NUMBER 164.

FIRST BLOOD
OF THE WAR!Several Big War Ships Destroy the Spanish Forts at Mantanzas.

MONITOR TERROR CAPTURES SPANISH SHIP.

New York, April 28.—A dispatch via Key West to the Herald says: Admiral Sampson, after a long and pretty well destroyed the Spanish batteries at the entrance to the harbor of Mantanzas. He did it with the flagship New York, the monitor Puritan and the cruiser Cincinnati.

The American ships were not struck, the Spanish gunnery being wild. The number of dead and wounded on the Spanish side must be considerable.

The New York, Puritan and Cincinnati were reconnoitering for the purpose of locating and destroying formidable defenses, and the flagship was fired on by the batteries on Point Rubalcava and Point Maya, guarding the entrance to the harbor.

The New York replied, firing the forward 8-inch gun on the port side. She steamed boldly in between the batteries and soon blazed with both her broadsides.

The Puritan steamed in behind the New York and engaged the fortification on Point Maya, while the New York went to the starboard, close up to the land and poured her shells into Rubalcava.

The Cincinnati, which remained well astern under orders, signaled for permission to engage and received it, and soon was firing her guns at the fort on the west side of the bay.

The batteries fired explosive shells, most of which fell wide of the mark. One burst just beyond the stern of the New York and the scarpell exploded above her.

It took the three ships just eighteen minutes to silence the batteries.

The last shot fired by the Spanish came from Point Rubalcava. The Puritan replied with a twelve-inch gun. The shell struck the battery with wonderful accuracy and blew up a portion of it.

After waiting in vain for the Spanish to renew the engagement, the ships withdrew leaving both batteries in ruins.

On board flagship Brooklyn, off Port Monroe, Va., April 28.—For twenty-six hours the flying squadron has been unable to communicate with the shore, the storm making it unsafe to use steam launch cutters. A tug brought the mail this morning.

Only clever seamanship, perfect discipline and cool headed judgment averted a collision between the Massachusetts and the Brooklyn, which were driven before a wind blowing ninety-six miles an hour.

The Library Ball.

The entertainment by children at the library ball, in Grant's opera house, Friday of this week, will be thoroughly enjoyable. A band of sixteen little girls will give a series of fancy dances which will be inspiring and charming. One of the most promising young ladies in the city will deliver a brilliant recitation. Eight children dressed in full evening dress in imitation of their parents will subsequently appear on the floor, will dance the minuet. One of the most charming of juvenile vocalists will sing a song in her most attractive manner. Ten little misses and masters, dressed in the costumes of the long ago, will dance the stately minuet. One of the most delicate features of the entertainment will be the execution of a trolley dance by a little fairy whose gracefulness is a very quintessence of the poetry of motion.

Langston, under authority from Governor Otero, are recruiting picked men in Cerrillos and Madrid for the Roosevelt cavalry and have had numerous applications from patriotic young men who are anxious to join the regiment, well knowing that under such command as Colonel Wood and Lieutenant-Colonel Roosevelt they are bound to gain distinction and honor. It is understood that Dams and Langston will both be offered commissions, and some of the rough riders going to the front from New Mexico.

Off for Alaska.

C. W. Uptegrove, who for the past few years has been teaching at Belen, came from the south last night, and made a hurried call at this office, for the purpose of saying "good-bye" to his newspaper friends.

Although 61 years of age, Mr. Uptegrove is on his way to the northwestern portion of Alaska, and left last night on the west bound passenger train for San Francisco. He sails on the steamer "Northern Light," which leaves San Francisco on May 10, 1898, and, while at this office, this old hearty ranchman stated that he had willed all his property at Belen to his son, to whom he said: "Son, I will never return to New Mexico a pauper, if I return at all."

Interesting Lecture.

Hon. R. W. D. Bryan's lecture at the University this morning was a most able resume of the laws relating to delegated authority and rarely has more valuable and interesting information been crowded into three quarters of an hour. The speaker discussed the classes of agents and the extent and conditions of their responsibility. Incidentally the legal significance of the seal was explained, as well as the distinction between the responsibility implied in mining as contrasted to other partnerships. The lecture was enlivened here and there with a touch of "rattle salt" and afforded a practical lesson in the use of the literature of the subject. The students will be glad to look forward to other addresses from the same speaker.

Peralta Mining Notes.

E. H. Kent came in from Peralta yesterday and reports the Peralta road completed to the other side of the gap, a distance of about three miles, and they expect to complete it as far as Beaumont's camp by Saturday.

Some California parties are looking at some mining property near the Peralta road with intention of purchasing.

The Santa Rosa people have run a tunnel about forty feet on the Santa Rosa and expect to get to thirty feet before they strike ore.

OUR MOUNTED RIFLEMEN.

Captain Max Luna Recruiting a Troop in this City To-day.

Captain Max Luna came down from Santa Fe last night and is busy to-day recruiting a troop of cavalry in the city, to form a part of the "Cowboy Regiment," which is to be commanded by Colonel Wood and Lieutenant-Colonel

Wood. Captain Luna's recruiting station is in the vacant store building adjoining THE CITIZEN's office, and already about half the whole regiment is enlisted. The officers so far named are: Captain Max Luna; first sergeant, Horace E. Sherman; sergeant, Garfield Hughes.

Governor Otero was notified yesterday by the secretary of war that 370 men, making up New Mexico's quota, will be formed into four companies of mounted riders, who will be equipped with arms, uniforms and horses at some eastern rendezvous. These four companies will probably be commanded by Major Fritz Muller, of Santa Fe; Captain J. W. Fleming, of Silver City; Captain Max Luna, of Los Lunas, and Captain Lucius Welch, of Antec.

These four troops are ready to move at a moment's notice, but orders are not expected for a few days yet.

Governor Otero will discharge any national guardsmen, who enroll in any of these four volunteer troops.

Captain Luna informed THE CITIZEN this afternoon that the gallant cavalrymen will form a part of the Albuquerque recruits, and that J. W. Green, of Gallup, will be first lieutenant, with Maxwell Keyes as second lieutenant.

At 3:45 p. m. Capt. Luna lined the recruits against the wall and read to them the "Articles of War."

The gallant recruits, under First Lieut. Green, are expected to arrive from the west this evening.

There is a rumor now in circulation that Santa Fe is making an effort to have the rendezvous removed from this city to the capital.

"What is the matter with Delegate Ferguson?" is being asked by his local constituents. He has paid no attention to the several telegrams sent him the past few days.

A Good Show.

The Star minstrels were the footlight attractions at the opera house last night, and Miss Ella Abrams, with her company of local stars, brought out about 400 well pleased people.

Miss Abrams and her sister, Mrs. C. D. Whitcomb were up-to-date in their singing and acting of plantation songs and songs, and their songs "Move On" and "Mr. Johnson," brought forth rousing applause.

Mrs. Walton, as "Dinah Gumdrops," sang in a humorous voice "My Gal is a Redhead Coon" and "Little Black Baby." This lady is all right in comic shows.

Joe O'Reilly made his second appearance before the people, the first being at the armory hall when he accepted the democratic nomination for mayor. Last night he proved himself a true captivator, his buck and wing dancing, and his imitations being good.

"Sing Again That Sweet Refrain" was sung by Miss Cora Gehring, as "Patience Purty," in a very sweet voice.

Frank Lane is all right as "Lulu," but not as an end man as a burnt cork aggregation.

S. B. Gillett officiated as "George Washington Ransom" in very good order, his singing being especially good.

Without going further in particularizing THE CITIZEN states that the minstrels gave a rattling good show.

"Viva Espana" was yelled in Johnny Coulton's ears last night, and Johnny's good right arm responded. In this country of freedom and liberty, each and every person ought to be true Americans, and espouse the cause of humanity against the practice of butchery by Spain.

The Christian Endeavor society will hold a sociable at the residence of Rev. Beattie on south Walter street this evening.

SOME GOOD ONES.
The Horses That Will Race in this City Next Week.
Tommy Tucker, ran twenty-two times in 1927; was first eight times, four times second and five times third. July 3, at Anacostia, Montana, he ran three furlongs in 34 1/2 seconds. The record being 34. In this race he beat Red S, the horse holding the record. October 17, he ran a half mile in 47 1/2 seconds; the record being 47 on a circular course. He has never raced in New Mexico before.

Melody was out twenty-two times last season; won eight races, and was second or third twelve times. August 20, at Kansas City, she ran five furlongs on a heavy track in 1:33 1/2; the Kansas City track being a notoriously slow one. She has never before visited New Mexico.

Boss PDR, a beautiful chestnut mare, imported Dechant, started twelve times last season, winning four times, with three seconds and one third. Her best race was at St. Louis, August 12, when she ran on a heavy track, six furlongs in 1:16. This is her first visit to this territory.

Lady Hurst ran in thirty-one races in '27, winning nine, and finishing second or third, fifteen times. Her best race was at San Francisco, November 9, when she ran a mile and a quarter in 2:59 on a slow track, beating Double Quick, Daylight, Personne and other stake winners. The mare is valued at $10,000, and has never raced on the southwestern or Colorado circuit before.

AT THE CAPITAL.
Harry P. Owen Visits Santa Fe Friends—The Stern Divorce.
Harry P. Owen, of Albuquerque, clerk of the district court, is stopping at the Palace.

Mrs. Stern and sister, Mrs. Sprague, made a flying trip to Albuquerque Saturday night and returned to Santa Fe last night—New Mexican.

Mr. Owen returned to the city on Tuesday night, and was at his duties at the court house, promptly on time yesterday morning. Our popular district court clerk is well known in Santa Fe, where his visits are always made pleasant.

Mrs. Bertha Stern was here on business connected with her divorce case, and was here for an absolute separation from her husband, W. W. Stern, on the ground of failure to support, and she was granted a decree pro confesso on last Monday.

Mrs. Sprague, her sister, accompanied her to this city. The latter lady is from Omaha, Neb., and is a member of the ladies' board of commissioners of the Trans-Mississippi exposition.
