town for the night parade, remaining to take in the carnival.
At the park, besides the ball game between Santa Fe and Silver City, which proved the best of the attractions in the afternoon, there were two exciting motorcycle races, a harness race, running race, the cowboy and cowgirl quadrille, fancy riding and hand concerts throughout the afternoon.
Because of the regrettable accident to the binnacle of Aviator Lincoln Beachey on Tuesday, there were no flights yesterday by the aviator. Announcement was made at the fair grounds that the fair management had wired to the Curtis Aviation Company for another machine, and that it was certain one would be secured from Denver in time for flights on Friday and Saturday. The broken parts to Beachey's machine, which he wired to Los Angeles for on Tuesday evening, could not be repaired and when flights are resumed, they will be made in an entirely new machine sent on from Denver.
The balloon ascension scheduled for yesterday afternoon, did not take place, since it was impossible on the short notice given for the permit to get his balloon in shape to make an ascension and too late in the afternoon, and the ascension therefore, together with a parachute jump at an elevation of several thousand feet, will occur this afternoon and each afternoon until the last day of the fair.
Today's program of the fair grounds will be the best of any day of the week so far. What promises to be one of the best features will be the baseball game, starting at 1:30 o'clock, between the Albuquerque and Silver City teams, which are contestants for the first prize in the baseball tournament. There will be harness races, running races and the widely advertised New Mexico stake race for cow ponies, which is to be a half mile dash, with entries from practically every county in the state, and for which the purse is $100. There will be motorcycle races, broomstick, Indian and cowboy sports, and other events, giving an afternoon of complete entertainment to those who visit the fair grounds.
Yesterday the weather was perfect, and as the weather has been good all week, except for occasional clouds, much and with fair weather forecast for today, there should be nothing to prevent everything being carried out according to schedule.

INDUSTRIAL PARADE IS SCHEDULED FOR TODAY.

One of the largest features of today's fair program will be the annual industrial and trades display parade, which will traverse the principal downtown streets this morning, starting at the west end of Robinson park, where the numerous floats will be assembled. Albuquerque big industrial plants will be represented in the parade, including the Santa Fe show and the American Lumber Company. Many mercantile firms also will have elaborate floats in the parade. The makeup of the parade, together with the line of march, follows:

Formation.
The column will form on West Central avenue, right resting at Tenth street and Copper avenue, at the west end of Robinson park, at promptly 10 o'clock.
Line of March.
From place of formation east on Central avenue to First street, north on First to Copper avenue, west on Copper avenue to Seventh street, south on Seventh to Central avenue, east on Central avenue to First street, south on First street to Gold avenue, west on Gold avenue to Second street, south on Second street to Silver avenue, where the parade will be dismissed.
The Rendezvous.

JOHN BERRADALLE,
Grand Marshal.

TELEGRAMS PLAY IMPORTANT PART IN DYNAMITE HEARING
Managers of Offices in Many Cities Brought by Government to Testify in Cases on Trial at Indianapolis.
EMPLOYEES FAIL TO REMEMBER MESSAGES
Counsel for Defense Says Photographs of Structures Were Taken to Show Where Employment Might Be Secured.
(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Indianapolis, Oct. 9.—Telegrams signed "Ping," alleged to have been the alias of Herbert S. Hocking, and sent to Erie P. McManis, directing where "he drop dynamite bombs" on his trips about the country, were sought by the government through the examination of the first witness called in the trial of the accused dynamite plotters today.
Managers of the telegraph offices in Buffalo, Detroit, Toledo, Chicago, Cincinnati and Indianapolis, Evansville, Ind., and Salt Lake City, testified. With one exception they said the originals of telegrams asked for by the government covering a period as far back as 1908, had been destroyed in the ordinary course of business.
The government asserted it has possession of telegrams as received and it called the witnesses to show why the original messages sent cannot be produced.
When James W. Neel, one of the counsel for the government, asked why the telegrams were not produced, Senator Kern, counsel for the defendants, asked the witnesses, "You don't know that any such telegrams ever existed, do you?" The witnesses replied they could not remember individual messages.
The telegrams, Mr. Neel said, often were sent by Hocking, now acting secretary-treasurer of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, and at present on trial, to McManis' home in Chicago.
H. A. Knight, manager of a telegraph office at Salt Lake City, was the first witness to produce a telegram. The telegram was dated October 16, 1910, and was purported to have been signed by J. R. Munroe, known as "Jack Braght," one of the defendants. According to the government's charges, J. R. McManis, after blowing up the Los Angeles Times building on October 1, 1910, hid for two weeks in places secured by Munroe, J. J. McNamara, then secretary of the Iron Workers, had headquarters in Indianapolis, and was anxious about his brother after the Los Angeles explosion.
The telegram, as identified by Knight and by Mrs. Charles McManis, who was the courier clerk at Salt Lake City, follows:
"J. J. McNamara, Indianapolis. Everything is O. K. Glad to be coming. Patient is out of danger and will get well. It is impossible right along. You can depend on me to handle matters carefully. Will wire you if there is any change."
Signed, "J. R. Munroe."
It would be shown the government said that the "C" referred to was Eugene C. San Francisco, on trial here, who had been in Boston when the Times disaster occurred, and who was about to start on a fishing trip with Mitchell J. Young, of Boston, also a defendant, but none of the lost of life at Los Angeles induced C. to change his plan and after sending a telegram to San Francisco to "clean out the office," he decided to hurry west.
The examination of telegraph managers had not been concluded when court adjourned until tomorrow.
M. C. Tift, Minneapolis, counsel for Frank McNamara, counsel for Munroe, and Charles N. Baum, Minneapolis, in discussing the jury, said it would be proved that photographs of munitions work under construction were taken not for the use of the "dynamite band," but to establish the union as to where more employment might be had. The government had charged that Hocking, former members of the Iron Workers' executive board, visited Frank K. Paynter, of Omaha, about a "job to be done there, that at Winnipeg, he bought an arm and then to be used for settling up bonds, and that he called to supply money to carry out operations in Los Angeles."

GENERAL OROZCO'S FORCES NOW IN NORTHEASTERN MEXICO

Rebel Commander-in-Chief Gathers Army of 3,000 Men Unopposed by Federals in Neighborhood.

QUARTERS FIGHTERS ON AMERICAN RANCH

Political Significance Said to Attach to Fact That Insurrectos Avoided Property of Madero Officer.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 9.—General Francisco Orozco, with a rebel army estimated at 2,000 men, is located ninety miles southeast of the border below Del Rio, Texas, according to official advice received here today. It is said his force has been materially strengthened by recruits in the state of Coahuila, and that federal troops apparently are making no effort to pursue and engage the rebels. Some political significance is attached to the fact that Orozco did not permit his men to forage on the ranch owned by General Trevino, a federal commander in the state of Nuevo Leon, toward which Orozco's forces are moving. Instead, the rebel forces were moved onto the Becker ranch, an American property, where they are quartered.
ROJAS DEMANDS THAT MCTIZMA SURRENDER.
Douglas, Ariz., Oct. 9.—Word was received here today that Antonio Rojas, a rebel chief, had demanded the surrender of Miguel Mctizma, who is in command at Agua Prieta, opposite Douglas, at once dispatched 250 Yaqui Indians with orders to engage Rojas and prevent the attack.
REBEL BAND RAIDS IN COAHUILA STATE.
Monterrey, Mex., Oct. 9.—A band of ninety rebels is reported to be committing depredations at Lampazos, seventy-five miles southwest of Laredo, Texas. They belong to the force commanded by Marcelino Garza and are commanded by Joaquin Goya who was formerly a newspaper man in Monterrey. They appeared yesterday at Candela, Coahuila, demanding food and arms from the citizens. Today they were reported to be moving toward Laredo pursued by federal troops from Lampazos.

JAIL SENTENCES FOR SMUGGLING CHINKS

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 9.—No criminal record was found today among the personal effects of John Osterlin, master of the gasoline sloop Alert, captured yesterday off Point Reyes by the government cutter Golden State. Osterlin says he was fishing and smuggling chinks. He will be held pending further investigation.
Convicted on charges of smuggling Chinese into the port of San Francisco, from Lower California, on the launch Earl K. Captain Adolph Adolphson, William Sundgren, his mate, and Wai Mot, a Chinese confederate, were sentenced today by Judge Haven of the United States district court, to serve one year each in the Alameda county jail.

GIRL HUNTS DOWN FATHER'S MURDERERS

Jackson, Ky., Oct. 9.—After "30" Callahan, former sheriff of Breathitt county, Ky., was slain from ambush a few months ago, his daughter, Mrs. Clifton Cross, vowed to find the assassins. She spent many days and nights in the lonely mountain trails, seeking evidence, which when presented to a grand jury, resulted today in the indictment of fifteen members of the Denton faction.
The killing of Callahan was notable in one of Breathitt county's most bitter feuds.

BINGHAM STRIKERS ARE RETURNING TO WORK

After a Tie-Up For Three Weeks Operators Start Their Plants With Small Forces Under Guard of Deputy Sheriffs.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Bingham, Utah, Oct. 9.—After a tie-up lasting three weeks today of all the copper companies in Bingham, the Utah Consolidated Mining companies, which broke the long silence, this morning and forty former employees reported to the Utah Consolidated Mining companies, headed by Western Federation of Miners organizers, were on hand to return to work. They were met by deputy sheriffs who escorted them down upon them and in the midst of the crowd one of the organizers was pulled to the ground and his followers driven away.
The mine whistle at 4 o'clock announced the end of the strike and the men went to their homes under escort of deputies, who guarded each man's home throughout the night.
"We have broken the tie," said President R. H. Channing of the Utah Consolidated, who came from New York to take personal charge, "and we expect to show that this strike was called against the wishes of a majority of our company."
The attempt to resume operations will fail, said E. G. Locke, secretary of the local miners' union, "those who returned to work soon will see their mistake."
At noon three more men joined those who first started to work. No serious disturbance has occurred at a late hour tonight. A number of strikers made their appearance at the mine today and distributed notices among former Utah Consolidated employees, telling them to return to work. The notices contained a threat to blow up the homes of all those who returned to work. The men were driven down the cañon without offering resistance.

SUIT IS FILED TO TEST NEWSPAPER POSTAL LAW

Journal of Commerce Asks Court to Pass Upon Constitutionality of Act Compelling Statement of Circulation.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
New York, Oct. 9.—Suit to test the right of the government to enforce the federal newspaper law of August 24, 1912, was filed today in the United States district court here today by the Journal of Commerce and Commercial Bulletin company, publishers of the Journal of Commerce, against Postmaster General Hitchcock. Attorney General Wickersham, United States District Attorney Wise and Postmaster Morgan of New York. The petitioner charges that the law is unconstitutional and prays for a temporary injunction restraining its enforcement until final adjudication.
Turkish Italian War Near End.
Constantinople, Oct. 9.—The Turkish government has despatched a cable to Ghent, Switzerland, with final instructions with reference to the peace negotiations between Turkey and Italy. On his arrival the negotiations will be brought to a successful close.

MONTENEGRIN ARMY MOVES AGAINST TURKEY, ATTACKING FORTIFIED POSITION ON MOUNT PLAININTZAU

KING NICHOLAS' FORCES LED BY PRINCE PETER, WHO FIRES SHOT OPENING AN ENGAGEMENT

After All-Day Battle, in Which Sultan's Soldiers are Compelled to Evacuate Mountain and Retreat, Assaulting Force Moves Large Command of Infantry to Front in General Advance; Reinforcements Landed by Turks Later in Day and General Engagement Follows. Fighting Continuing as Night Comes On; First Clash of Rival Armies Presages Bloody Conflict in Balkan States, With Ultimate Outcome in Doubt.

RELATIVE STRENGTH OF RIVAL ARMIES.
That the way in the Balkan states may develop into a bloody conflict of great magnitude, with the final result hard to produce, is shown by the relative strength of the rival armies.
Montenegro, which has opened war against Turkey, is a small country, whose population is but 250,000, yet its standing army numbers 55,000 men.
Turkey, on the other hand, including both Turkey in Europe and Asiatic Turkey has a total population of over 25,000,000 people, with a standing army of 420,000, which may be swelled to almost a million by 500,000 reservists.
Offsetting Turkey's superior strength against Montenegro, however, is Bulgaria's army of 210,000 and reserves numbering 170,000. Serbia with a field army of 125,000 and reserve with an army of 25,000 making a total strength of the countries allied against Turkey of 345,000 fighting men, which, added to Bulgaria's 39,000, 60,000 and 170,000 reservists, brings the combined strength of the several countries up to 514,000.

GERMANY SEES WAR CERTAIN IN BALKANS.
Berlin, Oct. 9.—A general war in the Balkans practically has been inaugurated in the opinion of both German circles and the press in Germany.
One of the leading Berlin border received a telegram today from Belgrade stating that the declaration of war by Serbia would probably be declared immediately. Serbian troops it was stated, were being rushed by forced marches to the frontier.
Another telegram from Belgrade says the reply of the Serbian premier, M. Pasic, to the Austro-Hungarian representations, was unambiguous in rejection.
The solidarity of the Balkan states, he said, would be maintained at all costs.
SULTAN GOES TO PRAY FOR TURKISH SUCCESS.
Constantinople, Oct. 9.—The Sultan went to Topkapu palace today to pray over the rifles of the prophet for the state of the Ottoman arms. It is officially announced that the preliminaries in the peace settlement between Italy and Turkey will be signed Sunday. The powers have given notice that in event of war with Greece they will not recognize foreign cargo on Greek vessels detained by Turkey as least prizes of war.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Podgorica, Montenegro, Oct. 9.—The Montenegrin army opened war against Turkey this morning by attacking a strong Turkish position at Podgorica, Prince Peter, the young son of King Nicholas, fired the first shot. This was the signal for firing all along the line and an artillery duel ensued. Within twenty minutes fifty-five Turkish guns were silenced and the Turks retreated from their first position on Mount Plainintzau.
To noon the Turks had evacuated the mountain. Podgorica is the headquarters of the Montenegrin forces and amid the enthusiastic cheering of the people, King Nicholas with Prince Nicholas, his son, and staff, rode early to the front to survey the positions. The Montenegrin guns had been placed the night before and strong reinforcements of men were held in reserve should the Turkish forces press larger than the reports of the second day.

MONTENEGRIN KING ISSUES PROCLAMATION.
Cetinje, Montenegro, Oct. 9.—King Nicholas has issued a proclamation summoning the Montenegrins to go immediately to the assistance of their brethren in old Serbia, where he declares women and children are being massacred.
"Montenegro has hoped to secure the liberation of the Serbians in Turkey without the shedding of blood, but peaceful endeavors proved unavailing," continued the proclamation, "and no other resource was left but to take up the sword."
"We are assured in this holy undertaking of the sympathy of the civilized world, and we will have the loyal assistance of the kings of Serbia, Roumania and Greece, and their peoples, who have allied themselves with the Montenegrins."
This proclamation concluded:
"Montenegro is attacking Turkey not from motives of arrogance, but inspired by a noble resolve to prevent the final extermination of her brethren."

PRINCE WILL TAKE 6,000 CHICKS HOME TO FIGHT.
San Jose, Cal., Oct. 9.—Prince Laszlo, a nobleman of Serbia, who is here accompanied by his wife, formerly Mrs. Eleanor Calhoun, at this city, said that he would return to Serbia in two weeks with a brigade of 6,000 men to take part in the war against Turkey.

Taft Gives View OF CALIFORNIA LAW.
San Francisco, Oct. 9.—President Taft gave his opinion of the political situation in California today in his opinion expressed in a telegram received by Governor Bennett, chairman of the republican state campaign committee. President Taft telegraphed: "I am sure if the regular republicans are to be denied right of franchise through unjust action of the legislature now in control of California, their indefensible conduct will ultimately react to their injury. Whatever you do, I shall be grateful for your support."
"WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT"

ARMEN WILL FIGURE IN ARMEN WAR.
Paris, Oct. 9.—The French foreign office late tonight was without reply from Sofia, Athens or Belgrade. Air men are likely to appear for the first time in actual war. Turkey yesterday supplied eight monoplane in France, five in England and two in Germany. Bulgaria owns one monoplane and three bi-planes and the war department in Sofia has just ordered additional machines from Germany.
The Greek war department possesses six French biplanes and one by-

ALBUQUERQUE AND SILVER CITY TO FIGHT IT OUT

Santa Fe's Overwhelming Defeat Yesterday by Miners Eliminates Former Team From Baseball Tournament.

The battle for first prize money in the annual baseball tournament has narrowed down between Albuquerque and Silver City, beginning with a game this afternoon at Tractor park between these two teams, the remainder of the week, will be occupied with games each day until either Albuquerque or Silver City wins four games, which will return it the winners.

Santa Fe was overwhelmingly defeated yesterday by the score of 23 to 6 and when Captain McCarthy, of the Santa Fe club, saw his team had no chance to win the game, he consented to its being called at the end of the eighth inning to end the agony. Silver City having scored nine runs in its half of the eighth, bringing the total score for that team up to the skidding figure.

Silver City got off to a flying start, scoring five runs in the opening inning. Though Santa Fe managed by hard playing and timely hitting to make the game interesting up to the fifth, when it had scored a total of six runs, Silver City had no trouble in getting runs whenever they were needed and the game became a farce from the fifth inning on.

Credit must be given the Santa Fe boys for coming down here with half a team and recruiting the balance from local players. The local players started, too, for Chavez, Gonzalez and Salazar did as nice playing in the games in which they participated as members of the Santa Fe club, as has been seen in the tournament. Santa Fe was crippled in its pitching department, Zeller and McCarthy being the only men for box work and neither of them lays claim to being world-beaters as pitchers. Santa Fe gets third money, $100.

Beginning with this afternoon, the real fight of the tournament will begin. Silver City, by its victory yesterday, has won two games and lost none. Albuquerque has won a game and lost one, but expects to overcome this handicap by beating Silver City today. For the victors, Thomas, of the Wichita team in the Western league, a left-handed pitcher will likely work, while Captain Mori Graham will rely on Cain, a Texas leaguer, to do the pitching for the Albuquerque club. Cain is said to have been the last pitcher in the Texas league this season. Both weeks will be held in reserve by the locals, while Silver City has Jimmy Durham and Tommy Lechard to rely on in a pinch, both of whom are dependable pitchers.

The game today will start promptly at 2:30 o'clock.

The box score of the Silver City-Santa Fe game, played yesterday, follows:

WOODROW WILSON IS FIRST IN EXCITING INDIAN RELAY RACE
The two and one-half mile Indian relay race, which closed yesterday afternoon's program at the fair grounds, proved one of the most exciting yet held. The result was announced as follows:
First, Woodrow Wilson; second, William H. Taft; and third, Theodore Roosevelt. The Indians seemed to appreciate the joke as well as did the crowd, for a great shout of laughter burst up at the announcement.

METZINGER WINNER OF EXCITING 3-MILE MOTORCYCLE RACE

William Metzinger was the winner yesterday of the three-mile race for single cylinder, belt driven motorcycles, finishing far ahead of the other competitors in the race and covering the three miles in the fast time of 4:38 1/2, which is a record for the local half mile track. Clifford Elstett was second, and A. E. Beaudette, third. Ralph Whitcomb got off in the lead and was making a run away race of it when in the second lap his machine skidded on the first turn and a pedal was torn off and the rider severely shaken up, having his trousers torn and a finger on his right hand badly lacerated. However, he was game and, hastily righting his damaged motorcycle, again mounted it and rode in the race to the finish.

In the five-mile event, Clayton House finished first, by almost a quarter of a mile, A. E. Beaudette was second, and Charles Keppler, third. House's time was 7:10 1/2.

The motorcycle races furnished all the thrills that the crowd could possibly have desired.

CHICAGO TEAMS IN SCORELESS NINE INNING TIE GAME

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Pitchers ended a scoreless game between the Chicago Americans and the Chicago Nationals which began today in the opening game of a series to decide the baseball championship of Chicago. The contest was called in the ninth inning. Walsh pitched in rare form, holding the National batters to one hit. Tinker struck out a double in the fourth inning, and was the only Cub to reach second base. Schultz got one base in the second inning, on Earl's wild throw, but was caught napping a moment later. Only twenty-eight men faced Walsh, he did not issue a base on balls and struck out seven men.

Leveider, who opposed Walsh, also pitched a masterly game. He held the White Sox to six scattered hits and received brilliant support.

FRONTIER SPORTS AMONG FEATURES OF STATE FAIR

Cowboys and Cowgirls Help Entertain Crowds Which Throng Tractor Park Each Day; Broncho Busting Today.

The principals of the Cowboy-Cowgirl quadrille which has been meeting with such success at the State fair are Mrs. Ben Ward, Mrs. W. K. Summers, Miss Edna Smith, Miss London, Mr. Ted Sparr, Mr. William McClellan, Mr. William Blecher and Buck Conner.

These people, while being local talent, with the exception of Buck Conner, are also members of the St. Louis Motion Picture Company, which have been in the city for a number of weeks taking pictures. Mr. Conner is assistant director of the picture company and is handling the cowboy sports of the fair in conjunction with Messrs. Sparr and McClellan. The addition to the quadrille of Miss London makes this a most capable aggregation of horsemen and horsewomen.

Among the bucking bronchos to be ridden at the fair today is "Spitter," a new buck for Albuquerque fans. It is not yet decided who shall be the rider of this animal as the cowboys are to pitch dollars to see who is the lucky (?) one.

The roping exhibitions are put on by Sparr and Conner. They introduce very clever work. Mr. Conner making all of his catches clean, especially those made by throwing the rope by his foot over the horse and the cowboy who rides for him. Mr. Sparr continues his roping to straight roping and in fair roping which he is hard to beat.

Mrs. Summers seems to be the lucky cowgirl in the money so far held, having won two out of three, chiefly followed by Mrs. Ward and Miss Staehlin. The Indians under Billy McClellan and Joe Plater put up a fine exhibition of relay roping and much more may be expected of them before the closing day of the fair.

CARDINALS ANNEX OPENING GAME WITH ST. LOUIS BROWNS

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 9.—A base on balls to Blum, who was batting for Chicago in the tenth inning, with all the bases occupied, today gave the local National league team the opening game of the inter-league city championship series with the American league club.

The game was hard fought all the way. The Nationals scored first on timely hits and an error and the Americans scored their runs and went ahead on a sacrifice. A base followed by three hits tied it for the Nationals in the eighth inning. In the tenth, slow fielding by the Americans permitted the Nationals to fill the bases. Two were out when the winning run crossed the plate.

Score: St. Louis Nationals, 4; 10; 3. St. Louis Americans, 6; 9; 1. Batteries: Raymond, Hoover and Henson; White, Hamilton and Anderson. Pitchers: Two base hits. Fielding: Three base hits. Evans, Texas on John-Hamilton; G. Meyer, 1. Struck out—Harrison, 2; Cooper, 2; Hamilton, 2; Hughes—Pomeroy and others.

ATHLETICS MAKE IT TWO OUT OF THREE WITH THE NATIONALS

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—The Philadelphia Athletics won their second game in the local inter-league series today. Tonight, the young Oregon pitcher, pitched for the former world champions and only three hits were secured off his delivery. Chalmers pitched a stout game for the Athletics, but received poor support.

Score: Philadelphia Athletics, 4; 9; 0. Philadelphia Nationals, 0; 2; 1. Batteries: Hunk and Gump; Chalmers and Killefer.

CHAVEZ AND RYAN BOUT TONIGHT AT ELKS THEATER

Trinidad Bantamweight and San Francisco Featherweight to Battle Ten Rounds to a Decision.

Trained to the minute and both confident of victory, Benny Chavez, of Trinidad, and Tommy Ryan, of San Francisco, are scheduled to battle ten rounds to a decision before the New Mexico Athletic club at the Elks theater tonight, in the midst of an all-star card arranged for local fans and visitors to the fair. proved bantamweight champion of the West. Meanwhile, Ryan, one of the best Mexican fighters to be developed in recent years, lately who is as fresh as the wind, would indicate that he fought very hard during the last two years, won every one of them, with the exception of a few draws, and is considered one of the cleverest and most intelligent of the Pacific coast fighters.

The outline of the fight which opened in the main hall tonight is shown by the last failure in which they participated. Chavez fought Monte Atell, of Pittsburgh, in a war which ended in a draw, winning a foul from Atell in the twelfth. Atell undoubtedly delivered the foul to prevent a knockout. On two days before in Toronto, Nov. 10, July 10, he had fought White Canale, a twenty-round draw. Chavez is one of the coolest fighters who ever stepped into a prize ring. He has a vicious punch and is lightning fast on his feet. Ryan is also a cool-headed fighter and is more of a fighter than a boxer and can give as well as take a pretty hard punch.

In the semi-final fight, Charley Pierson, of Denver, better known as "The Fighting Newsboy," will battle tonight to a decision with Al Smallding, a local middleweight who has demonstrated his ability as a boxer from an early age. Pierson declared last night that he would win from Smallding without difficulty.

All going to be a knockout, said Pierson. "I am nothing but right. Pierson, in his opinion, is a Thinker. He is a day and a night to have his fight Smallding, this one. But the day for the decision any way. I'm going to try to win quick. Watch me and start."

Pierson has battled some of the best in the business, including Jack Little, of Omaha, "Wildcat" Ferns, of Kansas City, and a number of other well-known fighters. Pierson drew with Ferns in a fifteen-round war and is anxious to meet the Kansas City man again at any time, any place and on any terms.

The ticket sale for the bout tonight has been very large. It is believed that standing room will be at a premium and there will likely be a final rush for tickets today at Matson's. Popular prices will prevail for the bouts.

LORD ALLEN WINS TROTTING CLASSIC AT LEXINGTON

Card at Kentucky Horse Breeders' Association Meeting Featured by Fine Racing in Two Events.

(By Morning Journal Special Teased Wire.) Lexington, Ky., Oct. 9.—The card at the fall meeting of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' association today was an unusually good one, having as features the Walnut Hill cup and the Kentucky Futurity for two-year-olds.

The former was hotly contested and the finisher of the four heats were so close that in several instances the crowd was in doubt as to which had won until the official announcement was made. Doris Medina, a three-year-old, won the cup, beating the veteran driver, Ed O'Pee, Geers, being the fourth horse that Geers had driven to victory in this stake.

Lord Allen, by Tregentle, owned by Edward Lord, and driven by Mrs. Donald, landed the two-year-old division of the Kentucky Futurity in two straight heats. Lord Allen is a full brother of Alcide, who two weeks ago surprised the trotting world by going a mile in 2:15 3/4 and setting a new world's yearling record. Sweet Alice was the contender in the race. Summary:

The Futurity, 2-year-old division, value $2,000, 12 in 3.—Lord Allen first; Sweet Alice, second; Don Chamois, third. Best time, 2:14.

The Walnut Hill cup, for 2-15 trotters, value $3,000, 14 in 3.—Doris Medina won; Dave Hall, second; Ruth McGowan, third. Best time, 2:07 1/2.

2-year-old class, purse $3,500, 12 in 3.—Horse Girls, first; Archie, second; Grace, third. Best time, 2:04 1/4.

ALBUQUERQUE NEW MEXICO

THE FIGHT STILL ON.

Some time ago, the Santa Fe New Mexican, owned by the young millionaire reformer, Mr. Bronson Cutting, printed an attack on former Governor Herbert J. Hagerman. It was intimated that the New Mexican was in possession of facts that would be greatly to the detriment of Governor Hagerman if they were made public. As Governor Hagerman has always stood as a model of personal and official integrity in New Mexico, the Journal, the Evening Herald of this city, and the Roswell Morning News called on the New Mexican, practically simultaneously, for its facts. In the absence of them it was suggested by each of the newspapers above mentioned that the only honorable thing to do would be an apology.

Governor Hagerman has taken no part in this campaign. He was a most active and energetic worker in the campaign last year when the state was redeemed from the corrupt rule of the republican "gang." When the so-called progressive movement in this state fell into the hands of the worst part of the gangsters against which he fought, he, Associate Justice R. H. Hanna, Captain W. H. Gilman and Levi Hughes quit the movement in disgust. They were the brains and the chief financial backers of the independent movement a year ago that resulted in the election of McDonald as governor and Ferguson as congressman. Mr. Cutting worked with them, but not so with the men who are surrounding him now.

In order to detract from the influence of the exodus of these men, the Santa Fe New Mexican now attacks Governor Hagerman by insinuation. When called to account for it, we understand a private apology was made to Governor Hagerman, but publicly, the matter remains unexplained and unretreated.

With the progressives resorting to such reprehensible methods and the republican state chairman trying to retortate Frank Hubbard as boss of Bernalillo county, can there be any question as to where any man who wants to see good government in New Mexico should stand his lot?

The fight began last year for clean government was only partly won. If the victory is to be made worth while, it must be followed up and carried to victory again this year. The struggle has been watched, not killed; because a republican crook becomes a progressive crook does not make him straight.

"THOU SHALT NOT STEAL"

"Thou shalt not steal" is a good commandment. It didn't have to be handed down to Moses and the throng and snaky of Mt. Sinai to have the righteousness of it recognized as a principle ancient and modern, civilized and savage. Without it, society could not exist.

But Theodore Roosevelt is proved, like it is his own discovery. He is preaching it from every pulpit from which he speaks. But like all the other things advocated by him, he wants it applied where it will favor him and ignore where his cause will be better served by theft.

Orville McAllister has just testified that he owed $2,500 to Ferguson in his efforts to secure southern delegates to the next year's southern convention had been held before Roosevelt threw his hat in the ring. The delegates were instructed for Taft through the influence of Mr. McAllister and the money he used, easterners were instituted from every southern state and an effort was made to have them sustained by the national committee. These fake contests had the approval of Mr. Roosevelt and were made the basis of claims for his nomination by Mr. Roosevelt's manager, Senator Dixon.

In all of that nefarious business, Colored Roosevelt saw nothing wrong, because if the theft could be made stick he would be the beneficiary. But what a howl he set up when the cause was decided against him!

In California and South Dakota we have the spectacle of the disfranchisment of the regular republicans and candidates for electors committed to Roosevelt, who has cut himself entirely loose from the republican party, running on the republican ticket.

Since the electoral college became an expression of party organization, never before has there been a question of the loyalty of an elector chosen by any state. When the Hayes-Tilden controversy was threatening the country with civil war, it was proposed that James Russell Lowell and some others who had been elected as republicans and who believed that Tilden had been elected, cast their votes for him. They declined to do so on the ground that it would be betraying a sacred trust and would be setting a precedent that might lead to the most dire results to the country.

The situation in California and South Dakota contemplates the most barefaced and outrageous theft. But Roosevelt sees nothing wrong in it, because he is to be the beneficiary of it. The same thing was proposed in Kansas, but William Allen White would have none of it, and the Roosevelt electors were asked by him to resign from the republican ticket. All of them did so except one.

THE STATE ON NOTICE.

The people of Bernalillo county, of the state in fact, must view with regret the action of the republican state chairman, Mr. Herbert W. Clark, in respecting the resignation of Hon. Eliego Jara as chairman of the county central committee, for the purpose of putting in Frank A. Hubbard, or some one Mr. Hubbard may name.

Mr. Clark has been regarded as a superior young man. His selection to the chairmanship was interpreted as an effort on the part of the republican party to disassociate itself from the men who have made the name odious in this state. It was in line with the nomination of Mr. Nathan Jaffa for governor.

Against Mr. Jaffa's public or private record nothing could be said except that he had no experience in legislative matters and, during the last campaign he had unfortunately aligned himself in a letter, given to the newspapers, against the "blue hatched" amendment, showing that he does not believe in the rule of the people and does not believe in a constitution that can be amended.

But the action by Mr. Clark may be classed as a blunder of the first magnitude. Had he thought Mr. Jara not suitable material for county chairman, there would have been a difference of opinion, but it would have had no special political significance. But when it is shown that the motive was to restore the rule of Hubbard in this county, the business men and taxpayers of Bernalillo county are put on notice at once.

Furthermore, the people of the state cannot ignore the significance of the incident. As fast as Governor McDonald's auditors have got to counting, the worst possible state of corruption has been found to exist. The latest report is on Socorro county, where it was shown that county warrants had been used to pay campaign workers for the republican party last fall.

The effort to put Hubbard back in the saddle is notice that the success of Taft and Jaffa will mean the return of the old gang to power in the state, and things will be continued in the future in the past—the diversion of taxes from the poor for which they are intended.

THE ESSENTIAL FACTS.

The New York World says editorially:

"Carefully analyzing all of Mr. Roosevelt's various statements in regard to the Standard Oil contribution, we find the facts to be essentially as follows:

1. The Standard Oil Company never contributed to his campaign fund.
2. If the Standard Oil Company did contribute $100,000 to his campaign fund he never knew about it.
3. As soon as he heard of the Standard Oil Company's contribution, he ordered the $100,000 returned.
4. The money was not returned, but if it had been returned Frank of the steel trust would have made good the deficit.
5. Everybody is a liar."

Governor Bailey has denounced the support of Taft since Mr. Taft has assured him that he was not nominated at the Chicago convention. At least that is the report.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt says 50,000 wives are supporting their husbands in New York. That is reasonable if the husbands are candidates for office, otherwise not.

President Taft, of Yale, thinks he should distrust the leadership of a man who loses his temper. Wonder if "Jokers" ever had a collar button?

William Salter jumped against Taft's nomination last year before he was nominated for governor of New York.

A seventh son of a seventh son of a seventh son has just been born at Pittsburgh, but according to reports he is making the same sort of noise that was made by the other six.

The Honorable Albert J. Beveridge is the chief backer of the Bull Moose cause. It seems that the people of New Mexico are bent on remembering the unfair attitude Beveridge took while head of the senate territorial committee to defeat New Mexico statehood. It will be recalled that his report was most unjust to the native people of this state. Yet it is probable that if Roosevelt should be elected, Beveridge would be made secretary of state. He and Roosevelt would then put in several hours each day telling each other what great men they are.

Senator Smith states that the investigating committee has not decided to make any recommendations relative to intervention in Mexico. Senator Fall agrees to the statement. Wonder if Fall will deny it tomorrow?

The leading republican newspapers in South Dakota are supporting Wilson, because the Taft men have no electors on the republican ticket.

Governor Wilson believes New York democracy has turned that critical point in history without losing a wheel.

According to the Free Press, will went up in Detroit to 9 cents a quart without straining itself any.

The impregnable fortress in Nicaragua fell easily before the charge of American marines.

Mr. Hill is looking for a landslide for Mr. Taft. Taft will be under it.

POULTRY EXHIBITS CREDIT TO STATE SAYS TAYLOR

Judge at Fancy Bird Show Declares People May Well Feel Proud of Showing Made at New Mexico Fair.

By L. C. Taylor.

Judge of State Fair Poultry Show. The poultry exhibit at the New Mexico state fair is one that the people of the state may well feel proud of. The several hundred birds on exhibition show what can be done in the new state. Then, too, the people of other states have sent in their exhibits, which will prove a lasting advertisement for them.

The Barred Rocks are very fine, especially the exhibit of Mr. Welland, of Montana, California, his exhibit exceeding only a very little the exhibit of J. D. Nugent, showing that the best birds do not all come from away from home.

The White Rock class is small, but of fine quality. White Wyandottes, likewise, are small in number, but the first pen shows very good quality. A pen of Columbian Wyandottes are shown and they, too, are of good quality. The White Leghorns are out in large numbers, some as fine birds as I have met anywhere. Very little difference being shown between those winning first, second and third places. Black Minorcas are a good exhibit.

A pen of Anconas shown by E. E. Thomas, of this city, attracted considerable attention, being very fine birds. In the orpingtons, J. J. Dean, of Montana, California, is showing three pens of very fine quality. "Tyndie Wells, of Old Albuquerque, has some young stock that when fully matured will be heard from. In White Orpingtons, M. H. Stevens, of Las Cruces, has the largest exhibit, winning again this year the Thomas E. Butler silver cup for best pen of White Orpingtons, as well as the $20 for the best exhibition pen in the show. The Black Orpington exhibit, which, small, shows fine quality and owing to the superintendent, Mr. John Huber.

The Rhode Island Reds are out in full force, E. E. Pollock, of Silver City, showing two pens of extraordinarily good birds.

Other varieties in the show are Black Langshans, Red Langshans, Cornish Games, Bantams, Turkeys, Dicks and Game.

Special mention should be made of the general exhibits of Theodore Wells, A. B. Graham, E. S. Hall, L. E. Thomas, H. E. Booth and J. G. Gentry. I have visited the yards of Mr. Wells, Mr. Thomas and Mr. Hall, and find them up-to-date breeders, who are seeing the signs of the times, and in my judgment will do much to help put the poultry business on a substantial basis.

Taking the exhibit as a whole, I find it is up-to-date, and not much cannot be said of the courtesy extended to the exhibitors and to myself by the management. Especially do I want to thank Mr. Ruch for the many kindnesses extending to me during my short stay in your beautiful city.

CHILD KICKED FROM TRACK TO SAFETY

Sioux City, Ia., Oct. 9.—Miss C. Dodge, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. J. A. Dodge, today saved the life of a child and kicked the child from the track as the train sped by.

The little boy, who landed in a ditch by the track, suffered minor injuries about the head and body. When Engineer Ross looked out of his cab window between Jefferson and Chicago in South Dakota, he saw a child playing on the track.

Seeing the train could not be stopped, Engineer Dodge jumped out on the running board and made his way to the child. While the train was going fifteen miles an hour he reached out with his foot and knocked the little boy from the track.

DONA ANA COUNTY PEOPLE OF BELEN WILL RATIFY BOND ISSUE URGE REBUILDING OF BRIDGE

Enthusiastic Sentiment in Favor of Step Toward Better Roads, Declares Francis E. Lester Last Night.

Some hint of the enthusiastic sentiment which exists in Dona Ana county relative to the passage of the proposed $500,000 bond issue may be gained from a statement made last night by Francis E. Lester, of Las Cruces. Mr. Lester accompanied the delegation from the Media Valley to this city yesterday and took an important part in the good roads association proceedings.

"We are going to roll up an almost unanimous vote in favor of the state road bond issue, in Dona Ana county on November 20th," he said. "Our county is fully alive to the great benefits that will come by voting favorably on the proposed $500,000 road bond issue. We are up here in Albuquerque to help arouse the people of the state to the great necessity for favorable action on this proposed issue. If the bond issue fails to carry, it will set back the good roads movement in New Mexico not less than ten years."

"People don't get into it under the idea that the proposed bond issue carries with it no interest in taxation whatever. Both the proposed and interest of the proposed bonds are to be paid out of the one mill state road tax that has been collected for three years past. By voting these bonds it simply means that instead of patchwork road building and the expenditure of small amounts in different parts of the state, we will capitalize upon our road tax and get $500,000, which is enough to build good state highways in every county of our state."

"Every county of the state will get its proportion of this $500,000, according to the amount of state taxes that it pays. Bernalillo county will get about $15,000; Chavez county about $42,000; Dona Ana county about $50,000."

"The more people look into this matter of the proposed road bond issue, the more objection can there be to it. It means taking $500,000 of the money from the banks and trust companies and investing it at a low rate of interest in highways for every one of our counties, upon which our citizens will reap dividends of not less than twenty-five per cent. It means decreased cost of hauling, better country schools, and increased property values."

"In Dona Ana county we have been figuring over this matter of good roads for sometime past. We find that our alfalfa crop alone we are losing over $10,000 a year because of our bad roads. This money is so much money taken out of the pockets of our farmers. We are determined to end this state of things, and we have already arranged for a county road bond issue of $100,000, which we shall vote on this night, and we figure that by wisely expending the money we shall reap dividends of over twenty-five per cent on the expenditure every year."

"There are just fifty-one men from Dona Ana county in our delegation. They are men from every walk in life, representative citizens that have come up here at their own expenditure of time and money to arouse greater interest in this important matter of good roads. Our delegation is organized throughout, with chief leaders, secretary, press agent and treasurer."

Petition County Commissioners to Make Repairs to Structure Spanning Rio Grande; Horse Thieves Busy.

(Special Correspondence in Morning Journal.)
Belen, N. M., Oct. 9.—The board of commissioners of Valencia county held its regular meeting at Los Lunas on Monday of this week. In addition to routine business, the board received a petition from the residents of Belen and vicinity asking that a new bridge be erected across the Rio Grande at this point. It will be remembered that the old bridge was washed out this spring by the high waters in the river.

There seems to be some difficulty in taking immediate action on this matter, and District Attorney John E. Griffith of Socorro has the matter under advisement. In speaking of the matter Chairman Eugene Kempfman of the board of commissioners said: "I desire to see the bridge built at Belen, and I am for it as much as anybody. The board will finance it if it is possible to do so in any way."

The commissioners also issued county warrants for the payment of all of the salaries of the county officials, and also for the payment of bills which have been incurred by the county during the past quarter. Adjournment was taken late Monday afternoon.

During the past two weeks various residents in this vicinity have been bothered by horse thieves. A number of animals have disappeared. The mother was brought to the attention of mounted police, and Captain Forrest and Sergeant John Collier have been on the ground for the last several days. On Monday Mr. Collier succeeded in arresting Jose Ballen, of Torrance county. The prisoner was brought to Belen and after giving bond for his appearance in the sum of $1,000 was released. It is understood that there is considerable evidence against Ballen, he having attempted to dispose of some suspicious looking horses to horse buyers of Belen.

NATIVE IS STABBED IN SALOON BRAWL ON FIRST STREET

Jose Gutierrez, a native of Old Mexico, was seriously wounded about 4 o'clock yesterday morning in a saloon brawl on South First street. The fight is said to have started in the Arcade saloon.

Gutierrez was taken to his home and medical attendance rendered him, it not being thought necessary to take him to a hospital. He lives at 722 East street.

His alleged assailant was Jose Adams, a workman at the Santa Fe shops, who was arrested shortly after the affray and is now lodged in the city jail.

He will not be given a preliminary hearing today. He was held in $500 bond to appear at 10 o'clock this morning before Justice of the Peace George R. Craig.

DECLARES BRITISH CANNOT HEAD OFF MOTOR CAR INVASION

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.) Indianapolis, Oct. 9.—Word has been received here that British manufacturers propose forming a $25,000,000 company to compete with American automobiles and drive them back from the British market.

George M. Dickson, general manager of the National "40" Company, declares that such an understanding is hopeless because he believes that the American made motor car is too widely recognized as being superior to be stopped now.

"The invasion of the American made motor car into foreign lands, especially Great Britain, was handicapped at the start by the bad taste left in the mouths of the British business men due to the inferior bicycles that America at one time unloaded upon them," says Dickson. "I do not mean that all the bicycles sent over from here were bad, but a great many were, enough to make the British shy of the motor car. But from the first day the American made motor car put its rubber shoes on the British soil it has made good upon its own merits. There is absolutely not a single day of bad reputation to be lived down by the motor cars."

The American business man has a large horizon; he is out after the trade of the world at large, basing his claim upon the merits of his goods and his own enterprise. Nothing in my opinion illustrates better this keen business activity both in spirit and quality of production than the motor car business of America. I do not think the invasion of American made cars abroad can be stopped. I do not believe that the British manufacturing processes are as advanced as the American. I do not believe the British government, but the automatic machinery and systems of efficiency of American factories are far superior. The reputation of American made cars for quality is a matter of world-wide knowledge and is winning for us increasing favor abroad."

Shows Republicans Leagued
With Big Business.

GUGGENHEIMS HAVE ALASKA IN GRASP

Democratic Candidate Asserts
That People of Washington
State Cannot Buy Coal From Territory.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal)
St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 9.—Senator
Clayton, chief of the Clapp committee,
today in Illinois and Missouri.

The crowd at the fair grounds in Springfield was a big one.
"My thought about both Mr. Tamm and Mr. Roosevelt," said the governor in his speech, "is that of entire respect, but these gentlemen have been so intimately associated with the policy of this government for almost a generation that they cannot look at the affairs of the United States
with the view of a new era and changed circumstances."

"And those who have framed these policies have framed the protective tariff, have developed the trusts, have coordinated and ordered this great economic forces in this country. In such fashion that nothing but an outside force breaking in, will disturb their domination and control."

The governor reached St. Louis late today and went to the banquet of the democratic association of Missouri and then to the St. Louis coliseum for a big meeting.

"The presidential nominee referred
in his speech here to the revelations of the Clapp committee in Washington."

"You have not been taken by surprise by these revelations," said Governor Wilson. "You have known all along that the big business interests
of this country have supported the republican party, with the expectation that the republican party would take care of them. That this is the system by which the republican party
has been maintained."

"Now, we are here to face with this problem. How can a party saddled
with this system govern the country?
Why is it that the people of the state
of Washington cannot buy coal out of Alaska that is rich in waiting to be used? It is because the government does not yet know how to prevent the Guggenheims, and men like them, from closing their hands on Alaska."

Governor Wilson's reception in St.
Louis was almost a continuous demonstration in the halls and in the streets where marchers in campaign gear paraded. The coliseum was packed. The governor's wife was for a moment that he could hardly be heard.

NEW YORK GIANTS AND BOSTON TIE IN SENSATIONAL 11-INNING GAME

Second Contest of World's Championship Baseball Series
Without Advantage,
Darkness Ending Battle.

MATHEWSON FAILS TO BEAT RED SOX

Tris Speaker Again Hero, Saving Day for Team Mates by Smashing Out Triple and Scoring in Tenth.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Boston, Oct. 9.—The second contest of the world's series between the Boston American leaguers and the New York Nationals today went eleven innings to a tie, score 6 to 6, when darkness put an end to the battle. The game was played in the old, but recently renovated, Fenway park.

The contest will be played over tomorrow at Fenway park.
With one victory registered for the Red Sox, Manager McGraw sent out
his star pitcher, Christy Mathewson,
to capture the second game for the Giants. Mathewson had been in the box for about two weeks to win the first game he pitched, but tonight the Red Sox still gloomed over their one victory
and no game lost, with the dreaded Mathewson worn out with a hard pitched eleven innings game.

Tris Speaker, the Red Sox center
fielder, furnished the dramatic entrée, in the contest where fortune
played fairly with first base and then the other teams. The ninth inning found the Red Sox and the Giants locked in a score of 5 to 5. The Red Sox left hander, Ray Collins, had been driven from the box in the eighth inning by a shower of hits, and
had had been sent to relieve him.

Mathewson pitched a three-bagger
in the tenth inning, and the home
club was in a position when he scored on a sacrifice hit.

In the fading light it was difficult for the Red Sox to follow the course of Mathewson's big drop and New York left center, Yerkes, had been turned back at the plate and the big crowd looked to Speaker. The tie of chance outer gardeners moved far afeld.

Mathewson wound up and sent a fast fastball to the plate. Speaker was a weeked swing and the ball was sailing far over Becker's head in center.

Speaker pointed first, then second and good to this point. The ball bounded from the back fence and Becker seized it and threw to Shaffer, who momentarily forgot it. Speaker hoisted at third, then sped for the plate and slid under catcher Wilson, who fumbled Shaffer's relay throw. That was the score and the crowd went wild.

To make sure that he had touched
the plate, Speaker returned and touched the plate a second time before Wilson recovered the ball.

The Boston took the jump in the first inning and scored three runs by hitting Mathewson hard, but the Giants, undisturbed, fought back and
by peeping away at Collins' delivery,
picked up a run in the second and another in the fourth inning. Boston tallied another score in the fifth inning, but New York was not able to believe and when Lewis dropped Snodgrass fly, at the opening of the eighth inning they started a hitting rally
that caused Manager Stahl to hurry
Hall to Collins' relief. Three runs already were over the plate on an error,
a single and two doubles. This gave
New York a lead of one run.

The Giants held their lead but a moment.
Giants held their lead but a moment.
Giants held their lead but a moment.

Mathewson's first error, a sacrifice
batted ball, was coupled with a fly by Fletcher, the fifth run was sent over the plate. Then came the exciting tenth with Merkle's hit and Speaker's mighty smash to the centerfield fence.
Fletcher was broken hearted tonight over his poor game at shortstop for New York. Two of his three starting errors aided materially in the making of runs by the Red Sox.

Wagner started at shortstop for Boston, according to tradition and executing a brilliant play in the ninth inning, when on the dead run he separated Fletcher's grounder with his cleared hand turned and with a right
shot throw, that Stahl also took with one hand, called Fletcher at first.

There was an unusual bit of base stealing in the game, for a world series contest, five bases being pilfered. Of these, Hooper stole two and Stahl one for the Red Sox, while Snodgrass and Herzog each beat Carrigan's throws.

Hooper, the Red Sox catcher, had a bold day. He knocked out three hits, with two bases, scored once, and
stole in three runs in the outfield.
Murray and Herzog were the heavy hitters for the Giants. Murray duplicated his telling work of yesterday
with his hitting by hammering out a single, a double and a triple. Herzog
also garnered a single, a two-bagger
and a three-base hit, and sent up a sacrifice fly opportunely. Mathewson's control was perfect. He did not leave
a base on balls and fanned four men.
Doyle played a scintillating game at second for New York.

"We have stopped the Red Sox on their home grounds," said Manager McGraw tonight, "and the town is well satisfied. We have shown that the Giants were game and that gameness is going to count a great deal
more before the series is over."

"The Red Sox always have felt that Mathewson was the only man
they had to beat," said Manager Stahl. "I think today's game, while it did not end in a victory, shows that we can hit the New York pitcher,
whose work today must have tired
him out."

Doyle handled the big crowd with ease, and the excitement of a few base hits in the outfield stands, every seat was taken. Tickets brought three times the regular price of three dollars for the grandstand. The total attendance today was 49,148 with total receipts of $58,169, of which the players' share was $21,519.26, and each club received $10,509.42. The National commission's share was $5,580.36.

Umpire "Silk" O'Loughlin announced that a ball that went high
and temporary stand extending along the left field bank would consider a two-base hit and a drive into the stands in center and right field
would go for a home run.

Manager Jake Stahl having elected
to send in Ray Collins, a left hander,
to do the pitching, the make-up of the lineup was in doubt until the various players actually took their turn at bat. Snodgrass proved to be the first man on.

There was a cheer when Collins
served up the first strike and on the next ball pitched the New York outfielder hooked a long hit into the left field bleachers for two bases.
This put Collins in a hole right at the start, but he was right on his task
and turned Captain Doyle back to the bench as his first strike-out victim.
Doyle had tried hard to put Snodgrass on third but Collins' curve foiled him. Becker, who went into the game because Doyle does not take kindly to left-handers in the box, was an easy out. Yerkes to Stahl, Snodgrass going to third. Murray failed to touch first, ending the inning by hitting a weak grounder to Collins, who tossed the ball to first.

The first fireworks in the game
were set off when Boston went to bat.
Hooper opened with an infield hit,
Mathewson and beat "Marty" through first by hard sprinting. The Boston line started to cheer and the volume
increased to a tumult when Hooper
outdistanced Mathewson and stole second with Meyer's throw being a little wild. Fletcher then made his first error, miffing Yerkes' liner. Speaker came to time with a long hit, which Mathewson failed to field and he run along toward third base. Hooper and Yerkes moving up. Then the Red Sox rooters rose all the stands and called upon Lewis to "hit 'em out!"

The best Lewis could do was to drive a bullet to Herzog who flashed the ball to Meyer at the plate, forcing Hooper. Gardner then hit one through the pitcher's box which Mathewson
could not hold and Doyle running in.
Scooped up the ball and threw clear-
out, while Yerkes came across the plate with the first run of the game.

Breaking into the run column gave
"Jake" Stahl confidence and he swinging viciously at one of Mathewson's
out curves and drove it to left field
for a single, sending Hooper,
Speaker and Lewis Doyle into Wagner's
high fly ending the inning.

New York's players did not appear to mind the lead and several of them
patted Merkle on the back as he went to bat. Collins did not give him a chance to distinguish himself, for he struck the big first baseman out on three pitched balls. Herzog, who had with two balls and two strikes
on him, drove a smashing three-base
hit to right center field and crossed the plate, a minute later when Meyer
laced out a single, which struck Gar-diner in the face. Fletcher put up a high fly to Hooper and Mathewson forced Meyer at second. Yerkes to Wagner.
This ended the inning.

For Boston, in the second inning,
Carrigan went out, Herzog to Mer-
kle. Doyle rolled Collins of a hit when he scooped up his grounder by a brilliant bit of fielding and tossed the pitcher out of first. Hooper limped out his second hit, a two-bagger, to right, but he was left there, for Yerkes went out, Fletcher to Merkle.
Both New York and Boston went out in order in the third inning.
Snodgrass flew out to Hooper. Doyle put up a foul fly that Gardner got near the stand and Becker went out on a grounder. Then Wagner tossed to Stahl. In Boston's half, Speaker
bounced a ball along the first base line, which Merkle, not in time to beat Speaker to the bag, both men plunging first into the base. Murray went back to the right field fence to get Lewis' high fly and Gardner was an easy out. Doyle to Merkle.

The New York contingent whooped things up when "Red" Murray opened
the fourth inning with a long
drive to right center for three bases.
Merkle fouled to Gardner, and then Herzog sent out a sacrifice fly to Speaker, scoring Murray. Meyer
again singled and was left at first when Fletcher batted a high fly to Hooper.

For Boston, Stahl struck out Wagner fly to Murray and Carrigan went
a grounder to Fletcher, who flashed it across to Merkle.

Collins was pitching world's championship ball and New York appeared unable to fathom his delivery. Mathew-son, first up in the fifth, struck out Carrigan, dropping the ball,
then the New York pitcher out at first.

Snodgrass also fell before Collins,
pitching for the strikes, and Doyle
fled out to Lewis.

Boston added a run to her score in the fifth inning. After Collins had struck out Hooper got his third hit,
a single to center and again stole second and base. Yerkes came through with a smashing three-bagger to right center and Hooper walked home. With Speaker up it looked as if there would be more scoring, but the batter drove a hot liner that Fletcher managed to hold, and doubled up Yerkes at third.
In this inning Murray and Snodgrass changed places in the outfield because of the fun.

The Giants in the sixth were easy
for the Red Sox. Becker was out, Yerkes to Stahl. Murray singled his second hit, and Merkle sent a fly to Speaker. Murray then tried to steal second, but was out by a yard on Carrigan's good throw to Wagner.

Fletcher made his second error of the game in the sixth inning, missing
Lewis' grounder. Gardner's sacrifice, Mathewson to Merkle, put Lewis on second and he went to third on Stahl's out, also Mathewson to Mer-
kle. He was left at third when Wagner rolled a little grounder which

Mathewson got over by the first base line and touched on the runner.

The National leaguers started the seventh inning with promise of scoring. Herzog singled to right, Meyer flew out to Yerkes, and Herzog stole second. Fletcher flew to Stahl, and Mathewson ended the hopes of the Giants for the night by striking out Doyle.

Boston went out in order in this inning. Carrigan was out, Herzog to Merkle. Collins struck out for the second time, and Hooper ended the inning by grounding out. Doyle to Merkle.

Then came the eighth inning into
which was crowded much of the excitement of the game and which when over showed the teams tied. For New York, Snodgrass led off by hitting a drive to Lewis, which the left fielder muffed. Doyle singled to center and Snodgrass took second. Doyle was forced at second when Yerkes rushed
over and picked up Herzog's grounder
for and tossed it to Wagner. Snodgrass taking third. Murray then came to time with a two-bagger into the left field which scored Snodgrass and put Becker on third. Manager Stahl called in Hall to pitch to Merkle,
the first man to face him, fouled out
to Carrigan. Carrigan dropped Herzog's difficult fly over a hard run
and then the New York pitcher doubled Merkle and Becker and Snodgrass came across the plate with two runs.
These put New York in front for the time being. The inning ended when Meyer went out, Wagner to Stahl.

One run behind, Boston was desperate. Their eighth inning opened impulsively. Yerkes put up a high fly to Murray and Speaker went out to Merkle. Mathewson then hit for two bases into the left field bleachers. Murray, almost breaking his back to get the ball and falling over the three foot fence into the crowd. Fletcher then made his third error on Gardner's grounder and Lewis raced across the plate with the tying run. Stahl singled to the infield and stole second, Gardner being held at third. Wagner ended the inning by striking out.

Fletcher opened the ninth for New York by going out on a grounder to Stahl. Mathewson sent out easy fly to the Boston manager. Here Hall took the location of the plate. Snodgrass getting first base on balls. He stole second and then Doyle and Becker were passed. It looked as if it was all over for the Boston, but Murray
ended the inning by forcing Becker.
Wagner to Yerkes.

Boston went out in order in the tenth inning. Carrigan was out, Herzog to Merkle. Hall on a foul to Herzog and Hooper on a pop fly to Doyle.

Merkle opened the tenth for New York with a solid drive to center for three bases. After Herzog had been returned, Wagner to Stahl, and Meyer
had been passed purposely, Merkle, who had been sent in to bat
for Fletcher, hit out a sacrifice fly to Lewis, scoring Merkle and putting
New York in the lead again. Mathew-son flew out to Yerkes.

Yerkes opened the tenth for the Red Sox by driving a grounder in front of the plate which Wilson got
and threw to Merkle. Then Speaker made his long triple on which he scored on Wilson's error at the plate.
Lewis doubled, but was left on the bat, Gardner going out. Doyle to Merkle, and Stahl, Herzog to Merkle.

Redden took up Boston's pitching burden in the eleventh inning. He hit Snodgrass and then struck out Doyle.
Snodgrass went out stealing. Carrigan to Wagner. Becker received a base on balls, and he too went out, Carrigan to Wagner, trying to piffle.

Boston went out in order in the eleventh, Shaffer tossing out both Wagner and Carrigan and Mathewson throwing out Redden. Then the game was called on account of darkness.

ROOSEVELT TAKES WILSON'S LATE LABOR VIEWS TO TASK

Progressive Finds Democratic Candidate for President Was Opposed to Labor Unions
Only a Few Years Ago.

BULL MOOSE AN OLD FRIEND TO WORKERS

Rough Rider Says He Would Have Brought About Reforms
During Administration But
for Opposition of Congress.

Houghton, Mich., Oct. 9.—On the ground that Woodrow Wilson displayed sudden hostility to labor in the past, Colonel Roosevelt attacked him tonight, for the support of workmen for the progressive party. That partly, he said, had put forward
an effective program in their behalf.

Colonel Roosevelt's speech in Houghton came toward the close of a hard day's campaigning in upper Michigan.

One of the largest crowds of the day was that in Houghton.
"In this campaign," he said,
"our opponents rely for the most part on sheer misrepresentation. It is quite natural that those who have selected the commandment, 'Thou shalt not steal' to prevent the nominating whom they wished, should violate the commandment. 'Thou shalt not bear false witness'
as well."

"I am interested that it was ascertained here last night that Governor Johnson had secured
of a law prohibiting anti-labor
in California."

Colonel Roosevelt then read a telegram which he said he had received from California today
citing laws in California made effective by Governor Johnson's signature. Among them were two laws prohibiting child labor.

"A couple of days ago," Colonel Roosevelt continued, "Mr.
Wilson stated that the steel trust was behind me. I answered that it was not and challenged him to name any individual interested in steel except Mr. Perkins, who was with me. Mr. Perkins comes out today and says that all he meant was that the steel trust
was behind me in thought.
Evidently Mr. Wilson is a mind reader."

"I want comment on Mr. Wilson's statement," he said, "that if I ever make such a statement as he made about me and I am called to account for it as I called him, I can't make good.
I'll say so and I won't try to get out of it by saying I was speaking of the thought of the editorial. When I have said about the steel trust, I mean it. You have here in Michigan one of the steel plants as you know. Its exaltation is the stand-pat congressman and what we are fighting."

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire)
Houghton, Mich., Oct. 9.—Declaring that Woodrow Wilson (opposed every effective means of helping the wage worker, Colonel Roosevelt appealed here tonight to the working men and women of the vicinity to support the progressive party.

He quoted from speeches and writings of the democratic candidate in regard to labor and said that Gov-nor Wilson had made a "sudden and violent retracing of his steps."

"The progressive platform distinctly states that in order to carry out its purpose to establish minimum safety
and health standards for wage workers, especially women and children, it will propose the federal control over interstate commerce and the taxing
power of both nation and state."

Mr. Wilson has no less enthusiastically put himself on record for stateism as opposed to nationalism. In his book on constitutional government, he bitterly denounces as the alchemy of deceit, the proposal to use the power to regulate commerce between the states in the very manner in which the progressive platform proposes to use it.

He denounces specifically the attempt to stretch the power to regulate commerce so as to include the regulation of labor in mills and factories.

"As Mr. Wilson has seen fit to attack the progressive platform about
labor and especially about organized labor, I ask you to compare what I urged on congress and what I pursued in getting congress to do, during the time I was president with Mr.
Wilson's utterances throughout the course of these very years."

I advocated for legislation of this kind. Yet I secured some of the things I urged, notably an employers'
liability act, a safety appliance and an act limiting the hours of labor of railway men.

"I again closed presently, I shall have the progressive party behind me
and I am fully prepared for the hour and for more with I this time
scouts."

During those years I again, and again, endeavored labor unions. Now during those very years Mr. Wilson was also speaking of labor from time to time. In an address at the Peables' forum at New Rochelle, as given in the New York Tribune of February 27, 1906, he says: The objection I have to labor union is that they drag
the country down to the level of the lowest. It is an address before the South Carolina Society as given in the New York Tribune of March 19, 1907,
he says as follows:

"We speak too exclusively of the capitalist class. There is another as terrible as any enemy to equality and freedom of opportunity as it is, and that is the class formed by labor or unionists and leaders of the unionists—the class representing only a small minority of the laboring mass
of the country, but one so concentrated in power as the capitalist and quite as apt to corrupt and ruin our industries
by their monopoly."

At the commencement exercises of Princeton University as given in the New York World of June 14, 1909, he says as follows:

"You know what the usual standard of the employer is in our day. It is to give as little as he may for his wages. The trades unions make the standard to which to conform. No employer is suffered to do more than the average workman can do, but economically, unfortunately, he has lost because the country grows more full of unprofitable persons."

"Now if those were sentiments expressed by Mr. Wilson thirty years ago, when he was fresh from college,
should attach to importance to them,
that I will your attention to the fact that they are the sentiments he has expressed in the last six or eight years and as recently as three years ago."

"They are the sentiments he continued to express up to the time, two years ago, when he became a candidate for president of the United States. He then changed. I am not questioning the sincerity of Mr. Wilson's change, but I wish to call attention to the fact that the extreme lateness of his conversion, and the very imperfect nature of the new policy, in making any comment whatever
on the progressive platform in this matter. Mr. Wilson, by a sudden and violent retracing of his steps and zig-zag fashion, has nearly but not entirely reached as advanced a position
as I took eleven years ago, in my first message to congress. I congratulate him on having gotten so far, but this fact does not entitle him to leadership
and in many respects he still has a long way to go."

Dr. M. C. Baker. "I have been affected with some trouble with rheumatism
and back and neck muscles. I am very much distressed by this. Will you give me some advice?"

Answer: The most efficient prescription I have ever known for rheumatism is Epsom salt. Take a large glass of water and add a teaspoonful of Epsom salt and drink it. Do this three times a day. It will cure you. I have known many cases of rheumatism cured by this.

Morning Journal Takes Up Task of Securing Members For New Mexico Good Roads Association

Leading Paper of State Begins Work of Raising Membership of Boosting Organization From 100 to Size Worthy of Sunshine State's Efforts to Secure National Highway; Important Resolutions Read and Adopted at Session of Organization Last Night Looking Toward Recognition of Commonwealth's Claims for Location of Trans-Continental Route Through Empire of Southwest by National Legislative Body at Coming Session.

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

IN NEW MEXICO GOOD ROADS ASSOCIATION.
I, E. B. SCHWENKKE, Secretary New Mexico Good Roads Association, do hereby certify that the undersigned is a member of the New Mexico Good Roads Association. I believe in better roads and more of them.

Name _____
Street and No. _____
City _____ New Mexico.

Last night at the adjourned session of the Good Roads Association, a number of important resolutions were adopted, and steps begun toward what will be the most active campaign for membership ever instituted by any organization of similar nature in the southwest. When the question of funds came up before the meeting, and had been discussed for some time without any appreciable progress being made, the Morning Journal put itself squarely behind a state wide campaign for membership for the association with the understanding that the funds raised from membership fees should form the nucleus of a fund for carrying on the work of the association. This was in line with its usual enthusiastic support of all projects for the common weal and met with an instant and enthusiastic reception from the members.

The association meeting yesterday would have been a flat failure but for the efforts of the half hundred Dona Ana county good roads boosters, who arrived yesterday morning in two special cars and spent the day at the fair, and the step of the Morning Journal. The actions taken by the association were of a forceful nature and will lead not only to the ratification of the $500,000 bond issue recently authorized by the state legislature, but to the passage of a national highway through this state if it is humanly possible for the efforts of New Mexicans to secure such a thing.

The association met yesterday morning, being called to order by President Ralph E. Twitcheell, of Las Vegas, in the Elks theater at 10 o'clock. Except for the representation from Dona Ana county, the crowd was meager. But enthusiasm was high, and undiminished by the small attendance, the association set itself down to work.

Colonel Twitcheell outlined the need for immediate action on the part of the association and urged that steps be taken to keep this state in the good roads lineup. He demonstrated clearly that the proposed bond issue meant an increase in taxation on the people of the state, but showed just as clearly that there was a mistaken idea that this was the case. He showed that the bond issue meant the capitalization of the road taxes for the purpose of cutting out patchwork roads and building real highways.

Francis E. Lester, of Las Cruces, read a paper which was accepted as a textbook for the good roads propaganda. This paper rehearsed in detail the laws under which the association must work, the need for arousing the people to a fuller recognition of the bond issue's need and the actual demand of support, and urged the dissemination of the truth about the bond issue to every political organization and commercial body in the state, that their united support might be assured.

Governor W. C. McDonald was then introduced by Mayor D. K. B. Sellers, and made a brief address. Because of his recent indisposition, he asked to be excused from any lengthy speech.

Thomas B. Catron, United States senator from New Mexico, made a short but telling speech to the general effect that he was heartily in accord with the attitude of support for the

Dr. Hartman Writes:

Columbus, Ohio, July 15.—In reply to my letters about my recent article on catarrh and constipation, I wish to make the following statement. Constipation is becoming more prevalent every day. Nearly one-half of the human family are troubled with it more or less. This fact presents a serious complication in the treatment of chronic disease.

Thirty years ago when I was prescribing Peruna every day only a small fraction of the people needed a laxative, but I have found by experience that more and more a laxative must be used.

Peruna originally contained no laxative element. I used to prescribe the laxative Manilla to be used in case a laxative was needed. This necessitated the patient buying two bottles of medicine instead of one.

As constipation became more general, I finally concluded to add a laxative element to Peruna. The new Peruna is made with a laxative ingredient. The old Peruna (Kastar) is without a laxative. On that account some prefer the old Peruna. Some prefer the new Peruna. The new Peruna is for people who have some catarrhal ailment and yet need a laxative. Sold at all drug stores.

The old Peruna (Kastar) is for those people who have no catarrhal ailment but need no laxative. Those wishing to procure the old Peruna should address The Kastar Co., Columbus, Ohio, for further particulars.—Adv.

raising of needed money, being made from different quarters.

The Dona Ana county men present objected strenuously to a scheme proposed by Mr. Llewellyn, of Dona Ana, that all members be given five membership cards to dispose of at $1 each, the $5 for the cards to be sent in regardless of whether the cards were sold or not. They based their opposition on the fact that this would hardly be fair to Dona Ana county, as that county now has the bulk of the membership, which is only about 100. Nevertheless, the motion was carried.

At this point, the proposition of the Morning Journal to carry on a state-wide campaign for membership for the association was made and received with applause, the crowd barely waiting for Secretary F. E. Schwenk to make the statement that such a plan had been offered.

The association accepted the plan and voted the Morning Journal its official thanks for its good offices.

Upon motion, an adjournment was taken. The association is to meet at the call of the president, which Colonel Twitcheell said last night could be issued, probably, in time for a meeting about a month before the convening of the legislature.

AMERICAN AUTO CLUB SENDS CONGRATULATIONS

At the morning session, the following telegram was read by the secretary, having been received from the president of the American Automobile association, Robert P. Hooper:

New York, Oct. 8, 1912.
F. B. Schwenk, Secretary New Mexico Good Roads Association, Albuquerque, N. M.

The American Automobile association, consisting of forty-four state bodies and 150 clubs, representing in organized form a million impatient road users, sends greeting and best wishes for success in creating a state-wide system of modern highways which we confidently believe will later be supplemented by inclusion of your state in a system of national roads built and maintained by the federal government.

ROBERT P. HOOPER, President.

The Dona Ana county delegation subscribed $55 as a starter for the fund needed to prosecute the work of the association and the rest of the delegates to the meeting gave $25, making a total of $80.

PAST FIFTY? YOU NEED 'CASCARETS'

What Glasses are to weak eyes, Cascarets are to weak bowels—a 10-cent box will truly amaze you.

Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles.

So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.—Adv.

Contagious. "Is influenza a contagious disease," asked the boy.

"No," replied the wise man. "Why do you ask?"

"When my neighbor's dog can't sleep at night I can't either," replied the boy.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO CAMPAIGN FUNDS TOLD TO CLAPP COMMITTEE

Charles P. Taft Gave $159,339 to Election of Brother in 1908 Campaign and $212,592 Toward Nomination.

CHAMP CLARK HAD LITTLE ASSISTANCE

Dan R. Hanna Testified to Putting $177,000 Into Preconvention Expenses of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt.

The Morning Journal Special Leased Wire. Washington, Oct. 9.—Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati, today told the senate committee investigating campaign funds, that he contributed $159,339 to aid in electing his brother president in 1908, and that he had paid $212,592 this year toward the expenses of securing the president's nomination.

Mr. Taft said that his object in going into the campaign was to see that if his brother was elected he should "walk into the White House free of any monetary obligation to any individual, great interest or corporation."

"On this basis," he added, "I was prepared to go the limit. I believed my brother was admirably equipped for the position. I believed in his integrity, his fearlessness and I believed no one could bilk him or use him."

Dan R. Hanna, of Cleveland, testified that he gave $177,000 to the support of the Roosevelt campaign for nomination this year. Of this sum, fifty thousand dollars went to the Roosevelt national committee.

Fifty thousand dollars went to Walter F. Brown, manager of the Ohio Roosevelt committee, and $27,000 to the work of reorganization in Ohio. The expenses of the fight of Speaker Clark for the democratic nomination were given by his manager, former Senator Dubois, as $54,186, Senator Watson, of West Virginia, was the heaviest contributor, giving $10,700, and William R. Hearst, the next.

With contributions amounting to $6,700. The total contributions to the original Clark fund were $55,918. At the end of the Baltimore convention Senator Dubois said, the Clark forces had a deficit of $4,599; $2,000 of which was made up by Speaker Clark personally.

Judge Robert S. Lovell, chairman of the executive committee of the Ohio Pacific and Southern Pacific caucuses, testified that Mr. Harrison had repeatedly told him President Roosevelt asked him to go to Washington in October, 1904, and asked him to assist in getting funds to aid the New York republican state campaign.

Former Senator Scott, of West Virginia, connected with the national committee in 1904, said that Chairman Harrison had declined his suggestion to go to "25 Broadway" for more money, declaring that President Roosevelt did not want contributions from the Standard Oil interests. Senator Scott said he did not know of a previous contribution having been returned.

He thought President Roosevelt had told him over the phone that "Mr. Harrison is coming and I'll see if I can raise some money for the New York fight."

Other witnesses included Matthew Hale, of Mississippi, who said the Roosevelt primary campaign in that state this year cost $71,456.

W. T. Moss, of Pittsburgh, who testified that $67,879 had been spent by the Taft club of Pittsburgh for the campaign in Pennsylvania; C. G. Warren, of Detroit, who raised $18,925 for the Taft campaign in Michigan; Walter L. Brown, of Toledo, Roosevelt's manager in Ohio, who could not account for about $65,000 of the $127,000 which Mr. Hanna said he gave for the Roosevelt campaign in that state.

Mr. Brown said it had gone for "reorganization work" that should not properly be charged to the Roosevelt campaign.

Charles P. Taft testified that the $159,339 which the 1908 election cost him was but a part of what he offered to aid his brother in securing the election. He gave to Chairman Hitchcock, of the national committee, $271,977, of which Mr. Hitchcock returned $159,000 that it had not been necessary to spend.

To H. A. Williams, who ran the Ohio campaign, he gave $44,226; to Arthur Ivorys, $1,000, and for various other items, $5,395. Mr. Taft summarized his expenditures for the preconvention this year, as follows:

To Arthur Ivorys, for the Ohio campaign, $74,899; to William R. McKinley, for the national headquarters, $75,000; various items, $25,729. A total of $221,528.

Referring to the 1908 election campaign Senator Pomerene wanted to know if Mr. Taft had "underwritten" certain expenses in the New York campaign with the understanding that the money was to be repaid.

"No, there was no such understanding," said Mr. Taft. "I gave the money and I was very pleasantly surprised when Mr. Hitchcock returned so much of it."

Dan R. Hanna said he never had been concerned in Senator La Follette's fight and had never discussed the switch of La Follette's progressive strength to Roosevelt. The first fifty thousand dollars given to the Roosevelt fund was sent in currency from Cleveland to New York on the telephone authority of Mr. Hanna, who was in Allen, S. C. Mr. Hanna said he had no knowledge of the purpose for which the money went. "I can't give you any information," he said, "except that I don't think, outside of the money I furnished, much was spent in Ohio. I may have sent two

EXPRESS REVISION WOULD BE RUIN OF BUSINESS

Attorney for Companies Places Loss by Interstate Commerce Commission's Order at $33,000,000.

The Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.

Washington, Oct. 9.—A net loss in revenue of $13,000,000 a year of the express companies and the railways would result from putting into effect the express rates proposed by the interstate commerce commission, according to figures submitted by the companies to the commission today.

Walter D. Hager, representing the Adams, Wells-Fargo and Southern Express companies, said the proposed rates would cost the express companies 55 cents on every dollar received by them, thus destroying all profit and producing an enormous deficit.

The deficit, he said, for the companies he represented, would total $6,743,622 annually, measured by the present volume of business. According to Mr. Hager's figures the proposed rates mean a reduction of not less than eleven cents in the total revenue per package on express business in the United States.
