THE ILLINOIS STRIKE.

The Negro Miners Leaving Pana for the South.

Chaplain of Oregon to be Tried by Court-martial.

Great Street Parade and Civic Celebration at Cheyenne, Wyoming.

CORONATION OF A QUEEN.

Pana, Ill., Sept. 5.—Guarded by four deputy sheriffs, Operators David J. Overholt and Louis Overholt went to Taylorville to-day to attend the injunction proceedings against the mine operators. No miners went over.

The Springfield negroes are sickening, as the sewerage from Pana runs into a pond near the mines. It is believed that the negro quarters will be a pest hole in a few days. Attorney Leforge thinks that further importation of negroes can be prevented by law. There is talk of an injunction forbidding the employment of deputy sheriffs.

Three negroes escaped the deputies yesterday and left the city. They told the miners' union officials that the negroes were anxious to return south.

Sheriff Colburn to-day began swearing in a hundred extra deputies for city patrol duty, with the consent of Mayor Powell.

The President at Patterson, New York, Sept. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. McKinley and Vice-President and Mrs. Hobart, who are at Patterson, went out to drive this morning. They returned to the vice-president's residence at 10:30. This afternoon United States Senators Thurston, of Nebraska; Foraker, of Ohio, and Burrows, of Michigan, are expected at the Hobart residence to have a conference with the president.

This evening dinner will be given in the president's hall.

Big Celebration, Cheyenne, Wyo., Sept. 5.—Conservative estimates of the number of visitors at the celebration to-day is 10,000. The parade, which embraced Buffalo Bill's west show, and rodeo, and all the business houses of the city never before been approached.

CROWNING A QUEEN.

King Queen of Holland Given a Royal Reception, Cheyenne, Sept. 5.—Beginning early crowds gathered on the streets, were lavishly decorated in anticipation of the entry of Queen Wilhelmina.

Under escort of the route of the queen were packed early. The route was lined by thirty-five gendarmes and eleven militiamen, the latter comprising ranks of 1893 and other retired to the number of 5,000.

The queen wore a large hat, and was escorted by a large number of gendarmes. The queen delivered a welcome, the queen drove to a house, where there was a scene of the most enthusiastic, everybody shouting and singing.

Coronation Ceremony, Cheyenne, Sept. 5.—Queen Wilhelmina and the queen's mother started from this city to-day for Amsterdam, where the ceremony of coronation will take place.

Immense crowds gave the young queen an enthusiastic ovation.

MIDDLE-OF-THE-ROAD.

Populists of This Territorial Hold a National Convention.

Chester, Sept. 5.—The national convention of the middle of the road populists met here to-day. In calling to order, J. A. Parker, of Louisville, secretary of the Reform Press association, strongly advocated independent action by the populists. Ignatius Donnelly was chosen temporary chairman, and made a radical speech denouncing General Wheeler and other leaders who had co-operated with the democrats. He referred to Cleveland as a traitor to the democratic party, and to Senator Butler as a traitor to the populist party. Donnelly advocated the reorganization of the populist party on the line of the middle-of-the-roaders, indicated at Omaha last June.

Death of a Soldier, Washington, Sept. 5.—The following was posted at the war department to-day: "Herman, Maine, Sept. 4.—Lieutenant Lucien Stacy died this morning. Stacy was one of the most celebrated football players of West Point."

Death from Heat, New York, Sept. 5.—Thirteen deaths due to heat, were reported between 1 a. m. and noon to-day.

TO BE TRIED.

Chaplain of the Battleship Oregon to be Tried by Court-martial.

Washington, Sept. 5.—Ever since the printed reports of the sensational utterances of Naval Chaplain Joseph P. McIntyre reached the navy department, the officials have been making inquiry into the accuracy of the newspaper publications.

The chaplain, who was attached to the Oregon and was on board when the battle of July 3 was fought, was accredited with savage criticism of Admiral Sampson, Capt. Evans and various other officers of the American fleet, insisting that to the officers and men of the Oregon alone belonged the victory achieved over the Spanish squadron. He was particularly severe on Captain Evans, whom he charged with cowardice. Apparently the navy department has satisfied itself in the belief that the chaplain really uttered the language ascribed him, for it ordered his trial by court-martial on charges to the prejudice of good order and discipline and unbecoming of an officer. The chaplain is now on leave of absence in Denver.

Baseball, Philadelphia—Baltimore, Philadelphia 4; ten innings. Chicago—Chicago 5, Pittsburgh 1. Brooklyn—New York 4, Brooklyn 2. Boston—Boston 2, Washington 1.

Baseball in Arkansas, Little Rock, Sept. 5.—The state election is in progress in Arkansas to-day. This being an off year, the total vote will hardly exceed 125,000. There is much excitement in several counties over local contests.

The Grand Encampment, Cincinnati, Sept. 5.—Commander-in-Chief G. A. H. came from Camp Alger to-day to attend the national encampment. The G. A. R. posts are arriving rapidly.

Bennett, returned to the city last Saturday night from Independence, Kansas. Ed. Bennett has made a great record for himself while away, and he will be heard from at the territorial fair.

SICK SOLDIERS.

Another Ship Load Arrives at Montauk From Santiago.

The Dreyfus Tragedy has Produced a Crisis in France.

Details of the Battle Between English Troops and the Dervishes.

SERIOUS ILLNESS OF BAYARD.

Montauk Point, L. I., Sept. 5.—The Transport Romaniaia which arrived yesterday morning with 600 troops from Santiago was the means of an additional test of the capacity of the hospital in the detention camp. Of 600 men on the Romaniaia about 200 were sick they had to be put in the hospital. The detention hospital will accommodate 450 men with eight tents to the tent, the normal capacity. By putting ten cots to each tent, 600 patients can be taken care of.

At the time of the arrival of the sick from the Romaniaia, the hospital already had nearly 600 patients. These 200 additional swelled the number to about 800—240 more than the hospital comfortably can hold. Although there are enough cots for 800 sick soldiers, there was not space under the canvas to place them. Therefore 250 patients were placed upon mattresses on the floor. The detention hospital needs about fifty more tents.

While the sick were being taken from the Romaniaia to the hospital two died.

BATTLE OF THE NILE, Heavy Loss of the Anglo-Egyptian Army at Omdurman.

London, Sept. 5.—Dispatches from Omdurman relate that the newspaper correspondent, Howard, was killed in a gallant charge of the Twenty first lancers. These troops were scouting, when they saw in the bush between 600 and 700 Dervishes. The lancers charged the enemy and suddenly found themselves face to face with 2,000 swordsmen, being outnumbered at least four to one. The Dervishes were hidden from view in a hollow. The lancers charged through them and reformed and charged back to recover the wounded, who were being savagely slaughtered.

The official list gives the number of British officers killed in the capture of Omdurman as two, while thirteen were wounded. Of the men 23 were killed and 99 wounded. The loss of the Egyptians was: Officers, one killed, eight wounded; men, twenty killed, 221 wounded.

Col. Rhodes, brother of Cecil Rhodes, was a correspondent of the London Times and was severely wounded.

Bayard's Illness, Dedham, Mass., Sept. 5.—It was announced at Kalsheim this morning that the condition of Thomas F. Bayard is critical. Physicians are in constant attendance.

DISGRACE OF FRANCE, The Dreyfus Case Exciting Deep Interest in That Republic.

Paris, Sept. 5.—Premier Brisson is reported as having said that all the members of the ministry are convinced of the guilt of Capt. Dreyfus, but the government must consider the change in public opinion since the suicide last week of Lieut. Col. Henry. Brisson expressed the view that it is the duty of the government to end the excitement which is paralyzing the best interests of the country. Newspapers point out that Cavagnac's resignation of the war portfolio has produced a painful impression in political circles, which take the ground that the new trial of the charges against the prisoner of Devil's island has become necessary.

When the cabinet met to-day minister of justice, M. Foin, informed his colleagues of a request for a revision of the verdict against her husband. The premier explained the reasons actuating General Sausser and Surin in declining the office of minister of war. He was now awaiting, he said, the decision of other generals to whom he had offered the portfolio.

Rev. Allen's Return, After an absence of three months, the pastor of the Congregational church, Rev. F. H. Allen, occupying the pulpit again yesterday morning and evening, being greeted by large audiences, delivering two splendid discourses.

The music was a special feature of both services, which was rendered by a quartet composed of Miss Maud Summers, Miss Butcher, Messrs. Stone and Hodgins, Miss Gilmore officiating at the organ. The selections were all very choice pieces of music, and were exceedingly well rendered, the voices of the quartet blending beautifully.

The church presented a very fine appearance after the thorough cleaning given it the past two weeks by some of the members. A beautiful piece of music work, with a curtain on top of it, placed in front of the choir on the platform, is a decided improvement, and adds a great deal to the appearance of the room. The seats also have been placed further apart, and are much more comfortable than heretofore.

From now on services will be held every Sunday morning and evening.

THE SUICIDE IDENTIFIED, Protest to H. Seth Fancher—Was Charged With Conspiracy From the Railroad.

The man who committed suicide last Saturday morning was identified Saturday evening as Seth Fancher. Many persons, who were acquainted with Mr. Fancher in his lifetime, viewed the remains during the day, but while they felt certain that they had seen the man some time or another they were unable to locate him. James H. Smith was the first man to break this chain of forgetfulness, and as soon as he declared the suicide was Seth Fancher, others instantly made the same declaration.

With this much learned, an investigation as to the cause of the act was at once commenced. Mrs. Fancher, the wife of the deceased, who lives on Lead avenue, between Second and Third streets, was notified of the death of her husband, but absolutely refused to believe that he had suicided.

She said her husband had come in from the Needles, where he had a position as blacksmith with the Santa Fe Pacific, on delayed No. 2 Saturday morning, and arrived home at about 4 o'clock. He told her that there was a detective pursuing him, who had a warrant for his arrest and that he was charged with stealing some blacksmith tools from the company. He left the house at 5 o'clock so as not to be there when the detective arrived. Before leaving, however, he handed her a purse containing $150 in gold and saying that he still had $100 coming in wages from the company. The purse also contained a note directing his wife to pay his dues in the Royal Arcanum Order, in which he carried $3,000 insurance.

Their 12-year-old adopted daughter says that she saw her father inspect his revolver in the kitchen at home before departing but Mrs. Fancher did not know of this.

She says that she saw a man around the house shadowing Mr. Fancher and her theory was that this man had followed him and that a struggle between them had occurred when Fancher discovered that he was being pursued; that the man took the revolver away from her husband and shot him with it. This being her view of the killing, she demanded a coroner's inquest to investigate the matter.

As the evidence seems to be conclusive that it was suicide it is probable that the idea of holding an inquest will be given up.

Mrs. Fancher says that the detective called at the house several times on Saturday and made a thorough search, finding certain tools which he claimed had been stolen from the railroad company, although there were no trade marks on them. She says he made his last call at the house in the evening, after the remains had been identified, when he said that he would do nothing further in the matter, as he was convinced that Fancher was not guilty of the theft charged.

Mr. Fancher came to this city about eleven years ago from Port Huron, Mich., and worked for the Atlantic & Pacific in this city for several years. Four years ago he was transferred to Needles, where he worked as a blacksmith. He had the reputation of being one of the best mechanics in the employ of the railroad. He belonged to the Odd Fellows' lodge at Port Huron and also to the Royal Arcanum, in which, as stated above, he carried $3,000 insurance.

The funeral took place at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the family residence.

St. George Creaghe and his bright son, Gerald, made a pleasant call at this office this afternoon, on their return from Lamar, Colo., where they will reside in the future. They will leave to-morrow night for Springfield, Ariz., where Mrs. Creaghe and younger children at present reside, and where in Apache county, Mr. Creaghe was for a long time the best sheriff of that portion of Arizona. After arranging some home affairs, Mr. Creaghe will return to Lamar, followed shortly by his family.

He Says General Toral Will Be Court-Martialed.

Five Soldiers Die in the Military Camp at Chickamauga.

Destructive Fire in the Business Portion of Trenton, N. J.

MYSTERIOUS POISONING CASE.

New York, Sept. 5.—Gen. Luis N. Pando, former commander of the Spanish troops at Manzanillo, arrived in Philadelphia, when asked to express his views on the war, he replied with a gesture of derision: "Why, there has been no war. There are 200,000 soldiers in Cuba who have not seen an American soldier. My opinion is that the Spanish and American soldiers were simply involved into a war by the politicians of the two countries. The politicians made fools of the soldiers."

Asked if he believed that General Toral should be court-martialed, General Pando replied: "I believe that in the regular course of events, considering what has happened, he will be." Asked to explain the story that he was leaving Cuba with $2,000,000, Gen. Pando replied: "When I got back to my country I will get what is of more value to me than the amount of money mentioned, the respect of my fellow countrymen."

Pando said he was on his way to Madrid to attend a meeting of the Cortes. Pando said that he thought the Cubans could govern themselves.

OVER 1,000,000 acres of land are devoted to the cultivation of tobacco in the world.

Spain has selected her peace commissioners, and they are said to be the most distinguished diplomats in that country.

The graves of American soldiers at Santiago are being located, preparatory to returning the remains to the United States.

Valuable discoveries of amber have been made in British Columbia, which will be able to supply the pipemakers of the world for 100 years.

ABOUT 500 American Hebrew families are preparing to emigrate to Porto Rico as soon as the United States government will permit them to do so.

THE American warships are to be supplied with one million pounds of smokeless powder. This will soon do away with the romance of the "smoke of battle."

THE Spanish government has decided to court-martial Admiral Cervera, and will not publish his report on the destruction of his squadron, reserving it for use in his trial.

MINISTERS of the city, who desire the publication of their church notices in THE CITIZEN of Saturday afternoon, are requested to hand them in by 11 o'clock in the morning so they can be classified.

ONLY very ill-posted people are surprised that disease should kill more of our soldiers in this war than Spanish bullets. That is the general rule in war. In the great American civil war 93,443 men of the Union army were killed in battle or died of wounds, while 186,216 died of disease.

ONE of the returned Rough Riders at the Madrid coal mines, a genial Irishman, is in favor of Helen Gould for president. That generous lady had a whole carload of ice cream at Montauk when the Rough Riders landed, and saved the life of more than one of the fever stricken boys.

THE troops bearing Gen. Miles and his troops from Porto Rico are expected to arrive at New York tomorrow. The troops will go into camp in the vicinity of Brooklyn, preparatory to their return to the various states to whom they belong. Before leaving camp at Brooklyn they may parade through the city of New York.

THE anxiety of volunteer officers to keep their commands in service is easily understood. Most of them are earning more money from the government than they did at home, and they naturally want to stay on the pay roll. But in a matter like this both the taxpayer and the $15.00 per month private ought to be considered.

If matters are as bad at Whipple Barracks as reported a rigid investigation should be made, and the officers and contractors found guilty should be severely punished. This city has a company at Whipple Barracks of which any city would be proud, and we want them to have their rations and decent treatment.

CAPT. MAX LUNA was given a grand reception in this city Saturday evening. He was spontaneous and enthusiastic. He carried this town for congressional delegates or any other political office in the gift of the people. When his Troop F gets home they may insist upon his running for congress, and if they do it will be hard for the captain to resist the call.

THE troops at Whipple Barracks, Arizona, should be mustered out. The men who enlisted in that regiment from this territory are not accustomed to the dull monotony and discipline of a peaceful garrison. They are disgruntled at being retained for garrison duty. It is hoped that Gov. Otero will use his influence in procuring the discharge of the New Mexico companies in the regiment. They want to come home and help develop the resources of New Mexico.

ARTILLERY REQUIREMENTS. It is now proposed to increase the artillery branch of the service from seven to fourteen regiments. This seems to be necessary. In addition to the coast defenses, we will now have to provide artillery for Hawaii, the Philippines, Cuba, Porto Rico and perhaps one or two other points. Before the war the seven regiments were scarcely sufficient to man the guns in the defenses, and now with the heavy demands made on the artillery branch a much larger force is urgently needed. It is not likely that there will be any serious or formidable objection to the proposal.

McKENNEY WILL INVESTIGATE. The demand of the situation in the war department is investigation—thorough, searching, inexorable investigation from cellar to garret. Some have said: "If the president does not investigate congress will." Probably both the executive and the legislative branches will take up the inquiry. Probably it will be necessary to remodel the department and the investigation should have a wide range.

While individual officials are to be held innocent until proven to be guilty, the general system of the war department is already condemned. "The cankers of a calm world and a long peace" seem to have eaten deeply into its efficiency. The obsolete is the rule and the up-to-date the exception in our department of making war by land. Bureau clashes with bureau, and responsibility is tossed from division to division, from official to official, and being kept constantly in the air, settled upon nobody.

But while congress may profitably investigate these abuses, congress seldom investigates for the sole purpose of amending delinquency and securing amendment. The blint of this emergency will fall upon the shoulders of the president of the United States. "If the president does his duty," is the way some journals and men begin this subject, as if William McKinley's whole life was not a warrant that he will do his duty at all times. Don't you worry, reader, for your part about the duty of the executive department of the United States being properly performed at this juncture. The president is a slave to duty; and he will do it without fear or favor; he will spare nobody, and neither will he sacrifice Secretary Alger or any other man to the demands of popular rage, if those demands are not supported by the facts.

APPROPRIATE COMMENDATION. The following letter from Col. Roosevelt to Gov. Otero explains itself:

Santiago, July 25, 1898.—I write you a line just to tell you how admirably the New Mexico troops in the battle of the "Rough Riders" which I have commanded before Santiago have behaved.

Three of the eight troops with me were from New Mexico, being commanded by Captains Muller, Luna and Llewellyn. All three captains and all three troops distinguished themselves. As for the troops themselves, I cannot say too much for their daring and resolution in battle, their patient endurance of every kind of hardship and labor, and their discipline, ready obedience and order in camp—these last qualities being as indispensable to soldiers as courage itself. I am more than proud to be in the same regiment with them; I can imagine no greater honor than to have commanded such men.

Among the promotions which it gave me peculiar satisfaction to recommend were those of Sergeant James to be lieutenant and of Lieutenant Keyes to be adjutant.

Captains Muller, Llewellyn and Luna have all three shown so much gallantry and efficiency that it would be difficult to distinguish between any two of them. Captain Muller and Captain Llewellyn were under my immediate eye in both fights. In the charge on the first hill in the Santiago fight they were with me, and their two guidons with that of Captain Luna were planted on the hill before the others, and almost at the same moment. In both fights Captain Luna was also, as it happened, under my immediate eye, and I was more than pleased at the gallantry with which he led his men into the hottest fight. All three most instantly every demand I made on their courage and capacity, and I made very many, for we have had hard fighting.

I only wish I could have got my remaining troops, and had them all in the Porto Rico expedition. With great regard I am very sincerely yours,

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
Col. 1st U. S. V. Cavalry.

THE NEW YORK LIFE insurance company has promptly paid the $10,000 insurance on the life of Capt. O'Neill, who was killed in the charge of the Rough Riders up San Juan heights. The newspaper did an injury to the New York Life by publishing a report that the company was trying to commiserate the claim with the widow. They should now make the amends honorable by mentioning the prompt payment of the whole claim.

To Dig the Nicaragua Canal. The war with Spain has demonstrated the importance of a short route between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans. By digging a canal a few miles long at the isthmus of Panama, thousands of miles of travel can be saved. At the present time ships must go around South America. A short route is always an advantage. It saves time and money. The journey from sickness to health can be quickly made. A moderate cost by taking Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. While its action is disorders like constipation, biliousness, indigestion, fever and ague and general weakness is quick, still it does not force a cure. It gives that assistance in carrying off the waste matter that nature occasionally needs. It makes the sick well.

TO PLAY POZZO. Pick of the Kansas League to Go to Albuquerque, N. M.

Wichita, Sept. 5.—Manager McKloskey of the base ball team has selected the following players to go to Albuquerque, N. M., to play for the big prizes at the base ball tournament there:

This list comprises the pick of the players in the late lamented Kansas league, and should play fine ball.

CAPTAIN LUNA'S RECEPTION.

The People of Albuquerque Honored the Hero Saturday Night.

The people of Albuquerque turned out in large numbers Saturday night and gave to Captain Maximiliano Luna a reception such as the soldier and patriot deserved. As Captain Luna appeared on the platform of the car he was greeted with round after round of cheers. When the captain alighted N. at Montoya, in a few eloquent words, introduced him to the crowd. Governor E. S. Steyer then announced that there would be an informal reception at the Commercial club and invited everyone to meet there.

The First Regiment band was present playing the national airs and they led the march to the Commercial club, after which they returned to the corner of Second street and Gold avenue and dispensed patriotic music. The assembled crowd wanted to hear a speech from Captain Luna and they made their wishes known in various ways. The captain was sent for and drove down in a carriage, accompanied by Hon. B. B. Rodney, who made one of his characteristic eloquent speeches in introducing the hero of La Quisima and San Juan to the people.

Captain Luna's response was very impressive. He recounted the achievements of the Rough Riders in the late war, but garbed them in modest language, which is always a distinguishing trait of the truly brave. His tribute to the city of Albuquerque and to the young lives for their country, which came from the heart and was very touching. His remarks were frequently applauded and when he finished the crowd gave three more enthusiastic cheers for Captain Luna.

Quite a delegation of prominent Socorroites came up on the same train with Captain Luna to participate in the reception here. Among them were Captain M. Cooney, collector of Socorro county; Silas Alexander, district assessor; Abraham Abovitz, county treasurer; Ketelevan, Socorro, postmaster; Major W. E. Remarkable Rescue. Mrs. Michael Cortina, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself bettered from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found her own sound and well; now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this great discovery at J. H. Haggling Hobos at Winslow. Maimed mendicants were numerous and persistent in Winslow Monday. They limped about the streets upon improvised crutches, and begged for the price of a "square" in the most tear-compelling way possible. For awhile it looked like a "cripples' convention." The observer who had the time to investigate, would have learned their misfortunes originated within the shade of the company's tea house, where a choice article of honey buns were sold trackled. One of the worthies when he paraded an impudently citizen, met with a painful rebuff. "Please take the other side of the street," said the citizen; "I'm working this side"—Mail.
