

12-18-1911

Albuquerque Morning Journal, 12-18-1911

Journal Publishing Company

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/abq_mj_news

Recommended Citation

Journal Publishing Company. "Albuquerque Morning Journal, 12-18-1911." (1911). https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/abq_mj_news/2239

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the New Mexico Historical Newspapers at UNM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Albuquerque Morning Journal 1908-1921 by an authorized administrator of UNM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact disc@unm.edu.

SHARP DIVISION OF SENTIMENT ON PENSION MEASURE

Senate Will Postpone Action on Sherwood Bill Till Next Session or Will Amend It Materially.

LEADERS INSIST ON PROGRAM OF ECONOMY

Demands on Treasury Must be Refused They Assert But in Such a Way as to Avoid Party Dissension.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Washington, Dec. 17.—A sharp division of sentiment among senators regarding service pension legislation, which has been pending since the session of 1909, was disclosed today. The bill will keep congress exceedingly busy this week. Both houses will adjourn Thursday until January 3.

The Sherwood "dollar a day" pension bill, which the house has passed, probably will not find an easy way in the senate. Senator Gore of Oklahoma, a leading democratic member of the pensions committee, already has started an inquiry into the possibility of postponing action until next session when there will be no presidential election. He contended the bill will not be so popular in congress when there is no presidential election.

Senator McCumber, chairman of the pensions committee, while not committing himself to the Sherwood bill, today expressed the opinion that some general pension legislation would be enacted this session.

He thinks congressional action should depend on the state of the treasury and has taken steps to ascertain that, and to determine what various plans of legislation might cost.

The house democrats will caucus on a number of questions, probably soon after the holiday recess.

The leaders contend that the economic program as a whole, including the pension bill, must be refused, but in such a way as to avoid party dissension.

The tariff board's report is expected from the president this week, but the ways and means committee probably will not recommend action on the wool or other schedules until after the recess, but then the president's report will be considered.

The proposed plan to open the canal to the public has developed strenuous opposition from those democrats who believe party differences should be settled behind closed doors.

HALF MILLION FOR WORLD WIDE PEACE

Trustees of Andrew Carnegie's $10,000,000 Foundation Proposes Extensive and Active Propaganda.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] New York, Dec. 17.—Plans for a world-wide campaign in the interests of peace in which approximately $500,000 will be spent during the first year, have been adopted by the trustees of Andrew Carnegie's gift of $10,000,000 for the promotion of international peace. It was stated here tonight.

According to the statement, the trustees, at a meeting in Washington on December 14, made an appropriation of $487,270 for expenditures in the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1912, with which it is proposed to set at work comprehensive peace-making machinery both in this country and abroad.

The work of propaganda in Europe is to be carried on by the permanent international peace bureau at Bern, while various peace associations in this country to be suitably supplied with funds by the board, will have a large share in the work here.

It is designated to study the causes of war and an organized, systematic way, to discover the best possible means for its prevention.

Fowler Reaches Lake Charles. Lake Charles, La., Dec. 17.—Aviator Robert G. Fowler reached this city today on a flight from Beaumont, Texas, covering the distance of about sixty miles in two hours without a stop. He will start in the direction of New Orleans tomorrow.

FORT RILEY INQUIRY SUDDENLY TERMINATED

Junction City, Kan., Dec. 17.—With the taking of Rev. C. M. Brewer of Ottumwa, Okla., proceedings in the Fort Riley dynamiting cases seems to have come to a sudden end. The military authorities admit that the release of Rev. Mr. Brewer and of Mrs. Anna Jordan is a severe setback.

Private Michael Quinn, the contractor, and the other five members of his company are still being held at the post. The belief that Quinn's confession was given merely that his long solitary confinement might be terminated, gains ground here.

Friends of Rev. Mr. Brewer and Mrs. Jordan do not believe that the charges against them will be pressed, although it is maintained that new warrants will be issued at once.

MEXICAN HIGHWAYMAN RUNS AMUCK AT TOPEKA

Topeka, Kas., Dec. 17.—One Mexican laborer was killed, another mortally injured and another slightly wounded early this morning by an unknown Mexican highwayman, who entered a bank car in which five Mexicans were sleeping. An hour later then slayer invaded a Mexican rooming house several blocks distant and opened fire on the inmates, but failed to hit a man. He escaped before the police arrived.

INVESTIGATION TO BE THOROUGH AND RAPID

Detectives and Federal Employees Put in All Day Preparing Evidence for Indianapolis Grand Jury.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 17.—Anxious not to delay the government's investigation into the dynamite conspiracy, detectives and employees of the district attorney's office were busy all today preparing evidence to be presented to the federal grand jury.

Outside of hearing a few stenographers and clerks formerly employed in the headquarters of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, of which J. J. McNamara, the secretary-treasurer, had his office, the jury and its staff has gone over the preliminaries of its work. Tomorrow more clerks are to be examined. The jurors probably will adjourn Thursday until after New Year's.

Every person whose connection with the dynamite case is considered as vital is being watched by the government. This scrutiny applies to witnesses in cities scattered throughout the country.

It is said the government has put more machinery in motion in this respect than in any other similar case in years.

WIFE REQUESTED BODY BE BROUGHT TO HOSPITAL

Corpse of Mine Victim Carried Into Sick Room That Patient Might Look Upon Husband's Features for Last Time.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Knoxville, Tenn., Dec. 17.—Ten bodies were removed from Cross Mountain mine at a Belleville today, leaving seven or eight more in the mine. Today's removals bring the total of identified dead up to seventy-seven, while the total number of victims will be eighty-four or eighty-five.

The funeral of Mayor Thomas Watts of Coal Creek, prominent in the work of relief of the Briceville sufferers, who met death Friday morning, was held today. Mrs. Watts has been confined to a hospital for a week as a result of an operation for appendicitis and at her request the funeral cortege today stopped at the hospital, the coffin was removed from the hearse and carried by the pall-bearers into the hospital, that Mrs. Watts might get a last look at the features of her husband.

TAMAHUARA INDIANS OF MEXICO STARVING

Juarez, Mexico, Dec. 17.—Conditions of the Tamahuara Indians, located in the mountains of this state, west of the city of Chihuahua, is truly deplorable. As a result of the revolution these Indians, who were active in the revolutionary cause, made no crops and are now on the verge of actual starvation. They are also suffering from the rigors of the winter. A delegation of two hundred of the tribe is now in the city of Chihuahua, making the second appeal to the governor for immediate aid and unless it is quickly given it is feared many of the tribe will perish. The governor has promised assistance.

Blind Boy Made to See. New York, Dec. 17.—John J. Gallick, the 7-year-old son of a farmer of Sampson, Pa., who has been blind for three years, can see again. The cause of his blindness was a tumor beneath his skull, which paralyzed the optic vision. By a delicate operation the tumor has been removed.

Hospital Destroyed By Fire. Poplar, Mont., Dec. 17.—The government hospital on the Fort Peck reservation was destroyed by fire today. The inmates were taken safely out of the building, but many lost their clothing and personal effects.

MRS. SMITH HOLLS M'KIM BRIDE OF ALFRED GWYNNE VANDERBILT

Young American Millionaire Divorced Two Years Ago, Weds Beautiful Divorcee in England Yesterday.

RUMORS OF MARRIAGE OFTEN IN CIRCULATION

Mrs. Vanderbilt Once Cause of Sensational Alienation Suit Filed Against Bridegroom By Her Former Husband.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] London, Dec. 17.—Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt and Mrs. Smith Holls McKim, formerly Miss Margaret Emerson of Baltimore, were married at Reigate this morning.

The couple have gone on a motor wedding trip.

It was said at the Vanderbilt apartments in London tonight that their destination was not known.

MARRIAGE CONFIRMS PERSISTENT RUMORS.

For several years the names of Alfred G. Vanderbilt, the chief heir of Cornelius Vanderbilts millions, and Mrs. Smith Holls McKim, have been closely associated. At various times it was reported they were soon to be married.

Mr. Vanderbilt, who is accounted the richest of the younger set of American millionaires, was born in 1877. He married Miss Ellen French on January 11, 1907. His wife was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce on May 25, 1908, their son, William H. Vanderbilt, remaining in the mother's care. The decree was made final three months later. It was at this time that Mr. Vanderbilt settled $1,500,000 on his former wife.

The name of Miss Ruiz, the divorced wife of Antonio Ruiz, a former member of the Cuban legation at Washington, came up in the trial of the suit. Mrs. Ruiz committed suicide in London on May 16, 1909, the manner of her death being suppressed for a considerable time.

Mrs. McKim is the daughter of Isaac E. Emerson of Baltimore, and the divorced wife of Dr. Smith Holls McKim of New York and Baltimore. Mrs. McKim is a divorcee from her husband which threatened various suits before the courts, but early in February, 1910, an agreement was signed bringing to an end all pending or proposed litigation.

Alfred G. Vanderbilt sailed for England on the steamer Lusitania on November 29, last. Just prior to his departure he reiterated his denial that he soon was to be married. Mrs. McKim has been abroad for several months.

GENERAL WOOD IN FAVOR OF ARMY CANTEEN

Chief of Staff of United States Army in His Annual Report Also Urges Garrisoning of Panama Canal.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Washington, Dec. 17.—Major General Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the army, favors the restoration of the canteen to army posts. He declares in his annual report that the consensus of opinion in the army is that the canteen should be re-established.

General Wood also makes some recommendations for the garrisoning of Panama canal. He says it is necessary to have the garrisons to protect the canal and insure its neutrality, and for this he says twelve companies of coast artillery, four regiments of infantry with full strength, one battalion of field artillery, one squadron of cavalry and some auxiliary troops are needed. In recommending short term enlistments, the chief of staff says the argument that men would not return to the colors in time of war is "an unwarrantable reflection on the patriotism of men who have served the colors and returned to private life."

General Wood opposed the bill pending in congress which would consolidate the adjutant general and inspector general departments with the staff corps. He favors a consolidation but not in the form proposed. The detail system, General Wood declares, is one of the essential features of the efficiency of the general staff.

Hospital Destroyed By Fire. Poplar, Mont., Dec. 17.—The government hospital on the Fort Peck reservation was destroyed by fire today. The inmates were taken safely out of the building, but many lost their clothing and personal effects.

Fire in Theater But Audience Remains Calm. New York, Dec. 17.—Fire broke out in the basement of Keith's theater, 14th street, near Broadway, tonight, while a performance was in progress. Smoke was making its way into the auditorium when a fireman went to the stage and explained the situation to the audience.

With almost perfect order the crowd fled out and joined a throng in the street watching the firemen fight the fire. The damage was confined to the basement.

PRESENT AGE ONE OF GREAT UNREST

New Rochelle, N. Y., Dec. 17.—Characterizing the age as one of the greatest of unrest and discontent, which the country ever knew, Jacob Gould Schurman, president of Cornell University, discussed conditions and proposed remedies in an address before the People's Forum here today.

Of the remedies he dealt at length with the initiative, referendum and recall, in which he declared that he could see no hope of improvement.

"They take us back thousands of years," he said, "to the wretched governmental machinery of the ancient world, before the discovery by the people of representative government. We now have government by second thought. The question is, shall we replace it by government of first impulse? A direct democracy would end in political chaos and dictatorship."

ACCUSED MOTHER DENIES MURDER CHARGE

Mrs. Carrie Sparling, in Jail for Poisoning Her Son, Protests Innocence; Hints at Conspiracy.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Bad Axe, Mich., Dec. 17.—Mrs. Carrie Sparling, four members of whose family have died supposedly from arsenic poisoning and who was arrested yesterday on the charge of having caused the death of her son, Cyril, will be arraigned before Justice Skinner tomorrow.

Mrs. Sparling talked about the charges against her in the jail today. She was particularly bitter against the finding in her house of a bottle of poison, which she said was not the prosecution places much emphasis on.

The prisoner says the prosecution searched her house without finding anything of the kind and that later the poison was placed there during the absence of herself and other members of her family by some one who wished to fasten upon her the responsibility for Cyril's death.

She also denied that she had told of having had "visions" in which she was reported to have seen Dr. MacGregor, also under arrest in connection with the case, robed in white and protesting his innocence, being driven over a precipice by a multitude.

Mrs. Sparling was visited at the jail today by several of her relatives. One of them, Peter Sparling, a cousin, urged her to tell all she knew of the case. To this the prisoner replied that she already had told all she knew; that if a crime had been committed it was not she who was guilty, but that she did not wish to accuse any one else.

POLICE FRUSTRATE ASSASSINATION OF MADERO

Conspiracy to Shoot President of Mexico Prevented at Eleventh Hour By Arrest of Alleged Plotters.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Mexico City, Dec. 17.—A conspiracy to assassinate President Madero and proclaim a provisional presidency, pending the coming of General Reyes to the capital to assume the office of president, has been frustrated at the last moment, in the opinion of the authorities, by the arrest today of Generals Higinio Aguilar and Meliton Hurlado of the federal army, and a score of co-conspirators.

The plan, said to have been discussed by correspondence and documented found in the possession of prisoners, was complete in details. Madero was to have been shot from a balcony of the Reforma hotel in Avenida de la Reforma, as he rode from Chapultepec palace tomorrow morning.

During the confusion which this would create, the conspirators, who called themselves the "Independent Constitutional" army, were to swoop down upon the national palace, kill or seize the ministers and take possession in the name of Reyes. The police were non-committal as to knowledge they may have acquired regarding the plans of the alleged conspirators.

Upon assumption of power by Reyes all Maderistas and Cientificos, it is asserted, were to be eliminated from the government and their property confiscated together with that of all the wealthy class not in sympathy with the movement.

Hurlado, who is said to have been slated for the provisional presidency, was at one time chief of police under President Diaz.

FIRE IN THEATER BUT AUDIENCE REMAINS CALM

New York, Dec. 17.—Fire broke out in the basement of Keith's theater, 14th street, near Broadway, tonight, while a performance was in progress. Smoke was making its way into the auditorium when a fireman went to the stage and explained the situation to the audience.

With almost perfect order the crowd fled out and joined a throng in the street watching the firemen fight the fire. The damage was confined to the basement.

Fire in Theater But Audience Remains Calm. New York, Dec. 17.—Fire broke out in the basement of Keith's theater, 14th street, near Broadway, tonight, while a performance was in progress. Smoke was making its way into the auditorium when a fireman went to the stage and explained the situation to the audience.

With almost perfect order the crowd fled out and joined a throng in the street watching the firemen fight the fire. The damage was confined to the basement.

Fire in Theater But Audience Remains Calm. New York, Dec. 17.—Fire broke out in the basement of Keith's theater, 14th street, near Broadway, tonight, while a performance was in progress. Smoke was making its way into the auditorium when a fireman went to the stage and explained the situation to the audience.

With almost perfect order the crowd fled out and joined a throng in the street watching the firemen fight the fire. The damage was confined to the basement.

TAFT DETERMINED CONGRESS SHALL NOT OFFEND RUSSIA

President Serves Notice That He Will Veto Sulzer Treaty Abrogation Resolution Unless It is Modified.

SUBJECT NOT TO BE LIGHTLY DEALT WITH

Chief Executive Allays Any Apprehension Czar May Have By Communication Sent Through Ambassador Guild.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] St. Petersburg, Dec. 17.—The Russian foreign office declares that M. Bakhmeteff, the Russian ambassador at Washington, has made no formal protest against the abrogation of the Russo-American treaty of 1832.

Dispatches from Washington, announcing that tentative efforts to reach an agreement on the passport question are going on, were published here yesterday morning and appeared in the newspapers of last evening and this morning, unaccompanied by comment of any nature.

With respect to those negotiations the foreign office has nothing to say, considering that the responsibility for the reports, which are of a divergent nature, rests on those who send them. The semi-official Russia prints a signed article by the editor, who declares against restrictive laws and in favor of the abolition of the passport.

"Pro-government" Russians, he says, "cannot confine themselves to attacks upon and blind hatred for the Jews, nor senselessly repeat the saying: 'The Jews will ruin Russia.' The Jews have not ruined Poland or Rumania, and they won't ruin Russia."

"The solution of the question, which is the most important now facing the government, cannot be deferred until the Jews are expelled from the country. We cannot leave millions of people to roast in their own juice. The pale is a low, economical state, dreadful in its sanitary conditions. If Russia has too many Jews she must assist in their emigration but the possibility of emigration is restricted by measures adopted by the British and American governments and would be further diminished by the abrogation of the treaty of 1832."

Attending the conference were Secretaries Knox, Meyer, Wilson, Wickesham.

Secretary Fumson, Secretary Fisher and Postmaster General Hitchcock were out of the city.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Washington, Dec. 17.—The Russian treaty situation cleared materially today and the administration plans for the abrogation of the 1832 pact with the St. Petersburg government became more definitely known.

President Taft, it is said, has indicated that he will veto the Sulzer resolution if it should be forced through the senate tomorrow without modification.

Nothing that can be construed as an offense to Russia will be permitted, if the president can help it.

According to plans announced tonight, Mr. Taft will tomorrow send two communications to the capital, one a message addressed to the senate to be considered in executive session and the other a letter directed to Chairman Cullum of the senate committee on foreign relations. In these communications Mr. Taft, it is said, will call attention to the fact that international relations are not lightly to be dealt with.

Despite the advice of certain house republican leaders that the lower branch of congress be considered in the matter, President Taft tonight was said to be determined to ignore the house entirely.

Senate leaders expect to hear tomorrow that the president, through Ambassador Guild at St. Petersburg, already has notified Russia of the impending abrogation of the treaty. This notice is believed to have been couched in the politest diplomatic language and to have stated that the American people have come to regard the treaty as obsolete. The expiration of the treaty is fixed for January 1, 1913.

President Taft is said to have taken the ground that if he have been out of the treaty by executive decree without waiting for action by either the house or the senate. He is supported in this view by various members of the senate committee on foreign relations and is said to base his attitude upon precedents.

According to information received by senators tonight, Mr. Taft in his communications tomorrow will dwell upon the friendly relations that have existed between the United States and Russia and will say that while the termination of the treaty of 1832 seems desirable, the friendship between the two nations is of long standing and to be lightly brushed aside.

Mr. Taft, it was said, would point out that Russia, because of her friendship for the United States, listened to America's proposal of peace in the war with Japan, and that she was the first to propose to know the president's purpose also said that he would call attention to the fact that the United States levies a head tax upon every Russian who enters this country and would not for a minute entertain a suggestion by Russia that the right to levy the tax was debatable.

In his speeches on the arbitration treaties each country has a right to say who shall and who shall not enter her domain.

It was generally believed tonight that the senate would solve the problem tomorrow by adopting a resolution of abrogation, couched in strictly formal language. Before this can be brought about, however, lively sessions of the foreign relations committee and the senate itself are expected.

President Taft's message, although expected to be read in executive session, probably will be made public at once. This was the plan of several of the senate leaders tonight. They said the country should be fully informed of the danger of precipitate action.

An effort will be made to have the senate finally dispose of the matter tomorrow.

If the senate adopts a formal resolution of abrogation, it undoubtedly will be referred immediately to the house and little trouble is expected in obtaining an agreement to it.

Some of the house leaders said tonight that with President Taft threatening to take things into his own hands, it was reasonable that congress should meet his views. It is said to be entering the hope that if the treaty of 1832 is abrogated in a manner that will carry no offense, a new treaty with Russia, marking a great step forward from the old convention will not be impossible. If abrogated in the terms of the Sulzer resolution, it was said, Mr. Taft takes the ground that the United States might just as well abandon hope of ever negotiating another treaty with the Russian empire.

Representative Sulzer today prophesied that the senate would adopt the house resolution by a vote as nearly unanimous as that by which it passed the lower body. His prediction was endorsed by Senator Poinsett of Washington.

RUSSIA HAS NOT MADE FORMAL PROTEST.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 17.—The Russian foreign office declares that M. Bakhmeteff, the Russian ambassador at Washington, has made no formal protest against the abrogation of the Russo-American treaty of 1832.

Dispatches from Washington, announcing that tentative efforts to reach an agreement on the passport question are going on, were published here yesterday morning and appeared in the newspapers of last evening and this morning, unaccompanied by comment of any nature.

With respect to those negotiations the foreign office has nothing to say, considering that the responsibility for the reports, which are of a divergent nature, rests on those who send them. The semi-official Russia prints a signed article by the editor, who declares against restrictive laws and in favor of the abolition of the passport.

"Pro-government" Russians, he says, "cannot confine themselves to attacks upon and blind hatred for the Jews, nor senselessly repeat the saying: 'The Jews will ruin Russia.' The Jews have not ruined Poland or Rumania, and they won't ruin Russia."

"The solution of the question, which is the most important now facing the government, cannot be deferred until the Jews are expelled from the country. We cannot leave millions of people to roast in their own juice. The pale is a low, economical state, dreadful in its sanitary conditions. If Russia has too many Jews she must assist in their emigration but the possibility of emigration is restricted by measures adopted by the British and American governments and would be further diminished by the abrogation of the treaty of 1832."

Attending the conference were Secretaries Knox, Meyer, Wilson, Wickesham.

Secretary Fumson, Secretary Fisher and Postmaster General Hitchcock were out of the city.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Washington, Dec. 17.—The Russian treaty situation cleared materially today and the administration plans for the abrogation of the 1832 pact with the St. Petersburg government became more definitely known.

President Taft, it is said, has indicated that he will veto the Sulzer resolution if it should be forced through the senate tomorrow without modification.

Nothing that can be construed as an offense to Russia will be permitted, if the president can help it.

According to plans announced tonight, Mr. Taft will tomorrow send two communications to the capital, one a message addressed to the senate to be considered in executive session and the other a letter directed to Chairman Cullum of the senate committee on foreign relations. In these communications Mr. Taft, it is said, will call attention to the fact that international relations are not lightly to be dealt with.

Despite the advice of certain house republican leaders that the lower branch of congress be considered in the matter, President Taft tonight was said to be determined to ignore the house entirely.

Senate leaders expect to hear tomorrow that the president, through Ambassador Guild at St. Petersburg, already has notified Russia of the impending abrogation of the treaty. This notice is believed to have been couched in the politest diplomatic language and to have stated that the American people have come to regard the treaty as obsolete. The expiration of the treaty is fixed for January 1, 1913.

President Taft is said to have taken the ground that if he have been out of the treaty by executive decree without waiting for action by either the house or the senate. He is supported in this view by various members of the senate committee on foreign relations and is said to base his attitude upon precedents.

According to information received by senators tonight, Mr. Taft in his communications tomorrow will dwell upon the friendly relations that have existed between the United States and Russia and will say that while the termination of the treaty of 1832 seems desirable, the friendship between the two nations is of long standing and to be lightly brushed aside.

Mr. Taft, it was said, would point out that Russia, because of her friendship for the United States, listened to America's proposal of peace in the war with Japan, and that she was the first to propose to know the president's purpose also said that he would call attention to the fact that the United States levies a head tax upon every Russian who enters this country and would not for a minute entertain a suggestion by Russia that the right to levy the tax was debatable.

In his speeches on the arbitration treaties each country has a right to say who shall and who shall not enter her domain.

It was generally believed tonight that the senate would solve the problem tomorrow by adopting a resolution of abrogation, couched in strictly formal language. Before this can be brought about, however, lively sessions of the foreign relations committee and the senate itself are expected.

President Taft's message, although expected to be read in executive session, probably will be made public at once. This was the plan of several of the senate leaders tonight. They said the country should be fully informed of the danger of precipitate action.

An effort will be made to have the senate finally dispose of the matter tomorrow.

If the senate adopts a formal resolution of abrogation, it undoubtedly will be referred immediately to the house and little trouble is expected in obtaining an agreement to it.

Some of the house leaders said tonight that with President Taft threatening to take things into his own hands, it was reasonable that congress should meet his views. It is said to be entering the hope that if the treaty of 1832 is abrogated in a manner that will carry no offense, a new treaty with Russia, marking a great step forward from the old convention will not be impossible. If abrogated in the terms of the Sulzer resolution, it was said, Mr. Taft takes the ground that the United States might just as well abandon hope of ever negotiating another treaty with the Russian empire.

Representative Sulzer today prophesied that the senate would adopt the house resolution by a vote as nearly unanimous as that by which it passed the lower body. His prediction was endorsed by Senator Poinsett of Washington.

Representative Sulzer today prophesied that the senate would adopt the house resolution by a vote as nearly unanimous as that by which it passed the lower body. His prediction was endorsed by Senator Poinsett of Washington.

Representative Sulzer today prophesied that the senate would adopt the house resolution by a vote as nearly unanimous as that by which it passed the lower body. His prediction was endorsed by Senator Poinsett of Washington.

CUBAN VETERANS SUCCEED IN BLUFFING GOMEZ

President Suspends Operation of Civil Law for Six Months That He May Weed Out Obnoxious Officials.

THOSE HOSTILE TO FREEDOM MUST RETIRE

Revolutionary Leaders Backed By Public Sentiment Threatened Demonstration at Havana; Victory for Emilio Nunez.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Havana, Tuesday, Dec. 17.—While there is reason to believe that the movement of the revolutionary veterans for the exclusion from public office of all men hostile to the cause of "Free Cuba" has not yet run its course, the agitation seems now to be presenting a less dangerous aspect than hitherto. This evidently is a result of the fact that the veterans, numerous and well organized as they are, and having behind them strong public sympathy, have been able to bring the government to a compliance with all their demands.

The belief is expressed here that had their demands not been acceded to, the veterans were in a position to make a demonstration of such force that the government would have had to give heed to public opinion, and would have stood by the veterans and this doubtless influenced President Gomez in moderating his first attitude of opposition.

One result of these conditions has been the adoption of congress of a bill suspending the action of the civil law for six months, so as to permit the president to weed out all officeholders obnoxious to the veterans.

THE DOCTOR SAYS NO! NO HEART TROUBLE---IT'S GAS IN YOUR STOMACH

Pressing against your chest and upper abdomen, the heart and causing every organ in your body, making you dizzy, irritable and generally miserable.

RAALMANN'S GAS-TABLETS not only relieve this, but cure for all time. If you wish to be permanently relieved of Gas in the Stomach and Bowels, take two Raalmann's Gas-Tablets for a few days.

Raalmann's Gas-Tablets are prepared distinctly and especially for Stomach Gas, and particularly for all the bad effects coming from Gas Pressure.

That empty, sore and gnawing feeling at the pit of your stomach will forever disappear in a few days; that anxious and nervous feeling, with heart palpitation, will vanish and you will once more be able to take a deep breath, so often prevented by gas pressing against your heart and lungs.

Your limbs, arms and fingers won't feel numb and go to sleep, because Raalmann's Gas-Tablets prevent gas interfering with your circulation. That intense drowsiness and sleepy feeling after dinner will soon be replaced by a desire for some form of entertainment.

Your distended stomach will reduce by inches, because gas simply cannot form after a few days' use of Raalmann's Gas-Tablets.

Cal. State's Prison Director, Col. Chas. Sontag says: "Raalmann's Gas-Tablets is the most marvelous thing I have ever used."

Geo. H. Kahn, optician, 24 Kearney st., San Francisco: "Raalmann's Gas-Tablets cures me completely of gas in about five days. This was three years ago."

Belgian Consul of San Francisco, Hon. Ferd. Woden, says: "Raalmann's Gas-Tablets have certainly done wonders for me. I leave in a few days for my post in Brazil, and shall take at least a dozen bottles with me for my friends who may suffer like I have done."

These peculiar tablets are sold for 50c a bottle by nearly every druggist. If not in stock tell him to get them for you from his wholesaler, or send 50c in silver, stamps or money order to Raalmann Co., 336 Sutter St., San Francisco.

FOUR EXECUTIONS IN CHICAGO THIS WEEK

Never Since Haymarket Riots Have So Many Lives Been Taken By State at One Time; Friday Hangman's Day.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Chicago, Dec. 17.—The week before Christmas will be hangman's week in Chicago. On Friday, December 22, four men—Edward Shillabawski, 24 years old; his brother Frank, 21; Phillip Stormerling, 14, and Thomas Schultze, 19, will be hanged in the county jail for killing Fred W. Gueslow, Jr., a truck farmer, on the morning of October 20. Two others, convicted in connection with this murder, were given life sentences because of their youth.

Frank Shillabawski was twenty in the county jail three years ago when Herman Hill, a prisoner, was sentenced to be hanged, and aided in the execution of Hill's scaffold. He received the fact today when sounds of others at work putting together the same scaffold on which the four men will be hanged, could be heard in the cells above.

Never since the Haymarket riots of 1887 have so many lives been taken by the state at one time. On November 11, of that year, A. W. Parsons, August Spies, Adolph Fisher and George Engel were hanged for their parts in the rioting.

In 1904, the so-called "bar barn bandits" were executed, but they numbered only three, Peter Neidermeyer, Gustav Marx and Harvey Vandine.

All of the legal executions in Cook county since the hanging resulting from the Haymarket riots have been conducted by Deputy Sheriff Charles W. Peters, who will have charge of the quadruple hanging this week. His record by that time will stand at thirty-seven executions.

There have been no deaths by hanging in the county since October 25, 1909, when Andrew Williams, colored, was hanged. He murdered his wife, Ophelia B. Williams, a year before, at the home of her father.

THIS BOOK WORTH READING

The Ador-la book, telling how you can EASILY guard against appendicitis, and how you can relieve constipation or gas in the stomach almost INSTANTLY, is offered free for a short time by the O'Reilly Drug Co.

ELKS THEATER

Christmas Matinee and Night

HENRY DARRIS

PRESENTS

THE LION

AND

THE MOUSE

CHARLES KLEIN, AUTHOR OF

THE THREE DEGREES

PRICES

Matinee 50c, 75c, and $1.00

Night 75c, $1.00 and $1.50

Seats at Matson's.

RELIGIOUS LEADER CALMLY WAITS SENTENCE AND BEATEN INTO INSSENSIBILITY

Rev. Frank Weston Sanford, Founder of Holy Ghost and Us Society, Will Learn Fate Today.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Durham, Me., Dec. 17.—When the clerk of the United States district court at Portland tomorrow calls the name of Rev. Frank Weston Sanford, who is to be sentenced by Judge Clarence Hale on six counts of manslaughter, he will find the leader of the Holy Ghost and Us society ready to take without protest whatever sentence may be meted out to him.

Six years in a federal prison or a fine of $50,000 or both, is the maximum penalty that he may be called upon to pay.

But for adverse winds Sanford might yet be engaged in the evangelization voyage on which he embarked on the yacht, Coronet, with a handful of the faithful, seventeen months ago, praying for the conversion of inhabitants in far countries. He was driven into port a month ago on a steaming ship, to face arrest on the charge of failing to provide proper food for his followers and thus causing the death of six of them by scurvy.

When called before the bar of justice, "Elijah H." as he is known among the Shillabawski, refused to employ counsel and his only defense was that he had done but the bidding of his Lord.

Sorrow at the approaching parting from his wife and five children is all that seems to have the power to shake the leader from his calm. During the last seven days there have been many conferences on the hill-top where the temple of the sect is located, but except the announcement that the Rev. C. E. Holland, the "Moses" of the flock, will succeed to the active management of the flock no public word has come forth.

The life story of the man who entered upon the work of evangelizing the world single-handed, without money or hope of recompense, is remarkable. Sanford as a boy in his native town of Boudonham, was religiously inclined. As a student at Bates college he secured a place on the college baseball team and regularly played for victory before each contest. His work as catcher and batter attracted scouts from the big leagues, who vainly made offers to him.

Some years after graduation Sanford was ordained as a free Baptist clergyman and married Miss Helen Kinney of Sing Sing, who had been a missionary to Japan. According to Sanford's own story, one night in New York he had a revelation in which he was directed to give up his church and live a life of faith, depending on God for his support.

For ten hours today Rev. Sanford stood in the temple at Shillabawski, preaching and praying.

Of the six hundred men, women and children who make up this strange religious colony, hardly one was absent from the services.

"Hell itself cannot hurt me," Sanford declared, referring to possible punishment. "God has done so much for me that nothing hurts."

In the course of his remarks Sanford predicted war, famine and pestilence.

"War, war, war, from the Atlantic to the Pacific," he declared to be in sight.

"If I go down, North America will go with me."

STATE CONTROL OF PUBLIC LANDS THEIR AIM

Governors' Congress Which Meets Today at St. Paul Expected to Take Initial Step in This Direction.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 17.—A more united effort on the part of the western states to attack the national administration policy regarding public lands and to substitute therefore state control, may be made as the result of the western governors' congress which will meet for the first time here tomorrow.

The conservation question will be the chief issue of the congress, according to statements made by several governors today. On the general proposition of state instead of federal control of public lands, the western governors are said to be united, though differing on details of the plan.

The presence of Walter L. Fisher, secretary of the interior, at the sessions of the congress tomorrow has heightened the interest in the issue. The executives see in his coming an opportunity to lay before him the way of enlightenment, most of the conservation question as they people see it, to show him why they want change and how strong the sentiment is behind the movement.

There will be morning and afternoon sessions of the congress tomorrow. Secretary Fisher is expected to attend both of them and explain the government's policy regarding the settlement of the west.

The governors had their first real test today. Little was done in the way of enlightenment, most of the governors remaining in their rooms and receiving friends. Governor Hawley of Idaho, who was elected president of the congress, was not present tomorrow, as he has been called to Boise, owing to the serious illness of his wife.

Governor Odell of Nevada and Governor Vessey of South Dakota tonight spoke at the Park Congregational church. They were introduced by Howard Elliott, president of the Northern Pacific railroad.

ACT QUICKLY.
GET SOME LAND FREE.
See New State Realty Co., Suite 5, N. T. Armijo Bldg.

Two Las Vegas Men Victims of Brutal Assault; Prosecution Instituted By One of Victims Possible Motive.

[Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.] Las Vegas, N. M., Dec. 17.—While returning late this afternoon from a drive to the Hot Springs, Miguel Romero, a well known resident of this city, and Florencio Arrellano, were waylaid near the Hospital for the Insane by two thugs, who dragged Romero and Arrellano from the buggy and with bludgeons, beat the men into insensibility. While both are expected to recover, the men are seriously injured.

Yesterday Romero appeared as the plaintiff in a case instituted by him against one Enrique Sena, a deputy sheriff, for assault and battery, growing out of the recent election. Romero, who is a well known progressive republican, alleges that Sena attacked him a few days after the election and administered a severe thrashing. This case was continued by the justice of the peace till Monday at the request of Sena, the defendant, it is said.

Friends of Romero claim that this prosecution of Sena by him probably furnished the motive for today's brutal assault and they have instituted an investigation which may result in sensational developments.

SUGAR TRUST TO PENSION AGED EMPLOYEES

Those 65 Years Old to be Retired After Thirty Years' Service; $3,500,000 as Nucleus of Fund.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] New York, Dec. 17.—Stockholders of the American Sugar Refining company will be called upon at the next annual meeting to approve a plan to provide pensions to the company's 7,500 officers and employees. Details of the plan include provisions for retiring employees over 65 years old, after thirty years of service.

An appropriation of $3,500,000 is suggested as the nucleus of the pension fund. No pension under the proposed plan will be less than $20 a month and none will exceed $5,000 a year. For women the age limit is set at 60 and the term of service at twenty-five years. Should the plan be ratified, male employees who have served the company thirty years and women twenty-five years in the service, may be retired without regard to age.

The amount of the pension will be "a sum annually equivalent to one percent of the average annual wage or salary during the ten years preceding retirement, multiplied by the years of service."

All officers and employees of the company or any corporation owned or controlled by the company, the announcement states, will be eligible for the pension benefits.

To employees discharged after fifteen years' service, pensions may be granted if the committee deems fit. The only exclusion of the beneficiaries embraced in the plan is that they do not engage in any work, which in the judgment of the committee is in conflict with the company's interests.

Wherever there are people suffering from kidney and bladder ailments, from backache, rheumatism and urinary irregularities, Foley Kidney Pills will help them. Belvidere, Ill. E. H. Kelly, an ex-engineer says: "Three years ago my kidneys became so bad that I was compelled to give up my engine and quit. There was a severe aching pain over the hips, followed by an inflammation of the bladder, and always a thick sediment. Foley Kidney Pills made me a sound and well man. I can not say too much in their praise."—J. H. O'Reilly.

LIQUOR TRAFFIC TO BE CURTAILED BY CONGRESS

Representative Sells of Tennessee Predicts Passage of Bill Restricting Interstate Shipments.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Bristol, Tenn., Dec. 17.—Representative Samuel R. Sells of the first Tennessee district, who is home from Washington to spend a few days with inspectors from the forestry department, now investigating east Tennessee lands, with a view of making purchases for the national forestry reserve, says that congress will pass this session a measure to restrict the interstate shipment of liquor.

He said: "I find a growing sentiment among the members of the lower house. The matter of framing such a measure is now being considered by men who are familiar with constitutional law and an effort will be made to draft a bill that will give federal territory protection from the indiscriminate method of shipping now in vogue and at the same time not violate the provisions of the federal constitution."

Another feature to be provided in this bill is a section to prevent the indiscriminate issuing of government licenses to sell whiskey in "dry" territory.

THIS BANK IS ONE OF THE OLDEST AND HAS
THE LARGEST BUSINESS OF ANY BANK IN NEW MEXICO --- WE WANT YOUR BUSINESS

REPORT OF THE CONDITION OF THE

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.,

At The Close Of Business, December 5th, 1911

RESOURCES

Loans and Discounts	$1,811,474.07
Bonds, Securities, Etc.,	36,042.61
Banking House and Furniture,	42,000.00
United States Bonds,	340,000.00
Cash and Exchange,	1,109, 50.46
Total,	1,449,550.46
	$3,339,067.14

LIABILITIES

Capital,	$ 200,000.00
Surplus and Profits,	51,432.20
Circulation,	200,000.00
Deposits,	2,887,634.94
Total,	$3,339,067.14

DESIGNATED DEPOSITORY OF THE UNITED STATES.

The policy of the officers and directors of The First National Bank is to maintain its well earned Reputation for Safety and Conservatism

MAN ATTEMPTS TO EXTORT MONEY FROM PRIEST

Clergyman Agrees to Meet the Would-Be Blackmailer in His Study, Where Detectives Capture Culprit.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Seattle, Wash., Dec. 17.—A man giving the name of Steve Vartothalas was arrested in a dramatic manner today at the home of Rev. M. G. Andreadi, a priest of the Greek-Russian orthodox church, whom he had attempted to blackmail. Vartothalas had demanded $200 from the priest. Andreadi agreed to see the man after church services today and when the latter entered the priest's study two detectives were concealed in an adjoining room.

The caller got down to his business right away.

"You know what I am here for," the detectives heard him say. "I want $200."

The priest told him he would give him $25 if he would not bother him in the future.

The detectives heard the gold ring on the floor as the man threw it from him in contempt. He talked loudly and the detectives say he threatened to kill the priest's children if he did not get what he demanded.

WORRIED MEN

A good many people think that worry is unnecessary, but the fact is it usually can't be helped except in one way. When a man is strong, vigorous and well he doesn't worry, and when he worries it shows his health is below par.

It is easy to say, "Don't worry," but the more sensible thing is to say as we do, "What you need is Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic that builds you up and keeps you up. It makes your blood rich and good. It improves your appetite and digestion. You feel 'fir' after using Vinol. It is fine for the whole family, from children to grandparents, and we show our faith in it by letting you try it at our risk. You get your money back if Vinol does not do what we claim."

J. H. O'Reilly Co., druggists, Albuquerque, N. M.

"Empress" FLOUR

—the answer to every Baking Problem. It's Finer—Whiter and More Uniform. Made by LARABEE'S Famous GERMAN PROCESS.

A ROGERS' SILVERWARE COUPON IN EVERY SACK.

GROSS, KELLY & CO

(Wholesale Grocers.)

Albuquerque, Tucuman, E. Las Vegas, N. M. Peeps, Rowe, Corona, Trinidad, Colo.

HEALTHSEEKERS

The place you have been looking for, a ranch boarding house for incipient and convalescent tubercular cases, located near Silver City, altitude 6,000 feet, home cooking, sleeping porches, fireplace in each room, plenty of shade, no dust; terms reasonable. Write us for full particulars and pictures.

OAK GROVE RANCH, Tyrone, N. M.

Montezuma Trust Company

ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO

Capital and Surplus, $100,000

INTEREST ALLOWED ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS

Oak and Maple Polished Flooring Builders' Supplies

Albuquerque Lumber Co., 423 N 1st St.

SPORTS

COACH HUTCHINSON EX-PRIZE FIGHTER IS RETAINED BY UNIVERSITY
SHOT DOWN IN STREET

Well Known Athletic Instructor
Will Continue in Charge of Students During Basketball, Track and Baseball Seasons.

"Mysterious Billy" Smith, Once Famous Welterweight, Attacked By Husband of Woman Once His Wife.

Coach R. F. Hutchinson, who made such a success of the university football team this fall and winter will continue as instructor of athletics at the University of New Mexico. He will devote his efforts to turning out championship basketball, track and baseball teams. This was decided on Saturday by the athletic committee of the university, announcement of which was made yesterday.

Coach Hutchinson has been retained because of the college spirit expressed by the faculty and student body. The board of regents, not having sufficient money to make an appropriation for that purpose at their last meeting, the students and the athletic committee of the faculty took the matter up and after a week's work made the necessary arrangements.

Since his short association with the students of the university, Coach Hutchinson has endeavored himself to them to sue him and has become so popular that they determined to retain him for the balance of the year, if possible. In order to do this it was necessary for all to rally to the cause and make a generous subscription to the athletic fund. This subscription by Saturday reached such proportions as to warrant the athletic committee of the faculty in making a contract with Coach Hutchinson to remain.

Hutchinson is a track and baseball expert with wide experience and plenty of ability to teach the students how it is done in the big schools which have reputations in athletic circles.

He has had splendid results from every college team he ever coached, turning out remarkable basketball and track teams for the University of Texas, where he was for a number of years. In his capacity as coach at Texas university he discovered and developed Tex Ransdell, the now famous sprinter who first came into public notice at the international games held in conjunction with the Jamestown exposition. Since that time Ransdell has been running races and gathering glory all over the world.

As a member of the Princeton track team in his college days, "Hutch" made a reputation as a hard-fighting sprinter during the 120-yard hurdles in record time, and winning a gold medal.

With the material he has at his disposal and with the confidence the students place in him, he should develop a string of young athletes from the silver and red helmets of which New Mexico can be proud.

For good saddle horses by hour or day, call the Grannis Riding School, 114 W. Silver. Phone 1629.

INCORPORATE
YOUR BUSINESS

C. F. Kanten's New Mexico Corporation Laws, Rules and Forms, compiled to date.

A useful guide for corporation officers, attorneys and engineers. You need no other. It has everything in one book.

Post yourself. Avoid expensive mistakes.

All Territorial laws on ALL classes of Corporations: Banking, Building and Loan, Benevolent, Industrial, Irrigation, Insurance, Mercantile, Mining, Railroads, Taxation, etc., with extensive citations.

The only complete New Mexico Corporation, Irrigation and Mining Code published.

Complete Forms and Rules for drawing and filing all kinds of corporation papers; references, footnotes, by-laws, etc. Territorial Irrigation Rules and Forms.

United States Laws which apply to New Mexico: Carey Act, Irrigation, Mining, Railroads, Taxes: Rules and Forms for securing U. S. Rights of Way, etc.

Useful with or without statehood. 1 vol., 325 pages, buckram binding, $4.

C. F. KANTEN Santa Fe, N. M.

SPEAKING WITH THE AUTHORITY

of experience we unhesitatingly declare that children thrive wonderfully on our bread and rolls. It is simply astonishing the amount of nutriment they derive from them. They like it, too. Even take our bread in preference to ordinary cake. It must be pretty good to attain that result. Have us deliver you a fresh loaf or two every day for a week. Then you will want it right along.

PIONEER BAKERY
207 South First Street

Clever Story in Pretty Musical Play,
"Bright Eyes" at Elks' Tonight

Trials of Young Author Trying to Stage Production and Complications Entailed By Assistance of Young Woman Is Basis of One of Best Performances of Season.

The trials of a young author who is trying to secure the production of his first play and the complications that follow the efforts to assist him, of the young woman whom he has secretly married, form the basis of the story of "Bright Eyes," the new musical play by the authors of "Three Twins," which Jos. M. Gaites will present at the Elks' theater tonight. The new play is the second effort of the trio who wrote the famous "Three Twins," Charles Dickson being responsible for the book, Otto Hauerbach the lyrics and Karl Hoschna the music.

The play tells the story of the efforts of Tom Genovius, a young comedian, to secure the production of a play he has written. But in addition to writing the play Tom has secretly married Dorothy Mayland, the leading woman of the company in which he is the leading man, in spite of the fact that he knows the manager, who is to produce the play has announced his decision to discharge any of his actors who marry. During the rehearsal of Tom's play, which is shown in the first act of the comedy, the manager becomes aware of the secret marriage, and not only throws up the play, but discharges both Tom and Dorothy for daring to disobey orders against marriage in the company.

Dorothy meets Mr. Hunter-Chase, former owner of the theater, who, in spite of the fact that he is at heart a gay old dog, has been elected president of a young ladies' seminary and has consequently transferred the theater to his wife. Believing that he will help Tom to produce his play, Dorothy agrees secretly to meet Hunter-Chase in the carriage house of his country place and read the manuscript to him.

Tom has met Mrs. Hunter-Chase, a giddy young woman with histrionic aspirations, who decided to produce Tom's play at an amateur society performance with herself in the principal role. Unknown to Dorothy, Tom agrees to meet Mrs. Hunter-Chase in the carriage house on the afternoon of Dorothy's appointment with Hunter-Chase, and instruct her in the part.

The second scene is laid in the carriage house, both the lower floor and the loft being shown. Here comes Tom and Mrs. Hunter-Chase to be followed almost immediately by Hunter-Chase and Dorothy. The complications resulting are increased by the fact that the carriage house is at the same time the scene of a clandestine meeting between Mrs. Hunter-Chase's coachman and Dorothy's lover.

The music which Mr. Hoschna has furnished for the play is catchy and tuneful and perhaps the best this well-known composer has ever written. The principal number, "For Your Bright Eyes," from which the play takes its name, is being whistled all over the country and the ensemble numbers are especially worked out.

The finale of the act a duet and chorus number, "I'll Be Your Chatterbox," in which the chorus are dressed as laundry maids was hailed during the New York run of the piece as the real musical comedy novelty of the season.

The scenic equipment given the play by Mr. Gaites is elaborate and a number of beautiful and novel mechanical and electrical effects have been introduced. The play is gorgeously costumed and a large chorus, the members of which have been especially selected for their ability to sing and dance, will be in their best has been furnished. The cast is headed by Cecil Lean and Florence Holbrook, two of the cleverest fun-makers on the American stage, and includes a number of well-known players, among them, Jeanette Lawrence, Herbert Sellinger, Samuel Thompson, Freddie Nice and Cecilia Romard, of the well known vaudeville team.

The scenic equipment given the play by Mr. Gaites is elaborate and a number of beautiful and novel mechanical and electrical effects have been introduced. The play is gorgeously costumed and a large chorus, the members of which have been especially selected for their ability to sing and dance, will be in their best has been furnished. The cast is headed by Cecil Lean and Florence Holbrook, two of the cleverest fun-makers on the American stage, and includes a number of well-known players, among them, Jeanette Lawrence, Herbert Sellinger, Samuel Thompson, Freddie Nice and Cecilia Romard, of the well known vaudeville team.

The scenic equipment given the play by Mr. Gaites is elaborate and a number of beautiful and novel mechanical and electrical effects have been introduced. The play is gorgeously costumed and a large chorus, the members of which have been especially selected for their ability to sing and dance, will be in their best has been furnished. The cast is headed by Cecil Lean and Florence Holbrook, two of the cleverest fun-makers on the American stage, and includes a number of well-known players, among them, Jeanette Lawrence, Herbert Sellinger, Samuel Thompson, Freddie Nice and Cecilia Romard, of the well known vaudeville team.

The scenic equipment given the play by Mr. Gaites is elaborate and a number of beautiful and novel mechanical and electrical effects have been introduced. The play is gorgeously costumed and a large chorus, the members of which have been especially selected for their ability to sing and dance, will be in their best has been furnished. The cast is headed by Cecil Lean and Florence Holbrook, two of the cleverest fun-makers on the American stage, and includes a number of well-known players, among them, Jeanette Lawrence, Herbert Sellinger, Samuel Thompson, Freddie Nice and Cecilia Romard, of the well known vaudeville team.

The scenic equipment given the play by Mr. Gaites is elaborate and a number of beautiful and novel mechanical and electrical effects have been introduced. The play is gorgeously costumed and a large chorus, the members of which have been especially selected for their ability to sing and dance, will be in their best has been furnished. The cast is headed by Cecil Lean and Florence Holbrook, two of the cleverest fun-makers on the American stage, and includes a number of well-known players, among them, Jeanette Lawrence, Herbert Sellinger, Samuel Thompson, Freddie Nice and Cecilia Romard, of the well known vaudeville team.

The scenic equipment given the play by Mr. Gaites is elaborate and a number of beautiful and novel mechanical and electrical effects have been introduced. The play is gorgeously costumed and a large chorus, the members of which have been especially selected for their ability to sing and dance, will be in their best has been furnished. The cast is headed by Cecil Lean and Florence Holbrook, two of the cleverest fun-makers on the American stage, and includes a number of well-known players, among them, Jeanette Lawrence, Herbert Sellinger, Samuel Thompson, Freddie Nice and Cecilia Romard, of the well known vaudeville team.

The scenic equipment given the play by Mr. Gaites is elaborate and a number of beautiful and novel mechanical and electrical effects have been introduced. The play is gorgeously costumed and a large chorus, the members of which have been especially selected for their ability to sing and dance, will be in their best has been furnished. The cast is headed by Cecil Lean and Florence Holbrook, two of the cleverest fun-makers on the American stage, and includes a number of well-known players, among them, Jeanette Lawrence, Herbert Sellinger, Samuel Thompson, Freddie Nice and Cecilia Romard, of the well known vaudeville team.

The scenic equipment given the play by Mr. Gaites is elaborate and a number of beautiful and novel mechanical and electrical effects have been introduced. The play is gorgeously costumed and a large chorus, the members of which have been especially selected for their ability to sing and dance, will be in their best has been furnished. The cast is headed by Cecil Lean and Florence Holbrook, two of the cleverest fun-makers on the American stage, and includes a number of well-known players, among them, Jeanette Lawrence, Herbert Sellinger, Samuel Thompson, Freddie Nice and Cecilia Romard, of the well known vaudeville team.

The scenic equipment given the play by Mr. Gaites is elaborate and a number of beautiful and novel mechanical and electrical effects have been introduced. The play is gorgeously costumed and a large chorus, the members of which have been especially selected for their ability to sing and dance, will be in their best has been furnished. The cast is headed by Cecil Lean and Florence Holbrook, two of the cleverest fun-makers on the American stage, and includes a number of well-known players, among them, Jeanette Lawrence, Herbert Sellinger, Samuel Thompson, Freddie Nice and Cecilia Romard, of the well known vaudeville team.

The scenic equipment given the play by Mr. Gaites is elaborate and a number of beautiful and novel mechanical and electrical effects have been introduced. The play is gorgeously costumed and a large chorus, the members of which have been especially selected for their ability to sing and dance, will be in their best has been furnished. The cast is headed by Cecil Lean and Florence Holbrook, two of the cleverest fun-makers on the American stage, and includes a number of well-known players, among them, Jeanette Lawrence, Herbert Sellinger, Samuel Thompson, Freddie Nice and Cecilia Romard, of the well known vaudeville team.

The scenic equipment given the play by Mr. Gaites is elaborate and a number of beautiful and novel mechanical and electrical effects have been introduced. The play is gorgeously costumed and a large chorus, the members of which have been especially selected for their ability to sing and dance, will be in their best has been furnished. The cast is headed by Cecil Lean and Florence Holbrook, two of the cleverest fun-makers on the American stage, and includes a number of well-known players, among them, Jeanette Lawrence, Herbert Sellinger, Samuel Thompson, Freddie Nice and Cecilia Romard, of the well known vaudeville team.

The scenic equipment given the play by Mr. Gaites is elaborate and a number of beautiful and novel mechanical and electrical effects have been introduced. The play is gorgeously costumed and a large chorus, the members of which have been especially selected for their ability to sing and dance, will be in their best has been furnished. The cast is headed by Cecil Lean and Florence Holbrook, two of the cleverest fun-makers on the American stage, and includes a number of well-known players, among them, Jeanette Lawrence, Herbert Sellinger, Samuel Thompson, Freddie Nice and Cecilia Romard, of the well known vaudeville team.

The scenic equipment given the play by Mr. Gaites is elaborate and a number of beautiful and novel mechanical and electrical effects have been introduced. The play is gorgeously costumed and a large chorus, the members of which have been especially selected for their ability to sing and dance, will be in their best has been furnished. The cast is headed by Cecil Lean and Florence Holbrook, two of the cleverest fun-makers on the American stage, and includes a number of well-known players, among them, Jeanette Lawrence, Herbert Sellinger, Samuel Thompson, Freddie Nice and Cecilia Romard, of the well known vaudeville team.

The scenic equipment given the play by Mr. Gaites is elaborate and a number of beautiful and novel mechanical and electrical effects have been introduced. The play is gorgeously costumed and a large chorus, the members of which have been especially selected for their ability to sing and dance, will be in their best has been furnished. The cast is headed by Cecil Lean and Florence Holbrook, two of the cleverest fun-makers on the American stage, and includes a number of well-known players, among them, Jeanette Lawrence, Herbert Sellinger, Samuel Thompson, Freddie Nice and Cecilia Romard, of the well known vaudeville team.

The scenic equipment given the play by Mr. Gaites is elaborate and a number of beautiful and novel mechanical and electrical effects have been introduced. The play is gorgeously costumed and a large chorus, the members of which have been especially selected for their ability to sing and dance, will be in their best has been furnished. The cast is headed by Cecil Lean and Florence Holbrook, two of the cleverest fun-makers on the American stage, and includes a number of well-known players, among them, Jeanette Lawrence, Herbert Sellinger, Samuel Thompson, Freddie Nice and Cecilia Romard, of the well known vaudeville team.

The scenic equipment given the play by Mr. Gaites is elaborate and a number of beautiful and novel mechanical and electrical effects have been introduced. The play is gorgeously costumed and a large chorus, the members of which have been especially selected for their ability to sing and dance, will be in their best has been furnished. The cast is headed by Cecil Lean and Florence Holbrook, two of the cleverest fun-makers on the American stage, and includes a number of well-known players, among them, Jeanette Lawrence, Herbert Sellinger, Samuel Thompson, Freddie Nice and Cecilia Romard, of the well known vaudeville team.

The scenic equipment given the play by Mr. Gaites is elaborate and a number of beautiful and novel mechanical and electrical effects have been introduced. The play is gorgeously costumed and a large chorus, the members of which have been especially selected for their ability to sing and dance, will be in their best has been furnished. The cast is headed by Cecil Lean and Florence Holbrook, two of the cleverest fun-makers on the American stage, and includes a number of well-known players, among them, Jeanette Lawrence, Herbert Sellinger, Samuel Thompson, Freddie Nice and Cecilia Romard, of the well known vaudeville team.

The scenic equipment given the play by Mr. Gaites is elaborate and a number of beautiful and novel mechanical and electrical effects have been introduced. The play is gorgeously costumed and a large chorus, the members of which have been especially selected for their ability to sing and dance, will be in their best has been furnished. The cast is headed by Cecil Lean and Florence Holbrook, two of the cleverest fun-makers on the American stage, and includes a number of well-known players, among them, Jeanette Lawrence, Herbert Sellinger, Samuel Thompson, Freddie Nice and Cecilia Romard, of the well known vaudeville team.

The scenic equipment given the play by Mr. Gaites is elaborate and a number of beautiful and novel mechanical and electrical effects have been introduced. The play is gorgeously costumed and a large chorus, the members of which have been especially selected for their ability to sing and dance, will be in their best has been furnished. The cast is headed by Cecil Lean and Florence Holbrook, two of the cleverest fun-makers on the American stage, and includes a number of well-known players, among them, Jeanette Lawrence, Herbert Sellinger, Samuel Thompson, Freddie Nice and Cecilia Romard, of the well known vaudeville team.

OUSTED OFFICIAL'S
FRIENDS RALLY
TO HIS AID

Ten Thousand People of Denver Volunteer to Put Henry J. Arnold Back in Office of Assessor.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Denver, Dec. 17.—Colorado's state capital was the scene of a unusual demonstration participated in by more than 10,000 persons, including women and children, late this afternoon and it came near resulting in a riot. The entire public had been invited to be present at 6 o'clock at the west front of the capitol building to join in a demonstration against Denver's mayor, Robert W. Speer, and the members of his council. The climax came as the meeting was being brought to a close with the holding of Henry J. Arnold upon the shoulders of several anti-Speer enthusiasts, following a word from the capitol steps by Mr. Arnold, who was ousted from the office of county assessor by Mayor Speer and his council several days ago. Allegedly, it is claimed by Arnold's supporters.

Mr. Arnold had declined to be one of the speakers at the demonstration held in his behalf but the crowd insisted. "I do not propose to regain the office by force," said Mr. Arnold, "but I shall re-occupy the office under the law." "You won't have to wait for the law," some one shouted from the crowd. "We will put you in the office in which you belong, right away," another shouted. Then an immense throng crowded in about the ousted official, eager hands caught him up and bore him upon their shoulders out into the crowd in an effort to reach the county court house, but a few blocks away.

Cooler heads soon ended the demonstration. Mr. Arnold was ghastly pale and when released by his admirers, worked his way out of the crowd and hurried into Governor Shafroth's office. But even then it required no little persuasion by conservatives to keep the mob from taking possession of the assessor's office and holding it for him.

Mr. Arnold was the only official not re-appointed by Mayor Speer after the recent consolidation of Denver's county and the city under one government. State Senator Hiram E. Hills is now in possession of the office having, with the assistance of the Denver police, succeeded Mr. Arnold at 1 o'clock last Thursday.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

OUSTED OFFICIAL'S
FRIENDS RALLY
TO HIS AID

Ten Thousand People of Denver Volunteer to Put Henry J. Arnold Back in Office of Assessor.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Denver, Dec. 17.—Colorado's state capital was the scene of a unusual demonstration participated in by more than 10,000 persons, including women and children, late this afternoon and it came near resulting in a riot. The entire public had been invited to be present at 6 o'clock at the west front of the capitol building to join in a demonstration against Denver's mayor, Robert W. Speer, and the members of his council. The climax came as the meeting was being brought to a close with the holding of Henry J. Arnold upon the shoulders of several anti-Speer enthusiasts, following a word from the capitol steps by Mr. Arnold, who was ousted from the office of county assessor by Mayor Speer and his council several days ago. Allegedly, it is claimed by Arnold's supporters.

Mr. Arnold had declined to be one of the speakers at the demonstration held in his behalf but the crowd insisted. "I do not propose to regain the office by force," said Mr. Arnold, "but I shall re-occupy the office under the law." "You won't have to wait for the law," some one shouted from the crowd. "We will put you in the office in which you belong, right away," another shouted. Then an immense throng crowded in about the ousted official, eager hands caught him up and bore him upon their shoulders out into the crowd in an effort to reach the county court house, but a few blocks away.

Cooler heads soon ended the demonstration. Mr. Arnold was ghastly pale and when released by his admirers, worked his way out of the crowd and hurried into Governor Shafroth's office. But even then it required no little persuasion by conservatives to keep the mob from taking possession of the assessor's office and holding it for him.

Mr. Arnold was the only official not re-appointed by Mayor Speer after the recent consolidation of Denver's county and the city under one government. State Senator Hiram E. Hills is now in possession of the office having, with the assistance of the Denver police, succeeded Mr. Arnold at 1 o'clock last Thursday.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of the City and County of Denver," and intimates that he is the assessor. He has filed suit to recover the office. It was an hour before the demonstration was ended before those who wanted to take possession of the court-house could be persuaded to leave the state capitol grounds.

Mr. Arnold hung out a sign at his private office, reading, "Assessor of

The Albuquerque Morning Journal

(Official Newspaper of New Mexico)
Published by the
JOURNAL PUBLISHING CO.

D. A. MACPHERSON, President
JAMES S. BLACK, Managing Editor
E. DANA JOHNSON, Editor

Western Representative,
C. J. ANDERSON,
Marquette Building, Chicago, Ill.

Eastern Representative,
RALPH H. MULLIGAN,
28 Park Row, New York.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Albuquerque, N. M., under act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

THE MORNING JOURNAL IS THE LEADING REPUBLICAN PAPER OF NEW MEXICO. IT SUPPORTS THE PRINCIPLES OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY ALL THE TIME AND THE METHODS OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY WHEN THEY ARE RIGHT.

Larger circulation than any other paper in New Mexico. The only paper in New Mexico issued every day in the year.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
Daily, by mail one month $1.00
Daily by carrier, one month $1.00

"The Morning Journal has a higher circulation than any other paper in New Mexico."—The American Newspaper Directory.

ALBUQUERQUE NEW MEXICO

THE MYSTERY OF MINCE.

There occurs in Aristophanes a word of 175 letters, in which can be detected the name of every edible known to the Greeks, but whether this word represents mince-meat or hash, classical scholars are not agreed. Of course, it makes a good deal of difference which it is. Mince-meat may be found in the best society, while hash is thoroughly common.

There are formulas for the domestic compounding of mince-meat, but "All things are not what they seem." "Skin milk masquerades as cream," and no one has ever stated with any degree of confidence what the ingredients of the mince-meat of commerce, used in stuffing store mince-pies, are. With high scientific courage Dr. Wiley and his associates have analyzed specimens and attempted to establish a standard below which commercial mince-meat shall not fall without forfeiting its legitimacy and becoming the product of adulteration not permitted to bear the honorable name to which it aspires, and without which it cannot hope to be welcome to the pie-eaters. The Board of Food and Drug Inspection, having analyzed mince pie, presumable of domestic manufacture, and sought information from grocers, bakers, hotel managers and housekeepers—but not the manufacturers of mince-meat—concluded that—

"From early times it has been made from numerous well-known ingredients, certain of which appear to be fundamental. These fundamental ingredients are lean meat in material amount, or a combination of meat with meat, together with sugar, molasses, spices, apples and other fruits, with or without some alcoholic liquor, such as brandy, cider, and the like."

Therefore it was decided that standard mince-meat "is a mixture of not less than 10 per cent of cooked comminuted meat" with the other things substantially as above enumerated. The local option feature of the formula is, of course, a concession to the prohibitionists; there is no such alternative in the recipes of the great housekeepers who made mince pie famous.

In view of the fact that the compound is sold under the name of meat—mince-meat—it does not seem that the requirement that 10 per cent of it shall consist of meat is excessive. But some manufacturers of commercial mince-meat are warmly protesting against the requirement as unreasonably high. They are solicited about the cost of living; 10 per cent mince-meat will be so expensive that the poor cannot afford it, and they demand the right to reduce the element procured from the Beef Trust to 7 or even 5 per cent and they claim that if Dr. Wiley can make them use 10 per cent of meat he may drive them to ruin by requiring 15 per cent, or 100 per cent, which, of course, would exclude the spices and the fruit, with or without some alcoholic liquor such as brandy, cider or the like, and would greatly exceed the percentage of meat in hash, which we presume never uses above 50 per cent, and is usually much lower.

We cannot approve of the position taken by the manufacturers. If it be possible that the proportion of meat may be unreasonably increased, is it not even more likely that the manufacturers may still further reduce it, and if the compound now consists of 10 per cent of meat and 90 per cent of mince, may it not presently deteriorate into meat and 100 per cent of mince? We believe that the pie-eating community will not be satisfied with any lower standard than that established by Dr. Wiley's board.

HAPHAZARD VEGETARIANISM.

The news that the cross-continent distance contest between the Buffum brothers, one a meat eater and the other a vegetarian, has been won by the latter is likely to stimulate interest in vegetarianism.

Divers persons, says a Chicago editor, moved thereby to this apparent demonstration of the benefits of chewing meat of all kinds, will probably rush to the vegetarian restaurants and join the select circle of sad and thoughtful eaters who are weighed down with a sense of dietetic responsibility.

And after a brief season of apprenticeship the vast majority of them will probably sever themselves from that connection with no little disapproval and suffer a revolution which will land them in front of the juiciest beefsteak to be found.

But this will not mean that they have had a fair try at vegetarianism. It will mean that they have acted on the common assumption that vegetarianism means simply eating vegetables and have been tormented by the longing for a square meal which naturally afflicts those who make that particular mistake.

The fact is that unless a man knows something about food values and makes it a point to select wisely from a vegetarian diet he is quite likely to fall to secure sufficient nutriment, no matter how large the quantity of things he happens to eat. He may be getting himself at every meal and yet practically starving for lack of food.

Most vegetables are valuable for their water and bulk. For instance, a man could eat a bale of lettuce or spinach or cabbage or turnips without getting a square meal out of it. And there are many other familiar vegetables, the sort which the amateur vegetarian is most likely to order, that haven't enough nutriment to sustain a man.

The principal nutriment is in the grains and nuts and vegetable oils which form so large a part of a regular vegetarian diet. It is they and not the vegetables that supply the fat and the protein which were formerly got from the meat. Fruits are much less nutritious, but still valuable in any sort of diet.

The fact is that if a person is not prepared to be a scientific vegetarian he would better not be any at all. The neglect to work out a diet that will supply the principal food elements needed by the body may result in insufficient nutrition and a greater tendency to tuberculosis and other diseases. Cases of the baneful consequences of such neglect are by no means rare.

Whatever one may think of the merits of vegetarianism it may safely be assumed that those who go in for it haphazard are not only preparing a huge disgust for themselves but are also possibly running a certain amount of risk. In brief, the uninitiated vegetarianism is more dangerous than meat eating could possibly be.

The postoffice department is getting so industrious and remunerative that it may possibly develop into a source of income and perhaps afford occasion for reducing some of the tariff revenue. In this connection it is interesting that this postmaster general, who has turned a deficit of $17,999,999 into a surplus, was insisting only two years ago that the rates of postage for second class matter should be raised in order to relieve the treasury of the growing burden of the postal deficit.

One little difficulty about attending the inaugural ball is pointed out by Don Kedzie in the Lordsburg Liberal, as follows: "The inaugural of Governor McDonald is to be no cheap affair. A Lordsburger has been notified that a ticket for the ball has been reserved for him, and he is invited to forward ten dollars in payment for the same as soon as convenient, and on receipt of the ten the ticket will be forwarded to him. He is now out trying to borrow the ten."

The navy department will receive the condemnation of all honest men for its high handed action in forbidding the men to chew gum. It is not beyond the bounds of possibility that a little chicle has, on occasion, turned the tide of battle.

A Murillo has been acquired for Pittsburg. Lest the smart set of the Smoky City look for it in the wrong place, this is to notify them that it will not be exhibited in the Zoo.

In announcing Mr. Taft's message, Doorkeeper Sinnott addressed Speaker Clark as "Mr. President." Of course the house laughed, but Champ Clark never even cracked a smile.

A Colorado farmer has been pinched for shaking his wife so hard he broke her neck. Curious how the courts interfere with a man's inalienable prerogatives.

Lucien C. Joseph of St. Louis is in a critical condition. He tried to suicide by swallowing collar studs and now they are trying to untubton him.

A JAIL FOR LINCOLN.

Lincoln county wants a jail. In fact, she wants it bad. This pressing need is expressively set forth by the Carriazo Outlook as follows:

"Lincoln county is very much in need of a county jail, a self-respecting prisoner will not stay in the adobe coop which is dignified by the appellation, 'Lincoln county jail.' When a prisoner is taken to that famous ha-ha from which escaped Billy the Kid, and he is told that he is now in jail it is hard for him to believe it and in fact some of them don't believe it and have escaped when the opportunity time came. Only as recently as last Saturday, five of the six that were confined in that mud corral took French leave and four of them are still reported to be among the missing. One of the four is none other than the boy bandit, alias Francisco Luciano, etc.

The county of Lincoln is one of the oldest counties in the new state and is still without a jail suitable for the needs of the county, and if the law will not permit Lincoln county to have a jail of its own why not arrange to put the county prisoners in the jail of some neighboring county? This of course, would entail a greater expense to the county but there would be some satisfaction in 'having' the prisoners when court convened. It is incompatible with the welfare of the county to have too many escaped prisoners running at large, as it is discouraging to the local officers to have their prisoners escape after they have spent many weary days training them across the country to effect their capture. What will our newly elected district attorney have to do when court convenes here and there are no prisoners to try? How can we expect outside capital to come into the county when capitalists find out that the building of our court house and jail was contemporaneous with the Battle of Hunker Hill?"

In St. Louis the gentle art of kicking has been reduced to a science. The civic league supplies its 1600 members with special post cards to be filled out by them whenever there is occasion to complain of unsanitary alleys, smoke nuisances, poor light or poor service of any kind. And when a kick is directed against a city department or a public utility it has a force of 1600 boot-heelpower behind it. Such answer to a "show me" demand should have effect.

New York has a brand new institution, a School of Mothercraft, which is intended to teach young mothers the most approved methods of rearing their offspring. Characters as really enough, it is in charge of an old maid. When it comes to the new science of genetics there is nothing like a spinster for laying down the law to her married sisters.

Now we know what was the matter with Dr. Conk's polar observations. Captain Loane, who made them in New York, has been held in Copenhagen morally irresponsible from alcoholism.

Jersey shivers in the shadow of a poverty impending from the federal chartering of Trusts—but it hasn't come yet.

Abdul Hamid's jewels did not bring as much as was expected, and nobody supposed they would.

The postoffice department is getting so industrious and remunerative that it may possibly develop into a source of income and perhaps afford occasion for reducing some of the tariff revenue. In this connection it is interesting that this postmaster general, who has turned a deficit of $17,999,999 into a surplus, was insisting only two years ago that the rates of postage for second class matter should be raised in order to relieve the treasury of the growing burden of the postal deficit.

One little difficulty about attending the inaugural ball is pointed out by Don Kedzie in the Lordsburg Liberal, as follows: "The inaugural of Governor McDonald is to be no cheap affair. A Lordsburger has been notified that a ticket for the ball has been reserved for him, and he is invited to forward ten dollars in payment for the same as soon as convenient, and on receipt of the ten the ticket will be forwarded to him. He is now out trying to borrow the ten."

The navy department will receive the condemnation of all honest men for its high handed action in forbidding the men to chew gum. It is not beyond the bounds of possibility that a little chicle has, on occasion, turned the tide of battle.

A Murillo has been acquired for Pittsburg. Lest the smart set of the Smoky City look for it in the wrong place, this is to notify them that it will not be exhibited in the Zoo.

In announcing Mr. Taft's message, Doorkeeper Sinnott addressed Speaker Clark as "Mr. President." Of course the house laughed, but Champ Clark never even cracked a smile.

A Colorado farmer has been pinched for shaking his wife so hard he broke her neck. Curious how the courts interfere with a man's inalienable prerogatives.

Lucien C. Joseph of St. Louis is in a critical condition. He tried to suicide by swallowing collar studs and now they are trying to untubton him.

RAPID PROGRESS ON BIG FLUME.

Half of Inner Wall at Elephant Butte Completed; News Notes of the Construction Camp.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Rapid progress is being made on work on the flume. About half of the inner wall of the flume has been poured. Part of the floor of the flume also has been finished.

Herbert W. Yeo, an engineer of the reclamation service at this place, has been in Las Cruces the past few days looking up data at the land office concerning the land in and about Arrey, where Mr. Yeo will soon begin the survey of the Rincon valley.

At the recent meeting of the Royal Elephant, Messrs. Patton and Fitzsimmons were initiated as members.

The church building at the town is nearing completion. It will be ready for use at the time of the Christmas entertainment.

Mrs. Lester Monteth was at home to the club at its regular meeting this week. Mrs. Blue won first prize, a nice picture, and Mrs. Knicker was given the consolation prize, consisting of a book of rules for the game of "Five Hundred." Excellent refreshments were served.

A number of the young friends of Helen Louise Phillips were entertained at her home on her birthday during the past week. Games were features of amusement. Refreshments were served from a table, gay with green and red decorations, and centered with a large birthday cake bearing four tiny candles. Numerous presents were received.

Mr. Pierce of Merrill Park, has arrived here to work on the church building. He was a former employee of the reclamation service.

Edward D. Campbell left here last Thursday for Yuma, Ariz., having been transferred to that project by the government.

ARCHDEACON WEBBER SPEAKS TO LARGE CONGREGATIONS.

Yesterday at St. John's church, Archdeacon Percy Webber of Boston, who is conducting a mission at this church, spoke to large congregations, at five services, beginning at 7 a. m. and closing with a meeting at 7:30 p. m.

No rector has ever filled the pulpit at St. John's who made a better impression on his congregations or spoke with greater forcefulness than Archdeacon Webber.

Perhaps one of his best sermons Sunday was that delivered to a congregation of men at a special service held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Though his audience was not large, those who attended the meeting profited by it. It was a clean talk by a manly man to men.

What the Editors Are Saying.

Speaking of the Bull.

When we size up the entire situation of Mr. Andrew's official career, we find that there has never been an instance when Mr. Andrew was able to demonstrate that he had any influence, whatever, with any eastern representatives, either in the house or in the senate, and it is a well-known fact that his presence at the White House is an occasion for consternation rather than for joy.

Why his candidacy for the United States senate should be seriously considered in the face of all the facts, considering his inability to age, his lack of influence, his character and reputation as a man, and as a politician, his achievements in office and all other matters affecting his claim for appointment, should receive any attention, whatever, from the men who have at heart the welfare of New Mexico, and of our citizenship, is really more than we can understand.

It is really a reflection upon our citizenship to have a man of his attainments even mentioned for the office of United States senator.

New Mexico has able, earnest, conscientious men—men who would reflect credit upon the fair name of our new state, and men who would have power and influence in the councils of the nation. And why should they be set aside and supplanted by Mr. Andrews?—Las Cruces Democrat.

Why Not?

If Mr. McDonald is broad-minded and wise-headed, he will be shown every courtesy due his official position, and will be enabled in a large measure, to direct legislative enactments. New Mexico needs harmony at Santa Fe.—Pecos Valley News.

Better Prospects.

There is a ray of hope for better conditions in New Mexico, politically. Instead of profiting by the lesson of November 7 the gang republicans are showing their teeth and swearing vengeance against the members of their party who refused to swallow the poison of the party at Las Vegas. On the other hand the progressives are standing quiet but with a settled determination that nothing but an elimination of the gangsters from the domination of the party will induce them to again enlist under the republican banner.

The progressive motto of "Decency first and politics afterwards" is beyond the moral concept of the gang republicans and they are unforgiving in their denunciations. Republican politics in New Mexico is synonymous and has been for a generation. There are not to exceed five hundred of the active gangsters including their acquisitions from the ranks of the democracy, and yet this little coterie has dominated and dictated to nearly thirty thousand voters as arbitrarily over the ear of Russia lorded it over his millions of subjects.

The break away this fall was the first serious defection from the rule of the bosses in a quarter of a century. The gangsters are enraged and threaten condign punishment upon those who dared to question their dictation. The good citizens of New Mexico look upon this revolt as the beginning of the end of gang rule and intend to make it so. The progressive defection will gather strength from this time on and the doom of the gangsters in this new state is sealed. When the decent republicans can be assured of the ascendancy in their party they will be the party, but so long as conditions continue as they have in the past the progressives will join forces with the democrats and make certain of securing honest and competent officials who will place the good name and welfare of New Mexico above sordid personal gain.—Roswell News.

Mistakes Will Occur.

It is no little task to keep errors from creeping into the mailing list of a newspaper. In consequence, sometimes well-behaved subscribers who have already paid in advance will get a dun. While this may irritate the average man no little and the circulation man may need "bailing out" for making such a "blat" yet, inasmuch as all men are liable to mistakes it will not hurt the paper matter and peace will reign if the aforesaid dunned subscriber will simply deny the allegation and remind the said newspaper that on such and such a date the necessary sum was paid. Keep your feet warm and your head cool, even in paying your subscription, and if you don't get your money's worth, it is because you don't read the advertisements.—Deming Headlight.

WISDOM AND OTHERWISE.

The mother-in-law joke goes in the funny papers, but it falls flat at home.—Chicago News.

Mrs. Stubbs—"John, what do you think of the English Dreadnoughts?" Mr. Stubbs—"Jattieships or suffragettes, Maria?"—London Tit-Bits.

A love match doesn't always burn to the end.—Cleveland Mamm.

"You say Mr. Phillips has great executive ability?" "Yes," replied the cynical officeholder. "What makes you think so?" "Because he manages to hold a job without being competent to do any kind of real work."—Washington Star.

What's the use of making trouble, when there's trouble ready made?—Philander Johnson.

Mrs. Knicker—"Has your boy stopped smoking for fear he won't get a Christmas present?" Mrs. Knicker—"Ever, sir, but I don't want to see my boy smoking for fear he will get one."—New York Sun.

The man at the head of the house can mar the pleasure of the household, but he cannot make it. That must rest with the woman, and is her greatest privilege.—Sir Arthur Helps.

"What's the trouble with you and your fiancée? Is he jealous?" "Well, he isn't exactly jealous, but he's what you might call old-fashioned. He doesn't want me to be married to any body else."—Pittsburgh Post.

TWO DISTINGUISHED PATIENTS RECOVERING.

New York, Dec. 17.—Cornelius Vanderbilt and Dr. Charles H. Mayo, of Rochester, Minn., each of whom operated upon here yesterday for appendicitis, were reported today as recovering.

OLD MAN ACQUITTED OF CRIME DONE 36 YEARS AGO.

Remarkable Trial at Las Cruces Results in Verdict of Not Guilty in Case of Domacio Espalin.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Las Cruces, N. M., Dec. 17.—Saturday night district court adjourned for the term. Judge Parker left for Santa Fe where he will attend the last session of the territorial supreme court. A few criminal cases and several civil cases were passed over until the spring term when Judge Medler will be on the bench.

The case of the territory vs. M. Mendoza was completed Thursday. Mendoza was charged with assault with a deadly weapon. Witnesses testified that Mendoza cut H. Chavez, a bartender of a La Mesa saloon. Mendoza fled to Deming but was arrested and returned to the Las Cruces jail. The jury returned a verdict of guilty.

The most unique and interesting case of the term was that of Domacio Espalin, charged with murdering a man in the town of Dona Ana 36 years ago. Espalin is now a resident of Yuleta, Tex., where he has a ranch. Two eye-witnesses to the shooting were present and gave their testimony. Pablo Melandres testified that he saw the murdered man shortly after he was shot and saw him again after he was dead.

W. C. P. Glick, a small boy when the crime was committed, testified that he saw Lyon, the man that was killed, lunge forward into a pool of water. Another man was running from the scene with a gun. The witness, however, was not able to distinguish the fleeing figure.

From the knowledge obtained from people who were living in Dona Ana at the time of the trouble, the story is alleged to be as follows: Serbio Lujan and another man had a difficulty on the streets of Dona Ana. During the fight Lujan took a knife from his opponent, making a cut on his hand. He stepped out to a pool to wash the blood off his hand when Espalin came up. Arguing followed. Espalin shooting Lujan, who died four hours afterwards. Espalin was arrested and tried before a justice of the peace who dismissed the charge.

This happened on the 19th day of July 1875. A grand jury met the following November and indicted Espalin for murder in the first degree. Espalin, however, had left for Mexico, where he remained for many years, returning later to Yuleta, Tex., where he has since lived. It was found out last summer that Espalin was in Yuleta and the sheriff arrested him and brought him back.

The crime was committed so many years ago and the witnesses had forgotten so much of the testimony, that upon motion of the attorneys for the defendant the court instructed the jury to find a verdict of not guilty.

Epalin, old, bent and gray, shaved his head and wore a wig. He left the court room where he had been called by the strong arm of the law to answer for the crime he had committed when he was a young man.

This is the oldest case ever tried in Dona Ana county if not in all New Mexico. The next oldest was tried here last year when Juan Gil was convicted and sentenced to prison for one year for stealing a horse 16 years ago.

The case of the Torpedo Mining company, was held in chambers. This property is located in the Organ mountains and is valued at $1,000,000.

ONIONS PROFITABLE CROP ON MIMBRES.

Big Money Made in Odoriferous Vegetables Around Deming; Deming News Notes of the Week.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Deming, N. M., Dec. 17.—There is considerable interest to be taken during the next year in the raising of onions in the Mimbres valley. Experiments that have been made during the past two years go to show that this will be one of the most profitable crops during this valley.

All onions raised in the past season found a ready sale when placed on the market. The quality and size of the product is the finest that has ever been placed on the market in the southwestern part of the territory. The Shull brothers raised a net profit of two hundred and thirty-four dollars from a plot of ground having an area of less than nine-tenths of an acre. Park Taylor netted fifty dollars from less than one-tenth of an acre. Earl VanSickle and Earl Craig also received good returns from the onions they placed on the market. Messrs. Craig and VanSickle will plant forty acres in onions during the year 1912.

The second annual meeting of Luna county's medical society was held this week at Deming and the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: Dr. Edward E. Montenyohl, president; Dr. George D. Carter, vice president; Dr. J. E. Keller, secretary; Dr. J. S. Moir, treasurer; Dr. M. M. Crocker, of Lordsburg, censor for three years; Dr. S. W. Swope, delegate to the state convention, Dr. P. M. Steed, alternate.

J. C. Jackling, general manager of the Chino Copper company, arrived here last night in his private car. "Cyprus," Superintendent J. M. Sully of Santa Rita, met him upon his arrival here. They left last evening in an automobile for Santa Rita, the "Cyprus" going to Santa Rita on the Santa Fe this morning.

With the Coming of Middle Age: There is a letting down in the physical forces often shown in annoying and painful kidney and bladder ailments and urinary irregularities. Foley Kidney Pills are a splendid regulating and strengthening medicine at such a time. Try them.—J. H. O'Reilly.

The Root of All Evil...

We've got to get to it, and get it quick. In order to do this we have decided to sell our entire line of Libby Hawkes and Sinclair Cut and Engraved Glass at cost. Why pay more for cheap goods?

S. VANN & SON JEWELERS

212 West Central Avenue.

CADETS NAMES SENT TO SENATE WILL EXTERMINATE PRAIRIE DOGS

Eugene Johnson and Percy Short Recommended for the Army; Alleged Abductor Held to Grand Jury.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Roswell, N. M., Dec. 16.—The names of two New Mexico Military Institute men have been sent to the senate for approval by President Taft as appointments to the United States army. The name of Eugene A. Lohman, formerly of Las Cruces, goes as second lieutenant in the cavalry and M. Percy Short goes as second lieutenant in the infantry. Lohman is now commandant of cadets at the Military Institute. Short was a graduate last spring and was commander of the battalion.

Roswell has a candidate for membership in the state board of education in the person of C. C. Hill, Chavez county school superintendent. The new board is to be appointed by the new governor under the new constitution. One member must be a county superintendent and Mr. Hill seeks this place. He has the endorsement of the city superintendents of Roswell, Artesia, Carlsbad, Portales, Deming and other cities of New Mexico. The position is honorary.

Abduction Case. District Attorney L. O. Fullen returned today from Lakewood, where he conducted the preliminary examination of Calvin Crawford, who was arrested on the charge of abducting a 14-year-old Susie Lawrence. The defendant, a man with wife and family and 35 years old, was bound over to the grand jury of Eddy county under bond of $2,000, which he could not furnish. The alleged abduction occurred several days ago. Crawford's wife is in California on a visit. He and the girl were overtaken in a buggy 65 miles northwest of Lakewood in the Pecos country of Chavez county.

Elk to Be Placed in Arizona. Through one of the principal associations of sportsmen it is hoped to introduce elk at one or two points in Arizona and through the order of Elk or otherwise an effort will be made to increase the herd of elk on the Wichita preserve. These are measures leading to the re-stocking of the Rocky Mountain with elk.

Antelope are also to be placed under a careful survey to see what can be done to prevent the extinction of this valuable and attractive species, which is the only antelope in the western hemisphere. Texas, with four other states will be included in these surveys.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS. Tonic in action, pick in results. Will cure any case of kidney or bladder disorder not beyond the reach of medicine. Do not accept any substitute.—J. H. O'Reilly.

Results From Journal Want Ads

AMUSEMENTS.

ORPHEUM THEATER

Coal and Second.

TO-DAY NIGHT RIDERS

TENNESSEE AND KENTUCKY

HOOD & BROWNING CO.

And Vaudeville

All Seats 10c

CRESCENT HARDWARE CO.

Saws, Ranges, House Furnishing Goods, Cutlery, Tools, Iron Pipe, Valves and Fittings, Plumbing, Heating, Tin and Copper Work.

218 W. CENTRAL AVE.

TELEPHONE 313

REMEMBER

that your babies need the purest milk obtainable. It's MATTHEW'S, Phone 420

CHARLES ILFELD CO.

Wholesalers of Everything

LAS VEGAS

ALBUQUERQUE

SANTA ROSA

TODAY

Special Prices

Go into effect on candy and nuts at retail. To school teachers and Sunday Schools we will make strictly wholesale prices on candy.

Ward's Store

HOMER H. WARD, Mgr.
315 Marble Ave. Phone 208

HA, HA, HA,

Let 'em come, Christmas Parades, Messengers and Baggages.
Hush 'em! Hush 'em! Hush 'em!

BRYANT'S QUICK DELIVERY

Will do this

Phones 501-502

WALLACE HESSELDEN

General Contractors.
Figures and workmanship count. We guarantee more for your money than any other contracting firm in Albuquerque. Offices at SUPERIOR PLANNING MILL.
Phone 373.

THE WM. FARR COMPANY

Wholesale and retail dealers in Fresh and Salt Meats—Sausages a specialty. For cattle and hogs the best market prices are paid.

MRS. CLAY.

116 S. Fourth St. Opp. Postoffice.
MANICURING.
Combs made up. Maricello
Toilet Articles sold here.

Open Evenings
Until
Christmas

In order to accommodate our patrons, this store will be open for business every evening until Christmas.

Holeproof
Hosiery

in a nifty Christmas Box makes an ideal present. 6 pairs guaranteed for 6 months.

$1.50 or $2.00
the box

MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY
FILLED

E. J. Washburn Co.
122 S. Second St. 219 N. Gold

HUBBS LAUNDRY
WHITE WAGONS

Strong Brothers

Undertakers and Embalmers.
Prompt service Day or Night.
Telephone 75, Residence 686.
Strong Bldg., Copper and Second.

In the event that you should not receive your morning paper, telephone the POSTAL TELEGRAPH CO., giving your name and address and the paper will be delivered by a special messenger. The telephone is No. 36.

$5.00—Reward—$5.00
The above reward will be paid for the arrest and conviction of anyone caught stealing copies of the Morning Journal from the doorways of subscribers.

JOURNAL PUBLISHING CO.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

Weather Report.

For the twenty-four hours ending at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon.
Maximum temperature, 38; minimum, 12; range, 26; temperature at 6 o'clock, p. m., 36; north winds, cloudy.

FORECAST.

Washington, Dec. 12.—New Mexico—Snow or rain in north; rain in south portion Monday or Monday night; Tuesday colder and generally fair.

Arizona—Snow in north; rain or snow and colder in south portion Monday; Tuesday fair.

West Texas—Increasing cloudiness Monday, snow or rain in north and rain in south portion at night or Tuesday; colder Tuesday.

Dr. Conner, osteopath, 6 Stern Bldg. Drs. Schwenter & Ray, Osteopaths, 5, Armijo bldg. Phone 717.

Major B. Ruppe made a trip to Helen yesterday.

Victor Sain left last night for his cattle ranch at Victor, N. M., to be absent a few days.

Born, Sunday, December 17, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Quinn of 521 South Second street, a boy.

W. J. Linwood, secretary of the New Mexico cattle sanitary board, arrived last night from Baton.

C. D. Cleveland of Las Vegas, returned to Santa Fe last night after spending Sunday in the city.

John A. Pace, an attorney of Clayton, returned last night to Santa Fe after spending Sunday here.

Herman Schweitzer, manager of the Fred Harvey Curio department, left last night for the Pacific coast.

Superintendent E. E. Summers of the Rio Grande division of the Santa Fe, came up last night from San Marcial.

M. J. Drury, mechanical superintendent of the Western grand division of the Santa Fe system, was here yesterday from La Junta.

President C. L. Ballard of the New

Walton,

Photographer.

Phone 923.

Studio 313½ W. Central Ave.

Mexico cattle sanitary board, arrived last night from El Paso to attend the session of the board here today.

Archdeacon Webber will be here several days longer, during which he will hold services at this church at 7 a. m., 2 p. m., and 7:30 p. m. daily.

City Clerk John B. McManus came down from Santa Fe yesterday morning, having completed his duties as watcher at the sessions of the election canvassing board.

Miss Annette M. McFie, daughter of Judge John R. McFie of Santa Fe, who had been visiting Miss Hessel- den of this city for the past ten days, left for her home last evening.

George G. Sauer, one of the most prominent merchants and pioneers of El Paso, accompanied by Mrs. Sauer, passed through the city last evening en route home after spending a vacation in California.

Mrs. R. M. Gabbert, who has been seriously ill at her home 614 South Second street, for the past two weeks, was yesterday removed to the Santa Fe hospital where she will be operated on for appendicitis this morning.

Joseph Fletcher, superintendent of the Santa Fe railroad's coal properties, was in the city yesterday conferring with G. A. Kesterman. This morning the two gentlemen will leave for Cerrillos on a tour of inspection of the properties there.

A wee Mexican baby was born on Santa Fe train No. 7 last night, about 7 o'clock, just before the train reached Lamy. The mother of the little one, with her husband, was traveling in a car filled with laborers, returning to Mexico from Kansas.

Mrs. C. C. Chappelle wife of General Manager Chappelle of the Federal Light and Traction company, joined her husband here yesterday from New York. After a few days' stay they will proceed to Los Angeles by way of Tucson, Ariz.

J. H. Nations, one of the best known cattlemen of the southwest, was in the city last night, accompanied by Mrs. Nations, returning to El Paso from Denver where he attended the meeting of the American National Livestock association last week.

President H. A. Jastro of the American National Livestock association, which met in Denver last week, was in the city yesterday, visiting his daughter, Mrs. F. G. Chadbourne. Colonel Jastro is vice-president and general manager of the Albuquerque Traction company.

The guests of the Alvarado were entertained last evening by the piano recital given there by Howard Mann of this city. The youngster is but twelve years of age, and has been taking piano instruction from Professor Di Mauro for about three years.

Despite his youth he played the difficult accompaniment to Professor Di Mauro's violin with the skill of a veteran. He is the son of Emil Mann of this city.

H. N. Ferguson and E. M. Clark of Alton, Ill., George D. Burroughs of Edwardsville, Ill., and Thomas B. Harlan of St. Louis, constituting the board of directors of the Southwest- ern Irrigated Lands and Power com- pany of Los Angeles, arrived in the city last evening, en route to the company's ranch at Los Lunas for the purpose of attending the annual directors' meeting and inspecting the property. They will also be de- stined by Manager H. H. Schultz.

After spending the night here, the party left for Los Lunas this morning.

The best saddle horses to be had in the city are at W. L. Trimble's, 113 North Second Street, Phone 3.

Deaths and Funerals.

Mrs. Catherine E. Clark.

Mrs. Catherine E. Clark, one of the pioneers of New Mexico, and the mother of the late John H. Clark, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. J. Reeder at 611 South Broadway yesterday morning, after a short illness, at the advanced age of 80 years.

Mrs. Clark had been a resident of Albuquerque for nearly a quarter of a century, coming here shortly after the death of her husband in Boulder, Colo.

Mrs. Clark is survived by two sons and two daughters: W. J. Clark of Mexico City, Edward Clark of Winslow, Ariz.; Mrs. Margaret Watson of Laramie, Wyo., and Mrs. H. J. Reeder of this city.

The funeral arrangements have not been made, pending the arrival of Edward Clark from Winslow, Ariz.

Paul George Stoltenberg, aged 26 years, died at his home, 1419 South Arno street at 3 o'clock last night. The deceased is survived by his wife and sister. He also leaves a baby 13 months old. He was a resident of Albuquerque for the past two years, and many friends during the time.

The body will be sent to Chicago, the family home on No. 2 this afternoon. Friends desiring to view the remains may do so at French and Lowber's today between 12 noon and 2 p. m.

If you need a carpenter, telephone Hesselnden, phone 277.

Beautiful Navajo Blankets for the Holidays, for sale at The Little Blanket Parlor, 217 So. 4th St.

Springer Transfer Co.

DRAYMEN OF RENOWN
HAUL ANYTHING

We sell everything for a home from the cement for foot- ing to the varnish at the finish.

SUPERIOR LUMBER AND MILL CO.

HAHN COAL CO.

ANTHRACITE, ALL SIZES, STEAM COAL.
Coke, Mill Wood, Factory Wood, Cord Wood, Native Kindling, Fire Brick, Fire Clay, Santa Fe Brick, Common Brick, Lime.

CHICAGO MILL AND LUMBER COMPANY

WM. F. OHLRAU, Manager.
Manufacturers of Everything used in Building Construction.
Our Motto—"Big Business, Small Profits."

Corner Third and Marquette. Phone 8.

High Grade
Neckwear and Fancy
Handkerchiefs
for Christmas

THE DAINTIEST
AND
MOST EXCLUSIVE LINE
TO BE FOUND ANYWHERE.
EVERY WOMAN
LIKES HANDKERCHIEFS
AND
EVERY WOMAN
LIKES NECKWEAR--
LET US SHOW YOU OURS.

The Prices
Are Right.

Rosenwald's

ELECTRIC SHOW TO NEW YORK CROWD
OPEN IN THIS CITY TODAY
CHEERS COLONEL
ROOSEVELT

General Public Urged to Attend
Free Exhibition and Cooking
Demonstration; Special Invitation to Ladies.

When Ex-President Emerges
From Labor Temple, He Is
Mobbed By Admirers; Police
Have to Rescue Him.

The Albuquerque Gas, Electric Light and Power company in conjunction with the Western Electric company's Denver office, will open an electrical show today in the empty store room on Second street between the Western Union Telegraph company's office and that of the Wells-Fargo company.

The store room has been divided into booths which will be used to exhibit all kinds of electrical apparatus useful in the home, the store and the office. In the rear of the store room itself a pretty caterer will prepare quick lunches using electric stoves for the purpose.

This will be served to the visitors to the exhibition during the day, the lady in charge explaining how to handle the fixtures.

For the last two or three days a force of electricians has been engaged in arranging the lights in the store room, with the result that the current is turned on this evening the whole place will be a blaze of brilliancy. The booths are being tastefully decorated and everything made attractive and inviting.

The Federal Light and Traction company which owns the local light plant, has been giving a series of these exhibitions throughout this section of the country and has been meeting with great success.

The show is free to the general public and a cordial invitation is extended to the people of Albuquerque, especially the ladies, to visit the exhibition and witness the demonstration during the week.

Honor For Maine Victims.

Washington, Dec. 12.—President Taft is anxious that the bodies of a number of Maine seamen found in the wreck of the Maine, which are soon to be brought north, shall be transported with all possible dignity. He has written to Secretary Meyer, ex- pressing the wish that the bodies be brought from Havana on one of the large vessels of the navy, conveyed by another vessel.

Metallurgist Victim of Accident.

Reno, Nev., Dec. 12.—John B. Fleming, a metallurgist and mill de- signer of national reputation, died tonight from injuries resulting from a fall from a local hotel roof. He leaves two children in Salt Lake.

Fire Patrol Team Runs Away.

White Plains, N. Y., Dec. 12.—One man was killed and ten persons injured today when a runaway fire pa- trol team, dashing down a steep grade, crashed into a trolley car.

(By Morning Journal Special Licensed Wire.)

New York, Dec. 12.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, emerging from a labor meeting this afternoon, where he had made a speech, could not find his automobile and while looking around for it, caused a crowd to collect that blocked street traffic.

Somebody shouted, "There's Teddy," and in a moment he was surrounded by a throng that grew larger as the colonel strode along Fourteenth street looking for a taxicab.

When two policemen forced their way into the crowd to find out what the trouble was, the Colonel good-naturedly explained and they held up a passing automobile.

It was a private machine and the lone driver insisted in going on until the Colonel took a hand in the conversation himself. Meanwhile a trolley car had come to a stop behind the automobile.

"Here you," the motorman shouted to the former president, "turn your blamed machine up against the curb and you can get it. Don't you know anything? Get off the track."

With a grin for an answer, Mr. Roosevelt hopped into the trolley and the machine booted off, amid the cheers of the crowd.

Colonel Roosevelt's speech at the labor temple was religious in character. Rev. Charles Stebbins, head of the Presbyterian department of labor, was down on the program to speak on "What About the McNamara Case?"

Thrilling and horrible phases of the former president, he cut short his address and invited Colonel Roosevelt to succeed him. About half of the audience were Jews.

"I believe in a living church," the Colonel said, "but not in a religion that does not translate itself into activity for decency of the masses. The worst reflection that can be cast on any religion is that when the population becomes dense the church moves on. The church should fight for the masses. We are a democracy and our national experiment can mean nothing unless we keep it a democracy. Every reform, every social movement, must be for the masses, or it has no place here."

Governor Harmon at St. Paul.

St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 12.—Governor Harmon of Ohio, will address the Minneapolis publicity club at a luncheon to be given in his honor at 12:15 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Governor Harmon today conferred with several Minnesota democratic leaders, but no statements were made as to the nature or results of the conference. He will make no political speeches while here.

NEW FIRE ALARM
SYSTEM PLACED IN OPERATION

Mayor and Councilmen, Together With Electricians, Test
System and Declare It Complete in Every Detail.

The new Albuquerque fire alarm system, comprising twenty-nine boxes in the city, eleven in the Santa Fe yards, and one at the American Lumber company's plant installed last week, was cut in and tested yesterday in the presence of Mayor Elder, the members of the fire committee of the city council and three experts. Every box was tested and found to work perfectly, and the system was declared a success from the timing of the first test. From now on they have occasion to call out the fire departments can use the new system.

Those who assembled at the fire department headquarters yesterday morning to watch the last connection made on the new switchboard, includ- ing Mayor J. W. Elder, Aldermen Coen, Clarke and Wroth, Chief Engineer Pearce of the Gamewell Fire Alarm company, Chief Electrician Reed of Denver, Assistant City Electrician Dodson of Pueblo, and Fire Chief Klein. A trip was made over the city and each of the forty-one boxes was "pulled" or tested.

The party later returned to the city building and declared the Gamewell fire alarm system of Albuquerque of- ficially installed and ready for use. No change will be made in the system of alarm from the siren whistle at the power plant.

It is well to state, however, in con- nection with the boxes which are at- tached to telegraph posts at promi- nent street corners in the business and residence districts of the city, that when it is desired to turn in an alarm and the little red door of the alarm box is opened, if the bell inside is ringing, somebody else is turning in an alarm, and the box cannot be used until the other party has finished and the door closed. Full instructions as to how to operate are in plain view of the opener of the box and in an in- stant the alarm is registered in the office of the fire department.

The switchboard which was install- ed is one of the finest in the south- west. It seems to possess almost super-human intelligence. It is so ar- ranged and delicately wired, that in the event of a ground wire anywhere on the system the place of the ground can almost be discovered from the board itself, thus saving much time in hunting for these troublesome causes of delays.

The power to operate the system is furnished by a storage battery system which is charged at night from an electric motor charger. The cells are arranged in tiers upon glass shelves in the rooms above the fire station. Owing to the resistance in crossing the Santa Fe tracks to Highlands, that portion of the system in the High- lands, although having less alarm boxes, requires more cells to keep it charged.

The system has been installed during the past week under the super- vision of J. D. Dodson of Pueblo, as- sistant city electrician of that city, who arrived in Albuquerque just a week ago to begin his work. It was estimated that it would require ten days to finish the work, but the job was completed in exactly a week.

SUNDAY SERVICES
AT CONGREGATIONAL
CHURCH DREW WELL

The services at the Congregational church yesterday were the most in- teresting and best attended for a number of weeks. The music at the morning service was especially good. The subject of the discourse was "Gifts." It dealt with the spirit of the season and leading up to a short talk upon the greatest of all gifts to man.

The vesper service in the evening was featured by an address by Rev.

TEL. 285. TEL. 124
French & Lowber

Funeral Directors
and Embalmers

Lady Assistant
COR. FIFTH AND CENTRAL
Office Phone 560.

The assurance of highest excellence to anyone buying

GIFTS OF
KID GLOVES FOR CHRISTMAS

You need not worry about selecting a suitable gift, for gloves are always acceptable, in Christmas Boxes too.

2-clasp style in tan, gray, black and white, $1.25 to $2

2-clasp silk lined at, pair, $3.50

16-button in black and white, pair $3.50

If you don't know size, get a glove bond.

OPEN EVENINGS

KISTLER, COLLISTER & CO.

ALBUQUERQUE PARCEL AND BAGGAGE DELIVERY
PHONE 47
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Kaba & Quinn, Successors to E. Kelly.

W. M. Beauchamp, Phone 685
R. S. Dunbar, Phone 468

DUNBAR AND BEAUCHAMP
PLUMBERS.

The cold weather is coming on and now is the time to have your work done right.

208 So. 3rd St. Office Phone 83.

FOR RENT—Corner storeroom, 25x142 feet, up-to-date front, best location in city for general merchandise. Possession Jan. 1st, or Feb. 1st, 1912.
Address P. O. Box 574.

Raymond H. Tolbert upon the subject of "What is Man?"

The Young People's service was attended by fully 100 people.

Next Sunday, being Christmas eve, particular attention will be given to the musical program both at the morning and the evening service. The entire program will be of a Christmas nature.

CHINESE OFFICIAL
HOPES FOR EARLY
PEACE IN EMPIRE

His excellency T. T. Wong, commissioner general of China in charge of Chinese students in the United States, yesterday passed through Albuquerque from San Francisco to Washington, a passenger on the Chicago limited.

Mr. Wong is a graduate of the University of Virginia of the class of 1894, speaks perfect English and looks every bit the American college man that he is. He has charge of the education of some 300 to 500 Chinese students in the United States, who are distributed among the various colleges of the country.

Had it not been for the present unsettled state of the Chinese empire
he would have brought back with him from China on his present trip 200
Chinese youths to enter them as pupils in the grammar and preparatory schools of the country.

"The present unsettled state of my country," said Mr. Wong, last evening, "is such that I could not at this time bring back the boys I had expected to. I am in hopes, however, that before very long the trouble will be over. The two factions have concluded an armistice which has been extended for an additional month and by the end of that time we hope to have the present trouble arranged.

When that is done I will again be able to make arrangements for the placing of Chinese youths in the American schools.

"We appreciate very highly the value of an American college education for our young men. It makes them broad-minded, fearless, generous and wise, besides fitting them to meet the competition of the world which is at present very strenuous. For this reason it is likely that the number of Chinese in American colleges will likely be increased as soon as peace is declared and the country again settled."

Your Last Chance.
For Free Government Land With Water for Irrigation.
SEE NEW STATE REALTY CO.

O. K. TRANSFER CO.
A General Transfer Business.
Conducted.
Phone 433.
PATTY & SECRES, Props.

TEL. 285. TEL. 124
French & Lowber

Funeral Directors
and Embalmers

Lady Assistant
COR. FIFTH AND CENTRAL
Office Phone 560.

The assurance of highest excellence to anyone buying

GIFTS OF
KID GLOVES FOR CHRISTMAS

You need not worry about selecting a suitable gift, for gloves are always acceptable, in Christmas Boxes too.

2-clasp style in tan, gray, black and white, $1.25 to $2

2-clasp silk lined at, pair, $3.50

16-button in black and white, pair $3.50

If you don't know size, get a glove bond.

OPEN EVENINGS

KISTLER, COLLISTER & CO.