WITNESSES TELL OF THREATS TO KILL ROSENTHAL BY GAMBLERS

Becker's Defense is That Men Violating Law Were Afraid of Exposures and Plotted Murder.

POLICE LIEUTENANT MAY PROVE ALIBI

Evidence Introduced Tends to Show Accused Man Was Elsewhere at Time of Alleged Meeting with Rose.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] New York, Oct. 19.—Witnesses in the trial of Police Lieutenant Becker covered today two points which the defense considered vital to its cause. These were:

First, that the raid on Herman Rosenthal's gambling house on April 17th, was made after evidence had been obtained by the police. The state charges the raid was a "fake."

Second, that Jack Rose and Bridget Webber, two of the confessed accomplices to Rosenthal's murder who have turned state's evidence, threatened to kill Rosenthal weeks before he was murdered.

Another witness, Louis Pitt, brother of Becker's so-called press agent, swore Jack Rose had gone down on his knees in the tomb and said: "On the grave and in the memory of my dear mother, I say that Becker had nothing to do with his affair."

Other witnesses, a police lieutenant and his wife, testified they had visited Becker at his home on the night of July 17th, forty-six hours after Rosenthal was shot, and that Becker was there from 10:40 o'clock until they left at 11:45. Jack Rose testified that he was with Becker elsewhere during those hours.

Joseph E. Sheppard, one-time member of Becker's "straw arm squad," testified he had obtained the evidence upon which Rosenthal's place was raided. He said he lost $50 in the place.

The next day Sheppard, at Becker's instruction, drew up the necessary papers preparatory to making a raid. The day after this Rosenthal's place was raided. One of the men at a wheel arrested, Sheppard heard, was Mrs. Rosenthal's nephew. She asked Becker not to take the youth away and Sheppard testified, she tried to draw Becker aside.

"And what did Becker say to her?" asked John F. McIntyre, chief of Becker's half dozen lawyers.

"He said 'If you have anything to say to me say it here and now.'"

Robert A. Smith, a contractor, who testified that Webber and Rose told him they wanted Rosenthal out of the way, was asked the state on cross-examination, Smith had testified on direct examination that Rose told him, June 28th, that if Jack Zelig had not got in trouble he (Rose) would have had Rosenthal killed a month before. Webber's alleged declaration made to Smith was that "he could cut Rosenthal's throat and he could and sleep all night with him."

The evidence in the case is more than half in.

A Jack Rose and "Bridget" Webber, two of the state witnesses against Becker in his trial for murder of Herman Rosenthal, themselves made threats against the life of the gambler at least a month before the murder. It was testified today.

Webber, according to the testimony of Robert A. Smith, said, "I was on direct examination that Rose told me, June 28th, that if Jack Zelig had not got in trouble he (Rose) would have had Rosenthal killed a month before. Webber's alleged declaration made to Smith was that 'he could cut Rosenthal's throat and he could and sleep all night with him.'"

The testimony was elicited by the defense in its efforts to prove that Becker is the victim of a conspiracy on the part of the four informers, Rose, Webber, Harry Vallon and Sam Schepers. They were placed in evidence.

The stipulations provide that if the four men would testify before the grand jury in the Rosenthal case, they should not be prosecuted for the crime. "For gambling, extortion or for any crime disclosed in the testimony they should give" provided that they had not "fired a shot into the body of Rosenthal." The stipulation provided further that they should "tell the truth."

Mr. Whitman also handed Mr. McIntyre the original draft of Rose's confession, written in jail. It was read and placed in evidence.

Louis Pitt, brother of Charles Pitt, Jr., Becker's so-called press agent, testified he had visited Jack Rose in the tomb at Rose's request.

"Did Rose get down on his knees in the tomb and say to you: 'On the grave and in the memory of my dear mother, I say that Becker had nothing to do with the affair?'" Mr. McIntyre asked.

MAILS ALLEGED TO HAVE CARRIED EXPLOSIVES

Government Witness Tells of Delivery of Fuses Through Postoffice to Hockin and McManigal at Rochester.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 19.—The delivery through the mail of a package which the government charges contained fuses to blow up a building at Akron, Ohio, on July 4, 1910, was described by R. G. Floyd, postmaster at Cleveland, Ohio, on the stand as a witness in the dynamite trial today.

According to the government, Herbert S. Hockin and McManigal had taken to Cleveland from Rochester, Pa., on a passenger train, a quantity of nitroglycerine to carry out orders from J. J. McManigal that "there must be a Fourth of July celebration at Akron."

The package arrived in Cleveland on July 4th. Mr. Floyd testified, an explosion under a building under construction by an employer of non-union labor occurred on the same day.

More financial accounts taken from McManigal's office in the iron workers' headquarters in Indianapolis, which the government charges shows a conspiracy on the part of the forty-five defendants to give financial support to the dynamiting campaign against structural iron and steel contractors, were identified by Miss Mary Dye, former bookkeeper for McManigal. Miss Dye identified checks issued to Frank Webb and signed by President Frank M. Ryan, with the notation, "charge as a donation to locals for organization purposes, by order of the executive board."

Other checks issued to Hockin, when he is alleged to have paid money to McManigal, were identified.

DYNAMITERS TRACED THROUGH HOTEL KEEPER

Seattle, Oct. 19.—Arthur McCormick, formerly proprietor of a lodging house here, left for Indianapolis tonight to testify in the dynamite conspiracy cases. McCormick said that on August 1, 1910, a man who gave the name of Peter Petrovinsky, or Petrovich, wanted a room for one month, paying in advance. Petrovinsky would allow no one to enter his room, and his conduct was so mysterious that McCormick was tempted several times to peep through the keyhole. He saw Petrovinsky pouring over blue prints. Letters addressed to J. M. Boyce and to J. L. Bryce were taken by Petrovinsky.

On August 21, 1910, an attempt was made to destroy the uncompleted Lyons office building with dynamite. Soon after the explosion Petrovinsky returned to his room from downtown.

When detectives traced J. L. Bryce, alleged to be J. B. McManigal, to Seattle, in August, 1910, Mr. McCormick told them about Petrovinsky.

SON FATALLY SHOTS FATHER IN QUARREL

Denver, Oct. 19.—Emil Howard Ross, Jr., 29, shot and killed his father, Emil Howard Ross, aged 44, at the family home late this afternoon. Young Ross and his stepmother were arrested. The youth says he shot his father because the latter abused the stepmother.

According to the story told the police by the young man, he was shaving in a house adjoining that occupied by his father and stepmother when he heard Ross, Sr., abusing the woman and called to his father to "cut it out."

Then, according to the youth, the father came to the room where he was and struck him, saying, "I'll kill you." A revolver was hanging on the wall of the room and the son seized it and shot his father in the abdomen. The wounded man staggered to an outbuilding and died in five minutes.

ROOSEVELT DEPRESSED TOO MUCH ACTIVITY

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Colonel Roosevelt, at 11 o'clock tonight, told Night Nurse Fitzgerald that he felt very tired. He had put in the time since the consultation of his surgeons at 5:30 p. m., in reading and talking with Mrs. Roosevelt, shaving himself, having a bath and eating a little lunch. His temperature at 9:30 was 98.2, at which figure it remained when taken again at 11. His respiration and pulse were stationary and about normal.

"I feel quite tired," he said to Miss Fitzgerald as she left him for the night. "I think I saw too many people today. I will be glad to sleep. I need it."

The colonel took a book, saying he would read a few minutes, and then go to sleep for the night.

GOVERNOR JOHNSON MAKES THREE SPEECHES

Californian Discusses Minimum Wage Scale for Women in View of Startling Statistics Quoted.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Chicago, Oct. 19.—Governor Hiram Johnson made three speeches in Chicago today and tonight, and held long conferences with Colonel Roosevelt and the progressive party managers over the conduct of the remaining two weeks of the campaign. One of the important questions to be settled, whether Governor Johnson is to stay in the east and help Colonel Roosevelt bring the fight to an end, or return to the Pacific coast, still is undecided.

A decision on this point, it is expected, will be reached by the party managers tomorrow.

The governor today spoke at the union stock yards at noon and tonight he addressed one meeting in a tent and another in a school building on the west side.

Referring to statistics which he obtained today, the governor tonight discussed the question of a minimum wage for women and strongly urged that such legislation be adopted by the federal government.

"I was surprised today to learn from Miss Mary McDowell, the well-known settlement worker of your city, that 59 per cent of the women in this land, between the ages of sixteen and twenty years, are engaged in what is known as 'gainful pursuit,' which is working for hire," said the governor.

"That means that there are about seven millions of them in this class. Hundreds of thousands of these women are working for from $3.50 to $6 a week. On this meager wage they are expected to keep up a good appearance. Don't you realize what it means for women to have to work for such meager pay?"

"If you realize it, then you know that the question must be solved governmentally. If we would endorse a nation. A government that permits this sort of thing to exist permits the grossest crime against its future citizenship and sows within itself the very seeds of destruction."

The progressive party stands for a minimum wage for women, along with the rest of its social and industrial planks, because it is right and just. The democratic candidate for president stands opposed to the minimum wage and we are glad indeed to take our stand on the opposite side of the question and to permit the electorate of the land to decide which plan they like better."

BIG CROPS CAUSE LOWER PRICES TO CONSUMER SAYS TAFT

President Issues Statement Based on Figures Furnished by Secretary of Agriculture Wilson.

$4,454,000,000 FOR FARMERS' PRODUCTS

High Cost of Living Has Reached Crest and Easier Conditions are Predicted Within Few Months.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Beverly, Mass., Oct. 19.—In a statement issued here tonight, based upon reports from Secretary of Agriculture James Wilson, President Taft declared the wave of high prices for food throughout the world has begun to subside in this country.

"The wave of extremely high prices for food throughout the civilized world," read the president's statement, "has reached its height in the United States and is subsiding. The American people have cause to be thankful that because of our industrial prosperity it has not been attended here with the great hardship which has prevailed in some of the countries where high prices have combined with low wages to reduce the working people to a point bordering on starvation."

According to the announcement of White House officials, Secretary Wilson made an investigation of the causes of prices and the effect of the bumper crops in the United States upon such prices. The great prosperity of the American farmer, the report to the president showed, has brought about a material decrease in the cost of food products, although in many instances the reduction will not become apparent to the consumer for several months. The report promises that the price of meat will decrease notably on account of the bumper corn crop and after that, sheep and hogs offered from that crop reach the consumer.

Secretary Wilson advised the president that of the nine great crops of the country—corn, wheat, oats, barley, rye, buckwheat, potatoes, flaxseed and hay—the October list prices indicated a saving to the consumer of about 9 per cent, or nearly $400,000,000.

The crop increase will make up to farmers, however, reductions in price. Mr. Wilson shows that while the return to the producer on October 1, 1911, amounted to $2,868,000,000, at the prices prevailing October 1, of this year, their return will be $4,454,000,000.

Mr. Wilson's reports, according to officials here, show that the average rate drop in the United States will be about 20 per cent greater than it has been for years. He shows that the wheat crop of the year is nearly one hundred million bushels greater than last year, and says that one high grade flour is costing at the mills 50 cents a barrel less than it did a year ago.

The corn crop, Mr. Wilson points out, exceeds three billion bushels, and there has already been a decrease in the price of corn of seven cents per bushel.

The hay crop, he says, has increased more than seventeen million tons over a year ago, and he declares that in consequence, the price per ton has fallen $2.74. This decrease, he maintains, will not only decrease the price of meats, but of milk, butter, cheese, etc.

The year's oat crop amounts to 1,147,000,000 bushels, an increase over last year's crop of more than 50 per cent, according to the report. Most of this crop is used as food for stock. Mr. Wilson declares, and the increased crop and lower price—on October 1 a bushel of oats cost 23.4 cents as compared with 12.5 a year ago—will also make for lower prices for meats and all five stock products.

On potatoes there will be a saving of nearly $100,000,000 in the cost of living. On October 1st the producers were getting 34.1 cents a bushel for potatoes. The investigation showed, as compared with 85.3 cents a year ago. The consumption of potatoes is 250,000,000 bushels, and the actual reduction in cost is $49,500,000, the report states.

This year's cotton crop is the largest on record and, although the price on October 1st was above last year, it has fallen 2.1 cents less than the price of two years ago, and the low crop may bring a reduction in the cost of cotton goods.

Antia, Okla., Oct. 19.—Rising in a large audience in a church last night, Mrs. Champ Clark, who is visiting in Antia, pointed her finger at H. T. Laughbaum said in his speech that the influence of the speaker was used against the prohibition leaders trying to get the bill reported from the committee.

"That is untrue," said a woman who rose in the house. "I am Champ Clark's wife and I know that you have no right to do it and I am pleased to tell you so."

The fire was not discovered until shortly before midnight. Smoke began to pour out of the hatches, showing it had gained headway in the cotton cargo. The wireless at once began to flash up and down the Atlantic coast of the ship's danger. Militant Suffragette Interrupted Meeting and is Ejected from Hall When She Refuses to be Quiet.

TWO BIG RALLIES IN GREATER NEW YORK

New Jersey Governor Completes Tour of Delaware, West Virginia and Western Pennsylvania Last Week.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
New York, Oct. 19.—Governor Woodrow Wilson made two speeches tonight in New York and Brooklyn, closing his speaking campaign for the present. He will not make another speech, he announced, until Colonel Roosevelt has recovered. Mrs. Woodrow Wilson and her three daughters attended the big meeting in Carnegie hall.

The governor returned here tonight after the afternoon from a campaign trip through Delaware, West Virginia and western Pennsylvania. On the way to New York he rode for awhile with Henry Van Dyke, the author, and former Governor Higgins, of Rhode Island.

Miss Maude Malone, a suffragette, interrupted the speech of Governor Wilson at the Academy of Music, Brooklyn, and after a scene of confusion, in which the democratic candidate tried to pacify the angry crowd, the police interfered and arrested her on a charge of disturbing the peace.

The governor was talking about monopoly when Miss Malone, who was conspicuous in interrupting an address by Governor Johnson, of California, here recently, rose from the balcony and shouted:

"How about woman suffrage, Governor Wilson? Man has a monopoly on suffrage."

Cries of "put her out" and an uproar of protest against the interruption came from the crowd.

"Do not be rude to the lady," urged the governor, and the crowd became quiet while the speaker added:

"Woman suffrage, madame, is not a question that is dealt with by the national government at all. I am only here as a representative of the national party."

The woman continued to shout questions about suffrage and when the governor could be heard again he said to her:

"I hope you will not consider it a discourtesy if I decline to answer your questions on this occasion. I am sure the lady will not insist."

Miss Malone did not stop, however, and for a few minutes there was a confusion of cries to take the woman from the hall, which finally ended when the police arrested her.

Governor Wilson then delivered his speech.

MARSHALL WANTS STATES TO HAVE PUBLIC LANDS

Cheyenne, Wyo., Oct. 19.—Governor Thomas H. Marshall, in making his outside visit presidential campaign, tonight received the most enthusiastic reception so far tendered him on his western trip. Between Greeley, where he spoke early today, and Cheyenne, Governor Marshall's trip was greeted by huge bonfires of Russian fluffies, bonfires of fluffies, fluffies, fluffies.

The governor was so pleased with his reception along the Wyoming route that he broke his rule against one word speaking at Greeley, where a crowd of thousands had gathered, and he spoke for ten minutes from the observation platform.

Mrs. Charles Halliday, a democratic member of the Wyoming legislature, introduced Governor Marshall to his Cheyenne audience.

Former Governor John F. Osburn, of Wyoming, who escorted Governor Marshall here from Greeley, also made a brief introductory speech.

The presidential campaign argued the plan of reclamation against the plan of the states as against the present system of management by several officials at Washington. He declared that Wyoming and Colorado both should be given the management of irrigation public land matters and also at forest and mineral conservation.

In the latter half of his address, the governor planned for a low tariff, which he insisted, was the one logical way to aid the people on the one hand and curb the trusts on the other. At the conclusion of his speech he was cheered by the crowd.

After announcing that he had decided to spend his week ending at Reno, Nev., Monday morning, he will travel directly to California.

Adrianople and Uskup are Strategic Points for First Great Battle to be Fought in Balkan War.

FORTRESS DEFENDED
BY MODERN GUNS

Ottoman Legations Deny That Physicians are Preparing to Scatter Disease Germs Among Enemies.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
London, Oct. 19.—Along the mountainous front of 200 miles from Kikilia in the east to Uskup in the west, the advance of the allied armies into Turkey continues. The Turkish army appears to be acting on the defensive. Its outposts are slowly withdrawing and are attempting only to screen the way for mobilization while the main armies are marching toward the frontier.

Only small engagements, which give no idea of the mettle of the combatants, have occurred thus far. The censorship has been so complete and effective that Europe has few details except that the largest armies in the field on the continent, since 1870, are preparing for a death struggle.

Adrianople and Uskup are the strategic points for the first great battle. Adrianople is defended by modern fortresses with three hundred of the most modern guns. It is the main gateway to Turkey and should give the invaders a long siege.

The town of Mustapha Pasha, 15 miles to the north, already has fallen into the hands of the Bulgarians without serious resistance.

The approach to Uskup is more difficult. The Serbian and Bulgarian armies are likely to follow two roads, one from Kostendil in Bulgaria through Palanka Pass which is strongly fortified on the Turkish side; the other along the main line of the railroad from Serbia.

The taking of Mustapha Pasha was the most important event reported today.

The Turkish fleet, the size of which has been kept a secret but probably is few small craft, was engaged in bombarding the Bulgarian port of Varna this afternoon.

Reports received by way of Bulgaria this afternoon say a regular force of 2,000 Turks was ambushed by the Montenegrins in an attempt to capture Berania.

The whereabouts of the Greek fleet is unknown.

The Montenegrins advance has stopped before Tarnobuz, which blocks the way to Scutari. The Greeks have crossed the border by three roads at the eastern end of the frontier. Turkey is apparently concentrating her attention on her Shay forces in the north.

The Turkish legations deny indignantly all reports that Turkish army doctors are preparing to scatter disease germs. These denials are made in reply to a despatch received yesterday in London and conveyed by the Greek minister.

SERVIAN KING ADDRESSES
ARMY EXPLAINING WAR

Belgrade, Serbia, Oct. 19.—In the presence of the troops at Kish, today King Peter read a long proclamation explaining the causes of Serbia's declaration of war against Turkey. He declared that the treaty of Berlin had not improved the condition of Serbia in Turkey. Murder would be continued on the basis of Turkish rule over them. Serbia has long sought to obtain from the Porte permission to construct from the frontier to the Adriatic railway, which she considered vital to her development, but without success.

"When an attempt was made in collective note to obtain a pacific settlement," continued the proclamation, "the response was fresh massacres of our brothers and atrocities and violations against Serbians on the frontier. For this reason with the help of God, I ordered my valiant army to take arms for the holy war for liberty, for our brethren and for the progress of the kingdom of Serbia."

After reference to the local support of the allies in the common cause, the proclamation concludes:

"I ask you, dear brethren, to assist with all your hearts and all your strength my valiant army. Long live my dear Serbian nation!"

After the proclamation was read, orders were given for a general advance of the Serbian army.

KING FERDINAND ISSUES
PROCLAMATION AT SOFIA

Sofia, Oct. 19.—King Ferdinand has issued a proclamation to the army in which he declared:

"Having failed in ameliorating the suffering of our brothers in the Ottoman empire, supported by our beloved nation, we have ordered our brave army to cross the frontier and engage in the struggle against our historic enemy. Our work is sacred in the name of humanity. Forward with the aid of the cross and your arms."

THREE THOUSAND GREEKS
SAF FOR BALKAN WAR

New Orleans, Oct. 19.—Nearly three thousand Greeks, all apparently with enthusiasm about going to war, called on officers from this port today for their names to be enlisted against the Turks. A small riot broke out on the fair line port on the Brooklyn waterfront as several hundred Greeks were boarding the steamer Venizelos. A number of Italians who had booked passage on the same vessel, lashed the Greeks over their readiness to go to war.

The largest number to sail on a single steamer was 1,200 on the French Boat, Chicago, which was held up for three hours by the rush of the Greeks to get passage. Many of the high were in khaki uniforms and carried banners bearing the inscription:

"Either return with your shield, or upon it."

The soldiers said they expected to be paid "three cents a day," say the Greek government for their services.

TURKS AND BULGARIANS FIGHT ON SEA AND LAND.

Sofia, Oct. 19.—In taking the town of Mustapha Pasha, the Bulgarians commenced operations at two points today. General Ivanoff's army with Harmanli as a center, attacked the right wing of the Turkish forces and occupied the village of Kourkale. The Turks were forced to fall back into Mustapha Pasha and this also they were compelled to desert. As they retreated they blew up every bridge over the river Maritza, cutting off communication with Adrianople.

Three Turkish warships opened a bombardment of Varna today, directing their fire against two Bulgarian torpedo boats in the roadstead. The range was ten miles and the shots were ineffective. The Turkish ships then withdrew.

The Macedonia leader, Sandanaky, has assembled 3,000 peasants of the district of Perin, near the Bulgarian border and they will join the allied states. The Bulgarians have taken Mahonia in the Rastog district at the point of the bayonet.

MONTENEGGINS AMBUSH
TWO THOUSAND TURKS.

Vienina, Oct. 19.—According to late advice from Podgoritz, 2,000 Turkish irregulars, while proceeding from Plana to Berania to attempt the recapture of that city, were ambushed by a strong detachment of Montenegrins. After a desperate fight, in which many of the irregulars were killed and Sahid Bey, commander, and 250 of his men were captured, the irregulars were routed.

GREEKS DISLODGE TURKS FROM STRONG POSITIONS.

Athens, Oct. 19.—The Greek army under command of Crown Prince Constantine, after four hours fighting today, dislodged the Turks from strong positions commanding Elasmou, near the Greek frontier. Two battalions and two batteries crossed the Arda river into Ephros and occupied the heights of Arimolou. Detachments of Cretans have arrived at Athens.

Religion and Medicine

S. B. HARKMAN, M. D.

Is there any intimate relation between religion and medicine?

Yes, there is. The old-time healer was also the priest. Theology and medicine have not maintained a separate existence very long. They used to be one. Yes, there is an intimate relation between religion and medicine.

It is well known of a person who eats with indifference and all-natural spirit, that his food will not have the same effect as if he were in a kindly mood. The same is true of medicine. If a person swallows a medicine with suspicion, has no faith in its action, is more or less afraid of the one who gives him the medicine, it cannot do him as much good as if he had unswerving faith in it.

The mind has a wonderful influence over the body. Those who believe that a loving Father controls the destiny of mankind are a great deal better prepared to meet the vicissitudes of life and to overcome disease than the one who has no such faith. A truly religious man makes a better patient than an irreligious man.

In using the word religion I am not referring to any particular kind of religion. The Jew and the gentile, the Catholic and the Protestant, each have a religion in which they believe. They also agree in the essentials.

A religious man may believe that it is necessary for him to use every means in his power to get well. He may believe that it is perfectly proper for him to employ doctors and take medicines. But he also believes that when he has done the best he can there is a higher power that has charge of his affairs, that a higher justice will be done him, that no evil thing can befall a good man. He goes forward with confidence, sick or well, rich or poor and gets a great deal more comfort out of life than the man who has no religion.

I have found myself saying many times to people who have a chronic ailment: "You need religion as well as medicine. You need faith in an everything to wide ends; that the affliction of disease teaches a lesson that every one should strive to learn."

This does not mean that sick people are to sit down and trust that an overruling providence will do everything. Nothing of the sort. He is to use remedies guided by his best judgment, but in the use of them he can believe that all things are well and that in the end all things will come out right. Any medicine has a better chance to cure a man who holds such a faith.

Some men are so faithless and unbelieving, so restless and desperate, their minds so unsettled that even the best of medicine has little chance to do them any good. Therefore, I say that religion is often quite as necessary as medicine, that the want of religion frequently defeats the action of the best medicine.

Many a chronic invalid has searched for a physical remedy simply because he has lost his grip on vital of life and to overcome disease than the one who has no such faith. A truly religious man makes a better patient than an irreligious man.

Yes, there is a most intimate relation between medicine and religion. Other things being equal, the irreligious man stands a poor chance of getting well when he is sick. While the religious man frequently gains well in the most astonishing way after the doctors have all given him up to die. With a firm faith in a rational religion and an obedient use of the right remedy a great many hopeless invalids could be restored to perfect health.

Well, you have made it clear as to what you mean by religion. But what is the remedy you would recommend? Of course I would recommend different remedies for different conditions. But the particular remedy that I am interested in at this time, the remedy that meets more chronic ailments than any other remedy I know of, is Peruna. Peruna is a remedy for that multitudinous group of ailments that are dependent upon catarrhal derangements.

I am furnishing a book on catarrhal diseases which I send to any person free. In this book I explain quite fully the uses of Peruna. Those who do not care to wait to send for the booklet at this time will find information on each of Peruna, explained within the wrapper of each bottle.

Peruna, Man-a-lin, and Peruna manufactured by the Peruna Company, Columbus, Ohio. Sold at all drug stores.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Many persons inquire for The Old-time Peruna. They want the Peruna that their Fathers and Mothers used to take. The old Peruna is now called Katana. If your druggist or dealer does not keep it for sale write the Katana Company, Columbus, Ohio, and they will tell you all about it.—Adv.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] West Point, Oct. 19.—After two successive years of defeat, Yale regained her football supremacy over West Point in a fiercely fought game here today by a score of 6 to 0. The touchdown came at the opening of the second period, after the Yale offensive had torn through the Army team to the nine yard line at the close of the first period. After the rest, three Yale rushes brought a touchdown. Philbin failed at the goal.

The Yale team was the superior of the West Point eleven in all departments, but errors of the Blues prevented the Elks from piling up double figures.

While the West Point offensive crumpled up against the stubborn and aggressive Blue line, seldom being able to cover more than two or three yards, the Army defense was of a high order.

Harvard Overwhelms Amherst. Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 19.—Harvard scored its easiest victory of several seasons over Amherst today, piling up 46 points to Amherst's 0. The Crimson attack included nearly everything possible under the revised rules, while its defense was impervious. Amherst did not score a single first down.

The Crimson back field was one of great power, despite the absence of Captain Wendell, because of injury.

The Crimson's first score came on a safety, when Gardner, of Harvard, blocked an Amherst kick and tackled Warren, of Amherst, back of the latter's goal line. Amherst held Harvard for downs on its one yard line in the last period. The Crimson lineup was changed frequently.

Wisconsin, 41; Purdue, 0. Madison, Wis., Oct. 19.—Wisconsin played fast football today and overpowered Purdue, 41 to 0. Eddie Gillette, quarterback, was the Badger's individual star, making a sixty-five yard run for a touchdown at the opening of the second quarter.

Chicago, 54; Iowa, 14. Chicago, Oct. 19.—In a spectacular game the University of Chicago football team today defeated the Iowa eleven, 54 to 14.

The Maroon backs plowed through their line for big gains in the final period springing three touchdowns. Pierce made all three touchdowns, tipping through the line after the ball had been advanced by the use of the forward pass.

Illinois, 13; Indiana, 7. Champaign, Ill., Oct. 19.—Illinois defeated Indiana this afternoon by 13 to 7. The Hoosiers could not gain consistently through the Orange and Blue line, although they out-weighted their opponents ten pounds to the man.

Minnesota, 13; Nebraska, 0. Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 19.—Two touchdowns by Malmgren, Minnesota's left half, one of which was made on an intercepted forward pass after a brilliant 95-yard run and a goal kicked by Quarterback Tiedeman, spelled the score of 13 to 0, by which the University of Minnesota football team today defeated Coach Stiech's Nebraska Corn Huskers. Three times was Minnesota's goal in danger, but each time the Gobbers grazed and their opponents failed to score.

Colorado Mines, 26; Wyoming, 0. Denver, Oct. 19.—The Colorado School of Mines eleven piled up a score of 26 to 0 against the University of Wyoming here today. The Mine players took advantage of their weight and played straight football for consistent gains through the line. Harper failed in an attempt at a field goal in the first quarter, but a touchdown followed a few minutes later. In the second quarter a long gain on a forward pass was followed by a touchdown and goal and just before the whistle blew, Harper kicked a field goal. Another forward pass was responsible for one of the two touchdowns in the third quarter. Twice again the ball was carried across the line in the last quarter.

Michigan, 14; Ohio State, 0. Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 19.—The University of Michigan football eleven defeated the Ohio State university football team here this afternoon 14 to 0 in the last game which will be played by teams of the two universities, a western conference decree making it necessary for Ohio State to discontinue relations with the Wolverines hereafter.

Utah, 66; Denver University, 0. Salt Lake, Utah, Oct. 19.—Utah played a fast game of football today and defeated Denver university by a score of 66 to 0. The Utah men broke up Denver's line and made big gains almost every play. Schroeder, Denver's star fullback, was injured and taken from the field.

Whitman College, 20; Oregon, 0. Walla Walla, Wash., Oct. 19.—In a game lacking team work on the part of both teams, Whitman College defeated the University of Oregon today, 20 to 0. The play of Whitman's ends was the feature of the game. This is Whitman's first victory since 1909.

Nevada, 23; St. Mary's College, 3. Reno, Nev., Oct. 19.—Nevada University defeated the Rugby team of St. Mary's College on Mackay field by a score of 23 to 3, making the fourth annual defeat of the latter by Nevada. St. Mary's score was made in the last minute of the second half but the angle was too difficult for a conversion. Nevada had a slight advantage in weight and showed better team work.

Princeton Outclasses Syracuse. Princeton, N. J., Oct. 19.—Princeton completely outclassed Syracuse here this afternoon and when the slaughter was over, had piled up 62 points to 0. It was a case of the visitors' weakness, rather than the Tigers' concerted strength.

Colorado College, 13; Aggies, 0. Colorado Springs, Colo., Oct. 19.—In a game that was marked by a number of accidents to players, Colorado college defeated the Colorado Agricultural college here today by the score of 13 to 0. A fumble in the first five minutes of play by an Agricultural college player, when Colorado attempted a field goal, and an intercepted forward pass in the third quarter netted Colorado college two touchdowns and a goal. Powers made a brilliant run of thirty yards to a touchdown when he intercepted the forward pass. The game was one of the hardest fought in the history of the local gridiron.

UNIVERSITY BOYS PRINCIPALS IN FIERCE RIOT

In Celebration of Football Victory, Illinois Students Storm Theater; Fight with Police Follows.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Champaign, Ill., Oct. 19.—Many persons were injured tonight in a riot caused by an attempt of University of Illinois students to force their way into the opera house where a vaudeville show was in progress.

Celebrating a football victory over Indiana, 1,000 students laid siege to the theater. They were repulsed by stage hands and policemen armed with revolvers and clubs.

Edgar Dillavand, a high school student, was knocked unconscious; Grace Medley, a chorus girl, was struck on the head with a brick hurled through a dressing room window; Grace Fletcher and Pearl Harper, other chorus girls, fainted on the stage and were carried off; the audience thinking it was part of the show.

Pete Andrews, a stage hand, suffered a blow on the head with a pointed missile.

There were many others injured among the students, but their friends quickly removed them. When the riot was at its height and guns were brandished by the defenders of the theater, George Huff, director of athletics, faced the mob and assailed the students from further action.

"Murder will certainly result if you don't quit," said Huff. "You will kill the game of football."

MURPHY ANNOUNCES HE WILL HAVE NEW MANAGER FOR CUBS

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Frank Chance, manager of the Chicago Cubs for seven years, will not be at the head of the team next year. President Charles W. Murphy stands by a statement he made today. Murphy said the youngest playing manager in the league and a man who will live and vote in Chicago. But he would not name him.

"I don't know who Murphy has in mind," Chance said. "I shall not visit his office unless I am requested to, and further, I don't think Murphy wants to see me any more than I want to see him."

ATTEMPT MADE TO MURDER JACK JOHNSON

As Champion is Leaving Bank Ink Well is Dropped from Tenth Story of Building, Barely Missing His Head.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Chicago, Oct. 19.—While Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, was leaving a bank in the downtown district today, an unidentified man dropped a large ink well from a window on the tenth floor of an office building, which narrowly missed striking the negro on the head.

Authoritative information is in the hands of the government that the Cameron girl was brought to Chicago in violation of the Mann act, according to a statement issued by United States District Attorney James H. Wilkerson.

"The government is proceeding with caution in its investigation of Johnson's alleged association with white girls," said Mr. Wilkerson. "We have information from a reliable source that the Cameron girl was brought to Chicago for unlawful purposes by a woman who was in some way associated with the negro."

Charged with the abduction of Lulu Cameron, who is alleged to be a half-breed girl, Johnson was arraigned in municipal court today. His bond was increased from $500 to $1,500, and the case continued until October 29th.

Johnson became furious when Attorney Erbstein, for Mrs. E. Cameron-Falconet, mother of the young girl, demanded that his bond be increased. "I don't think it is necessary to increase the bond," Johnson told the court. "I am a responsible citizen. I have a business worth $60,000."

"It may be worth that to you," flashed back Erbstein, "but it's illegal and you ought to be put out of business."

"All right," Mr. Mayor," commented the negro with a laugh. "If I was mayor of Chicago, you would not be in business three minutes," replied the attorney.

Judge Hopkins then placed the bond at $1,500, the usual amount in abduction cases.

A professional bondsman posted a cash bond for the negro.

Two agents of the government department of justice were present.

When the pugilist negro stopped his automobile in front of a downtown hotel today, such a large crowd gathered that police were called to prevent a possible lynching. Mutterings against the fighter were uttered by several men, but there was no open demonstration.

The line-up was as follows:

A. H. S.—MENAUL;
Schell, L.—A. Rodriguez;
Newman, Kempenich, R., M. Senosa;
Briggs, L.—J. P. Romero;
Wilson, L.—Martinez;
Barth, R.—Sanchez;
Livingston, Franklin, R., S. Martinez;
Emmons, R.—E. Rodriguez;
McCaughy, R., M. Blau;
Hesseldin, C.—J. Candelaria;
Camp, R.—F. Gomez (Capt.).

Johnson told no attention to the crowd, but entered his automobile and drove quickly away.

A mitimus ordering the detention of Lucile Cameron, whose mother swore out the warrant against Johnson, as a witness in the federal grand jury investigation against Johnson was issued by United States Commissioner Foote on application of the district attorney. She was held under $25,000 bond.

Miss Cameron will appear before Commissioner Foote, Tuesday, and probably before the grand jury on the same day.

She was questioned by government agents for two hours today, but refused to tell of her relations with the negro.

MISS CAMERON TAKEN TO ROCKFORD, ILLINOIS

Rockford, Ill., Oct. 19.—Lucile Cameron, whose alleged relations with Jack Johnson have aroused civil and federal authorities in Illinois, was brought to Rockford tonight to await hearing on Tuesday at which time she will be a witness. Miss Cameron is without funds and will be obliged to subsist on jail fare. Sheriff Young has strict orders to keep every one from seeing or communicating with her while in his custody. The negro's attorney will be here Sunday in an attempt to see the girl, it is said.

WHITE HOPE HARRIS KNOCKS OUT HECTOR IN SECOND ROUND

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.] Trinidad, Colo., Oct. 19.—In a bout scheduled for fifteen rounds, between Young Hector, the Denver heavyweight, and Fireman Harris, Trinidad's offering to the so-called "white hope" class, Harris knocked out Hector in the second round here last night. Hector weighed 187, while Harris tipped the scales at 202 pounds. The Denver fighter made a poor showing, being helpless before the rushes and swings of the Trinidad heavyweight.

It was the first time Hector ever was knocked out, he having fought forty battles in his career of three years as a boxer, and the defeat administered by Harris, therefore, came as a surprise to the fans.

Rain at Lexington. Lexington, Ky., Oct. 19.—There was no racing here today on account of rain.

MENAUL VICTORY IN FIRST GAME OF FOOTBALL

Mission Lads Defeat High School Eleven by Score of Nineteen to Seven by Playing Old Style Game.

If yesterday's game is any indication, old style football will be the stuff that will win the games this year, for that was practically the entire scheme of play used by the Menaul school eleven in administering a severe defeat to the Albuquerque high school team. The score was 19 to 7.

The game was not spectacular, but there was plenty of good, hard playing on both sides. The principal trouble with the high school was an inability to stop line backs, while the principal fault with the Menaul eleven was carelessness. On their last touchdown, scored in the fourth period, the Menaul school man who was handling the ball for the goal kick carelessly placed the ball on the ground, thus forfeiting his team's chance to kick goal. Camp spotted the misplay and called attention to it, or it might not have been noticed by the officials.

A stellar game was played by E. Gomez, the Menaul captain, who seemed to be able to gain two or three yards through the high school line at will, and by J. Romero, a plucky guard, who opened holes for his heavy comrades to use in making gains.

Honors for the best game for the high school easily went to Louis Hesseldin, who captained his team and who was in the game every minute; in every play and played them all hard. Furrell, a high school back, played remarkable ball, handing work played several times for steady work in stopping forward passes. Wilson, a green hand, showed up well at center.

The high school's one touchdown was scored in the third quarter, on an intercepted forward pass. Goal was kicked. The Menaul reversed the situation in the next quarter on an exactly similar play.

Menaul scored two touchdowns in the first period, kicking goal from one.

Charles Lombie, U. S. M. '11, refereed the game, and P. M. Calkins, an undergraduate at the same institution, acted as umpire. Robert Wigley was head linesman.

The game was marred by the crowd forcing its way onto the field at all times and in places that were most inconvenient for the players.

The line-up was as follows:

A. H. S.—MENAUL;
Schell, L.—A. Rodriguez;
Newman, Kempenich, R., M. Senosa;
Briggs, L.—J. P. Romero;
Wilson, L.—Martinez;
Barth, R.—Sanchez;
Livingston, Franklin, R., S. Martinez;
Emmons, R.—E. Rodriguez;
McCaughy, R., M. Blau;
Hesseldin, C.—J. Candelaria;
Camp, R.—F. Gomez (Capt.).

Colorado Springs, Colo., Oct. 19.—Two football players on the Colorado Agricultural College eleven were seriously hurt here today in the game with Colorado College and one may die.

STRENGTH SHOWN ON EXCHANGE BY SPECIALTIES

American Locomotive, Peoples' Gas, Fertilizers and Union Pacific Active at Higher Prices.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] New York, Oct. 19.—In a smaller way, today's stock market was little more than a repetition of the days immediately preceding. Trading was again comparatively light and the movement continued to converge around the industrials and specialties.

Substantial gains were scored in the early dealings by such issues as the Fertilizers, American Locomotive and Peoples' Gas. At most the only representative of standard stock to display more than moderate strength was Union Pacific which recorded the best price of the week. Coppers manifested a firm undertone, while United States Steel was inclined to waver. Extreme dullness set in before their close, the monotony of the movement being broken by a sharp advance in Chicago Copper issues.

Market conditions abroad were no less dull than here, but money was in better demand.

Financier's Statement. New York, Oct. 19.—The Financier will say:

"The statement of the clearing house banks of New York for the week ending Saturday, October 19th, was favorable, not so much in the actual changes reported as in the plain indications that the monetary tide for the present, at least, has turned on the basis of actual condition at the close of business Saturday, the banks reported an increase of $12,485,000 in loans, an increase of a trifle less than $2,000,000 in cash, and an expansion of $10,654,000 in deposits. The increase in deposits called for about $2,500,000 extra reserve, which more than offset the actual cash increase, so that excess reserve fell $1,750,000, the surplus above the 25 per cent minimum standing at $9,408,950.

A significant fact in connection with Saturday's statement was that the clearing house had made up the small deficit reported for two weeks past.

Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Hedging sales from the northwest and a depressing effect today on wheat. The market closed easy 1/4 to 1/2 cent under last night. There was apparently no hedging in wheat sales being done by Chicago houses. Bullish sentiment here, however, had become dwarfed by the low prices named in bids for export business and by weakness at Winnipeg where bullish activity would naturally develop first.

Russian official estimates of a greatly enlarged winter crop counted in favor of the bears in wheat. About the only opposing influence came from week-end evening up, few traders daring to stand out over Sunday with a large open interest. Price changes in December ranged from 22 to 22 1/2 cents. The close, 92 1/2 cents, meant a loss of 1/4 to 3/4 cent, compared with twenty-four hours before.

Corn closed 1/4 to 1/2 cent not lower. Oats unchanged to a sixteenth down. Provisions closed varying from 17 1/2 cents decline, to an advance of 7 1/2 cents.

"THE BIG SNEEZE" INVADES THE COUNTRY

His Medical Name is Coryza and It Is Specially Laid of Women in Low Necked Gowns.

"Everybody's getting coryza," or soon will be," declared the head of the department of Contagious Diseases of the City Health Bureau. The disease makes an attack at this time of the year, and is particularly severe on women who wear low cut gowns. Coryza is termed "the big sneeze."

When the tip of your nose starts to bleed, when your lips and the roof of your mouth begin to feel dry and hard, and your eyes fill up with tears for no apparent reason, you've got coryza, or rather coryza has got you. Coryza comes just when the time has arrived to change underwear. Many meet it when sitting at the open windows of street cars. Particularly, say the Health Department physicians, does coryza attack women in low neck gowns just after they have dined.

That is why they believe coryza will be a society epidemic. Coryza, however, goes every place where there is thick black smoke. The smoke produces a carbonic gas, the physicians say, which is the principal article of diet for the soldiers of coryza's army.

Dr. Humphrey's "Twenty-Seven" for Grip and Colds meets the epidemic condition and breaks up the disease. At all Drug Stores, 25c.

TRADE EXCURSION OF EL PASOANS HERE TOMORROW

Albuquerque Commercial Club
Members to Extend Visitors
Glad Hand on Their Arrival;
Remain but Short Time.

Arriving at 7:30 tomorrow morning from the west, the special train bearing the members of the El Paso Chamber of Commerce trade excursion, will visit Albuquerque, being here a little over an hour, since the special is scheduled to depart for the south at 8:35.

President George A. Kneeman, of the Commercial club, and Secretary Thomas J. Naylor are busy arranging for the proper reception of the visitors, and during their short stay in Albuquerque it is planned to have as many of the Albuquerque business men at the train to meet the El Pasoans as is possible. It is proposed to make the greeting of the visitors a most cordial one, impressing upon the El Paso business men just what the famous "Albuquerque spirit" is in practice.

Traveling with the trade excursion, is the regimental band of Ft. Bliss, and this band will give a concert during the short stop here. Immediately after the train's arrival, the band will be breakfasted, which probably will take about twenty-five minutes, after which all those on the train will be ready to meet the Albuquerque people.

No more unknown are the Albuquerque business men to cordially greet the visitors than they are to extend the glad hand to local people, and therefore, it is expected the event of tomorrow will be to the mutual advantage of both cities.

NEW COMPANY AT ORPHEUM

To the lovers of good music we take great pleasure in announcing the engagement of the Hart Brothers, accomplished and up-to-date musicians, who begin an engagement at the Orpheum tonight. Hart Brothers, musical comedy promoters, after investigating the possibilities of this city have decided that an exceptionally good opening for musical comedy is offered and accordingly have taken over the management of the Orpheum theater for the winter. Immediately they will bring their stock company from the Hart Brothers located in Toledo, Ohio. Prior to the arrival of the stock company the "Harts" will present the Hart sisters who, with original and charming acts will be doubtless the theater going public of this city. There will be new plays, plays daily, vaudeville changes Thursday and Sunday.

The picture program tonight will please all. The "Jews in Poland," a film showing the persecution of this race in Poland. "Phlegans Family Outing," a scream from start to finish, and the "Bull Fight," thrilling yet with the cruel features eliminated, make up a very strong bill.

The Hart Brothers orchestra, which will render the music in the future is one of the many new features that will make the admission price insignificant in consideration of the merit of the bill.

A set of silverware will be given free to the holders of the lucky number tonight. There will be an entire change of picture program tomorrow. Matinee at 2:30 this afternoon—Adv.

VOTERS EVIDENCING INTEREST IN THE CAMPAIGN

Opening of Democratic Headquarters on Central Avenue Results in Many Calls for Literature.

"I want to get something on the wood question."

This is what a visitor said at the local democratic headquarters, opened yesterday in the building at 597 Central avenue, recently occupied by Ferguson & Collier. The new place is a copy of "The Republic" and "The Nation," the speech delivered at the democratic state convention by the Hon. A. A. Jones, of Las Vegas, which is guaranteed to put to flight the apprehension that the democrats are going to leave the timid and helpless sheep of New Mexico unprotected from the hordes of the jasper sheep of Europe and Australia. He promised to be "laid" soon for some standard friends.

There were other calls for campaign literature, buttons and pictures of the candidates. Railroad men wanted copies of a pamphlet showing what Woodrow Wilson had done towards the enactment of a "full crew" bill and a bill requiring pay day to come twice a month, while the late governor of New Jersey.

From now on with election time the headquarters will be open daily and in the evening. All democrats and those in favor of the election of Wilson, Marshall and Ferguson are cordially invited to drop in and make themselves at home.

On Tuesday evening, October 22d, at 8 o'clock, the regular meeting of the Wilson-Marshall-Ferguson club will be held at headquarters. Prominent speakers will address the meeting, and the general public is invited.

DRAINAGE DISTRICT IS NEED OF RIO GRANDE VALLEY

Sidney W. Cooper, of Department of Agriculture, Here to Arouse Interest in Organization of One.

That the organization of either one large drainage district, covering the Rio Grande valley from Albuquerque south as far as San Marcial, or a series of drainage districts, sufficient to cover a wide area, is one of the greatest needs of the valley, was the statement made last night by Sidney W. Cooper, drainage engineer of the department of agriculture.

Mr. Cooper, who has his headquarters at Roswell, has just returned from several months spent in Colorado and Wyoming. On his way to Albuquerque he visited Springer and Santa Fe, and after spending today here, and possibly tomorrow and Tuesday, he will continue on to Roswell.

In an interview last night, Mr. Cooper stated that four large districts now organized in the Pecos valley were adding to a great extent the successful development of the Pecos valley, one of the richest agricultural sections of New Mexico, and one depending almost entirely on irrigation, either by means of artesian wells or irrigation reservoirs. He said that so successful had the districts organized, that steps were now under way for creating two additional districts, making six in all and taking in practically the entire valley from Roswell south.

THE GRAY HAIRS WILL QUICKLY VANISH

Don't Neglect Your Hair and Don't Resort to Old Time
Hair Dyes.

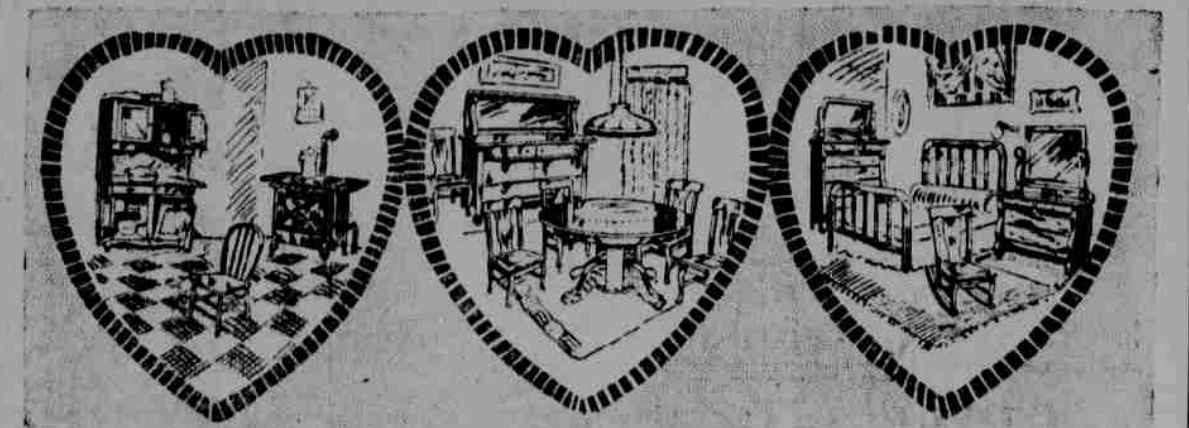

A feeling of sadness accompanies the discovery of the first gray hair. While unfortunately are looked upon as heralds of advancing age, Gray hair, however, handsome it may be, makes a person look old. We all know the advantages of being young. Aside from the good impression a youthful appearance makes on others, simply knowing that you are "looking fit" gives one courage to undertake and accomplish things. So why suffer the handicap of looking old on account of gray hairs, when a simple remedy will give your hair youthful color and beauty in a few days' time?

Most people know that common garden sage acts as a color restorer and soap-suds as well. Our grandmothers used a "Sage Tea" for keeping their hair dark, soft and luxuriant. In Ayer's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy we have an ideal preparation of Sage, combined with Sulphur and other valuable remedies for dandruff, itching scalp and thin, weak hair that is split at the ends or constantly coming out. A few applications of this valuable remedy will bring back the color, and in a short time it will remove every trace of dandruff and greatly improve the growth and appearance of the hair.

Get a fifty-cent bottle from your druggist today, and notice the difference in your hair after a few days' treatment. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented.—Adv.

TNG SOCIETY

(BY CORAL CLYCE.)

The Feminine Gloom Army

AT THE gloom promoters, in this good old town of ours, are not in politics. No, dear. There are a few "feminine killjoys" around and about—a raft of them. Don't like to start anything, but—are you one? Are you one of those women who grow fat and happy handing "stings" to other women?

Look away deep down in your heart, and answer truly. When a certain somebody, whom you profess to greatly admire, comes to you, toggled out in a spic and span new frock, smilingly anticipating your approval, do you gush over it, and after landing her in the heights of joy, suddenly bring her to earth with a dull sickening thud by saying:

"Perfectly beautiful, dear, only—why didn't you have it trimmed in green, red in common, you know. It would have been much smarter! Your hat is lovely, only—the feather on the left side would have been newer and prettier, don't you think?"

Perhaps, you wouldn't hand such "killjoy" criticisms to your dearest friend, but maybe your specialty is listening to the day-dream prospect of a certain other friend, and dealing a knockout blow to all her pet ambitions and glorious schemes by gloomy prognostications of failure founded on your experience and that of others.

"Of course, dearie, you know best, but if I were you I wouldn't, because—"

Dealing a deck of advice and putting all the dark cards in one hand! But worse than these, and the one we find the hardest to forgive, is she of the fawning manner, who sits across, smiling tea out of one's best china, telling in velvet, cooing tones all the mean things she has heard about you!

Softly she says—so softly! "I wouldn't tell you, honey, only I feel that you ought to know and—"

"She left me with the feeling—most unpleasant, I aver—"

That the whole world would despise me if it hadn't been for her!

Yes, Ella Wheeler Wilcox in "A Pin." These are types we meet every day. A pity, it is not that so many human pins stick into existence, probing the tenderest spot—the heart!

Well—my pet philosophy is this: Every woman, who goes the rounds, deriving joy from the tossing of "our compliments," that stick and sting, will sooner or later stumble in her own little patch of cactus plant. Then, to put it vulgarly, but the more expressively, she'll get hers.

"Rested Up" Last Week

Looks like a slump in things social. Too much rain, I guess. Well, every little "time" has a sequel all its own—a good enough philosophy born of sports, and all right as far as it goes.

Anyhow, everybody has been so busy, what may be vulgarly termed "all in, down and out" and the week past was anything but a social whirl. So, I arise to remark that I am rather shy an copy, and proceed—as usual.

The excitement was in the world of sport and politics, and if you want a clear, open and above-board opinion, I don't believe society cares a rap about Boston beating New York, or is even interested in knowing that the local papers have reached the "our esteemed contemporary" stage. A sure sign that politics are waxing fast and furious.

Drawn into the political arena by the vortex of public clamor, society gets lost in the crowd, so to speak, and wanders aimlessly about, not really counting for much, until the big political campaign has faded from front page prominence.

But, I WON'T talk politics. Everybody else does—so what's the use? Talking about your neighbors beats that, and is only second in interest, after all.

Another Engagement on Tapis.

And that reminds me. No modern invention can equal the wireless celerity that distributes information concerning other people's business in this town.

Matrimonial news seems to fly faster than any other variety, as if winged by Cupid, though, goodness knows, a contemplated deviation, from the straight double-harness jog trot, gets noised about just as promptly as the antics of the two, who have never tried the double-harness arrangement, but who are dead anxious to take a chance.

I suppose all this preamble was not absolutely necessary, to break it to you gently, that another of our most prominent society girls has become engaged!

Card Party for Visiting Girl.

Meeting through for spring weddings. Four that I know of—gracious know! how many more before the season rolls around. The weddings are planned for early spring, all within a stone's throw of each other, so just imagine the harvest for the jewelers, please!

And thing of the overtime piling up against the society editor, and of how she must stay up nights, so as not to miss any of the interesting details, and of the round of parties, and—oh, everything!

Big things when the roses bloom again, "grab it from us who know," as the boys say.

Out of the Shadows into Light.

In these days of filmy feminine attire, and not much of it, is seldom safe, if ever, to stand between a light and an observer, especially if shadows surround you, that is, if the room be darkened. Get me?

At one of the dances of the festive fortnight, this fact was forcibly illustrated, for the benefit of a half dozen more or less, interested young men.

It happened, as such things often do happen at a dance, that a moon-light waltz was in progress. A dreamy, delightful waltz, just the sort of seductive melody for lowered lights, and for everybody and his "conker" story. That has not to do with my story, however.

The thing I wish to impress upon you, was that a number of men stood in the doorway, leading from the reception hall, watching the dancers, that the only light was for the benefit of the orchestra, and that the dancers passed between the orchestra and the doors? Is that plain?

Need I say more? Probably it were just as well to draw a veil over some what sensational results. Anyhow, there is an immense value in knowing the effects of shading and lighting, this day and time.

The effete easterner was taking her first drive across the mesa. She failed to notice over scenery and climate, and unhesitatingly declared it the most desolate looking country she had ever seen.

"But, the ozone, the wonderful ozone," valiantly advanced the old timer.

"Ozone?" the easterner inquired, reflectively, her eyes scanning the surrounding country and horizon. "I don't see any growing; nothing green any direction you look. Not even oak."

It is to laugh, of course. And yet—what would you?

What, pray, does your easterner know about ozone? I guess it isn't in their dictionary, an atmospheric rarity of forgotten meaning, obsolete, you know.

Auction Bridge Luncheon

Mrs. Roy McDonald entertained at Auction Bridge, Friday afternoon in honor of Miss Mary Ida Dunkerley. Autumn flowers and foliage figured in the pretty decoration scheme and a two-course luncheon was served at conclusion of the card playing.

The players were Miss Dunkerley, Mesdames J. E. Hendon, M. S. Brown, Margaret Medler, Joseph Brown, Walter Connel, Al Frost, John Lee Clarke, Arno Hanning, E. Russell Edgell, O. A. Matson, Misses Brent, Lizzie and Betty Willey, Suzanne Edgar and Claude Edgar.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lee Clarke have issued invitations to a dance for Tuesday evening, October 22, at Masonic Temple. As over two hundred cards are out, the Clarke dance will doubtless create quite a stir in select social circles.

Mrs. Sydney Rosenwald will entertain Wednesday evening for her house guest, Miss Julia Jaffa of Roswell. Miss Jaffa is quite popular with the local elite, and her visit here will be incentive for a round of society in her honor.

The Tuesday Literary club held forth at the home of Mrs. Walter M. Connel, the past week. Art is being studied this year and the programs, for the most part, are informal discussions.

The Thirty Club Dance

The Thirty club had a rollicking dance last Wednesday evening. Among those enjoying the regular soiree were Misses Mabel Fitch, Mildred Fox, Jean Hubbs, Laureen Asselin, Lora Loveless, Mae McMillin, Marion Wallington, Gertrude Treffenberg, Miss Herkenhoff, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Skinner, Messrs. Roy Strone, Ralph Keeler, "Buz" Turner, Walter Dague, Charles Kunz, Charles Lemke, C. G. Mar-dorf, Will McMillin, Roy Bailey, Will White and Lloyd Sturges. Guests of the evening were Will Pratt of Denver, Jun-jr O'Reilly and Ray McCanna.

The Masonic club will get into the terpsichorean game, Halloween night with the first dance of the season. The club's officers this year are S. H. Busch, president; Charles Lemke, treasurer, and Will McMillin, secretary. A dance is planned for each month, so the Masonic club anticipates a gay season. Their dances, of course, are open only to Masons.

Dr. A. Tyroler of Los Angeles, assistant chief surgeon of the Santa Fe, who has been visiting the Isaac Barths here the married Freda Barths, you know received a letter from him the other day, which should not go down to oblivion, as he selfishly reserved for a fond parent's eyes.

What is that Epictetus says about "A letter in the newspaper being worth two in the mail?"

This is what the child wrote:

Dear Father:—

I wish you were here on your birthday. We are going to Frank's. I went to Charles' party and won the prize. I pinned the tail on the pig. But no one did. I got the mouth.

Bren to Put on Elks Show

Joe Bren, the one and only Joe, is to put on a big minstrel show for the Elks Thanksgiving. He, as says the great Theodore, No need to go into lengthy spasms over Bren's productions, as his talent as an impresario is too well known to the natives to call for newspaper comment.

Enough for us that he is doing it. Everybody just sits back in pleasant anticipation and leaves it for Bren to start something. And he will, but nothing that he can't finish.

It's a combined minstrel this time, instead of musical comedy, and said to be the best show Joe Bren has ever turned out. A cast of twenty-one men and thirteen girls are required, and it goes without saying that the best talent available will participate in the big show. Mr. Bren will bring along a car of special scenery and gorgeous costumes, besides Mrs. Bren and the baby, the latter to be featured in the forthcoming production. All the newest songs and latest stunts in minstrelsy will be introduced—and what's the use of going into detail? Everybody knows the Bren shows in this town, and as I said, talk is superfluous.

Three performances will be given this year. Thanksgiving eve, a Thanksgiving matinee, and a Thanksgiving night show. To cap the climax, the Elks will give a dance following the final performance in honor of the show people.

All in all, it promises some real excitement for Thanksgiving.

The committee is headed by Dr. J. W. Collier, with the other members as follows: C. W. McCann, George Lemke, Ernest Ladd, George Learmonth, Dave Combs and A. B. Eetz.

Masons Will Start Something.

The noise that will come, emanate and emerge from the Masonic Temple tomorrow, will be the cries of distress from tickles, noisies, being made over into full-fledged Shriners.

The red fez will be much in evidence, and there will be joy in the old town for everyone—excepting, of course, said unfortunate noisies.

It's to be a great day for the Shriners, who promise to outdo themselves, and to make the twenty-fifth anniversary of Babel Aiyad Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S. the biggest and best ever, a frolic that will be something like—

And, of course, it winds up with a sumptuous banquet at which the ladies, in best bib and tucker, will lend their presence and increased brilliancy to the occasion.

The banquet is Monday night, and elaborate decorations, resplendent gowns, not to mention epicurean delights, will all go to make it a gay and festive occasion. Graced as it will be by high and mighty Masonry, it may also be safely predicted as "a feast of reason and a flow of soul."

Ge, don't you wish you were a Mason? Sex forbidding, would you object to Masonic affiliations?

The echoes of the Masonic explosion will still be reverberating throughout local confines, when the Eastern Star convenes Friday for the annual Grand Chapter ceremonies.

These will include business sessions and initiation exercises for Friday and Saturday, ending with a banquet and general good time Saturday night.

Eastern Star members from all over the state will be in attendance, so the crowd will be as large as the "time."

What with the Shrine, ceremonial Monday, other important sessions of the Grand Lodge during the entire week, including a banquet Wednesday night given by Blue Lodge to visiting members, the week may be formally turned over to the Masons, rather the town will be theirs, and that they will make the most of time goes quite without saying.

Major and Mrs. A. W. Kinzel and their two daughters, Florence and Amy, left Monday for Fort D. A. Russell, Wyo., after a delightful visit with relatives and friends here. Major Kinzel has been transferred to Fort Benjamin Harrison at Indianapolis, and the Kinzels will move there the first of November.

The A. B. Rehnagels are home from their European trip, rather, Mr. Rehnagel is in town and Mrs. Rehnagel stopped off in the east to show admiring relatives and friends the new addition to their family.

Mr. Rehnagel's promotion to the dignity and responsibilities of a father (familia) seems to have made a very perceptible impression on him. Oh, very well.

Mrs. Rehnagel and the baby are expected soon. They took fourteen months to their trip abroad, and had a right royal time of it.

Will H. Pratt, of Denver, formerly a local boy and well known here, visited his parents, the F. G. Pratts, the past week. On account of the failing health of Mrs. Pratt, the F. G. Pratt family have decided to move out to California, and will leave within a few days for their new home. They are old-timers here, and have a wide circle of friends to regret their departure to fields and pastures new.

Mrs. Nathan Salmon of Santa Fe, and her charming daughter, Salome Salmon, left for the Grand Canyon the first of the week, after spending several days in this city. They will visit in Phoenix, Arizona, before their return to the Capital City.

Dr. Fred C. Baker and his bride returned the past week from an extended honeymoon trip through Europe. The Bakes spent the most of their time in Vienna and Berlin, where Doctor Baker took up post graduate work.

Mrs. Mike Mandell has joined her daughter, Gladys Mandell, in El Paso for a two weeks' visit. Both are expected home by the end of the coming week.

Mrs. C. M. Chadbourne of New York City is visiting her brother-in-law, Mr. M. O. Chadbourne, and family.

Miss Hazel Maloy left Monday last for Baltimore, Md., where she will represent Notre Dame college for the ensuing term.

Mr. Martha Parker, of Madison, Wis., who attended her son's marriage to Juanita Rankin in this city, October 8, is remaining for a month's visit with Mrs. Don Rankin. She will return with Mrs. Albert Learned, and her little daughter, born in Albuquerque October 5, rejoin Mr. Learned in Kansas City. Mrs. Learned was formerly Madama Rankin.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Rosenwald and baby have returned from a trip to the Pacific coast. They spent the most of their time in San Francisco.

Mrs. Willis Shippman leaves for her home in Washington, D. C., tomorrow, after a visit with Miss Stone of the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. Shippman's husband is an army man.

Mrs. Mary E. Wilds and grandson of Halesville, Ark., are guests of relatives in this city. Mrs. Wilds is the mother of Mrs. Arthur E. Keith and Mrs. N. John Strumquist, Jr., of this city.

Mrs. Jesse Miller is expected this week from her home in Los Angeles to attend the Grand Chapter meetings of the Eastern Star, to be held in this city next Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barnett returned the past week from an European trip. The Barnetts were away five months and visited England, France, Germany, Austria, Italy and other countries on the continent.

John Morelli and his bride arrived home early last week from their honeymoon trip abroad. Mrs. Morelli was formerly Miss Margaret Zibetti of West Hoboken, N. J., where they were married several months ago. Their European trip included stops at all the big cities on the continent, and a visit with relatives in Italy.

Mrs. Ralph M. Henderson and little daughter left the past week for Johnston, Pa., called there by the serious illness of Mrs. Henderson's father, A. C. Berry.

Woman's Club Meeting.

The usual weekly meeting of the Woman's Club Friday was one of the largest attended and most interesting sessions of the season. It was a dothe Lady Macbeths. Her home was prettily decorated for the event, the dining room being especially pretty with autumn flowers massed in the center of the table, and with foliage used about the room.

Music and games passed a pleasant afternoon.

Mrs. Moore was assisted by Mrs. Minnie Cleford and Mrs. Mary Shaffer.

St. John's choir was delightfully entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. A. F. Morrisette. It was a "cake party" and each guest came arrayed to represent some variety of cake. Mrs. W. E. Warren and Miss Lottie Sayman cut for the first prize, a handsome left buckle, which was won by the latter, and the trophy went to Mrs. E. L. Bradford.

The gentlemen's first prize was won by William McEllean. An informal musical program and good things to eat ended the jolly party.

St. John's Guild will give the first tea of the season, next Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. A. F. Morrisette, 216 North Ninth street. A special invitation is extended to the public, and a pleasant time, and lots of good things to eat, are assured all comers.

Mrs. Morrisette will be assisted by the officers of the Guild, and by the following young ladies: In serving, Misses Margaret Jones, Irene Saint, Lotta Newhall, Jean Hubbs and Dolly McEllean.

Some Out-of-Town Weddings

Moneymen passing through, who attracted a crowd to the train, during a brief stop here Friday, were John Ralph Tasher and his bride, nee Janet Brison.

Both are former University of New Mexico students, and have a wide circle of local friends. The Tashers lived here for a number of years, and young Tasher is a graduate of the U. N. M., and more recently a graduate in law of Northwestern University. Mrs. Tasher also attended school at the local state institution, and their romance had its inception during that time. They were married in Chicago last Tuesday, and were on their way to Phoenix. Mr. Tasher will practice law in the southwest, probably in Silver City, though he has not definitely decided as to the exact location.

Another out-of-town wedding, of considerable local interest, occurred at Socorro last Wednesday evening, when Lena Griffith, the daughter of District Attorney John E. Griffith, was wedded to John D. Meriwether, states good roads engineer.

Mrs. Meriwether is popular in social circles throughout the state, and is a charming and accomplished girl, and more than ordinarily pretty. Her wedding was the society event of the season at Socorro, and was a large and elaborate nuptial affair.

Mr. Meriwether and his bride left the same day for Panama, via New Orleans, on their honeymoon trip and on their return, sometime in December, will make their home in Socorro. The young couple received many handsome presents from different parts of the state and country.

Various Affairs of the Week

One of the prettiest affairs of the week past was the party last Thursday afternoon, given by Mrs. S. P. Spaulding in honor of Mrs. Clyde Ewers. Mrs. Spaulding's home was charmingly decorated and sewing was the pastime. A luncheon was laid and best. The invited guests were Mrs. Ewers, Mrs. Tom Hanson, Mrs. Henning, Mrs. Oliver Mayo, Mrs. Charles Schult, Mrs. Betty Moschke, Mrs. Compton and Mrs. Waters.

Mrs. George Moore was hostess Thursday afternoon to the officers of

Now Comes Festive Halloween

The mystic Halloween draws near, and already ghostly frolics are being "framed up" for that auspicious date. Chief among the Halloween celebrations is that being planned by the Albuquerque Business College.

The committee on arrangements, composed of these Miss Pauline Cartwright, Miss Pearl Tompkins, Robert Whely, George Myers and George Neher, refuses to divulge the place of the proposed frolic, but say they have secured a weird and ghostly habitation and that on the big night the crowd will be led thither for the time of their lives.

Wonderful plans are talked over in secret conclave and the students are in a flutter of anticipation, and awaiting Halloween with ill-concealed impatience.

Interest is manifest in the minstrel and vaudeville show to be given by the Loyal Order of Moose, at Elks' (Continued on Page 3, Column 1.)

PRECEDENTS UPSET.

Political and trade conditions, during the past few years, have upset all traditions. Things expected from past experience have not occurred. Smashing precedents began with the panic of 1907. Many bank failures occurred and not a few factories closed their doors and railroads curtailed their expenditures, throwing many thousands of men out of employment.

According to experience, farm products should have lowered in price and become a drag on the market. Instead, the country beheld the anomaly of wheat and corn, oats and barley, potatoes and beans going up steadily, and the traffic demand soon forced the railroads to begin buying rolling stock to take care of it.

According to history, corn should have been burned for fuel.

The next precedent breaker was the result of the dissolutions of the trusts under the operations of the Sherman law. It was fondly imagined lower prices would result and a consequent decline in the stocks of the various combines affected.

Prices of the dissolved stocks went up rapidly, and are continuing to go up on the exchanges.

When the tariff was taken off of hides, it was supposed leather would be cheaper. Instead, it has gone up 70 per cent. A lot of really important items went on the free list under the operations of the Payne-Aldrich bill, but we have failed to hear of one that is lower than before the law went into effect.

It was believed that a panic would ensue if it became assured the democrats would gain control of all departments of government. It is reported on the best of authority that there is not a financier of any consequence in the country who does not recognize that all departments of the federal government will be controlled by the democratic party after the 4th of March next, yet the following excerpt is taken from Bradstreet's weekly review of business conditions:

"The situation is one of sustained activity. So many lines are far enough ahead as to invest the situation in general with a high degree of assurance. Having for immediate delivery is of heavy proportions and calls for shipments are as constant as heretofore, thus indicating that stocks are scarce and that goods are wanted in a hurry. Shipping rooms of many of the leading merchandise houses are forced to work double time."

H. G. Dunn & Company tell us the old drawback now to business is difficulty of securing enough labor, notwithstanding the fact that wages have been increased and hours shortened.

The moral of it all is, business men of the country recognize the fact that conditions have radically changed since 1907, and they have no fear that in meeting democratic president and congress will damage things.

WILSON ON THE TARIFF.

In his Pittsburgh speech, Governor Wilson says: "The democratic party does not propose free trade or anything approaching free trade. It proposes merely a reconsideration of the tariff schedules such as will adjust them to the actual business conditions and interests of the country."

That is the position President Taft and former President Roosevelt have taken. Both say the tariff must be revised downward. Mr. Wilson says it must be readjusted, which means that where schedules are found to be too high they are to be lowered, and where too low they will be raised.

The interests of the republicans of the eastern states and those of the west are much further apart than are the interests of the democrats of the south and the republicans of the west.

The New England republicans want free raw materials because they have their factories well established. The democrats of the south want protection for raw materials, as do the republicans of the west.

ADVICE UNHEEDED.

When a great banker and financier like Jacob H. Schiff, with money invested in railroads and manufacturing plants throughout the country, comes out for Woodrow Wilson and asserts that, while he has heretofore voted for and contributed to the republican party's candidates, he now feels it will be of great benefit to the country to elect Mr. Wilson, it is a little laughable for the young financiers of the Evening Herald to warn the people of New Mexico that panic and ruin is likely to result if Wilson should become president.

If a panic is likely to occur it would be well for the people to begin preparation for it; for Wilson is going to be elected by a near unanimous vote in the electoral college than was ever before given to any presidential candidate.

New York knows it, yet the prices of practically all stocks are much higher than they were a year ago.

Funny how men with millions invested in the industries of the country should be so heedless of the advice of the young gentlemen of the Herald who see things so much more clearly than they are seen by Schiff and Morgan and the Belmonts and the Ryans.

QUALIFYING FOR STANDPATISM.

Our evening contemporary is bound to prove to the gang leaders in the state that it has no such high ideals as the public had believed when it began its fight on "room 42." The young gentlemen who began so bravely to favor all that is good and wholesome and honorable, found themselves out of harmony with the standpat leadership and for the past few days have been striving to be taken back into full gang fellowship with full gang characteristics.

Truthfulness is not an asset of the gang, therefore the Herald proposes to demonstrate that it will never tell the truth when a lie will do as well. Ananias would have looked with perfect approval on the following editorial statement of yesterday:

"Yesterday morning the Journal assured its readers that Mr. Ferguson should be elected to congress because he needs the salary, an argument to which we are certain Mr. Ferguson has never subscribed and which we are equally certain he would be loath to see go forth as the chief claim he has upon the support of New Mexico voters."

What the Journal really said was: "No one pretends that the next congress will not be heavily democratic. New Mexico is interested in securing proper recognition from the next congress and the administration. Ferguson can do things and get things. Jaffa, if elected, could do nothing except draw his salary. He is a rich man and doesn't need the salary, so why attempt to elect him."

"The Journal in all seriousness, urges that every voter should cast his ballot for Ferguson for congress, because his election means that New Mexico will get through him, all that is coming to her."

The Journal repeats that Jaffa can do nothing for New Mexico in congress. Those who vote for him will do so only as a personal favor. He not only does not need the money, which alone would inure to his benefit, but he did need it, it would be much better for the people of New Mexico to take up a subscription and pay Mr. Jaffa $15,000, the salary for two years, and send Mr. Ferguson to congress to get things needed by this state.

HUNTING DOWN DISEASE.

Medical science seems to be on the verge of solving the problem of infantile paralysis. This dread scourge that has broken out in many parts of the country and that gave Albuquerque one more last summer, has proved a hard nut for the doctors to crack.

Evidently a transmissible disease, and growing especially dangerous to children, it has claimed a large number of victims, a large percentage of whom die or survive as hopeless cripples.

One of the baffling features of it is the small percentage of exposed persons who contract it. The explanation is that persons contracting it do not display the same symptoms. Many persons have the disease in a light form without it being recognized. Such persons may infect others violently. The characteristics are not typical.

Professor Rosenau of Harvard has directed attention of medical science toward a fly that resembles very much the house fly, but is quite different because of the sharp bite it inflicts. It is a very quiet fly, but sudden and painful in action. It usually sets its work in just before rain, and lives the rest of the time about stable.

Professor Rosenau used this fly for the purpose of injecting wet monkeys with monkey fever, a disease that resembles infantile paralysis.

"I don't know that we have progressed anything, but in the light of what I have seen, if I was a health officer and was confronted with an epidemic of infantile paralysis, I would start a fly campaign."

It is now known that the bite of the mosquito carries malaria and yellow fever, and that the bite of an African fly is responsible for the dread "sleeping sickness." It is thought that infantile paralysis is carried by the stable or rain fly, another terrible scourge will have been traced to its life.

The New Jersey supreme court has decided that railroads that supply drinking water on trains must furnish individual drinking cups for their passengers. The companies then decided they did not have to supply drinking water.

BELEN ENTERTAINS

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

Successful Religious Gathering Held There Thursday and Friday; Attendance Representative One.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.)

Belen, N. M., Oct. 19.—The Sunday school convention for Valencia county was opened Thursday night by Rev. W. C. Merritt of Claremont, California, field worker for the southwest for the International Sunday School association. The meeting was very well attended and was exceedingly helpful to all who found it possible to be present.

Rev. Mr. Merritt arrived in the city Thursday evening from Socorro, where his meeting was cut short, and he was consequently able to give Valencia county more time than had originally been planned.

A preliminary praise and prayer service was led by Rev. R. R. Yelland, pastor of the Methodist church, in which the sessions were held. Rev. Merritt followed with a practical discussion of a number of matters of primary importance to successful Sunday school work. He dwelt at some length on the value of a prepared program on the part of the superintendent, mentioning various features which may be placed in the program of opening or closing exercises of the school, to hold the interest of the scholars. He also called attention to the importance of a decision day once each year in every Sunday school. His talk was exceedingly helpful. At the close the session was dismissed with a short prayer and the benediction by Dr. J. A. M. Ziegler, pastor of the local Lutheran church.

Yesterday afternoon, a second session was held. Rev. Mr. Merritt discussed various problems of Sunday school interest, and answering a number of questions propounded to him by the Sunday school workers who were present. This session was especially valuable to those who were present.

That Belen can be supplied with water of an excellent quality, and in plentiful amounts, has been evidenced by the recent completion of a well by the John Becker company of this city. A well drilling outfit has been engaged for some time in drilling a well here. At a depth of about ninety feet an excellent quality of water was found, and drilling operations have ceased until a sample of the water, which has been sent to the state agricultural college for the purpose of analysis, can be returned.

The committee recently appointed to select a location for the new bridge which the county commissioners of Valencia county expect to build across the Rio Grande at this point, commenced their work Friday morning by making a trip to the river and making a careful examination of existing conditions. Although the work of the committee has not yet been completed, a report is expected in a short time as the committee is anxious to make its recommendations as soon as possible.

From the experience gained during a longer life than is allotted to most men, I am satisfied beyond a doubt that the Orphan Home plan is the proper one for these "bad luck" children—they will be brought up in a sensible way, their bodies will be well fed and clothed and their minds formed to hate the bad and love the good, and then later on as they grow toward manhood and womanhood and toward citizenship, a large majority of them will turn out to be a credit to our people; they will have conquered and you look any man or woman squarely in the face. They will have become good men and women and an honor to the city, county and state, and our jails and penitentiaries and other reformatory institutions will not then be full to overflowing.

Give the little orphans and children of the poor and the vicious a chance. There is an easy way to assist in relieving suffering, suppressing vice, making men and women and doing away to a great extent with many vicious crimes (fifth and eleventh) and drunkenness and crime are bred and thrived.

I could if it were necessary give a good many instances right here among us of deformed men and women, most of whom if they had had a chance such as it is proposed to give to the orphans and other children of the poor and vicious of today, would now be good, sober and industrious citizens.

I am sure that those who have the means to assist in this noble enterprise, "Will cost their bread upon the waters," but it will come back to them again if it is nothing more than the feeling when they look upon the good when it is done, that they have helped to make it possible some of us may perhaps be unable to give money but there are other ways for such as these, to help the good cause along.

Give the poor children a chance, you will sleep the better for it, you will be more contented with life, you will assist in the disappearance of crime and suffering, you will be agents in bringing happiness to thousands.

Up to this day from the time of St. Paul almost all of us believe that of the virtues the greatest of all is Charity.

GRANTED INSURANCE

AFTER CONSUMPTION

There are so many cases of consumption reported where the details show the disease started with a cold or a cough, that it is really surprising that people are not more anxious to immediately stop these apparently minor troubles. Our advice is "Stop the cough or cold, if possible, without delay." Otherwise more serious troubles are likely to follow. If the medicine you are now taking does not bring relief, try Eckman's Alternative, as this man did.

227 Dean St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Gentlemen: I am giving you below a brief history of my case, which I trust you will use for the benefit of those suffering from any similar trouble."

"About a year and a half ago I noticed that my health was rapidly falling until at the end of six months my weight had fallen to 125 pounds. I was troubled with night sweats, a severe cough and was very weak, having in fact absolutely no ambition whatever. About this time I consulted a physician, who told me my lungs were affected. Not satisfied, I went to another doctor, who after examining me said that I was in the first stages of consumption. At this point, I started to take Eckman's Alternative. The cough and night sweats almost immediately disappeared, my weight began to increase and my physical condition improved. I was perfectly sound—well, together with the fact that I have been accepted by two different insurance companies for life insurance, makes me sure of my entire recovery by Eckman's Alternative. I should be very glad to communicate with any one who would be interested in my case."

Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upholding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. For sale by druggists, drug stores and Highland Pharmacy and other leading druggists. Ask for booklet telling of recovery by Eckman's Alternative. I should be very glad to communicate with any one who would be interested in my case."

NARA VISA ALARMED OVER DISAPPEARANCE OF YOUNG RANCHMAN

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.)

Santa Vito, N. M., Oct. 19.—Excitement prevails here on account of the disappearance of a young man by the name of Felton who lives on a claim four or five miles southwest of the city.

Mr. Felton had not been seen for the last two or three days when his horse came home with the saddle and bridle on. As soon as the alarm reached town a number of men started out in automobiles and on horseback to look the country over in an endeavor to find the missing man, should he be crippled or lost and unable to get to a ranch.

Representative Marcus P. de la Haza, the progressive member for number of congress from this state, spoke to a large audience at the hotel here, Wednesday night. Nara Vito precinct will give Roosevelt about three-fourths of the votes, and the other fourth will be about equally divided between Taft and Wilson.

theater tomorrow evening. That a large crowd will attend and that the show will be an entire success, is a foregone conclusion. Mr. Siegfried, who is directing the rehearsals, is recently from San Francisco, and is an experienced and capable show man. The best local talent procurable has been obtained, and the show should prove a genuine treat.

Among those participating in the forthcoming production are Mrs. Joseph Friedberg, Miss Kathryn Grimmer, Mrs. J. J. Allen, Miss Henrietta Loebs, Miss Ethel Loebs and June Seigfried; Messrs. W. E. Grimmer, as interactor, assisted by Joseph Friedberg, Ray Carson, George H. Jones, I. M. Cartwright, Ben Puryear, J. D. Drummond, J. J. Harwood and H. M. Patterson.

To Meet Tuesday Evening.

The first open meeting of the Parents' and Teachers' Co-operative association, recently organized in this city, will be held Tuesday evening at the First Ward school.

The school board and teachers will attend en masse, and all parents are invited to come and to enroll as members of the association. Though primarily an organization of the First Ward school, the association is to be city-wide in interest and scope, and is meant to include every teacher and all parents as active members.

At the initial open meeting the charter membership list will be compiled, the constitution read, and the association started on its career in a business-like and systematic way.

Professor John Milne, city superintendent of public schools, will have the address of the evening, setting forth the aims and benefits of the organization to the school children of Albuquerque. Subjoined is the program for the evening.

Invocation—Rev. Herman P. Williams.

Instrumental music by the Y. W. C. A. Mandolin trio.

Reading of the Constitution—Mrs. N. John Strumquist, Jr.

Address of Welcome by Mrs. John W. Wilson, president of the association.

Open discussion led by Mrs. Wilson. The reception committee is composed of the following: Mesdames A. J. Mayo, J. A. Reidy, John Milne, T. L. Rott, Ed. Lovett, L. G. Rice and Herman P. Williams.

A Musical Entertainment.

The Young People's Christian Endeavor society, of the Congregational church, gave a musical and literary entertainment in the church parlors Friday evening, which brought out a large crowd and enthusiasm in proportion to the numbers. The program was a treat clear through, and included vocal solos by Mary McPhee and Charlotte Pratt, duets by Miss Pratt and Robert Sewell and Kathryn Grimmer and Frances Strone, all excellently rendered. Lorna Lester had a violin selection, charmingly interpreted, and Stanley Seder's pipe organ selections called forth enthusiastic applause.

Readings by Mrs. Wolf and Mrs. Fern C. King were especially well received, and the piano selection by Pearl Tompkins was a favorite number of the splendid program.

"In Vodvil," the entertainment at Colombo hall Thursday night, under auspices of the German Order of Harigart, was an entire success, both in point of attendance and in the splendid reception accorded the jolly entertainment. A dance followed the program and the evening ended hilariously and late. Great credit is due Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Friedberg for the success of the entertainment, as they personally directed the affair.

Each and every one on the program acquitted themselves most creditably. The program in full is as follows:

Y. W. C. A. Girls Entertain.

The Y. W. C. A. girls entertained at the association home, delightfully, Thursday evening. The entertainment was as unique as it was enjoyable. Called "Madame Jarley's Wax Works" it was none other than fifteen or twenty living statues, all attractive young girls, each representing some department of work in the Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. Fern C. King directed the entertainment, most capably assisted by Grace Grimmer. The rooms were thronged with visitors, the dining room attracting the crowd after the "show." Pretty decorations prevailed and the table, with its centerpiece of red carnations and red-shaded candles, was especially lovely. Mrs. G. L. Brooks and Mrs. Felix Lester poured, assisting them in serving were Mrs. Roy Stamm, Mrs. Willis Shipman of Washington, D. C., Miss Stone, Kathryn O'Reilly and Lorna Lester. Mrs. R. A. Kistler was in charge of the dining room arrangement.

A musical program, rendered in connection with the affair, added immeasurably to the pleasure of the guests. Mrs. E. Wolf had a strong dramatic reading from "Quo Vadis," and Mrs. Bradford sang in her usual pleasing way. The piano selections were by Mrs. Tom Hughes and Mrs. Nell Cavanaugh.

In connection with the Y. W. C. A. work, it is interesting to note the many new classes started this season, including vocal music, under the direction of Mrs. E. L. Bradford; expression, under Mrs. Wolf's direction, domestic science with Miss Monette Myers as instructor, an art department under Miss Bertha Little, Bible study under Mrs. H. P. Williams' direction, a Spanish class with Mrs. J. H. Heald as instructor, and a riding club, to be chartered by Mrs. R. A. Kistler.

"At Home" Thursday Night.

An "at home" is to be given Thursday evening, for the membership and friends of the First Methodist Episcopal church, which promises to eclipse any other social affair ever given by the church.

A substantial increase in membership has been made the past year, Rev. C. O. Beckman has been retained as pastor to the delight of the entire congregation; these things, and general prosperity call for a big rousing celebration. Such an event is planned for Thursday night, and all indications point to a social get-together assembly, that will make those most concerned "get busy," and the mere onlookers "sit up and take notice."

The committee on general arrangements is headed by A. L. Martin, with other members of the committee as follows: Mrs. John W. Wilson, Dr. C. A. Eller, Sydney Houghton, F. H. Miller, E. I. Johnson and Mrs. E. Livingston.

Reception committee—Mrs. J. B. Fish, Mrs. John W. Wilson, Dr. A. Porter and C. T. French. Entertainment—Dr. C. A. Eller and Mrs. E. Livingston.

Refreshments—Mrs. John A. White, assisted by the members of the Ladies' Aid society.

The hours of the reception will be from 8 to 10 o'clock, and an elaborate musical and literary program is being prepared for the event.

Queen Esther Club Meets.

The Queen Esther club of the Baptist church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. L. Stone. The session was social, rather than for consideration of weightier matters of moment and proved most enjoyable. A talk by Dr. P. W. Longfellow, the new pastor, was of particular interest, and Mrs. Wolf, whose readings are receiving favorable comment throughout the city, had a selection, which elicited a hearty demand for another. The two readings furnishing abundant entertainment.

Mrs. Stone was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Spaulding and Mrs. Hotace Strong.

The Rector's Aid of St. John's Episcopal church held a business meeting at Guild hall Monday, at which preliminary plans were made for a Halloween party, to be given for the parish and all friends of the church at the Woman's club the evening of October 31. Mrs. Learning, during her stay in Raton, organized a Missionary society there, and gave a report of her successful work while in that city.

A preliminary business meeting of the Missionary society was held at the home of Mrs. Herman P. AVIATOR FRANCIS
TAKES PICTURES
FROM BIPLANE

Magnificent Birdseye Views of Albuquerque and Its Vicinity Secured From Altitude of Thousand Feet.

Magnificent birdseye views of Albuquerque and its vicinity, including the Rio Grande, were taken Friday by Aviator Roy N. Francis, and a passenger, while flying over the city at an estimated altitude of 1,000 feet. The pictures are perhaps the best ever taken from a flying machine at so great a height and were made possible chiefly by the fact that the atmosphere here is so clear.

The pictures were taken while the biplane was traveling at the rate of a mile a minute and at a height of 1,000 feet. The exposure was one five-hundredth of a second, or almost instantaneous, thus overcoming the vibration of the machine, the pictures being taken between vibrations.

The pictures include views of Albuquerque, showing the business district, the residential sections and the suburbs and are so clear as to detail that all of the principal buildings, as well as the streets, may readily be picked out.

One of the finest pictures taken was one of the Rio Grande, showing the Barajas bridge high and dry, with the channel of the stream shifted to the west bank, where the destroyed spans are seen sticking up out of the water. These pictures give Albuquerque every appearance of being a city several times its size. Aviator Francis has prints of the pictures on exhibi-

The DOCTOR'S ADVICE
by Dr. Lewis Baker

The questions answered below are general in character and the answers will apply to any case of similar nature.

Those seeking further advice, free, may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College Bldg., College-Bldg. St., Darton, Ohio, enclosing self-addressed, stamped envelope for reply. Full name and address must be given but only initials or fictitious names will be used in the answers. This should be filled at any well-stocked drug store. Any druggist can order of wholesale.

Answers: You should not neglect indigestion and constipation as it leads to more serious trouble. Very frequently indigestion is caused by this neglect. Begin at once and take tablets tripartite. These are packed in sealed cartons with full directions for taking.

"Laura R." writes: "I am so tired and nervous all the time that I can scarcely drag one foot after the other. It is very hard for me as I have to work. My skin is also very poor."

Answers: What you need is a good tonic restorative treatment. Take the tonic prescribed below and you will soon be strong and healthy and will not have that tired feeling. Your work will become a pleasure to you. Syrup of hypophosphate comp. 5 cc., (fourteen capsules), 1 cc. mix and take a teaspoonful before each meal. This should be continued for several weeks until you feel perfectly strong.

"Marilyn" writes: "If you know of a safe, harmless but effective remedy for reducing weight, please advise."

Answers: Purchase these two ingredients at the drug store and take a teaspoonful after each meal for three days, then double the dose (suiting for several weeks of as long as necessary). Aniseed, 1 cc. Mix by shaking well in a bottle and always shake before using. It is well to purchase these separately to avoid substitution.

"Anna R." writes: "I have taken medicine from several doctors for liver and kidney trouble and constipation, but it does not seem to help me at all. My skin is sallow. I have constant headaches and dizzy spells. What shall I do?"

Answers: The best remedy that I know for your trouble is three grain sulphur tablets (not sulphur tablets). These are packed in sealed cartons with full directions. Most of the remedies only relieve but if you take the sulphur tablets regularly for a few weeks you will be cured. This will purify the blood and your skin will look that yellowish look.

"Ester Mother" writes: "Bedwetting can be cured in children by giving them the following: Take one capsule of Vitale, three times a day, and continue for a week. This will cure a child's bedwetting. Give from 10 to 15 drops in water or in milk before each meal."

Doctor: "I have a very bad case of constipation of the bowels and my stomach, bowels and blood are affected. I suffer greatly and would like a cure."

Answers: Local treatment should be used as follows: Get 2 cc. of aniseed Vitale powder. Use a half teaspoonful to a pint of warm water. Swallow the water from the palm of the hand through the nostrils two or three times a day. Then make a cathartic bath by mixing a level teaspoonful of Vitale powder with one ounce of vasoline or lard and apply to the nostrils as far up as possible. Also take a teaspoonful four times daily of the following: Syrup sarsaparilla, 1 cc., comp. fluid salivary, 1 cc., fluid ext. buchu, 1 cc. Mix and shake well.

U. S. MARINE BAND

WITHOUT RIVAL IN MUSICAL WORLD

Albuquerque Assured Magnificent Treat When Famous Organization Gives Concert Here on October 30th.

The government of the United States has frequently been reproached for its failure to foster the fine arts as they are fostered and encouraged by nearly all governments of the great European nations. The reproach is not well deserved because so young a country as this had need, and still has need, to concern itself with the more serious and practical phases of national life. Besides every art has its root in the tendencies of the popular mind, and the people are still so young that they have been unable to crystallize into action the desire for artistic development that may spring up here or there.

In one respect, however, this government measures up to the standard set by the governments of Europe. In the realm of music it has achieved a rare success by the creation and consistent development of the United States Marine band, which today is the leading military band of this country and stands on even terms with the best of its kind in any country in the world. In one respect it probably surpasses any organization of like numbers.

There is no military band either in Germany or France or England or Italy that undergoes the constant rehearsing to which this band is subjected. Five days each week are devoted to this purpose, and the rehearsal in this instance does not merely consist in playing a given composition, a certain number of times until a fair degree of proficiency is attained, but it involves careful study on the part of each member of the band of the spirit and the different nuances of each composition.

The leader of the band, William H. Santelmann, not only leads but instructs, at the same time giving his own best judgment as to the proper interpretation of the music, and in this way, in his opinion, in this is a community of thought is established between the leader and his men which could not possibly be attained in any other way, and in consequence of which the work of the band has reached its present perfection. The success which the United States Marine band enjoys gives rise to the hope in many a heart that an organization of this kind may not be far distant when it may serve as a nucleus for a great national conservatory of music equal in all respects to the best institutions of that kind in Europe.

That the Marine band is what it is today is due no less to the fact that its members are carefully chosen from among the best of the line of the profession as to its eminently capable leader, William H. Santelmann, than to the fact that it is difficult to find a better band master anywhere. In the selection of the members of this band the utmost care is exercised so as to find only such material as will fit the general elevated purposes which the leader has in view. It is not enough that an applicant for the band should be competent to play his particular instrument proficiently with some other instrument for orchestral use. Above all, the applicant must be found to possess the musical temperament which will impel him to strive constantly for the very best that is in music. These conditions are fundamental in determining the acceptance of an applicant, and in this is to be found the cause for the extraordinary artistic standing to which the band has risen since Mr. Santelmann's advent as its leader.

The same care that is practiced in the making-up of the band's personnel is also bestowed upon the composition of the programs which the band presents at its appearances. Of this the people of Albuquerque will have the opportunity to convince themselves when the band appears in this city at the concert announced for Wednesday, October 30th, at the Elks theater. This concert is one of half a hundred which the band is giving on its tour across the country.

For the very best that is in music, these conditions are fundamental in determining the acceptance of an applicant, and in this is to be found the cause for the extraordinary artistic standing to which the band has risen since Mr. Santelmann's advent as its leader.

If you need a carpenter, telephone Hesselnden, phone 377.

The Royal Neighbors will give another of their social dances Monday evening, October 28th, in the new Old Fellows' hall. Admission 50 cents, ladies free. Booster orchestra.

Chilton, N. M., Oct. 19.—A private fire, which has already burned over several miles of range, is now burning at Mount Dora, a station on the Colorado & Southern, a few miles north of here. The grass being consumed, tall timber, makes the fire hard to control. Several thousand sheep are ranging in the course of the fire. Many ranch houses and barns are also endangered.

THE ROSARY COMES TO ELKS THEATER

NOVEMBER 2

Drama Which Breathes Purity and Good Fellowship to be Produced by High-Class Company.

At the present day when so many plays are being presented which deal with questionable subjects, it is a relief to turn to a drama which breathes purity and good fellowship and leads the way to a brighter view of life and humanity.

Such a play is "The Rosary," written by Edward E. Rose, expressly for Messrs. Gaskill and MacVitty, and produced by them.

The theme of the play concerns a man and a woman happily married and surrounded by every luxury that money and culture can secure. But the husband is an unbeliever, an atheist, without faith of any kind.

There is a jarring note in the household harmony, a personality at war with the peace and love of its members. No one notices this until a friend of the husband comes. Father Kelly, a priest of the modern world with a deep insight into human nature and a divine love for his fellow men. And when stress and trouble come, when the home is wrecked and husband and wife are brought to the depths of suffering agony, it is the priest's calm courage and faith that saves them, drives away the clouds of suspicion, doubt and mistrust, and brings them both into the sunlight of hope and love.

The play will be seen at the Elks theater on Saturday, November 2, and will be produced exactly as seen during its famous three months' run in Chicago, two months' run in New York City, and two months' run at the Globe theater in Boston.

Our Clothes Opinion Is Worth Having

We have been buying and selling clothing at retail for a good many years. It is our duty and our business to buy and sell that which will give the public the greatest satisfaction for the money. We offer the men of this town STYLEPLUS CLOTHES as the choicest fabrics and finest workmanship that we have ever seen in medium-priced garments.

LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL, GLOSSY HAIR, NO DANDRUFF--25 CENT "DANDERINE"

Hair coming out?—If dry, brittle, thin or your scalp itches and is full of dandruff—Use "Danderine."

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp. A little Danderine will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and straggly, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance, an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health. Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove to yourself tonight—now—that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that all your sandy can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Adv.

Sympathetic Burglar.
 "I woke up suddenly the other night and thought I heard a burglar in the room," said a woman in bed, and that was my wife."
 "What did she do?"
 "She reached me, and I, of having a burglar in the room, I never heard a burglar if I lived one thousand years. I said I'd bet I would. She said she'd bet I wouldn't. And just then a shadowy form rose from behind the dresser and a hoarse voice exclaimed, 'He wins, madam!'"
 "Did you catch him?"
 "Catch him? I didn't try. I just laid there and laughed and heard him slam the door and run down the street. And say, my wife was so mad she didn't speak to me for a whole day. But I'll bet one thing."
 "What is it?"
 "I'll bet that burglar was a married man."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

NEW MEXICO OWES MUCH TO PACIFIC MUTUAL COMPANY

Insurance Concern is Investing Much More Money in State Than it is Taking Out; Some Interesting Figures.

That the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company is one of the largest individual concerns investing money in New Mexico at the present time, and that because of this the people of the state owe much to the company in a business way, is strikingly evidenced by the fact that $723,000 is now invested by the Pacific Mutual in real estate loans in this state. This was the total of the investments up to September 1st.

A comparison of figures for the current year makes an interesting story in itself. The premium income less commissions totaled $71,637.77. The payments to policyholders were $17,909.44 and the loans to policyholders $9,897.56. The net increase in real estate loans in the state was $215,651.40. There was paid out in state and municipal taxes, licenses and fees, $1,522.91, and miscellaneous expenditures of $374.22. This leaves a net balance in favor of New Mexico of $274,397.82, out of a grand total of $246,935.58.

F. R. Schwenker, the general agent of the Pacific Mutual for New Mexico, submits the above figures to prove his assertion that the company is spending many thousands of dollars more in New Mexico than it is taking out.

One of the largest accident policies, if not the largest, ever paid by one company to an individual in New Mexico, was that paid recently to the widow of the late Solomon Luna who was handed a draft for $14,000 in settlement of a claim on which Mr. Luna had paid out $200 in premiums, covering a period of five years. This settlement proves the great value of the accident policies of the Pacific Mutual.—Adv.

SHIPPING SEASON NOW IN PROGRESS AT CLOUDCROFT

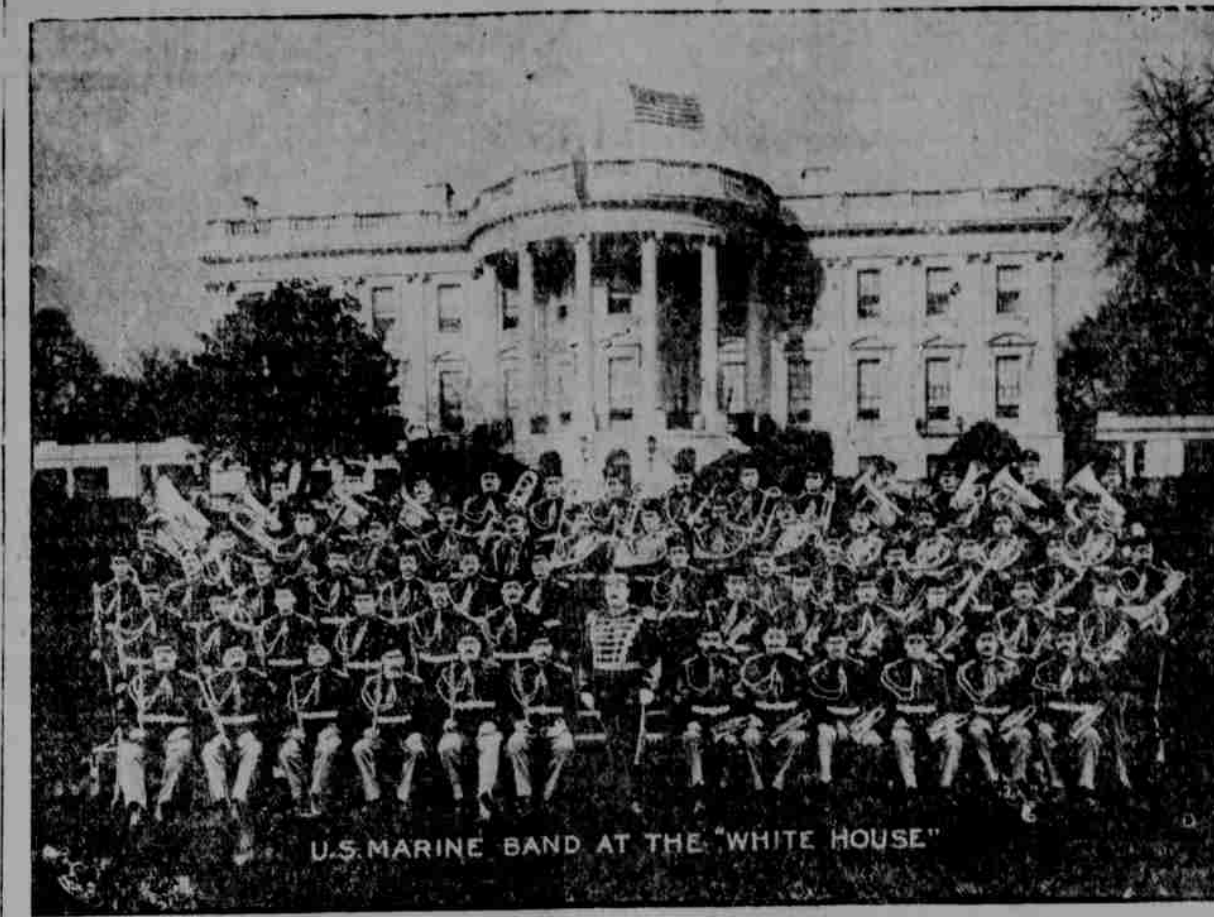

Fruits and Vegetables Being Sent Out From Resort in the Sacramento by Cloudcroft Lots.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal). Cloudcroft, N. M., Oct. 19.—Wednesday marked the opening of the shipping season for the mountain section in the vicinity of Cloudcroft when the Cleve & Knight Mercantile Co., located out a car of mountain cabbage for shipment to El Paso. Monday this firm will ship a car of apples to the El Paso market, and during the same week will ship another car of cabbage. Since last Saturday's heavy snow there has been fair weather in this section which is giving the farmers a chance to bring in their vegetables, fruit and grain for shipment. The outlook is that more cabbage, turnips, cauliflower and oats will be shipped out of Cloudcroft than last year. The apple crop is somewhat short but the shortage will be more than made up by the vegetable and oat shipments. Last season was a record-breaker for the Cloudcroft station for car load shipments but this year will be much better than last.

Most of the shipments made out of here are to El Paso or through El Paso buyers and the fruits and vegetables were in such demand that El Paso buyers came up some weeks this year before the shipments began to arrange for their share. Mountain cabbage and turnips have a flavor that is seldom found in other sections of the country and are sounder than those raised elsewhere. Mountain apples are always firm and sound and without spots that are seen on apples raised in the valleys in other sections. The oat crop is being harvested as fast as possible. There has been a shortage of help in this section and many of the farmers have had to work short-handed.

Every train this winter will take down several cars of wood. There are several parties here who have constructed that run during the winter months and one contractor L. G. Lilly has been advertising for some time for several wood choppers. It is understood that he has a contract for several thousand cords to be delivered during the winter months and is giving employment to a very large force of men. There are two sawmills near Cloudcroft now that are running to full capacity—W. F. Culbertson's and Clayton & Glavin's. The work on the planing mill of the Alamo Lumber Company which is located about a mile south of Cloudcroft is being rapidly rushed to completion. W. E. Jergin's mill some some distance east of Cloudcroft, is doing a good business. This mill supplies a great deal of the lumber used in Cloudcroft.

The Home Restaurant will serve mother of it fine spring chicken dinners this evening from 5 to 7:30 for 35 cents. The Home Restaurant orchestra, Mrs. Dempwolf, harpist; Mr. Fuhmeyer, violinist; Mr. Gunther, clarinetist; Mr. Gochel, cellist, will furnish the music. Excess body is invited. Next door to the First National bank, 205 West Gold avenue.

GREAT IMPETUS IS GIVEN NATIONAL HIGHWAY PLAN

The Good Roads Advocates Throughout Country Unanimous in Endorsing Federal Aid Proposition.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal). New York, Oct. 19.—Pronounced impetus has been given to the proposal for the construction of a system of national highways by the enthusiasm with which good roads advocates throughout the country have welcomed the action of the American Road Congress in endorsing the federal aid proposition generally, as well as the present project for the construction of a great coast-to-coast highway. In part following the old trail of the early pioneers, and to be built with funds much of which will be provided by the automobile and allied industries, general leading concerns having already agreed to contribute one-third of one per cent of their gross earnings for the next three years towards this great national road.

That the national government should continue the policy of federal aid in highways construction adopted by the present congress, without waiting for object lessons in the shape of privately constructed transcontinental roads, was the opinion of the congress, expressed in its first and most important resolution. In this is endorsed the attitude of the A. A. A., which has consistently been that before any particular route for a national road or system of roads can be intelligently selected, there must be adopted a definite policy of appropriations and expenditures and the proper administrative machinery provided for the economical distribution of available funds. The action of the congress of the United States in appropriating $500,000 for experimental road construction and appointing a joint committee to report upon a comprehensive plan for further federal aid was endorsed by the road congress, as well as the proposal to create a national department of good roads as a separate branch of the federal government.

Of great historic and patriotic importance, was the action of the road congress in endorsing the resolution, for which the A. A. A. has continuously stood out that the national memorial to Abraham Lincoln should take the form of a great highway with suitable architectural approaches and adornment, extending from Washington to the battlefield of Gettysburg, and eventually to be continued southward to Richmond.

Equally important was the adoption of the resolution calling upon congress for suitable provision for the construction of a first class highway leading from the city of Washington to the national cemetery at Arlington. The deplorable condition of this road is well known to members of congress and it is hoped that favorable action on this resolution will result.

Official List Sent in by Secretary John Becker Shows That Campaign for More Members of New Mexico Highway Organization is Bringing Home the Bacon; Propaganda Heartily Endorsed by All Boosters for Better System of Communication.

A list of new members secured by the New Mexico Good Roads Association in the last two days shows that gratifying progress is being made in the Morning Journal's campaign for more members for that organization. This is just one more evidence of the fact that the Morning Journal is the leading newspaper in the state. The new list includes the first women members of the association, Mrs. Mark B. Thompson and Mrs. M. O. Llewellyn, of Las Cruces. The list is as follows: H. F. Robinson, Albuquerque; Col. A. W. Harris, Albuquerque; G. L. Brooks, Albuquerque; L. A. Foster, Albuquerque; C. L. INDIAN TRADING CO. IN NEW LOCATION 115 S. SECOND Bennett Company in Quarters With Increased Facilities for Display of Curios and Mexican Goods.

The Bennett Indian Trading Company, formerly located on West Central avenue, is now in its new quarters at 115 South Second street, the old Hickox jewelry stand. With greatly increased facilities for the proper display of the complete line of Indian and Mexican goods carried, the new Bennett store will rapidly take the place among the really interesting and much frequented show places of the city.

The Bennett Company is the oldest established business of the kind in the city, and only genuine Indian and Mexican goods are carried. A complete and highly valuable stock of Indian blankets and pottery, as well as all of the other works of Indian handicraft and Mexican art, make the Bennett store a place much patronized by seekers of real curios of recognized value and merit. All of the goods carried are secured direct from the makers, thus guaranteeing against counterfeiting and assuring the most reasonable prices.

In the new location the opportunities for advantageous display are many. The show windows are large and suited to the lines carried while the interior is well lighted and arranged excellently. The Bennett Indian Trading Company expects to grow more popular than ever with local people and visitors. Particular attention will be given to the exhibition of all the Indian and Mexican works of art and every one will be welcome to inspect the goods at any time. FRANCE CONCERNED OVER FATALITIES IN AVIATION

Special Session of Permanent International Aeronautical Association Called to Consider Subject.

(The Morning Journal Special Teased Wire). Paris, Oct. 19.—The serious question of the security of aeroplanes has been raised by the great number of fatal accidents to aeroplanes, so as to be discussed at length at a special session of the Permanent International Aeronautical commission during the aviation salon on November 1th, 1th and 5th. Several important communications are to be made by military and civil experts of various countries.

A novel feature of the salon which opens on October 26th will be the exhibition of a large number of military and naval aircraft constructed by subscription. The military machines are to be guarded by automatic weapons and the naval hydroaeroplanes by blue-jackets.

A number of "aviettes," which is the technical name for machines or planes propelled by human power only, will be exhibited in a special section of the salon.

The 100 candidates for France's flying corps are to be subjected to very severe tests at the physical examination ordered by the ministry of war.

Among the requirements are perfect vision, normal color sense, sharp hearing, and absolute soundness of the organs of respiration and circulation. It is specified particularly that no men who have to wear spectacles shall do any flying; a rule made the more interesting because some of the world's most notable air men, past and present, wore or now wear glasses.

The candidates are now learning to fly at the government aerodromes, some of them as pilots of dirigible balloons, but the majority as individual aeroplane pilots. The test is to be more severe for operators of aeroplanes than for balloon acrobats.

The Farmer's Auto.

The automobile is an important adjunct of the modern farmer, and makes the automobile which serves for many purposes of duty, and besides is a great source of pleasure in drives over the rural roads, or making trips to the market town. On the right of the house a beautiful level field stretches to the eastward, sown to alfalfa, and bounded by a line of trees, mostly oaks, and all appear thriving. One can well believe they will yield bountifully when the stars are young of the red leaves at the autumn splendor of the harvest of alfalfa. Only 12 miles to the west. These have been beating apples for some time, 200 years or so, a time when the memory of man cannot go to the contrary.

The young apple trees on the farm have been irrigated only once this year. It is believed that in ordinary seasons two irrigations will insure a good yield, and that the valley is destined to become a most favorable place for this fruit.

The majority of the Willard country, however, is to be deeded, and we are next introduced to the dairy herd of high grade Holstein-Friesian cows at the head of which is the thoroughbred bull, "Prince Nading de Kol," among whose get are numbered many fine milk producers. "Kinds de Kol," "Lyona," and "Princess de Kol," and several other fine Holsteins go to make up the herd of twelve head. The cream is shipped twice a week to Albuquerque, leaving the farm by automobile for Willard about 5 p. m., and reaching the creamery by the Santa Fe railway at 9:30 the same evening.

There are pigs, chickens, turkeys, calves, and colts, and as the stock, gentle cows come up to be milked, each one answering to her name, we realize the wonderful possibilities of diversified crops and dairying and the great return of intensive farming.

Uses of Milk.

The milk is put through the separator, the rich cream taken to the cellar, then to cool, and the skim milk given to the pigs, colts, calves and chickens. Tom and Jerry, two fine white-brown hogs, get a full bucket of milk, and the eight little shoats have a bucket amongst them, and their little bodies become tight and drums before they leave off drinking. We spoke for a slice of that milk-cake, pork when hog killing time comes around. The calf and colt are given a bucketful of apple, and do not lift their heads until every drop is gone.

After the stock is put away, and all the chores done, we say "good night" to the cows who stand contentedly chewing their cud, give "Prince Nading" a patting slap, and it truly is a pleasure to see how every animal on the place responds to the kind treatment and abundant feeding, and goes into the cool porch, where, listening to the chirp of the cricket, the quon slowly rising behind the distant valley, with its million lights, we sit and talk, through the quiet summer evening.

The tales told at the old days when the great valley was one vast cattle ranch, with 200,000 acres under fence, and later how the sheepmen came to and drove out the cattle. Near almost every quarter-section has a farm house on it.

A great railway system, spanning the continent, whose guiding mind has a wide grasp of the resources in a new country, giving helpful assistance and encouragement, has opened the way, and now fosters the industries which will make happy and prosperous homes for all who may want to respond to that ever-growing call of "Back to the Land," from the struggling masses of the cities crowded streets and the professional man tired of his unquiet content.

CLEOPATRA A SUICIDE

Prominent Egyptian Destroys Self in Palatial Home by Letting Snake Bite Her—Despondency Said to Have Been Cause.

Alexandria, Egypt, August 29, 20. (By Associated Press.)—Despondent over ill-health and unfortunate love affairs, Cleopatra committed suicide about 7 o'clock last evening in her home at 3115 Sphinx avenue, west. The deceased was secretary of the Atheneum, a member of the militant branch of the Women's Suffrage Party, chairman of the City Playgrounds Association, and queen of Egypt.

According to Dr. James C. Ramez, coroner, death was due to four addictions to the left of the birth mark on the young woman's neck. Any one of these, he asserts, would have been fatal. The family is prostrated with grief.

Cleopatra, or "Cleo," as she was known to a host of friends and admirers, had been in low spirits for some time over the death of her last lover, the late Mark Antony, of 224 Appleton Way, Rome. She is also said to have felt keenly her failure to captivate General Augustus Caesar, though she ran up fabulous bills at Lucille's and other fashionable dress-making shops for that purpose. It had been noticed that she spent a good deal of her time before her mirror.

"When I bump myself off," she said last week, "I'm not going to take the carbolic acid or the gas route—they are far too commonplace for one of my temperament. I realize fully that I am one of the most, if not the most, spectacular female figures that ever broke into history. If I suicided in an everyday manner, like one of these sick servant girls, I would be doing a cruel injustice to the thousands of unborn painters, novelists, playwrights, and joke carpenters who will go to my career for material."

She was in excellent spirits in the morning when she was engaged in preparing a banquet in honor of the suffragists who recently threw bricks through the windows of the Senate Chamber in Rome. Enemies of the "Votes for Women" movement aver that she killed herself to get out of this banquet, but this has been vehemently denied and partially disproved by circumstantial evidence.

Akripina Xenidis, Cleopatra's Greek maid, who boards at 240 West North Street, gives this account of the tragedy.

"The mistress had been sitting on the lawn in the afternoon reading from a paper back French novel and eating macaroons. She seemed to be unusually cheerful until she noted a pair of large ants stroll together across the cake plate. The insect must have turned her thoughts toward Mr. Antony, because she became moody at once, and after murmuring 'Tony, Tony!' twice, just like that, she got up and went to her bed room."

The girl says that she followed but that Cleopatra immediately sent her to the corner drug store to get 75 cents' worth of cyanide of potassium.

"I want it," she remarked, casually, to poison a relative with."

The maid realized later that the seemingly innocent purchase was merely a ruse to get her out of the way. This was about 6 o'clock, for the girl remembers that the whistles in the stockyards district were blowing at the time.

As the maid opened the door of the servants' entrance on her return from the drug store, she heard a scream. She immediately dropped the cyanide spilling it in a barrel of flour, and rushed to her mistress' room. The door was locked, and her knock brought no answer. Being an expert at keyholes through six years of domestic service, the maid applied her eye to the small aperture. She could see Cleopatra reclining on the Dayvenport clad in her pink flowered wrapper and Japanese slippers. She seemed to be asleep.

"Madam, madam!" the girl called loudly.

She received no answer, and the figure on the couch did not move. The maid at once became alarmed and phoned to the Pyramid Park Police station. An ambulance was sent and Patrolman Milleos assisted the surgeon in breaking in the door. There were still some signs of life, and Cleopatra was rushed to the emergency ward of the Isis Hospital on Main Street, where she died an hour later without regaining consciousness. The snake escaped and is still at large.

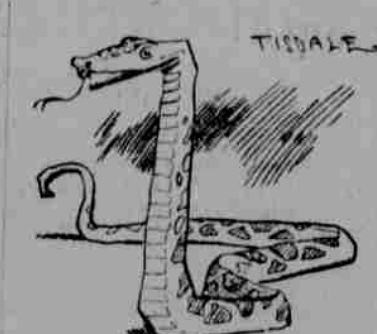

On the dead girl's dressing table were found two farewell notes. These were weighted down by the picture of Mark Antony in evening clothes and an ornate box. One of the missives was addressed to a near relative, and was delivered without being opened. The other was in a plain unsealed envelope, and read:

To whom it may concern:

I am tired of living. When you get tired of living there is but one thing to do—snuff it off. In a very few minutes I will have so snuffed. Pay Cleo the Ethiopian wash-woman, the dollar thirty-five that I owe her for last week's wash. Get my blue silk from the cleaners—I want to be buried in it.

Harold—I'm surprised to hear that Grace is a widow. Has she been a widow long?

Mamie—Oh, po, but much longer than she expected.

The snake drawn by a staff artist from a telegraphic description.

At Oak View cemetery near the grave of Antony.

Cleopatra would have been thirty-one years old on her next birthday. She was a member of one of the oldest Egyptian families, being the eldest child of the late Ptolemy Anules and Mrs. Anules. Some years ago she was subjected to a good deal of harsh criticism by old-fashioned people because she poisoned her 14-year-old brother whom she caught looking at her throne. The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Servants had obtained a restraining order with her several times because of her failure to furnish her servants with adequate food and clothing.

Cleopatra will be especially mourned by manufacturers of deadly drugs and vendors of Parisian millinery. She was served by four children and a choice collection of scoundrels that will ensure her memory a firm and prominent place in Irpolute history.

"Please say no more, Mr. Matthews," faltered the maiden. "I regret deeply to give you pain, but if I have inadvertently encouraged you to entertain hopes that can never be realized I cannot forgive myself. Believe me, I am sincerely—"

"Pardon me, Miss Sweet," interrupted the youth, who had gasped once or twice and drawn his hand across his brow while she was speaking. "But I was only going to ask you for the loan of a nickel for car fare. I was stupid enough to come away from home this evening without my pocketbook. Ah, thanks, Miss Sweet! I will return it without fail. Good night!"

Santa Fe Demonstration Farm

(By Clark M. Carr in The Earth.)

"Redgate farm" in the Willard valley, which is in the exact center of the state of New Mexico, and truly called the "heart of the west country," is a land of perpetual sunshine, a home to the demonstration farm, under the direct supervision of Professor J. W. Thibault, agricultural demonstrator of the Santa Fe for New Mexico. The farm is owned and managed by Mr. A. S. Cheyney. It is about three and one-half miles north of Willard, a station on the Eastern Railway of New Mexico, otherwise the "Blue cutoff" of the Santa Fe.

A drive of fifteen minutes in a snappy little car, brings us to "Redgate," and here one finds modern farming under pump irrigation. Dr. Cheyney was a physician, but gave up active practice for the pleasures of the farm. The wife is a Chicago woman, and the way they run and handle this model home is instructive and inspiring.

Of course, the first and principal interest on an irrigated farm is the supply of water, and Cheyneys are shown the main well, engine and pump. This plant is one of the best of its kind. A few turns of the fly wheel and a stream of gray water flows at the rate of 500 gallons per minute. The well is 45 feet deep, but the jets is only about thirty-five feet, the water rising to that height in the well by its own head. Next we are taken through the bath and well arranged buildings, consisting of a wide front porch, dining room, living room with a big fireplace, bathroom, kitchen and bathroom. Dogs of the house are the milk cows, to which are added the pigs, chickens, turkeys, calves and colts, and as the stock, gentle cows come up to be milked, each one answering to her name, we realize the wonderful possibilities of diversified crops and dairying and the great return of intensive farming.

GOVERNOR WILSON SENDS MESSAGE TO NEW MEXICO

Promises Joseph Price, Banker of Socorro, He Will Do All He Can for State if Elected President.

Joseph Price, president of the Socorro State bank, stopped off in Albuquerque yesterday to visit Simon Stern, while on his way home from an extensive trip in the east. Mr. Price, while east, paid his respects to Governor Woodrow Wilson at the governor's home at Seaforth, and brought back a message to the people of New Mexico from the democratic presidential nominee.

Mr. Price, who was accompanied on the trip by his wife, was stopping at Ashbury Park, N. J., a resort about thirty miles from Seaforth. Naturally Mr. Price was anxious to meet the governor, so one morning he and some friends took a trolley ride to Seaforth and called at the governor's residence. At the door he was met by the assistant secretary and, after stating that he desired to see Governor Wilson, Mr. Price was informed that the governor was too busy to see anyone, and in fact that there were 250 or 300 applications for interviews ahead of him, which had all been denied, owing to lack of time on the part of the governor.

"But my dear man," finally broke in Mr. Price, "I have traveled 2,500 miles to see Mr. Wilson and cannot wait to see him. I will wait here and I think he will see me."

The card was reluctantly taken by the secretary, who again expressed his doubt about getting an interview. Contrary to expectations, however, he returned in a very few moments, and smilingly said:

"Well, Mr. Price, if you will come up on the front porch the governor will see you."

In a few minutes the latter appeared. After introducing the other members of the party, Mr. Price and Governor Wilson began to discuss New Mexico affairs.

"Governor," said Mr. Price, "New Mexico has been republican for years, but last year we elected a democratic governor by a close majority, and I don't want to ask you whether 2,000 is enough for you, or if we shall make it a little more."

This seemed to tickle the candidate immensely, and he replied that 2,000 would do very nicely, but that a few more wouldn't hurt. After some further conversation, Governor Wilson said:

"Mr. Price, when you return home, I wish you would take this message to the people down there. Tell them that I know the people of New Mexico have been neglected by the federal government for years and years, and that if I am fortunate enough to be elected president of the United States, I will make every effort to see to it that the government makes up for lost time and gives your people the things which you have been entitled to all the years you were unjustly kept from becoming a state."

Mr. Price stated that Governor Wilson impressed him as being a great man, highly educated, confident and gentlemanly in every respect, and that he undoubtedly would make a great president of the country.

How Fame Travels.

The highly polished native with the shell necklace looked the missionary over with a searching eye. Then he carefully attached a fish skin label to his left cheek.

"What does this mean?" inquired the good man.

"The label," smiled in an oily fashion.

"That all some guaranteed stamp of Hokee Police. You very good."

"And who are you?" inquired the missionary with a sinking heart.

"Me? Oh, yes. Me all same. Doc Wiley."

And, taking the visitor by the arm, he gently led him toward the waiting guests. —Chesterfield Plain Dealer.

NOBLES CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY IN CITY MONDAY

Twenty-Five Years of Active Life to be Commemorated by Ball at Aiyad Temple of the Mystic Shrine.

The Shrine's ceremonial which is to be held here tomorrow will be memorable for more than one reason. The principal cause of Ballot Aiyad's ceremonial being held at that time is because that day is its twenty-fifth anniversary and will mark the end of a quarter century of active work. The local Shrine has been a very active one and has grown from a very small beginning to an organization of large membership and considerable prominence.

For the ceremonial and attendant exercises, a program of attractive music and dances has been arranged by Pastmaster Paul Testa.

There will be a business session at 2:30 in the afternoon, which will be followed by the initiation ceremonies, which begin at 4 o'clock sharp. At that hour the members will start on their joyous way across the fifty-some hatted sands of the desert and shortly afterward a caravan of Nobles will begin its attention to the pilgrims, which assures that they will not become lonely or homesick on the trip. There will be something happening every minute of the journey, and if the members have time to think of home and mother, the Nobles will consider their efforts have been a failure. Each and every candidate will be initiated into the Shrine, a detail of Nobles and none will be left by the wayside.

A short intermission will follow the pilgrimage, to allow the undertaking and ambulance squad to remove the dead and wounded, and at 7:20 o'clock an informal reception will begin. Half an hour later, the banquet without which no Shrine ceremonial would be quite complete, will be held, and dancing will follow.

The Shrine is chartered to hold its sessions at this time through the courtesy of the Grand Lodge, A. F. & A. M. of New Mexico.

The committees in charge of the affair are as follows:
Reception Committee—Mrs. and Noble J. H. Wroth, Mrs. and Noble A. H. McMillen, Mrs. and Noble E. A. Kern, Mrs. and Noble P. G. Cornish, Mrs. and Noble Robert Perry, Mrs. and Noble C. E. Lowber, Mrs. and Noble William R. Walton.
Dance Committee—Nobles Warner, Bush and Chudrick.
Arrangement Committee—Nobles Walton, Perry and Lowber.

CORPORATION LAWS AND FORMS

New Mexico now has a Commission empowered to regulate corporations. Corporation officers, attorneys, irrigation engineers should know corporation laws and procedure. For this purpose see KANE'S NEW MEXICO CORPORATION LAWS, RULES AND FORMS.

All laws on General Corporations, Irrigation, Mining, Railroads, Banking, Insurance, etc., with citations, rules and forms for drawing and filing corporation, irrigation papers, etc. Also U. S. laws and forms; the only compilation of these laws from 1897 to 1912.

The 1912 legislature made but few changes in corporation laws; many New Mexico laws are out of print; no revision made since 1897, none adopted this year and none will be adopted until 1915. Such conditions make this book indispensable.

OUTLOOK IS BRIGHT FOR VERY SUCCESSFUL RURAL SCHOOL YEAR

Superintendent of County Schools Montoya yesterday announced that with the exception of several schools in the mountain districts of the county, all the rural schools had opened for the winter term.

Superintendent Montoya, who is giving his time to looking after the conduct of rural schools, reports that the prospects for a successful year were better. He says the teachers are enthusiastic about their work, that the pupils are showing great interest in their studies and that every indication points to a record year in school advancement throughout the county.

The new school buildings in the several districts opened during the summer and early fall are now occupied and these have aroused the school districts in the other districts to the necessity of providing better school facilities in their communities. This will result, according to Superintendent Montoya, in other new school houses being erected next summer.

Forty-five teachers are now employed in the rural districts, the largest teaching force ever to be engaged in school work in Bernalillo county.

The Repulsiveness of Medusa

Due, Not to Distorted
Features, but to her
Snaky Hair

Minerva knew that the surest way to ruin a woman's beauty was to destroy her hair. Hence she took a most terrible revenge when she turned Medusa's hair into serpents and thus robbed a teared and hated rival of all claim to loveliness.

Many a woman to-day is being robbed of her personal attractiveness by the loss of her hair just as surely as was Medusa. There is one sure way to check the loss of hair and add to its beauty and luxuriance, and that is by the use of the well known scalp prophylactic and hair dressing

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

The Original Dandruff Germ Destroyer

Normally everyone should have good hair, and were it not for unnatural conditions existing in the scalp, luxuriant, fluffy hair would be the rule rather than the exception.

Dry, lustreless hair is due to dandruff caused by an invisible microbe growth or germ. The regular and consistent use of HERPICIDE removes the dandruff scale, kills the germ and keeps the hair and scalp in a clean, sanitary condition. It acts as a preserver of the hair, prevents it falling out and stops itching of the scalp almost instantly. Herpicide has a most delightful odor, contains no grease and does not stain or dye.

If it results you want, insist upon having Newbro's Herpicide and not an off brand article.

Applications at the better barber shops and hair-dressing parlors.

Send 10 cents in silver or postage to THE HERPICIDE COMPANY, Dept. 87B, Detroit, Mich., for trial bottle and booklet about the hair, sent postage paid to any address.

NATIVE INJURED BY BLAST DIES ON WAY TO CITY

Unknown Mexican Hurt at Guam Passes Away as Train
Bearing Him to Hospital
Reaches Isleta.

An unknown Mexican laborer, placed on board Santa Fe train No. 3 yesterday afternoon at Guam, died as the train reached Isleta last night. He had been injured in a blast near the station where he was put on the train. The action foreman at Guam had him on the train.

The man's body was taken from the train here for burial and five to seven days ago a year, the will be held until his relatives can be located.

mounted. The dead man was apparently about 25 years of age.

Particulars of the accident in which he was killed are unknown here.

POULTRY FANCIERS TO HOLD MEETING ON TUESDAY NIGHT

A meeting of the Bernalillo County Poultry Association has been called for Tuesday night at 8 P. M. at which time plans will be formulated for promoting interest in local poultry circles and making the organization one of the largest in the state.

It is a well known fact that interest in poultry raising is growing throughout the country, particularly in breeding and the proper mating of birds, which if followed here will in a few years place Bernalillo county on a par with the more important eastern poultry centers.

The demand for poultry is becoming greater every year and this has resulted in the poultry business becoming a science. Instead of a bunch of poor bred birds yielding but sixty eggs per year, five to six eggs a year, the improvement of the breed is making the output 175 to 185 eggs per year, or almost three times the production obtained under the old slipshod methods of poultry raising.

Those interested in the local poultry association and who are giving much of their time, not to say money, to promote the welfare of the association, deserve the support of every chicken fancier in the city and county.

It is hoped to have a large attendance at the meeting Tuesday night. All poultry raisers are invited to attend.

"The Hippopotamus Described," Johns, who had been to the circus, says the Youngstown Telegram, was telling the teacher about the wonderful things he had seen.

"An, teacher," he cried, "they had one big animal they called the hippopotamus."

"Hippopotamus," dear," prompted the teacher.

"I can't just say its name," exclaimed Johns, "but it looks just like a 9,000 pounds of liver." —New York Globe.

Doctors Use This for Eczema

Dr. Evans, Ex-Commissioner of Health, says: "There is almost no relation between skin diseases and the blood." The skin must be cured through the skin. The germs must be washed out, and no salves have long ago been found worthless. The most advanced physicians of this country are now agreed on this, and are prescribing a wash of wintergreen, thymol and other ingredients for eczema and all other skin diseases. This compound is known as D. D. D. Prescription for Eczema.

Dr. Holmes, the well known skin specialist, writes: "I am convinced that the D. D. D. Prescription is as much specific for eczema as quinine for malaria. I have been prescribing the D. D. D. remedy for years. It will take away the itch, the instant you apply it."

Start Your Baby With Sound Health

Regular bowel movement from childhood on forebodes future serious diseases

We know all start life with the unfortunate lot of many, but every child born is entitled to the heritage of good health, through judicious use of laxative or cathartic in the feeding of a baby its first stomach has become deranged. The disorder spreads to the bowels and before the mother realizes it the two chief organs on which the infant's comfort and health depend are causing it great suffering. If the condition is allowed to continue, serious attacks are not unusual.

There is, however, no reason for alarm, and the sensible thing to do is to give the baby a small dose of a mild cathartic. In the opinion of a great many people, however, their own well-known persons as the mother of Flood Robertson (the son of John, Lincoln, Mass.) and Mrs. C. L. W. (the mother of the late President) are the best evidence of the value of this remedy. It is a pleasant-tasting laxative, which every person likes. It is mild, non-greasy, and contains that most excellent of all ingredients, pepsin.

This remedy is especially intended for infants, children, women, old people and all others who suffer from constipation, indigestion, biliousness, headache, and the various other disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. It is more valuable than any mild laxative. Dr. Chamberlain's Pepsin.
