MADERO DOWNFALL CHIEF OBJECT OF REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENT

Gomez Robelo Asserts That All Rebel Chiefs Are Interested in New Concerted Action to Change Government.

FEDERALS SYMPATHIZE WITH NEW PROGRAM

No Leader is to be Pushed for Presidency Until Object of Rebellion is Accomplished, Says Spokesman.

Mexico City, Oct. 17.—The land cable between Paso del Macho, state of Vera Cruz, and Vera Cruz, the capital of that state, was cut this afternoon. The last message that came over the wire was a dispatch from the rebels, who again in command of "Comodoro Atencio, federal, and that he was preparing to bombard. The consuls have protested.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] El Paso, Oct. 17.—"All revolutionary elements in Mexico today are co-operating to the one end—the downfall of Madero and his government," declared Attorney Gomez Robelo, personal representative of the revolution of Pascual Orozco in the north of Mexico when seen in his hiding place in El Paso. Released from jail here and exonerated from a political charge preferred by the Mexican government representatives, Robelo is avoiding arrest, but is keeping quite in touch with developments not only along the border but at the national capital.

"I have evidence here," said he, "producing letters to prove his assertion, that the revolution begins by general Felix Diaz and General Aguilar in the state of Vera Cruz, in conjunction with Orozco's movement in the north. Later we will see what can be done, but we assure an orderly transformation as it already is shown that the federalists will not fight against the rebels. How then will they fight against their brothers, the federalists, who have revolted in Vera Cruz?"

"That, so far, no one has been championed for president of the republic is proof that the new movement will be popular. To raise the banner of personalism would mean an international strife we hope to avoid. Always before has Mexico been cursed by revolutions promoted by some particular man. This revolution, of the revolutionists in the north, of the military in the south and soon of all the people, merely is the outcry against a national shame."

Robelo produced letters to show that the plot for the revolt of the troops in Vera Cruz was made in conjunction with a general plan, part of which has not transpired. He showed a copy of the "plan" of Vera Cruz, mailed from Mexico City two weeks ago and containing predictions of the Diaz uprising. Robelo says General Orozco continues toward the south in the state of Coahuila, and soon will be working in conjunction with federal troops which, it is predicted, will turn in the north.

All remains quiet in Juarez, with all communication cut with the south. No movement has been made either from Juarez or Casas Grandes to prevent the destruction of the Mexican Northern railway by rebels. Federal troops in all the north of Mexico are resting on their arms.

WASHINGTON OFFICIALS FEAR FOR AMERICANS

Washington, Oct. 17.—Officials here became thoroughly alarmed today over the imminent danger to Americans in Vera Cruz, Mex., and Beckman Winthrop, acting secretary of the navy ordered the cruiser Des Moines now making a tour of Mexican ports to return to Vera Cruz.

Commander Hughes will have full power to exercise his own discretion in safe-guarding Americans in the beleaguered city.

The Des Moines has 279 blue jackets aboard but carries no marines. She left Vera Cruz ten days ago for Puerto Mexico, whence she sailed yesterday for Progreso to arrive tonight. She will return with all speed to Vera Cruz, about 450 miles to the southwest.

Various messages to the state department, confirming the surrender at Vera Cruz to General Felix Diaz, report that the city is quiet, and officials realize the perilous position Americans and other foreigners would find themselves in should the Mexican federalists attempt to recapture the city. Despatches from Mexico City today say the movement of which General Diaz is the controlling spirit has contracted widespread sympathy. Confirmation has been received here of

REVENUE CUTTER MEANS TO STOP FILIBUSTERS.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 17.—Aiming to head off filibusters carrying ammunition to Vera Cruz from Gulf points, the United States revenue cutter Winona prepared today to sail from here at a moment's notice.

GENERAL DIAZ A STRONG MAN, SAYS WILSON.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 17.—"This uprising contributes a new element to the revolutionary situation in Mexico and not an inconsiderable one," Henry Lane Wilson, ambassador to Mexico, said today when he learned of the capture of Vera Cruz by General Felix Diaz.

Mr. Wilson, with his wife, is visiting friends here.

"General Diaz is a man of great prestige with the army and the public," Mr. Wilson continued, "hitherto the revolution has been headed by men whose names expressed no special significance and all lacked some essential of leadership."

MADERO CONCENTRATES AGAINST GENERAL DIAZ.

Mexico City, Oct. 17.—A train load of troops from the state of Morelos reached the capital last night and will reinforce General Beltran in the campaign against General Felix Diaz. The day before the fall of Vera Cruz, the legislature of the state of Morelos formally protested to the central government against the weakness of the federal forces in that state and requested reinforcements in view of the increased Zapatista bands operating there.

The government, however, has determined to throw all its power against Diaz, even if it should become necessary to ignore for the present its war with the Zapatistas, the factions under other revolutionary leaders and the roving bands of rebels who are operating in many regions.

General Diaz is said to be gaining strength in the coast country and it is believed he will make an effort to occupy the port of Tampico, although early advice does not indicate a formal movement toward the interior.

President Madero and his ministers persist in minimizing the importance of the revolt and express the opinion that General Diaz never will get out of the state of Vera Cruz. Numerous arrests have been made of men of minor importance who are thought to be implicated in the plot. There is some uneasiness and fear of trouble in the capital; the soldiers are in their ranks ready for duty but there has been no sign of disorder or of an uprising.

The Diaz conflict appears centered in the town of Vera Cruz and the adjacent territory around Jalapa and Cordoba. Orizaba is still under the control of the government. All traffic to Vera Cruz has been suspended and a rigorous censorship is being exercised over all government wires.

The government insists that it can prevail upon the garrisons to lend it support. The war department is of the opinion that there will be no fighting for a day or two.

The announcement has been made here that General Trevino, who commanded the government forces in the campaign against Pascual Orozco, Jr., will retire on account of his health. General Cuellar, retired, is reported to be leading the rebels to victory in the vicinity of Tamoc. General Aguilar is said to be marching on Puebla. An unconfirmed report says there was a defection among troops being transported to Apizaco, preparatory to a campaign.

MEXICAN OFFICIAL IS RELEASED FROM CUSTODY.

Los Angeles, Oct. 17.—Miguel Mascareñas, provisional governor of the state of Sonora, Mex., was released from the city jail tonight after having been held prisoner since last Monday under the name of Ramon Soto. The release came without the aid of a writ of habeas corpus which was applied for by his friends today, federal officials having notified the police that there was no charge of violation of neutrality against Mascareñas.

Mascareñas declared he came to Los Angeles more than a month ago to visit his family. He was with the rest of the Arizona troops, a few days before the surrender of Agua Prieta was demanded and crossed the line at Douglas. He had grown a beard to escape recognition.

Mascareñas was arrested here on information supplied by Mexican Consul Diaz that he was wanted in El Paso, but word was received from that city today that this was a mistake.

REBEL GUNBOATS GO TO ATTACK TAMPICO.

Montreux, Mex., Oct. 17.—According to reports from a reliable source, the Mexican gunboats Bravo and Morelos, seized by General Felix Diaz, at Vera Cruz, sailed today for Tampico with the avowed intention of taking the port. Tampico has a large American colony. General Trevino, commander of the military zone, has expressed confidence as to the loyalty of the federal troops at Tampico.

Stubborn resistance is anticipated in the event of an attack by Diaz forces.

Has Her Sister-in-Law Arrested.

San Francisco, Oct. 17.—Charging Mrs. Katherine Fekkers, of Seattle, with forging her signature to a telegram, Miss Mabel Fekkers, a clairvoyant, and her sister-in-law, swore out a warrant today for her arrest.

The telegram to the warden of the Nevada state prison led to the capture of Llewellyn Fekkers, Mabel's brother, after he had saved his way out of the infirmary. He was arrested on his sister's doorstep.

CLAPP COMMITTEE LISTENS TO WILD STORY TOLD BY TOM LAWSON

Boston Author of "Frenzied Finance" Tells of Wall Street Conspiracy to Defeat Nominations.

EDITOR MUNSEY IS BIG CONTRIBUTOR

Publisher Deprecates Probe Into Rich Men's Donations; Says It Closes Their Pocket Books in Campaigns.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Washington, Oct. 17.—"The sinister system" formed a deep plot to control the present presidential election, Thomas W. Lawson, of Boston, told the senate campaign contributions committee today.

Mr. Lawson was careful to impress upon the committee that he knew only in a "general way" of an alleged colossal scheme to nominate and elect a candidate "satisfactory to the Wall Street interests."

All his testimony was of matter which he knew in the same "general way" and he became involved in a heated controversy with the committee in defining just what he meant by this phrase with which he prefaced practically every statement he made.

The conspiracy of the Wall Street interests, of which Mr. Lawson knew "in a general way," included, he declared, the defeat of Colonel Roosevelt in the republican national convention, the nomination of President Taft and the injection of Colonel Roosevelt into the campaign as the third party candidate to "split the republican party." All this without the knowledge of Colonel Roosevelt.

Mr. Lawson knew in a general way a mysterious fund of $1,000,000 had been raised in Wall street to deadlock the democratic convention at Baltimore, prevent the nomination of any of the candidates before the convention, and to name a dark horse satisfactory to the "system," who was to be elected.

"I communicated this information to Mr. Bryan at Chicago, during the republican convention," said Mr. Lawson. "And as a result, Mr. Wilson was nominated and the scheme failed."

Frank A. Munsey, who preceded Mr. Lawson, asked at length with the committee against the publicity of it was necessary that rich men contribute to political funds and that such publicity as the present investigation had enforced had "frozen up the pocket books" of the wealthy. He outlined his own expenditures in the Roosevelt pre-convention campaign fund, amounting to more than $118,000, and told the committee that the amount he was reported to have contributed, the real figures made him "look like a piker." He estimated the total expenditures of the Roosevelt pre-convention campaign at $574,000.

George B. Cortelyou, chairman of the republican campaign in 1904, gave the committee his recollection of the so-called Standard Oil contribution of $100,000, which John D. Archbold testified he gave to the republican fund that year. Mr. Cortelyou said that when President Roosevelt demanded that any Standard Oil money be returned, he was told by Cornelius N. Bliss, treasurer of the committee, that no contribution had been received from the company. The witness said he had a vague recollection that Mr. Bliss said something to the effect that "no questions should be asked as to individual contributions," and that after the election Mr. Bliss had said something to him about a contribution from H. H. Rogers, of the Standard Oil Company, which may have been the Archbold money.

Mr. Cortelyou said he never discussed the financial conduct of the 1904 campaign with President Roosevelt.

Mr. Cortelyou said he knew nothing of Morgan, Harriman, Standard Oil, Erie, New York Life, Mutual Life or General Electric contributions to the fund until after election.

Mr. Cortelyou said that he did not consider President Roosevelt's direction that no Standard Oil contribution be received had any relation to individuals connected with the company. "I probably would not have accepted any directions as to personal contributions by any individual," he said.

Mr. Cortelyou said he wrote the letter placed in the record inviting E. H. Harriman to become a member of an "auxiliary campaign committee." He said that the letter had been written to about one hundred republicans and related to a "purely honorary" committee. Senator Payne later wanted to know why the letter enjoined secrecy as the "committee" was not to be made public. If it was an honorary committee, Mr. Cortelyou did not explain.

The committee sharply went after the story of a Wall street conspiracy this year, and endeavored to pin Thomas W. Lawson down to a statement of his grounds for the recital. He said he had private means of information, many of them confidential, and finally informed the committee that when a bit of information became known to him he took particular pains to arrange matters so that he might not know the exact source of the information.

He said that in an effort to defeat the "system" plan he had financed a $100,000 independent advertising campaign in behalf of Colonel Roosevelt in the hope that he could be nominated on the republican ticket and be elected.

Mr. Lawson testified that he knew "in the same general way" of contributions amounting to from $500,000 to $700,000 to the fund of Alton B. Parker in 1904. Those contributions he said came from the Standard Oil group. He said that his information on this point came partly from conversations with the late H. H. Rogers, of the Standard Oil Company.

In defining his "general way" of knowing things, Mr. Lawson said: "I am in the public statement business. All I know is in a general way. I sometimes say I know, in a public statement when I think I know. When I say I think, I usually guess."

ITALIAN - TURKISH AGREEMENT AS TO AFRICA

Sultan and King Issue Edicts Regarding Rule of Inhabitants of Both Tripoli and Cyreniaca.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Rome, Oct. 17.—As the sultan of Turkey has issued a firman granting autonomy to the Arabs of Tripoli and Cyreniaca, the king of Italy has made public a decree granting full autonomy to the inhabitants of these two provinces, guilty of any acts of hostility against the Italians.

The decree assures the Mussulmans complete religious liberty with the right to introduce the name of the sultan in public prayer.

It announces that a representative of the sultan, to be designated by him, will be recognized by the Italian government. The pious foundations will be respected as heretofore and there will be no interference with the relations of the Mussulmans with their religious chief, who will be known under the title of Cad and will be appointed by the sultan.

A clause in the decree provides that the representative of the sultan shall have charge of the interests of the Ottoman empire and Ottoman subjects in the two provinces under the law of February 25, 1912.

This is the law placing the country under sovereignty of Italy. The decree promises the appointment of a commission in which native notables will have equal representation to draw up civil and administrative measures in accordance with the liberal principles and respect for the customs of the country.

PAMPHLET AGAINST ROOSEVELT LEADS TO ARRESTS

Oregon Grand Jury Returns Indictments Against Group of Socialists Alleging Defamation of Character.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Portland, Ore., Oct. 17.—Indictments have been returned by the Multnomah county grand jury against the group of socialists admitting responsibility for having written, printed and circulated a pamphlet defaming Theodore Roosevelt and his family while he was in Portland recently on his western campaign.

Arrests are being made on the warrants issued upon the indictments, and the socialists involved declare that all of these accused will come forth and stand trial. The names of the socialist committee signing the pamphlet, who have been indicted are: A. O. Erickson, M. J. Fisher, E. W. Ramsay, M. Koerner, E. W. Hais, A. E. Hais and J. Worthen. In addition, T. J. Burns and another man whose name is unknown, are reported to have been indicted. These indictments are expected to develop the sharpest fight ever had in the state of Oregon on the question of rights of free speech and free writing. At the recent meeting, Fred Warren, editor of the Appeal to Reason, introduced the members of the propaganda committee who had issued the pamphlet as heroes, and said he would head a movement to raise $100,000 throughout the country to defend them.

Hawaiian Governor is Vindicated. Beverly, Mass., Oct. 17.—On recommendation of Secretary of the Interior Fisher, President Taft has decided to reappoint as governor of Hawaii, Walter P. Frear, against whom charges were made last spring by Hawaiian Delegate Kahanamoku. Mr. Fisher made a special trip to Hawaii to investigate the charges.

Hiles Says Fight is Resumed.

New York, Oct. 17.—Chairman Hiles, of the republican national committee, today declared the cessation of political activities, following the attempt on the life of Colonel Roosevelt, were at an end so far as the republican committee was concerned.

WILSON REFERS TO ROOSEVELT AS THAT GALLANT GENTLEMAN

Democratic Presidential Nominee Repeatedly Mentions Name of Rival in Speech-making Tour of Delaware.

DENOUNCES ASSAULT AS PARTICULARLY ATROCIOUS

Says He is Fulfilling Engagements of Present Week with Great Deal of Reluctance Because of Tragedy.

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 17.—Many policemen were distributed among the crowd at the opera house here tonight when Governor Wilson spoke at the request of a threat made by an Italian to "shoot him the same as Roosevelt was shot."

Chief of Police Black was notified today by Mrs. Sarah Hudson, of Wilmington, that her sister, Mrs. Hattie Whitson, yesterday overheard an Italian workman exclaim:

"Wilson will be here tomorrow and he will get a bullet through the head the same as Roosevelt did. I will put one in him. I will shoot him myself, the son-of-a-bitch." The police have not located the man.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Wilmington, Del., Oct. 17.—"My thought is constantly of that gallant gentleman lying in the hospital at Chicago."

With this sentiment running through his speeches, Governor Woodrow Wilson toured the state of Delaware today, deploring the assault on Colonel Roosevelt. He omitted mention of the progressive party and attacked the administration of President Taft.

Governor Wilson said it was "shameful to black the progress of reform in America," and that "the standard man, which is the only thing that holds back the popular forces, presently will break."

"I do not find trouble in the United States," he said, "I rejoice to believe that America is a singularly self-possessed nation. I believe that part of the sadness we now feel because of that atrocious assault upon Mr. Roosevelt is a feeling that there is not anybody in the United States who would dare interrupt the orderly course of politics and the public affairs of this country, by the violence of his own hand. We deeply resent it. We resent the thought that there should be any citizen of the United States who could raise his hand against the peaceful, orderly, the just, open determination of public affairs."

"I came out to fulfill the engagements of this week with a great reluctance, because my thought is constantly of that gallant gentleman lying in the hospital at Chicago. Mr. Roosevelt did a vast deal to make this country to the problems that now have to be settled and that he should have been stayed in his attempt to discuss the sentiments of these questions by a hand of violence, is a thing which every American must deeply deplore."

At the same time there are the questions to be settled. There is the great life of the country to be run and we cannot afford to let it go on without guidance. My indictment against the republican administration of the past is that under them we have gone nowhere. We have drifted. We have been without plan. We have been without charts.

No man has laid down any intelligible course, and in the latter years we have been absolutely paralyzed. How could a democratic house, a senate mixed of democrats and republicans and near-republicans; men who had revolted against the policy of the republican party and were coming very slowly around to the position which their democratic colleagues had long occupied, and even a president unwilling to see even a united house when they could, upon rare occasions, unite, accomplish anything to change the existing order of things? A president, who, though he had condemned one of the most conspicuous schedules of the present tariff, was not willing that the congress should change it, but only willing that it should be changed under the advice of a board of his own appointment; a singular situation, my fellow citizens; where the president holds his seat from the very kind of reform, the very specific reform which, not in its details, but in its general purpose he had himself endorsed, showing that what you are asked to do, in being asked to vote for a republican administration, is one of the other of two things.

WILSON GIVES QUICK ANSWER TO BEVERIDGE.

New York, Oct. 17.—A telegram from Governor Wilson answering the questions given by Senator Beveridge last night at Louisville, as queries which Colonel Roosevelt had intended to put to Governor Wilson, was given out today by Senator James A. McPherson, of democratic national headquarters. The question concerned Governor Wilson's enforcement of corporation laws of New Jersey and asked why the Standard Oil Company and the American Tobacco Company had not been investigated in the state where they were organized.

Governor Wilson's answer follows: "I authorize you to say that the republicans in the legislature made revision of corporation laws impossible, and no New Jersey official could prosecute or propose dissolution for breach of the federal statutes."

BRYAN CRITICIZES PROGRESSIVISM OF ROOSEVELT

Nebraskan Says Bull Moose Candidate and Beveridge Have Stood Hand in Glove with Interests.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 17.—William J. Bryan closed his second day's tour through Indiana with an address here tonight, in which he attempted to show why former President Roosevelt and former United States Senator Beveridge should not be classed as real progressives.

In speaking of Mr. Beveridge, he said: "There are three ways to judge Beveridge, the reformer. One is by the length of his service in the cause of reform; another is by the depth of his attachment to the reform movement; and the third is by his attitude toward other reformers. Measured by any of these tests, neither Mr. Roosevelt nor Mr. Beveridge deserves to be counted as a leader of as a progressive. If progressivism stands for anything of real value."

"In point of time, they have both been tardy. Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Beveridge have not only had the chance of knowing exactly what was going on, but they have been in the very center and where they could observe not only the demagogues of the people, but the corruption of the government. Instead of speaking out, they have been worse than silent. They have been the daily associates and the bosom friends of the beneficiaries of privileges and favoritism."

"More than that, they have themselves, been the beneficiaries, the office which they have held, have been given to them by the men who had their hands in the pockets of the nation and by losses subverted to these men."

"As to the depth of their attachment to reforms, a man's devotion to a cause is shown by his willingness to suffer for it, not by his willingness to profit by it."

"What remorse has either Roosevelt or Beveridge shown for their long associations with plutocrats? Whenever Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Beveridge are ready to turn completely and permanently from associations with the despots of a nation they cannot but love those who expose the people's cause."

STOCKHOLDERS SUE FOR VALUABLE PROPERTY

Charges Are Made That Officers of a Washington State Orchard Company Are Attempting Big Swindle.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Seattle, Oct. 17.—Charges that the officers of the Grand Dunes Orchard Company organized the Grand Dunes Land & Irrigation Company and illegally transferred to it property of the old company worth $1,000,000 were made in a suit filed today by L. H. Gray, Sidney E. Mott and H. H. Mott, stockholders in the former company, against J. B. MacDonnell, George H. Hough and J. A. McCormick. The plaintiffs ask for a revision of the assets, the appointment of a receiver or a judgment for $100,000 for the stockholders in case the property is not decided back. It is asserted that of the $1,000,000 capital stock the plaintiffs own $37,000.

The lands of the company are in Klickitat county, Wash., and are said to be worth $400,000, with an orchard of 100,000. The plaintiff stockholders and others entered the entire business of the company in the defendant officers and in February, 1912, it is charged the officers organized the Grand Dunes Land & Irrigation Company and transferred to it the property of the original concern, leaving the first organization without assets.

Woodrow Wilson Day November 2.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—Members of the national democratic committee today proclaimed Saturday, November 2, as "Woodrow Wilson day." Instead of October 21, as had been announced, it is planned to have Governor Wilson address a mass meeting at Madison Square Garden, New York, and to have telegraphic excerpts read at meetings throughout the country.

BALKAN WAR MUST BE SHORT AND SHARP SAY EXPERTS

All Countries Engaged in Hostilities Have Little Money with Which to Finance the Fight.

GREEKS GAIN FIRST ADVANTAGE AT SEA

It is Believed Turks Expect to Attack Bulgarians Before Arrival of the Serbian Reinforcements.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Athens, Oct. 18, 2:30 a. m.—Greece, not wishing to detach herself from her allies, sent instructions early this morning to the minister at Constantinople to communicate a declaration of war to the porte, Greece at the same time sent a fraternal greeting to the allied states.

Serbia was the first of the three states to declare war last night. Bulgaria followed with a similar declaration.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] London, Oct. 17.—While Turkey and the Balkan states are carrying out the last formalities connected with the declaration of war, interest has been transferred to the prospects of the campaign.

The approach of winter and financial pressure are expected to make the war short and sharp. Some of the belligerent states are in a position to stand the strain of prolonged military operations.

Bulgaria was disappointed recently in trying to raise a small loan in Paris, while Turkey has been endeavoring in New York and Paris to borrow money, but without success. The financial resources of the other states concerned are very limited. Little is likely to be heard of the European conference until some decisive action has been fought.

The war is expected to develop into a land campaign between Bulgaria and Turkey and a naval struggle between Turkey and Greece. It is believed Turkey will concentrate her strength and attack the Bulgarians separately before the Serbians come to their aid. Much will depend on whether Turkey gains command of the sea, and be able to transport her Asiatic troops to the theater of war.

Little is known as to how far the allied Balkan states have concerted their plans. The independent action of Montenegro seems to indicate that a settled course is being followed.

The independent cabinet is sitting tonight in conference and have started for Athens in communicating with Belgrade and Athens. News of fighting is indefinite and conflicting, the Turks claiming substantial victories over the Montenegrins.

The Greeks are rejoicing over their first naval victory, two gunboats forcing Preveza afloat. This feat gives the Greeks command of the gulf of Arta and secures a supply of stores to the army of Epirus.

Through the official declaration of war, Greece is deprived of the services of a Chinese cruiser she designed to purchase at Newcastle, as she had been obliged to abandon the purchase for fear of diplomatic complications. The four destroyers which Greece purchased at Algiers and have started for Greece, conveying the steamer Macedonia, which has on board Greek reinforcements from New York. These sea weapons will prove serviceable if they succeed in reaching a Greek port without being intercepted by Turkish ships.

The Sofia correspondent of the Times says the war will be a holy war of creeds rather than of races. It will be a war without mercy and without truce; a war of horrors that will be aggravated by the rigors of a Macedonian winter.

According to a dispatch from Constantinople to the Chronicle, Turkey utterly rejects Premier Poincaré's proposals for a European conference. A Poincaré dispatch to the Chronicle says the Montenegrins captured a Turkish position near Tarnabosch and from the heights bombarded that fortress all yesterday.

A naval combat occurred on Laka Sea between a Montegrin and a Turkish steamer, resulting in the retreat of the Turkish boat.

ERVENA FORMALLY BEGINS ATTACK AGAINST TURKS.

Belgrade, Serbia, Oct. 17.—War against Turkey formally was declared tonight by the Serbian government. The declaration was transmitted to the Serbian minister at Constantinople for presentation to the porte tomorrow when the powers will also receive notification.

Crowds paraded the streets, singing and cheering, after the announcement.

BULGARIANS BEGIN HOSTILITIES AT ONCE.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Oct. 17.—King Ferdinand is on his way to the headquarters.

WHITE SOX AGAIN THROUGH WIN; NOW TIED WITH CUBS

Today's Game Between American and National League Clubs Will Decide Chicago Championship.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Chicago, Oct. 17.—The White Sox tied up the Chicago championship series today by winning 8 to 5 their third straight game from the Cubs in another great rally.

The series now stands three games apiece and tomorrow's winner will take the title and big end of the season receipts. Walsh pitched the ninth in and shut out the Nationals. Zimmerman's hitting was responsible for four of the Sox's tallies. His sacrifice fly scored Miller in the first; his home run drive which hit the grand stand in left and bounded out of reach, brought himself and Tinker home in the fourth and his double came in the eighth after Miller's triple had sent Good, who was hit by a pitched ball while battling for Cheney, home.

A single by Barton and a wild pitch by Cheney, followed by Schlick's single, gave the Sox a run in the second. Then in the sixth Collins and Weaver were infected with Zimmerman's favorite and each hit a home run, putting having doubled between these exploits.

The ninth inning started with Cheney leading but Richie, who relieved Cheney, was wild and two passes and a hit filled the bases. With one out, Lavender came to the rescue, only to be touched for a triple by Mattick, the first man up.

The official attendance was 15,893 and the total receipts were $8,962.50.

DENVER UNIVERSITY
ELEVEN LEAVES FOR
UTAH AND THE COAST

Denver, Colo., Oct. 17.—The football squad of the University of Denver, twenty strong, left tonight for Salt Lake City, for a game with the University of Utah, Saturday. Saturday night the team is scheduled to leave Salt Lake City for San Francisco, where a day will be spent in practice. Then the players will go to Los Angeles for a game with Occidental college, October 26th. They will reach Denver on their return, October 29th. The following will make the trip:
Porter, Palmer, Donaldson, Nash, Koonsman, Johnston, Leyden, Day, Bingham, Mann, Herbert, Large, Brubaker, Gunnell, Schroeder, Shotwell, King, Trainer, Newhouse, Manager Tuck and Coach Crowley.

PACKEY M'FARLAND
TOYS WITH CANADIAN
LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMPION

Cleveland, O., Oct. 17.—Packey McFarland, of Chicago, displayed a little of his old-time skill in a ten-round, no decision match with Kid Alberts, of New Jersey, before the Cleveland A. C. club tonight. Alberts, who claims the lightweight championship of Canada, was aggressive but his rushes left wide openings for McFarland. In only two rounds was McFarland called on to display what he could do, and then he landed such a rain of blows that Alberts was bewildered. In the tenth Alberts rushed McFarland until the latter walked head first through the ropes. McFarland then came back and beat Alberts to his knees.

Dirty Tactics Attempted by Manager and Fighter Turn Fans Against Them; Caught
with Goods.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.) Pueblo, Colo., Oct. 17.—One of the dirtiest and most contemptible tricks ever attempted in a boxing contest in Pueblo occurred here Tuesday night, when Stanley Yoakum, of Dallas, Texas, the lightweight boxer, and his manager, Jack Hanley, tried to put Yoakum's gloves with plaster of Paris casts mixed with shot, just previous to the beginning Yoakum's twenty round contest with Mike Malone, of Denver. Fortunately, Malone, in examining Yoakum's bandages, discovered the trick that was being attempted and informed his seconds, who removed the bandages and found the casts. As a result, though the fight was staged so as not to disappoint the large number of fans who were assembled, Yoakum and his manager have quered themselves with the fans of this city and both will be barred from every participation in a boxing contest here again.

Hanley, in a statement issued after the fight, admitted his part in the trick, and assumed all blame for it. He said:
"Yoakum hurt his hands during training and I insisted that he must wear plaster of Paris bandages to protect his knuckles, which were in bad shape. He is blameless in every respect. As I insisted, and the only cast I discovered is that I was caught at it. This should not be held against Yoakum, and I think he will get a new manager. I was merely doing everything I could in the interests of my boy, but could not get away with it."

CHARGES PREFERRED AGAINST FOGEL BY LEAGUE MAGNATES

New York, Oct. 17.—Formal charges against Horace Fogel, president of the Philadelphia Nationals, based upon his alleged assertions that umpires had favored the New York club and that this year's race had been fixed for that club to win, were ordered drawn at a special meeting here today of the National league.

Mr. Fogel will be given an opportunity to substantiate statements published over his signature accusing certain umpires of unfairness.

"If he can prove that the National league race was crooked this year and that the umpires or the president of the league were parties to it," said President Lynch in a statement to the league, "then the umpires should be discharged and blacklisted and the president of the league should step out of his position in disgrace."

"If these charges cannot be proved then it is up to the National league to pass legislation preventing this man from representing a national league club in any capacity."

John A. Heider, secretary of the league, was directed to present the charges to President Fogel, within five days. The league will hear his defense here Tuesday, November 26.

Thomas J. Lynch, president of the league, presided at today's meeting. The clubs represented were Boston by James E. Gaffney; Brooklyn, by Charles H. Ebbett; Chicago, by proxy held by Mr. Ebbett; Cincinnati, by August Herrmann; Pittsburgh, by proxy held by Mr. Herrmann; New York, by John Whalen and C. L. Sullivan; St. Louis, by L. O. Hocker, and Philadelphia by Horace Fogel.

The terms "fixed" and "crooked" do not exist in Horace Fogel's baseball lexicon, the president of the Philadelphia club declared tonight in discussing the meeting this afternoon. Mr. Fogel said he wished to deny vehemently that he ever used such words as charged by President Lynch.

"Lynch is making a campaign issue of this for his own election," the Philadelphia baseball magnate said. "They can't throw me out of the National league because I've done nothing that would justify such action under the constitution."

Tommy Ryan, the San Francisco featherweight, who gave Benny Chavez the fight of his life here a week ago in a ten round bout, yesterday accepted an offer to meet Jack McMahon, featherweight champion of Arizona, at Phoenix, on November 5. Ryan will leave the last of the week for Phoenix to prepare for the bout.

Ryan has offers of a return match with Chavez at Trinidad on Thanksgiving day, the contest to go twenty rounds and Ryan to weigh 115 pounds at 6 o'clock. However, if it has been demonstrated that Ryan cannot make the 115 pound figure in so short a time before the fight, he is willing to make this weight at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of the day of the contest.

Eddie Leech of Raton, also wants to take on Ryan, preferably in Albuquerque, at 125 pounds.

MOTORCYCLE RELAY WHITE GIRL FALLS WAR SITUATION IS RACE POSTPONED IN LOVE WITH CHIEF FACTOR ON UNTIL SPRING JACK JOHNSON EXCHANGE

Because of Unfavorable Road Conditions in East and West It is Deemed Best to Hold Event Next Spring.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.) New York, Oct. 17.—Road conditions both in the east and the west have made it advisable to postpone for a few months the ocean-to-ocean relay of the Federation of American Motorcyclists.

In making the detailed arrangements for the many relays across the continent, conditions were reported which would have interfered seriously with a fair test of the motorcycle's power and endurance.

One of the chief objects of the relay being to demonstrate the value of the motorcycle and to show just what it could do under average conditions—it was thought best to suffer the annoyance of a delay rather than to go ahead with the run in the face of an extremely unfavorable handicap.

The arrangements for the dash across the continent from New York to San Diego, Cal., have progressed far, and the organization of relays, as now perfected, will be kept intact until spring, when the long run will be made.

It has already been demonstrated that such a test will be watched with intense interest. And the motorcyclists of the country have shown themselves to be enthusiastic in carrying a special message from the war department across the continent in record-breaking time. The decision to postpone the relay was reached by A. M. officials only as a last resort, for they were determined to go ahead with the relay on the date announced, and would have done so if there had been even a fighting chance to overcome the extremely unfavorable conditions.

SHUFFLEBARGER IS OUT OF GAME FOR SEVERAL WEEKS

Veteran End on High School Eleven Breaks Collar Bone and Will be Unable to Play for Month or More.

Frank Shufflebarger, one of the most experienced men on the Albuquerque High school football eleven, is out of the game for probably the rest of the season. In practice yesterday, Shufflebarger broke a collar bone, and this will keep him from active playing for some time. There is a bare possibility that Shufflebarger may get into the game again before the end of the season, but it is hardly likely, and he will not be permitted to play unless physicians pronounce the knitting of the fractured bone perfect and able to stand the strain.

Shufflebarger has been playing end. While there are several candidates for the position, Harold Sellers is considered the most likely. Sellers will probably not start in the Memorial A. H. S. game Saturday.

The injury to Shufflebarger is not serious, but his loss will be felt throughout the season. It is hoped he will be able to play in the final struggles of the team for the school championship late next month.

The high school has a good team, and is working hard to make this season a record-breaking season. Saturday afternoon the first team from the Memorial school, at Traction park. Both schools are out to win, thus starting the season off with a bang and stirring up spirit for the rest of the season.

DIRECTOR JAY IS EASY WINNER IN STALLION STAKE

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 17.—The championship stallion stake, pitting Division for foals of 1909, and the Kentucky stake for 3-year-old trotters were the principal races on the program of the Grand Circuit meeting today. The stallion stake was a two-horse event between John G. Crell's colt, Ward Dillon, and A. J. Clark's colt, Director Jay. The former won the first heat, but Director Jay came strong in the second and third heats and proved an easy victor.

The 2:14 trot was hotly contested. Mack's Mack won the first two heats in which Porter McCormick finished sixth. In the third heat Porter the great got off well and won easily, as he did in the next two heats, thereby winning the race. Summary:
The Champion Stallion stake, pacing division, value, $2,200—Director Jay won, Ward Dillon second. Best time, 2:08 1/2.
2:10 class, pacing, purse, $1,000—Cincinnati won, Fern Hall second. Prince K. third. Best time, 2:08 1/2.
2:14 class trotting, purse, $1,000—Peter McCormick first, Mack's Mack second, Dr. Wilkes third. Best time, 2:09 3/4.

Chicago Police Chief Questions Black Champion Relative to Relations with Frequenters of His Cafe.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Chicago, Oct. 17.—Jack Johnson, the negro heavyweight champion pugilist, appeared before Chief of Police McWeeney today, to explain his relations with Miss Lucille Cameron, the 19-year-old daughter of Mrs. F. Cameron Falconnet, of Minneapolis, for whom the police had been asked to search by the mother.

Miss Cameron is described as a striking blonde of a well-to-do family. In a dramatic appeal, Mrs. Falconnet told of her failure to get her daughter away from the influence of the negro. She described her anguish when she learned last Friday that her daughter was a frequenter of Johnson's cafe, her trip here to rescue the girl, her interview with the pugilist, who she declared insulted her, Johnson, she said, told her he could "get" any woman he wanted.

Johnson made an absolute denial of unkindly relations with Miss Cameron. He denied a report that his infatuation for the Cameron girl was the chief cause of the suicide recently by his mother.

Miss Cameron was taken into custody by the police tonight after she had refused to leave her companions in Chicago and accompany her mother to Minneapolis.

She was arrested on complaint of her mother, but was not booked. She is said to have been living in the flat of Jack Curley on Sheridan road.

Miss Cameron had Police Captain Nothman that the boy Jack Johnson, and that while the negro had not as yet made her a proposal of marriage, she expected to become his wife soon. At this announcement the mother of the girl became hysterical.

Jack Johnson, in a statement to-night, said:
"I can't help it if white women become infatuated with me and follow me around. If Miss Cameron loves me, that is her business and her's, she is old enough to know her own mind by this time. For the last month I have employed her as a stenographer."

When asked if he intended to marry Miss Cameron or take her with him to Australia, Johnson replied:
"I do not intend to take her with me but as she has money of her own she may take the notion to follow me and you surely can't blame me for what she does. I would not take her unless I first married her, of course I may marry her, but not now. I can choose whenever I wish to marry and no one can stop me."

LOCAL BOY SCOUTS
START CAMPAIGN
FOR RECRUITS

Old Company to be Reorganized Tonight by Member of General Baden Powell's Original Brigade in London.

Great impetus will be given the boy scout movement in this city tonight when W. Rowe Chapple, a member of General Baden Powell's original London company of scouts, takes charge of the local company for the purpose of effecting a complete reorganization and increasing the membership. Mr. Rowe Chapple has issued a call for a meeting of all members of the local company, and all boys interested, to be held tonight at 7:30, in room 4 of the Whiting building, corner Second street and gold avenue, above the Owl drug store.

All boys in the city who have been taken an interest in this world-wide movement working toward higher standards and more good, healthy sport for boys, are urged to be present. There are in this city about seventy boys already enrolled and looking from the interest in the meeting taken by these members and their zealousness in soliciting recruits, room 4, Whiting building, will be a scene of much activity tonight.

Mr. Rowe Chapple was an officer in the North London division of the original London company organized by Baden Powell. It was from his work with that brigade of 4,000 boys that General Baden Powell conceived the idea of making the boy scout movement world-wide in its scope. Having been so intimately connected with the movement and seen the originator, Mr. Rowe Chapple perhaps could not be improved upon as a leader of the local company. Under his direction the boy scouts should grow and prosper.

H. M. Beatty, Little Rock, Ark., fered with kidney trouble, had severe sufferings. "For the past two years I sufferings across my back and over my hips that almost meant death to me at times. I used several well-known kidney remedies, but got no relief until I used Foley Kidney Pills. These I can truthfully say made me a sound and well man." J. H. O'Reilly Co., Adv.

Advance in French and British Discount Rates Depresses American Securities; Amalgamated Quite Active.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) New York, Oct. 17.—Foreign conditions were again factors of primary importance in the local stock market today. Formal declaration of war by Turkey against Bulgaria and Serbia called renewed attention to the tense situation in eastern Europe and advance in the British and French discount rates serve as reminders of impending as well as current events of important continental centers. Of Europe's three leading financial institutions, the statement of the Imperial Bank of Germany was far and away the most favorable, denouncing large gains in gold and cash, with a decided contraction of discounts. The British bank lost more gold, its liability reserves are much under last year's and the five per cent discount is the highest in about two years. The Bank of France also lost some gold and increased its discounts by over $27,000,000.

Firmness prevailed on the Paris bourse, while Berlin was reactionary by reason of the Italian position. Money was dear in London as a result of bank rate and our securities exerted an inclination to sag, later London turned moderate buyer in this market, again taking Amalgamated Copper and United States Steel.

Amalgamated Copper was the foremost feature of this market, encompassing all other speculative favorites as to activity and width of movement. Shortly before the close, announcement of the increase in the annual dividend from four per cent to six per cent became known but the stock failed to equal its best figure of the morning while the rest of the list lost none of its early buoyancy.

United States bonds were unchanged on call.
Total sales for the day, $95,100 shares.

Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—Wheat was sold today as a market influence, despite the fact that falling was on account of five nations, 10 wheat the outcome was a decline of 1/2 to 3/4 cents net.

Although the widening out of the struggle with Turkey led to some display of wheat strength, there was not enough aggressive buying to sustain the weight of holding sales due to the pressure of spring crop receipts northward. Moreover, export demand had disappeared and Europe holed turned limp.

Arrivals of wheat at primary terminals amounted to the high total of 2,000,000 bushels, nearly doubling the record for the corresponding time a year ago. The market was also depressed by speculators who were busy hoarding grain before the war and Minneapolis, selling December in Chicago. That month moved from 94 1/2 to 94 1/2 cents, with last sales 1/2 cent net lower at 94 1/2 cents. The final tone was steady.

Corn unchanged to 1/2 cent down. Coats closed down 1/2 cent. Provisions closed unchanged to 20 cents lower.

COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And for Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.

Fluorid J. B. C. C. suffered for three summers, writes Mrs. Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time was my worst."

I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was unable to walk about, could not do any of my housework.

I also had dreadful pain in my back and sides, and when one of those weeks, sickness spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off.

I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.

After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all those terrible nervous headaches.

I felt better, and after a month or so, I was able to get up and do my usual work, and I feel like another person altogether.

Cardui is purely vegetable and non-toxic, and its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect on the system, and it is the best remedy for women.

Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, soft cheeks, fresh and rosy.

Cardui has helped more than a million weak women during the past five years. It will surely do for you what it has done for them.

Try Cardui today.

SOCORRO WEDDING SOCIETY EVENT

Unusual Brilliance Attends the Marriage of Miss Lena Griffith to John D. Meriwether, State Official.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.) Socorro, N. M., Oct. 17.—It was the most brilliant society event of the fall season was the wedding last night of Miss Lena Griffith, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of District Attorney John E. Griffith, to John D. Meriwether, state good roads engineer.

The wedding took place at the Episcopal church, the Rev. Hunter Lewis, rector of the Episcopal parish of Las Cruces, officiating. The church was crowded with guests, while many more were gathered in the hall outside to catch a glimpse of the bride and groom as they left the church.

The bride was attended by her aunt, Mrs. G. E. Cooke, as matron of honor, while Miss Fellez Hinton of San Antonio, and Miss Lou Fitzgerald of El Paso, were bridesmaids. The groom had as his best man, his brother, W. P. Meriwether, of El Paso. The father of the bride, John E. Griffith, gave her in marriage at the altar.

The wedding gown of the bride was an exquisite creation of French champagne and tulle lace, with trimmings of fur. The matron of honor wore yellow chiffon over French muslin. The bridesmaids wore green chiffon over muslin. The attendants carried huge chrysanthemums.

Following the ceremony, the newly wedded couple and the guests attended an elegantly appointed reception at the home of the bride and groom.

Among many magnificent gifts received by the bride and groom, both from friends throughout the state and in Socorro, were a diamond necklace, set with pearls, from the bride's father, and a pearl brooch, which was Mrs. Meriwether's gift to the bride.

Mrs. Meriwether has long been one of Socorro's leading and most popular society girls. She grew to womanhood here and after attending the local schools, went out to a fashionable boarding school, where she completed her education. She is a musician of unusual ability, and is greatly admired by all who know her. She is well known in Albuquerque, Santa Fe and Las Vegas social circles, which cities she often has visited.

BLOODSHED AT LAWRENCE

Labor Leader Said to Have Compared Conditions to Period Preceding the French Revolution.

(By Morning Journal Special Licensed Wire.) Socorro, N. M., Oct. 17.—Testimony that Joseph J. Ektor, leader of the Lawrence textile strike, had advised the strikers to "keep the gun close by" and had urged them not to fear the police or the "big soldiers" with their sharp bayonets, was given today in the trial of Ektor, Giovanni and Caruso, charged with the killing of Anna Lopiano, a mill operative, during the strike last winter.

Two of Lawrence's officers testified that Giovanni had expressed defiance of the police, and said that he was going to "keep the gun close by" and had urged them not to fear the police or the "big soldiers" with their sharp bayonets, was given today in the trial of Ektor, Giovanni and Caruso, charged with the killing of Anna Lopiano, a mill operative, during the strike last winter.

Donohue, who was at Lawrence throughout the strike, testified that in addressing one meeting after a young woman had described industrial conditions in the textile mills, Ektor declared:

"That reminds me of the French revolution. The workers went to the masters and asked for bread. The masters told them to go out and get it. Again they went to the masters and they told them to go out and get it. And a short time afterwards the long posts of Paris were being with the heads of the masters, and in their mouths were words of grass."

On another occasion Donohue said, Ektor told the strikers "someone is going to be put before this is over, and see to it that it is not you."

The witness admitted knowledge of discussion among the strike leaders over making application to carry firearms.

Don't you know that when Ektor said he was going to carry a gun himself he also said he was going to apply for a permit to carry it?"

"I didn't hear him say he was going to seek a permit."

The witness insisted that what he had heard Ektor say was:

"You keep the gun close by, I'm going to carry a gun myself."

"Didn't you hear Ektor say, at a meeting addressed by Mayor Stanton, that there should be no violence or bloodshed?"

"No, I heard him say that he agreed with Mayor Stanton that the strike should be settled peacefully. He also said, if there is any bloodshed it will be on the heads of the masters and not on the heads of the strikers."

The Knights of Columbus last night at their annual meeting for the election of officers, honored Will A. Keleher, a well known young householder of this city, and prominent member of the Albuquerque council, by electing him grand knight, succeeding J. W. Pruned. Mr. Keleher had been deputy grand knight for the past year.

Other officers elected were John Rodden, deputy knight, E. J. Murphy, chancellor, H. E. Connolly, financial secretary, A. E. McArthur, recording secretary, Frank Phares, warden, and J. H. Swain, advocate.

The new officers will be formally installed at a special session of the council to be held November 7th.

The knights of Columbus is already one of the most important fraternal orders in the city and the new officers under the leadership of Mr. Keleher, a grand knight, are expected to see the council the most successful administration it has ever had.

EYE WITNESSES TO SHOOTING OF CARR TESTIFY

Proprietors of Pool Room Where Negro Tailor Met Death Swear Lyle Walked Up to Victim and Killed Him.

It is not often that eye witnesses are called upon to testify in a murder trial, for they are generally lacking, and two of them were placed on the stand yesterday afternoon in the district court to tell what they knew of the shooting of Lyle Carr, a negro, last February.

The men charged with the crime, Sam Lyle, a negro blacksmith, admitted shortly after the tragedy that he had shot Carr. This state is thus making out a strong case against Lyle.

To get a jury for the trial of the case it was necessary to issue two special venire, one Wednesday, of twenty-eight men, and one yesterday, of thirty. The jury was selected about 2:15 yesterday afternoon. It is composed of the following men:

Lyle Arnes, W. E. Schmitt, W. O. Holthausen, Jacobo Moya, G. W. Yocum, E. Jacobson, Carlos Scholten, Francisco, Montana, J. W. Hillyard, Fredrick Gaudin, John Cleghorn, T. J. Pasmore, Jr. When the jury was selected the defense had used all its peremptory challenges, the state but three.

The first witness called was A. B. Montgomery, colored, one of the proprietors of the New State pool room on North Third street, in which Carr met his death. The next was J. M. Burton, his partner in the pool room business. Their testimony was practically identical. They swore that they saw Lyle walk up to Carr, place a revolver within two feet of his breast and shoot him.

It was found necessary to hold night sessions on this case, because of the delay experienced in securing a jury, and the first of those was held last night.

At the session last night, the state practically concluded its case. Several witnesses were examined, and unless the defense has a much greater number of witnesses, than is anticipated, the case will likely get to the jury this afternoon or tonight. Among those examined last night were Chief of Police Thomas McMillin, Dr. C. A. Frank, Dr. W. W. Spargo, Dave Thompson and Jack Ward. The latter two are negroes.

CIVIL COMPLAINTS FILED IN BUNCHES. Civil complaints were filed in bunches in the district court yesterday. One of the most striking was a complaint for divorce in which Isadora Beca de Walter alleged that her husband had deserted her but one short week after their marriage, October 13, 1910. The ceremony, she alleged, was performed by Jose L. Perez, a justice of the peace in Precinct 12 at that time. The complaint asks that all the rights of an unmarried person be restored to her.

An action was yesterday filed by the First National bank to recover on a note for $1,000, alleged to have been given by Benigna Mora de Sals and Elipheo Mora some time ago. Interest and attorney's fees are asked.

The Richardson Dry Goods Company yesterday filed an action against the Food Company to collect $25.27, alleged to be due for goods sold the defendants. Interest and costs are asked.

A. E. Walker and Frank McKee, executors of the estate of John D. Tork, filed a petition for authority to sell certain real estate in which the widow of the deceased held interest while living and unmarried, which they claim she has now forfeited by marriage, to satisfy debts of the estate.

Emma Kelly filed an action against the other heirs of Philip Reisdorfer, for a division of certain real estate belonging to the estate.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to Mary Spedden and J. L. Robinson, and to George F. Tinsler and Alice M. Masters, all of this city.

Former Governor GEORGE CURRY GOES ON CAMPAIGN TRIP

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.) Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 17.—Former Governor George Curry left today for Coñito county and the northeastern part of the state to make a campaign tour for the election of Theodore Roosevelt. Governor Curry expressed himself today as being greatly in hope that New Mexico would swing into line for the rough rider within the next few days.

His campaign will continue until the election next month.

Another chapter yesterday was added to the controversy between Elfigo Baca, chairman of the Bernalillo county republican central committee, and H. B. Henning, one of the publishers of the local republican organ. The second chapter of the row is made interesting by the contribution of two letters, one from Mr. Henning in reply to a letter made public by Mr. Baca, in which Mr. Henning's resignation as a member of the county central committee was demanded, and an epistle from Mr. Baca in answer to Mr. Henning's literary contribution, in which notification is served that he (Baca) has removed Mr. Henning from the central committee.

The chief interest in the letter of Mr. Henning is the statement in which it is strongly intimated that the possibility of republican success in this campaign in Bernalillo county is extremely remote.

Chairman Baca notified Mr. Henning that so far as he is concerned the incident is closed and he serves notice on the latter that he may "crack his whip."

The letter of Mr. Henning, replying to the request for his resignation, together with that of Chairman Baca, in reply, follows:

Mr. Henning's Letter. Albuquerque, N. M., Oct. 17th. Mr. Elfigo Baca, Chairman Republican County Committee, Albuquerque, N. M.

My dear Mr. Baca: I have seen an article in the Albuquerque Morning Journal of this date containing what purports to be a copy of a letter addressed to me by you in which you ask for my resignation as a member of the county committee. Up to this time I have not been favored with the original, or a copy of this letter, but since the publication referred to I am, I assume you have sent it, and that for some reason the letter has gone astray.

Following the meeting of the county committee on last Tuesday, you called Mr. Louis Heford and myself into your office and demanded our resignations as members of the committee on the ground that we were opposed to you as chairman. Both Mr. Heford and myself declined to resign and I see no reason at this time why I should change my mind.

As I told you when you asked for my resignation in the presence of Mr. Heford and Senator T. B. Catron, I believe that the republican candidates would have received a much larger vote under the leadership of another man than can be hoped for under my direction, as chairman of the county committee. I had understood, indeed, you yourself told me on your return from El Paso during the preceding week, that you intended to present your resignation to the committee. I considered your determination very wise. When the committee met, however, you had changed your mind and did not present a resignation. I think your refusal to carry out your original intention unfortunate for the party in this county. However the incident is closed and the only interest I have in it is for the success of the republican candidates in this county next month.

You understand, that the practice is and has been that the members of the committee fight for the party and, if I am not mistaken, the only object you in view at the time you requested to be appointed, was for the purpose of creating a row in the regular republican organization.

The above letter is insulting in the extreme and no words can describe my feelings while perusing it. If you felt that I should not be the chairman of the committee you should have resigned voluntarily. I think we can get along without you, at least, we shall try.

I admit I did make a mistake in acting upon your judgment when I appointed you a member of the committee, upon your own request and in the future I hope to be a little more careful.

Furthermore, this will be the last step I shall take on this subject and you will be entirely ignored by me, as chairman of this committee. You may take any steps you may see fit. Acting upon your suggestion in regard to giving this letter the same publicity as your last, I am giving this to the public press.

You may consider this a closed incident and any further communication on this subject from you will certainly find its way to the waste basket, as my time is too much occupied with more important matters, for instance, the bringing about the success of the republican ticket in this county.

Very truly yours, ELFIGO BACA, Chairman Bernalillo County Republican Central Committee.

FAVORABLE DAY IS ROSWELL IS PROUD PASSED BY COL. ROOSEVELT IN HOSPITAL

Patient Appears to Have Recovered from Shock Caused by Being Shot and Condition is Reassuring.

DANGER POINT NOT YET PAST, HOWEVER

With Passing of the Ensuing Twenty-Four Hours, Possibility of Complications Will be Over.

COLONEL ROOSEVELT IS STEADILY IMPROVING
Chicago, Oct. 17.—After their consultation of the night, Colonel Roosevelt's physicians announce that their patient's condition was improving. Colonel Roosevelt breathed more easily tonight than at any other time since John Schrank shot him at Milwaukee last Monday. This was accepted as a sign that the broken rib had begun to knit. He said he felt as well as could be expected.

The physicians in attendance on Colonel Roosevelt took a more frankly optimistic view today than at any other time since the colonel was admitted to the hospital, although they emphasized that he could not be considered to have passed the danger point.

Worn out by her long watch, Mrs. Roosevelt left her husband's bedside at a clock to rest in her room adjoining. It was the first time since her arrival from New York that she has left the patient during his waking hours.

His Morning Journal Speaks of Good
Chicago, Oct. 17.—Throughout a day of unbroken calm, Colonel Roosevelt lay in his bed at Mercy hospital with virtually no variation in his condition. It was a day of waiting with lessened fears.

Colonel Roosevelt appeared to have recovered from the shock of the bullet and also as far as a casual observer could determine, he was in his normal condition, but there was no relaxation in the strict regime and his physicians said he was not yet out of danger.

The physicians were discussing among themselves tonight the length of time which it would be necessary for the colonel to remain. It was thought it might be safe for him to leave for Oyster Bay Monday or Tuesday, but not even a tentative decision was reached.

The clinical records were the most encouraging of any day since Colonel Roosevelt entered the hospital. The morning variation in temperature was limited to two-tenths of a degree and throughout the afternoon it was reported normal.

The period of possible development of blood poisoning has still another day to run and although the physicians said a change might occur within an hour at any time during the next twenty-four hours, they were optimistic today.

The possibility of tetanus or lockjaw, always to be recognized with the case of bullet wounds, has been considered. The period in which this might develop is six or seven days. Dr. Scully L. Terrell, Colonel Roosevelt's physician, said the colonel could not leave the hospital safely until the expiration of this period.

All through the day Mrs. Roosevelt was constantly at the bedside and although her husband jestingly complained that he was the victim of machine rule, she said he must see no one except the members of his family. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Miss Ethel Roosevelt and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth talked with their father from time to time, but even these family visits were limited to a few minutes. Twice during the day Mrs. Roosevelt made exceptions to her rule. Miss Jane Addams of Hull House, one of the most active workers of the progressive party, called late in the afternoon and spent ten minutes with Colonel Roosevelt. She had hardly departed when two babies, twins, who were born in the hospital, were brought in for a moment.

Colonel Roosevelt looked out at the street scenes, when he was not talking with Mrs. Roosevelt or reading. He ate three hearty meals and said he felt better.

ROOSEVELTS THANK THE TARIFFS FOR SYMPATHY.
Beverly, Mass., Oct. 17.—President Taft today received telegrams from Colonel Roosevelt and Mrs. Roosevelt in response to the messages he sent from New York. The following was sent by Colonel Roosevelt:

"I appreciate your sympathetic inquiry and wish to thank you for it. Mrs. Roosevelt wired.

"My family and I unite in thanks for your kind expression of sympathy."

BOND OF ASSAULT INCREASED TO $15,000

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 17.—The bail of John Schrank, charged with attempting to kill Colonel Theodore Roosevelt Monday night, today was increased from $2,500 to $15,000 by Judge Backus of the municipal court.

OF ITS MILITARY INSTITUTE

Enjoys Much Coveted Distinction of Being Rated as One of "Big Ten" Schools by War Department.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal)
Roswell, N. M., Oct. 17.—New Mexico enjoys the much coveted distinction of having within its limits a boys' school ranked by the United States government as one of the ten best in America.

The "distinguished class" of military schools is composed of ten so designated by the United States war college. Each year competent army officers are sent to all military schools of importance in the country. These officers inspect the schools thoroughly and make detailed reports to Washington. The reports of the various inspectors are then collected and compared by unbiased judges, and, out of the total number, ten with the highest general average are designated as "distinguished institutions" for the following year. The system of grading is based on the results of what prominent educators and military men consider should be obtained by an ideal school.

The New Mexico Military Institute, located at Roswell, is the youngest of the "big ten" and is one of the two west of the Mississippi. Ten years ago this school was only three years old, was not recognized by higher institutions, and was practically unknown outside of its immediate vicinity. There was only one building and that served the triple purpose of barracks, mess hall and academic building. It was located in a sparsely populated section of the country which had, as its chief prospect for growth and prosperity, the faith and hope of its loyal citizens. At that time strangers predicted a short life and a quick death for the institute, but they reckoned without a knowledge of the undeveloped wealth of New Mexico's then barren plains or the character of the men who founded the school and nursed it through its infancy. Today little remains of original school except the principles on which it was founded. It is located in the most fertile and prosperous section of America and the auspicious opening of the present season justifies the founders in their faith in ultimate success and is due reward for their labors.

The institute was first placed on the "Distinguished List" four years ago and has since not only maintained its high standing but has increased in efficiency; modern buildings have replaced old ones, the ablest instructors have been secured and retained, new equipment has been installed. In fact, the school now meets the most rigid academic and military requirements in addition to being a home and a playground for its students.

The New Mexico Military Institute is recognized by the leading colleges and universities as well as the government; it has attracted the attention of cultured people to this section and in advertising itself has advertised the state. While it offers advantages equal to the best schools of the east, it is still young and growing. Its customs have not settled into ruts from which it is difficult and slow to change as is the case in old schools, but its officials are alive and ever ready to take advantage of any innovation that promises educational advancement and works for the welfare of the cadets.

The fifteenth session has just opened with a stronger faculty and better equipment than ever before and every indication points, as has been the case in each preceding year, to the most successful year in the school's history. Next summer the institute will have advanced another step and upheld its world-wide reputation for securing results.

A SOUR, GASSY, UPSET STOMACH
"Pape's Diapiesin" Regulates Your Stomach and Ends Indigestion in Five Minutes.

Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt, if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps, your head dizzy and aches, belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food, breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Diapiesin and in five minutes you truly will wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapiesin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion, if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapiesin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach. It's so unnecessary.—Adv.

Morning Journal's Campaign Is Appreciated by Roads Boosters

Francis E. Lester, of Mesilla Park, Extends Thanks for Good Work Being Carried on and Reiterates Importance of Every Citizen Voting for the Proposed $500,000 Bond Issue at General Election to be Held November 5th; Ignorance and Misunderstanding Its Only Possible Obstacles, He Says.

Mesilla Park, N. M., Oct. 12th. Editor Morning Journal.

Dear Sir: On behalf of the many citizens in our state interested in the good roads movement, I wish to thank you for the prominent part you are taking in an effort to arouse greater interest in this movement, through your coupon plan for membership in the State Good Roads Association, also for the help you are giving in making known the facts regarding the state bond issue.

It is of the utmost importance that every New Mexico citizen interested in better highways should do his part to inform the voters between now and election day of the facts concerning this state bond issue of $500,000 for roads. There is a vast amount of ignorance in regard to the provisions of this bond bill.

The proposed bond issue of $500,000 does not increase our taxes one dollar. The payment of both interest and principal on the bonds comes from the one mill state road tax levy which we have been paying for three years past. The proceeds from the bonds go to each county of the state in proportion to the taxes it pays; and this means a sum paid over to the counties that will amount to about $42,000 in the case of Chaves county, $35,000 for Bernalillo county, $20,000 for Dona Ana county, and so on. And this half million dollar bond issue for roads is far less in proportion to the taxable valuation considered, than what other states around us are doing for their roads. Colorado, with only six times the assessed valuation of New Mexico, votes on November 5th on a $10,000,000 road bond issue, which is just twenty times what we vote on.

A vote for this bond issue means a vote to turn over half a million dollars in all the counties of our state, ninety per cent of which sum is for labor and materials; money that will be spent right at home and go into the ordinary channels of trade. If this bond issue fails to carry, it will be a lasting disgrace to the state that will set back the good roads movement not less than five years.

The matter is so important, and means so much to every one of our counties, that every citizen who has any state or civic pride should interest himself in this matter, to make known the facts to the voters before they go to the polls on November 5th. Only ignorance and misunderstanding can defeat the bond issue; there can be no possible objection to it by those who will investigate the facts; especially when it does not involve any increase in taxation.

Very truly yours,
FRANCIS E. LESTER.

CONSUMPTIVES HELPED BY TUBERCULOSIS MEDICINE

It is fully to be expected that consumption differs from every other disease in not requiring the use of any medicine for its treatment. For a number of years an enormous mass of voluntary and thankful testimonials from persons who recovered that they owe their lives to Eckman's Alternative medicine for Tuberculosis, has been accumulating. Surely proof of time to demonstrate its lasting value. You can write to any of them. Here is one:

"Gentlemen: In the winter of 1903 I had an attack of Grippe, followed by pneumonia and later by consumption. I grew steadily weaker. In the winter of 1904 I had cough, night sweats, fever and rapid quantities of awful-looking sputum and later I had many hemorrhages. At one time three or four successive days. Milk and eggs became so distasteful I could keep nothing down. My physician treated me. I was ordered to the mountains but did not go. Eckman's Alternative was recommended to me by a friend. After taking a small quantity I had the first quiet night's sleep for weeks. My improvement was marked from the first. I gained strength and weight and appetite. I never had another hemorrhage and my cough gradually lessened and finally disappeared. I am perfectly well. Everything I say here can be verified by my own family and friends."

No Power So Elastic as Electric Power

The adaptability of Electric Power is such as to solve any problem of power distribution. Separate buildings may not be adjacent located. Machines may be scattered in a building. A number of related machines may need to be driven as a group. Other machines may need a direct drive. These factors require the selection of a flexible power transmission system. Electric Power affords this most conveniently and economically.

Electricity is Cheaper When Bought from Central Station

No private plant can generate electricity at as low a cost. This is because of the initial heavy investment in the plant—the depreciation and interest charge on it, at least 15 per cent annually—its rapid loss in efficiency—waste of space occupied—its high operating cost—losses from breakdowns—waste of fire, explosion and coal shortages. ALBUQUERQUE NEW MEXICO

A GREAT WAR BEGINS.

War between Turkey and all of the Balkan states has begun in earnest.
Therefore, an inquiry from a reader
of the Journal is pertinent. He asks:
"Will you inform your readers why the Balkan states are so called? Is the war likely to be an important one, and what is it about?"

We are informed by the encyclopædia that "Balkan" is a Turkish word meaning a "high ridge," the name of one of the important ranges
of mountains in southeastern Europe.
Hence, the Balkan states.

That the war is likely to be an important one, even if confined to the belligerent powers now engaged in it,
can be seen at once when it is understood that the Turks and their opposing allies can each put into the field approximately a million men under arms.

The Turkish army is composed of men who fight with fanatical bravery, and, during the past few years,
they have been trained by German officers and the Ottoman generals are among the best in the world. Therefore, the Turks may be expected to give a good account of themselves in battle.

Of the allies, the Bulgarians, the Serbians and the Montenegrins are expert fighting men, most of their experience in the field having been gained against the Turks. The Greeks were to war with Turkey only a few years ago, on account of the treatment being accorded the Christians in the island of Crete. The Turks were easy victors over the Greek soldiers who shaved the modern Greek had little in common with his ancient progenitors who fought at Thermopylae and Salamis. The modern Greeks showed they were better fighters than fighters. But it is said that they have had valuable drill since that time, and that they may show during this war, that they know how to acquit themselves like men.

The Montenegrins, who began active hostilities, are among the best fighting men in the world, and have a glorious history in that respect. They live in the Black mountains, hence the name Montenegrins. That little kingdom, with a population equal to about two-thirds of that of New Mexico, has been fighting Turks much of the time for the past thousand years.
When the Mohammedans were overrunning Europe, carrying their triumphant arms to the very gates of Vienna where they were defeated by the Poles under John Sobieski, the Montenegrins fought their way from their mountain passes, defeated them
on more than a hundred bloody fields,
and remained a speck, an island as it were, unassimilated by the Moslem invasion that had engulfed all the rest of southeastern Europe.

The cause of the war is religious.
The people of the Balkan states belong to the Greek church, while the Turks are followers of Mohammed.
Inside the Turkish borders are some hundreds of thousands of Christians who have been subjected to almost coarsest persecutions. The people of Macedonia are of the same blood and religion as the independent Balkan states. They have been hunted and butchered and tortured for centuries.
Their cry for years to their brothers
has been, "Come over to Macedonia and help us."

For more than two decades a general war has been threatened. The jealousy of the great powers has been able to hold the war spirit in check
by diplomacy, promising from time to time that the "question" would be settled by the "peace" conference.
Article 23 of the treaty of Berlin guaranteed protection to the Christians in Macedonia and Bulgaria—
promises broken as often as made.

No religion is at the bottom of the present war, and it is should extend to no other European powers, it will be the greatest war of modern times.
But people who have watched the trend of affairs in Europe and are familiar with the ambitions of Russia,
Austria-Hungary, England, Germany, France and Italy, have no way of imagining the possibilities that were involved when Montenegrins' young prince fired the first gun of the war.

Harold Spencer says of the situation:

"If Austria-Hungary sends troops
south, it is probable that Russia moves; and if Russia moves, Germany moves; and if Germany moves, France moves; and then—there you have the terrible, tormenting circle of dread which keeps Europe powerless and afraid."

The great powers want to obliterate
Turkey in Europe, if it can be done without involving all Europe in a terrible struggle. As we have pointed out before, Russia's great ambition
for more than a century, has been to acquire a harbor that is not ice-bound in the winter. If she can lay her hand on Constantinople, with its control of the Bosphorus, giving her an outlet from the Black sea into the Marmora and thence through the Dardanelles into the Aegean, she will have accomplished the dream of Peter the Great and Catherine and all succeeding Russian monarchs.

Austria-Hungary wants and needs more Turkish territory, including Salonica, and Germany, France, Italy and England can use a number of in-lands for naval bases, that are now under the green flag of the Turk.

It is possible that these conflicting ambitions will neutralize each other and that the war will be confined to its present dimensions. It is also possible that diplomacy may reconcile the differences of the nations and that Turkey may be partitioned, and it is more than possible that Europe
may be in a flame of war within the next twelve months.

VOTING IN NEW MEXICO.

Former President Eliot, of Harvard university, in an article in the New York Times, explaining why he is going to vote for Woodrow Wilson, says men this year, are going to cast their ballots regardless of party preference.
There are literally hundreds of thousands of republicans who will support the democratic nominee this year without subscribing to the platform of that party.

Most of them do not believe in the republican plan of revising the tariff downward except certain schedules.
They find that Mr. Taft has listened to the song of the "reformers" until he has pledged himself to about the same sort of program advocated by Mr. Wilson.

Through blunders and dimensions,
the republicans have lost the house of representatives and are sure to lose control of the senate. Why then, they say, should we try to hold Taft
in the presidential chair?

They argue that the people have decided they want a change. It is difficult to adapt salaries and wages to higher cost of living, due largely to higher living. Politicians have split the republican party into a multitude of warring factions. There is no cohesiveness, no chance for success that would not mean worse than defeat.

Such men have decided to help put the democrats in power again. If the Wilson administration shall prove successful and satisfactory, so much the better. Every patriotic citizen is looking and hoping to secure the best government for the country.

But if the democrats should fail,
then the country will look to the republican party to set things right again. Also, after resting for four years, with leisure to think things
over, it is probable that dissonant elements will be relieved, such progressive measures as may be regarded as feasible will be incorporated in the next republican platform, corrupt bosses will be shunned as though they had the bubonic plague, and sanguine and common sense will be found to help once more.

Wilson will be elected president. If Taft is able to muster more than Utah, Wyoming and possibly Vermont, it is going to surprise many expert political forecasters. To talk of the possibility of Taft being elected president is futile. Men who express such opinions do not believe them unless they are so ignorant that their opinions are not worth consideration.

No one pretends that the next congress will not be heavily democratic.
New Mexico is interested in securing proper recognition from the next congress and the administration. Ferguson can do things and get things done, if elected, could do nothing except draw his salary. He is a rich man and doesn't need the salary, so why attempt to elect him.

The Journal in all seriousness urges that every voter should cast his ballot for Ferguson for congress, because his election means that New Mexico will get through him, all that is coming to her.

MADERO'S FALL NEAR.

Madero's star is again waning. With the aid of the United States he was able to break the formidable force
under Orozco, but two new rebellions have sprung up within a few days and Veracruz, the most important port of Mexico, is now in the hands of the rebels together with two of the republic's little warships and much munition-ary and some modern artillery.

It is safe to say that the people of Mexico do not want further rule by Madero. He has had his day and within a short time there is little doubt he will be an American soil or on his way to Paris, the favorite residence of deposed Spanish-American rulers when they find it necessary to quit the country of their brief impulses.

With Vera Cruz in the hands of the insurrectos, it will not be difficult for the rebels to secure war supplies in ample quantities. Germans are ready always to furnish arms and ammunition to those who want to fight,
and Cuba has quite a supply of war

materials on hand which can be disposed of to the anti-Madero chiefs.

While the United States will not permit war supplies to be shipped to the insurrectos through American territory, it is not likely that our government will attempt to blockade the port of Vera Cruz.

A HAPPY CHILD IN A FEW HOURS

When Cross, Sick, Feverish, Tongue Coated or Bilious Give Delicious "Syrup of Figs."

Mother! look at the tongue! see if it is coated. If your child is listless, drooping, isn't sleeping well, is restless, doesn't eat heartily or is cross, irritable, out of sorts with everybody, stomach sour, feverish, breath bad,
has stomachache, diarrhoea, sore throat or is full of colds, it means the little one's stomach, liver and bowels are clogged up with waste and need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

Give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs,
and in a few hours the food decaying constipated matter, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of the little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you will surely have a well and smiling child shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of delicious figs, senna
and aromatics it cannot be harmful, besides they dearly love its delicious taste.

Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed—a little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.
Ask your druggist for the full name,
"Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup

KANSAS CITY

George M. Slaughter's Fine
Herefords and Shorthorns Carry Off Honors in Royal Exhibit.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.)
Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 17.—George M.
Slaughter's fine Herefords and Shorthorns carried off two sweepstakes and three first prizes in the Royal show, in addition to four seconds and thirds at the Kansas City Royal Stock show last week. This represents probably the largest prize-winning bunch of cattle ever taken from New Mexico, and shows what can be done with registered stock in the Sunshine state. Mr.
Slaughter arrived home Sunday afternoon with the nine ribbons. Yesterday
he left for his ranch out from Portales
to look after the shipment of a train-
load of cows to Kansas City.

There were six carloads of cattle,
three each of Herefords and Shorthorns
in the lot which Mr. Slaughter look to the Royal show. With this bunch was the shipment of a train-
load of cows to Kansas City.

When the judges had finished their work it was found that Mr. Slaughter's steers had taken a total of nine ribbons. In this bunch were two yellow or, sweetwater ribbons, three blues, or, first, second, and third, two whites, or thirds, and one special yellow ribbon.

In discussing Mr. Slaughter's success, another local stockman this morning said:

"There is nothing that could have been done to boost the great success
went any more than Mr. Slaughter's taking the cattle to that show. It demonstrated to the people in the middle west that good cattle can be raised in the southwest and that there are certain to be better every year."

Thoroughbred cattle in the southwest are winners in many particulars.
Only recently another local stockman
said a lot of fancy cows at a record
high price, and the fact that Mr.
Slaughter has been able to take sweepstakes prizes with his stock is an argument of much merit for the southwest.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.)
Farmington, N. M., Oct. 17.—Fire believed to have been of incendiary origin last night completely destroyed
the planing mill of the Durango Planing Mill & Lumber Co. here, causing a loss

ENDEAVORERS WILL RENDER MUSICAL PROGRAM TONIGHT

Attractive Entertainment is Scheduled at Congregational Church in Which Well Known Talent Will Take Part.

Tonight, at the Congregational church, the Young People's Christian Endeavor society will give a literary and musical entertainment to which the public is cordially invited. A small admission charge is incidental,
but not large enough to keep anyone away.

Miss Mary McPhee, musical instructor at the University of New Mexico,
will be the featured soloist, and her singing is sure to be a drawing card,
as well as the playing of Stanley Seder, who is a pipe organist of more than local repute.

Other well-known local talent will participate in the program promises to be a complete treat. It is as follows:
Piano Solo, "Puff of Wind," Vocal Solo, "Charlotte Pratt" Violin Solo, "Lorna Lester" Reading, "The Wolf"
Vocal Solo, "Miss Mary McPhee"

Miss Pratt and Mr. Seder
Piano Organ (his own composition)
Stanley Seder
Soprano Solo, "Miss McPhee"
Reading, "Fern C. King" Vocal Duets, "Kathryn Grimmer and Frances Singer."

HEAVY SHIPMENTS OF CATTLE BEING MADE FROM GRANT

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.)
Silver City, N. M., Oct. 17.—Shipments of cattle, from calves to cowards, are being made from Grant county, New Mexico, to the local stockyards during the past few days,
and it is expected before all have been shipped that a total reaching the neighborhood of 7,000 head will have been sent out.

The ranchers in the Mangas county, including the McMillens, Ballen,
the H. W. Archibald, Frank Jones and others, began shipping on Monday last.

Following these the P. M. and J. W.
Shadley cattle and those from the Diamond Star were shipped. The H.
A. Martin cattle and those from other in the vicinity of Blue Creek are now being shipped.

The prices being received are unusually good. The shipments are being made to points in Colorado and Kansas.

W. A. Rimes, Tucson, Ariz., writes:
"Sometime ago I took Foley Kidney Pills, and must confess the results have been marvelous. For I feel like a new man. I suffered from kidney and bladder troubles, but Foley Kidney Pills fixed me. I will recommend them to all sufferers from kidney trouble." J. H. O'Reilly Co.

DRUNKEN MINER WHO RESISTS OFFICER IS FATALLY WOUNDED

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.)
Silver City, N. M., Oct. 17.—Jose
Orozco, a Mexican employee of the Chino Copper Company, was shot and killed at Hurley on the night of October 10th by Deputy Sheriff Harold Moses. Orozco had drawn his month's pay and after drinking heavily became quarrelsome. He was placed under arrest by Deputy Sheriff Moses, who started with him toward the jail, on the way to the jail Orozco attacked
the officer, whereupon Moses, who had been defending himself with the butt end of his gun, was forced to fire. The bullet struck the upraised arm of Orozco and glanced downward into his body, inflicting a wound that later proved fatal. An inquest over the remains was held the following day, at which the action of the officer was justified.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO DISCUSS MOOTED
QUESTION TODAY

Domestic Science Session to Consider the High Cost of Living or the Cost of High Living.

Is it the high cost of living or the cost of high living? The much mooted question stands a fair chance of being answered at the Women's club this afternoon, at the first domestic science session of the year.

Mrs. N. E. Stevens will be leader and the program will be unusually interesting.

Mrs. George Albright will discuss
"The High Cost of Living" versus
"The Cost of High Living," by Professor John V. Clark, and the discussion promises to wax hot and furgious.

Musical numbers will be rendered,
including a piano selection, "Indian Lullaby," (MacDowell), by Emma Walking, and "Rustle of Spring,"
by Dorothy Brown.

The luncheon will be served by Mrs. S. T. Vann, Mrs. D. A. Elder, Mrs. L. J. Miller and Mrs. Nance Paswick.

WESTERN CANADA TO

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.)
Edmonton, Alta., Oct. 17.—Three hundred miles of electric railways, connecting Edmonton with numerous towns, coal mines and gravel deposits,
grain and dairy districts, brick, concrete and other manufacturing plants
in central Alberta, will be built by the Edmonton Interurban Railway Company, George Barbey, of Paris and Vancouver, head of a French syndicate, which has already invested more than $10,000,000 in Canada.
The company, incorporated
under the laws of the province of Alberta in 1910 and reorganized here on September 18, 1912, is financed by French and Canadian investors.

The first unit of the system, upon which grading work is in progress,
will be from the city limits of Edmonton to St. Albert, six miles. Steel will be laid the coming winter and the line placed in operation for passengers, express and light freight traffic
by June 1, 1913. The initial equipment will be twelve 40-passenger coaches and fifty freight and coal cars. The power house, to be erected

GOLD DUST
not only cleans, but sterilizes

Gold Dust does more than wash the surface—
it digs deep after germs and hidden particles of dirt and decay. It purifies and makes everything sanitarily safe. Neither dirt nor germs can live where Gold Dust has made its appearance.

Gold Dust needs little help from you; it does most of the work alone. It is a vegetable-oil soap in powdered form,
to which are added
cleansing and purifying ingredients which get busy the moment
they touch the water.

Use Gold Dust for all cleansing purposes. It saves time, saves labor, saves backs, and saves
money.

miles; Edmonton to Vegreville, sixty miles; Edmonton to Lac Ste. Anne, fifty-six miles; Edmonton to Namay,
twenty miles; Edmonton to Mowat,
forty-five miles; Edmonton to Pigeon Lake, forty miles; and a line from Edmonton to Morinville by way of St.
Albert, twenty-eight miles. Mr. Kimpfe announced today that construction work on these units will begin early next year and rushed to completion.

ODDIE PROCLAIMS MARTIAL LAW AT M'GILL

Warrants Issued for Nine Operators Charged with Causing Death of Two Greek Striking Miners.

McGill, Nev., Oct. 17.—The first bloodshed in the strike of the copper mines and smelter men occurred today when two Greek strikers were shot and killed by company guards after an alleged attack on smelter men on their way to work. The fight occurred at the smelter gates. Immediately following the riot, Governor Oddie declared martial law and telegraphed Captain Donnelly of the state police to rush his force to the district with all speed.

The situation in the entire district is grave and outbreaks of foreign strikers are feared. Warrants were issued today but were not served for the arrest of the general manager of the Nevada Consolidated Mining Company and the business manager of the Steptoe Smelter Company, charging them with complicity in the killing of the strikers.

Warrants issued for the general manager of the Nevada Consolidated, and the business manager of the Steptoe smelter, charging them with complicity in the murder of the strikers by men said to have been hired as company guards, were not served by Sheriff Crain. He was not clear as to the effect of the proclamation of martial law upon his jurisdiction as sheriff and he went to Ely to consult with Governor Oddie before taking further action.

suit with Governor Oddie before taking further action.

The bodies of Nick Pappas and George Barnabas, the dead strikers, were removed to Ely and an inquest was held, but Coroner Cartwright adjourned the inquiry until tomorrow.

Pappas and Barnabas were leaders of their countrymen here. One of them was a labor organizer.

The following statement regarding the shooting was issued today by C. R. Lakeman, general manager of the Nevada Consolidated:

"It is a sympathetic strike, as nearly all high class employees had accepted the wage increase. We have played fair, as 80 per cent of our employees will admit. It is a struggle for recognition of the union and carried on exclusively by foreigners. Rioting was common, clubs were used, weapons were flourished and frequently discharged, and in some instances, at employees. On Tuesday last the sheriff publicly announced that the situation was beyond his control. Yesterday, immediately after the governor of the state had ordered the rioters to disperse and allow men and supplies to freely enter the plant, intimations were continued. This was all done in the presence of the governor, the sheriff of White Pine county and the county commissioners. This morning attacks were made on employees entering the plant and shots were fired by the rioters. Shortly after this two of them were killed by employees guarding the property. The company has done everything possible to avoid strife and must and will protect the lives of its employees as well as property until such time as law and order can be again restored by the state or federal authorities."

BINGHAM STRIKERS PARADE IN SALT LAKE

Salt Lake City, Utah, Oct. 17.—A monster demonstration was held here tonight when several thousand strikers from Bingham, escorted by local labor unions, paraded through the streets. Many of the strikers carried American flags while others carried banners bearing inscriptions which denounced state and county officials. The parade was without disorder and was followed by a meeting at the Salt Lake theater. Prior to the parade here, the Bingham miners held a similar demonstration at Bingham.

BINGHAM MINES HAVE NEARLY 1,000 WORKERS.

Bingham, Utah, Oct. 17.—Nearly a thousand men worked in the mines here today and more strike breakers are said to be enroute to the camp. The Utah Copper Company now has ten steam shovels in operation; several being managed by men who went out on strike.

What We Call the
"English" Sack Suit

Do you know that the best clothes in the world
are made in America,
and that STEIN-BOCH
are making the English-man's clothes for him?
And since the styles are English, we are very lucky in having ours served up to us by the one tailoring house in America that makes a specialty of English style.

The suit we started out to tell you about is one of their best efforts. Not quite so far advanced in Piccadillyness as say
the Savoy, but snacking
tastily of the smart clubs.

Suppose you ask us to show you this English suit? You've no call to buy, but just to see a really English suit.

ed with the Bernalillo Merchantile Company, is here from his home at Bernalillo for a few days' visit.

The board of managers of the Woman's club will meet this afternoon at 2:30. The president urgently requests that all members be present.

Mrs. J. E. McMahon, wife of the superintendent of the Hotel, and the Santa Fe, and her daughter, are Albuquerque visitors from their home at Clovis.

H. N. Borg, newspaper man from Indiana, who has been spending some time in New Mexico, is in Albuquerque and may decide to locate here permanently.

M. R. Williams, superintendent of the bridge and building department of the Santa Fe, with headquarters at Las Vegas, came down last night to spend a day or so here.

Camp No. 1, Woodman of the World, will meet tonight. A large crowd will be invited. Members and visiting sovereigns are urged to attend. D. E. Phillips, clerk.

Franklin Smith, of the office of timber sales of the forest service, is here from his headquarters in Chicago, and will spend several days investigating local market conditions.

Brother Elks are requested to meet at Strong's undertaking parlors at 2 o'clock this morning to attend the funeral of brother Sherwood, of Clovis, Ariz., lodge. His order of O. A.
Mabson, exalted ruler.

Friends in Albuquerque have received cards announcing the marriage
in Canon, Cal., on September 18th, of George Bruce Ramsey, formerly of this city, to Miss Cora E. Clarke, of Riverside, Cal.

Cleofes Romero, a brother of the United States marshal, and former warden of the New Mexico penitentiary, spent yesterday here on his way from Las Vegas to Estancia on a business trip.

The regular meeting of Ada Chapter No. 5, Order Eastern Star, will be held tonight at 7:30 in the Masonic temple. All taking part in the floral drill should be present. By order of the worthy matron.

The John A. Logan circle, ladies of the G. A. R. literary and sewing society, will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Mulligan, 308 South Seventh street. A full attendance of the society is expected.

Mrs. Frank Zink left last night for Denver to visit relatives for a few days before returning to her home in San Bernardino, Cal. While here, she visited her brother, J. H. Penner, and kept house for him during the absence of Mrs. Penner in the east.

J. E. Saut has returned from a visit to the mining district of southwestern New Mexico. Mr. Saut reports business in the copper of Grant county the best in years, with renewed activity being shown by the various companies operating in that district.

Sario Armijo, the alleged assailant of E. W. Kee, the local grain merchant, has returned to the county jail. Armijo was out on bonds of $5,000 for his appearance before the grand jury, but on hearing that there was opposition in certain quarters to his being at liberty, he surrendered to Under Sheriff Dick Lewis and was again locked up.

Services will be held this evening
at Temple Albert, Seventh and Gold,
at 7:45 o'clock. Subject of the sermon will be "Shall We Kill the Incurable?" This is a subject which was to be chosen for a sermon two weeks ago, but owing to the inclement weather at the time Rabbi Silver postponed it to this evening. The public is cordially invited to attend the service.

Dr. William Belden, a veterinary surgeon of this city, suffered serious injury yesterday, when a horse which he was driving to a house, ran away.
Dr. Belden was thrown from the rig and his left arm fractured. He also suffered painful lacerations about the head and face. The frightened animal ran from 734 South Edith street up down and came near running down several pedestrians. Finally the animal fell on the sidewalk near the Benedict, where it was caught by the police.

WOULD ELIMINATE HUMANITARIAN IDEA
AUTO ROUTE

Some One Attempting to Divert Traffic to Southern Road by Claim That Raton Pass is Blocked with Snow.

The elimination of Albuquerque and the entire northern portion of the state from the trans-continental auto route by means of false reports that Raton pass is blocked with snow and impossible for auto traffic is being attempted by some interested parties.
The first news of this reached Albuquerque several days ago, but local auto people said nothing until they investigated the blockade report and found it false. It is quite evident that the stories being circulated are for the purpose of gaining for El Paso and the rest of the Borderland route
all the traffic that crosses New Mexico each winter.

Local people and those of the northern part of the state generally are much worked up over this attempt to cut off from them their prestige as being on a national highway,
or at least a trans-continental auto
route of recognized use and value.

Strenuous steps to overcome the bad
effect of the rumor have been taken.

The news of the reports, which are being industriously circulated in Kansas City and other eastern points,
came in a letter to a local booster,
which, in part, is as follows:

"By accident, I learned today that tourists are being directed by our automobile club (this letter is dated at Kansas City), or by their officers,
to go to southern California by way of El Paso. They represent that the Raton pass is already blocked with snow and is impassable during the winter."

"Now, what are the facts? We have been describing the old trails road
as good the year round and we are making the fight for the appropriation on that ground. Let me know at once, for these same people will send Westward by way of El Paso as well as Mr. Moran, who with his wife, are representatives of the American Automobile club, and to whom they gave such instructions today."

"Keep a lookout for Moran. This is important. His report may be the turning point in our efforts to land
the appropriation. Write me at once."

"Very truly yours,
J. M. LOWE,
President National Old Trails Road,
Ogden, Utah."

To combat the false report, steps were at once taken to secure the real facts and the following letter, from Dr. J. J. Shuler, mayor of Raton, is being circulated as widely as possible.

"Dr. Mr. Sellers—I have yours of October 15th, with enclosure.
"Referring to the condition of the Raton pass for auto travel, I wish to say that the Raton pass between Raton and Trinidad is open for auto travel the entire year with only rare exceptions for a very short time during an exceptionally hard winter.
There has been no snow in our vicinity
this fall, and the pass is in excellent condition at the present time
for tourist travel, and it is a delight to any one to travel between Trinidad
and Raton at this time of the year and at any other time. I am told that our road commission keeps the pass in repair all the time and it is just for anyone to cast erroneous reflection about something with which they are not familiar. I speak from a residence of thirty-one years in Raton and feel that I am qualified to pass an opinion."

Copies of this letter have been forwarded to the heads of all the good roads and automobile associations,
and every effort will be made to spread the news it contains, that northern New Mexico may not be defrauded of its share of the trans-continental traffic.

COUNCILMEN SPEND
FINANCES

Receipts and Expenditures the Only Subject of Lengthy Executive Session of Municipal Body.

The city council last night held the longest executive session on record,
two hours. The entire evening was given up to this session, the only nations being made outside of the executive session being those for its sitting and rising.

A reliable source is authority for the statement that nothing but finances were discussed by the council.

The meeting was called to order by Mayor D. K. B. Sellers, who stated the purpose of its calling—to discuss the city's finances. He suggested that the council go into executive session, which it promptly did. The receipts for the present year were compared with those of last year, the expenditures necessary to keep the different departments running were carefully
gone over, and the additional and unusual calls for money were discussed.
These include paving in front of the federal building at Fourth street and Gold avenue and the storm sewer,
besides lesser expenditures.

It is said that the results of the long session behind closed doors will be evident at the next regular meeting of the council, which takes place
Monday evening.

The Research Corporation, Recently Founded to Advance
Science for Benefit of World, Discussed by Prof. Clark.

One of the greatest forward steps
in the development of scientific ideas
for the benefit of humanity at large
was the subject of a strong address at the State university, delivered before an audience of students and citizens yesterday morning by Professor John D. Clark, head of the chemistry department. This plan, according to Professor Clark, is the research corporation, a body formed for the handling of valuable scientific ideas, for aiding scientists to carry out research work, and for placing the results of their labors in the hands of the world to the end that happiness and comfort may be increased.

Professor Clark's address was a broad and well constructed one and dealt with its subject in a big way.
In part, the professor spoke as follows:

"The research corporation is an example of practical philanthropy directed toward making individual investigation easier for any scientist.
"Professor Frank Connel, formerly of the department of chemistry at the University of California, now in charge of the work of the United States bureau of mines at San Francisco, while doing work in pure science, saw commercial possibilities in the results of his investigation. In carrying out his work on a commercial scale, he was confronted with two very great obstacles, one a lack of time because of class room work, the other a very great lack of money. His own energy overcame the first obstacle and friends supplied financial assistance. He carried on his investigations and at the end of five years produced the electrostatic method of abating the smoke and dust nuisance of large smokers and other large smokestacks."

"Although royalties on his patents
were worth thousands, and Professor Connel anything but rich, he decided to give the patents with their royalties to the cause of furthering scientific investigation. It is a fact, though one little known, that many of our most important commercially profitable scientific discoveries have been made by those teaching in colleges.
This fact is known by college authorities and some institutions have encouraged private consulting practice
on the part of members of their faculties. While colleges have encouraged this commercial investigation they have not been able to furnish money
for its promulgation and as a result of this lack of money, many valuable ideas have been lost to the use of humanity."

"That money may be ready for developing good ideas, Dr. Connel suggested the research corporation. This corporation is made up of public spirited men who have contributed $10,- 000 as original stock, which is never to draw dividends. The directors are among the most prominent men in America. The corporation is to accept and handle public patents and to use the proceeds for assisting worthy scientists in their investigations along the lines wherein science and commerce are united."

"Judging from the men who have organized this corporation, and from patents now in possession of the corporation, it seems to be an assured fact that hundreds of thousands are to be made available for keeping our bright minds working for the advancement of human comfort and happiness."

CONGRESSMAN COLE TO SPEAK HERE WEDNESDAY

Noted Wool Tariff Exponent to Deliver Address to Republicans and Others of Albuquerque and Vicinity.

Congressman Ralph Cole, of Ohio,
is to deliver an address here Wednesday night, under the auspices of the Republican county committee. The news that Mr. Cole was to speak here arrived yesterday in a telegram from Herbert W. Clark, chairman of the state Republican committee. Congressman Cole is one of the best wool tariff speakers possessed by the republican party, and he is certain to have a good crowd out to hear him upon this important issue of the campaign in New Mexico.

The telegram which brought the news is as follows:
Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 17, 1912.
Hon. Elfrigo Baca, Chairman, Bernalillo County Republican Central Committee, Albuquerque, N. M.
Ralph Cole, congressman from Ohio, will be in this state beginning Monday. We would like to have a big meeting in Albuquerque Wednesday night, the 23rd. Cole is one of the best wool tariff speakers in the country and general campaigner. Wire if satisfactory.
HERBERT W. CLARK,
Chairman.

In answer to this message Congressman Elfrigo Baca wired as follows:
Albuquerque, N. M., Oct. 17, 1912.
Hon. Herbert W. Clark, Chairman,
State Republican Central Committee Santa Fe, N. M.
We will have everything arranged for Congressman Ralph Cole when he speaks here Wednesday night, the 23rd.

ELFRIGO BACA,
Chairman.

AVIATOR ROY FRANCIS WILL CARRY LAST PASSENGER TODAY

Aviator Roy N. Francis will make his last flight while in this city on the present visit this afternoon. He will carry a passenger with him, and if there are any others who wish to make flights they can also go up with him today. The flight will be made from the meadow in the rear of Traction park.

Francis will begin tearing down his biplane this afternoon and packing it, preparatory to his trip to the east.
He will probably leave here Sunday evening. Since being in the city he has made about eighteen flights, and has carried six passengers.

NEGRO EMPLOYE OF MINSTREL TROUPE IS BADLY BEATEN

A young negro, employed by Busby's minstrel show, which played here last night, was badly beaten about midnight in a fight with several other employees of the show. Patrolman McKew heard the row, which occurred near the cars occupied by the troupe, and made three arrests, taking into custody the victim of the affliction and two white men alleged to have attacked him. They will have a hearing in police court this morning.
