H. O. BURSUM NOMINATED FOR GOVERNOR

SOCORRO COUNTY CANDIDATE WINS BY AN OVERWHELMING MAJORITY OVER ROMERO

FIRST BALLOT RESULTS IN VOTE OF 228 TO 75; AND CHOICE IS MADE UNANIMOUS

Republican State Convention Adopts Platform Declaring Against Blue Ballot Amendment to Constitution, Favoring Corrupt Practices Act, Publicity of Campaign Expenditures, Equal Taxation, Freedom of the Ballot; Balance of State Ticket to Be Named Today; Prince and Rodey Active Candidates for Congressional Berths, With Curry and Ely Also in Race; Big Pow-Wow Expected to Adjourn This Evening.

[Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.]
Las Vegas, N. M., Sept. 29.—H. O. Bursum of Socorro county, was at an early hour this morning nominated as the republican candidate for governor of New Mexico by a vote of 228 to 75 for Secundino Romero, of San Miguel county.
Mr. Bursum was nominated by John E. Griffith of Socorro. When the role of counties was called, Bernalillo county, first on the roll, yielded to Socorro, and Mr. Griffith arose to place the name of Mr. Bursum before the convention. He paid an eloquent tribute to ex-Governor Otero, to Secretary Nathan Davis and to Secundino Romero, and then announced H. O. Bursum as the choice of Socorro county for the nomination of first governor of the state of New Mexico. The mention of Mr. Bursum's name evoked a wild outbreak of applause, which was a forerunner of the overwhelming majority he was to receive.
Cofax county, next on the roll, yielded to San Miguel and O. A. Larragoite placed in nomination Secundino Romero, a native son of San Miguel. The ovation which greeted the mention of Mr. Romero's name was almost as great as that accorded Mr. Bursum. Charles Springer of Cofax county, seconded the nomination of Mr. Romero. R. P. Barnes of Grant county, seconded the nomination of Mr. Bursum, referring to him as the man with the pipe.
Then as roll call proceeded, the chairman of the county delegations seconded the nomination of their choice. Guadalupe seconded the nomination of Mr. Romero; Luna went for Bursum; McKinley was for Bursum; Mora county lined up for Romero; Otero county for Bursum; Rio Arriba county for Bursum; Roosevelt for Bursum; Sandoval for Bursum; San Juan passed; San Miguel county voted Mr. Romero as its choice through Charles A. Spies, who made a ringing speech seconding Mr. Romero's nomination. Santa Fe lined up with Bursum. Torrance for Bursum, Valencia for Romero.
The vote by counties for Bursum was as follows:
Bernalillo, 25; Chaves, 10; Cofax, 9; Curry, 5; Dona Ana, 11; Eddy, 1; Grant, 10; Guadalupe, 1; Lincoln, 9; McKinley, 5; San Miguel, 1; Otero, 7; Quay, 11; Rio Arriba, 16; Roosevelt, 7; Sandoval, 10; San Juan, 4; Santa Fe, 47; Sierra, 5; Socorro, 17; Taos, 12; Valencia, 11; Luna, 3; Terrell, 8. Total, 228.
The vote by counties for Secundino Romero:
Cofax, 8; Guadalupe, 11; Mora, 13; San Miguel, 29; San Juan, 21; Taos, 11; Union, 7; San Juan, 2; Valencia, 11. Total, 75.
When the chairman of the convention announced the result of the balloting, Mr. Romero secured recognition and moved that the nomination of Mr. Bursum be made unanimous. The motion carried and the applause and cheering that followed shook the convention hall from foundation to roof, the demonstration lasting several minutes. When order was restored, a committee, appointed by the chairman, consisting of A. Gallegos, Don Eusebio Romero and Alexander Read, escorted Mr. Bursum to the platform. In his speech accepting the nomination, Mr. Bursum promised to stand firmly on the platform adopted by the convention; to work for the passage of a corrupt practices act; to the end that the use of money and paid workers at elections in New Mexico might be abolished. He pledged to work for the conservation of the public lands of the new state and to conduct a clean, honest and economical administration.
With the nomination of the gubernatorial candidate disposed of, the convention adjourned at 1 o'clock this morning until 10, at which time the nomination of the other state officers will be taken up. The convention expects to complete its labors by this evening and adjourn.

[Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.]
Las Vegas, N. M., Sept. 29.—When the convention was called to order at 5 o'clock this evening by Temporary Chairman L. Bradford Prince, the first order of business was the adoption of the report of the committee which had been appointed at the morning session. The report of the credentials committee, presented by Chairman Marcelino Ortiz of Santa Fe, was adopted after a few minor corrections had been made. The report shows that almost every delegate entitled to a seat was present, either in person or by proxy. The exception to this was in the Hubbell delegation from Bernalillo county, a considerable portion of which was represented by proxy. This is probably accounted for by the uncertainty as to which delegation was to be recognized by the convention and the members did not care to incur the expense of a trip to Las Vegas only to be sent home. The struggle between the rival delegations was renewed this afternoon before the committee on credentials, which decided that the Hubbell delegation was entitled to be seated. The fight for the credentials delegation was carried on before the credentials committee by Captain Glenwater and D. J. Leahy of San Miguel, both of whom made vigorous arguments in behalf of their contentions, but were outvoted by the committee by an overwhelming majority.
When the motion for the adoption of the kind of men who were elected to office in the driving out of the democratic party from New Mexico. In a more serious vein the speaker declared that the party in New Mexico was in a desperate situation and that the struggle to keep down the democracy. The speech of the president of the convention was met with a high pitch of enthusiasm, particularly when he made reference to the republican candidate for the governorship.

Permanent Chairman—Hon. Charles A. Spies.
Assistant Secretaries—Hon. J. F. Newkirk and Hon. Lorenzo Delgado.
Interpreter to the Chairman—Hon. Nestor Montoya and Hon. N. Segura.
Interpreter on the Floor—Hon. Blas Sanchez, Hon. Agustin Gallegos and Hon. Malachias Baca.

The following vice-chairmen were selected by the committee and extended an invitation to be seated on the platform: S. E. Davis, Jr., Manuel Pava, James E. Hunt, Colonel John Stein, J. V. Gallegos, Frank French, James Saterlee, Herbert W. Clark, E. A. Bush, C. C. Catron, Larkin Beck, B. F. Pankey, Trinidad Sena, Dr. Ambro, Robert P. Eryson, Meliton Gutierrez, Jose E. Arellano, Ismael Jaromillo, Phil C. Williams, Harry W. Kelly, E. H. Richardson, B. M. Sutherland, Manuel Montoya, W. C. Hawkins, Preciliano Ortiz, Marcelino Romero, E. P. Davies, J. A. Aragon, Mateo Lujan, Solomon Lujan, (Signed) W. D. MURRAY, Chairman.

Charles A. Spies, Chairman
Prolonged cheering greeted the permanent presiding officer when he was escorted to the platform. He thanked the delegates for the honor and made a brief, but somewhat witty speech, which was listened to with close attention, frequently being interrupted by applause. He congratulated the people of New Mexico on the attainment of statehood with all its privileges and especially that of participating in the re-election of President Taft. The speaker alluded in happy vein to the address of Temporary Chairman Prince, made earlier in the day, in which that gentleman had referred to New Mexico as the site of the Garden of Eden. To him, all of New Mexico, from Raton to El Paso, was a paradise. The devil, however, in the shape of the democratic party, had invaded this paradise and, as in the biblical narrative, the devil had raised some trouble, but peace and prosperity had prevailed in the land since the expulsion of the democratic devil some twenty years ago. Mr. Spies did not neglect the opportunity afforded him to pay a tribute to San Miguel county's candidate for governor and he likened Secundino Romero to the archangel Michael with flaming sword expelling Satan from paradise. The speaker based his analogy on a coincidence that on tomorrow, September 29, is Michaelmas, the feast day of the patron saint of San Miguel county. Mr. Spies, growing enthusiastic, detected a resemblance to angels in the faces of the delegates and at all events he was certain that they were

HARRIMAN LINES' ITALY'S ULTIMATUM TO TURKEY IS PROMPTLY REJECTED

FACE WORST STRIKE IN HISTORY
Thirty-Five Thousand Shopmen Will Walk Out Saturday to Enforce Demands for Recognition of Federation.

ROADS PREPARED FOR FIGHT TO A FINISH
Claim They Have Plenty of Men to Take Places Vacated; Stockades Enclose Shops on System.

[By Morning Journal Special Landed Wire.]
Chicago, Sept. 28.—At midnight the threatened strike against the Harriman Lines and the Illinois Central railroad has not been called off. Despite persistent reports that the strike would be called at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, reliable information indicates that the deliberations of labor officials must be continued over Sunday.
The presidents of four or five international labor unions involved are reported to have agreed late tonight to issue the strike order tomorrow. When it is said President James O'Connell of the machinists union backed O'Connell, who is attending at Davenport, Ill., is reported to have urged delay until Monday.
Following O'Connell's decision, it was suggested that the strike might be called on the afternoon of Monday, later he extended to the Illinois Central. This point had not been settled.

Chicago, Sept. 28.—A strike on all the Harriman Lines, involving more than 35,000 shopmen, is inevitable, according to the five presidents of the international unions to which most of the men belong.
The calling of the strike only awaits the word of the officials, who have not yet agreed on the hour. According to those officials the contemplated strike will determine to a great extent the future attitude of all railroads in their dealings with their employees.
The shopmen will strike, they say, not because of dissatisfaction with wages or conditions of labor, but to establish the newly organized federation of shop employees as the means of negotiating disputes between employers and employees. The railroad refuse to recognize the federation because, officials say, it would mean the placing of all operating affairs in the hands of the federation and would turn railroad management into chaos.
The strike would be a general one, when Julius Kruttschnitt, vice-president of the Harriman Lines, reiterated the determination of his roads not to meet with the federation. J. W. Kline, president of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, commented on this decision to the other union heads and then authorized a statement that a strike would be called as soon as the day and hour could be agreed upon. Late in the evening that the strike would be called was said to be a strike Saturday, not later than noon.
Together with talk of an immediate strike came the news from New York of the reorganization of the Harriman Lines, moving Mr. Kruttschnitt to New York, making him a member of the board of directors and apparently extending his power.
Mr. Kruttschnitt, in refusing to treat with the men, said that they had no grievances and intimated that the unions had sought to end harmonious relations.

The roads, it is said, are in good shape to withstand a prolonged strike. Unions say they have been employing men in all the centers of population for months and have a long list of men ready to take their places. Disasters from Chicago state that most of the big railroad shops are enclosed by stockades.
Possible action of the railroads is said to be indicated by the Illinois Central's action at Memphis, Tenn., yesterday in obtaining a federal injunction restraining striking clerks from interfering with interstate commerce, through picketing or other means.
Five unions will be affected directly by a strike order—the machinists, the blacksmiths and helpers, the boiler-makers, the sheet metal workers and the carmen. In addition, allied trades, the steamfitters, painters, copper and brass workers, and clerks may go out. All of these unions have voted in favor of a strike as an alternative to the refusal of the railroad to recognize the federation.
The strike vote was taken some months ago, but action was delayed because of the refusal of the machinists to compromise the strike. This objection was removed in Davenport, Ill., this week when the machinists voted to place all power in the hands of their international officers.
The situation is more complicated by labor struggles already in existence. Throughout the south, clerks and freight handlers have been out for a week. The Missouri, Kansas & Texas carmen are striking in the southwest. Today, the New Orleans

BUSINESS IS PARALYZED
POPULACE PANIC STRICKEN
Greatest Fear That Arabs Will Rise Against Italians; Fleet Ready to Begin Bombardment.
[By Morning Journal Special Landed Wire.]
London, Sept. 28.—Italy's warships are before Tripoli and Italy's ultimatum is in the hands of the Turkish government. Only a few hours will elapse before Turkey must make her reply.
A late dispatch from Constantinople gives the report that Turkey has rejected the Italian demands.
Dispatches from Rome indicate that such an answer would not be a surprise. Therefore, Italy is making preparations to despatch warships and troops to that portion of the Turkish empire which she now demands a protectorate.
The Turkish authorities in Tripoli so far have maintained order, but there is a veritable panic among foreigners.
The Italian government is backed by the newspapers of the country, but the British press severely has arraigned Italy for what it terms "precipitate action." Germany, which has been interested in behalf of Turkey for a powerful settlement so far has failed to make progress, and some of the German papers are bitter in their denunciation of Italy's methods.
The latest dispatches make no mention of the landing of Italian troops, which Turkish officials declare must be accepted as the beginning of hostilities.
The Turkish steamer Derna, which yesterday entered Tripoli harbor and landed men and ammunition is said to be one of a number of Turkish ports dispatched to that port. Four more Turkish steamers with arms and ammunition are expected to arrive at Tripoli at any moment, but it is doubtful if the Italian warships will permit them to pass through the lines.
Constantinople, Sept. 28.—Italy has presented her ultimatum, demanding an answer within twenty-four hours. She will accept only the immediate evacuation of Tripoli and Benghazi.
When it became known that Italy had granted a time limit of only twenty-four hours in which to enable the Turkish government to instruct the authorities at Tripoli and Benghazi to allow Italian landing, there was consternation in public and official circles and strong denunciation of Italy's methods.
The Italian charge presented the ultimatum to the consular reception to the foreign representatives at the foreign office. The grand vizier immediately went to the palace, where the ministers were summoned in council.
At 3:45 p. m., it is reported that the Turkish government has decided to reject the Italian demands embodied in the ultimatum and has addressed an explanatory communication to the powers.
CHURCH SHOWS INTEREST IN AID OF GOVERNMENT
Cham, Switzerland, Sept. 28.—All dispatches reaching here from Rome indicate that the energetic action of the Italian government in the Tripoli affair is raising manifestations of patriotism everywhere.
The pope is showing great interest in the preparations for the expedition and has ordered a propaganda for the purpose of attracting missionaries to new fields of activity. In favor of the Italian plans considering these plans as offering advantages for the spread of Catholicism in North Africa.
While the general strike attempted throughout Italy continues to be a failure, especially in the large towns, the extremists among the agitators are raising excesses in small centers.
Between Ancona and Forli, Italy, telegraph poles were torn down and placed across the railroad tracks to slow their traffic. In favor of the Italian plans considering these plans as offering advantages for the spread of Catholicism in North Africa.
In some places, as at Ferrara, the excesses have caused a reaction in the towns, especially in the large towns, where the police have been ordered to restore order. The agitators are raising excesses in small centers.
At Florence the shopkeepers determined to resist the extremists, who had insisted that the shops be closed. The shopkeepers with their employees, armed with sticks and led by bands, attacked the strikers, who in return smashed the shop windows.
Italy Has No Easy Task.
Paris, Sept. 28.—A diplomat well acquainted with Tripoli declares that if Turkey decides to resist, Italy will have no easy task. Tripoli, which is not unpopulated, does not possess roads of fortifications, and her people are only armed with obsolete arms, but says the diplomat, the whole fanatical population would arise against invaders.
ITALIAN FLEET MAKING DEMONSTRATION OFF COAST
Tripoli, Sept. 28.—The Italian fleet

is making demonstrations off the coast, but has not yet attempted to land. A vessel has been seen sailing the coast to prevent the Turkish from landing arms and men. At last night's session, the committee reported that the Turkish authorities are doing their utmost to maintain order, but there is an undercurrent of Greek alarm. Turkish troops are patrolling the coast day and night. The most threatening danger is that the Greeks may rise against the Italians. The departure of many Europeans has intensified the feeling of the Greeks against the Italians.

NO AMERICAN DEMONSTRATION LIKELY.
Washington, Sept. 28.—The navy department has no present intention of dispatching any American warships to the Mediterranean in addition to the second cruiser division due at Gibraltar in a day or two. American from the scientific expedition which is working at the ruins in Crete, it is not known that there are any Americans in the entire province.

TURKEY WILL APPEAL TO CONSCIENCE OF POWERS.
Constantinople, Sept. 28.—(11 a. m.)—According to a local agency, the Turkish government has decided to appeal to the loyalty and good people of Italy but to reject the demand looking to the occupation of Tripoli. At the same time, the government will address notes to the great powers making an appeal for intervention. A meeting of secretaries of state last night adopted a resolution asking the government to intervene for the liberation of the easternmost provinces. The deputies manifested a very hostile feeling towards the cabinet.

E. MAHARAM

516-518 West Central

With the opening of our handsome new Cloak and Suit Store, the only establishment of its kind in town, we believe we are offering the ladies of Albuquerque a genuine style treat. Never once, we believe, have local ladies had an opportunity to inspect a stock of this kind, which was absolutely new and brought direct from the great fashion centers of the East.

And never before has the local public been offered such values in ladies' apparel of every kind.

Mr. Maharam spent six weeks during August and September in the New York markets, personally selecting the styles, the fabrics, the designs and colors. Being prepared to pay cash, he was able to buy practically at his own prices. As a result, he secured the very latest and best in every line at rock-bottom figures. He obtained, for instance, some sample coats and suits, which he is now able to offer at HALF THE PRICE ASKED AT OTHER STORES.

And there is another reason why we are able to sell up-to-date ladies' apparel at prices lower than others. Our store is out of the high rent district, and our expenses are proportionately less. You get the benefit.

Come in and inspect our beautiful new goods—these pretty Fall Suits, Coats, Skirts, Waists and all the dainty accessories. They are sure to delight you, and it is a real pleasure to us to show them. Come in Friday evening and get a pretty souvenir.

Robbery, Arson and Murder Charges Against Former Insurance Leader Dismissed at Los Angeles.

(By Morning Journal Special Lensed Wire.)
Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 28.—(11 a. m.)—Carol Elmer Pryce, former leader of Mexican insurgents in Lower California, will not have to face charges of robbery, arson and murder in Mexico.

At the conclusion of his hearing on the robbery accusation today, United States Commissioner Van Dine said that in his opinion Pryce had been a general revolution in Mexico and that Pryce's acts would be in furtherance of the revolution. Therefore, the commissioner said, the former insurance leader's offense was not extraditable.

The hearing on the same robbery charge, also was dismissed.

That left Pryce free from all charges, except that preferred against him by the United States government—child abduction of the academy's son. His bond was fixed at $2,500 on that account, and his attorney said that Pryce would be free to provide bail.

His hearing on the abduction charge will be held later.

NUMEROUS FAIR GENERAL REYES HAS LEFT MEXICO A SECOND TIME

More Fun and Greater Experiences Than Have Ever Before Graced the New Mexico Fair Are Planned.

One of the chief attractions of the fair this year will be the presence of the great exhibition train of the Santa Fe, which will arrive in Albuquerque on the afternoon of October 7. This train, which has been a great curiosity wherever it has traveled, will be composed of one of the largest engines in the world, which will be hooked up with one of the old locomotives of the system. There will also be in the train one each of every class of car that has been used since the Santa Fe was. One of the cars, the passenger car with open sides, will be used as a part of the train as well. Then the early class of freight and box cars will be shown with the present ones used by the system.

In connection with the art exhibits of the fair it is pleasing to note that the Charles H. H. company, will give through Mrs. H. S. H. of this city, a cash prize of $10 for the best ball to be made from "Boss Pitkin" H. H., and a prize of $5 for the second best ball of bread made from the same flour.

It is not generally known, but it is a fact, that the fair this year will be a larger one than ever before. It has been ascertained that $2,000,000 of exhibits of resources and amusement is being made. The conservative estimate of the fair is that it will be the largest ever held in the state.

The case of bringing the liquor here, which will be a first-class one, and show the people of the new state just how this thing business is done. There are the usual expenditures to be counted on besides.

The horse races, local fairs, all sorts of amusements, all in all, the features of this year will surpass any other year in the history of the fair.

Every member of the Boy Scouts is requested to assemble at the armory this afternoon at 4:15.

The many uses of GOLD DUST

If you were to use, for each kind of washing, cleaning, scouring and scrubbing, one of the so-called special preparations which are made, you would have an imposing and expensive array of chemicals, washing compounds, cleaning pastes, etc.

There is one cleaner that has the virtues of all and the faults of none. Use Gold Dust and you have no need of borax, ammonia, kerosene or naphtha.

Do not use borax, soap, ammonia, soda, kerosene or naphtha with GOLD DUST. GOLD DUST has all desirable cleaning qualities in a perfectly harmless and lasting form.

FOURTEEN MINERS ENOMBED BY CAVE-IN

Placer Workings at Dome Creek, Alaska, Scene of Probably Fatal Accident; Rescuers May Save Them.

(By Morning Journal Special Landed Wire.) Fairbanks, Alaska, Sept. 28.—A shaft 170 feet deep on the Shoshone placer mine on Dome Creek, Alaska, collapsed yesterday afternoon, imprisoning fourteen miners, mostly Russians. One hundred men are seeking to enter the mine through an old shaft, 500 feet distant from the one that caused the cave-in. The old shaft is plugged with thirty feet of ice at the bottom. The rescuers are working in fifteen minute shifts. There is a possibility that the inter-mediate shafts have not yet collapsed. The cave-in was probably fatal.

NEW MEXICO FIELD NEEDS HUSTLING MINISTERS

Superintendent of English Mission Scores Those Who Loaf in Report to Annual Conference; Big Assemblage Opens

TODAY'S SESSION.
8:30 a. m.—Devotions, Rev. C. E. Lindquist, Nara Vista.
9 a. m.—Session of the Conference.
11 a. m.—Address by Bishop William A. Quayle.
2 p. m.—Business session of the Spanish mission conference.
2:30 p. m.—Meeting of Spanish Lay Electoral conference, M. E. church, Bernal.
3 p. m.—Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary societies' anniversary.
8 p. m.—Lecture, "Shylock and David," Bishop William A. Quayle, B. D., LL. D. This lecture is given by and for the Epworth League of the church.

In giving his annual report to the bishop and conference of the New Mexico English Mission yesterday afternoon, Rev. S. Alonso Bright, superintendent of the mission, went on record unambiguously as being opposed to the employment in the conference of those who do not appreciate the responsibility of the work, but rather look upon New Mexico as a field where a rest may be obtained until something better shows up. This according to the speaker, is opposed absolutely to the fundamental principle of the Methodist Episcopal church, which from the organization of the church has insisted that the men called upon to preach the gospel are sent to the field and must labor there for the harvest. "We suffer," said Dr. Bright, "from those who simply use New Mexico as a resting place until something better opens, and while I sympathize with the brethren in their hardships, the loneliness and other features of the work not attractive of altogether pleasant, yet I cannot risk myself of the early impression that we Methodist preachers are men under orders and that these orders are ordinarily as kindly as the nature of the work will permit, but when they are given it is ours to obey."

The report of the superintendent which was the most important feature of the session of the conference yesterday, was a rather voluminous affair, giving a resume of the work over the entire state, its present condition and future prospects.

In common with many other superintendents who have served the New Mexico English Mission in years past, Dr. Bright is emphatically of the opinion that the territory rightfully belongs to the Methodist Episcopal church, even to El Paso, Texas; and that the wealth of this monster of organization should be poured in here to assist the pioneer preachers in possessing the land.

The report further showed that much new work had been started during the year, notably in southern New Mexico. It shows that five of the twenty-one stations in the conference are self-supporting, Albuquerque leading the list as the largest church in the conference, followed closely by Las Vegas, Roswell, Raton and El Paso. A large increase in the membership within the bounds of the conference was reported.

Following the report of Superintendent Bright, the characters of the preachers were passed. As the roll was called, each of the ministers present arose to his feet, gave a resume of his report and his character was passed for another year.

The following committees and boards were announced: Foreign missions, Ed. Leffertson, B. E. Summers, home missions and church extension, Charles L. Dickey and E. L. Baker; education, Addie Albino, E. C. Anderson; resolutions, Henry Van Valkenburg, G. E. McCarger; temperance, N. S. Stockland, L. P. Athey; Bible course, P. Lucas, T. A. Windsor; periodicals, C. O. Beckman, C. H. Roderick; public press, Central Advocate, C. E. Lindquist, California Christian Advocate, J. M. Shimer; local press, C. J. Dickey and E. L. Baker; auditing committee, E. C. Anderson and C. J. Dickey; appointment of superintendents, C. E. Beckman, M. O. Stockland, Ed. Leffertson, R. E. Summers, Monvire, P. Lucas; collecting book accounts, E. L. Baker; Epworth leagues, Henry Van Valkenburg, Bernard Gibbs, C. J. Dickey; Sunday schools, C. E. Lindquist, Frank Whiting and J. M. Shimer.

Rev. J. I. Seder, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league for New Mexico, was introduced to the conference, and told of the plans of the league for the coming year, campaign, and of one work of that organization during the past year.

The conference then adjourned until a few minutes after 11 o'clock yesterday morning. Bishop W. A. Quayle, who had just arrived from the east, opened the twenty-seventh annual session of the New Mexico English Mission conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, in the Land Avenue church in this city, with a joint sacramental service, which was participated in by both the members of the English and Spanish missions. The bishop was assisted in the service by Rev. Dr. S. Alonso Bright, Thomas M. Harwood, and Leander Fernandez. The roll of the Spanish mission conference was then called and the organization of that body proceeded with. Following this an adjournment was taken and shortly after the roll of the English mission was called, the following preachers answering to their names: Henry Van Valkenburg, Roswell; C. F. Lucas, Tucuman; C. O. Beckman, Albuquerque; C. J. Dickey, Raton; Ed. Leffertson, Alamogordo; T. A. Windsor, Estancia; E. L. Baker, French; D. P. Summers, Santa Fe. The following transfers were received from other conferences and were presented to the body: S. Alonso Bright, D. D., Kansas conference, superintendent of the mission; Frank Whiting, from the Western Iowa conference, stationed at Santa Rosa; Cyrus E. Lindquist, from the Eastern Swedish conference of Massachusetts, stationed at Nara Vista; M. O. Stockland, Northern Minnesota conference, stationed at Silver City; Bernard Gibbs, from the Southern California conference, stationed at El Paso; L. P. Athey, from the Oklahoma territory, stationed at Belfer.

The conference then organized with the following officers: E. C. Anderson

DEMOCRATS HOLD A CONVENTION IN SANDOVAL

Delegates Named to Santa Fe Meet and Full Ticket Will Go Into Field; Republican Convention Real Rough House.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal) Bernalillo, N. M., Sept. 28.—Significant of the extent to which discontent and disaffection has grown in Sandoval county under boss rule, is the fact that not only did the democrats of the county hold a well-attended and enthusiastic convention here today, naming two delegates to the Santa Fe convention, but they decided to put a full county ticket in the field, finding plenty of available timber for such a ticket. The split between the two republican factions is so serious that the democrats count on enlisting enough votes to control the situation.

Luciano Mondragon and John W. Sullivan were named as delegates to the state convention and a county central committee was organized with Mondragon as chairman. The committee consists of one man from each precinct and six at large.

The convention was attended by a large number of deeply interested spectators. It is believed that the democratic ticket will pull between 400 and 500 votes, and the mere fact that a democratic ticket is to be placed in the field at all is significant of changing conditions in the county of Sandoval. Attorney Isaac Barth of Albuquerque, made a speech to the convention.

A Real Rough House.

Some rather strenuous fist fights here, held a few days ago, many of the delegates it is said, carrying guns and two nephews beating up an uncle to such an extent that he will be incapacitated for active service for some time to come. Spectators describe it as a knock-down and drag-out affair all the way through and a spectacle of rowdiness which thoroughly disgusted most of the spectators.

BALLINGER OPPOSED TO CENTRALIZED CONTROL

Former Interior Secretary Talks on "The Patronage of Bureaucratic Government in America."

(By Morning Journal Special Landed Wire.) Denver, Sept. 28.—In an address on "The Patronage of Bureaucratic Government in America," delivered before the Public Lands convention here tonight, former Secretary of the Interior, Richard A. Ballinger, aligned himself with the opponents of further centralization of the control of public lands in a federal bureau and won the applause of the advocates of state control of the public domain, who the developments of today, the opening of the convention, clearly indicate, are in control of the meeting.

Interest tonight is centered, in view of the apparent sentiment of the majority, in what President Taft, who is to address the convention next Tuesday, will have to say to the delegates.

The temper of the convention was made plain by the reception given the remarks of Ballinger. He, of course, is a proponent of the federal system, and his remarks, following his election as temporary chairman this morning, "shall certain great resources of the western states, made a source of federal revenue."

"Federal certain great resources of the western states be placed under federal jurisdiction, over to the extent of federal police regulation?"

"Shall we, as citizens of the western states, be compelled to accept federal policies of the national government which in the development of the resources of our states widely differentiate as from the citizens of other states?"

These were the questions, Mr. Mondragon declared, for the convention to consider in a broad spirit, "as broad as a spirit as the most extreme conservationists could hold."

That resolutions answering these questions in a vigorous negative will be adopted by the convention practically is certain. Efforts to call a caucus of those in favor of federal control of public lands failed this morning from the lack of representation. The cause, the origin of Colorado Springs, by whom the caucus was called, admitted that the conservationists are undoubtedly in the minority but that, irrespective of what action is taken by the convention, the conservationists will organize for the purpose of advocating federal control of national resources as championed by former President Theodore Roosevelt and Gifford Pinchot. Definitely, he said, would depend on the speech of President Taft next Tuesday.

An attack upon the government reclamation service by Francis G. Tracy, of Carlsbad, N. M., was the feature of the afternoon session. Speaking on "Private Irrigation Enterprise Compared with Government Reclamation," Mr. Tracy charged that the men interested with the administration of the reclamation service "have always and entirely failed to appreciate the spirit and the purpose of the reclamation act, their own limitations and the limitations of the machinery they had to deal with."

"In my estimation, we have had round men in a good, big square hole and they have utterly failed and are constitutionally unable to fill it, because they are too small," the speaker declared.

"The government reclamation and private irrigation enterprises were intended to pull together, not apart," he continued. "Any other arrangement than this is an absurdity. Government irrigation was intended as a stimulus, a bait, if you will, for private capital."

It could not be in the passage of the reclamation act be expected to be more. The men who passed the act could not have believed that a great governmental system of irrigation, the expenditure of from three to five million dollars a year.

Quoting from the ninth annual report of the reclamation service, Mr. Tracy showed the results of the reclamation fund from 1901 to June 30, 1909, inclusive, to have been $55,129,408.33. Divided equally among the states affected by the reclamation act, this would give each state $2,550,000, covering the period of nine years, or $4,000,000 a year. Four hundred thousand a year for the whole country, the expenditure in a state like Colorado," the speaker exclaimed.

"Five years to build a two million dollar irrigation plant. Does this look as if any one intended to turn over the irrigation development of the west to the United States? Does it look as if the United States intends to compete with private capital for that development?"

A Grand Advantage to Working Men. J. A. Maple, 125 South Seventh street, St. Louis, Mo., says: "For years I suffered from weak kidneys and a severe bladder trouble. I learned of Foley Kidney Pills and their wonderful cures, so I began taking them, and sure enough, I had as good results as any I heard about. My backache left me and to one of my business, experienced, that alone is a great advantage. My kidneys acted free and normal, and that saved me a lot of misery. It is now a pleasure to work where it used to be a misery. Foley's Kidney Pills have cured me and have my highest praise."

M'NAMARA COUNSEL HOLD FRUITLESS CONFERENCE

Lawyers Representing Alleged Dynamiters Still Undecided as to Whether to Apply for a New Trial Judge.

(By Morning Journal Special Landed Wire.) Albany, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Governor Dix will send to the legislature tomorrow a special message urging the prompt repeal of the Frawley law under which the State Athletic commission was created to legalize boxing and other athletic exhibitions in this state. The governor said tonight that he signed the Frawley bill because he believed a proper regulation of sports under state supervision would tend to elevate. He now feels convinced that the law has not operated to accomplish that purpose.

OF INTEREST TO EVERY PATRIOTIC SON OF NEW MEXICO.

The hand-drawn, most elaborate and complete map of the State of New Mexico is now ready for sale. Around the new map we have reproduced, hand-drawn, the photographs of the delegates who framed the Constitution of the new state. Our map is the best, the most attractive and elegant ever made of any state when admitted into the Union. It is in itself a souvenir for the delegates and for any patriotic son of New Mexico. The size of the map is 46x50 inches, printed in several colors, at the top is a rampant American Eagle and at the bottom the Capitol of Santa Fe with the brilliant sun of the State rising behind the Capitol dome. It will be a historical monument for every office and home in the new State and every patriotic and public spirited citizen can hardly afford to be without one.

We have two different classes of maps.

ALBUQUERQUE WILL HAVE A MOTOR FIRE TRUCK

Council at Meeting Last Night Authorizes Bids on Up-to-Date Equipment; More Alarm Boxes.

A few more steps in the direction of equipping Albuquerque with a first class fire department, and an adequate fire alarm system were taken by the city council at a special session held last night, when the mayor and city clerk were authorized to enter into a contract with the Gamewell fire alarm company to install eighteen more fire alarm boxes in the city. This will give a system for a city of approximately 50,000 people and will last Albuquerque for several years to come.

The fire committee of the council was further authorized to advertise for bids on a six-cylinder motor triple fire combination wagon. These bids will be opened on November 6 next. A certified check of $500 will be deposited with each bid, while the city reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Aldermen Reddy, Wroth, Coen, Acme and Thomas were present at the meeting, which was presided over by Mayor Elder.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

George Vinton.
George Vinton, a young man who was brought here by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Vinton of Richmond, Ind., some two weeks ago, died yesterday morning in a local sanitarium. The body was prepared for burial and shipped back to the old home yesterday afternoon.

The parents of George Vinton are well-to-do residents of southern Indiana and had traveled extensively during the last year in search of a suitable climate to benefit the health of their son. They arrived here about two weeks ago and had just succeeded in obtaining a comfortable cottage and moved into it Wednesday. Early yesterday morning their plans were upset by the sudden death of their son, and they were then obliged to return east.

SWEENEY AWARDED $5,722.30; SUEED FOR $15,000

Amount of Damages Fixed By Jury Unsatisfactory to Plaintiff, and Another Trial Will Be Asked.

After deliberating on the case for a matter of four hours, the jury in the damage suit of Sweeney against the Dominion Construction company last night returned a verdict of $5,722.30, in favor of the plaintiff. The suit as filed, was for $15,000, and some objection to the amount fixed in the verdict was immediately manifested by the plaintiff, Judge Neil B. Field, who represents the plaintiff in the case, immediately gave notice that he would file a motion for a new trial.

After occupying the time of the Second district court for more than three days, the case of Sweeney against the Dominion Construction company, a suit for $15,000 damages alleged to be due the plaintiff because of the alleged wrongful acts of the defendant company, went to the jury yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock. The closing address was made to the jury by Neil B. Field, on behalf of the plaintiff.

Suit on Alleged Debt.
The court immediately summoned the remaining men on the regular venire of the term, and the empaneling of the jury in the case of Thomas Mack, administratrix of the estate of Anthony Mack, deceased, against Joe Badaracco, suit for the payment of an alleged debt of $200. Owing to the fact that the first jury was still out, the trial of this cause could not be proceeded with until a verdict in the Sweeney case was returned. Court adjourned with the jury still debating the case.

The Mack-Badaracco case arises over the alleged refusal of Badaracco to pay Thomas Mack, the wife of the deceased Anthony Mack, an amount alleged to be due the estate by reason of a transaction between Mack and Badaracco a few days prior to the death of Mack, which occurred about two years ago.

Mack was the owner of a saloon in the north part of town, which he sold to Badaracco and delivered it three days before he died. After his death his widow, who had been appointed administratrix of the estate, has been unable to collect the amount of $300 due.

M. E. Vigil represents the plaintiff, while T. N. Wilkerson appears for the defendant.

$5,000 Damage Suit Dismissed.
Owing to the non-appearance of Minnie Darnell at the call of her case for damages against the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway company, this cause was ordered dismissed at the cost of the plaintiff. Mrs. Darnell was suing to recover $5,000 damages for the loss of her husband by reason of an accident which occurred about two years ago and in which he was killed.

Judgment by Default.
Judgment by default was entered against Peter Vigil in behalf of Antonio Aranda for $50. This case was up on an appeal from a justice court of Valencia county.

To Continue in Federal Building.
It is quite likely that owing to the fact that the grand jury is not yet ready to make its second report for the term, that the civil docket will continue to be heard in the new court room of the federal building for the remainder of the week.

LITTLE GIRL GAVE HER PARENTS BAD FRIGHT

Sis. Franklin, 5-Year-Old Strayed From Home Last Evening; Found by Officer Hinds.

While the father was frantically hunting his little five-year-old daughter, little Sis Franklin was safe in the keeping of Officer Hinds, who was using all the means in his power to find her parents for her. The little girl, who was last seen from her home on South High street and had reached the corner of First and Copper, where she was found, crying as if her little heart would break by the policeman, at about 6:15.

After he had soothed her somewhat he found out that she knew some former neighbors who lived on Seventh street where her parents formerly lived. Taking her there he found that the little one was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Franklin, and that they had moved out on High street. The information was also obtained that the father of the lost girl worked at the electric light plant.

With this to go on, a telephone message was sent to the electric light plant asking for the place where the parents lived, and before the lapse of fifteen minutes more the little lost one was clasped in the arms of her weeping mother, who was almost prostrated.

CONSTITUTION ALL THAT COULD BE DESIRED

Bishop Quayle Praises New Mexico's Fundamental Law and Gives Prohibitionists Some Timely Advice.

Bishop William A. Quayle in addressing a large audience in the Lead Avenue Methodist church last night, expressed himself squarely in opposition to the initiative and referendum, in favor of the old-time convention for the nomination of candidates for office; he declared that woman suffrage would not hasten prohibition, and that the constitution leaves the field open for a square fight on prohibition and that nothing more should be desired by the prohibitionists.

Intentionally, at least, the bishop declared against the "blue ballot amendment," when he said, "what we want is a stable constitution, not only that can be tinkered by every tinkler who happens to want to tinker something."

Proceeding the address by Bishop Quayle the meeting of the New Mexico English mission of the Methodist Episcopal church was called to order by Rev. S. Alonso Bright, superintendent and after music by the congregation, Dr. Cooper, pastor of the Presbyterian church led in prayer.

Dr. Samuel E. Betts, of Oklahoma, a veteran temperance worker, was then introduced. He startled his audience by saying that he came into Albuquerque twenty-nine years ago with the construction crew of the Santa Fe road and the first sight that met his gaze, coming by where the White Elephant is now located, was three men hanging by the neck dead.

From the good doctor's description, Albuquerque evidently was a wild and woolly western town at that time. During two and a half years, he saw twenty-three men killed in Albuquerque and stood by aiding and abetting like a soldier.

Dr. Betts traced all, or nearly all, of the lynchings and murders to the saloon and to gambling.

He made a strong plea for the people of New Mexico to enlist in the fight.

Bishop Quayle, when he arose to speak, said he wished to have Dr. Harwood tell of his recent meeting with President Taft. Dr. Harwood told of being at a banquet with the president at the Grand Army Encampment, held recently at Rochester, N. Y., where wine flowed freely, but he and President Taft turned down their glasses.

Bishop Quayle then began his address, which held the audience for more than an hour. During the course of his remarks, Bishop Quayle said that he did not expect everybody to hold the same opinions he did about anything. He was opposed to speaking ex-cathedra and so spoke ex-Quayle. "I speak for myself."

"All virtues scientifically help the world and all vices hurt the world. The preacher is the pet antidote of those who favor vice."

"I favor good business, but I am not for it."
