ALLIED ARMIES IN TRIUMPHANT MOVE ON TURKISH STRONGHOLD

European Powers Astonished at Efficiency with Which Campaign Has Been Carried Forward.

ADRIANOPLE SIEGE MAY END SHORTLY

It is Not Believed Sultan's Garrison Can Defend Fortresses for Longer Period Than One Month.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] London, Oct. 26.—The swiftness and efficiency of the onward movement of the armies of the allied Balkan states is making Europe open her eyes. From the north and all along the line from Greece on the south they are crowding back to the boundaries of the Ottoman empire in Europe.

The two pivotal points of Turkey's defense in the north were Adrianople and Uskup. The Bulgarian army in the east has defeated the Turks at Kirk-Kilisseh, which is the strongest outpost of Adrianople and appears to have almost invested that fortress.

The Serbian army in the west walked into Uskup at 2 o'clock this afternoon without opposition. The Turkish garrison there withdrew on the railway towards Saloniki. How far it intends to retreat and why, are questions. The only answer to the last question is that the strength and supplies of the garrison did not justify an attempt to make a stand. There is no position between Uskup and Saloniki better suited for a battle than the one abandoned. The strategy apparently is to follow the line of the railway towards Saloniki.

Events about Adrianople are even more important. The Bulgarians apparently are proceeding successfully with the investment of the fortress. The Turkish army which was defeated at Kirk-Kilisseh did not fall back upon Adrianople according to today's news, but took the road to the south, where it could connect with the railway to Constantinople. The second Bulgarian army followed through the mountains, carrying on the fight all day in an endeavor to cut off the retreating forces. The military authorities are asking how many men Turkey has in Adrianople and how long they will be able to withstand a siege. There is a general belief that if the Bulgarian investment is completed and railway communication with Constantinople cut, the Turks will be starved out within a month.

In the meantime the Montenegrins are pushing their attack on Scutari. The Greeks have entered a few small towns in the course of their advance to the north.

The fact that Turkey apparently was taken by surprise and that her most important outposts gave way does not mean that the allies can push back indefinitely the Turkish soldiers, who have a long record for bravery. The Turkish mobilization is only under way. She claims to be able to mass forty thousand men outside of Constantinople; whereas the allies have practically their full strength in able bodied men already in action.

Even if this, which is the first stage of the war, is entirely successful for the small states, the second stage will be more interesting. The great question then will be whether Turkey can defend Constantinople, which it is generally believed she can unless unsuspected conditions develop in the army or revolution and bankruptcy strike from behind.

Politically, there is one outstanding fact, that is, if the armies of the Balkan kings are able to hold even what they have gained thus far—and the entire European press seems to take it for granted that they can—there is a new nation in Europe. Instead of four feeble kingdoms to which the great powers have given orders from time to time, there is another coherent power.

A fortnight ago the great powers served notice in the form of a joint note on the belligerents that whatever the result of the fighting, there could be no change in the boundary. The Balkan states are saying today, "What we have, we will hold." The British press, at least, is accepting that as a fact. The Balkan states united and flushed with victory, and under arms, will be a lasting factor which the great powers will hesitate to take hold of.

The chief interest in the war, purely from a technical standpoint, is that it is largely a test of the German school against the French. The Turkish army has been trained by General Von der Goltz and his assistants, and is equipped with German weapons. The Greek, Bulgarian and Serbian armies had French instructors.

All reports from the armies of the allies described the Turkish prisoners as poorly fed and poorly clothed; but soldiers know that prisoners are always dejected and hungry and do not attach much importance to that. Both sides accuse their opponents of massacres, cruelties and violations of the white flag. Such accusations are incidental to all wars. The truth can not be known until the history of this one is written later.

SERBIANS CAPTURE MANY GUNS FROM TURKISH ARMY.

Belgrade, Oct. 26.—It was officially announced tonight that the spoils captured at Kumanova included fifty-five field guns, six mountain guns and six Maxim's, quantities of ammunition and stores and two aeroplanes. At Sienitz, the Serbians captured thirteen big guns and four Maxim's.

Forty thousand Turks were engaged in the fighting in this district. They are accused of massacring many women and children before they left the town.

The most prominent Slav inhabitants were imprisoned but were rescued by the first Serbian soldiers who entered.

A body of 500 Arnauts and Turks raised their white caps on their bayonets as a sign of surrender and the Serbian commander gave the order to cease firing. When the Serbians were within fifteen paces the enemy suddenly opened fire, whereupon the Serbians charged and killed them at the point of the bayonet.

WICKERSHAM SAYS THIRD PARTY IS MOSTLY BAD

Conceived in Ambition, Born in Malice and Nourished on Misrepresentation, Attorney General's Opinion.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Circleville, O., Oct. 26.—"Conceived in ambition, born in malice and nourished on misrepresentation of the people and republican party," so said Attorney General Wickersham about the progressive party in his Ohio speech advocating the re-election of President Taft, here today.

"Some estimate," he said, "might properly be made of the nature of the Roosevelt movement by considering the character of the four men who supported the colonel with fountain pens and open check books—Perkins, Hanna, Munsey and Flinn."

Attorney General Wickersham declared Mr. Dan R. Hanna's interest in the Roosevelt third party was born coincidentally with Mr. Hanna's indictment by a federal grand jury in April of 1911, for rebating.

"The prosecution arose out of a report made by the interstate commerce commission to the attorney general showing the relation between Mr. Hanna's dock companies at Ashtabula and the railroad companies over which Hanna was shielded," said the prosecutor. "The matter was sent by the attorney general to the district attorney at Cleveland, who laid it before the grand jury, which found indictments against the companies and Messrs. Hanna, McCabe and Ireland."

"Hanna was highly indignant and sent a thinly veiled threat to President Taft that unless he dismissed the indictment Mr. Hanna's influence and that of his newspapers would be thrown against him. The president declined to be influenced by these threats."

"Mr. Hanna and the others were finally let go, providing their companies and the railroad companies pleaded guilty and pay fines amounting to $123,000."

"This is an example of the type of men and motives of Colonel Roosevelt's political supporters."

STATE CONTROL OF RESOURCES URGED BY MARSHALL

Democratic Candidate for Vice President Declares Time Has Come When Nation Must Yield Up Public Lands.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Spokane, Wash., Oct. 26.—State's rights in regard to the control of its own natural resources, particularly in the western states, was the feature of the speech that Governor Thomas R. Marshall, of Indiana, democratic vice presidential candidate, delivered here tonight in closing his campaign tour of Washington.

"The state of Washington, and the other states similarly situated," he said, "are entitled to the possession and control of every foot of land within their borders. The parable of the prodigal son is good in its religious import, but it does not work in politics. The prodigal sons in the east have no right to demand the control of the land and water power in other states after having wasted their own resources in riotous living."

"When the great mass of the people realize," he continued, "speaking of trusts," that "the government rests on their own shoulders, there will be true party government and mania for shooting public men will be lessened. For the shooting at men in public life seems to be based on the theory that the party he represents is thereby done away with."

"We must restore this government to the original conception on which it was based or this government must go."

GOVERNOR DEMANDS ENFORCEMENT OF STATE'S CORRUPT PRACTICES ACT

Chief Executive of New Mexico Declares That Crookedness at Polls Must and Shall be Prevented or Punished.

ISSUES PROCLAMATION FOR CLEAN ELECTION

Directs All Officers to Use Utmost Diligence on November 5th to Prevent Violations of Law Common Heretofore.

[Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.] Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 26.—In a proclamation issued today, Governor W. C. McDonald demands the strict enforcement at the election on November 5th, of New Mexico's recently enacted corrupt practices act, with a view to insuring an election free from intimidation and fraud at the polls. The governor directs all officers of the state to use their utmost diligence on election day to prevent violations of the corrupt practices act and declares that all violations must and shall be prevented or punished. The governor's proclamation follows:

PROCLAMATION BY GOVERNOR. Whereas, The constitution of New Mexico especially enjoins upon the governor of the state the duty to take care that the laws be faithfully executed.

And whereas, The legislature of this state at its first session enacted a law entitled "An Act to Prevent Corrupt Practices in Connection with Elections," approved June 11, 1912.

And whereas, By said law the following acts are made crimes, and are not only made punishable by heavy fines and imprisonment, but by disqualifying persons guilty thereof from voting, serving on juries and holding any public office, to-wit:

1. To give or lend or to promise to give, lend or procure any money or other valuable consideration or any office of employment to or for any persons in order to induce any voter to vote for or against any candidate at any election.

2. To receive or agree to receive, or accept any money or other valuable consideration, office or employment for one's self, or any other person in consideration that any voter shall vote or refrain from voting for or against any candidate.

3. To advance or pay or cause to be paid any money or for the use of any person with the intention that such money shall be used to bribe voters.

4. To use any force or threaten to inflict any injury of any kind upon any voter or other person to induce or compel any voter to vote for or against any candidate.

5. To vote or attempt to vote under any name other than the voter's own, or to vote or attempt to vote more than once at any election.

For any corporation or officer thereof of any individual employing labor to discharge or threaten to discharge any employee on account of his political opinions, or by corrupt means to procure or attempt to procure or induce any employee to vote or refrain from voting for or against any candidate.

And whereas, Every consideration of public good demands that elections shall be absolutely free from and untrammelled by corrupting influence and that the individual voter shall be able to cast his vote free from coercion, intimidation and domination from bosses or others. Now, therefore, I, William C. McDonald, governor of the state of New Mexico, do hereby direct all officers of this state to use the utmost diligence at the approaching election to prevent all violations of this law, and where violation thereof have been committed, to detect the same and to obtain the evidence necessary for the conviction of the offenders, to the end that all such violations may be punished in the manner provided by law. Corrupt and dishonest methods that give one man an undue and unfair advantage over another must and shall be prevented or punished.

Done at the executive office this 26th day of October, A. D. 1912. Witness my hand and the great seal of the state of New Mexico.

WILLIAM C. McDONALD, Governor.

ANTONIO LUCERO, Secretary of New Mexico.

BOYS RIVAL DEEDS OF CLAUDE DUVAL

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 26.—Late tonight two boys held up in a spectacular manner six motor cars and robbed the occupants, twenty-two in number, of their valuables, aggregating several hundred dollars.

The boys were masked and carried revolvers of convincing size. They placed several parkettes across a boulevard drive which runs through Miller park, and stopped the cars as they came along. They lived chauffeurs and occupants along the driveway and robbed them.

GOVERNOR HARMON CLAPP COMMITTEE ENDS HEARING UNTIL AFTER ELECTION

Ohio Statesman Particularly Severe in Criticism of Colonel Roosevelt's Greed for Power and Place.

PRIVATE INDUSTRIES PET OF BULL MOOSE

Speaker Declares Progressive Program for Controlling the Trusts Only Suited to Monarchical Government.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Baltimore, Oct. 26.—"The president and the colonel are like two boys with a toy," declared Governor Judson Harmon, of Ohio, in a speech here tonight, in which he asked for the election of Governor Woodrow Wilson to the presidency.

"Let me have it," says Theodore. "But you gave it to me," replies William. "I only let you have it to hold awhile, now I want it back," returns Theodore. "Indian gives," cries William, and they clench."

In this manner, Ohio's governor summed up the contest between President Taft and Colonel Roosevelt.

"I cannot really say that Governor Wilson was my first choice for the nomination," said Governor Harmon, in referring to the democratic nominee. "But my democracy is too staunch to be upset by personal dislike."

He has conducted his campaign with tact, dignity and ability, and there is no reason for anybody, certainly none for any democrat to prefer, either of the candidates to him."

Governor Harmon's speech was a stinging attack on Colonel Roosevelt, a discrediting of President Taft, and a brief reference to Governor Wilson near the close.

"Colonel Roosevelt is greedy for power and brutal to everything and everybody who stands in the way of his getting and using it as he pleases. And the only definite thing he proposes is to put the great private industries of the country, which have no public character like the railroads, under the control of a commission to be appointed by the president. This is the most monstrous proposal ever made seriously in a free country. It would fit no government but an absolute monarchy."

"The candidacy of Colonel Roosevelt puts American citizenship to the test. Can we be stampeded by brain, bluster, pretense, appeals to passion, class hatred and the socialist instincts so easy to arouse, especially when, as now, the bastion of special favors has set things awry?"

"The squabble between the president and the colonel has not been a credit to the country. And the proper course for the people is to say to them 'a plague on both your houses; the democratic for us this time!'"

Referring to President Taft, the governor said:

"The president and his party have long controlled the government and ask the approval of the country by his re-election. As he who counts, ed only by a bare majority in the face of a most bitter opposition which has since taken the form of an organic break in his party, he comes before the voters discredited by nearly, if not quite half, of his own political comrades."

FEMININE POLICE OFFICERS HOLD CONFERENCE

It is Decided by Skirted Wielders of Club That Women Are Smoking Too Many Cigarettes for Their Good.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Portland, Ore., Oct. 26.—The first international conference of women police officers ever held in this country, came to an end here tonight after a two days' session.

The principal address was made by Mrs. Caroline Barnum, of this city, on "Delinquency in Mothers."

Miss Barnum, who is a traveling officer, said that mothers generally considered of the highest intelligence, often sent their little girls to district towns in charge of negro porters, leaving it to the porters even to provide quarters for the children over night. Miss Barnum said instances of this kind came to her attention several times a month.

On a "straw vote" the forty delegates were unanimous that delinquency was claiming more women devotees each year.

GOVERNOR HARMON CLAPP COMMITTEE ENDS HEARING UNTIL AFTER ELECTION

Former Senator Albert J. Beveridge Last Witness to Tell of Contributions to His Campaign Fund.

INDIANA SENT BACK MONEY TO PERKINS

Bull Moose Leader Testifies That He Never Permitted Anyone Else to Pay Even Personal Expenses.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Washington, Oct. 26.—After hearing former Senator Albert J. Beveridge tell of returning $57,500 sent to him for campaign use in 1904, the senate campaign contributions committee today adjourned indefinitely. Chairman Clapp believes the committee will hold no more hearing until after election.

Since September 26th, the committee had been in almost continuous session with Senators Champ Clark, Oliver P. Snyder and Pomerene conducting the examination of witnesses. J. P. Morgan, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Charles P. Kent, George W. Perkins and a score of other witnesses have testified. The democratic and republican campaign funds of 1904 and 1905 have been reviewed and the committee secured what purported to be a list of the contributors to the two million dollar fund spent by the republicans in 1904. In addition the managers of the campaign of President Taft, Colonel Roosevelt, Judson Harmon, Woodrow Wilson, Champ Clark and Oscar W. Underwood accounted for the funds expended in the fight for the republican and democratic nominations this year.

The committee has placed in the record the voluminous correspondence of John D. Archbold, of the Standard Oil Company, with various men in public life, particularly with members of the house and senate. The private correspondence between the late E. H. Harriman and former President Roosevelt during his administration was also placed in the record.

While the general amounts of the various funds have been given to the committee, no detail of the amounts contributed and expended in the various states has been elicited, and it is expected the committee will take up this line of investigation after election. Former Senator Albert J. Beveridge, of Indiana, before the Clapp committee today corroborated other testimony that in his 1904 campaign for the senate he received $25,000 from George W. Perkins, $25,000 from Edward B. McLean and $2,500 from Gifford Pinchot.

Mr. Perkins had testified he gave Beveridge $10,000, which was returned.

Beveridge testified that he received one draft of $10,000 and two certificates of deposit for $10,000 each from Perkins, but could not remember whether the three remittances were sent together or separately. Beveridge said he returned all of the money on the day after election.

Mr. Beveridge said no other funds were furnished him by Mr. Perkins.

"Did he give you any money to finance the Indianapolis Star?" asked Pomerene.

"Sir," exclaimed the witness, blushing forward.

Senator Pomerene repeated the question.

"No. I know absolutely nothing of anything of that kind," answered Mr. Beveridge.

"Any information in," said Senator Pomerene, "that Mr. Perkins supplied through you $250,000 to finance the Indianapolis Star?"

Mr. Beveridge said he had never heard of any transaction of that kind.

Mr. Beveridge then produced letters showing that he had returned to his cousin, E. L. McLean, $1,000, which he contributed to the Roosevelt campaign fund because Mr. McLean was for President Taft.

Senator Clapp wanted to know if Mr. Beveridge had received an acknowledgment of return of money to George W. Perkins. Mr. Beveridge said he had received a telegram, but he demurred when asked to say what it contained. He was finally prevailed upon to repeat it. It read:

"Letters and enclosures received. An honest man's the noblest work of God."

Beveridge concluded with a statement in which he said he had never accepted even his own expenses in a political campaign. He said he quit a lucrative law practice when he entered the senate and had made his living since by writing magazine articles and books.

HEIR TO CROWN OF RUSSIA HAS FALLEN

St. Petersburg, Oct. 26.—The latest reports from Spain give assurance of the recovery of Crown Prince Alexis apart from the doctor's bulletins, but a single fact has been allowed to appear in the Russian newspapers regarding the illness of their heir to the throne, and the whole nation is deeply incensed at the secrecy. The facts are that eleven days ago the little prince climbed a high cupboard in the hunting lodge at Spala. He slipped and fell, striking a sharp corner of a chair and sustaining numerous bruises. Two physicians, always in attendance on the heir, reported he had sustained severe injuries in the region of the liver.

Wilson Stands Best Show of Election of Any Democrat Since Civil War---Dahlman

(By Mayor Dahlman of Omaha.)

Woodrow Wilson unquestionably stands the best show of election the coming November that any democrat has enjoyed since the Civil war, not excepting Grover Cleveland. He goes into this campaign with the double prestige of his own strength, and his enemy's weakness.

The one thing that I like about Woodrow Wilson and Thomas R. Marshall is the clean-cut and positive positions they have taken upon the economic problems confronting the nation, by subscribing to the progressive democratic national platform, and by their own well defined utterances, notably those of Mr. Wilson in his speech of acceptance, and the still better fact that they have seen fit to declare themselves exclusively for those issues, and all that go with them in the way of civic honesty and wholesome politics, and have announced that they will not meddle with moral issues of local concern.

The straightforward position taken by Mr. Wilson in reply to the questions put to him by Maine prohibitionists to the effect that he believes in local option as the proper plan of settling the liquor question; and the fact that Mr. Marshall made a winning campaign for governor of Indiana on that issue, is sufficient assurance to us that the great problems of national importance will receive their vigorous and undivided attention.

The great problem of today is, the enactment of laws, and the rigid enforcement of those laws, that will guarantee a whole dollar to every man who earns it by the sweat of his brow, and will then guarantee that he may buy a full dollar's worth of bread and beef and clothing for that money, emphatically changing the present republican condition of allowing the trusts to rob him of half of it in the earning, and half of what is left in the spending. Solve that problem, and the local programs will take care of themselves.

The democratic party in Nebraska is united in this campaign; the men who fought the hardest for Champ Clark and Judson Harmon have been good losers, and are now Governor Wilson's most hearty supporters; their brains, their energy, their enthusiasm, and their votes are all with us.

Our Nebraska people, in common with the people of the country generally, as I believe, are wearied and disgusted with the policies of the past few republican administrations; they long for a new deal where rugged honesty, a square deal for the plain people, a vigorous championship of the rights of the toiling masses, and a sharply defined distinction between matters of national concern and those for treatment under the Jeffersonian principle of local self government, will be the battle cry.

To the democratic party, with Wilson and Marshall as the exponents of its principles, they are turning for this new deal.

PARAPHERNALIA OF DYNAMITERS IS IDENTIFIED IN COURT

Chief of Indianapolis Police Says Alarm Clocks, Gum Shoes, Nitroglycerin Cans and Like Taken from Safe.

EXPLOSIVES FOUND PACKED IN SAWDUST

Tags Removed from Deadly Packages Hidden in Headquarters of McNamara When Arrest Was Made.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Indianapolis, Oct. 26.—Alarm clocks, gum shoes, nitroglycerin cans, tags from dynamite packages and wires were produced at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial today and identified by Martin J. Hyland, chief of police of Indianapolis, as having been taken from the vaults of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers the night J. J. McNamara was arrested.

Photographs of packages of dynamite also were identified by Chief Hyland. Chief Hyland testified on the night of April 22, 1911, when McNamara, secretary of the union, was arrested, President Frank M. Ryan and other defendants were present. Out of a vault in the basement of the office building, the witness testified, four packages containing sticks of dynamite, fuses and other articles were taken.

"I now hand you a package. State whether it was taken out of that vault," said James W. Noel, special counsel for the government.

"Yes, it was. It contains fourteen alarm clocks," replied Chief Hyland. The clocks were shown the jury. They are said by the government to be part of those used by the dynamiters in causing bombs to explode several hours after they had been placed, as was done in blowing up the Los Angeles Times building.

Chief Hyland described how, on information given by McNamara, secretly under arrest in Chicago, he drove to a farm near Indianapolis and there in a barn found nitroglycerin and dynamite packed in saw dust.

"Did you notice anything peculiar about the dynamite?" Chief Hyland was asked.

"Yes, I noticed the trade mark on each stick had been cut off."

McNamara in his confession said J. J. McNamara, becoming uneasy over the loss of life at Los Angeles and fearing they would capture James B. had cut off the trade marks with a knife.

Among other exhibits shown the jury was a suit case referred to by the government as having been especially designed to carry a twelve quart can of nitroglycerin on passenger trains and as having been brought by Henry W. Leggett, of Denver, a member of the union's executive board, from Pittsburgh to Indianapolis.

Roosevelt Means To Make One More Speech

Colonel Completes Address He Expects to Deliver in New York at Madison Square Garden Wednesday Night.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Oyster Bay, N. Y., Oct. 26.—Colonel Roosevelt attempted to get back to something like his usual manner of life today with a walk in the forenoon and several hours of work with his secretary in the afternoon. He remained at work until the task was ended but found that it taxed his strength.

Colonel Roosevelt said that he hoped by Monday he would be able to see as many visitors as he wished.

Dr. George W. Faller, of Oyster Bay, one of his physicians, impressed upon him the necessity of avoiding over-exertion if he is to gain sufficient strength to make his speech next week. His physicians fear that unless he is considerably stronger on Wednesday he will become exhausted and will be unable to finish. The address will require twenty-five minutes for delivery.

Mexican Chamber of Deputies Fails to Secure Quorum for Interpellation of President of Republic.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Mexico City, Oct. 26.—Unless the administration members of the chamber cease their tactics of blocking an interpellation of the executive, the remainder of the deputies threatened tonight to go into the streets and appeal to the people and even to call upon the people to revolt.

When it became evident late this afternoon that the same members who yesterday absented themselves from the session had again refused to present themselves, the other deputies, angered because of the lack of a quorum, appointed a committee to bring them to the chamber.

At the same time they declared they would deliver a coup d'etat in case of failure. Sensational speeches were made.

Special dispatches from Vera Cruz announce that all the evidence has been taken in the court martial of the rebel officers and the death penalty has been asked. President Madero has evinced no sign that he will interfere and it is doubted whether the efforts of the authorities for a stay of execution will avail.

The threats came to naught. Although the commission sent out to bring the members was unable to induce the administration men to attend the session, the minority members expended their energies in speechmaking and then adjourned quietly.

The most intense interest in the fate of Felix Diaz was still manifest tonight and the efforts to save his life continue. The capital, however, is quiet.

Former Police Lieutenant Found Guilty of Murder Bitter About His Fate; Says He Was "Railroaded."

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
New York, Oct. 26.—"Lead hatchet" is how former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker characterized his conviction for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, in a talk with newspaper reporters today. From his cell in "roadhouse" room in the Tombs, Becker spoke bitterly of his fate, declaring he had been "railroaded" and that could be taken from the witness stand during his trial he would have explained away the public impression that he had acquired a fortune
through levying graft upon gambling houses. The former policeman talked in the presence of his brother, John Becker, a police lieutenant.

"This case was legal butchers," he said. "You can't emphasize that too much. In some of the accounts of my trial I notice they say that I paid out $25,000 for my defense. Twenty-five thousand dollars? Why, that is $25,- 000 more than any sum I ever possessed or ever hoped to possess. According to the newspapers, the public believes I am worth $100,000. I can't understand the purpose of this statement. All of this could have been explained if I had been allowed to go on the stand—every cent."

"Neither Mrs. Becker nor myself has been given any consideration at all since this case began. What's more, I don't expect any. I would not be disappointed if Sheriff Harbinger rushed me off from the court room directly to Sing Sing after Justice Goff has sentenced me next Wednesday. That will be the final stage of the railroad of Becker."

The strain of waiting for the outcome of his trial and the uncertainty
he still faces pending a decision by a higher court on the appeal his lawyers will make, are telling on Becker's physical condition, according to his friends. Becker was visited for three hours by his wife today.

"Mrs. Becker is bearing up as well as one could expect under such circumstances," said the convicted man.
"Her condition troubles me more than my own."

John F. McIntyre, Becker's counsel, said he was confident of a new trial
for his client.

"There can't be anything else but a reversal," he declared. "That man Becker is innocent. He was convicted upon the testimony of a lot of unbelievable creatures and was found guilty
after a trial in which legal errors beyond number were committed, in my opinion."

"I am going to see the attorney general of the state to bring a writ of habeas corpus. I believe that District Attorney Whitman had no right to offer immunity to witnesses who might be,
and who were in my belief, principals in the murder. I will ask the attorney general for a ruling and believe I will prove my contention."

Mr. McIntyre mentioned "Bridget" Webster and Harry Vallon as the two witnesses he had in mind. He said that immunity agreements which the county prosecutor made with them were not approved by Judge Mullins, who signed those made with Sam Schoppa and "Blind Jack" Ryan.
Regarding a report that some of the four "kissers"—Gep. the Blood,
"Lefty" Louis, "Whitney" Lewis and
"Dago Frank"—were prepared to turn state's evidence through the error at Becker's conviction, District Attorney Whitman before leaving town for a week today, said the four prisoners were given opportunities before Becker's trial to confess and that none of them could hope to escape conviction by telling what he knew.

Mr. McIntyre said there was no doubt as to the validity of the immunity agreements with Webster and Vallon.

BRYAN SAYS TAFT AND ROOSEVELT ARE UNFAIR

If They Believe Wilson's Election Will Bring Panic They Should Unite and Defeat the Democratic Candidate.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Chicago, Oct. 26.—William J. Bryan made four speeches here tonight in behalf of the democratic ticket.

Colonel Bryan said that opponents of the democratic candidates who predicted a panic in case of democratic success were unfair. "The panic of 1907," he said, "was a republican panic, occurring while Roosevelt was president."

Mr. Taft and Colonel Roosevelt cannot believe that democratic victory means a panic, because if they did they would unite their forces. If they were patriotic men. Their division makes democratic victory absolutely certain. Mr. Taft is a man who went into office by a million votes and goes out by unanimous consent. The first objection to Colonel Roosevelt is that he gave up Taft. Mr. Taft might save Colonel Roosevelt for breach of promise and the people of the United States might see the colored face preference. There was a terrible mistake somewhere. The remedy is Woodrow Wilson.

Charles E. Fox, Laboring Under Delusion That He Was Persecuted, Enacts Dreadful Quadruple Tragedy.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Pueblo, Colo., Oct. 26.—Nineteen months after he had decided to kill himself and children because he believed he was being persecuted by a secret society, Charles E. Fox today killed his three children and then turned the weapon on himself and committed suicide. The children were a girl, aged 6, a boy, aged 4, and a 14-month-old baby girl. All were shot through the heads.

The tragedy occurred during the absence of the mother who had gone to Pueblo to purchase some groceries and was not discovered until her return home. She found all her family lying in pools of blood. The oldest girl lay on the bed with a pencil and paper in her hand, the paper having a half-drawn picture upon it.

Fox, according to a letter, which invited to Sheriff T. H. Williams, in March, 1911, but never mailed, and planned to kill his children and himself to free himself of the taints and threats of supposed enemies. An investigation has disclosed the fact that Fox had been suspected of a murder in Erie, Mich., when a young girl is supposed and heeding over the accusation came his to become depressed and to imagine that he was being persecuted. However, an investigation is to be made into his charges. Mrs. Fox says that "her married life has been happy. In the letter which he wrote to the sheriff, Fox says she is not responsible for his deed."

GOVERNOR JOHNSON IS GIVEN UNIQUE RECEPTION

Californian Puts in Strenuous Day While People of Massachusetts Treat Him to Colonial Customs in Beverly.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Fall River, Mass., Oct. 26.—Massachusetts progressives brought into play more of the old time campaign methods for Governor Johnson's six meetings in the state today than he had encountered in all his previous travels. From the first a luncheon accompanied by men with banners was held in Beverly to announce the coming of the vice-presidential candidate until tonight when a torchlight procession escorted him from the train to the theater, the candidate saw a repetition of the political methods of a decade ago.

The life and drum corps, which played patriotic tunes, the line of marchers who trailed behind and the meetings on street corners, in city halls and town squares all were seen again. Only one thing was new—the automobiles in which the governor's party traveled to five cities between Haverhill and Boston.

The governor spoke in Haverhill, Newburyport, Gloucester, Beverly, Salem, Lawrence and here. A meeting was scheduled for New Bedford tonight, but the governor was too tired to fill the engagement. After the close of the meeting he returned to Boston in his private car. He will spend Sunday there and go into Maine Monday.

Many mill workers were in the crowd today as this was a half holiday in all the big factories and he was received warmly.

WILSON CHEERS AS PRINCETON BESTS
DARTMOUTH

Democratic Candidate for President Resents Statement from Wall Street Regarding His Policy.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Princeton, N. J., Oct. 26.—Governor Woodrow Wilson saw Princeton defeat Dartmouth at football today and joined in the general enthusiasm of Princeton graduates.

As an old football coach himself,
the governor remarked that the team were evenly matched despite the result and would regard no predictions about the approaching Princeton-Yale game.

"I couldn't do much rooting," he said, "on account of my voice. I'm saying that for the speaker's next week."

Dr. Wilson's attention was called this afternoon to a report current to be filed in fulfillment of the law. In contrast with the two or three hundred candidates for the house who
sent in statements, only six would be selected statements in the senate.
The statements will be considered
tomorrow, however, if mailed anywhere
within the United States before midnight today.

Dr. Hartman Makes Public the Facts
As to What Doctors Think of Peruna

S. B. HARTMAN, M. D.

Of course doctors disagree about Peruna, the same as they do on all other subjects. It is generally thought that the doctors are unanimously opposed to Peruna. It is well-known that Peruna has cured a great many cases after the doctors had given them up. This would naturally excite animosity or jealousy on the part of the doctors. Then it is opposed to the average doctor is opposed to ready-made medicines of all kinds. They know very well if a bottle of medicine is sold at the drug store that means that some doctor loses a prescription and perhaps a patient. So they are generally opposed to patent medicines, or ready-made medicines as they call them.

But ever since Peruna has been sold I have known of many doctors who are in favor of Peruna. Some of them believe in it secretly, others openly. All this time I have been receiving letters from regular practising physicians offering to send me testimonials as to the virtues of Peruna, provided I would pay them for doing so.

It is nothing unusual that a doctor should accept pay for such service. The manufacturers of so-called ethical preparations advertised in the medical journals, used by the doctors only, are in the habit of paying doctors for testimonials. If a doctor has found some one of those proprietary remedies useful and can write a good, smart article about it, the manufacturer is perfectly willing to pay the doctor for this service. So it is perfectly natural for doctors to write to me telling me that they know of cases where Peruna has made marvelous cures, and are willing to furnish me the facts if I will pay them.

But I have always refused to pay for such a service. I have invariably told him it is opposed to my policy
and principles to pay for testimonials, either directly or indirectly. There would be no trouble at all in my obtaining hundreds of testimonials from doctors if I would pay the doctors for doing so.

DEPUTY SHERIFFS SEARCH FOR STRIKERS

Gang of Thirty Cretans Who Fired on Officer and Workmen Near Bingham Are Fugitives in Hills.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Bingham, Oct. 26.—A posse of 100 deputy sheriffs continued their search of the hills near here today in an effort to capture the gang of thirty Cretans who fired on a deputy sheriff and a number of workmen yesterday morning. No trace of the fugitives could be found. Two Greek miners were arrested in a cave here this afternoon. Both are said to have been imprisoned in the riot.

No further rioting has occurred since yesterday morning and the miners worked today without molestation.
The Utah Copper Company now has about 1,500 men at work. The camp is producing about 75 per cent of its normal output.

CANDIDATE SEND STATEMENTS OF EXPENDITURES

Oscar Underwood's Outlay
Has Been Nothing; Few Senatorial Aspirants So Far Have Complied with Law.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Washington, Oct. 26.—Statements of campaign expenditures reached the capital today in the hundreds to be filed in fulfillment of the law. In contrast with the two or three hundred candidates for the house who
sent in statements, only six would be
selected statements in the senate.
The statements will be considered
tomorrow, however, if mailed anywhere
within the United States before mid-
night today.

Of the house candidates, Repre-

I recently received such a letter from Kentucky, from a doctor who says he has been practicing medicine for a quarter of a century, and is at present "medical referee for this county, president of the county medical board, local surgeon of the C. & O. railroad, member of the state medical society and American Medical Association," and all that. He has used Peruna and offers to give me a very remarkable testimonial if I would pay him for doing so. He does not set any price but expects me to offer him something, which of course I refused to do. He said, "I have been afflicted with a bad acute inflammatory condition of the post nasal space, and of recent years the larynx has been involved in the catarrhal process. Your Peruna entirely relieved me of both conditions, after a comparatively short time of using it. To-day I am the happiest man alive. Medical men will hardly believe me when I tell them that your medicine cured me, but it is a fact. Nevertheless, I had tried for fifteen years every known means,
took treatment at several sanitariums," etc. He is willing to take oath to these statements if I will make it worth his while to do so.

It was very gratifying to receive such a testimonial from a brother physician and quite a temptation to pay him a small sum and allow his letter to be published. But I have an understanding policy of refusing to pay any one for a testimonial. Nothing would sooner lead to insincerity and embarrassment than to offer to pay for testimonials. I should be flooded with testimonials of all sorts and in spite of every precaution some of them would be untrustworthy.

In referring to the doctor's letter
I do not consider that I am violating the ordinary canons and confidence of private correspondence. I have not made use of his name, nor the town where he resides. But I am perfectly willing to communicate the name and address by private correspondence if any one wishes me to do so, or submit the letter for examination to any inquirer who may call at my office. And I may say the same in advance of the next letter that I am about to refer to.

Another doctor from North Carolina writes me. He says, "I have a case under observation now having been cured by Peruna that has baffled the medical profession ever since the disease was known." He says,
"I have successfully cured the case with Peruna and feel sure that if the public knew the facts about the case that it would be a great boon to the public, as well as the greatest advertisement ever given any medicine on the market." He says, "I can furnish a sworn statement of the particular case and give you the greatest advice for Peruna ever known for any remedy. The disease cured in this case is regarded by the profession as incurable. I prescribed the Peruna myself and know all the particulars. The patient had consulted leading medical authorities, had taken the most valuable treatment, and everything failed, not even obtaining relief. He had also applied for insurance and upon examination was rejected. After taking the Peruna treatment for a few months he again applied for insurance, was examined and accepted."

COSTLY CATHEDRAL TO BE DEDICATED
TODAY AT DENVER

Cardinal Farley Blesses New Church, While Archbishop J.
B. Pitaval Will Celebrate Pontifical High Mass.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Denver, Oct. 26.—Tonight for the first time the chimes of the Immaculate Conception cathedral, which will be dedicated tomorrow, pealed forth their music, both sacred and patriotic. Tomorrow the most elaborate church ceremony ever witnessed in Denver will occur when Cardinal Farley, of New York, attended by hundreds of priests from all over the United States, will bless the church, which has just been completed at a cost of $2,000,000.

Following this ceremony Archbishop Phelan, of Santa Fe, N. M., will celebrate Pontifical high mass. After the celebration and a sermon by Archbishop Glennon, of St. Louis, a picnic of 10,000 Catholics, led by seven brass bands, will be reviewed by Bishop Farley, Governor Shafer, of Colorado, and Acting Mayor McGueran, of Denver. Many church digni-taries arrived tonight to participate in the services.

NEWBRO'S HERPICLEDE SAVES WORRY, SAVES MONEY, SAVES THE HAIR

If you want to free your head of dandruff and stop falling hair, you must sooner or later resort to New-bro's Herpicleda.

By using Herpicleda first you save yourself worry, which is desirable, you save money, which is a consideration, and you save your hair, which is the most important of all.

Why not profit by the experience of Mrs. S. A. Lee, of 119 S. Fourth street,
Richmond, Va., who writes:

"Four years' residence in India ruined
my hair until it was but two inches long and very thin. I tried everything in Europe and America without benefit until I was induced to use Herpicleda. My hair is now long, soft and silkily and natural color, while before it was quite gray. My friends never tire of admiring my hair."

This was one year ago now and he is still well. The doctor soon on to say, "I await your early reply, and if you place the valuation to you on this that I do I am sure the induc-ment you offer will meet with my approval and I will furnish you with a sworn statement of the case for an advertisement."

Now these two letters are only samples of letters that I have been receiving for the last twenty-five years, from doctors from all parts of the United States. I have made no use of these letters for the reason that they were always demanded and I do not think it is strictly moral to offer any monetary inducement for published testimonials. I have never done so and I never shall.

But incidentally this kind of letters proves conclusively that Peruna is a great remedy for catarrhal diseases. No doctor would resort to Peruna until after he had exhausted every other remedy. When Peruna can assert its value in the hands of people that are naturally prejudiced against it, it has proven itself a wonderful remedy.

Again I wish to say, I do not blame these doctors for expecting me to pay them. That is the way the regular ethical manufacturer does and I have no quarrel with it. I am ating these cases not to disparage the doctors who have written these letters, but rather to show that doctors in good standing, in spite of their prejudice against Peruna, scores of doctors, have been convinced of its value in the treatment of catarrhal diseases.

I am a doctor myself. I have probably treated more patients than any one doctor in the state in which I live. I doubt if there are many doctors in the United States who have treated more cases. I have long been convinced that Peruna is the best remedy obtainable for catarrhal diseases. I have seen thousands, yes tens of thousands, of people recover from catarrhal ailments by the use of Peruna. I cannot believe otherwise than that Peruna is today the best remedy that has ever been devised for catarrhal diseases.

I am not sure but that I will have my files searched for similar letters to the ones I have alluded to, for there are a great many of them filed away.
I may publish a book containing a large number of testimonials given me by doctors, which I have withheld from the public because I was not willing to pay any one for writing a testimonial, however valuable it might seem to be. Of course I will not use this book for public advertisement since I have not the doctors' consent to do so, but it will be sent through the mails to those only who request it, chiefly to the medical profession.

The Morning Journal Special Leased Wire. Princeton, N. J., Oct. 26.—Princeton surprised the most optimistic of her followers today by defeating Dartmouth, 22 to 7.

Princeton's victory was purely a result of "outfitting" her opponents. Dartmouth assumed the attack, and carried the ball well into Princeton territory on a series of line plunges and a variety of trick plays, which completely baffled the Princeton players. As the game progressed, however, the home eleven seemed to get stronger and, showing remarkable speed, both in offense and defense, held the visitors well in check in the second half.

Dartmouth rushed the ball almost as much as Princeton, but the Tigers always strengthened when their goal line was in danger and several times recovered fumbles by Dartmouth which always managed to come at the most inopportune time for the Harvardians.

"Hobby" Baker's work was without question the feature of the fray. With Princeton one yard behind in the second period, Baker gave them the lead by kicking a goal from place. From the 20-yard line and in addition made the most sensational run seen here this year. Gathering in the ball on Princeton's 15-yard line he dodged his way through the entire Green eleven and ran 55 yards for a touchdown.

Weller opened the game by kicking to Llewellyn, who returned the ball five yards before being tackled. Dartmouth kept Princeton on the defensive throughout the first quarter and forced the game at all times. Morey grabbed a forward pass from Andrew and dashed thirty yards before being downed. H. Baker went in for Waller for Princeton. Dartmouth advanced the ball to Princeton's foot line, but Princeton held and Dewitt kicked to midfield. Dartmouth rushed the ball down the field and the quarter ended with Dartmouth in possession of the ball on Princeton's 10-yard line.

Score and first period: Princeton, 0; Dartmouth, 0.

Dunlap went in at right end for E.

Trenkman and W. Rogers went in for Captain Bennett at right guard. Whittney was given the ball and crashed through center for a Dartmouth touchdown. Englehorn kicking the goal.

On the kickoff, Baker kicked over the goal line. Dartmouth putting the ball in play on the 20-yard line Dartmouth could not get in and Morey kicked to midfield. Dewitt ploughed through for ten to twenty yards at a clip, and finally carried the ball over for a touchdown. Baker missed the goal, but in the last minute of play kicked a goal from place.

Score and second period: Princeton, 9; Dartmouth, 7.

Dartmouth came back strong at the start of the third period, and forced Princeton hard, twice threatening to score. Morey, Snow and Whitney tore the Tigers' line to pieces, but the orange and black forwards braced when near the goal line and prevented a score. Toward the end of the period, Princeton seemed to strengthen and assumed the attack, carrying the ball into the middle of Dartmouth's territory. The quarter ended with Princeton in possession of the pigskin on Dartmouth's 30-yard line.

Score and third period: Princeton, 9; Dartmouth, 7.

Princeton added thirteen points in the final period in which the Tigers showed much vim. On line plunges and short end runs Dewitt took the ball over for a touchdown, bringing the score up to 15 to 7. The goal was a failure.

One of the most sensational plays of the game then followed. H. Baker attempted an end run and, managing to elude the Dartmouth forward defense, broke through the entire team and ran 75 yards for a touchdown. Pendleton kicked the goal.

Final score: Princeton, 22; Dartmouth, 7.

Harvard, 30; Brown, 19.

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 26.—Many brilliant runs, much line punting, a few successful forward passes and of numerous tries, an unusual number of penalties, mostly against the Crimson, and ineffectual line plunging by both teams, marked Harvard's victory over Brown today by a score of 20 to 10.

The last period was played in twilight and it was then that the Crimson showed their greatest strength. The length of the field for Brown's only touchdown. Previously Captain Ashbaugh, of Brown, had kicked a goal from place, from the 20-yard line.

Harvard scored in each period on three field goals by Brickley from the 10, 42 and 28-yard marks, respectively. In the second period, one on an interrupted forward pass, the second on a blocked kick and a third on a successful forward pass. All three touchdowns were made after long runs. Hitchcock, the Harvard tackle, was disqualified for slugging and may not play again this year.

Minnesota, 56; Iowa, 7.

Minneapolis, Oct. 26.—Minnesota today and the Gophers walked over and crushed through the Hawkeyes, making gains at their own will. When the procession was completed at the end of the final quarter, the score stood, Minnesota, 56; Iowa, 7, the Hawkeyes scoring on split plays and double passes, when the Minnesota substitutes could not fathom.

With the Iowa's record against Chicago last Saturday back of them, and with chances seemingly good of lifting the stigma of eight years of defeat, the final outcome of the contest was a surprise to Minnesota followers. From the first, however, the Gophers had the game their own way. McAlmon, Erdall and Tolson making "slides" almost at will on the "shift," and using the forward pass successfully for a ground game and to open up the defense. It was one of these from Tolson to McAlmon that netted Minnesota its second touchdown.

Even with the "pony backs" in the second half of the game, Minnesota had little difficulty in gaining. Lawler, Hayward and Warner, who went in for McAlmon, playing Iowa off its feet. It was only in the defense plays that the Minnesota substitutes experienced difficulty, Iowa springing a split play with a double pass upon which Van Meter finally went over. Captain Hanson kicked the goal.

Minnesota scored in the first twelve minutes of play in the first period, the ball after Minnesota's kickoff, being in Iowa territory the entire time. Tolson kicked a goal. Taking the ball from her 45-yard line at the beginning of the second quarter, Minnesota started a steady procession down the field. The Gophers went through the line at will.

With the ball on the 5-yard line, McAlmon easily went through Iowa's right tackle for a touchdown. Tolson failed to kick. Again, after the kickoff, Minnesota marched down the field, Iowa losing the ball on a fumble. Erdall got the credit for the touchdown. Tolson failed to kick goal. Iowa repeated the fumble after the next kickoff, on a tackle. Shaughnessy recovering and running 28 yards to a touchdown. "Pinkie" Hayward, who went in at quarter for Tolson, kicked goal. Again Iowa failed to make gains after a kickoff and Minnesota sifted through the line. Lawler who went in for Erdall, Hayward and McAlmon making gains at will.

Twice within ten minutes McAlmon made touchdowns, Hayward kicking goal each time.

Score and third period: Minnesota, 48; Iowa, 0.

In the fourth quarter, with both teams using substitutes freely, Iowa took a brace and on split plays, which seemed to baffled Minnesota's substitutes, put the ball over for a touchdown, the credit going to Van Meter, substituting for Tolson.

Hanson kicked goal. Minnesota also scored on end runs and slides, Lawler carrying the ball across and Hayward kicking goal.

Final score: Minnesota, 56; Iowa, 7.

Chicago Barely Defeats Purdue.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—Chicago made another stride today, by beating Purdue University, 12 to 6, on Marshall field. The score was the smallest registered by the Maroons against Purdue in eleven years.

Pierce bucked through the visitors' line for the only touchdown of the game, ten minutes after the battle started. The rest of the contest consisted of punting and alternate rushes in superb style. None of them, however, equaled Olliphant, of Purdue, in sensational feats. The Purdue halfback tore off repeated gains and tackled brilliantly Hutchinson and Street also starred with spectacular end runs.

Norren made three attempts to score on drop kicks, but the ball missed its mark each time.

Purdue threatened to score in the final period when the ball was advanced to within six yards of Chicago's goal line. However, when called, ending the game before the visitors could score.

Chicago scored its first touchdown in the first period, Pierce going over from Purdue's 5-yard line. Sellers kicked goal. Both teams were frequently penalized for offensive play and holding.

Failure to execute forward passes successfully, robbed Chicago of chances to score in the second period. Chicago twice had the ball within 15 yards of Purdue's goal line, but fumbled on attempted passes, and Norren missed an easy field goal from Purdue's 15-yard line.

Fumbling of forward passes also prevented Chicago from scoring in the third period. A dozen attempts were made, but the ball was lost to Purdue on fumbles. Norren also missed a chance to score by missing an attempted field goal near the close of the period.

Purdue threatened to score in the final period when Olliphant, O'Brien and Hanna advanced the ball sixty yards in three plays by brilliant runs but Chicago stiffened its defense and held Purdue on the 5-yard line with the ball where the play ended.

Utah, 18; Colorado Mines, 3.

Denver, Oct. 26.—The new style play of open formations triumphed over the old-line bucking game here today and the University of Utah eleven defeated the Colorado Mines School, 18 to 3. The two Romneys and Fitzpatrick played a dash game for Utah, making long gains on end runs and forward passes. The Mines' eleven was able to maintain only on a trick play through left guard and on end runs by Quarterback Harper.

In the first quarter a forward pass from Lon to the Romney and a 55-yard run by the latter brought a touchdown. Fitzpatrick failed at goal. The same thing was repeated in the second quarter, but a Mines man was fouled by the interference and the ball brought back to the 35-yard line. Toward the end of the quarter, Lon Romney went through left tackle for a touchdown. The Mines' defense was strengthened their attack in the third quarter and in the fourth quarter Harper drop kicked over the goal from the 8-yard line. Having demoralized the Mines players by their own formations, Utah suddenly concentrated their attack on left tackle and went down the field for 40 yards to a third touchdown. Sutherland missed goal.

Yale, 13; Washington and Jefferson, 3.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 26.—Showing unexpected aggressiveness in offensive work and a consistent tight defense, Washington and Jefferson held Yale to a 13 to 3 score today. In the third period, when Patterson made a field goal from Yale's 49-yard line, the visitors clearly outplayed the Blue eleven.

Yale had the ball on the visitors' 7-yard line in the first period but lost it on downs. In the second period, by steady line plunging, Yale scored two touchdowns but only one goal was kicked.

Syracuse, 18; Michigan, 7.

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 26.—Syracuse eleven found itself this afternoon in the game with the University of Michigan and "Hurricane" Yost's team was defeated, 18 to 7. The game, which was played on a wet field and with a light rain falling, was the most spectacular yet seen here.

Leslie Castle, right halfback of the Orange, was the particular star, making a 45-yard run for a touchdown after scooping up the ball and dashing by two Michigan backs. He made another run of 30 yards and one of 20 yards, as well as many plunges through and around the line.

Scymour, the little Orange right end, also shone, making several sensational tackles, and receiving one forward pass from Castle for a gain of 20 yards.

For Michigan, Captain Thomson and Craig played the best game. Huel, the quarter, made many fumbles of punts and Patton, who played center, also made several bad passes, which proved disastrous for the Ann Arbor team.

The Michigan score came after they had carried the ball from their own 20-yard line down the field by three yards without losing it. Thomson finally scored with a three-yard plunge and Huel kicked goal.

The first touchdown for Syracuse came at the start of the second period when Castle broke loose and after being tackled four by Wolverine, rushed thirty yards, being downed on the 5-yard line. After being held for downs, Syracuse again worked the ball down to the Michigan line and Castle was sent over.

Another Syracuse touchdown followed in the third period, when the Orange made short gains and Smith was pushed over. The third touchdown came in the final period, when Castle scooped the ball up after Huel had fumbled and ran 45 yards for a touchdown.

Colorado College, 24; Wesleyan, 13.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Oct. 26.—Colorado college defeated the husky Nebraska Wesleyan eleven here this afternoon, 24 to 13. Nebraska was an unknown quantity, but the college prepared for a hard game and received it. The visiting squad played as though bewildered in the first two quarters.

During the intermission Coach Kline pointed out the weakness of his men, and the team came back with a strong rally and scored two touchdowns.

Forward passes featured the game. Both teams played this style strong. A place kick by Cheel, of Colorado college, from the 40-yard line, was a spectacular performance. Closely pressed by the liney forwards, he lifted the ball clear of a dozen swinging arms, and it carried just over the cross bar.

Lafayette, 7; Pennsylvania, 3.

Philadelphia, Oct. 26.—Pennsylvania had another sad day on the football field here this afternoon, meeting her third defeat of the season, this time at the hands of Lafayette, by the score of 7 to 3.

The Quaker eleven played poor football, while the Quaker team put up a magnificent game both on the attack and the defense.

Kansas University, 19; Aggie, 6.

Lawrence, Kan., Oct. 26.—In a bitterly fought game the Kansas University football team defeated the Kansas Agricultural college on Memorial field this afternoon, 19 to 6. Fumbles lost for the visitors.

Washington, 24; Idaho, 0.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 26.—The University of Washington had an easy time with the University of Idaho in the opening football game of the inter-collegiate season on Denny field today, winning 24 to 0. Idaho was outclassed in every department.

Military Institute, 19; Clarendon, 13.

Roswell, N. M., Oct. 26.—Clarendon (Texas) college lost to the New Mexico Military institute here this afternoon by a score of 19 to 13. In a stubbornly fought contest, Clarendon won her points in the last half, one touchdown coming in the last three minutes of play. A sixty-yard end run for a touchdown, by Jones of Clarendon, was the feature.

Colorado, 75; Wyoming, 0.

Boulder, Colo., Oct. 26.—The University of Colorado defeated the University of Wyoming here this afternoon by the score of 75 to 0, reporting to tonight's football only, which except the lighter Cowboy team, down the field time and again, Colorado played a brilliant game in the old style, gaining at will around the visitors' ends and through the line, and not being held for downs throughout the game. Hartman made two goals from place.

In the second half, end runs were used by Colorado. The Cowboys were never dangerous, playing in the field territory only on one occasion, using a snappy forward pass to Ireland, that carried him to the 49-yard line of the locals.

Burgess, the star Wyoming captain, who was injured in the game with Colorado college two weeks ago, was in a suit on the field, but did not take part in the game.

Australian Warabats, 18; California, 0.

Berkeley, Cal., Oct. 26.—The Australian Warabats defeated the University of California rugby team in a drizzling rain today on California field, 18 to 0. Until nearly the close of the first half, California held the visitors away from the goal line and kept the ball in Warabats territory much of the time, yet getting within striking distance of the Australian goal line; but they weakened toward the end and gave way before the rushes and long, skillful punts of the Warabats.

Occidental, 13; Denver, 0.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 26.—Occidental college defeated the Occidental team from the University of Denver today, 13 to 0. It was Occidental all the way, only once did the players from the Rockies get within striking distance of the Occidental line and then it was due to a bad kick on the part of the local men.

Utah Aggies, 17; Montana, 0.

Logan, Utah, Oct. 26.—The football team of the College of Agriculture of Utah defeated the University of Montana here today by a score of 17 to 0. The Utah men played a splendid game and broke through Montana's line several times for long gains. The last touchdown was made in the fourth period on a forward pass.

New Ten-Mile Run Champion.

New York, Oct. 26.—Harry Smith, formerly of the Pastime Athletic club, New York, and now amateur, won the amateur athletic union national 10-mile championship run at the eastern motorhome, Newark, N. J., last year's champion, in 53:51 2-5.

Twelve men took part in the 5-mile walk for the national championship, which has not been competed for since 1884. Al Voelckner, of the Pastime Athletic club, won by twenty yards, in 53:49.

NARROW ESCAPE AT FOOTBALL GAME HAD BY BOY

Frank Bush, Aged Ten, Run Down by Charging Runner and His Crutches Broken; Lad is Unhurt.

Frank Bush, a 10-year-old lad, who lives in Marinette, had a narrow escape from severe injury or possibly death yesterday afternoon at the game between Las Vegas State Normal university and the local high school.

Frank broke a leg last year and has been compelled to go on crutches ever since. He was standing at the edge of the field, on the space reserved for players, with a number of other spectators, when a long run close to the sideline was made. The rest of the eager spectators ran back, but little Frank, hampered by his crutches, was run down and thrown to the ground before he could get away.

He cried a little, but a kindly policeman picked him up, and after finding that no bones were broken, gave him ten cents with which to buy ice cream.

Frank forgot his injuries then. The high school football team raised a subscription to pay for a pair of crutches to replace those broken in the collision. The policeman also offered to pay for new crutches.

The boy was able to walk home, none the worse for the incident.

INDIAN SCHOOL TAKES FALL OUT OF MENAUL

By a score of 19 to 6, the Albuquerque Indian school eleven triumphed over the Menaul school in a game played on the Menaul gridiron yesterday.

Despite the one-sided score, it was a good game, with the Indians at all times masters of the contest, though the Menaul boys played with a dogged determination until time was called.

The Indians made one touchdown in the first period and two in the third period, but kicked one goal.

Hola Pao, fullback for the Indians, who started in the practice game against the Varsity last week, in which the Indians were victorious, was in the game yesterday. However, the big fullback was hurt and retired before the game was over.

Coach Hilde last night stated that yesterday's game was the first regular one of the 1912 season for the Indian school, and that with the material at hand, he expected to turn out a star eleven this year. The coach named rumors that Hola Pao is a former Carleton football player, and says that the Indian attended school here last year and that his home is in Arizona.

The Indians and the Albuquerque high school will clash in the biggest game of intercollegiate circles in this city on Thanksgiving day.

SENSATIONAL GAME WON BY HIGHS IN HARD FIGHT

Locals Make Two Touchdowns After Score is Tied 19 to 19; Hesselden Stellar Player of Contest.

The team from this Albuquerque high school yesterday defeated the eleven of New Mexico Normal university at Las Vegas, in the first game to be played on the new gridiron at Association park. The features were the playing of Hesselden, the basketball style of game used by the locals, and the way the Las Vegas wised up to new style football in half a game. The final score was 31 to 19.

The contest at the start appeared to be a walk away for the Las Vegas, for they made their distance several times after recovering the ball from their own kickoff. Things looked blue for the high school, when they finally buckled down and held Las Vegas for downs. This particular instance of holding was due to Sellers, who dumped a Vegas back, as neatly as though he had been playing football all his life. The high school, on the second play, initiated a play that gained consistently for them throughout the game. A double shift was called, the ends and half backs going far out, and Hesselden dropped back as though for a punt. Instead of punting, he made a forward pass to Farrell. Farrell made a beautiful catch, grasping the ball while running at full speed, and was off for the goal line. He shook off two tackles, his nose caught and showed just after he had crossed the goal line. His run was all of sixty yards, possibly seventy.

Las Vegas tried a forward pass as soon as they received the ball on the kick-off, but the locals got away with the ball. Shortly afterward the high school repeated the forward pass stunt, except that J. McCanna carried the ball across. Two plays after the kick-off, they again repeated this performance and for the first time kicked goal.

At the beginning of the second period, Las Vegas began to solve the problem of the forward passes that were being used so successfully and for the entire second period, no score was tallied.

When the second half opened, the high school had three subs in the line, and Vegas scored three touchdowns in the third period.

Koogler, who got away for the first one, kicked his own goal. L. McCollough got the next and Carl Ellis the third. Both McCollough and Ellis played brilliant ball this quarter, and indeed, throughout the game. Time after time one or the other would get away for long gains, some times as much as forty yards. Las Vegas had settled upon a scheme of defensive play that stopped the forward passes of the locals more frequently, and things began to look bad for the high school again. On the third touchdown by Las Vegas, Hesselden, who was playing deep safety, made a special effort to stop his man and prevent the lining of the score.

He struck him, but failed to stop him and was so hurt that he was unconscious for several minutes. Coach Altom wanted to take him out, but while the goal was being tried for, he revived, fought away from those who would restrain him, and again entered the game.

In four plays, carrying the ball himself each time against Coach Altom's orders, Hesselden got away for the length of the field and made a touchdown, winning his own game. As he crossed the goal line he collapsed, and had to be taken out. Even then he fought with those who held him. Hesselden's goodness was remarkable, especially as he played throughout with a broken rib. He was easily the star of the contest, and was cheered time and again by the students.

After a few minutes' play, the ball was carried down to within thirty yards or so of the Vegas goal. The high school carried it nearly to the side line and then on a trick forward pass on the side near the goal, Farrell to Joe McCanna, scored the last touchdown of the game. Hesselden got back into the game at this juncture. The game ended with the ball in the possession of the visiting team and while they were coming rapidly toward the local goal, they were about forty yards distant when time was called.

Special credit must be extended to Farrell, whose splendid game at left half, excellent handling of forward passes and direction of the team, while Hesselden was out, made a hit with every one. Credit must also be given Joe McCanna for several brilliant plays, though he did not play as hard as he should have during the last quarter. Sellers did some pretty work, and Emmens and he must be credited with the success of many a forward pass that got away safely because of their good interference.

The high school line was a far different proposition from that which opposed Menaul last Saturday. It worked together, and did effective work, two things that were woefully lacking then. It is doubtful if Menaul could gain through the high school line if it played as it did yesterday.

For Las Vegas, Koogler, Ellis and Lee McCollough were easily the best players. All three men were in the game all the time. Ellis played with a dislocated arm, still unhealed, and did wonderfully sprinting. Koogler was good for a gain almost any time through the line, but some times failed to make the necessary distance. McCollough's fine work was of the spectacular long run sort.

N. M. N. L. McCollough, left end; Livingston, left tackle; Hurst, left guard; Ford, center; Potter, right guard; Sena, right tackle; Larnazole (Capt), right end; Koogler, left half; White, right half; Ellis, quarter; Lee McCollough, fullback.
Campbell—Guard and Lembeke, referee—Lembeke and Girard, Head linesmen—Calkins. Time keepers—Latham and Baker. Periods—fifteen minutes. Touchdowns—Hesselden, Farrell (2), J. McCanna (2), Koogler, L. McCollough, Ellis. Goal kick—Koogler, Camp. Penalties—Normale, five yards, for pushing the runner.

HORACE FOGEL SENDS IN REPLY TO CHARGES

Philadelphia, Oct. 26.—Horace S. Fogel, president of the Philadelphia National league team, today sent to the National league headquarters in New York his reply to the charges made against him by President Lynch, of the league. Mr. Fogel made the reply on advice of counsel and it is said the answer is brief. It states that the Philadelphia club would change hands today proved untrue. Mr. Fogel said he has not begun negotiations with anybody for the sale of the club. With regard to the charges, he said he expects the league to vindicate him.

MARKET RECOVERS FROM RECENT DEPRESSION

Reading Railroad Foremost Feature with Moderate Inquiry for Hill Issues and Southern Group.

City Morning Journal Special Leased Wire—New York, Oct. 26.—No small part of yesterday's loss was recovered in today's quiet, but strong market. Reading was the foremost feature, both as to volume and strength with some moderate inquiry for Hill issues and the southern group as comprehended by Louisville & Nashville, Atlantic Coast Line and Seaboard, common and preferred. Union Pacific was also in demand at a fair advance.

Among the industrials, United States Steel, common and preferred, Amalgamated Copper and American Gas, preferred, were strong in sales of a point or better, while American Tobacco, Virginia-Carolina Chemical and Texas Company were conspicuous in the special class. Prices shaded slightly toward the close but the undercurrent remained strong with some belated activity in such issues as General Electric and National Biscuit.

Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—Four that Turkey as a war measure, might close the Dardanelles, forced the wheat market up today. Although the final tone was easy, latest figures were 3/4 to 3/8 cent above last night.

Imports made by the Balkan allies head wheat speculators to investigating about the Dardanelles. Cable reports also told of critical crop conditions in Australia and India owing to lack of rain. In addition, doubt had been cast on Duluth export passing inspection under Chicago rules.

Nervous buying that began at the outset in the wheat pit lasted throughout the greater part of the session. Profit taking and week-end evening profit taking during the last half hour, December ranged from 92 1/2 to 94 1/2 cents, to 95 1/2 cents, with the close 1/4 cent net higher at 95 1/2 to 95 3/4 cents.

Corn closed unchanged to 1/8 cent higher.

Oats declined 1/4 cent off, to a shade lower.

Provisions closed 2 1/2 to 20 cents lower.

Treasury Statement.

Washington, Oct. 26.—The condition of the United States Treasury at the beginning of business today was: Working balance, $1,824,487.

In bonds and Philippine treasury, $2,291,967.

Total of general fund, $144,500,049.

Receipts yesterday, $2,662,625.

Disbursements, $1,824,487.

Deficit this fiscal year, $6,907,776, against a deficit of $21,100,061 last year.

The figures for receipts, disbursements and deficit exclude Panama Canal and public debt transactions.

Weekly Bank Statement.

New York, Oct. 26.—The statement of the actual condition of clearing house banks and trust companies for the week shows that they held $4,024,000 reserve in excess of legal requirements. This is a decrease of $5,284,950 from last week. The statement follows:

Daily Average.

Loans, $1,942,331,000; increase, $6,537,000.

Outside Clearing House Statement.

Summary of state banks and trust companies in Greater New York not included in clearing house statement.

Loans, $592,545,000; decrease, $2,094,100.

Specie, $63,352,100; decrease, $515,400.

Total deposits, $643,734,000; decrease, $7,322,400.

Financier's Statement.

New York, Oct. 26.—The Financier will say tomorrow:

The statement of the clearing house banks of New York for the week ending October 20th, showed the effect of current heavy withdrawal of funds for crop and other purposes, the cash loss due to these causes having been approximately $9,000,000.

Loans were contracted to the extent of $28,818,000, and there was a shrinkage of $19,735,000 in net deposits. The effect of these operations was to decrease excess reserve by $5,348,950, leaving surplus above the 25 per cent minimum, at $4,024,000. The above figures are based on the exhibit of actual conditions.

The tide of money is still toward the interior, but the banks will probably be able to continue the policy of reducing loans and thereby maintaining a safe reserve position. If rates should go higher relief will follow automatically through the placing of loans here by banks in other centers.

The Metal Markets.

Lake and electrolytic copper, $17.02 1/2 to 17.87 1/2; castings, $17.25 to 17.75.

Iron, unchanged.

ELECTION PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, by Section 1, Chapter 105, Laws of 1909, it is made the duty of the County Commissioners of each county in the State of New Mexico, ten days before the election, to provide the elections that are to be held in the respective counties for the purpose of voting for candidates for the different offices and other matters, and

Whereas, it is further made the duty of said boards of county commissioners to give public notice of the object of the election, the officials to be voted for, questions to be voted on, the names of the candidates for each of the said offices, as the same are on file in the office of the county clerk and ex-officio recorder, and the postoffice address of each of said candidates and the place where the election is to be held in each precinct in each county; and

Whereas, it is required by said section 1, chapter 105, laws of 1909, that the said notice be inserted in daily newspapers, six times prior to the day when the election is to be held, but when there is no daily newspaper published in such county, such notice may be inserted in weekly newspapers, in two issues thereof, prior to the date when the election is to be held, and

Whereas, it is further provided that general elections shall be held in the state on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November in each even numbered year.

Now, Therefore, it is proclaimed and ordered by the board of county commissioners of Bernalillo county, New Mexico, that a general election will be held in said county on Tuesday, the 5th day of November, 1912.

That the object of said general election is to elect one representative in the Sixty-third congress of the United States and three presidential electors; also for the purpose of voting on a proposed amendment to the state constitution, as provided by Joint Resolution No. 6, passed by the first state legislature and filed in the office of the secretary of state, as approved, on the 29th day of May, 1912; and also for the purpose of voting on a proposed "state" bonded bond issue of $500,000, as provided by chapter 58, of the laws of the first state legislative assembly, approved June 19th, 1912.

The names of the candidates for each of the said offices to be voted for at said general election, as the same are on file in the office of the county clerk and ex-officio recorder of said Bernalillo county, and the postoffice address of each of said candidates is as follows, to-wit:

GREATEST MONEY-SAVING HEATER OF THE AGE

MOORE'S AIR-TIGHT HEATER is the handsomest as well as the most economical heating stove on the market. It can be run at less than half the cost of any other. It burns either hard coal or the cheapest kind of slack.

One of these heaters takes the place of two or even three others and does the work of all combined. It heats your entire house—both upstairs and down—and keeps your floors as warm as a furnace could keep them.

MOORE'S AIR-TIGHT HEATER is built on an entirely different principle than others. It heats like a furnace—by circulation instead of radiation, sets the air in circulation and heats the entire house evenly.

Stop in the first chance you get and let us show you how this wonderful heater more than pays for itself in a very short time.

Our Special Heater at $6

Our stock of cheaper heating stoves is extensive. Our SPECIAL $6 HEATER, shown in cut opposite, is an all cast iron and bottom, built to furnish a maximum of heat, without the danger from overheating found in cheap sheet iron stoves.

We have many other makes of cheap heaters, at prices ranging from $3.75 up.

THE MOORE ROOM HEATER, for heating both and churches is an ornamental heater which provides a heating and ventilating system for recently rooms not found in any other heater before the public.

If you contemplate installing a furnace, we shall be glad to demonstrate the unique qualities of the MOORE and furnish estimates on installation.

All Hallowe'en Draws Near and Youth Prepares to Frolic

The Festive Fex Takes the Town

Y ou may say what you will about the conservative and sober dignity of the tall and distinguished silk hat—talk as much as you please of the perfect propriety of the derby, and even the unquestioned correctness (in its proper place) of the festive Alpine—but the FEX is the real thing.

Did not the Shriners, turned loose for one glorious holiday, permit the effluence of their brilliant headgear to shed a mellow glow on the downtown streets for the benefit of admiring spectators?

No two ways about it, the elegant fex is notably becoming, whether it sets jauntily upon the heads of gay and giddy youth, or whether it rests with distinguished air upon those of business and professional men.

George Roslington, for instance, in what the milliner would call "a dream" in handsome Shriners head covering, and there's A. B. McMillen, who never looked half so well in any other style of hat.

Dignified bankers smoothed out the wrinkles from brows long knit over the contemplation of money values, merchants left the fortunes of business to other hands and dared to buy inside the matter-of-fact attitude, generally second nature to them. And they were all in gala day attire, looking like princes, or, at least, lords of the olden time, and the uniform of each was topped by the eternal fex, selected by somebody who knew how becoming it would be.

And speaking of princes and lords, how much, after all, depends upon the apparel?

"Ye shall know a man by the clothes he wears," is considered a very clever misquotation of a familiar proverb, but it won't work in Shriners week. Who could be expected to recognize in their Shriners disguise the sodate and business like qualities of Fred Kent, or say, Alphonse A. Keen?

I discovered Tom Wilkerson with his fex awry, his becomingness, or his unfailing good humor, in no wise impaired by the rakish angle and may I ask if it has ever been your good fortune to come across Senator Isaac Barth wearing his elegant fex?

Never mind, "handsome is as handsome does," you know. Lloyd Sturges, privileged to wear the fex for the first time this year, seemed perceptibly impressed by the honor, and looked almost happy.

Dr. John W. Elder wore his fex, perched jauntily on the back of his head, and his boyish don't-care-what-I-do manner was completely at variance with his usual sedate demeanor, and where, oh where, was the dignified bearing of A. J. Maloy, W. H. Walton, and others who make up the sinews of local commerce?

I tell you, that for transformation of appearance, you can trust the fex, and the rest of the Shriners uniform. They do the trick, and do it well.

Summing Things Up Briefly.

The society page rises to remark that it is earnestly hoped nothing personal is meant by the repeated fond reference of the "young men" of the "Evening Keteemed" to the "Infirm Old Contemporary."

And with that, scrambles in all haste out of the turbulent political waters, and takes to the tall uncut.

Parious times, these. Every political candidate is somebody's meat, Shriners' Banquet Brilliant.

Most of the grand officers were in attendance, including Mrs. Abbie Aldrich, of Gallup, associate grand master, and Mr. Walter P. Chisum, of Roswell, grand patron, on Friday evening the grand officers put on initiatory work, splendidly interspersed with music, and followed by the floral drill by Adah chapter, a magnificent spectacle, eliciting the warmest praise from the grand officers, and all privileged to view the pretty pageant.

This was directed by Mrs. John A. White, with Mrs. Robert Haynes as musical supervisor. Mrs. John W. Wilson, grand musician, had charge of the music in connection with the initiatory ceremonies. Among those participating in the musical program were Misses Grace and Kathryn Grimmer, Mr. J. G. Gould, and the ladies' quartet, composed of the Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Charles McLaughlin, Mrs. Fred Metzger and Miss Kathryn Grimmer.

The grand chapter convention ended that night with a sumptuous banquet, at which elaborate decorations flitted in beauty with the stunning frocks worn by the O. E. S. ladies, and at which a feast fit for the historic gods was served. There followed the installation of the newly elected officers, and the concluding ceremonies of the most successful grand chapter assembly ever held by the New Mexico Eastern Star.

A Birthday Luncheon.

Mrs. John Miller was hostess at a beautifully appointed luncheon Monday in honor of Mrs. L. G. Rice and Mrs. D. A. Ritter.

It was a birthday party, a joint celebration of the birthdays of Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Ritter, both of which fall on the same day.

The centerpiece was a birthday cake, with a huge question mark, formed of pink candles, surrounded by sixteen candles. The wonderful cake reflected its glory in an oval mirror, framed in garlands of sweet almonds and apricot of the dainty flowers falling from the chandelier, and at sweet will over the table, went to make a most attractive scene of decoration.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Ritter, Mrs. Rice, Mrs. C. E. Lowber, Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Lowber's mother, Mrs. Tom Wilkerson, Mrs. Raymond Stinson and Mrs. Miller.

Mrs. J. A. Reddy entertained the Duplicate Whist club at her home last Monday. The club is wont to play each Monday afternoon at the Woman's club, and only occasionally enjoys an afternoon at the home of one of its members. Mrs. Reddy's party was charmingly planned and greatly enjoyed.

On Wednesday afternoon the High Land Auction Bridge club met with Mrs. Reddy, and had an unusually good game and a gay afternoon at "auction," the favorite card pursuit of the local elite at this time.

Mrs. Hugh Collins will be the hostess this week.

Visitor Returns Home.

Miss Mary Ida Dunderly leaves tomorrow for her home in Ennis, Tex., after an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. J. B. Herndon. She has been quite a bit entertained pending her departure, one of the jolliest affairs of the past week being three tables at auction bridge given by Mrs. D. M. Carra, Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Carra's party, though small and informal, was none the less enjoyable.

Mrs. Isaac Farth had planned to entertain for Miss Dunderly, but was forced to recall her invitations, on account of the illness of her little daughter, Iona, who inconsiderately developed "chicken pox." Iona was not seriously ill at any time, and is now well on the road to recovery.

Enter—Mrs. Ramon Hubbell.

Mrs. Ramon Hubbell's debut in Albuquerque was sensational, to say the least. Her stay was brief, but the time was advantageously employed in the selection of numerous hats and gowns, somewhat to the discomfort of the merchants, who, feeling a bit uncertain as to her standing with the Lorenzo Hubbell family, did not fall all over themselves extending the stunning looking woman credit. Good looking she undoubtedly is, with a superb assurance, in keeping with her personal attractions. It seems that one day the past week she ordered a taxi, and proceeded to canvass the shops in quest of articles of personal adornment, buying recklessly and without any regard at all for the amount of expenditure. In cases where credit must

In Honor of Miss Jaffa.

Julia Jaffa, the attractive daughter of Nathan Jaffa, who stands a fair chance of being our next congressman, is just now the guest of Mrs. Sydney Rosenwald, and is coming in for her share of social notices. Mrs. Rosenwald's party in her honor, announced for last Wednesday, was called off at the last moment on account of the passing illness of the hostess, who is fully recovered now, and who is making her plans to entertain Halloween night.

Meantime, one of the gayest and prettiest events of the week last past, was in Miss Jaffa's honor, referring to the Jake Weinman party Tuesday evening.

The Jake Weinmans entertain lavishly always, but went themselves one better this time, and nothing more recherche has been given this season, or during any season, for the matter of that.

Cards and dancing while the evening joyously, and it ended hilariously and late with a sumptuous "spread."

Invited were Misses Julia Jaffa, Hilda Grunfeld, Estelle Grunfeld, Elsie Kempnich, Regina Rosenwald, Camille Mandell, Hannah Nussbaum, Messrs. Ernest Landolf, Louis Gumbler, Arthur Prager, Bob Dietz, Albert Faber, Ben Jaffa, Mickey Florenbaum, Dave Rosenwald, Ehrenbaum, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Jaffa, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Grunfeld, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Grunfeld, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weidner, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Rosenwald.

Mrs. Nathan Jaffa, by the way, is the guest of Mrs. Beside Jaffa, her husband has continued on his busy campaigning way.

Dressed for the Occasion.

Landy and Biner, the amiable village couple, assisted by Ben Jaffa and Art Prager—a nice boy, Art Prager; you must judge him by the company he keeps—played a practical joke on Hilda Grunfeld and some girl friends the other night, which, carefully handled, will look all right in print, and which is too good to keep, anyway.

It seems that Miss Grunfeld gave a shumber party for Julia Jaffa, and invited also for the night, Regina Rosenwald and Hannah Nussbaum.

They agreed between themselves to make no date for the night, an arrangement that probably did not meet with the full approval of the above mentioned several young men, although not one of them offered the slightest objection.

Between 9 and 10 o'clock, when the girls were deeply engrossed in a game of bridge, but not too deeply engrossed to wonder between themselves why the boys didn't at least call them up, there came a gentle tapping at the window pane. It was repeated, a bit louder this time, and the girls went to the window to find several masked figures peering in. After the usual number of squeals and quite a feminine hal-lalaboo, the masked figures walked boldly in the front door, the squeals giving way to laughter as the somewhat unusual attire of the intruders forced itself upon the amazed sensibilities of the girls. There wasn't the slightest bit of doubt about it—the grotesquely masked figures were men and they were palmaria! Over their suits! Let me add.

Despite the dissenting Mr. Skinner, the speed limit has been raised and motorists may now clip it up at fifteen per hour. Thus is tender justice meted out with a friendly hand to the motor enthusiasts, who will be allowed to speed with all the ardor that gasoline and a smooth road is apt to kindle, provided, of course, the enthusiasm exceeds not fifteen miles an hour.

That's what it is to have a mayor and a council who enjoy the festive motor car. When gracious sympathy comes clothed in power, it helps considerably, believe me.

Anyhow, there is great and continuous rejoicing among the automobilists, who can take the streets at fifteen per hour, without fear of being held up by a faithful and stern "cop," or hailed into police court.

Whether the ordinance will be abused, as according to Mr. Skinner, who claims the drivers will go the speed limit three better anyhow, remains to be seen. Councilman Skinner probably takes consolation in the fact that he has the promise of the other members of the city council to reduce the speed limit, in case Mr. Skinner gets killed by an automobile.

Big Doings All the Week.

The Masons did things all week, even had another banquet Wednesday night, at which the local lodge entertained the visiting members, but as the ladies were not in on proceedings, that lets the banquet out, insofar as its value as a society item goes. What do we care about stage? And yet, there was once a fox and he looked long and covetously at a delicious bunch of grapes, and called them sour—but, what's that got to do with the price of eggs?

Another affair in connection with the Masonic grand lodge sessions, and one which brought the ladies out in best bib and tucker, not to say the happiest spirits, was the reception given Friday evening by Pilgrim commandery to the visiting Knights Templar and their friends of feminine persuasion.

This proved a very jolly affair, "open house" in the truest, most hospitable sense of the term. The sir knights came in full uniform and the scene was a brilliant one.

Chisum, of Roswell, grand patron, on Friday evening the grand officers put on initiatory work, splendidly interspersed with music, and followed by the floral drill by Adah chapter, a magnificent spectacle, eliciting the warmest praise from the grand officers, and all privileged to view the pretty pageant.

This was directed by Mrs. John A. White, with Mrs. Robert Haynes as musical supervisor. Mrs. John W. Wilson, grand musician, had charge of the music in connection with the initiatory ceremonies. Among those participating in the musical program were Misses Grace and Kathryn Grimmer, Mr. J. G. Gould, and the ladies' quartet, composed of the Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Charles McLaughlin, Mrs. Fred Metzger and Miss Kathryn Grimmer.

The grand chapter convention ended that night with a sumptuous banquet, at which elaborate decorations flitted in beauty with the stunning frocks worn by the O. E. S. ladies, and at which a feast fit for the historic gods was served. There followed the installation of the newly elected officers, and the concluding ceremonies of the most successful grand chapter assembly ever held by the New Mexico Eastern Star.

A Birthday Luncheon.

Mrs. John Miller was hostess at a beautifully appointed luncheon Monday in honor of Mrs. L. G. Rice and Mrs. D. A. Ritter.

It was a birthday party, a joint celebration of the birthdays of Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Ritter, both of which fall on the same day.

The centerpiece was a birthday cake, with a huge question mark, formed of pink candles, surrounded by sixteen candles. The wonderful cake reflected its glory in an oval mirror, framed in garlands of sweet almonds and apricot of the dainty flowers falling from the chandelier, and at sweet will over the table, went to make a most attractive scene of decoration.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Ritter, Mrs. Rice, Mrs. C. E. Lowber, Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Lowber's mother, Mrs. Tom Wilkerson, Mrs. Raymond Stinson and Mrs. Miller.

Mrs. J. A. Reddy entertained the Duplicate Whist club at her home last Monday. The club is wont to play each Monday afternoon at the Woman's club, and only occasionally enjoys an afternoon at the home of one of its members. Mrs. Reddy's party was charmingly planned and greatly enjoyed.

On Wednesday afternoon the High Land Auction Bridge club met with Mrs. Reddy, and had an unusually good game and a gay afternoon at "auction," the favorite card pursuit of the local elite at this time.

Mrs. Hugh Collins will be the hostess this week.

Visitor Returns Home.

Miss Mary Ida Dunderly leaves tomorrow for her home in Ennis, Tex., after an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. J. B. Herndon. She has been quite a bit entertained pending her departure, one of the jolliest affairs of the past week being three tables at auction bridge given by Mrs. D. M. Carra, Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Carra's party, though small and informal, was none the less enjoyable.

Mrs. Isaac Farth had planned to entertain for Miss Dunderly, but was forced to recall her invitations, on account of the illness of her little daughter, Iona, who inconsiderately developed "chicken pox." Iona was not seriously ill at any time, and is now well on the road to recovery.

Enter—Mrs. Ramon Hubbell.

Mrs. Ramon Hubbell's debut in Albuquerque was sensational, to say the least. Her stay was brief, but the time was advantageously employed in the selection of numerous hats and gowns, somewhat to the discomfort of the merchants, who, feeling a bit uncertain as to her standing with the Lorenzo Hubbell family, did not fall all over themselves extending the stunning looking woman credit. Good looking she undoubtedly is, with a superb assurance, in keeping with her personal attractions. It seems that one day the past week she ordered a taxi, and proceeded to canvass the shops in quest of articles of personal adornment, buying recklessly and without any regard at all for the amount of expenditure. Shriners' Banquet Brilliant.

City, grand maffron, here to see that things were well done, the grand chapter sessions of the Order of Eastern Star, have been unusually interesting, and impressively beautiful throughout.

Wedding Rings

One of the most sacred things in life is that little band of gold which signifies marriage.

To the bride, it is the key to all happiness in the world—her constant companion through life.

What sense of satisfaction to him who sells a wedding ring, well knowing that years hence, the same hand, withered with age, will wear his ring exhibiting little sign of wear.

No ring contains gold so thoroughly wrought, so thoroughly worked on the grain to withstand wear, as do the rings we sell.

Thousands of women in the autumn of life are the proud owners of rings purchased at our store.

ALBUQUERQUE NEW MEXICO

THE BALKAN STATES.

The Journal publishes elsewhere an outline map of the countries involved in the Balkan struggle. The fighting is progressing on all borders of European Turkey with the siege of Adrianople as the center of interest at the moment. The Montenegrins are attacking on the northwest, the Serbians on the north, the Bulgarians on the northeast, and the Greeks on the south. The whole border country is involved in a blaze of war.

The armies fighting are among the largest that have participated in modern times, the aggregate number of men now defending and attacking Adrianople equalling the forces of the Russians and Japs at Mukden.

The allied Balkan states are warring to smash the treaty of Berlin which retains under Turkish control a large Christian population. The treaty of Berlin signed by the great powers of Europe rewrote the treaty of San Stefano. In 1878, when his armies in sight of the walls of Constantinople, Russia dictated terms to Turkey in a treaty signed at San Stefano on the sea of Marmora within a few miles of the Golden Horn.

By the treaty of San Stefano, almost all of the Christian population of the peninsula was relieved of the Turkish yoke. Bulgaria was so enlarged as to include not only eastern Rumelia, but much of Macedonia, including Monastir. All that was retained under Turkish rule was the Adrianople region, a strip along the northern coast of the Aegean, and Mohammedan Albania, Epirus as well as Thessaly were given to Greece.

Europe would not accept San Stefano. The greater Bulgaria created thereby was regarded as virtually a Russian protectorate. It shut Austria-Croat from coveted Saloniki. It forestalled Russian possession of Constantinople thereby commanding the Bosphorus and the Dardanelles. Austria-Hungary prepared for war, and Disraeli, the British prime minister, sent the British fleet to the Bosphorus and transported Indian regiments to Malta.

Then Disraeli, to avert war and to enable the czar to "save his face," acting the part of "an honest broker," to use his own words, convened the congress of Berlin. Great Britain, France, Austria, Italy, Germany, Russia and Turkey participated and the Balkan principalities were represented. The congress rewrote the treaty of San Stefano. It took Epirus from Greece. It restored Macedonia and Monastir to the Turks. It divided Bulgaria into eastern Rumelia, it authorized the Austrian occupation of Bosnia, Herzegovina, and the partitioning of the Sanjak of Novi-Bazar. It imposed upon Turkey the duty of introducing certain reforms in the European provinces remaining to her. That provision was contained in Article 23, of which we have heard so much about in the press dispatches since hostilities were threatened.

The reforms guaranteed by Article 23 never were carried out, and for nearly thirty-five years the condition of the Christian population under Turkish rule has been about the same as it was before the treaty of Berlin. This constitutes the complaint for which the Balkans have gone to war.

The treaty of Berlin must be rewritten and what is more to the point, must be enforced before the Balkan states will be at peace with Turkey. It has been pretty well frayed in the course of years. Eastern Rumelia has amalgamated with Bulgaria which has become a chaos. Austria has annexed the two northwestern provinces and wants the narrow strip of country belonging to Turkey that is wedged in between Montenegro and Serbia. That is her outlet to Saloniki, west of Greece on the Aegean sea. Russia still wants and means to have Constantinople. All of which is involved in the treaty which must be written after hostilities have ceased.

FERGUSON FOR CONGRESS.

The question this year is not whether a man is a democrat, republican or progressive, so far as New Mexico is concerned. If every voter in this state were to cast his ballot for Taft, the president would not have more than fifteen of the 531 electoral votes; if every voter in New Mexico should cast his ballot for Theodore Roosevelt, the Bull Moose candidate would have less than fifty of the 531 electoral votes.

Wilson's election is certain.

A democratic majority in the senate is certain.

A big majority in the house of representatives is certain.

New Mexico comprises one congressional district. The state has two United States senators, who, if both should be in the senate after March 4th, will be out of harmony with every department of government. They will be able to do little for the state. Notwithstanding senatorial courtesy.

If New Mexico should send Nathan Jaffa to congress (which it will not) he would not only be out of harmony with all departments of government, but in the house of representatives such a thing as senatorial courtesy is unknown.

Whatever Mr. Jaffa might like to do for the state, he would stand no more chance than the traditional snowball.

Hon. H. B. Fergusson will be returned to congress, and he will do things and he will get things for New Mexico.

Unless Fergusson is elected, it would be just as well for New Mexico to have no representation in the next congress.

OUR PUBLIC LANDS.

Secretary of the Interior Fisher was in the city Friday and gave an interview to the Journal in which he expressed strong opposition to the policy of turning over the public domain to the various states in which government lands and forest reserves are located.

Mr. Fisher is a conservationist, but his opinion will have little influence with the next administration or the congress that will result from the elections a week from next Tuesday. Mr. Wilson will support Mr. Fisher with some man who is not a disciple of Gifford Pinchot who attempted to deprive the states of all public lands in order to hold them permanently for the federal government.

Also, the next secretary of the interior will not, like Hallinger, favor turning the public domain over to a few big corporations. The democratic policy will be to cede the forest reserves and public lands to the states in which they are located. Doubtless there will be some restrictions imposed as to how the states shall dispose of such lands, once they are acquired.

Congressman Fergusson will aid the proposition to secure the public land for New Mexico. Mr. Jaffa could have absolutely no influence should he be elected.

The greatest financial sufferer from the shooting of Colonel Roosevelt was Life, the comic weekly. It had everything ready for getting out a "Bull Moose" number. When Schrank wounded the colonel the forms had to be called back and the wallows padded before it could circulate.

Mr. Fergusson is going to be returned to congress and the people of New Mexico are to be congratulated. Also he will not owe his vote to the use of money. His friends are not the kind that invite indictment by violating the corrupt practices act.

There is an almost unanimous opinion among all races and creeds that Jack Johnson should have time to reduce the size of his head while he exerts his wonderful physical strength working in the chain gang for a few years.

In Senator Heyburn the country had a statesman who intended to be honestly and persistently reactionary. He never pretended to be anything else. In this he had a distinct advantage over some of his fellow senators.

Colonel Roosevelt proposes to prove in court that he is not an habitual drunkard. He has used a newspaper for denunciations for charging that he is in the habit of looking upon the wine when it is red.

An automobile with a half horsepower and a speed of four miles an hour has been invented. Races between this machine and the baby buggy ought to form an exciting form of sport.

A statesman is one who can claim the support of the bull moose and the elephant, while saying a good word for the donkey.

Twenty dollar bills are being dispensed pretty freely just now. Need anyone guess twice as to where they come from?

ROCKEFELLER BOARD AIDS MANY SCHOOLS

New York, Oct. 26.—More than half a million dollars was appropriated by the general education board today toward the financial aid of colleges in central and southern states and for the first time, toward agricultural demonstration work on farms in northern states. The University of Denver receives $100,000.

The general education board was incorporated ten years ago and endowed by John D. Rockefeller.

Interesting Story of New Mexico Printed in London in 1778.

The Morning Journal has been favored with a somewhat interesting story on New Mexico, published in a London periodical in the year 1778. The story is from a bound volume of a magazine published at that ancient date, to Miss Olivia Everett, of Santa Fe, who was attracted to the story while on a visit to England a little over a year ago. The story follows:

THE LADY'S MAGAZINE.

ENTERTAINING COMPANION FOR THE FAIR SEX, APPROPRIATELY SOLELY TO THEIR USE AND AMUSEMENT FOR FEBRUARY, 1778.

London: Printed for G. Robinson, No. 25, Paternoster-Row, where Faversham from Correspondents will be received.

SPANISH DOMINIONS IN NORTH AMERICA. NEW MEXICO.

New Mexico is situated between the latitudes of 23 and 43 degrees of north, and between 94 and 125 degrees of west longitude, being about 2,000 miles in length, and 1,500 in breadth.

It is bounded by Florida and Canada on the north; by Old Mexico and the Pacific ocean on the south, and by the same ocean on the west.

Subdivisions and chief towns are New Mexico, proper, Santa Fe, Atlixcala, St. Antonio, Sonora, Tlaxcala, California, St. Juan.

This country, lying mostly in the 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th climates, affords in many parts an agreeable temperature of heat and cold, the summers, though very warm, are neither sultry nor unwholesome, and the winters, though sharp, are far from being insupportable.

New Mexico is beautifully variegated with plains embellished with flowers, easy acclivities clothed with beautiful trees of different kinds, and intersected with salutary streams and rivers of water. The soil in many places is exuberantly rich, and the province, by proper cultivation, might be rendered one of the most desirable in North America. If not in any other part of the world, a great variety both of wild and tame animals are found here. Among the former are buffaloes, beavers, wild hogs, wolves, lions, wild cats and other beasts of the forest; and among the latter are horses, mules, asses, black cattle, sheep, goats, etc., originally imported from Old Mexico, and have multiplied amazingly.

Among the feathered kind are parrots, hawks, geese, cranes, vultures, gulls, curlews, snipes, quails, larks, nightingales, etc. Pearl oysters, common oysters, crazy fish, holsters of the tenuous kind, abound in the gulph of California. Turtles are caught in the great old ponds on the coast of the South sea. On the same coast is found one of the most beautiful shell-fish that can be imagined, of which the colour is a vivid blue, equal to that of the lily leaf.

Among the vegetable productions are a vast variety of excellent fruits, particularly pistachio nuts, figs of different colours, pumpkins, water melons of a prodigious size, grapes, etc. In California is a remarkable tree called by the natives, palo santo, which produces not only a pleasant fruit, but likewise an excellent perfume. Here is likewise a shrub named pitahaya, without leaves, which bears a very delicious fruit, being both rich and well tempered with a grateful acid. Externally it resembles a horse-chestnut, but the pulp, which is of various colours, is more like that of a fig than any other fruit. Here is likewise a kind of musk, a juice which exudes from a particular species of rose tree, which has all the sweetness of sugar, though it has not its whiteness.

New Mexico has mines of gold and silver, but the values of their produce has not yet been ascertained. Turquoise, emeralds, and other precious stones are likewise found here. California enjoys one of the richest pearl fisheries in the world, and in the inland parts there are plains of salt water firm and clear as crystal, which may in future be of great service in curing the fish which abound on the coast, if the country should ever be inhabited by persons of industry and of a commercial turn.

The most considerable rivers are Rio Salado, and Rio del Norte in New Mexico, and Rio Colorado, and Rio de Guadalquivir in California. The aborigines, or original inhabitants, consist of a great number of Indian tribes and nations, totally detached from each other, of whom the principal are the Apaches, a brave and martial people.

The Indians, which live on the east side of California, are enemies to the Spaniards, but are in general, hospitable.

When the Spaniards first entered New Mexico, the natives were well clothed, their villages were neat.

and their houses built with stone. Their flocks were numerous, and they themselves very good marksmen.

With respect to religion they were idolaters, worshipping the sun and moon; but, at present, several of them have been made proselytes by the Roman missionaries.

Santa Fe, the capital of New Mexico, is situated near the source of the Rio del Norte, about a hundred and thirty leagues from the gulph. It is a handsome, well-built, opulent town, and the seat of a bishop, suffragan of Mexico, as well as of a governor of the province, who is subordinate to the viceroy of Old Mexico.

There is no account extant of the time when New Mexico was discovered, possibly it was made gradually, as it is not separated from Old Mexico by any natural boundary. California was discovered by Hernando Cortez, the conqueror of Mexico; but no measures were taken by the Spaniards, for many years, to form any settlement in it. Sir Francis Drake, in the year 1578, landed here, took possession of it, called it New Albion, found on it well civilized people, and was formerly invested with the right of this supposed peninsula, by the chief of king, who acknowledged Queen Elizabeth for the sovereign, since this era the English have refrained from exerting their right to this country, though undoubtedly preferable to that of the Spaniards, owing, perhaps, to the difficult communication between this place and the British colonies.

ROADS MEETING IS AROUSING MUCH INTEREST

Highway Gathering Tomorrow Evening Will Be Well Attended; Affair Being Thoroughly Advertised.

The good roads meeting to be held at the Elks' theater Monday evening will be an affair of considerable interest from present prospects. Many local people have promised to attend, and the general public is taking a much greater and deeper interest in it than is usually the case.

The address of the evening will be delivered by Col. R. E. Twitchell, of Las Vegas. Colonel Twitchell declared at first that he would have to postpone his appearance here but after pressure had been brought to bear by local roads boosters he rearranged the local matters which would have kept him away and will be heard here tomorrow as scheduled.

The good roads boosters of this city are advertising the meeting in a thorough way and there is no doubt that a large number of enthusiasts and others will attend the meeting. It is hoped to make them all enthusiastic boosters for better roads and the bond issue before the session is over.

ROADS ASSOCIATION AT WORK IN STATE.

The New Mexico Good Roads association is carrying on its campaign for better roads and the passage of the proposed $500,000 bond issue in a way that leaves little to be desired.

Treasurer John Becker, Jr., of Belen, has sent posters and literature to every postoffice in New Mexico, asking that the postmaster post the matter where it can be read by all who come to his office. It is hoped by this means to impress upon the voters that the bond issue means simply a funding of the road tax already levied and that it will not increase taxation.

Francis E. Lester, a Las Cruces booster, has written personal letters to three or more prominent men in each county, urging that they bond the bond issue. He has received answers from all these men, but it appears in some counties that the voters are not well informed regarding the purpose and working of the bond issue. Special efforts will be directed to these counties.

Clay T. Manville, of Silver City, reports considerable boosting work done at political meetings and is distributing a large quantity of Good Roads association literature.

Altogether the association is active and is pushing its campaign energetically.

Promoter Charged with Embezzlement. Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 26.—James C. Yancey, promoter of oil concerns capitalized at $15,000,000, is speeding toward Pittsburgh, Pa., a prisoner charged with the embezzlement from J. W. Bell of $1,000. Nothing is known here of the alleged crime.

The best plaster. A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Liniment and bound on over the affected parts is superior to a plaster and costs only one-tenth as much. For sale by all druggists.—Adv.

Get your Sunday dinner at the Home restaurant. Dinner from 5 to 7:30 p. m. Come and listen to the music. 205 West Gold avenue.

New Methods. "How could she win her suit? She had no witnesses that he had proposed." "No, but her father had installed a dictograph."—Detroit Free Press.

What They Were. "Little Bessie had been gazing earnestly at the waxed moustache of her father's friend. Suddenly she remarked: 'Why, my kity has smelters!'"—Judge.

Corporation Laws and Forms. New Mexico now has a Commission empowered to regularize corporations. Corporation officers, attorneys, irrigation engineers should know corporation laws and procedure. For this purpose get KANE'S NEW MEXICO CORPORATION LAWS, RULES AND FORMS. All laws on General Corporations, Banks, Insurance, etc., with citations; rules and forms for drawing and filing corporation, irrigation papers, etc. Also U. S. laws and forms; the only compilation of these laws from 1897 to 1912.

The 1912 legislature made but few changes in corporation laws; many New Mexico laws are out of print; no revision made since 1897, none adopted this year and none will be adopted until 1915. Such conditions make this book indispensable.

LIFE INCOME BOND
DO YOU KNOW that for the payment of a nominal sum annually you can purchase a bond, which at maturity (10, 15 or 20 years hence, as you prefer) will provide a MONTHLY INCOME payable to yourself for life, and which upon your death will be paid to your beneficiary as long as she lives. Write or call for sample BOND and full particulars.

A Style kingdom of their own
Young men who are rightly dressed this fall will wear this fashion:
Slender coats and trousers. Lapels long and flat, or short and gracefully soft and rolling. Coat buttoned at bottom button seems yet to be the call. Waistcoat rather high-cut.
Patterns—oh, so many and so varied, from the striped worsteds to the heather tweeds and Scotch homespuns.
We have been to a world of effort to get the best style for young men, and we believe that Stein-Bloch have tailored
it. A moment's stop will tell you. You can see yourself fitted right—and the price will be popular with you.

U. S. MARINE BAND HAS NO PEER IN MUSICAL WORLD

Critics Both in America and Europe Have Pronounced
Washington Organization
Unexcelled.

"Better band music than Lieutenant William H. Santelmann and his redoubtable instrumentalists put to their credit had not been heard in New York in many a long day." Thus wrote the musical critic of the New York Herald in a notice of a concert given by the United States Marine band in the metropolis not long since.
That this praise was well deserved is proved by the fact that in every city
in which this famous band has played the verdict of critics and public coincided exactly with the dictum of the New York Herald. If all the good things that have been written in the newspapers of the country and in musical magazines about the Marine band could be put together they would constitute a grand symposium of acclamatory commendation of the work of the band.
It is a proof of the wonderful versatility of the band that it met the highest expectation and the unqualified approval as well, not only of exacting and trained musical critics, but no less of those whose less cultivated tastes and training inclined them to the lighter phases of musical composition.
This versatility is one of the things
in which the leader of the band, William H. Santelmann, takes special pride. He takes the ground that as conductor of a government institution and as such quasi the property of the whole people, its work must be so cut out that it will appeal not only to the elect, but also to the great masses who have a right to demand those things which they readily understand and which most please their ear.
In the rehearsal of the band this aim is never lost sight of. These rehearsals go on for several hours five days in the week, and just as much care is bestowed upon the proper rendering of a waltz or a march as upon a great overture or a symphony. If it were not so the band could never have attained the perfection of which it now boasts, nor could it hope to be so universally commended as has been the case wherever it has been heard since Mr. Santelmann has been its leader.

The people of Albuquerque will have an opportunity to judge for themselves
as to just what the United States Marine band can do, for on Wednesday night of this week it will give a concert at Elks' theater. Assurances are given that the program for this concert has been arranged with special care and that every one will find something to his taste and liking.
Beginning Monday morning the entire stock of fancy work goods will be placed on sale until entire lot is gone. 212 S. Third, FANCY WORK

GRAND CHAPTER OF THE EASTERN STAR ENDS ASSEMBLY

Brilliant Installation Ceremonies Following Elegant Banquet at Spacious Masonic Temple Last Night.

The eleventh annual assembly of the Grand Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star for New Mexico closed last night with the installation of the newly elected and appointive officers.

The installation ceremonies were brilliant in the extreme and took place in the lodge room of the magnificent Masonic temple, the finest building of its kind in the southwest. The ceremonies were largely attended.

Preceding the installation, an elegant banquet was served in the banquet hall, at which plates were provided for two hundred guests. No finer spread ever was served at a grand chapter session, according to members of the Eastern Star from over the state, who enjoyed the banquet.

The grand officers elected yesterday afternoon at the closing session of the assembly, together with the appointive officers, announced following the election, all of whom were duly installed last night, are as follows:

Grand Matron—Mrs. J. Abbie Aldrich, Gallup.
Grand Patron—Alex D. Goldenberg, Tucuman.
Assistant Grand Matron—Mrs. Leona Morgan, Clovis.
Grand Assistant Patron—Dr. A. L. Dillon, Clovis.
Grand Secretary—Mrs. Marion P. Stevens, Raton.
Grand Treasurer—Mrs. Lucy Reed, Albuquerque.
Grand Conductress—Mrs. Mabel Fortwood, Minors.
Grand Associate Conductress—Mrs. Emma Mott, Lordsburg.
Grand Warder—Mrs. J. W. Williams.
Grand Sentinel—Jessamine Johnson.

Grand Marshal—Mrs. Miller.
Grand Adah—Mrs. Bowen.
Grand Ruth—Mrs. Kanen.
Grand Esther—Mrs. Llewellyn.
Grand Martha—Mrs. Steed.
Grand Electra—Mrs. Snyder.
Grand Organist—Mrs. Alice Huff.
Grand Chaplain—Edith Turner.

With the close of the grand assembly of the Eastern Star last night, there ended a week of successive Masonic doings, during which the various grand Masonic bodies of New Mexico were in annual session, together with the annual convocation of the Knights Templar, Masons and their wives, the latter members of the Eastern Star, were here in large numbers, the visitors numbering upwards of 500 for the week.

Next fall the Masonic bodies will hold their grand sessions at Santa Fe, at which time the magnificent new Masonic cathedral now under construction, likely will finally be completed. The various Masonic bodies voted unanimously to convene at Santa Fe.

PASTOR CONDEMNED TO DEATH IN THE ELECTRIC CHAIR

Extreme Penalty Will be Meted Out to Clergyman Who Betrayed Little Girls Entrusted to His Care.

(The Morning Journal Special Edited Wire.) Greenville, S. C., Oct. 26.—Rev. Thurston U. Vaughn, charged with criminally assaulting three little girls, today was found guilty and was sentenced to die in the electric chair, December 20th.

The assault was made last May at the South Carolina Odd Fellows' home where Vaughn was superintendent. Today Vaughn confessed he had mistreated two others in addition to those mentioned in the indictment.

Vaughn's confession brought his trial to a sensational close. There had been no intimation that the former clergyman would confess.

"I have acted devilishly, I have acted shamefully," began Vaughn. "The devil tempted me and I have fallen," he exclaimed in his plea to the jury, while judges, jurors and spectators wept.

J. R. Sexton, mechanical superintendent for the western grand division of the Santa Fe, is here from his headquarters at La Junta. Mr. Sexton is accompanied by H. M. Riley and E. W. Shelton, Santa Fe officials.

Foods That Bind Little Children

Start them off right with a good laxative and then watch their diet.

Mothers are often unconsciously very careless about the diet of their children, forcing all to eat the same foods. The fact is that all foods do not agree alike with different persons. Hence, avoid what seems to constipate the child, or to give it indigestion, and urge it to take more of what is quickly digested.

If the child shows a tendency to constipation it should immediately be given a mild laxative to help the bowels. By this is not meant a physic or purgative, for these should never be given to children, nor anything like salts, pills, etc. What the child requires is simply a small dose of the gentlest of medicines, such as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which in the opinion of thousands of watchful mothers is the ideal remedy for any child showing a tendency to constipation. So many things can happen to a constipated child that care is necessary. Catching cold, piles, headaches, sleeplessness, and many other annoyances that children should not have can usually be traced to constipation.

Many of America's foremost families are never without Syrup Pepsin, because one can never tell when some member of the family may need it, and all can use it. Thousands endorse it, among them the parents of Alton Hillenkamp, Naragoches, Tex., and Mrs. H. B. Chapman, Sherwood, Ore., who buy it regularly of their druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, the latter size being bought by those who already know

Everyone likes Syrup Pepsin as it is very pleasant to the taste. It is also mild and non-irritating and free from injurious ingredients.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal will do—to Dr. W. H. Caldwell, 415 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.—Adv.

MAYOR SELLERS IS ALIVE TO PROBLEM OF POOR'S CARE

City Executive Calls on Those Interested to Attend Meeting of Council on Tomorrow Evening.

Mayor D. K. B. Sellers, realizing the grave problem confronting Albuquerque as regards the care of the city's poor and indigent sick, has taken the initiative in providing some way for the adequate handling of this matter. He has issued a call to those most vitally interested to attend a meeting of the city council on tomorrow evening at which it is proposed to discuss the situation and reach some sort of a definite understanding that immediate action may be taken.

Mayor Sellers yesterday declared that although Albuquerque was the biggest city in the state, and Bernalillo county the most populous, that it is at present ignoring a matter of grave concern—one which must be speedily met and handled properly, else the city will lose much of the prestige it now enjoys as a city which does things.

In an effort to come to some understanding as to the proper care of the poor and indigent sick, the mayor has addressed a letter to prominent citizens, clergymen, city and county officials and others, making a personal appeal to them to attend the meeting tomorrow night. Those to whom the letter was sent include the three members of the board of county commissioners, the district attorney, Sister Philby Neco, of St. Joseph's hospital and sanatorium, Mrs. J. H. Hendel, president of the Young Woman's Christian Association, Mrs. H. B. Ray, secretary of the Non-Sectarian Benevolent Association, Mrs. Bernard Hild, president of the Non-Sectarian Benevolent Association, Father A. M. Mandelari, Dr. Mendel Silber, Dr. L. G. Rice, city physician, Dr. C. A. Frank, county physician, all of the ministers of Albuquerque and others interested in benevolent and charitable work in the city and county.

The text of his letter, which is self-explanatory and to which many have responded, signifying their intention to attend the council meeting, follows:

Albuquerque, Oct. 25, 1912.
Dear Sir: Owing to the increasing need of some action being taken relative to the poor and indigent sick, which naturally becomes greater at this time of the year, I have addressed a letter to the board of county commissioners, our official legal advisors, city and county physicians, heads of the various hospitals and charitable organizations, and to the ministers of the city, earnestly requesting them to attend a meeting of the city council

"REALLY DOES" PUT STOMACHS IN ORDER AT ONCE—PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN

Time it! In just five minutes there will be no Indigestion, Sourness, Heartburn, Gas or Dyspepsia.

The good foods you eat fit because taste good, but work badly because they are indigestible and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach. Now Pape's Diapepsin, let this down. Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. No gift for people how badly your stomach is bothered you get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleasure you must be that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear. Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. Pape's Diapepsin is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach goes sweet, no gases, no belching, no crickings of indigestion, food is digested and you feel fine.

Put an end to stomach trouble by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.—Adv.

EXPERT PLACED IN CHARGE OF TENTS AT ST. JOSEPH'S

Sister Marita, with Eighteen Years' Experience in Handling Tubercular Cases, Chosen for Important Position.

Announcement is made that hereafter Sister Marita, for many years in charge of tubercular cases in the Gluckner sanatorium in Colorado Springs, will have the active management and direction of the care of patients suffering from tuberculosis in the St. Joseph's tent town, in Albuquerque.

For eighteen years Sister Marita has done but little else in Colorado Springs, Santa Fe and other southwestern cities, but look after the welfare of tubercular patients in the various institutions conducted by the Sisters of Charity. By education and experience Sister Marita is well qualified for the important position to which she has been appointed. Sister Marita has had the benefit of long training under Dr. W. H. Anderson, a noted expert on lung diseases, at present member of the staff of physicians at the Gluckner in Colorado Springs.

St. Joseph's sanatorium is especially well equipped to care for those suffering from tuberculosis. Fresh air being recognized by all authorities as an indispensable factor in the cure of the disease, the patients at St. Joseph's are placed in open air cottages, located convenient to the main buildings of that magnificent institution.

The cottages are so built and arranged that an abundant supply of fresh air is available throughout the day and night. The cottages are well heated and the service in connection with the care of the patients is excellent in every particular. Diet being an essential feature in the cure of tuberculosis, special attention is given to the nourishment furnished; the individual wants of each patient being looked after carefully by the trained nurses on duty at all times. The tents or cottages are placed in such a position as to permit patients to enjoy to the fullest extent the matchless New Mexico sunshine apparent nearly every day from early morning until late afternoon.

Every effort is made in "tent town" to compensate patients for separation from home and friends; nothing is left undone to effect a cure or a substantial betterment of condition. The charge per week in the tents at St. Joseph's is most reasonable, being consistent with the service afforded. Full particulars regarding the tents and prices may be obtained upon application by mail or in person to the superintendent of St. Joseph's Sanatorium, Albuquerque, N. M.

NEW MEXICO WETHERS PLACED ON MARKET AT KANSAS CITY

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.)
Creston, Oct. 25.—Alex. McKenzie, one of our leading sheep men, has just placed two thousand wethers on the Kansas City market.

Mr. McKenzie is one of the few men who has ranches in as many as three states. His headquarters are near Kanton, Oklahoma, while his operations cover the larger part of Los Animas county, Colorado, and he also has extensive ranges in Union county, New Mexico. He came to this country thirty years ago and took advantage of the opportunity to secure large tracts of land which have since become valuable.

Mr. McKenzie's brother, Murdo, McKenzie, at one time controlled large cattle interests in Texas, and now manages a large cattle ranch in South America.

You are not experimenting on yourself when you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a cold as that preparation has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds, and can always be depended upon. It is equally valuable for adults and children and may be given to young children with implicit confidence as it contains no harmful drug. Sold by all druggists.—Adv.

RANCHMAN SHIPS BUNCH OF BEEVES TO DENVER MARKET

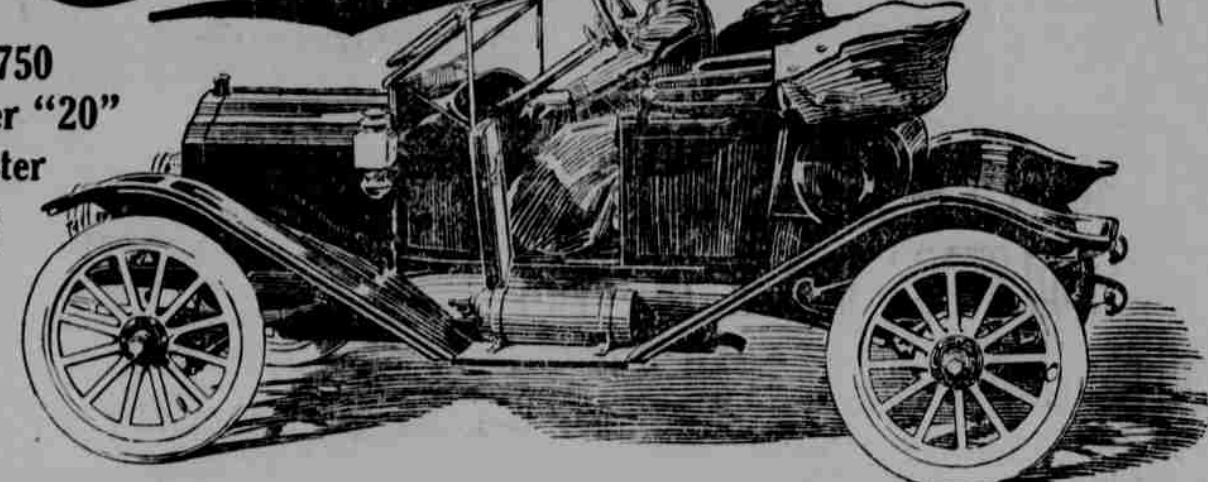

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.)
Silver City, N. M., Oct. 26.—Harry Martin this week shipped 1,450 two and three-year old beefs to Denver. They were in tip-top condition and he received high prices for them, the exact figure not given out. Dave Tullrich, another prominent Grant county cattleman shipped some fine cows from Deming, having sold them to Denver men. He is expecting W. Bingham, of El Paso, here in a few days to look at another bunch of fat cows.

Congressman Ralph D. Cole, of Ohio, spoke to quite a large crowd at the Elks' opera house Thursday night. He made a strong appeal for tariff and eloquently upheld a protective tariff. He is confident that is going to be the winner.

The Phelps-Dodge people have put more men at work in their copper mines at Leopold, and it is said more are to be added soon. The work of installing the electric plant at the Elma mine at Florio is progressing rapidly.

Caught.

Studebaker

The $750 Studebaker "20" Roadster

Top, Windshield, Prest-O-Lite Tank and Speedometer extra.

"A Perfect Car for Two"—

That describes this $750 Studebaker "20" Roadster.

Built to give two persons the utmost comfort, the utmost convenience, and at the same time a perfect personal car—just the right car for the business man who has quick personal calls to make either for business or pleasure.

You get into it with an easy step, because it is built low.

Its softly cushioned seat is tilted so as to give you that easy arm chair feeling—and the seat is not divided.

There is plenty of room to stretch out your feet. A large steering wheel also adds to your comfort. Shifting levers are easy to handle so that your wife or daughter can drive the car without taxing her strength—and the skirt guard at the lower part of these levers is an important device when the driver is a woman.

It has plenty of power to take you over any hill without any difficulty. It has speed to keep you out in front on the road. It is light running, with a full spring service that insures freedom from shock.

When you invest your money in a Studebaker "20" Roadster you are buying from an organization that has sixty years of business success behind it.

And you are getting with your investment Studebaker Service, with its 36 factory branches and 2500 equipped dealers, which guarantees to you quick supply of any needed part.

EXHIBITORS FROM SAN JUAN COUNTY ARE SATISFIED

Return Home from State Fair at Albuquerque with Unstinted Praise for Treatment Accorded Them.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.)
Aztec, N. M., Oct. 26.—The San Juan representatives who accompanied the exhibit from here to the state fair at Albuquerque arrived home with a bunch of blue, red, yellow, and green ribbons, and full of enthusiasm for the excellent treatment they received at the hands of the state fair management and the people of Albuquerque generally, not forgetting to mention the kind words of the Morning Journal and Evening Herald for the small exhibit taken along. The record of ribbons in proportion to the number of entries from the two community exhibits of Farmington and Aztec were:

Farmington—Sixty entries; forty-five firsts, eight seconds, four thirds, no fourths.
Aztec—Twenty-eight entries; fifteen firsts, eight seconds, one third, three fourths.

Farmington took fifty-seven ribbons out of sixty entries, and Aztec took twenty-seven out of twenty-eight entries.

The San Juan representative

brought back the cheering news that the San Juan region is a matter of a short time. With a live set of citizens such as Albuquerque has, and a splendid empire like the San Juan basin just at their door waiting to be connected by rail, containing now between 35,000 and 40,000 people, thousands of acres of undeveloped land and plenty of water to irrigate it, as well as thousands of acres of coal land, timber, livestock and mining resources—with such a country and such energetic capable men as Albuquerque has, the future is indeed bright.

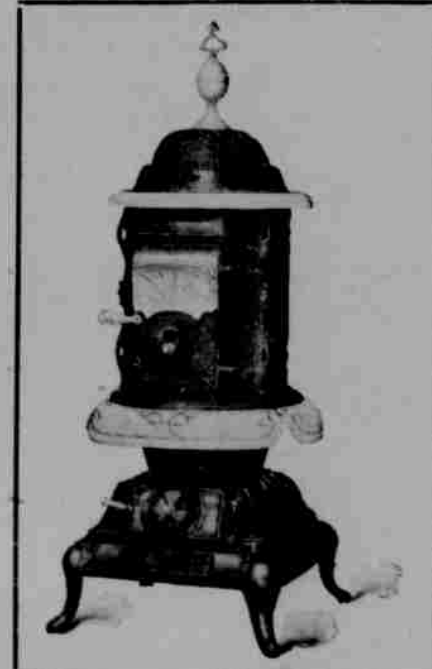

Next year's state fair should receive an appropriation from the state legislature, for the fair just closed was a splendid advertisement for the state, and was instrumental in drawing the people together for interchange of ideas to the betterment of the entire state. Albuquerque is to be congratulated on its enterprise and the public spirit shown in the paying of the city's streets. New Mexico can well be proud of its chief city, and the San Juan basin will still be a trail to Albuquerque as soon as rail connection is established.

Biliousness is due to a disordered condition of the stomach. Chamberlain's Tablets are essentially a stomach medicine, intended especially to act on that organ; to cleanse it, strengthen it, tone and invigorate it, to regulate the liver and to banish biliousness positively and effectually. For sale by all druggists.—Adv.
