TELLER RESOLUTION

Monetary Discussion in Progress in the Senate.

Senators Stewart and Cannon Speak for the Silver Resolution.

The Chinese at Chee Foo Assassinate a German Sailor.

COLD IN NEW YORK.

Washington, Jan. 28.—Mr. Stewart, of Nevada, opened the last day's discussion of the Teller resolution in the senate. Mr. Stewart maintained that money, whether it be silver, gold or paper, was the creature of the law, the creation of money being inherent in all independent nations. He said this statement had been upheld by the highest of tribunals and cited historical instances of such creation of money. Stewart said, referring to the speech of President McKinley in New York last night, that he regretted to see that the president was utterly misguided. He quoted the following sentence of the president's speech: "Nothing should ever tempt us—nothing ever will tempt us—to scale down the sacred debt of the nation through a legal technicality. Whatever may be the language contract, the United States will discharge all of its obligations in currency recognized as the best throughout the civilized world at the times of payment."

Mr. Stewart thought this a remarkable statement, which meant simply nothing but gold is good enough for the bondholder. "Mr. McKinley," said Mr. Stewart, "calls the option of the government to pay its obligation either in gold or silver—an option worth thousands of millions—a mere technicality."

He thought it unfortunate that the president had placed the treasury department in charge of bankers, but he was glad that the president had thrown off the cloak and made the issue directly with the people.

Mr. Cannon, of Utah, followed in support of the resolution. He criticized the president for attending banquets of millionaires in New York, and declaring in favor of paying the government's obligations in gold in violation of the nation's right to dictate what they should pay.

James, of Arkansas, said the advocates of the resolution proposed to pay the full pound of flesh due, but absolutely not a bit more.

Mr. Burrows, of Michigan, said the republican party was pledged to secure, if possible, international bimetalism and the president would do everything in his power to carry out that pledge. Meantime the existing gold standard should be maintained. The passage of the resolution might alarm the business interests and retard the advance of prosperity, but by the statements of the president last night the country was assured that the government's obligations will be discharged in the best money of the world.

Mr. White, of California, spoke in support of the resolution.

Mr. Wolcott declared that any senator, whatever his financial views, could vote for the Teller resolution, as it involved nothing except carrying into effect the government's plan of obligation. He thought that denunciation and abuse heaped upon those who supported the resolution was unwarranted.

RIOT IN CHINA.

German Soldier Assassinated and Relief Guard Attacked at Chee Foo.

Shanghai, Jan. 28.—A dispatch from Chee Foo gives details of the assassination of a German sailor named Schulz, on outpost duty at Tsinan, Kiao Choo bay. The crime, which was committed by the Chinese rabble on Monday night, was not discovered until three men of the corporals' guard were attacked by a hundred natives, and after a stubborn fight, it is reported that all the sailors were killed. It is believed that the incident will form the basis of further German demands upon China.

Chicago Stock Market.

Chicago, Jan. 28.—Cattle—Receipts, 6,000; market weak to 10 cents lower. Hogs, $3.80@3.90; cows and heifers, $2.25@4.40; stockers and feeders, $3.00@4.40; Texas steers, $3.60@4.45. Sheep—Receipts, 18,000; market steady. Native sheep, $3.00@4.00; westerns, $3.00@4.70; lambs, $4.25@6.00.

Spanish Fleet.

Madrid, Jan. 28.—The Herald says, besides the active squadron which will shortly leave Cadix, four torpedo boats and five torpedo boat destroyers will be sent to guard the coast of Cuba.

Money Market.

New York, Jan. 28.—Money on call, nominally 1½% per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 3@3½.

Silver and Lead.

New York, Jan. 28.—Silver, 56½; Lead, $3.50. Copper, 10½.

Defendants Win.

Justice H. H. Ribble decided the attachment suit of Jeweler H. E. Fox vs. Miles Allen in favor of the defendant; so in the three cases tried the plaintiffs win two and the defendants one. The difference between the last case and the others was

AN ITALIAN SHOT!

The Shooting Town Marshal of Cerrillos Arrested Here.

Mrs. Wyatte Here Last Week, but Kept Under Cover.

Sudden Death of J. L. Murray from Hemorrhage of Lungs.

DISTRICT COURT NEWS.

Sheriff Hubbell received the following telegram from Constable James C. Leahy, of Cerrillos, at 8 o'clock last night: "Head off Carr. Shot a man in Cerrillos. Dressed shabby. Height, five feet and a half. No beard. White hair."

Sheriff Hubbell immediately notified his deputies and the police officers and Officer Glover in a few minutes found Carr near the depot. He was arrested and taken to the county jail to await further orders from Cerrillos.

The story of the shooting, which occurred in Cerrillos Wednesday evening, was published in THE CITIZEN last night.

Mr. Carr was seen at the county jail this morning and the following additional details learned:

Tom Delah, an Italian and a miner at the Ortiz mine had an order on Mr. Western, the foreman of the mine, which his brother, who is a merchant at Cerrillos, had given him to collect. Mr. Western did not have the money to pay over and Delah, who was intoxicated, became wrathful and was going to fight Western when Carr, as marshal, interfered.

Delah then made a play as though he was going to pull a revolver or some other weapon from his hind pocket. Carr then pulled his revolver out of his pocket and in some manner it slipped out of his hand and went off, the bullet passing under Delah's shoulder blade just above the lung. The report that three of Carr's fingers were shot off is a fiction which probably started from the fact that his hand was all covered with blood.

Carr says that he stayed in Cerrillos all day yesterday and asked the sheriff at Santa Fe to arrest him, but that gentleman, hearing the facts in the case, refused to do so.

Carr gives as his reason for leaving Cerrillos that he was afraid that some of the injured man's friends might try to get revenge on him.

Delah was not dangerously wounded and is now rapidly recovering.

Carr expects his family of a wife and two children to arrive in this city tomorrow evening and his intention is to make this his home and work at his trade of a tinner.

The sheriff of Santa Fe county will come down this evening to take Carr with him to Santa Fe.

MRS. L. L. WYATTE.

Was Here Last Week While Creditors Thought Her Dead.

It develops that Mrs. L. L. Wyatte, the erstwhile proprietress of some Beauty parlors in this city, was here while her creditors were trying to reach her in Las Vegas. She came here from Las Vegas last Thursday night and secured a room at the Golden Rule rooming house, where she remained until Saturday night when she left saying that she was going to Gallup.

During her recent brief stay she contracted some more debt which she failed to square up before leaving. Her stay in this city was evidently not for the purpose of calling upon or being seen by her creditors. She fled from her room during the day and remained in her room and only ventured forth after darkness had settled down upon the earth.

Last Saturday afternoon she called upon Clegghorn, the proprietor of the Golden Rule rooming house, and told him that she had just received word that she had lost $3,000, and that she was left with only 40 cents in the world. This distressed condition of her finances made it impossible for her to pay for her room, but she promised to remit as soon as she reached Gallup. As she had no other baggage with her than her little hand satchel, she was permitted to depart. Forgetfulness, however, seems to be her special weakness, and she has again neglected to keep her promise to pay after she got away.

Why she came here, or whom she called on during her last visit, is not known.

ELKS ON A PILGRIMAGE.

New Mexico Gives a Royal Reception to New Visitors.

A special dispatch to the Denver Republican from Raton, under date of January 26, says:

A special car with twenty-seven members of the Order of Elks, from Denver, Pueblo, Leadville, Colorado Springs and Victor, were met here by a committee of the band at Springer, Wagon Mound and Watrous. They were saluted with the firing of guns, and at Las Vegas their arrival was heralded with the roar of cannon. New Mexico will entertain the Colorado visitors royally during their stay in the territory.

Locomotive Building.

Did you ever see a locomotive put together? If not now is your chance. Come to the Congregational church next Sunday evening and see the Kudeavores build one. The occasion will be the seventeenth anniversary of Christian Reformation and known as "Reformation Day." The service promises to be very unique and interesting, and all are cordially invited to come and bring a friend.

The Meeting Last Night.

The stockholders of the Co-operative Building and Loan association held a meeting at the office of Secretary Whiting last night, and quite a large member-

AGAIN ON FIRE!

The Johnson Canyon Tunnel a Mass of Flames.

No Fatalities Reported as the Result of this Fire.

An Old War Claim Before the House of Representatives.

ENGLISH ENGINEERS STRIKE HERE.

Special to The Citizen.

Williams, Arizona, Jan. 28.—Shortly after 11 o'clock last night, the tunnel at Johnson's canyon was ready once more for the passage of trains, when the timbers again caught fire from the heated limestone and spread with such rapidity that in an incredibly short space of time the whole tunnel was a raging mass of flames, mounting high in the air at both ends of the tunnel, and with such intense heat that the workmen could not approach. Work cannot be again resumed until the flames have spent themselves, which may several days. Fortunately there were no workmen in the tunnel at the time and no fatalities are reported as in the former burning.

An Old Claim.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The house today resumed discussion of the bill to reimburse the book publishing company of the Methodist Episcopal church for $288,000 damages sustained during the war. It was arranged that a vote be taken at four o'clock.

Bill for relief of the Methodist Book Publishing company passed the house 188 to 67.

Strike Ended.

London, Jan. 28.—A meeting of committee representing the federated employees and allied trades union has resulted in a ballot accepting the employers' terms, thus ending the engineers' strike.

She is at Gallup.

A gentleman called at this office this afternoon and stated that Mrs. L. L. Wyatte, who has failed to keep her promise to pay or even write to her Albuquerque creditors, was at Gallup.

THE MAZE.

WM. KIRKE, Proprietor.

The event of the season will take place this evening at the Armory. Nothing has been left undone which will contribute to the pleasure of those who attend. THE CITIZEN reporter had a glimpse of the hall this afternoon and it is impossible to recognize the place since the skillful fingers and artistic ideas of the ladies have been brought to bear on its bare walls. The poster pictures and Indian rugs make a pleasing sight. Dancing will begin promptly at 8 o'clock, and at 11:30 refreshments will be served.

Foreman Trimble, of the Albuquerque

Howe company, No. 2, informs this paper that one of the big events of the season will be the ball of his company at the Armory on Monday evening, Feb. 21. He appointed several first-class committees, and they are working harmoniously together to make the forthcoming ball a grand success.

J. P. Lantz, grand secretary of the New Mexico Odd Fellows, who has been on a visit to the lodge north of the city, returned last night and reports having had a very successful, profitable visit.

John Carroll, the sheep and wool buyer of Gross, Blackwell & Co's extensive establishment, came in from Las Vegas last night and is around among his Albuquerque friends to-day.

Hon. Frank W. Clancy, one of Albuquerque's best attorneys, returned from Santa Fe last night, where he had been on important legal matters.

Daniel Cassidy has been appointed postmaster at Cleveland, Mora county, on the recommendation of the board of referees.

W. E. Martin, the territorial coal oil inspector, was at Sturges' European last night from Socorro, returning south this morning.

Albert Schütz, the El Paso merchant, has his name on the register at Sturges' European.

Tickets to the Library ball this evening are $1 each, including supper and dancing.

Give us your order for poultry to-morrow at the Fish Market.

Candied eggs, twenty cents per dozen, at the Fish Market.

Liver cheese. Have you tried it? San Jose Market.

SHIP OF THE COMPANY WAS PRESENT.

The following directors were elected for the ensuing year: J. C. Baldridge, D. H. Bonbright, M. Flournoy, R. P. Hall, W. Hensslein, W. Kieke, W. W. Strong, and Calvin Whiting. The directors then held a meeting and re-elected the following officers: R. P. Hall, president; W. Hensslein, vice president; M. W. Flournoy, treasurer; Calvin Whiting, secretary; Collier & Marron were elected the attorneys of the company.

The Library Ball.

This evening, at the Armory, will occur the "Poster" ball given by the Albuquerque Public Library association. The ladies have made a great effort to make the evening enjoyable to all who attend. The special attraction, aside from the dancing, will be the display of pictures, which have been prepared from the east for the occasion. Some of these are life size and beautiful in design and coloring, as well as unique. The poster programs have been beautifully gotten up and will attract much attention.

The music for the dancing will be furnished by Prof. W. Mauro's orchestra. An evening is in store for those who attend of delightful music, beautiful pictures, a dainty and delicious supper, charming conversation and a thoroughly good time.

The committee are: Reception—Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Field, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Clancy, Dr. and Mrs. F. P. Leary, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Childers, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Keen, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. D. Bryan.

Floor—Messrs. Newhall, Cruise, Bliss, Marron and Frost.

J. L. MURRAY DEAD.

Died From Hemorrhage Last Night—A True Christian.

J. L. Murray died at his room on North Arco street last night from a hemorrhage, the second one within a week. He had a very severe hemorrhage last Friday and seemed to be recovering from it until he was taken with the second one last night. The first hemorrhage was probably caused by a strain, as the young man had been improving in health for some time and was increasing in weight.

Mr. Murray came to New Mexico from Woodstock, Ontario, about two years ago with Rev. Mr. Craig, the synodical missionary of the Presbyterian church. He resided in Santa Fe for some months when he removed to this city. Rev. Mr. Menaul gave him a position at the Presbyterian church. He was very acceptable for about one year. He was also president of the Christian Endeavor society and assistant superintendent of the Presbyterian Sabbath school. He joined the Guards last summer and was elected to the position of secretary.

He would have been 30 years old next March and was a young man who possessed in a great degree the power of attracting friends. He was a true Christian gentleman and showed it in his words and acts.

A. W. Hayden, with whom Mr. Murray roomed, received a telegram from Andrew Mackay, Woodstock, Ontario, asking him to ship the body there. The intention is to hold funeral services in the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when the societies to which he belonged will attend in a body. The remains will be shipped Sunday night.

Rev. Mr. Craig has been telegraphed and is expected here to-morrow night. The deceased was a cousin of Dr. Ruthland of this city.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

Personal and General Paragraphs Picked Up Here and There.

The Loyal Temperance league will meet at the Kindergarten rooms to-morrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

A regular meeting of Adah Chapter No. 3, O. E. S., will be held this evening at Masonic hall. By order of worthy matron. Nellie M. Butler, Sec.

Ed. Hart, of Gallup, received a telegram yesterday that his brother, Harry Hart, was dying at Elizabethtown, N. M. The Gallup brother passed through the city on his way to Elizabethtown last night.

The president of the school board, R. E. Putney, informs THE CITIZEN that the question of properly heating the schools had attention, and that he is now of the opinion that no more trouble will be had in that direction.

F. F. Trotter and wife, of this city, called on James A. May and wife at Sturges' European yesterday afternoon. Messrs Trotter and May are old friends of many years and the meeting yesterday was a very pleasant one. Mr. and Mrs. May will continue to flagstaff this evening.

Hon. Pedro Perea, of Bernalillo, a friend of every small farmer along the Rio Grande valley and who bring their produce to our merchants and flour mills, came in from the north last night. He reports the Pueblo Indians at the village of San Felipe quiet and peaceful, waiting the decision of Judge Crumpecker in the ditch injunction case.

The funeral of Frank J. Garrett, whose remains, accompanied by Mrs. Garrett, were brought here last night from Kirksville, Mo., for burial, took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon at Mortimer's undertaking parlors. Rev. Mr. Beattie conducted the funeral services. The deceased was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and carried $1500 insurance in the Mutual Life Insurance company of Ohio.

Donatiano Gallegos, the general merchant at Pena Blanca, called at this office to-day in company with Amado C. de Baca, and stated that the report published in THE CITIZEN of Jan. 22, coming from Thornton about himself and a Chinaman, was entirely untrue. Mr. Gallegos says that he had been giving the Chinaman credit, and he called upon him for a settlement and the bill was paid without any trouble whatever.

Last night, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Keen, an informal reception was held in honor of their guests, Governor and Mrs. M. A. Otero, and there were present quite a number of ladies and gentlemen. The governor and his estimable wife have many warm friends in the metropolis, and they can always count on having a splendid time while in the city. They will attend the Library ball this evening at the Armory.

A freight train broke in two and several cars were wrecked on the division north of this city, sometime yesterday. The wreck was cleared away, and in consequence the trains from the north reached the city on time last night.

Ambrosio Gingrass is being prosecuted for assault and battery on Veneranda Chaves before Justice Ribble this afternoon. Attorney Donatiano Chaves is prosecuting and Judge Heacock defending.

The fourth annual social by the Young Ladies' Library association of the Catholic church will be held at Armory hall on Monday night, Feb. 14. Tickets, admitting gentleman and lady, $1.

The handsome artist at the Oak barber shop is George Miller, and he arrived a few days ago from Denver. He is well pleased with this city, and will probably remain here permanently.

Deputy Sheriff Newcomer will go out to Gallup this evening to get a prisoner. The finest and largest oysters in town can be had at the San Jose Market.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

H. Hartman and wife, from Carbondale, Kan., are at the Highland.

Miss May Dickinson, of Orange, New Jersey, is among the late arrivals at the Highland.

C. E. Van Fossen, of Winslow, is at Sturges' European. He is a well-known railroader.

W. M. Clayton, of the Bradstreet's agency, is on a business trip to the towns north of this city.

Phillip Muhr, wife and children, of Philadelphia, have their names on the register at the Highland house.

Capt. Sandoval, deputy county jailer, who was at Santa Fe on a visit, returned to his duties in old town last night.

Traveling auditor for the Santa Fe, A. L. Conrad, spent last night at the Highland, and is to-day attending to official business in the city.

Louis Huning, the Valencia county stock raiser, came in from the south last night to remain several days with his family, who are now occupying the Ferguson house in old town.

S. K. Young, the popular southwestern agent of the Home Comfort Flange company, came in from the south, presumably El Paso, last night, and, it is said, continued on north to Denver.

Thomas Bates, who takes measures for A. E. Anderson & Co., the big Chicago tailors, arrived last night from the north, and has a fine line of samples at the clothing store of Simon Stern on Railroad avenue.

Ex-Governor L. Bradford Prince, of Santa Fe, came in from the north last night and has his name on the register at the Grand Central. He is here on legal matters and also to look up an interest in the Trans-Mississippi exposition at Omaha.

B. A. Sleyser, the real estate and insurance agent, was in Santa Fe yesterday on business connected with his company, returning to the city last night. Before he reached home, however, he received a dispatch calling him back to the capital, and in answer thereto, he returned north on the delayed No. 2 last night.
