ARMY AND NAVY READY FOR BATTLE!

The Warships and Shafter's Soldiers Ready to Strike.

CADIZ FLEET IN THE SUEZ CANAL.

Old Santiago de Cuba, June 27, via Kingston, June 28.—The United States navy and army are expected to strike Santiago tomorrow. By that time the army is expected to be ready for another forward movement.

The dynamite gunboat Vessuvius fired three shells last night. They fell in the vicinity of Morro castle and the eastern batteries.

During the night a loud explosion occurred on shore near Aguadores. It is believed to have been caused by the Spaniards trying to blow up a railroad trestle.

It is now said that Juragua may be selected as a permanent coaling harbor for our fleet.

Gustav Welneck, ordinary seaman of the flagship New York, was drowned yesterday. The New York was coaling in front of Morro castle from the collier Alexander when Welneck jumped from the collier in an attempt to get on board his own ship. He fell between the flagship and collier and sank at once.

The Dolphin has gone to the Havana blockade. The Helena and Yankton have gone to the southern blockade.

A bulletin, issued by Rear Admiral Sampson, said: "From a report made by one of the wounded, a nephew of Surgeon Berryhill of the flagship New York, a considerable part of the damage to our troops on Friday was done by seven millimeter machine guns manned by women, so there would seem to be some probability in the report of the use ashore of the crews of Admiral Cervera's squadron."

BLOCKADE OF CUBA.

The Little Italy is to be bottled up securely—None Can Escape.

Washington, June 28.—By proclamation issued to-day the president gave notice of the intention of the government to assume the formidable task of blockading about 500 miles of the Cuban coast line, in addition to the sections already blockaded. This increases the extent of the blockade fully four fold. The demands upon the navy will not be nearly so heavy in proportion to the territory to be covered as in the case of the initial blockade, as the new blockaded coast line lies entirely within the great light on the south Cuban coast. In which the water generally is very shallow and the ports are few into which a vessel of any draft could enter. The most important of these ports are Manzanillo, Trinidad and Tuna. West of Cienfuegos which is already blockaded effectively, there is no port to be blockaded until Bahama is reached. This port is only forty miles from Havana by rail and is believed to have been the principal source of food supplies for the Spanish capital. For 150 miles west of this, clear over to Cape Frances, the western edge of the blockaded territory, there are no ports for deep vessels, but only considerable draft, and even if there were the country in the interior of Pinar del Rio is in the hands of the insurgents, and supplies could not be sent through to Havana. The purpose of extending the blockade west to Cape Frances was to command the entrance between the west side of the Isle of Pines and Cape Frances, and thus render much easier the task of the blockading vessels.

Vessels for additional blockade service will be supplied almost entirely from the patrol fleet, which, under Commodore Howell, has been guarding the north Atlantic coast from Maine to South Carolina.

The blockade of San Juan, proclaimed to-day, is in reality already in effect, having been initiated by Captain Sigbee last week, when he turned back from that port a British steamer laden with supplies.

The character of the vessels required to maintain the blockade of San Juan necessarily must be of a type superior to ships required for the blockade on the south coast of Cuba. Probably some such vessels as the Detroit or Montgomery, will be assigned.

In defeating the Terror, Captain Sig-

WHIPPED THE TERROR! Cruiser St. Paul Disables Spanish Torpedo Boat Destroyer.

Blockade of Porto Rico and South Coast of Cuba.

Nine Thousand Men from Tampa Embark for Santiago.

BIG BATTLE PREDICTED AT SANTIAGO.

Washington, June 28.—The navy department to-day posted the following bulletin:

Admiral Sampson reports that the Yale arrived yesterday and discharged troops. Capt. Sigbee reports that on Wednesday afternoon, while off San Juan, Porto Rico, he was attacked by an unprotected Spanish cruiser and the Spanish torpedo boat destroyer Terror. The Terror made a dash, which was awaited by the St. Paul. The St. Paul hit the Terror three times, killing one officer and two men, and wounding several others. The Terror dropped back under cover of the fortifications with difficulty and was towed into the harbor in a sinking condition, where she is now being repaired.

Later a cruiser and gunboat started out, but remained under the protection of the forts.

SPANISH SPY.

He Says that the Spanish in Santiago Have Little Food.

(Copyright Associated Press.)

Baiguiri, June 27, via Kingston, June 28.—A Spanish spy captured by the Cubans on Sunday reports that the Spaniards in Santiago believe that the Americans suffered a heavy loss during the fighting near Sevilla on Friday in both killed and wounded. The spy also reported that there was much criticism in Santiago on account of the fact that the American landing was not contested at Riquiri, and says there was talk of an American attempt to capture the city. The spy says there is very little food in the city of Santiago.

TROOPS FROM TAMPA.

Nine Thousand Troops Leave Tampa To-day for Santiago.

(Copyright Associated Press.)

Washington, June 28.—Orders have been issued for the immediate sailing of 9,000 men from Tampa to reinforce General Shafter. It is understood that they will be taken from General Snyder's second division of the Fourth army corps. Right transports will carry the expedition, which will first go to Key West, where they will be joined by a strong naval convoy, and proceed to Santiago. It is expected that the start will be made to-day.

SURVEYED THE HARBOR.

Lieut. Blue Made a Second Visit to Santiago Harbor.

(Copyright Associated Press.)

Off Santiago, June 27, via Kingston, June 28.—Lieutenant Victor Blue, of the auxiliary gunboat Suwanee, returned to the fleet to-day from another investigating trip ashore. He reported that Admiral Cervera's ships are in the harbor. With the exception of one torpedo boat destroyer, they are at anchor and show no signs of activity. Rear Admiral Sampson warned the fleet this morning to exercise the greatest care in shooting at the hulls of Morro castle, and should any improvements over the line result from the trip these will first be known when incorporated into Mr. Ripley's report to the board of directors.

AN INSPECTION TOUR.

President Ripley and Other Santa Fe Officials Here To-day.

A special train, conveying high officials of the Santa Fe system, stopped here to-day to allow them to visit the shops and look over the company's property here. The party included President Ripley, General Manager Frey, Vice President Morton, and Division Superintendent Hurley. The train went south on Sunday evening, going to El Paso. They are on a general tour of inspection, and some time was devoted to the new extensions of the road in southern New Mexico. The visit of the gentlemen had no special significance other than those given, and should any improvements over the line result from the trip these will first be known when incorporated into Mr. Ripley's report to the board of directors.

TRUE MARRIAGE ROMANCE.

A Young Man Joined in Wedding to His Rich Lady To-day.

Once in awhile a marriage ceremony is performed that is not hallowed with happiness, but has a sad romantic tincture that awakens sympathy for the contracting parties rather than congratulations. A marriage of this nature took place in this city last evening.

Miss Nona Hunt, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Anna Hunt, came here about six months ago from Shillburg, Wis., in the hope that the young lady's health, which was failing rapidly, might be benefited by the change.

They were soon followed by the devoted admirer of the young lady, William Steele, who wished that he might live in the same town with his affinity and with the devotion of a lover aid her to make the struggle for life. But the wish that would crown their lives with joy was not to be granted. Miss Hunt grew worse and it was at last decided that she return to her home that she might die among friends. That he could accompany them with propriety and act as a counselor to her in the brief life left to them both, and it being the wish of the young lady, Mr. Steele called on Father Mandalar last evening, and the priest accompanied him to the home on the Highlands of the mother and daughter and there they were united in marriage. The little party started for the old home in Wisconsin last night.

MOULI SNAKE DANCE.

The Fair association has started in with a rush to have the best fair ever held. Last year the association made ineffectual efforts to secure the Mouli snake dancers, but this does not deter the new organization from trying again this year. The association has taken the matter up with prominent traders who have been among the Mouli for years, and there is little doubt that the visitor to the fair this year will have the opportunity of seeing the most sensational Indian dance ever witnessed.

Miss Minnie McCue, daughter of Col. and Mrs. M. F. McCue, will leave this evening for Gallup, where she will spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. Louis Smith.

If you cannot find the goods at the Reunionist it is no use looking elsewhere is the common expression amongst the ladies of Albuquerque.

Mrs. Deutschland, of Los Lunas, is in the city to-day, on a visit to her daughters, Mrs. L. F. Levy and Mrs. Trauer.

A new army is being put up in front of Whitney Company's big Second street store.

THE LAST GROWING.

Company A, Under Captain Berradelle, Inc., growing in numbers.

At 3 o'clock, this afternoon, the total volunteers enlisted numbers 78, and the captain states that he will have the full complement by this afternoon. San Marcial and Gaiting standing in quite a number of volunteers, and any of the recruits, who have no means of paying their expenses, will be taken care of by the Ladies' Soldiers' Aid society.

The following additional names were added to the muster roll since THE CITIZEN reported yesterday afternoon:

William A. Smith, Frank Shea, William P. Martin, Claude C. Wingo, R. K. Matthews, Ad. H. Wyoff, Charles Whitting, John H. Bunker, Henry Komenich, C. T. Jones, J. M. Leonard, Dennis Hickey, William J. Gillespie, David Roach, Forrest Parker, Charles Zacharia, Edward McGee, Norman H. Perry, Edward J. Davis, Harry Caldwell.

Last night, Company A, incomplete, met at the Armory, and was put through a drill by Capt. Berradelle, Lieut. Melville, Sergeant Harding Strong and Alger, the new recruits being divided in five squads. Quite a number of visitors were present to see the company at actual drill practice. Capt. Berradelle is going ahead with his plans to get to the front at a rapid gait.

A Tall Recruit.

"The reason that I will make a good soldier," said E. R. Chapman, the "Tall Sycamore of THE CITIZEN'S JOB ROOM," "is the fact that I can go many hours without eating and have a famous record for trampolining. I hardly eat enough to keep a canary bird alive, and still I never feel empty down there (pointing to his stomach), weighing at this time over 150 pounds. I am 6 1/2 feet tall and can easily look over the heads of all of Capt. Berradelle's recruits except Melville Summers."

"Gone Lame."

Yesterday a number of the friends of Sigfried Grundfeld, who thinks he is a candidate for the appointment of postmaster of this city, called on the gentleman in order to get him to enlist and win national recognition on the battle field. After considerable explanation as to the reason for not showing his patriotism sooner, one of the callers observed Sigfried was surprised to find that the postoffice applicant had suddenly, in the parlance of the times, "gone lame." The present physical condition of the gallant Sigfried will now prevent him from enlisting, but it will not hinder him from prosecuting his campaign for the appointment of postmaster of Albuquerque.

ALBUQUERQUE, — JUNE 28, 1906

This city has sent 240 volunteers to the war.

The United States is cultivating an abnormal appetite for islands.

Capt. Bonadelle's gallant volunteers should be given a routing farewell.

For president in 1900, Wm. McKinley. For vice president, Theodore Roosevelt.

While we are at, why not recruit a million men and whip Spain to a stand still.

Pay your taxes now. They become delinquent on Friday of the present week.

The war department should recruit an Indian regiment for the war in Cuba. The Navajoes would enjoy scalping the Spanish buxwackers.

The United States came near going to war with England for the benefit of Venezuela, and now the many little country is sympathizing with Spain.

There are only about 12,000 American voters in New Mexico, and out of that number the territory sent nearly one thousand volunteers to the war with Spain.

If any islands are to be annexed, compulsory laws in regard to voting qualifications should be insisted upon for the government of the conquered people.

The citizens insist that the war shall be carried into Spain, and that the New Mexico Rough Riders with Roosevelt be allowed to bivouac in the historic halls of the Alhambra.

The population of Chicago, based on the forthcoming issue of the city directory, is about 1,880,000. The population last year, according to the same authority, was 1,828,000.

This country's trade with Asia has been growing rapidly within the last few years. The total exports in 1907 were $94,500,000, 50 per cent larger than in 1896, and more than twice those of 1880.

General Lawton, who is leading the advance of General Shafter's army was among the youngest volunteer colonels during the civil war and won singular distinction and promotion in capturing Genesee.

The president, in refusing to commission his nephews and in insisting that if they want to become soldiers they must enlist as privates, shows a spirit that many of the lesser officers of our government might well emulate.

It is suggested that the territorial superintendent insist that the teachers in the public schools in New Mexico inform the children at stated intervals that this territory is a portion of the United States and not a province of Spain.

The Denver Republican says: "New Mexico is in mourning for her Rough Riders. All the rest of the west extend sincerest sympathy, not only to New Mexico, but to the families and relatives of the gallant men who gave their lives for humanity and Cuba's liberation."

The government has sent a commissioner to Alaska to test the agricultural possibilities of that territory, and for that purpose experimental farms are to be established in various sections to decide what can be grown in Alaska besides icebergs, and how to grow the crops.

In Mexico City they have a good law, if owners refuse to paint their house fronts and keep their premises looking neat, the municipal government has the work done and compels owners of the improved property to pay an external improvement tax sufficient to reimburse the city.

Genonimo, the most noted Indian in America, chief of the Apaches, is 90 years old. He is as straight as an arrow and his eye is piercing and keen. When at the post at Fort Hill he plays monte, but when he can get permission leave the reservation his time is spent in hunting, of which he is very fond.

The severity of the losses in the battle in Cuba last Friday is attributed in part to the utter contempt displayed by Roosevelt's men and the regulars for the Spanish foe, but it is safe to predict that the experience, while in no way daunting them, will have the effect of leading the Americans in the future to exercise all proper precautions for their own safety under similar circumstances.

Yesterday a short dispatch was received from one of the wounded soldiers in Roosevelt's regiment. The cost of the telegram was $14. It came by the way of Kingston, Jamaica, and Halifax, Nova Scotia. This shows the enormous expanse of the newspapers in procuring war news. Some of the big papers are paying out $100,000 a month for telegrams. The two papers in this city are spending about $500 a month for telegraphic service. The Associated Press is spending hundreds of thousands of dollars a month in procuring reliable news.

SOME NAVAL DEFINITIONS.
A correspondent of the New York Sun gives the following naval definitions, which may be both useful and instructive:

A fleet is composed of twelve battle-ships.
A squadron is composed of less than twelve battle-ships, and is often part of a fleet, such as the van, center or rear squadron.

A flotilla is composed of twelve or more men-of-war, some of which may be battle-ships.
Hence, the United States has no fleet; neither has Spain.

Admiral Dewey commands a squadron. Almirante Montojo also commands a squadron.
Acting Admiral Sampson commands a flotilla.

The Globe-Democrat has a sketch of Capt. Max Luna, who has many inaccuracies. Troop E, Capt. Luna's company, was raised in this city. The Globe-Democrat says that they are Spanish-Americans. This is a mistake. Capt. Luna and G. W. Armijo are the only Spanish-Americans in the company. There are only six Spanish-Americans in Roosevelt's regiment of Rough Riders. Three of these are from Las Vegas, one from this city, one from Valencia county and one from Santa Fe.

At the beginning of the war with Spain, Delegate Ferguson made a patriotic speech in congress about New Mexico. That speech needs revision.

Only two days in which to pay your taxes. They become delinquent on July 1st.

A correspondent of the San Marcial Bee, from Socorro, says: "A. A. Sedillo, school teacher in Old San Marcial, was in the city last Monday. He met Judge Leland and filed his application as interpreter of his court. Mr. Sedillo has very strong recommendations for the place and, as we think he is perfectly competent to fill it, we wish him success." Mr. Sedillo formerly resided in this city, and is a first-class interpreter.

The special music rendered by the St. John's choir last Sunday morning, was greatly enjoyed by the large congregation present. That beautiful anthem, "Hark, Hark my Soul," was sung as an offering, the contralto solo part being well rendered by Miss Eliza Killogg. The choir were ably assisted by Harry Lebo, tenor; C. E. Burg and Harry Bulard, basses. It was the last Sunday the choir will sing this September.

Probate Judge Telesforo Rivera has appointed C. M. Conklin administrator of the estate of Joseph Field, deceased, in place of T. P. Gable, removed. There are some accounts held by the estate yet to be administered.

Dennison Wheelock, of Carlsbad, Pa., director of the famous Carlsbad Indian school band, is in the city for the purpose of recruiting the organization to sixty pieces. Mr. Wheelock is responsible for the remarkable success of the band and will appear with it at the Paris exposition.

The following New Mexico ladies were in attendance at the fourth biennial session of the Federation of Women's Clubs in Denver during the past week: Mrs. John R. McFie, Las Cruces; Mrs. Grant Riverburg, Mrs. Jacob Weltmer, Santa Fe; Miss Maud McFie, Las Cruces; Miss Atkinson, Mrs. M. J. Warner, Santa Fe. Never in the history of Loretto in Santa Fe has a larger crowd assembled to witness the closing exercises, always so entertaining, as that which congregated Wednesday evening on the occasion of the forty-fifth commencement of the Loretto academy. A most interesting program was ably carried out.

Over 250 people from Santa Fe celebrated San Juan's day last Friday. The rash of people to the Rio Grande depot exceeded the anticipations of General Agent Helm, and before the excursion train pulled out, it was found necessary to discontinue the sale of tickets because of insufficient accommodations. The government Indian school was represented by about fifty passengers.

ELIZABETH.

From the Advocate.
Rias Chavez, who has been very near death's door with fever for the past month, is now recovering quite rapidly.

A big public picnic on the Fourth of July will probably be held in one of the cool groves between Hillsboro and Kingston. A grand ball at the Club house will follow in the evening.

Dolph Gooding and his relatives, Mrs. George Richardson and daughter, Miss Jennie, left for Tulsa, N. M., where Mr. Richardson is engaged in business and where they will hereafter reside.

A couple of Mexicans from the river fell sick with small pox at Kingston this week, and were removed to the vacant Leonard house on the outskirts of the town, where they will be kept under guard until their recovery.

SOCORRO.

From the Advertiser.
Judge A. A. Freeman arrived from the Pecos valley, and will remain here for some time arranging his legal affairs.

Hon. R. V. Chavez and family were in the city last week. Mr. Chavez returned to Albuquerque, while his family remained here on a visit to his parents.

Socorro has furnished two men for service in the army, although there is but little doubt of her attempting to furnish several times that many when it comes to filling the county offices this fall.

FARMINGTON.

From San Juan Times.
J. B. Larigot is down from near Fort Lewis, where he is farming this year.

Fred. W. Smith has been appointed receiver of the San Juan Drug and Mercantile company, on account of a disagreement among the stockholders.

Judge Granville Pendleton, of Aztec, and E. S. Whitehead, of Farmington, have been invited to orate at Aztec on July 4, and have signified their willingness to be accommodating.

GALLUP.

From the Gleaner.
J. L. Murphy, the painter, was taken very sick with painter's colic, but we are glad to see that he is able to be about again.

Rev. H. H. Ashman returned to Albuquerque on Monday evening after a day spent in the hills east of town in a search for land shells. He is an ardent conchologist and has discovered several new varieties of shells in the territory which have been named by the Smithsonian institute in his honor.

Ed. Dennis was saddened by the receipt of a telegram on Monday which apprised him of the serious sickness of his father, who resides near Kearney, Nebraska. He is getting aged, being about 74, and a fatal termination of his sickness is looked for. Ed left on Monday night and will be gone for about three weeks. Mrs. Emery is the daughter of the sick man.

GRANDSANTISTEVEN.
On Monday last, June 26th, at Taos, were celebrated the nuptials of Miss Victoria Santistevan, daughter of Hon. Juan Santistevan, a well known, sterling and highly respected citizen of northern New Mexico, and Bernabe Gonzalez, a leading young business man, also of Taos county. The bride, who is a very charming and highly educated young lady, was arrayed in a beautiful bridal gown of white satin, and was given away by her father. The groom was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Donatello Cordova. The ceremony was performed by Father Henry Pouget, at the parish church in Taos, which had been most grandly decorated with palms, lilies and roses. The bridemaids were Misses Adela and Julia Barrio, Misses P. and E. Espinoza, and Juanita Gonzalez, and Messrs. Frank and Fernando Barrio, Adolfo Espinoza, Felix Sandoval and Laure Pach, acted as groomsmen. After the ceremony a very dainty wedding breakfast was served at the residence of the bride's father, which was attended by a great concourse of invited guests, the families of both bride and groom, being among the oldest, wealthiest and most respected and liked in northern New Mexico. The wedding gifts were numerous, rich and elegant. The bride received a check of $500 from her father and one for $1,000 from the groom's father. After the ceremony the happy young couple departed for a four week's bridal tour to New Mexico and other points.

ROSENWALD BROS.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

Personal and General Paragraphs Picked Up Here and There.

Ernest Meyers, of the firm of Lowenthal & Meyers, was reported at Williams yesterday.

Henry Faber, who was at Bland on business the past ten days, has returned to this city.

William Johnson, who was a patient at the local railway hospital, has returned to his duties at Needles.

John Mann, of Calvin Whiting's office, was the first man to affix his name to the enrollment list for Company A.

It is noted, the plumber, and wife, who were at Camp Whitcomb the past week, returned to the city today.

The event of the season will be the moonlight fete, to be given by the Ladies' Aid society, of the Presbyterian church, at the park, on Thursday evening of this week.

It is now almost certain that Ray Sulzer will not return to Phoenix. He enlisted with the Albuquerque boys yesterday, and Ray will make a good soldier.

Among those who enlisted yesterday in the infantry company was the name of Joseph T. Glover, ex-policeman of this city. He will prove a rattling good soldier.

The executive committee of the fair have put on their "baitery clothes" and are out for "stuff" and the people of Albuquerque who believe in the fair will have to come up with the cash if we are to have a good fair.

It is understood that Prof. Von Fennar, who enlisted yesterday, has already started a violin class among the recruits. The professor is one of the slickest violin players in the southwest, and he can make music out of any kind of violin strings.

Clifford Reed, one of the wounded volunteers, presented a letter of introduction on his arrival here several months ago to Simon Stern, and when he left for Santa Fe, after his enlistment, he bid Mr. Stern good bye. He is the son of a Milwaukee, Wis., merchant.

It is learned here that Estevan Baca, the new Socorro postmaster, on taking charge of the office on the 1st of July, will appoint Miss Janet Wattleit, his assistant. The young lady is the popular and pretty daughter of Capt. D. W. Wattleit, one of Socorro's prominent merchants, and the Cirriza is more than pleased with her selection as assistant postmaster of Socorro.

Late yesterday afternoon, Ad. H. Wycoff, the brilliant republican lawyer who gained a national reputation in his famous dog suit for Mrs. Metz against Postmaster Grunsfeld, affixed his name to the muster roll at the recruiting headquarters on gold avenue. Wycoff is familiar with Hawaii and the Philippines, and he will make a good soldier over there, if the New Mexico Infantry is sent to the assistance of Dewey.

It is gratifying to know that among the Santa Fe patriots who enlisted yesterday the name of Page B. Otero is found. Page is a brother of Otero, and the son of Hon. Miguel Otero, deceased, who married a grand American lady back in the last years ago. The new recruit is a fine specimen of physical manhood—a true-blue Spanish-American—and the crack of his rifle will be heard for freedom either in Cuba or the Philippines.

Frank Vaino, a driver for Bachechi & Giomi, received a badly lacerated hand yesterday afternoon. The horse that Vaino was driving ran away from a home in the Highlands. The driver held onto the reins until the corner of north First street and Copper avenue was reached, when the wagon turned over and was smashed. Vaino caught his hand in the debris. Dr. Burdick dressed the injured member.

Mr. and Mrs. Matro H. Jepper and their bright little boy, who are from Washington, D. C., and for the past month have been stopping at the Hotel Highland, will on Friday take possession of a very pleasant suite of rooms at 20 Broadway. Mrs. Jepper's condition has improved to that extent that they will be pleased to see any of their friends who feel inclined to call.

There was a rumor in circulation this morning that "Gunnyack Riley" had enlisted, and a number of citizens started out to congratulate the well-known and popular "soldier" fighter, but "Gunnyack" assured them, owing to a smash he received on the left shoulder night before last, that he would not enlist.

Forrest Parker, son of Mrs. H. G. Whitcomb, role in from Camp Whitcomb on his wheel this morning and enlisted in Capt. Borradaile's infantry. Forrest is one of the best shots of the Sandia mountains, and it is said, can hit the bull's eye every time he fires off a Winchester.

Rev. Thomas Harwood, chaplain, and Leverett Clarke, senior vice department commander, two local veterans, will leave for Santa Fe this evening to attend the funeral of Department Commander Francis E. Downs, whose death was reported in these columns yesterday afternoon.

The Degree of Honor will give on July 1 to see that the Albuquerque patriot did not tamper with the scales.

He is now in the city, but will return to the territorial capital to morrow night, and expect to join his associates in Troop F, now fighting with in speaking distance of Santiago de Cuba, inside of two weeks.

Fred. states that the recruits sent up to Santa Fe from this city, as "Rough Riders," are all right, and every one of them will be found fighting—not "jumping the train" or "hitting the track."

Patriotism in Big Chunks.

At noon today Charles McDonald, with the square drum, and J. W. N. Macbeth, with the flag, appeared at the recruiting office opposite THE CITIZEN, and for half an hour gave some of the famous national airs, bringing out from the crowd which had assembled patriotism in large chunks. George Washington, colored, who saw thirty years of service in the United States army, was present and helped to arouse the war feeling by giving the "bugle call."

Neck and Neck Race.

Santa Fe and Albuquerque seem to be neck and neck in the race among their citizens to organize companies of volunteers. Last evening a telegram announced that Santa Fe had fifty-five names down for the new company being organized there. Albuquerque had fifty-six at the time, but Santa Fe will have to do some good tall hustling to day if it keeps up with the Albuquerque rush.

Mr. Motto Again in Business.

Having again located in Albuquerque in the confectionery and fruit business, 925 south Second street, corner of Lead avenue, I desire to invite my former acquaintances and friends and possible new customers to call on me. An entire new and complete line of candies, fruits, etc. Cold and refreshing drinks. Ice cream served for parties, societies and other gatherings.

Very respectfully, R. MOTTO.

Bargains for the Fourth.

To Members of the National Union.

All members of Albuquerque Council No. 628 National Union will in future pay their assessments to W. C. Medlar, I. H. CHAMBERLIN, Sec.

Fireworks.

Big stock of fireworks at "Hawley's, on the Corner." Mail orders solicited.

Leonardo Arujio, the oldest son of Jesus Arujio, in a patriotic letter to his father, states that he had enlisted and was doing every evening, with a view to being sent with his company to Cuba. Leonardo is true blue, and for the past few years has resided among the American patriots of Chicago.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT.

Two Very Important Cases Before Judge Crumpacker.

The New Mexico National Bank of Socorro asks the district court to grant an injunction restraining the Bank of Commerce, Blanchard Meat & Supply company, Willard S. Strickler and others from disposing of or in any manner transferring, or in any way encumbering the stock of the Blanchard Meat & Supply company held by either of them as collateral or security for any indebtedness that may be due to them from George L. Brooke.

The London & Lancashire Insurance company has filed notice of suit against L. F. Kuhn for the sum of $700. The company alleges in its complaint that it insured for $1,200 a building and its contents, belonging to L. F. Kuhn, in June, 1907, and that a month later the building was damaged by fire. Mr. Kuhn repudiated the company, so it claims, that he was the sole owner of the property, and secured his insurance on those grounds. The company says that it has since leased that Kuhn owns an interest in the property, and they want the return of their money because of this.
