FEARING THEY WOULD HANG McNAMARAS CONFESSED

Clarence S. Darrow in Public Statement Says Welfare of Accused Men Was Motive That Prompted Pleas.

COMPROMISE OFFERED THEM ONLY CHANCE

Believing the Plan Suggested Would Save Clients From Extreme Penalty, as Counsel He Urged Its Acceptance.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Los Angeles, Dec. 2.—All known angles in the unexpected termination of the McNamara murder case were summed up tonight by Clarence S. Darrow, chief of counsel for the defense, in a statement dictated to the Associated Press. Mr. Darrow's statement is as follows:

"No motive of any sort entered into the disposition of the McNamara case except the welfare of the men accused of murder.

"Believing, as I did, that the action taken would save the lives of the accused men, I had no more right to refuse it than a doctor would have to forebear an operation upon a patient to save his life.

"A committee of Los Angeles people, beginning work November 26, made it possible to accomplish the result. Their suggestions were brought to me first by Mr. Steffens on that day and every day thereafter as matters proceeded until the final determination.

"How much their efforts had to do with the state's attorney I cannot tell, but it was at their intercession that negotiations were begun by attorneys for the defense. I expected the final action every day after this movement was commenced and it was when the first minute that an understanding was reached because of the imminent danger we were in for two weeks of having the matter become public property and thus making the end difficult to achieve.

"Requests for an authoritative statement on the situation rather than interviews, crowded Attorney Darrow's desk throughout the day and the foregoing statement he said was dictated to answer all of them.

"The statement in itself appeared to indicate the complexity of conditions. The local political situation, in which Job Harriman for mayor on the socialist ticket, with the election only three days off, was taken into consideration, though Harriman's own position was that the trial was not a local question and should make no difference.

"The recent arrest of Bert H. Franklin, an investigator employed by the defense on a charge of bribery, was suggested as having possibly bearing on the case, but it was pointed out that negotiations were under way before the incident occurred.

"In this particular, as to negotiations, they were confirmed by District Attorney John D. Fredericks, who, in a statement today, dated the beginning of negotiations as far back as July. The defense added a knot, however, by stating that it made no preference as early as that time.

"As far as the defense is concerned, yesterday's action in which James B. McNamara pleaded guilty to murder in connection with the Los Angeles Times explosion and fire which cost twenty-one lives, the plea of guilty entered by his brother, John J. McNamara, to having dynamited the Llewellyn Iron Works, was again declared to have been brought about through the agency of a committee of influential citizens and tonight members of a faction which is denouncing the movement itself agreed heartily that the result was accomplished in this way. This fact turned out to be part of the grievance, on the ground that no representative of labor was on the committee which aided in bringing to pass an event considered of infinite moment to labor organizations throughout the United States.

"Edward N. Nickles, secretary of the Chicago Federation of Labor, called the only out-of-town labor official of consequence on the ground, absolutely refused tonight to discuss the interviews and resolutions emanating in quantities from labor organizations in the east. Nor would he comment on the result itself.

"I'm here as an individual," said Nickles, "I'm on a little business connected with this case. But I'm not going to say a word. Anything I said might have a wrong construction put upon it."

"Ortle McManigal, who was to have been a leading witness for the state and who is indicted jointly with J. J. McNamara for the dynamiting of the Llewellyn Iron Works, hopes for freedom. It was said today.

"The penalty in California for dynamiting in California runs from one year to life imprisonment. Detective McLaren today said that his information was that J. J. McNamara had said he harbored no ill feeling toward McManigal now.

"It could not be learned tonight that any change in the local situation had been effected by resolutions adopted elsewhere, urging the extreme penalty for James B. McNamara.

No Place for Anarchists.

to the penalty to be imposed. District Attorney Fredericks said today that he had not decided whether he would ask for clemency but he added:

"When a man pleads guilty, particularly in this case, it saves the state a great deal of money and work. The state is always ready to take this into consideration and is inclined to look with leniency upon the offender."

While Judge Bordwell refused to commit himself in any way, persons close to him said he was pleased with the manner in which the trial had terminated.

Friends of Attorney Darrow fear that he is on the verge of a physical breakdown. In the last few nights he has tossed about restlessly in his sleep and he has eaten but little. His face today was white and haggard. Never before in his life he admitted, had he encountered so terrible a strain. He was optimistic about his health, however, declaring he had faith in his strong constitution.

Feeling that he had done his best for the McNamara brothers, Darrow received in their silence the attacks which he assumed to be aimed at him in comments of the labor leaders.

"They will all understand in time," he said, "I never told Samuel Gompers or any one else that J. B. McNamara was innocent. I always had believed however, that John J. had nothing to do with the Times disaster, though I learned of his connection with the Llewellyn explosion. Whatever information came to Mr. Gompers about the guilt or innocence of the McNamara brothers came from the accused men themselves."

Attorney Darrow declared further, more that he originally did not want to defend the McNamara brothers, but had been persuaded to do so by labor leaders. Even on learning of their guilt later, he said he was right in saving human life. Attorney Darrow does not believe in capital punishment.

Most difficult of all attacks to bear it was apparent was that which involved the McNamara defense fund. Attorney Darrow confirmed the fact that $180,000 had been raised for the two brothers and had been at his disposal. Confronted with the statement that labor leaders expected that much of this would be refunded, he answered that he could not see how it could be done.

"Money flies fast, very fast," he said, "and in a case like this it has wings. Of course the trial to date did not cost much, but preparation for the handling of witnesses and evidence, exhausted much of the funds. A greater part already has been spent and an accounting will be rendered up to every detail. We have been up against it for funds right along. We have been wondering for some time how we could ever get very far with the means at our disposal."

The McNamara brothers spent the day quietly. They wrote many letters and walked about the jail corridors for exercise. They read the newspaper accounts of yesterday's events and, according to jailers, their cheerful air was in no wise affected thereby.

SAYS MEN ARE DOWN. WILL NOT KICK THEM

Chicago, Dec. 2.—The men are down and I am not going to kick them," said John Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, when told of the McNamara confessions. "However, I can speak only for myself as an individual," continued Fitzpatrick, "and I have no idea what the members of the Chicago organization may decide to do. I would not venture to discuss that point."

PAY UNEXPENDED MONEY TO FAMILIES OF VICTIMS

Knoxville, Tenn., Dec. 2.—C. C. Leek, ex-secretary of the Knoxville Central Labor union, today proposed that the unexpended defense fund raised for the McNamara be appropriated to the relief of widows and orphans of the victims of the disasters for which the McNamara are responsible. He says he favors this rather than a return of the money to the unions donating it. Local labor organizations contributed about $100.

LABOR ORGANIZATIONS IMPOSED UPON—FOLK

Houston, Tex., Dec. 2.—Former Governor Folk of Missouri speaking of the plea of guilty entered by the McNamara said here today:

"I do not believe organized labor should be held responsible for the acts of these men any more than a church should be held responsible for the dereliction of any one or two of its members. Labor organizations were imposed upon."

WILL ACT AS CURSE ON ORGANIZED LABOR

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 2.—Frank Farrington of Streator, Ill., member of the International Executive board of the United Mine Workers of America, said today, after reading accounts of the McNamara brothers' confession:

"Though not condoned by the men of organized labor, the offense against society committed by the McNamara brothers will act as a blinding curse on the organized labor movement for many years to come. They have done irreparable wrong to a righteous cause and now that they have proclaimed their guilt, the hand of organized labor will not be raised to stay the punishment which their crime so justly deserves."

TRADE UNIONISTS WANT McNAMARAS PUNISHED

Portland, Ore., Dec. 2.—William H. Daly, president of the State Federation of Labor and Central Labor Council said today:

"As trade unionists we ask only the same justice for the McNamara brothers as we did for them when we believed them innocent. If they are guilty, as is evident from their confessions, every laboring man wants the proper punishment meted out to them."

PRINTERS OF EL PASO DEMAND FULL PENALTY

El Paso, Dec. 2.—The following message signed by a majority of the Typographical union of El Paso, regarding the McNamara cases at Los Angeles, was wired tonight to President James M. Lynch at Indianapolis:

"El Paso Union suggests that you call on all subordinate unions telegraphically to adopt resolutions demanding that McNamara be given full penalty of the law. Special meetings to be held immediately."

PEORIA LABOR LEADER URGES EXTREME PENALTY

Peoria, Ill., Dec. 2.—"There are roughs in every organization," said John Irish, president of the Peoria Federation of Labor tonight, when told that a movement was on foot to urge the limit as the penalty for the McNamara.

"I think that they should get the limit the same as though they were not in unionism. It is not likely that the Federation will take the matter up though, until the meeting a week from Monday."

Interest here in the case is intense as it was in Peoria when the first evidence directly bearing on the case which led to the arrest of the dynamiters was discovered.

MOVING PICTURES OF McNAMARAS MUTILATED

Danville, Ill., Dec. 2.—To show contempt for the McNamara brothers, they said, leaders of organized labor here today visited a theater where moving pictures of the McNamara case were being shown and cut from the film a scene showing John J. McNamara in the act of writing a public statement declaring his innocence.

The union men said it had been their intention to stop the exhibition of the film, but they learned that the contract with the moving picture company would not permit this so they took significant action in cutting out a prominent feature.

DETROIT LABOR LEADER CALLS IT YELLOW STREAK

Detroit, Dec. 2.—Detroit labor leaders said today the confessions of the McNamara brothers would be considered at the regular meeting of the Detroit Federation of Labor Wednesday night, and that the federation would undoubtedly repudiate the dynamiters.

Otto Gersbeck, president of the Metal Trades council, characterized the confessions as "an awful surprise to organized labor."

DEVELOPMENTS MAY KILL PRESIDENT GOMPERS

New York, Dec. 2.—They are traitors to the cause of union labor," said Calvin Wyatt, general organizer in charge of the local office of the American Federation of Labor today. Wyatt was bitter in his denunciation of the McNamara brothers.

"They are traitors to humanity. There is no place in the world for such men. Besides the McNamara Judas Iscariot and Benedict Arnold fade into insignificance," he said.

SESSION OF SIXTY- SECOND CONGRESS PROMISES TO BE STRENUOUS

Term Which Opens Tomorrow May Go Down in History as One of the Most Notable Ever Held.

BOTH HOUSES WILL INDUCT NEW MEMBERS

Representative Martin W. Littleton to Speak on Opening Day on Question of Personal Privilege.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Washington, Dec. 2.—Members of both houses of congress arrived today for the first session of the congress, the complete strength of the Sixty-second congress will be in the capital.

At noon Monday almost half a thousand senators and representatives will be assembled at the capitol for the first session of the congress, the complete strength of the Sixty-second congress will be in the capital.

This is the complexion at present of the Sixty-second congress: Senate—Republicans, 49; Democrats, 42; one vacancy (Colorado). House—Democrats, 227; Republicans, 161; socialist, 1; independent, 1; vacancy, 1 (Seventh Kansas district). The session Monday in accordance with precedent will be brief and largely perfunctory so far as the senate is concerned.

In the house, however, the proceedings will be enlivened with a speech by Representative Martin W. Littleton of New York on a question of personal privilege.

Mr. Littleton who is a member of the special committee of inquiry into the United States Steel corporation will attack Henry B. Martin, secretary of the so-called Anti-Trust League, charging that Martin has deceived the committee as to his part in every organization, and is in league with David Lamar, a bear broker in Wall Street, to depress United States Steel stock.

Both houses will appoint committees to call upon the president and notify him that congress is in session. Each branch will appoint another committee to notify the other house that it is in readiness to proceed with legislative business.

Both houses will formally induct new members into their midst; twenty new senators are to be sworn into the senate and five new representatives in the house.

The capitol is spick and span in readiness for the session. A small army of employees, under the direction of Elliott Woods, superintendent of the capitol, has been at work during the recess, repairing and refurbishing the two chambers and the host of committee rooms in the main building and the two immense office buildings.

Congress, after the first formal meeting will plunge right into work. Monday the national monetary commission will begin a series of hearings on former Senator Aldrich's proposed plan of currency reform, preparatory to its report and the winding up of its existence. The Aldrich plan is expected to be adopted without material change.

Tuesday the senate investigating committee will resume its probe into the Lorimer election and the senate committee on interstate commerce will resume its hearings on trust questions.

In the house the committees on expenditures in the various departments will resume their work immediately; the chief purpose being to recommend economy of administration.

Vice President Sherman will arrive tomorrow; Speaker Clark has been in Washington several days and has announced that he expects a long session and the busiest in many years.

An early caucus of the house majority will soon be called. Democratic members of the house still are unsatisfied with the situation existing with relation to the steel trust inquiry and the differences between Chairman Stanley and Representative Littleton, a democrat, member of the committee, relating to the procedure in the government's suit against the steel corporation. Inasmuch as the differences between Chairman Stanley and Representative Littleton, a democrat, member of the committee, relating to the procedure in the government's suit against the steel corporation. Inasmuch as the differences between Chairman Stanley and Representative Littleton, a democrat, member of the committee, relating to the procedure in the government's suit against the steel corporation.

The matter will be sufficiently adjusted before there is any division in the party over the matter on the floor of the house.

Speaker Clark and Majority Leader Underwood have hope that when all the committee members arrive the committee itself can settle upon a mode of procedure.

Representative Littleton on Monday in his speech before the house will devote himself particularly to the attacks made upon himself personally and not upon the committee.

The arrival today of Senator Gildinger, the nominee of the republican regulars for the office of president pro tem of the senate, was the signal for several conferences of senators regarding that office. No decision was reached but there was sufficient exchange of views to justify the statement that there would be no change of nominee for the position.

ST. LOUIS UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT DROPS DEAD

St. Louis, Dec. 2.—John Pierre Frieden, 67 years old, president of St. Louis University, dropped dead of heart failure tonight. He had been president of the Detroit College, St. Ignace College, at San Francisco, and provincial of the Jesuit institution of the middle-west.

CONGRESS TO CONSIDER CANAL LEGISLATION

Washington, Dec. 2.—The control and the operation of the Panama canal and the method of governing the canal zone, are problems that will engross the attention of congress early in the session that is to open Monday. The house committee on interstate commerce, which is making a four-day trip to the canal this month, preparatory to a final determination as to what form of legislation will be recommended for passage.

The senate committee on inter-oceanic canals, concluded its visit to the isthmus a few weeks ago. Colonel George W. Goethals, chairman of the canal commission, is expected in Washington in January and the senate committee on inter-oceanic canals, which is making a four-day trip to the canal this month, preparatory to a final determination as to what form of legislation will be recommended for passage.

OHIO REPUBLICANS TO DECLARE FOR ROOSEVELT

Chairman of State Central Committee Says Party Will Turn Down Taft and Urge Colonel's Nomination.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Toledo, O., Dec. 2.—Predicting that the republicans of Ohio will declare against Taft, and in no uncertain voice demand that Theodore Roosevelt must again be their standard-bearer in 1912, Walter F. Brown, chairman of the Ohio republican state central committee—the party controlling committee in President Taft's own sister state—has replied to the letter addressed to him by John D. Fackler, who is in charge of the progressive republican headquarters in Columbus.

Mr. Fackler requested that the state committee afford the republicans an opportunity to express their presidential preference between the two avowed candidates, William H. Taft and Senator La Follette of Wisconsin.

Chairman Brown takes the position that the republicans should be given a broader opportunity for choice to include other leaders and significant adds:

"Unless I wholly mistake the sentiment of republicans, if given a chance they will with no uncertain voice again declare their preference for their standard-bearer in 1904, who, though in no sense a candidate now, is too loyal a republican and too good a citizen to deny the clearly expressed demand of his party and his country."

CLAPP CRITICIZES TAFT IN SPEECH AT DAYTON

Dayton, O., Dec. 2.—Attacking President Taft for "many undiplomatic actions," during his administration and advocating the nomination of La Follette as "the best president that Ohio has ever had," Senator Moses E. Clapp of Minnesota, spoke before the local progressive republican organization here tonight to a large audience.

"Please accept my sincere thanks. It is the words of encouragement from one of your sterling characters that urge us in the faithful and vigorous performance of our plain duty," William J. Burns.

Mr. Burns said he would leave tomorrow or Monday for New York, return here in three or four days and go immediately to Los Angeles.

The further dynamiting cases he said, rested upon the desire of District Attorney Fredericks after he had presented the evidence in the cases to him.

ROYAL WELCOME TO ANCIENT CAPITAL FOR Mc'DONALD

Committee in Charge of Arrangements for Inauguration of First State Governor Gets Down to Business.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.)
Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 2.—That the city of Santa Fe is determined that nothing shall be left undone to give Governor McDonald a royal welcome to the state capital was indicated this afternoon at the first meeting of the committee in charge of the arrangements for the inauguration.

The meeting was held in the editorial rooms of the Daily New Mexican and was presided over by Mayor Arthur Seligman. In addition to the executive committee members, those present included the chairman and vice-chairman of all the sub-committees in charge of the different features of the inauguration.

The greatest enthusiasm was manifested and it was the sense of the gathering that no means or effort should be spared to make January 1 a real day of festivity for Santa Fe. Another meeting is to be held on Tuesday afternoon at which time it is expected that the program for the entire inauguration can be definitely outlined.

Chairman Robert P. Ervick and Vice-Chairman J. H. Crist of the committee on inaugural ball, will make recommendations at the next meeting as to the place where the ball is to be held. The two places under consideration are the dining room of the El Palace hotel and the Armory hall.

Prior to adjournment today the executive committee perfected its organization by the selection of Paul A. F. Walter as permanent secretary.

Antarctic Expedition Sails. Hobart, Australia, Dec. 2.—The Australian Antarctic expedition, under the leadership of Dr. Douglas Mawson, sailed today for the south in the ship Aurora, commanded by Captain J. K. Davis. The expedition comprises a number of experienced explorers. The Aurora carries a monoplane.

Washington, Dec. 2.—New Mexico, Arizona and West Texas—Fair Sunday and Monday.

BURNS FORECASTS EARLY ARREST OF KAPLAN AND SMITH

Alleged Accomplices of McNamara Brothers Will be Taken Into Custody Says Detective.

HINTS AT SENSATIONAL DISCLOSURES IN CASE

Famous Sleuth Who Ran to Earth Dynamiters Receives Scores of Congratulatory Telegrams.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Chicago, Dec. 2.—Detective W. J. Burns who gathered the evidence against the McNamara brothers, in connection with the Los Angeles dynamiting today announced that the arrest of Milton A. Smith and David M. Kaplan, alleged accomplices of J. B. McNamara, would be made not long after a forthcoming visit to Los Angeles.

He added that sensational disclosures undoubtedly would follow this visit, which he will make in about a week, or after he has made a trip to New York on another case. Just what future prosecutions or arrests would be made, he declined to indicate, but he would not deny that the trail "went beyond Indianapolis."

Where Kaplan and Smith are, is not known, but Burns said that the McNamara know where the two were living, adding that "you won't have to wait long now, before they are taken in."

This is his first intimation that the men were not, as first reported, under surveillance for his operations on the Pacific coast.

Telegrams continued to come to Burns today, and among those he gave out was one from Oscar "Battling" Nelson, which read:

"To the master of all sleuths: Congratulations on victory. Your vindication and McNamara brothers' confession to dynamiting is nothing short of unique. I figured you was right from the time you made the arrests. Again congratulations. You are a credit to America."—Battling Nelson.

Mr. Burns answered the telegram he received from Theodore Roosevelt by the following message:

"Please accept my sincere thanks. It is the words of encouragement from one of your sterling characters that urge us in the faithful and vigorous performance of our plain duty," William J. Burns.

Mr. Burns said he would leave tomorrow or Monday for New York, return here in three or four days and go immediately to Los Angeles.

The further dynamiting cases he said, rested upon the desire of District Attorney Fredericks after he had presented the evidence in the cases to him.

HOTEL REGISTERS ONE OF STATES TRUMP CARDS.

New York, Dec. 2.—One of the trump cards the prosecution intended to play in the McNamara case, it is said here, is a volume containing photographic copies of alleged letters of introduction of the McNamara and James B. McNamara, covering two years. A copy is in the hands of Albert B. Osborn, a handwriting expert here, retained by the district attorney of Los Angeles.

"The signatures are taken from hotels all the way from Boston to San Francisco," said Mr. Osborn today. "They completely corroborate the confession of McManigal in which he said that he visited certain cities and stayed at certain hotels. Detectives found his name in one of his many aliases upon the hotel registers, just as he said they would. In many cases, also, he had a companion."

"According to the hotel registers this companion registered as J. B. McNamara, sometimes as E. J. Sullivan, some times as J. B. Smith and often as J. B. Bryant. We have a score of registers all the way from the middle west to the Pacific coast of J. B. Bryant. The handwriting is that of James B. McNamara. In registering Bryant gave his residence sometimes in Cleveland, sometimes in Cincinnati, Dayton, Columbus and other cities as far west as Seattle."

WILL NOW GO AFTER THE MEN HIGHER UP

New York, Dec. 2.—"The light has only just begun. This is only the first slither. What we want to find out now is where were the men behind the McNamara and this we propose to do."

This statement was made today by Walter Drew, chief counsel for the National Erectors' association, which employed William J. Burns and his detectives in investigating the Los Angeles dynamiting case.

The National Erectors' association is an organization formed by forty of the largest firms erecting structures of iron and steel all over the country, primarily to help the trade establish itself upon an open shop basis. It was organized in January, 1904, just before the termination of the closed shop agreement under which its members had formerly operated. Its headquarters are in this city and Mr. Drew is counsel and chief executive officer.

Mr. Drew stated that the use of dynamite against employers of iron and steel workers began in 1907, almost immediately after the expiration of the closed shop agreement and since that time most of the time of Mr. Drew and his associates has been spent in bringing to justice perpetrators of such crimes.

Since Detective Burns and his operatives have been employed by the association, Mr. Drew said, the flat

SPORTS

BASKETBALL WILL FURNISH WINTER AMUSEMENT

This Interesting Indoor Game Takes Place of Football; Varsity and High School Organize Teams.

With the close of the football season, the basketball term, devoted to the practice and play of the great indoor game will begin. Locally the sport has always been popular owing to the fact that a game can be played before a good sized audience without all the ado that characterizes outdoor athletics.

Already two teams are in process of formation in the city, one to represent the University of New Mexico, which has held the territorial championship, and the other to represent the Albuquerque High School.

An far back as eight years ago the Albuquerque High school used to win in its games with the varsity, but of late years this has been changed and a number of splendid practice games have been enjoyed by the students of both institutions, the varsity coming off the conqueror.

This year the high school has a very strong team, and is planning a hard schedule. The varsity basketball team has secured the services of Egan H. Arena as manager, and expects to play match games with the Normal university of Las Vegas and the Agricultural college of Medina park during the winter.

It is likely also that games will be arranged with the El Paso Military Institute, which always has a crack basketball team.

Regular practice of both the local teams has begun as has also the practice of the girls basketball teams. Basketball is the one game played by schools and colleges at which both the girls and the boys can have representation. Ordinarily both sexes have teams, and the rivalry for the number of wins against outside teams between the boys and the girls is usually very great and inspires all sorts of enthusiasm.

In Albuquerque a splendid place for holding these mat games has been provided in the National Guard Armory, and the headquarters of the local company is likely to prove a popular place the rest of the season from the standpoint of indoor athletics.

WOLGAST CAN FIGHT AGAIN SAYS PHYSICIAN

Los Angeles, Dec. 2.—Dr. Pollard tonight stated that in his opinion Al Wolgast would be able to fight again, "as good, if not better than ever."

"We found," continued the surgeon, "that the muscles of Wolgast's stomach were in such fine condition that it was not necessary to cut them. We simply separated them. For this reason Wolgast will be as strong, if not stronger, than ever, after he recovers from the effects of the operation."

GOLF CHAMPION REPEATS

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 2.—Alexander Smith of New York, four times holder of the open golf championship of America, won the open championship of the south today over the links of the Memphis Country club, with a score of 300 for the seventy-two holes. Fred McLeod of St. Louis was second, four strokes behind Smith and Tom McNamara of Boston was third, with 305.

Smith won the title by brilliant playing in the last two rounds. Besides the gold medal of the Southern Golf association a purse of $300 will be awarded the winner.

OPEN LEAGUE MEETINGS

Chicago, Dec. 2.—American league meetings hereafter will be open to the press and public, announced President B. B. Johnson today following an expression by Charles W. Murphy of the Chicago National league team that the latter would oppose secret league sessions in the league hereafter. President Johnson added, however, that this year's meeting would not come under the new order of things.

GOTCH MEETS ENGLISH CHAMPION DECEMBER 27 IN KANSAS CITY

Kansas City, Dec. 2.—Alce Munro, the British wrestling champion, today accepted the offer of Frank Gotch, international title holder, of a match for the world's championship to be held in this city on the night of December 27. In a letter to the Missouri Athletic club, which arranged the match, Gotch announced that with this bout he would retire from the mat. Munro sailed for America today.

Munro's acceptance, which came by cable, follows Gotch's announcement a week ago that he was willing to meet the Englishman at any time before January 6. Gotch's contract was received at the club today. The club guarantees $10,000 of which 65 per cent goes to the winner. The match will be a finish, catch-as-catch-can and will be held in Convention hall.

Chip Outboxes Brown.

Pittsburg, Dec. 2.—George Chip, of Madison, Pa., a coal miner, and George (Knockout) Brown, of Chicago, fought six rounds here tonight before the American Athletic club.

No decision from the ring is permissible here, but according to popular opinion, Chip had the better of the bout. In the second round Chip opened an ugly gash under Brown's right eye.

RUSSIA'S ATTEMPT TO BULLY PERSIA RESENTED

Excitement in Teheran Intense Over Advance of Czar's Troops; Death Or Independence Is Cry.

(By Morning Journal Special Lensed Wire.) Teheran, Dec. 2.—Persia is in a ferment over the warlike action of Russia and the excitement in the capital today was intense at the news of the Russian advance on the city. Placards were posted, proclaiming "Death or Independence," both on the walls of the city and on the legations. Thousands of persons formed in procession and marched past the legations to add to the excitement. Two prominent politicians were assassinated.

Persia's reply to Russia's ultimatum is calm. It gives the reasons for the rejection of Russia's demands and invites the Russian government to examine into the facts more closely and then formulate her demands. Messages from the provinces assure the Persian government of unlimited support. A general boycott on Russian goods has commenced and the people are preventing the use of Russian money. M. Lacoff, whose appointment was employed as an argument against W. Morgan Shuster, but has been in the Persian northern service for two years. Mr. Shuster merely transferred him to a new post at Tabriz.

The treasurer-general has decided to dispense with the services of British officials appointed by him in northern Persia, with the exception of one man, who has a contract approved by the national council. In an interview today Mr. Shuster said:

"Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, accuses me of endeavoring to Anglicize the Persian service. This is absolutely false. It is true that I am seeking employees familiar with modern accounting and with a knowledge of the Persian language and customs. I have found several Britishers who were available and also two Belgians now in the service. Had any Russians possessing the necessary qualifications presented themselves, I should gladly have engaged them."

CHICAGO TO HAVE QUADRUPE HANGING

Judge Passes Sentence on Convicted Murderers, Setting Execution Day for December 22; Prisoners Break Down.

(By Morning Journal Special Lensed Wire.) Chicago, Dec. 2.—Four men were sentenced today to be "hanged by the neck until dead," on December 22, and as they were marched back to the cells they gave expression to the first realization of the measure of punishment to be dealt out to them for the murder, October 20, of Fred W. Gueslow, Jr., a truck farmer.

The four are Phillip Sommerling, Edward and Frank Shibusaki and Thomas Schultz.

All except Sommerling, told the court their previous admissions of participation in the murder, which was the most brutal in Cook county, were incorrect. But they had received a fair trial. Leo Suchomski and Frank Kita, each sixteen years old, were sentenced to life imprisonment for their part in the murder. The fatal expression of "hanged by the neck until dead" was met with confidence and indifference that the prisoners had worn since the trial started.

A defiant air gave way to sobs when the men were sentenced.

The court before passing sentence said that the parents and not the defendants were to blame for the erection in the Cook county jail of a heavy oak beam from which the sentence will be carried out.

"The responsibility of every child is upon some father or mother," said the court. "Today, as these six boys stand in this court room in the home from which they came is the deepest and most profound and heartrending sadness. Let this be a warning to every parent lest some day after his child has been on trial for his life some judge grudgingly must say as I now say to these prisoners, 'May God have mercy on your souls.'"

$400,000 BLAZE AT GOLDFIELD, NEVADA

Goldfield, Nev., Dec. 2.—Fire originating in the mill of the Florence Goldfield Mining company tonight destroyed the mill and surrounding buildings.

The loss is estimated to be close to $400,000. An explosion of oil in the refinery caused the fire and no water was available. It is understood there was no insurance. The men working underground escaped.

Rats Chew Up $2,565.

Washington, Dec. 2.—The life savings of Jack Simpson of Althen, Minn., amounting to $2,565, securely hidden from burglars, were reduced to rags by hungry rats and in a letter to the treasury department Simpson appealed for reimbursement for the fragments of the bills.

Meyer Issues Denial.

Washington, Dec. 2.—Official denial was made today by Secretary Meyer that the board inspecting the wreck of the battleship Maine in Havana harbor was ordered to the scene of its departure for the United States to remain at Havana. Secretary Meyer said the board would leave Havana on December 4 and would arrive here on December 15.

NEW PRESIDENT OF OKLAHOMA SCOFFS AT ALARMIST REPORT

Collier Succeeds U. S. Grant as Head of Panama-California Exposition; New Incumbent Hustler.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.) San Diego, Cal., Dec. 1.—David Charles Collier, who has been director general of the Panama-California International Exposition since the organization of that project, has been elected president to succeed U. S. Grant, Jr., who takes the chairmanship of the board of directors.

In electing Collier president, the board of directors had two things in mind, securing at the head of the enterprise a man of indefatigable industry, national acquaintance and position for organization and for exhibiting the support of elements that will make for the greatest success of the exposition; also, placing him in the same position as the presidents of similar enterprises.

Collier is comparatively a young man. He has been in the oil business since it started in 1909 without salary or expense account of any kind. He has acquired wealth and declares it is his ambition to see San Diego a city of 150,000 and the Panama-California International Exposition the most beautiful and unique exposition ever built. It is due to his driving energy and enthusiasm that the exposition is so far advanced.

Actual construction of the exposition has begun. President Collier has announced that, owing to the equitable and prompt action of Diego, the exposition will be opened January 1, 1915, the day the president of the United States declares the Panama Canal open, and will be kept open the entire year, closing December 31, 1915 at midnight. Over $2,000,000 has been subscribed toward the preliminary expense of the exposition and is estimated that $7,000,000 will be spent upon it.

President Collier is now in Washington seeking the passage of a resolution through the United States senate empowering the president of the United States to invite the participation of the Latin-American republics at the Panama-California International Exposition. The house already has passed the resolution.

"I do not believe there is any medicine so good for whooping cough as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. Francis Turpin Junction City, Ore. This remedy is also unsurpassed for colds and croup. For sale by all dealers.

Motorcycle Notes

The Terre Haute Motorcycle club has already made plans for a 100-mile race to be held next June.

Joe Thompson, Frank Thompson and Lloyd Wolf of Frankfort, Ind., recently started on a motorcycle trip to Jacksonville, Fla., and Cuba. The three riders may return by way of Mexico.

C. C. Meehan has been appointed F. A. M. commissioner for Spokane, Wash., by State Commissioner J. F. Gorman.

A Miltonvale, Kan., minister, the Rev. R. J. Matinsky, was the prime mover in that city recently, organizing a motorcycle club.

Motorcycle riders in Columbus, O., have organized a bowling league, and expect to conduct a series of games during the winter.

Motorcycle pioneers in the United States, who recently received foreign cards from Secretary-Treasurer H. C. Brown of the Federation of American Motorcyclists, are now receiving suggestions from him for special watch fobs or pins bearing the word "Fouander." During 1903-1904 a few hundred motorcycle riders organized the F. A. M. and those who continued their affiliation with the organization have been termed "founders" and given special membership cards.

The bars are now down between the United States and Canada as far as the motorcyclists are concerned, according to an announcement by Dr. Thornley of the F. A. M. competition committee. According to the new ruling of the committee American racers can compete in Canadian races without paying duty and clubs provided the races are held under F. A. M. rules. The same arrangements have also been made for Canadian F. A. M. motorcyclists who wish to compete in motorcycle races in this country.

Still Hitting Open Muffler. The hat of motorcycle riders condemning the muffler "cut out" is growing larger each day. Following the action of the Federation of American Motorcyclists in placing a "cut out" on use, clubs throughout the country have been passing stringent resolutions.

Clubs at Erie, Pa., Salina, Kan., and Louisville, Ky., recently joined the rank of silent riders by sanctioning resolutions against the use of the open muffler. The Erie club intends to fine a member $10 for using the "cut out" upon the first offense and intends to dismiss a member found guilty the second time.

Salina, Kan., riders and members of the Louisville club will reprimand upon the first offense and the former will assess a fine if the rider uses the "cut out" on a road when approaching horses.

William Templeton Dead.

Greenwich, Conn., Dec. 2.—William J. Templeton died at Greenwich general hospital today of acute heart trouble.

Templeton represented Mexico as consul general in Scotland and recently was recalled to Mexico to take the oath of allegiance to the new government. This he declined to do and left that country for Havana.

The change brought on heart trouble and about six weeks ago he was brought here.

OKLAHOMA SCOFFS AT ALARMIST REPORT

Declared That Natural Gas Field Is Inexhaustible Despite Prediction of Exhaustion in Three Years.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.) Tulsa, Okla., Dec. 2.—Practically the entire population of the oil and gas fields of Oklahoma is discussing the recent statement of Prof. Haworth, state geologist of Kansas, who attempts to show that the natural gas supply of Oklahoma and Kansas is fast dwindling away, that less than 15,000,000 daily feet now exists in Oklahoma, and that within three years, this cheap natural fuel which is now enjoyed by the residents of this field, will be an unknown quantity.

Oil and gas men, business men and others who have studied the subject, claim that Haworth's statement is not true; and that the extent of the gas field is only just now being realized. Against Haworth's report they cite the recent report of Prof. Gould, state geologist of Oklahoma, who, after six years' careful study and personal investigation states that the Oklahoma gas field is widening every month and that new pools will be found twenty-five years hence. He points out that from Ponca City to Porum, and from the Kansas line south to the Canadian river, practically 100,000 square miles is proven gas territory; and that not one-fifth of the gas production of the state has yet been developed.

The annual report for 1914, made by H. C. James, of Independence, Kan., shows that 291 gas wells drilled during the year, and on December 1st the daily gas production of Oklahoma was 1,225,000,000 feet. This is more than thirty times the estimate of Prof. Haworth. One single Oklahoma gas company has shut in and held as reserve between five and six hundred million feet of gas within twenty-five miles of this city.

As showing how large is Haworth's report, well informed men call attention to the fact that almost during the time he was busy preparing his report, the daily producing capacity of new wells has added not less than 60,000,000 feet a day to the available gas supply of the state.

Five of these wells alone produce over 43,000,000 feet of gas a day. These five immense gasers are located as follows: Gladys-Belle well on section 16-18-13; Old Hickory oil company, Myrtle, 10-mile allotment, section 21-13-14, 15, 100,000 feet at a depth of 1530 feet; 01 Ranch oil company, in township 15, range 2, near Ponca City, 6,000,000 feet of gas at 650 feet depth; John Dwyer of Tulsa, 5,000,000 gaser near Lenapah; and Broach & company, on the Carl Harris land in Delaware field, 5,000,000 feet of gas. There are several other smaller wells. Experienced gas men call attention to the fact that, while eastern fields usually have but one producing sand, here in Oklahoma usually two and frequently four producing sands are found in a well. They are absolutely confident that the natural gas supply of Oklahoma is good for forty or fifty years, and some men say for a much longer period of time.

FEARED HANGING M'NAMARAS CONFESSED

he result of the developments at Los Angeles.

M'NAMARAS CONFESSED

San Francisco, Dec. 2.—Labor organizations of San Francisco, as represented by the central body, the Labor Council, will take no official action concerning the McNamara case until next Friday, said Andrew J. Gallagher, secretary of that organization, tonight. "Organized labor in San Francisco and in all California, as well," continued Mr. Gallagher, "who is one of the foremost labor leaders in the state," "is stunned by the unexpected outcome of the McNamara trial. We have to hear the runt of this unfortunate affair, our confidence has been cruelly betrayed; but we are going to be patient and we shall not run into publicity by the resolution route."

"I am opposed to published intentions to inaugurate a movement to help the families of those whose loved ones were lost in the mother ship in the Los Angeles Times disaster, by the money sent in the McNamara defense fund. To do so would be an admission on the part of organized labor that it shares with the McNamaras the guilt and the responsibility for that affair. I would not influence, however, toward raising a new fund for the specific purpose of affording relief to the families of the victims in question, though organized labor was in no way responsible for the crime which deprived them of their breadwinners."

Expressing his opinion of the unions that had adopted resolutions demanding the extreme penalties for the McNamaras, Secretary Gallagher said:

"Such action is not based on calm judgment. Many of these unions who are so energetic in coming to the fore at this time were correspondingly slow in contributing funds to defend the men, who, until they confessed, were believed to be victims of a misdirected prosecution."

BRAND WHITLOCK CALES IT SICKENING SHOCK.

Toledo, O., Dec. 2.—The announcement that the McNamaras have confessed their guilt is a sickening moral shock to those who had believed in their innocence," declared Mayor Brand Whitlock today.

"I have time now only to point out that their desperate and cruel crime was based on an old error, the fundamental error of thinking there are circumstances which justify force, brutality and violence."

"There is no more good in dynamite than there is in Pinkerton bullets for instance; no more good in assassination than there is in hanging."

BUTTE UNION MEN WANT MONEY BACK

Butte, Mont., Dec. 2.—Union labor sentiment in Butte towards the McNamaras now is as bitter as it was devoted when labor from organized and private sources contributed $25,000 to the defense fund. Demands for the return of the expended part of the fund and for the extreme penalty against the dynamiters are heard from all sides.

Some official expression may be given these demands at a meeting of labor and trades assembly tomorrow.

COMPERS AGAINST CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

New York, Dec. 2.—"I am not a hound; I am not a hound; I do not seek human life in punishment for any crime."

This was the angry exclamation of Samuel Compers tonight on his return from Troy, when showed a dispatch from Spokane, saying the Central Labor Council of that city is planning a country-wide movement to obtain the maximum penalty for the Los Angeles dynamiters.

"I do not believe in capital punishment under any circumstances," he continued. "I do not believe the state has a right to take human life. This is a very unwise movement. I am against it. It is like the populace in the Roman arena demanding with its thumbs down that the victorious gladiator plunge the sword into his victim. I do not believe in thumbs down for these or any other men."

"What punishment do you think should be meted out to them?" the labor leader was asked.

"Suppose we let the judge decide that. I am content to leave it with him," was the reply.

"Has the American Federation of Labor any authority over the Central Labor Council of Spokane?"

"They are affiliated with us, but we have no authority over them. They have a right to do as they please so long as they obey the law. I can only say that this is a very unwise movement, a misdirected effort and I am not in sympathy with it."

Mr. Compers also was shown dispatches saying the federal investigation in Indianapolis into dynamiting cases proceeds and asked if he thought there was any possibility of officers of the American Federation of Labor being involved.

"Let them go ahead; let them go as high as they like," he said. "If there are other men above or below in this case, the federal investigation ought to disclose them. The federal investigation should go on. If there was anybody behind these men their identity ought to be known. Personally I cannot conceive of where they got their money to perpetrate their outrages. I cannot dream who was behind them."

"It has been said that the McNamaras pleaded guilty to protect other persons," Mr. Compers was told.

"I do not know anything about that. I have received no communication from Los Angeles since the joint telegram from the McNamaras thanking me for the support of the American Federation of Labor. If there is anybody that needs to be protected I don't know of it."

Mr. Compers expects to remain here until Monday night and then to leave for Washington.

ELEPHANT BUTTE NEWS NOTES

Two Small Fires Furnish Excitement for Women of Great Reclamation Service Camp in Sierra County.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal)
Elephant Butte, N. M., Dec. 1.—Two small fires this week furnished some excitement in this camp and, though little damage was done, a serious conflagration was narrowly averted.

The first fire was at the residence of J. Dale Graham. The maid had thrown out some hot ashes shortly before a local cyclone was shattered. Through the carelessness of the driver the wood was deposited on top of the ash pile and in a few minutes the whole pile was burning fiercely. The blaze for a time threatened the house, but, beyond scorching the front porch no damage resulted. As the houses on the hill are huddled close together a had fire might easily have resulted had it not been for the prompt work of the women of the neighborhood, the men being away at work at the time.

The second fire occurred at the home of Ed Jones, boss of the pony corral, and was caused by an over-heated stove in the kitchen. For some reason there was no water in the pipe of the corral and Mrs. Jones, with great presence of mind, dashed a pot of soup on the blaze which was finally beaten out by some men who heard her cry of alarm. Mr. Jones was away from home at the time.

Ryan T. Olson, fiscal agent here, has resigned his position with the reclamation service to accept a more lucrative one with the Sidney Stevens Implement company, at Oden, Utah. Mr. Olson is to be auditor for the company which has several branches in the larger towns of Utah. Mr. Olson has been connected with the reclamation service for the past five years, coming here from the Salt Lake office. He has many friends in Elephant Butte who will congratulate him on his good fortune.

Thanksgiving morning occurred the wedding of Charles Burgess and Miss Emma McDonald. The ceremony, which was attended by only a few intimate friends, was at the home of the bride's parents on Main street. Rev. W. C. Buell tied the knot. The young people, who have many friends here, will make their home in Santa Fe.

Edward Hogenescheid and Miss Madge Welsh left here Tuesday for El Paso, where they were wedded. After a short honeymoon, the young couple will return here to make their home.

Mrs. Sam Matson entertained the Ladies' Card club on Tuesday afternoon, the following ladies being in attendance: Mesdames Melroe, Blue, MacIntyre, Wells, Stanton, Charles, Fannin, Schmalhausen and Monteth. Artistic skill was shown in the decorations, which consisted of mistletoe. Mrs. Melroe won first prize and the consolation prize was awarded to Mrs. Monteth.

Sam Patton and wife left on Friday for an extended trip through the south. Mr. Patton came here last July and has been working on the engineering parties. The absence of this popular couple will be much felt by the people here.

Mrs. Blue pleasantly entertained the embroidery club on Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ryan T. Olson were guests at dinner on Thanksgiving evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schmalhausen.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wells had a guests for dinner on Thanksgiving evening. Mrs. Mary Blue, Dr. J. Dale Graham and son Calvin, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stanton. The table was beautifully decorated with carnations and mistletoe.

Glen D. Lindley left on Thanksgiving morning for his home in Houston, Tex. He has been employed in a clerical capacity in the store house.

R. B. Coghlan, recently returned from an official trip to Arrow Rock, Mo., where he went to consult concerning the securing and handling of cement for the great Arrow Rock dam in Holise River. This dam is now under construction and will be 325 feet in height and has a population of about one hundred buildings here for the Rio Grande project.

Engineer Charles Russell is away on his vacation and is visiting friends and relatives in the central part of Texas. Engineer Stanton has taken charge of the work on the dam during Mr. Russell's absence.

During the past few days the work here has progressed as usual. The erection of forms and the placing of concrete on the floor and inside walls of the flume has progressed with reasonable speed. The excavation yet remaining to be done is small in amount. The engine foundation for the east towers are now completed. Work has recently been started in installing the rock from under the switch, at the power house, so that incoming coal can be dumped down through the drop doors by gravity. This is being done in connection with the coal handling machinery which is to be installed. Excavation has also been started on the foundation for the track scales.

On Sunday last, Edward Welsh, foreman on the excavation for the spillway, put off one of the most successful blasts ever seen here. About 1500 cubic yards of rock were loosened in such a manner that the rock can now be easily removed. The blasts here can be heard for a great distance. Clay may come from the San Andres mountains, twenty-five and thirty miles to the east, and residents at Garfield, located about the same distance to the south, report hearing blasts at Elephant Butte.

The Reclamation Service has recently designated a spot here for a cemetery. It is about three-fourths of a mile from the bridge across the Rio Grande and in a northerly direction from it. A native's child was recently buried in it.

A part of the A tower on the west side of the river, is up, but the second part has been delayed by minor accidents.

EL CAMINO REAL

By CHARLES D. MILLER
(In New Mexico Good Roads)

The "Cross-State" Highway of New Mexico, locally known as "El Camino Real," extends from the "Gila City" station, on the northern boundary, to Anthony, on the southern edge of the state.

The course of this highway passes through the most densely populated sections of the state; through the most wonderful mountain regions, lined with wild game and scenic attractions; passing through the capital of the state, full of historic interest; and thence to its metropolis, Albuquerque, finally proceeding through the celebrated valley of the Rio Grande to the city of El Paso, Texas.

Leaving the Raton road proceeds to Cimarron, thence to Rayado, a small community on the Rayado river, thence to Ocate and Mora, the latter the county seat of Mora county; from thence to the city of Las Vegas. From Las Vegas the Camino Real will have two routes to the city of Santa Fe, one passing over what is known as the "Scenic Highway," a direct line running from Las Vegas west over the mountains, across the upper Pecos and down the Santa Fe canon; the other route proceeding by the way of San Jose, crossing the Pecos at that point, following the railroad to Moriata and coming to Santa Fe by Moriata and Arroyo Hondo. A of rough mountain country remain to be completed, but when once completed this route will afford one of the grandest scenic attractions in the state. A gang of convicts is located on the eastern end, proceeding westward, and work will be pushed as rapidly as possible. From Santa Fe, the road has been practically made to the Rito de los Frijoles, being a branch of the Camino Real, where the cliff dwellings, as explored by the American School of Archaeology, are located. From Las Vegas the road has been completed recently to Moriata, a distance of thirty miles. From Moriata to Rayado is a section remaining to be completed, and which can be built nicely, by convict labor. From Rayado to Moriata, by way of Cimarron, the road, while not built by the territory, is in fine condition.

branch of the Camino Real will extend to the cliff dwellings on the Rito de los Frijoles, a distance of thirty miles from Santa Fe. From Santa Fe the road proceeds to Albuquerque, a distance of sixty-four miles. From Albuquerque the road follows the Rio Grande valley by way of Belen, La Jolla, Lemitar and Socorro, at Socorro a branch leaves this main trunk system and proceeds westward to the Mogollon section and to the Arizona line, where it will connect with the cross-state highway of Arizona. From Socorro the Camino Real proceeds south by way of San Marcial, Engle, Elephant Butte, to Rincon, and from Rincon, in Dona Ana county, through the town of Dona Ana, the city of Las Cruces, Mesilla Park, and finally to Anthony, where it connects with the magnificent macadamized road built by the city and county of El Paso up the river a distance of twenty miles.

From Anthony, turning backward, the road has been constructed up to Rincon, some sixty miles, and is passable by all forms of traffic, the farm wagon or automobile. It is still in an unfinished condition, with great need of gravel surfacing to afford a wearing surface against the traffic which has tended to cut up the foundation already laid. From Rincon arrangements have been made with the U. S. Reclamation Service to utilize their canal road up to Elephant Butte. This Reclamation Service builds magnificent highways, and this section of the road will be a fine specimen of road construction. From Rincon to Socorro, the road has not been constructed, but plans have been made to utilize a force of convicts now completing the Socorro-Magdalena road to work this winter north and south of the city of Socorro, and owing to the fact that a great portion can be graded, the work connecting up with Engle to Socorro will be rapid. The county road extends to Lemitar, and from Lemitar to Albuquerque, a most difficult section remains to be completed. The state road commission is making a survey from Socorro north, locating a highway through the remainder of Socorro county and in Valencia and Terrell counties. These routes will be adopted probably by the county commissioners of each county, and work can be done on different sections at the same time. With this line completed, the Camino Real will afford a route from Anthony to Raton. The territorial road commission has constructed magnificent highways from Albuquerque to Santa Fe and from Santa Fe to Las Vegas, seventy-three miles, by way of Moriata and San Jose, which have been recently completed. The cut-off from Santa Fe to Las Vegas, now on the "Scenic Highway," has not been completed except the portion through which it will pass; the remaining distance of fifty-five miles is mostly in the Pecos Forest Reserve, and efforts have been made to have the government assist in its construction. Forty-five miles

To avoid the break between Rayado and Moriata, traffic at present proceeds from Raton following the railroad almost entirely to Las Vegas. The fine, flat country roads in this section permit of quick traveling, and for country roads, are in excellent shape. From Cimarron a road is possible, either in dead of winter, to Taos and then to Santa Fe by way of the old government road down the Rio Grande valley.

The entire highway affords to the traveler a delightful vacation trip. To the tourist, for the wonderful historical attractions along practically its entire length, the sportsman finds exceptionally good trout streams and hunting in the mountains surrounding Santa Fe, Las Vegas and Cimarron. The road passing through the Rio Grande valley affords great assistance to the farmer, enabling him to haul his produce to the different towns. The road has been built primarily for this main consideration of assisting the citizens of New Mexico to reach the towns in the vicinity with more ease and comfort. Of course, the road is being built at the same time for automobile travel.

A particular item of interest in the southern portion of this highway is the great Elephant Butte project being constructed by the Reclamation Service. The roads immediately adjacent to the dam site have been built, and when this reservoir is completed, the largest artificial body of water in the world, with its system of canals, laterals, diversion dams, etc., will be of immense interest to the irrigator and prospective settler. The road passes through the wonderfully rich Mesilla valley, which is celebrated for the production of cantaloupes, Bartlett pears and alfalfa. The road terminates in the city of El Paso, destined to be the metropolis of the southwest, having a population of 50,000 and already the center of nine railroads.

The Territorial Good Roads commission has been using all diligence in the completion of this road, and it is believed that within the next administration all links will have been completed, and finishing work such as surfacing, drainage, etc., will be done over the work already completed in the southern part of the territory and Albuquerque north. From the main Camino Real trunk line can be taken one for the Pecos valley proceeding down the Pecos river by way of Anton Chico, Santa Rosa, Fort Sumner, Roswell, Carlsbad, and Lordsburg. The route has already been outlined proceeding from Cimarron, branching through Taos county and to Santa Fe. Arrangements have been made and convicts have been selected and located for the building of a branch trunk line from the city of Santa Fe to San Juan county, affording facilities to the people of Farmington and Aztec in that section. From the country's cash reserve land in overwhelming quantities will be needed.

connecting with the arm from Santa Fe. An eastern branch may proceed up Tijera canon from Albuquerque. The main cross-state highway at right angles to the Camino Real has been outlined. The road has been completed from Socorro to Magdalena, inspected from Magdalena to Mogollon, where a twenty-mile stretch, built some fifteen years ago, can be utilized. A branch will probably have to run from the Magdalena-Mogollon road to Frisco and Reserve and finally to Springerville, Arizona.

The completion of this "King's Highway" is important for other considerations. Wyoming and Colorado have already completed their north and south road and are waiting for New Mexico to finish hers. When this is done, one starting from El Paso can go by wagon or automobile over a fine rural road through New Mexico, through Colorado and into the state of Wyoming.

LIVELY INTEREST IN FIGHT FOR FAIR FREIGHT RATES

Denver Consumers and Shippers Association Intervenes in Suit Before Commerce Commission.

A movement which is attracting considerable attention among business men and commercial bodies in New Mexico has been started by the Consumers and Shippers' association of Denver by a petition in intervention, filed in the suit brought by the Southwestern Shippers' Traffic association against the Santa Fe railroad before the Interstate Commerce commission. The suit brought by the Southwestern association, which is now pending before the commission, has for its purpose an adjustment of rates through Galveston that will put the shipping centers of Oklahoma, Kansas and a part of Texas on an equitable basis with those allowed Missouri and Mississippi river points with relation to deep waterways. The action, while directed against the Santa Fe, includes as co-defendants all lines in the United States concurring in present rail and water rates.

The petition in intervention filed by the Denver Shippers and Consumers' league, is designed to procure for Denver a share in whatever benefit may accrue from any reduction the commission may order into effect in the Southwestern case.

New Mexico business men whose attention has been called to the suit in Denver are deeply interested in the action, and a move is now on foot to have the different commercial bodies in the state take up the matter with a view to taking concerted action in bringing a petition in intervention on behalf of New Mexico shipping points, that they also may participate in the benefits in case the commission rules favorable to the Southwestern association. It is not unlikely that the matter will come before the directors of the Albuquerque Commercial club at their next meeting.

GOVERNORS ATTEND MONETARY DINNER IN BUFFALO

Executives of Western States Hear Address By Congressman Vreeland on Needed Currency Reform.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) Buffalo, N. Y., Dec. 2.—The governors of eight western states and other distinguished representatives of the country beyond the Mississippi, were guests of honor at a monetary dinner given by the chamber of commerce here tonight. The dinner was the closing event of a day full of interest to the chief executives.

Congressman Edward B. Vreeland, vice-chairman of the national monetary commission, was the principal speaker at the monetary dinner. Two great reforms, he said, are needed in the country's currency system—first a bank note circulation based upon gold and commercial paper indorsed by the monetary authority. # ELKS HOLD LODGE OF SORROW THIS AFTERNOON

Annual Memorial Services in Honor of Absent Brothers Will Take Place in Opera House; Public Invited.

The Albuquerque lodge number 461, E. P. O. E., will assemble this afternoon in the Elks' opera house at 2:30 o'clock, for the purpose of conducting the annual memorial services of the order, in honor of the departed brothers. During the year that has just passed local Elksdom has suffered the loss of some of its most prominent members. These, with those who have gone before, will have their memory kept green and their virtues emphasized in the presence of the surviving members of the lodge, and the general public, in one of the most impressive and beautiful services known to modern fraternalism.

This day all over the United States is set apart as the occasion of holding the "Lodge of Sorrow." The program arranged this year is one of the most elaborate ever prepared by the Albuquerque lodge, containing many musical features. The principal address will be made by Rev. Archdeacon W. E. Warren of St. John's Episcopal church, who is himself a member of the local lodge.

Arrangements for the services have been in charge of a committee composed of Byron H. Ives, Thomas F. Keleher, Jr., John B. McManus, Louis J. Benjamin, John Lee Clarke, R. O. Jaffa, Herbert Asselin, L. C. Bennett and Ralph Dunbar.

The following is the program that has been arranged:

- Overture—"Song to Evening Star".....Wagner Orchestra.
- Funeral March—(Elks Entering).....Beethoven Orchestra.
- Violin Solo—"Prayer".....Schubert Bruno E. Diekmann.
- Mrs. Mabel Stevens-Himes, Accompanist.
- Calling Roll of Deceased Brothers.
- "Nearer, My God to Thee".....By Lodge and Audience.
- Solo—"The Day is Ended".....J. C. Bartlett Mrs. E. L. Bradford.
- Responses by Officers.
- Charge by Exalted Ruler.
- Sign of Grief by Lodge (standing.)
- Opening Ode—"Tune".....Auld Lang Syne.....Entire Lodge and Audience.
- Music by Orchestra.
- Great Ruler of the Universe.
- All-seeing and benign.
- Look down upon and bless our work.
- Oh! hark our prayers for the honored dead.
- While bearing in our minds.
- The memories graven on each heart.
- For "Auld Lang Syne."
- Invocation by Chaplain.
- Solo—"Let Us Have Peace".....Mrs. Verne George.
- Address.....Rev. W. E. Warren.
- Solo—"Eye Hath Not Seen".....A. R. Gaul.
- Closing by Exalted Ruler.
- Doxology (Lodge and Audience.)
- Benediction.....Mendelssohn Orchestra.

Audience, please remain seated until the Elks retire.

The roll of the absent brothers, which will be read at the service includes the following names: Ferdinand Levi, Edwin D. Harper, M. S. Otero, I. Freudenberg, Charles F. Meyers, A. W. Cavanaugh, A. V. Tegner, A. D. Coleman, R. J. Powell, George H. Egan, James McCorrison, W. E. Betts, W. J. Gephart, J. A. McClellan, H. E. Sturges, W. H. Avery, D. J. Abel, Thomas Hughes, A. Kempnich, J. F. Cook, Carl A. Datties, W. B. Childers, W. G. Tighi, J. K. Goodlander, J. V. Key, Charles Q. Goodman, J. H. Sturges, Isaac Hauser, Charles P. Mansuri, T. S. Hubbell, James Englehart.

DOCTORS ENDORSE Newbro's Herpicide

When a doctor endorses a preparation it means more than an ordinary testimonial. His opinion is always that of the professional man devoted to the welfare of the people.

Dr. J. J. Boyd, Gerington, Tenn., says: "I feel it my duty to write this for the benefit of those suffering from dandruff. In the average case a few applications of Newbro's Herpicide will remove all dandruff. It is advisable to continue its use for several weeks."

The words of J. B. Thompson, M. D., No. 2 Burroughs Place, Cor. Hollis St., Boston, Mass., are not less enthusiastic. "I can only speak in praise of Newbro's Herpicide. It is all that is claimed and perhaps more. Herpicide not only cleanses the scalp but brightens the hair, gives it life and makes it soft."

Dr. T. A. Moore, Duncan, Ark., writes of his experience. "My scalp was in places covered by patches of dry, scaly material and the itching was incessant. Since using Herpicide all these evils have disappeared and my hair is soft, smooth and growing. Hair has grown on spots before but I have almost at once."

Newbro's Herpicide is the original remedy to kill the dandruff germ and stop falling hair. The terrible itching which goes with dandruff is almost at once.

Herpicide is for sale at drug stores and one dollar size bottles are guaranteed. Applications may be obtained at the leading barber shops. Be sure you get genuine Herpicide. Send for the postage for sample and note to The Herpicide Co., Dept. B, Detroit, Mich.

Feeling and Looking Fine

DESIRE FOR DRINK GONE FOREVER

Another of the many stories of the wonderful results accomplished by the Neal treatment at the local institute is told in the following letter just received by them.

Prefacing his message with the words "To my friend" and naming the doctor in charge, he writes:

"Well, sir, I am home again, all right and feeling fine, thanks to you and The Neal Treatment. You and your assistants were very kind and attentive to me while with you and I can't thank you too much. I at first thought I would not go, but my wife and daughters wanted me to. So I did. Now I am very glad. Ten see the doctrine of a man stopping of his own accord doesn't always go. I have the drink all out of me now and I am satisfied and don't want it any more. My daughters feel grateful to you and will always remember you with kindly feelings. My wife is more than happy and says 'Thanks to you. If you see anything of the contractor or dentist who were with me at The Neal Institute, tell them to 'stick to it' and keep away from old alcohol."

liquor for good every month through the Neal Treatment, which in three short days transforms craving desire and restless appetite into aversion for all alcoholic drink.

The Neal Institute in this city is one of over three score such grand institutes in American, Canadian and Australian cities.

The Neal Treatment is ethical—a vegetable remedy taken internally, administered by regular physicians and with positively no hypodermic injections. It is tonic in its effects, restores shattered nerves, brings sleep to restless eyes, puts color of health into blanched cheeks, brightens foggy eyes and clears muddled brains.

Three days spent at the Neal Institute will bring about a transformation in any excessive drinker so wonderful that Father Flavin of Des Moines, Iowa, after witnessing the results of the Neal Treatment, declared: "Nothing like it has been seen since Lazarus was raised from the dead."

Guests at the Neal Institute enjoy all the comforts and privacy of home club or hotel. Meals are served in the patient's own room. Names are never divulged.

For further information and advice address the Neal Institute, 212 N. 2nd St., Albuquerque, New Mex.

TAFT CONSIDERING SUCCESSOR TO HARLAN

Senators Borah and Sutherland, Judge Hook and Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel Possibilities.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) Washington, Dec. 2.—With two of his messages out of the way, President Taft today began talking with senators, congressmen and others about a possible successor to the late Justice Harlan of the supreme court, and about filling other existing judicial vacancies.

Mr. Taft regards the appointment of Justice Harlan's successor as of the utmost importance and it is not likely that he will make a choice before the close of the year.

More than fifty names of prominent lawyers, members of his cabinet, senators and judges, have been suggested for the president's consideration. Among these are Secretary of

Did Arizona Foot the Ball? Did New Mexico Foot the Bill? It Rather Looks That Way.

THRILLS AND SPILLS AT FOOTBALL GAME

Well, we got beat, didn't we? Beef and experience did it, the sporting editor tells us and he ought to know.

It was a game fight, though, and we had no cause to feel ashamed of the New Mexico eleven. If enthusiasm for the home team, display of their colors, and vigorous rooting could have carried them to victory, the enemy would have been our own. As it was, they beat our boys fair and square. If the series of line-backs and end-runs that grabbed the victory can be so called. And we cheered the Arizona boys politely on to victory. You know the weak brand of enthusiasm that the victors get when the home team is beaten? Of course, in this case, the visiting eleven deserved more, but they know as does everyone else, that it's not easy to win. It was really a good game, one worthy of the glorious day and fast game. There were both thrills and spills.

The collapsing of the grandstand or more fortunately bleachers, was more excitement than we bargained for. It was some excitement, too, for a few moments believe me. A quick crash, and the surrounding crowd were startled to see the bleachers go down, leaving a struggling mass of humanity and boards pretty badly mixed.

There was a wild rush for assistance and it was but the space of a few moments until those that had taken the tumble, were picked right side up with care. As a matter of fact they were calmer than the spectators who occupied sound and safe terra firma at the time of the accident.

Luckiest thing in the world that no fatalities or even serious injury resulted. Two men had wrenched ankles, another a sprained wrist, and Lillian Hesselden, a well known soclety girl, is nursing a sprained ankle as result of the spill. But the most of them came out unscathed, the women with their hats a bit awry, but looking otherwise little the worse for the experience. It was comedy after it was well over, but tragedy was in juxtaposition, just the same.

Some of investigating turn of mind wandered around the wreckage wondering how it happened. Soft ground was suggested owing to the thaw, which was really the cause of the mishap, though other causes were, of course, hazarded.

Somebody declared that Senator Isaac Harth stepped on the grandstand that that was the straw which broke the camel's back. Probable enough, but the improbable thing is the comparison of Mr. Harth—excuse me—Senator Harth, to a straw.

THANKSGIVING EVE DANCES. Dancing was the most important social diversion of the week.

are understood to be for members of the Elks lodge and their friends of feminine persuasion. So when this was given out as an open affair, a few thought it was the annual pay affair, others thought not, some were not sure and as a result, the crowd was small.

At the dance no one seemed wise, and I don't know yet whether it was intended as an open dance and was poorly advertised or whether it was a regular Elks' dance wrongly advertised.

No matter, it was a corking good time for the adventurous ones. The swells and belles were out in small number. The Tom Danahys, the Charles Whites, the Smithers, the Steans, the Hahns and Dr. Wylder and his wife were among those present. Among the well known girls who lent their presence to grace the occasion were Hannah Nushbaum, Hilda Grunfeld, Dolly McClellan, Elsa Hartner, Gladys Mandell, Mabel Tracey and others whose names I do not happen to recall at this writing.

It isn't necessary to mention the fellows, we know the following pretty well.

There was a "turkey trot" to entertain proceedings, being it was the day of the festive bird. I guess you would call it a turkey trot; I cannot think of another name so aptly descriptive. You see, there was a fellow there from the east, from Washington, D. C. if you please. He was a mighty nice fellow—a tall, handsome chap with a very winning manner. One of the girls took him in tow and introduced him around. His dancing, while it might have been just the thing in Washington, and he assured his partners gravely that it was, didn't go very well with the swinging western way of dancing. His mode of tush-tushing, which would merrily on at the same time in Elks' hall room, was good fun for the implicated, and a very delightful dancing party.

A perfect mob took in the latter affair, which argues well for the financial success of the Foresters' ball. And after all, in a dance of that kind, open to the public and not subject to discrimination in the matter of guests, the financial outcome is the chief consideration.

So, the women in charge made a bunch of money for church use and incidentally provided a good time for the dance loving contingent. It only goes to show, that when it comes to benefits, which go on forever same as Tennyson's brook, it takes a dance or musical comedy to deliver the coin into the hands of the beneficiaries. Concerts, and other classical events, are educational, we grant. Beautiful too. But the public, uneducated musically, and that's the big majority, when out for an evening's pleasure, will shy clear of the classical attraction and rush wildly where the music is ragtime or dancing the fun.

We cannot claim this fact as a worthy commentary on the tastes of the people, but we can claim it as the truth.

But that's getting away from the subject and literary caution bids us remember that one subject in hand is worth two at large. As I said, the Foresters' dance was a success, financially and socially. Mrs. Felix Bacon and Mrs. Jacob Korber were perhaps the hardest workers in the enterprise and most deserving of congratulation on the splendid outcome. The Rich orchestra, comprised of the Rich brothers and other young fellows, provided music of surprising excellence when one stops to consider the youth and inexperience of the performers. It was really good and when music is fine and floor smooth, the story is told.

ELKS' DANCE.

Thanksgiving night, despite turkey dinners, exciting football and late hours of the night before, the dances were largely attended. Or to be exact, the university dance for the Arizona football players was a jam in the smaller Elks' lodge room, while below in the big ballroom a rather small crowd made the most of space and the really excellent music. The Fuhrmeyer Cavanaugh orchestra played, and we have to give it to them, when it comes to dance music, a swing and a dash to their music lacking sometimes in orchestral accompaniment at the local dances. Just a trifle fast is the only objection one could advance and since slow or fast dancing is a matter of personal taste, that wouldn't stick.

The Elks' dance, though small, was exceedingly merry. Everybody seemed to know everybody else and the spirit of comradeship is a great adjunct to any dance. There was evidently a misunderstanding in regard to the Elks' Thanksgiving dance whether through fault of the press or the entertainment committee, I don't know. Somebody blundered, as the little battle room has it.

Said committee gave it out as an "open dance." Whether open to Elks only or the public for the sum of one dollar, was not positively stated. The Elks here have been in the habit of giving one open dance a year, usually Easter Monday, I think; sort of a benefit affair.

That is, so far as I know, their only open dance. The other affairs

IN HONOR OF MRS. NAGEL.

Mrs. Nagel of Chattanooga, Tenn., who came here for the Stateson-Yrisarri nuptials, remaining over as guest of her aunt, Mrs. George Stateson, until yesterday morning, was honored at a couple of smart card parties during the past week.

On Monday, Mrs. Yrisarri and her daughter, entertained at Five Hundred in honor of Mrs. Nagel. The decorations were chrysanthemums and a handsomely appointed luncheon was served at conclusion of the playing. The guests were Mesdames A. Nagel, George Stateson, W. W. McClellan, Frank Clancy, F. P. Woy John Horradale, Bernard Rodey, D. H. Carns, Frank Hubbell, Herbert Romero, Robert Pollock, Otto Dieckmann, John P. Sheehan, Harry Benjamin, Misses Estelle Luthy, Nettie Custers and Lela Armijo.

Later in the week, Friday afternoon, Mrs. Stateson and four able of Five Hundred for her charming guest. Exceptionally pretty were the decorations of carnations and smilax and the luncheon was distinctive for the elaborate trimmings, if the floral frieze may be so designated.

Those playing and "feeding" when the game had run its course were the honorees, Mrs. Nagel, Mesdames Roy Stamm, J. J. Yrisarri, Frank Clancy, Ned Grubbs of Muscogee, Okla., Sol Weiler, J. E. Luthy, C. E. Lewler, Mike Mandell, W. W. McClellan, John Horradale, D. H. Carns, Tom Wilkerson, Misses Lela Armijo, Estelle Luthy, Eloisa Yrisarri and Pattie Grubbs.

SPITZ TEA VERY SMART.

As smart a tea as we've had heretofore was Mrs. Berthold Spitz's afternoon, Wednesday. Cards were for the one time, taboored and the for-five guests invited had to take it out in drinking and social chat. Seemingly they didn't mind a bit and none of them voted it the most delightful party attended in many moons. It could hardly be otherwise with Mrs. Spitz as hostess, and her charm is too well known to need especial comment. About the only flowers used at the tea, Wednesday, were the magnificent house plants, with which the Spitz home is so well filled. They were pretty enough, of course, but Mrs. Spitz declared her only flowers were the boys of young girls who assisted her. A nice little compliment, that, and one, we cannot allow to go to waste.

Those assisting Mrs. Spitz were Hannah Nushbaum, Gladys Mandell, Hilda Grunfeld, Jetty Rosenwald, Regina Rosenwald, Margaret Schuster, Julia Jaffa of Santa Fe, Leona Levy of Denver, and Elsie Kempenich.

Monday afternoon Mrs. Spitz had an informal luncheon for a dozen friends. It was a handsomely appointed affair and good fun for the implicated, even if it was too small to warrant a big noise on the society page.

DANCING PARTY.

Regina Rosenwald's dancing party at the Woman's club, Tuesday night, ushered in the Thanksgiving festivities for the young crowd, in a most auspicious way. No decorations, absolutely informal, it was none the less, a bully good time for all concerned. Many of the bunch say they had the time of their lives and the rest of them agree. We outsiders are inclined to think there would be something stirring, when such a crowd as the one herewith affixed, get together.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Thanksgiving was the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of the William Grimmers, and some sixty friends of the popular couple took occasion to ritely celebrate the event. Aided by the Grimmer girls a big surprise party was arranged and happened as per schedule Thursday night.

Sixty strong and armed with handsome silver gifts, it being the silver anniversary, they invaded the pretty Grimmer home out on Twelfth, and took possession to the delight of host and hostess who recovered promptly from their surprise, and joined with a will in the ensuing celebration.

There was games, music, cards, dancing, everything that goes to make a good time and one according to every taste. The hospitality of the Grimmers is well known and was beautifully demonstrated at the anniversary party. The array of gifts were magnificent, all of silver and all handsome. A fine supper ended proceedings in royal style, and the evening was a merry one for guests and host and hostess.

BETWEEN the optimist and pessimist The difference is droll; The optimist sees the doughnut, The pessimist, the hole.

Consider the hole, folks. It's bigger than the doughnut in modern baker's manufacture and we seldom come across the homemade product. Well, well, have you heard about it? NO? Blessed if you aren't as slow as the paving proposition and the city council.

And you haven't heard the latest? Alright, open your eyes and shut your mouth (keep it closed) and I'll put you wise.

Albuquerque in the usual progressive way—only occasionally the town stands pat—is in the front in a movement of national importance. Our good and worthy town has this week effected a branch organization to one of the leading clubs in America. Sounds like, doesn't it? It is. The new club will bring the town prominently before the nation and everybody will get out the field glasses to find us on the map.

They will find an area of assumption, bounded on the east with mountain and on the north, south and west with politicians—and that's us. To return to the club—and they all come back, especially the married men. But this isn't that kind of a club.

Far be it from such. The club, with which we are now affiliated is one of the greatest clubs in the world. It is—The Pessimists' Club of America. Life—do you read Life? But, of course you do. Home without Life would approximate in desolation Home without a cook. As I started to say, Life in commenting upon the Pessimists' club has this to say:

The recent formation of a national club for pessimists is attracting universal attention. It has generally been felt that there should be some place where pessimists can congregate, in order to get away from all the alluring pleasures of the world.

Pessimists everywhere are joining. In case you have not yet become a pessimist you should join the club at once; as it affords the greatest facilities.

You come in contact with nobody but pessimists. This in itself is a great help. The rules of the club are as follows:

No smiling allowed on the premises.

Anyone not complaining of meals and not saying that the service at the tables is the worst he ever has seen will be fined.

Cheerful remarks should at once be reported to the head cynic.

Application for membership should be accompanied by a full account of applicant. He is liable to be black-balled if proved that he has led a cheerful life.

Somber clothes should be worn by members.

Members are expected to confide all their troubles to fellow members.

If members absent themselves for over a week from the moribund atmosphere of the club, it will be taken for granted that they are enjoying themselves elsewhere. Their cases will be immediately looked into.

Married men can have free run of club at all hours of day and night.

Before entering the club every member is required to read through, from beginning to end, Darwin's Anatomy of Melancholy and Schopenhauer's complete works; also the words and music of ten American comic operas.

A Fleeting World of Trouble and Sorrow.

The object of forming the club here, is evident. It is not to make money for money insures a life of

ALBUQUERQUE NEW MEXICO

SANDOVAL COUNTY.

Sandoval county, after years of bondage, has thrown off the yoke of the twin bosses who long ruled her destinies. In one of the most heroic struggles ever waged in New Mexico politics her people have won their freedom by their ballots, and this, despite the fact that the governmental and election machinery was entirely in the hands of their foes, who had long ruled with an iron hand.

Everything that an arrogant political boss could do was done to prevent the people of Sandoval from asserting their independence, but all to no purpose, and the triumph of good government there on November 7 last, may well be compared to that which occurred in Bernalillo county
some years ago when the forces of Hueylong were hurled from power and forced into an oblivion from which they have since never been able to emerge.

Like Bernalillo county when the people asserted their rights, Sandoval is on the verge of an awakening, an era of enlightenment. Better schools, better roads and better conditions
generally, inevitably follow the removal of the corruptionist from public office and the elimination of the reactionary boss from his position of power. When a public sentiment,
such as was manifested in Sandoval
on November 7, exists in any community its citizens need have no fear
for its future.

A few disappointed reactionary
newspapers, unable to comprehend
the awakening of public sentiment,
have seen fit to criticize the people of Sandoval for what they term, the surprising result of the recent election,
and some have even hinted at fraud
in the voting and in the count. Little attention will be paid to these charges
when it is remembered that the election machinery and the county government was and is, entirely in the hands of the defeated party. Standpat republican judges received the ballots, stand-pat judges made the returns and stand-pat officials had them in charge until they were transmitted to Santa Fe, and surely the republicans of Sandoval county cannot be accused of holding back the returns or in any other manner conspiring at their own defeat. Sandoval county was one of the first from which the complete returns from the election were made public in the newspapers. If it was one of the last to make the official return to Secretary Jaffa at Santa Fe, the stand-pat republican election judges, the representatives of the losing party in the election, are alone responsible.

THE REWARDS OF GENIUS.

Within recent years the rewards accorded the leading artists who amuse and interest the public have been greatly increased, whether these artists delight the public with their wondrous power of song, or score triumphs with a swift and telling swing to the jaw. These increased rewards have been due partly to the larger number of persons interested in and able to afford such amusements, but even more to two inventions—the phonograph and moving pictures.

The winner of the Jaffrey-Johnson fight at Reno received $50,000, and the loser—who as "the white horse"
was paid more—received $40,000
from the moving pictures alone. Caruso, on the authority of Henry Finck, has made $200,000 in a year,
of which $55,000 came to him for singing not to an enthralled audience,
but to the phonograph, Gaskin, Farrar, Tetrazzini, Schumann-Heink, earn from $50,000 to $100,000 in the course of a season, with a fee varying from $1,000 to $2,000 for operatic performances or private mandates.

That there is money in the art of song is proved by the fact that the American box office receipts from
"The Merry Widow" to April 1, 1905, were $2,635,000. The opera had been given, however, in 29 other countries as well. Septimus Winner, who wrote the song, "Listen to the Mocking Bird," sold it for $35 to the publishers who are said to have made the enormous sum of $2,000,000 as a consequence of its universal popularity.

Of course there are the few who attain great success, and for one who achieves it there are thousands, even tens of thousands, who fail. Still there never before was a time when so many persons made comfortable livings amusing the public, while for the few who rise to the first rank

the rewards are greater than in any previous age.

BRANDEIS AND TAFT.

Mr. Louis D. Brandeis, of Boston, is a lawyer who has won the confidence of various apostles of the antimonopolistic doctrine of popular sovereignty. He has done excellent service without charge, in compelling the passage and enforcement of statutes humanely regulating the hours of women's labor. He may sometimes have allowed his reach to exceed his grasp,
as when he promised to save the railroads millions of dollars if they would heed his economic suggestions; and he has been variously accused of self-exploitation under the guise of altruism. At any rate, the charge has been laid at his door of exaggerated friendliness toward corporations and corporate interests. If there were anything in the allegation that President Taft gave the Morgan-Guggenheim syndicate, through Richard F.
Ryan, a monopoly of the frontage on Controller Bay, Alaska, Mr. Brandeis would have felt that he owed it to his professional reputation and to his chief clients, "the common people,"
to make the most of the ascertained facts in the case. On the contrary, he now announces that in his investigation he has upturned no warrant for attributing to the president or to any of his official lieutenants the least obliquity in this connection.

The end of the Controller Bay controversy is not yet. Many persons will continue to maintain, in the face of the findings of Mr. Brandeis in behalf of the Graham committee, that there was a deliberate effort to give the coal and copper syndicates exclusive access to tidewater, but the result of the review of all the evidence by "the people's attorney" will prove a blow to those who want the public to believe that the president betrayed the people's interest to subserve the ends of private monopolies.

MISTLETOE.

This much worshiped oddity, that both ancient and modern lovers value
so highly and which soon will be sold on the streets of almost every city of this land is becoming very unpopular with the lumber men of the Southwest. It has been proven by observations in the Tusayan National Forest that there are large areas where yellow pine has been attacked. Since it takes from 150 to 200 years to grow
one of these forest trees of more than one hundred feet in height, it can be easily seen the damage this parasite is doing. So it is now more likely to be killed out on this charge that it is to be finally crushed out of existence by the hands that only used it as a Yuletide decoration. According to Dr. Hedgcock from one to two percent of all the yellow pine in the southwest is attacked. The mistletoe usually starts in the forks of lateral branches and spreads as the tree
grows or it may even infect seedlings.
The seeds of the mistletoe, which are sticky, are formed in the summer and ripen in the fall. When the seed covering bursts these seeds may be shot from five to twenty feet, and often adhere to the bark of neighboring trees, soon developing roots which penetrate the cambium. Saplings attacked by mistletoe are deformed and some of their branches killed outright and their height and diameter (which, under good conditions, is only 24 inches in a tree 250 years old) is stunted. Not only this, but their seed crop is lessened and as this means less reproduction of the most valuable timber that New Mexico and Arizona produce in any great quantities. This limiting of the seed crop is a serious charge for so small an enemy as the mistletoe appears to be at first sight. In some cases, of severe attack the tree produces no seeds at all. Sometimes when the host tree is much weakened the mistletoe dies from lack of nourishment.
The dry climate of the southwest,
however, aids the extermination of this parasite by lack of moisture for its development. Without this aid
there is no telling how far this plant
with its pretended love privileges
would carry its murderous career.

Now that we are having winter
weather, it may interest you to know that the coldest weather of the night is recorded about 5:30 o'clock in the morning, taking the United States
Weather Service as authority.

Photographic presidential swings around the circle are made possible by Edison's improvements in motion picture machines. But not probable while the desire remains to get in touch with the "plain people."

After due deliberation, Mr. Bryan announces that the chances for electing a democratic president next year are excellent. But this is a little stunt the colonel has been doing quadren-nially for some time past.

William Loeb is believed to be the man whom President Taft will choose as the manager of his campaign. Besides possessing political ability of a high order, Mr. Loeb has had experience as a goat.

If the European picture thieves will come over here and give their attention to the studios of some of the artists who get out covers for the magazines they will meet with a hospitable welcome.

The French birth rate still insists upon trying to qualify for membership
in the Dawn and Out club.

How New Mexico may cast her first electoral vote depends largely upon whether the administration at Washington shall learn wisdom in the distribution of federal patronage. Should the same malign influences prevail in the future that have had the ear of the administration in the past, it is probable that the progressive republicans will again find it necessary to demonstrate their strength.

The Rio Grande Republican says
the stand pat republican candidates for the United States senate do not need the support of the progressive republicans of New Mexico. Stand pat newspapers expressed similar views before the election relative to the stand pat candidates on the state ticket. Some people learn slowly, and only in the school of experience.

If the cheap politicians in the equal suffrage states offer themselves as bargains to the women voters they will do well to remember that they must be prepared to deliver the goods.

If that Florida grand jury finally decides that the practice of euthanasia is or isn't a crime, for mercy's sake don't let Big Business unnecessarily be bothered with the finding.

A capitalist recently went to New York and got rid of $10,000,000 in three months. If he had gone to really competent New Yorkers he could have got rid of it in less than three days.

We doubt the story of a "serious disagreement between President Taft and his cabinet." Remember, Mr.
Taft hasn't been home much this summer and fall.

The governor of Nevada has buckled
on his armor in defense of the fair
name of Reno. It might really help some if he would start a few Sunday schools there.

There will be substantial compensation from the last presidential swing
around the circle if its unusual length results in brevity for the presidential message.

Millionaire W. E. D. Stokes, touching a point made in his cross-examination exclaimed, "That was a joke." But did Stokes smile when he did say it?

ing money in your pocket when Christmas arrives.

If W. J. Bryan cannot be one of the active players in the game of politics
he is sure to insist on being an umpire.

It has been figured out that there are fifteen thousand ways of dying.
But not one of them is popular.

handed to officeholders.

SCRIPTURE.

Psalm 107:1-9.

O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good: for his mercy endureth forever.

Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy.

And gathered them out of the land
from the east, and from the west,
from the north, and from the south.

They wandered in the wilderness
in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in.

Hungry and thirsty, their soul
fainted in them.

Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses.

And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation.

Oh, that men would praise the Lord
for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

For he satisfieth the longing soul,
and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

Dangerous Dug-Drilled Wells

Almost any community in which wells have been drilled can boast of a number of combination dug and drilled wells. The owners congratulate themselves on their wisdom in utilizing an old dug well fifteen, twenty or thirty feet in depth, and drilling through the bottom of this to a good flow of deep water. The cost of drilling that twenty or thirty feet has been saved, certainly an economy worth considering. As a matter of fact, this combined dug and drilled
well is a particularly dangerous type,
it may readily breed malaria fever
or even typhoid fever, which is more prevalent in the country than even in the over-crowded cities. In spite of the supposed pure water supply of nearly all farming sections. Such a well is all the more dangerous because it is fancied to be safe. Although the water encountered by the deep water may be perfectly pure at the start, contamination may take place almost immediately by the entrance, especially after rains, of seepage water into the open well and thence into the casing of the drilled well. The remedies are obvious.
Either the casing should be carried to the surface of the outside ground,
or at least above the highest level
ever reached by the water, or the open well should be converted into a water-tight system by applying a thick coating of cement over the sides and bottom.—From Water Supply Paper 223, United States Geological Survey.

FRANK WILLIAMS FINALLY LANDED IN JAIL IN OKLAHOMA

Deputy Sheriffs C. L. Lemmon and William Barnett Capture Alleged Notorious Thief.

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal]

Carriazo, N. M., Dec. 1.—Frank Williams, fugitive from justice who had given the local peace officers a great deal of trouble here recently,
was arrested and brought to Carriazo Wednesday noon and lodged in the local jail. Deputy C. L. Lemmons and William Barnett making the arrest. Williams, or whatever his name is, as he has a number of alias-es, is charged with a long list of offenses against the law. The following are some of the crimes that have been committed in this vicinity that are laid at his door: Stealing a horse and saddle of J. A. Orr, a rancher west of town. Orr followed Williams
a short distance through the mountains
but failed to catch him. Breaking in the ranch house of C. L. Lemmons and stealing a rifle, six-shooter and watch. Part of this stolen property was found in his possession when arrested. Stealing a saddle from a stock belonging to F. N. Deal at An-cho. Stealing a horse belonging to Assessor Henry Corn of Rebeton; this was the horse he was riding when arrested.

Last Saturday night while the officers were out looking for him he rode into Carriazo at about ten o'clock armed to the teeth. He got off his horse in front of Rolland Brothers drug store and went in the store and purchased some smoking tobacco, making the remark at the time that he had better be going as he wasn't wanted around here. Sunday morning Officers Barnett and Lemmons took up his trail and followed him north to Coyote. From Coyote he turned west and went around the upper end of the Mal Palo into the Oscura mountains in the direction of San Antonio. The officers followed the trail through the Oscura mountains and came upon the fugitive at the Hansberg ranch in Socorro county, fifty miles west of here.

Williams was about to leave the ranch when he was discovered by the officers and when called upon to surrender drew his rifle from the scabbard and showed fight, but when Lemmons got the drop on him he surrendered. Williams is about nineteen years of age of small stature
has eyes like a weasel, is of dark complexion and could easily pass for a Mexican. He is said to be a native country about a year ago but no one seems to know where he came from.

Origin of Certain Names

Front Royal: town in Warren county, Va., first known as Royal Oak, named for an immense tree growing in the common. Front Royal originated from the circumstances of a Colonel who, becoming confused in his commands, ordered his regiment to "front the royal."

Norwalk: city in Fairfield county,
Conn., said to have been so named because, when purchased from the Indians, the northern boundary was to extend northward from the sea
one day's walk, according to the Indian marking of the distance. According to another authority it is derived from saying, "point of land."

Sing Sing: creek in Chemung county, N. Y. Indian words meaning "place of a stone." Another authority states that it was named for John Sing Sing, a friendly Indian.

Sinkyow: county in California and mountains in Oregon. By some authorities it is said to be a corruption of the original name given the district
in California by the French—six cal-lows, meaning "six bowlders." Others
state that it is an Indian word meaning "hobnobbed horse," the mountains between California and Oregon having been so named because a famous hobnobbed race horse was lost on the trail.—United States Geological Survey.

Indians Not Dying Out.

Exclusive of Alaska, the Indian population of the United States in 1910, was, in round figures, 305,000,
as compared with 243,000 in 1910
and 270,000 in 1900. Contrary to the popular notion, the Indian is increasing. His gain in numbers, moreover, is far less surprising than is his growth
in industry and intelligence. The 5,470 Indians residing in New York, chiefly remnants of the old Iroquois, follow
the same pursuits as their white neighbors, dress the same, and save in complexion, differ from the whites
no essential particular. Much more than a third of all the Indians in the United States or 117,000, reside in Oklahoma. Most of these are members of the old five civilized tribes, (Cherokees, Creeks, Choctaws, Chick-asaws and Seminoles,) each of which in the old Indian territory, which was part of the present state of Oklahoma,
had a civil government of its own for two-thirds of a century, with schools,
churches, mines, factories, mercantile houses, banks and other accessories of the highest civilization.—

D. A. Vaughn Shot to Death at Chickasha By Demented Son
in Law, Who Later Killed Himself.

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal]

Roswell, N. M., Dec. 1.—Word came today of the tragic death of D.
A. Vaughn, formerly of this city and formerly one of the drivers of the Roswell-Vaughn auto mail and passenger stage. He was shot to death on November 27 at Chickasha, Okla., by his demented son-in-law, William Davis, who shot and wounded
Vaughn's daughter at the same time
and then turned the gun upon himself and blew out his own brains.

Vaughn and Davis were boyhood friends. Several years ago Davis came west and joined Vaughn, who had been west many years and had reared
a family. Davis represented himself to be a single man and soon after his arrival was married to Vaughn's oldest daughter. Four years ago a young man appeared from the east and stated that he was Davis' son and that Davis had a wife in Illinois. Young Davis had his father arrested for bigamy. The father was released on bond, paid the bondsmen
the amount of his security and skipped. It was afterward learned that he went crazy over the whole affair.
On last Monday the demented man appeared at the Vaughn home near Chickasha, Winchester in hand, and committed the murder, wounding and suicide.

The Vaughns moved to Roswell about two years ago and returned to Chickasha only four months ago.
Davis left a letter stating that he was going to kill the whole family because they would not let his second wife live with him. The second wife secured a divorce three years ago.
The wounded young woman will recover.

Roswell Boy in China.

Roswell has a young citizen witnessing the life and death struggle for liberty in China. Fred Wright, son of the local representative of the United States weather bureau, Marden Wright, is now at Shanghai as an "able seaman" on the U. S. ship
"Rainbow," which is in Chinese waters with the "Albatross," "New Orleans" and some torpedo boats.
Young Wright went from here to San Francisco a year ago and joined the navy. He has been in sight of several battles.

To Confer on Inter-County Highway.

Richard M. Thorne, of Carlsbad secretary of the Roswell-Malaga or inter-county highway, proposed to hold today in consultation with President W. M. Atkinson and together they arranged for a meeting of all the members who hail from every town on the route, extending from Roswell south to the Texas line. The meeting will be held some time near the
mas. The exact date will be announced later. The principal question to be settled is that pertaining to the cost of the work. Some favor raising a general fund to cover the entire cost. Others believe each county should pay for the work within its own lines. Chaves county has less work than Eddy and therefore the majority of the sentiment to let each county handle its own work is entered in this part of the territory affected.

REGULAR SESSION OF CITY COUNCIL WILL BE HELD TOMORROW

At a regular meeting of the city council tomorrow evening the question of the form of the contract between the City of Albuquerque and the Texas Bithulithic company, providing for the paving of Second street
and Central avenue, will be taken up.
At the meeting held on November 17, a resolution was adopted authorizing the mayor and clerk to enter into a contract with the Texas Bithulithic company, the terms of the contract, however, to be first submitted to the city council.
In addition to this there are various matters of routine business to be transacted.

Climate Failed— Medicine Cured

It has been absolutely shown that rest, fresh air, and good food do help many persons suffering from Tuberculosis. But to be really honest, it must be admitted that the discovery of a medicine more effective than anything yet known, is needed.

Dr. Eckman's Alternative is a medicine made for the cure of Tuberculosis. It has cured this disease again and again. Often these cures have been effected where the surroundings were not ideal, where the patients were not taken to the Eckman's where money was scarce; good food and good cooking unusual—yet cures resulted.
Now we argue and urge that Eckman's Alternative should be used in every case of Tuberculosis, in addition to good nourishing food and fresh air, which are so essential.

The facts—the evidence of cures that have been made—are interesting reading.
A remarkable cure follows—Weldon, Ill.
"Gentlemen—Through Eckman's Alternative I have been saved from a consumption, and, feeling that I might benefit suffering humanity, I take pleasure in writing you a brief history of my sickness, which you are at liberty to use."
"On December 18, 1894, I was taken with Typhoid Pneumonia. My lungs became very much affected, and my system was exhausted. I was unable to move, and, feeling that I might benefit suffering humanity, I take pleasure in writing you a brief history of my sick-

A LITTLE DANDERINE WILL MAKE YOUR HAIR LUSTROUS, SOFT, FLUFFY, ABUNDANT

Get a 25 Cent Bottle Now and Forever Stop Falling Hair, Itching
Scalp and Dandruff

If you Wish to Double the Beauty of your Hair in Ten Minutes surely Try a Danderine Hair Cleanser

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand
at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

A delightful surprise awaits particularly those who have been careless, whose hair
has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair
at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates
the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

Try as you will, after one application of Danderine you cannot find any dandruff or a loose or falling hair, and your scalp will never itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes, but really new hair sprouting all over the scalp. Danderine makes the hair grow long, heavy and luxuriant and we can prove it. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any druggist or toilet counter, and just try it.

CONCENTRATOR FOR LOS CERRILLOS IS CERTAIN

Sunset Mining and Smelting Company Installs Machinery
to Handle Ores and Will Have Plant in Operation Soon

That Los Cerrillos, once one of the best known and most prosperous mining towns in the southwest, is to enjoy resumption of mining activity,
was the news brought to Alberque-que last night by President William F. Staley of the Sunset Mining and Smelting company.

The Sunset company some months ago purchased the old smelter at Cerrillos, and acquired a vast tonnage of high grade ore.

After months of experiments and tests as to the proper treatment required to extract the values a carload
of the ore was shipped to Denver,
where it was absolutely demonstrated that an exceedingly high grade of concentrates could be obtained from the ore at an extremely low cost.

Plans for the mill were at once drawn and the necessary machinery and appliances purchased. Friday the last car of machinery arrived at Los Cerrillos and is being rapidly put in place, and it is expected that the concentrator will be in full operation
within a week or ten days.

The mill is supplied with the very latest appliances for the economical
treating of all kinds of concentrates.

ical labor saving device, thus making it possible to treat the ore at the lowest cost. The plant is located adjacent to some of the best coal mines
in New Mexico thus giving the additional advantage of cheap fuel.

Society

Despondent Contemporaries.—Two hopeles and melancholy souls here, with apply for life membership (though with no hope that we will long remain enrolled) in your gloomy and lugubrious order. Though we realize with others the hopelessness of this society's ever attaining the slightest degree of success, yet we regard the fact with indifference, for after all, what matters it whether the thing succeeds or not. Nothing can ameliorate our dreary condition; everything can augment it. Therefore why trouble at all to forestall the certain failure of any movement in the first direction.

We are not joining this society with any such mistaken purpose, but merely to prove our gloomy conviction that fellowship, even that of pessimists, is a hollow mockery.

We offer the following books as suggestions for the next library, hoping the members will find them excellent light reading on gray days:

1. History of Crime and Insanity, by H. P. Kendall.

2. Theory of Pre-Natal Damnation, by Y. B. Glahn.

3. Alarming Prevalence of Premature Burial, by Ima Korps.

4. Tortures of the Inquisition, by Howitt Hertz.

5. Reflections of an Undertaker, by C. A. Stiff.

6. Confessions of a Ghoul, by X. Hume.

7. Proofs of Inevitable Degeneration, by Y. Nott Steele.

Without hope that the above list will be of any service to you, we are,

K. B. and W. M. E.

CLUBS—LITERARY AND FRIVOLOUS.

The Tuesday club held their semi-monthly meeting at the home of Mrs.

A. B. McMillen the week past. Mrs. Roy McDonald led the discussion on "current events" which is a part of each program. The class study, also a regular feature of the meeting, was conducted by Mrs. Wroth who also had an interesting paper on "The Rise of the Middle Classes." Mrs. Roy Stamm had an entertaining travel talk on "Athens." No "cats." This is added by way of apology for a previous description of purely imaginary refreshments. The Tuesday club confine themselves to the literary and waste no time on culinary delights.

The Monday Card club, which as the name implies, is not literary, and does eat, whatever the hostess may happen to set before them, has re-organized. It's a jolly little two-table card club with weekly sessions at the homes of the members. This year they have disposed of the prize problem very happily. Each player brings a certain sum, small, of course, and the amount added makes a cash prize for the winner, who is to buy whatever she chooses with the proceeds.

Playing for real money adds zest to the game, you know. The re-organization was effected at the Campbell home, Mrs. Benson Newell the hostess. The first sure enough meeting was held Monday with Edith Walker. The members are Mrs. Benson Newell, Mrs. Guy Rogers, Miss Ethel Saint, Miss Edith Walker, Miss Frances Borders, Miss Irene Borders and two new additions, Mrs. John B. Dugger and Mrs. Harry Kelly. Mrs. Kelly will entertain the club tomorrow.

ALL ABOUT OURSELVES.

Truly important affairs of the intellectual, literary and artistic world have been and will be. At the Woman's club Friday, they pulled off a program as unique as it was practically instructive. Mrs. Ray Boruff was tender and her handling of the theme "Ourselves" was graceful, to say the least. It's not the easiest thing in the world to talk truthfully about ourselves. It isn't really easy. I read of some society girls in Washington who organized a "Tell the Truth Club." It lasted one meeting and broke up friendships galore. Each girl told one another exactly what she thought of her. Imagine! Well, anyhow, at the club meeting they didn't attempt anything so startlingly original.

Mrs. Boruff managed it very nicely. It was a discussion of members written in a supposed letter to some one back east by a mythical character here. She wrote a description of prominent members of the club which, at a table Mrs. Boruff filled in the adjectives as given by the crowd assembled throwing them in as they came regardless of where or how they lighted. Very naturally, the letter when read was ludicrous and not calculated to offend the biggest "sore head." Then there was a literary quiz, when different ones gave answers, making a very interesting open discussion. The quiz was as follows:

Of which style of writing are you most fond—essay, biography, history, poetry, novel?

2. Your favorite writer?

3. Your favorite novel?

4. Your favorite poem?

5. Your favorite heroine in fiction?

6. Your favorite hero in fiction?

7. What characteristic do you

most admire in men?

8. What characteristic do you most admire in women?

9. Describe your heroine in real life.

10. Describe your hero in real life.

11. State your idea of bliss.

12. What is your motto in life?

ANNUAL BAZAAR.

As for artistic events to be—there is the annual bazaar of the Woman's club, next Friday afternoon, under direction of the art department. These events are pretty well known to the public and no one needs to be reminded that it will be the place and time to stock up on dainty Christmas gifts. Remember, please, that the bazaar, first announced for December 15, has been set a week ahead, and will be next Friday afternoon, December 8, at the Woman's club. The public is invited for inspection, and may stay to buy, if so inclined. This is the one make-money affair of the year for the Woman's club and the friends of the organization should give liberal patronage, as no doubt they will. Those in charge are Mrs. Felix Bacc and Mrs. Shortle who will preside at the apron and fancy work booth.

Candy booth—Mrs. Tom Wilkerson and Mrs. E. A. Mann.

Refreshments—Mrs. B. Rodger.

Mrs. D. H. Carns, Mrs. McLaughlin and Mrs. Amado Chavez.

Art Department—Mrs. H. B. Ray, Mrs. Fred Kent and Mrs. Wooten.

THIRTY DANCE.

The Thirty club will give one of their jolly dances, Wednesday night, in Odd Fellows' hall.

This will prove especially interesting to the members and their friends as it will be complimentary to Frank Schneider. Mr. Schneider is one of the most popular members of the club and his departure for the Philippines next week is a matter of real regret. Mr. Schneider has accepted a position in the war department office in Manila.

His friends will give him a rousing send off next Wednesday evening.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Isaac Barth and small daughter Iona, returned Thursday night from Topeka, Kas., where they have visited for the past month.

The F. B. Schwenckers reached town late yesterday, having motored from Roswell, where they have visited with Mr. and Mrs. Melville Summers.

Mrs. Summers and baby returned with them and will be the guest of Mrs. Harry Lee until after Christmas.

Mrs. Will Springer is expected home early this week from El Paso, where she visited her sister, Mrs. Ralph Hunt. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt will come later in the month to spend Christmas here.

Miss Edith Sheaf of Herkimer, N. Y., is in the city the guest of Mrs. Alpheus Wahn. Miss Sheaf will remain until after the holidays.

Miss Mabel Meyers of Deming, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Chas. Watlington of 317 N. Fourth.

BENEFIT CONCERT.

Chief among the manifold attractions of Thanksgiving eve, was the benefit concert for the Anthony Cottage sanitarium, at Odd Fellows' hall.

The crowd, not large, made up in enthusiasm what it lacked in numbers, and had a musical treat in the program offered. The music lovers were delighted with each and every number and declared the musicals flawless from start to finish.

Mrs. Himee, who was in charge of the entertainment, delighted the audience with her splendid interpretation of the piano classics and was instantly endorsed. Especially beautiful was her rendering of Liszt's Rhapsodie No. 12, the interpretation being voiced on good authority as perfect.

Mrs. H. V. Winchester was one of the soloists and in fine voice and her singing of "One Fine Day" from Madame Butterfly (Puccini) attracted universal comment for the absolute charm of the rendition.

Mr. Charles Andrews, a favorite in the local musical world, was likewise in good voice and heard to splendid advantage in his numbers.

Bruno Dieckmann and Mrs. Ralph Henderson, each of them violinists of exceptional ability and thorough training, had selections which were alone worth the price of admission, owing to their really professional excellence.

Mrs. Henderson is new to Albuquerque musical circles and her talent is winning her a high place therein. Mr. Dieckmann's career as a musician, his training abroad and appearance in professional concert have been followed with interest by the people of this, his home town, and his frequent appearances in concert here make him playing a treat.

It was certainly so at the concert Wednesday evening when the young musician proved himself an advanced student if not a master of the instrument. Last but not most were the numbers by the Woman's Chorus directed by Mrs. Ray Boruff, who is an experienced director and who demonstrated the fact thoroughly in her work with the chorus.

Each number was enthusiastically received and the directness and each member of the chorus covered themselves with musical glory.

Judge E. A. Mann introduced Dr. Mendel Silver during the intermission, who spoke on the merits of the proposed sanitarium and the benefit it would prove to the community.

CELEBRATING THANKSGIVING.

The Young Woman's Christian association, recently installed in their handsome new home, had a gain Thanksgiving. Though the cafeteria was closed for the day, the house inmates got themselves a real picnic lunch, and in the afternoon had a taffy pull, and music and games to while away the day. Most of the inmates of the association home, are far from home and friends and enjoyed the fun provided. That night a party of them chaperoned by Miss Sage, general secretary of the local association, went to the Alvarado where they had a jolly little dinner party. In this crowd were Mrs. Church and her daughter from Michigan, Miss Mays, musical supervisor of the public schools, Miss Burroughs of Georgia, Miss Hazman of New York, Miss Paulsen of Dakota, Miss Gutshall of Ohio and Miss Sage.

GALA DAY AT Y. W. C. A.

On Friday the enterprising committee of the Y. W. C. A., composed of prominent society girls here, with Miss Erna Ferguson chairman of the committee, took charge of the home and made ready for an afternoon reception, and an evening of justification for the younger crowd.

Miss Ferguson assisted by Misses Mildred Fox, Elizabeth Simms, Alma Baldrige, Kathryn Chaves, Agnes Childers, Mrs. Alpheus Wahn and her guest, Miss Edith Sheaf, of New York, made the interior of the association home blossom forth into a place of beauty. Navajo blankets and pillows provided cozy corners, meeting, conversations and red shaded candles aided in obtaining a really beautiful decorative effect. In the afternoon the board of directors received with Mrs. G. L. Brooks and Dr. Margaret Cartwright at head of the receiving committee.

Mrs. W. G. Childers and Mrs. P. G. Cornish poured the first hour, and Mrs. Felix Lester and Mrs. A. B. McGaffey the second. The entertainment in the evening, consisting of charades and other merry games, provided abundant fun for a gay crowd of young girls. Coffee and sandwiches were served with Mrs. Wahn and Miss Sheaf presiding at the refreshment table.

ANNUAL MEETING.

Tomorrow night at 8 o'clock, the annual meeting of the Y. W. C. A. will occur in the Congregational church. All members, friends and the public at large, interested in Y. W. C. A. work, are cordially invited. Subjoined is the program in the order of rendition:

Organ voluntary ..... Beryl Kenworthy
Devotional exercises ..... Mrs. Jesse Runyan
Introductory remarks ..... Mrs. C. O. Beckman
President's greeting ..... Dr. Margaret Cartwright
Minutes of last annual meeting ..... Mrs. Mattson, recording secretary Religious work ..... Mrs. J. H. Heald Violin solo ..... Olga Selke accompanied by Miss Kenworthy
Treasurer's report ..... Mrs. E. A. Field
Report of chairman of finance ..... Mrs. Kapile
Report of recent financial campaign ..... Mrs. G. L. Brooks
Membership department report ..... Mrs. J. H. Baldrige Home report ..... Mrs. Minnie, chairman house committee
Vocal solo ..... Mrs. Elizabeth Bradford Educational department report ..... Mrs. Roy McDonald
Social department report ..... Mrs. Erna Ferguson Report of general secretary ..... Miss Sage Election of officers will then be held, and also an election of trustees. The nominating committee is composed of last annual meeting—Mrs. J. H. Heald, John Mordy, Felix Lester, Dr. Margaret Cartwright and Miss Sage.

NOT AT ALL BAD.

An interesting item in connection with the recent visit to this city of Julius Rosenwald, the Chicago millionaire, who came to Albuquerque to attend the marriage of his niece, Reina Grunfeld, of Ira Rosenberg of Denver, is one which directly concerns the Y. W. C. A.

Mr. Rosenwald, you know, came into national prominence over a gift of many thousands for the establishment of a Y. W. C. A. for negroes. Being interested in association work he was informed by Mrs. Felix Lester, whom he met socially, of excellent conditions here, of the Y. W. C. A. Either Mrs. Lester, or her enthusiastic description of the work, in which she is actively engaged, probably both, impressed Mr. Rosenwald. On his return to Chicago, the merchant sent a personal check of two hundred dollars to Mrs. Lester to aid in the Y. W. C. A. work. So even the local association is to benefit, materially, by the munificence of the Chicago man.

CHURCH AND CLUB AFFAIRS.

One of the delightful teas, for which the ladies of St. John's Guild are locally noted, occurred Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sam Yahn, and was largely attended by members and friends of the congregation. Red roses made the decorations for the occasion a very notable feature. The home cooking table was in charge of Mrs. Tull, Mrs. Jenks and Mrs. Lowther and the young ladies of St. Margaret's Guild had a hand in the affair.

DESPOUDENT WIFE ENDS TROUBLES WITH POISON

Mrs. Norman P. Gordon, Living at Kelly, Socorro County, Drinks Carbolic Acid; Dies in Two Hours.

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal] Kelly, N. M., Dec. 1.—A very sad death occurred here Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Norman P. Gordon, wife of a well-known resident of this camp and the mother of three bright children, committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid.

The wife swallowed the fatal poison as her husband was leaving the house to go to work. He heard an agonized scream and hastening back to the house found Mrs. Gordon in convulsions. She lapsed into unconsciousness and died within a few hours.

No reason can be given for her rash act other than that she was despondent, having long been in ill health.

The body was prepared for shipment east and accompanied by the husband, was sent to the home of Mrs. Gordon's parents in Indiana.

A sister of the dead woman living at Cerrillos, Santa Fe county, has taken the two youngest children to raise, while the oldest child accompanied the father east and will be reared by his grandparents.

January work booth which attracted liberal patronage. Mrs. Brooks poured and was assisted in serving by several of the young girls.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U., postponed from Tuesday to Friday, that Mrs. S. K. Nutter of Clovis, state president, might be present, was an enjoyable social session in her honor. The gathering was at the home of Mrs. Pitt Ross and a good crowd was out to greet Mrs. Nutter who has just returned from Milwaukee, where she attended the national convention of the W. C. T. U. She gave a very interesting account of the convention which was unusually successful this year. Following Mrs. Nutter's talk was an informal social hour, when refreshments were served and a general good time enjoyed by all present.

The youngsters of Miss Phillips' kindergarten class, gave a Thanksgiving entertainment in Guild hall, Thursday morning, which attracted admiring parents and friends in goodly number.

With recitations and songs apropos to the day, the wee tots acquitted themselves famously, and each effort was greeted with rounds of applause. Miss Phoebe had charge of the musical program and to her efforts much of the success of the juvenile entertainment was due.

The ladies of the Central Baptist church have a series of Saturday afternoon and evening bazaars under way to last until after Christmas. The place of display, for the home cooking and fancy work, will be the Daily grocery in the Highlands, and the funds, derived from the sales, will be applied on the church building fund being raised.

PIANO RECITAL

Miss Marion Moriarity had a parlor piano recital at her home, 211 North High street, last Friday afternoon. Six of Moriarity's "star" pupils rendered a delightful program.

The difficult classics attempted, and so well interpreted, reflected credit on instructor and pupils alike.

The program in the order of rendition was as follows:

- (a) Beethoven, Tchaikovsky
- (b) Invitation to a Dance, Weber
- (c) Song Without Words, Mendelssohn
- (d) Second Mazurka, Godard
- (e) Butterfly, Merkel
- (f) Marie's Hopping, Thorne
- (g) Valse in Octaves, Concione
- (h) Lillian Gustafson, Chaminade
- (i) Ethel McCleskey, Fifth Nocturne, Leybach
- (j) Katherine Abel, Fruhlingsregen, Fink
- (k) Beatrice Hill, Caprice, Lask
- (l) Polonaise Brillante, Merkel
- (m) Lillian Gustafson, Grunfeld
- (n) Ethel McCleskey, Chopin
- (o) D Flat Valse, Chopin
- (p) Rondo Capriccioso, Mendelssohn
- (q) Helen Goetz.

OTHER EVENTS

Mrs. Frank Boyer entertained Tuesday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. Grout of Los Angeles, who is visiting in this city. Needlework and luncheon passed a pleasant afternoon for the invited who were as follows:

Mrs. Grout, Holcomb, Strother, Bartley, Ewing, Payton, McQuade, Harry Brandt, Roy Hall, Woods, Misses Hulda Wolkling, Vann and Lindsey.

The friends of Clarence Rogers are intensely interested in the news of his approaching marriage to an Oakland, Cal., girl, Emily Mitchell by name. Mr. Rogers is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rogers of this city and is an Albuquerque product born and raised. He has uncounted friends, who will be glad to know of the contemplated wedding which will be around Christmas time. Mr. Rogers is an electrical engineer in Oakland, where he and his bride will reside.

The wedding of Miss Anna M. Brown and Robert Kistler, while not at all unanticipated, was none the less interesting to their friends. They were married at the new home, a cozy cottage on West 10th, the house being a gift from Mr. Kistler to his bride. Only a few intimate friends of the young couple saw the deed done, though the ceremony was quite a pretty one and performed by Rev. C. O. Becklund. It was a Thanksgiving eve wedding and the dinner following was Thanksgiving in menu as well as nuptial in the elaborate decorations.

Origin of Lace Making.

A romantic legend is still current among the peasants of Europe concerning the origin of lace. As the story goes, a lover who could offer his betrothed no costly gift, one day brought her a leaf which he had plucked in the forest.

She accepted it as a true token of love and preserved it with care. In time the lover went away—to the wars perhaps—and never returned. The maiden prized the leaf then as a sacred treasure, and when she found only the delicate veining left of her keepsake she took needle and thread and tried to copy the fairy-like web. And thus was made the first bit of real lace.—Craftsman.

LAS CRUCES WILL SPEND $75,000 FOR IMPROVEMENTS

Forty Thousand Dollars to Go for New Water System and Thirty-Five Thousand for City Sewage.

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal] Las Cruces, N. M., Dec. 2.—Work has begun on municipal improvements in Las Cruces which will cost $75,000, bonds for which were voted recently. Of this amount the sum of $40,000 will be spent for a new city water supply, and the remaining $35,000 for a sewerage system. The city has already been surveyed for the latter improvement.

Test wells will be drilled on the mesa east of town to determine the flow of water available and if this proves sufficient two large wells will be drilled and a concrete reservoir built high enough above the city to insure adequate pressure. Artesian water is expected to be struck in sufficient quantity to furnish an inexhaustible supply. The mesa water is far superior to that in the valley. The present water system is furnished by means of pumps which turn the water directly into the mains, furnishing very little pressure in case of fire. The mesa system will remedy this drawback.

Because of the level nature of the city a septic tank will be a part of the new sewer system, to furnish a means of disposal. This will do away with a pumping system which would have been necessary under the original plan, which was for a gravity system. The new mains will connect with the business section of the city and the main residence district. In addition to making the sewerage disposal much more adequate than at present, the new system will greatly improve the health conditions of the city. This is the greatest step forward Las Cruces has ever made in civic improvements.

Aggies Undisputed Champions.

The football championship of New Mexico and the southwest was won this year by the eleven representing the New Mexico College of Agriculture and Mechanical Arts. The college clinched this honor on Thanksgiving day by its decisive defeat of the New Mexico Military Institute team on the latter's own field by the score of 36 to 0. In 1902-4-5 the Agriculture college was the star football eleven of New Mexico, but in 1906 this institution's eleven lost the title. This year, however, every team in New Mexico has met defeat but the Aggies. Only once were they scored on during the season and that was when the New Mexico university played here, the score being 10 to 6 in favor of the Farmers. The record made is one to be proud of and reflects great credit on every member of the team and on Coach Badenoch.

ATTENTION, ELKS!

Today, Sunday 3rd, Albuquerque Lodge, No. 461, B. P. O. E., will hold its annual Memorial Service in honor of its departed members.

All members of the lodge and visiting brothers, will meet in the lodge room, promptly at 2 o'clock this afternoon, whence they will march in a body to the services in the Elks' opera house.

Full regalia of silk hats and frock coats will be worn wherever possible, but every brother is expected to attend.

By order of the Exalted Ruler, ROY A. STAMM, FRANK STORTZ, Secretary.

J. P. VAN HOUTEN SERIOUSLY HURT IN ACCIDENT

Prominent and Wealthy Sheep Raiser and Ranchman of Colfax County Has Skull Fractured.

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal] Sheehamer, N. M., Dec. 1.—J. P. Van Houten, one of the best-known sheep raisers in New Mexico and a wealthy ranchman residing near here, was the victim of a serious accident a few days ago that will confine him to his bed for some time.

Mr. Van Houten had started to drive to town and in passing through a gate on his ranch, one of the wheels of the buggy struck a post, smashing the wheel. The buggy tipped forward and the horses bolted. Mr. Van Houten being thrown from the rig, landing headfirst on a pile of rocks. He suffered a fracture of the skull.

The runaway team returned to the ranch, and Morris Van Houten, the injured man's son, immediately started out to look for his father, realizing something had happened to him. He found his parent wandering aimlessly about near the scene of the accident in a dazed condition.

Placing him in a buggy he returned to the ranch. Drs. Tipton of Watrous and Northwood of Wagon Mound were summoned by telephone and on their arrival they resorted to tinct's life, which at first was despondent's life, which at first was despondent's life.

NOW FOR

Christmas!

We are ready with the finest and largest offering in things suitable for gifts we have ever made

Do you realize that it is just three weeks to Christmas; that you will have a shorter time for shopping than ever before? This comes because Thanksgiving was a week later than usual, and people do not usually begin to think about Christmas until after that event.

We want you to come to our shop this week, tomorrow. You will not be disappointed in any way with our showing, because it is thoroughly complete.

We do not want to go into detail and describe the many new things, but we do want you to come and see them for yourself; then you will fully realize their durability. There are two important results obtained from early Christmas shopping.

FIRST--You serve your own interests much better; there's a greater variety to choose from; the goods are fresher and there is less crowding than later on.

SECONDLY--You can do a world of good to sales people in lightening their labors by shopping early and have much more comfort and attention for yourself. Thus we shall all be gainers. Please try the plan this year. Begin tomorrow.

Pe-ru-ma Relieves Chronic Case.
Mr. John O. Atkinson, 1359 N. Emporia Ave., Wichita, Kas., writes of his wife's case: "My wife had been suffering from a complication of diseases for the past twenty-five years. Her case had baffled the skill of some of the most noted physicians. One of her worst troubles was chronic constipation of several years' standing.

"I wrote to you about her case. You prescribed a course of Pe-ru-ma and Santonin, which we at once commenced, and have to say it completely cured her. She firmly believes that she would have been dead only for these wonderful remedies."

Mrs. Martha Avery, 28 Graham

"Four years ago I had nervous prostration. I employed several doctors. One would say I had catarrh of the stomnervousness and another enlargement of the liver. My stomach was in a bad shape. There was nothing which seemed to do me much good."

Defenseless British Labor

It is indisputable that the wages of this country are kept at their present
low level by the national policy which admits products of labor from any competitive source, under whatever conditions they may be manufactured,
to the detriment of British labor as a whole, and of the wage bill in particular.

Circumstances are rapidly forcing us to admit that labor throughout the world is improving its position, while labor in this country is actually worse off in many cases than it was twenty years ago, and, be it said to their honor, even free traders like Mr. Chloz-Money, M. P., have confessed in this time of national stress that British real wages have been stationary or falling, while at the same time the cost of food has risen by something like 15 percent. Those who have taken part in the fiscal campaign of the last seven years will readily admit that the two arguments advanced against the reform of the tariff which really impressed public opinion were first, that free trade alone could keep food cheap; and second, that wages of our highly protected industrial rival, Germany, were lower than in this country. Yet we find, in the first case, that food of every description in the United Kingdom is rising in price so rapidly that the margin of living for the working classes is enormously reduced, while it is an acknowledged fact by leading free traders that German wages are rising more quickly than British wages.

This then—the defenseless position of British labor—is the cancer which is eating into the heart of the British body, for the whole system of endowing to protect labor while admitting without restriction the products of labor from overseas is assuredly working the ruin which must be the in-

ROBBERS IN MOTOR CAR COMMIT MURDER

Attempted Hold-Up in Chicago Residence Section Results in Killing of Woman; Highway-men Escape.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire]
Chicago, Dec. 2.—Mrs. Edith Kaufman was shot and killed here tonight by robbers, who dismounting
from an automobile, attempted to hold up the young woman and her husband. Mr. Kaufman showed resistance and one of the robbers opened fire upon him. The bullets struck Mrs. Kaufman, however, and she was instantly killed. The assailants escaped in their automobile.

Mrs. Kaufman and her husband were returning after attending the opera and were directly in front of their home at 421 Roscoe street when the automobile came up behind them
and stopped at the curb.

Three men were in the machine,
and two of them got out. One commanded the Kaufmans to hold up their hands. Mrs. Kaufman, frightened, stepped back and her husband moved toward the robbers to protect her. Fearing an armed resistance because Mr. Kaufman moved his hand toward his pocket, one robber fired twice.

Mrs. Kaufman fell to the walk and the two men jumped back into the automobile and escaped.

Kaufman is a wealthy commission merchant. His wife wore valuable jewelry and it is the husband's idea that the robbers sought this.

Mrs. Kaufman, who was 31 years old, was shot in the right temple.

Police learned that the three men had with them a chauffeur. The husband said that when his wife stepped back and screamed he advanced toward the men and offered them his money if they would not frighten his wife. She ran to him and it was then the robbers fled.

It developed from stories of pedestrians that one of the men knocked Kaufman down, but the merchant
so wrought up he said he could not recall that incident.

Three armed men, two hours later,
shot and killed John Jakobson, 29
years old, when he and a companion resisted an attempt at robbery. The shooting occurred near the stockyards on the South side.

Three suspects, called by the police
"footworkers," were taken into custody later. The police said the prisoners had nothing to do with the avoidable result of that policy if allowed to continue.—London Standard.

TRAGEDY OF BAD HEALTH

One of the most tragic things in life is the failure of health. The breadwinner of the family overtaxes
his strength, the mother wears herself completely out with the never-ending round of home duties, or the son or daughter works too hard in school and the result is wreck of health and happiness.

We consider ourselves very fortunate in having a remedy that we can recommend in absolute confidence to all whose health is failing, young or old, and we freely give back the money if this remedy does not please.
It is Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic. Probably you have heard of the good it has done some of our neighbors. We sell a great deal of it and it certainly does make weak, pale, worn-out people strong and well again. J. H. O'Reilly Co., druggists, Albuquerque, N. M.

TWO FINE SHOWS
AT ELKS THEATER
THIS WEEK

Grace Van Studdiford in "The Paradise of Mahomet," Comes Thursday, and the "Red Rose" Saturday.

Albuquerque theater-goers will this week be treated to two of the finest attractions ever seen in the southwest in the appearance here of Grace Van Studdiford on Thursday night in
"The Paradise of Mahomet" and "The Red Rose," on Saturday night, with Zoe Barnett in the stellar role. Both attractions are big musical comedies,
in which magnificent scenic effects, pretty chorus girls and dazzling costumes are combined in excellent advantage.

Grace Van Studdiford.

The "Paradise of Mahomet" is expected to be the musical and society
event of the present theatrical season.
Apparently, the lapse of several years
since Miss Van Studdiford thrilled theater-goers by her splendid singing in "Red Feather" has only tended to endear her the more to them. No other American singer possesses a more attractive personality or a greater vocal accomplishment than Miss Van Studdiford. It is said that her voice has gained marvellously in strength during the past few years,
but not at the loss of its purity and beauty, as is so often the case when prima donnas strive for greater power. "The Paradise of Mahomet" will be produced here just as it was at the Herald Square Theater in New York
last season.

"The Red Rose."

Zoe Barnett plays the leading role,
that of Lola, an artist's model, in the musical comedy, "The Red Rose."

She is in love with a student who has painted a picture of her and called it
"The Red Rose" whence the title of the comedy. A bankrupt baron, whose better fortune depends upon his finding a long-lost daughter to inherit an estate, thinks Lola will do well enough for the role, convinces
her that she is in fact his daughter, and plans her marriage to his most important creditor. Subsequently the baron learns that Lola is actually his daughter—and around that circumstance revolve most of the complications. There are two Americans prominent among the persons of the play. They are rivals in the world's rubber production, each striving to form a trust that will crush the other.
But they decide to "amalgamate,"
and the scheme calls for the marriage of the daughter of one to the son of the other. But the son happens to be the student who loves Lola—
first as artist's model, later as baron's daughter, later still as artist's model
once more, and finally as the real daughter of the baron. He loves her whoever she happens for the moment to appear to be. And the daughter of the other rubber magnate is in love with a person of the type usually depicted on the American stage as "all that is English." Enough of the plot. Let us mention the student he loves. The monied person marries the daughter of the second rubber magnate—everything is straightened out, and only the villains
are moderately unhappy.

The costumes are interesting to see.
The chorus people sing well together
whenever they are equipped with songs set to music, and there are two or three bits of music that may be remembered through the season. The songs that make the strongest bid for popularity are: "Come Along Ma-cherry," "Men, Men," and "The Queen of Vanity Fair." The last named song is musical in its lines and rhythmic in musical composition.

sufficient about the house in case some one else in the family may suffer from stomach trouble or indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on these 30-cent cases, then you will understand why Dyspeptic trouble of all kinds must go, and why Diapiesin always relieves sour, out-of-order stomach or indigestion in five minutes. Diapiesin is harmless and tastes like candy, though each dose contains power sufficient to digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite;
but, what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for Bloating or Constipation.

This city will have many Diapiesin
cranks, as some people will call them,
but you will be cranky about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever try a little for Indigestion or Gastritis or any other Stomach misery.

Get some Pape's Diapiesin now.
This minute, and forever rid yourself
of Stomach Trouble and Indigestion.

OKLAHOMA POSSE BATTLES WITH NEGROES

Murder of White Man By Two Blacks During Robbery Results in Shooting of Bandits Yesterday.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire]
Tulsa, Okla., Dec. 3.—Bud Walker, a negro, who earlier in the night was fatally wounded in a battle with posse of citizens near the town of Manford, after Walker, with another negro had held up and robbed three residents of Manford, was taken from a deputy sheriff at the jail at 1:30 o'clock this morning, hanged to a tree and his body riddled with bullets.
The body was then dragged through the streets to the edge of the town and left to await disposition by the coroner. A telephone message from Manford gave these details.

KILLING ATTENDED

HOLD-UP BY NEGROES
Manford, Okla., Dec. 2.—One white man was killed, another was wounded, one negro is believed to be mortally wounded and another negro is reported dead, the result of a battle
tonight in a cornfield near Manford, between two negroes, who earlier in the evening held up and robbed three residents of Manford. It is expected an effort will be made to lynch
the wounded negro before morning.

Fred Evans, a member of the posse
was instantly killed; Holly Johnson was wounded; "Buck" James, one of the bandits was shot through the breast and his brother, Robert James,
he declares is dead in the cornfield
where the fight occurred.

Immediately after holding up the three men the negroes fled, but several hours later were surrounded by a posse of farmers about one hundred in number.

Fixed Charges of the Primaries

A Baltimore newspaper, which, believing a Republican organ, may conceivably have no reason to minimize the cost of a democratic function, tells us that one of the candidates confesses to spending $25,000, while his antagonist, evidently more bashful pleads guilty to "about" $7,500. This discrepancy may be explained to some extent by showing that the $7,500
man already had the "organization"
under control and that the $25,000
in excess of this sum expended by his opponent represented the cost of creating and equipping the indispensable machinery.

The disclosure, however, seems to confirm certain screams of anguish
we heard from Virginia last June,
when candidates were calling heaven to witness that it cost them from $5,000 to $10,000 each to get themselves before the people. Moreover it throws a whole flood of light on the thoughtful frugality of Hoke Smith
two months later in Georgia when having a perfectly trained legislature
at his disposal, he ignored the means by which he had obtained the governorship and took the senatorial toga
by the simple and inexpensive expedient of asking for it at the capitol.

But we think it quite within reason to assume that a contest for the honors of representation, even with the strictest economy will cost the individual at least $5,000 to begin with and a contest for the senate at least $10,000, and the race for govern-

minor offices more or less, according to local conditions and the voted indifference of the working men. These we should be fixed charges of the primary,
though they may be and in all probability are absurdly misleading; since the primary system gets grounded in usage and popularity and all hope of such Smith evasions as we have described are cut off, the tariff readily rises until even politicians apparently moderate men will shudder and the bosses attain presidential rank.—New York Sun.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

C. C. Clarke, one of the prominent dentists of New Mexico, came

ROOSEVELT NOT IN IT WITH LA FOLLETTE

Minneapolis, Dec. 2.—The name of Theodore Roosevelt no longer is one to conjure with in North Dakota, according to Senator A. J. Cronin of that state who is here on his way to Washington.

The presidential boom for LaFollette has swept the state. "Roosevelt is popular in Dakota," he said, "but it is now to swing the state to LaFollette, even for Roosevelt. I have noticed in the number of democrats who acknowledge that state who is here on his way to Washington."

No salesmen needed—

Here's one article that's good enough to be its own best salesman. If you'll cover up your buildings with Peerless Prepared Roofing, you'll yourself tell Brown, Smith, Robinson and the rest of how little it cost in the first place compared to other roofs you used—how easy it was to lay and how, from the day you put it on, right up to the minute you're telling about it, you've had to spend one red cent in repairs. That's what we mean when we say, "No salesmen needed." Users tell Peerless Prepared Roofing because it recommends itself.

Peerless Roofing

You can't go wrong when you see the Peerless mark on a roll of roofing. There's a double guarantee, the manufacturer's and our own, on every roll that leaves our door. If you buy Peerless Roofing, you're purchasing years of wear and double freedom from repair expense. The minute you feel as if you're getting money's worth, say so and we give you your money back in a

Come in and ask us why you should use Peerless Roofing. We'll show you.

Where to Worship Today

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
(Cor. Broadway and Coal Ave.)
(East End Viaduct.)
Raymond B. Tolbert, Minister.
Mrs. Winchester, Soloist.

It is with pleasure that we present programs of our two services for Sunday, Dec. 3rd.

The morning service will give opportunity to present a sermon on "The Man on the Horizon and His Inherent Greatness." A message from the "Prince of Prophets."

A modern study of religion in practical contact with this age.

Our vesper hour will give delight and uplift to a large audience if the weather be favorable.

Last Sunday in spite of the terrific dust storm about a hundred friends repaid for the special effort in conducting such a storm.

For Sunday at four o'clock we have seven special numbers of music and organ renditions that are sure to interest a large audience.

The devotional address will deal with one of the most burning topics of the day. The question of the modern boy will be presented and two real life events will intensify the minister's convictions on this great theme.

As a citizen, a father or mother, this question is bound to come close to your life as it is to be presented in the theme.

"The Boy, His Inherent Power For Evil or Good."

All friends from the churches of the city are most cordially welcome to these services—and a double welcome is extended to the strangers.

Following will be the musical numbers:

Morning.
Organ prelude, "Last Spring."
Grieg.
Solo, (selected).
Mrs. R. V. Winchester.

Offertory, "Offertoire in E flat," Dubois.
Postlude, "March Militaire," Shelley.

Vespers.
Organ prelude, "In The Twilight." Harker.
Ballet, "Anniversary Hymn," Longacre.

Mimes, Sturdevant, Cartwright, Messrs. Sewell, Weber.
Solo, "Eye Hath Not Seen,"
Robert T. Sewell.

Offertory, "Meditation," Solo, "Forever With The Lord," Gounod.

Miss Rose Harsch.
Anthem, "The Earth Is The Lord's," Simper.

University Glee Club.
Miss Erythides, Director.
Postlude, "March in E flat," Regatta.

Christian Science services are held in the Woman's club building, corner Gold Ave. and Seventh street, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, subject, "Gog The Only Cause And Creator."

Wednesday evening service at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend these services. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.
Corner Lead and South Third.
Charles Oscar Beckman, Pastor.
Miss Edith Gorbey, Deaconess.

The services at this church are preaching by the pastor at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Morning subject being, "God's Wonders in the Deep." The evening subject is "Utopia." The Sunday school session under the leadership of D. A. Porterfield at 9:45 a. m. invites you to attend. The Junior League meets at 5 p. m. There will be special music by the choir at the morning worship and a solo by Miss Margaret Franklin in the evening worship. Strangers will find a welcome here.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.
Jesse J. Runyan, Pastor.
Corner Lead Avenue and Broadway.
The Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Prof. Drake, superintendent.

The officers of the school extend a cordial welcome to all to attend the Bible classes.

At the morning service the ordinance of Communion will be observed. The pastor will give a communion meditation on, "The Test of Discipleship."

There will be baptism at the evening service. "The Deedfulness of Sin" is the subject of the sermon. The pastor will preach and a few others will speak. Congregational singing will be a feature of this service.

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH.
Rev. A. E. Aulick, Pastor.
Meets at A. O. U. W. hall, No. 317 1/2 S. Second street, Sunday school at 9:45. The Sunday school is growing in numbers and interest daily. Try and attend this service. The pastor will take for his subject at 11 a. m., "Your Church Membership."

The pastor will not take up the series of sermons, "The Seven Churches of Asia," as was announced owing to the arrival of Dr. Wolf, who comes in the latter part of December or the first of January, to conduct a series of revivals in the city. With this in view, the pastor thinks best to postpone these series of sermons until Dr. Wolf's meeting are concluded.

The mid-week prayer meeting will be at the home of Mrs. W. H. Gallier, Wednesday evening at 7:30; Rev. Horace Strong will lead the meeting.

The public is invited to attend

TWO MEN KILLED IN EXPLOSION AT MOGOLLON

While Firing Shots in Little Fanny Mine, One of Charges Hung Fire and Went Off When Men Re-Entered.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal)

Silver City, N. M., Dec. 2.—News has been received here of a terrible accident in the Little Fanny mine in the Mogollon, in which two men were killed outright and five injured, two of them probably fatally while firing shots one of them hung fire and the men, thinking all had been shot, descended the shaft and entered the tunnel. Just as they reached it, the report says, the delayed shot exploded with terrific force, killing and maiming as stated. The wounded men were hoisted out of the shaft and hurried to the hospital. One of the men is reported to have lost an arm and another an eye. Full particulars of the catastrophe have not been received here nor can the names of the killed and injured be learned.

Albert Mine.
At the Albert mine contractors are driving drift on the vein in the Independence, Jr., which will be extended fifty feet.

Deadwood Mines.
The mine crew is drilling north and south on the foot-level level and south on the 300-foot level, advancing the work seventy-five feet during the week. In addition to their own the mill is handling considerable custom ore.

The Oakes Company.
The Pacific tunnel was advanced thirty feet during the week and the north and south drifts at the bottom of the 100-foot shaft were driven twelve feet. The ore taken from this level is being treated in the Deadwood mill. Regular work continues in the main drifts and transportation tunnel. One carload of parts for the De La Vergne engine is now enroute to the mine and several carloads more of the machinery have been shipped from the factory for the new power plant. The mill will continue its regular shipments of bullion and concentrates.

Humphreys' Seventy-Seven Breaks up Grip and Colds

Cold Feet.
If you have cold feet, it shows a lack of circulation and a predisposition to take cold.

If you will take "Seventy-seven" at the first feeling of a cold—insult, a chill, a sneeze, a shiver, or scurvy throat—before the influenza or the cough sets in—it will start the blood coursing through your veins and break up the cold.

If the cold is neglected, "Seventy-seven" is still the best thing but takes longer.

THANKSGIVING over, now we turn our attention to Christmas and the gift choosing. The few short days between Thanksgiving and Christmas pass quickly. Don't put off your choosing until the last few days.

Change the plan this year—shop early; you will get better service, better goods, and both the salespeople and yourself will be happier and better for it.

In choosing gifts for your friends, does not your good judgment suggest something useful as well as ornamental, something the recipient can keep and enjoy through the coming years—something which will recall the friendship which prompted its giving, and a certain pleasant Christmas "long ago"?

We have many beautiful things in our store suitable for just such gifts. We urge you to come early and make your selections while the stock is new and the assortment varied. We will offer suggestions from day to day in our advertisements which we trust will be helpful to you in making your Christmas selections.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

Wall Street.

New York, Dec. 2.—At the end of a week of bear selling and heavy trading the character of trading changed and stocks rose. The demand was proportionately larger and stocks were not in plentiful supply, with the result that there were gains of one to two points among the leading issues.

Several factors, such as favorable trade reviews, an optimistic statement by the head of one of the steel corporations, the largest rivals, and a sharp rise in gold securities helped to bring about cheerful speculative sentiment. It is probable, however, that technical market conditions were largely responsible for the rise.

The rise in the Wabash securities was thought to be in anticipation of development next week in connection with the reorganization plan of Wabash Pittsburg terminal under which it is expected that possession of the Wabash will be strengthened. The 4 per cent bonds at one time showed a gain of nearly 4 points and the preferred of 2 points.

The Southern Pacific for October, showing a gain in net earnings of $52,000, was a factor in strengthening the stocks of the western roads. For some months earnings of Northern Pacific, like those of other large northwestern roads, have not made favorable exhibits. Louisville and Nashville reported a gain in net earnings of nearly $250,000 and M. K. & T. a decrease of nearly $100,000.

Unexpected large changes were discussed in bank statements. The loss of cash far exceeded preliminary estimates. This charge, as well as the falling off of nearly $50,000,000 in net deposits and the $25,000,000 loan decrease, probably was due primarily to the shifting of accounts in connection with December 1 in interest and dividend payments. ## PRACTICAL JOKERS ARRESTED FOR HOMICIDE

New York Realty Dealer is Charged With Causing Death of Girl; Five Others Accused of Being Accessories.

[The Morning Journal Special Local Wire.] New York, Dec. 2.—Six men were arrested tonight for complicity in the death of Alice Friedman, who died from carbolic acid poisoning last Sunday night.

Thomas J. Totten, a real estate dealer, was charged with homicide, and those charged with being accessories are John J. McCarthy, a poet, D. C.

lice lieutenant, D. Arcey Toward Gallagher, Joseph E. and William Tappe.

It was first supposed that Friedman committed suicide. Coroner Shorritt started an inquest on the theory he was that she was the victim of a joke and did not know that taking poison, Thomas J. Totten released on bail of $5,000 a other prisoners were released of $2,000.

ZIMMERMAN FAILS TO MAKE GOOD ON SURVEY

County Commissioners Decide to Notify His Surety; Asks for More Time to Finish the Work.

Because of the failure of John L. Zimmerman, the Las Vegas civil engineer, to complete his contract entered into with the commissioners of Bernalillo county, in November, 1910, for the survey and platting of the county, the board yesterday decided to at once notify Mr. Zimmerman's surety, the United States Fidelity and Guaranty company, of his default on the contract. This action of the board was taken despite an appeal from the engineer for an extension of time and an advance payment on his contract. The board acted largely on the advice of County Surveyor A. D. Ogilvie. Zimmerman's excuse for failure to live up to his contract was lack of funds with which to pursue the work to a successful conclusion. The board took formal action in the matter when it adopted a resolution offered by Commissioner M. R. Springer. The resolution was introduced after the communications of both Mr. Zimmerman and County Surveyor Ogilvie had been placed before the board, duly considered and entered of record. Engineer Zimmerman's surety is for $14,000 and is gilded.

The action on the county survey was the most important matter brought to the attention of the commissioners at the meeting yesterday, although other business was transacted.

County Superintendent A. B. Stroup presented a claim for $9.63, as expense contracted in attending the recent meeting of the New Mexico Teachers' association. The claim was disallowed.

It was stated in the meeting that Mr. Stroup had been advised before the meeting in a circular letter sent out by Territorial Superintendent Clark to the effect that no part of the general school funds were available as expense money to superintendents wishing to attend the meeting.

A claim of Road Overseer Bryant for $25 for office rent was also disallowed.

Jose Dominguez made application to be granted a license to open a saloon in the village of Tijeras. An affidavit was presented from John Merdy, and Orlando Sanchez to the effect that the Tijeras village did not contain 100 inhabitants and the license was refused.

An appropriation of not more than $250 was ordered to be used in working and improving the public road known as the Williams street road, and the work was ordered done under the supervision of F. J. Wilson.

Warrants to cover the regular current accounts were ordered drawn, and the reports of the county treasurer for the months of September and October were ordered entered of record.

This business having been completed, the matter of the survey of the county was taken up. A communication from County Surveyor Ogilvie, to the effect that J. L. Zimmerman had suspended operations on the survey of the county, except platting and could not possibly finish the work by December 31, as provided by the contract.

Mr. Ogilvie advised that the surety of Mr. Zimmerman was notified of his default. This letter was immediately spread upon the minutes of the meeting.

The following communication from Mr. Zimmerman was then read to the board:

Letter From J. L. Zimmerman, E. Las Vegas, N. M., Nov. 28, 1911. Hon. Alfred Grunfeld, Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners of Bernalillo county, Albuquerque, N. M.

Dear Sir: I beg to report that on August 1, 1911, I was obliged to suspend the work, temporarily, of surveying the county of Bernalillo as provided for under the terms of the contract between your honorable board of county commissioners and myself.

At that time I had completed the field work of the Rio Grande valley, with the exception of a small portion of the blanches de Arisco, and of the town of Arisco on the west side of the river. The work of surveying the subdivisions of these two fractional townships is yet to be performed, together with the tie line thereon.

I have procured from the United States surveyor general copies of all government surveys and plats together with the field notes of all lands held in private ownership, including grants and small holding claims on all lands within the county, except those within the Rio Grande valley, according to the terms of the contract between your honorable board and myself.

The small holding claims at Chilli are not yet completed.

The general county map will be made after all the details of the interior lines have been arrived at.

About three-fourths of the field work has been completed together with the detail plats of the valley lands.

To complete the whole work as provided in my contract will require at least three months more time, provided the weather be good, and if it be had a correspondingly increased time.

I was compelled to suspend this work on account of the exhaustion of my funds.

I had expended, up to that time, $13,000.00 on this work. I had completed arrangements for the disposal of certain of my property for the purpose of raising sufficient funds to defray my expenses in completing the survey. The party to whom I had arranged to sell this property has failed to fulfill the terms of the contract, and consequently, I have been without funds with which to prosecute this work.

I had hoped to remedy the default of the party who contracted with me to purchase this property, by selling it to someone else or by making other arrangements, but notwithstanding my most diligent efforts, I have not been able to accomplish the desired results. There has been almost a complete cessation of movement of lands in this part of the territory within the past few months.

I have left no stone unturned in my efforts to provide ways and means

As stated heretofore I have already invested $1,500 of my own funds in procuring this work.

In view of the fact that I have expended so much of my own money and directed all my efforts towards this work for a considerable period of time without any return or income during the said time, I respectfully beg of you to consider the proposition as to whether it is not possible for you to make me an advance, of thirty-three and one-third percent of the amount of compensation due me under the terms of the contract. This leaves you with a wide margin of safety and will enable me to prosecute and complete the contract without any further delay occasioned by my embarrassment in the matter of providing funds necessary to complete the work.

I respectfully submit that such a procedure would be eminently just and proper and is the one almost invariably followed in connection with contracts of this nature.

The disposition of this money could be, by you, surrounded with such safe-guards, that you may be assured of its application and use in the completion of the work specified in my contract.

Furthermore, such an advance would be fully protected by the bond which I have filed conditioned upon the faithful performance of the terms of the contract.

I am extremely anxious to complete this work.

Under these circumstances I am compelled to ask the kind indulgence of yourself and your honorable board in the premises and in addition to the advance of compensation pray that I be granted additional time, to March 31, 1912, to complete the work.

I sincerely trust that you can consistently grant these requests and save myself and surety a very serious loss while at the same time insuring an early completion of the work.

At the same time, I am exceedingly anxious to make good on my contract, and by a completion of the work and the character thereof retain your valued respect and good will and that of the citizens of Bernalillo county whom you represent.

With great respect I await your commands in the matter.

Yours very respectfully,

JOHN L. ZIMMERMAN, C. E.

Resolutions Adopted by Board.

Commissioner Springer then offered the following resolution which was seconded by Commissioner Arrijo, and adopted:

Whereas, it appears by a communication from A. D. Ogilvie, county surveyor of the county of Bernalillo, New Mexico, dated November 28, 1911, that John L. Zimmerman, who was awarded the contract for the survey and platting of all lands held in private ownership in the county of Bernalillo, New Mexico, and which said contract was entered into by said Zimmerman and the board of county commissioners of the county of Bernalillo on the 23rd day of November, A. D. 1910, has practically suspended the work required by said contract and agreed to be performed by said Zimmerman, and

Whereas, it appears that said Zimmerman will be unable to fulfill, complete and perform the said contract by the 31st day of December, A. D. 1911; and

Whereas, it further appears that said Zimmerman gave a surety bond signed by the United States Fidelity and Guaranty company, whose home office is in Baltimore, Md., said bond being in the penalty of $14,000; now

Resolved, be it resolved by the board of county commissioners of the county of Bernalillo in special session assembled, that the said surety, to wit, the United States Fidelity and Guaranty company, be notified at once in writing of the default of the said John L. Zimmerman in keeping, fulfilling and performing the terms, covenants and conditions of the said contract, and be it further

Resolved, that the principal fact set forth in the statement of A. D. Ogilvie, county surveyor of the county of Bernalillo, and filed with this board the 2nd day of December, A. D. 1911, be certified with the proceedings herein.

The board adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

STUDENTS DANCE AT ODD FELLOWS HALL

An enthusiastic crowd of High school students reinforced by a large delegation of students from the University enjoyed a delightful dance last night at the Odd Fellows hall. The dance was given in honor of the close of the football season at the High school and the university, and the gridiron heroes of both institutions were hand to take part in the general good time.

Professor and Mrs. Milne were the official chaperons, enjoying themselves as much as the younger members of the crowd. Punch was served and the hours slipped quickly away to the tune of strains of the music.

Transport Buffalo Sails on 18th. Washington, Dec. 2.—The navy transport Buffalo will leave San Francisco about December 15, laden with men and stores for the Asiatic fleet, now looking after the interests of Americans in China.

It was also said the supply ship Glacier, would sail for Honolulu from San Francisco about December 15, with provisions for the Pacific fleet now engaged in joint maneuvers with the troops stationed there.

Dr. Hyde's Case Drags. Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 2.—Interest in the trial of Dr. B. C. Hyde for the alleged murder of Colonel Thomas H. Swope, lagged today, owing to the entire session being given over to the reading of nurses' charts and the questioning of Mrs. J. K. Baumann on the entire thereupon. No new feature of any importance was developed.

The Peevish Child Needs a Laxative

It is natural for a child to laugh and play and when it sulks drowsily or cries you may depend on it something physical is the matter. If you see no evidences of a serious ailment you will not be wrong if you quietly give it a dose of mild laxative that evening on putting it to bed.

The remedy most generally recommended for this purpose is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which mothers throughout the country have been giving their children for a quarter of a century. Today thousands of families are using it where hundreds used it then, and there must be good reason for this word of mouth recommendation.

It is admittedly the perfect laxative for children, women, old people and all others who need a gentle bowel stimulant and not a violent salt, cathartic pill or doctored water. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will act gently, and when taken before retiring will bring complete satisfaction in the morning. After a short use of this remedy all forms of outside aid can be dispensed with and nature will again act alone.

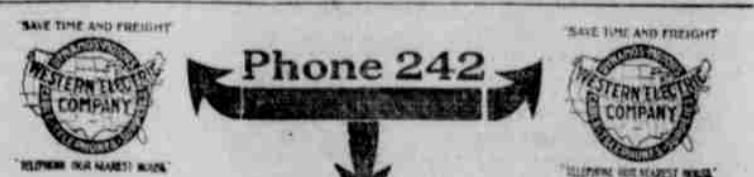

All classes of good American people keep it in the house for ill of the stomach, liver and bowels, and among the thousands who have written the doctor that they will never be without it are Clara Wilhite, Sulphur Springs, Texas, and Robert Anderson, 1607 W. 21st St., Austin, Texas. A dose of it has saved many a person from a serious illness.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.
