ALBUQUERQUE, — JULY 22, 1935

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico will probably be bombarded by the American squadron on Sunday.

The United States has decided to annex Porto Rico. The little island will make a popular winter resort.

GREAT BRITAIN frankly admits that her desire to have us keep the Philippines is not altogether unselfish.

The hanging of a few communists in Cuba might make it possible for the soldiers to procure their rations.

There is no cable at Porto Rico, and all news of the American invasion must go to St. Thomas Island by dispatch boat.

The troop of seventy-three Rough Riders from this city in three weeks in Cuba lost twenty-five men in killed and wounded.

A FRODOCK medical authority says a wounded soldier's chances of recovery are 75 per cent better now than in the civil war.

That first mile of Alaskan railway which has just been completed at Siguay is doubtless the first of many miles that will be laid in the near future.

The war is probably near its end. It is only ninety days since hostilities began, and in that brief period Spain has lost two fleets with their men and one army of 20,000 to 30,000 men.

This city should help Arizona erect a monument to the memory of Capt. "Bucky" O'Neill. He was at one time a resident of this city, and the people would cheerfully contribute to the fund.

The sailors who destroyed Admiral Cervera's Spanish fleet will get over $200,000 in prize money, while the soldiers who forced Santiago to surrender will get but fifty cents a day, and possibly the yellow fever.

The vanguard of the Porto Rican army of invasion is on its way, and with an army of 40,000 men and the co-operation of the navy it is probable that our own fortnight will see that island practically under the American flag.

It is said that Spain is not particularly desirous of receiving her brave soldiers who laid down their arms in Santiago, and will use the existence of yellow fever as an excuse to prevent their disembarking at Spanish ports.

The report of the director of the mint at Washington shows that during the fiscal year closed on June 30, the volume at the mints of the United States amounted to $72,909,633, of which sum $10,022,790 was in silver dollars.

There seems to be no reason for the alarm that has been felt over the appearance of yellow fever in the American army. The medical department appears to think it will be able to manage the disease which seems to be of a mild type.

The colored people of Phoenix, Arizona, have passed resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Captain O'Neill his gallant risking of his life to save two of their race from a watery grave having made dear to them the memory of the man whom they ever regarded as a friend.

The Red Cross society is doing noble work for the relief of the starving inhabitants of Santiago and the surrounding country. The steamer Texas, flying the Red Cross flag, has taken a large supply of much needed food to Santiago, upon which some 10,000 refugees are now dependent.

SANTIAGO will once more soon be a busy port. Baltimore has been getting large quantities of iron ore from there until the Spanish authorities shut off its exportation. The new men in control will do everything in their power to revive the industries of the island as fast as it comes under American control.

BATTLE OF LA QUINANA. In the first battle in Cuba, in which the Rough Riders won a glorious name, they lost sixteen killed and fifty or more wounded, while the Spanish loss was 255. This statement of the Spanish loss is given by General Toral, and it is safe to say that he did not indulge in exaggeration. He says about 2,000 Spaniards were engaged, a force far superior to that of the Americans.

THE REFERENDUM. San Francisco has a new charter, in which referendum is a salient feature. It has been adopted by the people by a vote of 14,386 for to 12,025 against. One provision of the charter is that no new franchise whatever, for light, water or street railways, can be granted without it is ratified by a vote of the people at the next municipal election, and no street railway franchise can be renewed until within ninety days of its expiration, and then its renewal must be decided by the voters, if 15 per cent of them submit a petition to that effect. When new franchises are secured they run for only twenty-five years.

This is the beginning of a movement that is likely to spread rapidly in this country. The growing exactions of corporations and the increasing venality of common councils in cities have left the people no alternative except to take into their own hands powers which it is no longer safe to entrust to men who use offices for increasing private gains and without the slightest regard for the rights or wishes of their constituents.

CARE OF THE WOUNDED. Of the 1,584 men wounded before Santiago only sixty-eight have died. The surgeons are amazed at this small percentage of mortality. Nearly all the wounded men are getting well, and it is claimed that never in the history of war have gunshot wounds proved less fatal or healed so rapidly. Unless a man is hit in a vital part or suffers internal injuries he is about soon to recover, provided he observes instructions.

This phenomenon is the triumph of American surgery, which has more than kept pace with the advance of gunnery. Every soldier and sailor in the service is furnished with a little packet, to be used by himself or his comrades as soon as possible after a wound is received. It is carried in the pocket or suspended by a cord around the neck. Upon being opened it is found to contain a piece of gauze, a bandage and a handkerchief; all treated with the antiseptic Kanon or bichloride of mercury, recently discovered by Dr. Sister of England. Upon the handkerchief are printed instructions, which by this time are familiar to nearly all soldiers. The gauze is to be placed immediately upon the wound. The bandage is to be used to bind the arteries or veins so as to stop the flow of blood, and the handkerchief is to be tied about the wound until the patient can reach a regular surgeon.

These "first aid to the wounded" applications have been generally utilized by those who have been shot both on ships and in the field, and the surgeons say the men have done remarkably well and presence of mind in applying them.

NO MARCH IN THE LINE. On land and sea, in whatever way they have engaged, the people of the United States have been successful! Their victories have been uniform—and what a brilliant list it makes! When the country was weak both in men and resources it was able to humble the greatest power in the world. Now in the amplitude of its power, Spain has ventured to make war with it, and the result is an unvarying round of American successes.

The volunteers from the south, of course, did not arrive, as the report was false, and the recruits were pretty well satisfied, they receiving enough and more than they could eat.

How to Look Good. Good looks are really more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the liver is inactive, the complexion looks sallow; if your stomach is disordered, you have a dyspeptic look; if your kidneys are affected, you have a pinched look. Secure good health, and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good Alternative and Tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils, and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at J. H. "Electric Bitters" Co.'s Drug Store, 50 cents per bottle.

STORIES OF RELIEF. Two Letters to Mrs. Pinkham. Mrs. JOHN WILLIAMS, Englestown, N. J., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I cannot begin to tell you how I suffered before taking your remedies. I was so weak that I could hardly walk across the floor without falling. I had much trouble and such a bearing-down feeling; also suffered with my back and limbs, pain in womb, inflammation of the bladder, piles and indigestion. Before I had taken one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt a great deal better, and after taking two and one-half bottles and half a box of your Liver Pills I was cured. If more would take your medicine they would not have to suffer so much."

Mrs. JOSEPH PEREZ, 513 East St., Warren, Pa., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I have suffered with womb trouble over fifteen years. I had inflammation, enlargement and displacement of the womb. I had the backache constantly, also headache, and was so dizzy. I had heart trouble, it seemed as though my heart was in my throat at times choking me. I could not walk around, and I could not lie down, for then my heart would beat so fast I would feel as though I was smothering. I had to sit up in bed nights in order to breathe. I was so weak I could not do any thing."

I have now taken several bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and used three packages of Sanative Wash, and can say I am perfectly cured. I do not think I could have lived long if Mrs. Pinkham's medicine had not helped me."

Mrs. J. H. Laurie and daughter, family of the popular foreman of the tin department of the Santa Fe Hotel, left last night for Los Angeles.

Chino Maniz, who claims to be about 100 years old, drove up from Fajardo this morning, to see his old friend, Sheriff Thos. S. Hulbert. "Mr. Maniz worked for the Hulbert family," says the sheriff, "over forty years ago, and long before that time he was a teamster for the father of Justo R. Arriaga in the early days of the Rio Grande Valley." NEEDS OF COMPANY C. These brave Volunteers are More Laid in Their Wants Than Company A. MODEST LIST OF ARTICLES. J. F. Manning, the correspondent of the Santa Fe New Mexican at Whipple Barracks, in a letter to his paper, gives the following interesting items: Whipple Barracks, July 16, 1898.—It has just come to the knowledge of the members of Company C that Company A, of Albuquerque, lately furnished the ladies of that city with a list of the articles desired by them, which were not found in the commissary and quartermaster department. Here-with we present to the ladies of Santa Fe a complete account of the things desired by members of Company C. In this connection, it may be said that the boys are actually suffering for the want of these necessities and failures to procure them may prove will be considered most reprehensible and a breach of good faith. O. J. White elephant for a mascot. One hundred and six close woven wire mattresses. One hundred and six bedsteads, antique finish, to match with the other furnishings of the quarters. Two hundred and twelve pillow shams with appropriate inscriptions like: "Angels are Watching Us," "Good Night," "Sleep Tight," "Good Morning," "Do You See Pear's Soap?" "Early to Bed, Early to Rise," etc. The young ladies will find their value at home. One hundred and six pairs pajamas. Some of the boys are a little old-fashioned and prefer night gowns. Assort lot. Twelve crates pumpkin pies. Six crates ostrich eggs, for making large omelets. The company outfit has quit laying eggs and is laying off. Thirty bottles red, white and blue, or patriotic, ink. Twelve hundred 2-cent stamps. A convenient way to pack stamps and keep the postage from getting moist, is to place a $10 bill between each layer. Six green-lined lined tubs, and 12 cans condensed milk. Some members of the company have gone two days without their milk baths. Two thousand pairs automatic, self-adjustable extreme coverage (socks). Everything of a wearable nature must be automatic and self-adjustable, because most of the men left their valises at home, thinking they could secure the services of others here. There are many other things that we need almost as bad as the above, but do not desire to overwork the ladies of Santa Fe during the hot months. In case the rainy season sets in at the Philippines by the time Company C gets there, it might be a good idea to forward 100-100 umbrellas. Mr. Van Arsdale will probably contribute 100 pairs of rubber shoes to go with the equipment as a preventive against wet feet. The requirements of Company C are modest. They don't want the earth. A Child Wants. The pleasant flavor, gentle action, and soothing effect of Syrup of Figs, makes it need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be constipated or bilious, the most gratifying results follow its use; so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

LAW BREAKERS ON THE PECOS. Sheep Pasturing on the Pecos Reserve—Herdsmen Killing Game. A prominent gentleman of this city who has returned from a visit to the valley of the upper Pecos river pronounces as a burning shame, the total disregard, some of the men herding sheep in that section have for the rights of others. The tract of land and government reservation, known as the Pecos reserve, is a reserve in name only, as sheep in great numbers are allowed to pasture on the land and the sheep are also denuding most of the trees of their bark. Not content with breaking the laws in this way, the herdsmen are also engaged shooting game and driving it from the park. The gentleman is not informed as to what official should be notified of the misdoings of these men, but he hopes to bring the attention of the proper authorities to the outrage in order that a stop may be put to this hurtful, unlawful and outrageous proceedings.—New Mexican.

FLOOD NOTES. Doings and Damages of the Raging Rio Grande Itemized. Water has covered Raton's Grove to the depth of a foot, breaking through the new levee built this summer by the El Paso & Northeastern railroad about two miles down the river. City Engineer Wimberly said last night that the water is two inches higher than it was at any time during the big overflow last year. Superintendent Greig, of the White Oaks, and a force of about 100 workmen, labored all day yesterday and away into the night strengthening the road bed levee just below the Station street bridge, placing in position to do most good about 2,500 sand bags. The flood was checked, but if the rise continues it will only be temporary. The White Oaks track at Rand's Grove has sunk and is entirely under water for a distance of about 800 feet.—El Paso Tribune.

Manning, the correspondent of the Santa Fe New Mexican at Whipple Barracks, in a letter to his paper, gives the following interesting items: Whipple Barracks, July 16, 1898.—It has just come to the knowledge of the members of Company C that Company A, of Albuquerque, lately furnished the ladies of that city with a list of the articles desired by them, which were not found in the commissary and quartermaster department. Here-with we present to the ladies of Santa Fe a complete account of the things desired by members of Company C. In this connection, it may be said that the boys are actually suffering for the want of these necessities and failures to procure them may prove will be considered most reprehensible and a breach of good faith. O. J. White elephant for a mascot. One hundred and six close woven wire mattresses. One hundred and six bedsteads, antique finish, to match with the other furnishings of the quarters. Two hundred and twelve pillow shams with appropriate inscriptions like: "Angels are Watching Us," "Good Night," "Sleep Tight," "Good Morning," "Do You See Pear's Soap?" "Early to Bed, Early to Rise," etc. The young ladies will find their value at home. One hundred and six pairs pajamas. Some of the boys are a little old-fashioned and prefer night gowns. Assort lot. Twelve crates pumpkin pies. Six crates ostrich eggs, for making large omelets. The company outfit has quit laying eggs and is laying off. Thirty bottles red, white and blue, or patriotic, ink. Twelve hundred 2-cent stamps. A convenient way to pack stamps and keep the postage from getting moist, is to place a $10 bill between each layer. Six green-lined lined tubs, and 12 cans condensed milk. Some members of the company have gone two days without their milk baths. Two thousand pairs automatic, self-adjustable extreme coverage (socks). Everything of a wearable nature must be automatic and self-adjustable, because most of the men left their valises at home, thinking they could secure the services of others here. There are many other things that we need almost as bad as the above, but do not desire to overwork the ladies of Santa Fe during the hot months. In case the rainy season sets in at the Philippines by the time Company C gets there, it might be a good idea to forward 100-100 umbrellas. Mr. Van Arsdale will probably contribute 100 pairs of rubber shoes to go with the equipment as a preventive against wet feet. The requirements of Company C are modest. They don't want the earth. A Child Wants. The pleasant flavor, gentle action, and soothing effect of Syrup of Figs, makes it need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be constipated or bilious, the most gratifying results follow its use; so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

LAW BREAKERS ON THE PECOS. Sheep Pasturing on the Pecos Reserve—Herdsmen Killing Game. A prominent gentleman of this city who has returned from a visit to the valley of the upper Pecos river pronounces as a burning shame, the total disregard, some of the men herding sheep in that section have for the rights of others. The tract of land and government reservation, known as the Pecos reserve, is a reserve in name only, as sheep in great numbers are allowed to pasture on the land and the sheep are also denuding most of the trees of their bark. Not content with breaking the laws in this way, the herdsmen are also engaged shooting game and driving it from the park. The gentleman is not informed as to what official should be notified of the misdoings of these men, but he hopes to bring the attention of the proper authorities to the outrage in order that a stop may be put to this hurtful, unlawful and outrageous proceedings.—New Mexican.

Our Annual Midsummer Sale

FROM TO-DAY, until further notice, we will offer our entire stock of summer goods at prices to suit the times. This is not a money making sale for us, directly, but we believe it to be in our interest by closing out this season's goods at cost, or even below cost, in order to get a fresh stock for the coming season. One of the members of our firm is going to the eastern markets within a few weeks, and new goods will begin arriving within a month. We need room, and we need above all, MONEY. The Almighty Dollar will be mighty in our store within the next few weeks than it has ever been before, and that is saying a great deal. Don't let below prices mislead you as to quality. There's not an article mentioned that isn't worth almost double. You will agree with us when you see the goods.
