THE KILLED AND WOUNDED!

The Spaniards Renewed Attack on American Outposts at Manila.

GENERAL MERRITT'S OFFICIAL REPORT.

New York, Aug. 18.—A dispatch to the Herald from Camp Dewey, August 16th, via Hong Kong, says: The Spaniards renewed the attack on the American outposts last night. The trenches were occupied by battalion each of Fortieth and Twenty-third regulars and Nebraska volunteers, the latter holding the extreme right and company of regulars the extreme left. They returned the Spanish fire, and hot firing lasted for half an hour. The American losses were chiefly from shells.

Killed—Howell, S. F., private, Company D, Fortieth regular infantry; McCanna, private, Company C, Fortieth regular infantry; Sant, C., private, Company F, Twenty-third regular infantry.

Wounded—There were eleven wounded, four seriously as follows: Head, Claude, Company G, First Nebraska, shot in the abdomen; O'Connor, D. J., private, Company D, Fortieth regular infantry, shot in the thigh; Lambert, Clinton, Company D, Fortieth regular infantry, shot in the chest; Snow, Lucius, Company D, Fortieth regular infantry, shot in the leg.

There was heavy artillery duel this morning, the Utah artillery replying with spirited fire to the Spanish guns, and finally landing a shell near the powderhouse. This must have disabled the guns as the Spanish fire ceased.

GEN. MERRITT'S REPORT.

Opportunity given the Spaniards to surrender, but they refused.

Washington, Aug. 18.—The war department has received the following: Hong Kong, Aug. 18.—Adjutant general, Washington: Manila, Aug. 13.—On the 7th inst. Admiral Dewey joined in an forty-eight hour notification to the Spanish commander to remove the non-combatants from the city. On the same date a reply was received expressing thanks for the humane sentiments and stating that the Spaniards were without places of refuge for the non-combatants now within the walled town. On the 9th inst. he sent a joint note inviting attention to the suffering in store for the sick and non-combatants in case it became our duty to reduce the defenses; also setting forth the hopeless condition of the Spanish forces, surrounded on all sides—dirt in front, no prospect of reinforcements—and demanded surrender as due to every consideration of humanity. On the same date he received a reply admitting their situation, but stating that the request for surrender was not granted, but offered to consult the Spanish government if time was granted necessary for communication via Hong Kong. A joint note in reply was sent declining. On the 13th inst. joined with the navy in the attack with the following: After about half an hour's accurate shelling of the Spanish lines, McArthur's brigade on the right, and Greene's on the left and under Anderson, I made a vigorous attack and carried the Spanish works. Loss not accurately known, but about fifty in all. The behavior of the troops was excellent, and co-operation of the navy most valuable. The troops advanced rapidly on the walled city, upon which a white flag shown and the town capitulated. The troops occupy Malate, Binondo, and walled city of San Miguel. All centers are protected. Insurgents quiet. No disorder or pillage.

MERRITT.

HIS FLIGHT IN SAFETY.

Reported American Commander Arranged for August's Departure.

Berlin, Aug. 18.—A dispatch from Hong Kong, dated August 18, and evidently official, says: The Kaiserin Augusta, which left Manila with a dispatch from Admiral von Driedrich after the fall of the city, will return there to day. Gen. Augusti and family arrived on board the cruiser. Admiral von Driedrich, at the request of Gen. Augusti, gave them passage by arrangements by the American commander. Gen. Augusti has left Hong Kong en route for Spain.

Censorship Abolished.

New York, Aug. 18.—The Western Union Telegraph company's central cable office announces that all censorship by cable has been abolished.

THE INSURGENTS MUST OBEY.

Order of Gen. Merritt as to the Occupation of Manila.

Washington, Aug. 18.—The war department to day made public the order sent to General Merritt last evening regarding the occupation of the city of Manila by the American forces, as follows: Adjutant General Office, Washington D. C., Aug. 17, 1898.—To Major General Merritt, Manila: The president directs that there must not be any joint occupation with the insurgents. The Americans are in possession of Manila city, Manila bay and harbor, and must preserve peace and protect persons within the territory occupied by their military and naval forces. The insurgents and all others must recognize the military occupation and authority of the United States and the cessation of hostilities proclaimed by the president. Use whatever means in your judgment are necessary to this end. All law abiding people must be treated alike. By order of secretary of the war.

"H. C. CORBIN, Adjutant General."

Nominated by the President.

Linein, Neb., Aug. 18.—The fusionists at Norfolk yesterday nominated John S. Robinson for congress to represent the Third district. The free silver republicans refused to endorse Robinson. The nominee was formerly in the law business with Senator Allen.

Ordered to Santiago.

Washington, Aug. 18.—The secretary of war has ordered the Fifth regular infantry, now at Tampa, to Santiago. They will sail to-morrow.

ANOTHER BOND ISSUE.

Not Necessary, as the Present Revenue Law Will suffice.

Washington, Aug. 18.—It is the opinion of officials of the treasury department that there will be no necessity for another bond issue growing out of the war, and that the present revenue law, with possibly slight modifications, should be retained on the statute book for an indefinite period.

No Increase in Loss.

New York, Aug. 18.—Physicians in charge of the detention at Camp Wikoff reported to-day that there has been no increase in yellow fever cases since yesterday.

A MADRID WISH.

Members of Peace Commissions Must Speak English.

New York, Aug. 18.—A dispatch from Madrid says: A colony in Madrid petitioned for the authorization of the government for the expulsion of religious communities from the Philippines as sine qua non.

The government here makes the special feature that the members of the peace commissions shall speak English, and that the commissioners for the evacuation of Cuba and Porto Rico be nominated from military men.

James Fowler Clinton Nominated.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 18.—The supporters of Samuel W. Hawkins were disappointed in not getting their candidate to accept the nomination for governor at the republican state convention held here yesterday. Judge Hawkins declined the honor, and the convention gave the nomination to James Fowler Clinton, for governor, by acclamation.

Zachary Taylor, R. A. Hagar and James A. Greer were unanimously named for railroad commissioners.

Taylor is the republican brother of Bob Taylor, who was elected governor of Tennessee by the democrats a few years ago.

Gov. Schofield Re-nominated.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 18.—The republican state convention, which convened here yesterday afternoon, re-nominated Gov. Schofield for governor, after a most exciting session. The course of the administration was thoroughly endorsed, and the declaration of principles of the St. Louis convention reaffirmed.

Wholesale Dog Poisoning.

The dog poisoner seems to be abroad in Albuquerque. Every day a number of dead canines are found in the streets and alleys, the victims of poisoning.

Yesterday and last night the dogs of Dr. Kesterday, Dr. Haynes and M. C. Nettleton, which were thoroughbred and valuable animals, were poisoned.

Persons who have investigated the matter have, what they consider, a well grounded suspicion as to who the fiend is and they say that it is not a horrid man but a member of the gentler sex. If sufficient evidence to convict can be secured an arrest will be made, but the guilty party will be fortunate if she is not cowhided or tarred and feathered in the meantime and by some of her own sex.

A. M. E. Church Fair.

Rev. J. Allen, pastor of the A. M. E. church, his wife and the members of the congregation are going to have a church fair on Thursday and Friday nights, Aug. 25 and 26, for the purpose of raising money to pay the indebtedness to the building and loan association.

A number of rare articles will be on exhibition which the people of Albuquerque should not fail to see. Among these will be a copy of the Ueber News, which chronicled the sad news of the death of George Washington on December 14, 1799. There will be on exhibition one of the smallest newspapers of the world and Rev. Allen, in Atchison, Kan., offered a reward of $50 to anyone who could read it with the naked eye. There will also be many other attractions at the fair.

Rev. Allen wishes to have every branch of business in the city represented in this fair and will ask each to give a small donation of the contents of their business. The pastor and his wife will be a committee to wait on the firms and receive their donations.

She is Dead.

THE CITIZEN contained an article yesterday, asking about Mrs. Juana Maria Montoya de Sanchez, and stating that the government had granted her a pension of $8 per month, dating from January, 1901. This morning, Otto Diekmann, who interested himself in the old lady's case, stated that in his investigations he has discovered that his client died at Rancho de Atreco on December 27, 1897. He will now return all papers and vouchers, calling for the pension, to the proper authorities at Washington.

THE TERRITORIAL FAIR.

Will Be Held From September 27 to October 1.—Directors Hard at Work.

The fair directors have decided to hold the fair from September 27 to October 1, instead of a week later, as the intention was originally. The change in date was made for the purpose of accommodating people in the territory who wish to attend the Mountain and Plain festival in Denver from October 3 to 5. The members of the Las Vegas band, who are going to Denver during the festival, said they would attend the territorial fair if the dates were changed.

The directors of the fair are working very industriously these days, and in another month nearly everything will be arranged in ship shape order for the fair. The soliciting committee called on some of our merchants again a few days ago and speak very highly of the cordial reception they received. With very few exceptions there seems to be a disposition to be liberal in donations to public enterprises, probably caused by the feeling, which is very prevalent, that there are better times ahead.

Secretary Crawford is busy corresponding with people in different states and territories, who, it is hoped, will contribute in some way to the attractiveness of the fair. Letters already received from horsemen make it certain that there will be a large string of running and trotting horses here to take part in the races.

Raton and El Paso have already organized base ball clubs, and Santa Fe has a team this entire season. It is expected that Prescott will organize a club out of the abundance of material now there, which will be a crack-a-jack.

The directors are making a special effort to get an exhibit of amateur photography, which will be one of the most attractive features of the fair. Every town and city in the territory has its camera men, and some good prizes will be offered for the best work in their line.

Chinese Restaurant Closed.

The Joy and Lee restaurant, on Railroad avenue between First and Second streets, was closed yesterday by the sheriff on an attachment of Cook Lee, the Chinese merchant on Lead avenue, for $150. A number of American merchants, who had trusted the concern in various sums, will come out total losers as it is understood that the attachment of Cook Lee will take all the restaurant fixtures.

FATAL EXPLOSION.

Three Men Killed and One Injured by Coal Powder.

J. H. McCarthy, of Little Rock, Arkansas, who has a sub-contract for constructing the Chihuahua & Guerrero railroad in Mexico, is in the city, says the El Paso Times.

He tells of a terrible explosion of giant powder that occurred some distance out on the line of the new railway last Friday.

A Mexican dropped a lighted cigar into the vicinity of the explosive and he and two companions were blown to kingdom come. A third man was struck by a flying stone and his leg was broken.

The laborers were in charge of Foreman Hogan, and McCarthy says the foreman would probably be arrested and held indefinitely to answer for the disaster.

To-day's Bargains at the Fair.

Large box Kuaneline or Nickeline best stove polish, made, only . . . . . 5c

Two-quart covered milk cans, only . . . . . 10c

Riegant nickel plated cups, only 10c

Rig galvanized pails, will outwear a dozen wood buckets, only . . . . . 20c

Three Peerless white granite cups and saucers, best chinaware made, only . . . . . 50c

THE FAIR, 112 First Street.

BANANAS.

Carload of fine ones just in at Stamm's.

It is learned that W. C. Butman, formerly collector for the Whitney company, has purchased the interest of C. E. Gray in the Mutual Automatic Telephone company, and is in charge of the office during the absence of the local manager, Paul D. Meyers.

In the case of Brown & Manzaneros Co., vs. Francisco Chavez 2d, which B. S. Hedy won in the supreme court yesterday, the point was established that judgment only lives seven years in New Mexico.

There will be a meeting of the Soldiers' Aid Society, held in the school room of the Club building, Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Miss Laura Dillon returned to her home at Rushville, Illinois, last night after a long visit to her sister, Mrs. J. N. Sackett.

GENERAL RESUME.

Important Dispatches Being Considered by Officials.

Peace and Order Will Be Preserved by Our Troops.

Admiral Cervera Will Not Return to Spain Forthwith.

NEW YORK TO GO TO HAVANA.

Washington, Aug. 18.—Dispatches of importance were received and considered at the war department to day. Immediately after the arrival of Secretary Alger at the department he had a consultation with Gen. Corbin and denied himself to visitors. The conference was a protracted one. They were considering dispatches received from Gen. Merritt and from Santiago.

It is understood that General Merritt's dispatches were not of a disquieting nature, although the conditions to be faced in the Philippines are giving the department considerable concern.

The conditions at Santiago are causing a great deal of uneasiness, and it is believed more troops will be ordered there very soon. Already orders have been issued directing the Fifth regular infantry, now at Tampa, to proceed at once to Santiago.

Inquiries have been made as to the condition of the immune regiments, which have not yet sailed, with a view of sending them to Santiago.

The government intends to take vigorous measures to preserve peace and keep order in Santiago and territory under United States control. The emphatic order issued to General Lawton a few days ago will be followed by orders sending sufficient disciplined troops to enable him to carry out the instructions of the secretary. As a further step in this direction the president to-day directed that the Twenty-third Kansas regiment, colored, be dispatched to Santiago to form an army of occupation of Cuba. The Kansas had tendered their services for this purpose and urged acceptance, which President McKinley and Secretary Alger finally agreed to after a conference with Representative Curtis of Kansas.

It was decided also to send the Twentieth Kansas to Manila should additional troops be asked for by General Merritt. The Twentieth is now at San Francisco.

HAVANA HARBOR.

To Be Entered by Sampson's Flagship, the Cruiser New York.

New York, Aug. 18.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: Rear Admiral Sampson's flagship, the armored cruiser New York, will be the first American warship to enter the harbor of Havana since war was declared. She will carry with her the members of the military commission appointed by the president to proceed to Havana to arrange with a similar commission to be appointed by Spain the details of the evacuation by Spanish troops.

ADMIRAL CERVERA.

He Seems Satisfied and Will Not Return to Spain for the Present.

Washington, Aug. 18.—Admiral Cervera will not return to Spain for the present and the reports from Annapolis, stating that he would leave for Washington to-day, are said at the navy department to be a misapprehension. The admiral has made no preparations to leave, and it is the belief that he will be the last Spanish prisoner to go home, as he has shown rather regard for all other officers.

THE WOOL BUSINESS.

Ulfeld Bros. Sell 175,000 Pounds Wool-Growers Holding Back.

Ulfeld Bros. have sold all their wool, 175,000 pounds to Thomas Ross, the wool commission man of Las Vegas, who is shipping it to eastern markets to day. The close of the war seems to have strengthened the wool market considerably and this branch of business will undoubtedly experience a revival in the near future. The prices received for wool now being sold is understood to be in the proximity of 14 cents. A large number of wool-growers are still holding on to their supply in the expectation of receiving better prices a little later on.

L. Trauer to-day sold 45,000 pounds of wool to James Withington of the securing mill.

W. C. T. U. Items.

Mrs. C. H. Fannin, of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, called at THE CITIZEN this morning and left for publication the following items:

As a result of Miss Ackerman's lecture several new members have been added to the Woman's Temperance Union.

A petition has been put into the hands of the various young people's societies appealing to President McKinley to prohibit the army cantons.

The parliamentary drills will no doubt be an instructive and interesting feature of the meetings, and ladies of the city are invited to attend and take part in the drills.

The afternoon gospel meetings have been transferred to the park for the present, and as the "men's" meetings have joined them, the interest has increased and very successful work is expected.

In the acknowledgment of the 103rd testament sent to company A by the W. C. T. U., each testament containing a pledge card, forty seven of the cards have been returned to us signed by the same number of soldiers.

At the last meeting a full report of the soldiers' and sailors' work was given and showed a large amount of work accomplished through the efforts of the territorial president, Rev. Mrs. Borden. She has taken up the work at Kelly and Magdalena.

I. O. O. F. Notice.

Regular session of Harmony lodge, No. 17, I. O. O. F., to-night at our hall on south Second street at 8 o'clock. All members are requested to be present. Visiting brother invited to attend. By order of N. G. W. C. Montfort, secretary.

Notice.

The Brunswick saloon will offer to the first and second highest score for bowling, for the week commencing Saturday, August 20 and ending Sunday, August 28, one box of Brown Palace cigars to the first and a bottle of Mumm's Extra dry to the second.

ALBUQUERQUE, — AUGUST 18, 1898

No more American battleships will be "accidentally" blown up in Spanish harbors.

CONSIDERABLE inquiry is being made for real estate by outsiders. A nice boom in this direction is approaching.

In the game of diplomacy as far as played President McKinley appears to have a holding average of 1800.

WHILE generous recognition is being accorded to the brave men who fought the battles, let no one suppose that the quieter kind of heroism which the women nurses have shown in this campaign will be overlooked or forgotten.

ONE by one the pretty little romances of the war are dashed to earth. Jessie Schley, who carried an olive branch in her portmanteau from Paris to Madrid, isn't the impulsive, enthusiastic young thing we have all pictured her to be. Honor has it that she has already turned 40.

ALBUQUERQUE wants no epidemic of any kind. To ward off the possibility of such a thing there must be a rigid enforcement of all the laws that are intended to conserve the public health. None is of more consequence than that requiring connections to be made with sewers. Every vault or cess pool not carefully looked after is a menace to the health of the city. It is a pleasure, however, for THE CITIZEN to state that the city is kept pretty clean under the supervision of Marshal McMillin and Sanitary Police Commissioner Rossi, and is therefore practically free from any and all kinds of contagious diseases.

AN ACCOMPLISHED DIPLOMAT.
Admiral George Dewey is not only a fine sailor, a fierce fighter and an accomplished diplomat, but he can write letters of particular interest and value. In a letter to Congressman Livingston of Georgia, thanking him for introducing a resolution extending the thanks of congress for the naval engagement at Manila on May 1, he says: "It is a source of additional pleasure to me, a Vermont, that the mover of the resolution was a man from the north, but one from the far south. This is one of the good signs of the times. In the hour of danger there is no south nor north, but one country. May we never hear of sectionalism again. There are no lines drawn in the navy. I need not say it may interest you to know that my flag, Lieutenant, Brimley, is a Georgian by birth and appointment." These sentiments will be subscribed to by every patriotic citizen.

OUR SMALLER ISLAND ACQUISITIONS.
Little attention has been given to the smaller islands of the West Indies. The Spain has agreed to cede to us under the terms of peace, but they are, nevertheless, of some consequence. There are, perhaps, a dozen, all told, which are adjacent to Porto Rico. They are collectively known as the Passage Islands, and comprise all the islands and cays lying between the Virgin passage and the east end of Porto Rico.

The second largest of these is Culebra island, about sixteen miles to the eastward of Cape San Juan, as the northern point of Porto Rico is called. It is six miles long by three broad. Culebra island, sometimes called Carlit or Serpent island, is of an irregular outline. The northern shore is unindented. On all the other sides there are small inlets and reefs, which shelter good anchorages. The island is uninhabited. It is of moderate elevation, broken and rugged and thickly wooded, with scarcely a level spot on the surface. Near the center it rises to a height of 650 feet.

Near Culebra is Northeast Cay, small, oval-shaped, 340 feet high and thickly wooded. Bird Cay, a trifle larger, lies 300 yards from Northeast Cay. Bird Cay is a small rocky islet, sixty feet high. About a mile from it are two rocky islets, fifteen feet or so high, and 200 yards distant are two more about eighty feet high.

Culebrita islet, or Little Culebra, lies about a mile from Culebra. It, too, is of irregular shape, is 300 feet high and thickly wooded. From the highest part of the islet a fixed white light is exhibited at an elevation of 205 feet, and is visible in clear weather nearly fifteen miles. There are only a few inhabitants on the island.

Excellent anchorage can be found within the cays and islands just described, but the best, called the Sound, is toward their southern end, under the lee of the reef.

Great Harbor, in the southern part of Culebra, is one of the most secure basins in the West Indies. It is a mile long and half a mile wide, of irregular shape, but there are no inhabitants or villages here and no facilities of any kind.

Crab Island, called also Vieques Island, six miles to the eastward of Porto Rico, is the largest and most important of the Passage group, being seventeen miles long by five broad. A ridge of small hills runs nearly its whole length along the middle of the island and rises to a height at the southwest extremity. The south coast of the island is indented by several small bays, one of which, called Sound or Settlement bay, is defended by a small fort. There is a small village settlement here.

On the northern shore of Crab Island is Port Mula, at the mouth of a little stream. It contains about 1,000 inhabitants, and is the residence of the governor, who is nominated by the captain general of Porto Rico.

There is a lighthouse erected at Mula Point, from which a fixed red light is exhibited. There is comparatively no trade, except in fruits and fish in this archipelago, but undoubtedly these islands are capable of development, and will pay a fair revenue after they have become a portion of the United States. Their natural beauty is unimpaired, and over them the trade wind is continually blowing, giving them a warm, delightful climate.

IN BRIEF PARAGRAPHS.
The chronology of the Spanish American war, taking in all the notable events, is briefly told in the following paragraphs.

De Lema's famous letter.
The blowing up of the Maine.
The starting of the court of inquiry from Key West.

Spain's demand for Lee's recall.
The arrival of the report of the board of inquiry at Washington.

The official abstract of the report.
Lee's departure from Havana.

The passage of the intervention resolutions in the house and senate and the free Cuba resolutions in the senate three distinct times.

The bombardment of Matanzas.
The safe arrival of the Paris.

Dewey's victory at Manila.
Cervera's sailing.

The Cienfuegos fight.
The bombardment of Porto Rico.

Cervera's arrival at Santiago.
Cervera's blowing up by Schley.

The sinking of the Merrimack.
Carranza's letter.

The first bombardment of Santiago.
The first light at Guantanamo.

The first sailing of troops for Santiago de Cuba.

The landing there.
The Rough Riders fight at La Yaguajay.

The capture of the San Juan Heights.
Cervera's arrival at Port Said.

The victory at El Caney.
Arrival of the first troops at Manila.

Capture of Ladrone.
Destruction of Cervera's fleet.

Shafter's demands for Santiago's surrender.

The surrender.
The march into Santiago.

The landing at Fajardo, Porto Rico.
Official report of Sampson and Schley.

Agreement on terms of peace and signing of protocol.

This was followed by the fight and surrender of Manila, the land forces by Gen. Merritt and naval force under Admiral Dewey participating.

Cuba must realize thoroughly that if she comes into the American Union the days of bull fights and of lotteries will be at an end. We shall see how much the islanders think of their national "sport."

Klondike Almost Forgotten.
This is the busy season in the Klondike gold fields. Fortunes are being dug up every week, but a thing is said in the newspapers. There is a war on hand, and every other subject is forgotten. In the manner men and women drop out of sight when they lose their health. The general cause of sickness is in the stomach. From there it branches out. To remove the cause Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the best remedy. The weakness of women are cured by its strength to both sexes. It invigorates and imparts vitality. It steadies the nerves and brings refreshing sleep. For those whose health is "run down" nothing equals it. Take Hostetter's Stomach Bitters if you want to regain it.

THE MAZE.
It saves the Children.
The Graphophone is to the ear what the photograph camera is to the eye, and more, for the Graphophone catches instantly and preserves every tint and shade of sound. A most interesting use of a Graphophone is to make records of your friends' voices to be preserved for future use. You can catch the story of your joyous friend just as he told it, or the joyful song of some loved one just as she sang it, and have it reproduced perfectly at any time and as often as you please. Besides the Graphophone affords wonderful entertainment in the way of reproducing the music of bands, orchestras, or vocal or instrumental soloists. No investment will return so much in pleasure as the purchase of a Graphophone. It is the perfect talking machine. Write for Catalogue No. 30, to the Columbia Graphophone Company, No. 730-732 Olive street, St. Louis, Mo.

WHIPPLE BARRACKS ITEMS.

A Humorous Write-Up of Everything at the Camp of Recruiters.

SHORT ACCOUNT OF THE PHILIPPINES.

Special Correspondence.

Whipple Barracks, Aug. 15.—Artillerist Dwight Wheeler is, to all intents and purposes, the happiest man in camp. He wears a large X16 smile and the violet tinted words he uses with the boys remind one of the sound of falling rose leaves in the vale of Kashmir. I had the pleasure of lunching with them today in their new quarters, together with Kervitt, Bader and Cooper. Our hostess did the honors to perfection. We did down the luncheon—without detection. Many breaks, as I afterwards learned, were made by the guests. Cooper washed his face in the finger bowl and wiped on the napkin, after which Kervitt used it to soak off the perspiration as he talked of Lieut. McKee and double quick time. Bader plunked his teeth with a tea-bested match, which set them a-fire and then ruined his stomach with hydrant water—no insurance. We just sat and looked simple (i. e. natural) and pretended not to notice all these things, which we succeeded in doing. Poor Dwight, we all liked him and never noticed any peculiarities before this, when we ate at his house; which we never did. But the diagnosis cannot be mistaken when one reasons, a posteriori, from visible symptoms. And first they both sat at tables on the same X16 inch sofa and his did lots of little things which she could have done better than he—then, Oh ye wives who read, he attempted to wash the dishes, while she, reclining in her silken upholstery chair daintily encouraged him. But you need not send your husband here, ladies. The regiment is full, and there are enough husbands here with a far-away-I wish I hadn't done-it look upon their facial protuberances. Well, there may somewhere exist a land, where as the poet says—But what I started out to say is that Artillerist Wheeler's wife came in Sunday evening on a visit to her husband and will remain, more or less, some time.

We promised THE CITIZEN to write up the city of Manila from a war-like point of view, at so much a view; and if we are going to do so at all we might as well do it now, as when we are mustered out in a few days we will need some money, and any way will be quite busy hunting a job. The writer once passed within 1,500 miles of the island of Luzon, which is situated partly, at least, in the city of Manila. The city, as far as we could observe, consisted of 370,000 souls, mostly men and women. Strangely enough, the men are all males, the women females. They have no female men or male women; no daddies or new women. The children are young according to their ages, and, like the adults, have the distinguishing characteristics of sex. They grow larger as they grow older, and when they reach their full height they stop. Most of the people live in right, elevated bamboo houses. Those who do not live in houses live somewhere else. Their suna acts peculiarly. He comes up out of the water, generally from the east, and goes down "into the water," as he himself the Philippines good night, in the west. I could not ascertain whether he is a Baptist or Presbyterian. I also noticed water on all other points of the compass. From this I should think the island is surrounded by water. Another thing: The water is salty, or most of it. One cannot drink it. The soldiers are afraid to drink it. Once some did, and their quartermaster smuggled them into the commissary as salt pork. This all shows the uses intended for water, viz: to wash clothes and things. The Philippines are like the measles—they break out. When this war began there were 700 islands; thirty days ago there were 1,400 islands; now there are 2,400 of them. The reason of this is that the large volcano holders there heard that the New Mexico battalion was coming, and opened the volcano throats, started the fire into extensive action and threw up several hundred islands for the boys.

But, alas, "innocuous demerol," over which we have no permanent temporary control, has bleached us from hence to hitherto. And that reminds me: The brightest and most precious jewel of man's life is a jewel which ever and always lightens and brightens his path in the dark valley of humiliation, of despair and death, and in the bright sunshine while on the topmost wave of success, shared by the wife with her husband, by the sister and brother, by the parent and child, ay, I believe, even in the realm to and from which old Charon plies—is the divine factored jewel—Hope. I told the good people of Albuquerque on the eve of our departure that I would tell them all about it on our return, if alive.

Surgeons Lindley and Smith examined me at the hospital this morning. After repeated questions and answers they satisfied me that I am quack. I hereby fulfill the promise given you. You have more than I know. (Write papers please copy.)

Our arms have not yet arrived. But that cannot dampen the ardor and down east Yankee ingenuity of Company A. We have been fighting without arms or anything else for six weeks, and have never been whipped. Henceforth we shall pile Pelion upon Pelion in victory. I saw this morning. It was the regulation length and sawed out from a board. It was a wooden bullet on a gun. Several of them will be turned out by the carpenter. Uncle Sam does not pay for them. The sergeants do. They will be bayoneted with tallow candles. They are for the sergeants.

Two of the regiment to day started for Washington, D. C. in charge of Charles (commonly called "Andy") Jones, the alleged mentally unbalanced member of Company A. He will be examined there for admission to the "board of strategy." And this reminds me of the company "board of strategy." They are regularly organized and have a pass word. They meet and practice on each other. The theory which makes most of them sicker and puts most off duty is preserved and passed upon outsiders. The last one is that Sampson take his fleet and bombard and sink the rock of Gibraltar which would be a Hobson bottle up Camara in the Mediterranean sea.

It's too bad. "How stable, flat and unprofitable" seems to Sergeant Harding "all the uses in the world." It is fine o'clock and night and standing in the segment of the guard. From the cook's fire under the window, a thunderous noise like unto a mammoth fire cracker in its death struggle. From the guard house, in pushed the sergeant, and knowing our people never lie, confidently asked "who did it?" Not one of the men knew anything about it and their terribly nervous condition proved they spoke truly.

As usual, the regimental base ball nine made six Prescott's muscular prize last Sunday. Twenty four to seven.

Barracks' war news of today: The war is over. The war is not over. We will go to the front. We will go home to mother. We will stay here if we do not go away from here. The last is the most reliable.

Our liver is normal and supplied with the requisite amount of gall; and when there is good reason to kick we can kick, and kick high! For two mornings the route to the officers' quarters has been full of ill-humored going up to exhibit what the quartermasters call breakfast.

There is no use musing matters. The men have been treated shamefully! Six weeks' service, and the government has furnished the men nothing whatever but a roof and some measly rations which would make the men curse only and fall out of the ranks. Company A, perhaps, is better served than some others; but this morning's bit of fare consisted of a cup of coffee (?) two little slices of bread, a quarter of an onion (ye gods), and a bit of shivered dices the size of a last dollar.

The supposed natty man, Jones, who started for Washington to-day, was accompanied by McGuire, of the Phoenix company, and young McCord, son of Col. McCord, of the same company.

The men who wear stripes are the cynosures of all feminine eyes. The privates are onto the game, and now when they go to the city, as the gloaming comes on apace they stealthily chalk down the outside seams of their breeches, step high, count stars, and are real proud and mean.

They were Harbail, Norton and Tab, and all three have supernatural imaginations. They were, keeping honest people awake while hoisterously telling what they knew of the islands of Philip. Barn hill knows of one island where they intergraded the strawberry and milk weed and are personally supplied with strawberries and cream. Norton, who loves dieth, knows of another island where they turned the hogs in with the centipedes and now raise a fifty fold increase of hams. Tate, who spends most of his time hunting bees among the rocks, knows of one island where they intermarried lightning bugs with bees and now the bees make honey by night. And Sergeant Walker listened and convulsed at the escape of an occasional groan with out official permission.

Schnelliger, the baker, had missed them before. Cakes after cakes had mysteriously disappeared from the pantry. This one he loaded and left exposed. The lad who got it to off duty.

For military men only: The corporals have left off the alphabet and taken to learning to count on the drill grounds. Some count as far as two, others go as far as four and keep on repeating it so as not to forget it. 1-2-3-4; 1-2-3-4. Not one can count to seven.

Sergeant Whiting wonders where "we will go to when we get done staying here."

The noble Percy and we accepted an invitation to call on the Rev. Wyckoff, of Prescott. He is our cousin, and as a sky pilot knows well his chart. We were intended for the same—but let that pass. We were pleasantly entertained.

Mrs. Wheeler was in the help up near Grants, N. M. last Sunday morning. It was very interesting for a little while.

Before breakfast the men want revenge; after breakfast, they want breakfast. The men are getting very impatient. They want to go where they can do some real work. I do not know a man in Company A who enlisted on account of the wages. They can do better at their usual vocations. Many can earn ten times more at home. They are losing interest as they lose hope of action.

Sampson and Bob, the eagle and dog mascot, have good health and plenty of it. The balance of the company are fairly well; and this reminds me that Schneldiger, who is legal tender for Sampson, and Sampson himself have some misundestanding between them. It happened this way.

It was gourd recent in the morning. The proud bird had made his toilet; Schneldiger had not made his. Let me tell you how it happened.

Now Dwight Wheeler'd made a crustee, lined about with shining brass. From the Schneldiger bird's nest, Sampson to gaze on us we pass.

Proudly marched he through the ranks. Held the eagle bird on high. And could not help but grin. And did not attempt to fly.

Had symbolic of our freedom. Intended to make a point. Looked he down from off his eyrie, signed his Schneldiger from afar.

Then he spread his wings for sidewise. Intended to make a point. Looked he down from off his eyrie, signed his Schneldiger from afar.

But Capt. Borradaile asks for an explanation, and having a good stock of the latest styles, we go; for he will not come.

The Las Vegas Optic says: J. J. Jaffa and family, of Roswell, came in on the early train yesterday, expecting to spend a week visiting relatives in the city; but he was wired yesterday, calling him home on pressing business. Mr. Jaffa and family left on yesterday afternoon's train for their homes.

The Trinidad Advertiser-Sentinel says: Miss Mary Lawrence returned yesterday from a pleasant visit with friends in Albuquerque. Miss Mary Long, of Las Vegas, returned with her for a short visit.

The extension of the Copper avenue sewer to the new residence of Gov. R. B. Stover, on Railroad avenue, is being carried on to-day by the Whitney Co., who have the contract. The line is about 500 feet in length, and Capt. "Ike" Cox is in charge of the force of men on the job.

Joseph Brown, the machinist who was badly cut and crushed about the head in the locomotive boiler explosion at Prescott on Tuesday afternoon, worked in Albuquerque years ago, and E. M. Brown, the day foreman, who received injuries that resulted in his death an hour after the accident, was known to many of the Santa Fe railroaders between this city and San Marcial only a few years ago. Brown has since died. The engineer, C. V. Chambers, who was badly injured, cut and bruised, is reported to have run an engine on the west division of the Santa Pacific about two years ago. He will doubtless survive his injuries, but will carry some ugly scars on his body during the balance of his life.

Richard Hoffmeyer, the young nitro-d who made a most wonderful record while out fighting one day last year, returned from Jemez and Sulphur hot springs yesterday afternoon. He left Joe Barnett at the Jemez springs, where he is taking a bath regularly every day, and from all appearances, enjoying life in the coolest way.

L. A. Carr, of San Marcial, and T. A. Carr, of Deming, came to the city last night to meet their sister, Miss Angie Carr, who is on her way to Los Angeles, Cal., for her health. The two brothers, after a visit with their sister will return to their homes. They are quartered at the Highland.

Mrs. R. W. Hopkins and family, who were on a visit to Kansas relatives and friends, returned to the city last night, and in consequence the popular manager of the Crystal Ice works is correspondingly happy.

SPECIAL SALE OF ## Woolen Dress Goods.

We need room, room for our new stock of woolen Dress Goods, which will soon be arriving. We have now an immense stock of Dress Goods on hand and must reduce same. In order to attain this end we will sell these goods at almost unbelievable prices.

WHEN we say, Dress Goods Bargains, everybody knows that we mean Dress Goods Bargains in the full sense of the word. We have made these sales the talk of the town before, we are determined to cap the climax with this one.

THIS SALE is to be one of mutual benefit and interest to the public and ourselves. A benefit to the public in receiving their Dress Goods at just about one half their actual value. A benefit to us in disposing of same, for reasons above mentioned, although at or below cost. We know we can interest you. Avail yourself of this opportunity!

Mail orders filled same day as received.
