WHO CONTRIBUTED MONEY TO CARRY ON DYNAMITE CONSPIRACY?

United States District Attorney Miller Presents This Question to Federal Grand Jury at Indianapolis.

IRON WORKERS' UNION BOOKKEEPER TESTIFIES

Woman Formerly Employed in John J. McNamara's Office First Witness to Appear Before Investigating Body.

Indianapolis, Monday, Dec. 14.—As a direct result of the testimony of a woman formerly employed in the office of John J. McNamara, United States District Attorney Charles W. Miller, while the federal grand jury held its first hearing in the case today, took up the question as to who furnished the money for purchasing and placing the explosives in the case of the country's explosives.

Mrs. Andrew J. Hill, now of Kinnel, Neb., who as Miss Edith Winbrenner, was bookkeeper for the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, and who was familiar with money receipts and disbursements, was closely questioned by Mr. Miller.

Into the grand jury room were taken the stubs of check-books and accounts of the association for the five years during which the explosions took place.

It was during a large part of these years that John J. McNamara, according to his confession, did dynamite for John J. McNamara, the convicted secretary of the Iron Workers' union in company with James B. McNamara.

An important feature of McNamara's confession attracted attention in connection with Mrs. Hill's testimony to the district attorney's office. This was the admission by McNamara that he received $250 for each "job" and that when he completed that part of the money was being held back by James B. McNamara.

Most of the jury's attention today was taken up by an outline of Attorney Miller of what the investigation was to be how far it was to go and the number and character of the witnesses to be called. The identity of the few witnesses called today was kept in strict secrecy by deputy marshals and constables.

Mrs. Hill's appearance followed that of H. S. Hockin, acting secretary of the Iron workers' association, who had been conferring with Frank M. Ryan, the president. Hockin now occupies the position in the union formerly held by J. J. McNamara. Police officials of Indianapolis who were present when records were taken out of the Iron workers' offices and former stenographers of McNamara also were present.

McNamara in his confession told of at least two persons who paid him and said that some person other than James J. McNamara did the paying, but after James B. McNamara blew up a building in Cleveland, he had a dispute with the man over the amount he was to receive and in consequence J. J. took the matter in hand himself all the way through.

For the Cleveland job McNamara said he and James B. were paid $100 each.

Referring to an explosion at the Irons steel plant at South Chicago, McNamara said he used eight pounds of dynamite and added "when I went to Indianapolis J. J. McNamara paid me $100 in cash, as that was all the cash he had in the office. I saw him pay J. B. McNamara for the job."

That records were kept of some of the money paid out was indicated in a part of the confession in which McNamara tells of his complaint of the small pay he received. He said, he previously had been receiving $125 each for the jobs but on a train between Cincinnati and Indianapolis he was arrested and the money was taken from him.

J. B. told me he had seen the stubs for the Mount Vernon, Ill. job and that they were made for $225, while I received only $150. After that J. J. McNamara handled the money."

Among other items mentioned by McNamara were $700 for each job at Greenville, N. J.; McKee's Rocks, Pa.; Superior, Wis.; Omaha, Neb.; Los Angeles, Hoboken, N. J.; Worcester, Mass., and Milwaukee.

McNAMARA STARTS FOR INDIANAPOLIS ON MONDAY
Los Angeles, Dec. 14.—A few miles west of Los Angeles today before the federal grand jury which is investigating dynamite outrages throughout the country. The session lasted less than two hours. The Los Angeles police force was among the witnesses as was former Chief of Police Andrew Galloway of Los Angeles. Rico went to the home of General Harrison G. Otis, publisher of the Los Angeles Times, and there received the suitcase which had been planted near a window. He was able to tell the grand jury how it was put together. The bomb supposedly was identical with the one which destroyed the Los Angeles Times building.

INDIANAPOLIS MONDAY TO APPEAR BEFORE THE GRAND JURY THERE. HE PROBABLY WILL GO IN THE CUSTODY OF MALCOLM McLEAREN, THE MAN WHO HAS BEEN WITH McNAMARA SINCE HIS ARREST.

Indianapolis, Monday, Dec. 14.—Information is said to have reached the office of the local building trades council that John J. McNamara and Anton Johannsen, executive officers of the state building trades council, for whom subpoenas have been issued by the grand jury at Los Angeles, are en route to San Francisco from the east on an overnight train via Ogden and will reach this city on Sunday afternoon. A telegram to this effect from Tipton is reported to have been received by the San Francisco council through officials deny knowledge of Tipton's whereabouts.

Federal Aid Bill Endorsed.
Washington, Dec. 14.—Senator Page's bill for federal aid to agricultural colleges and normal schools and for the extension of instruction in trades and industries was endorsed here today at a conference at which were present Senators William H. Burton, George H. Williams of the National Educational association and others.

The bill proposes eventually to increase federal aid to agricultural colleges to about $12,000,000 a year.

ADDS NEW CHAPTER TO MOROCCAN EMBROGLO

German, British, Russian and Spanish Ambassadors Hear Statement Made By Minister DeSelves.

Paris, Dec. 14.—The German, British, Russian and Spanish ambassadors were present in the chamber of deputies this afternoon when Foreign Minister DeSelves delivered France's contribution to the German-British debate and made some additions to the revelations concerning the Moroccan question.

DeSelves said that Germany at the outset of the crisis had asserted that she would not accept or abide by a new Algerian convention as a means of settling the Moroccan question. The discussion followed an interpretation by Count De Mun and other conservatives who wish to propose ratification of the French and German accord.

Count de Mun condemned the sacrifice to a rival power of part of a French colony, equalling in extent two-thirds of France and conquered by the spilling of French blood. The world, he said, had not seen Europe in a more menacing condition.

DeSelves admitted there had been a moment of tension due to the excessive demands of Germany. Reasonable negotiations ensued upon this and DeSelves denied that Germany had become irritable and tried to start a conflict.

DeSelves then defended the Franco-German accord, saying the world realized that France had emerged from the negotiations far from being weakened. However, he continued, the chief advantage of the agreement is that it frees foreign politics from the Moroccan question, which has been a permanent source of conflict. He said the negotiations with Spain had been taken up in a friendly spirit. Count de Mun's motion was defeated by 415 to 95.

ARIZONA ELECTION WALKOVER FOR DEMOCRATS

Lowest Estimated Majority for Candidates on State Ticket 500; Carl Hayden, Running for Congress, Led Ticket.

Phoenix, Ariz., Dec. 14.—Though the election for Arizona's first set of state officials, two United States senators and one congressman, was held last Tuesday, not one county had sent in a complete count of the votes up to midnight tonight. But five of the fourteen counties had been heard from at the state headquarters here and the leaders said they had no hope of getting the complete count in time for the election.

The counties heard from were Maricopa, Graham, Yuma, Coconino and Greenlee.

From the other nine counties estimated majorities based upon partial returns, which in some instances ran as high as two-thirds of the vote, gave Democratic State Chairman Birdno force for claiming the election of the two United States senators and Mark A. Smith by a majority of 1,000 to 2,000.

Chairman Birdno tonight stated that G. W. P. Hunt, of Globe, would be elected governor by 2,000 majority at the very lowest; that Carl Hayden of Phoenix would have 3,500 more votes than J. S. Williams of Tucson for representative in congress and Sidney P. Osborn of Phoenix his republican opponent, for secretary of state by 500. This latter was the only office that the republicans claimed.

The republican campaign managers concede the election of the democratic ticket but dispute the size of the majorities claimed by Chairman Birdno.

STOKES IS PAINTED AS BETRAYER OF GIRLS

Counsel for Lillian Graham and Ethel Conrad Make Impassioned Pleas for Their Acquittal.

New York, Dec. 14.—The jury trying Lillian Graham and Ethel Conrad for the alleged attempt to murder W. E. D. Stokes heard from counsel today two final pleas for the show girls' acquittal that bristled with unparaphrasing denunciations of the millionaire sportsman, who now lies critically ill as the result of an operation.

Tomorrow Assistant District Attorney Buckner will sum up for the prosecution and after the court's charge, the case will go to the jury probably before night.

Stokes was painted by Attorney Robert M. Moore as a "monster" determined to get possession of a beautiful young girl and by getting an exonerating note from her to free himself of all responsibility for her downfall.

The chief accusation, that of a plot of the girls to extort money from the millionaire, he held, was amply disproved by the fact that the girls bought the revolvers with no attempt at secrecy.

Attorney Moore said Stokes took the $1,700 from Lillian Graham, not "because he wanted the money but because she was a pretty girl."

"With her money gone, her patrimony lost," the lawyer continued, "he might say, 'When you want money then come to me.'"

Clark L. Jordan, another attorney for the defense said, "The possessor of wealth has been at work in this case. Stokes has spent thousands to make up evidence which afterwards was not allowed in the record, in order to place these two young girls in the worst possible light."

ALDRICH CALLS ON TAFT AT WHITE HOUSE

Former Senator Confers With President Regarding Message on What He Considers Urgent Monetary Reforms.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Former Senator Aldrich of Rhode Island, chairman of the national monetary commission, had a half hour conference with President Taft at the White House tonight.

The president expects to make suggestions for what he considers necessary financial reforms in a message to congress after the holidays and it was understood that Senator Aldrich talked over with him such legislation.

The senator promised to have the report of the commission ready January 8.

"I'm not so sorry when it's done," he said. "Then I'll retire from public life forever."

The examination of state banks under the Aldrich plan for a general bank reserve, was the subject of a consultation earlier in the day between the monetary commission and a number of federal and state bank officials. The commission virtually has concluded that these investigations should be on lines similar to those of the national banks.

LORIMER'S CASE EARLY ABROGATION OF TREATY SEEMS ASSURED

Senate Indicates Its Adoption By That Body Before Christmas Recess.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The abrogation of the Russian treaty of 1832 because of discriminations against American Jews and others, may become a law of the land before the Christmas holidays.

The Sulzer resolution, already adopted by the house directing that termination of the treaty after a year's notice be brought up today in the senate. The result of a running debate on the question of whether to refer it to the committee on foreign relations or to act immediately was an assurance from the committee that it would report Monday.

The senate may then adopt either the resolution, with a slight change, or the Culberson resolution, practically identical.

The debate in the senate included some discussion of the attitude of the state department. Senator Culberson wanted immediate action on Monday without reference to the committee. He contended that abrogation should take effect until one year after notification and should the resolution fail to become effective before January 1, it would not become effective until 1914.

Senator Raynor was somewhat skeptical as to the committee's ability to agree within the time specified. He pointed out the possibility of differences of opinion.

"The time has come for a determination of this question," he said. "The argument is all one way. The treaty has been violated for forty years. Time and again we have yielded. We should act now."

Senator Clark of Arkansas, contended that if the treaty was to be promptly disposed of, action should be taken without reference to the committee. He said the committee either act immediately upon the general public demand or go into the question thoroughly.

Sensors Lodge, Bacon and Cullom refused to accept the view that the state department was in a place to act. "The president has told us," Senator Cullom said, "that he is at work on the question and will have something ready after the holidays and the secretary of state assured me a day or two since that he expected to accomplish something of value to the country."

Finally the house resolution was referred to the foreign relations committee which will meet on Monday.

RUSSIA CALMLY VIEWS PASSPORT CONTROVERSY
St. Petersburg, Dec. 14.—The Jewish passport question has awakened only slight public interest here. The prospect of the abrogation of the treaty of 1832 does not seem to disturb any one. Good relations with the United States are only appreciated and especially as they affect the Far East, but it is pointed out that Russia and Germany waged a tariff war in the nineties during which they reached on good terms and finally the abrogation of the treaty would affect Russian trade to the extent of about $8,000,000 annually, whereas American trade to four times that amount would be affected. "Biognose of the treaty it is realized, would strike a more vital blow if by reason of this Russian subjects were shut out of America. From the standpoint of the Russian government the cessation of Jewish immigration would be disastrous, but the government does not believe the matter would be pressed so far."

On the other hand the government sees a graver peril in the indiscriminate admission of Jews to Russia as many of them it is asserted by government officials are revolutionists, socialists and anarchists. Their coming, armed with American passports and with the right to claim consular aid, it is said, would endanger public peace and cause diplomatic friction and a serious aggravation of Russo-American relations.

The Jewish question looms so large in Russia proper that the question of Russo-American relations takes a secondary place and finally it is declared, Russia cannot surrender control over the admission of foreigners within her borders. These are the representative views in government and business circles.

M. Sazonoff, the foreign minister, has classified all the Jews who could possibly come to Russia in two divisions, it is said. First come business men and second revolutionists and anarchists. But ordinary citizens who are neither business men nor revolutionists, seem to have been overlooked or forgotten.

Unless positive objection can be established against this or that particular person all must be admitted without distinction of race.

STEAMSHIPS SHORT OF CREWS AND LIFE BOATS
Washington, Dec. 14.—William H. Frasier, of Boston, secretary of the International Seamen's Union, started the house committee on merchant marine and fisheries today, by declaring that on a majority of passenger-carrying ships on the Atlantic coast, there were not enough members of the crew to man the life boats.

He said most of the ships carried only boats enough for seventy-five percent of the passenger carrying capacity of the ships.

The witness was one of a score who urged the passage of the Wilson bill to inspect the condition of men in the seafaring trade.

RECEIVES SET-BACK

Committee Investigating Senatorial Orders Stricken From Record Evidence of Alleged Conspiracy.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Senator Lorimer's defense received a temporary set-back today. Edward Haney, his counsel, had announced that he expected to prove that the corruption charges against the senator, were inspired by owners and officials of the International Harvester company because they believed Senator Lorimer had been connected with the legal fight in Chicago to increase the company's taxes.

The committee investigating Mr. Lorimer's election, ordered stricken from the records evidence concerning the tax fight given by Maxwell Edgar, a Chicago lawyer, who created a sensation last Saturday by testifying that he received from Clarence S. Darrow, the lawyer, an offer of $10,000, if he would drop the tax fight against the Harvester company.

Chairman Dillingham ruled that Edgar's testimony could not be received unless counsel for Senator Lorimer could connect it with proof that the Harvester officials believed Mr. Lorimer was interested in the fight against him. Mr. Haney promised to develop testimony along that line when the committee resumed tomorrow.

BLACK HAND GANG EXTORTS MONEY FROM RANCHER

Officers Lay in Wait for Criminals Near Pierre, S. D., But Fail to Catch Their Prey.

Pierre, S. D., Dec. 14.—In an attempt to break up a black hand gang which early today received a check for $1,000, signed by Henry Eschbrugge, a wealthy rancher of Sully county, which has threatened to burn buildings belonging to Sam Thorpe, unless he furnished $15,000, officers tonight are watching the place where the letter was ordered to be placed to take the check.

Eschbrugge, who is a bachelor living forty miles north of here yesterday received word that unless he placed $1,000 in cash at a certain place in Sully county, his farm buildings would be destroyed.

A signed check was placed there and the sheriff and other officials watched until early this morning when they retired to the house to warm themselves. When they returned shortly afterwards the check was gone.

Eschbrugge today notified all banks in the vicinity to stop payment on the check and bloodhounds were obtained to trail the men, but failed to take the check.

This evening Sam Thorpe, also a wealthy rancher of the same county, received a letter notifying him to place a check for $15,000 at a certain place tonight under penalty of losing his buildings by fire. Officers are on guard.

TEN JURORS IN BOX FOR PACKERS' TRIAL

Chicago, Dec. 14.—With ten venturers virtually agreed on as jurors in the trial of the ten Chicago packers against whom the criminal provision of the Sherman anti-trust law have been invoked, the case was abruptly continued today until Monday morning, that more venemous might be summoned for examination. For a time through the day it appeared that the end of the quest for jurors was in sight and suggestions that opening arguments would be quickly begun received favorable attention from both sides. A lavish use of peremptory challenges by the defense, however, left the case with ten men in the jury box when court adjourned. After the second venire was exhausted, hurried preparations were begun for the calling of a third venire of fifty men.

BODY OF PROSPECTOR LOST 25 YEARS FOUND

Elain, Ill., Dec. 14.—News has reached here of the discovery after 25 years search of the body of David Tallent in a snow covered and unmarked grave near Arlington, a mining camp in Wyoming. Tallent who was a member of the Gould and Watcher prospecting party, the first band of white men to penetrate the Black Hills in South Dakota, disappeared in 1858. He left deeds to valuable copper mines near Arlington and 160 acres of farming and near Salt Lake City. He was a pioneer settler of Elgin.

SUFFRAGETTES MOB GOVERNORS AT CINCINNATI

Arrival of Western Executives in Ohio Metropolis Marked By Unusual Demonstration.

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 14.—In a downpour of rain Cincinnati tonight greeted the delegation of western governors on their tour of the eastern section of the country. The governors arrived here at 6:30 o'clock from Dayton.

Members of the various business and civic organizations acted as the reception committee during the brief stay of the executives, who were entertained with a dinner at the Business Men's club.

Impromptu speeches were made by the visitors, who told of "the wonders of the west" from an agricultural standpoint. Previous to this the cars containing the products of the various states were visited by thousands.

Despite the inclement weather the parade from the depot to the Business Men's club wended its way between rows of red lights and fireworks.

A crowd of mounted police and a company of the First regiment Ohio National Guard, acted as an escort.

An unusual demonstration occurred shortly after the governors arrived when a number of suffragettes swarmed about those executives who represented states where women have the right of suffrage and demanded that the test of their trip be literature on the subject of "Suffrage."

SECOND HEARING OF DR. HYDE ENDS IN MISTRIAL; JUROR INSANE

Harry Waldron Who Evaded Efforts to Capture Him After Escape, Returns in Deranged Condition.

DEFENSE OBJECTS TO DISMISSAL OF JURY

Court Rules Rights of Accused Have Not Been Placed in Jeopardy and Sets Date for New Trial.

Kansas City, Dec. 14.—The second trial of Dr. B. Clark Hyde on a charge of murdering Colonel Thomas H. Swopes ended in a mistrial today. Harry W. Waldron, the Hyde juror who escaped from the custody of a deputy marshal last Monday morning, returned home today. He was found insane by Judge Porterfield and all of the jury was discharged. Waldron was not punished and was permitted to go home.

Dr. Hyde's third trial was set for January 2, 1912. It is understood that the state will ask for a continuance at that time. There is little possibility for the case being reached before the April term of court and it may come up even later.

Attorneys for Dr. Hyde objected to the dismissal of the jury today. Judge Porterfield overruled their objection and stated that the rights of the defendant had not been placed in jeopardy.

The defense contends Dr. Hyde cannot be placed on trial again because the constitution says a man cannot twice be placed in jeopardy for the same alleged offense.

The attorneys for the defense were greatly downcast over the sudden ending of the trial. They had regarded the jury as favorable to the cause of Dr. Hyde. The majority of the jury refused to discuss their opinions on the case. Several of them had not made up their minds. One said he was convinced that Dr. Hyde would have been acquitted, as many of the jurymen thought the state's witnesses had been coached.

Dr. Hyde received the dismissal of the jury as he has every other unusual feature of the case—with a quizzical smile. He and Mrs. Hyde left the court room soon after the jury had been discharged.

While Judge Porterfield held that Waldron is insane, it is not believed he is dangerous. He was permitted to go back to his dairy, for it was thought he would recover more quickly if given open air work and something to occupy his mind. Waldron admits that at times his mind wanders. He wants to be left alone and given a chance to recover his strength, he says.

Mrs. Waldron, mother of five children and a wretched little woman, mingled with the spectators in the court room.

"I'm so glad Harry's back," she said. "We need him so badly out home."

Waldron never was far away from Kansas City. After leaving the hotel he went to a railroad yard and caught a train to Emporia, Kan. He wanted to go to Emporia, New Mexico, his old home, but Emporia was as far as he got. There he learned that it was feared he had killed himself and turned back. Tuesday he reached Kansas City, Kan. He was nervous, hungry and almost out of money. For two hours Tuesday night he slept at home or a friend in Kansas City, Kan. Early today he went home.

Mrs. Waldron immediately notified Judge Porterfield and a few hours later Waldron was in the court room. Colonel Thomas H. Swopes died October 3, 1910. It was alleged that Dr. Hyde poisoned him with cyanide of potassium and strychnine. Desire to increase his wife's inheritance was the alleged motive for the crime.

On May 16, 1910, Dr. Hyde was found guilty of murder in the first degree and his punishment was fixed at life imprisonment. The state supreme court reversed the case and remanded it for a new trial on April 11, 1911. Dr. Hyde is out on a bail of $50,000.

The first trial of the case, which attracted country-wide interest, cost the state a sum estimated at $100,000, while the defense expended no less than three times this amount.

FLY AND HOOK WORM SPREAD SAME DISEASES

Washington, Dec. 14.—A live and congenial partnership exists between the larvae of house fly and the eggs of the hook worm, according to Dr. Woods Hutchinson of New York, who addressed the American Civic convention here today. He said that the progress of the "swat the fly" campaign, inaugurated by the association last year.

He enumerated a long list of diseases, including typhoid fever, tuberculosis and other scourges, which are spread by the fly. The house fly, he said, could not exist away from human habitation and if deprived of breeding places would soon be driven out of existence.

Edward Hatch, Jr., of New York, chairman of the fly-killing campaign during the year and described the methods and results of various municipal and newspaper "swatting" contests.

FORGED BILLS OF INTERSTATE MINE LADING GET MAN INTO TROUBLE

Postal Inspectors at Kansas City Arrest L. W. Lee for Alleged Attempt to Defraud Chicago Grain Firm.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)

Kansas City, Dec. 14.—A man who gave his name as L. W. Lee, was arrested here this afternoon by Post-office Inspector J. P. Johnston, and arraigned before United States Commissioner Roy B. Thompson, on a charge of using the mails in an attempt to defraud the Chicago Grain firm, Jones and company of Chicago, and others, on alleged forged bills of lading on wheat. The amount involved is said to be considerable. The man's arrest was set for Saturday. In default of $2,000 bail he was sent to jail.

Lee was arrested at a rooming house, where he had been stopping. He declined to tell anything about himself and was adverse to talking about the charge placed against him. The information upon which he was arrested cited that he had devised schemes and articles to defraud at Kansas City on or about December 11, when it is stated he placed certain letters and bills of lading covering five cars of wheat in the post-office here for the firm of Jones, Jones and company, and other persons and firms of Chicago and elsewhere.

According to the federal authorities Lee sent to the Chicago firm bills of lading for wheat shipments from Lawrence, Kas. Lee asked each firm for $700 advance payment on the grain. No money was paid to Lee but the Chicago firm is said to have taken up the matter with the Chicago postoffice authorities who immediately wired local postal inspectors to make the arrest.

NEW MEXICANS DID NEW YORK SOLONS VALIANT WORK AT CHICAGO YESTERDAY

HELPED ELECT SENATOR
NEWLANDS PRESIDENT

EN ROUTE HOME FROM
TRIP TO GOLDEN GATE

Delegates Ably Assisted By El Paso Members of Irrigation Congress in Boosting for the Sunshine State.

Visitors Loud in Their Praise of Western Hospitality; Distinguished Men Among the Members of the Party.

"I am proud to say," said Col. W. S. Hopewell yesterday, "that at the National Irrigation congress just closed, the New Mexico delegation carried every point they went after, and made a greater and better impression upon the congress than ever before. It was largely through the efforts of the twenty-two men from New Mexico, ably seconded by the seventeen men in the delegation from El Paso, that Senator Francis G. Newlands, the father of the Irrigation and reclamation schemes of the government, was elected president of the congress.

An attempt was made by the members of the Swamp Land reclamation congress to capture the irrigation congress, and to take the next meeting to New Orleans, but this was happily frustrated and the next congress, which I believe will be the largest in the history of the movement, will be held at Salt Lake City, Utah.

"Too much credit for the happy turn of events after a hard fight cannot be given Col. R. E. Twitchell of Las Vegas, and W. E. Holt of Deming. The New Mexico Bureau of Immigration sent lots of literature to the congress and plenty of buttons. These were taken in hand by Mr. Holt who worked almost night and day distributing them where they would do the greatest amount of good.

"New Mexico was the only delegation there having distinctive badges and these were used to good purposes. Every foreign delegate to the congress who sat upon the platform, had pinned to the lapel of his coat, the souvenir hat with the three attached ribbons bearing the slogan 'New Mexico, The Sunshine State.' These souvenirs attracted much attention and had we three times as many badges as we took with us they would have been exhausted.

Colonel Twitchell was elected a member of the committee on resolutions and performed valiant service for New Mexico with that committee. The foresight of H. B. Henning, secretary of the New Mexico Bureau of Immigration, who, though unable to be present, sent everything he could think of to help our cause, was invaluable during the meeting. The hats were exhausted, but the 'Sunshine State' buttons came and we pinned one of these on everybody.

"One of the most important fights in the convention was over the matter of the election of the board of governors. New Mexico was in favor of allowing President-elect Senator Newlands to give his opinion as to who he would like to have serve on the board, but some of the other states did not see it that way. We persisted, however, and finally, by a vote, it was decided that Senator Newlands should be consulted in the matter of the election of the board of governors and the election should be put over until the meeting of the executive committee, which is called for some time in February.

"I am firmly of the opinion that the fight put up by New Mexico to keep the irrigation congress in the west, and make it an institution devoted to the reclamation of arid lands, and the improvement of the waterways of the body, and the increasing of its influence for many years to come. There were a number there who wanted to make the congress a combination of Swamp lands and other things, and I think we know the rivers and harbors and deep waterways might have been added, and the irrigation congress would have lost its identity.

In the election of Senator Newlands as president for one year, the congress has bestowed an honor upon the man who has worked harder for the reclamation of arid lands in the United States than any other man in public life today. He will increase the influence of his organization and add to its prestige.

"As a member of the New Mexico delegation I want to thank the folks at home for the work they did. Especially in this time of the Bureau of Immigration, Messrs. Henning and G. L. Brooks rendered yeoman service, although they were not able to be present."

In speaking of his own part in the congress Colonel Hopewell was very modest. He was re-elected vice president for New Mexico, a position that although full of honor is also crowded with personal expense for the new state. Colonel Hopewell, however, cheerfully attends all the meetings, believing in the future of the irrigation movement, and the benefit to be derived by New Mexico from the acts of the congress.

MORE ARRESTS IN FT. RILEY CONSPIRACY

Junction City, Kan., Dec. 14.—Five privates of Battery E, Sixth field artillery, were arrested at Fort Riley this afternoon in connection with the recent dynamite explosion at the fort, which entailed property losses of half a million dollars to the government.

The names of the five men are being kept secret by the post commandant. It was said, however, that the men are being held as witnesses. The usual army secrecy surrounds every move in the case. United States Commissioner Case who ordered the arrest of Rev. Charles Brower of Oklahoma, the former army chaplain, and of Mrs. Anna Jordan of Kansas City, as a result of the alleged confession of Private Michael Quirk, implicating them in the dynamiting, refused to discuss the arrests today. Army officers at the fort, likewise, declined to be quoted.

Vail Declares For Federal Control.

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 14.—Theodore N. Vail, president of the American Telegraph and Telephone company and the Western Union Telegraph company, speaking at a luncheon before Kansas City business men today declared himself in favor of the regulation of public utilities by state and national commissions.

Traveling in a special Pullman car the joint legislative committee from New York, which has been in San Francisco to select the site for the Empire state building at the Panama-Pacific exposition, arrived in Albuquerque last night. Included in the party are two state senators, five representatives together with their wives, secretaries and attaches of the commission.

The committee came here from the Grand Canyon where they spent the day Wednesday viewing the grandest natural wonder of the world. From here the committee will go to El Paso thence to New Orleans and over the southern route to New York. The party traveled west over the New York Central, Burlington and Union Pacific, leaving New York on November 29, and arriving at San Francisco on December 1. The stop in San Francisco was of five days' duration, but was only of sufficient time for the committee to complete the business in hand.

Senator Thomas H. Callen of Kings county, N. Y., from the Third district, is acting chairman of the committee. In the absence of Senator J. J. Frawley, who was called home suddenly from San Francisco owing to the illness of his father, Senator George H. Cobb of Watervliet of the Fifth district, is the republican senatorial member.

Senator John F. Murtaugh of Elmira, democratic senator from the Forty-first district, is traveling with the committee, but is not a member of it.

The assembly representatives on the committee are Speaker Daniel D. Frisbie of Schoharie county, J. A. Foley, of the Twelfth New York assembly district, George Washburn of Ulster county, John B. Yale, a republican member from Brewster, Putnam county, and Franklin Brooks, one of the few republican members of the assembly from New York city.

Accompanying the party also are Commander Eckford C. De Kay, of the Naval Militia, military adviser to Governor John A. Dix, and personal representative of the governor; Sterling J. Joiner, consulting engineer; E. L. Stanton, secretary of the committee; and Joseph Grandon, clerk of the committee.

The committee was met at the station by Assemblyman Michael A. O'Neill of the Third district of Kings county, who had been staying in Albuquerque for his health for the past few weeks. After dinner Manager Smithers of the Alvarado, escorted the ladies and gentlemen through the dining room, and a number of the members went to the Commercial club, the Elks club and some of them attended the University of the City entertainment at the Elks' theater.

The lawmakers from the Empire state were loud in their praises of the hospitality that had been extended them all along the route. "We have been having the time of our lives," Senator Callen said. "Every one has been most courteous and hospitable to us, and I am sure we will take back to our homes the most pleasant memories of our western trip. We are very sorry that we were unable to accept the kind invitation of the Commercial club, but prior to the invitation reaching us we had made arrangements to meet some old friends here and spend the evening with them. We thought that this would break up the party and the committee would be scattered in America. The periodical was established in 1815, and at that time the democrats were called republicans. The paper still keeps the name under which it was established, and is probably one of the few papers in the country named after a politician and still a democratic newspaper.

In the old files of the paper Mr. Frisbie has a paper containing the information: "Republican candidate for President of the United States, Andrew Jackson."

After spending a most enjoyable evening in the city the party bought their Pullman early, leaving for El Paso at 12:20 this morning.

SOMETHING ABOUT MEMBERS OF PARTY

Sterling J. Jones, of Brooklyn, N. Y., chairman of the New York legislative committee, which was in the city yesterday returning from San Francisco, is not unknown to Albuquerque. He makes an average of two trips through this city every year. For a number of years he was a member of the board of governors of the National Irrigation congress and as such attended the meeting of the congress here in 1908.

"You haven't any idea," said Mr. Jones last night, how New Mexico is building up of late. To one who does not live here, but who makes occasional trips through the section as I do, the growth is remarkable, and most noticeable.

"It always gives me great pleasure to come to Albuquerque, because of the splendid entertainment given the irrigation congress, which was in the city with that body. With the coming of the statehood I am sure the state will grow still more, become more prosperous with the passing years, and attain rank as one of the most notable states in the union."

Assemblyman Michael A. O'Neill, who met the party here, has the distinction of winning his reelection to the New York assembly by over 2,000 votes, although residing in Albuquerque at the time of the election. Mr. O'Neill came to this section after a breakdown in health as a result of overwork and has so far recovered as to already be considering plans to return to his home in Brooklyn. Senator Frawley, who was the chairman of the committee, is the author of the now famous Frawley bill legalizing pugilistic exhibitions in New York, and providing for the boxing commission. VIGOROUSLY
CONDEMNEDNational League Wants Gambling on Games Stopped; Also
Declares War on Ticket
Scalping.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
New York, Dec. 14.—The American league "declaration of war" was pigeon-holed for at least two months and probably for all time, by the National league today.

It was not even seriously considered, President Lynch said, at the close of the session. None of the managers could decipher its purport, so they tabled it.

In the final session of the three-day meeting the National league adopted three resolutions, one calling upon the states and cities upon the circuit to make ticket scalping punishable by fine and imprisonment; the other declaring war on baseball pools and offering $100 reward for the conviction of persons gambling on the game.

The organization also vested President Lynch with power to act for it in dealing with the request of the principal minor leagues for higher classification. A list of recommendations in this connection were approved. Among them were the following:

"That major league clubs be not allowed to play in minor league territory and vice versa, either before or after the playing season; reduction of the drafting season to five days, beginning September 15; drafting of umpires; an amendment requiring major leagues to increase the salaries of drafted players $50 a month over their minor league salaries; the adoption of salary limits by minor leagues; restriction of player limit in all leagues to twenty-five during the playing season, and thirty-five during the off season; the retention of players in the highest class league in which they are purchased, so far as possible; drafting prices of $2,500 in class A, $1,500 in class B, and $500 in class C; that players drafted from class A must be offered back to class A at the draft price before being offered to a higher class.

While it was recommended that President Lynch vote for these amendments to the national agreement, the entire situation was left in his hands, and Mr. Hornum's for action at the next meeting of the national commission.

Playing next year will cease on or about October 6, a week earlier than formerly; the season will open on about April 11, a resolution to this effect being unanimously adopted.

The resolution declaring war on gambling recites that organized baseball is determined to keep the national game free from evil.

BICYCLISTS FORGE
AHEAD OF RECORD
BY FAST RIDING

New York, Dec. 15.—By fast riding the teams entered in the six-day bicycle race at Madison Square Garden tonight broke the record, and at 1 o'clock this morning were pedaling along at a terrific rate.

The eight leading teams had made 1,381 miles, the three second division teams 1,390 miles, nine laps, and Lapize and VanHower, the tail-enders 1,390 miles, eight laps. The old record was 1,389 miles, two laps, made in 1909.

Midnight came with all the teams still in the race but twenty-five minutes after that hour the Galvin-Wiley team, which had been trailing, became part of the race, gave up the fight and was officially declared out of the contest.

HENRY ORDEMANN
DEFEATS REIMER

Minneapolis, Dec. 14.—Henry Ordemann of Minneapolis tonight defeated Jess Reimer (Westergaard) of Des Moines, Iowa, taking the first and third falls of a grueling match.

The first fall went to the Minneapolis man on a half Nelson and crotch hold after fifty-nine minutes and thirty-five seconds of strenuous wrestling. On the return to the mat for the second fall, Reimer showed brilliant form and in six minutes and twenty seconds pinned Ordemann to the mat with a head scissors hold, but he himself fell victim on the third go to the same hold, in twenty minutes and thirty-five seconds.

Reimer lost a slightly the advantage of Ordemann in weight, the former going in at 210 and the latter at 192 pounds.

Honolulu, Dec. 14.—Breaking a silk ribbon stretched across the harbor mouth, the cruiser California, flagship of the Asiatic fleet, steamed up the channel into Pearl Harbor today, the first warship to enter the harbor under the guns of the new fortifications. Mrs. Liliuokalani, Governor Peary, Hawaiian consular agents and other prominent persons were guests of Rear Admiral Chauncey Thomas on board the California, which came to anchor off the partially completed dry dock.

A fleet of excursion steamers and launches accompanied the California on her trip from Honolulu to Pearl Harbor.

WHEAT BLOCKADE IN SASKATCHEWAN
SERIOUS.

Farmers Battle in Streets for
Privilege of Marketing Grain;
Mounted Police Called Out to Curb Rioting.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Winnipeg, Dec. 14.—Reports received tonight that the wheat blockade in Saskatchewan was without a parallel, farmers already having suffered enormous losses and indications are that there will be much more suffering.

At Moose today farmers fought in the streets for the privilege of marketing their grain and mounted police had to be called to maintain order. Fifty thousand bushels of grain are piled in the streets and at the impounding houses at that place and more than 100 loads are standing in wagons with no place to unload it.

Farmers have been in town for a week trying to dispose of their wheat. Many of them drove seventy-five miles and intended to take back with them the necessities of life.

At Mort Loch and Outlook, the elevators are filled to the roof and farmers have been waiting there for two days to unload.

At Penne many names are on the books for cars, while at Bonneau 300 have registered for cars.

The elevator commissioner has suspended the grain act and imperative orders for cars have brought no results. The railways say they are unable to cope with the situation.

DISASTER OVERTAKES
SANTA CLAUS SPECIAL

Hayre, Mont., Dec. 14.—Whole companies of soldiers were wiped out and countless animals, wild and domestic, perished when a mail car on the Great Northern railroad took fire between Hayre and Great Falls today. All the casualties were due to the progressiveness of Santa Claus in abandoning the old reindeer team for the swifter lightning express.

The fact that the soldiers were of tin and the animals of wood will soften only partially the grief of the settlers' children, to whom the Christmas packages were mailed by eastern trains.

The car was loaded with second and fourth-class matter and carried no postal clerks. Its interior was a mass of flames when the fire was first discovered. The engineer threw the throttle open in a race for the nearest water tank and at Big Sandy the burning car was flooded.

PROPOSES EIGHT-HOUR
LAW FOR ALL LABOR

Washington, Dec. 14.—The eight-hour day for laborers and mechanics on government work, such as shipbuilding, gun and ammunition making and river and harbor work, would be extended to contract work done by private firms by the terms of a bill introduced by Representative Hughes of New Jersey and passed by the house today.

Representative Berger, socialist, said he thought the bill would not "hold water" and advised the house to have a brickbat thrown at it. He introduced a bill to amend an eight-hour law about ten lines in length.

"For the first time in years you democrats are playing politics successfully," Mr. Berger said. "Day before yesterday you got the Jewish vote, yesterday you got the Jewish vote and today you went after the labor vote."

POLITICS OF IDEAS
CAN BEAT MACHINE

Philadelphia, Dec. 14.—That the "bone hunting" and "coal hod" politics of Tammany Hall and the Philadelphia republican machine are not good vote getters when opposed by the politics of ideas, was declared by Winfred Denison, assistant United States attorney general, in a speech before the National Civil Service League which opened its annual meeting here today.

A campaign to place all federal employees under civil service regulations was urged by the report of the executive council and in the address of Charles W. Elliot, president of the league, who is sick in Ceylon, which was read at the session tonight.

BLOODHOUNDS TRAIL
MURDERER OF FOUR

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 14.—Thanks to bloodhounds and a clue furnished by police of Hudson, the Tennessee county authorities hope soon to apprehend Edward Dunlop or "Ed Denals" an Italian farm hand sought in connection with the murder of the Morner family Tuesday at their home near the village of Leffordville. The bodies of Mrs. Morner, her two daughters, Edith and Blanche, and her son, Arthur, were found half buried in the cow stable.

An autopsy today disclosed that Blanche Morner had been attacked. This police said furnished the motive for the crime.

Anti-Saloon League Agitator
Demands Dismissal of Secretary of Agriculture Wilson
From President's Cabinet.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Washington, Dec. 14.—The dismissal of Secretary Wilson from the cabinet because he participated in the brewers' congress at Chicago as honorary president recently, was demanded here today at the Anti-Saloon League national convention which likewise went on record as opposed to the reinstatement of the army canteen.

The demand for Mr. Wilson's resignation was made by Judge A. Z. Blair of Ohio, in a speech which was applauded to the echo. He said if President Taft did not dismiss the secretary of agriculture he would fight his re-nomination.

The resolutions adopted by the convention laid emphasis on the adoption of legislation to prevent the sale of liquor in prohibition territory; protested against the government sale of confiscated liquor in prohibition territory; favored federal prohibition in the Hawaiian islands and condemned the system of raising money for schools in Alaska through the liquor traffic.

The officers elected to serve two years included:

President—Bishop Luther B. Wilson.

Vice-Presidents—Bishops G. Matthews, Rev. Fr. James Cleary, Rev. Washington Gladden, Bishop H. C. Morrison, Bishop Samuel P. Spring, Rev. Robert Coyle.

General Superintendent—Rev. C. C. Baker.

Secretary—J. C. Nicholson.

CONDEMNNS RUSSIA'S ATTACK ON PERSIA

London, Dec. 14.—Philip Edward Morris, liberal, in the house of commons today said that a poorer excuse for taking away the independence of Persia than that advanced in the case of Mr. Shuster, had never been put forward in the house of commons.

The exact crime committed by Shuster, Mr. Morris said, was that he did not call at the Russian legation as often as he ought.

This statement was made after the foreign secretary, Sir Edward Grey, had said he had agreed with the Russian minister, Rasboud, that the British and Russian legations should be obtained for the appointment of advisers to Persia.

MURDERERS OF MRS.
KAUFMAN IN CUSTODY

Chicago, Dec. 14.—With two men under arrest as confessed participants in the midnight automobile ride which ended in the hold-up and murder of Mrs. Hattie Kaufman, recently, the police tonight awaited telegraphic information that the two other men named as active participants in the killing, were in custody.

St. Louis and a city in Florida were mentioned as possible sources of the expected messages.

Police Inspector Hunt said the two "George" and "Frank" Raskins and William H. Stacey had been found and that he expected that they would be on their way to Chicago by tomorrow.

SALOON REGULATION
ORDINANCES DEFEATED

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 14.—In the first referendum election held since 1910, when the city selected local form of government a year ago, the saloon regulation ordinances were overwhelmingly defeated today.

The vote against the "regulator" was even larger than the vote cast in 1910, when the city rejected local option by a plurality of 1,432.

The ordinance defeated provided for licensing bartenders; the removal of screens and Sunday closing.

With the announcement of the vote tonight there are threats to recall the commissioners who favored the ordinances.

WOULD HAVE STEAMERS
CARRY RELIEF OPERATORS

Washington, Dec. 14.—W. J. Bryan's recent experience in a shipwreck caused the introduction by Senator Hitchcock today of a bill to require vessels equipped with wireless telegraph apparatus to carry two operators.

Mr. Hitchcock, who is from Nebraska, mentioned the case of Mr. Bryan, saying that the danger was aggravated by the fact that vessels in helping distance could not receive the distress messages as their wireless operator would be asleep.

The bill is intended to remedy this defect by supplying relief operators.

MEXICAN REBELS MAKE
ASSAULTS ON GIRLS

Mexico City, Dec. 14.—News of outrages at the hands of outlaw bands came to the government today which gravely aggravated the situation. One hundred and forty-five prosecutions were had, resulting in 76 convictions, 14 acquittals and 10 no bills proferred or otherwise discontinued. Forty-five cases are pending. Sentences imposed ranged from a few months in jail to 10 years in the penitentiary.

While prosecutions against penance, the attorney general says, has done much to stamp it out, the practice still appears to be quite extensively carried on in some of the southern states. He suggests the strengthening of the statutes so as to afford efficient protection of persons against slavery and involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime.

Mr. Wickersham calls attention to the discovery of extensive irregularities in offices of clerks of the United States courts. No effective reform, he declares, can be accomplished until the power of removing the clerks is taken from the president and lodged in the president and the clerks paid a sufficient sum, instead by the fees system.

ATTORNEY GENERAL
URGES CONTROL OF
CORPORATIONS

Says Bureau of Department of Commerce and Labor Should Be Made an Administrative
Board for Big Concerns.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Washington, Dec. 14.—Pursuing President Taft's recommendation that an executive bureau be created to supervise corporations chartered under a federal incorporation act, Attorney General Wickersham, in his annual report submitted to congress today, suggests that the bureau of corporations be raised to that dignity, even in the absence of the proposed federal incorporation statute.

This branch of the department of commerce and labor, the attorney general urges, should be brought into closer relation with his department and added that it might well be "avowed" as the nucleus for an administrative board under whose supervision consolidation or mergers for lawful purposes might be formed.

In enforcing the Sherman anti-trust law, the attorney general points out that the department of justice and the courts are confronted by economic rather than legal problems when it comes to working out methods of disintegration after a corporation has been declared an illegal combination. The department enlisted the assistance of the bureau of corporations in the dissolution of the tobacco trust, and it would be of great value to the legal branch of the government, Mr. Wickersham says, if the functions of the bureau should be so enlarged that it could be called upon officially to make investigations and report its conclusions with respect to plans for the voluntary or enforced disintegration of monopolistic combinations.

The attorney general reviews the record of a year of intense activity in federal prosecutions and points out that the department of justice financially sustained itself as the result of the contribution of $1,204,115 to the United States treasury in the shape of fines collected, customs duties recovered, etc. The expense of the department, including the office of the attorney general, all of the district attorneys throughout the country aggregated $3,225,773.

In a comprehensive review of the anti-trust prosecutions, the attorney general shows that the 17 anti-trust civil suits pending at the beginning of the last fiscal year were augmented by 6 additional actions, while the 11 criminal prosecutions under the same statute were increased by 23 more prosecutions during the last fiscal year.

Eight civil suits and a similar number of criminal trials were brought to conclusion during the year. In four of the civil prosecutions judgments were rendered in favor of the United States, while three were lost and one discontinued. Four convictions were secured until the criminal clause of the statute during the year and four cases were either quashed or discontinued.

Declaring that he appreciates that public interest in the Sherman anti-trust law was "even greater" than it was at the date of his last report, the attorney general set forth the following cases as being presented or pending for final settlement:

The "powder trust," the "night rider" cases, United States Steel corporation, cotton corner, alleged towing monopoly, beef packers, southern coal combination, national stores suit, bath tub "trust," lumber "trust," milk "trust," wall paper combination, sugar pool, magazine "trust," shoe machinery "trust," combination of coal roads, elevator suit in Oklahoma and kindling wood "trust."

Emphasizing his satisfaction with the decree of the New York circuit court in the tobacco trust dissolution, the attorney general says this to say of independent tobacco interests who have criticized the plan of disintegration.

"Competitors of the existing combinations were eager to compel the imposition of terms which would have made a solvent, successful business readjustment impossible, would have brought about a reversion of the property and forced financial loss, resulting in great financial loss, not only to those interested in the combination, but to the business interests of the country at large, and in the end would have benefited only a few individuals who had been dominant in the formation of the combination, as they are possessed of means ample enough to profit by the ruin which would have followed. In my opinion, the plan which has been approved by the court will accomplish the objects of the law."

Forty-six prosecutions for illegal discriminations and rebates were instituted against railroads during the year. The attorney general urges the amendment of the 23 hour law governing the railroad transportation of livestock by imposing an imprisonment penalty for its violation.

The vigorous enforcement of the customs laws, the attorney general says, resulted in the recovery of $2,120,000 in duties out of which the government had been defrauded.

The white slave traffic act, now a year and a half old, is having a salutary effect, in the judgment of Mr. Wickersham. The statute was diligently enforced throughout the country, he avers, with most satisfactory results. One hundred and forty-five prosecutions were had, resulting in 76 convictions, 14 acquittals and 10 no bills proferred or otherwise discontinued. Forty-five cases are pending. Sentences imposed ranged from a few months in jail to 10 years in the penitentiary.

While prosecutions against penance, the attorney general says, has done much to stamp it out, the practice still appears to be quite extensively carried on in some of the southern states. He suggests the strengthening of the statutes so as to afford efficient protection of persons against slavery and involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime.

Mr. Wickersham calls attention to the discovery of extensive irregularities in offices of clerks of the United States courts. No effective reform, he declares, can be accomplished until the power of removing the clerks is taken from the president and lodged in the president and the clerks paid a sufficient sum, instead by the fees system.

Declaring that many of the jails where federal prisoners are confined are wholly unsuitable for the detention of human beings and are shocking breeding places of crime, the attorney general recommends the appointment of a commission to inquire into the conditions. This commission also would consider the general treatment of juvenile and first offenders.

The attorney general also recommends that the federal government be given the right to bring an action against an individual or corporation in any part of the country without restriction as to the place of residence of the individual or the home state of the corporation.

The attorney general also recommends a general immunity statute, numerous laws for Alaska and a civil service retirement law.

(Denver Post.)
"How did you get into the stock business?"

The question was directed toward the hale, well-fed and jolly Edward C. Houghton, head of the Corralitos Cattle company, of Corralitos, Mexico.

"Hah!" he answered, "that's easy to answer. I was a cowpuncher from the time I was a kid. In 1878 I went up into the Panhandle of Texas and punched for the L-X outfit under C. W. Moore. It is as natural for a cowpuncher to drift into the cattle business as it is for a tree to grow. I wasn't with the L-X outfit long before I had a few cattle running with the rest with my private brand on 'em. Every little while I picked up a few more cattle."

In a few years I had as fine a little bunch of cattle as there was in the country."

$10,000 Worth of Rugs On Sale

We have just received at our store, corner of Second street and Silver Avenue, One Thousand Dollars' worth of Fine Rugs, consisting of one hundred patterns and no two alike. We feel perfectly safe in saying that there is not a dull or uninviting pattern in the entire lot, but every rug is beautiful and suggestive of the most careful selection. The above statement will perhaps seem true only after you have come and have seen for yourself. These rugs were made by the leading factories of the country, and class from a matting rug 9x12, to the best Wilton. Now, since the year is nearly gone and since I remember that I have had a liberal patronage from the people of Albuquerque and the surrounding community this year, I know of no better way to show my appreciation for their kindness than to put this large stock of fine rugs on sale at just a fraction above wholesale cost, to last up to Christmas Day. I prefer not to give prices here, as I believe it best for my customer and for my business. I will prove to you my honesty of purpose when you come to see the rugs, and get the prices. Of course, these prices will mean cash only. Please remember what I have said, for this advertisement will not appear again.

We give trading stamps with all cash purchases.

SEEKS TO COLLECT FROM BONDSMEN OF CONTRACTOR

Silvestre Mirabal Claims He Paid Out $1,548.35 Above Price Agreed on for Building of Residence.

Because as he alleges, the contractor or did not live up to the agreement entered into for the building of a new residence for him at San Rafael, Valencia county, Silvestre Mirabal yesterday filed in the district court a suit to collect $1,548.35 from Charles Grande and Frank Tomel, bondsmen for Frank A. Stephens, the contractor who built the house.

According to Mirabal's petition, he contracted with Stephens to build him a two-story cement block house to cost not to exceed $5,000. Stephens to furnish the material and labor. Bond for the faithful performance of the contract was filed by Stephens in the sum of $5,000. Grande and Tomel signed the bond.

Mirabal alleges that Stephens allowed bills to accumulate so that he, Mirabal, was forced to pay labor bills to prevent the foreclosure of a mechanic's lien. As a result, he claims to be out $1,548.35 above the contract price and this he wants Stephens' bondsmen to pay, together with interest and costs of the suit.

SPECIAL ORCHESTRA IS REQUIRED FOR MUSIC IN
"BRIGHT EYES," DEC. 18

Portions of the music of "Bright Eyes," Joe M. Gates new musical play by the authors of "Three Twins," are so elaborate that a special orchestra is required for it. This being the case it is announced that an augmented orchestra of twenty players will be used at the performance of the play on December 18, at the Elks theater. Practically all of the musicians required are carried by the company, only a very few of the musicians of the theater's regular orchestra being used. The music, which is the work of Karl Hoschna, is of the same nature as that which the composer wrote for his former great success. One or two of the airs are hauntingly beautiful, while others may be classed as of the popular variety. The orchestra is under the direction of Gus Salser, one of the very best known of the younger American directors. In addition to Mr. Hoschna's music there are two songs in the play and the music of which was written by Florence Holbrook, who plays the leading female character. These are both very catchy. Miss Holbrook is a composer of no mean talent. The words of these two songs were written by Cecil Leon, who with Miss Holbrook, is especially featured in the production. Following the example he set in "Three Twins," Mr. Gates has mounted the new play elaborately and costumed it gorgeously. It is in three acts, each of them being given a very elaborate setting. The chorus includes fifty girls, each one selected for her beauty as well as for her ability to sing and dance.

PRESENT TOUR OF THE "CLANSMAN" ELEVENTH SEASON FOR THE PLAY

Thomas Dixon's celebrated play, "The Clansman," has been revived by the Southern Amusement company for a special tour of the important cities of the south this season. "The Clansman" has not been seen in the southern states for three years although it has played continually in other parts of the country for the past six years. The present tour will mark the seventh season of continued success which the great drama of southern life during the reconstruction period has enjoyed. The revival tour will include only the principal southern points, and theater-goers here will be glad to learn this city will be among those visited. Everyone is familiar with the remarkable record of "The Clansman," which created a furore upon its initial presentation six years ago and has been all the rage ever since. The engagement of "The Clansman" in this city will occur on Saturday night of this week.

QUICK CAPTURE OF ALLEGED HORSE THIEVES

Belen Officers Arrest Three Men Charged With Appropriating Outfit in Albuquerque Last Saturday.

Praciliano Muniz, Primitivo Candelaria, and Pantaleon Lobato were brought to this city from Belen yesterday morning by Deputy Sheriff Carlos Armijo, charged with stealing a horse and buggy, the property of David Candelaria of Los Candelarios, last Saturday. They were lodged in the county jail and will have a hearing on the charge some time today. On Saturday forenoon David Candelaria, a prosperous citizen of Los Candelarios, drove to this city to do his weekly trading and hitched his horse attached to a single buggy in front of the Golden Rule dry goods store on Central avenue. When he returned a short time later the horse and buggy were gone. He immediately made complaint to the sheriff's office.

Information containing the description of the horse and buggy was sent out in all directions. Late Wednesday evening word was received from Belen that a horse and buggy answering the description given, was there in the custody of the two men. The men were held on instructions from Albuquerque officers to bring them back.

Deputy Sheriff Armijo left yesterday morning for Belen. When he arrived there he found that after leaving Albuquerque, Muniz and Candelaria had also taken a black mare from near Los Lunas and had sold the animal to the Belen livery stable proprietor for $15. In addition they had also sold the horse stolen in Albuquerque to the Belen man, but they refused to divulge the sum paid them for the animal.

It was later learned that the buggy had been hidden on the premises of Pantaleon Lobato at Los Lunas, and Lobato was also arrested and brought to Albuquerque, charged with complicity in the theft.

When seen at the jail yesterday afternoon, the men declined to make any statement, preferring to await the result of their preliminary examination, which will be held before Justice of the Peace Romero of Old Albuquerque.

EVENING OF FINE ENTERTAINMENT

Whitney Brothers' Quartette,
Premier Musicians, Appear
Tonight in Elks' Opera House.

Whitney Brothers appear at the Elks' opera house this evening. Get your tickets at Matson's until six o'clock, after that at the ticket window of theater.

These celebrated singers are to open the initial performance of the fifteen course for the season of 1912, playing to a capacity house. Nearly five hundred season tickets are now in the hands of patrons of the fifteen course.

An evening of brilliant and superior entertainment is assured. It is doubtful if any quartette or in fact any musical company in the United States has ever had more return dates than Whitney Brothers. This season they have been going back to many cities where they have appeared, even five and six times before. In one town where the Whitney's used to live, they have appeared five times. They were back to the Bloomington Normal course five times consecutively, also five times consecutively at Peoria, Ill., and in both these places this season had the biggest crowds they have ever had. In Lancaster, Mass., they appeared this season for the fifth time, at Torrington, Conn., for the fifth time, and at Winsted, Conn., for the fourth time.

ATTRACTIVE CALENDAR ISSUED BY RIO GRANDE

One of the most attractive calendars which have reached Albuquerque is that issued by the Denver & Rio Grande railroad. The leaves are large and the figures readable at a distance. The cover of the calendar is a picture of the beautiful scenery along the route of the railroad through Colorado, Utah and Nevada. On the back of the last sheet is a large map of the country served by the Rio Grande and the Western Pacific systems. The calendar is being sent out by Mr. Frank A. Wadleigh, general passenger agent of the Rio Grande at Denver.

AUDIENCE PLEASSED WITH ORPHEUM SHOW

An appreciative audience witnessed the new program at the Orpheum last night and appeared well pleased. The musical farce comedy given by the stock company proved to be a very pleasing bill, and was well presented by the company and finely costumed chorus.

The new pictures from the National Film Exchange are certainly fine. A visit to this popular playhouse is always a pleasure. Two shows each night. Admission twenty cents.

AN OPEN LETTER

Albuquerque, December 14th, 1911.

"Having been a resident of Albuquerque for eight years and seeing many people come here to die with the white plague, I feel it my duty to the city and the world at large to tell you how the hand of death was stayed in my family.

"Less than four months ago some of the best physicians in Denver pronounced my daughter, Rose, in the last stage of tuberculosis, and sent her home to die, stating that nothing could be done for her. When she arrived home I at once wrote to my sons in Wyoming and Idaho and also to my daughter in Colorado to come at once as the doctor said that she could not live more than a week or two. I also called on the TUBERCLECID Company who had just opened up an office in this city and who claimed to have made many cures of Tuberculosis in the last stages where patients were given up by a number of physicians as hopeless cases.

"My daughter began taking TUBERCLECID on September 3rd at which time she was confined to her bed. Her fever was very high, and she was very weak. After an examination by the TUBERCLECID physician he told me that he was afraid he could do nothing for her but that if she could live until the medicine could have time to take effect there was a chance for her, because as a rule people began to improve in from six to fifteen days after taking TUBERCLECID.

"Last week my daughter walked to town and back home again, a distance of 26 blocks and felt no fatigue at all. TUBERCLECID has never hurt her stomach nor has she felt any bad effects from it in any way, but she has steadily gained in strength and weight, and her temperature has been normal for some time. Some who were in far better condition than my daughter last September are now dead, and if they had only tried TUBERCLECID possibly have been alive today.

"I want to urge all who are afflicted with this disease to give TUBERCLECID a fair trial. This letter is not solicited by the TUBERCLECID Company or any one else, and I am going to publish it in two of our papers at my own expense, that the people may have an opportunity to try this Godsent remedy that may bring health and happiness to their homes.

"I have invited the medical profession to visit my daughter from time to time during this treatment that they may watch the outcome and co-operate with the TUBERCLECID Company to wipe out this great white plague. Respectfully,

(Signed)

PUBLIC MUSICAL PLEASED LARGE AUDIENCE

First Concert at Elks Theater
Last Night By University Department of Music Unqualified Success.

Elks' theater was packed last night for the concert given by the department of music of the University of New Mexico and the big crowd that turned out for the first public musical entertainment by the student body was well rewarded for their trouble.

That the event was free to the public no doubt had its influence on the size of the audience, though it might be said with all truth that many envious critics for which an admission charge is made have been no better and often times not as good.

The concert was really good and the audience properly appreciative. The numbers were splendid as to individual merit and well staged. Miss Adele Howell and Robert Sewell sang the parts with excellent chorus work by the glee club.

The numbers by the glee club chorus were all worthy of comment and elicited general praise for the director, Miss Helena Egypciades. Miss Egypciades was in full charge of the musical and to her untiring efforts was the success of the affair due.

CATTLE SANITARY BOARD TO MEET ON MONDAY

The New Mexico Cattle Sanitary board will hold its last meeting at present constituted in the office of the board in the Korber building in this city on Monday next.

The meeting likely will be the last at which Governor-elect W. C. McDonald will attend as a member. At this meeting the reports for the year will be made and an outline of the work for the ensuing year discussed. It was at first thought feasible to hold the December meeting during the sessions of the American National Live Stock association convention at Denver, but a canvass showed that a quorum of the members would not be able to be present.

Secretary W. J. Linwood of Bates is expected to arrive in the city tonight for the purpose of going over the work of the clerical force of the office prior to the meeting.

Without opiates or harmful drugs of any kind Foley's Honey and Tar compound stops coughs and cures colds. Do not accept any substitute. —J. H. O'Reilly.

EFFECTIVE CRUSADE TO STOP DRUG TRAFFIC

San Francisco, Dec. 14.—California's state board of pharmacy is bringing to a successful conclusion one of the most far-reaching anti-drug crusades ever attempted in the state—the stamping out of the sale and use of opium, morphine and cocaine. With pleas of guilty entered in police court today by three pharmacists of the city have been caught in the snares laid by the state board.

The fight on the drug traffic was begun with a raid on Chinatown on November 1. Seventy Chinese pleaded guilty and were subjected to fines. Since then sixty-five whites have been arrested and all have been convicted. More than $2,000 in fines has already been collected in the police court.

Over $6,000 worth of drugs were captured when Clayton Richards was arrested. His trial is set for next week.

DO AWAY WITH FLAGS ON SANTA FE TRAINS

Flags are no longer flutter from the rear end of trains on the Santa Fe according to instructions that have just been received by officials in this city. The new order came too late to be embodied in the new time card, and bulletins have been posted to all trainmen outlining the new signal plan.

The new rule does away with flags as "markers" on all trains, and simply requires that the regulation lanterns be displayed at all times. The "markers" will not be lighted in the day time, but simply displayed.

For decades green flags at the rear end of a train have signified that it is the rear end, and also that it is a train.

The new order goes into effect on January 1.

Hundreds of thousands of flags will be saved annually on the Santa Fe system by the new arrangement. The plan is on the theory that trainmen can see lantern markers in the day time as easily as they can see the flags.

The uses that flags will be put to after the first of the year will be limited. Trainmen will use red flags as before when flagging a signal and the engine almost incessantly and the same flag signal to stop trains for passengers, and track men will put out caution and danger flags as before.

"BEST ON EARTH"
This is the verdict of R. J. Howell, Tracy, O., who bought Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for his wife. "Her case was the worst I have ever seen, and looked like a sure case of consumption. Her lungs were sore and she coughed almost incessantly and her voice was hoarse and weak. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound brought relief at once and less than three bottles effected a complete cure."—J. H. O'Reilly.

THIN NERVOUS CHILDREN

Often even the doctor doesn't seem able to tell what is the matter with a rapidly growing, thin, nervous, peevish child. Some noted specialists even recommend keeping them quiet in bed several hours every day.

But that sort of thing is just what an active child can't bear. Our own experience is that such children begin to thrive and put on flesh almost as soon as they begin taking Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, that children love to take. It is gentle, harmless and does them a world of good. They become ruddy and rosy, their little limbs fill out and become plump and they are soon the mischievous youngsters they ought to be. Mrs. C. W. Stump, Canton, Ohio, says Vinol restored her sickly little daughter to health and strength. Vinol is good for delicate people of all ages and you take no risk in giving it a trial for we give back the money if it does not do all we claim.

TOYLAND WONDERS IN BEWILDERING PROFUSION

Marvelous Display of Fascinating Mechanical and Miniature Marvels at Big Rosenwald Store.

If there is one really marvelous exhibition of Christmas goods in this city it is the bewildering display of toys, by far the largest ever seen in this city, at the big Rosenwald store. The entire east front of the store is filled with toys of all conceivable descriptions and construction; the most interesting display being that of the dolls and accessories; plain dolls, fancy dolls, paper-and-manna-dolls, eye-winking dolls, and doll stores, doll groceries, doll houses, doll moves and tables and chiffoniers, doll automobiles and every other possible thing a doll could use, just the right size—a display of marvels in miniature.

The great toy department upstairs in the Rosenwald store is a veritable wonderland, and few stores in the large cities offer a more complete and endless assortment of all the products of human ingenuity for the amusement of children, young and old.

OFFICIAL CANVASS OF VOTE NEARS CONCLUSION

Board Disposes of Three Counties Yesterday and Expects to Finish Work By Saturday Afternoon.

[Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.] Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 14.—Today's session of the official canvassing board was without exceptional interest. At the morning session the count of the remaining precincts of San Miguel was completed and Santa Fe taken up. When the canvassing board was taken this afternoon the count on Socorro county had been completed, and tomorrow the work will commence with Sierra county. So far as the estimated figures as a result of the count today, five counties remain to be disposed of, and the Governor Mills, Chief Justice Pope and Secretary Jatta, the members of the board, have resolved to work extra hours to finish the canvass by Saturday.

WORKS WITHOUT FAITH.

Faith Comes After the Works Have Laid the Foundation.

"While a coffee drinker I was suffering from indigestion and intensely painful nervous headaches, from childhood. (The contents caffeine—the same drug found in coffee.)

Seven years ago my health began to improve. I grew so weak that the exertion of walking, if only a few feet, made it necessary for me to lie down. My friends thought I was marked for consumption—weak, thin and pale.

"I realized the danger I was in and tried faithfully to get relief from medicines, till, at last, after having received all kinds of drugs, the doctor acknowledged that he did not believe it was in his power to cure me.

"While in this condition a friend advised me to quit coffee and try Postum, and I did so without the least hope that it would do me any good. I did not like it at first, but when it was properly made I found Postum was a most delicious and refreshing beverage. I am especially fond of it served at dinner with cream.

"In a month's time I began to improve, and in a few weeks my indigestion ceased to trouble me, and my health was restored. I am so perfectly well now that I do not look like the same person, and I have gained in flesh that I am 15 pounds heavier than ever before.

"This is what Postum has done for me. I will use it and shall always do so." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

INAUGURAL BALL TICKETS ARE ON SALE HERE

BRISK DEMAND FOR TEN DOLLAR PASTEBOARDS

Committee Reports One Hundred and Forty Disposed of Out of Total of Two Hundred and Fifty.

[Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.]

Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 14.—The executive committee in charge of the arrangements for the inauguration ceremonies held a meeting this afternoon and heard reports from the officers of the various sub-committees. The committee in charge of the sale of tickets for the inaugural ball reported a brisk demand for the little pasteboards which cost $10 and entitle the holder to admission of himself and ladies to what will be undoubtedly the greatest social function in the annals of New Mexico. It was decided to place the tickets on sale tomorrow at the different banks in Albuquerque, Las Vegas and other larger cities of New Mexico, but as the number is limited to 250, intending purchasers will do well to make their applications as early as possible. All applications from places where the tickets are not found on sale at the banks should be made direct to Mayor Arthur Seligman, chairman of the committee, at Santa Fe.

The committee on decorations has outlined its scheme for the decoration of the old palace of the governor and the armory hall, and a truly gorgeous scheme it is.

The outside walls of the old palace are to be decorated with the names of six of the most famous governors of New Mexico, the names to be done in letters of light thirty inches in height. First will come the name of Oñate, the first Spanish governor of New Mexico; next that of Oñate, then de Vargas, the famous warrior governor who recaptured the town from the rebellious Pueblo Indians; the first Mexican governor, followed by two Americans, L. B. Prince and Lew Wallace.

Over the door of the main entrance of the palace will be the name of Governor McDonald, in fiery letters and surrounded by thirteen stars, the whole to be surmounted by an enormous electrical star. Altogether over one thousand lights will be used in the outside decorations of the building.

The interior of the national guard armory is to be transformed into a huge palm garden, beneath a dome of light. Eight electrical arches, intersecting in the center of the ceiling, and a gigantic star of light on the rear wall will be the features of the decorations in the ball room. On either side of the star will be the figures "1846" and "1912." Around the remaining three walls of the room will be myriads of smaller lights and a solid wall of flowers. It is estimated that the decorations will cost not less than one thousand dollars, and this amount has been set aside for the purpose. In the refreshment room, which is to be in the old palace, there will be twenty-four small tables, with chairs, each table to have a floral center piece. The small tables will surround a larger one which will be gorgeously decorated. The reception room, which is also in the old palace, will likewise be decorated with a profusion of flowers.

The old palace and the armory hall will be connected with a covered way so that the guests may pass freely from one to the other without exposure to the night air.

The committee of militia reported that definite arrangements have been made to bring the cadets from the Roswell military institute to Santa Fe. The young soldiers, while in the capital, will be the guests of private citizens who have thrown open their doors and extended the boys a cordial invitation to make themselves at home. Arrangements for bringing to Santa Fe several militia companies from outside cities are also being made and it is expected that nearly every national guard company in the state will be represented in the ceremonies.

The refreshment room has been placed in charge of one of the most famous caterers in the southwest and nothing will be left undone to see to it that the guests at the ball be provided with the very best in the way of delicacies. No extra charge will be made for refreshments, the $10 ticket covering all expenses. The committee has met with a liberal response to its request for funds and is able to provide for the banquet and will prove itself a worthy host to the multitude of visitors who are expected to attend the inauguration of the first governor of the forty-seventh state of the union.

MORE ABOUT TUBERCLECID

When seen by a reporter, Mr. Aycock, member of the Tuberclecid company, made the following statement:

"I feel that our company has been well paid for our coming to your city, if we do nothing more than save one life. Right will prevail sooner or later. We have had a hard fight, but I am convinced that Tuberclecid will live and continue to do a great work after I am gone. You will see Mr. Paca's letter on another page of this issue.

PROGRESSIVENESS SHOULD WIN FOR DEMOCRATS

Norman E. Mack Says Party Can Elect President Next Year on Constructive Legislation Enacted By Congress.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]

Detroit, Dec. 14.—"Democracy should be ready to win the next presidential election on constructive legislation not on the blunders of the republican party leaders in Washington," said Chairman Mack of the democratic national committee at a dinner given here tonight by the Michigan democratic central committee.

"If the work so admirably begun in Washington last winter is carried out on the same progressive lines democratic victory is assured," he continued. "Consideration of the Sherman anti-trust law has become so widespread that the average business man engaged in a corporate enterprise is not fully aware as to just what course he should pursue. The president in his last message suggests supplemental legislation.

"This is a good thing if what is suggested by the president can be done, but it looks illogical for as soon as the president made the declaration he found the captains of industry giving the president's plan their hearty approval.

"As a democrat, I would like to see some law enacted that will permit the big business men of the country to go on and do all the big things possible without doing harm to the small business man. That is what must be done. If the Sherman law is not explicitly enough I believe we should have a law that means just what it says. In order that the business men of our nation may know just what they will have to do without going to the attorney general of the United States before embarking in any big business enterprise. We find ourselves in the latter condition today.

"The corporate offense complained of is the outgrowth of the fostering of tariff privileges granted by each succeeding republican administration and the chief features of the tariff offense lie in the administration's repudiation of its campaign pledge of 1908 for a tariff revision."

NO MORE STOMACH TROUBLE AFTER TAKING THIS

Indigestion, Heartburn, Gas, Dyspepsia and Other Stomach Misery Relieved in Five Minutes With a Little Diapiesin.

There would not be a case of indigestion here if readers who are subject to stomach trouble knew the tremendous anti-ferment and digestive virtue contained in Diapiesin. This harmless preparation will digest a heavy meal without the slightest fuss or discomfort, and relieve the most acid stomach in five minutes, besides overcoming all foul, nauseous odors from the breath.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on each 50-cent case of Diapiesin. Then you will readily understand why this promptly cures indigestion and removes such symptoms as Heartburn, a feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, Belching of gas and water brash, Nausea, Headache, Bitterness and many other bad symptoms; besides, your stomach, liver and intestines clean and fresh.

If your stomach is sour and full of gas, or your food doesn't digest, or your meals don't seem to fit, why not get a 50-cent case from your druggist, and make life worth living? Absolute relief from Stomach misery and perfect digestion of anything you eat is sure to follow five minutes after, and, besides, one 50-cent case is sufficient to cure a whole family of such trouble.

Surely, a harmless, inexpensive preparation like Diapiesin, which will always, either at daytime or during night, relieve your stomach misery and digest your meals, is about as handy and valuable a thing as you could have in the house.

Christmas Announcement.

I am glad to say that I have received a good start toward the annual Salvation Army Christmas dinner for the poor of Albuquerque. I was at first afraid that I could not do justice to the people, but as the people of this city have helped me so well in the past, I believe with God's help and yours, we can equal the showing of any town in the state. I have a good list now, and I hope that all the poor widows, orphans, aged and infirm of Albuquerque, may be supplied with Christmas cheer as far as the funds will permit.

During last Christmas the annual Salvation Army Christmas dinner for the poor, the rescue homes, industrial homes and prison work, all permanent institutions of the Salvation army, 233,742 Christmas dinners were given in the United States alone. To this can be added the work in 55 other countries. It can be easily seen that this work requires much extra labor, and with the prospect of doing as well this year, I find that headquarters are unable to send additional help at present. There are four other corps in the district with only one officer each.

We are, however, going to do our best this year again, and should there be any provisions over and above these which I have spoken of it will be used for the general good work in the city.

Here's to Mother and-Cottolene

"The kind that Mother used to Make"

Modern mothers and wise-acre cooks use Cottolene, instead of butter or lard, for frying and shortening. The reason is plain as the nose on your face.

Cottolene is a vegetable product, made from purest, refined cotton oil. It contains no hog fat or impurities, is made in a careful, cleanly manner, never sold in bulk, its purity and freshness are absolutely guaranteed, and it makes food which is free from grease and indigestion.

Imitations of Cottolene are thicker than blackberries in season, so be sure to ask for and take only Cottolene, the original pure food shortening. It is economical because it goes one-third farther.

PECOS TEACHERS TO MEET DEC. 22

Association Holds Annual Gathering in Clovis This Month: Mothers' Federation to Meet.

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.]

Clovis, N. M., Dec. 12.—The Pecos Valley Teachers' association, the second largest educational organization in New Mexico, will meet in Clovis December 22-23. Several new features have been added to the program, among which are two declamatory contests, one between the high schools of the valley and one between the grades. A gold and a silver medal will be awarded to the best speaker in each division. Panners will be given for the best school exhibits and a badge of honor will be presented to the county superintendent whose delegation travels the largest aggregate number of miles.

Among the prominent educators who will be present at this meeting will be Dr. C. M. Light and Prof. Alvan N. White of Silver City, Superintendent Taylor of Deming and Hon. R. B. Cousins, president of the Texas state normal at Canyon City, Texas. At this time will be held in this city, the first meeting of the Pecos Valley Mothers' Federation. Mrs. D. D. Swearingen, president of the local Mothers' club, is the originator of this splendid movement to bring the mothers of the Pecos valley together once a year and thereby further the educational interests in eastern New Mexico.

The spirit of improvement is rife in Clovis now. The Presbyterian people have completed arrangements for the erection of a $4,000 church building and a mansion for the pastor. The Catholic church, costing about $8,000, will be completed in the near future and will be one of the most attractive churches in the city. Several handsome residences are under construction.

Dr. D. D. Swearingen and wife are attending the meeting of the Pecos Valley Medical association at Lake Arthur.

T. J. Mabry, state senator from Curry county, returned recently from an extended visit in Oklahoma. Mr. Mabry looks wise and says nothing when he reads what Carlsbad has to say about the new normal school to be located in eastern New Mexico.

DASTARDLY CRIME TO BE AVENGED

Depraved Citizens Charged With Attempt to Rob Printers Held to Grand Jury in Roswell.

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.]

Roswell, N. M., Dec. 12.—Jack Padgett and H. C. Trigg, who were arrested on the charge of attempting to hold up Herbert Ayres and Frank T. Ingle, printers who were assaulted on Main street when returning to the Morning News office after midnight lunch at a restaurant, were brought before Justice M. W. Witt today on the charge of attempted highway robbery. They waived preliminary examination and were held to district court under a bond of $1,000. Trigg gave bond, Padgett could not do so.

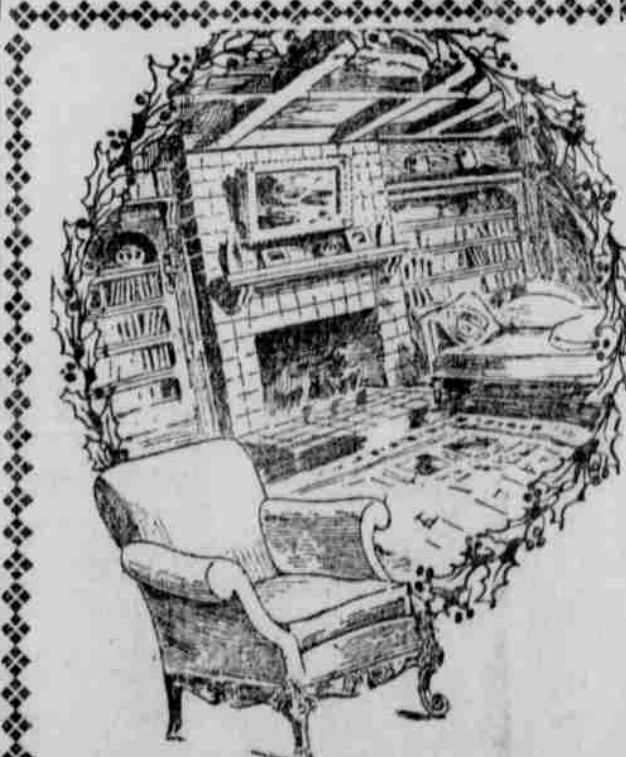

Both defendants appear Saturday to answer the charge of carrying concealed weapons, which they had when arrested at a suspected highwayman.

The Baseball Case.

Two voluminous transcripts have just been completed by Clerk S. L. Roberts of the district court, in the case of New Mexico against Thomas Davenport and E. R. Hart, which have been tried in the lower court and are being appealed to the supreme court. The arrests were made for alleged participation in a baseball game at Clovis on August 26, 1911, which, it is alleged, was a violation of the New Mexico Sunday law. The cases, and it is alleged the game, were arranged as a test of the Sunday law for baseball purposes.

All cables and wires of the Mountain State Telephone and Telegraph company in the business district of Roswell are to be put in underground conduits. The work starts February 1 when the company's construction gang returns from Colorado. The work will cost $75,000 to $100,000.

ALBUQUERQUE NEW MEXICO

THE BURN OFFERING.

The preparations being made by the people of New Mexico to hold a senatorial barbecue, have aroused considerable interest not only in the state, but in adjoining states; and in fact in localities as far distant as that dear Washington and Philadelphia. The following little comment from the El Paso Times is rather spicy and will bear reading, although the conclusion takes a great deal for granted:

One of the most interesting features of the New Mexico political situation is the apparent disposition to sacrifice the Pennsylvania Bull that has so long been the undoubted master of the New Mexico range. For years and years the Bull has reigned the range, pawed the earth and beloveted political defiance to all comers, and at the feed trough he has always held the commanding place and forced all the lesser bulls to take to the political brush when they cast envious glances in his direction.

The Pennsylvania Bull who has been king of the New Mexico republican range, is an imported animal who suffered nothing through the process of acclimation. Journeying to the New Mexico range, he was agreeably surprised to find that range but a miniature replica of the Kayote range where he was born and raised. He found the very same unscrupulous range methods just as potent in New Mexico as in Pennsylvania, and the salty mavor of the Great American dollar just as agreeable to the bovine New Mexico palate as it was to the voracious Pennsylvania appetite, and this transplanted Pennsylvania Bull became speedily a great political power through his manifest ability to paw up the coin.

For many years the king Bull of the New Mexico range has been permitted to bellow in the halls of congress at Washington. His raucous and strident tones have reverberated many times in the chamber of the national lawmakers, where bellowing and pawing up the political earth was his only diversion, for the Bull of New Mexico was permitted no real voice in national lawmaking—it being against the provisions of the national constitution to permit a Bull to vote. And as the Bull always returned to the New Mexico range with more "milk" for the range boss, he was permitted to continue to serve.

When statehood was granted to New Mexico and the range boss of the former territory, which is the old republican machine, began to lay plans for the rewarding of the faithful old stags who had kept the machine in motion, it was not calculated that the Bull would be a factor in the situation, but that he would be satisfied with the honors already bestowed and content to take his position with the range boss. But the old King Bull had no idea of retiring to the fastnesses of the range. The idea of statehood had resulted in his political "Goodnight," and thus rejuvenated, he returned to the New Mexico range and while the range bosses were confident of his effacement and laboring with the problem of getting all Sol. Lum's sheep votes counted in the state election, this "Goodnighted" old Bull was rousing the legislative range and cultivating the friendship of possible members of the state legislature.

The result is that the republican range boss lost the state to the democrats and one of the United States senatorships to the old but thoroughly rejuvenated Bull of the New Mexico range. And while the range bosses are now making every effort to compass the defeat of the Bull, that animal is serenely confident in the consciousness that he has enough of the republican legislative herd rounded up to insure the election of the Bull to the United States senate.

"Albuquerque has woken up," says the Santa Fe New Mexican, in commenting on the advent of manual training here. We hope that some time you will have the same, having now what Albuquerque does.

Although he claimed to have the forces of organized labor behind him, it was evidently what was ahead of him that caused James McNamara to make a clean breast of it.

And the disaffected general continues to Reyes Cain.

Sammy Gimpers is conversing for publication; just a trifle too much.

DO IT NOW.

There are employed in the stores of Albuquerque many hundred men and women who wait upon the buying public. For the most part they perform this service cheerfully, politely and patiently. They are courteous and accommodating, often in spite of great provocation to the contrary, because it is a requisite of the business and because they are breadwinners and must make good and must hold their positions; and because as a whole they are naturally a polite and obliging class of people.

Every one of them has a home where Christmas means just as much and perhaps more than it does to those who are not obliged to spend long hours behind a counter in order to support themselves and others dependent on them. They are just as full of plans for a Merry Yule season as you are; they are planning to buy a few Christmas gifts for their families and friends just as you are; they have their own Christmas trees to trim and adorn, their own gifts to wrap up and direct and are looking forward more eagerly than you are to the respite from daily toil and the cheer and lightness which the Christmas season brings.

This "shop early" talk has become so hackneyed that probably most of you are bored to hear it every season; in fact it has become so trite that the annual admonition to consider the salespeople often nowadays goes in one ear and fills merrily out the other leaving no trace behind; and you do just as you have always done and put off buying things until the very last moment and like as not swear inwardly at the jaded salesgirl or clerk as she or he fails to show the haste you feel while dragging wearily down from the top shelf the goods you wish to examine. The inevitable consequence is the hardest kind of hard work for exhausted employees as late as midnight on Christmas eve, following several weeks of gradually increasing rush. It is the rankest injustice to the people behind the counter and it is so easy to obviate. It is easier and simpler for you to do it now. Finish up your purchase this week or the early part of next week; go down town in the morning; know what you want when you enter the store and be as courteous to the shop girl as she is to you. There is no better opportunity during the whole season to exemplify the things that Christmas means: kindness, cheerfulness, thought for others, the spirit of giving rather than receiving, the splendid altruism which makes the Yule the most glorious festival in the world of Christianity.

Don't consider the "shop-early" adjuration a yearly bore, convenient to fill up newspaper space; it means something to you and to your fellow man and must not lightly be disregarded. To ignore it is pure selfishness; to respect it and follow it means a happier Christmas for the man or the girl who is working long hours in order that your Christmas plans may be carried out.

DO IT NOW.

BEGINNING AT THE BEGINNING.

The most practical turn taken by the educational crusade in this city against tuberculosis is the plan already carried out of holding special exercises in the public schools devoted to the explanation of the causes of the disease, the methods of spreading it and the methods of preventing its dissemination and arresting its progress. This is getting at the root of the matter and beginning at the bottom. If the plan is followed systematically it will mean that the graduate of the public schools in Albuquerque, just at the age when the disease makes its greatest ravages, will be three armed against the plague, will have a more thorough knowledge of its nature than the average adult does at present, and will not only know how to conserve his own health, but will be an individual force toward the protection of the public. Albuquerque has no more important duty than that of making the city safe and sanitary for the man who comes here to absorb new life with the sunshine and the resident who is well.

This is one feature of the crusade which shows the great results which may be achieved by the Albuquerque society for the study and prevention of tuberculosis.

"I am just as proud of the friendship of John J. McNamara today as I was two weeks ago," says John J. Keegan of Indianapolis, a member of the state legislature and state organizer for the "machinists" union. Unfortunately Mr. Keegan will be less able to enjoy that friendship.

An unwary husband of Chicago taught his wife to box, and when she disciplined him by a good thrashing, he sued her for divorce on the grounds of cruelty. Which, as a New Mexico exchange says, "was just like a man."

A woman testified in court that her husband had sold her for a cent and a half to another fellow. No testimony was adduced tending to show whether the other fellow considered it a bargain or a swindle.

It ought not to be difficult for the Commercial club to get the solid support of the local public in a move to join the Anti-Tipping League. Here is a great humanitarian crusade if there ever was one.

Judging from the published likeness of the Infanta Eulalia, her book ought to be good reading, anyhow.

SUPPORT IT.

Rev. R. B. Tolbert, pastor of the Congregational church, has, practically unaided, succeeded in assuring the success of one of the best entertainment courses ever brought to Albuquerque, including such attractions as former Governor Hoch of Kansas and Judge Ben H. Lindsey, the latter to tell the people of this city how to solve one of their most baffling problems—how to take care of the juvenile offenders. This bureau course should have and evidently will have the enthusiastic support of the public. Mr. Tolbert and those who have backed him in the work are deserving of the thanks of the citizens and the latter's appreciation may best be shown by filling the theater at every entertainment.

"In my publicity work," said Mr. Tolbert yesterday, "I often get letters from prospective residents who ask me what they will find in the way of culture and educational entertainment if they come to Albuquerque to live. If we can point to the opportunity to hear such men as Lindsey, to entertainments which leave something in the minds of the people that will help them, to refining and uplifting influences, it often clinches the argument and brings in the new comer."

It is this kind of entertainment that the people of Albuquerque need and the bygone course which opens with a splendid musical attraction tonight should have the cordial support of the public.

"It was his life or ours," said Ethel Conrad, in explaining the motive for perforating millionaire Stokes' neck with a six shooter. It looks more like a case of his legs or—er—beg pardon, ladies.

QUAY COUNTY DEMOCRAT NEW NEWSPAPER TO BE LAUNCHED IN TUCUMCARI

The Morning Journal has received the following announcement: Through the earnest solicitation of the leading citizens, farmers and business men of Tucumcari, in particular and Quay county in general—the undersigned have been induced to establish in Tucumcari, Quay county, N. M., a clean, straight and untarnished democratic newspaper, to be known and duly named as the Quay County Democrat.

The desire for the creation of this new paper in Tucumcari is not only local, but state wide. In view of the fact that the democratic paper here is no longer in a position to be able to honestly defend the better element of the democratic party of Quay county from the attacks of opposition; therefore, we have agreed to satisfy the wishes of this people by launching in this field a new and clean democratic newspaper—one which is not owned, controlled or dictated to by any ring, clique or combination—untrammeled, unfettered and unsubsidized. In fact a clean, Simon-pure democratic newspaper—one which owes no allegiance to any class or combination, secret, social or individual.

Vol. 1, No. 1, of The Quay County Democrat will appear on or about December 15—and it is to be hoped that its birth will be synonymous with that of our long looked for "Statehood." With statehood and "honest elections" New Mexico may well afford to rejoice—but without it retrogression is possible. Therefore, as democrats, we must be able to practice what we preach—and especially is this imperative and absolute in a newspaper.

The Quay County Democrat will be an open, honest and aggressive exponent of democracy, statehood and clean elections. You will always know where to find it at all times and on all occasions. Always commending the honest efforts of honest democrats, honest citizens and honest principles—and always denouncing the dishonest methods in any and all of other parties. The Democrat will be a newspaper of opinions, and dare to express them whenever the occasion requires it. Now that we have statehood (minus only the president's proclamation) let us be worthy of the boon thus bestowed upon us, and make our town of Tucumcari and the county of Quay—a criterion of good citizenship—worthy of emulation; and not one at which to point the finger of scorn. A newspaper to be of real value to its readers, town or county must have and keep a clean record.

The fact that the editor of the Democrat has been in New Mexico only thirty-three years, and established almost as many newspapers as he has lived years in New Mexico, in the meantime, should not bar his debut to the stage of usefulness or cloud his progressive democratic ambitions. That he is a journalistic pathfinder, trail blazer and for ten years a taxpayer and property owner in the town of Tucumcari should not be used seriously against him—as there are lots of other good people who have been so fortunate as to be pioneers in this once wild but now very promising and progressive city.

In conclusion let it not be forgotten that our motto will be in the future as it has been in the past, "Tucumcari first, Quay county next and the state last," is good democracy, and if you want to help your town, then subscribe for and advertise in The Quay County Democrat, $1.00 per year. Fine job work at eastern prices. Thank you many old time friends in advance for the liberal encouragement promised us.

We remain as ever,
Yours in command,
JAMES E. CURREN,
Editor and Proprietor.

NEW MEXICO ISSUE OF 'THE EARTH' IS ELABORATE ONE

SPLENDID ARTICLES UPON NEW STATE'S RESOURCES

Governor McDonald, Last Territorial Governor Mills, Henning, Holt and Others Among Contributors.

A series of brilliant articles on New Mexico and her resources, led by one by Governor-elect W. C. McDonald, make the December issue of "The Earth," the Santa Fe development magazine, devoted entirely to New Mexico, one of the handsomest special editions of that magazine ever published. Tens of thousands of copies of this magazine are circulated all over the country, especially among the class of people likely to be most interested in the west's opportunities; the advertisers are guaranteed a minimum circulation of 35,000 copies monthly so it will be seen that the new state issue will have tremendous pulling power in boosting New Mexico throughout the union.

Following an editorial page devoted to New Mexico comes a brief but inclusive article by Governor McDonald on the "Future of New Mexico," succeeded by one equally interesting by retiring governor W. J. Mills, entitled "All Hall the State of New Mexico." H. B. Homans, secretary of the bureau of immigration contributes one on "New Mexico, Mecca of the Small Investor," like the others lavishly illustrated. Will Robinson tells of "A Banner year in the Pecos Valley." Willard E. Holt's splendid offering is "The Mines of the Pump" in the Miñaca and Portales valleys and elsewhere. George A. Fleming of Las Vegas tells of the Camfield project and Nelson Le Grand has an article on the "Timber Resources of New Mexico." "The Story of the Carlsbad Peach" is well told by Francis G. Tracy of Carlsbad, and besides these there is much miscellaneous information about the new state, the whole making a splendid presentation of New Mexico's resources, attractions, possibilities and opportunities. The illustrations of development and agricultural scenes in New Mexico are even finer than those which usually appear in "The Earth," which is saying a great deal. The special edition will add a big impetus to the southward movement over the country and New Mexico has never received better advertising.

KNOW NOTHING OF PLUMBERS STRIKE

Officials of Whitney Company and Beeman and Ayer as Well as Union Men Deny Knowledge of It.

Officials of the Whitney company yesterday denied any knowledge of the alleged plumbers' strike which it is reported has broken out again, declaring that all their union employees were at work and that the union themselves profess ignorance of any plan for another strike. It is said Beeman and Ayer likewise declare that news of such a strike is real news to them.

Suspends Sticker Rule for Christmas

The postmaster general has backed up and the sticker ordinance of the postoffice department recently promulgated is suspended until New Year's day. This ruling, recently explained at length by the bureau of immigration, provided that no adhesive stamps other than postage stamps could be placed on the front of the envelope. It is understood the postmaster general has suspended the rule until after Christmas for the benefit of the Red Cross stamp movement. Postmaster Hopkins yesterday received the following announcement of the suspension: "Office of the Postmaster General. "Washington, D. C., Dec. 8, 1911. "Order No. 5962. "The second paragraph of article No. 5239, dated July 1, 1911, and published in the August, 1911, supplement to the United States Official Postal Guide, reading as follows: "All domestic mail matter bearing on the address side adhesive stamps or imitations of stamps other than lawful postage stamps will be returned to the sender if known; otherwise, they will be forwarded to the Division of Dead Letters." is hereby suspended until January 1, 1912. "FRANK H. HITCHCOCK, Postmaster General."

HOUSE PAYS VETERAN MEMBER UNUSUAL HONOR

Washington, Dec. 14.—Seldenham E. Ancona, 87 years old, one of the few living members of the special session of congress of 1861, which met July 4, to declare a state of war against the confederacy, was paid an unusual honor in the house today. Amid cheers from both sides the house took a recess of ten minutes to permit a public reception for Mr. Ancona in front of the speaker's desk. Every representative in the house filed past the white-haired veteran and shook his hand.

FINEST TRAIN HE EVER SAW SAYS MR. CONNELL

Santa Fe General Passenger Agent Comes in on De Luxe Yesterday Full of Enthusiasm.

"There is no handsomer train in the United States," was the enthusiastic comment on the de luxe Santa Fe limited yesterday morning made by J. M. Connell of Topeka, general passenger agent of the Santa Fe system. Mr. Connell rode in from Chicago on the de luxe train which arrived here at 7:50, running special with things all its own way. As the train was due here at 8:25 it got in considerably ahead of the schedule and at this rate it has been moving could further cut down its proposed time by the time it reaches Los Angeles. The train is expected to make the 880 miles between here and the coast in 24 hours, an average of about 35 miles an hour including stops. Based on the actual running time, of course, it makes much better speed than that and is one of the very fastest trains in the country. It stops here ten minutes, one of the longest stops en route.

"We had about thirty passengers on board," said Mr. Connell, "and they all seemed delighted with the service. Certainly no finer train could be wished by the most fastidious, as the two drawing room cars, each state room with its own private annex furnish the most luxurious seclusion, and the club car and diner are beautiful specimens of the car builder's art. The diner especially, with its indirect lighting system, reflecting the illumination from the ceiling and its beautiful interior finish throughout being as near perfection as can be found anywhere. There is only one car in the train that affords the ordinary open section space."

Mr. Connell says the prospects are for a heavier westbound travel this year than ever before. "We estimate," he said, "that at least five days a week during January and February it will be necessary to run the regular California Limited train in two sections."

Mr. Connell is of the opinion that the de luxe train will be the most popular train in the west with the class of tourists who want the very best and most comfortable accommodations that money will buy and to whom the 25 excess fare is a small sum in comparison with the service secured. The fact that the new train beats the limited's schedule six hours gives some idea of the great speed of the train, a thing made possible on the long western grades only by the splendid road which has now been built up by the Santa Fe from lakes to coast.

The new train's performance in reaching here ahead of time is the more gratifying in view of the fact that a dense fog in Kansas City and for twenty-five miles west of there delayed the train forty-eight minutes. An idea of the scarcity of the stops is gained from the fact that between Chicago and Kansas City the new train stops only when and where needed for operating purposes, changing engines, taking water and provisions. Mr. Connell left here last night for the coast.

H. H. Roberts, president of the Las Vegas Normal, and Prof. R. H. Larkin of Las Vegas, have been in Gallup for some days past during which time Dr. Roberts delivered six addresses, three at the school and three at the churches. Friday night he spoke on "Mirth and Pathos of Travel." Saturday morning's address being directed chiefly to the teachers of McKinley county, while in the afternoon he spoke to both teachers and parents. All of these talks were very much appreciated by the audience.

Sunday morning and evening Dr. Roberts spoke at the churches, these two sermons being exceedingly interesting and helpful. The singing of Mr. Larkin during these meetings was much enjoyed, as he possesses a remarkably fine basso voice.

The coming of these two men was a genuine treat to the people of Gallup.

Saturday night the school gave a box supper in the Odd Fellows' hall, the evening's entertainment consisting of a program participated in by representatives from each of the rooms. After the program was over the boxes were sold and the real festivities began. There was a large crowd present and the receipts amounted to $55.90, which will go for the benefit of the public school library.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

Wall Street.

New York, Dec. 14.—United States Steel was again the center of the stage today. Early trading in this stock was spectacular. Excited operators ran up the price to 48, the highest price since September and a gain from yesterday of 1-5/8.

Within the first fifteen minutes, transactions amounted to 135,000 shares. After the first hour the price eased off until the gain had been virtually eliminated. The day's business was the largest of several weeks with a total of 357,000 shares of United States Steel and $68,000 shares of other stocks.

The general market responded unwillingly to the rise in United States Steel. When United States Steel fell back the whole market declined, some stocks falling under yesterday's close. During the afternoon the coal and copper were moved moderately but the list as a whole made little response. The feverish bidding for United States Steel was ascribed largely to short covering. The tendency of the price of steel products continued upward. Copper stocks advanced in response to another advance in the price of the metal which is at the highest price for a long period. American Agricultural Chemicals partly discounted the beginning of dividend payments. The new stocks of the American Tobacco subsidiaries were listed today. Trading in these issues were active although prices were virtually unchanged. Closing stocks.

Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, Dec. 14.—The approach of Christmas thinned the crowd today on change and let prices ease off a little all around. At the end of the session wheat was down 3-8 to 3-8 1/2 net, corn off 1-4 to 3-8 to 3-8 1/2, oats 1-2 to 1-2 1/2, and hog products 2 1/2 to 2 1/2 1/2.

Wheat closed at almost the bottom for the day. It was apparent the market had no support, but shorts seemed timid about putting on much pressure. What decline occurred was more due to neglect than because of any external influence. Crop news from the Argentine if showing any material difference turned in favor of the bears. Then, too, Northwest receipts did not exhibit the falling off expected after the light run of the previous day. Liberal export sales reported at Montreal gave some help as there was no foreign demand for United States grown wheat and no adequate milling call for the big stocks in Chicago. Estimates were current that 20 to 25 per cent of the spring crop was yet in farmers' hands and that southwestern reserves were light. May ranged from 97 1/4 to 97 7/8 with the finish steady at 97 3/8 to 97 1/2, a decline of 3-8 compared with 24 hours before.

Some of the larger commission concerns were selling corn off and on. Pit traders thought, appeared to favor the buying side. May fluctuated between 62 3/8 and 63 7/8, closing easy 1-4 to 3-8 down at 63 3/8 to 63 1/2, cash demand was strong. No. 2 yellow was quoted at 70 1/2 for car lots.

Profit taking on the part of the shorts afforded the only prop under the oats market. Top and bottom levels reached for May were 49 1/8 to 49 1/4 and 48 3/8 to 48 1/2 with the finish steady at 48 1/2 to 48 3/8.

Provisions weakened in view of a drop in prices at the yards. When the pit was cleared pork had become less expensive by 7 1/2 to 10c and other products declined in cost 1 1/2 to 5 1/2 to 1-1/2.
