SHAMELESS SLAVS SLAY HELPLESS WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Display of Bestial Savagery Attends Bombardment and Capture of Persian Towns by Russian Troops.

BRITISH DISGUSTED AT CONDUCT OF ALLY

Reports of Atrocities Shock
London While Petersburg Government Finds Justification For Bloodshed.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
London, Dec. 27.—The Russian government has decided upon stern
measures to suppress disorders at Ta-briz and other disturbed points in Persia. The dislocation of the telegraph lines makes it impossible to get a reliable narrative of the outbreaks,
yet it cannot be doubted that a situation of the gravest complexity has arisen.

As reports of Russian progress in Persia and stories of indiscriminate killing of natives in Tabriz and Resht
and of the destruction of Persian constitutional government under Russian monies continue to reach England the people are becoming increasingly disquieted at the British government's complicity which the foreign secretary, Sir Edward Grey, thinks is a matter of policy and compelled by the Anglo-Russian agreement.

Doubts also have increased as to whether Persian independence ever will be restored to even the feeble status it had before this last assault by Russia. If Parliament were sitting, undoubtedly there would be severe questioning of the government on this subject and an arraignment of the foreign office.

The Times is the only paper that strongly supports the government and it expresses considerable uneasiness
over Russia's intentions as hinted in St. Petersburg reports. The Manchester Guardian, the ablest and most influential provincial liberal paper, deplores British responsibility and questions whether the government could not have taken some other stand earlier, but fears that it is now too late. In short the whole affair is repugnant to liberal sentiment.

The Persia committee composed of prominent Englishmen interested in Persian affairs, has received the following telegram from the provincial assembly at Tabriz sent through the Persian society of Constantinople.

"On December 21, Russian troops attacked and seized the administrative buildings. They trampled school children under foot and killed and despoiled innocent men and women.
They also looted the shops. The inhabitants, after extraordinary forbearance, began to defend themselves and forced the Russians to evacuate
the government offices.

"On December 22 the Russians bombarded the city until sunset, constantly increasing hourly. On December 23, having orders from the central government to cease fighting,
the inhabitants took no steps to defend themselves, but the Russians renewed the bombardment, firing from the environs of their consulate at women and other innocent persons. They wounded or made captive the wives and children of many respectable citizens and set fire to numerous buildings and mosques.

"The inhabitants still remained quiet on December 23, but the ferocity of the Russians greatly increased.
They killed many women and children and a large number of buildings were burned by them. If tomorrow
they do not desist from their savage attack the inhabitants will be compelled to defend themselves.

"We beg you to communicate this telegram to the principal newspapers
and influential centers of Europe."

PETERSBURG RESOLVED ON CAMPAIGN OF REVENGE

St. Petersburg, Dec. 27.—A semi-official statement issued this afternoon says the Russian government in view of "acts of foolhardy aggression committed against the Russian forces and institutions in Tabriz, Resht and Enzeli, followed by brutal torture of the wounded and base outrages
against the dead," has decided that the severest punishment of the guilty
in conjunction with Russian consuls are instructed to adopt the most stringent measures.

These measures as set forth in the statement include the arrest and trial by court martial of all participants in the attacks, the disarmament
of the Fidaïs and other troublesome elements, destruction of places where resistance might be offered and whatever else is deemed necessary to re-establish order and to secure the chastisement of the offenders.

The latest reports from Tabriz announce that the telephone line to Jufa has been cut. Juza is a small town in Trans-Caucasia on the Aras river, less than 100 miles from Tabriz. It was from this point that the Russian reinforcements were dispatched to Tabriz several days ago.

About 200 Caucasian Fidaïs including a number of leaders, fled last night to Karadagh with the intention, it is believed, of crossing the Russian frontier. A Russian guard has been placed over the Russian bank and the citadel over which the Russian flag flies, is occupied by a Russian rifle regiment. There were several skirmishes along the road from Juza today and at sunset tonight artillery and machine gun fire

could be heard in the distance.

PERSIAN CABINET SEEKS ANOTHER YANKEE TREASURER

Teheran, Dec. 27.—It is understood that the regents and cabinet desire the appointment of F. E. Cairns, an American, the principal associate of Mr. Shuster as the new treasurer-general of Persia. It is more likely, however, that M. Morandi, the Belgian ex-director of customs in Persia, who some months ago made himself
prominent by his hostility to Mr.
Shuster, will receive the position.

The British consul at Shiraz, W. A.
Smart, who was wounded in a fight near Kazeroun, is lying in a caravansary. Medical assistance has been sent him. The consul was being escorted to his post by 100 Indian soldiers when an attack was made by tribesmen.

The Indians were forced to retreat
to Kazeroun leaving the consul behind and for a time much anxiety was felt concerning his fate. Reinforcements of 150 sowars have been dispatched from Shiraz to relieve the force at Kazeroun.

BRITISH PAPERS DEMAND REPARATION FOR OUTRAGE

London, Dec. 28.—The London morning papers print editorials dealing with the gravity of Persian affairs and the necessity of action on the outrage against the British consul at Shiraz and the taking of adequate measures to uphold British prestige, in view of the evident impotence of the Persian authorities to maintain order.

Generally, greater anxiety is betrayed over the outcome of the complicated situation that has arisen and doubts are expressed as to whether it will be possible to preserve Persia as an independent buffer state between Russia and India.

The radical papers are dismayed at the drastic measures Russia proposes to take at Tabriz and Enzeli, which they declare point to a policy of annihilation, for which Great Britain, under the Anglo-Russian agreement, will be held responsible throughout the east.

The Tehran correspondent of the Times, telegraphs:
"Infantry from Jask and all available ships, it is reported, have been ordered to Bushire, a port 125 miles from Shiraz and a British punitive expedition is thought likely.

"The people of Tabriz appear to be cowed by Russian excesses at Ta-briz. The ministers, alarmed at the anger of the populace, have issued an announcement that elections will be held a week hence, but that announcement is not believed.

"The principal candidate for treasurer-general is Ameer Mujaheed, the Bakhtiari, whose knowledge of arithmetic is very defective, but who is reported to have the deepest pocket of all his acquisitive tribe.

"His candidacy throws a lurid light on the Bakhtiari support of the cabinet."

Russian telegrams from Tabriz yesterday reported that fighting had been resumed. Five persons were killed and four wounded in the Russian con-sulate in that city. The other consulates were safe.

URGES LEASING LAW FOR MINERAL DOMAIN

Uncertainty Concerning Status of Phosphate Rock Conclusive Evidence of Need For Legislation Says Smith.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Washington, Dec. 27.—The necessity for a leasing law applicable to public mineral lands is pointed out by George Otis Smith, director of the United States geological survey in his annual report made public today.

"The present uncertainty whether Tenaja, the phosphate rock of the public land should be entered under the lode law or under the placer law," says Mr. Smith, "is conclusive evidence of the need of legislation. The realization that the phosphate deposits are more extensive than was known or suspected, when the survey's geologists began the classification work in Idaho and Wyoming, does not lessen but rather increases the urgency for a law that will provide for the utilization of this large supply
of mineral fertilizer so as to meet both present and future needs."

Estimates by the geological survey place the amount of potash in the Leucite hills of Wyoming at 200,000, 000 tons.

NAVY PLANS WAR AGAINST DEADLY TYPHOID GERM

Washington, Dec. 27.—As a supplementary preventive measure against the inroads of typhoid fever into the navy marine corps the compulsory immunization of all the officers and enlisted men of these branches of the service under forty-five years of age
has been ordered by Secretary Meyer.

All recruits will be subjected to the treatment if they have not undergone it within two years or had a case of fever. In case of doubt the order provides that it shall be administered.

A similar order was issued by the war department some time ago.

FIRE TRAP OWNERS FOUND GUILTY BY GOTHAM JURY

VERDICT RECALLS
FACTORY HOLOCAUST

Owners of Plant Where Hundred and Forty-Seven Persons Lost Lives Acquitted of Manslaughter Charge.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
New York, Dec. 27.—The state trial
today in its effort to fix the blame for the fire horror of March 25, 1911,
in which 147 employees of the Triangle Waist company lost their lives. A verdict of "not guilty" was returned late today in the case of Isaac Harris and Max Blanck, proprietors of the factory, who were indicted in connection with the holocaust.

Unusual precautions were taken to prevent repetition at the court house
today of the demonstrations made against the defendants during the trial. Only a few persons were allowed in the courtroom and the corridors and entrances were heavily guarded. The jury came in at 4:26 p. m., after deliberating an hour and forty-five minutes. The pronouncment of acquittal was first taken quietly by the defendants but after the adjournment to an ante room, they gave way to their emotions. As they passed out through a lane of police to the street a large crowd of men, women and children awaited them. One hysterical man tried to press through the throng crying:
"Not guilty? Not guilty? Murder!
Murder! Murder!"

He fell on the steps of the court house in convulsions, gasping that he had lost a sister in the fire.

By the time the excitement was over the defendants had drifted into a subway entrance, escaping the hostile crowd. Harris and Blanck were not charged in a wholesale manner with the deaths that occurred at the fire, but specifically with manslaughter,
a young girl who was found dead near
a door on the ninth floor of the building.

The main argument of both prosecution and defense was directed against this door, the state introducing more than a hundred witnesses
in an attempt to prove that it was locked and the defense answering this contention with a mass of testimony.

PRISONER JUMPS TO LIBERTY OUT OF WINDOW

Captured Robber Escapes From Train and is Again Caught
By Doughty Socorro Sheriff
After Hard Chase.

[Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.]
Socorro, N. M., Dec. 27.—The preservance and determination of Sheriff Geronimo Sanchez of Socorro county resulted in the recapture and the bringing to the county jail here in an auto last night of Blas Garcia, charged with the robbery of the Becker
mercantile store at Magdalena some days ago.

The man was arrested at El Paso and Sheriff Sanchez was bringing him here when he went into the closet on the train while it was near San Antonio and jumped through the window to liberty. The sheriff had the train stopped immediately and started across country after the fugitive, recapturing him after a terrific sprint
over the landscape. He later registered an automobile and brought Garcia safely to jail here.

Stole the Cook's Clothes.
Several rooms in the Park House
at Socorro were robbed last night, the cook, whose room was thorowly ransacked, being the chief sufferer, as the thieves swiped all his clothes and personal belongings.
Several overcoats and other valuables were taken out of other rooms. The thieves have so far not been apprehended.

MILLION DOLLAR FUND FOR DISABLED DIVINES

New York, Dec. 27.—The newly pledged fund of $250,000 for aged or disabled Baptist ministers and missionaries, their widows and dependent children will be increased to $1, 000,000 according to plans announced this afternoon by the Rev. E. T. Tomlinson of Elizabeth, N. J., executive secretary of the board in charge of the fund.

Mr. Tomlinson's announcement says that the annual meeting of the northeastern Baptist conference at Philadelphia last June, a Pennsylvania offered to give $50,000 for the fund if $200,000 additional shall be pledged by noon Christmas. This condition has been met and the board now plans to increase the fund to $1,000, 000.

MANIAC ARKANSAS FATHER SLAYS SIX CHILDREN, WIFE THEN SELF

Son, Sole Survivor, Returns
From Christmas Celebration
to Find Gory Corpses of Loved Ones.

BELIEVED FAMILY WOULD BE BETTER OFF IN HEAVEN

Note From Murderer Explains Bloody Deed and Gives Directions For Burial of Bodies of Victims.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Benton, Ark., Dec. 27.—Because he was in "deep despair and believed he and his family would be better off
in heaven," James Grant clubbed his wife and five children and stepson
to death and then hanged himself
some time during last night.

The bodies of the children were found in their beds today, each of their skulls being crushed.

The body of Mrs. Grant was found in the home half dressed and evidently she had been killed as she was about to retire.

A heavy club, covered with blood,
was found in the house and it was apparent that it was the weapon
with which Grant killed the seven members of his family. The children ranged in age from five to fifteen years.

Hugh Grant, a 16-year-old son, the only member of the family alive, discovered the bodies today when he returned from a holiday celebration at a neighboring farm. He found a note, signed by his father, which explained
that "owing to deep despair and that I see nothing for me or my children, who I believe, would be better off in heaven, I commit this act."

Instructions were given where the necessary funds could be obtained to cover the burial expenses and a request that the grand jury be not notified until after the bodies had been buried.

Grant lived near this town on a farm and was reputed to be well-to-do. He also conducted a mercantile business.

MONTANA LIVESTOCK SHIPMENTS FALL OFF

Helena, Mont., Dec. 27.—To the growing importance of live stock markets at Portland, Seattle and Spokane is attributed a part of the 29-000 decrease in shipments of Montana cattle to Chicago this year. There is however, an actual shortage of about 15,000 head in the number exported
in 1911. The value of the 119,000
cattle sent to Chicago this year is almost as great as that of the 158,000

BAD YEAR FOR COAL BUSINESS IS REPORT

OVERPRODUCTION PLAYS
HAVOC WITH PROFITS

Government Statistician Predicts Balance On Wrong Side of Ledger When Annual Totals Are Footed Up.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Washington, Dec. 27.—There was an over-production of coal this year and a consequent struggle for trade
which depressed prices, in the opinion expressed today by Edward W. Parker, coal statistician for the United States geological survey. Mr. Parker added that there had been few more unsatisfactory years in the history of the coal mining industry and that when the total returns for the year were footed up the balance probably would be on the wrong side of the ledger, although the production of coal in the United States for the year probably was second only to the record year of 1910.

"The anthracite industry in 1911," he said, "probably was as firm as any other in the country. A part of the increase in production was due to the stocking of fuel in anticipation of April 1, 1912, when the wage agreements terminate. The bituminous trade on the whole, has been demoralized and discouraging; and much of the business was conducted at a loss.
The principal cause for this, particularly in the eastern states, has been depression in the iron trade."

The total production of coal for this year is estimated at 490,000,000 tons, only 11,000,000 less than 1910. Of this year's production 400,000,000 tons
was bituminous coal.

ALLEGED RUSTLER SLAIN; DEPUTY WOUNDED

EXCITING GUN FIGHT ON RANCH NEAR CHAMBERINO

Deadly Duel Between Eugenio
Moreno and Tomas Valdez Came Near Resulting Fatally
For Both Men.

[Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.]
Las Cruces, N. M., Dec. 27.—Deputy Sheriff Eugenio Moreno of Dona Ana county shot and killed Tomas Valdez,
a suspected horse thief Tuesday night,
and the officer is dangerously wounded as the result of a ferocious encounter between the two men at a ranch near Chamberino, when Moreno endeavored to place Valdez under arrest.

Moreno, who received a bullet wound
in his left side, is expected to recover.
Valdez was sent to the lower Mesilla valley Tuesday afternoon to arrest Valdez, who was suspected of stealing horses. On the approach of the deputy Valdez immediately pulled a six shooter and opened fire, shooting
thrice at Moreno, the third bullet taking effect. Moreno, who was mounted,
fell from his horse and feigned death.
Valdez rushed toward a door to seek shelter inside a building and Moreno instantly aimed and fired again from the ground, the ball piercing Valdez's abdomen. Valdez wheeled and fired another shot at the deputy, the latter keeping up a return fusillade, shooting the rustler in the thighs and in the right eye. Valdez, his ammunition exhausted, hurled his gun at the officer
and rushing at him, clinched in a furious death grapple, succeeding in knocking out a few of his enemy's teeth and ramming his fist clear into Moreno's mouth before he could be forced loose.

Valdez then immediately expired.
A doctor was called to attend Moreno,
who it was found would have been fatally wounded save that the bullet hit a rib and glanced. Moreno was brought to Las Cruces Wednesday morning. Sheriff Lucero is now at the scene of the killing.

Prefers Death to Life in Prison.
Belvidere, Ill., Dec. 27.—When Charles Richards was sentenced to life imprisonment here today for the murder of his wife, he implored the court to make the sentence death. He pleaded guilty.

TEXTILE STRIKE IN ENGLAND GROWS SERIOUS

Refusal of One Man and Two Women to Join Union Involves 160,000 Weavers in Dispute
With Employers.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Manchester, Eng., Dec. 27.—The refusal of one man and two women to join a trades union, coupled with the decision of the master cotton spinners to close their mills three days in the week, caused a complete stoppage of a great portion of the cotton mills in northeast Lancashire tonight. Efforts are already afoot to bring about a settlement but as one woman who left the union after twenty years because she believes the benefits are not commensurate with the payments, persists
in her attitude and the master spinners insist upon their right to maintain open shops, a long and bitter struggle is feared. There is grave danger too, of the fight spreading to other industries.

The lockout involved 160,000 weavers and nearly an equal number of spinners will be reduced to half pay.
Fortunately there are indications of probable complications through the introduction of a new issue on the troublesome question of wages.

This move has been taken by the weavers who now declare that as a lockout has been decided upon they intend to make a five per cent advance
a condition of any settlement.

It is estimated that the weekly loss
in wages to the weavers and allied workers, spinners and cardroom employees, will be $1,400,000. The weavers will receive about $225,000 lockout
pay from the union.

NEW ENGLAND MILLS START ON FULL TIME

Providence, R. I., Dec. 27.—The eight cotton mills of the B. B. and R.
Knight Cotton company of Rhode Island, Connecticut and Massachusetts will go on full time schedule beginning next Tuesday. They have been running forty-eight hours a week for twenty weeks.

BALTIMORE BANKERS DEMAND CLEAN MONEY

Baltimore, Md., Dec. 27.—Officials of the Baltimore Clearing House are preparing a letter which will be sent within a few days to clearing houses throughout the country, requesting their co-operation in an effort to create a demand for clean paper money.
Clearing house members everywhere
will be requested to urge their clients to address their congressmen on the subject.

THIEF CARRIED M'NAMARA CARGO IN HIS SUITCASE

Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 27.—George Bridges, arrested Monday night at Monessen, Pa., a steel town near here, while carrying a suitcase containing seventy sticks of dynamite and fuses,
was charged with larceny late tonight
by an official of the Henderson Coal company, who alleges the explosive was stolen from the company's magazine.

A hearing at which Bridges premised revelations, has been postponed until Friday.

The belief is gaining ground that there is nothing of a sensational nature in the arrest of Bridges.
When taken into custody Bridges claimed the dynamite was given him
by a stranger and today he said:
"I will not take all the blame for this and the rest of them will have to take their medicine like me."

WATCHMAN CONFEDERATE OF NEGRO STREET BANDITS

Sacramento, Cal., Dec. 27.—Arthur Shelley, employed as watchman by a detective agency, confessed upon being arrested here today, that he was a confederate of a negro and two negroes, who robbed strangers. Shelley said that last Saturday he notified
Myrtle Hughes, leader of the gang, that F. P. Prim, an attorney from Redding, Cal., was in town with plenty of money and that later he helped rob Prim of $600 cash and some jewelry. It was this robbery that brought about the arrests of all four.
Shelley said his complicity began with the taking of money from the Hughes women, in return for which he stayed from parts of his beat so her crew could work undisturbed.

DENVER MAKES BID FOR DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

Denver, Dec. 27.—At a meeting of the Denver Convention League today,
it was decided to send a committee
immediately after New Year's to Washington, D. C., to appear before the democratic national committee in that city January 8, and formally present an invitation that the democratic national convention be held here next year. It was decided that the league would guarantee to pay the necessary expenses of the convention, $51,000
already having been raised for that purpose. The league will make a canvass for more funds in the next few days and if a sufficient additional sum is pledged the league will offer the money as a bonus for the democratic national convention.

WATTERSON'S ADDRESS AT CHARLESTON CANCELED

Charleston, S. C., Dec. 27.—Anti-slavery opposition by German and Irish American citizens of this city to a resolution to be introduced at the conclusion of the address of Colonel Henry Watterson, endorsing
the proposed arbitration treaties between the United States and France,
friends of the Kentucky editor decided to cancel the speaking engagement scheduled for tomorrow night. It was explained that there was no antagonism to Colonel Watterson personally.

GIRL CRUELLY DONE TO DEATH BY RELATIVES

Inhuman Stepmother Calmly
Tells Court How Little One Was Bound and Left in Attic
to Perish Miserably.

Orville, Cal., Dec. 27.—Mrs. Emma
L. Rumball, stepmother of Helen Rumball, whose alleged murder
Arthur Lewis is on trial in the superior court here, was the last witness called by the defense today.

Mrs. Rumball told a circumstantial story of how she had tied her stepdaughter in the attic of their home on a hot day. She had bound the girl hand and foot, she admitted, and then trussed her up to a studding. This punishment was meted out, she explained, because Helen had told an untruth, saying she had milked three cows instead of two.

It is the contention of the state that while Helen Rumball was bound in the attic, Arthur Lewis, her half-brother, visited the prison room and killed her by twisting her head until her neck was broken.

Mrs. Rumball testified today that Arthur had left the attic and that she had gone up to it twice and the girl was still alive. At a third visit, at 8 o'clock at night, she had found Helen lying dead on the floor. The witness displayed no emotion when she identified the ropes with which she had bound the girl.

WOMAN HAS CLOSE CALL WHEN RANGE BLOWS UP

Greeley, Colo., Dec. 27.—Mrs. C. A.
Sounders narrowly escaped death here
today when an unusually large range in her kitchen suddenly blew up. The explosion occurred a few seconds after she had left the kitchen, and hurled large pieces of iron through the ceiling and through the wall between the kitchen and the room in which she was sitting. Frozen water pipes caused the explosion.

PLEADS WITH DEMOCRATS TO JOIN IN MOVEMENT

Initiative, Referendum, Recall and Regulation of Corporation Combines Declared Tenets of the Faith.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Cleveland, O., Dec. 27.—United States Senator Robert M. La Follette, now an avowed candidate for the presidential nomination on the principles outlined as "progressive republicanism," closed his first day of campaigning in President's Taft state with a largely attended meeting in the Cleveland Grays armory after a few hours' visit to Youngstown in the afternoon.

While at both meetings considerable attention was paid to corporations and their growth and conduct, the greater part of the speeches were devoted to explaining what was meant by "progressive republicanism" and what the "progressives" have done in their control of the state government in Wisconsin.

The senator's audience was enthusiastic and frequently urged him to proceed when he made an attempt to shorten his addresses. Repeated invitations were offered from the audience to "come again" when the senator announced that it was the first time he had been in Cleveland.

Mr. La Follette said the combination of corporations was the cause of the high cost of living because they controlled the prices and that "God thighs" never made a board of directors good enough to control the homes and families of an American citizen.

During Senator La Follette's arrangement of the Standard Oil company and the banking institutions of the country, Frank Rockefeller, a brother of John D. Rockefeller, sat on the platform, wearing a committeeman's badge.

Senator La Follette made a vigorous appeal to democrats to join the progressive republicans because they only represented a true democracy and charged that the democrats of the south were a "democracy of class and aristocracy."

The initiative and the recall were declared to be the tenets of the progressives.
Tomorrow morning Senator La Follette will leave for Newark, O., where he will speak in the afternoon, and then proceed to Toledo for another speech at night.

TO WELCOME NEW YEAR LAVISHLY IN NEW YORK

Fifty Thousand Persons Will Celebrate Coming of 1912 in Hotels and Restaurants at Cost of Million.

New York, Dec. 24.—The new year of 1912 will be ushered in this city by a celebration, such as is observed nowhere else in the world, and one which will make the famous feast of Lullaby seem insignificant in comparison. For many years the passing of the old year has been the city's greatest night of celebration. This year, however, two factors combine to give it added importance. Since the festival falls on a Sunday it will be impossible to secure liquid refreshments except at hotels and restaurants as a part of the dinner. For the same reason there will be no night liquor licenses issued. As a result the celebration will be confined to the city's great hostess and guests will be forced to order the night's supply of champagne early. For two weeks every table in every popular resort in the lobster belt has been reserved for the inevitable "supper" at prices ranging from $10 to $50 apiece and that takes no account of the many dollars that will be spent in other ways after the game is on. It is estimated that 50,000 people will partake of the feast in that glided mile of Broadway, besides which all the rest of the world seems lame and uninteresting on New Year's Eve. Enough food will be eaten or wasted to feed an army for a week, and the champagne consumed would float a battleship. The section in which the celebration will be most strenuous extends from Twenty-third street to Forty-eighth street and reaches its climax at Longacre square into which Broadway, Seventh avenue, Forty-second street and Forty-fourth street pour an army of revelers and sightseers. Around the square are ranged the famous restaurants and hotels where the fun will be more uproarious. So great has been the demand for places that the capacity of the regular dining rooms and cafes was exceeded long ago, and all sorts of makeshift arrangements have been made to accommodate the overflow in ball rooms and parlors.

That the great American hen may soon be called upon to act as her own expert accountant in addition to her duty of producing eggs, is now being indicated here at the annual poultry show through one of the strangest devices in the history of chickenhood. In future it will not be sufficient for Mrs. Hen to lay the egg, for the new recording device will also make it necessary for her to give written testimony to the effect that she has done so by means of crayons of various colors and recording sheets of paper which will be furnished her. The new recording device by which the egg-laying activities of any hen can be determined consists of a small steel spur affair which is attached to one of her legs, on the end of which is fastened a piece of colored crayon. When she enters the specially built nest she locks herself in, at the same time lowering a bar that later on makes an accountant of her. After the egg is safely deposited, to regain her freedom she must stoop to get under the bar, and in doing so she makes a mark with the crayon attached to her leg on a piece of paper that is placed on the floor of the entrance to the nest, thus registering the fact that the hen with the red, blue or green crayon, as the case may be, has laid the egg. While the device is not likely to reduce the cost of the morning meal, it will undoubtedly work a hardship to those fowls which do not live up to their responsibilities as egg producers.

CLAYTON PRECINCT CONTROVERSY UNSETTLED

Judge McFie Decides That He Has No Jurisdiction to Settle Election Squabble of Union County.

[Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal]

Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 27.—In the matter of the refusal of the election judges and clerks of the Clayton precinct to sign the certificate of the election, which was certified to Judge John H. McFie for action no progress was made today.

When the case came up in chambers this morning Judge McFie announced that he was not certain that he had jurisdiction in the premises and for personal reasons did not care to take it up.

This leaves the matter no nearer a solution than before and delays the canvassing board in making its report. It is believed until such time as another judge can be secured to decide whether or not the election judges shall be ordered to sign the certificates.

Judge J. J. Roberts, in whose district Union county is located, has been communicated with, and it is believed that he will at once take steps to hear the matter himself or request another judge to act in the premises. It is understood that Judge Roberts hesitated to act in the matter because of the fact that he was a candidate on the republican ticket although his election would not be affected by the decision in the Clayton case, regardless of which way it was decided. Counsel for both sides of the controversy, it is understood, have agreed that Judge Roberts is the proper man to decide the case.

The failure of Judge McFie to act this morning dissipates the last hope held out that the statehood proclamation may be issued in time to hold the inauguration on January 1.

A telephone message was received here tonight from Judge Roberts announcing that he would reach Santa Fe tomorrow morning. This gives ground for the hope that the day will not be serious.

FIRST IRRIGATION CONGRESS BADGE AT DEMING

Prized Possession of W. E. Holt Object of Great Interest at Recent Meeting in Windy City.

One of the badges issued at the first meeting of the National Irrigation congress, in Deming, N. M., in the year 1895, a cut of which is here published, was exhibited in Albuquerque recently by Willard E. Holt of Deming, a delegate to the recent 1911 meeting of the National Irrigation congress in Chicago—the nineteenth annual gathering of the reclamationists. Mr. Holt exhibited the badge at Chicago and it aroused the greatest interest among the thousands of delegates, a large majority of whom were oblivious of the fact that Deming is the birthplace of the greatest development organization in the western United States. Mr. Holt is currently installing the badge among the New Mexico archives at Santa Fe and preserving it to posterity.

DR. COOK HAS A NERVE THAT IS PHENOMENAL

Decides It is Time to Have Vindication and Brings Suit Against New York Times For $100,000.

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal]

New York, N. Y., Dec. 24.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook, the Arctic explorer, has just entered suit against the New York Times for libel, asking for $100,000 damages.

Three causes of action are named in the complaint. The first is the publication on October 25, 1911, of a story with a heading, "Riot by Danes Ends Dr. Cook's Lecture—Showers by Bad Eggs."

"The New York Times," said Mr. Ely Simpson, attorney for Dr. Cook, "stated that Cook's meeting was broken up by the audience, that he had to flee from the hall by a side door, and was protected from violence only by a strong detachment of police." The facts are that Dr. Cook was cheered by the majority of an audience of fifteen hundred persons, and that Dr. Norman Hansen, who related an objection to Dr. Cook's appearance, was compelled to leave the hall. Dr. Cook finished his lecture, was loudly applauded, and went quietly to his hotel. He was not rotten egged. This story, which was sent out from Copenhagen by a correspondent in the pay of pro-Peary interests, shows the sort of defamation which the friends of Mr. Peary have been disseminating, chiefly through the media of the New York Times and its affiliated papers for the past two years.

"Dr. Cook's second cause of action against the New York Times is based upon the false defamatory statement published in the Times on May 21, 1910, under the heading, 'Cook Tries to Steal Parson's Life Work.' In this story the charge was made that when Dr. Cook, as a member of the Belgian expedition (1897-1899) stopped at Tierra del Fuego, he met a missionary, Rev. Thomas Bridges, by name, who had compiled a Yaghan Indian grammar and dictionary. According to the Times story, Dr. Cook induced Mr. Bridges to lend him the manuscript, and then attempted to publish this under his own name. By referring to the title page and introductory chapter of the dictionary, anyone can ascertain the falseness of this charge. Dr. Cook specifically states in his introductory chapter that 'the credit of collecting and making this Yaghan grammar and dictionary belongs solely to Mr. Bridges, who devoted most of his time during his twenty-seven years in recording this material.' 'My work,' he continues, 'is limited to a slight re-arrangement of the words, a few additions of notes and words, and a conversion of the native words were written into ordinary English orthography.'

"The third cause of action is based on the publication of a story on December 22, 1909, under the heading, 'Having no Original Observations, He Used Loose's Fakes,' charging that in his report submitted to the University of Copenhagen, he had used observations given to him by August W. Loese. A comparison of the affidavit made by Dunkle and Loese as published December 9, 1909, in the New York Times with the report which Dr. Cook sent to Copenhagen absolutely disproves that bald and malicious statement. Dr. Cook, when approached by Dunkle and Loese, who offered to sell him faked computations, absolutely rejected the nefarious offer. The New York Times, who bought the Dunkle and Loese affidavits, in its efforts to discredit Dr. Cook, specifically charged in its reports of the verdict of the University of Copenhagen that 'a comparison of Dr. Cook's document with the Loese observations published before a doubt that Cook has made use of some of these.' Other newspapers, not having the unique facilities for comparison which the New York Times had, accepted the 'Times' statement and reprinted it. As a matter of fact, the New York Times in its own story, on the date of December 22, 1909, convicts itself of deliberately misstating facts. In an interview with Commodore Gustav Holm, a member of the committee which passed on Dr. Cook's reports, the Times quotes

Stops a Deep-Seated Cough in a Hurry

A Family Supply of Unequaled Cough Remedy for 50c—Money Refunded if It Fails.

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large proportion of plain syrup—a good ingredient, but one that anyone can make. A pint of granulated sugar, with 1/2 pint warm water, stirred for 2 minutes, gives you as good syrup as money can buy.

A 50-cent bottle of Pinex, mixed in a pint bottle with home-made sugar syrup, gives you a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready mixed for $2.50. There's a clear saving of $2.00. Full directions in package.

And money couldn't buy a quicker, better remedy. Pinex holds and soothes, gives almost instant relief, and usually stops the most obstinate, deep-seated cough in 24 hours. It stimulates the appetite, is slightly laxative and has a pleasant taste—children take it willingly. Splendid for hoarseness, asthma, chest pains, and other throat troubles, and unequalled for prompt results in whooping cough.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of imported Norway White Pine extract, and is rich in ginseng and other natural healing pine elements. Simply mix it as directed with sugar syrup or strained honey, and it is ready for use. Used in more homes in the U. S. and Canada than any other cough remedy.

Pinex has often been imitated, but never successfully, for nothing else will produce the same result. The genuine is guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. Certificate of guarantee is wrapped in each package. Your drugist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pine Co., Fort Wayne, Ind.

Gouraud's Cream as the best beauty of all the skin preparations. For sale by all druggists and fancy goods dealers in the United States, Canada and Europe.

HERD, T. HOPKINS, Prop., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

Captain Holm is saying specifically: 'Loose's observations were not used in the papers which Dr. Cook submitted to the University.'

"Dr. Cook's primary purpose in bringing suit is not to procure any large amount of money. Dr. Cook's sole purpose is vindication. All that he demands is that the American people be given the truth about his case and decide for themselves. It is interesting to note that Dr. Cook's claim is now receiving the endorsement of foreign scientific bodies and various noted scientists. Among those who have endorsed Dr. Cook's recently published book are Otto Sverdrup and Professor Leconte of the Royal Belgian Geographical Society. Following Dr. Cook's recent appearance before a board of scientists in Brussels he received offers to lecture in Germany for an entire year. It looks as though Europe were going to accord fair play to Dr. Cook even before America."

AMATEUR RECORDS SMASHED IN FIVE MILE EVENT

J. Kramer of Long Island Sets
New Mark of 25 Minutes
124-5 Seconds at Madison Square Garden.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
New York, Dec. 27.—One record was broken in a series of well contested events that wound up the two-night Amateur Athletic Union indoor championship meet in Madison Square Garden tonight. A few records were equalled, among them those for the 150 yard run and the 600 yard run in the senior events.

The record was sent flying in the five mile run, which was the feature of the evening. J. Kramer of the Long Island Athletic club, set the mark at 25 minutes 124-5 seconds
after a grand race in which during the first two miles first one and then another of the five leaders set the pace. At the two mile mark, however, Kramer took the lead and thereafter nobody could reach him. He won by about 160 yards.

A. U. championship record was 25 minutes 19-3-5 seconds, made in 1908 by T. J. Collins, who finished second in tonight's race.

150 yards run, senior, final heat
won by A. T. Meyer, Irish-American Athletic club; M. Rosenberger, Irish-American Athletic club, second; J. J.

WHITE HOPES FAIL TO KICK IN WITH REAL CLASS

Carl Morris Defeats Tom Kennedy But Fight Fans Declare Neither Man Shows Championship Promise.

New York, Dec. 27.—Carl Morris,
the Oklahoma engineer, out fought Tom Kennedy, the New York heavyweight, in eight rounds of a ten-round bout at the Empire Athletic club tonight.

The general opinion of those at the ring side was that neither man showed any advancement toward the realization of their championship hopes in the fight tonight. Morris was considered too slow and Kennedy's much praised foot work proved exceedingly lame.

The first round was even with Mor-
body and Kennedy's left jab to the face. Morris rushed in in the second,
with a left to the face, followed by lefts and rights to the head and stomach. Kennedy sent back a couple of left jabs to the face. Morris kept forcing through the third round with rights and lefts to the body and a left to the face. Kennedy also got in a stinging left to the westerner's face
and followed with a left swing to the jaw. They exchanged body blows and were in the midst of a hot rally at the bell. It was Morris' round.

Morris was the aggressor again in the fourth but in the fifth rounds went to Kennedy. After taking a right and left to the head and being forced into a neutral corner, Kennedy exchanged hooks with Morris and got a hard blow on the nose. Kennedy came back, however, with a shot of his right to the jaw staggering Morris to the ropes
at the end of the round.

Morris came back in the sixth with severe punishment for Kennedy by short arm jolts, half upper-cuts and a straight left on Kennedy's nose, which made it bleed the more. From this on, Morris was all over his man,
with Kennedy fighting back as gamely
as he could.

The bout ended with both in-fighting. They clinched several times and in the break Morris always got in the more telling blows. The only damage Morris showed was a puffing of his lips, while Kennedy was bleeding profusely at the nose and was severely battered.

At Juarez.

Juarez, Dec. 27.—Favorites fared badly at Juarez tonight, Meddling Hannah being the only first choice to get crown in front. The weather was cool but a good sized crowd turned out. Results:

First race, one mile: Yankee Pool,
10 to 1, won; Barney Oldfield, 2 to 1, second; Little Marchmont, 3 to 1,
third. Time: 1:40-3-5.

Second race, five and a half furlons: Frank G. Hogan, 6 to 5, won; Waner, even, second; Serenade, 20 to 1, third. Time: 1:06-4-5.

Third race, six furlongs: Manassah,
10 to 1, won; Lone Star, 4 to 1, second;
Callise, 6 to 5, third. Time:
1:12-3-5.

Fourth race, six furlongs: Lackrose,
4 to 1, won; Roy Junior, 6 to 1, second;
Ed Keck, 7 to 2, third. Time:
1:12.

Fifth race, five and a half furlongs:
Meddling Hannah, 5 to 2, won; Hidden Hand, 5 to 2, second; Zool, 5 to 1,
third. Time: 1:03-3-5.

Sixth race, six furlongs: Gelico, 7
to 2, won; John H. Sheehan, 10 to 1, second; Salvage, 2 to 1, third. Time:

At Columbia.

Columbia, S. C., Dec. 27.—Clear weather for the first time in more than a week, with an attractive card,
brought out a good sized crowd to the fair grounds. Two favorites were successful. Results:

First race, five furlongs: L. Appelle, won; Bonnie Bee, second; Winning Smile, third. Time: 1:08-2-5.

Second race, five furlongs: Tom Shaw, won; Dust, second; Elizabeth
O., third. Time: 1:07-2-5.

Third race, five furlongs: Sir Edward, won; Ynac, second; Chilton Grass, third. Time: 1:08-2-5.

Fourth race, one mile: Warner Griwald, won; Roseburg II, second,
Flary, third. Time: 1:23.

Fifth race, five and a half furlongs:
Oakley, won; Sea Swell, second; Love
Watches, third. Time: 1:14.

Sixth race, one mile and seventy yards: Haldeman, won; Jose Rose, second; Dolly Bultman, third. Time:
1:37-4-5.

WESTERGAARD DEFEATS
POLE IN HANDICAP MATCH

Knoxville, Tenn., Dec. 27.—Jesse Westergaard won his match with Zyzybo, the Polish wrestler tonight.
The latter agreed to throw Westergaard
twice in an hour but did not gain a majority of the time and on two occasions had Zyzybo in a position from which he extricated himself with difficulty. In the last ten minutes of the match Westergaard had all the better of it.

CHIEF MONTGOMERY SAN ANTONIO

Wrestling Indian Adds to Laurels By Defeating All Comers
in Lone Star State; Matched For Tomorrow.

Arthur C. Montour, the wrestling
Indian chief, who made such a good impression in Albuquerque during the month of September, when he appeared in a friendly bout with Roy Mabee before the Elks, and when he defeated Simon Deschler in best two out of three before a large crowd in the opera house, is now in San Antonio adding further laurels to his crown.

Tomorrow night Montour will meet Charles Delivuk, a 156-pound wrestler who claims the championship of Austria and Canada. Delivuk will outweigh Montour some fifteen pounds, but this does not trouble the chief at all. He believes he can force the shoulders of the big Austrian to the mat best two out of three.

Since being in south Texas Montour
has written to a number of his friends here telling of his success in the Lone Star state, and they will, of course, watch with interest the outcome of the Friday night match.

CAPONI EASY MARK
FOR DEMON
FIREMAN

Jim Flynn Disposes of Opponent By Knock-Out Route After Two and One-Half Rounds of Tame Fighting.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Salt Lake City, Dec. 27.—After two and a half rounds of tame and uninteresting milling, Jim Flynn of Pueblo, whipped across two effective punches
and Caponi went down for the count of ten. Caponi was outclashed from the time he stepped into the ring and was totally unable to hold Flynn at long range. Neither man showed speed and not an effective blow was struck until near the close of the second round when a left hook to Caponi's jaw staggered the middleweight and sent him to his corner
looking worried.

Flynn never was forced to extend himself and did not do so. He was fat and palpably in poor condition,
but he out-weighted Caponi nearly twenty pounds and the lighter man's blows which had little steam behind them did not serve to check his steady advance.

At the opening of the first round Flynn started a deliberate advance to close quarters, assuming his usual
crouch with his chin, once broken, tucked close against his chest. Caponi led frequently with the left and landed more than once, but the blows had no weight behind them. When they came to close quarters Flynn
worked in several short body punches
and seemed to make no effort to put force into them. A glancing left skinned Flynn's eye as the gong sounded.

The second round was even more tame, Flynn seeming to make little effort to land and Caponi apparently settling himself for a strong punch.

After a clinch at the opening of the third round, Flynn dropped Caponi with a left to the jaw. As he rose a right jab to the jaw dropped him for the final count. There was a storm of hisses as Caponi was assisted to his corner.

OFFICES AT TRINIDAD

Denver, Colo., Dec. 27.—A branch of the national organization of the United Mine Workers of America will be established at Trinidad. Under orders from national headquarters John R. Lawson, national organizer, and John McLennan, president of labor Colorado state federation of labor left today for Trinidad to arrange for opening headquarters, which will be in charge of Lawson. This move is taken as an indication that the national organization has determined upon an aggressive campaign to organize the southern coal fields.

DIVIDENDS PAID TO FAVORED LOCALITIES

Cleveland, Dec. 27.—Dividends on Sterling Oil stock were paid in one territory and not in another,
according to testimony of Charles
A. Sandals, in court here today.
Sandals and Albert S. Griffin are indicted for using the mails to defraud in connection with the sale of Sterling Oil stock.

Sandals admitted that he promised
F. P. Metzger, president of the German-American bank of Topeka, Kansas, two thousand shares of stock for his favorable report on the Sterling property. He also admitted that Metzger received 2,000 shares of stock for this.

BELIEVED MADERO WILL SPARE LIFE OF GEN. REYES

HOPE HELD OUT FOR EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY

Captive Revolutionary Leader Hurried South to Capital to Answer Charge of Conspiracy Against Government.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Monterey, Mex., Dec. 27.—(On Board Reyes' Car.)—Heavily guarded and on his way to the capital to answer the charge of sedition, General Bernardo Reyes is being hurried southward tonight through towns whose inhabitants have been kept in ignorance of his passage. So nicely was his departure from Linares timed that only a small portion of the population was aware of it and in Monterey, his old home, possible trouble was avoided by routing his car around the city.

NOT INSIST ON DEATH.

Mexico City, Dec. 27.—That President Madero will not insist upon the death penalty for Reyes and his followers was shown today when the father of David Reyes Retana obtained executive clemency for his son.
Young Retana was a prominent lawyer here until he took up the fight with Reyes. He was captured at Burgos, Tamaulipas.

Hearing of his son's predicament,
the father went to Madero today and stated after the conference that the president had promised to spare his son's life.

It has been definitely determined that General Alejandro Pezo will be the presiding officer at the court martial. Two other generals of division will be named, General Ignacio Brava,
now in command of forces in the northwest with headquarters at Guadalajara, and General Francisco Ave-la, one of the oldest officers in the service, are being considered.

On account of the advanced age of the latter it was said that the authorities must resort to the expedient of investing some high civil functionary of the department of justice with the rank of "divisionario," for the purpose of the court.

Five brigadiers who will also be members of the court, will be chosen by lot.

SENORA REYES SAYS
HUSBAND WAS MISTAKEN.

San Antonio, Tex., Dec. 27.—"General Reyes was mistaken with regard to the desires of the people of Mexico," commented Senora Reyes, his wife, today.

In telegrams sent by him to Senora
del Valle he said that when he called to the people for assistance, he was not answered. The government soldiers failed to capture the general.
He had an abundance of funds on his person and could easily have made his way to the Gulf, boarded a steamer and escaped to Europe. He did not care to do this, as he feared his followers and sympathizers would be taken and executed.

Senora Reyes was not convinced of the general's surrender until she received a telegram from him today.

LOOKS FOR REVIVAL OF BUSINESS IN MEXICO.

Mexico City, Dec. 27.—Minister of the Interior Gonzalez, in a conversation today said that the American and European banks were offering loans
to the government at an extremely favorable rate. The question of refunding the government debt over $220,000,000 gold, is being considered. Business interests anticipating the revival of confidence, already have taken steps for the completion of several large engagements which had been postponed pending the result of the campaign against Reyes.

Wickham, Luck McDonald, United States district attorney for the southern district of Texas, announced today that he would abandon his efforts to extradite General Bernardo Reyes from Mexico for trial in this country on charges of violating the neutrality laws.

ARMY SURGEONS TO EXAMINE MORSE

Taft Anxious to Avoid Stigma
of Allowing Convict New York Banker to Die in Federal Penitentiary.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 27.—Acting under instructions of President Taft,
a special board of inquiry, composed of officers of the medical corps United States army, arrived here tonight
to make another examination of Charles W. Morse, the New York banker confined in the hospital at Fort McPherson. The board consists of Colonel Henry Birmingham, Major Fauntleroy and Major Russell, all under assignment from Washington.

It was stated at Fort McPherson that a preliminary examination of Morse was made shortly after their arrival, about 7 o'clock, but nothing
as to the nature of their findings has made public. If Morse's condition permits a thorough examination will be made tomorrow and the report
wired to Washington.

A Warm Bathroom PERFECTION

Every mother should be careful that the children take their baths
in a warm room. The chill of a cold room is dangerous after coming out of the hot water.

A Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater brings bathroom or bedroom to just the degree of warmth you want in five or ten minutes. All you have to do is to touch a match.

The Perfection Heater burns nine hours on one filling and is always ready for use. You can move it anywhere it is needed.
There is no waste of fuel and heat warming unoccupied rooms.
Just the heat you want, when and where you want it.

The Perfection is fitted with an automatic locking flame spreader that prevents the wick being turned high enough to smoke and is easy to remove and drop back when cleaning.

Drums finished either in turquoise-blue enamel or plain steel; light and ornamental, yet strong and durable—suitable for any room in any house.

GRANDALL CLEARED; TRANSFERRED TO SOUTH DAKOTA

Harold F. Coggeshall Will Succeed Him As Superintendent of United States Indian School at Santa Fe.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.) Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 27.—The investigation by the secretary of the interior, it is announced today has resulted in the complete exoneration of Superintendent Clinton J. Grandall of the United States Indian school here
from the charges brought against him
by former chief special officer, William E. Johnson, of the Indian service, better known as "Pussy Foot," Johnson, and by the W. C. T. U. and other organizations and persons; these charges relating chiefly to the alleged selling of liquor to Indians by a drug store in which Grandall was said to be interested and irregularities
in the administration of lands belonging to the Indians. Mr. Grandall is transferred to Pierre, S. D., and will be succeeded here as superintendent by Harold F. Coggeshall, for some time connected with the Indian service here and elsewhere in the southwest. The change is to be effective on January 1, and Mr. Grandall will leave at once for the scene of his new duties. The transfer and the resignation of Mr. Johnson it is believed will end for the present the controversy regarding the administration of Indian affairs in this district particularly as relating to the Santa Clara people.

Superintendent Grandall arrived in Santa Fe today from Washington to make preparations for his departure for North Dakota.

Even if the measure should be adopted by the duma, it would require the approval of the imperial council and of the emperor himself to become law. In that case it could not take effect before January, 1913, because of the continuance until that date of the present treaty with its favored nation clause.

Indications are that negotiations
for a new treaty will not be undertaken seriously before September. In the interim the Russian general elections will have been held and the great American quadrennial political conventions will have passed into history. Removed from all likelihood of political influence in either country, it is felt that negotiations then can be conducted in a calm and judicial manner.

That there may be two treaties
instead of one is regarded as probable.
One of these conventions would deal entirely with matters of trade and commerce and the operations of its favored nation clause. If one were embodied, would be confined to those subjects.

Washington, Dec. 27.—Excepting as indicating the extent of Russian re-signment at the action of the United States in abrogating the treaty of 1822, the introduction in the duma
today of the bill attacking the American export trade with Russia is not regarded with much concern in official circles here.

PANIC PREVENTED GOVERNMENT FINDS MAMMOTH MEAT MERGER

Witness Tells of How Harriman and Other Money Kings Were to Finance Billion Dollar Consolidation.

(By Morning Journal Special Lensed Wire.) Chicago, Dec. 27.—Albert H. Veeber, attorney for Swift and company and the first witness called by the government in the trial of the ten Chicago packers testified today that the defendants made two efforts to organize a merger in the summer of 1902 and that their efforts to finance the enterprise were unsuccessful in both instances.

The first plan was to include the Armour, Swift, Morris and Cudahy interests and the proposed corporation was to be capitalized for $25,000,000 divided as follows: Bonds $11,750,000; preferred stock, $10,750,000; common stock, $12,500,000.

After the promoters had failed to finance this proposition through Kuhn, Loeb and company of New York, the plan was changed to provide for a capitalization of $25,000,000, but the condition of the money market made it impossible to finance the modified plan.

Mr. Veeber testified that E. H. Harriman, James Stillman and other New York financiers were to have furnished the capital for the big corporation and the amount they were to have received as compensation was $10,000,000.

The late Gustavus F. Swift was to have been president of the great merger. Edward F. Morris and Michael Cudahy were to have been vice presidents and J. Ogden Armour was to have been chairman of the executive and finance committees.

"The entire plan fell through because of the promoters' inability to finance it due to the panic of 1902," explained Mr. Veeber.

The witness then told of the organization of the National Packing company March 15, 1905, but denied that it had any connection with the proposed big merger.

"After the merger plan had fallen through Michael Cudahy dropped out of the partnership with Armour, Swift and Morris and at his request was released from all obligations imposed by the contract," said Mr. Veeber. "The National Packing company was then organized to carry on the business of the concerns purchased to be included in the merger."

WIFE HELD SPOUSE WHILE SALOMON BRAINED HIM

Gonzales and Wife of Victim Confess to Fearful Crime at Peralta Because Slayer's Friend Peached On Him.

Held to the grand jury without bail as a result of a hearing before Justice of Peace Remondin today at Peralta, charged with murder, Solomon Gonzales, and Mrs. Adolfa Gonzales, who on Tuesday confessed to the cold blooded and brutal murder of the latter's husband, are now in the Valencia county jail at Los Lunas. Further details of the killing received yesterday show that Mrs. Gonzales, as well as Salomon, made a clean breast of the crime and that the dual confession came as a result of the arrest of the two after a friend of Salomon's to whom he told the story of the deed, had reported it to the authorities.

The hearing before the justice of the peace on Tuesday evening lasted four hours and the whole shocking story was brought out without much difficulty. The woman who related to the court how she and her partner planned to put Adolfo out of the way; how she held her struggling husband, awakened out of sleep, while Adolfo with repeated blows of an axe chopped his head almost off and then cut and stabbed the corpse with a knife. Neither of the confessed murderers conducted a defense for the crime case that they wanted to get the government out of their hands as soon as possible. The dead man was a sheep herder and Salomon Gonzales is a native laborer who has borne a bad reputation.

PLOT TO BRIBE JURYMEN

Alleged Fake Promoter On Trial in New York Cast Into Tombs Without Bail; Arrest "In Interest of Justice."

(By Morning Journal Special Lensed Wire.) New York, Dec. 27.—George Graham Rice, who with R. M. Scheraga and others has been on trial in the United States circuit court in the last eight weeks charged with abuse of the mails in an alleged scheme to defraud investors, was re-arrested today on a bench warrant and committed to the Tombs without bail.

On his arraignment his attorney protested that the government had no right to re-arrest him and hold him without bail on an indictment for which he was at present standing trial. Judge Day, however, replied that the warrant had been issued "in the interests of justice and Rice was locked up. No statement was made as to the re-arrest of Rice.

Last week George J. Byrne was arrested charged with trying to bribe a juror in the case and is in the Tombs in default of bail.

Information from what is considered a reliable source says the department of justice has conducted a thorough investigation into an alleged conspiracy to bribe other jurors. It was said several other arrests might be expected shortly. No names were mentioned.

WINSLOW GROWS SAYS BANKER DUBBAGE

Hundred and Fifty Residences Erected in Past Year in Hustling Arizona Town; Real Estate Active.

"There is no town in the southwest growing any faster than Winslow, Arizona," said Harry Burbage of Winslow yesterday. Mr. Burbage is president of the Navajo-Apache Bank and Trust company, with banks at Winslow, Holbrook and St. Johns and declares the business conditions all through northern Arizona are highly satisfactory.

"I never saw anything like the growth of that town of Winslow," said Mr. Burbage. "It is steady and healthy and fully one hundred and fifty houses have gone up in the town in the past year. Everybody is anxious to own a home and lot and real estate is very active. I have never seen business conditions more encouraging all through that section."

Mr. Burbage expressed considerable satisfaction at the workmanlike job the Arizona democrats did of the recent state election in that state.

NEGRO MEDICO HELD FOR DEATH OF WOMAN

Overstudy and Delayed Wedding Said to Have Unbalanced Mind of Colored Student of Omaha.

(By Morning Journal Special Lensed Wire.) St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 27.—George W. Parker, colored, said to be a medical student at Creighton University, Omaha, is being held at the county jail here, by the police, following the death of Mrs. Andrew Jackson, also colored. Coroner Jones today expected to hold a post-mortem examination. Parker, it is alleged, had been talking with Mrs. Jackson when he suddenly attacked her. The woman's screams attracted Margaret DeTuit, whom it is said Parker came here from Omaha to marry. She called a neighbor and Parker was overpowered. His friends declare that overstudy coupled with the fact that after he arrived here, Miss DeTuit sought to delay the wedding, unbalanced his mind.

After the autopsy the coroner said Mrs. Jackson was killed by Parker.

APPORTIONMENT OF SCHOOL FUNDS

Superintendent Clark Announces Basis For Distribution As Eighteen Cents For Each Person On School Census.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.) Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 27.—A statement issued yesterday by Territorial Superintendent of Public Instruction I. E. Clark gives the apportionment of the school funds now in the hands of Territorial Treasurer R. J. Palen. The statement is dated Dec. 26, 1911. There is little danger from a cold or from an attack of the grip except when followed by pneumonia, and this never happens when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. This remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds and grip and can be relied upon with implicit confidence. For sale by all dealers.

SPECIAL PENSION IS BANNED

Senator Works Proposes to Incorporate in Sherwood Bill Provision to Stop Serious Drain On Treasury.

(By Morning Journal Special Lensed Wire.) Washington, Dec. 27.—Senator Works of Missouri will attempt to attach to the Sherwood pension bill a provision absolutely prohibiting any special pension bills and making it illegal for pension any person who attempts to get special legislation. Senator Works hopes to stop the flood of special pensions which are passed by congress at each session.

In spite of the fact that the senate committee on pensions is framing a substitute for the Sherwood bill, which would scale down the pensions proposed, the measure as it came from the house has found many supporters in the senate.

Years of Suffering

Catarrah and Blood Disease—Doctors Failed to Cure.
Miss Mabel F. Dawkins, 1214 Lafayette St., Fort Wayne, Ind., writes: For three years I was troubled with catarrah and blood disease. I tried several doctors and a dozen different remedies, but none of them did me any good. A friend told me of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took two bottles of this medicine and was as well and strong as ever. I feel like a different person and recommend Hood's to any one suffering from catarrah."

DEMOCRATIC JUNTA IN SESSION AT SANTA FE

Executive Committee Considers Appointments and General Policy of Incoming Democratic Administration.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.) Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 27.—The executive committee of the democratic state central committee was in session here all day today. It is understood that the gathering took up the matter of appointments to Governor McDonald and the effect of the recent supreme court decision in the Klock-Mann case on the power of the governor to make recess appointments.

According to democratic custom, the meeting was held behind closed doors, and while nothing definite was given out, it is believed the committee is of the opinion that the Klock-Mann decision will not seriously affect the governor's power to appoint since, it is pointed out, the present republican incumbents in office are scarcely in a position to make any fight to retain their positions under the democratic governor.

Another matter that was taken up today was the Owen-Van Stone question. In this case, owing to a mistake in the printing of the ballots, the official canvassing board was obliged to refuse to count for O. L. Owen some 1,922 votes cast for "Sol" Owen. It is considered certain that Mr. Owen will at once file a contest in the event the certificate of election is given to Mr. Van Stone as corporation commissioner, and that Mr. Owen will have the backing of the committee in case the other party to the dispute makes a fight is also considered certain. It was rumored here today that the committee has been asked to explain just what became of the $10,000 defense fund raised shortly after the election to fight attempted frauds or manipulation of the returns.

COLD BLOODED MURDER IN RIO ARRIBA COUNTY

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.) Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 27.—The report of a cold-blooded murder at Chama in Rio Arriba county reached here today. According to advices, which are inagure, C. M. Cooley entered the house of Edward Galland and shot the latter dead. The victim, who was sleeping, was instantly killed. The crime occurred Christmas eve. The murderer's motive is unknown.

APPRECIATES HIS RESPONSIBILITIES SAYS WHITE

Superintendent-Elect of State Schools Asks For Complete Elimination of Politics From Education.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.) Silver City, N. M., Dec. 27.—Hon. Alvin N. White who returned here Sunday from Santa Fe, has been besieged by friends and educators in this city, and letters and telegrams from all over the state and different sections of the country, congratulating him over the result of the final canvass awarding him the election as state superintendent of schools. Among the congratulatory messages, Governor Hooper of Tennessee, an old school mate of Mr. White's, Senator Gore of Oklahoma, Governor Hunt of Arizona and other prominent men, wished him a Merry Christmas and a successful administration.

Speaking to his friends and admirers here, where he has resided and been active in public affairs for many years, Mr. White stated in part: "I feel thankful to the people of the new state for the honor that has been conferred upon me and I want to give one and all my assurance, especially the teachers who, co-operation I desire throughout my term and all persons interested in education, that I will lend my best energy and ability to the cause of education and believe that no one will have cause to complain of my official acts."

"Realizing that our state's future greatness depends almost wholly upon our working out our educational problems with equal and exact justice to all our present and future citizens, I conscientiously feel that it is a rare privilege to have ever so humble a part in the educational uplifting of our people, and that the work soon to be confided to my hands is the most important and noble that falls to the lot of any state official."

"In conclusion, I want to say: Let us put education above politics; let all the educational forces henceforth work unitedly. With the united help and support of all the people I shall keep faith with them, and educationally we shall now. In mutual, well-beseeching ranks, march all our way."

Mr. White today announced his intention of retaining for the time being, if not for the full term, Prof. Rupert F. Asplund, formerly of Albuquerque, now editor of the New Mexico Journal of Education, in the position of chief clerk in his office. He has been personally asked and has received letters and telegrams from teachers all over the state in Mr. Asplund's behalf, and believes it best for the interests of education to avail himself of his excellent knowledge of the office and splendid ability to carry forward the educational work.

MR. TAFT THINKS STATES OUGHT TO BUILD ROADS

President Opposes Nation Wide Movement to Enlist Federal Aid in Highway Improvement; Too Expensive, Says He.

(From the New York Times.) President Taft talked good roads and bad roads to more than 700 members of the Automobile club of America at the Waldorf-Astoria last night. Laughingly he told his hosts, the automobilists, that he did not permanently belong to their class. He was really of the class, he said, which walked or rode in the street cars, though through the generosity of a republican congress and by virtue of office he was the temporary user of a motor car, but there was permanency of tenure neither in the machine nor in the office, and he said he appeared only in a temporary representative capacity.

While the president had a lot of fun with the automobile and those users of the machine rich enough to break through the custom house barriers of all countries, he talked later in all seriousness on the subject of good roads, who should make them, and, even more important, he said, who should maintain them once they are made.

He declared with much emphasis that the making and maintenance of good roads should not devolve upon the national government except possibly as a last resort. He was convinced, he said, that the federal authorities had ample authority to construct inter-state roads as well as improve inter-state waterways, but that there were many other calls on the national treasury, and that it would be far wiser to have roads constructed by the counties or by the states.

His address throughout was received with many expressions of enthusiasm and he himself was met with great cordiality whenever the audience got a chance to express its feelings.

The president said in part: "I have never quite understood the kindly persistence that your president and his associates showed in inviting me to this festive occasion. I never belonged to what I always used to call the 'carriage class.' I walked or rode in street cars, and when the automobile took the place of that more dignified method of procedure—I am sure Judge Moore will agree with me in that—I transferred the carriage class to the automobile class and considered myself still excluded. It is true that the accident of office and the generosity of a republican congress gave me—for a time—the privilege of understanding the fascination of traveling by this new method, but it is only a loan. There is no permanency of tenure in the machine or in the office, and therefore I log of you to understand that I am only a temporary representative capacity."

"Seriously speaking, my friends, the working out of the automobile is a wonderful development. As you look back, as far as I can look back, at least with any sense of economic changes, to 1876, and to what has happened in that period in the promotion of the comfort of the human race, the changes are marvelous. The telephone, the electric railway, all the electrical devices for the reproduction of the human voice, and the automobile!"

"What could we do without them now? How rapidly we adapt ourselves to the absolute necessity of those improvements of which we knew and imagined nothing fifty years ago! And I am not sure that all of them the weatherlier classes, as going to prove the most useful of them all to the poor, rich and poor. There was a time in the use of the automobile—I shared it myself as I was plodding along with the tandem that nature gave me, as Holmes called it—there was a sort of spirit of intolerance that was manifested by the horrible looking machine that the automobile then was to the ordinary eye. There was an intimation of 'get out of the way or we'll run you over,' and resentment against those who were using it—until you got onto the other side of the door of the automobile, and then human nature was shown in the quickness with which the attitude of mind can change and you regard as utterly unbecomable the slowness of the pedestrian and the idea that he has any right to any part of the street, either for crossing or anything else. And then the utter outrage of having any dogs at all in any community that should get in the way of that magnificent instrument of travel and comfort!"

"Many serious problems are going to be presented, and you are having them now, with these state lines and these authorities, of whom you can have three in a very short automobile ride just in this neighborhood. I don't know how you are going to get rid of them. You might set up some theory of yourself being an unopened and complete package, sent from Connecticut into New Jersey through New York, that cannot be opened until you reach the point of the destination, and in some way or other call upon the federal court to protect you in that transportation."

"Whether you could escape the tax and the license and all that sort of thing for the groves that your automobile makes in the roads of each state, I am unable to say, because those who are charged with responsibility of keeping up the roads know that, while the automobile owners have promoted the question and the pursuit of good roads, they have very largely contributed to the difficulty of building and maintaining them. The experiments made into what may avoid the influence of these great big rubber tires upon macadam roads, are proceeding, and I hope something will come of them. I speak with considerable deference because I find that gentlemen who study good roads as a diversion, as an avocation, have such decided views that one who is just charged with the good old governmental way of building a road finds some difficulty in appreciating them, and also finds that he is not regarded as an authority in any respect."

"The question of good roads, say, is a difficult one, not only for the perfection of a road for the purpose of resisting this much heavier traffic, but also because of the questions. Who is to pay for the roads? Are they to be built by the state? Are they to be built by the county? And who is to take care of them? This is a much more important question, but I hear the earnest patriot—and it does not make any difference how he construes the constitution, if there is any plan of running a national road near his farm—I hear the earnest patriot say: 'It is the business of the general government to build these roads. Let's have a national road running from New York to San Francisco, to teach the world what a model road is.' But what would it cost? 'Oh, what difference does it make what it costs? You can strive and hunt ways of saving a hundred thousand dollars in the matter of employees at Washington, but when it comes to building roads, what is a hundred million between friends?'"

"And there is the difficulty, gentlemen. I admit that the general government has the power for the purpose of promoting inter-state commerce to build national roads. It has done it already, but I venture to question the wisdom of opening that method of spending federal government money. I think it is much better to have the neighborhood and the state as a large unit expend its money in the construction of roads across the state, and signing the counties to keep the roads in repair, because if you once set out upon a plan of national roads in addition to the plan of national waterways, I do not know how great the expenditure will amount to."

"If we could confine it to two or three roads I would not object, but we have forty-eight different states, and every state is as anxious to share in the common funds at Washington as every other state. And it is a dangerous experiment. I would suggest great delay and deliberation before you undertake so great an expenditure, the stopping of which will have no end. We have had some experiments in that in Washington, and we are looking forward now to large expenditures, and if we are going to add roads and if you are going to run automobiles through them and into them and promote the cost of them, as you well, increasing, of course, the intercourse between all the people, creating a benefit which I do not minimize, nevertheless I say to you that if you can reach that benefit without opening the national treasury I think it will be the wiser and more statesmanlike course."

Concluding his speech, the president settled down to enjoy himself listening to the other addresses. He heard both Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, and Patrick Francis Murphy before leaving for the Hotel Astor to speak at another dinner. He seemed to enjoy the light talk of Mr. Murphy a great deal, shaking with laughter over Mr. Murphy's allusion to a certain bad and nameless place "where at least the pavement was good."

KNOCKERS ARE ALL SNOWED UNDER

Santa Claus Gives Eastern New Mexico Fine Present in Shape of Heavy Snow Storm; Will Help Crops.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.) Mesquite, N. M., Dec. 25.—Santa Claus gave eastern New Mexico the best of Christmas presents. During the days just preceding and following Christmas he snowed under all the knockers, hammers and all. The weather was cold as a result, but even the cold blooded were good natured from thinking of the big crops this section is sure of for the coming year.

"Those who have been counting on a second settling up of this section are now making their plans for the opening of the movement the next few months. The moisture already in the ground before the last three snows was such that it was believed that good crops were then assured, now there seems no doubt but that good seed rightly put in and followed up will bring the same results it did a few years ago when the abundant crops harvested here off sod land with almost no care at all spoiled some of the first settlers by giving the impression they had found a sort of Garden of Eden."

The lesson has been a bitter one and men are still here who tell repeatedly that they wasted enough to have fed their teams through these short years had they known what was before them.

A great deal of wheat has been put in this year and it is in good shape. The snows that have recently fallen are both deep and evenly spread. Even the high winds that have prevailed at times have not distributed the snow.

SCIENTISTS COVER WIDE RANGE OF SUBJECTS

ARKANSAS DIAMONDS AND AIRSHIP BUILDING

Origin of American Indian and Prevention of Mine Disasters Furnish Topics For High Brow Discussion.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Washington, Dec. 27.—Subjects ranging from the origin of the American Indian to the prevention of disasters in mines, were discussed by the leading scientists and economists of the United States today in the opening session of the American Society for the Advancement of Science and the thirty affiliated associations holding conventions here.

Every phase of airplane building and operation is to be discussed at an "airship session," and important questions of food protection, plant and animal breeding, home economics and scientific research, will be debated.

The search for diamonds in Arkansas was the subject of a discussion before the geological society today. State Geologist Purdie of Arkansas said no proof had yet been found to show that the small area in which diamonds were found in 1906 would be extended.

H. B. Talbot of Boston in an address before the American Chemical society declared that much of the analytical work now being done by chemists was below the standard that should be maintained because the chemists had permitted themselves to be placed in a secondary position.

An effort to prevent dust explosions in mines in November and December, when they are most prevalent, has brought about a condition that is puzzling the health officers and the bureau of mines. Dr. J. Holmes, chief of the bureau of mines told the science association that two experts of the marine hospital service had been called in to investigate.

In the effort to drive out poisonous gases from mines by introducing air through a room filled with steam, miners working in the warm moist atmosphere have developed the hook worm disease and tuberculosis at an alarming rate.

Washington, Dec. 27.—President Taft naively admitted to the delegates to the American Society for the Advancement of Science tonight that he would welcome an opportunity to remain in Washington. His confusion was relieved with an outburst of cheering. The president, who was welcoming the delegates to the capital, quickly saw how his declaration had been interpreted and joined in the laughter.

"You have the freedom of the city," he said, "and it is a beautiful city in which you cannot stay too long."

"Indeed," he added hurriedly, "the longer you stay the longer you want to stay."

The president did not accept the opportunity the incident offered to talk politics. He confined himself to a discussion of the work of the various scientific bodies and expressed his admiration for their accomplishments. He would, if he could, he said, bring to the government bureau more of the active aid and co-operation of scientists in private life.

HALF FROZEN YOUTH RESCUED FROM TRAGIC FATE

Passenger in Santa Fe Refrigerator Car Fights Suffocation, Starvation and Death From Cold.

E. L. Crosswhite, 21 years of age, homeless and without employment, was rescued from a Santa Fe refrigerator car yesterday morning by Special Officer Galucha. When found the young man was in an apparently dying condition, but soon revived when taken to police headquarters. According to his story, he entered the car at San Marcel four-eight hours before he was found by the officer. A brakeman had slammed the door without looking in and Crosswhite was a prisoner. He didn't mind this at first, but as the temperature dropped he suffered intensely from cold and finally was almost suffocated from the foul air in the airtight refrigerator. Being without food or water for the forty-eight hours did not add to his comfort, and when found by the officer the young man had about given up hope.

When he had recovered sufficiently Crosswhite was taken before Police Judge Craig where he told his sad story. Homesick and penniless he still carried with him two small presents which he had planned to send to his mother and sister in Portland, Ore., but lacked even the wherewithal to pay the few cents postage necessary to forward them. The tale of misery touched the hearts of the judge and police officers and a small collection was taken up, the prisoner was given a good breakfast and sent on his way after the presents had been mailed for their destination. A fine of $10, which it was necessary to impose on the prisoner for stealing a ride on the railway, was suspended, the judge being of the opinion that the youth had done sufficient penance for his transgression of the law.

INQUISITORS TRAIL M'NAMARA TO SEATTLE

ELECTRICAL ENGINEER AND LABOR CHIEF TESTIFY

Employee of Los Angeles Newspaper Tells of Meeting Dynamiter in Doomed Building Day Before Explosion.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Los Angeles, Dec. 27.—Coincidentally with the appearance of H. W. Pohman, business agent of the Seattle Iron Workers' union, as a witness before the federal grand jury, which resumed its investigation today into the nation-wide dynamite conspiracy, it became known that another resident of Seattle, Dr. D. G. Wagner, had appeared before the inquisitors and given important testimony.

Dr. Wagner, who no longer practices medicine but devotes himself to managing an electrical supply company, was said to have told the grand jury of a meeting he had with James H. McNamara in Seattle in the latter part of August, last year.

Dr. Wagner's business was located near the intersection of James street and Third avenue, Seattle, almost directly across the street from the Lyons building, which was damaged by dynamite to the extent of $5,000 on August 30, 1910.

The Lyons building explosion was credited to James H. McNamara who at that time was said to have made his first dynamiting expedition to the Pacific coast. According to the testimony it was asserted Dr. Wagner gave to the grand jury, a man whom he afterwards identified by newspaper pictures as James H. McNamara took a part of one of his destructive machines to the electrical supply company, where Dr. Wagner was manager, for repairs.

Another witness who has given the grand jury important testimony, is William Brown of Los Angeles, who has been an employee of the Los Angeles Times for twelve years. He testified that the morning before the Times building was destroyed, October 1, 1910, he met James H. McNamara in the basement of the structure near the spot where the actual explosion occurred.

According to Brown, McNamara declared he was looking for work as a newspaper molder. Brown told him he was in the wrong part of the building and directed him to the manager of the mailing department.

After questioning Paul Scharenburg of San Francisco, secretary of the State Federation of Labor today the grand jury adjourned until tomorrow.

The federal court adjourned until Saturday and as many indictments would have to be presented in that tribunal the adjournment precludes the possibility of the return of true bills before that date.

PASSENGERS SHAKEN IN UNION PACIFIC WRECK

Laramie, Wyo., Dec. 27.—Train No. 7, in charge of Conductor Rich and Engineer Haskins, on the Union Pacific, running forty miles an hour, was wrecked 14 miles west of here at 3 o'clock this morning. The engine left the track on account of a broken rail and turned completely around, being headed east. The first three cars of the train were turned crossways of the track. The chief in the dining car was seriously injured and a number of the passengers were slightly hurt, none of the trainmen or passengers being killed. It will take at least ten hours to clear the track for passing of trains. A relief train with surgeons and the wrecker were sent from here. Conductor Rich was on No. 7 a couple of weeks ago when it was wrecked at Bona.

STEEL CORPORATION DISTRIBUTES MILLION

New York, N. Y., Dec. 27.—The United States Steel corporation has made its annual distribution to employees under its bonus plan, which has been in force nine years. The amount distributed for this year is $1,450,000.

The corporation also will offer to its employees the right to subscribe for about $25,000 shares of shares on the basis of the plan which has been in force for the period already stated.

The price probably will be a little below the market.

BIG SHOE COMPANIES EFFECT CONSOLIDATION

St. Louis, Dec. 27.—The International Shoe company representing the consolidation of the Peters and Roberts, Johnson and Rand companies, filed articles of incorporation this afternoon with a capital stock fixed at $25,000,000.

The assets include factories in St. Louis and Springfield, Mo., and Jerseyville and Belleville, Ill.

The incorporation was for the largest amount ever recorded in St. Louis.

New York, Dec. 27.—The condition of Della Fox, the comedienne and singer, who was operated on for appendicitis last Saturday, continues extremely critical today, according to her physicians. Subsequent to the operation peritonitis developed.

SUN YAT SEN TAKES COMMAND AT SHANGHAI

EASILY OUTSHINES OTHER REBEL CHIEFS

Plan to Make Him President of United China With Full Powers to Organize Republican Government.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Shanghai, Dec. 27.—The arrival of Dr. Sun Yat Sen has injected an entirely new and forceful element into the ranks and councils of the revolutionists. There is every evidence that Dr. Sun is receiving more consideration than other leaders of the revolutionists here. His residence is crowded from morning until night with representatives of all the provinces, generals and governors, with whom he has continual consultations. Delegates from the provinces of China proper, who have been attending the Nanking convention, came in a body to Shanghai, where they met Dr. Sun and later returned to Nanking. There is every reason to believe that they will meet on December 28 and elect Dr. Sun president of the provisional government of the united provinces of China proper, by a unanimous vote of the delegates of the eighteen provinces.

After that has been done the revolutionists plan the selection of a cabinet by the president who will then issue a proclamation setting forth the terms offered by the revolutionists to the Manchus and the imperial court in event of their peaceful surrender. Should this not occur this campaign against the Manchus and the imperialists will continue and Peking will be taken.

Dr. Sun Yat Sen does not regard the peace conference here seriously and will proceed with his plans without regard to Peking. No decision has been reached as to whether the armistice is to be continued.

JAPANESE INFLUENCE BACK OF PRINCE CHING

Paris, Dec. 28.—A Shanghai dispatch to the Paris edition of the New York Herald, says the republicans have received unimpeachable information that Japan is influencing Prince Ching, the ex-premier, and Premier Yuan Shi Kai, against a republic, and they are widely excited at this state of affairs. They declare that unless Premier Yuan announces a definite policy immediately, they will resume hostilities on Sunday.

A strong protest is also being framed, says the dispatch, and will be sent to Tokyo warning Japan that responsibility for the resumption of hostilities will be on her shoulders.

The Tokio correspondent of the Herald says he learns that Japan will offer only friendly advice against the establishment of a republic in China.

IMPERIAL CLAN MUST HAVE MONEY TO FIGHT

London, Dec. 28.—The Daily Telegraph's Peking correspondent says that Yuan Shi Kai on Tuesday handed to the imperial clan a memorandum reviewing the situation and stating that if the clan desired to fight to a finish military expenses for six months must be found immediately; otherwise he would entrust the nation's fate to the national conference.

Vague rumors, continues the correspondent, are current that the emperor's abdication is imminent. Renewed efforts are being made simultaneously in many quarters to induce the foreign governments to sanction the issue of bonds by Premier Yuan.

DISMEMBERMENT OF CHINA CONTINUES

Peking, Dec. 27.—Mongolia which almost equals China proper in size, will be proclaimed independent tomorrow simultaneously with the cutting off from China of the vast dependency of Turkestan. Both will pass under Russian influence and will practically become Russian protectorates.

Russian at any time will be able to annex them. A grand khan will be named as monarch of Mongolia. The construction of the Trans-Mongolian railway, for which Russia has long sought permission from China will now be a matter of time. Europe thereby coming nearer to Peking by three or four days.

Russian influence perilously will flank the Japanese sphere in Manchuria and the Japanese alliance for the sake of preserving Japanese interests may sooner or later be accepted. Russian officers and officials, if not the Russian government proper, have influenced this action in Mongolia.

GAS IN YOUR STOMACH NOT ALWAYS DYSPEPSIA --ITS NERVOUSNESS

Your Nerves very often make your Stomach irritable. It refuses to work; food does not digest and Gas forms. That's one kind of Dyspepsia, the Nervous kind, and this kind you can cure only by a Remedy that acts directly on the Stomach Nerves.

Baumann's Gas-Tablets do this to perfection. They are made especially for Gas. They act on your Stomach Nerves, they quiet the irritable, rebellious gas forming Stomach, and not only relieve, but cure Gas permanently.

Really it seems a pity if you suffer from Gas in the Stomach and Bowels not to try Baumann's Gas-Tablets. These peculiar tablets are sold for 50c a bottle by nearly every druggist. If not in stock tell him to get them for you from his wholesaler or send 50c in silver, stamps or money order to J. Baumann Co., 536 Sutter St., San Francisco.

ALBUQUERQUE MEN DISSATISFIED WITH RECORD

Claimed Government Thermometer Shows Lower Temperature For City Than Degree of Cold Warrants.

That the weather in Albuquerque for the past few days has probably been the coldest in the city's history everybody will admit, but there are several gentlemen in the community who are not prepared to admit that the temperature recorded by the government instruments at the Rio Grande industrial school is the temperature in the city.

Tuesday night the government thermometer recorded a temperature of 9 below zero, while the lowest reached by reliable instruments up-town was one degree above. It is pointed out that the industrial school, which is three miles south of the city, is located on an exposed knoll and close to the river where the temperature may well be several degrees lower than that of Albuquerque.

Postmaster Hopkins on Tuesday caused a reliable thermometer to be hung out in front of the postoffice and hourly readings from this instrument during the night showed a temperature ranging from 10 degrees above zero at 2 a. m. Wednesday to one above at 7 o'clock or just before sunrise, which is generally conceded to be the coldest time of the day. This reading shows a minimum of just 10 degrees above that recorded at the school south of town.

While 1 degree above zero is far from sultry, the postmaster insists that it is bad enough and he believes that the government should supply a set of instruments for this city so that we will no longer have to depend on points down the valley for our official figures on the weather.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA SWEEP BY CHILL BLASTS

San Francisco, Dec. 27.—Following the low barometer of yesterday a rain storm of wide area swept through the northern and central portions of the state today. The entire northern half of the state was covered, the storm shading into snow in the mountain foothills with unusually heavy snow fall in the higher altitudes of the Sierras and Sierras. There is little danger of further forest damage.

FROST DAMAGE NOT SERIOUS IN SOUTH

Los Angeles, Dec. 27.—That citrus fruits were not as badly damaged as was at first expected by the cold of the last few nights, was justly as two years ago, was stated today by orange growers after they had made a careful examination of their trees.

FABBRINI DELIGHTS LARGE AUDIENCE

Concert Given By New Mexico Choral Society Unqualified Success; Program Distinctly Classical.

Prof. Giuseppe Fabbri, the distinguished Italian pianist, who next to Josef Hoffman is considered to be the leading pianist in America today, delighted a large and fashionable audience at the Elks opera house last night by his interpretations of the great masters.

The program as outlined gave the distinguished musician an opportunity to show his marvelous technique, and power of expression. In his renditions of the nocturnes of Chopin and Liszt he was especially good.

The University of New Mexico Choral club, under whose auspices the concert was given, rendered their numbers on the program with telling effect, and added greatly to the enjoyment of the evening. Miss Helena Egiptades, directress of the club, conducted the organization through the finale from the Grand opera Dinorah and the ladies chorus.

The following is the program of the evening:

1. Finale—"Dinorah"....Meyerbeer U. N. M. Choral club.
- 2 (a) "Ballade" in A flat major....Chopin (b) "Nocturne" in F sharp major....Chopin (c) "Polonaise" in A flat major....Chopin
3. (a) "Song at Dusk"....Tcherebin (b) "Maiden's Wish"....Chopin U. N. M. Ladies' chorus.
4. (a) "Romance" in D minor....Schumann (b) "Scherzo" in E major....Martucci (c) "Nocturne" in E flat....Liszt (d) "Eleventh Rhapsody"....Liszt

TO STUDY FAILURE OF GREELEY POTATO CROP

Fort Collins, Colo., Dec. 27.—Because of the fact that the potato crop in northern Colorado last season was damaged to the extent of $4,000 by a strange plant disease or parasite, the heads of the experimental department of the state agricultural college decided today to make exhaustive study of the disease in the next three months in the college greenhouses and issue a bulletin before spring planting for the benefit of potato growers.

SON CHARGED WITH MISCONDUCT AS EXECUTOR

INDICTED FOR MAKING AWAY WITH $100,000

Beneficiaries Under Will of Texas Millionaire Demand Accounting From Administrator of Estate.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Sterling, Ill., Dec. 27.—It developed today that Duncan McKay, one of the largest real estate owners in Galveston, Tex., had been indicted by the October grand jury on a charge of misappropriation of the money left by his father in an estate valued at nearly $2,000,000.

The transactions which led to the indictment date back several years. After long litigation in the circuit court of Whiteside county, a judgment for nearly $100,000 was issued against McKay, but before the findings were entered he left the jurisdiction.

Duncan Moore, a nephew of the Galveston man, then went before the grand jury and gave testimony which resulted in an indictment charging his uncle with misappropriation of practically the entire amount of the judgment rendered previously. The indictment was suppressed in the hope that McKay might return to this state, it being generally understood that he was in Europe. Now, it is alleged, McKay has returned to the United States, but his exact whereabouts are unknown.

It is stated that the greater part of McKay's holdings, which include several of the main business blocks in Galveston, were transferred previous to the supposed European trip.

Duncan McKay is charged with having withheld $125,270 from the estate of his father. A judgment for this amount together with attorneys fees of $25,000 was entered in the Whiteside county circuit court in June in favor of Duncan Moore, a nephew, and Simon Legrew of Chicago.

McKay was made administrator of his father's estate in 1892, the property then amounting approximately to $200,000. In 1896 an order was issued by the probate court of Whiteside county directing the administrator to file an inventory and an accounting for the property, but the order was ignored.

Proceedings in circuit court were started for a settlement, the case being drawn in the name of Anna Moore, a sister of Duncan Moore. A few years ago a final decision awarded the estate $48,598 and interest amounting to $69,312 from the administrator. A bond furnished by McKay as administrator and signed by relatives was found insufficient to satisfy the judgment and the complainants thereupon secured the indictment.

McKay was reported to have gone to Europe, but recently to have returned and his relatives, to absolve the bond have promised States Attorney Ludens to have him in court in thirty days.

DIVINE DODSON REAL SENSATION AT ORPHEUM

Displaying the most gorgeous costumes ever seen in Albuquerque and portraying impersonations of some of the most noted feminine stage celebrities, Divine Dodson took the audience of the Orpheum by storm last night, and was recalled again and again.

In his impersonation of the Duchess he wore a thousand dollar costume and his many changes of costumes made with bewildering rapidity all displayed elaborate and costly gowns seldom seen outside of Paris, the fashion center of the world.

The Orpheum is setting the pace for high-class vaudeville, and the exclusive photo-play service is up-to-date and hard to beat.

INDUSTRIAL PEACE IS TOPIC OF FEDERATION

New York, Dec. 27.—"Industrial peace and progress" will be the topic assigned for a whole day's discussion at the annual meeting of the National Civic Federation in Washington, March 5-7 to which the federation announced today it had asked the governors of various states to send delegates. Another day will be devoted to consideration of the rights and duties of public employees.

According to the program the "industrial peace" session will be presided over by Cardinal Gibbons and will be devoted principally to discussion of the successful operation of the Erdman conciliation act and the various effective methods of negotiation between employers and their employees.

MUSIC TEACHERS IN SESSION

Ann Arbor, Mich., Dec. 27.—The feature of today's session of the National Music Teachers' association, which met in annual session here today, was the statement of Professor H. F. Sleeper, of Smith College, that after only sixteen lessons, it was possible for pupils in harmony to produce compositions so difficult that they would be unable to play them themselves.

CLAY ROAD ACROSS MESCALERO SANDS

Territorial Engineer Calls For Bids For Construction of Much Needed Highway in Eastern New Mexico.

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.] Roswell, N. M., Dec. 27.—Territorial Engineer Charles D. Miller, has issued a call for bids for the construction of a clay road across the "Mescalero Sands" about forty miles east of Roswell. Bids will be opened January 25, at Santa Fe, N. M.

GOES TO ARREST BAD BUNCH

Deputy Sheriff Jim Johnson went to Kenna, N. M., yesterday to arrest Wilson and Walter Orr, charged by warrant with assault with intent to kill and assault respectively. It is charged by Hyatt Smith that Wilson Orr attempted to kill Hyatt Smith and his brother, John, while Walter Orr is charged with cursing a woman. None of the shots alleged to have been fired at the Smith brothers took effect.

POSSIBILITIES OF SMALL ORCHARD

Following is an example of what can be done in this section with a small orchard: J. Beck has an eighteen-acre orchard, fourteen acres in bearing. From this orchard, eight years old, he marketed this year seven thousand boxes of apples, one thousand boxes through the Fruit Growers association, for which he has not received complete returns, the balance he marketed himself, some of his "King David's" selling as high as $2.50 a box. Placing his net returns at $1.00 per box, an extremely low estimate, he received $500 per acre for this crop.

ROSWELL ENJOYS MILD WEATHER

While the country to the north and west of us is wrestling in the grip of one of the severest cold spells of the past twenty years we are enjoying comparatively mild weather, the thermometer not going below 14 degrees and only that low for a few hours in the morning. Yesterday was bright sunshine, though cold.

SHEEP MEN TALK TARIFF

The sheep men of the county met at the Commercial club Tuesday afternoon and discussed the tariff, railroad rates and other matters of special interest to them.

PNEUMONIA VICTIM SUCCEUMS

Mrs. R. H. Company succumbed to an acute attack of pneumonia last night about 10:30. She was 41 years old and leaves a husband and six children by a former husband. Funeral arrangements have not been announced.

WHITE PLAGUE SUFFERER DIES

Roswell, N. M., Dec. 27.—Robert Hulmier, who has been employed at the Hagerman South Spring ranch for some time, and a sufferer from the white plague, died last night about 8:30. His remains will be held at one of the local undertaking parlors pending funeral arrangements.

SHOOTING SPECIAL OFFICER HELD FOR COURT

William Owen Bound Over to Grand Jury For Killing of Antonio Meyos at Belen; Bail Fixed at $1,500.

[Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.] Belen, N. M., Dec. 27.—William Owen, special officer for the Santa Fe Railway company, who last Saturday night shot and killed Antonio Meyos, was given a preliminary hearing in the justice of the peace court today. As a result of the hearing Owen was bound over in the sum of $1,500 to await the action of the grand jury at the next term of court. Defendant pleaded self defense but District Attorney Klock, who represented the territory, held that the shooting was not sufficient to justify the matter was on that should be brought before the grand jury. Owen at once furnished the bond and was released.

KILLS WIFE THEN SELF

Livingston, Mont., Dec. 27.—Dr. C. E. Button, formerly a prominent physician at Billings, Mont., shot and killed his wife today and after drinking a quantity of poison, shot himself and died instantly. The Buttons had been divorced for some time. It is believed Button was insane.

PIKE GOES DRY

Columbus, O., Dec. 27.—Pike county today voted to continue dry. The election had been petitioned for by the wet.

WHAT PUZZLED HER

The little city girl stood watching the "hand" on the farm milking the cow.

"Think you could do it" asked the "hand."

"I think so," replied Miss City. "I could do the milking, I think, but when you want to stop milking how do you turn it off?"

CHARITY BANQUET PROVES DEADLY TO TWO SCORE

Homeless Men Poisoned By Fish Served at Municipal Kitchen in Berlin; Putrid Fish Blamed For Deaths.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Berlin, Dec. 27.—Thirty-eight homeless men who, among others, partook of decayed herring in addition to the dinner of bread and soup given them at the municipal charity kitchen, are dead. More than forty others are sick, several of whom are believed to be dying.

The cause of death has not yet been announced, but the authorities are confident that the putrid fish are responsible. The partially completed autopsies appear to substantiate this view. All those known to have partaken of the fish are dead or, in such condition as to be unable to throw light on the subject. It is believed, however, that one of the victims found the fish in the garbage pile of a nearby market and divided them among his comrades.

RIGHTS OF STATES MENACED BY U. S. COURTS

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Buffalo, Dec. 27.—Control of state authorities by inferior United States courts has developed to such an extent that the people are becoming impatient, declared Governor Simon E. Baldwin of Connecticut, at the opening of the twenty-seventh annual meeting of the American Historical association and the eighth annual meeting of the American Political Science association here tonight.

If some of the recent court decisions are not reversed Governor Baldwin said the judicial power of the United States apparently "extended to any justifiable controversy arising in any state although pertaining to mere matters of local concern."

CLASSY STARS IN "PAID IN FULL"

Famous Play of American Life to Be Presented By Good Cast at Elks Theater Saturday Night.

Eugene Walter's famous play of American life, "Paid in Full," comes to the Elks' theater next Saturday night.

The cast Wagnerhals & Kemper offer for this engagement is the same seen for the past three seasons in the leading theatres of the east and south. Leslie Bassett is conceded by many critics as the best Joe Brooks, whose character has even seen, Frank C. Burdette, while not the first to play Capt. Williams, none succeeded Frank Sheridan who originated the part; his Capt. Williams is doubtless one of the best performances of this character this play has seen.

Miss Edna Brothers, as Emma Brooks, has met with favor everywhere. Miss May Estelle, the well known actress, is still seen in the part of Mrs. Harris, as is Miss Constance Fullman, as Beth Harris. Mr. George Hancock as James Smith, and Mr. David Manning as the Jap make up a cast that will compare favorably with any ever seen in this great success. The original complete New York Astor theatre production is used.

Gates Speeds to Aunt's Deathbed. Minneapolis, Minn., Dec. 27.—Two hours after he heard tonight that his favorite aunt, Mrs. H. B. Angell, was dead of a paralytic stroke at St. Charles, Ills. Charles G. Gates, multimillionaire, was speeding on a special train for that place.

Mr. Gates' mother, according to a telephone message here tonight, left New York for St. Charles tonight and will arrive there early tomorrow.

ALBUQUERQUE NEW MEXICO

ANOTHER GEM OF LOGIC.

The Santa Fe New Mexican, perhaps the last and sole survivor of the erstwhile machine press syndicate, is still making a few facial contortions as the result of its recent denigration of the unripe lemon handed the noble statesmen of the Old Guard by the progressive republicans and the democrats of this sovereign state. The New Mex. hasn't got the taste out of its mouth, judging from a recent editorial utterance entitled "The Gang." In this effusion, the New Mex. somewhat hastily seeks to again vindicate the oft vindicated stalwarts of the busted ring, the members of the castigated cabal who some weeks ago proposed to name the governor of New Mexico and institute the whole state government from the executive down in accordance with their own private, personal, and particular penchants. The New Mex. says, there now, the canvassing board has decided in favor of the democrats; it is all composed of alleged "gangsters"; therefore the "gang" which the people placed in the discard last month are all honorable, virtuous, misanderstood and mistaken patriots! The New Mex. says, or infers, that although the canvassing board merely did what it considered its simple duty, and although its decisions have been simply just, the fact that the board failed to be dishonest proves that every stand pat republican from Bursum to E. A. Miers, is one of nature's truest noblemen and could do no wrong if he wished. In brief, the Santa Fe organ concludes that because the canvassing board is honest, the recent election was after all a hugely mortifying and disastrous mistake, the only men who could possibly give New Mexico a square deal being the stand-patters, the stalwarts, the old ring, the "gang"; the crowd which ruled New Mexico in its own interest for a quarter of a century and was heaved overboard by the voters last month.

All this is based of course on the assumption that the canvassing board is thoroughly representative of the reactionary wing of the republican party. Perhaps Judge Pope, late of Georgia, has informed the New Mexican that he is a stand pat republican; we have never heard any public statement to that effect; and the New Mex. in this same editorial declares that Nathan Jaffa is a progressive republican.

The whole proposition really astounds us.

We must quote a little of it:

"Had the law designated the supreme court as the canvassing board, no one who knows in New Mexico, would have doubted that the seven supreme court judges, all of them 'gang' republicans, would have acted with the same fairness and liberality. Had the enabling act designated the attorney general, the territorial auditor and the territorial treasurer to constitute the canvassing board, everyone knows that the result would have been the same. The 'gang' that puts those kind of men in leadership, keeps them in office, is a 'gang' deserving of the confidence of the people.

"Those who wish for the advancement of New Mexico, those who believe in the square deal, those who want prosperity of the right kind to come to the new state, can offer no better prayer than that New Mexico may continue to be in the hands of us good officials and leaders than the men whom the democrats sneeringly call 'the gang' but who gave them the square deal during the long years they have been in power and who up to the last minute of the canvass might easily have moved the pawns that would have made much more certain their continuance in power during the next five years.

"Had the board consisted of Attorney General Frank W. Clancy, of Territorial Auditor William G. Sargent, of Territorial Treasurer Rufus J. Pallen, or had it consisted of Judges Parker, Wright, McPherson, Abbott, Roberts, or had it consisted of other republican officials, or even of National Committeeman Solomon Luna, State Chairman Venecio Jaramila, and former State Chairman H. O. Bursum, the outcome would have been the same; the democrats would have been given the square deal, just as the people are given the square deal as long as they retain these men in leadership."

Just think of it; "even" Luna, Jaramila and Bursum, would have given everybody a square deal; the thought is actually pathetic; it is impossible to entertain the conception without profound emotion; but why didn't the New Mex. tell the people all about this before the election?

There is just one more paragraph which we must reproduce, as follows:

"One member of the 'gang,' Chief Justice William H. Pope, has been recommended by National Committeeman Solomon Luna, Delegate W. H. Andrews, and by the territorial central committee, all members of the 'gang,' to be the first judge of the new state, and will be appointed by the 'gang' president, William H. Taft, to show what attitude of political opinion the republican party permits within its lines, and that proves that the progressives had no tangible excuse for leaving the party, is the fact that Chief Justice William H. Pope is an ardent prohibitionist and that Delegate W. H. Andrews advocates a direct senatorial primary."

Now did it ever occur to the New Mexican that perhaps these eminent gentlemen, Mr. Luna and Mr. Andrews, knowing the president had made up his mind to name Judge Pope, decided to make a shining virtue of a pressing necessity when they gave Mr. Taft permission, on behalf of the republican party and the people of New Mexico, to go ahead with the appointment?

Reyes has surrendered and peace once more reigns in Mexico. In this connection we do not wish to hear any carping cynic refer to the trifling incident of the slaughter of thirteen consecutive rurales by the Zapatistas.

AN ERA OF ORGANIZATION.

One of the most interesting features of the manifold activities of the great American people at the present day is the remarkably large number of persons ready at all times to join any kind of an organization for the accomplishment of any kind of an object under the sun. There has never been a time when there were so many national societies for the preservation of this, the reform of that, the amelioration of something else, the rescue of a crippled American barber from Tibet, the erection of a memorial to Thomas Hawkins, who invented the hair brush, the preservation of a haystack which once sheltered Paul Revere from the British, the emancipation of Hindu dressmakers, the suppression of chewing gum, the improvement of carpet sweepers, the abolition of whiskers, the reconstruction of the pyramids, the conversion of Pullman porters; societies for the shortening of telephone poles, the lengthening of sermons, the expansion of the propaganda for the prevention of the dissemination of banana peels; societies for the deepening of the Pacific ocean, the elongation of bed sheets, the reformation of Afghanistan, the propagation of the baobab tree, the perpetuation of the hoop skirt, the restoration of the coach dog, to secure larger holes in the doughnuts, to introduce the study of Sanskrit in primary schools, to avert the extinction of the bull frog, and for various other purposes. The Morning Journal receives each and every day stirring circulars from dozens of newly organized societies, seeking nation wide aid and support in some undertaking which has to be explained in four colors of ink and eighteen sizes of type before the bewildered reader has any idea what the trouble is—and always it is a pressing national problem which needs instant solution. Truly, it is an age of organization, of petition, of protest, of moving appeals and irresistible press agents, when all that John Smith needs in order to purchase an automobile is to organize a national society for the Relief of J. Smith, whose case has aroused the instant compassion of the president and for whose benefit all the crowned heads of Europe are about to give a lawn fete, and in a month, with the right kind of a publicity man and the proper sort of a letter head in well selected colors, contributions will come pouring in from all parts of the civilized world and the buzz wagon question is settled in a jiffy. If you want to become famous, merely start a movement for the collection of a fund to prevent the evaporation of the Mississippi river or the building of a memorial arch to Haroun Al Raschid, or organize the National Federation of Societies for the Incorporation of Tailless Kangaroos—and the deed is done. This is the era of fraternity and executive committee, the brotherhood of man and the sisterhood of suffragettes, the age of conservation, perpetuation, appreciation, agitation, commemoration, emancipation, education and indignation. Organize—grip your teeth, as Sammy Gompers says, get a type-writer and a mimeograph, spit on your hands, distribute circulars and organize. It is the shortest way to fame and fortune; and you can't invent a crusade of any kind that won't find thousands of supporters all over the country in no time at all. Simply appeal, and get the endorsement of a near congressman or an ex-mayor, and set the date for the first national convention of the Amalgamated Order of Independent Advocates of Adequate Lightning Rods for the Protection of the Coliseum. The sympathetic and responsive populace of the good old U. S. A. will do the rest.

The people generally, we are confident, will be in hearty sympathy with the movement to have the trial of the Rev. Clarence V. Richeson as private as possible. The public has been surfeited during the past year with the revolting details of such cases as this and we can get along without any more for the present without any sense of privation.

The grief of Morse is of course harrowing; but we have compensation in picturing the gratitude on Christmas day of the eighty-year-old mother of William J. Key, who had not seen her son for twenty-five years and who doubtless would have ended her days without seeing him but for the exercise of the pardoning power of the president.

Excuse us, but if Boni de Castellane and Helie de Sagan will stop talking just long enough to permit a question, whose wife is Anna Gould just at this time? If unmarried, we would also like to know which of her husbands is a bigamist.

Colonel Roosevelt's sarcasm is not unnatural. He has a right to be more or less touchy on the question of New York politics.

Admiral Dewey has celebrated his 74th anniversary—and the American people hope he will live to observe his 104th.

In Lighter Vein

The Bright and Hot Side.
"There is such a thing as overdoing this 'bright-side' business," recently observed a crusty old bachelor, "as was evidenced recently in the household of a friend of mine whose wife has always prided herself on the circumstances that she looks on the bright side."

"The husband, an absent-minded sort of chap, put the lighted end of his cigar in his mouth as he sat reading one evening. Of course, he jumped up and made a dreadful racket for a moment. Then, wife, anxious to live to her reputation of being nice and cheerful and encouraging, smiled blandly and observed:

"At any rate, dear, it was most fortunate that you discovered it at once."—Exchange.

He Wasn't.
"How cold your nose is!" These words came from the daughter of the house, who was sitting in the parlor with her beau.
"Is Towser in the parlor again?" demanded her mother from the next room.
There was a long pause.
"No, mother; Towser isn't in the parlor."

The Soapbox.
"You say the boy's maternal grandfather was a highwayman?"
"Yes."
"And his paternal grandfather was charged with arson?"
"Yes."
"And his aunt is a shoplifter and his uncle a counterfeiter?"
"Yes."
"Then to what do you ascribe his waywardness?"
"Why, to moving pictures, of course."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Bitter Sarcasm.
Not much cider is manufactured in Westchester county for export, nearly all of it being consumed at home. Two Tuckahoe farmers were comparing notes.

"How many barrels have you put up this year, Silas?" said one.
"Only seven, Joel," was the reply.
"Got any handy?"

"Sure thing, Silas," and Joel went into the house, returning soon with some of the apple cider in a big tin dipper. "There," said he, "try that," and Silas sipped.

"Well, what do you think of it?" Joel inquired.

Silas shook his head dubiously.
"Don't you like it, Silas?" was the anxious inquiry.

"How many barrels did you say you made, Joel?" asked Silas.

"Seven."

"Well, Joel, if you had another apple you might have made eight."—New York Herald.

String on His Finger.

There is no doubt that the tying of a piece of string round the finger is a really good aid to a poor memory, but there is a well-authenticated case of a man who tied a piece of cotton around his finger in the morning to remind him to get his hair cut.

On the way home to dinner that evening he noticed the piece of cotton.

"Oh, yes, I remember," he said, and, shaking proudly, he entered the accustomed shop and sat down before the tonsorial operator.

"Er—yes, sir," said the artist, puzzled inquiry in his tones.

"Eh? Oh, yes; cut my hair, please," commanded the absent-minded one, curtly.

"Why, certainly, sir. If you wish it," said the artist. "But you won't mind my mentioning the fact that I cut it this morning, sir, will you?"

"Tut-tut."

An Expert.
Little Nelly told little Anita what the latter termed a "little fib."

Anita—A fib is the same as a story, and a story is the same as a lie.

Nelly—No it's not.

Anita—Yes, it is, because my father said so, and my father is a professor at the university.

Nelly—I don't care if he is. My father is a real estate man, and he knows more about lying than your father does.

Feminine.
"Awfully smart costumes at the flying meeting."

"Were there? And whom did you see fly?"

"Nobody. I wasn't going to take off my hat to see a couple of aeroplanes!"—London Opinion.

New Mexico to Participate in Big Federal Aid Good Roads Convention

American Automobile Association Asks Co-Operation of Governor Mills, President New Mexico Automobile Association and Others to See That New State is Properly Represented in National Highway Gathering to Be Held in Washington.

The American Automobile Association is making every effort to secure the active co-operation and assistance of the federal government in the national work of highway improvement, and to this end is working hard to make a success of the Federal Aid Convention to be held in the national capital January 16 and 17. It is earnestly desired that New Mexico, which has come rapidly to the front in the good roads movement, will be properly represented at this meeting and it is probable the state engineer, president of the automobile association and others will be designated by the governor to attend as delegates from New Mexico. The chairman of the executive committee of the A. A. A. has sent the following letter to Governor Mills and President D. K. B. Sellers, which explains themselves:

December 15, 1911.
Hon. William J. Mills,
Governor of New Mexico,
Santa Fe, N. M.
My Dear Sir:

From all over the country comes the growing demand for federal aid in national highway improvement. The American Automobile Association, comprising forty-two different state organizations and over 315 local clubs, in an endeavor to crystallize sentiment for good roads, has adopted the policy of holding the annual conventions in the city of Washington.

The first of such gatherings will be held on January 16 and 17, 1912, at the New Willard hotel. The national farm organizations will co-operate in making this meeting a great success.

The matter of governmental participation in good roads construction and maintenance will be presented by the various members of congress who have introduced measures looking forward to federal aid in this most important undertaking.

It is highly important that your state, in which the question of good roads is such a vital one, should be represented in an official manner in this convention. The A. A. A. therefore has the honor to urge upon you that, if within the power of your office to do so, it would greatly serve the interests of your state if you were to name three men who could represent Disputed Returns Tabulated by Canvassing Board; Judge Pope Explains Stand Taken By the Commission.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal)
Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 26.—In an announcement Judge Pope for the canvassing board somewhat involved in phraseology, the commission pointed to tabulate the returns of a late election explains its reasons for allowing disputed returns in certain precincts to stand.

At the afternoon session on December 23, Judge Pope said:
"I am directed by the commission to announce the conclusions reached upon matters now pending involving the counting of certain precincts in the territory in the present canvass."

Those precincts are the precincts of Tenaja, Colfax, Melrose, Curry county, and certain other precincts in Valencia county, and also the precinct of Reserve in Socorro county, and also some slight reservation as to a precinct in San Miguel county.

"These, I believe, constitute all of the matters reserved by the commission, with the exception of the Clayton situation, which has been certified to the district court of that particular county and district."

Dealing with the precincts first mentioned, first it becomes our duty to determine the effect of the lack of certain formalities in the returns which have reached us. At the very outset of this matter, we call to mind the fact that the supreme court of this territory in the case of Esquivel vs. Chavez, 12 N. M. 482, in dealing with an election case, held that ordinarily the courts will not, because of the omission by some third person in which the voter does not participate, disfranchise the voter by throwing out a return unless the statute prescribing such formalities, either in terms or by necessary implication, imposes that result. We feel that the spirit of this case has been entered into by counsel on both sides throughout the progress of this matter, and we feel that the spirit of mutual concession which has been shown in the interests of a fair result in this canvass, has been with a view to carrying forward this principle announced by our supreme court. Some instances of this we have gone along in the canvass, have been given, as in the Pinon precinct, Otero county, where this board by stipulation of counsel has been enabled to count that precinct by an affidavit signed by the judges of election, which was used in lieu of the certificate and which recognizes the fairness of that particular election. Likewise, in Santa Rita precinct in Socorro county, by a mutual agreement that matter has been settled in accordance with the principles just mentioned, and on yesterday, this commission in dealing with the Carthage precinct, has attempted to carry out the same principle in that it has declared the result upon a certificate from the judges and clerks of election given at represent you in this connection. We also venture to suggest that one of these three might very properly be the official head of the highway department of the state.

Beyond a doubt, there are numerous men in your state who would feel honored to receive such an appointment by you, and who would be willing and anxious to attend this convention without expense to the state.

May I have the honor of an early response to this suggestion?

Respectfully yours,
A. E. BATCHELDER,
Chairman Executive Committee.

December 23, 1911.
Col. D. K. B. Sellers, President, New Mexico Automobile Association, Albuquerque, N. M.

My Dear Mr. Sellers:
It has come to us through Mr. Westgard who has recently had the pleasure of meeting you on the occasion of the Transcontinental Tour through New Mexico, that you are keenly interested in the subject of good roads. It has long been a source of regret to us that your state was not a part of the national automobile family, but we are hoping that the coming year will add New Mexico to the list.

Herewith is material in regard to our Federal Aid convention at Washington, D. C., January 16 and 17, and we are hopeful that you will find it possible to be with us at this gathering, which is exclusively for federal aid. I am enclosing clipping from the New York Times, which will tell you what President Taft said the other night, and while he does not think we ought to spend the money, it may please you to know that he cannot see any constitutional objection to this being done.

I am enclosing herewith copy of letter which recently went to your governor, and following the plan of the A. A. A. clubs, I am going to ask that you lend your influence to prevail upon the governor to appoint a delegation to represent your state at this convention, of such great importance to all interested in good roads.

Yours very truly,
A. E. BATCHELDER,

a time when there was no inducement for any irregularities, and under circumstances that made this duplicate equivalent in dignity to the original, and we may say that the course of the council has impressed us as desiring to carry out this principle, and their attitude has very greatly facilitated the work of this board.

As might be expected, however, some differences must necessarily result, and the limits of agreement must be reached, leaving to the commission dealing with them, the duty of passing upon the determination of these controversies.

We come, therefore, to determine these few controversies, and we say few, because out of an aggregate of some six or seven hundred precincts so few controversies have arisen, and it is really a tribute of fairness to all concerned and is very exceptional.

Coming to these differences we reach Tenaja: Our view is that applying the principle we have just stated, bearing in mind that through some circumstances for which apparently no one was culpable, the residents of this precinct were not given an opportunity to use the ordinary election material, and therefore proceeded in order that they might not be disfranchised, to make such for the purpose of the occasion, and to return such with a reasonable degree of regularity, and we are of the opinion that this precinct of Tenaja should be counted as conforming substantially to the law, and as conforming substantially to the principle announced in the case of Esquivel vs. Chavez.

That brings us to the next questions involving these precincts, in which there is a poll list lacking, and in connection with that those precincts in which there is a tally list lacking. Looking at the statutes very carefully, and aided as we have been by the argument of counsel in the matter, we are led to the view that the statute makes very little distinction as to the matter of materiality between the absence of a poll list and the absence of a tally list. The requirement of either is largely inferential, and the only provisions of statute that we find requiring a poll list is the section of statute which prescribes the form for the clerks of election which embodies a statement that such clerks shall faithfully record the names of all the voters, and second, the form book which is furnished the officers has a column headed "Names of Voters," and Section 1674 of the Compiled Laws 1897, requires all officers to conform in every particular to these forms, under the pains and penalties of the law, which we assume to mean that they may be punished criminally for failure to comply with the statute in that respect. This is all there is as to the poll list, being two references to it in the statute.

Coming now to the tally list we find an equal number of references in the statute, indeed, perhaps one more. We have a reference in the statute at the very outset to the tallies in that the officers are required to perform the following duty: The polls being closed the number of votes received for each candidate shall be added up at the foot of each column, indicating that the vote is to be tallied out and this is to be footed up. This does not expressly mention tallies, but inferentially does. However, Section 1642 provides that where there is a certificate to correspond in all respects with the result of the election as shown by the tallies on the poll books, and we take this as indicating that the law contemplated tallies since in the emergency of no certificate it makes the tallies the basis upon which the certificate may be supplied. We also find as a third reference to the tallies, Section 1633, that any judge or clerk of election who shall wilfully enter upon any tally lists a greater or lesser number of votes for any person than such person actually received, with intent to change the result of the election, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, and also imposes a jail sentence. So we have here an inferential requirement of statute for both, which certainly indicates that the law makers intended that both should exist upon the poll book.

That we have recognized the tally list as possessing peculiar value is demonstrated in our procedure here, where in case of doubt as to the certificate we have immediately consulted the tally list, or where the tally list differs from the certificate we have been controlled by the tally provided the poll list showing the number of votes accords with the tally list, indicating that we have given to both the poll and tally lists a dignity and indicating that they are a part of the legal return, and indeed we have in this canvass more frequently consulted the tally list than the poll list. Our judgment, therefore, is that the poll list and tally list are both contemplated by law, and that any result which throws out a return based upon the absence of the one must clearly reject the returns based upon the absence of the other. If the poll lists is valuable as operating as a restraint upon the certificate, in that it will prevent a greater number of votes in the certificate than were actually cast, likewise the presence of tallies operates as a restraint in that it prevents there being recorded in the certificate a greater number of votes than such candidate had actually tallied or counted to him.

We there, have reached the conclusion that if the one is material the other is also material. It becomes our duty next to determine, such being the case, what is the effect of the absence of a poll list. We find at the very outset that there is no provision of statute which makes the absence of a poll list fatal, nor indeed any provision which makes the absence of a tally list fatal. The officers of election should supply them, but does their absence invalidate the election in that precinct to the extent of allowing us to reject the returns?

In this connection the case of Esquivel V. Chavez is instructive. This case holds that the voters shall not be disfranchised by reason of the oversight or neglect of duty of some third party unless the statute in terms by necessary implication entails that result. As we said, the statute does not in terms do this, but we do think it does so by necessary implication. Certain cases have been cited to us as establishing a different doctrine and a brief reference to those is proper in deference to diligence of counsel in this matter.

The first of these cases is People vs. Nordheim, 92 Ill. 161, where it is claimed that the absence of a poll list is fatal to counting upon canvass. An examination of that case, however, discloses the fact that this was a case where the certificate was not signed, and the court held that it could not in such form be counted, a position which this commission has from the very first insisted upon, not only as a matter of law, but in deference to the statute.

Again, the case of county of Lawrence vs. Schmalhausen, 123 Ill. 321. This was also a case where there was a total lack of certificate, and the court in that case held that under those circumstances the return could not be counted. The case it will be noted, rules that the return was a list of the voters sent up to the county clerk, the town clerk and the secretary of state, to which was to be attached a certificate not that poll list was correct, but a certificate setting out in detail the number of votes each candidate received, and this setting out in detail the exact facts that our certificates here are required to set out, and the supreme court of Illinois held in that case, following the Nordheim case, that as the officers of election had not sent one of these lists so certified to every one of these officers, and therefore neither of these officers had before it the certificate which the law required, that these could not be counted.

We also have cited the case of state of Nebraska vs. McFadden, in which there is a poll list lacking, and an examination of that case discloses no such rule as is here contended for. As we read that decision it is that the returns of an election consist of the whole election proceedings, which the statute requires to be entered upon the poll list and tally list, to-wit: The certificate of the election of officers, the list of those voting and the tally list of votes cast for different persons, and from this the abstract is to be made, a rule which we have enforced in this proceeding. Further, it is held that in cases of discrepancy between the tally list and the certificate as regards the number of votes cast, the officers must determine which is correct after comparing them with the list of voters returned, and declare the result accordingly, which rule we have constantly and insistently enforced in this proceeding. There may be some dicta in this case which would support the contention of counsel to some extent, but we think the case is not in point with this question.

The case of Day V. Kent, 1 Ore. 124 is also cited, but we find in that the following expression relevant to the principal contention here made.

"Evidence for those wishing to contest an election, which is the poll list, is one thing; evidence for the county canvassers, which is the certificate, is another and different thing."

We have also cited 2 N. M. the case of Bull V. Southwick, but we fail to find anything inconsistent with what has heretofore been said by this commission in ruling upon this matter. We therefore reach the conclusion in this case that the effect of these omissions by the officers of election do not under our law, necessitate the rejection of the return. We find that they do not do so by virtue of any expressed provision of statute, because there is no provision of statute entailing such a result. The legislature might impose it, but has not. We find that it is not a necessary result, because we have before us in the certificate and in the tally lists in each of these instances sufficient data from which at least, prima facie to declare the result in these precincts.

It will be noted that in the disposition of these matters, we have considered it entirely from the standpoint of the absence of a poll list, and therefore have had no occasion to consider the matter in the light of what is alleged to be a poll list from the precinct of Melrose, or what is alleged to be its equivalent from the precinct of Reserve, in the presence of checked registration books. These two matters are not considered material to a solution of these questions. It follows therefore, from this conclusion that the returns from the precinct of Melrose and the precinct of Reserve will be tabulated by the board. And it will also tabulate, as against the objection that there is no tally list, the returns of the precinct of Valencia, which may fall to have such a tally list, and any other precincts in which the lack of a tally list has been suggested.

I think this leaves only one more matter and that is the matter in San Miguel county. The commission will allow the returns to stand just as they were recorded.

Brutal Conduct.

"But why are you determined to get a divorce from your husband?"

"Because he is an absolute brute."

"You amaze me. You used to say that he was as gentle as a child."

"Yes, that's what I used to say. But you ought to see him now! Listen. Since the baby began teething, nothing would get the kid's darning but being allowed to pull his papa's whiskers. And when he heard 'He went down and had his head shaved,' that's what! Do you think I'd live with a man that has that sort of a disposition?" — Cleveland Plain Dealer.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

Wall Street.

New York, Dec. 27.—The price levels for most of the standard stocks were barely disturbed during today's trading until shortly before the close of the market. A selling movement was begun at that time and some leading issues, including Union Pacific, Reading, Canadian Pacific, United States Steel and American Smelting were depressed a point or so below the previous close.

The distinctive movements of the earlier day were among the specialties. One of the most prominent was International Mercantile Marine. The buying came largely from London and was reported to be based on steps taken by the company to enter more largely into the American domestic trade. National Biscuit rose more than three points and North American Great Northern and some of the copper and steel stocks rose a point or more. The afternoon decline however, either cancelled the gains or reduced them largely. Among the railroad stocks pressure against Union Pacific was noticeable. Rock Island's movement attracted some attention because of unfavorable November reports. Although the loss in net revenue was well above $500,000 the stock developed strength, the preferred issue moving up 1-8.

The lull in the buying of steel products such as is usual at this period of the year, did not occur and orders have been received freely this week. Allis Chalmers pfd. 7 1/2. ## Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, Dec. 27.—Black rust attacking the vital part of the Argentine crop, the yield in the rich provinces to the south, gave sudden impetus to the market for wheat.

Closing prices were up one to 1-8 cents higher than last night. Corn showed a net gain of 3-8¢ to 1-2¢. 1-8¢ and oats an advance of 5-8¢ to 1-2¢. The close left hog products unchanged to 7-12¢ decline. Notwithstanding the gain in wheat prices finished steady within 1-8¢ of the top level reached. Shorts in general were frightened by upward leaps of 1 to 2 cents at Buenos Ayres after similar jumps the previous day. News of the pressure of the blight in the Argentine was followed by word that one authority had made 15,000,000 bushels reduction in an estimate of the Argentine export surplus. Bulls were further encouraged at the fact that Minneapolis stocks had increased only 15,000 bushels in five days against 330,000 bushels during the corresponding time a year ago. Special attention was given to statements that cash wheat at the big milling center had moved up surprisingly and had wiped out altogether last week's discount, five cents a bushel.

May ranged from 95 1-4 to 99 1-8¢, with last sales 1-8¢ up at 99¢ even. For the December option in particular corn made a sharp advance. The May futures fluctuated from 65 1-2 to 64 1-8¢, closing firm 5-58 1-2¢ net higher at 64 1-8¢ to 1-8¢. Cash grades were steady for best lots but easy for less desirable sorts. No. 2 yellow was quoted at 72¢ for old.

In oats the pit crowd turned to the buying side owing to the strength of wheat. Upper and lower levels touched for May moved to be 47 5-8¢ and 46 1-2¢, with the close at 47 5-8¢, a gain of 1 cent.

It was rather a dull market in provisions. Most of the business consisted of changing January property to deferred months. At the close pork and lard had gained 2-12 to 7-12¢, but ribs were unchanged to a shade lower.

Defective Children in Boston.

On their face the figures given out by the division of child hygiene of the Boston board of health are alarming. "The 'headliner' finds an obvious chance in the conclusion that of 47,750 children studied only 35 per cent are normal. When, however, the figures are examined a little more in detail they are seen to be not quite so portentous. To be 'mentally deficient' is a serious matter, but only 233 fell under this stigma. Pulmonary diseases is a dreadful malady, but only 456 are affected—too many, but the war on the white plague has just begun, and many of these will be cured. Cardiac disease accounts for 1129 of the defectives, but cardiac troubles among the young may mean much or little—many of these will die at a ripe age. Rickets may show a worse inheritance, but the rickety children are but 575. Nervous diseases account for but 213.

For the imposing figures we must turn to ailments which are either of a minor sort or which till quite recently have been treated as negligible. We have learned to appreciate the importance of good breathing, and the discovery of 3562 children who do not breathe easily and naturally through the nose shows that there is much to be done for hygiene. Here we may learn from the Indian squaws, who guard papoosees very carefully against mouth breathing. Hypertrophied tonsils account for 973, and indirectly bad teeth may be responsible for much mischief, yet we must remember that they do not necessarily interfere with long and useful life. Troubles with the cervical glands make up 4425 cases and these, like cardiac troubles, may mean much or little. Now there is need for a panic over the fact that 19,518, or nearly half, have defective teeth. In older days people troubled little about such details. We are wiser now, and know that many diseases may spring indirectly from bad teeth, but merely emphasizing and tabulating an evil does not increase it, and there is no reason to suppose that things are getting worse. The omission of defective eyesight is odd—few people have "normal" vision, yet most people get through life respectably with somewhat less. If we once recognize that the perfectly "normal" individual is the exception rather than the rule, statistics will lose their terrors.

In fact, such a statistical presentation is full of hope for the race, for each list of deficiencies shows a way to further development. The science of eugenics may still be too much in the air; we are not ready to "breed" the dreamed-of superior race. Nor need we come to that till we have made the most of what nature offers. The race has done pretty well in spite of such handicaps as these tables indicate. Ricketty children have grown up to be good poets; children with defective eyesight have become great scholars; scrofula did not interfere with Dr. Johnson's dictionary; Charles Lamb had defective dentition; R. L. Stevenson had pulmonary disease, and one might go on continue through the list of great names. It is remarkable how many children defective in one way or another have lived to grow up and achieve high success, and on the other hand, the work of modern statisticians, by showing how common such defects are in the population at large, goes far to relieve men of genius from the stigma of abnormality due to the minute details with which their lives have been studied. If defects were a condition of genius we should have to be careful about trying to make all children normal. But this is a mere assumption. It is much more plausible to suppose that careful attention to the remedial defects of childhood will result in a notable gain to the race as a whole.—Springfield Republican.

A Good Place to Hear News. A man was very fond of music, and it annoyed him at the opera to see the inattention of the fashionable part of the audience.

One night a friend found him snoring at the club, and asked him "where he'd been."

"I've been to the opera," he replied.

"Why, I heard," was the reply, "that the Van Vans are going to get a divorce, that young Knickerbocker-Smith has married a London actress, and that the Harpurs are gradually pawing all their jewels."

CATARH CAN BE CURED WITH LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for many years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials free.

went to spend Christmas. He will leave this morning for Belen and Willard on business.

Captain R. M. Spivey, popular veteran traveling ticket agent of the Santa Fe, returned yesterday from Topeka, where he went to spend Christmas with his family. Captain Spivey states that the cold spell did not reach that far east, and that the weather in Topeka was exceedingly good considering the season of the year.

Following the regular meeting of the Women's Relief Corps, which was held yesterday afternoon in the A. O. U. W. hall, the annual turkey dinner was served to members only. The following ladies acted as hostesses: Mesdames Scholke, (Grove), Moon, Heydt, Isherwood, Hart and Putnam. A most enjoyable time was experienced by all.

H. F. Robinson, superintendent of the Indian reclamation service, left last evening accompanied by his wife and daughter, and Mrs. Whisman, Mrs. Robinson's mother, for Phoenix, Ariz. They will spend the winter in the Arizona capital, living at the Ingleside club. Mr. Robinson will return to Albuquerque during the winter in order to look after the business of his office here.

Dr. and Mrs. William P. Wood are house guests for the Christmas season at the home of Mrs. Wood's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Magee. Mrs. James P. Magee will receive informally, assisted by Mrs. W. P. Wood and Miss Lottie Magee, Christmas afternoon and evening as a farewell to Mrs. Karl Wallace Greene, who leaves Tuesday for Santa Fe, N. M., where she will join Mr. K. W. Green, the recently appointed secretary of the state democratic committee. Mrs. Greene, accompanied by her small son, Francis, and her sister, Miss Lottie Magee will go first to West Point, where they will be the house guests of Lieutenant and Mrs. R. K. Greene, for the Christmas festivities, after which Mrs. Greene and her son will go immediately to New Mexico in order to be there in time for the ball in honor of the inauguration of Governor MacDonald—Washington Post.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

Miss Minnie Porter.
Miss Minnie Porter, one of the prominent young church workers of the city, died yesterday afternoon in a local sanitarium of a complication of diseases. The young woman was well-known in Albuquerque where she had lived for seven years. She is survived by a brother in Wyoming and an uncle in Michigan, who were wired full details of her death last night. No funeral arrangements will be made pending advice from the brother.

Miss Edith Holliday.
Miss Edith Holliday died at a local sanitarium yesterday afternoon, after a residence in Albuquerque of some months. Her relatives reside in Ohio, and were notified. The body was prepared for shipment to the old home this afternoon.

'BUTTERFLIES' PUT ON AT SANITARIUM
Patients at Presbyterian Institution Enjoy First Rendition of Clever Amateur Comedy.

The patients at the Presbyterian sanitarium, were entertained yesterday afternoon by the performance of "Butterflies," the comedy to be given tomorrow evening in Odd Fellows' hall for the benefit of the Anthony Cottage Sanitarium. Those who were privileged to witness the entertainment, agree that it is a most amusing playlet containing many brilliant lines, cleverly rendered and well cast. The players, who are all well known amateurs, have been diligently rehearsing for some time past, and the performance as shown tomorrow evening, will be in every respect a finished one.

The object to which the proceeds are to be applied, is most worthy of support, and it is expected that the demand for seats will be large. The plans for the sanitarium, which is proposed to erect with the proceeds of the series of entertainments, of which this is the second, may be seen in Matson's window.

It is very probable that the play will shortly be seen in Belen, Clovis and Amarillo.

A regular meeting of the Royal Neighbors will be held this evening in J. O. O. E. hall at 7:30 sharp. All members are requested to be present on time on account of the dance which will follow. Jesse Clifford, recorder.

PRAYS FOR DIVORCE ON GROUND OF DESERTION

Judge Abbott Inclined to Grant Application of Mrs. Susie Owens; News of the District Court.

The divorce case of Susie Owens against Ben Owens was heard by Judge Abbott yesterday, although a decree was not handed down. The defendant in the case defaulted and the certificate of such default was signed by Clerk Maddison and introduced into court. The court indicated he would grant the application.

The claims for the separation were made upon the ground of desertion and abandonment, the suit being filed on November 10. The couple were married in Guthrie, Okla., on New Year's day, 1909.

Discharged From Bankruptcy.
A discharge in bankruptcy was ordered in behalf of George S. Leaming. Mr. Leaming was adjudged a bankrupt on March 24, 1909, and from that time on complied with all the laws relating to bankrupts. It was shown, however, in court that he neglected to obtain a discharge from the court at the time the same was due, so Judge Abbott ordered the instrument dated back to March 5, 1910.

Claim for Commission Denied.
An order was issued by the district court yesterday in the case of Marion Haine against Walter Cook, a suit to obtain commissions alleged to be due on the sale of some mining property in Socorro county. The court found in favor of the defendant and ordered the cost taxed against him.

VICTIM OF SCHOLLE WRECK ABLE TO TRAVEL

Engineer Napsinger, Frightfully Injured in Head-On Collision, On High Road to Recovery.

Engineer C. H. Napsinger, who was frightfully injured and otherwise injured in the head-on collision between two Santa Fe trains near Scholle, N. M., has so far recovered from his injuries as to be able to travel. After nearly six weeks in St. Joseph's hospital where he was taken immediately following the wreck, Mr. Napsinger was discharged Christmas day and left yesterday morning with his parents for Phoenix, where he will spend the next several weeks in order to completely regain his health.

Despite the terrible nature of his injuries only a few scars will serve to remind the engineer of his tragic experience. Of the nine men who were injured in the wreck only two, Mr. Napsinger and another, remain alive.

DE LUXE TRAIN ANNULLED DURING HOLIDAY LULL

There was no de Luxe train over the Santa Fe on Monday last night and there will be none for the week this morning, the two trains having been annulled during the Christmas week owing to the general light travel.

The trains will, however, be resumed next week, the first from the west reaching Albuquerque on Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock, if on time, and the one from the east getting in at 3:25 the following morning.

REDLIGHT HEARING COUNTY CREDITORS POSTPONED ASKED TO SEND IN THEIR BILLS

Case of Women Charged With Conducting Disorderly House to Come Up Today; Male Companion Fined $15.

The case of the two women, Minnie Carroll and Olive Rhoades, charged with conducting a disorderly house, which was to have been discussed by Police Judge Craig yesterday afternoon, was again postponed, and this afternoon was the hour set for the trial.

A male companion of the two women, who gave his name as Richard Roe, pleaded guilty yesterday and a fine of $15 or the same number of days in jail was assessed against him. He paid the $15.

The two women were arrested Saturday morning and released on bond. It is understood that they intend to fight the charge against them, taking the position that, as they have been licensed by the city and state authorities to conduct a retail liquor dispensary, their place is no more disorderly than any other saloon in the city, in fact the Carroll woman was heard to declare yesterday in court that her place was more orderly than many of the South First street resorts which have seldom been interfered with by the police.

CURRENT NEWS NOTES FROM THE TOWN OF WILLARD

Willard, N. M., Dec. 26.—A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. John M. Burwell Christmas night. The child lived but a few hours. The Burwells are newcomers here and only a couple of weeks ago assumed the management of the "Record."

The Santa Fe will start the new year here with an entirely new lot in charge of the cutoff station. D. A. Younger, was promoted to the Carlisle office and Operator Luckenell and Cleghorn, were sent to Scholle.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunt have come here from Mountainair to assume the positions of agent and first truck operator. Dallas Drummond gets the third trick. Manager Ben S. Jackson will sever his connection with the Willard Mercantile company, a first of the year. Mr. Jackson has a much better position in view. His successor has not yet been selected. The loss of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson as Willard residents will be severely felt. Mr. Jackson has been at the head of the Mercantile company since it was established here four years ago. Mrs. Jackson has done so much in a social way for the town, that her place will be hard to fill.

Commissioners Anxious to Settle All Accounts Before First of Year; Meeting Friday Morning.

The board of county commissioners is very anxious that all bills against the county should be in the hands of the clerk before the meeting of the board which is to be held on Friday morning at 10 o'clock. This will be the last meeting of the year and it is the plan to have all accounts cleaned up and disposed of to the end that the New Year may start with clean books.

ALL ABOARD FOR BELEN!
AT 8:20 A. M.
On account of the New Year's Eve entertainment and dance, to be given at Belen, by the Albuquerque Lodge of the German Order of Harnburg, a special rate for the round trip has been arranged for with the Santa Fe railroad. All those wishing to take advantage of this opportunity, will please leave their names at Westerfield's Cigar Store, 297 West Central avenue, not later than Saturday noon, December 30th. Train will leave on Sunday, December 31st, at 8:20 a. m.
