WALSH MAKES GREATEST FLIGHT OF THEM ALL

As on the two preceding days, the two flights by Charles F. Walsh in his Curtiss biplane, were the big features of yesterday's program at the state fair. So tremendous is the interest and enthusiasm aroused among the people by these spectacular flights that arrangements have been made for the biplane to give his most impressive demonstrations this afternoon.

Mr. Walsh will perform two flights during one of which he will drop imaginary bombs on a dummy battleship in the infield in front of the grandstand to show the possibilities of the aeroplane as an engine of destruction in modern warfare.

The last flight which started at 5:05 o'clock yesterday afternoon and lasted for twenty minutes, was the most beautiful yet made here by this expert aviator of the air, who has made two thousand flights during his career. Mr. Walsh veered north and west after leaving the fair grounds and was soon lost to sight to the grandstand in the direction of the main peak of the Sandias. People in the Highlands first saw him coming from the south of the fair grounds, visible, having reached a point north and east of the University. He thence flew in sweeping, graceful curves, transverse over the city from a point south of the University to the fair grounds, passing directly over the Luna Strickler and Korber buildings, headed northwest, and at an immense height, estimated between 1,000 and 2,000 feet. The express train speed of the aeroplane was especially evident as he passed over the city from side to side and everywhere in his path business men and the population generally rushed into the street and peered with fascinated eyes at the albatross sailing swiftly above their heads. It was a most beautiful and awe-inspiring sight and one not soon to be forgotten. This was the longest flight yet made by Mr. Walsh here and he covered between 25 and 30 miles. On the first flight he contented himself with a low altitude, sweeping in circles in front of the grandstand and dipping and rising at times perilously near the tree tops.

The big crowd which went to the park to see the aviator fly again yesterday, again demonstrated the fact that he is the biggest drawing card ever brought to a fair here by the announcement that he will fly again on the last day of the carnival. The rest of the program at the park yesterday was up to the standard with fast races and good baseball and the football game proved the most successful especially in point of attendance, ever held.

The baseball finale today will keep the fans sitting up and taking hilarious notice, for on the outcome of today's games depends whether Albuquerque queque or El Paso gets first money in the big tournament.

The grand Montezuma ball last night, the most brilliant social event of the year in New Mexico, was all that was expected and a gorgeous success. The Nat. Reels carnival did a big business and tonight will see the carnival grounds, spacious as they are, jammed and packed with a mass of jostling, laughing humanity; for tonight is the Grand Carnival and everybody will be out, whirling dizzily on the joy wheel, gazing in astonishment on the Fat Lady and the Ossified Man, watching with bated breath the terrifying high dive and the leap of death and hurling confetti to the turquoise sky or thereabouts. The idea tonight is to have a good time and judging by the spirit of frolic which has prevailed all the week, the people are going to turn the old town upside down tonight.

Be there—and have a GOOD TIME.

BODY OF VICTIM OF SAN JUAN FLOOD RECOVERED

Loss in Northwest New Mexico Now Estimated at Close to Five Hundred Thousand; Orchard Escape Deluge.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal) Farmington, N. M., Oct. 13.—The body of Frank B. Tice, a farmer at the Methodist Mission near this place, who was drowned in the recent floods, has been recovered and will be shipped to his home at Polo, Ill. He carried $25,000 life insurance. The loss in property is now variously estimated at from $25,000 to half a million dollars. Fully fifty residences in the low lands and all the buildings at the Methodist mission on the San Juan river were swept away. Five government buildings at Shiprock were destroyed and several others injured.

The towns of Farmington, Aztec, Bloomfield, Bland, Cedarhill and Fruitland were not injured. The orchards are practically all on the higher lands and are uninjured.

HARRIMAN LINES RUN ALL TRAINS ON SCHEDULE

Ogden, Utah, Oct. 13.—All through trains on the Harriman lines are running on their schedules at this point. The Southern Pacific company is continuing to put additional men in their shops here. The strikers continue picketing around the railroad stockade.

Early this morning two union pickets attempted to speak to two strike breakers who were returning to the stockade, but the latter immediately drew guns and drove the pickets down the street. This caused the report to spread that a riot had started in the railroad district and many special police hurried to the scene.

HEARTY WELCOME ACCORDED TAFT IN CALIFORNIA

INSURGENT GOVERNOR INTRODUCES PRESIDENT

Reception in San Francisco Said to Be Most Enthusiastic Since Trip Began; Review of Bluejackets at Oakland.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 13.—President Taft found what may prove to be the heartiest welcome of his entire trip awaiting him here in San Francisco tonight. He spent the entire day in the state, traveling down from the northern border, where Governor Hiram W. Johnson and a party of officials met him.

Governor Johnson is the insurgent republican leader in the state and much interest was manifested in what he had to say in introducing the president. The governor used, but few words and invariably referred to Mr. Taft as "the president of the United States."

It was at Marysville this morning that the governor appeared on the platform with the president. "Ladies and gentlemen," he said, "welcome to the president of the United States."

At the state capital, Sacramento, Mr. Johnson spent two hours and spoke on the capital steps. Governor Johnson then introduced the president, who was still suffering today from hemorrhoids.

"We are always glad to have a president of the United States with us," he said, "and we are doubly glad today. I bespeak your close attention and ask you to maintain as much quiet as possible to relieve the strain under which he has been suffering on his long tour. So, without further ado, ladies and gentlemen, I present the president of the United States."

Governor Johnson did not attend the banquet in honor of the president in San Francisco tonight, but will speak with him tomorrow at the ground breaking ceremonies of the Panama-Pacific International exposition to be held in celebration of the formal opening of the Panama canal in 1915. The governor, it is said, will accompany the president to Los Angeles Monday night.

Throughout the day great throngs greeted the president. Governor Johnson said the crowds on the streets of Sacramento were the largest he had ever seen there. The street throng was not demonstrative, but the several thousand persons who listened to the president's speech constantly interrupted him with applause.

The president will remain here until Sunday night.

At Oakland, where he stopped for an hour and a half, this afternoon, Mr. Taft attended the laying of the cornerstone of the new municipal building. He also passed in review several thousand bluejackets and marines from the Pacific fleet. The demonstration in Oakland surpassed the reception given Mr. Taft two years ago. It was after dark when he set foot in San Francisco and the ferry building and several other big structures were outlined in electric bulbs in his honor. As he passed up Market street, cheering thousands lined the way, keeping the president on his feet, bowing and waving. His hat all the way to the Press Club, where he attended a brief reception before going to his hotel. From the Press Club Mr. Taft went to his hotel for a short time and then to the formal banquet, the event of the night.

MAJORITY OF TWO THOUSAND FOR SUFFRAGE

California Voters Endorse Every Constitutional Amendment Submitted By Legislature.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 13.—Returns received from 2,944 precincts out of 3,121 in the state give:

For woman's suffrage, 121,166; against, 118,568.

Majority for suffrage, 2,498. The remaining precincts are in remote mountain districts and their vote is small.

One of the important amendments adopted Tuesday, by a vote of more than two to one, was that known on the ballot as Number 9. It is designed to free the criminal procedure of California from technicalities. Hereafter no judgment shall be set aside or new trials granted in a criminal case on account of the improper direction of the jury or the admission or rejection of evidence unless upon review of the whole case, including the evidence, the court shall be convinced that the error complained of has resulted in a miscarriage of justice.

WATERWAYS CONFERENCE MAY CRITICIZE TAFT

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 13.—An effort to inject a criticism of President Taft into the resolutions being prepared by the resolutions committee of the Lakes to Gulf Deep Waterways association was the occasion of debate at the meeting of the committee tonight. The criticisms were based upon the alleged failure of the president to cause work on the opening of the Mississippi and a call for an application jointly by congress and by the state legislatures to start work on the deep channel soon.

SELECTION OF JURY IN M'NAMARA CASE THREATENS TO BE A TEDIOUS TASK

Entire Day Devoted to Examination of One Talesman and Adjournment Finds Work Far From Completion.

OPPOSING ATTORNEYS BATTLE DESPERATELY

Magnitude of Issues Involved in Deciding Eligibility of Men Summoned Insures Prolonged Contest.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 13.—After two days of court session in the trial of James E. McNamara for the murder of Charles J. Hagerity, a victim of the Los Angeles Times explosion and fire, October 1, 1910, no juror had been selected even tentatively tonight, and no decision had been reached as to the eligibility of the first talesman examined. Although court proceedings moved forward without interruption, the magnitude of the issues involved in the examination of Z. T. Nelson, the first talesman, made proceedings deliberate.

At sunset when court adjourned arguments on Nelson's status remained unfinished. At the close of court, Sheriff W. A. Hammel and a deputy escorted the prisoner from the hall of records to the adjoining court house corridor and across a narrow aisle to the jail where his brother, John J. McNamara, is confined, awaiting his trial.

A provision of the constitution of the state of California differing somewhat from the constitution of the United States, sections of the state penal code regarding the qualifications of jurors, and a contest over the meaning of the record of Nelson's examination, combined to furnish points of contest which affect not alone the talesman under examination, but every prospective juror, and for this reason, are stubbornly contested. The courtroom scene, where, opposing counsel argued for every point of advantage in the struggle over a man's life, was relieved once or twice by touches of unconscious humor, which seemed to appeal to the court. Once when G. Ray Horton, a boyish attorney, who, single-handed, made the long afternoon's argument for the state, assured the court that he was not intending to "swing an effigy of error to terrify your honor." Judge Bordwell smiled broadly.

"No, no," he said, understandingly, and settled himself to listen further. By chance, one of the cases cited by Attorney Horton to show the law regarding eligibility of talesmen, was that of Juror Arthur in the trial of Abraham Ruef, now serving a fourteen-year sentence in San Quentin for bribery in the so-called San Francisco graft case.

Another case cited was the famous one of "Red Shirt" Gordon, who with a bang of fellow convicts, fought his way out of Folsom penitentiary in one of the most sensational breakouts in freedom the west has ever known.

The constitution of California guarantees a fair trial "for all parties in litigation," where as that of the United States guarantees such rights to the defendants. The penal code of the state under the constitution of the legislature, was intended, Horton declared, to enable intelligent men to serve on juries, and allows any to do so, under usual restrictions, who are not of a "state of mind which will prevent acting with entire impartiality and without prejudice to the substantial rights of either party."

On these two propositions Attorney Horton based his argument, contending first that the rights of the state must be preserved as scrupulously as those of the defendant, and further that the criminal code made express provision for jury service for a man of Nelson's frame of mind.

Interrupted in a declaration that Nelson had declared he was without bias toward the defense, Attorney Horton remarked that if the record showed otherwise it was because the talesman had confused the defendant's own case with his expressed opinion that the Times building was blown up by dynamite.

The record, as read by Attorney Scott of the counsel for the defense, quoted Nelson as saying that he had opinion concerning McNamara's guilt or innocence, that he held such opinion for four months and it would take strong evidence to dislodge it. Judge Bordwell announced that he would go over the record on this point.

Attorney Clarence S. Darrow made the argument against the accepting of Nelson as a juror after he had been challenged on grounds of bias, earlier in the day.

"No section of the criminal code can change a man's constitutional rights," was his opening statement. "A defendant must be tried by a jury, not by a ratification meeting. Never before have I seen an officer of the state asking the defense to take a juror who has sworn that he has held an opinion for months as to the defendant's guilt or innocence, and that it would take strong evidence to remove that opinion."

"The legislature in enacting the penal code," added Darrow, "perhaps thought to take away some of the same safeguards that surround life," and he remarked:

"I presumed we could convince the state's attorney here if we got proof enough."

McNamara throughout the afternoon sat against the rail, clasping his knees with his hands and looking steadily at his counsel.

There will be a two hour session of court tomorrow.

It had not been expected to hold court tomorrow, but the state called attention to the fact that the talesmen were being kept in confinement and that every effort should be made to expedite the release of those who eventually were not to qualify as jurors.

FLOOD-MCDONALD MEETING TO BE HELD TONIGHT AT THEATER

People's Candidate For Governor and Democratic Congressman to Address Voters On the Issues.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION HELD TODAY

McDonald, Prichard and Others Address Large Meetings at Estancia and Willard and Hand Out a Few Hot Ones.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)

Henry D. Flood, chairman of the committee on territories of the house of representatives at Washington, and Captain W. C. McDonald of Carrizozo, democratic nominee for governor of New Mexico, will address a mass meeting of voters tonight at 8 o'clock, at the Elks' theater. Other well-known speakers will be on the program. It is desired to make this a great non-partisan demonstration in favor of good government and against the non-partisan ring of republicans, grafters and office seekers which has dictated the nomination of a republican ticket. All persons who want a clean, stable, honest government for the new state are urged to attend this meeting.

TRIPOLI WELCOMES ITALIAN ARMY

Arabs Tired of Turkish Oppression Voluntarily Serve New Conquerors; Peace Proposals Reported.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)

Tripoli, Oct. 13.—The landing of artillery, ammunition and stores from Italian transports is being effected. Large numbers of Arabs are voluntarily serving as porters. Today thousands of rations were distributed among the famishing populace, many of whom kissed the hands of the Italian officers and called down upon them the blessings of Allah.

Last night troops exploring the outskirts encountered fifty Turkish soldiers, who, when challenged, laid their arms down and said they desired to surrender. The officers in command, told the Italians that two thousand Turks were camped near the oasis of Beni Adam.

They would fight desperately, he said, if attacked but were prepared to surrender if assured they would be permitted to take a steamer for Constantinople.

ITALY MAKES PEACE PROPOSALS TO TURKEY

London, Oct. 13.—The Constantinople correspondent of the Chronicle has stated that Italy, counseled by the powers, has made proposals to Turkey, which are expected to bring about peace.

Honesty, Economy And Efficiency; Another Platform Fake

"We favor," say the republican ring bosses, in their platform drafted at Las Vegas, "an honest, economical and efficient administration of the affairs of our state."

This takes rank with some of the other things in the platform as one of the prize witticisms and subtlest pieces of humor handed out for the delectation of the voters for many moons.

"Honesty—Economy—Efficiency"—the three things whose glaring absence has made the Bursum ring notorious throughout New Mexico for ten years!

Is it honesty, economy and efficiency which have characterized the conduct of the affairs of New Mexico by this ring for the past decade?

Is it honesty, economy and efficiency which have marked the stolen elections, the official peculations, the bankrupting of Bernalillo county, the looting of the school funds, the dodging of taxes, the misappropriation, the squandering, the gross misuse of funds entrusted to public officials for the benefit of the people?

Is it honesty, economy and efficiency which made famous the administration of the territorial prison by H. O. Bursum, who got several thousand public dollars tangled up in his private bank account and whose mismanagement of one subordinate department of the territorial government put the territory and government to great expense to straighten out the prison accounts?

Is it honesty, economy and efficiency which found their expression in the ruinously extravagant padded pay rolls of the legislatures?

Have honesty, economy and efficiency been prominent in the administration of the public lands of this state by the men who have so long held the reins of power?

Are honesty, economy and efficiency subserved by protecting big corporations from assuming their proper proportion of the burden of supporting the state?

Have honesty, economy and efficiency been a feature of the shameless, gang-led legislatures of the territory in years past whose extravagance and whose special legislation have made the territory a by-word throughout the nation?

In the name of common sense and decency, have the members of the plunderbund ever demonstrated to the people that they are capable of anything in public life but dishonesty, extravagance and inefficiency?

Are sensible, intelligent citizens going to swallow a platform whose every principle is belied by the records of the men who have foisted it upon the voters?

The distinguished visitors will be met at the Alvarado by a torchlight escort and taken to the theater and the democrats, progressive republicans and good government forces will make this the occasion of a tremendous demonstration for the next governor of New Mexico. Mr. Flood spoke at Las Vegas last night and is expected to arrive here this morning on the limited.

Mr. McDonald, who has already got well into the swing of his campaign, having addressed a number of big meetings, arrived here yesterday.

The democratic county and district conventions will be held this morning at 10 o'clock in the Elks' theater for the nomination of county candidates, district judge and attorney and state senator from the district composed of Bernalillo, Sandoval and San Juan counties. The democrats and progressives plan to make a big day and a big night of it, and owing to the presence in the city of many fair visitors, they will undoubtedly succeed in giving the campaign a start off which will make the eagle scream.

MCDONALD AND PRICHARD AT ESTANCIA AND WILLARD
On Thursday Mr. McDonald and Col. W. G. Prichard, progressive republicans, addressed big meetings at Estancia and Willard. The meeting at Estancia was held in the afternoon and drew a large crowd of enthusiastic democrats and republicans from various parts of Torrance county, while the meeting at Willard, called between trains in the evening, developed into another ovation for the next governor. At Estancia Col. Prichard made a red hot speech of denunciation of hypocrisy and weakness of the republican platform and candidates in his well-known ironic style and reviewing the causes which have led to the present progressive movement and its rapid growth, he counseled Col. Prichard said among other things:

"I am a republican. I believe in republican principles, but I do not believe in the prostitution of those principles by a gang of selfish politicians."

"The progressive republican move in this state has been made necessary by the fact that those at the head of the party through their sordid and selfish interest, have not only brought the party name into practical disrepute, but have also brought it into disrepute by their own conduct. They have forced many republicans entirely out of the organization. In 1905, when Miguel A. Otero left the office of governor, he had by the wisdom of his administration, built up a reputation for honesty and integrity, and a gross of about 9,000. In 1908, that majority had dwindled down to less than four hundred. The cause of the change can be summed up in a very few words: Gang politics in the interest of low, and gross party mismanagement."

"The progressive republican move is a means to an end. It is to awaken in the minds of the people the necessity of eliminating the corrupting influence of special interest in politics, and the introduction of cleaner political methods by which honest leaders will take the place of party bosses, and delegates to conventions will no longer be dummies to be moved about on the political chess board by three or four men in furtherance of mercenary or political motives."

"The Progressive League of this state stands in adverse position to the reactionaries and retrogressives of the party. The republican party has never been a reactionary party, and it is not within the power of a few men to make it so. It is a party of advancement. It has its origin in progressive ideas. It has always had the capacity to meet problems of state, and dispose of them as they arose to the satisfaction of the people. Reactionaries have never organized a party, and they could not do so were they to try. Their fort is to destroy, not to build, as is evidenced by what they have done in this state within the last few years."

"The standpat or reactionary welcomes no change. He sits at the mouth of the cave and gnaws on the dry bones of the past. It was the standpat who regretted the departure of the blind laws, the trial of witches, the freedom of slaves. He faces the sunset, not the sunrise. He dreams of the things that were and rejects all progress—hence he is opposed."

posed to primary election laws, the election of United States senators by the people, an easy amendment of the constitution, when required, a reasonable initiative and referendum, freedom from the corrupting influence of corporations in politics, and the elimination of party bosses.

But the progressive republicans welcome changes that are beneficial to the people whether commercial or political. As they welcome the power of steam, the use of electricity, other methods of transportation, so they welcome the people who are the source of all welcome political progress, giving to political power a larger and more direct share in the affairs of government.

"We might as well undertake to abate the usual height of the floods, change the course of the stars, or compel the trees on the mountain tops to cease their motion in the forest winds, as to attempt to check this growing and expanding sentiment of progressive politics. Its force has swept the revolutionaries of other states and when the people of New Mexico understand the full import of the political inquiries of the house politicians, the results will be no less far-reaching here."

"There are times in the history of all countries when the public conscience is aroused over some great civic or political abuse of power. For many years New Mexico has been a lawless territory. So anarchistic have their operations become that the people are at last taking matters into their own hands, and the end will come only when the staggering blow is struck. It is idle for us to host of individual freedom, our equality before the law, our political rights under a republican form of government when the voice of the individual is smothered in nominating conventions, and the teeth of monopoly are ready to clutch the throats of the people through subsidized agents and attorneys employed for that purpose."

"In the recent convention at Las Vegas was found the culmination of all of the iniquities known to man. It was the concentration of the most vicious form of boss rule. It did not have the semblance of a liberation common to representative bodies. Its aim was too clear to need the voice of the voter. It was the sine qua non, the plus ultra of all that scheming, trading and treachery in politics stands for. There were three classes of men in that convention. Three or four hundred who from their dark closet pulled the wires and dictated nominations; those who fell down before the bosses as supplicants for favors expected; and those who were not; and those who showed their independent manhood who were in the minority, by refusing to become sycophants for the sake of office."

"We have a republican party in this state, but we have no republican organization worthy of the name. A band of manipulators and plunderers combining for their own selfish interests, and the special interests behind them, is not a political organization in any sense. It is a junta of men cooperating together for political and mercenary ends. Politics with them is a stock in trade and the officers of state are reckoned by them as an asset to be paroled out where it will do the most good to their interest."

"You are not experimenting on yourself when you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a cold, as that preparation has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds, and can always be depended upon. It is equally valuable for adults and children, and may be given to young children with implicit confidence as it contains no harmful drug. Sold by all dealers."

BODY OF VICTIM OF FLOOD FLOATS 50 MILES

Skeleton of 14-Year-Old Girl Drowned in Pajarito Creek Near Tucumcari Found After Several Weeks.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Tucumcari, Oct. 13.—The skeleton of Mary Lee Kerner, the 14-year-old school girl, who was drowned in Pajarito creek, north of Tucumcari several weeks ago, has been discovered floating in the Canadian river near the Rock Island railway bridge at Logan, this county, last night. The distance was nearly fifty miles from the scene of the accident. The remains were identified by a friend of one of the fingers, the name of the girl being engraved upon a U. S. Friends in this city were notified and the body shipped here where the internment took place at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. The girl lost her life when a sheet of sand covered it, while she was trying to cross a drift wood from the swollen river in a few weeks ago. Search at the time failed to reveal the corpse, it being considered that it was buried in the sands. The girl was the daughter of Mrs. Fanny Kerner of this city.

JUST TRY A TEN CENT BOX OF CASCARETS

Insures You for Months Against a Sick Headache, Biliousness, Constipation or a Bad Stomach.

Put aside—just once—the Salts, Cathartics, Pinks, Castor oil or purgative waters which merely force passage through the bowels, but do not thoroughly cleanse, freshen and purify those drainage or alimentary organs, and have no effect whatever upon the liver and stomach. Keep your inside organs pure and fresh with Cascarets, which thoroughly cleanse the stomach, remove the undigested food and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poisons in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep, remove grime, sludge and cod oil to create a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have Headaches, Biliousness, coated tongue, indigestion, sour stomach or constipated bowels. Cascarets belong in every household. Children just love to take them.

SIXTY THOUSAND PEOPLE EXPECTED TO SEE GAME

Angry Mutterings Against Management For Allowing Bulk of Tickets to Fall Into Hands of Speculators.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) New York, Oct. 13.—With the stage set and the curtain about to be raised on the final act of a season of memorable baseball, the night before the opening game of the world's baseball championship between the Philadelphia Athletics and the New York Nationals may be epitomized as follows:

The forty-four eligible players are reported to be in fine condition, with one exception—First Baseman McInnes of Philadelphia, whose injury would have kept him out of the game. Pitchers were not chosen tonight, or if they were neither manager would divulge his choice. Tickets to the series, though still to be had, are mainly in the hands of speculators, who are charging exorbitant prices. The disclosure that speculators had obtained great blocks of tickets precipitated a tremendous row among the fans.

Vague charges were made of mal-rubbery in connection with the ticket scandal.

All is ready at the Polo grounds for a crowd of nearly 60,000 people, the largest that ever saw a baseball game.

So determined were some that they formed in line at the grounds late this afternoon intending to eat and sleep at the gate until admitted tomorrow.

The police look for trouble as they have been ordered to arrest ticket scalpers. It was rumored that hundreds of counterfeit tickets were in circulation.

Betting continued practically even. Many Philadelphia supporters gave odds of 10 to 1.

The probable line-up is:

New York:
Doyce, left field.
Doyle, second base.
Snoogans, center field.
Murray, right field.
Merlie, first base.
Hendel, third base.
Fletcher, short stop.
Myers, catcher.
Marmorek or Mathewson, pitcher.
Philadelphia:
Lord, left field.
Collins, center field.
Collins, second base.
Fisher, third base.
Murphy, right field.
McInnes or Davis, first base.
Parris, short stop.
Thompson, catcher.
Hender or Connors, pitcher.
Empire—Choice of two from Klem and Brennan of the Nationals and Connolly and Tibben of the Athletics.

Philadelphia's two Philadelphia players picked as eligible arrived in New York tonight. The party was headed by Manager Connie Mack, accompanied by the wives of a majority of the players and a few Philadelphia supporters.

All the men look in the pink of condition and in but one exception did look like the truth. The exception was "Stuffy" McInnes, Philadelphia's star first baseman. Will McInnes play? The question was the one thing which arose for discussion as a small party of New York friends met the Philadelphia players when they stepped off their train at the Pennsylvania station shortly after 6 o'clock.

The few Philadelphia fans who followed the train over said they looked to see Doyle take the initial walk, but later in the evening it was stated in analysis came to the management that Harry Davis, the veteran first baseman, would take his old place in McInnes' stead.

Who will pitch? The question remained unanswered by Manager Mack who insisted that no announcement would be made.

"Who will pitch?" said "Chief" Hendel. Before midnight a crowd of more than 5,000 persons had gathered about the Polo grounds, but a majority were sightseers. It was estimated that five hundred ticket seekers were in line and their number kept growing.

It looked to many residents of up-town apartments as though the Polo grounds was on fire and they recalled the spectacular burning of the stands last spring. Tonight's blaze, were huge bonfires, overlooking the ball field. Several had brought small tents and camped out for the night on the rocks. Others did a big business of selling hot dogs.

PHILADELPHIA RECEIVE ROUSING SEND OFF FROM FANS Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 13.—The American league champions received a rousing send off from the fans at North Philadelphia station when the team departed for New York to defend their title of champions of the world.

Of even greater interest than the departure of the team was the question which has arisen among fans as to how they are going to get admittance to the games. In spite of the fact that only four seats were announced to be sold to each applicant, speculators appear to have an almost unlimited supply.

The regular ticket offices in the city hotels here were offering seats not only for the local games, but for the contests in New York. The prevailing price was $10 a seat for each game. Many of the rooters who are going to New York tomorrow to cheer their favorites paid that price so as to insure admittance to the Polo grounds.

President Shibe of the Philadelphia club emphatically denied there had been any collusion with speculators in the local sale of tickets. He offered to open the books to public inspection in order that any one could see just who received the ticket allotment. "There were only 10,000 reserved seats for each game," he said, "and after the National commission and the players had received their allotment there were not many left for the general public. Naturally those who applied for the full series received first consideration and we were obliged to return the money of many who applied on the first day of the sale."

The Royal Mouth and the Royal Disease.
Sudden changes of weather are especially trying, and probably to more than to the scrofulous and consumptive. The progress of scrofula during a normal October is common. We never think of scrofula as a disease, but it is a disease, and wasting of the body substance, without thinking of the great good many sufferers from it have derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla, whose radical and permanent cures of this one disease are enough to make it the most famous medicine in the world. There is probably not a city or town where Hood's Sarsaparilla has not proved its merit in more homes than one, in arresting and completely eradicating scrofula, which is almost as serious and as much to be feared as its near relative, consumption.

FLOOD ADVOCATES BLUE BALLOT IN LAS VEGAS

MULTITUDE TURNS OUT TO HEAR CONGRESSMAN

Man Responsible For Change in New Mexico Constitution Accorded Enthusiastic Reception By Meadow City People.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal) Las Vegas, N. M., Oct. 13.—Continuing his triumphal trip through New Mexico, Congressman Henry D. Flood addressed an immense mass meeting here tonight at the Duncan opera house, the theater being packed to the doors. Never in the history of this city has there been such an outpouring of people to attend a political gathering and this fact demonstrates the intense interest taken in present campaign by the people of New Mexico. Among those attending were many republicans, now classed as progressives who have tired of boss rule and machine politics in San Miguel county and who will vote on November 7, as their conscience dictates.

Congressman Flood was introduced to the audience by Judge E. V. Long, a former chief justice of New Mexico, and one of the veteran members of the democratic party in this state.

The speaker was extended an unprecedented ovation. He launched quickly into his subject, that of the merits and demerits of the constitution framed for the new state. Mr. Flood urged his auditors to ratify the blue ballot amendment to the constitution if they would escape the grip of the corporations for perhaps all time to come. He answered the recent denunciation of Frank Springer on the constitution, in which that gentleman had cited the constitution of the United States as an example of a document not too easy of amendment. Alluding to Mr. Springer's discussion of this particular feature of the federal constitution, Mr. Flood characterized the comparison as particularly unfortunate inasmuch as the federal fundamental law had been amended very recently so as to provide for an income tax, and that there was pending now a proposition to adopt an amendment to it providing for the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people.

The speaker refuted his assertion that but for the agreement at the eleventh hour that Arizona should vote the recall out of its constitution as a condition of admission, and New Mexico should vote on the proposition to make its constitution easier of amendment, staidhood for the two territories would not have been secured. He said it was through the efforts of the democrats in congress that staidhood was secured.

Congressman Flood went into the amendment clause of the New Mexico constitution at great length. He said that it had been drawn and incorporated at the instance of the corporations and gave them a firm grip on the state. He said that the legislative apportionment was so fixed as to make it practically an impossibility for the constitution to ever be amended, since the balance of power lay in those strong republican counties like Valencia, Socorro, Rio Arriba and Colfax. He particularly emphasized the fact that it was now or never, perhaps, and that the people should see that the blue ballot was adopted by a big majority.

At the conclusion of the meeting, hundreds in the audience crowded on the stage to shake hands with Mr. Flood and congratulate him on his address. That his speech was fully understood was evidenced time and again by thunderous applause.

Congressman Flood leaves in the California limited in the morning for Las Vegas.

DEMOCRATS NAME STRONG TICKET IN GUADALUPE

Convention at Vaughn Concludes Its Labors With Selection of Bunch of Winners to Go Before the People.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal) Vaughn, N. M., Oct. 13.—The Guadalupe county democratic convention completed its work today with the nomination of a full legislative and county ticket. The nominations in every case were made by acclamation. Following is the ticket:
For representative, B. R. Baker.
For sheriff, Pelagio Casaus.
For probate judge, Serafin Otero.
For treasurer and collector, Solomon Sanchez.
For assessor, A. A. Tipton.
For clerk, F. C. Baca.
For county commissioners, Benjamin Padilla, John Melexan and E. Nelson.

For survivor, George Freeman.

The convention, which lasted over two days, was marked by the utmost enthusiasm and determination that none but the best men should be given places on the ticket, and it is believed that the result of its deliberations will insure a tremendous majority, not alone for the county ticket, but for the state ticket in Guadalupe.

The convention was addressed by Judge W. H. McGill, candidate for attorney general. Yesterday the assembly listened to speeches by H. B. Ferguson, candidate for congress, and by Manuel U. Vigil, of Albuquerque.

The notice of a liberal reward for information leading to the conviction of the person or persons who cut and broke off three small locust trees on the south side of Robinson Park published in another column calls public attention to an act of vandalism which will meet the hearty denunciation of every right-minded citizen. It is certainly to be hoped that the commission will receive such information as will enable it to punish the perpetrator. The property should receive the most liberal care and all should realize that all trees, shrubs and flowers in our city parks are the people's and must be preserved.

side bodied men would do at a length on the cool grass beneath the trees in Robinson park and delicately with knives dig out the grass, the roots, leaving large bare spots which would require time and labor to cover over with grass. In many cases doubtless this was done thoughtlessly but it really no more as men should be credited with a sufficient sense to prevent their doing the property they own an injury. It would seem that only a stern lesson given by state administration the law will teach the needed respect for a proper regard for public property.

ASK MISSIONARIES TO REMAIN NEUTRAL

Young China Society Points Out Danger of Struggle Developing Into Anti-Foreign Movement; Must Take Precautions.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 12.—Young China Society points out that the Anti-Manchu revolution in China may develop into an anti-foreign movement, the San Nin Hoi Shih, the young China association in the United States is preparing to petition Washington to instruct all American officials in China to see that missionaries and other American citizens maintain absolute neutrality. The petition will be forwarded from all the big cities of this country simultaneously, from the young China association and the Gee Hong Tong, which is affiliated with the revolutionary party. It is said that ninety per cent of the Chinese in this country are members of the Free Masons. A donation of $20,000 to aid the revolution was forwarded from this city last night by the association to Hankow. It was subscribed by Chinese in this country and is only a small part of the sum already forwarded or to be sent. Subscriptions, it is stated, are made anonymously because of the fear even in this country of the vengeance on the contributors. The rising in China has filled the Chinese quarter here with great excitement. All Chinese papers are receiving editorial bulletins from Hankow and other points. These are pasted in the windows of newspaper offices as soon as received.

Accompanied by his secretary, W. S. Wong, Dr. Sun Yat Sen, who will be president of the Chinese republic if the revolution is successful, left here early this morning on a lecture tour. He is spreading gospel of republicanism to his fellow countrymen in America and his campaign is being conducted under the auspices of the Young China association. Speaking to a gathering at Reno, about ten days ago, the Chinese exile said that he would soon return to China, despite the fact that a heavy price had been placed by the government on "The revolution means either a Chinese republic or no China at all," said Tong King Chong, secretary of the Gee Hong Tong for all America, Mexico and Canada included. "If we are not successful the Chinese will be as much a people without a country as the Jews. Years have been devoted to preparation, every Chinese who has left his own country and seen what the world is doing is an ardent republican, more than $200,000 has been forwarded to China from this city within the last two months. The Chinese of Montreal, Detroit and other places in that vicinity told their property to assist their obligations to the revolutionists.

There can be no end to the fight but a republic, or the annihilation of China as a nation. There would be nothing left, no navy, no army, nothing on which the government depends.

For the last five or six years, according to Chong, southern China has been ripe for the revolution. Northern China was not ready, however, and Dr. Sun Yat Sen and the other leaders held the rising in check while the campaign of education was carried on.

Chong is editor of the Chinese Free Press of this city, the journal of the Gee Hong Tong, is interested in a mercantile venture and generally is a man of note in the Chinese quarter. As secretary of the long he is head of the revolutionary movement on this continent, where the rising in China really was fostered and financed. He lives in a modern American flat surrounded by American furniture and American books. He said today he would go back to China when his work here was finished.

BUSINESS COMPLETELY SUSPENDED IN HANKOW.

Hankow, Oct. 12.—The rebels have been unable to maintain order and business has been completely suspended here and at Han Yang and Wu Chang. The working classes are without employment and are attempting to plunder. Fully half a million persons have fled to the countryside.

It is reliably reported that troops are proceeding northward to meet the imperial troops and that a Deodant troops from the province of Hunan, adjoining the disaffected province of Hu Pei, also are prepared to resist the imperialists.

NEW YORK CHINESE NOT IN SYMPATHY WITH REVOLT.

New York, Oct. 12.—News of the rising in this country of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, hailed as the president of a Utopian Chinese republic to be born if the present revolution is successful, was announced in New York this afternoon by the publishers of the Chinese Reform News. It was also known in New York's Chinese quarter that he was still in the United States. He has been lecturing here for months and, according to Chinese here, he has sent more than $200,000 to China to further the cause of the revolution.

Most of the Chinese in New York, if the view of the editors of the Reform News may be accepted, are not in sympathy with Dr. Sun and the revolution he is fomenting. They hold that reforms are needed, but desire a peaceful, constructive and political remembrance rather than one of arms.

REBELS PLAN TO LEAVE CAPTURE OF PEKING TO LAST.

Peking, Oct. 12.—Eight train loads of troops started today from Pao Ting Fu, province of Chi Li, for the district affected by the revolution.

The revolutionists have informed the consuls at Hankow that they will respect all treaties and loans and indemnities contracted by the Chinese government. A well informed revolutionary sympathizer told the Associated Press that the rebels would probably leave the capture of Peking and Shanghai to the last, because of the danger of foreign complications. He said the utmost confidence seems to prevail among the rebels.

It is said that they have been two years perfecting their organization, and now have members in all the government offices.

The national assembly showed revolutionary tendencies last winter, and the reestablishment of that body in a constituent is regarded with anxiety. The provincial assemblies almost without exception are anti-government.

All the available railway cars are carrying to the south those which will be used to guard the line, and thereafter in an attempt to recapture the towns taken by the revolutionists. It is reported that the rebels allowed the weekly express to leave Hankow, crowded with refugees. It is believed the rebels found more money when they raided the treasury at Hankow, and also obtained half a million dollars in the same coin from the Hankow merchants.

While attending the fair this week, he was sure to visit the Albuquerque Carriage Co., where the biggest show of carriages, harness, etc., is being made daily.

SOUTH METHODIST PREACHERS IN CONFERENCE

Addresses On Missions and Duty of Church in Foreign Field Feature of Yesterday's Session at Tucumcari.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.) Tucumcari, N. M., Oct. 12.—The third session of the New Mexico conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, now meeting here, convened again this morning, with Bishop Atkins presiding. Only routine business was transacted. Revs. C. M. Wendell of the Missouri conference, E. B. McSwain of the North Texas conference, J. W. Hendrix of the Pacific conference, Fred B. Faust of the North Alabama conference, E. C. Morgan of the Missouri conference, and C. K. Campbell of the China mission conference, having transferred to the New Mexico conference, were introduced to the brethren.

Rev. Dr. Campbell of the New Mexico conference, gave later review, in an address at the morning session of the needs of the work in the republic of Mexico.

Some very important changes are anticipated in the places of the preachers, especially with regard to Rev. J. B. Cochran, who has been presiding elder of the El Paso district for four years, and Rev. Casper Wright, who has been for four years in charge of the work in the city of El Paso. There are various other changes to be considered, all of which are keeping the preachers on the qui vive. This is especially true among the older members of the conference.

The services Sunday morning will be marked by the ordination of J. C. Jones, W. H. Duncan and Fred B. Faust to the office of elder, and a session by Bishop Atkins.

On Thursday night Rev. Dr. John M. Moore of Nashville, Tenn., secretary of the Home Mission board, addressed the conference on the subject of "Missions."

Dr. Moore impressed it upon his hearers that the great duty of the American people was not merely to send missionaries to preach the gospel, but to organize the Christian forces in the United States so that the spirit of Christ may penetrate the commercial, professional and social life of the heathenized races. In order that this might be accomplished a higher standard of Christianity must be established in the home land. It is not enough to grow checks for missions, but the crying need is that the movement should become thoroughly saturated with the spirit of the Master who sends them.

NEW MEXICO SURE TO GROW SAYS W. A. CLARK

Former United States Senator in City Last Night On His Way to Jerome, Arizona.

Former United States Senator William A. Clark, of Montana, who in recent years has been known as a copper magnate and president of the Salt Lake railroad, was in Albuquerque for an hour last night, during the time that the second session of Santa Fe train No. 1 remained here. Senator Clark was traveling in his luxurious private car, when while it was built six years ago, was the finest car of its kind in existence. He was accompanied by his private secretary, and was on his way to inspect his extensive mining properties at Jerome, Arizona, known as the United Verde mines and smelters.

Senator Clark spent a part of the time while his car remained at the station, walking up and down the platform. When interviewed by a Morning Journal representative, he was very cordial. In the course of the conversation Senator Clark expressed his pleasure at New Mexico's attainment of statehood and predicted both growth and prosperity for the new state as a direct consequence of the boom.

The senator appeared in excellent health. He holds his seventy-two years remarkably well, and from his appearance one would not take him to be over sixty.

DENTISTS ENJOY BANQUET AT FASHION

Opening Day's Session of Annual Meeting Closed With Big Feed at Which Jollity Reigned Supreme.

The members of the New Mexico Dental society closed the first day's session of their annual meeting with a banquet last night at the Fashion club. Twenty-five local and visiting members of the profession gathered about the banquet table and jollity reigned supreme while the dentists were testing their palates on the variety of viands served.

The spread, which was specially prepared for the occasion, was elaborate and thoroughly enjoyed by those participating. No set program of toasts had been arranged, each of the members present making something of telling a story, when the spirit moved him. Dr. C. C. Clark of Socorro was toastmaster and he filled the bill admirably.

The morning session yesterday was carried out according to program, and in the afternoon the visitors took in the fair, being guests of the local dentists. Mayor J. W. Elder formally welcomed the visitors to Albuquerque, when the convention assembled at the Commercial club at 5:30 a. m. Today's session will mark the close of the convention. It opens at 9 o'clock with clinics, followed by addresses on subjects of importance to the profession.

The Opinion of a Kansas Man

TUBERCLECID COMPANY OF ARIZONA, Phoenix, Arizona.

In the spring of 1908 I contracted a "heavy" cold which clings to me throughout the summer. I had always been strong and healthy and did not regard the cold as alarming until in the fall I noticed a loss of strength and then had a hemorrhage of the lungs. I coughed all through the winter of 1908 and my strength gradually slipped away. During the summer of 1909 my strength left me and I was subject to a succession of colds which further weakened me. In December of that year I had a number of hemorrhages and these continued until February when Dr. P. W. Robertson of examination told me if I did not want to die of consumption I should seek a mild climate. He recommended Arizona and I went to Phoenix.

Dr. Louis Desart of Phoenix diagnosed my case as pulmonary tuberculosis. He said that the most serious trouble was at the apex of the left lung. I had three hemorrhages after reaching Phoenix. My temperature ran in each day and I was further anhed and weakened by night sweats. My throat was affected at times and I also suffered intensely from pleurisy. In fact my case seemed to be running the general course of those doomed to die of consumption.

In May, 1910, I began TUBERCLECID treatment. At that time my vitality seemed at its lowest ebb. Despite the use and downing that doubtless occur to all who fight against the disease I steadily progressed towards recovery. My cough gradually diminished and my strength returned. The pains in my chest disappeared. The spitta dwindled down and was light and thin. Examinations showing decrease of tubercle bacilli greatly encouraged me.

I was so much improved by July 1st that I was able to leave Phoenix and travel. I really felt stronger upon my arrival at Colorado Springs than I did when I started from Phoenix. I have gained twenty-five pounds in weight and have resumed my business. At the end of three months' treatment, bacteriologist test showed no trace of tubercle bacilli in my spitta. I have entirely recovered from the disease.

This is written to tell you how thankful I am for the close attention you gave my case and for your valuable advice and sympathetic letters. Words cannot express my appreciation of what you have done for me. My friends here are surprised to see me restored to health and looking better than I ever did before.

I shall be glad to talk or write to any sufferer from tuberculosis and tell him of my remarkable cure. I hope in this way to be the means of saving others from the fate that so nearly overtook me.

(Signed) ROBERT G. KNIGHT.

Is a Cure of Tuberculosis Effectuated Through the Use of the Tuberclecid Treatment a Permanent Cure?

The following letter from one of our patients written EIGHT months AFTER his recovery, and after he had spent ONE trying winter in Kansas, ought to convince the most skeptical upon the above point.

When we opened the present offices of the TUBERCLECID COMPANY OF ARIZONA, in Phoenix, on January 5, 1911, we published a letter written October 10, 1910, by Robert G. Knight, of Florence, Kansas, who had used TUBERCLECID here in Phoenix four months, and then returned to his Kansas home to engage in business.

Mrs. Sena Lowe, of Tucson, read Mr. Knight's letter, and at once wrote him to know if his letter, as published by him, was true. She received the following reply:

Phoenix, Kansas, March 30th, 1911.

Dear Madam: I received your letter inquiring about the TUBERCLECID treatment. My letter, as published, is true and I am as well today as I have ever been in my life, and it is now EIGHT MONTHS since I was pronounced well of Tuberculosis by bacteriologists, who could find no trace of Tubercle Bacilli in my system after the use of TUBERCLECID treatment. The treatment is not hard to use nor is it possible for it to injure the stomach.

I have a sister-in-law that has been cured in the last six months of quick consumption by the use of TUBERCLECID treatment. She commenced using the treatment as soon as she knew that she had the disease, and although her doctor didn't give her any encouragement about getting well when she first began taking the treatment, but now she is well and doing her own housework. TUBERCLECID will cure any one who will take it in time and use it according to instructions and not expect to get up in 30 days. It takes months to cure consumption, but TUBERCLECID will do it if used with patience and perseverance.

If I had known of the treatment before I went to Phoenix, Ariz., I never would have come, as you can get well as quick at home, and in one climate as well as another.

With best wishes for your health and complete recovery, I am, very truly yours,

ROBERT G. KNIGHT.

P. S.—We now have more than ONE HUNDRED PATIENTS using TUBERCLECID under the Phoenix office. We are in a position to refer you to these patients, and many of them are your neighbors. All we ask is an investigation of what the treatment is doing. If TUBERCLECID will cure others, why will it not cure you?

PREMIUMS AWARDED FOR BEST COOKING EXHIBITS

Following two days of constant work, the judges who entered in the exhibits entered in the domestic science department of the fair, yesterday announced the award of prizes and premiums. Mrs. Margaret S. Patten, who was superintendent of this department, said very much pleased with the success of the exhibits being especially praiseworthy. All would no doubt have won prizes had there been enough exhibits to go around. The names of the judges who passed on the exhibits were not announced, since they decided it would perhaps be best for their names to be withheld. Mrs. Patten announced last night that the judging contest on the exhibit of the big sack of flour will close this afternoon at 5 o'clock and the prize winner announced as soon thereafter as is possible. A TREACHER- OUS TROUBLE

Albuquerque People Are Shown the Way Out.

Kidney diseases are very dangerous. They come on silently, gain ground rapidly, and cause thousands of deaths that could have been prevented by proper treatment in the beginning. Nature gives early warning of kidney disease—backache, twinges of pain when stooping or lifting, headache and urinary disorders. If these symptoms are overlooked, there is grave danger of dropsy or fatal Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills have earned a reputation for their effectiveness in kidney troubles, and are known and recommended the world over. Albuquerque residents should find convincing proof in the following statement. It is from a citizen of this locality.

Jacob Koenig, 706 Lincoln Ave., El Paso, N. Mex., writes: "My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills which were kindly expressed in a testimonial I gave in their praise two and a half years ago, remains unchanged. Whenever I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills they have given me relief from annoying symptoms of kidney complaint. I am glad to give this remedy the praise it deserves."

The Poultry Show.
The winners of the prizes in the Poultry Show will receive their awards this afternoon at the poultry building. The final judging of the poultry and pet stock was completed yesterday by Judge C. H. Rhodes of Topeka, Kan., who has been in Albuquerque all week attending the big chicken display. Judge Rhodes expressed himself well pleased with the showing made by the chicken fanciers at the State Fair, especially since there were twice as many entries as at last year's fair.

The prize for the best amateur display of Buff Orpingtons from eggs supplied by J. J. Dean of Monticello, Cal., a silver cup valued at $50, was given to Thomas Isherwood.

The other awards are as follows:

WITH The Horses

The racing card yesterday proved a great attraction to the many visitors to the fair. The horses appeared in the splendid condition, the riders were full of ginger, and the starting clean.

The big racing stake was the "Full Durham," worth $1,000. There were seven entries for this race. Only four, however, started and finished the four heats. Easter Coin seemed to have things all her own way in this race, getting three out of the four heats. In the first heat, Rambling Red took the lead, Easter Coin coming under the wire in last place. If the game little gelding lasted in this heat it was all to his advantage as he pulled up well in the other two.

The running event was the mile handicap, which was taken by Tadlow Dip in a gallop. This horse looked good from the start and was well ridden. The following are the results of the day's races:

Five-Furlong Mile Running.
Sea-Gravel, first; Lady Palatine, second; Barney Stratford, third. Time—1:06 2-5.

The Bull Durham Stake.
Bull Durham, 2:12 pace, $1,000 stake—Easter Coin, first; Rambling Red, second; Dewey Dillon, third; Rocky Kid, fourth.

First heat: Rambling Red, first; Dewey Dillon, second; Rocky Kid, third; Easter Coin, fourth. Time—2:18 1-2.

Second heat: Easter Coin, first; Rambling Red, second; Dewey Dillon, third; Rocky Kid, fourth. Time—2:17 1-2.

Third heat: Easter Coin, first; Dewey Dillon, second; Rocky Kid, third; Rambling Red, fourth. Time—2:20.

Fourth heat: Easter Coin, first; Dewey Dillon, second; Rocky Kid, third; Rambling Red, fourth. Time—2:23 1-2.

The 2-30 Pace—Purse $500.
Six Walnut won in three straight heats, Gold Label, second, Middlethorn, third.

Time on first heat, 2:12; second heat, 2:21; third heat, 2:18 1-4.

BY THEIR ORGANS YE SHALL KNOW THEM.

There is nothing which discloses
more clearly the motives and methods of the aggregation now trying to take the state government of New Mexico than the newspaper organs
now publishing the stuff sent out by the press bureau of the Bureau ring
at Santa Fe.

The old reliable instrument is the Santa Fe New Mexican. The Santa Fe New Mexican for the past twenty years has been a consistent, unvarying, dependable advocate of the kind of politics and the kind of government
which have caused the present
widespread revolt among the citizens of New Mexico. The Santa Fe New Mexican has defended and white-washed every rascal, crook, incompetent
and malfeasant connected with the history of the rule of the gang
in this state. It has palliated, apologized for, helped to conceal, minimized
and misrepresented every bit of official malpractice, political corruption, crookedness, guilt and incompetency in the history of the oppression
of the territory of New Mexico.
It shielded the culprits when shielding was necessary; striven
to blind the people to the true state of affairs; has tried to hide all the gross mismanagement and abuse of power, the stealing of elections,
intimidation, graft, misappropriation of funds and all the sordid history of the rule of the republican ring in New Mexico.

The Santa Fe New Mexican has
been mixed up in more than one scandal similar to the one in which it was the free recipient of large lots of penitentiary bricks; it has been on the inside of every questionable job
in the history of the territorial government;
has been the beneficiary of graft, the apologist for the scrapper,
the paid hireling of dishonest politicians
and bosses and has divided the proceeds from the despoiling of the people for many, many years. The record of the Santa Fe New Mexican is plainly written in its own files; it stands and has stood for years discredited before the people as a purely venal instrument of which ever scoundrel or bunch of bosses has happened to be in power. Its politics have changed from time to time to fit the conditions even as the weather vane changes with the veering
of the wind; its principles have always been on the market to the highest bidder; its news is tainted to suit the needs of its masters; and its policy is whatever policy is necessary to get the public pay and a share of the loot. The history of the Santa Fe New Mexican is a history of misdeeds in New Mexico. Its columns have been filled since time immemorial
with fulsome praise of its masters,
with pictures of "Men of the Hour
in New Mexico," most of which have constituted a rogues' gallery unsurpassed
in the country; it has held up ex-convicts and crooks as the representative "leaders" of the republican party in New Mexico; has never hesitated to blackmail and abuse the men whose names it demands and it has done more than any other one factor to sow from justice upon the guilt of the greatest official offenses of defalcation and of worse crimes.

The Santa Fe New Mexican has
fought consistently and always against every progressive, forward move in New Mexico politics. It has glorified and abused men like H. J.
Borah whose sterling and uncompromising integrity is a standing offense, a red rag to it, has slandered
and abused for years the people of Bernalillo county for throwing the rascals out of politics here and has aided and abetted every attempt of men like Frank A. Hubbell to retain control of the republican organization in New Mexico.

There is nothing haughty or inconsiderate about these allegations. The files of the Santa Fe New Mexican now Mr. Bursum's chief organ, will bear out every statement. The Morning Journal has had the pleasure of reading the Santa Fe New Mexican
for a good many years and we know
whereof we speak.

The critics of the paid organ of the ring in Albuquerque is shorter,
but fully as checkered and picturesque.
A year or so ago a rascal, an archaic combination of socialist and democratic newspaper, it is now the personal organ of Frank A. Hubbell.
Mr. Hubbell and Judge Mann, his close political associates, are the chief

owners of the paper and direct its policy. Under its present management
it was openly started as a corporate organ. In seeking support to start the paper going, J. E. Saint, Mr. Hubbell, Judge Mann and others, sent out letters to all the corporate interests and the political financiers interested in the perpetuation of the Bursum style of government in this state. It was represented to these men that it was necessary in the new state of New Mexico to have a newspaper of the ultra conservative, stand-pat stripe to "take care of the corporation interests," to see that corporation politicians had a "statewide organ" and that vested interests and gain politics did not suffer from the strong progressive and radical movement sweeping over the country. This paper was organized simply and solely to take care of the corporations and in the nature of things it will never be found supporting any candidate or any policy, no matter how ostensibly popular, which is really in the interests of the people. The evening paper
here will not deny that it was founded solely in the interests of the corporations and to protect them and their political representatives; this letter was sent out to so many persons that even the tenacity of the Tribune-Chicago balks at a denial of a fact so well known all over New Mexico. It will not deny that it is supported by such men as Mr. Hubbell, part owner of the Water Supply company in this city, whose extortionate rates have aroused such a storm of protest during the past two years; it will not deny that it is supported by the coal
barons of Colfax county, notorious for the intimidation of voters in the coal
camps of that section; by attorneys and other representatives of the big railroads and landed interests of New Mexico. Popular support it has none and without the corporation "bark,"
the water meter and other similar appliances it would not be able to last six months.

Being supported by the corporations and the bosses, the evening paper must endorse and aid the kind of politics upon which they rely for the perpetuation of their power. It must represent and distort the news
to fit the case; it must stand up for such rotten practices, as that by which its owner recently obtained recognition from the statewide gang
as the "republican party" of this country. It must bend every effort to the "vindication" of its owner, the most discredited cheap politician in New Mexico; for the "vindication" of H. O. Bursum, from the penitentiary scandal which he is desperately trying to explain to the voters; for the whitewashing of the disgraceful and disreputable ticket which the republican ring has handed out to the people of New Mexico.

There are two other daily instruments in the string, hardly worth mentioning except to show the identity of the methods: the Las Vegas
Optic, which, however, has lost heart,
and the Hatan Range, owned by the coal barons who, to escape taxation
and for their own "protection," must spend large sums in the effort to carry this first state election.

That is the bunch of "newspapers"
now rooting and howling for Mr.
Bursum and Frank Hubbell and their crowd.

Is anything else necessary to condemn the men who now ask for the votes of New Mexico to give them
control of the new state of New Mexico?

ONLY ONE NEEDED.

The Santa Fe New Mexican figures out that Mr. W. C. McDonald has only three qualifications for government; he has lived in New Mexico
thirty years, he is a large cattleman and he is honest. We are surprised that the New Mex. concedes so many qualifications, but granting, purely for the sake of argument that he has only these three; in the present
campaign two of them are unnecessary.

All that is needed to elect him is the last. The main issue is between honesty and dishonesty. Therefore
Mr. McDonald's election is an assured fact.

"Public scandal," says the Mountain Messenger, "is a very poor asset
for a new state to begin business with."

"In certain parts of New Mexico,"
says the Silver City Independent,
"they herd people to the polls. It's by the herd vote that Bursum expects to be elected governor. To win, however, he must get the votes of many honest, free men. Will he get them? Hardly."

"The lesson of the California election is that the more people read and think the more rapidly this old world moves."—New Mexican. We would respectfully suggest that this lesson for the way things are now moving in New Mexico.

New York brokers drank through straws in order to meet the law forbidding the use of public drinking cups. When it comes to a question of water-Wall Street is always responsible.

Before insisting that the Filipinos
undertake constitutional independence it is thought desirable to give them time to learn to use a lexicon
and see what it means.

At all events, Governor Wilson's objection to political modern efforts
as human-writing is not as harmless
as Senator Herbert's aversion to
"Dixie."

The tariff used to be regarded as a dull statistical topic. Now it holds its own side by side with the love story and the detective romance.

CARPENTER FALLS GREAT ENTHUSIASM AT CONVENTION IN GEM CITY

Workman at Santa Fe Indian

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal)
Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 12.—At the United States Indian school this morning, F. A. B. Clark, the school superintendent, fell between forty and fifty feet in building a scaffold, and was seriously hurt. This afternoon his condition was declared critical. In falling he struck an obstruction that tore a gaping wound in his side. He was taken to the school hospital and is being attended by Dr. W. S. Harrison. Clark came here a month ago
on a transfer from the Fort Meyer
school in Virginia, and has a wife and children. He is aged about thirty years and is a member of the Santa Fe Indian who is held in high esteem in the service.

Mr. Jaffa in Duke City.
Territorial Secretary Nathan Jaffa, accompanied by Mrs. Jaffa, left for Albuquerque, N. M., this morning, to attend the territorial convention at the Montezuma hall tomorrow night.

For the Treasury.
Territorial Treasurer M. A. Otero
has received the following sums for the treasury: W. H. Merchant, treasurer of Eddy county, $502.51; Jose H.
Lopez, clerk of the third judicial district, clerk's fees, $25.12; James and Fish Warden Thomas P. Gable, $138.

Mounted Police Bust.
The mounted police are busy. J. A.
Deaf arrested at Bernalillo John Mc-Callister, aged 42, charged with drunkenness, and Tom Williams, also on the charge of drunkenness. At Silver City he arrested W. O'Connor
on the same charge. Mounted Policeman A. A. Sosa has arrested Tomas Valdez at Las Vegas, on the charge of the battery of a horse. Valdez was bound over for the action of the grand jury.

Special Highway Repairs.
Twenty men were taken up by automobiles from Itajah to resume work on the scenic highway. The work has been carried to a point
several miles up the road and will be completed in the state before the close of the week. The work is part in the road, lying between the crest of the hill and the Bhaton city limits at the end of Mountain avenue
has been put in first-class condition
for the reception of the auto tourists who come over from Trinidad.

Insurance Matters.
The department of insurance has received notice from the American Fire Insurance company of Phoenix, Ariz.,
that it will apply for admission in New Mexico after January 1, or upon New Mexico getting statehood. An examination will be made of the company which examination has been previously asked.

The San Francisco Life Insurance company also advises that it continues entering New Mexico soon and it forwards copies of its policies to the state of New Mexico.

Articles of Incorporation.
Articles of incorporation were filed in the territorial secretary's office by the franchisees of the telephone company, whose main office is at Wagon
Mound, and which names H. K.
Odel as the statutory agent. The company is capitalized at $100,000 and consists of sixty shares at $15 each.
The incorporators are H. K. Odel, fifty shares, and S. M. Ireland, and
S. A. Fourie, ten shares each; of Wagon Mound, J. P. Van Houten, of Rosenbaker, ten shares. A. C. Graham, of Wagon Mound, five shares. The company, as the name indicates, is for the purpose of erecting a telephone line in or near Wagon Mound
for the convenience of ranchers.

Funeral Services of LATE WILLIAM H. AVERY
OCCUR THIS MORNING

The funeral services of the late William H. Avery, who died Thursday evening at the Santa Fe Coast Lines hospital after a brief illness of typhoid fever, will be held this morning at 10 o'clock at the funeral home of the Strong undertaking establishment under the auspices of Temple Lodge No. 6, A. F. &
A. M., of which the deceased was a member. The burial will occur in Frederick cemetery. The Elks' lodge of which Mr. Avery was a beloved member will also attend the services.

The death of this popular young man has come as a severe blow to his many friends in this city and elsewhere. What makes his untimely taking away particularly sad is the fact that less than two years ago he was wedded to Miss Agnes Sals of Ialeta, a young lady who numbers her
friends by the hundreds in this city,
and whose great bereavement brings
her the deepest sympathy of countless Albuquerqueans.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Avery had been prominent in Albuquerque society circles and seldom did a bride and groom enter upon wedded life with more cordial wishes for their happiness.

Mr. Avery, who was 26 years old, was agent for the Holmes Supply company, in charge of the big establishment of that concern at Ialeta
and a promising and clean young business man whose place it will be hard to fill.

Railroad Manager Drops Dead.
Denver, Colo., Oct. 12.—Frank Wicks, general manager of the Denver & South Platte railroad, company, dropped dead today on the street near his apartments, 1475 Montezuma street. Heart disease was the cause.

Mr. Wicks was accompanied by his wife at the time he was stricken.

Hydrographic Survey.
S. S. Carroll, engineer in charge of the plane table work in connection with the hydrographic survey of the waters of the Los Alamos and Otero counties, has returned to Albuquerque with his corps of attendants.
The party has been making headwaters at High Falls for several weeks in order to be nearer the work.

Pol Books.
The assistant secretary of the territory, Edwin F. Conrad, is sending out to express the pol books to all of the district clerks in the territory. These are the books that will be used for the election November 5.

Lame back is one of the most common forms of muscular rheumatism.

With the aid of large numbers of disinterested and revelling republicans
we shall cut down Mr. Bursum's scheduled majority of 1,200 to 1,500 in Socorro county to at most 250," said
Bass Barth of this city, yesterday,
upon his return from Socorro, where he attended a democratic county convention, which for enthusiasm and harmony, has never been equaled in Socorro county and which shows the disregard and indignation which prevails in Mr. Bursum's home county against the methods and the ticket of the republican organization in the present campaign. So strong is the independent republican sentiment
growing the hundreds of conservative republicans are joining with the democrats in the revolt against Bursum
and three progressive republicans are on the ticket nominated yesterday.

The situation in Socorro county is the most encouraging thing I have seen in the whole campaign thus far,"
said Mr. Barth. "I had no idea of the strength which has been attained by the opposition in the republican machine in that county and if the machine reforms even a small majority,
it will have in some months hard work before the election. The opposition is well organized, well armed with the munitions of war, determined and enthusiastic and they are going to win."

Mr. H. E. Fergusson made an address to the convention and was given a great big ovation, his eloquent remarks being cheered to the echo. Mr.
Fergusson's speech was in fact the most significant of the convention and the demonstration which greeted him was most significant.

Another feature of the convention
equally significant, was the address
made before the gathering by Atorney Harry M. Dougherty of Socorro, who has been for years one of the best known republicans in New Mexico.

The ticket nominated was as follows:
For Sheriff—E. W. James, of San Marcel.
For Collector—Max H. Montoya, of San Antonio.
For Assessor—G. E. Cook of Socorro.
For Superintendent of Schools—
Benjamin Sanchez of Pinedera.
For Probate Judge—John Green-

For Public Clerk—Ed Fortune, of

For County Commissioners—Grego-

lake, of the western part of the county,
and Leopold Contreras, of La Joya.

For the State Senate—J. W. Terry,
of Socorro.
For the House—Nasario Baca, of

The convention endorsed M. C.

trict judges and attorneys.

James Fortune and Gregorio Baca

the men on the ticket are prominent and popular and able citizens, who will

THE MERINO SHEEP COMPANY IS PLAINTIFF IN SUIT FOR DAMAGES

Clark M. Carr and E. Z. Vogt, a co-partnership known as The Merino Sheep company yesterday entered suit against Elias Francis and Narciso Francis, known as Elias Francis and company, for alleged damages done by the wrongful driving of certain flocks of sheep across the pasture lands of the plaintiffs in McKinley county.

According to the petition the plaintiffs are and have been entitled to the use of section 14, township 15, range 8, west, in McKinley county, by virtue of a lease, on September 13, of this year it is alleged that the defendant drove a flock of sheep upon the grass land, damaging the same to the extent of $200.

Coincident with this, the plaintiffs were holding under a lease the odd numbered sections in township 15, upon which it is alleged the defendant drove five flocks, damaging the pasture land to the extent of $1000. On the same day, the plaintiff possessed on section 14 of township 15, a certain water tank and other pasture land upon which it is alleged, the defendant drove five flocks of sheep, drinking up the water and tramping down the banks of the water tanks to the extent of $400 damage.

The Merino Sheep company therefore asks damages in the sum of $1400 with costs of suit, and such other and further relief as the court may, in its judgment, see fit to award. Harold Pierce appears as attorney for the plaintiffs.

T. L. Smith, a corporation organized under the laws of Wisconsin, and as such manufacturing and selling contractors' machinery and supplies yesterday filed suit against A. W. Anson of this city for $1200.25, alleged to be a balance due the plaintiff upon bills of goods sold and delivered during June 24, 1909, and July 15, 1910. Judgment is asked together with interest and costs.

SIMON STERN, The Central Avenue ClothierMONTEZUMA BALL SCORES SOCIAL TRIUMPH

Last Night's Affair Eighth Annual and First State Event; Beautiful Gowns and Magnificent Decorations.

The first state and the eighth annual Montezuma ball, passed into social history last night as the most brilliant ball ever given in the Alvarado. Noted as the chief society function of the year in New Mexico, keenly anticipated and long prepared for, the affair last night lived up to all expectations. Distinguished citizens from all parts of the state attended the function and the beauty and social prominence of the capital city and other towns were well represented. Local society turned out en masse for the occasion. Decorations, always on a lavish scale and generally suggestive of the period of Montezuma, were this year in the national colors and magnificently beautiful. The main ball room with its mission interior, never appeared to better advantage than last night, with its decking of flags, shields and New Mexico pennants. The colors, used in profusion and artistically, formed a fitting background for the handsome gowns of the ladies for the handsome gowns of the men. The west annex used as the supper room was elaborately decorated in the same statehood decorations with many Navajo blankets as floor covering. Carnations were used abundantly on the tables.

The banquet surpassed anything ever given in the Alvarado in cuisine, excellence and beauty of appointments and decorations.

The east annex was used for a rest, retreat and refreshment room and was also lavishly decorated.

Mr. J. E. Smith, manager of the Alvarado, had entire charge of the decorations and was warmly congratulated on the splendid outcome.

By 9 o'clock the carriages and automobiles were wending toward the scene of pleasure but it was nearly 10 o'clock before the grand march, which was led by Mr. Isaac Barth, president of the fair association, and Mrs. Elder, wife of the mayor. The ball thus formally opened and went merrily on until the early hours of this morning.

The Fuhrmeyer-Cavanaugh orchestra gave satisfactory music for the event.

CORONER'S JURY ADJOURNS OVER TO MONDAY

Preliminary Inquiry Into Auto Accident Which Killed Little Girl Was Held Yesterday Morning.

After a brief session yesterday the coroner's jury empaneled by Justice of the Peace W. W. McClellan in Precinct No. 12, to inquire into the death of Modesta Herrera, the 9-year-old girl who was struck by an auto driven by Leslie Schutt Thursday afternoon, and so badly injured that she died several hours later, adjourned until Monday. The adjournment was taken in order that more eyewitnesses to the accident might be summoned with a view to reconciling the evidence submitted as to the speed at which the motor was actually traveling when the little victim was run over.

At the inquest yesterday Leslie Schutt was represented by Attorney A. B. Robertson, while District Attorney George S. Klock was present and closely questioned the witnesses.

The district attorney introduced as witnesses Dr. C. A. Frank, who extended emergency treatment to the child following the accident; Juan Antonio C. de Baca, an eyewitness of the accident; L. B. Stevens, a special officer; Dennis Chaves of the city engineer's office; J. C. Massey, a traveling salesman; A. Fisher and P. Barbo, other eyewitnesses, and an uncle of the dead girl.

No two of these witnesses agreed as to the speed at which the car was traveling, and in order to make a more thorough inquiry, the coroner's jury decided on an adjournment.

The funeral of the child will take place this morning from the family home in Atrisco.
