On Nov. 4, deputy Agriculture Secretary Ernesto Enriquez Rubio said in Mexicali, Baja California state, that the federal government will provide 80 billion pesos (US$25 million) to help producers market cottonseed. Rodriguez Rubio made the comments during a tour of the cotton areas in Baja California. He also said federal and state governments have provided a total of 8 billion pesos (US$2.5 million) to fight the white fly, which has infested some cotton fields in the area.
