PEDRO PEREA will have majorities in eleven of the eighteen counties of the territory.

SINCE the first of the year silver has been exported from this country to the extent of $34,660,243.

It is estimated that more than $5,000,000 worth of cotton was destroyed by the recent storms in the south.

SPANISH officials are still collecting customs at nearly all the Cuban ports. This agreeable occupation will be ended December 1.

It is estimated in Madrid that the campaign in Cuba and the Philippines have cost Spain a total of 3,000,000,000 pesetas, or about $600,000,000.

GERMANY had 578 labor strikes in 1907, in which 63,119 persons participated, and discontent among working classes is reported to be increasing all the time.

THE merchants of Albuquerque are receiving large stocks of fall and winter goods. Every day large shipments are received by our enterprising business men.

ONE of the results of the survey of the mouth of the Yukon river this summer by Captain Pratt of the Coast and Geological Survey is to add an area of 2600 square miles to Uncle Sam's domains.

FOUR years ago this country gave the republican candidate for delegate 1070 majority. The republicans are making every effort to give Mr. Perea an increased majority over that of four years ago.

ROBERT P. PORTER, who was sent to Cuba by the president to investigate and report upon the trade conditions in the island, says that in these closing days of Spanish sovereignty in Cuba the customs service in Havana is simply an organized system of extortion and plunder. The Spanish officials are determined to get all they can out of it, and in their reckless greed to fill their own pockets they are imposing prohibitory levies on food which is actually necessary to save hundreds of helpless natives from the tortures of starvation.

ONE of the most sensible suggestions for the government of our conquered islands is that native regiments be formed under American officers and equipped as rapidly as possible for American armies of occupation. The plan has stood the test of experience in India and Egypt and is the only logical way of governing tropical countries, whose people can not be trusted with self government and yet should have some share in government.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON's address at the jubilee thanksgiving services at Chicago contained one of the most eloquent tributes ever made to the loyalty and valor of the colored race, and at the same time was one of the most powerful appeals for justice to a race which has always chosen the better part.

THE democratic papers are actually claiming that Delegate Ferguson secured the tariff on wool. The records of congress show that the democrats solidly opposed the tariff law, and that a congressman named Dinghy introduced the bill.

THE republican primaries will be held in this city on Saturday evening.

REPUBLICAN SUCCESS ASSURED.
Three weeks from today the election occurs, and in that time should the campaign continue to develop as many favorable conditions for the republicans as the past three weeks have, the result of counting the votes will be a decided republican affair, says the New Mexican.

A few months ago many people in the territory were willing to concede the election of the democratic candidate for delegate to congress, and that the legislature was considered in doubt. But recent developments have changed all this, and there is no longer any question concerning the election of Hon. Pedro Perea and a majority of the members of the 33d legislative assembly by the republicans. There are many reasons for the changes which have taken place so rapidly, and all of them are natural. In the first place, while openly decrying a race issue, the democrats were working that dodge on the underground as assiduously. When that subterfuge was first started on its rounds the effect was quite apparent. But when the republican convention in Albuquerque nominated Mr. Perea, a native citizen of the territory, a friend of the people, and a man in whom nine out of every ten persons in New Mexico place implicit confidence, the deception practiced by the democrats became so plain to everyone that the revelation of public sentiment carried many persons, who had openly declared themselves for Mr. Ferguson, into the republican party.

Then the attitude of the democratic party on protection to wool is becoming better understood every day. The claim that the sheep men of New Mexico are indebted to a democratic delegate for the present tariff upon wool would no doubt be more effective, but the record of the democratic party on the tariff question is too well known for very many voters to be deceived by any such tommyrot. The comparisons which are being made of prices received for sheep and cattle and farm produce under democratic and republican administrations have been a dampener on the present protectionists in the democratic ranks in the territory. Most people can tell the difference between wool and black, even though they may be blind so far as other colors are concerned.

In legislative and county matters the charges have been as great as those in the campaign for delegate, for obvious reasons. County matters must be honestly and fairly administered by what ever party is in power, in order to retain the respect and confidence of the people, and in some instances in New Mexico it is notorious that democratic and union party officials have openly violated the law under the excuse that the laws are wrong, and therefore not to be regarded. When county officials set themselves up as law makers (and unmakers) it is time for a change, and if the reports coming from the counties where these practices are to be relied upon, there will be a change the moment the voters get a whack at the offending party.

It is also becoming thoroughly understood that the best interests of the territory demand the election of a republican legislature. Statehood is desired, outside capital is needed to develop the resources of New Mexico, and to secure the needed and desired results confidence must be established in the territory and its people. The vagaries of the democratic party are too well known for capital and members of congress to give much faith in a territory which desires a democratic legislature.

Taking everything in consideration the prospects for the success of the republicans are very assuring, and no complaint can be made.

It Hangs On
If it was only health, we might let it go. But it is a cough. One cold no sooner passes off before another comes. But it's the same old cough all the time. And it's the same old story, too. There is first the cold, then the cough, then the pneumonia or consumption with the long sickness, and life trembling in the balance.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral
loosens the grasp of your cough. The congestion of the throat and lungs is removed; all inflammation is subdued; the parts are put perfectly at rest and the cough drops away. It has no disconcerting effects on which to hang.

Remarkable Rescue.
Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. She dragged King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued to use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now she has her own housework and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this great discovery at J. H. O'GILLY, 34 N. 3rd street. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

Died From His Injuries.
Arthur Stillman, the man who fell down the stairs at the Metropolitan rooming house yesterday forenoon, died at 6 o'clock last night from his injuries. It is evident that he received internal as well as external injuries in his fall. He was in such an intoxicated condition, when the accident happened that it was impossible to do anything for him.

While Stillman claimed at first that someone had knocked him down the stairs, he afterwards expressed doubts about the matter. The officers made a thorough investigation and are convinced from all the circumstances that he simply fell down.

Efforts were made to learn from Stillman facts about himself and the whereabouts of his family but his talk was so incoherent that it is doubtful that he gave any reliable information. He said he was a painter by trade and had a sister, Mrs. John Jones, living on Tremont street in Boston. Marshal McMillan has written the chief of police of Boston, to learn if there is any truth in the last statement. The body was buried by the city to-day.
