COLONEL ROOSEVELT SHOT BY MAN

DENIED ON THIRD TERM SUBJECT

Chicago, Oct. 15.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt was shot in the breast shortly before 6 o'clock last night while sitting in his automobile in front of the Gilpatrick Hotel in Milwaukee, preparing to start for the Auditorium to deliver his scheduled address. According to latest accounts, the bullet is imbedded in the muscular tissue of the abdominal region and the wound is not serious.

The attempted assassination and all its accompanying scenes were dramatic in the extreme. The would-be murderer was John Schrenk, of New York City, a man apparently denuded on the subject of third term. He was captured and locked up.

Unconscious of his wound, Colonel Roosevelt proceeded to the Auditorium and when his condition was discovered, in spite of the protest of his physician, he made a stirring address on the subject of his attempted murder. Weak from loss of blood at the conclusion of his speech, he was taken to the Emergency Hospital, where after an examination by physicians, the nature of his wound was ascertained. It was not considered serious enough to compel a stay in Milwaukee, and at 1:29 a. m. he was taken aboard his special train on a slow run to this city.

The special train left for this city over the Chicago & Northwestern railway, with the patient under the care of three physicians. That the wound was not more serious was due to the fact that the bullet was spent from passing through the colonel's army overcoat, a spectacle case and the manuscript of his contemplated speech.

The special train bearing Colonel Roosevelt from Milwaukee to Chicago is expected to arrive here near 6 o'clock this morning, after a slow run from the Wisconsin city.

Plans were made by the progressive headquarters here to have a demonstration at the Chicago & Northwestern station at 6 o'clock, but it is probable the colonel will not be removed from his car until a later hour, probably not until 6 o'clock.

As Colonel Roosevelt's train neared Chicago, a cordon of police was placed around the old station of the Northwestern railway and an ambulance from the Presbyterian Hospital arrived. It was undecided whether the colonel had been taken at once to the hospital or left on the train until daylight. If the colonel is sleeping it is probable he will be allowed to rest before removal to the hospital.

Colonel Roosevelt slept practically all the way from Milwaukee to Chicago. At 3 o'clock Dr. Farrell announced that his patient's temperature was normal. The train was halted outside the Chicago station, and it was decided after a conference of physicians, that as the colonel was sleeping peacefully, he should not be removed until 7 a. m.

ROOSEVELT DISREGARDS PHYSICIANS AND SLAVES ABOARD SPECIAL TRAIN

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 15.—Colonel Roosevelt's special train left for Chicago at 1:50 a. m.

He was under the care of Dr. Terrell, his physician, Dr. Joseph Bloodgood, of Johns Hopkins Hospital, and Dr. R. T. Faye.

Colonel Roosevelt insisted that he was "feeling fine," and no one should worry about him. He refused to get down to the train twenty-five minutes before he left, he said, "so I could shave."

Before Colonel Roosevelt would be down, he insisted on shaving himself, despite the protests of the surgeons who accompanied him. He deliberately shaved, taking pains to have his face smooth before he sought his stateroom.

The train started on a slow run. It was planned to get to Chicago somewhere near morning, although the run could be made in less than two hours in an emergency.

Colonel Roosevelt's physician refused to express an opinion whether the colonel's injury was serious until he had examined the wound.

The attack was made on the Gilpatrick Hotel for the auditorium to make a speech.

The colonel went on to the hall and began his speech, after he had seen the assassin arrested and started for the police station.

Henry F. Cochems seized the assassin and held him until policemen came up. A mob surged around the man, who apparently is a radical of the subject of Roosevelt's running for another term as president.

The assassin, who is small of stature, admitted firing the shot and said

Milwaukee Physician Declares the Wound Is Superficial

Milwaukee, Oct. 15.—The post-operative statement of Col. Roosevelt made by Dr. Frederick A. Stratton, of Milwaukee, one of the physicians who examined the colonel, declared the wound was superficial.

The wound was a superficial one, he said. The bullet had entered the chest and had passed through the colonel's army overcoat, a spectacle case and the manuscript of his contemplated speech.

By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire. New York, Oct. 14.—Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt was attending a musical comedy at a Broadway theater tonight at the time the attempt was made upon her husband's life. The news was broken to her as she sat in a box with a party of friends.

Although assurances were given in the first dispatch that the colonel was not seriously wounded, Mrs. Roosevelt was shocked and immediately left the theater, driving to the headquarters of the progressive party.

There she awaited further details from Milwaukee. She was considerably relieved by the early bulletin reporting that the colonel had been so slightly wounded that he was able to proceed with his speech.

As to how Mrs. Roosevelt had received the news, Mr. Perkins only said: "Just as such a strong woman as Mrs. Roosevelt would receive it."

Colonel Roosevelt's son, Theodore, heard of the attack on his father late tonight and hurried to progressive headquarters to assist his mother and await details from Milwaukee.

Shortly after midnight Mrs. Roosevelt received a telegram which evidently had been dictated by her husband, assuring her that he was in no danger and making light of the attack on his life. The telegram read:

"I am now in the American hospital. The bullet did not hit anything. I am feeling fine. I will find it somewhere around. It is no more serious than the injury the boys received. My voice is holding out well and I will go on the trip. Don't worry. Love, Dad."

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT"

Mrs. J. Wood Roosevelt took the colonel's telegram and read it over. She said she was not surprised at the news. She said she was not surprised at the news.

"That's what they said when President McKinley was shot," she exclaimed.

President Taft and Governor Wilson were among others to be quickly advised of the attempted assassination of Colonel Roosevelt.

The president was at a banquet which Mayor Gaynor was giving tonight in the city hall. He was in the company of the president, the vice president, and several distinguished citizens.

When the news was communicated to him, it was evident that the colonel was not seriously wounded.

Later as the news was confirmed the president said to the newspaper men:

"I am very sorry to hear of the assault upon a man of such high character and to learn he was hurt."

At the time the president made this statement, bulletins from Milwaukee were being received, and the colonel was said to be in no danger.

It is with the greatest surprise that I hear that the colonel is hurt. I am very sorry to hear of the assault upon a man of such high character and to learn he was hurt."

By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire. Milwaukee, Oct. 14.—Colonel Roosevelt amidst his physician, members of his party and his auditors by the remarkable display of nerve shown when he refused to refrain from delivering his scheduled address.

After having been introduced by Mr. Cochems, who broke the startling news to the audience of the attempted assassination, Colonel Roosevelt walked to the front of the platform and said:

"Friends," he continued, "I shall have to ask you to be as quiet as possible. I do not know whether you wish to see me or not. I have just been shot, but I am more than able to talk a full hour."

"But fortunately I had my manuscript (holding up manuscript, showing audience where bullet had gone) through me. I was going to make a long speech. And I think the hole is in it that the bullet went through, and it probably saved it from going into my heart. The bullet is in my back, so that I cannot make a long speech. But I will try my best."

"And now, friends, I want to take advantage of this incident to say as much as a word of warning, as I know have to my fellow Americans. First of all, I want to say this about myself: I have altogether too many important things to think of to pay any heed of my own health."

Now, I would not speak to you merely within five minutes of being shot. I am telling you the literal truth when I say that my concern is for my country, and that it is not in the least for my own life.

"I want you to understand that I am not a gamblers' man. No man has had a happier life than I. I have been able to do everything that I have wished to do, and I am interested in doing other things."

Let me tell you with absolute truthfulness, because I want to say something interesting to you. I am not a gamblers' man. I am not a gamblers' man. I am not a gamblers' man.

"I always felt that a private was to be exposed for failing at times some of the things that I have said. I am not a gamblers' man. I am not a gamblers' man. I am not a gamblers' man."

On the plea that the witness had given only his "opinion" as to the authenticity of Becker's signature, the defense objected to the introduction of the papers.

Justice Goff refused to allow the papers to be admitted and "Bridgie" Webber was called.

He said his real name was Louis and that he was a gambler.

He had known Herman Rosenthal for ten years, and knew the same time. Becker, he had known for two years, having first met him in Jack Rose's place and the next time in front of his (Webber's) poker room.

"I said, 'Charles, he's going to be taken care of. You're liable to see it in the papers any day.'"

The witness then told of meeting Becker and telling him of Becker's intention that "the job" be done.

By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire. New York, Oct. 14.—Winifred E. Schenck, secretary of Police Commissioner Waldo, was the first witness called by the prosecution this morning when the trial of former Police Commissioner Becker was resumed.

Schenck, who is a former newspaper man, was asked to identify his signature on a document handed to him by Assistant District Attorney Louis Webber. The document was a communication addressed to Becker and which there were letters identified by the witness as having been in his possession, written by Becker. Schenck said he had signed the document in the direction of Commissioner Waldo.

On the plea that the witness had given only his "opinion" as to the authenticity of Becker's signature, the defense objected to the introduction of the papers.

The witness then told of meeting Becker and telling him of Becker's intention that "the job" be done.

Webber described the inception of the murder plot. Rose had agreed to get the four gunmen together at his poker room on the night of June 15, on that night he (Webber) saw Becker and Jack Sullivan at a prize fight, and then went to his poker room.

There, he said, he saw Becker, Harry Vallon, "Gyp the Blood," Sam

The Quickest, Simplest Cough Cure

Quickly and Cheaply Made at Home. Saves You $2.

This recipe makes a pint of cough syrup—enough to last a family a long time. You couldn't buy as much or as good cough syrup for $2.50.

Simple as it is, it gives almost instant relief and usually stops the most obstinate cough in 24 hours. This is partly due to the fact that it is slightly laxative, stimulates the appetite and has an excellent tonic effect. It is pleasant to take—children like it. An excellent remedy, too, for whooping cough, croup, sore lungs, asthma, throat trouble, etc.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 3/4 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

Pinex is one of the oldest and best known remedial agents for the throat membranes. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in quinine and all the other natural healing elements. Other preparations will not work in this form.

The prompt results from this recipe have endeared it to thousands of housewives in the United States and Canada, which explains why the plan has been initiated often, but never successfully. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

CIRCUS COLOSSAL ORGANIZATION; RISKS GREAT

Inside Working of Al G. Barnes Wild Animal Show Which Comes Tomorrow Furnish Food for Thought.

Very few people are familiar with the scope and magnitude of a big circus. Little do they realize the enormous costs of energy required to bring together such a colossal organization. Sometimes a circus owner spends almost a lifetime in collecting a menagerie. Agents search the four corners of the earth for new and strange beasts. When these are once found it is seldom a question of price but more of a command to secure at any price or hazard.

There is a popular misapprehension regarding the profits of the circus business. The Al G. Barnes circus and several other of the big shows are capitalized over a million dollars. And if at the end of a circus season investment has yielded ten per cent generally, there is feeling of jubilation. What business man is there who does not want and expect to earn dividends of ten per cent on his investment.

The circus is constantly in danger of numerous and great losses. Sometimes rain is a companion of weeks when the receipts slump fearfully. Then often wrecks and other disasters come. No insurance company in the world will insure the patronage of a circus so great is the risk. Sometimes a rate and costly animal dies, then the profits of days is consumed. The expenses of the Al G. Barnes Circus is placed by the management at $2,500 per day. This does not include any part of the expense, not in keeping the show during the long months of winter when no revenue whatever is derived. Often times the sole profits of the day come not from the big show but from the side, such as the sale of peanuts, lemonade, balloons, etc.

Tomorrow the Al G. Barnes big three ring wild animal circus will arrive in Albuquerque for two performances on the regular show grounds. The doors to the big show will be opened at 1 and 7 p. m. The performance will begin an hour later. A two mile long street parade will leave the show grounds at 10:30 a. m. and will pass through the principal downtown streets.

OVER $400,000 WAS SPENT ON WILSON, UNDERWOOD AND HARMON

Clapp Committee Finds That Friends of New Jersey Governor Put Up $208,193 for Nomination Expenses.

HARMON FUND WAS BACKED BY RYAN

New York Capitalist Also Contributed $35,000 to Underwood of Alabama for Securing Delegates.

(By Morning Journal Special Teased Wire.)

Washington, Oct. 14.—Towards $400,000 was expended in the efforts of Governor Woodrow Wilson, Governor Judson Harmon and Representative Oscar W. Underwood to secure the democratic presidential nomination this year, according to testimony today by William McCombs before the senate committee investigating the contributions. His aide, William McCombs, accounting for $208,193, of this sum $82,800 was contributed, according to Mr. McCombs, by "Cleveland S. Dodge and Princeton Friends." He developed that the "Friends" were Clyde H. McCormick, of the International Harvester Company; David H. Jones, Thomas D. Jones and Edward W. Sheldon, all of whom had been trustees when Mr. Wilson was president of Princeton.

Of the $150,946 expended in the efforts of Governor Harmon, Hugh L. Nichols, lieutenant governor of that state, told the committee that $77,000 was contributed by Thomas Fortune Ryan. Mr. Ryan also supplied $15,000 of a fund of $52,000 collected for the advancement of Representative Underwood's candidacy.

Lieutenant Governor Nichols told the committee that Governor Harmon contributed largely to his own campaign. He said that $122,000 had been collected, but that the expenditures amounted to $146,000 in the national campaign and that Governor Harmon supplied the difference. In addition, Mr. Nichols filed a statement of $1,946 collected and expended in Ohio. The principal contributors mentioned in Mr. Nichols' statement were: R. M. Thompson, $3,000; Representative Francis Burton Harrison, $1,000; R. C. Wheeler, $8,500; J. F. Fanning, $5,000; William Dudley, $2,500; Thomas P. Ryan, $77,000; and James J. Hill, $15,000.

BLATZ

THE FINEST BEER EVER BREWED

An added attraction to the lunching and dining hour. Blatz is appetizing and nourishing.

The popularity of the Blatz products is due, first of all, to pronounced individual quality. Such is the recognized fact by those who have passed scientific judgment on its merits as a table beer.

Your Brain

Is a Battery

Its thoughts are the sparks that set Success in motion.

The simplest form of battery requires three factors to make the electric spark—(zinc, copper and an acid.)

The human brain also requires three vital elements to put forth thought—water, albumen and Phosphate of Potash.

In the Brain as in the Battery, let a single element become weakened from yesterday's use and lessened activity follows. Therefore, in order to keep a good working brain or add to its power, one absolutely must use food which contains albumen and Phosphate of Potash.

Why not do a bit of thinking now?

Water and albumen exist plentifully in every day food, but Phosphate of Potash is often lacking.

That missing element exists freely in the outer coating of wheat and barley, but the miller of white bread flour throws it out because it makes his flour brown instead of white.

Grape-Nuts FOOD

Made of choice wheat and malted barley, retains the rich brain-building Phosphate of Potash required by Nature for supporting bright brains and active minds.

Pure! Wholesome! Appetizing! This food in partly pre-digested and quickly absorbed. A morning dish with cream provides force for accomplishment that many a man has come to know and appreciate.

Common Sense goes a long way toward making Success.

To eat right often means to be right.

ALBUQUERQUE NEW MEXICO

ON WITH THE CRUSADE.

Our evening contemporary says of its campaign for reforming the republican party:

"Mr. Elfrigo Baca, chairman of the county central committee of the republican party, appeared to be good material upon which to begin the campaign for reform. Mr. Baca, a member of Frank Hubbell's organization since his arrival in Bernalillo county, has been unfavorably mentioned for his connection with the unsatisfactory incident of room 44 and its bathroom. To men of youth and enthusiasm and high ideals, Mr. Baca appeared to be a splendid place to begin."

Also, it is stated in the next paragraph that the Journal is supporting Mr. Baca.

Our evening contemporary does us a grievous wrong. The Journal never thought of championing the cause of Elfrigo Baca, but it acknowledges the error of inaction at one time that the Herald was trying to make him a scape goat, as in Mr. Herbert W.
Clark, republican state chairman, for the sine of Judge Fall, Charles Springer, Charles Spence, national committeeman; H. H. Holt, Mr. Clark and others high in the councils of the republican party.

Just as quickly as we learned of the splendid program of the young men of the Evening Herald we endorsed it, commended it and then, felt good over the fact that the next largest newspaper, regardless of consequences, had decided to join the Journal in its fight for the purification of politics in New Mexico.

With the Evening Herald doing all it can to bring to punishment the perpetrators of the crime against the Spanish-American representatives from Rio Arriba and Taos, to have Herbert W. Clark out from the position of state chairman, to have Charles Spence retired from the position of national committeeman, Charles Springer informed that he must "go away back and sit down," and Judge Fall fired from the senatorship, to which he has no rightful title, and the men suspected of accepting money for their votes for Judge Fall exposed and punished, the clouds begin to roll away.

The Journal again declares its endorsement of the program and its heartiest support of it. It is a most worthy cause. It must succeed.

The first thing to carry out the program is to defeat the party headed by Clark, who was then secretary of the republican machine. Also it must not be forgotten that the machine is represented on the national committee by Charles Spence, who was described by Jose D. Sena as "pretty hot" when the exposure was made at "room 44." Judge Fall, who is wearing the senatorial livery as the result of "room 44," was one of the chief conspirators.
The party of these men must be defeated, routed, put in flight, as it is now exposed to shame.

A defeat of the republican party puts all of these men on the totem pole.
The triumph of the republican party would absolutely defeat the plans of the young gentlemen of the Herald.
Only inexperienced could cause them to imagine that they can hope for the success of their plan except through the defeat of the party of which these representable men are the leaders even now.

Besides regarding Frank Hubbell, we must call the attention of the Herald to a saying of Philip St. Maxedon.
He was a poverty stricken gentleman for his day. He said if he could move introduce an new laden with gold into a city he was besieging, he regarded it then as though it were captured.

Mr. Hubbell has the same view of the republican party in New Mexico.
He has experience to back his judgment. We want it impressed on the minds of the young men who run the Herald that their cause is in great danger if that thousand dollars is permitted to find its way into the treasury of the state central committee. It would be an aw laden with gold.

THE VOTER AT FAULT.

The failure of a large percentage of the voters of the United States to cast their ballots on election day is at bottom of many of the evils of which the country complains. Even the greatest crisis in American history failed to bring out the vote. In 1856 and 1860, only about 60 per cent of the qualified voters went to the polls.
In 1864, because of the Civil war, the vote dropped to nearly 50 per cent.

In the two presidential elections following the Civil war, the vote rose to 63 per cent. In the six elections following 1876 to 1896, the vote rose to its highest point, a little more than 70 per cent. The highest points were reached in the Hayes-Tilden contest of 1876 and in the free silver fight between McKinley and Bryan in 1896.

Since 1896, the interest of the voter has steadily declined to 65 per cent in 1900 and 56 per cent in 1904, and 1908—the lowest point since war time elections.

When statements and near statements, are viewing things with alarm, should they not look with apprension on the fact that nearly 50 per cent of the qualified voters have failed to discharge their duty at the ballot box? In times of great political excitement, the vote is relatively heavy, but at no time during the last three-quarters of a century have three-quarters of the qualified voters exercised the franchise.

In a republic it is important to have the people take part in the affairs of government, otherwise we become the prey of demagogues at once, and by and by will be ruled by a despot. If the rule of the people is so desirable as we are told nowadays, the people should go to the polls and rule. They have the opportunity. As it is, for a very long time we have been ruled by a minority, and unless greatest interest is manifested, the result of the coming election will be decided by a smaller expression of the popular vote than has ever occurred before in the history of this nation.

New Mexico will have the opportunity for the first time to participate in a national election. There are no county candidates to be elected and there is no considerable campaign fund by any party. In fact, there appears to be no money to spend, except that Mr. Jaffa is a very rich man and has many rich friends who are doing fairly well for him.

So far we understand the expenses of the progressive fight have been borne entirely by Mr. Bronson Cutting. A few democrats have subscribed about enough to pay for headquarters and for a small amount of literature for their campaign. The voter is left to his sense of duty as a citizen of the United States and as he may feel interested in the future of New Mexico.

However, the voter may feel inclined to cast his ballot, the Journal urges that every man entitled to the 4th day of next November. It is a duty.

ATTEMPT TO KILL ROOSEVELT.

The American people will regret that anyone should have attempted to assassinate Col. Theodore Roosevelt.
That the perpetrator of the crime was insane is evidenced by the memoranda taken from his pockets by the police.

We do not settle disputes in the United States in that way. However turbulently the political contest may rage, however excited the people may become, the place to settle all such questions is at the ballot box.

It is now generally recognized that John Wilkes Booth, who assassinated President Lincoln, was suffering from what alienists now call Paranoia; the same was true of the man who killed President Garfield, Charles Julius Gu-lteau. President McKinley was killed by Leon Czolgosz, an anarchist of the same school that had not long before done to death Victor Emmanuel, of Italy, the Empress Elizabeth, of Austria-Hungary, and President Carnot of France.

The very freedom of our institutions is one of the reasons why assas-inations are so easy of accomplishment.
Our presidents do not live in seclusion.
They are easily accessible, and therefore were not protected even by a detective when leaving the White House.

Candidates for the highest office in the land, as is Colonel Roosevelt, have no fear of assassination being instigated by their opponents. The only danger is from an anarchist, opposed to all law, or from some unbalanced crank.

The whole country regrets the attempt on Colonel Roosevelt's life and hopes for his speedy recovery.

When the government came along and asked for a circulation statement, the Santa Fe New Mexican gave an excellent illustration of Asop's fable of the frog that tried to be an ex.

A doctor, a bombstone dealer and an underbelly are running for corner in a Kentucky county. The result depends, probably, on which of the candidates is the best shot.

Dr. Wood Hutchinson says the stomach of a child "is geared for a continuous performance," yet some mothers try to hold the baby to a

A Cornell professor thinks the world is entering on an ice age. Yet former Vice President Fairbanks is no longer active in politics.

SAME OFFENSE PUTS CRIMINAL TRIALS OCEAN - TO - OCEAN SEVENTEEN INTO BEGUN BY JUDGE RANOLDS PENITENTIARY HIGHWAY ABOUT TO BE REALIZED

Selling Liquor to Indians Draws Fancy Sentences for Each of Batch Found Guilty For First Time.

The same offense caused seventeen men to be placed in the state penitentiary at Santa Fe for the first time, according to United States Marshal Secundino Romero, who was in his office yesterday after attending federal court in the capital for a week.

The offense was the sale of liquor to Indians. Sixteen of the batch sentenced were first offenders, and sentenced with lighter sentences than the seventeenth. That was Pedro Mon-tano, who was given a year and a day and a fine of $200 and costs for twice breaking the law in this respect.

He and the others were all tried before Judge W. H. Folsom in Santa Fe.
They all come from the McKinley county region. The sixteen who received lighter sentences drew sixty days each, a fine of $100 and the payment of costs. The seventeenth, Pedro Montano, drew a year and a day, a fine of $200 and costs for twice breaking the law in this respect.

The next case will be that against Mrs. Sarah Hunter, who is indicted for shooting her husband in a quarrel over some real estate. Then the case against Sam Lyle, colored, charged with the murder of Ira Carroll colored, in a resort near Third Street and Third avenue last January.
The case will be taken up. This case has attracted considerable attention, and will likely be well attended.

Lyle has been in the state penitentiary for some time, and has been several months, but was brought back to Albuquerque Sunday night.

THREE JUDGMENTS BY DEATH ARE RENDERED.

Judge Folsom yesterday passed three death judgments against difceived a judgment against Eugene Romero for $145.00, with interest and costs. The same first received judgment against Francisco Mora and R. B. Mora for $1,955.65, with interest and costs.

Gross, Kelly & Co. received a judgment against John Morrell for $25, representing principal, interest and fees claimed to be due on a note.

Because of the partisan stand taken Isaac Barth has withdrawn from the association. He has given notice of his withdrawal to the association for not doing in the following letter:

Albuquerque, N. M., Oct. 14, 1912.
New Mexico Wool Growers' Association.
Gentlemen: On the 12th of October, I made an application to join your association, and sent you my check for the amount due. I would appreciate it greatly if you would return me my check and consider my application for membership in your association as not having been made.

At the time I made the application I thought I was joining a wool growers' association, but when I received your reply, I discovered that the ten or twelve of you who met at the Elks' opera house last Saturday were merely a Jaffa republican club. It was useless for me to check and consider my application for membership in your association as not having been made.

Vest Pocket News vs.
The Public.

It has been whispered around town for some time, that there is something good in store for Albuquerque, and many of us little fellows follow it.
The truth is, it is a lie, and it is a lie that belongs to the small fry, and sometimes asked the future of Albuquerque, and with our meager knowledge of the facts, we can only answer, "Yes, yes, yes, yes, yes, yes, yes, yes, Well, we are told that Colonel Shiv-kirk, Major Breakneck, Judge thing in their vest pocket that they want to show you, and they are askthey let us on to the secret, that we may help boost Albuquerque? To hear that there is something good in the footprints for us. Now let us hear

The fair association urgently re-not paid their subscriptions to the Fair fund do so immediately, as it is absolutely necessary that all subscriptions be paid to the fund by the 1st of the association and clear up the indebtedness of the fund by the 1st liverant subscribers are asked to attend to the matter today, calling on Treas-

Another call was issued yesterday by President D. K. B. Sellers and Secretary Frank A. Storz, for all those having bills against the association, to present them for payment.
Payment will be made as soon as the bills are added.

If all the subscribers pay up today and all bills are paid, presented to the secretary, the business of the thirty-second annual state fair can be summed up by the end of the week.

District Court Again at Work After Week of Recess During State Fair; Lyle Case To Come Up Today.

The trial of criminal actions was yesterday begun in the district court before Judge Herbert F. Reynolds.
Court had been in recess a week during the state fair, in which time, very little business was done.

The first action tried was that of Charles E. Folsom, who was charged with assault with a deadly weapon alleged to have been committed upon the person of Miguel Seillo about the middle of last August.

The jury returned a verdict of not guilty at a late hour last night.

Calderon has been in jail ever since the affray took place. The cause of the trial is certainly injuries inflicted upon Seillo, which a knife, alleged to have been wielded by Calderon. The trouble occurred in a drunken brawl.
The next case will be that against
Mrs. Sarah Hunter, who is indicted for shooting her husband in a Plan Which is Both Practical And Possible Outlined for Building Trans-Continental Route.

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal] Indianapolis, Oct. 14.—It would seem that a plan which is at once practical and possible has been outlined whereby the long discussed transcontinental highway extending from New York to San Francisco may become a reality. Other plans of similar nature have been proposed in the past, but have been consumed in talk, for the simple reason that organization and business principles played no part in their makeup. They were the visions of dreamers, and were lacking in the financial and business necessary to bring about the desired results along any line.

But the present idea of a national highway rests upon a simple basis. It owes its origin to business men who have proved themselves by action rather than words. Its every detail is firmly anchored to a sound business principle and the expense of the project has been fixed upon a basis which it will not prove burdensome even to those who will profit most by its realization.

At a casual glance one might say that a transcontinental highway would be of benefit only to automobile manufacturers, dealers and owners. That this class will derive a special benefit from such a highway is a fact, but the benefit to the country as a whole is far greater. It is also true that the fund necessary for the building of this road is to be borne entirely by this class. But there is another truth which is also worthy of consideration, and that is, the highway will be for the benefit of the country as a whole, and the expense of such a highway will bring to the fore.
This is the fact that, if a highway is built across the continent, there is no place in America which will not profit thereby.

It has been generally conceded that the automobile industry is still in its infancy. As it is, the industry would have been almost paralyzed by the introduction of the motor car. It has created a demand for skilled labor such as never existed before. It has caused towns to take on new life and to become cities. It has given thousands of men the opportunity of making an honest livelihood, and has exercised an influence which has not been revealed even by the steam engine.

If this much has been done in two years, and if the industry is now only a baby, what must be the result if it is given such stimulation as an ocean highway will give it? One great enterprise only serves to create others.
It has already been demonstrated with the manufacture of automobiles and accessories. There is no limit to the possibilities which the extended manufacture and sale of the automobile will bring about, and those men who are striving for its advancement are the pioneers of a movement which will serve to make ideal the industrial conditions of America.

And then again, there is another phase of the question which is broad in its appeal and worthy of consideration. This is the effect which one good road spanning the continent from coast to coast will have upon the other roads of the country.

It is a lamentable fact that for the most part the roadways of America are not good. Some few states have seen to it that their highways are adequately maintained, but the great majority of them are in a state of disrepair. The building of good highways is one of the greatest needs of the country. It is a project which will result in benefit for the many.

The plan under present consideration is a big one, and men behind it know how to secure big results in an orderly and systematic way.
There is no reason why all the financial arrangements should not be completed within a few months, and the road itself an actuality by 1915, the time set by those whose ideas have gone into making a success of the venture. It is a project which is free from politics; the money for it is being subscribed by those who can afford it, and the completion of the road will result in benefit for the many.

MEADOW CITY SCENE OF TWO BURGLARIES

[Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal] East Las Vegas, N. M., Oct. 14.— Two cool pieces of work in the home-breaking line were pulled off this morning when the rooming houses of Mrs. L. J. Myers and Mrs.
Mary Aldrich at 227 and 217 Railroad avenue, respectively, were entered and property to the value of $1,000 taken.
At the Myers' the burglar house they ransacked two rooms, in which H. C.
Leahy and William Myers were sleeping. Leahy is minus a bow $23 suit of clothes, his watch, a pair of shoes and a pair of socks. Leahy reports the loss of his overcoat, a watch chain valued at $18.75 in cash. The thieves paid a visit to the Aldrich house also, and ransacked the whole place. In front of the Aldrich house there were three showing where a burglar had been driven up on the sidewalk. Evidently the men made their get away in a hurry.

The best plaster. A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Liment and bound on over the affected parts is superior to a plaster and costs only one-tenth as much.

What Makes a Bank Strong?

In judging a bank, always remember that it is Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits that give security to the depositor, because that money is what stands between you as a depositor and any possible shrinkage in the securities held by the bank.

Few banks have a larger margin of safety than the State National Bank, which combined with conservative, but progressive methods have built up one of the strongest banks in the state.

We welcome small accounts and help you to make them grow.

REPUBLICANS ARE LENDING AID TO WILSON LEAGUE

Leaders Claim Forty Thousand Have Deserted Party Rather Than Vote for Colonel Theodore Roosevelt.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.) Philadelphia, Oct. 14.—In the course of six weeks 10,000 independent republicans throughout the country have enlisted with the Woodrow Wilson National Progressive Republican League, according to an announcement made yesterday from the local headquarters, 131 South Broad street.

The figures are taken from the league's enrollment lists in New York, Chicago, Cleveland, Milwaukee, San Francisco, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia. The independent republican support of the candidacy of Governor Wilson, the democratic presidential nominee, is particularly significant because it indicates that Colonel Roosevelt will not poll the solid independent republican strength which his managers are counting upon.

After referring to the fact that Rudolph Spreckels, the San Francisco craft fighter; Senator Robert M. La Follette, of Wisconsin, and Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, former chief chemist of the United States government, are leading figures in the independent republican movement in behalf of Wilson, the league's statement declares.

"These men, like many thousands of La Follette's loyal supporters, were deeply disappointed at the failure of the republican convention to name a progressive candidate. Not realizing on the hopes of Senator La Follette, they would have been satisfied with a progressive of the type of Governor Hadley, of Missouri, or Senator Cummings, of Iowa. They declined to follow Colonel Roosevelt out of the republican party because they had no sympathy with the third-term movement. The fight to purge the republican party of its reactionary element should be made within the party, they held, and not as adherents of the column who, to the former La Follette supporters, is in no sense a progressive."

It is pointed out that an aggressive campaign is being conducted by the league in this city and state. Henry C. Sikes, former chairman of the Lincoln party, has charge of the league's work in Pennsylvania and is expected to come to Philadelphia this week to confer with the local leaders regarding the progress of the campaign.

Senator John J. Blaine, of Wisconsin, law partner of Senator La Follette, will direct the league's work in the middle west from Chicago, and Dr. Harvey W. Wiley and Mr. Spreckels will be in the New York headquarters during the presidential contest.

At the close of the present campaign the league officers propose to convene in Chicago to decide upon the future course of the progressives in the republican party.

"The probability of the election of Wilson being strong," concludes the statement, "has held that the entire realignment of the republican party is imperative."

Then There is What We Call the "English" Sack Suit

Do you know that the best clothes in the world are made in America, and that STEIN-BOCH are making the Englishman's clothes for him? And since the styles are English, we are very lucky in having ours served up to us by the one tailoring house in America that makes a specialty of English style.

The suit we started out to tell you about is one of their best efforts. Not quite so far advanced in Piccadillyness as say the Saxon, but striking fairly of the smart clubs.

Suppose you ask us to show you this English suit? You've no call to buy, but just to see a really English suit.

JUDGE POPE MAY REPUBLICANS FAIL TO OUST COUNTY CHAIRMAN

Announcement is Made at Meeting of Local Bar Association That Session Will Convene if Business Justifies.

Should there be business enough to justify it, Judge William H. Pope will probably hold a session of the United States district court in Albuquerque sometime during January, according to the statement made at the meeting of the Bernalillo County bar association held last night at the Commercial club.

Attorney H. B. Jamison stated that Judge Pope had told him that a jury would be called in Albuquerque, if there were enough cases pending in the district to justify it.

He also stated that a committee was appointed at the meeting last night to investigate the matter and report to the court.

There were any considerable number of cases to be tried.

District Attorney Manuel Vigil was to have read a paper at the meeting, but owing to the fact that the trial of criminal cases is now in progress in the district court, was unable to attend and the entertainment part of the meeting was turned into an exchange of views on the various subjects present.

A paper will be read at the next meeting, which will be held on the second Monday in November by Attorney John L. Lewis on a subject to be announced later.

Phone 501-502 for light hauling parcels, messengers. Prompt service.

WORK TO BEGIN ON BARELAS BRIDGE WEDNESDAY

Steel Piling Accepted After Inspection Yesterday and Operation of Driving It Is to Commence at Once.

Work on the long wished for repairs to the Barelas bridge will be begun early tomorrow. This means that within a short time the bridge will again be opened to traffic and the residents of the section across the river will not have to ford the stream to bring their produce to market.

The steel piling for the repairs was inspected yesterday and accepted by County Surveyor Pitt Ross. The work of driving this piling will be begun soon by the contractors for the bridge, the Missouri Valley Bridge & Iron Co.

The repairs to the bridge, three spans of which were washed away in the unprecedented floods last spring, will total a length of about 250 feet, all of which is to be supported on long steel piles, the deck being carried on steel beams.
