DIRECTED TO DEPART.

President Chavez and Speaker Fountain Notified to Leave Town.

But They Will Stay Here—"One of the Death Committee" Probably Identified.

A DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

"JANUARY 11."

"Will give you thirty-six miles to leave town."

[Signed.]

"ONE OF THE DEATH COMMITTEE."

Col. J. Frank Chavez and Col. Albert J. Fountain, president and speaker of the senate and house, each received epistles as above through the mail this morning. The notice was well written, though, evidently, in a disguised hand. It is understood that the writer of the above is well known, and that the evidence is being worked up to bring him to justice and send him to the penitentiary.

In the mean time, it is timely to remark that Col. Chavez and Fountain saw four years active service during the war and participated in several bloody Indian campaigns, and are not easily scared.

SENATE.

FRIDAY'S AFTERNOON SESSION.

When the senate went into session yesterday afternoon, upon motion of Mr. Rodery, the rules were ordered printed in English and Spanish.

Mr. Fort introduced C. B. No. 46, "An act to amend section 1878 of the Compiled Laws of New Mexico." Read the first and second times and referred to the judiciary committee.

Mr. Rodery introduced C. B. No. 47, entitled, "An act for the protection of discharged employees, and to prevent blacklisting." Read the first and second times, and on motion of Mr. Perea referred to the committee on agriculture and manufacture.

Mr. Rodery introduced C. B. No. 48, entitled, "An act relating to guarantee companies." Read the first time.

Mr. Pritchard moved that the bills be read the second time by title. Adopted.

Mr. Perea moved that the bill be referred to the judiciary committee. Adopted.

Mr. Perea stated that he had some very important business to attend to tomorrow, and asked that he be excused from the session to-morrow.

Mr. Pritchard moved that Mr. Perea be excused. Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Perea, the council at 4:15 p. m. adjourned to 10 a. m.

TO-DAY'S SESSION.

The senate proceeding of yesterday were approved on motion of Mr. Pritchard, and Mr. Jaramillo, by unanimous consent, introduced C. B. No. 49. This bill repeals the law passed February 24, 1887, to pay the judges of New Mexico $1,800 a year each in addition to the United States pay.

Read the first time. The rules were suspended, and read the second time by title.

Mr. Jaramillo moved that the bill be referred to the judiciary committee.

Mr. Perea announced that the United States sent out judges without consulting New Mexico. The judges knew what the pay was when they accepted the positions. If the salary paid by the United States was not sufficient for them, there was no law in New Mexico to compel them to remain here. The bill would save the territory about $8,000 a year. According to the message of the governor the costs of the courts were over $100,000 a year more than the whole revenue of the territory. It is time to begin to reduce the costs of the courts.

Mr. Perea moved that the bill be referred to the finance committee.

Mr. Jaramillo accepted the amendment offered by Mr. Perea. The bill, one directly referring to the finances of the territory, was by vote ordered referred to the finance committee, of which Mr. Perea is chairman.

Mr. Dolan introduced the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we indorse the actions of the people of New Mexico in their attempt through their convention, to be held to-day, to promote the admission of this territory into the union of states.

Resolved, That we hereby urge upon congress the immediate enactment of a law enabling New Mexico to frame and adopt a constitution and its immediate admission as a state.

The advisability of taking such a step at this time was discussed, and it was agreed, on motion of Mr. Pritchard, to defer action on the above until Monday next.

Mr. Fort, by unanimous consent, introduced C. B. No. 50, entitled, "An act fixing the costs and fees in justice courts. Read the first time by title, the rules were suspended, and the bill was read the second time by title.

On motion of Mr. Catron the bill was referred to the judiciary committee.

Mr. Fort, by unanimous consent, introduced C. B. No. 51, entitled, "An act in relation to crediting persons for liquors and games." This bill prohibits any person that credits any person for liquors of any kind, wholesale or retail, or for games, from collecting any pay for the same by law. Read the first time by title, the rules were suspended, and the bill was read the second time by title.

On motion of Mr. Catron the bill was referred to the judiciary committee.

The president laid before the council a memorial from about seventy citizens of the town of Belen and vicinity, praying for the passage of a law to prevent hogs running at large at all times of the year.

On motion of Mr. Pritchard the memorial was referred to the committee on agriculture and manufacture.

Mr. Perea stated that owing to the important convention for a state for New Mexico being held to-day, he moved that the council adjourn to Monday at 10 a. m. Adopted.

Adjourned to 10 a. m. on Monday.

HOUSE.

TO-DAY'S SESSION.

The house having assembled, the house went into committee of the whole on H. B. No. 15, to prohibit blacklisting of discharged employees, that bill having been made the special order for the day. Mr. Foster occupied the chair, and after some consideration of the measure the committee arose and reported progress, and the matter went over till Monday.

C. B. No. 31, relating to the pay of clerks in the 25th assembly was taken from the speaker's table on motion of Mr. Foster.

The council having failed to concur in the house amendment, adding a substitute therefor, the house decided to adhere to its original amendment, and refused to accept the council's substitute.

On motion of Mr. Romero a conference committee was appointed, composed of Messrs. Romero, Foster and Montoya. Adjourned to 10 a. m. on Monday.

ROUND ABOUT TOWN.

Mr. H. H. Pierce, editor of the Lincoln County Independent, is here a delegate to the statehood convention.

Mayor B. F. Hobart, a prominent and progressive citizen of Las Vegas, came down on yesterday from Las Vegas to attend the statehood convention.

The ice harvest began to-day. Unless the weather becomes colder within ten days the ice men say the crop promises to be rather lighter than usual.

Hon. E. S. Stover, one of the delegates to the statehood convention, is up from Albuquerque. He is a mighty good citizen and strongly in favor of statehood.

Local educators are invited by Mr. Foster, chairman of the house educational committee, to present to that body their respective views on the public school question.

Hon. Jose L. Perea, the efficient sheriff of Bernalillo county, who has just been re-elected and given an excellent bond, amounting to $140,000, is in the city on business.

Col. N. Grayson, of Sierra county, one of the leading citizens of the territory, arrived in the city this morning and will represent Sierra county at the statehood convention.

Mr. E. S. Raunheim, the efficient superintendent of the San Pedro works was in the city on yesterday. He reports everything quiet and moving along well at the great copper camp.

Chas. Hafner, formerly connected with the 12th infantry band, has come back to Santa Fe and will make his permanent home here. Charlie is an enterprising citizen in any community.

Geo. Draughon opened the cash box in his fancy weigh scales yesterday and took out the snug sum of 800 nickels. Parties desiring small change can find accommodations at Headquarters.

The taking of testimony in the Taos county senatorial contest of J. P. Romero vs Alex. Gussdorf, is in progress at the capitol. Mr. Twitchell appears for the contestant and Mr. Victory for Gussdorf.

The senate bills to prohibit blacklisting of discharged employees and, to limit the powers of foreign guarantee corporations on measures that are attracting much attention from employees of all sorts and grades.

Carleton post reading room and library, over Ireland's drug store, is now open every evening, save Sunday, and is well lighted and comfortably warm. Old soldiers and the public generally are invited to visit the room.

Plat of township 23 north, range 22 east, in which Colmar station on the Santa Fe railroad is located, will be filed February 11 in the Santa Fe land office, after which time actual settlers on land in that township will be allowed ninety days to make their filings.

Antone Fink & Co. have opened a fine meat market at Crowell's old stand near the southeast corner of the plaza. They deserve a fair share of the patronage. Mr. Fink says he has put his own cash into this business, and all tales to the contrary are without foundation.

Mr. W. A. Rankin, brewer and ice man at Albuquerque, is visiting Santa Fe and taking an interest in the state question. He is a pioneer of Kansas and Colorado, and in 1891 he passed through Santa Fe from California gulch, Colorado, en route to Arizona, on a good prospecting trip.

At the Methodist Episcopal church to-morrow there will be the usual service at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., and Sunday school at 10 a. m. Class meeting after morning service; prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30, and class meeting Friday evening at the same hour. All are cordially invited to these services.

Type, a Challenge job press, a Washington hand press and other necessary material for the new weekly paper to be issued by Messrs. Montoya and Salazar arrived yesterday. They will shortly begin the publication of a Spanish weekly and will probably follow this up by issuing also a weekly paper in English.

For the first time in years Santa Fe is now importing celery. The supply is of a very inferior order compared to the home grown article, and comes high from Kalamazoo. It is a pity that our gardeners do not pay more attention to this excellent. It can be produced here for less money and of a far better quality than at any point in the country, and instead of importing it Santa Fe should export tons of it annually.

Senator Catron, who is chairman of the judiciary and several other important committees, is not particular or any way selfish about presenting the reports, but permits other members of the judiciary committee to present about as many reports from the judiciary committee as he presents himself. Yet he entered a positive protest when Mr. Fort proposed to amend a report made by him, though he had no objection to the senator offering his amendment to the bill when that came before the council.

To-morrow being the 1st Sunday in epiphany, the services in the church of the Holy Faith will be as follows: The eucharist at 7:30 a. m.; matins, litany and ante communion office with sermon at 11 a. m. Subject of sermon the "Sanitary Order of Human Life." The seats in this church are not appropriated, being free to all, and to everybody is gladly extended the privilege of attendance at public worship. The priest in charge urges upon church people the duty of being present at the public services, and warns them against the omission of this duty, not to be omitted except for very urgent cause, reminding them that to refuse to commit a sin is better than repentance afterward.

A Good Ruling.

New York, Jan. 11.—Supreme court today rendered a decision against the sugar trust in a suit brought by the state against North River Sugar Refinery Co. to forfeit its charter on the ground that it had virtually passed out of existence by selling out its stock to the sugar trust and closing up its works.

SATURDAY SALAD.

"NEVER WILL BE MISSED."

(A burlesque.)

Written for the New Mexican.

It was a darksome winter's night.

The sky was overcast;

Wild shrieked the storm-flood in the trees,

And fierce blew the blast.

A window overshadowed by

An elm, now gone and bare,

Alone in solemn silence I

Sat meditating there.

Across the firmament there flashed

Currents of deadly light,

The thunder rolls burst with a roar

From the bosom of the night.

Oh, love! what is that mocking voice

From out the driving mist?

"Ha, ha!" it laughs, "I got him,

I got him on the list."

I understood and bowed my head,

But still the voice kept on,

"Ha, ha! I got him on the list

And he will soon be gone."

Avast! that demon of the night,

Quit mocking I insist!

"Ha, ha," replied the rattling devil,

"He never will be missed."

My troubled spirit sank—a swoon—

I felt a tender kiss:

I heard my angel fondly say,

"Oh, love, I will miss thee."

Contented, and in dreamland saw

Where she and I together whiled

The happy hours away. —T. J. GLYNN.

FOR STATEHOOD.

A Lively Meeting Last Night for the Election of Delegates.

An enthusiastic crowd of citizens attended the mass meeting at the court house last night. Major M. A. Brecken called the meeting to order, and Hon. T. B. C. Cron was called to the chair amid applause, and he spoke in emphatic terms in favor of making a general demand for the admission of New Mexico to statehood. He said the people of the territory had suffered too much at the hands of the federal government; that our values had been decreased, our immigration too much retarded by such treatment for us to take any further chances on the question of admission; we must unite and make a firm demand for justice. As citizens desiring fair play, as a people desiring the right to control our own affairs, we think we stand equal to any state, and we are entitled to the same rights, said Mr. Catron; "we think we have sufficient intelligence; we know we have sufficient morality; we have the wealth, and we now demand admission," said he in conclusion.

Benjamin M. Read and Geo. H. Cross were chosen secretaries and Major J. D. Sena interpreter.

ment of five to select delegates, which was adopted, and the chair named Messrs. S. W. Fisher, Antonio Ortiz y Salazar, M. Castillo, J. B. Ortiz and M. A. Brecken.
