he done for you? In their platform they say that he has attempted to do various things, but where are they? As I said before, we want a candidate who is able to do.

NOT ONE WHO ONLY WANTS TO DO.

Not one who was willing to offer to do, but one who could walk in the halls of congress and say, "I am the representative of the people of New Mexico; I know their interests and rights; I know what from dog had I! I know first class wool; I know that the people of my territory possess first class wool; I know that the protection that is given to first class wool is 11 cents, and that protects the wool of I know; I know that third-class wool is but half that of first class wool; I know that certain articles that we do not produce here, and I don't care whether you put a duty on it or not. Give me a duty to protect my own people; to protect what I have and what my people have, and I will be satisfied." He will not ask for time, and before his time expires permit some other member to absorb it and lose it without an opportunity to defend himself. Pedro Perez, as I said before, will know enough to rise from his seat in congress when another member interrupts him, and say: "Mr. Speaker, I am entitled to the floor, and that gentleman is not; I am entitled to talk and represent my people, and that gentleman is not; I am entitled to advance my cause, and that gentleman has no right to take it away from me. But that is what Ferguson allowed to be done with him, and yet the democratic party comes before you and say that he ought to be sent back to congress, and say that Pedro Perez is not competent to appear in congress. Do you believe that? If you do, then you believe yourself unworthy to the right of suffrage. You will not be worthy to have a representative in the house of congress. Are you willing to place yourselves in that position? I believe not, because the voice of the people of this territory yesterday was raised up, declaring that the people of New Mexico had had enough of democracy, and would no longer submit to be represented by such a man.

INCOMPETENT AS THEY HAD.

They have determined to send one of their own people; an intelligent man; a business man; a man who knows what he is entitled to; a man who can maintain himself and has the courage to say so, and the intelligence to do it. You have done something by your voice yesterday, and I tell you by 2,000 majority you have said that Pedro Perez is your representative, and that Ferguson is incompetent to represent you. You have said to ratify that cause; it is your duty to do it; it is your duty to go home and teach your children what you have done; teach the principles of the republican party; teach harmony; talk to your brethren; talk among yourselves; instruct your wives and daughters; instruct every child in this land. Don't let's have any more such farces as have been perpetrated the last two years. Let us have integrity; let us have a fair understanding. Let us protect our rights; be American citizens, and let us continue Pedro Perez in his office as long as he shows that he is the friend of the people; that he is the friend of your interests; and that he favors the general welfare of this community. Send a man there, as you have sent him, so that he may say that you are a people who are intelligent; a people of integrity, and understanding, one who will be able to ask for your rights in congress, and will in the end place you by the side of the other great states of this Union.

AN ANOTHER STAR TO ADD

That great flag which floats throughout this broad land. (Applause.) That flag which your citizens have so bravely placed upon the walls of Santiago, and borne to victory, and which every American citizen rejoices and looks upon to adore and actually worship. (Applause.) Teach your children to adore that flag. The republican party, when it adopted its platform in this house for the county convention, adopted the American flag as its emblem. Let that flag be your emblem wherever you go—in your house, in the field where you work; when you are on the plains following your labor there; when in the mines digging for the gold, silver and other metals, defend that emblem and let no infamous rooster ever cover it. (Long and loud cheering.) Fellow-citizens, ladies and gentlemen—You have gone through a campaign where the republican party has been the party of honor; where it has presented a pure and honest principle; where it has maintained the principle which it has enunciated by fairness and candor. What have been the principles of the opposite party? They have been falsehood, misrepresentation, deceit. They have come before you saying that they are able to do much for your people; that their delegate has meant to do numerous things, and that he is entitled to credit. I would like to know what credit! Where is the right in principle? Where was the object attained, for which they are entitled to any credit? Mr. Ferguson obtained at the hands of the government, salary and mileage to the amount of $12,000 for two years' service; he would look as though that were sufficient to pay him to look after the interests of his constituents, their welfare, and seek to impose no further burden upon them.

BUT WHAT DID FERGUSON DO?

He passed an act of congress in such a manner that you cannot get the benefit of it until you put your hands in your pockets and pay to federal officials $17,000, let them be gold, silver or paper. We know they are the same dollars, because this great government, directed by the republican party, a party of honor, says that those dollars shall be equal to the dollars of the other. He says, pay $17,000 to these officials, and after this date he, and it is hereby fixed at $100 per month until further order of the council.
