After two or three applications I found great relief and before I had used one tube I was completely well. If it will benefit others who suffer from eczema you may publish my letter, as I believe Saxo Salve will do just what you claim it will."—A. Pritchett Shelbyville, Ill.

GAMBLING DEVICES ARE CLOSED BY THE POLICE

Some of the Games Running on the Streets are Thought to be a Little Too Strong to Pass Muster.

At the request of the local police, two or three of the games which had been running on the streets downtown were closed yesterday. These games, it was feared, were incompatible with the state anti-gambling law. The police have received several complaints of short change being returned from innocent players. One man accused of this offense (three times within a short space of time yesterday). They arrived warning on this point to repeat the offense.

The regular roundup of suspicious characters is being kept up, and to the next few days arrest first and the conviction following will be the rule for all officers.

CHEERING THROGS TURKISH STUDENTS GREET WILSON'S CAMPAIGN IN CHICAGO OPPOSE PEACE AND SHOUT FOR WAR

All Factions Unite in Great Demonstration for Democratic Presidential Candidate in Windy City.

CONTINUOUS OVATION THROUGH ALL STREETS

Theater and Armory Packed With Cheering Admirers Who Applaud Too Much for the Speaker's Comfort.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Chicago, Oct. 10.—All factions of the Turkish democracy marched side by side today and cheered Governor Woodrow Wilson.

From the moment of arrival until tonight when the governor departed for Canton and Orefield, Ohio, his reception was one of noisy demonstration and enthusiasm. As he rode through the densely crowded streets of the lower city on his arrival, he stood in his automobile and waved to thousands who dotted the windows of factories and offices and a moving mass of people who trailed along beside him.

The governor received his voice sufficiently to make an extended speech at a big theater at noon. At the theater the cheering developed into a prolonged demonstration and the governor tried to quiet the crowd to begin his speech. A noise element in the gallery continued to shout. "Put them out, put them out," protested voices in the balconies.

"No, don't put anybody out," said the governor, and the crowd gradually quieted itself.

"I have been greatly exhilarated as I have passed from one part of this great nation to another," said the governor, "the generous cheers of the people that greeted me. The cheers are not going to a little this contest. Steadfast principle, clear vision, fearless thinking are going to save this nation and nothing else, and nothing else it is my duty whenever I have the privilege of facing an audience to call their attention to the very serious issues which are at stake, for in my judgment they are nothing less for America than the issues of life and death."

Once during the governor's speech a voice in the gallery called "Hurrah for Teddy," just as the speaker began to take up the planks in the progressive platform.

"Just wait a minute," said the governor, "and see if you feel the same after I've explained."

The governor then headed that part of the progressive platform that advocated humanitarian and social reforms but declared that the failure of the same platform to condemn monopolies and declare itself for tariff reform made it necessary to ask by whom and how the social parts of the program were to be accomplished.

The governor emphasized, whom and how in his opinion and the crowd responded with cheers of approval.

At the Seventh Regiment armory, tonight Governor Wilson addressed a demonstrative crowd which overflowed the building. The brief rest to eat obtained between speeches had improved his color and he was able to make himself heard with little difficulty.

ROOSEVELT QUOTES WILSON AGAINST IMMIGRATION FROM EUROPE STINGING BLOW TO FEDERAL FORCES

Bull Moose Charges Democratic Candidate With Explanations That are Not to be Believed.

READS STATEMENT OF GOVERNOR'S VIEWS

Rough Rider Intimates That Competitor Has Juggled With Facts in Trying to Placate Foreigners.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Duluth, Minn., Oct. 10.—Woodrow Wilson's writings on immigration were taken up tonight by Colonel Roosevelt, who charges that the democratic candidate had offered explanations of his views of such a character that he did not see how any man could be expected to believe them.

The colonel also criticized Governor Wilson for a statement attributed to him that the United States Steel corporation was supporting the "Bull Moose" ticket.

Colonel Roosevelt came here today from Michigan. He spoke in two halls, and left for Oshkosh, Wis.

"I call your attention," said the colonel, "to what Mr. Wilson has said, compared with what he now says on the question of immigration and especially from eastern and southern Europe."

He then read extracts from a magazine article written by Mr. Wilson in 1889, quoting the writer as saying the character of the nation was being "most deeply affected and modified by the enormous immigration which year after year pours into the country from Europe," and that "our own temperate blood, schooled to self-reliance and to the measured conduct of self government is receiving a constant confusion and yearly experiencing a partial corruption of foreign blood."

Colonel Roosevelt also said that in Mr. Wilson's history he spoke of the coming of "multitudes of men of the lower classes from the south of Italy and men of the lower sort out of Hungary and Poland, men out of the ranks where there is neither skill nor energy nor any initiative nor any intelligence."

He quoted Governor Wilson as having written that the Chinese were "more to be desired as workers, if not as citizens," than "most of the coarse crew" that "come crowding in every year at the eastern ports," and that "the unlikely who came in at the eastern ports were tolerated because they usurped no place, but the very lowest in the scale of labor."

"When asked to explain this in March last," Colonel Roosevelt went on, "Mr. Wilson wrote to Mr. D. I. Sylvester in part as follows:

"I was in the passage aimed, only deploring the coming to this country of certain lawless elements which I had supposed all thoughtful Americans themselves deplored. I was thinking of the men who have time and again threatened to give that whole fine body of Italians who had enriched American life a reputation which they do not deserve."

"In another letter, published in the New York Tribune, of March 12, 1912," Colonel Roosevelt continued, "Mr. Wilson said, 'I referred to the class of hangers who was brought here under peopled labor contracts.'"

"I think it would have been more frank and more manly for Mr. Wilson either to have announced that he still held the views which he had promulgated in his history or else to have stated that he had come to the conclusion that these views were erroneous and that he had abandoned them. I am reluctantly obliged to say that it is quite impossible to reconcile the two explanations Mr. Wilson gives as I have above quoted them, with the facts."

"Neither in his magazine article nor in his history did he make any allusion to pauper contract labor nor did he make allusion to the lawless elements. He was contrasting immigration generally with natives and the immigrants of certain European countries with those of other European countries. He was speaking of all the multitudes of men that came from the south of Italy, from Hungary and Poland and was contrasting them disadvantageously with the Chinese."

I fail to see how any man can be expected to believe that in the passages quoted Mr. Wilson was making any reference whatever to merely lawless elements or to pauper contract labor. And I regret for Mr. Wilson's own sake that he should have permitted himself to make such a defense."

AXLE GREASE SOLD TO CHINKS FOR OPIUM

Assistant Weigher is Trapped by Customs Inspector as He is Putting Over a Smooth Deal on Celestials.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Oct. 10.—William H. Hoburg, assistant weigher of customs of the port of San Francisco, who was trapped last night by customs officials in the act of receiving $10,000 from a Chinese for payment for fifty opium tins filled with axle grease, confessed today that he had been regularly engaged in filling opium tins with axle grease and selling them to Chinese as contraband opium.

Hoburg has been an employee of the local customs service since 1892. According to his confession, made in the presence of Special Treasury Agent W. H. Tidwell, Special Deputy Surveyor Stephens and Collector of the Port Frederick Stratton, he not only defrauded the Chinese by selling them the packed tins but collected bribes from them by threatening to arrest them and later collected the sums of money, after the bribes had been paid.

Hoburg was trapped last night, when the government officials received word that he was to meet a Chinese at a downtown street intersection. In hiding near the rendezvous were Special Agent W. H. Tidwell and several other customs officials, they saw Hoburg meet the Chinese and exchange a package for a sack, which they later found to contain $10,000 in gold. He was arrested.

The government makes no secret of the fact that it would be glad to arrange peace with Zapata and it is asserted that negotiations to that end are under way.

The state of Mexico, which practically surrounds the federal district, is almost covered with guerrillas, bandits and some more completely organized bands of rebels who raid and burn in one region today and another tomorrow. They keep the government forces hurrying from point to point.

ALBUQUERQUE NEW MEXICO

ELFEBO, THE GOAT.

As the French would put it, "It is to laugh." Our evening contemporary becomes real plain in its lecture to Elfebo. It tells him, reverently but firmly, that his connection with "room 44" and the bath attached thereto, bars him from the chairmanship of the republican central committee of Bernalillo county.

The Journal has an idea that the point may be well taken, but why begin the matter with the Honorable Elfebo? If the process of elimination is to commence right now, we would suggest a few other gentlemen who should be placed on the black list at once. First among them, Senator A. H. Felt, who is wearing the toga as a result of the infamous "room 44" incident.

Then, there is Hon. Charles A. Spiess, who was hand in glove with the "room 44" gentlemen, and the incidents attached thereto, but our republican friends thought he was the proper person to make national committee to succeed the late Simon Luna. Why not be perfectly plain with Mr. Spiess and ask him to vanish?

Then there is the Hon. Herbert W. Clark, who was secretary of "room 44" and the bath room attached thereto. It was regarded as a good stroke to make Mr. Clark state chairman, and he is the gentleman who asks for the resignation of the Honorable Elfebo because of the "room 44" incident or because of the $1,000 offered by Don Francisco Hubbell. Why not ask Mr. Clark to efface himself?

There are a lot more of the republican leaders who were smugled by "room 44." Why not ask them to get out of the party?

In all seriousness, why this episode of virtue with a $1,000 string attached to it? Is it a little unfair to put all of these gentlemen in positions of trust and honor and hunt out Elfebo, but not all of the sins of the old republican machine on his head and send him away into the wilderness as a scapegoat?

THE HUBBELL MENACE.

No, dear friend, there is no danger of Frank Hubbell running county affairs so long as the present officials are in charge. But let it be remembered that it took years to unhorse Hubbell in this county. It required a hard fight to keep him from getting control of the county last year. He got the republican machinery, but failed to get the voters. He is not offering a thousand dollars to the republican state central committee this year because he believes he can yield any influence in county affairs before another election.

Jim if he can get control now, and if he can carry the county for Nathan Jaffe, he will be in position when the election comes around to be the big boss. That is what he is offering his money for, and Bernalillo county has learned by sad experience that the only way to keep the Hubbell power down is to be just as vigilant watching him as he is vigilant watching to get back into the saddle.

The taxpayer should vote against the party that accepts Hubbell money. He is not inspired by any motive except a selfish one. He is buying the foundation for the next election. The voters this year must lay their foundation against him. It is as simple as Hubbell and anti-Hubbell fight today in this county as it was last year. He will continue the struggle as long as he is above ground and kicking. He is persistent and resourceful, and will muster a following just as long as he has those thousand dollar contributions in his pocket.

Hon. Levi Hughes is not in a letter to the sheep men, appearing as one of them. The Honorable Levi knows all about the Deceit after it is taken from the back of a sheep, but he has very little knowledge of how it gets there. He buys at the lowest price possible and sells at the highest price he can get.

GOOD ROADS VITAL.

Whether New Mexico is to have good roads or not is up to the people of the state. No other state can obtain so many advantages from a decent system of highways. No other state can secure so much help from outside sources. No other state shows so little interest in securing the benefits that can be had by the people of New Mexico.

It is now up to the people to say whether they will vote $500,000 in bonds, which will cost no man in the state one dollar more than he is paying now for good roads purposes. It will not divert one dollar from the counties where the funds are paid. All that is contemplated by the law is that the work of building highways shall be systematized in order to produce the best results.

It is unfortunate that certain politicians are trying to make capital of the proposed bond issue and are attempting to deceive the voters in regard thereto.

There will be no greater advantage to Bernalillo or Dona Ana counties than to El Paso or San Juan. Not nearly so much as to Taos, Rio Arriba and Mora, where there is more to attract the sightseer and the tourist than may be found in other counties.

Let it be acknowledged that Taos is the show place of New Mexico, yet the story comes that the bond issue is to have little support there and much opposition, because a prominent politician is telling the people that he is opposing the bond issue to save money for the taxpayers of that county.

What should be done by the republican, the progressive and the democratic central committees is to inform the people of the state that the proposed bond issue is a good thing and should have the support of all the people.

It would have been much better if the bond issue had been in addition to the money already contributed by the taxpayers. Many a county in the east with no more population than Bernalillo and San Miguel appropriate more money for road building than is now paid out by the people of this entire state. They have built roads because it has paid them to do so.

If the man who believes in a protective tariff wants to see one maintained, it will be good policy for him to help kick the republican party this year. That party has become saturated with low tariff ideas and it will not get over it until it has been induced to retire and ponder over things for awhile. Then it may decide to have an inning with a little more common sense and statesmanship than it has displayed recently.

With just a little urging, it is believed that the next United States senate may be induced to inquire into some of the sources of money secured by certain men of Santa Fe during the last session of the legislature. There is a pretty well defined rumor that a $20,000 stock fund was accumulated during the session. To trace what became of it would be interesting.

We are advised that the face of General Grant is on the new $10,000 bill. Look through your roll, you might find one of the new ones.

The smoke inspector of Europe should have looked after the Hubbell states earlier. The fire has broken out there now.

Press dispatches tell us that Sir Thomas Lytton is again after the cap that distinctly has not cheered him up to the present.

About the time we believe peace has broken out in Mexico, something else breaks loose.

HALF DOZEN BREEDS FARM RESOURCES JUDGED YESTERDAY AT BENCH SHOW

James Taylor Makes Hit as Rapid and Accurate Official of Second Annual Dog Contest Here.

Half a dozen breeds of canines were judged last night and yesterday at the second annual bench show of the Albuquerque Kennel club, which opened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. The judging was done by James Taylor, an official of the New York and Boston Kennel club and he made a considerable hit as an accurate and rapid judge of the different breeds. Among the dogs which were judged yesterday were the poodle, the terrier, the show, and the adult St. Bernards, Dalmatians, bull dogs, greyhounds, pointers and setters. Collies will be judged today, beginning at 10 o'clock.

The show continues to attract a good deal of attention and was crowded yesterday and last night.

Among the winners were the following: J. Scott's Prince, St. Bernard, which took first prize in the novice class for his breed. Jake Myers' Dick took second. Prince got the blue ribbon for the limit class also, and for the open class. Prince drew the first and Dick the second in the winners class of this breed.

In the limit class for St. Bernards, H. M. Andrews, of El Paso, took first with "Nora." The same animal drew first in the open class and winner in the winners class.

In class 17, for local dogs and bitches of the St. Bernard breed, Nora drew first and Prince second.

DON'T PULL OUT THE GRAY, FADED HAIR

A Few Applications of a Simple Remedy Will Bring Back the Natural Color.

"Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place," is the old saying, which is, to a great extent, true. If no cure is taken to stop the cause, when gray hairs appear it is a sign that Nature needs assistance. It is Nature's call for help. Gray hair, dull lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly young people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray.

When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "hedgehog" which our grandparents used. The best preparation of this kind is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of domestic sage and sulphur, scientifically compounded with other discovered hair tonics and stimulants, the whole mixture being carefully balanced and tested by experts.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair, removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its natural color. Don't delay another minute. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur at once and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in your hair.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.—Adv.

CROWDS ATTRACTED BY CLARK DISPLAY AT STATE FAIR

Local Music Company's Booth in Exhibition Hall on the State Fair Grounds Center of Attraction at All Times.

The unique and attractive display of the John Lewis Clark Music Company in Exhibition hall is one of the most interesting features of the merchants' exhibits. The chief feature is the demonstration of the beautiful Peerless automatic piano manipulated by a touch button on the counter and apparently played by a dummy figure. Many popular compositions have been recorded on this feature. The instrument plays with marvellous expression, the pedals being operated automatically by the dummy and it plays a different selection at every push of the button.

In addition to the Peerless feature, other instruments are shown, among which are two new designs of the Kimball piano, one of which is a French waltz case, is especially attractive. The other Kimball piano is a player in a Christian waltz case and is recognized as the finest and simplest player on the market.

The booth is handsomely decorated and has proved the center of attraction in Exhibition hall.—Adv.

Many Counties Have Splendid Exhibits at State Fair, Judging of Entries Commenced Yesterday Morning.

There was never a better exposition of New Mexico's vast agricultural resources, both in dry farming and irrigated land, than that afforded by the agricultural displays at the state fair this year. These displays come from every corner of the state and show not only the great productivity of the soil but the wide variety of crops possible to be raised.

The judging of the different entries, of which there are more than 500, was commenced yesterday, under the supervision of Prof. J. D. Tinsley, superintendent of the agricultural and horticultural departments. Irrigated products were judged first, as there is still one dry farm entry to arrive at the fair. This is the Clovis display, which was shipped early last week, but has not yet arrived.

The Bernalillo county display takes up one whole side of the agricultural building. It is mainly composed of garden truck and prepared products. The exhibitors' whose contributions form the major portion of this display are the Benson Cannery, J. Woodward and F. M. Zickert. There are several others but they have not displayed large enough to warrant a sign being on their sections. The Benson Cannery display includes all sorts of canned products, many of them, in glass that they may be the better shown, and there are exhibits of vegetables and fruits ready for canning. The Woodward and Zickert displays, as well as the other entries from Bernalillo county growers, contain apples, cucumbers, corn, onions, honey, fruit and all sorts of garden truck.

Valencia county is represented by the single entry of the Southwestern Agricultural association of Los Lunas. This corporation has a large and very interesting exhibit. It includes native tobacco, a fifteen inch ear of corn, many heads of fine celery, grains of various sorts, both in the head and threshed; chili, alfalfa and other products. One of the most interesting features of this exhibit is some corn grown from seed found in an old cliff dwelling last year. That seed should have retained fertility from prehistoric times, as it seems probable it did, is considered remarkable.

McKinley county has a splendid exhibit from Ramah, which was collected by Messrs. Brothers and shipped by them to the fair. This exhibit includes some fine cabbages, beets, pumpkins and corn.

The dry farm products of Bernalillo county are represented by an entry from Boron. They are sufficiently good to class up with any other dry farming products in the exposition. They include melons, pumpkins, beets and grains of various types. The Sharps cream separator, handled by Raabe & Mauger, has an interesting display in the agricultural hall, where one or more separators is kept running all the time.

The Eagle Mountain Pen Company has a small stand with a display of pens in this building.

Grahdulap county is mainly represented by a fine exhibit from the Indian Point ranch. This section of the display is larger than the entire rest of the Grahdulap county entry. It contains many very fine products. Included in it are some fancy cantaloupes, many varieties of apples, grains and forage crops, onions, corn, beets, sweet potatoes, turnips, and other exhibits. Many of the apples are so large that forty of them is a full bush. There are cucumbers five feet long, peaches that weigh an ounce and a half each, a squash that weighs eighty-six pounds and a pumpkin that weighs two some prize alfalfa, orchard grass, timothy, oats and many other grains and forage crops. There are about 100 photographs used in this display, all of them showing farm and ranch scenes, with special reference to the sources of water for irrigation. It is learned that the San Juan county exhibit took forty-one blue ribbons, thirteen red, two yellow and three green—first, second, third and fourth prizes—on varieties of fruit and vegetables shown.

Roosevelt county is making great claims for her dry farming products, which it is claimed by Portales boosters will sweep the whole contest. Irrigator products are also shown, but these are not claimed to be any better than those from other counties, though they are fine. Sweet potatoes, an immense water melon, the largest dry farm cabbage in the show, sugar beets, stock and head crops and a great quantity of vine products are the bulk of this exhibit. Some immense peppers are a feature and a number of displays of cantaloupe products, such as cantaloupe butter, etc., are attracting much attention.

Dona Ana county has one feature that sets off anything else in the show for originality and artistic arrangement. This is a booth completely decorated with cereals. The products used in this mile maize, Egyptian corn, corn and other similar products, all raised on the ground between trees in a ten-acre pear orchard, are used in it. The same ground raised the agricultural products used in decorating the Mesilla valley entry in the decorated parade Wednesday. This exhibit has twelve varieties of apples and twenty of pears on display. Pears are a specialty in Dona Ana and they spread themselves on it at this exhibition. There is a constantly nineteen feet four inches long, some fine alfalfa, peppers, onions, barley and wheat included in the exhibit.

The mining display from the Organ mountains is displayed in the booth mentioned above. It has been donated to the state university, to replace a part of the collection destroyed by fire several years ago.

Luna county has a good display in which casha melons are featured prominently. Some pears and other fruits are also shown. Quinces of good size and quality are displayed, and fodder and grain crops complete the display.

Boys' and Girls' Clubs Have Fine Exhibits. The display of the Boys' and Girls' Industrial clubs, while small, is among the best in the show. There are articles of broad on display that would be a credit to any state fair. The sewing examples are also very fine.

But the chief point of interest in this display is the corn. Some of this corn is the very best in the whole exposition, regardless of growers. The only fault to be found with the majority of displays is the lack of uniformity in the different samples. This corn and the melons and pears displayed by the club members are especially fine.

The industrial club idea has caught hold and very many of the schools that there will be more than the entries to the contest. Handsome prizes will be awarded the winners of this year's event.

Portales Distributes Two Thousand Buttons. Portales was advertised yesterday in fine style, the attendants at the Roosevelt county display at the state fair giving away more than 2,000 advertising buttons. The boosters from that section are making a good big noise at the fair and will be heard from when the prizes are announced.

Notice of Meeting of County Republican Committee. There will be a meeting of the Bernalillo County Republican Central committee at its headquarters on 215 W. Central avenue, Albuquerque, N. M., on the 14th day of October, 1912, at 2 p. m. All members are requested to be present. It will be the duty of the committee to be discussed with the chairman of the State Central committee, and also to outline the proper method of running the campaign.

No proxies will be allowed.

ELFEBO BACA, Chairman Bernalillo County Republican Central Committee.

NESTOR MONTOYA, Secretary.

Many of the readers of this paper having noticed the advertisements giving publicity to Peerless Roofing have taken the pains to investigate it with the result that numerous homes and barns in this vicinity are now covered with this durable material. Peerless Roofing is known as the best of manufactured roofings and is becoming more and more popular in this section. Many people who have used it say without hesitation that it is not only cheaper in cost but much more durable than the old style roofings to say nothing of being easier to lay.—Adv.

Chicken Pot Pie

The Chef's Favorite

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Huston Cooking School Magazine

Some folks think that only "colored mummies" can cook chicken, but a trial of this famous chicken pot pie disproves that assertion. Every member of the family will thoroughly enjoy it.

One pound of chicken, cut in small pieces, 1/2 cup flour, 1/2 cup butter, 1/2 cup milk, 1/2 cup cream, 1/2 cup salt, 1/2 cup pepper, 1/2 cup onion, 1/2 cup celery, 1/2 cup carrots, 1/2 cup peas, 1/2 cup corn, 1/2 cup beans, 1/2 cup tomatoes, 1/2 cup mushrooms, 1/2 cup olives, 1/2 cup capers, 1/2 cup anchovies, 1/2 cup sardines, 1/2 cup herring, 1/2 cup mackerel, 1/2 cup salmon, 1/2 cup trout, 1/2 cup cod, 1/2 cup haddock, 1/2 cup sole, 1/2 cup flounder, 1/2 cup plaice, 1/2 cup turbot, 1/2 cup halibut, 1/2 cup salmon, 1/2 cup trout, 1/2 cup cod, 1/2 cup haddock, 1/2 cup sole, 1/2 cup flounder, 1/2 cup plaice, 1/2 cup turbot, 1/2 cup halibut.

Cover the bowl with boiling water and let simmer until tender, then remove to a baking dish. Mix the 1/2 cup flour, salt and black pepper with cold water to a smooth paste and use to thicken the broth. Remove the fat from the top of the broth if necessary before adding the thickening. Pour this gravy over the fowl, until it is nearly covered, and reserve the rest to serve apart. Stiff together the flour, baking powder and salt, three times; into this work the shortening and use cream or milk to make a dough, less stiff than for biscuits. Put this by spoonfuls over the fowl in the dish, which it should rest upon and completely cover. Let bake about 35 minutes.

When young, tender chickens are scarce, this presents a most satisfactory way of serving old fowl. Vest or lamb prepared in this manner is quite appetizing than when served as stew. The Gold Dust Twins' Philosophy

If you have ever fumed and fussed, because of dirt and grime and rust, and said unto yourself, "Oh, dear! This household work will kill, I fear"—then it is time that you should find some other method far more kind.

Of all the woes a housewife bears, one always fills her day with cares: The kitchen after-meal-time muss, is quite enough to make one fuss. What, with the pots and pans and pans, the knives and forks and plates and cans, no task of man, however grim, the half as mean is handed him.

Two little willing workers aim to enter in this household game: their job, the lessening of work, a task that neither of them shirk. With active little hands and brains they grab the irksome household reins, till soon each kettle, pot or dish, is just as bright as you could wish. And not until the chores are done, from sink to silver, sun to sun, could anything inspire the two, to drop the tasks they have to do.

Therefore, if you have never known assistance such as we have shown, your troubles end, where joy begins. Now, Mrs. Prudge, the Gold Dust Twins! Henceforth, as dishes congregate, and dingy pots that cannot wait; when cutlery, in sad array, awaits you at the close of day—"Cheer Up!" Forget the labor planned: You have two aids at your command.
