BIGGEST NOISE OF WHOLE CAMPAIGN SATURDAY NIGHT AT THE ARMORY

Congressman Flood and W. C. McDonald to Address People of New Mexico On the Issues of the Fight.

TORCHLIGHT PARADE TO BE FEATURE OF EVENT

Huge Demonstration at Night to Follow Democratic Convention Saturday Morning at Elks Opera House.

The democratic state campaign to elect W. C. McDonald governor of New Mexico and to elect also a set of clean men to all the offices in the state will open in Albuquerque with a bang on next Saturday night, and the demonstration is expected to be the biggest ever seen in Albuquerque or New Mexico.

In the National Guard Armory, seating over 3,000 people, Chairman Henry D. Flood of the committee on territories of the United States house of representatives and Captain W. C. McDonald, of Carrizozo, the people's candidate for governor, will address the people of Albuquerque and the visitors assembled from all parts of the state on the issues of this campaign: progress and clean government, against the corrupt ring and the rule of the bosses.

Every citizen of Albuquerque and every patriotic New Mexican in the state should join in making the greatest political demonstration in the history of the city and state.

TORCHLIGHT PROCESSION TO PRELUDE BIG MEETING.

Mr. Flood and Mr. McDonald will be escorted from the Alvarado hotel to the Armory by a big torchlight procession headed by the band. The democrats and progressive republicans are going to turn out en masse and the procession will be one to be long remembered in this city.

Of the speakers, Mr. Flood is one of the leading democrats of the country, an eloquent speaker and he will have something to say to the people of New Mexico that will be worth hearing, irrespective of the political creed of the auditor. Mr. McDonald, whose candidacy for the governorship has aroused the greatest enthusiasm among all friends of good and honest government in New Mexico, has already proven that he is an able campaigner, a convincing and telling speaker, and there will be other speakers on the program whose remarks will add to the interest and enthusiasm of the occasion.

Convention in the Morning.

The democrats of the county of Bernalillo will hold their convention for the nomination of county officers at the Elks' theater on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. At the same time the judge and district attorney for the Second judicial district will be nominated and a senator to go to the legislature from the district comprising the counties of Bernalillo, Sandoval and San Juan.

Primaries Tomorrow.

The democratic primaries will be held tomorrow, Thursday night, at 7:30 p. m.

BODIES OF TWO AUSTIN VICTIMS RECOVERED

Austin, Pa., Oct. 10.—Two more bodies recovered from the ruins of the flooded community, today, makes a total of sixty-six deaths, the result of the breaking of the Bayless Pulp and Paper company's dam on September 20.

The work of clearing up the ruins was extended along the Sonnenbomhoning valley between Austin and Costello.

The Austin Relief association has taken over the distribution of clothing to the needy, but practically the entire town is being fed by the commissary. Aside from the 1,200 workmen, about five hundred families are being fed.

There is a lack of ambition among the local business men re-opening stores. One grocery was opened today and its stock, recovered from the ruins, was soon sold out. No attempt is being made to re-establish other stores.

PACIFIC COAST FLEET ORDERED STRENGTHENED

Washington, Oct. 10.—Carrying out its policy to create a large naval reserve on the Pacific coast, the navy department yesterday placed the armored cruiser St. Louis in commission as a reserve ship at the Puget Sound navy yard.

The St. Louis will have a crew of about one-fourth of a full complement which may easily be expanded in case of emergency. The men will keep the ship in order and ready to sail at a moment's notice.

Ultimately there will be from four to six cruisers in reserve at the Bremerton navy yard.

BRIBERY CHARGES REST ON FLIMSY FOUNDATION

STEPHENSON INQUIRY GETS DOWN TO BUSINESS

Man Who Brought Accusations Against Senator Compelled to Admit That They Were Based Largely On Hearsay.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 10.—Charges that United States Senator Isaac Stephenson, of Wisconsin, secured his election through bribery and that he spent $107,793 corruptly to influence voters, were today put by the United States senate investigating committee squarely up to John J. Blaine, a state senator, who brought the charges.

As a result Blaine admitted he had no information personally known by him to be true upon which to substantiate his charges. He admitted his charges were based largely on newspaper editorials, political speeches and hearsay.

"And upon such information, you were willing to make allegations which might jeopardize the reputation of a United States senator and which, if proven true, might send him to the penitentiary—is that true?" asked Senator W. B. Heyburn, the chairman.

To this question Blaine made no answer other than that he thought he was performing a public duty by having an investigation of what he said was current report.

"Do you think it a public duty to bring charges against a United States senator without facts to substantiate them?" asked Chairman Heyburn.

"I thought so."

Blaine was on the witness stand practically all day. It was he who originally brought the charges in the Wisconsin legislature, where two investigations were held, one resulting favorably to the senator and one adversely.

Blaine's charges purporting to give sixteen specific instances wherein the law had been violated, were that prior to his nomination at the primaries in 1908, Senator Stephenson corruptly spent $107,793 to encompass his election. The first three of the charges pertained to the giving to E. A. Edmonds, a campaign manager, "a sum in excess of $106,000 and approximately $150,000. It was developed that $107,793 was the correct amount."

"How do you know this money was given to Edmonds to commit bribery and to accomplish other corrupt ends?" Blaine was asked.

"I had Edmonds word that he received certain sums for campaign purposes. The words 'corrupting and bribing electors' were put into to meet the requirements of the law in making specific charges in such instances."

The charge that "in pursuance of his purposes and designs," Senator Stephenson gave to U. G. Keller, of Sauk county, $300 corruptly and unlawfully to be used in Stephenson's behalf, Blaine declared, were based on a letter he had received and that was all he knew of it.

As basis for the charge that "large sums of money were paid to one H. Wright, of Racine, Wis.," Blaine cited information given him by an editor of a newspaper opposed to Senator Stephenson. For his charge that one thousand dollars was paid to Roy Morse, of Fond du Lac, Wis., to be used unlawfully, Blaine said he read an editorial in a newspaper at Appleton, Wis.

Two charges that money was distributed unlawfully, first to voters in Grant county and then to voters in the entire state, Blaine said, were made upon information given him by L. H. Stevens and O. A. Eastman, but no facts as to the amount of money were obtained by the witness.

The witness said he did not know of any democrats to whom Stephenson money was paid. He did not know that the charge was true. His charge that Stephenson money was spent to purchase the editorial support of newspapers, Blaine said, was based on information given him by an editor at Lancaster, Wis., but the witness had no facts that any money was paid for such purpose.

Blaine's charge that Stephenson offered Lester Tilton of Nellville, Wis., $500 to run for the assembly and if elected to vote for Stephenson for senator, was then read. Blaine said this charge was based upon what he had read of political speeches by democratic candidates.

DEATH DUEL TO END THE STRIFE IN CHIAPAS

Travelers From Interior of Mexico Bring Word of Challenge Worthy of Medieval Days.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Mexico City, Oct. 10.—With the object of terminating the insurrection in the state of Chiapas, Belisario Dominguez, of Comfiane, has challenged the rebel leader, Juan Espinosa Torres, to a duel, whose finish must be death, according to a story of travelers arriving from that state today, and which was published in El Heraldo this evening.

Dominguez's proposition is that Torres select one of two pistols, leaving the other for his adversary, one of these weapons only to be loaded. The duelists are then to place their pistols at the foreheads of each other and at a signal, fire. If Torres dies, the capital is to remain at Tuxtla Gutierrez; if Dominguez falls, it goes to San Cristobal. This is the chief question at issue in the trouble in Chiapas.

OHIO COAL CARRYING COMBINE TO DISSOLVE

Columbus, O., Oct. 10.—The Hocking Valley railroad has agreed to dispose of its holdings to the Toledo and Ohio Central railroad, the Sunday Creek Coal company and other railroads and coal companies and to manage its business in accordance with the statutes hereafter.

The suit was originally brought in December, 1902, to oust the Hocking Valley railroad from its corporate powers and franchises and then to liquidate its affairs on the grounds that the company had sought a complete monopoly of the Hocking Valley coal fields.

CONSPIRACY TRIAL AT LOS ANGELES OPENS TODAY

UNCERTAINTY SHROUDS M'NAMARA PROCEEDINGS

Still Undecided Which of Brothers Will Be Called Upon First to Face Jury For Wholesale Murder Plot.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 10.—Official uncertainty surrounded tonight every point of interest in the trial of the McNamara brothers, except the fact that it will begin tomorrow. Whether John J. McNamara, secretary of the international association of bridge and structural iron works, will then be placed on trial for murder in connection with the Los Angeles Times explosion of October 1, 1910, which cost twenty-one lives, or his brother, James B. McNamara, will face trial on identical indictments, was not made officially known today, because District Attorney John D. Frederick said the defense still had the technical right to have both men stand trial together. Until the expressed preference for separate trials is made, a certainty which probably will not be before court opens at 10 a. m., the prosecution will not announce which man it will try first. The popular belief, and that of the defense is that James B. McNamara will be selected.

However, Attorney Clarence S. Darrow, chief of counsel for the defense, said tonight, no effort to delay the beginning of the case will be made.

"We shall ask for a change of judge," said Mr. Darrow. "We expect that it will be denied and then the trial will go ahead."

The McNamara brothers, chatting in the corridor of the jail from which could be seen the unfinished hall of records, in which the trial will be held, apparently expected no delay.

"We've got to be ready," said John J. McNamara. "It doesn't make any difference to us which is tried first."

Both men, at the request of newspaper men, were weighed and photographed today and George Gallagher, the jailer, checked their present weights against those recorded when they entered April 26, the jail which they have not left since. James B. McNamara, who then weighed 137 pounds, now weighs 142 and his brother John, has come up from 206 to 217 pounds. John J. did the talking for both, asking many questions on his own account.

"What is the sentiment about this case?" was the first one, specifying different localities. Most of the queries were about machinery for the gathering and distributing of news, which he seemed keenly interested.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE DEFEATED IN CALIFORNIA

STATE DECLARES FOR DIRECT LEGISLATION

Early Returns Indicate Adoption of Recall Amendment Affecting All Elective Officers Including Judiciary.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 10.—Returns from today's constitutional amendments election received up to 11:30 p. m., confirm earlier indications that woman suffrage has been defeated and that the initiative and referendum and recall which includes the judiciary, have on the other hand received a most emphatic endorsement by the voters of the state. The enlargement of the powers of the state railroad commission also undoubtedly have carried, though by a smaller majority.

The vote in favor of placing in the hands of the electors the power of recalling its public officials including the judges on the bench, was somewhat amazing, even to the friends of that proposed constitutional amendment. San Francisco, which voted almost two to one against woman suffrage, votes more than four to one in favor of the recall, while the vote for the initiative and referendum was almost equally as large.

With one-third of the state heard from, the vote stood:
For woman suffrage, 27,170; against, 44,659.
For the initiative and referendum, 50,651; against, 17,391.
For the recall, 52,997; against, 17,391.

For an appointive railroad commission, 23,821; against, 22,334.
Twenty-three proposed amendments to the constitution of the commonwealth were voted upon today. Of these the three mentioned and the proposition to make the state railroad commission an appointive body and empowering the legislature legally to enlarge the powers of the board, overshadowed in public interest all the rest.

The last named, according to the early returns, had been carried.

Returns up to 4 o'clock showed 4,825 votes for woman suffrage, with 8,908 against. With the initiative and referendum on the other hand, showed a favorable vote of 10,810, but 2,810 against, while the recall notwithstanding the bitter fight made against it by leading republican papers, was favored with even more emphatic, 11,280 votes being recorded in its favor and 2,467 against.

The railroad commission amendments were favored by a vote of 8,170 for, and 4,652 against.
Southern California was heavily in favor of granting suffrage to women, probably by at least 8,000, but in San Francisco and other bay counties

The Ring And The Pure Ballot; A Monumental Joke.

The aggregation of bosses and chronic office seekers who have made honest elections for years an impossibility in New Mexico are now running their candidates for state offices on a platform loudly declaring for the purity of the ballot.

There was never such a monumental and grisly joke perpetrated on the people of New Mexico.

The platform adopted by the bosses at Las Vegas says:
"Recognizing that free and untrammelled suffrage is one of the strongest pillars of our social and political fabric, we pledge the republican candidates for the legislature to the enactment of appropriate legislation looking to the preservation of the purity of the ballot and to a free expression of the popular will so framed, however, that in its practical operation no citizen of this state shall ever be deprived of his right of suffrage. We pledge our candidates in the performance of the duties proposed and in their conduct on the subject of honesty and purity of elections to the prompt enactment of truly progressive legislation, including a corrupt practices act which shall provide every safeguard known to modern legislation for the secrecy of the ballot and the expression at the polls of the independent will of each individual voter without any hampering requirement as to the form of such expression which only tend to the advantage of what is known as machine politics and of the men who make a business thereof."

Machine politics and those who make a business thereof!

Could anything more accurately and sweepingly describe H. O. Bursam, Francisco Hubbell, Solomon Luna, Malachias Martinez, and the other members of the crowd that have handed out this hypocritical platform to the people?

There is execrable humor in such a declaration of principles from the men who have made stuffed ballot boxes, intimidation, repeating, sheep voting and election stealing a blot upon the government of New Mexico.

Mr. Voter, do you believe in such a declaration from the men who rely upon the oppression and intimidation of the agents of the Dutch capitalists in Colfax county to roll up republican majorities in that county?

Will you listen for a moment to this Pecoskiffian cant from the men who have time and again counted more ballots from Valencia county than there were men, women, children and sheep in the county? Will you swallow this word from headquarters as to how many votes must be delivered?

What is your opinion of this platform, coming from the men who have driven voters from the polls in San Miguel county, in the northern coal camps, in Sandoval county and in the Arriba county by all kinds of sinister threats because they would not vote for the republican machine candidates?

What do you think, good people, of a howl for "honest elections" from the discredited boss, who for years in this county herded his voters to the polls like sheep and voted them first in one precinct and then another; who raised the assessments of the men who refused to vote right and who is now spending money right and left in a desperate attempt to buy up enough votes to put himself back in power in this county?

It is the men who are endeavoring to foist this rot on the voters who will steal the first state election by hook or crook if possible; who will steal it openly and arrogantly where they dare and cunningly and secretly where they must.

Honest elections, a pure ballot and a corrupt practices act would drive out of New Mexico politics the men who have drawn up this platform and thrown a disreputable state ticket insultingly in the face of the honest men of New Mexico.

A majority was polled against the proposed amendment.
Today's election carried to a conclusion the campaign for reform measures started by Governor Hiram Johnson and the last legislature which was overwhelmingly "progressive republican."

Johnson's election and the election of the legislature followed the adoption by the state of a direct primary law, Governor Johnson stamped the state in advance of the proposed constitutional amendments.

One unique feature of the campaign was the prominence which the question of woman suffrage took. It was thought when the campaign started that the recall, with the judiciary initiative and the initiative and referendum would engender public attention. But the enthusiasm with which the women of the state entered into the campaign for suffrage practically made that question overshadow everything else during the closing days. Returns from the 384 precincts in California gave:
For suffrage, 6,825; against, 8,908.
For the initiative and referendum, 10,810; against, 2,810.
For the recall, 11,280; against, 2,467.

WOMAN WHO SUED ROOSEVELT MAY BE INSANE

Ida Von Claussen Sent to Bellevue Hospital For Observation As to Mental Condition; Demanded Million From Taft.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) New York, Oct. 10.—Mrs. Ida Von Claussen, who once started a damage suit for a million dollars against Theodore Roosevelt and others because of an alleged conspiracy to keep her from being presented at the royal court of Sweden, was sent to the psychopathic ward of Bellevue hospital today for five days observation. There was a scene in the Tombs court when Magistrate Herbert announced his decision. Mrs. Von Claussen appeared in the supreme court yesterday in her action for divorce from Dr. William F. Honan. Justice Greenbaum of the supreme court received a telegram Sunday, dated at Chicago, in which Mrs. Von Claussen said:

"Justice and liberty is all I ask. I feel play marks my decision. God help you."

Justice Greenbaum believed that the woman's telegram indicated an unsound mind and he sent Mrs. Claussen to the Tombs for examination.

FIRST CHANCE TO SEE AN AEROPLANE IN ACTION.

Today at Traction Park, as the prize feature of the First State Fair, the people of Albuquerque and visitors to the fair will for the first time have the opportunity to see one of America's most skilled aerial navigators, Charles F. Walsh, perform aerial evolutions in one of the most famous of airships, the Curtiss biplane. Schooled under Glenn H. Curtiss, whose name is synonymous for daring and skill in the upper air, Walsh is one of the most expert flyers in the country and the first exhibition of his skill to be given at Traction Park this afternoon will undoubtedly pack the fair grounds to their fullest capacity.

The aviation exhibitions, which occur at 3:15 and 4:30, will include flights over the city and back into the fair grounds, the starting and alighting of the bird man in his machine being the most interesting part of the performance.

It will be a rare chance for the people of this section to see first hand the wonderful progress which has been made toward the ultimate conquest of the air, for Albuquerque is one of the comparatively small number of towns this size which enjoy the privilege of aviation displays.

There are many other good things on today's program which will make it a winner and insure big crowds; particularly the exciting five-mile relay race, always one of the most exciting of the racing events, and the Indian sports and races.

Today is "Eastern New Mexico Day," dedicated to the people of that enterprising and populous and progressive portion of the new state whose mammoth exhibits of products have gone far toward making the fair a success. There are thousands of visitors here from the towns along the cutoff and in the Pecos valley, and they are adding considerably to the sum total of business and enthusiasm.

ATTENDANCE GROWS ON SECOND DAY OF BIG SHOW

The Fair Grounds yesterday presented a much livelier appearance than on the opening day. There seemed to be a greater determination among the workers to show just how time the exhibits are, and arrange them to such advantage as to attract greater attention. More exhibits are being sent in and brought in by every train, and this fact seemed to spur each exhibitor to do his utmost to make the best impression. The attend-

Plank pitched three innings, allowing but one hit and Bender finished up the game allowing but one hit.

The way the champions hit Walter Johnson, surprised the onlookers, as he had all his well known speed and control. Eddie Collins hit three singles while Harry Davis slammed a fast shot over the right field fence for a home run. Sensational fielding plays were made by Chase and Elberfeld.

Those in charge of the press applications say that never before has an inter-league contest excited so much interest in all sections of the country and the demand has been so great that application for scores of seats will have to be refused.

The supply of available tickets was quickly exhausted and it is estimated that more than $100,000 will be returned to donors.

McGraw Plans to Rest His Men for Big Struggle.
New York, Oct. 10.—Evidently Manager McGraw of the New York Nationals thinks the most of his stars need rest more than gruelling practice for the world's series to open here Saturday with Philadelphia. Today he put only four of his regulars in the line up against Brooklyn and played one of these—Snodgrass—out of his regular position—the center fielder covering second base.

Larry Doyle was not in action, his back being due to the accident which befell him yesterday, but he is expected to be in trim tomorrow, Merkle, whose condition has been giving some concern, his trouble being a "Charley Horse," got into the game again, and courted in lively style around the initial sac.

"Chief" Myers, catcher, on whose ability so much depends, is reported to be benefiting greatly by the rest given him. Betting on the series was fairly active in the hotel district with the odds about even on the outcome.

Today's Games.

El Paso vs. Santa Fe.
Albuquerque vs. Dawson.

First game ended at 12:45.

Albuquerque 17; Santa Fe 5.

Clearly outclassing Santa Fe, Albuquerque yesterday afternoon defeated the club representing that city in the second game of the series of the fair tournament. The score was 17 to 5 at the end of the seventh, at which time the game was called by agreement.

Albuquerque, by its playing yesterday, demonstrated that it will win second money in any event, and may still beat out El Paso for the first prize. The terrific hitting of the locals, coupled with useful work on the part of the Santa Fe outfielders, made the game a walk away. It required three box artists to finish the seven innings for Santa Fe, such stars of the Western league as Ellis and Faber being knocked out of the box.

L. Smith finished the game for Santa Fe and had no better luck against the Albuquerque sluggers than did his two predecessors. For the locals, Bill Bailey of Texas league fame did the twirling, and aside from his extreme wildness, pitched a good game, Bailey invariably straddled down with men on bases, thus holding the Santa Fe club to low scores. When it was seen that Albuquerque had the game safely cinched, Rube Weeks relieved Bailey and pitched the sixth and seventh innings. Sensational fielding by Salazar at short, with D. Smith's catching, and the heavy clouting of B. Smith, Graham, Phelan, Lockhart and Tex Jones featured. The game by innings, Albuquerque batting first:

First Inning—Donovan got a pass to first. Graham laid down a bunt that sacrificed Donovan to second. Phelan, next up, with two strikes on him, hit to right, scoring Donovan and circling the bases himself when L. Anderson couldn't find the ball in the mud. Tex Jones struck out, while B. Smith was out, pitcher to first. Two runs.

L. Smith walked, due to Bailey's wildness. D. Anderson also got a pass on four wide ones. Weeks, of slugging fame, waited them out and walked, filling the bags with none down. Koerner, a Western leaguer, struck out. Ford popped up a fly ball of first which Jones fielded, but L. Smith scored on the throw-in when B. Smith dropped the ball. The decision was close, however, and caused considerable protest on the part of the Albuquerque players. L. Anderson hit Wicks and B. Anderson did on bases when he struck out. One run.

Second Inning—Kunz struck out. Lockhart hit a single between short and second. He stole second on first ball pitched to Salazar. Nelson's throw being too low for L. Smith to field cleanly. Salazar sacrificed Lockhart to third. Bailey popped up to Wicks and was out. No runs.

Third Inning—Donovan hit high fly to left field, which D. Anderson missed and his failure to promptly field the ball allowed Donovan to go to second. Graham hit for two bases, scoring Donovan. Phelan beat out a bunt and Graham scored on Salazar's throw three wide to Nelson at home. Phelan stole second and went to third on wild throw to second by Nelson. Jones walked and went to second. At this juncture Faber relieved Ellis in the box, McCarthy going to center in place of Faber, and Ellis to the bench.

B. Smith went out on grounder to Koerner. Jones and Phelan being held on second and third. Kunz struck out. With Lockhart next up, Phelan stole home on Faber, sliding under Nelson's tag. Jones advanced to third on the play. Lockhart hit infield fly which Faber dropped, allowing Jones to score and enabling Lockhart to reach first. Lockhart stole second, Salazar went out pitcher to first. Faber making fine one-handed catch of hot grounder. Four runs.

D. Anderson struck out. Wicks walked. Koerner struck out. Wicks stole second. Ford walked. L. Anderson struck out. No runs.

Fourth Inning—Faber issued Bailey a pass. Donovan connected for two bases, advancing Bailey to third. Graham walked, filling the sacks. Phelan then hit for two bases, scoring Donovan and sending Graham to third. Jones got to first on infield fly which Ford fumbled. Graham scored when B. Smith hit a liner to first. Phelan going to third. Kunz hit high fly to left and Phelan scored on the throw in. Lockhart hit fly to center, which McCarthy dropped, allowing both Jones and Smith to tally. Lockhart going to second on the throw in Salazar struck out. Five runs.

Fifth Inning—Bailey struck out. Donovan walked. Graham hit grass center between first and second, and Donovan interfered with ball, being called out for trick. Graham stole second while Phelan was looking over them. Phelan then found one which he knocked through Ford, Graham scoring and Phelan going to second on the error. Jones hit fly to left and was out. One run.

L. Smith hit for two bags, was sacrificed to third by D. Anderson. Wicks walked. Wicks was caught trying to steal second. Smith scoring on play. Koerner was robbed of hit by sensational one-handed catch by Salazar of terrific liner. One run.

Sixth Inning—Smith relieved Faber in box, Faber going to short. B. Smith found his brother for three-bagger to left. Kunz struck out. Lockhart struck out. Salazar went to first when hit by Smith. Bailey struck out. No runs.

Rube Weeks opened inning for Albuquerque. Ford got single to center. L. Anderson struck out. Hubbard walked. Faber popped up to Phelan and was out. B. Parsons, batting for McCarthy, struck out. No runs.

Seventh Inning—Donovan hit to center for two bases. Graham hit for three sacks, scoring Donovan. Phelan hit for two bases, scoring Graham. Jones scored. Phelan with three-bagger to left. B. Smith scored three-bagger to left. Kunz laid one down to second and B. Smith was out between second and third. Lockhart hit to left for two bases, scoring Kunz. Lockhart was caught off second. Salazar struck out. Five runs.

L. Smith struck out. D. Anderson walked. Wicks puled two-bagger to left, scoring D. Anderson and going to third on bad throw in. Koerner on fly back of short. Wicks scoring on throw in. Ford hit single to left, and scored when L. Anderson hit past Jones along first base line for two bases. Hubbard hit fly to Jones and was out. Three runs.

EL PASO WINS FROM DAWSON'S WESTERN LEAGERS

The superb pitching of Chick Brandom, backed up by some fine fielding, and splendid hitting on the part of the El Paso team, won the second game of the day, and the second straight victory for the Pass City boys. The game lasted but little more than seven innings and was marked by considerable crabbing by both teams, the poor decisions of the umpire being largely responsible. Ten precious minutes, in the shape of a heated debate between the umpires and the players of both teams, over an interpretation of the ground rules, thus disfigured the grandstand. Another talkfest was attempted by the Dawson bunch when Burns, playing first, pulled off a bonchard play, letting Jackson get to second on an infield hit, which had been cleanly fielded. Burns in his anxiety to cut off Chick Brandom coming in home failed to get on the first base runner throwing the ball. Chick was called out at home but Jackson went to second and Tommy Smith, the second baseman of the El Paso bunch, scored. The entire game should be entitled in baseball history as Ketter's slide for life, or the history of the captured goat. It was in very fact a debate between the umpires and the players of both teams, over an interpretation of the ground rules. This disfigured the grandstand. First Convention of Heads of
New Mexico Cities Results in Resolve to Amend the Statutes.

Believing that the time has come when the mayors of the various cities and towns of New Mexico should unite for the purpose of securing a revision of the legislation governing the municipalities, which laws are as lax and unsatisfactory as they are scarce, there convened in Albuquerque yesterday a convention of the mayors of several of New Mexico's most important cities. The convention will continue over today.

The sessions are being held in the Commercial club. Following the opening of the meeting by Mayor John W. Elder, the city and village boards of aldermen and mayors to Albuquerque discussed what had on several important civic topics. Mayor Crawford of Clovis told of his administrative woes which he attributed chiefly to his own unsatisfactory laws governing municipalities.

Mayor Elder aroused no end of discussion when he touched on the all-important paving laws, which just now are blamed for preventing the city from receiving any money from the state, because of the varied construction placed on them. The mayors present heartily agreed with Mayor holder that this particular municipal statute needed prompt remedying at the first session of the state legislature.

The law governing the care of the poor and sick who become public charges was also discussed. Mayor Elder cited how the Non-Sectarian

The Benevolent Society of Albuquerque was taking care of this class of indigents at a cost of $250 to $300 monthly, of which sum but $50 a month was contributed by the city.

Mayor J. J. Shuler of Raton, who was prevented from attending the convention by sickness, sent an enthusiastic message of 327 words, which was read. Mayor Arthur Selig-

Mayer Elder last night in discussing the first meeting of the mayors was enthusiastic about it and especially so over the plans agreed on for the revision of the state laws affecting the government and management of municipalities.

If your appetite is fickle and nothing seems to please you, belch gas, or if you feel bloated after a meal, or if your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation of undigested food.

Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how much you take a little Dialeppain.

SHIP ROCK AGENCY NOT DESTROYED BY FLOODS

EARLY REPORTS FROM SAN JUAN EXAGGERATED

Property Loss Runs Well Into Millions But So Far As Known Only One Person Perished in Raging Waters.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Denver, Colo., Oct. 10.—With the re-establishment today of communication with the principal towns in the flooded swept districts of southwestern Colorado and northwestern New Mexico, it became apparent that the damage would not be as heavy as previously estimated.

None of the principal towns report serious loss and advice reaching them from outlying points minimize the destruction in the ranch country. The southern half of the Rio Grande Southern railway, however, has suffered seriously. Heavy rains of smoke having been destroyed. The railroad, which is a narrow gauge, is a part of the Denver & Rio Grande system. At the headquarters of the company here it was declared that no estimate of the loss can be made until engineers have inspected the damages. Rough guesses, however, place the damage to the railroad at approximately $1,000,000. Estimates of the damage in general, outside of the wide area embraced in the flood districts, can not be made with accuracy.

Rumors of heavy loss of life were apparently set at rest today. The report of the drowning of twenty Navaho Indians at Ship Rock agency in

I then said that for about a year I had been bothered by a dull ache and weakness across my loins and kidneys. I tried easily and any exertion caused severe pains in my back. DESPERATE ATTACK ON TRIPOLI IS REPULSED

TURKS DRIVEN BACK BY ITALIAN ARTILLERY

Roman Government Sends a Strong Expedition to Reinforce Garrison and Restore Order On Captured Island.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Tripoli, Oct. 10.—Turks apparently do not intend to abandon Tripoli to the Italians without further resistance. For several days horsemen have been reconnoitering in the vicinity of the Italian outposts. Several times at night they have been discovered by the searchlights of the warships and then shells drove them back into the hills.

About one o'clock this morning about three thousand Turkish troops with field guns, were discovered advancing in two columns with the evident intention of recapturing the town. A large body of natives marched with the troops, and presented a formidable array. The Italian commander, however, had an intimation that such an attack probably would be made and his men were prepared. The Italian guns were well piled and the Turks were met with a heavy artillery and rifle fire, to which they replied with equal energy. It was moonlight and the fleet turned the searchlights on the contending forces. When the engagement was at its height the battleships and cruisers joined in with small batteries, directing the shells to cover the Italian front and flank.

More than an hour the firing on shore was continuous, but about 2 o'clock it slackened and the volley ceased. The Turks retired, but in good order, although it is reported they suffered heavy loss.

Another body of Turks tried to turn the Italian eastern flank, but without success. The Italian casualties were slight. The fleet pursued the retreating Turks with a heavy shell fire until 6 o'clock this morning.

The looting by Arabs, which occurred after the bombardment and the disorderly flight of the Turkish soldiers was to a great extent the work of 450 criminals left in prison who beat down the doors and escaped. The looting made a clean sweep of the Vilas Palace, the public buildings, barracks and the forts. Nothing was left but the bare walls and a great litter of old documents. Even the Turkish newspapers were removed and the powder magazines pillaged.

The Turks appear to have had enormous supplies of ammunition, guns, rifles and projectiles. Quantities of powder, cartridges and shells have been recovered from the looters and the Italians have blown up three large powder magazines. Looters and escaped prisoners are constantly being captured.

Signs of loot are visible on all sides in the incongruous attire worn by miserable negroes and ragged native children, who for the first time in their lives are able to wear boots, frocks and fine clothes, formerly the summer uniform of the Turkish soldiers.

One of the curious sights of the town is the appearance of Turkish police and soldiers who have been enrolled in the Italian service, all clad in Turkish uniforms and wearing Turkish arms, accompanying the Italian governor and other officials and aiding the Italian marines to restore order and arrest criminals.

ITALY DISPATCHES BIG CONTINGENT TO TRIPOLI
Rome, Oct. 10.—(Via Frontier, Oct. 10.)—The greater part of the Italian army expedition is now on its way to Tripoli.

A big contingent comprising the largest part of the total force, sailed from Naples last night, and another fleet of transports left Taranto at sunrise today. More troops will depart from Agosta tonight. These three groups will assemble at one east of Malta.

All lights on the transports were extinguished at night and other vessels proceeded in two lines a half mile apart, having preceded, flanked and followed by battleships and cruisers. The warships in turn are protected on all sides by smaller but faster craft.

According to advices from Constantinople it appears that Turkey desired to have a Christian in the post of foreign minister and suggested several Armenians for the position. The naval attaches of all European countries and the United States, Japan and China, who will accompany the expedition, were most cordially received by the Italian naval and military officers. Great Britain in addition to a naval attaché, also sent a military attaché. The American attaché is Commander Andrew T. Long.

The transports leaving Naples were under the escort of a squadron sent purposely by Rear Admiral Aubrey, which was reinforced by other warships waiting outside the strait of Messina. The great secrecy concerning the sailing of the expedition is explained by the fact that the government realized the danger from a surprise attack on the forces at Tripoli, because of the withdrawal from the blockade along that coast of ships to convoy the transports. The sailors and crews landed at Tripoli were not considered sufficient to resist a serious offensive movement.

The precautions taken, however, seem excessive in this case as of late no Turkish warships have been sighted in the Mediterranean, while the Turkish garrison at Tripoli is hardly in condition to make an effective assault upon the town. The transports and conveying warships were ordered to proceed at a speed of ten miles an hour but to slow up at night, even stopping if advisable. The expedition is expected to reach Tripoli on Thursday.

Reports from Tripoli say the town is recumens its ancient aspect. There is much activity to repair the damage caused by the bombardment, and to resume all services. The market places are again scenes of animation. Arabs in picturesque attire, gathered around the cannon captured from the Turks. A squadron sent to Naples to escort the transports includes the battleships Vittorio Emanuele, Regina Elena, Roma and Napoli. They participated in the bombardment and landing at Tobruk. Officers of the battleships say the Turkish garrison made little resistance. As the boats with the landing parties neared the shore they were received by a hail of bullets. Without waiting for the boats to land, soldiers and sailors alike leaped into the sea, answered the fire of the enemy and then charged with bayonets driving the Turks before them. Officers of the battleships also say the losses at Tripoli included seven Europeans, most of them perishing of the German consulate and more than one hundred natives.

TURKISH SOLDIERS LACK PROVISIONS AND WATER
London, Oct. 10.—The Morning Post's Tripoli despatch, dated October 10, reports that the Turkish army under Munir Pasha is in a pitiable state from lack of provisions and water and that Munir Pasha is appealing to the Italian commander, Constantine, for help.

The Chronicle's Constantinople correspondent says that no Turkish soldiers will be allowed to pass through Egypt and that Bulgaria and Roumania have decided on a general mobilization. A run on the Turkish bank of Rome in Constantinople has resulted in the withdrawal of many millions of dollars.

TURKISH REFUGEES CLAIM THEY ARE ILL-TREATED
Malta, Oct. 10.—The Italian destroyer Borea, which arrived here yesterday, escorting the steamer Asyria, carrying many Turkish refugees from Tripoli, left port this morning. She was permitted to take only sufficient water to carry her to Syracuse. The Italian consul objected to the action of the British authorities, contending that as the Borea was escorting a steamer filled with passengers, the ship, she could not be considered as being employed for a warlike purpose, and should therefore have free use of a neutral port.

The refugees, who were permitted to land, will take the next steamer for Constantinople. They complained bitterly of ill treatment at the hands of Italians, saying that they had not been supplied with sufficient food or water.

A second Italian steamer with 150 Turks, their wives and families, departed from Tripoli, arrived here this afternoon. Many of the refugees will return to Tripoli on steamers which are now leaving daily.

THREE TURKISH VESSELS SUNK BY ITALIANS
London, Oct. 10.—A despatch to a London news agency, from Pera, says the Turkish torpedo boats Tokat, Hamid Abad, Alpazul and Antallia, which returned from the Ionian sea, were surprised by an Italian squadron near Mytilene, October 9. A smart engagement followed and three torpedo boats were severely damaged and sank. The fourth escaped by hoisting a foreign flag.

PREDICTED EARLY END OF STRIKE

Officials of Illinois Central and Southern Pacific Lines Optimistic Concerning Outlook For Settlement.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Chicago, Oct. 10.—President Markham, of the Illinois Central railroad, returned today from Jackson, Miss., where he had a conference with Governor Noel and strikers yesterday, and said he expected the strike to end soon.

His views were shared by Vice President Park, who said the men were beginning to realize the company intends to stand firmly in the position it has taken. "As the excitement wears off, the men are beginning to think seriously of the future," said Mr. Park.

Satisfactory conditions all along the line were reported by the officials.

DYNAMITER SOUGHT BY POLICE

Woman and Child Lose Lives in Destruction of Three-Story Building Near Wheeling.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 10.—John Bartosh, a Pole, suspected of having blown up a three-story building at Benwood, a suburb, today, and caused the death of Mrs. William Markanas and her eight-month-old child, is being sought by the police of this city and a dozen neighboring communities.

The explosion was instantly followed by fire and within a few minutes the large frame building was in flames. The upper floors were occupied by Polish families, but most of the occupants made their escape. Bartosh had had trouble with Edward Kokinski, who conducted a grocery store on the ground floor of the burned building and had threatened vengeance.

UNITED STATES CAN SUPPLY SUGAR FOR WORLD

This is Opinion of Secretary Wilson Who Declares Solution of High Priced Problem Rests With Beet Grower.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 10.—That the American public can forever deliver itself from the peril of high sugar prices is the opinion of Secretary Wilson of the department of agriculture, who says the remedy lies in the production of more sugar. He says that the production of beet sugar in America is increasing at a remarkable rate owing to the profit to the farmer and the increasing demand for the finished product.

Secretary Wilson is here attending the National Dairy show, where he spoke today. "The American farmer can raise enough sugar to supply the world, for even now Colorado, California and Wisconsin are raising great crops," he said.

Secretary Wilson has been experimenting with a seed which he hopes will be so perfected that there shall be but one germinating point per seed, thus eliminating the labor of thinning the crop, as the present seed has from one to five germinating points.

Clean pots and pans with GOLD DUST

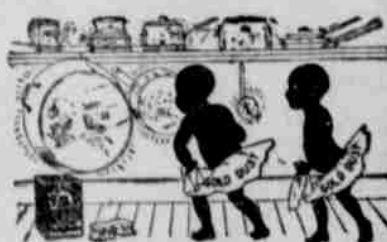

Germes of decay accumulate on oft-used pots and pans, and ordinary soap and water only clean off the surface.

Gold Dust does the work—and does it right. It digs deep after germes, cleans like a new whistle and leaves your pots and pans as new, as bright as the day they were new—and sanitarily safe.

Gold Dust does this work in just half the time required by soap or any other cleanser. Does it better, too.

Gold Dust cleans everything like magic.

ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO.

THE GROWTH OF THE PROTEST.

It needed only for the widespread sentiment against the old republican gang in New Mexico to assume definite and concrete form to bring out rapidly increasing strength in every part of New Mexico. Hardly a day passes but significant evidence of this feeling crops out in some county. One by one republican weekly newspapers are coming out in opposition to a perpetuation of gag rule for the benefit of a coterie of greedy politicians. There is hardly a day but what some expression of this feeling comes from the lips of some new recruit, now from the railroad man, again from the small ranchman, from the business man, the plainman, the average citizen who puts himself and his influence on record against the Bursum crowd. Probably in no state in the union has there been such a rapid and sudden development of the "insurgent" idea; the protest against oppression by political bosses and the corporate influences allied with them. The last few weeks have seen a state progressive league organized, with subsidiary branches in many counties and towns. The movement is gathering force and unity with every passing day and the handwriting on the wall is too plain for anyone to ignore except the crowd of spoils-seekers who have so long fattened at the expense of the people, and who see the biggest pickings in their history just in reach across the threshold of statehood. Dazzled by the glitter of the anticipated loot, these men are blind to what is going on around them.

New Mexico is moving ahead. She is done with men of the Bursum and Hubbell stamp. She is done with official incompetency, dishonesty and crookedness and has other uses for her great resources than to pour their proceeds into the coffers of the ring. It is time for a change, and the change is coming fast. W. C. McDonald, a plain, honest, open and above board New Mexico citizen, with no strings tied to him and no unsavory past, is going to be elected governor of the new state of New Mexico—and that without the aid of the whitewash brush.

AN INSTRUCTIVE OCCASION.

We trust that the opening meeting of Mr. Bursum's "vindication" tour in Las Vegas proved instructive to that gentleman. The facts about that monster outpouring were slow in arriving but they have reached us. Unluckily for the public belief in the stories sent out about the "ovation" this paper yesterday had the privilege of conversing with some gentlemen who had the pleasure of attending. From these we learned with interest that the Las Vegas hall was about two-thirds full, that one-third of this number were women and that over a third of the total left before the "vindication" meeting was half over. The best people of Las Vegas, the Grand Army men and others whose presence is always looked for at a real republican meeting were conspicuous by their absence.

It must have been instructive, we repeat, to Mr. Bursum to have that experience in what is regarded as one of the strongest republican counties in the state.

The handwriting on the wall grows larger every day—and more distinctly legible.

A GHASTLY DISCOVERY.

A terrible discovery has been made. The Tribune-Citizen announces with consternation that a large sum of money has been raised solely, openly and audaciously for the defeat of H. O. Bursum for governor.

"The democratic party," says the Trib-Cit, "does not appear to be so greatly interested in the balance of the ticket, but is concentrating on one man. This at least looks significant."

Hothers—what a revelation! "Think of the meanness of the democrats in attacking the head of the ticket."

"Kick us on the shin, if you must kick," wails the Tribune-Citizen, "but spare, oh spare our solar plexus!"

If Mr. Bursum's press bureau in Santa Fe, which is supplying the gang newspapers with this stuff, makes any more discoveries of that kind, the Trib-Cit will go mad.

THE FRIEND OF THE HOME-STEADER.

Mr. Bursum now appears in the spotlight as the friend of the small homesteader.

This will prove intensely interesting to some of those gentlemen who have run up against Mr. Bursum. Mr. Luna, Mr. Hubbell and others in the attempt to get a small farm in the vast empire of Socorro and Valencia counties. It will be indeed surprising to the gentlemen who have been persuaded to change their minds about settling in that section; who have seen the springs and water holes seized by the sheep and land barons, and who have seen themselves kept out of a home and a farm by the iron hand of the bosses. Even as the busy little water meter has aided the fortunes of Mr. Hubbell here, so has the necessary little water hole proved the key to the situation in Socorro county and Valencia county. There is little inducement to a poor man to get a piece of land, no matter how fertile if he is compelled by the water-hogs to go to the expense of drilling a well and putting in his own supply plant. It is excellent strategy—from the standpoint of the baron. It will hardly bring the vote of the man who is defrauded of the right to secure a home and a livelihood in New Mexico—all in a perfectly legal manner.

These little automobile rides enjoyed by the barons and the land department officials in the kingdoms of Socorro and Valencia have proven highly profitable. We shall endeavor to tell our anxious readers more about these methods before the campaign is over.

A MUTTER FOR THE ROOSTER.

The Poultry Show at the fair this week will call attention to the great profit there is in chicken raising. In these times of high prices many persons are seeking the assistance of the servicable hen to help out in providing the family meals. Our citizens are more interested now than ever before in this domestic animal and many back yards are now ornamented with chicken coops and houses. There has, however, been one drawback. The peace and happiness of the neighbors has been disturbed by the early crowing of the ambitious cock. This is such a nuisance that in consideration for the feelings of the surrounding late sleepers, many of our citizens have refrained from investing in the profitable chick. A late discovery by the police department of the city of Chicago enables any one to quell the early challenges which the fighting cocks issue from four to five a. m., and thus permit the light sleepers within a radius of several blocks to enjoy their early morning nap. It is suggested that our city council pass an ordinance requiring those who keep fowls to follow the prescription of the Chicago police department and thus put a quietus upon the city's cocks, at least until most of its inhabitants have left their downy couches. The following instructions to owners of roosters have been issued by Secretary Lathard of the Chicago police board:

"This department has received several complaints from persons whose early morning slumbers are disturbed by crowing roosters. It is natural for a rooster to crow, but in order to do so he must raise his head. A simple device to prevent the bird from crowing is to nail a board twelve inches above the perch in the chicken house. This will prevent the rooster from raising its head to the proper angle for crowing, thereby suppressing the claret notes."

THE CAT IS OUT.

Unluckily for W. C. McDonald, the imprisoned feline has escaped from the encompassing fabric.

It has leaked out that Mr. McDonald once served in the territorial legislature.

The democrats and all Mr. McDonald's friends have rightly made desperate efforts to keep this a secret. In view of the character and achievements of the typical legislator under the ring regime in New Mexico, you cannot blame Mr. McDonald's friends for trying to conceal the fact that he was once a member of one. Mr. McDonald, however, we believe, only committed the offense once; and he has undoubtedly lived it down by this time. Anyhow, the Santa Fe New Mexican, which lets the cat out of the bag, admits that "his record was not of such brilliant character as to merit any distinction or comment." This will go a long way toward redeeming his reputation. Still, we regret very much that Mr. McDonald has been found out; however being consoled by the fact that he was never warden of the penitentiary and never required the combined efforts of the territory and the federal government to straighten out his tangled accounts.

Mayor Llewellyn appears to be a candidate down in Dona Ana county. We were under the impression he was attending strictly to his official business.

Not strange at all that Don Francisco desires a short campaign. But even at that, you can tell the people quite a collection of facts in a week or two.

A lingering curiosity as to what is actually in the ballot boxes causes a great deal of disturbance in some communities.

The sugar trust seems to be as busy with the price mark as it used to be with the scales.

GOING SOME FOR VALENCIA.

The Helen Tribune is taking a few hot shots at the bosses which sound highly significant, coming from the county that made the sheep vote famous. It says, for instance:

"The Tribune is a republican newspaper and so is its editor, always has been and always will be. There is no necessity to state what the political principles of either the Tribune or its editor are. Both of these are well known facts to the people of New Mexico, and the residents of the county of Valencia. We have always fought bossism and ring rule and always shall. These things have no place in honest politics. The republican party does not recognize ringsters and bosses. It believes the names of candidates for official positions should be selected by good honest republican methods, where every delegate has the untrammelled right to vote for the man of his choice. The republican party does not believe its adherents should be led by a halter as a sheep to its slaughter to vote for this man or that man as a nominee or candidate of its party, who is not regularly nominated in open session, but who is selected in secret conclave."

"Upon this principle we stand and we ask every honest republican to stand for the same good old republican principles for which the great leader of the republican party, Abraham Lincoln stood for and died a martyr to its cause."

Russia's government will be neutral in the present European conflict; but it cannot be expected to guarantee positively the good behavior of its anarchist population.

We fear the voters will hardly trust Mr. Bursum, Mr. Hubbell, Mr. Luna and their friends to take charge of the administration of the lands of the new state.

CITIZEN HAS WORD FOR THE BOYS

Danger to Public From Playing On Streets Makes Ampler Playground Facilities Necessary, He Believes.

Mr. Editor:

A small boy about twelve years of age, living in the Highlands, said to me the other day: "Mister, what are we to do. The police will not let us play ball on the streets. One of the boys was arrested the other day and fined five dollars for just throwing a ball for another boy to catch. We tried to get a ball ground on the vacant lots on Central avenue between Walter and High streets but at our first game a foul ball was sent over into the fence of a neighbor and the man came out and stopped our playing. We went to another place and had the same thing happen to us. What are we to do?" I was compelled to answer him that I did not know. It is, however, a shame that ample play grounds are not provided in each ward. It seems to me that it is most strictly the province of the board of education to provide these than it is the park commission. In many cities it is true that the park boards provide these play grounds in their various parks, and where this can be done it answers the purpose. In some cases local societies formed of enterprising citizens maintain playgrounds. I talked a short time ago with a gentleman who for two years had been superintendent of play grounds in the city of Youngstown, Ohio. He told me that they maintained fourteen playgrounds, partly supported by the board of education, and partly by a local society. The services of a man and a woman at each of the play grounds was required. He told me that the boards of education all over the country were very backward about establishing play grounds and only acted when public sentiment was so aroused as to compel them to do so. It certainly seems as though the board of education was the proper authority to manage and control play grounds—for the same kind of discipline which prevails in the school room and on the very limited school grounds should prevail on play grounds. The longer the purchase of such grounds is put off the greater the price that must be paid, for they are a necessity quite as important as the school house. Perhaps the new high school could add a few thousand for the purchase and equipment of suitable play grounds. The following will show what Spokane is doing to provide parks and play grounds:

A Million for Park Sites.
"Spokane, Wash. — Park commissioners of Spokane will have placed at their disposal $1,000,000 for park sites, playgrounds and improvements as soon as the bonds are issued, the supreme court of the state of Washington having recently declared valid the election of May 2, 1910. Five hundred thousand dollars is to be expended in acquiring new park sites, upon which $250,000 worth of improvements will be made, and $250,000 has been set aside for playgrounds in various parts of the city. The park system embraces between 750 and 800 acres. The commissioners have pledged a park within ten minutes' walk of every home in Spokane."

Yours sincerely,
A Friend of the Boys.

Too Quick For Murderer at Lordsburg and Double Killing is Net Result of Gun Play By Bad Native.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal)

Deming, N. M., Oct. 9.—There was a killing at Lordsburg, New Mexico, last Saturday night that cost two Mexicans their lives before it was settled. While they were quarreling in the alley to the west of Roberts' and Leahy's store on Main street a gun play was made which resulted in one of the party being killed instantly. The murderer ran around the corner of the block and barricaded

The Cost of Purity exceeds all other Costs in Schlitz Brewing

We spend more on purity—more time, more skill and more money than on any other cost in our brewing.

We sterilize every tub, vat, tank—we scald every barrel—every pipe and pump—every time we use it.

We wash every bottle four times by machinery.

The air in which the beer is cooled is filtered.

Every bottle of Schlitz is sterilized, after it is sealed, by a process invented by Pasteur.

Light starts decay even in pure beer. Dark glass gives protection against light.

The brown bottle protects Schlitz purity from the brewery to your glass.

If you knew what we know about beer, you would say, "Schlitz—Schlitz in Brown Bottles."

See that crown or cork is branded "Schlitz."

He refused; he cocked his revolver he had in his hands and was in the act of shooting at the deputy sheriff, but the deputy was too quick. It took but one shot from his Winchester to bring the bad man to the ground. He lived but a few minutes after being shot.

At a meeting of the park committee held by the chamber of commerce last Saturday afternoon, the reports of the committee that had been appointed to ascertain the amount of dirt required to make the fill in front of the union depot reported that it would require about 2,000 yards of earth. A local contractor was asked to make a bid on the work, teams and feed to be furnished free.

Wall Street.

New York, Oct. 10.—Quotations held steady today, through an unusually quiet session of the stock exchange. There seemed to be no business and nothing to attract business.

The only appearance of activity was in the first hour when prices rose generally. The rise was only fractional in the active shares, except in the cases of Union Pacific and Lehigh Valley, each of which gained a point. It is probable that the buying which prompted the rise was in the nature of a demonstration against short interests. The movement was not effective and the market soon fell back.

Among the less active issues, Norfolk and Western was conspicuously strong with a 3 point gain. Several of the southern railroads continued yesterday's upward movement, but Atlantic Coast Line and Louisville & Nashville, which led in the advance, fell back sharply today. Allis-Chalmers preferred after its recent heavy break moved upward slowly today but the bonds showed further heaviness.

The decrease of $4,000 tons in the amount of unfilled orders on the books of the United States Steel corporation, September 30, as reported today was in a negative sense, unexpectedly favorable. Shipments during September were considerably heavier than in the preceding month and a heavier decrease than that reported was looked for. The statement, however, was without influence on the stock. Some gains were reported in the volume of new orders for steel products, but the increase was small in view of the low prices now prevailing and earnings for the current quarter, some of the steel companies are expected to show falling off. The copper market was heavy in sympathy with the lower quotations reported abroad. In view of yesterday's report of the copper producers disclosing a large increase in stocks of the metal lower prices are looked for by some consumers although sellers today made no material concessions. Exports thus far this month have been light. Closing stocks:

Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, Sept. 10.—Fear that Black Sea shipments would be hampered by the Turks had a bullish effect today on wheat. So did reports from the Argentine. In consequence the close was 1-8 to 1-2-5-8c higher than last night. Corn finished at 5-8 to 3-4c net advance; oats unchanged to 1-4c up, but hog products 12 1-2 to 1-4c to 1-2-5-8c down.

More apprehension regarding war entanglements developed than previous owing to the fact that Liverpool scored a sharp gain. In this connection wheat traders here took account of the world's available supply being now 17,000,000 bushels less than a year ago. News of heavy frost in Argentina seemed to be judged by many dealers to take rank as a factor on the buying side. Almost the only offset for the bears was the better weather and large receipts northwest. December varied from 98 to 98 1-2c and wound up 1-2-5-8c net higher at 98 1-4-5-8-8-2-5-8c.

Corn was lifted by means of foreign orders to purchase futures. December ranged from 64 1-8-5-8-1-4 to 64 7-8c, closing steady 5-8-3-4c up at 64 5-8-1-4-6-4 7-8c.

Cash grades were inactive. No. 2 yellow finished at 71 1-2-5-8-7-2c. Although show most of the time, oats gradually hardened late in the day with other grain. High and low points touched by December were 47 5-8-3-4-1-4 to 47 1-4c, and the close at 47 5-8c, exactly the same as last night.

On account of the big run of hogs, provisions ruled weak. The outcome was a decline all around, pork 25 to 27 1-2, lard 12 1-2-5-8-1-4c, and ribs 15 1-2 to 1-2-5-8c.

Mr. Hagen relieves Charles Heneau, who leaves the service of the Postal company to accept a responsible position with the Rocky Mountain Telegraph and Telephone company.

Harry C. Hall, former supervisor of the Crown national forest with headquarters at Antonito, Colo., but who for the past five months has been on leave of absence, which time he has spent in Florida, Ill., is in Albuquerque on his way to Phoenix, where he will take up special work in the forest service. Mrs. Hall accompanies him. They are guests at the Alvarado.

Another good-sized crowd witnessed the motion pictures of the Gotch-Bachenschnidt wedding, which was shown at the Elks' theater last night. Many who had attended the first night were again on hand last night. The pictures are so clear that Mrs. Gotch, the bride of the world's champion mat artist, can be readily distinguished as she sits near the ring as can also the mayor of Chicago and other notables. No one who is interested in wrestling should miss these pictures. They will be repeated tonight and tomorrow night.

C. Lucero and M. Beechell, both said to be from Belen, became entangled in a cutting scrape last night in front of the Sturges on Central avenue. M. Beechell objected to the attentions of C. Lucero and his knife so he proceeded to retaliate in kind. They had done each other any serious damage. One claimed that the other had before attempted something of the same kind of attack, but since the police could not reach the bottom of the story last night, the men were locked up in separate cells.

SIMON STERN, The Central Avenue ClothierDENTAL BOARD IN SESSION

Candidates For Licenses to Practice Profession in New Mexico Subjected to a Rigid Examination.

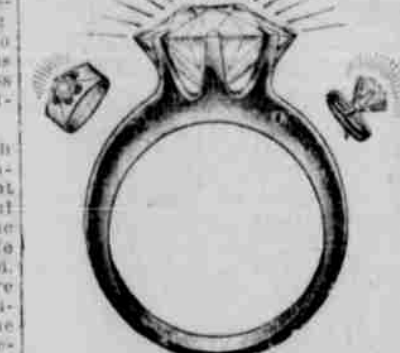

The board of dental examiners was in session again yesterday all day at the Commercial club examining candidates for license to practice dentistry in New Mexico. Following the meeting of the examining board the fourth annual session of the New Mexico Dental Society will be called to order, beginning Friday morning in the rooms of the Commercial club. A large number of New Mexico dentists have already gathered to attend the session, and still more are expected before the convention begins. From the standpoint of the profession the program which has been arranged is most interesting. A number of scientific papers are to be read and on Saturday a clinic demonstrating the actual practical work of the profession, and also some advanced ideas of some of the members will be held.

CHARITY BALL IS BIG EVENT ON FOR TONIGHT

Society Expected to Liberally Patronize Non-Sectarian Benevolent Association's Dance to Be Held at Elks Theater.

Tonight the first big social event to occur during the week of the state fair will take place in the hall room of the Elks' theater. It is the grand charity ball under the auspices of the Non-Sectarian Benevolent Association. The charity ball, while an annual event, is not connected with the fair, its occurrence this year having been a very fortunate coincidence, judging from the large advance sale of tickets.

As is well known the proceeds above expenses, go to the Non-Sectarian Benevolent association, perhaps the most laudable organization in Albuquerque, since its work is devoted to the care of the poor and sick who become charges upon the community. This association has helped thousands of people during its existence, people who otherwise would have become charges upon the city, which has no means of providing for them. A magnificent time is assured those who attend tonight's affair, which is expected to be more elaborate and

Hand painted china-ware, fancy work of every description and many novelties of every kind, requiring skill and science in design and execution, are included in the display. PRESIDENTIAL CLASS POSTMASTERS GATHER HERE IN CONVENTION

Postmasters of the first, second and third class postoffices of New Mexico, which include those postmasters who are appointed by the president and are therefore designated as of the presidential class, opened their first state convention here yesterday in the federal building. Another session will be held today. It is expected that at this convention a postmasters' association will be formed for the purpose of promoting efficiency in the duties to be performed and a feeling of personal friendship among Uncle Sam's federal representatives, who, perhaps more than any other class of government employees or officials, get closer to the mass of the people, since every man, woman and child, patronizes the postoffice. Besides those postmasters already here, others were expected to arrive on the night train and today's attendance at the convention promises to be double that of yesterday. R. W. Hopkins, the veteran postmaster in New Mexico and the only one having the distinction of presiding over an office of the first class which is housed in the most magnificent government building in the Southwest, is making the visiting postmasters feel perfectly at home and he is entertaining them in a way that makes them glad they journeyed here to attend the convention and the state fair.

G. S. LOVERN.Corsets

The very foundation of stylish appearance is the unseen apparel--the corset in particular. In our Corset section we are displaying complete lines of American Lady, Madam Irene, Gage-Downs and Thompson's Glove-Fitting. They are all standard makes and finely made in batiste, coutil or brocade, with the low bust and extremely low hip. Particularly are our lines adapted for those who recognize the advantages of wearing a perfect corset.

Did it ever occur to you that the posture of a young girl is oftentimes directly traceable to the fit of her corset, and the habit of standing correctly and throwing her shoulders back, if cultivated when young will always be maintained? A well fitting corset for the growing girl is a great aid to a correct posture, besides helping to form a correct figure--Our corsets for misses and young girls are built on the lines necessary to carry out the above features--priced at $1.00 and up.
