CUBAN INSURGENTS
GAIN A VICTORY!After a Six Hours' Fight a Spanish Force Surrenders.

SPANISH STEAMER VIZCAYA BADLY DAMAGED.

New York, June 8.—News has just reached the Cuban junta here of a victory achieved by the Cuban forces over the division of the Spanish army at Jiguaní, province of Santiago, May 22. It was the most important victory since the war was declared by the United States against Spain. Thirteen hundred Spanish soldiers, acting under orders from Havana to abandon interior towns and advance towards the coast, evacuated Jiguaní, after having destroyed all the fortifications, and camped at Jiguaní, awaiting further orders. They were joined there by 300 Spanish soldiers from Santa Rita. The Spaniards were surprised May 22 by a division of General Calixto García's command under the leadership of Col. Jose Juan Rabi. The Cubans numbered a little more than 1,000 men, and the Spaniards had fully twice that number. After six hours' hard fighting the Spaniards surrendered. The Cubans took as prisoners one Spanish colonel, seven captains and several other officers, besides 103 soldiers. The Spanish loss amounted to twenty-six dead besides a large number of wounded. Included in the Spanish losses were thirteen officers. The Cubans sustained a heavy loss, but considerably smaller than the Spaniards. The Cubans captured a large quantity of arms and ammunition.

Undoubtedly a special from Madrid says that in the course of Monday's cannonading at Santiago de Cuba, Captain Philip of the United States battleship Texas was killed by a Spanish shell. There is nothing in other dispatches from West Indian waters to substantiate the report.

VIZCAYA DAMAGED.

Report that a shell from the Brooklyn damaged the Spanish cruiser. New York, June 8.—A special from Kingston, Jamaica, reports that the Spanish cruiser Vizcaya and the torpedo boat destroyer Furor were badly damaged during the bombardment of Santiago's defenses on Monday. A shell from the Brooklyn is said to have burst under the Vizcaya's port quarter, dismounting a gun and injuring the cruiser's rudder and wounding several sailors.

French Cabinet Resigns. Paris, June 8.—The following semi-official note was issued this afternoon: The ministers placed their resignations at the disposal of M. Méline, premier, who, if his policy is approved by the chamber, will remodel the cabinet on the basis of the recent election.

DETAILS OF BOMBARDMENT.

Names of the Spanish Killed and Wounded at Santiago. (Copyrighted Associated Press.) Havana, June 7, (delayed in transmission).—Details from Spanish sources at Santiago de Cuba were received here today of the Cuban losses during the bombardment on Monday. The marine chief killed on the Reina Mercedes was former Captain Emilio Acosta Yornamán. Captain Alejandro Milanes, also on the Reina Mercedes, was killed. Col. Ordaz, of the artillery and inventor of the cannon tearing his name, was slightly wounded. Some other officers were slightly wounded by projectiles, shells and fragments scattered by the explosion of shell on land.

The insurgents today dynamited a passenger train near Pinar, overthrowing one car and derailing the train.

Admitted by Spain. Madrid, June 8, 10 a. m.—It is officially admitted that the Spanish cruiser Reina Mercedes was sunk by the fire of the American fleet at Santiago de Cuba on Monday. Five sailors and twenty-nine marines on her were killed.

Quiet at Cardenas. Key West, June 8.—The auxiliary gunboat which arrived here this morning from Cardenas and reports all quiet there, except that the auxiliary gunboat Leyden is making things lively for the Spaniards by blazing away at them whenever she sees a movement on the Spanish gunboats or on the defensive works.

French Cabinet Resigns. Paris, June 8.—The following semi-official note was issued this afternoon: The ministers placed their resignations at the disposal of M. Méline, premier, who, if his policy is approved by the chamber, will remodel the cabinet on the basis of the recent election.

St. Paul sails. New York, June 8.—The auxiliary cruiser St. Paul sailed at noon today, under sealed orders.

BLUSTERING SPANIARDS.

They Use the Truth in a Most Reckless Manner. Madrid, June 8.—A semi-official note published here today says: "The American navy, under Admiral Sampson, directly attacked Santiago de Cuba and a bloody encounter ensued. The Americans made three attacks on the Spanish marine and land batteries, which replied, as a consequence the Americans were repelled with heavy losses, estimated at 1,500 men. The American projectiles, however, sunk the Spanish cruiser Reina Mercedes."

No One Hurt. Washington, June 8.—Reports coming from Spanish sources apparently originating at Madrid, stated that Captain Phillips, of the Texas, had been killed by a shell. The president said the report was evidently baseless, as Admiral Sampson's official report stated that there were no casualties.

READY TO ATTACK.

A bulletin made public at the department last night merely stated that he had "silenced the works quickly without injury of any kind."

American Land and Naval Forces Ready for a Big Battle. New York, June 8.—A special from Cape Haytien says: The Americans and insurgents have formed a junction near Santiago, and the land attack on the city is momentarily expected. The Spaniards claim to have 24,000 seasoned troops in Santiago.

Death of Judge Grinnell. Chicago, June 8.—Judge Julius F. Grinnell died suddenly today at the Illinois Trust and Savings bank. Grinnell was famous for the record he made as a fearless public servant, particularly as state attorney during the prosecution of the Haymarket anarchists.

For several years Judge Grinnell has been general counsel of the Chicago City Railway company. He was 56 years old.

SHIPS CHARTERED.

Vessels to Take Second Expedition to the Philippines. Washington, June 8.—Assistant Secretary McKeljohn chartered the steamships Indiana, Morgan City and City of Paris for transportation of troops to the Philippines and closed contract for the Victoria, Olympia and Arizona of the Northern Pacific steamship line and secured the privilege of acquiring the Tacoma and Columbia, if needed, all five on condition that they are given American register. He also ordered impressed into service Senator, Oregon and City of Puebla, of the Pacific steamship company, if found satisfactory.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

Hawaiian Annexation Comes Up in the House of Representatives. Washington, June 8.—In the senate, Hale, Maine, chairman of the naval affairs committee, reported favorably a bill to organize the hospital corps of the United States navy, to define its duties and regulate its pay. The bill passed. Mason, Illinois, reported from the committee on postoffice and post roads, a bill extending the franking privilege through the mails to the officers and men of the army and navy during the existing war.

Platt, Connecticut, desired to examine the bill. On his objection the measure went over.

HOUSE. Grosvener, leader of the Hawaiian annexationists, asked unanimous consent to read and have referred to the committee on rules, a resolution providing for giving the Hawaiian resolution precedence over all other business except conference reports until disposed of.

"I will say to the gentleman," quickly interjected Henderson (Republican, Iowa), a member of the rules committee, "that it is entirely unnecessary to read or present to the house his resolution. He has only to deposit it with the clerk and it will be referred appropriately."

"I understand," responded Grosvener, "but I want it made plain that the resolution has been introduced and sent to the committee."

"I object," cried Mr. Johnson, Republican, of Indiana.

The resolution was forced to go through the regular channel.

Tampa Troops. Washington, June 8.—Secretary Alger this morning positively declined to say whether the United States troops had sailed yet from Tampa for Cuba. It is deemed probable that they got off sometime during the day.

PRETTY LITTLE FOLKS.

They Entertain and Amuse a Crowd at the Opera House. A very pretty entertainment was presented at the opera house this morning by the pupils of Miss Field's school, assisted by Misses Field, Gehring and Alger.

The little people were greeted with a well filled hall and offered a charming little bit of diversion for the parents and numerous grown and young friends.

The song, "Ten Little Sunflowers," and the promenade of "Broadway Belles," by ten little misses were of special merit; as were also, a recitation, "The Ladies' Whist Club," by Lisabey Blockman; an essay on "The French Revolution," by Rita Halloran; and a recitation, "James Douglas," by Rita Bryan.

Scenes from "School for Scandal" were presented in a charming manner by Rita Halloran and Kirk Bryan, appropriately costumed.

A violin solo by Ralph Halloran and recitations by Kileen McMillen, Rebecca Pearce, Elwood Albright, Lillian Spitz, Dorothy McMillen, and a mandolin solo by Miss Hill, and a musical piece, "As We Go Marching Through Cuba," by Lloyd Sturges, were all well presented, and aided in making the program a really enjoyable affair.

PRELIMINARY HEARING.

Of Joseph Metzinger for the Killing of Mrs. Carabajal. The preliminary hearing of Joseph Metzinger, the gold avenue baker, who owns the property where Mrs. Carabajal was killed by a bomb on Sunday evening last, was begun before Justice Duran, seated in a room in the county court house, at 10 o'clock this morning.

Attorney B. S. Hodes, assisted by Attorney Horton Moore, is conducting the defense.

They take the ground that Metzinger had the right to protect his property from thieves who had been stealing from him in the manner he did, and are citing a case in Connecticut covering somewhat the same ground.

Metzinger's property was enclosed by a fence, the gates were locked and Mr. and Mrs. Carabajal were trespassers, and a crime is made out of the fact that there was contributory negligence on the part of the couple who entered the premises.

When Mr. Hodes spoke of the killing as an unfortunate affair for which his client felt deeply aggrieved, Mr. Metzinger broke into sobs and it was some minutes before he had regained his composure.

Mr. Carabajal was put upon the stand, and to a question put by the defense he denied that he was handling the lock in any manner when the gun was fired.

The prosecution insisted that no man has a right to place a trap, as had been done by Mr. Metzinger, and as resulted in the present case, innocent persons had been killed; that the crime was murder. Mr. Finch said that in almost all cases where a killing is done, there is some motive felt by the perpetrator of the crime afterwards, but that does not lessen the enormity of the offense nor excuse it from being punished.

At a late hour this afternoon the hearing was still in progress and might be continued to-morrow.

BIG FAILURE IN LONDON.

Madrid, June 8.—Dispatches from Havana from Spanish sources say: "The Americans were again repulsed at the last bombardment of Santiago de Cuba." Continuing, the report asserts that the damage done the batteries and town are "unimportant" or "already repaired," adding: "The Spanish guns did not cease fire an instant during the fight, and all the batteries are in condition to reply to the enemy's fire. During the second attack, Col. Ordaz was on board the Reina Mercedes and personally assisted in working her guns. Every regard to Col. Ordaz and General Linares as the heroes of the day."

According to official Spanish dispatches the exact loss of the Spanish at Santiago on Monday was as follows: Lost force—One soldier killed, five officers wounded, including Colonel Ordaz, slightly wounded.

Sea forces—Second officer in command of Reina Mercedes, five sailors and twenty-nine marines killed; one officer and eleven sailors wounded.

It is reported here that the Spanish steamer Reina Mercedes, a prominent Las Vegas business man, was announced. There were present, in addition to the contracting parties and the mother of the young lady, the following: Messrs. Charles Hild, Max Nordhaus, J. J. Judell, S. Baeharrah and Charles Nathan, of Las Vegas; N. H. Hild, of Albuquerque; and Mr. and Mrs. Sol Spiegelberg, the Misses Elsie and Jessie Hild, Messrs. Adolph Seligman and A. F. Spiegelberg—New Mexican.

Report Not Confirmed. New York, June 8.—Several local papers published dispatches from points in the West Indies stating that a Spanish torpedo boat destroyer, supposed to be the Terror, was sunk on Monday night, near the mouth of Santiago harbor. The report is unconfirmed.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Explosion of a Coal Oil Can Caused the Accident. Pittsburg, June 8.—Three children were burned to death at Allegheny last evening by the explosion of a can of oil which ignited their clothing. The victims were Ella, Edith and Harriet Watts, children of Charles Watts, aged 12, 7 and 4 years and four months respectively. The eldest child with the flames roasting her body tried to carry her baby brother to a place of safety. Mrs. Watts was also burned trying to rescue the children.

BIG FAILURE.

A London Company Promoter Declared a Bankrupt. London, June 8.—A receiving order of bankruptcy has been issued against Ernest Terah Hooley, for years prominent as the biggest company promoter in this country, prominently interested in bicycle, land and other concerns, and supposed to be a multi-millionaire.

Today's petition in bankruptcy was made by Mr. Hooley himself. It is claimed that accounts aggregating $2,000,000 are pending against Mr. Hooley. Counsel for Hooley said Hooley had been "victimised to an extent which will be a revelation to the public."

Hooley was formerly adjudged bankrupt. Liabilities are no doubt very large. Among more recent projects attempted by Hooley was floating a Spanish loan. The capitals of the companies promoted by the bankrupt aggregate $600,000,000. Shares, taken as a whole, depreciated over 40 per cent. since their flotation.

Two Brigadiers.

Washington, June 8.—The president sent these nominations to the senate: Brigadier general—Charles P. Mattocks, Maine; Mark W. Shaffer, South Dakota.

Kansas Republicanism.

Hutchinson, Kan., June 8.—The republican state convention to nominate a state ticket and congressmen-at-large, met at 11 o'clock today. The convention is composed of 912 delegates, 25 to 50 per cent. more than the usual number.

Elisa Garcia, who arrived yesterday from the Mexico country, reports the sheep up there in a fair condition, but there is going to be a scarcity of grass and water if there is no rain in the next few days. "Over in the Rio Puerco country," said Mr. Garcia, "where my ranges are located, the country needs water, and in order to save my sheep, I was compelled to drive them to ranges in the Mexico country." A few days ago Mr. Garcia delivered to Frank Jandell, of Minneapolis, Minn., 2,000 ewes for immediate shipment to Kansas and Colorado pastures. The sheep were driven direct from the Rio Puerco ranges to the local stock yards, where they were loaded into double-decked cars.

Rais, an Old Offender. It now transpires that Jose P. Romero Rais, the man lying in the county jail for the murder of the O'Bannon child, is guilty of cattle stealing with his other offenses. It was told to a reporter of this paper at the time of the murder that Rais was a cattle rustler and that the cattle he sold on the day he came to town and from the proceeds of which he got drunk, in which condition he committed the murder, were stolen beasts.

But the report could not be verified at the time and it was thought that the general ill feeling against him sought to place other crimes of which he might or might not be guilty, at his door.

Two ranchmen came to town yesterday and notified Sheriff Hubbell of their suspicions that Rais was the man that had stolen their cattle a short time before the murder. The sheriff made an investigation, and found several hundred hides and a live cow in the possession of Juan Samora, a butcher in old town. These were bought from Rais and a man by the name of Las Vegas; N. H. Hild, of Albuquerque; and Mr. and Mrs. Sol Spiegelberg, the Misses Elsie and Jessie Hild, Messrs. Adolph Seligman and A. F. Spiegelberg—New Mexican.

The Hild Engagement. At an elegant family dinner, given yesterday at the home of Mrs. H. Hild, in this city, the engagement of Miss Belle T. Hild, the pretty daughter of the hostess, to Mr. I. Baeharrah, a prominent Las Vegas business man, was announced.

There were present, in addition to the contracting parties and the mother of the young lady, the following: Messrs. Charles Hild, Max Nordhaus, J. J. Judell, S. Baeharrah and Charles Nathan, of Las Vegas; N. H. Hild, of Albuquerque; and Mr. and Mrs. Sol Spiegelberg, the Misses Elsie and Jessie Hild, Messrs. Adolph Seligman and A. F. Spiegelberg—New Mexican.

No Flowers at Army Funerals. "Flowers can play no part in a military funeral, the rules of army or naval burials forbidding them," explained an army officer to a Washington (D. C.) Star reporter. "While I was down at Starmanga recently, it was rumored that one of the soldiers in a camp there had died. The result was that on the following day a large quantity of flowers were sent by sympathetic ladies and others with a request that they should be placed on the coffin of the dead soldier. Now, the fact was that no soldier had died, and the officers had the flowers sent to their quarters. If there were a death in the camp the flowers could not be used, for they are not military in any sense. The only thing allowed on the coffin of a soldier or a sailor is a flag. That has been decided to be decoration enough, and among military men I have never heard the slightest objection to the custom, which has always prevailed."

W. F. Black, an employe at the Santa Fe Pacific, is out again, and is receiving the congratulations of his friends over his narrow escape from death about a week ago. Mr. Black was at work on a raised platform, when, with his thoughts on the work he was performing, he forgot himself and stepped backwards, falling a distance of about fifteen feet. He received a badly cut head, a broken right arm, a sprained left arm and an injured hip.

THE democratic papers are whining that Mr. Bryan is to be banished to the Philippines. He can save himself the trip by resigning. FATIGUE WORDS.
Col. Henry Waterson, of the Louisville Courier-Journal, delivered a very patriotic address recently on the occasion of the departure of Kentucky troops for the war. In the course of his speech he said: "I believe in this war, I believe in it with all my mind and with all my soul. If ever there was a justifiable war, it is this. Though it should rob me of life, I shall believe it conceived in a holy spirit, sanctified by heaven, and directed toward the advancement and the enlargement of a benign civilization."

"In these warlike spectacles, everywhere manifested, it has already united us as nothing else could have united us—emancipating both sections of the Union from the impression that we ever were or could be anything else than one people."

In the nature of the case, but few of you can hope to obtain great commands or to acquire exceptional distinction. In the end, most of you must lay aside your uniforms and assume the habiliments of civil life. But there is not one of you who cannot do his duty, and doing his duty cannot but be proud and happy. A neighbor came to me the other day to ask me to exert my supposed influence in getting his son a commission. I assured him that I had no influence.

"But," I said, "I have two sons carrying muskets in the ranks—sons whom I dearly love, but for whose advancement I shall not put forth the slightest effort. It is enough for me to know that they are serving their country, and if it pleases God to bring them back to their mother and me safe and sound, I shall bless his name as long as I live."

"In that prayer, let me include each and every one of you, though I would rather see my boys, and every one of you lying by the side of that brave and lively sailor lad whom North Carolina has just given up as heaven's first sacrifice upon the altar of the nation and mankind, than that one feather should be plucked from the eagle's wing, or a syllable of reproach be justly cast upon the name and fame of our dear Kentucky."

COAL IS KING.
Coal is king. It is monarch of peace and despot of war. Spain's fleet in the West Indies was helpless without a coaling station, and our war squadron in Atlantic waters was forced to take one from the enemy or return to San Francisco. The United States has learned the lesson, and it may be positively asserted that we shall come out of this war with coaling stations in the West Indies, Hawaii, Philippine Islands, and perhaps at other points outside of our present territory.

England has long been the acknowledged "mistress of the seas," but her supremacy has been more thoroughly demonstrated by late events. Her ships will never lack coal. There are English coaling stations at Madeira, St. Vincent and Sierra Leone. Next comes St. Helena; then the Cape, Table Bay, Simon's Bay, all duly garrisoned and defended. Had it been between the Cape of Good Hope and India her great naval station Mauritius. The chain is complete between her East Indian possessions and Hong Kong. On the Atlantic coast of America she has various ports from Jamaica to Canada. In the Pacific she has Vancouver, Australia, New Zealand and others.

DEED OF DARING.
Lieut. Hobson has won high honor as an officer of the American navy by the daring which he displayed in entering the channel of Santiago and sinking the Merimae in order to make the blockade of Cervera's fleet more effective. The task set out for him was of the utmost difficulty, and involved the possible sacrifice of the lives of all the men who were aboard the ship. He had to take his vessel into a harbor filled with mines, sink her under the enemy's guns and escape in a small boat.

Hobson had six men with him—such a hero like himself—Daniel Montague, George Charlette, J. E. Murphy, Oscar Delgan, John P. Phillips and John Kelly. They went deliberately into the jaws of death and had almost no chance to escape. But they went willingly and managed to sink the ship squarely in the center of the channel at a point which will make the egress of the Spanish fleet almost impossible. If the fleet is to get out at all it must blow its way out with dynamite under the fire of the American ships.

Not the least pleasant circumstance connected with the feat is Admiral Cervera's appreciation of the daring of the Americans. His message to Admiral Sampson and his treatment of the captive entitled Cervera to distinguished credit as a generous and chivalrous foe.

THE sweeping republican victory in Oregon is a solid endorsement of the McKinley administration.

An eminent clergyman has prepared comparative tables showing the amount of money left for benevolent purposes by testators in the United States during the past three years. He finds that the bequests for 1897 are $1,000,000 in excess of those of 1896, and that the year 1897 was upwards of $13,000,000 and in 1897 more than $14,000,000. Beneficence has other forms than that of money. Great remedies are among the most precious legacies. Prominent among these is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a most effective remedy for and preventive of malaria. Equally efficacious is the bitters in cases of dyspepsia, constipation, rheumatism, nervousness, biliousness and loss of appetite and sleep.

An important mining deal has just been consummated at Prescott, the property sold being the Gold Standard group in the Santa Maria district. The purchasers are J. B. They have a mill and cyanide plant in operation. The bond has a year to run, but they decided to close the deal at once, securing full possession and enlarge their operations.

THE OPERA "ERMINIE."
One of the Grandest Performances Ever Produced in this City.

AMATEUR STARS OF ALBUQUERQUE.

The rendition of the light opera, "Erminie," at the opera house last evening, by the Albuquerque Opera company, was a delightful disappointment to those who went expecting to see the beautiful opera in the hands of amateurs, acted in an amateurish manner. The young people acquitted themselves with credit, and Mrs. May Hawley-Blaikie, under whose direction the opera was presented, is entitled to much praise for its admirable and smooth execution.

The initial performance was somewhat prolonged, as was natural it would be, but the hours seemed to fly by, so much was the pleasing production enjoyed. It proved one thing, and that is that Albuquerque has some talent that if given the opportunity of improvement that practicing artists, it would make a good record for itself no matter where shown.

Miss Edna Mills, as the charming Erminie, quite won the hearts of her hearers by her really excellent singing, graceful movements and unassuming manner. The gown worn by her in the second and third acts was a handsome affair replete with jewels and fitting the young lady to perfection, and with her beautifully arranged hair, it gave her the air of a princess.

Her duets with Mr. Lebo and again with Mr. Newton were fine.

Javotte, as rendered by Mrs. Blaikie, was a charming coquette, lively and full of spirit and bent on keeping poor Simon guessing.

Miss Shunkhart, as Cerise, the sister of Eugene, who loves Erminie, acted her part well, as did also Miss George Kellogg, as Marie, the leader of the village maids. In this she was a captivating little belle, just the kind that would steal a soldier's heart and then think him a goose for falling in love.

The part of the Princess de Gramponneur was well taken by Miss Margaret Kent. Though she still thought of Gramponneur, she was not adverse to having his successor put himself in evidence.

Of the gentlemen, a professional could not have made a better margin than did C. E. Borg. Attired in a gorgeous French costume and having an excellent accent, he looked every inch the soldier and noblesman he represented.

Herbert Howlish, as the Chevalier de Brabazon, was very natural and carried out the character to the end, without faltering or dropping the drawing notes he assumed.

Hal Springer made an ideal looking husband and Low R. Strauss was a capital waiter.

Gustav Thelin as Delannay, the officer, conducted his part well, as did also Frank Strong as the sergeant.

Everybody enjoyed Harvey J. Lebo's singing, but he is not quite enthusiastic enough as the devoted lover. Known as the charming Krinoline, Eugene ought to warm up like a parlor stove, but although he doled, he still doled and acted more like a hesitating admirer than he had yet concluded "where he was at." Eugene will certainly improve, however, under the guidance of one so fair and fascinating as Krinoline.

A. L. Newton as Ravanne, the genteel adventurer, and Frank Lee as Cadeaux, his more ruffian-looking companion, were both well up in their parts. The latter was truly fine in every particular, demonstrating that a little criticism kindly given, worked charmingly.

The introduction of three little misses doing a skirt dance to the patriotic tune of "The Red, White and Blue," brought down the house, and they had to answer to an encore. One of the little girls was attired in red, another in white, and the third in blue, with added stars, a large American flag forming a background. The calcium lights were turned on the little dancers, producing a fine effect. They were Misses Isabel Spencer, Ada Campbell and Shirley Kubus.

The chorus was exceptionally good. Mrs. Blaikie's ability as a trainer of voices and movement was brought out finely. The young stars had the confidence of a traveling chorus and sang with euphonious precision. The chorus was made up as follows:

Soprano—Mrs. Gordon Peckham, Misses Josephine Hamm, Cora Gehring, Media Tyler, Nellie Resler, Beanie Brooks, Dolores Otero, Genevieve Dempsey, Knerly. Alto—Mrs. Lena Mehan, Misses George Kellogg, Elizabeth Kellogg, Fannie Rathbone, Minnie McCus.

Tenors—Messrs. F. Walter Coover, Gustaf Thelin, S. B. Gillette, J. R. Kichar. Basses—Messrs. Frank Short, J. Kokomo Presell, Henry Kempenich, Hal Springer, Robert Kuhns, Harry Bullard, Roland Stevens, Harry Walker, Watson Downs, George Kevitt, Russell.

The following gentlemen took the part of soldiers in the piece: O. A. Malson, Dr. Alger, Clarence Hepler, Paul Miller, Bert Baker, Frank Strong, Robert Kuhns and Fred Tingley.

The music for the occasion was rendered in grand style by Prof. Di Mauro, with Mrs. Dr. Hime as the piano, while Dan. E. Phillips officiated in the most approved fashion as stage manager.

The opera will be repeated this evening, and THE CITIZEN would be pleased to see a large crowd present.

The Leland.
The family—three daughters and two sons—of Howard Leland, the register of the land office, will arrive here from Albuquerque about July 1, and will occupy one of the comfortable new dwellings erected by Mrs. Dolan on Richardson Avenue, between Fourth and Fifth Streets—Bowling Register.

Wool Storage.
Seely, Gill & Co. have filled all the spare room in their large warehouse near the railroad track with the spring's clip of wool, and have rented the vacant storeroom in the faillier block as a warehouse into which they can make shipments at satisfactory prices. Among the clips that are now stored with this firm are Jaffa, Prager & Miller, 45,000 pounds; J. M. Miller & Sons, 22,000 pounds; and Chas. de Fremont, 4,383 pounds. The Salt Creek sheep company has already brought in 100,000 pounds and is still storing. J. W. Turner is storing 7,500 pounds himself, while Messrs. Gunter, Garsard, Garrett, Chisum and others are still shearing and have made no disposition of their clips. Messrs. Pierson and Blackwell each shipped a car load last week and Martin Chavez shipped a small clip several days ago.—Bowling Register.

In Good Condition.
A ride over the Santa Fe Pacific from Needles to Seligman discloses the fact that the company is busily engaged in making improvements all along the line. Large forces of men are at work at various points putting down new rails and ties; teams and scrapers, work trains and section gangs, all rushing the work of general improvement. New and substantial iron bridges are being put in place of the old wooden structures between Truxton and Creaser, a new and commodious depot is being built at Hackberry, while several additional stations and side tracks have been created at convenient places to accommodate the business demands of the road—Needles Eye.

Two Battles.

When a man goes to war, he takes his life in his hands. He has offered his life to his country, and he is willing to give it. He knows that if he is killed in battle, his country will provide for his loved ones.

In the battle of life, a man's life is pledged in a different way. He assumes obligations that he must live to fulfill. If he dies there is no one to provide for his family, unless he has paid a life insurance company to provide for them.

University and Schools.

Entertainments to be given by the University—Commencement Exercises.

The class-day exercises of the seventh annual commencement of the University of New Mexico took place at the university this afternoon, and, although the building is located on the mesa, quite a good walk or drive from the city, there were present a large number of appreciative citizens, so says a telephone message received at this office.

To-morrow night, at the opera house, the seventh annual commencement of the university will take place, the program having been published in THE CITIZEN of yesterday afternoon. Quite a large crowd from outside towns will be added to our own citizens, thus insuring a crowded house.

On Friday night, June 10, also at the opera house, the annual concert of the university will take place. Miss Gilmore, the well-known music teacher, having arranged a very appropriate program for the occasion.

The banquet of the university alumni, as announced in the columns of THE CITIZEN a few days ago, will take place at Mrs. Hawley's, on the corner of Silver avenue and Third street, this evening. Plates will be laid for about thirty-five guests, and these include the members of the board of regents, the faculty and their wives, and the graduate of the institution.

The commencement exercises of the St. Vincent academy and St. Mary boys' school will take place at the opera house on Wednesday night, June 13, commencing promptly at 8 o'clock. The good sisters, who have charge of these popular schools of learning, have arranged, as they always do, a most interesting program, and the opera house will be crowded on the evening of June 13th. Class colors—"White and Gold," and class flower—"The Rose." Several graduates will make their bow to the public on that evening.

The closing exercises of the government Indian school, of which Prof. E. A. Allen is the popular superintendent, will be held at the school on Wednesday evening, June 22. The professor, in due time, will extend an invitation to the people of this city to attend the exercises.
