PEACE PROPOSALS BELEVED TO BE IN PROGRESS IN MEXICO

Rebel Agents Claim Envoy
From Madero is Enroute
North with View to Opening Negotiations with Insurrectos

NO PROPOSITION IN WRITING ACCEPTABLE

All Interests of Republic Expected to Participate in Parley Which is to be Held on Neutral Ground.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] El Paso, Sept. 30.—Negotiations for peace, begun some time ago between the federal government and rebels operating in the north of Mexico, have met approval in the first step, according to rebel representatives here.
It was said today that Antonio P.
Mazana, who left El Paso a week ago with an offering from the rebels for a peace conference, has met with favorable reception by President Ma-dadero. Mazana, for a second time, is on the way from Mexico City to El Paso, say the rebel agents, to continue the treaties here.

Mazana is president of a political club of Mexico, and it was said, came here at the instigation of the Mexican president. His return on a second visit is deemed full proof that the federal government seriously considers entering into a peace pact, if the rebels offer favorable terms for their part.

Colonel Gomez Roldan, agent in the United States of General Pascual Garcera, is acting as the revolution agent in the treaties. It is said that the Mexican government would permit no preliminary treaties, in writing or by telegraph or mail, but only through the verbal agency of Mazana.
Roldan's plan, which it is said had been accepted, was to hold a conference between four elements, the revolution, the government, the military and the civilian. It was said this was made in answer to a query from Madero as to what plan for treaties would be acceptable to the rebels. The conference probably would be held on neutral soil on the frontier.

MEXICAN SOLDIERS MUST KEEP OUT OF TEXAS.

Austin, Tex., Sept. 30.—Governor Colquhoun has withdrawn permission for Mexican troops to march from Marathon, Tex., to another point on the border over Texas soil. He announced today he does not care to take the risk.

The governor sent this message to the secretary of state at Washington:
"Concerning the moving of Mexican troops through Texas from Eagle Pass to Del Rio and Marathon, my adjutant general calls attention to the fact that it will be a seventy-mile march over rough territory from Marathon. I desire to withdraw my consent for the passage of these troops through Texas until I am advised more fully with reference to their movement. This march of seventy miles through the territory referred to will invite difficulties which I do not want to occur in Texas."

COLQUHOUN'S OBJECTION CARRIES NO AUTHORITY.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Even if it would have had any effect, the objection of Governor Colquhoun, of Texas, to the transfer of Mexican troops through a portion of that state under permission accorded by the secretary of state, probably will come to naught.

General Schover today was ordered to furnish a proper escort and see the Mexican troops safely through the Texas territory covered by the permission.

Officials here do not concede the right of any state authority to prevent the free movement of United States troops, nor their performance of such an international obligation as that imposed upon General Schover by the state department in this case.

REBELS HOLD BATTLE NEAR ARMY OF FEDERAL.

Juarez, Sept. 30.—News that rebels near Madero held a grand battle Sunday night within a few miles of Federal troops was the most startling news today from the Casas Grandes district, recently infested by revolutionists from Sonora. Federal numbers 350 have been sent from the state capital to reinforce the garrison at Madero, an American lumbering town. Bridges burned along the Mexico Northwestern railway have been repaired and traffic was resumed today. Rebels can cut easily any part of the line a second time as federal troops are only held in the towns along the railroad.

REBELS REPULSED BY FEDERALS IN SONORA.

Cabanos, Mex., Sept. 30.—Yaqui Indians attacked, to raid the ranch of Governor Maytola, of Sonora, in the Guaymas district. Rebels were repulsed by federal volunteers, says a report received here today. In the fight between Mexican rebels and defenders of the town of Cucupet the rebels were beaten and lost a number of prisoners, dead and wounded. Aljandro Vela, the rebel general, reported to have been a victim of "La Ley Fuga," is reported to have arrived safely at Hermosillo, the state capital, and to be held prisoner.

TWO MEXICAN OFFICERS CAUGHT IN NEW MEXICO

El Paso, Sept. 30.—Two Mexican rebel officers took a horseback ride into the United States and were arrested promptly by American soldiers stationed near Hachita, N. M., where they were held today pending advices from El Paso. They evidently had lost their way and, wandering over the international line, were given chase by the United States troops.

Although armed, the men offered no resistance. According to the report received by General Steever, one of the prisoners is Major Escarate, chief of staff of the rebel army of General Inez Salazar, and the other named Fuentes, adjutant general of Salazar's forces.

FEDERALS MOVE AGAINST FORCE OF 100 REBELS

Nogales, Ariz., Sept. 30.—A force of 400 rebels is reported at Nogales, on the Southern Pacific of Mexico, below this point. Federals on a troop train moving south were dismounted at Agua Zarca and are moving against the rebels.

BINGHAM STRIKERS MAY RETURN TO THEIR WORK

Report is Current That 150 Japanese Are to be Replaced on Pay Roll at Once; Others May Follow Quickly.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Bingham, Utah, Sept. 30.—It was reported this afternoon that 150 Japanese laborers were to be replaced upon the pay roll of the Utah Copper Company tomorrow. This was taken to mean that a settlement was looked for. J. D. Shilling, superintendent of the Utah Copper Company, declined to discuss the question, declaring he knew nothing about it.

There were about 250 Japanese laborers in the employ of the company before the strike, but many have left the district and it is said that the action of the company will tend to hold the remainder of the camp.

The carpenters held an informal meeting this afternoon to consider going back to work. The consensus of opinion among the carpenters, is not to go back until the trouble is settled.

STRIKE PROBABLE AT ELY MINES AND MILLS

Ely, Nev., Sept. 30.—The labor situation here tonight is critical, and it is the general opinion that a strike of all men employed in the mining industry in this district will be called not later than tomorrow unless the operators agree to recognize the union and grant the increase in wages asked for last week. The operators declare that a majority of their employees are satisfied with the voluntary raise of 25 cents a day, effective tomorrow, and refuse to meet with any committee from the labor unions to discuss the situation. The labor union officials are equally firm in their stand and say that the increase granted will not be accepted.

The local unions at Hilepound and Metz held a meeting tonight, but their action was not made known.
Charles H. Meyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, is directing the affairs for the miners' union, and said tonight that if a strike is called the steam shovel men and switchmen on ore trains would leave their work. Should the men go out it would cut off the ore supply for the mills and tie up every branch of the industry in the district.

Managers of the Nevada Consolidated Mining Company, issued a statement tonight in which he said that a majority of his employees were against a strike.

WAR NOW CERTAIN BETWEEN BALKAN STATES AND TURKEY

Servian Minister Quits Constantinople and Armies Are Mobilizing for Hostilities to Open.

BULGARIANS JOIN SISTER KINGDOM

Mohammedan Cruelties, Inflicted Upon Christians in Macedonia, Lead to Demand for Autonomy.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
St. Petersburg, Sept. 30.—The mobilization of the armies of Bulgaria, Servia and Greece probably will mean immediate war, according to the belief in political circles here. The nature of Turkey's military activities in the last few days is taken to mean that she intends to make war.

The opinion is held here that action of the Balkan states has resulted from the inability of the powers to deal with the situation. It is understood Russia has taken an adequate view of the crisis and has proposed the radical remedy of putting into effect article 23 of the treaty of Berlin, providing for introduction in the European provinces of Turkey of a statute giving a means of self government under a provincial governor-general controlled by the powers.

Russia's proposal was communicated to Turkey by M. De-Giers, the ambassador to Austrian-Hungary. Great Britain showed herself willing to talk reforms in Macedonia without committing herself to anything definite. France's answer is due tomorrow and her attitude is expected to be still more conservative, being dictated, mainly by considerations of finance.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Belgrade, Servia, Sept. 30.—Serbia tonight is preparing for war. General mobilization of the army was ordered today, and within twenty-four hours, it is believed in official circles, the nation will be ready to meet Turkey in a death-struggle for control of the Balkans.

The capital is seething with excitement. At a late hour tonight the streets were still filled with eager crowds, among which there was a liberal sprinkling of uniformed servants of their way to the railway stations to join the colors. For weeks, the public has clamored for war with Turkey, and news of the order to mobilize the army was received with general rejoicing.

According to newspaper reports, the Servian minister to Turkey, Dr.
Nenadovic, has left Constantinople for Belgrade.

From Sofia news came today that the mobilization of the Bulgarian army had been ordered, and that Turkish troops were concentrated near Adrianople, on the border. The Turkish government, according to dispatches from Constantinople, has called out 100,000 reservists.

For weeks a clash between the Balkan states and Turkey has been imminent. The revolt in Albania, with repeated reports of outrages upon Christians by Turkish troops, has inflamed the Balkan states. The recent note to Turkey in which Servia and Bulgaria joined in a demand that Macedonia be granted autonomy, brought matters to a crisis. As always in Balkan politics, the attitude of Russia and Austria is of vital importance.

TURKS SEND FORCE TO ISLE OF SAMOS

Constantinople, Sept. 30.—Turkish reinforcements were landed on the island of Samos today, but because of the armistice between the authorities and the insurgents, active operations have been suspended for the present.

The Montenegrin government today tendered its excuses to the Ottoman charge d'affaires at Cetinje for the recent attack by Montenegrins on a Turkish ammunition convoy on the shores of Lake Scutari. The arrest and punishment of the aggressors has been promised.

A definite issue to the Turco-Italian peace negotiations is expected in the course of a few days.

WAR SITUATION ACUTE IN BALKAN STATES

London, Sept. 30.—The Balkan dis-sentiments have developed with alarming rapidity to a point where only a spark is needed to set the whole of southeastern Europe aflame. Three of the Balkan states by common consent have ordered the simultaneous mobilization of their armies and are making every preparation for immediate hostilities.

ROOSEVELT GETS POSTMISTRESS AND LIVELY TIME IN TENNESSEE MEETING

Colonel Assails Republican Governor Before Taft Audience and is Mercilessly Heckled by Crowd.

TAKES "THOU SHALT NOT STEAL" AS TEXT

Bull Moose is Given "Middling Lively Time" by Men Who Vigorously Disapprove of His Remarks.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 30.—A 10-minute crowd gave Colonel Roosevelt what he described as a "middling lively time" here today. Men scattered through the crowd heckled him as in Atlanta last Saturday and succeeded in raising an uproar which for a time drowned out any attempt on Colonel Roosevelt's part to go on with his speech.

"I am plowing my faith," he shouted, when the noise had partially subsided, "to the commandment, 'Thou shalt not steal.' The crowd cheered.
"Wait a minute," Colonel Roosevelt said impatiently. "I had not intended to speak of Mr. Hooper, but as you wish to have me speak of him I will come here to speak against the theft of the republican nomination. You people who shout 'Hurrah for Hooper,' are you going to say 'Down with the eighth commandment?' There were cries of 'No, no!'"

"Well then I say," the colonel continued, "that theft of a purse is no more than the theft of a nomination.
I hold that noisy acclamation of theft does nothing, but paint the character of the man who makes the noise."

As Colonel Roosevelt resumed his speech, the cries of "Hooper" were renewed.

"Very well, gentlemen," said the colonel, "I've got all this afternoon."
Colonel Roosevelt said Governor Wilson had declared himself in favor of limitation of the powers of government and by that declaration had placed himself in opposition to proposals for progressive legislation. He was interrupted by cries of "Hurrah for Wilson."

"Then hurrah for abolishing any law that limits the power of the sweat shop owners over women," he shouted back.

OIL STOCKS OWNED BY ROCKEFELLER GROW RAPIDLY

George W. Stahl, Brother-in-Law of Archibald, Shows How John D.'s Shares Automatically Increase.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Chicago, Sept. 30.—George W.
Stahl, brother-in-law of John D.
Archibald, and secretary-treasurer of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, was the chief witness today at the resumption of the legal fight between
H. Clay Pierce of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company of St. Louis, and the Rockefeller interests.

Counsel for Mr. Pierce devoted the entire day to efforts to prove that John D. Rockefeller, John D. Archibold and other important men in the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, still own and control the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, despite the dissolution order of the United States supreme court.

Beginning with a date in December, 1911, Mr. Stahl was questioned closely regarding all directors' meetings of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana.
He said that a board of five directors, who personally owned but seven shares of stock in the Indiana corporation, voted 8,000 proxies when the capital stock of the concern was increased from $17,000,000 to $20, 000,000.

"No, I never thought of consulting Mr. Rockefeller in the matter," said Mr. Stahl, in reply to a question. "I have not seen Mr. Rockefeller for fifteen years," he continued. "We did not pay any attention to him at all."

"How were Mr. Rockefeller's holdings in the Standard Oil Company of Indiana affected by the increased capitalization?" Mr. Stahl was asked.

Mr. Rockefeller owned 2,482 shares in the company when it was capitalized at $1,000,000. When the capital was increased to $20,000,000, he automatically became holder of 74,000 shares. The additional stock was voted to stockholders just in the same manner that a dividend would be declared.

POSTMISTRESS AND BUSINESS MAN SHOT BY WOMAN TELEGRAPHER

Ricardo, Guadalupe County, Scene of Double Tragedy, Motive for Which is Believed to Have Been Revenge.

NEIGHBORHOOD FEUD ENDS IN MURDER

One Victim Dead, Other Dying; Slayer is in Jail at Santa Rosa, Awaiting Preliminary Hearing.

[Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.] Santa Rosa, N. M., Sept. 30.—The arrival here today in the custody of deputy sheriffs of Mrs. J. E. Carley, right telegraph operator for the Santa Fe Railway Company at Ricardo, Vaughn and Fort Sumner, brought the first details of a double tragedy at Ricardo, Saturday afternoon, in which George Brishingham, a business man, was shot and killed by Mrs. Carley, and Miss Cora Zimmerman, postmistress at Ricardo, probably fatally wounded. Mrs. Carley is now a prisoner in the county jail here, held without bail.

The tragedy, which claimed the life of Brishingham and may also cost the life of Miss Zimmerman, was the climax of a feud, or neighborhood quarrel, between the Carley family and Brishingham and Miss Zimmerman, extending over several weeks.

According to the stories of residents of Ricardo, and the story told by Mrs.
Carley, there had been ill feeling for some weeks between the two victims and herself, dating back to a quarrel over a cow owned by the Carleys, which got loose and trespassed on Miss Zimmerman's property. At the time, Miss Zimmerman and Brishingham are alleged to have threatened to shoot the cow but were dissuaded from doing so by Mrs. Carley, who arrived upon the scene with a small target rifle and, it is said, told them if they shot the cow she would shoot them.

This quarrel resulted in some one, presumably Brishingham and Miss Zimmerman, reporting Mrs. Carley to the division superintendent at Clovis, with the result that that official is said to have written her a letter, severely reprimanding her. This letter incensed Mrs. Carley greatly and aroused in her a bitter hatred for those whom she believed reported her.

A few days ago the father of Miss Zimmerman is said to have bought a couple of watermelons to the station placing them on the platform.
He went away, and Carley, in a spirit of fun, is said to have painted them with stripes. When Zimmerman returned for the melons he was greatly angered by the supposed joke and threw the melons on the ground, destroying them.

Saturday afternoon, while Carley, who is the day agent for the Santa Fe at Ricardo, was working on the train, he got a message from the superintendent, so the story goes, notifi-ng Mrs. Carley that a relief operator was on the way to Ricardo and that she was no longer in the company's employ. Her husband immediately handed the message to her, she being in the office at the time.

Mrs. Carley, who was very proud of her position and took great pride in it, felt the disgrace of losing it keenly, and if her story, told in jail here today, is to be believed, it suddenly embittered her mind. She says that she opened the drawer of her desk in which she kept a revolver, and taking the weapon out, examined it. She says she made up her mind to kill Brishingham and Miss Zimmerman, whom she blamed for the loss of her position, but on second thought decided this would not be right. From that moment until she was about the train bound for Santa Rosa in charge of the officers who arrested her, she claims her mind was a blank and that until then she did not realize what she had done. She said that the tragedy coming back to her as if in a dream.

It is presumed that Mrs. Carley, on seeing Brishingham walking toward the postoffice across the street, just at the time she had been notified of her discharge, was seized with a mania for revenge, for she went directly across the street to the postoffice. Entering it, she fired two shots at Miss Zimmerman, who was attending to her work as postmistress, and, finding that she had not hit, she fired a third shot, which she kept a revolver, and the other pierced her right lung.

Brishingham then rushed into the office and Mrs. Carley, it is said, turned upon him, shooting him through the breast and the abdomen, inflicting mortal wounds, from which he died afterward.

Mrs. Carley then walked out of the office and back to the station, where she was arrested soon after, offering no resistance.

Her husband declares she was insane at the time of the shooting and persons who talked with her at the jail today, share the belief that she is still insane. People at Ricardo say the woman has shown signs of insanity for some time past.
The grand jury, which was to have been discharged today, has been held in session until tomorrow, when it is expected to investigate the tragedy.

with a view to returning an indictment against Mrs. Carley. Numerous witnesses have been summoned from Ricardo, including Carley, husband of the slayer. Mrs. Carley will probably be formally arraigned tomorrow on a charge of murder.

SON ACCIDENTALLY KILLS HIS MOTHER

Indian Springs, Colo., Sept. 30.—Mrs.
Daniel A. Theobald, aged 40 years, was shot in the breast today by the accidental discharge of a shotgun belonging to her son, Daniel. She died a few hours after the accident.

The son, a miner in Cripple Creek, had come to the Theobald ranch, eleven miles east of here, for the opening of the deer season. The mother met him at Floyd Hill. Theobald took his gun from the case and placed it between himself and his mother in the wagon when they started to drive to the ranch, saying as the deer season did not open until midnight he would try to shoot some rabbits.

The gun was discharged as they were alighting from the wagon at the ranch, the load striking the aged woman in the breast.

Mrs. Frank P. Sargent Dies Suddenly.
Seattle, Wash., Sept. 30.—Mrs.
Frank P. Sargent, of Washington, D.
C., widow of Frank P. Sargent, who was for many years chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and afterwards commissioner of immigration, died suddenly today at a hotel here.

RIVAL CANDIDATES FORM UNUSUAL FRIENDSHIP

Democratic Nominee for Governor of Colorado and His Republican Opponent Vie in Extending Courtesies.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Denver, Sept. 30.—E. M. Ammons, democratic candidate for governor and Clifford C. Parks, his republican opponent, met today for the first time since they were introduced on a Denver street, and before they parted they agreed to attend a dance together Saturday night at Kremmling, the home of Mr. Ammons.

"In going to open my campaign at Kremmling, Friday night, and if you'll come over I'll give you half the platform and agree not to talk a word of politics," said Ammons.
"Make it Saturday night and I'll come," said Parks.

Then Ammons suggested that a dance was to be given Saturday night, and invited Parks to attend as his guest. Parks agreed.

Parks lives in Glenwood Springs.
"When you come over to Glenwood Springs," he told Ammons, "I'll introduce you, and I'll furnish a brass band and guarantee you a good crowd."

"I'll do the same for you when you speak at Kremmling," rejoined Ammons.

INVESTIGATION BY SENATORS SHOWS NOTHING OF VALUE

Harriman and Roosevelt Correspondence Produced Refers to Many Subjects Other Than Funds.

TREASURER'S BOOKS HAVE BEEN BURNED

Witnesses Testify They Had Been Told by Railroad Magnate of President's Request for Campaign Money.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Washington, Sept. 30.—All the correspondence between President Roosevelt and the late Edward H.
Harriman covering the period from Mr. Roosevelt's accession to the office in 1901, until Mr. Harriman's departure from the office in 1906, was placed in evidence today before the senate committee investigating campaign expenditures. Out of the scores of letters, covering every subject from exhibits of Indian pictures to the appointing of federal judges and territorial governors in Arizona, the senate committee was able to secure little new light bearing on the subject of campaign contributions, or the disputed question of whether Colonel Roosevelt had specifically asked Mr.
Harriman in 1904, to raise $240,000 for his campaign.

C. C. Tiedt, now agent for the Harriman estate, and former private secretary to Mr. Harriman, and Charles A. Peabody, president of the Mutual Life Insurance Company and personal attorney for Mrs. Harriman in the administration of the estate, both testified that Mr. Harriman had told them the raising of the big campaign fund had been undertaken at Mr. Roosevelt's request, a statement which Mr. Harriman made before his death, but which was denied by Roosevelt.

Aside from the file of letters given the committee, no documentary evidence was offered and, out of the many letters, none was produced except that written by Mr. Harriman to Sidney Webster, January 2, 1906, that in any way bore upon the charge that President Roosevelt had asked the railroad man to raise the funds.

The Webster letter, made public by Mr. Harriman himself during the controversy with President Roosevelt over the fund, intimated that Mr. Harrison had been asked by the president to raise the fund, and that it had been the understanding among financial men to whom he appealed that President Depey was to be given the ambassadorship to France.

Taking up the examination of Mr.
Tiedt, Senator Paynter elicited that Mr. Harriman visited the White House prior to the 1904 election to discuss "New York political matters," with the president.

Charles A. Peabody testified that he talked with Mr. Harriman in November, 1904, about the campaign fund.

"He said he had been to Washington and that the president wanted him to raise some money for the campaign. He said he was giving $50, 000 and hoped to get the rest—I think he said the whole fund was to be velt wrote the railroad man saying his mind was made up on the railroad question. The president said he had desired to talk over currency legislation with Mr. Harriman.

The appointment of a governor of Arizona in 1905, opened another correspondence between the two men. Mr. Harriman recommended Chief Justice Edward Kent for governor to succeed Governor Brodie, and W. H. Stillwell for chief justice to succeed Judge Kent.

On January 28, 1905, Mr. Harriman wrote the president he would "very much regret" the appointment of B. A. Fowler as governor of Arizona. He said he had no particular candidate to urge, but hoped "some other and more suitable man may be selected for the office."

President Roosevelt replied January 29th that he was "in a way committed to Fowler"; that he had "been our candidate for congress, and his nomination seemed to me to be absolutely right."

"What is there against Fowler?" the president asked in conclusion. Mr. Harriman replied January 30th: "My information is to the effect that Mr. Fowler is a very strong partisan of the Santa Fe, and he expressed the belief that E. W. Wells, of Prescott, was 'an able and fair man.'"

"As I said before, I have no candidate to urge," Mr. Harriman added, "but I trust you will not appoint Mr. Fowler. I would like to talk to you on the telephone about this."

President Roosevelt replied the next day, January 31st, that it would be "very unpleasant" for him, "with Morton in my cabinet" to say that he had rejected Mr. Fowler, merely because he heard he was a "strong Santa Fe man," unless there was some specific objection to him.

"I need hardly tell you," the president added, "that if I appointed him, I would twist his neck as if he was a chicken the moment I found he was showing one particle of favoritism to the Santa Fe or for that matter, to the Southern Pacific or any other road, just as I would twist it if I found he was discriminating against any railroad. How would it do for me to write him this in practically those words?"

Mr. Harriman again protested against Mr. Fowler's appointment, saying his railroad interests did not believe they would get a square deal in Arizona. The series of letters continued to the Southern Pacific or any other road, just as I would twist it if I found he was discriminating against any railroad. How would it do for me to write him this in practically those words?"

WOMAN SUFFRAGE IS ONE PLATFORM PLANK

Tammany Leader Insists Convention is to be Unbossed and Open for Delegates to Rule.

By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire. Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 30.—The night before the democratic state convention, which meets here tomorrow, found a sharply drawn line over the renomination of Governor Dix.

All day opponents of the governor massed their forces around the headquarters of Leader Murphy, of Tammany hall, to urge him to withdraw his support from the governor. When night came they claimed to have won a victory.

Mr. Murphy remained in his headquarters most of the day conferring with leaders. He insisted that the convention will be open.

A progressive platform, intended to go at least as far as that of the other parties, was discussed tonight. One of its features, the suffragists say, will be a plank similar to that adopted at the republican convention last week, providing for the submission of the question of votes for women to the people in 1913 unless it is taken up previously by a constitutional convention.

WILSON REMEMBERS NO LETTER SENT TO DIX

SOCIETY, Sept. 30.—Governor Woodrow Wilson, when he reached Saginaw tonight from Atlantic City, permitted the correspondents to announce formally that he had read with great surprise the statement by today's press that he had absolutely no recollection of having written Governor Dix any letter in which he expressed an opinion of any kind as to his administration.

The presidential nominee referred to a statement issued from Albany early in the day by Governor Dix in answer to Governor Wilson's pronouncement of yesterday, urging the New York democratic convention to nominate a progressive.

Governor Dix had been quoted as asserting there was nothing in his personal correspondence with Governor Wilson to indicate that the presidential nominee opposed him.

WAR CERTAIN BETWEEN BALKAN STATES AND TURKEY

SUPREME COURT TO SETTLE INDIANS' CITIZENSHIP

Issue Comes Up in Case of Felipe Sandoval, Charged with Introduction of Liquor into Red Men's Lands.

By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire. Washington, Sept. 30.—The history of the Pueblo Indians of New Mexico is to be reviewed by the supreme court of the United States to determine whether they are wards of the nation or are citizens of the United States.

One case involving this point was decided today in court. The question arose when the government charged Felipe Sandoval with introducing liquor into Indian territory.

The defense was that the Pueblo Indians were not to be classed as wards of the nation as were the wandering tribes of Indians, but after decades of community life ranked with the other people of New Mexico as full-fledged citizens.

Judge W. H. Page, for the federal district of New Mexico, held recently, in connection with a case which came up for trial before him, that the Pueblo Indians of the state were actual citizens of the United States under the provisions of the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo.

Officials of the Indian service are quoted as saying the decision will stick.

The treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo provided that all residents of the state should be accorded citizenship by the United States, which under that document took over New Mexico from the republic of Mexico.

Speaker Declares If All, or Either of Three Men on Trial for Murder Are Convicted, They Will Be Rescued.

By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire. Boston, Sept. 30.—Fifty thousand Massachusetts workmen struck today in protest against the imprisonment of the three leaders of the Industrial Workers of the World, whose trial on murder charges in connection with last winter's textile strike in Lawrence, opened in Salem this morning. Repeated clashes between rioters and the police occurred in Lawrence in Quincy between one and two thousand men and women paraded the streets, calling out workmen from the granite quarries, but there was no outbreak.

Minor disturbances developed in Lynn, where a few hundred shoe workers struck. In Haverhill three hundred shoe operatives anticipated a general sympathetic strike, which had been planned for Wednesday. Their parade about the city did not add any recruits to their ranks.

The "Barricade" in Lowell, Conn., and the "Satanic War" in South Portland, Me., were reported when seven hundred employees went out.

By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire. Lawrence, Mass., Sept. 30.—A "demonstration" strike against the imprisonment of the labor leaders took place here today. After hand to hand clashes between rioters and police, lasting all day, the "demonstration" was declared off by the Industrial Workers of the World.

The strike was called for twenty-four hours, beginning this morning, in protest against the imprisonment of Joseph J. Egan, Arturo Giovannitti and Joseph Cannon, whose trial in connection with the death of Anna Lopizzo opened in Salem today. Seven thousand of the 25,000 operatives in the cotton and woolen mills here, obeyed the call, forming out 5,000 others, either through intimidation or the closing down of departments. At a mass meeting late this afternoon the workers were told to go back to work tomorrow, ready to come out again at the call of the Industrial Workers of the World.

By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire. Salem, Mass., Sept. 30.—Out of one hundred and six men who were examined by Judge Quinn in the superior court here today for jury duty in the murder trial of Joseph J. Egan, Arturo Giovannitti and Joseph Cannon, growing out of the Lawrence strike riot last winter, only two were acceptable.

The jury was excused when they informed the court they had formed or expressed an opinion, or that their feelings were such as to "preclude them from bringing in a verdict of guilty if such a verdict might result in death to the defendants."

Judge Quinn declined to ask prospective jurors if they owned stock in any of the Lawrence mills, against which the strike of last winter was directed. Counsel for Egan and Giovannitti desired the question asked.

The two men who occupied seats in the jury box when court adjourned tonight were Christian S. Larson, a Haverhill hair dresser, and Robert S. Stillman, a carpenter of Rockport.

Cannon, who is charged with being the principal in the murder of Anna Lopizzo during the Lawrence strike, did most of the challenging today. He spoke through an Italian interpreter.

Egan and Giovannitti, who are charged with being accessories before the fact, challenged five witnesses.

BRYAN REFUSES TO TALK OF CABINET POSITION

Nebraska Colonel Said He Regarded It as an Impertinence.

By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire. Cheyenne, Wyo., Sept. 30.—If Governor Wilson is elected president, would you accept, if offered, a position in his cabinet? was a question put to William J. Bryan on his return here tonight to wind up a day of speech making in eastern Wyoming. He left early this morning for Wheatland and spoke several times en route. After addressing a large crowd at Wheatland this afternoon, he arrived back here at 7 o'clock.

The question was asked by a reporter waiting at the station to greet him.

"I consider that question impertinent," retorted Bryan after a few seconds of hesitation.

On the way to the hotel, however, he asked other newspaper men upon whose solicitation the question had been put.

BRYAN CONTRASTS THREE NATIONAL CONVENTIONS

Nebraskan Alleges Morgan, Ryan and Belmont Were Kicked Out of Party at Baltimore.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Cheyenne, Wyo., Sept. 30.—Mr. Bryan addressed one meeting and an overflow that could not get into the hall here tonight and attacked both President Taft and Colonel Roosevelt.

He declared that the precedent by which the old republican national committee, "ran the convention," was abused in the national progressive convention when Colonel Roosevelt was nominated.

"Had a new committee, representing the sentiments of its states, been in power, Taft might not have been nominated," he said. "Thereafter in a democratic convention no dead hand can reach out from the past and destroy a living convention." was done in Chicago," he said.

"For the first time in a hundred years, the world was notified at Baltimore that a national convention had kicked out Morgan, Ryan and Belmont, three of the most corrupt politicians in American politics."

On the other hand, Colonel Roosevelt takes as his chief backer and spiritual adviser the former partner of Morgan and an officer of the steel trust.

"Roosevelt is not a good kind, to pick presidents; the man he is now trying to defeat was hand-picked; he wrote a guarantee all over him; now he is not so confident, so he picked himself."

This wonderful powder was a success from the start, has continued to outsell and out-work all other products in its class, and is today (although it has hundreds of imitations) more of a seller and leader than ever. Gold Dust has always stood at the head of all cleansers, and its sales are yearly increasing. That's pretty good evidence of merit, isn't it?

RYAN WORKS LIKE A REAL FIGHTER; FANS IMPRESSED

California. Bantamweight Puts in Fifty-Five Minutes at Gymnasium; Boxes with Charley Pierson.

Tommy Ryan made an excellent impression on the Albuquerque fans at his first work out yesterday afternoon at the New Mexico A. C. gymnasium. He is fast, clever and has a terrific punch, for a little fellow, in either hand. For the first day, Ryan did considerable work, putting in a total of fifty-five minutes in the gymnasium. He boxed several rounds with Charley Pierson, the fighting newboy of Denver, who is training with him in preparation for his return engagement with Al Smallding, a local middleweight.

"Ryan is a good boy," said Pierson after the work-out yesterday afternoon, and he expressed the opinion of every fan who was on hand to see the "Frisco" kid go through his paces. Ryan and Pierson will box each afternoon from now until the day before the Ryan-Chavez and Pierson-Smallding bouts Thursday night of next week.

Louie Newman, the Denver lightweight, now living here, has taken the management of Al Smallding, who is to be Pierson's opponent in an 8-round bout, which will be staged as a semi-windup to the Ryan-Chavez contest. Newman declares that Smallding will beat Pierson, and he intends to teach the dusky middleweight a few fine points of the boxing game in an effort to return him the victor over Pierson, who is a waterweight.

PACING RECORD IS FURTHER LOWERED BY BRADEN DIRECT

Columbus, Sept. 30.—World's record pacing by Braden Direct, owned by J. H. Kistner, of Denver, was done this afternoon at the opening of the second week of the Columbus Grand circuit racing.

Braden Direct set the record for four-year-old pacers at 2:03.1-4, and followed that heat up with miles in 2:03.3-4, and 2:04. Braden Direct was the title holder because of a 2:03.3-4 miles this season at Cleveland.

The race, the king stake, was not won in straight heats. Don Pronto was first home in the first trip in 2:03.1-4. The judges held that no attempt had been made to win with Braden Direct, Brannan Baughman and Sadie Hal. Accordingly fines of $100 each were placed upon drivers engaged, Cox and Snow. Don Pronto had been backed off the boards for the heat. All bets were declared off.

Don Pronto tried hard for the second heat and was hit half a length back of Braden Direct at the finish. Results: Columbus stake, purse $3,000; 2:09 trotting, 2 in 5; Cheney won; Jack London, second; Myrtle Grammet, third. Time, 2:06.1-4.

King stakes, purse $2,000; 2:06 pacers; Braden Direct won; Don Pronto, second; Brannan Baughman, third. Time, 2:03.1-4. In this race Braden Direct made a world's record for four-year-old pacers.

2:18 pace, 3 in 5, purse $1,200; Carma G. won; Addition, second; La Rosetta, third. Best time, 2:07.1-4.

RULES GOVERNING KING'S RANSOM IN WORLD'S SERIES PRIZES FOR RACES AT MILWAUKEE

National Baseball Commission Agrees on Regulations for Post-Season Games Between New York and Boston.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Cincinnati, Sept. 30.—The following additional bulletin concerning the world's series, as well as the revised rules that will govern them, was issued today by the National Baseball Commission:

The public is cautioned against paying higher prices for admission than those fixed by the commission, which has heavy co-operation from the municipal authorities in each city in the suppression of ticket scalping. Play will begin on each grounds at 2 p. m.

A check coupon will be attached to every ticket placed on sale. The official ball of the National league will be used on the National league grounds and the official ball of the American league on the American league grounds.

The revised rules of the commission for the conduct of the series are as follows:

A scheduled game, postponed for legal cause, called before it becomes a regulation game, or terminating with the score tied, shall, unless the schedule explicitly provides to the contrary, be played off on the grounds for which it was scheduled before the succeeding scheduled games for the other city shall be contested, and the dates assigned for subsequent games, shall, thereupon, be moved forward.

Before the commencement of the sixth game, the commission shall determine by lot, when and where the seventh game shall be played in the event that an additional game be required to decide the winner of the series.

The secretary of the commission, as required by Section 7, of the regulations, jointly enacted for the National and American leagues, shall notify all eligible players as soon as it is definitely ascertained which teams will compete, that they will be held individually amenable to the provisions of the playing rules and be subject to discipline for violation thereof, regardless of the expiration of their contracts with their respective clubs.

The umpire, whose authority in these contests shall be supreme, shall be sole judge of the fitness of the grounds for commencing and continuation of games, and shall eject from the field any player who uses improper language, employs unfair tactics, or violates any rule for the conduct of the game.

Spectators will not be permitted to encroach or stand on the playing field at any point. A club that plans to accommodate the patrons in excess of the regular seating capacity of its plant, is required to erect, with the approval of the municipal authorities and permission of the commission, safe, temporary stands of seats with a strong three-foot railing in front thereof, extending from the ground stand or skirting the outfield. The left or right field emergency seats shall be not less than 235 feet and the center field seats shall be not less than 275 feet from the home plate.

A certified check for $10,000, payable to the order of the chairman of the commission, shall be deposited with the secretary of the commission by each qualifying club, three days before the commencement of the series, as a guarantee that it will, as provided in Section 10, of the joint regulations for the government of all of these rules and regulations and such others as the commission may make hereafter to govern such contest and that it will not exercise the arbitrary right or privilege of abandoning the series until it has been completed. Such certified check or so much of its face value as the commission may deem adequate, shall be forfeited and credited to the funds of the commission if on investigation a club is adjudged to have violated any of its obligations.

Trophies and Cash Awards for Various Events in Motor Car Speed Contests Attraction for Noted Drivers.

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.] Milwaukee, Sept. 30.—A king's ransom is represented in the trophies and cash prizes hung up by the Automobile club of America, the American Automobile Association, the Milwaukee Dealers' Association and Col. Gustave Pabst, Milwaukee, for the four international road racing classes to be run on the Waubesa course this week.

The Milwaukee speed carnival, postponed for two weeks because of bad weather, will be known the world over as the most richly purged automobile contest that has ever been held, for the sum of $50,000 barely covers the intrinsic value of the solid gold and silver cups and the money prizes. The nearest approach to the Vanderbilt cup race at Milwaukee, in point of value of the prizes, was the last international speed race on Memorial day, but the total given to drivers then was only $25,000, one-half of the amount which will be contested for in Milwaukee.

No one has ever undertaken to figure out the actual value of such national trophies as the Automobile club of America's Grand Prix, William K. Vanderbilt, Jr.'s, Vanderbilt cup, the new Pabst Blue Ribbon trophy of Colonel Pabst, of Milwaukee, or the Wisconsin Challenge cup of the Wisconsin Motor Manufacturer's company. It is not the actual money value of the trophies which is the prize, which is bringing the world's greatest racing drivers to Milwaukee, but the immeasurable honor and glory associated with the winning of any of the four principal trophies.

The honor of winning the Vanderbilt cup, and the American Grand Prix as well, has for years been the greatest glory any car or driver could achieve. Beginning with the Milwaukee race, another trophy of equal importance and value, intrinsically as well as otherwise, will enter the motoring hall of fame. It is the Pabst Blue Ribbon trophy, decreed by Col. Gustave Pabst for annual competition, and carrying with it emblems which give it a rank as high as that attained by the Vanderbilt cup. Colonel Pabst is probably as well known throughout the world as William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., and his trophy is as richly endowed as the cup which the New York millionaire hung in eight years ago for the first long road race on American soil, and which has been contested for annually ever since.

Expect Finish by 2:30. The richness of the Pabst trophy and the great field of world-renowned cars and drivers which it has attracted, will make Friday as important a racing day as the Grand Prix and the Vanderbilt cup races. Practically every driver who will compete in the first and last day's events will be seen in the Pabst cup race on Friday, including the famous French team of Peugeot cars, driven by Georges Boillot, winner of the Grand Prix de France on June 25th and 26th of this year, and his three teammates. A few of the great drivers will necessarily be obliged to stay out of the Pabst race, for Colonel Pabst's deed of gift makes it a race for cars of the class driven by a majority of the people on the American continent, and excludes the high-powered cars of mammoth piston displacement. However, a large number of star pilots are provided with two different kinds of racing cars, one excessively powered and the other medium powered, so that they will be eligible for any race with one of them.

The first annual competition for the Pabst trophy will, like the Vanderbilt cup, be run on the "native heath" of the trophy. The first Vanderbilt cup race was run on Long Island roads, the summer home of William K. Vanderbilt, Jr. This is the club that Pabst will be contested for initially at the home of Colonel Pabst.

The Pabst trophy race is open to cars of 231 to 300 cubic inches piston displacement, which is the standard of measurement now used to designate the classes of cars for racing purposes. The race will be approximately 150 miles, or twenty-five circuits of the eight-mile Waubesa course, meaning that the contesting cars will speed past the grandstands and past all other points on the course at least twenty-six times. The race will be started promptly at 11 o'clock on Friday morning, and figuring on the basis of the best speed ever made by cars of the 231-300 cubic inch class in any American road race, the contest should be finished by 2:30 o'clock.

The fact that the speedy French Peugeot team has never before competed in an American road race may make the average time even better, for the probable speed of the French Grand Prix winners' mount may run considerably in excess of the best time ever made by an American car of this class.

Rich Prize for Winner. The winner of the Pabst trophy will be comfortably rich, for not only will he be awarded the $5,000 cash provided by Colonel Pabst, but he will also have won up by the Milwaukee Automobile Dealers' Association for this event. In addition, the stake will be enriched by a secret purse for the driver, sealed into the base of the Pabst trophy, concerning which there is much mystery, for Colonel Pabst means to give the first winner of this beautiful cup an additional reward which will make the victory worth winning. Colonel Pabst refuses to say definitely the amount of cash he has placed in the cup, but an idea of the sum may be gained from the fact that the secret purse will consist entirely of $10 gold pieces glued back to face in a special receptacle in the base at the bottom of the bowl of the cup. The Pabst trophy stands nearly 51 inches high, from the ebony base to the tip of the figure surmounting the top.

In addition to the purse of gold there will be still another prize for the winner, in the shape of a special donor's trophy, given by Colonel Pabst for permanent possession by the driver who wins his cup. The trophy proper will remain in the possession of the winning driver only until it is won by another in a similar competition a year from now. It is a perpetual trophy, like the Vanderbilt, to be contested for year after year under the same conditions. The Vanderbilt cup has already been won and lost seven times.

The drivers who win second place in both Pabst and Wisconsin Challenge races will receive $2,000 each, in the sum of $3,000, while the third place cars will draw down $2,500 and the fourth place cars get $1,250 in cash.

RECRUIT PITCHERS HELP BOOST GIANTS' AVERAGE

New York, Sept. 30.—Those following the concluding work of the New York Giants before the world's series are surprised by the strength of the club's string of recruit pitchers. Such men as Demaree, Kirby, Goumy and Rader, all strange names in the Giants' line-up, have been tried out in the last few games and helped to boost New York's showing.

In the last five games, the Giants lost only one. That was pitched by the so-called star of the team, big Jeff Tesreau against Boston on Saturday. Today's victory was the 10th for the Giants this season, one less than the string of Boston American victories to date.

MOYER PRONOUNCES SMOOT CRITICIZES STATEMENT BY ADMINISTRATION OF LAND LAWS

President of Western Federation of Miners Says Organization Has Taken No Interest in Mexican Revolt.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Salt Lake City, Sept. 30.—With a spectacular street parade embodying all the features of a carnival, the first day of the twentieth international congress closed tonight. The opening session of the four day convention was held this morning in the tabernacle, where the delegates were welcomed by local officials. This afternoon the congress listened to reports and to addresses, the principal one of which was by United States Senator Reed Smoot of Utah.

"Ever since 1900, the provisions of our land laws have proven exceedingly unbusinesslike," said Senator Smoot.

"Although these laws are inadequate and work injustices, the administration of the law is mainly responsible for the burden put on the homesteaders. American settlers are emigrating by the thousands to Canada, and their going proves that there is something wrong in our laws that should be rectified."

The speaker declared that congress had overlooked to the needs of the settler and that he expected to see a stop put soon to the exodus to Canada. "At the last session of congress," he continued, "there have been passed liberating land laws than in all the other congresses during the last ten years. Therefore regulations have made it almost impossible to obtain homesteads within the forest reserves, but a law passed at the last session of congress, I believe, will result in turning most of the 20,000,000 acres of forest reserve lands into agricultural homesteads."

JAMES W. MULLENS TO EDIT PAPER AT PORTALES

Member of Lower House of Legislature to Try Hand at Directing Editorial Policy of Democratic Organ.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.)
Portales, N. M., Sept. 30.—J. H. Durnell, owner of the Portales Herald, in the last issue of this paper, makes the announcement that State Representative James W. Mullens, of Chaves county, will, beginning with the next issue of the paper, become the editor. Mr. Durnell's announcement reads as follows:

"The next issue of the Herald will be under new editorial management as well as a new business manager. The paper will be a Simon pure democratic organ, politically, but proposes to treat all with fairness. This is a democratic town and county and the Herald will devote all its political influence to the benefit of democratic principles. The temporary services of Hon. James W. Mullens, of Roswell, have been secured for the editorial end of the paper. He is too well known in New Mexico to need introduction or eulogy here. He is a booster from principle, and works with well defined objects in view, whether in politics or business.

"If the democracy and the people of this community want the services now offered them, and a continuation of the same, there is but one way to get it—patronize the paper. We do not violate any confidence in saying that Mr. Mullens has splendid health, in Chaves county and a host of friends.

"He does not propose to give up these blessings and get nothing in return. No charity is asked.

"Good politics is good business, and this is a business proposition.

"We propose to give their received and in work for every interest in every nook and corner of Roosevelt county. The paper will have the largest circulation in the county and give the advertiser more for his money than any other available medium. Besides all which the money will be spent at home. Your patronage is respectfully solicited."

That one of the roads is the Moffat system, is the statement of Mayor Alexander.

LANDS WITHDRAWN IN NEW MEXICO ARE RESTORED

United States Geological Survey Eliminates Considerable Area Previously Classified for Conservation Purposes.

Washington, Sept. 30.—During the month of August the United States Geological Survey appraised 1,219,187 acres as coal land in the western states, placing a valuation thereon of $19,622,198. In the same month the survey also classified 126,174 acres as noncoal land and transmitted the findings to the general land office so that the land might be restored to the public domain. These classifications were based on the field examinations of the survey geologists.

Under the present coal land regulations adopted April 10, 1909, 16,184,611 acres have now been classified in 10-acre tracts as coal land, with the valuation of $265,255,783. The valuation of these same lands at the old minimum prices would have been $268,544,767, the difference in favor of the government under the present policy being therefore $444,211,016. During the same period 42,425,079 acres have been restored to the public domain as noncoal land.

In connection with the classification of oil land the secretary of the interior withdrew in August 36,746 acres in Wyoming, making a total of 4,810,928 acres of oil land now standing withdrawn and awaiting needed legislation in the interests of the development of the nation's extensive petroleum deposits.

In administration of the phosphate lands 8,149 acres in Florida were withdrawn and 45,381 acres in Wyoming were restored to entry, leaving a total of 2,363,320 acres of phosphate land standing withdrawn and also awaiting necessary legislation.

Of land available for the development of water power 153 acres in Washington and 22 acres in Wyoming were withdrawn during the month by the secretary of the interior, and 16,651 acres in Arizona, California, Idaho, New Mexico and Wyoming were restored, making a total of 1,816,530 acres, including thousands of water-power sites, standing withdrawn in aid of proposed legislation which shall allow for their development and yet protect the interests of the people.

It is the policy of the geological survey in the classification of the public lands to recommend the withdrawal of such areas as may be considered necessary from the standard of the federal government for the protection and conservation of its mineral and water resources; to make such withdrawals as accurately as possible, on the basis of the information available; and to make further investigations and procure additional data in order to restore if possible any area not necessary to the protection of the government's interests.

CALL LOAN RATES CAUSE SHIFTY MARKETS

Money Goes to Seven and One-Half Per Cent But Many Leading Shares Make New High Records on Large Sales

New York, Sept. 30.—Further gold engagements abroad and another sudden advance in call loans to 7½ per cent, the highest rate of the year, were the conflicting features around which today's active and, at times, strong stock market revolved. The gold was obtained in London in competition with German and other continental banking interests and the success of our bids followed another decline here in exchange. The higher rate for call money was a natural outcome of the preparations now being made by banks at all important home centers to finance the heavy October interest and dividend disbursements, which probably will be larger than last year's payments. Then, too, the relatively small excess reserves furnished another reason for caution.

Stocks were distinctly at the opening, a condition resulting largely from the lower range of prices for Americans in London. The market followed its home operations with heavy sales here. In the first hour, unloading large amounts of United States Steel, Amalgamated Copper and Reading. The market recovered under this onslaught, but was at a new level, the highest of the year, at midday under the leadership of steel. That steel came out in enormous blocks which seemed to be freely absorbed, with other representative issues, of advances. In the final hour, however, when money made its return, quotation, heavy selling set in and prices crumbled until late was left of the rise. In fact, many stocks weakened to much below last closing level, and the entire list reassumed its irregular trend, growing more heavy toward the end.

All the foreign exchanges were adversely affected by the Balkan situation.

Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—Balkan war unsettled today to stimulate wheat buying here. The closing tone of the market was unsettled with prices varying from ½ cent net decline to ½ cent advance.

Despite a sharp upturn at Liverpool on account of military preparations in southeastern Europe, wheat traders here looked to the selling side as soon as prices showed a tendency to follow the bear lead.

Favorable weather for threshing northwest weakened the wheat market. An increase in the visible supply of wheat also caused the bulls and so did heavy world shipments. September suffered the most, going ½ cent lower at 88 cents. December ranged between 89½ and 90½ ½ cents with last sales the same as Saturday, 89½ ½ cents.

Corn closed ½ cent off to a rise of 2½ ½ cents.

Oats closed ½ to 1½ cents down. Provision closed firm, 2½ cents lower to 12½ cents higher.

GRANT HEIRS SUE SHOOTING AFFRAY T. B. CATRON AND A. B. RENEHAN

Sensational Allegations Are Made in Action Filed in District Court of Santa Fe County.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.) Santa Fe, N. M., Sept. 30.—The heirs of Juan Jose Lobato, owners of a part of what is known as the Lobato grant, in Rio Arriba county, have filed a suit in the local district court against Senator T. B. Catron and A. B. Renehan, a lawyer, charging that the defendants, through misrepresentation, secured assignments of those heirs for their interest in the grant, and when the grant was sold, they retained part of the money which should rightfully have been paid to the heirs.

The complaint is rather sensational in its charges, alleging that something over a score of the heirs who assigned their claims in the estate, were paid only slightly over half what was coming to them, and that the remainder was appropriated by the defendants. It is also charged that the assignments were obtained under misrepresentation.

The amount involved is about $100,000. In conclusion, the complaint prays that the assignments made to the defendants be declared null and void and of no binding effect whatsoever, and that the defendants be required to account to the plaintiffs for the amounts which were withheld from them and to pay over to the plaintiffs such amounts or so much thereof as in justice and equity it may be decreed are due them.

BELIEVES THIS WILL "CURE LUNG TROUBLES"

Consumption is a flattering disease—that is one of its chief dangers. Those who have it are rarely willing to acknowledge the fact. If this trouble is present, it is no time for trifling. If a so-called "cold" has long persisted; if a cough is present that keeps you anxious; or any of the symptoms are present, such as fever or night sweats, weakness and loss of appetite, and perhaps some raising of mucus—do the sensible thing—take Eckman's Alternative—as Mr. Bettersworth did.

Bowling Green, Ky., B. No. 4. "Gentlemen: I would like to say for your Alternative that I believe it to be a medicine of unequalled value for all bronchial and lung trouble. The Spring of 1905, I had a severe cough for six months. I tried all the medicine that my doctors recommended to me, but no results came from it. I had night sweats, and would cough and spit until I sat up and I could hardly do anything. But, at last, James Deering, of Glasgow Junction, insisted that I try your medicine. In one week's time there was quite an improvement in my condition, and after I had taken several bottles, I felt as well as ever did in my life.

"I desire the world to know that I firmly believe that your Eckman's Alternative will cure any case of lung trouble if taken before the last stage. I will gladly write personally to any party wanting information in regard to your wonderful medicine." (Signed) A. C. BETTERS WORTH, Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Trouble, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. For sale by Standard drug store and Highland Pharmacy and other leading druggists. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman's Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence.

INDUSTRIAL PARADE HAS FORTY-EIGHT FLOATS PLEDGED

Committee Secures Promises of Four Dozen Displays in Big Event Which is to Take Place Albuquerque Day.

Forty-eight floats and other displays were pledged yesterday for the big industrial parade which will be held Albuquerque day of the state fair. And at that, the committee in charge did not put in a full day soliciting the exhibits. The success which they met in securing promises of displays assures a more than successful parade. For several years past the fair parade has not been all that it should. This fall the committee has set out to make it all that it ought to be and a few extra on the side. From all appearances they will succeed.

Work is not yet over on the labor of soliciting floats, but the committee expects to complete it today. All persons who are contemplating floats are urged not to make them more than twelve feet high, as the trolley wires will not permit the passage of floats of any greater height.

JOHN BORRADALE TO BE THE GRAND MARSHAL

For thirty-one years General John Borradale has acted as grand marshal of the annual parade on Albuquerque day, and this year he will officiate for the thirty-second time. His management has always been efficient and successful, and the committee this year feels gratified that he has consented to serve as grand marshal again.

Every school in the city will have a float in the parade, as well as the schools in Bernaldo and Old Albuquerque. The display of the school work and the activity of the pupils, in the parade, will be a great advertisement for Albuquerque in the eyes of the visitors, as it will show them how many school children there are in the city and how energetic they are.

A movement has been commenced to secure a delegation of cowboys and cowgirls, and will likely meet with success. Ted Sparr is handling this and has already secured promises of co-operation from many local riders. This display at the Las Cruces fair last week was a very attractive one, and its repetition at the local fair is expected to make a great hit.

HORACE E. SHERMAN TO CALL SQUARE DANCES

President D. K. B. Sellers announced yesterday that in order that square dances might be made a portion of the entertainment for those who are to dance on the new paved streets carnival night, he had asked Horace E. Sherman, the veteran announcer, to make the calls for the various square dances. Sherman has accepted and the success of this attractive feature of the evening entertainment is now assured.

HARMLESS REMEDY BEAUTIFIES THE HAIR

If You Wish to Double the Beauty of Your Hair Try Sage and Sulphur.

What a pity it is to see so many people with thin, wispy hair, faded or streaked with gray, and realize that most of these people might have soft, glossy, abundant hair of a beautiful color and lustre if they would but use the proper treatment. There is no necessity for gray hair under sixty-five years of age, and there is no excuse for any one, young or old, having thin, straggling hair, either full of dandruff or heavy and rank smelling with excessive oil.

You can bring back the natural color of your hair in a few days and forever rid yourself of any dandruff and loose hairs, and make your hair grow strong and beautiful by using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Remedy. For generations common garden Sage has been used for restoring and preserving the color of the hair; and Sulphur is recognized by Scalp Specialists as being excellent for treatment of hair and scalp troubles.

If you are troubled with dandruff or itching scalp, or if your hair is losing its color or coming out, get a fifty-cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist, and notice the improvement in the appearance of your hair after a few days' treatment.—Ady.

GEOGRAPHERS STAY IN CITY TWENTY MINUTES ONLY

Representatives of Universities Here on Tour in Celebration of Geographical Society Anniversary.

Twenty minutes was all that remained of the scheduled three hour stay in this city of the anniversary tour of the American Geographical society, when the train bearing the savants finally arrived here at 10:30 last night. They had been expected to remain in Albuquerque from 8:15 to 11:15, and arrangements had been made by members of the Commercial club to meet and welcome them, but when it was found that their stay had been shortened and their arrival postponed, the committee of welcome dwindled away.

The geographers are making the trip, which includes a circuit practically embracing all of the United States, in honor of the sixtieth anniversary of the founding of the American Geographical society. About twenty members of the party were Americans, the others came from foreign lands. Most of them are connected with universities of the European countries.

The party spent a large portion of the day in Santa Fe, their delay in reaching this city and their shortened stop here being largely due to extension of time there.

Dr. Edgar L. Hewett, director of the American Institute of Archaeology, was a principal in arranging things for their benefit. The Chamber of Commerce, of Santa Fe, extended hospitality to the visitors and they were shown many things of interest in and near the capital, including the Indian pueblo of Tesuque.

What promises to be the event of the season in club circles is the Moose minstrels to be staged at the Elks' theater on Monday evening, October 21st.

C. J. Seifried, well known in vaudeville, is in charge of the production, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Friedberg.

The minstrel first part will have the best home talent of Albuquerque in the cast who will use the very latest song hits published in the last few months by the music publishers of New York and Chicago.

Four vaudeville acts are to be seen in the olio.

The after piece is a comedy entitled the "District School," full of good, wholesome comedy and a number of songs never before heard in Albuquerque.

TRAIN AUDITORS GO ON ALBUQUERQUE DIVISION TODAY

Train auditors were last night put in service on the Albuquerque division of the Coast lines, and will continue their operations there for a month. The auditors are being used successfully on the different divisions, spending a month on each. They ride all the time with the same conductor and handle all tickets and cash fares during that time. Comparisons of their totals and those shown by the conductors are made by the higher officials of the transportation department.

The start was formally scheduled for October 1, but some auditors went out last night because last night's trip ended on the 1st.

RE-RECORDING OF BRANDS

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO CATTLE MEN AND STOCK OWNERS.

In consequence of the great number of brands now on record in the office of the Cattle Sanitary Board, not now in actual use, the State Legislature has passed a law requiring all owners of recorded brands to re-record their brands within a period of six months, commencing on Sept. 10th, 1912. A failure upon the part of each holder of a recorded brand to re-record his brand in the time required by law, forfeits all right of further use. In a short time circular letters together with proper blanks for sending in renewals to the office of the Cattle Sanitary Board will be sent out to each holder of brands now of record. To facilitate this work as much as possible, and to avoid the lapsing of brands, it is earnestly requested that all parties now having recorded brands, upon receipt of proper blanks from this office, send in their renewals with the least possible delay.

ALBUQUERQUE NEW MEXICO

WILSON FIGHTS MURPHY.

Governor Wilson extinguished Boss Smith, of New Jersey, and has now undertaken a boss of his size, Charles Murphy, of Tammany hall. Whatever the result may be in New York, Governor Wilson should have the thanks of the nation for the courage he is displaying in attempting to have some candidate nominated other than Dix, who has been Murphy's man since he was inaugurated as chief executive of the Empire state.

Murphy is the last of the coarse bosses. He is a smaller man mentally and in every way than Richard Croker. He is not such a man as was old John Kelly. He is more on the Tweed order. A watchful press and a particularly purified judiciary are about all that stand between New York and a modern Tweed.

But Murphy, with his small mental and moral equipment, has gone far. He first pushed Tammany across the East river into Brooklyn and then across the Harlem into New York state. The Associated Press reports of yesterday morning indicate that Murphy controls a majority of the delegates to the democratic convention at Syracuse.

Although Governor Wilson sounded a warning from Seagirt, it was conceded that Murphy would nominate Dix again if he thought it wise to do so. There was hysterical talk of sending for Bryan in the hope that the Nebraska might stampede the convention. But if Bryan should go to Syracuse, he would find things different from what they were at Baltimore. Besides, they might remember one of the pictures of Bryan and Murphy taken together at Lincoln.

The men who are fighting Murphy, the Osbornes and the like, are pigmies. He could crush them with his thumb. Alton B. Parker, one time candidate for the presidency, is as clay in his hands. O'Grady, whom Murphy made a judge and whom United States senator, shows signs of independence, but he is to Murphy what David without his sling would have been to Goliath.

No man can hope to overthrow Murphy except the democratic national candidate, Woodrow Wilson is the only man who has a chance against him in the ring. He may not be able to do much before his election to the presidency, so strongly is Tammany entrenched with money and power.

But with Wilson in the presidential chair, the tables would be turned. Even if he should not be able to defeat Murphy in New York city, he can isolate the Tammany boss there and prevent much of the harm he has done and may yet do in state politics and to state legislation.

Besides, for Wilson to fight Murphy is good politics. He is a progressive candidate. Murphy is an improper character to lead a party in New York state. Again, Dix would be a heavy and probably a fatal load for Wilson to attempt to carry in the coming election. Also, if Wilson had failed to make the fight he is making on Murphy, he would have suffered through out the rest of the country, and Wilson can be elected without the electoral vote of New York.

Had Wilson meekly surrendered to this monster of the gloom, as Bryan did twice, he would be defeated, notwithstanding the fact that the republican party is hopelessly split. Wilson has followed the wisest course, and when he is elected, he will carry the good work to completion, even if he should be defeated this time in his efforts to have some candidate named who is not wearing the Murphy collar.

A SOCIALIST PIPE DREAM.

Senator Fall is quoted in dispatches from El Paso as charging socialists in the United States with aiding the revolt in Mexico. Senator Fall was quoted some time ago as charging the Standard Oil Company with financing Madero's revolution against Diaz. Later he denied having made such statement. It is quite probable that he will deny the one relative to the socialists who, it is said he alleges, are trying to establish a socialist republic to supplant the government of Madero. There have been several attempts to establish a particular brand of government in Mexico. Aaron Burr had some such dream, as had William Walker, the "blue eyed man of destiny," who devised the scheme of annexing Sonora and Lower California to the United States as slave territory.

It will be remembered that Walker organized a filibustering expedition in 1852, seized La Paz in Lower California, arresting the governor, and proclaimed a new regime for the people there. But he was forced to flee soon, and his dream shifted to Nicaragua, where he succeeded in gaining control of the government. After varying successes and defeats, he was placed with his face to a blank wall in Honduras and shot.

Since the death of Walker, so far as we can recall, there have been no efforts by Americans to seize any part of Mexico, and it is much more than probable that Judge Fall, if he ever gave out such an interview, was merely vocalizing through his headgear. He has the habit.

EDITORIAL NATURE TAKING.

There is a lady editor of the Wick-enburg, Arizona, Miner, who has a sharp pen. She has expounded the cause of the bull moose, and the Sterling City (Texas) News-Record undertakes some slight pleasanties at the expense of the Arizona moose. This is the way she handles the incident.

"The Sterling City (Tex.) News-Record comments facetiously on the fact that the Miner has come out for Roosevelt and Johnson, in the following lines:

The Wick-enburg (Ariz.) Miner has announced that hereafter it (she) will be a 'Bull Moose' in politics because the 'Bull Moosers' advocate woman suffrage. That is all right, sister, but in addressing you in the future, what kind of an adjective shall we use before 'Moosers'? You know there are several kinds of 'jacks'-asses."

"The News-Record is respectfully informed that when the Miner decided to support Roosevelt and Johnson its mind was wholly centered on what it conceived to be the big issues of the campaign, rather than on party emblems. By the way, brother, the emblem of the party to which you belong, and which you can never summon the nerve to break loose from, is a jackass. Now, in addressing you in the future, what kind of an adjective shall we use before 'jackass'? You know there are several kinds of 'jacks'-asses."

NEW MEXICO'S CLIMATE.

The other day when New Mexico was breathing in great hogheads of heavenly ether, Los Angeles reported a hundred in the shade. Yet hundreds of thousands of people pass through, or near, New Mexico and go to California for the climate.

The reason for this error is not hard to find. For many miles around Los Angeles there are splendid automobile roads and the state has been advertised by the railroads and by the boards of trade until millions have an idea that the Pacific coast has the best climate in the world.

New Mexico has every reason for attracting tourists by the thousands. We have a most romantic history, old buildings and pueblos that would be capitalized by any other state at a valuation of many millions of dollars. We have a climate, the nearest perfect that may be found anywhere on the globe. We have mountain scenery that is unsurpassed. We have mineral springs that are far and away better than may be found in Colorado or at Hot Springs, Arkansas. Nature has done all that she could do to make New Mexico an ideal country for the health seeker and the sightseer, but man has done nothing within the century.

POLITICAL PATRONAGE.

It was announced from Washington recently that fourth class postmasters are soon to be placed under the civil service. They are about all the patronage left to members of the house of representatives, the other political plunder having passed to the senate through the power of confirmation.

President Taft declares that he favors putting all offices below members of the cabinet under civil service. There are about fifty thousand fourth class postmasters in the country, 14,000 of whom have been placed in the classified service. It is now proposed to put the remaining 26,000 under the civil service.

There is just one fly in this ointment. The next president can take them out again, or he can have them discharged for offensive partisan activity and no one can review his action. So the proposed action of the president may not be very significant after all.

The Baltimore Sun proves conclusively that Taft has never compared himself to Lincoln. Notwithstanding the blunders of the president, he has some characteristics that must give merit in the eyes of the American people.

Senator Joseph M. Dixon says some one has been shadowing him. "Shadow? Shadow? Is my shadow?" he inquires.

We suggest that the senate investigating committee summon Miss Ida Tarbell as a witness.

PROMINENT WOMEN TECHNICALITY ENDS GOOD ROADS SPIRIT AFFILIATED WITH PROGRESSIVES DYE WILL CASE ON THIRD TRIAL MUCH IN EVIDENCE IN DONA ANA

Form National Finance Committee to Assist in Raising Funds for Support of This Political Party.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) New York, Sept. 30.—The Women's National Finance Committee, of the progressive party, held an organization meeting yesterday at the Hotel Manhattan for the purpose of discussing the methods which are to be used in this first systematic effort that women have ever made to come to the financial support of a political party.

Those who were present yesterday were Mrs. Anna Pinchot, the national chairman of the committee; Mrs. Bourke Cockran, Mrs. Oscar Straus, Mrs. Ralph Sanger, Mrs. Philip Lyvermore, Mrs. Everett Colby, who will have charge of the committee's work in the east; Mrs. Medill McCormick, who is in close touch with the progress that has been made in Chicago, and Miss Helen Coster.

The full list of the finance committee is as follows: Mrs. Anna Pinchot, national chairman; Mrs. Everett Colby, eastern chairman; Mrs. Kellogg Fairbanks, of Chicago, western chairman; Mrs. Oscar Straus, of New York; Mrs. Philip Lyvermore, of New York; Mrs. T. D. Robinson, of New York; Mrs. S. H. Bullock, of Brooklyn; S. D. Mrs. James Garfield, of Mentor, O.; Mrs. H. B. Taylor, of Haverford, Pa.; Mrs. Ralph Sanger, of New York; Mrs. E. H. Hooker, of New York; Mrs. Medill McCormick, of Chicago; Mrs. Charles Bird, of Massachusetts; Mrs. Robert Bass, of New Hampshire; Mrs. Bourke Cockran, of New York; Mrs. Victor Metcalf, of Oakland, Cal.; Mrs. Frances Carolyn Burlingame, of California; Mrs. Thomas Hittchcock, of New York; Miss Helen Coster, of New York; Mrs. Joseph Stevens, of New York.

The plan that the women of the country could be of real service in furthering the financial fortunes of the progressive party originated here in New York and spread immediately to Chicago. The committee's work here is being done under the auspices of the office of the national treasurer, Elton H. Hooker, and the New York office will be located at the national headquarters in the Hotel Manhattan.

Now that the work of organization has been completed, it is planned to push the work with all speed throughout the country.

"It has been my experience so far," writes Mrs. Fairbanks from Chicago, "that it is not at all difficult, as the idea of going directly to the people makes a strong appeal. I find that women everywhere recognize the progressive platform but put them under a misapprehension as to what it means and are willing to help a cause that so directly affects them."

RATTLESNAKE BITE CURES ARIZONA MINER OF CHRONIC INSOMNIA

Flagstaff, Ariz., Sept. 30.—John Gustafson, bitten in the palm of the right hand about two weeks ago by a rattlesnake at Russell's mining camp in Copper Basin district, has fully recovered. The effect of being inoculated with the deadly venom, has had no bad results, but on the contrary it has cured insomnia from which he had been a sufferer for five years. He naturally attributes the cure to the counteracting of one poison by that of another. For the first time in many years he now passes into the land of nod with stretches of undisturbed sleep that endure for over ten hours on a single nap. However, he would not recommend the rattlesnake method of conquering insomnia.

RECEIVER IS APPOINTED FOR SOCORRO SMELTER

Socorro, N. M., Sept. 30.—The smelter company, which recently opened its plant here, has gone into the hands of a receiver. John Greenwald, Jr., has been appointed receiver by the court.

The trial of Henry Steen for the murder of Pat Gann began Saturday in the district court. The case is expected to occupy the attention of the court until the middle of this week of next. This is the only murder case to be tried at the present term.

Evidence of Execution of Testament Was Presented by Defendant in Action.

A technicality, based upon certain requirements of the statutes of New Mexico, yesterday ended the Dye will case, which has been in local courts for several years past. The suit had three hearings before a conclusion was reached.

The action was one brought by Mrs. Anna Butler Meece, a daughter of Mrs. I. A. Dye by a former marriage, to contest her alleged will. It was heard once in the district court, and no verdict was reached because of a dis-agreement of the jury. Later it was heard again, before Judge Ira A. Abbott, who held that as the plaintiff was then a minor, a guardian should be appointed for her before she could prosecute a suit. On this point the action went to the supreme court of New Mexico, which body held that Judge Abbott was right and sent back the case for retrial in the district court. It had been held by counsel for the plaintiff that the fact of her marriage entitled her to be considered as of age. Since this action of the supreme court, the plaintiff had become of age, and that phase of the matter did not enter into the hearing just completed. By stipulation between counsel, the testimony in the previous case was read to the court and jury, and no witnesses were called.

Yesterday the case was ended by the court holding that there had not been sufficient evidence introduced to show that the alleged testament was actually the will of Mrs. Dye. The New Mexico laws provide that the testator, when signing a will, must declare to the witnesses that the paper they are witnessing is actually his or her will. The only evidence showing that the testator in this case said anything at the time of signing the document, was a statement that she had asked for a book on which to write.

The decision amounts to a victory for the plaintiff.

Today the court will likely hear Lopez vs. Perez. There are two cases ahead of this, Mull vs. Mirabal and Roca vs. City of Albuquerque, but the plaintiffs in both are out of the city. It is expected that the first will go by the board, as counsel for the plaintiff is not sure he can get his party into the city in time for the suit to be called, while the other has been brought up several times and the plaintiff has been out of the city. Because of the crowded condition of the docket it is believed the court may ask the counsel to either waive a jury or go to trial without the plaintiff present. It is anticipated they will waive the jury.

Suit was yesterday filed by the First National bank against E. C. Allen and Wallace Hopwood, to collect $2,700 alleged to be due on a note given the bank of commerce last January and transferred to the plaintiff since that time. Costs, interest and fees are asked.

A marriage license was issued yesterday by County Clerk A. E. Walker to Emilia Chavez and Antonio Jose Maraga, both of Los Padillas.

A. W. BIKKER SUES E. BIKKER

On September 24, according to the civil docket, an action was filed by A. W. Bikker, a local accident insurance man, against Susie E. Bikker. An effort was made to suppress notice of the suit and the papers in the case were withdrawn by A. B. Robertson, counsel for the plaintiff, as soon as filed.

It is currently reported that this action is a suit for divorce. Mr. Robertson, however, stated yesterday that it was a suit to quiet title to some land, the southwest and southeast quarters of a certain section and township, etc., located somewhere west or east of a certain principal meridian. Mr. Robertson declared that Susie E. Bikker was a sister of the insurance man and that she lived in Texas, but that the plaintiff had managed to secure service upon her when she was in the city. He flatly denied that the action was one for divorce.

RAILROAD TO BUILD A HANDSOME CLUB HOUSE AT CARRIZOZO

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Carrizozo, N. M., Sept. 29.—The El Paso & Southwestern Railroad Company has begun the construction of a club house for its employees here, which when completed, will represent an outlay of $15,000. Carrizozo is a division point on the road between Tucuman and El Paso.

The plans call for a cement building with public bath covering plaster inside. The basement is to be devoted to bowling alleys, shower baths, billiard and pool tables and other modern amusements and conveniences. The second floor will house the library and lecture room and the same room. There will be a wide veranda fronting on the railroad for the men to rest upon also.

The survey and levels have been run for the building, which is to be located between the depot and the eating house upon the railroad company's 400 feet right of way. The inside dimensions of the building are to be 47 feet by 100 feet.

The start of this building, which has been a myth with the people for some time, was greeted with much enthusiasm when the contractors got here and made it appear that there is to be no question as to the immediate completion of the building.

F. B. Schwenker, Secretary of State Highway Association, Enthusiastic Over Sentiment of Community.

F. B. Schwenker, secretary of the New Mexico Good Roads association, returned yesterday morning from a visit to Las Cruces and Dona Ana county generally and yesterday waxed enthusiastic in praise of good roads enthusiasm in that section. He declared that in his opinion, Dona Ana county was the only county in the state which had taken up the matter of a county bond issue for good roads.

"That country down there is mighty strong for good roads," he said, "and so, so far as I know, the only county which has taken up the matter of a county bond issue for good roads. You know the last legislature provided a law by which the different counties can bond themselves for good roads purposes. They want a $100,000 issue down there and I think they are going to pass it with very few, if any dissenting votes."

"Then they are good roads boosters down there, anyway, and are going to send a big delegation up for Good Roads day at the state fair. They are strong boosters for the $200,000 state bond issue for good roads and are going to help make that easy to carry this fall."

ANCIENT LANDMARK TORN DOWN TO MAKE ROOM FOR LIGHTS

The old wooden awning which surrounded the Zeiger building, now used as a hotel and curio shop, was torn down yesterday to make room for one of the new ornamental lighting standards which was recently placed at that corner, First street and Central avenue.

The standard was placed some time ago but as the awning interfered with it, the cap and light globe were temporarily left off. They will be placed today. This was the last structure to cause any darkening of the rays of the new ornamental lighting system.

It was a portion of a building which has stood for many years and is a landmark to many of the old timers.

MATERIAL INCREASE IS SHOWN IN ENROLLMENT

A material increase in enrollment over the figures for the same period last year is shown in a table compiled yesterday by Superintendent John Milne, of the Albuquerque public schools.

Last year, the enrollment at the end of the first month was 1,718, while this year it is 1,15 greater, or 18.33.

Every school in the city, except the eighth grade, shows a gain, the second ward having the greatest, thirty-five. The first ward is next with thirty-four, while the high school gained twenty-eight. The eighth grade lost two.

The complete figures are as follows: First ward, 322; last year same date, 288; gain, 34. Second ward, 442; last year same date, 397; gain, 45. Third ward, 378; last year same date, 366; gain, 12. Fourth ward, 474; last year same date, 466; gain, 8. Eighth grade, 198; last year same date, 110; loss, 2. High school, 209; last year same date, 181; gain, 28.

M., Sept. 26.—The First National Bank of Magdalena opened its doors to the public last Monday, and with the launching of this new bank this town enjoys the distinction of possessing two banking institutions of more than average strength and of which Magdalena people are justly proud.

The new bank starts with a capital of $50,000, and a number of prominent men are among the stockholders, signifying its stability. Following are its officers: President, A. F. Kerr, of El Paso; vice president, F. G. Bartlett and Jose Y. Aragon; cashier, Allen Falconer.

Wickersham Favors Compulsory Voting

Editor Morning Journal:

In an article on the dangers of recall, over my own signature, that appeared in the Morning Journal of June 3, 1912, I outlined the obstacles that, in my opinion, seemed to exist to prevent any reasonable and just method of recalling judges and administrative officers. In that article, I declared that, in my opinion, the plan as proposed by the bull moose and democratic parties, was a ridiculous fetic, unwise and impracticable, besides being destructive of all representative republican form of government. That its advocacy by the leaders of those parties was insincere and a combination nothing short of a conspiracy of pretense.

My suggestion as a partial remedy for some of the prevailing ills of our political system, that a compulsory voting law should be enacted, was scouted by many as an infringement upon the sacred liberties of free-born citizens of the republic, and a mere pious proceeding from an inconsequential source. The writer notices, however, very much to his satisfaction, that another "dreaded" law comes to nothing.

In the Morning Journal of the 28th instant, the honorable Attorney General Wickersham is reported as using in an address before the Chester County Historical Society at Cedar-croft, Pa., the following language:

"We are now going through a period of popular agitation and upheaval; a large number of people are looking for modification of our form of government and the enactment and administration of laws by popular vote, to cure all the real and imaginary evils."

"Realizing that there should be no power without responsibility if American institutions were so modified, that a mere majority of these voting only after or make a constitution, law or decision, or choose, remove or control an official in his conduct, the law should compel every citizen, under heavy penalty, to exercise the voting franchise, so as not to lose the laws and rights of the people at the mercy of a mere minority."

"The writer feels much satisfaction in such a distinguished corroboration and endorsement of his humble opinion."

Enthusiasm Rules Conference of Party Leaders at Santa Fe; Vigorous Campaign is to be Carried Out.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.) Santa Fe, Sept. 30.—At a well-attended meeting today in this city the democrats of the state thoroughly canvassed the political situation in New Mexico and decided that there was no reason why the state should not go democratic this fall. However, in order not to overlook any facts, they decided to pull off their coats and go to work. As a matter of fact, there was accomplished at this meeting that at no other meeting the democrats have held this fall.

The financial outlook came in for its share of the discussion and plans were outlined which will amply finance the campaign. The speakers' bureau outlined its plans, which showed that more than twenty-four New Mexico speakers will be on the stump for the democrats, while the showing made by speakers of national prominence will be exceptionally good.

National democratic headquarters has prepared a list of speakers who will visit New Mexico, some of them to spend considerable time here. This list will be made public in a few days. Speaker Chas. Clark, ex-Governor Alvin Adams, of Colorado, and others of national reputation, will visit every section of the state.

The organization of the press and publicity bureau was completed and this department will start immediately handling material for the democratic newspapers of the state.

The Colfax county reorganization matter came up and the meeting adopted a resolution authorizing the officers of the state committee to reorganize the old organization until the reorganization was completed, in order not to hamper the work in that county.

Most of the democrats left for their homes this evening with the determination to get into the harness in order that New Mexico might line up with the great majority on November 4th.

AUTO SPEEDS ARE

DEMONSTRATED

Cars Filled with City Fathers
Are Run at Various Rates That Intelligent Ideas of the Proper Limit May be Had.

The discussions which have been going on in the city council of recent months as to the proper speed limit for an automobile was the subject of a limited when Sunday morning by the members of the council, the fire chief and the chief of police under the supervision of the mayor.

The mayor is an ardent advocate of the fifteen-mile an hour limit, and arranged the trip Sunday morning for the benefit of the debating Thomasas McDonough George H. not expected who desired that the limit should be ten miles.

It is expected that the result of the trip will be more liberal treatment of the automobile.

The cars used were W. H. Hahn's, George Deane and M. W. Plummer's.
All were run at speeds of five miles an hour, ten miles, fifteen miles, twenty miles and twenty-five miles.
When running at fifteen miles an hour, all three were stopped within ten feet of the word of Mayor D. K. H.
Schloss.

FIRE DEPARTMENT EXONERATED BY COMMITTEE

Thorough Investigation Into Alleged Delays in Handling Fires September 20th and 21st Discloses No Negligence

A thorough investigation of alleged delays at the Elks wholesale home and Santa Fe depot fires, September 20, and early on the morning of September 21, held last night by the fire committee of the city council, exonerated all members of the department from blame in connection with the loss of time and of other criticisms.
The losses which were occasioned were found to be due to unavoidable causes.

The committee is composed of S. L.
Coen, chairman, John Lee Clarke and Dr. J. A. Reidy. The investigation had been postponed several times because of difficulties in getting all the witnesses and all the committee together at the same time, but last night all went well and the hearing was completed. While held behind closed doors, a statement was given out for the press by Chairman Coen.
The committee examined four witnesses, Captain Fred Russell and Harry Fredericks, pipe man of the Second street department; Captain James Conroy, of the Highland department; and one other, whose name was withheld.

It appeared that there had been a delay in getting the auto fire engine out of the house on North Second street when the alarm came in from the Elks wholesale home fire, late Friday night, September 20. This delay was shown to have been between one and two minutes. It was acknowledged by one of the witnesses that he had been sleeping at the time when the alarm was made, causing the engine to "flood" and stop.

It was found that the auto fire engine reached the place at First street and Copper avenue, ready to commence work at the same time that the Highland horse drawn apparatus arrived. The horse drawn apparatus was coupled on at that place, and when it was seen that a pump stream was needed, the engine was taken to First street and Central avenue and a hose run from there.

The complaints against the firemen for going inside the building, breaking a window to gain entrance and using a large stream of water inside, was disregarded, because it was proven that there was a large amount of goods inside which were actually on fire, and that the women had to have a large amount of water with which to fight it. These women were estimated at one or two.

The charges of delay at the Santa Fe depot fire were admitted to be well founded, but it was proven that this delay was not attributable to the city department.

It was proven that the Santa Fe fire plus to which the fire engine was attached was "flooded" and that it required an unreasonable amount of time for the firemen to open it and turn on the water.

It was also shown the committee that there was over 700 feet of wet hose in the body of the truck, used at the Elks fire, which had to be uncoupled before the first hose could be run, and coupled up before the second line could be run.

The committee approved the action of Fire Chief J. Klein, who attended the meeting, in ordering all hose to be coupled up before being loaded into the trucks hereafter.

It also recommended the purchase of a double made and a double female coupling for the hose, in accord with suggestions from the fire chief.

Clothes Experience

Every man who buys a suit of clothes adds to his clothes experience, but there is not a man in the United States who has had as much experience with clothes as the makers of STYLEPLUS CLOTHES $17.

This concern is the oldest firm in the United States making garments today. Their experience covers 63 years and, in that time, they have made and sold over 50,000,000 garments.

STYLEPLUS CLOTHES are the product of this experience. Every stitch, every seam in 50,000,000 garments that preceded the advent of STYLEPLUS CLOTHES guarantees to every STYLEPLUS customer the utmost in clothes values. The makers back of STYLEPLUS CLOTHES have always specialized in medium-priced garments. They know more about their manufacture than any other concern in the world. It is because of this experience and the enormous modern factory that they operate that STYLEPLUS values are possible at this price.

BECKMAN IS CALLED FOR NEXT YEAR BY UNANIMOUS VOTE

Pastor of First Methodist Church Paid High Honor at Meeting of Official Board of His Pastorate Last Night.

Rev. Charles Oscar Beckman, for two years past pastor of the First Methodist church of this city, was last night paid as high a compliment as lay in the hands of his parishioners.
He was called to return to his pastorate for the coming year by a unanimous vote of the official board of the church, which held its annual session last night at the church.

Rev. Beckman has made a marked impression in local religious circles and has many friends and admirers.
The formal call sent the bishop of this diocese is but an evidence of his favorable record in the eyes of his parishioners.

The board transacted a large amount of business and presented its annual report as the church year ends today when Rev. Beckman leaves for Baton to attend the district conference. The meeting was attended by a large proportion of the thirty-six board members.

This report showed that the church had done $9,113 worth of business in the past twelve months. It has raised for benevolent purposes, $4,774, of which $3,500 came as a gift from Dr.
Thomas Harwood and the D. A. Por-terfield family for the Harwood Methodist hospital. This leaves $1,274 for the general benevolence of the church.

On local work $1,329 was expended.
This includes improvements, payment of church indebtedness and the general running expenses of the organization. The report showed that all running expenses for the year had been paid and a considerable reduction made in the standing indebtedness.

Rev. Beckman stated that he had received into the church, 121 persons in the past year, making a total of 250 received in the two years of his pastorate.

At Baton, Dr. Beckman will deliver the sermon for the Epworth League anniversary Wednesday evening, and Thursday afternoon he will speak at the W. H. M. S. meeting.

The formal call for his return to the church was addressed to Bishop P. J. McConnell.
