On Nov. 10, Carlos Jimenez Macias, an official of the Federation of Government Employees (Federacion de Sindicatos de Trabajadores al Servicio del Estado, FSTSE), warned that federal workers will seek a salary increase if businesses continue to raise their prices. Macias, also a senator from San Luis Potosi state and a member of the Institutional Revolutionary Party (PRI), said employers and workers alike should honor their agreement through the Economic Stability and Growth Pact (PECE) to limit requests for increases in wages and prices. The FSTSE represents 2 million government workers. (Source: Notimex, 11/10/92)
