FIRST DAY'S ATTENDANCE INDICATES GOOD CROWDS

The Thirtieth Annual New Mexico State Fair, which was formally opened by Governor William J. Mills at Traction park yesterday afternoon, with a few brief and appropriate remarks in the presence of a large and enthusiastic crowd; one of the best opening day crowds in the history of the famous fiesta of the southwest and a crowd which indicates that the succeeding days' attendance will be above the average and enough to insure that the fair is a great success. Perfect weather, following a week of very imperfect weather, augured well on the opening day as the turquoise sky never smiled more brightly, and it was just cool enough not to be hot.

Things looked pretty busy at Traction park yesterday, for in addition to the thousands of visitors, exhibitors were getting the final displays in place in the exposition halls and there was something doing every minute. Buffalo Jones wonderful Persian sheep and the big buffalo and catalo arrived yesterday morning, attracting much attention as they were driven over from the Santa Fe station. The poultry show and the women's department of the exposition bid fair to be the preeminently successful features. The displays of the machinery and agricultural displays, the pumping demonstration also being one of the most interesting on the grounds.

The amusement program got well under way yesterday when the immense Nat Reiss carnival outfit got into its tents, housing, varied and numerous attractions at the corner of Central avenue and Sixth street in place and started the ball rolling. It is about the largest and best carnival aggregation ever brought here and will do a big business all day. The "death-defying" free acts, which started last night being unusually thrilling and spectacular. The Albuquerque-El Paso baseball game started the tournament off with a big noise and the fans alone will crowd the grandstand and bleachers every day of the week.

Today's Program.

Today's program is one that ought to give the crowds some first-class entertainment, as the racing program starts and there is a bunch of events in this division which promises to be as exciting as could be desired. Today is "Northern New Mexico Day," when the crowd from Las Vegas and El Paso and Santa Fe and all intermediate points is supposed to have things all its own way.

The fair will strike its lick tomorrow with the initial flights of Aviator Walsh in his Curtiss biplane, the first successful aviation exhibition to be seen in Albuquerque, for which thousands of visitors have made it a point to come to the fair. There is no bird man and big crowds are here to take advantage of the first opportunity to see an aviator soar at the New Mexico fair. It is far and away the strongest drawing card of the whole event.

The conventions of the Red Men, Knights of Pythias and other organizations, as well as the meeting of the Dental and Pharmacy boards, with other state gatherings to come later in the week have brought large addi-

EVERYTHING READY FOR TODAY'S EVENTS AT GROUNDS

The Fair grounds presented a scene of animation yesterday quite different to that it has shown during the long summer months, the rains of last week having soaked the ground somewhat, it became necessary to have both the track and baseball diamond in shape for running the races of the meeting and playing the ball games of the tournament. In order to do this many men and teams were necessary and these were employed to the best possible advantage.

Early yesterday morning Manager Chadbourne of the Street Car company had men out hailing the water from the baseball field while another gang of men under the supervision of Ed Haines and W. L. Trimble were fixing up the race track. This helped matters along pretty well and by the time the ball game was called at 2 o'clock the track and diamond both were in much better condition than yesterday.

Art Building.

Within the buildings all was business. The ladies in the art building were so crowded with exhibits that it seemed almost impossible to get everything in place. Admiring and cleverness in arrangement, however, soon brought order and neatness out of chaos. By the time the fair opens again for business this morning, the exhibit which is without doubt the largest ever gotten together for a New Mexico State Fair, will be in readiness for the influx of visitors. Splendid exhibits have been sent in from Curry, Valencia and Torrance counties for the art work department and the Sisters of St. Vincent's School have an elegant display of painted china and art work. A large number of water colors, and other paintings have been submitted. Mrs. George F. Albright is the superintendent of this department, and she is being ably assisted by Mrs. R. R. Rodey. Mrs. Rodey has special charge of the domestic science department, and she has amassed an exhibition of preserves and dainty cookery that positively makes the mouth water.

The Poultry and Pet Stock Show.

In the poultry and pet stock department, under the superintendence of John Rueb, pens of chickens were being put in place, while the young cockerels were making the welkin ring with the crow of defiance. A large number of pens of ducks are also being exhibited. It is expected by noon today that the complete exhibit of poultry and pet stock for the fair will be in place.

Agriculture.

The Agricultural building with its exhibitions of the products of the dry and irrigated farming districts of New Mexico will doubtless attract more attention than anything at the fair, unless it be the flying machines.

Guadalupe county has a number of splendid exhibits in place already, as have also other sections of the dry farming country. The Agricultural building is going to be crowded this year to its capacity. The Texas Oil company was yesterday exceedingly busy installing a splendid display of their products.

The livestock exhibit has just begun to arrive. The first on the ground were Colonel Buffalo Jones' famous Persian sheep. About 75 of these animals from the famous ranch of the equally famous colonel, were driven to the fair grounds, and after the baseball game they were used to tramp down the race track. Four of the famous Catalo were also driven to the fair grounds and will be on exhibition today. In addition to this Colonel Jones has promised a fine exhibit of Spanish Jacks. Superintendent Pankey of Lamy is in charge of this department and he had his hands full yesterday. A machinery exhibit is being prepared. The Simple Oil engine, and several styles of irrigation pumps are being put in. This with other styles of machinery will make the exhibit exceedingly interesting to those who are attracted by machinery exhibits.

Yesterday afternoon the horses were being exercised on the race track. Many classy harness horses will be put through their paces today and tomorrow.

MEXICAN STATE AT MERCY OF REBEL BRIGANDS

Three Months Campaign Fails to Restore Order in Morelos Where Marauding Bands Plunder Countryside.

Mexico City, Oct. 9.—Morelos, with the exception of a few towns, garrisoned by federals is as much at the mercy of the brigand followers of Emiliano Zapata as at any time during the revolution, according to advices received by the minister of the interior today. In spite of a three months' campaign against them, the outlaws override the rural districts, robbing plantations and sacking towns at will. After having been routed by federals at Axochiapan, with a loss estimated at thirty to forty killed, 1,500 rebels were reported camped today in the hills a few miles from Cuautla. Since General Huerta left for Mexico City, several days ago, there has been no active pursuit of the Zapatistas. Federal troops in the state of Chiapas are reported to have had an encounter at Chiapas de Cortez, with rebel Chimal Indians, under Espinosa Torres, in which thirty Indians were killed and forty taken prisoners.

The trouble in Chiapas is due to dissatisfaction with the state authorities. A provincial governor, named by the department of the interior, was elected by Torres and his followers, as also was a governor declared elected at the recent state election. A strong force of federals has been sent into the state to restore order.

CROP REPORT SHOWS IMPROVED CONDITIONS

Washington, D. C., Oct. 9.—Disastrous weather condition which prevailed throughout the country earlier in the growing season abated in September and the condition of most of the important unharvested crops on October 1, showed improvement. Corn was one-tenth of one per cent higher than it was on September 1; potatoes improved 3.1 per cent; tobacco, 9.4 per cent; flax, 1.2 per cent; apples, 3.6 per cent; rice declined 1.8 per cent.

The effect of the hot weather and drought throughout the growing season was shown in the official preliminary estimates of the production of spring wheat, oats and barley. The showed a loss on production over last year's harvest of an aggregate of 301,000,000 bushels.

The indicated total production of corn, as figured from the current condition will be about 356,000,000 bushels less than last year's crop. Flax is the only important crop that will give a harvest greater than last year.

Three men, known to have had money about them, mysteriously disappeared after having last been seen at McIntyre's still.

PREPARATIONS FOR CALIFORNIA VOTES M'NAMARA TRIAL IN LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles, Oct. 9.—The trial of the McNamara brothers, both of whom are under indictment for murder in connection with the explosion which wrecked the Los Angeles Times building on October 1, 1910, was virtually begun here today before Superior Judge Walter Bordwell, although perhaps nobody except District Attorney John D. Fredericks knew whether John J. or James H. McNamara would sit in the prisoner's chair when the case was called formally day after tomorrow. Many indications pointed to James H. McNamara as the first man to be tried.

COURT PASSES ON LIST OF PROSPECTIVE JURORS

Not Known Which of Brothers Will First Face Jury On the Charge of Wholesale Murder Conspiracy.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 9.—The Southern Pacific company announced today that all engineers, conductors and station agents who have been in the employ of the company ten years or more would hereafter be provided with annual passes over the system upon which they were employed.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 9.—The annual passes for veteran employees, which were voted upon by the stockholders at the annual meeting of the company, will be voted upon tomorrow throughout California. Suffrage is the issue of chief interest with the initiative and referendum and the recall next in order for consideration, Governor Hiram Johnson has personally led the fight for the latter proposed amendments and has made speeches throughout the state.

Practice vs. Precept: the Hypocrisy of the Platform

The platform adopted by the republican convention at Las Vegas, upon which H. O. Bursum is ostensibly making his campaign for governor, is an interesting document, in view of the records of the men who drew it up and adopted it in the effort to film flam the confiding voter.

This platform was presented by that eminent progressive and reformer, friend of honest elections and pure government, the Honorable Thomas Benton Catron.

Some of its provisions are worth taking up in detail.

In glancing over it we note the following:

The Precept.

"We believe in an efficient system of public education to the end that the youth of our state shall ever enjoy the best possible opportunities to educate and fit themselves for the proper and wise discharge of the duties of citizenship. We pledge the republican party to the maintenance of the highest and most efficient standard of public schools."

The Practice.

The man who is running for state superintendent of schools on this platform is Andrew B. Stroup of Bernalillo county.

Andrew B. Stroup is the personal candidate of Francisco Hubbell. He gave his support to the attempted Hubbell seizure of the county organization here in return for Francisco's promise that he should have the nomination. To do this Mr. Stroup renounced the forces of good government in this county and openly espoused the cause of Hubbellism with all that it means in public life.

MOONSHINER INDICTED FOR MURDER OF THREE

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 9.—Following the testimony of witnesses before the grand jury that they saw pieces of human flesh and bones in the furnace at the illicit distillery of Will McIntyre of Rutherford county, an indictment was returned against McIntyre charging him with three murders and today a reward of $200 was offered by the governor for his arrest.

Three men, known to have had money about them, mysteriously disappeared after having last been seen at McIntyre's still.

UNCLE IKE STINTED HIS CAMPAIGN MANAGERS

MIGHT EASILY HAVE SPENT TWICE AS MUCH

Committing Investigating Senator Stephenson Learns That Direct Primaries in Wisconsin Are No Poor Man's Game.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 9.—On the testimony given today before the United States senate committee, which is investigating charges that corruption contributed to the election of Senator Isaac Stephenson, was developed evidence that the Stephenson campaign managers, regarded the $107,793, admittedly expended for the campaign for nomination, small compared to $150,000 or $200,000, which might have been spent for a campaign more systematically conducted.

The statement from Rodney Sackett, one of the Stephenson campaign managers, that $150,000 or $200,000 might legitimately have been spent for the senatorial nomination brought forth comment from Senator Atlee Pomerene, of Ohio, a member of the committee.

"If $107,000 is not enough to nominate a United States senator in Wisconsin, how much is it and what could you do with $200,000 legitimately to see you for a man a position with a $7,500 annual salary," asked Senator Pomerene.

"We could have been more systematic," answered Sackett. "There are approximately 400,000 republicans in the state. Had we the money we should have personally canvassed each voter. This I estimate would have cost from $150,000 to $200,000. As it was with our means limited to a little over $100,000, we could not see each voter and had to get along the best we could."

Answering questions bearing directly on the charges against Senator Stephenson, Sackett testified that "That money out of Senator Stephenson's fund had been given to state officials as in the instance of State Game Warden J. W. Stone, who was given $2,500 to work up sentiment in favor of the senator."

"That money was paid to candidates for office, as in the case of seven candidates for the legislature, three of whom were elected. Although the three men elected afterward voted for Senator Stephenson the witness said it was not known when the money was given them that they were candidates."

"That no complete detailed accounts of the campaign expenses were kept and that all records of the campaign were destroyed."

The assertion that part of Senator Stephenson's heavy expenses were due to his desire to make it generally known that he was a supporter of Mr. Taft for the presidency came when Sackett, in explaining an advertising bill of $12,896, was required to produce before the committee one of the advertisements.

"We want to know the text of the literature for which the money was spent," said Senator Heyburn, the chairman.

The witness read the following as being typical:

"Vote for Uncle Ike; Wisconsin's Grand Old Man. Senator Stephenson is a candidate to succeed himself in the senate. He is a life-long republican, always faithful to the party and always in sympathy with the progressive spirit. All his votes in the senate were in line with the Roosevelt ideas. The Roosevelt policies must be carried to final success by the election of Mr. Taft. As Governor Hoard puts it, never swap horses in the middle of the stream. The republicans of Wisconsin must do their share as they can best serve their interests and those of their party by sending back to Senate Isaac Stephenson."

PRESIDENT DECLARES FOR PROGRESS IN ALASKA.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 9.—President Taft faced here tonight one of the largest and by far the most enthusiastic and responsive audience he has met on any of his recent travels. He was greeted with prolonged cheers and constantly was interrupted with bursts of applause.

The president discussed a variety of subjects including the relation of government to business, tariff votes and Alaska, the last subject of vital interest here. He declared that Alaska should have at least a semi-governing body. Two years ago Mr. Taft advocated here a strong commission form of government for the territory, declaring the population not stable enough for a full measure of self control.

"That proposition has not met approval," said Mr. Taft.

"I still think it the better way, but the man who stands on a dogmatic statement and says 'No,' and never consents to a violation of that principle, makes no progress. I am willing to make a concession for a party elective and partly appointive form of government in Alaska."

"Congress cannot make the necessary laws for Alaska. There must have a local body. In bringing this about I hope there will be no politics played. I hope the two houses of congress will unite in bringing about a change that will result in the development of Alaska and making that territory valuable to itself and valuable to all mankind."

"I see no more reason for government ownership in Alaska, however, than elsewhere. We should introduce there the same limitations as

EL PASO WINS FIRST LARGE ATTENDANCE GAME OF THE BIG TOURNAMENT

Young Cy Young Gets Best of Batting and Error Bee Over Cavet; Catchers Hit the Ball Hard.

By showing a little better article of baseball, the El Paso Texas team, team got away with a running start in the big baseball tournament at the fair grounds yesterday afternoon, by winning the first game from Albuquerque by a score of 11 to 5.

Puggs Cavet was in the box for Albuquerque, being opposed by Young Cy Young, who with his battery mate, Noyes, burned up the Texas league this year. Young did not pitch a bad ball, getting away with a lead start, but he got better as he went finally finishing the game in lucid fashion. Puggs was wild, losing seven men on base by the time the game was over. Noyes, who pitched at first for Albuquerque, for four flukes mark the book on his part, assisting in the total error column with half the errors.

The feature of the game was an undoubted batting of Smith and Noyes, the opposing catchers. Each were credited with three hits, Noyes having the best of it by one base, getting a triple, a two-bagger and a single. Noyes hit to center field in the third was one of the longest hits of the year, the ball being hit so far that it fell but a little short of the fence. The field being lost he would have made a home run out of it just as sure as home runs are made.

W. B. (Buck) Weaver made his initial appearance on the grounds as an umpire. He worked like a watch. There is much to be said for this source-jawed old Irishman. When he is the extra man on the diamond he bases the game without anybody questioning his authority. I certainly seemed good to have a such a much umpire, behind the bat and the ball. There were a few people in the grand stand when he made the opening speech, "Ladies and gentlemen, the batteries for today."

These pictures, which will be presented later in this city, are probably the clearest set of films ever taken of any contest. The big Chicago match is shown from start to finish exactly as it occurred, and the audience is enabled to see the match, much better in the pictures than did many thousands who were present when it took place, and who paid money for admission for the privilege.

The excitement on the contestants' faces, the contraction and expansion of their iron-like muscles, the batting of their eyes as so real as to entice the spectator into believing he is witnessing the real thing.

To take these pictures is to miss the first three or four motion pictures.

"PUSSYFOOT" POHNSON SUE FOR CRIMINAL LIBEL; SENT TO JAIL

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.)—Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 9.—Charged with criminal libel in a complaint filed by Clinton J. Crandall, superintendent of the United States Indian industrial school, William E. Johnson, better known as "Pussyfoot" Johnson, who recently resigned as chief special officer of the Indian service, was arrested here today.

Johnson's arrest caused a small-sized sensation in this city. The criminal libel charge is the outgrowth of a letter written by Johnson to Crandall when the latter resigned recently as special officer, and in which Johnson accused Mr. Crandall of being a large stockholder in a local drug store alleged to have sold liquor to Indians in violation of a federal statute.

Mr. Johnson also accused Assistant Secretary of the Interior Samuel Adams and Assistant Commissioner of Indian Affairs Fred H. Abbott of being in a cabal with the liquor interests to hamper the work of suppression of the liquor traffic among the Indians.

Former Hearings Resume Today.—Chicago, Oct. 9.—The hearing at the Lorimer investigation committee of the United States senate will be resumed at the Federal building here tomorrow morning with a list of eight witnesses to be heard.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

Wall Street.

Boston Mining Stocks.

New York, Oct. 9.—Heaviness of the markets and strength of the southern roads gave today's stock market its only movements of importance.

The market opened on a somewhat higher level, but the improvement was of short duration. The coalers were forced down to well below Saturday's close and the remainder of the list sagged with them. In the forenoon the market had recovered the losses with the exception of the coal stocks, and during the remainder of the session, changes were only nominal, except in a few isolated cases. Reading was heaviest of the coalers, at one time showing a loss of more than two points.

The selling of these stocks was associated with the convening today of the supreme court, which is soon to pass upon the government case against Reading in the anthracite suit. This is the first case of this nature to come before the supreme court, since its promulgation of the "Rule of Reason" interpretation of the Sherman law.

Nothing more than a report of a coming extra dividend for Louisville and Nashville was at hand to explain the buoyancy of Southern railroads. Both Atlantic Coast Line and Louisville and Nashville advanced more than four points and other Southern roads scored smaller gains. The decline in Allis Chalmers securities, which began last week, was continuing today. The five per cent bonds sold down to 58, a loss of nearly two points, and the preferred stock declined 2-1/4, although both issues subsequently made a partial recovery. Reports that the company was carrying its fixed charges were followed by the official admission that the corporation's business had fallen off largely.

A larger increase in copper stocks than had been expected was shown in the September statement of the copper producers. The increase was due chiefly to the heavy shrinkage in foreign consumption. The monthly crop report was without influence in stocks.

Further reduction in the price of steel products was reported. United States Steel was sold. On these changes and on a report, received officially, that the department of justice was to bring a suit for dissolution of the corporation at once, The stock yielded for a time, but later recovered fully.

BULLETIN OUT AGAINST LAS VEGAS FIRM FOR ALLEGED MISBRANDING

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Washington, D. C., Oct. 9.—The United States department of agriculture has issued a bulletin showing an indictment against Benigno Romero of Las Vegas, New Mexico, trading as the "Romero Drug company." By order of the court the eggs were destroyed by the United States marshal.
