DEATH SENTENCE ON DIAZ MAY NOT BE EXECUTED BY MILITARY

Supreme Court of Mexico Issues Order for Review of Findings of Court Martial by Civil Authorities.

MADERO SHOWS NO SIGN OF CLEMENCY

Rebel Bands Continue Active in Many Parts of Republic and Revolt May Not End Soon.

DIAZ CAPTURED BY BARRETT BREACHERY

Vera Cruz, Oct. 27.—General Felix Diaz, leader of the recent revolt here, and Major Zarat, Colonel Antonio Miguel and Lieutenant Lima, officers under Diaz in his attempt to overthrow the government, today were condemned to death by court martial.

Lieutenant Camacho, Captain Mayen, of the rural guard, and Captain Hernandez Martinez, were sentenced to ten years' imprisonment and Gabriel Ramos, customs collector, and Hernon Arantegui, commandant of telegraph, were sentenced to two years' imprisonment. Nine other officers and civilians were allowed to go free.

The court martial was presided over by General Davilla and sat in secret session from 2 o'clock Saturday morning until 2:15 o'clock Sunday morning. The sentences caused a sensation.

A great crowd, including relatives and many friends of the accused men, gathered and waited for hours for the findings.

General Davilla refused to acknowledge the orders of the district judge to suspend the proceedings in the case of General Diaz and Major Zarat, General Beltran, military commander of the zone, accepted a writ of habeas corpus and suspended the executions, leaving the prisoners temporarily at the disposal of the district court.

It is thought probable that Colonel Miguel and Lieutenant Lima will be shot without much ado. The proceedings of the military court have been criticized generally as being very deficient. Public opinion has been strongly against a military trial for General Diaz. It is asserted that the prisoners had no adequate defense, and no investigations have been made so far as to why the federal troops entered the city with white flags flying and the greeting, "Long live Diaz."

Colonel Diaz Ordaz and Captain Cuesta were among the leaders of the rebels who escaped. It is thought they will join the Guaxaca rebels. General Diaz had more than 1,000 men under his banner, 300 of whom were made prisoners.

Colonel Jimenez Castro, of the federal forces, who was shot in the leg in a skirmish prior to the taking of Vera Cruz, has been sent to Mexico City for treatment of his wound.

At the same time word of the verdict against Diaz was received. The report that the military court had decided to recognize the order of suspension of sentence upon the revolutionary leader granted by the supreme court, pending investigation as to whether the trial of Diaz should be held by a military or a civil court.

Popular apprehension regarding the fate of Diaz has been greatly allayed, however, by this action of the court martial. The delay in the receipt of news regarding the outcome of the military trial is characteristic of all communication between the capital and Vera Cruz. The uncertainty as to what is transpiring there has served to increase the tenseness of the situation.

Friends of Diaz still fear the consequences of the conflict of authority that has arisen between judicial and military courts. If the military court observes the order of the civil authority the final disposition of the case will be prolonged. But it would be no surprise to thousands here to receive a message announcing the execution of the rebel general, and his associates.

Efforts to save their lives, especially that of Diaz, continues unabated. Prominent women, men high in affairs, members of congress and even high army officers have appealed to President Madero for clemency, but to all he has given the same negative answer.

To a group of women he intimated that to show clemency would be construed by the world as an indication of weakness. He cited as an example that when he captured Juarez, he pardoned General Navarro, which action the world attributed to weakness instead of to magnanimity. The popular voice of protest has grown so strong against the execution of Diaz that there has arisen between the president and senate a sharp discord, and as individuals the senators have disapproved the execution of Diaz because of the demonstration of defiance of that body's interpretation Friday.

That the senate will take this step is not considered probable for many reasons, one of them being the question of succession.

An incident showing the popular attitude occurred at Chihuahua on the occasion of a visit of a committee of women who pleaded for the lives of the condemned men. When leaving the castle they were cheered by soldiers of the military college quartered in the same building.

That the quick suppression of the Diaz revolt has shown strength on the part of the government is evident in the capital, but that the situation has been greatly improved is a matter of doubt.

A number of rebel bands who were operating in many parts of the republic are still active and apparently as active as before. Added to the list is a well defined new revolt in Yucatan.

General Aguilar continues his campaign in the region about Tehuantepec, where since the affair at Vera Cruz, his followers have entered a number of towns and appropriated horses and supplies.

Colonel Diaz Ordaz, cousin and chief lieutenant of General Diaz, has been captured on the coast. His whereabouts are unknown and many believe it not improbable he will continue the war begun by Diaz. No fear is felt of an advance on the coast by the rebels, because it is well known they have not sufficient ammunition to conduct a systematic warfare. The persistence of these rebels, however, makes practically certain the continuance of guerrilla fighting indefinitely.

With the ending of the Diaz campaign the government is sending the troops back to the border, especially about Torreon and in the state of Mexico, where the rebels lately have occupied and burned the railway stations between Toluca and Mexico.

A late despatch from Vera Cruz to the Herald says the court martial sentenced to death General Diaz, Colonel Antonio Miguel, Major Zarat and Lieutenant Salas. Other officers, according to the despatch, were sentenced to terms of imprisonment as follows:

Ten years—Captain Hernandez Martinez, commandant of Chihuahua, Lieutenant Mellin. Two years—Gabriel Ramos, administrator of the customs house, and Hernon Arantegui, who was the Diaz press agent.

The execution of the sentence has been suspended pending the fixing of the jurisdiction and the condemned men have been placed at the disposition of the military commander of the city.

MARTIAL LAW MAY BE DECLARED ALONG BORDER.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 27.—Although civil and state authorities appear unaware of it, a condition neighboring on martial law exists today here and at other points on the Mexican frontier. General E. Z. Steever, who from Fort Bliss, Tex., directs the cordons of troops along the border, is said to have stricter orders from Washington than ever before in the last two years of Mexican revolutions.

It was said today that the state department practically has turned over all matters pertaining to the Mexican situation to the war department. Heretofore all arrests on charges of neutrality violation other than those of positive evidence have been made by department of state and justice agents. But with the hearing in the last few days of the last cases on the local federal court docket it was shown that not one conviction has been obtained for violation of neutrality nor one extradition to Mexico accomplished.

While unannounced officially, it was said on reliable authority, that from now on arrests may occur in the military zone, previously handled by the secret service and tried in federal courts. Also, it was declared that any movement to arm expeditions on American soil for the purpose of entering Mexico to assist the rebels, probably will result in an open declaration of martial law over the territory.

General Leonard A. Wood, chief of staff of the United States army, will arrive here tomorrow to confer with General Steever regarding border conditions. He comes from the Pacific coast where he has been in conference with officials of the department of California. It is believed that General Wood's visit along the Mexican frontier prefigures application of plans already laid at Washington for operations of the California department, which also controls the Arizona border patrol and the department of Texas, jurisdiction of which extends along the New Mexico line.

$25,000 GEM DROPPED IN WATER VENT LOST

New York, Oct. 27.—A $25,000 emerald gem given to Clydesdale, Scotland, by the emperor of Japan, and inherited by the general's daughter, Mrs. Nellie Grant Sartoris Jones, has been lost beyond hope of recovery, it is feared.

The gem, which the ring displayed appeared six months ago, when it was accidentally dropped into a water vent of a fifth avenue hotel bathroom. The fact of the loss became known publicly only tonight, when it was learned that a search for the gem which has been going on ever since, practically has been given up.

RURAL BANKS MAY BE ESTABLISHED FOR BENEFIT OF FARMERS

President Taft Urges That Provisions be Made to Extend Credit Through Cooperative Societies.

RAIFFESSEN PLAN IS POPULAR IN GERMANY

About Five Billion Dollars of Business is Done Annually Through Credit System of Empire.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Washington, Oct. 27.—President Taft continued his campaign for farmers' co-operative banks and agricultural credits today by making reply to letters that have reached the White House intimating that the plan would benefit only the big farmers. The president quoted from the report of Ambassador Herrick at Berlin, showing the business done by the Raiffeisen banks of Germany.

"The size of the average deposit for these institutions is around $370," said the president. "The average loan they make amounts to only $150 and the membership of the Raiffeisen banks averages ninety-five farmers. It is plainly evident that these figures show that this is not a big farmers' plan, in my letter to governors the first recommendation which I made is for the adoption of some such form of co-operative credit."

"The adoption of co-operative credit in this country will be of great advantage to the small farmer."

"The results obtained by the adoption of this form of co-operative credit in Germany speak plainly enough of its usefulness. There is one bank for every 1,600 of population in Germany. The rate of interest charged is frequently a point or two lower than in commercial circles, yet the banks make a fair profit, which is carried over as a reserve fund so that each year these banks are strengthening their position and becoming a more important factor in the empire. The total of business done annually is astounding. It is in the neighborhood of $5,000,000,000."

"The policy under which these banks are conducted is not unknown in the United States. Our mutual insurance societies, fraternal aid societies, and building and loan associations have met with good success. Four-fifths of the savings of the people today are deposited in mutual savings banks which are organized for much the same purposes as the small co-operative societies of the United States. The operations of these institutions are confined largely to the cities."

"The co-operative society which I recommend would afford a mutual savings institution devised particularly to give banking facilities to farmers for small loans on personal credit and for short time. The farmers themselves would control the management of these societies."

"The reception accorded my advocacy of the agricultural credit idea has impressed me greatly. The tone of the letters I have received shows that the people are seriously studying the question."

TAFT RETURNS TO WASHINGTON; IS OPTIMISTIC

From Now Until Election, President Will Keep Finger on Political Pulse; Will Go Home to Vote.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Washington, Oct. 27.—President Taft got back to Washington today after an absence of nearly two months. With the exception of engagements in New York and Newark, and one in Cincinnati, the president has nothing in prospect to take him away from the capital.

It is probable he will spend his time here after election writing his message to congress.

The president has not kept in close touch with political developments until the last few weeks, but he takes an optimistic view of the election.

From now on he will keep a finger on the political pulse and probably will have several conferences with republican leaders.

The president leaves at noon Tuesday for New York to be present at the launching, Wednesday, of the dreadnought, New York.

The president probably will leave Washington November 4th, east his ballot early, and await the returns at the home of his brother, C. P. Taft, in Cincinnati.

ROOSEVELT ENJOYS HIS FIFTY-FOURTH BIRTHDAY WITH FAMILY DINNER

Congratulatory Telegrams Received from All Parts of the Country as Well as Numerous Gifts.

BULL MOOSE PAINTING PLEASURES HIM MOST

Doctors Visit Sagamore Hill During Afternoon and Dress Colonel's Wound; Pronounce Condition Satisfactory.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Oyster Bay, Oct. 27.—Today was Theodore Roosevelt's fifty-fourth birthday and he celebrated it quietly indoors with his family.

Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Ethel, Theodore, Jr., and his wife, and Quentin sat down at the table for the birthday dinner with the head of the family. Kermit, Archie and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth were unable to be there.

In the afternoon, the Edlin Roosevelts stopped in to extend their congratulations and Oscar Straus, progressive candidate for governor of New York, and Mrs. Straus, came from New York by automobile.

Colonel Roosevelt did not leave the house today. This afternoon Dr. Alexander Lambert and Dr. George E. Brower came from New York to dress his wound and insure that their patient was continuing to improve.

Birthday telegrams came in all day long. One was from John L. Sullivan. "Every good wish to you on your fifty-fourth birthday," the former pugilist wired, "and God's blessings as well as all your life."

Of all the birthday gifts that came to him, Colonel Roosevelt was especially proud of a painting of a bull moose by a New York artist. The painting, which is six feet square, was presented to him by August Hecksher, of Huntington.

The gift most peculiarly given came from a woman whose name is not known to the colonel or his family. The woman, about sixty years old, dressed in black, with a large bundle under her arm, stepped from the noon train and inquired the way to Sagamore Hill. She walked the three miles through the village, along the shore of the bay and up the hill. When Colonel Roosevelt's butler, "Jim," came to the door, in answer to her ring, she gave him the bundle.

"I didn't come to see him," she said, "but I have come from Boston to give him this present on his fifty-fourth birthday."

With that she turned away and started down the hill. "Jim" opened the bundle and saw it was a small oil painting. He carried it to the colonel.

The woman was seen as she trudged back to the station to take the next train for New York. She refused to give her name or any information, except that she was from Boston.

"It's nothing," she said. "I just came from Boston to leave the painting for Colonel Roosevelt, whom I admire very greatly. Now I am going back to Boston."

Colonel Roosevelt's physicians, issued the following bulletin today: "Colonel Roosevelt's wound shows marked progress in healing. There is no reasonable doubt that he will be able to speak on Wednesday night. There is some edema of the chest muscles which make it necessary to forbid his shaking hands. Colonel Roosevelt will return to Oyster Bay immediately after the speech."

"DR. LAMBERT." Dr. Lambert explained that by the term edema was meant a bad bruise due to the impact of the bullet.

Colonel Roosevelt expects to do more work tomorrow than on any previous day since his return. His physicians said it would not be long before he would be in Brooklyn on Saturday night, as he has been urged to do by Brooklyn progressives.

ROOSEVELT CANNOT ANSWER ALL MESSAGES PERSONALLY.

New York, Oct. 27.—A general statement in behalf of Colonel Roosevelt, expressing his gratitude to persons whose letters or telegrams in reference to the attack upon him in Michigan have remained unanswered, was issued today from progressive national headquarters. It follows: "Colonel Roosevelt wishes to take this method of expressing his very deep appreciation of the multitude of letters and telegrams he has received since the shooting. The number was very large, many thousands, all told, that it was a physical impossibility for him even to attempt to acknowledge such individually, and, while the endeavor has been made to have some answer sent to each, yet in the confusion, it is possible that some telegrams and letters have been mislaid or that the addresses of the senders have not been found."

"He trusts that in any case where this happened the sender will pardon the failure to answer in view of the circumstances set forth above. He again wishes to state how grateful he is for all these expressions of good will."

POPE PIUS SENDS BENEDECTIONS TO BISHOP AT DENVER

Elaborate Ceremonies Attend Dedication of Great Cathedral; Archbishop Pitaval Celebrates Mass.

NOTABLE SERMON IS PREACHED ON CHURCH

Ten Thousand People, in Procession Through Streets, Reviewed by Governor Shafroth and Acting Mayor of City.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Denver, Oct. 27.—A message from Pope Pius, sent by Cardinal Merry del Val, and read to thousands of persons by Cardinal John Farley, of New York, was this afternoon a feature of the services attending the dedication of the new Immaculate Conception cathedral in this city. The Pope's message follows:

"To His Lordship Bishop Matz: On the occasion of the dedication of Denver's cathedral, the Holy Father sends from the bottom of his heart, to the bishop, the clergy and the faithful of the whole diocese, his apostolic benediction, begging divine protection and abundant blessings."

"CARDINAL MERRY DEL VAL." After the reading of the Pope's message, and the celebration of mass, Archbishop J. J. Glennon, of St. Louis, preached the dedicatory sermon. His subject was "The Sanctity of the Church."

"The world today is not so enamored of that word 'sanctity' or 'holiness,'" said Archbishop Glennon, at the commencement of his sermon; "but it prefers to deal with lighter subjects, more mundane, fitted to what they think are the needs of the day and the hour. If they talk of sanctity at all, it is as of some vision, some lost virtue. Sanctity, they think, may have existed in past ages when men and women feared, prayed and bled themselves from the world to the desert and the mountains."

"Yet it is with that sanctity whereof the gospel speaks, that we stand, and claim that Christ's teachings concerning His church are literally true, that it is the holy city, bright and fair as the bride prepared for her wedding day."

"On such an occasion as this, I do not believe it is necessary to defend the sanctity of Christ. But what I fear is that some will claim that the church of that city and of later years has lost its primal sanctity and has forgotten the Christ that made it holy."

"Long years have passed since Christ established His church, and gradually, some say, the human in the church has conquered the divine. 'They say we have forgotten Christ; I ask when?'"

Archbishop Glennon then reviewed religion from the apostolic days, down to the present and said at no time has Christ been forgotten. Teaching upon moral law, he said.

"The moral code that we profess will set up within our minds a monitor that it calls conscience, which shall be trained and which at a 'bound of heaven' will punish us down the years and down the ways, which will be satisfied with no excuse, but as with a scalpel expose to corruption the wounds that our crimes inflict."

Concluding Archbishop Glennon said:

"Christ's teachings are all that is left for world regeneration. He is the atlas bearing on His back the burdens of the world. It was His world in the beginning, let us make it His world in the end."

The services began at 10:30 a. m., when a procession of sanctuary choirs, a male Gregorian choir, visiting priests, prelates and Cardinal Farley, with two assistants, entered the cathedral and blessed the exterior. They were met at the door by Bishop Matz of the diocese and entering, blessed the interior.

Following this ceremony, Archbishop Pitaval of Santa Fe, N. M., celebrated pontifical high mass. Archbishop Rev. Father William Howlett, of Loveland; Deacon Rev. Father Servant, of Las Animas; and Subdeacon Rev. Father Tabors, of Colorado Springs, assisted.

The participants are the four oldest pioneer priests of Colorado. On the right sat Monsignor La Belle and Monsignor Lewis, of New York. On the left sat Bishop Matz and deacons of honor, Rev. Father Plus and Rev. Father Pantulovic, of Denver.

After mass had been celebrated, Archbishop Glennon, of St. Louis, preached the sermon.

A street parade in which ten thousand men participated, followed the services and was reviewed in front of the cathedral by Cardinal Farley, Governor Shafroth, of Colorado, and Acting Mayor McGowan, of Denver. Bishop Matz pronounced benediction as the multitude knelt in the street.

At the evening services Bishop Patrick A. McElvorn, of Cheyenne, was the celebrant of pontifical vespers and benediction of the blessed sacrament. Rev. Father Wm. O'Bryan, of Denver, delivered the sermon.

Tomorrow night Cardinal Farley and Bishop Matz will hold a reception for visiting clergy and friends. Cardinal Farley and party will leave Denver Tuesday evening for Los Angeles and other western cities.

Philadelphia Merchant Prince Says Settlement of Present Problems Should be Left to Big Taxpayers.

Important Questions Up for Settlement

INFERENCE FROM STATEMENT IS THAT WILSON IS NOT POSSESSED OF SUFFICIENT EXPERIENCE TO BECOME PRESIDENT.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Philadelphia, Oct. 27.—In a political statement John Wanamaker says in part:

"The main points at issue in the coming election are exactly as I stated in my letter of October 4th. Nothing I said therein has been disproved. Neither the contractors and the merchant would put at the head of his own mercantile or railroad business, a man no matter how scholarly, who never had an hour's experience in managing, for four years the millions of people employed by the government and the expenditure of a billion of dollars annually."

"Ideal grievances against the government call for ideal treatment. 'If the malady is wrong, the remedy proposed is surely wrong.'"

"So far, it seems to me, the cry for liberation is but a howl for power. 'Past administrations of the government have seldom had more than one great question to deal with.'"

"For a long period it was the question of slavery."

"Latterly it has been the question of trusts and their regulation."

"In the next four years there are fronting us the supremely vital issues of monetary affairs, tariff, transportation, (including the Panama canal, commerce and labor)."

"Which of the three men running for the office of president is best qualified to deal with these questions—think of it."

"If chances are to be made, should they not be made with infinite caution?"

"The constitution has been well tried and has not been found wanting."

"Who is it that wants Taft dismissed? Is it simply to open the place for one who is a candidate for the presidency? Is it the employers of labor and the builders of prosperity who urge this change?"

"Can those who pay little or no taxes be the best judges of what is best for the country's good?"

"Not for one moment will Mr. Taft leave things as they are in the banking, tariff and trust laws when he can clearly better them in the light of experience and with the assistance of the best men he can find to help him."

"The striving of work and wages by the tariff reduction directed by Baltimore will bring up some new questions in those days of unrest of labor that will be troubling, such as:

"Can the working people and their families go back contentedly to the level of living of the working people of fifty years ago before the tariff created the prosperity we are living?"

"How shall the necessities of idle workmen and their families be met when the scarcity of work comes from a shrunken tariff?"

"Will America ever be obliged to enact a poor rate tax, as in foreign countries, to care for the unemployed?"

"It would seem as if we were heading in that direction."

"I am convinced that a properly adjusted tariff to pay present wages and enable the workingman to live properly in present comfort, is the only certain foundation of business prosperity and of contented home life in the United States."

"Let everybody hang out at once an American flag with Taft and Sherman on it."

GOVERNOR JOHNSON TAKES NEEDED REST.

Boston, Oct. 27.—After his hard day in Massachusetts yesterday, Governor Hiram Johnson rested today. Early this morning, O. K. Davis of the national progressive headquarters, dropped in from New York for a conference with the governor. They conferred for an hour and then Davis returned to New York.

Today Governor Johnson will speak in Maine. He went to Portland to reach, on Tuesday, the governor will speak in Connecticut. The following day his only engagement will be at Madison Square Garden. His campaign probably will close with three days up state in New York and one address in New York City the night before election.

Identification of Almost Seven Hundred Exhibits Out of

Will Begin to Testify.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 27.—With the identification of almost 700 exhibits out of the way, the jury in the dynamite conspiracy trial, when testimony is resumed tomorrow, will face
the prospect of soon hearing important witnesses summoned by the government from points scattered from Boston to Los Angeles.

So far, the proceedings have been considered preliminary, but when Martin J. Hyland, chief of police of Indianapolis, completes his story of the incidents attending the arrest of J. J. McNamara at the office of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, in Indianapolis, April 22, 1911, the government will be ready to read great bundles of letters.

These letters were taken from the Iron Workers headquarters after the McNamara's arrest, and it is charged
they contain evidence that Frank M.
Ryan, president of the union, and other defendants, conspired about dynamite explosions.

After the reading of the letters, Orrie E. McManigal, accomplice of the McNamara brothers, who turned informant against the defendants, is to take the stand. McManigal probably will be several days in relating his confession, covering the period from the time he used explosives as a workman in his father's stone quarry to the blowing up of the Llewellyn iron works in Los Angeles.

according to the well informed correspondent of the Vienna Reichpost
at the headquarters of the second Bulgarian army, will be the complete destruction of all the Turkish forces
along the Maritsa river and those retreating across the Erkene river. He describes General Dimitrieff's army
as advancing on a broad front, the right flank about a line from Yenikie to Eski Baba, the western column to Havla, with the central column already in the vicinity of Kavakli.

The eastern wing, in forced marches,
is effecting a great turning movement
by way of Hunnischir, Viza and Se-ret toward the road from Luleburga to Chirak.

The correspondent says there are still large forces of Turks north of the railway line with others at Chir-ak and Istranika. Detachments of Bulgarian forces have been dispatched in the direction of these places and Mi-dia on the coast. The intention is to cut the Turkish army off from the coast and force it towards the seashore and there compel it to capitulate.
He describes the attack on Adrianople as making excellent progress and predicts its successful conclusion
within a week.

A Bulgarian column from the Arda-
valley has occupied Salpazar and Erdul. Another report announces the occupation of Pashmakli.

Savin Pasha, the Turkish minister of war and commander-in-chief, is said to have reached Chirak. A dispatch from Constantinople at midnight says the army is preparing to take the offensive and that the cabinet has decided to prosecute the war with the utmost energy and prepare for a winter campaign, should the present operations result unfavorably
for the Ottoman army.

There is no indication where the Turks will make a stand. They are everywhere falling back before the victorious allies. They evacuated the town of Irtip in Macedonia, without possession, although it occupies a strong natural position.

In the Bulgarian diplomatic quarters in London it was stated tonight that Bulgaria, far from assuming that the way is approaching a conclusion,
has summoned 80,000 more reservists
to the colors.

Turkish diplomats do not conceal their disappointment and anxiety at the results of the fighting, but their point of view is that the main Turkish army has not yet been engaged, much less defeated.

It is reported that Khalid Pasha
will be surrounded in the great citadel of Eski Baba. A Constantinople dispatch says a Constantinople dispatch
by the local telegraph. An extraordinary council of the ministers, but their policy was extended by senators, reservedly and military officers.
The military situation was discussed five times and it was decided to resist the idea of intervention by the powers and to continue to proceed with the utmost care.

MONTENEGRINS BEGIN SHOOTING SCUTARI

Belgrade, Montenegro, Oct. 27.—A general bombardment of Scutari began at 10 o'clock this morning. The town was subjected to a cross fire from the Montenegrin batteries in the north, south and west and also from the inland of Vardar, on the lake. From this point of vantage, King Nicholas and his son, Prince Danilo, were observing the action.

After an hour a thick smoke, was seen rising from the eastern quarter of the town. The bombardment continued.

The troops under General Vukobratovich took the strongly fortified heights of Roseth, and it dominates the approach of Irtip, also known as Pelch, and reinforced their advance on the town.

On October 25th, the Montenegrins joined the Serbian forces at Scutari in North Albania. King Nicholas telegraphed General Vukobratovich
congratulating him on this event, which he said was unprecedented in five centuries.

STORIES OF BIG BANK
ACCOUNTS NOT TRUE

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
New York, Oct. 27.—The story
Charles Becker, the former police lieutenant convicted of the murder of Herman Rosenthal, says he wants to tell on the stand at his trial, was related in detail today by Becker from his cell in the Tombs. Had he been allowed to tell this story, he claims,
the verdict of the jury would have been different.

Becker denied that "Bald Jack"
Rose, who was the state's chief witness, was his "grift collector," declaring Rose was his "best friend," who furnished evidence on which he made scores of raids. He gave an account of his friendship in an effort, he said,
to show that he had not hoarded gamblers' tributes.

Becker said Rose never asked him for money for his services. Eventually he learned why, when Rose told him that he and Rosenthal were going into gambling partnership, Rose "reminding" the lieutenant of the gratuities services he had given and asking immunity from rods.

"I said I would not molest the place any more than I would any other gambling house," said Becker.
"I said I would not make special effort to get evidence against Rosenthal unless specifically directed."

Later, Becker continued, Rose told him that Rosenthal had broken faith with him and had won $6,000 from him at gambling. Then, complaints against the resort began to reach Commissioner Waldo.

"I am sure these complaints were written by Rose, or inspired by him," said Becker, and he declared that this break between the partners was the beginning of Rose's enmity against Rosenthal—enmity which led to Ros-enthal's determination to "cancel"
and later to a gambler's plot, the outcome of which was the murder of Rosenthal.

Becker denied that Rose, as the latter testified, telephoned him that after Rosenthal's murder to inform him of the crime. He said that if he got another trial, he would take the stand.

Regarding his finances, he said he never possessed more than $29,500 at one time. He explained in detail the source of this money.

While Becker is awaiting sentence of death to be imposed on Wednesday, Justice Goff, who will announce the ex-lieutenant's fate, is under guard. District Attorney Whitman is also under guard. Becker's counsel, Mr. McIntyre, is said to be going about armed. The lives of all have been threatened. It is reported, and even the jury which found Becker guilty, is said individually to fear attack.

Becker's $29,500, which he says was all he and his wife had when Rosenthal was killed, was accumulated according to the ex-police man today as follows:

$5,000 from Mrs. L. A. Becker, a sister, before she died.
$15,000 from John Finnegan, a friend of his wife, who died after giving her this amount.

$5,000 saved by Mrs. Becker.
$2,500 Becker himself saved.
$2,000 Mrs. Becker's father gave her.

"All this money we had saved,"
said Becker. "It was withdrawn on July 10th from the banks where we deposited it. That was the day after I was arrested."

Becker and Finnegan had been brought up with his wife's family and that the $15,000 had been given to her at different times, a few thousand dollars at a time.

Supplying what he considered another motive for Rose's enmity against Rosenthal, Becker said Rosenthal hired Charles Kelley, a pugilist, to "do up" Rose.

BULGARIANS DISPLAY
AMAZING BRAVERY

Assault Upon Kirk-Kiliseh is Made with Bayonet and Hand Grenades; Mohammed-dans Routed Quickly.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
London, Oct. 28.—The Vienna correspondent of the Daily Mail described an embryo plan which the powers are now discussing on the settlement of the near eastern question.

According to this plan it is proposed to leave Turkey only in possession of the territory between Adrianople and the Bosphorus. All her other European dominions are to be taken from her. Bulgaria is to extend southward to the Aegean sea,
Serbia is to have an Adriatic seaport,
Montenegro is to have Scutari, and Albania and Macedonia are to be independent principalities with princes of Swedish and Danish as their rulers.
No mention is made of Greece.

A dispatch from Sofia Zagora to the Telegraph reports a mutiny in the which troops have been sent to suppress.

The Telegraph's Sofia correspondent
describing the capture of Kirk-Kiliseh, says the Bulgarians conquered by the impetus of masses.

The Bulgarians did not possess a single siege gun with which to oppose Turkey's big artillery. Among the greatest difficulties the attacking army had to overcome was the lack of roads. The artillery was advanced by the aid of hundreds of troops.

After dividing under General Dimitrieff,
one of the most accomplished and daring commanders in Europe,
formed immediately flying columns.
Every one carried rations to last for several days and an extra supply of ammunition. It was imperative to conquer quickly for it was impossible to turn back once the struggle began. The Bulgarians lived on bread and water.

The attack was violent and unceasing. The night attacks on the large modern forts were carried on by artillery methods, much as the walls of towns were assaulted in olden times, hand grenades playing a great part in the cruel and merciless strife.

Turkish artillery cut furrows in the mud of Bulgarians but the towers were immediately filled and advance was continued.

The forts were without search lights
and in the dark and rainy nights this circumstance favored the approach of the Bulgarians.

How a Bulgarian aeroplane detected a Turkish commander, bringing a whole division from Adrianople in the direction of Kirk-Kiliseh, is described by the correspondent. The Bulgarians intercepted and ambushed the Turks who were cut up and dispersed, leaving their artillery behind them. It was brand new artillery and the Bulgarian gunners took it on to join the besiegers.

The correspondent concludes with the statement that the garrison of Kirk-Kiliseh consisted of forty thousand men. The Bulgarian valor and dash, he adds, is not sufficient to explain why the garrison failed to attempt to cut its way out. It must have been partly due to demoralization and disorder among the Turks and complete unpreparedness.

The Bulgarian and Servian advance
along the whole line has been successful with a completeness and rapidity surprising even to the headquarters staff, says a dispatch from Sofia Zagora to the Chronicle, and if the Bulgarians had had more cavalry
the route of the Turks at Kirk-Kiliseh would have been more complete.
As it was, the Bulgarians pursued the Turks until their horses were exhausted.

There are ominous rumors coming to the correspondent at Sofia Zagora
of intervention by the powers to save Turkey but no diplomatic intervention will check Bulgaria now.

The Times correspondent at Sofia regards the capture of Uskup as likely to have a greater moral effect than the fall of Kirk-Kiliseh as it will have a depressing effect on the whole Macedonian population in northern Macedonia, while it will produce unbounded exultation in Serbia and nerve the Servian army to fresh endeavors.

Little detailed information of the fall of Kirk-Kiliseh is available, but the fortress apparently was provisioned for several months. So great is the quantity of the foodstuffs and forage that has fallen into the hands of the victors that no supplies need be sent from Sofia for a long time.

The Bulgarian military authorities are confident that Adrianople can be survived in less than two months.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Princeton, N. J., Oct. 27.—Governor
Woodrow Wilson issued a statement
tonight calling on voters in the several states where United States senators are to be chosen, to vote for the democratic legislative ticket. The statement says:

"I am particularly anxious that the democrats of those states in which senators are to be chosen remember that the control of the government depends as much upon the majority in the senate as upon the presidency itself. I hope that in those states particularly special attention will be concentrated upon the necessity of obtaining a majority in the state legislatures."

The nominee said the states he had in mind were New Jersey, Colorado,
Illinois, Idaho, Montana, Delaware,
West Virginia, Wyoming and Nevada.
The governor announced tonight
his plans for the rest of the campaign
as follows:

Monday, October 28th, speech at West Chester, Pa., and Philadelphia.
Tuesday, state business at Trenton.

OAKLAND PENNANT
WINNER BY LESS THAN ONE GAME

Pacific Coast League Season of 1912 Closes with Race for Coveted Flag Closest in Many Years.

(By Morning Journal Special Lensed Wire.) San Francisco, Oct. 27.—By less than one game, according to the percentage figures, the Oakland team won today the championship of the Pacific Coast league for the season of 1912.

Oakland defeated Los Angeles and Vernon defeated Portland today, both teams playing double-headers.

The official standing of the two teams is:

Club	Won	Lost	Pct.
Oakland	120	83	.591
Vernon	118	85	.587

The games today brought to an end the seven months' season. Los Angeles, for a considerable period toward the end of the season, a close contender for first place, took a decided slump, a month or so ago, as the result of illness of a number of players and the death from typhoid fever of outfielder Heinie Heilmuller.

Los Angeles finished third, Portland fourth, San Francisco fifth and Sacramento sixth. The season was a prosperous one for all the teams except Sacramento, and even that club will probably show a slight profit.

The standing of the other teams follows:

Club	Won	Lost	Pct.
Los Angeles	110	93	.541
Portland	85	100	.459
San Francisco	89	115	.436
Sacramento	73	121	.376

The final games of the season resulted as follows:

At San Francisco—

Morning game—Score: R. H. E.

Oakland 5 9 3

Los Angeles 4 7 2

Batteries: Gregory and Mize; Fox and Hoffman.

Afternoon game—Score: R. H. E.

Oakland 6 7 1

Los Angeles 9 2 1

Batteries: Maloney and Mize; Pettit, Lovorn and Boles.

At Los Angeles—

Morning game—Score: R. H. E.

Portland 4 9 3

Vernon 5 5 2

Batteries: Edmundson, Castleton and Brown; Gregory and Fisher.

Afternoon game—Score: R. H. E.

Vernon 6 7 0

Sacramento 6 12 0

Batteries: Fenning and Schmidt; Arelunas and Cheek.

Second game—Score: R. H. E.

Sacramento 7 9 0

Batteries: Arlett, Zimmerman, Yole, McCardle and Auer; Fitzgibbon, Swain and Reimeyer, Kreitz, O'Rourke.

CHAVEZ TO SATISFY

KID WILLIAMS WHO

ASPIRES TO TITLE

Albuquerque fans will be somewhat

interested to hear that Benny Chavez,

bantamweight champion of the southwest, has consented to give Kid Williams, formerly of Los Angeles, and until recently of this city, a chance to demonstrate what he can do in the squared circle. Williams is now at Denver, and has long been clamoring

for a bout with any of the numerous bantams in this section of the country.

It will be recalled that Williams and

Chavez met at Las Vegas two weeks

prior to the Johnson-Finn fiasco, in an exhibition bout, in which Chavez slipped over the top of Williams

along in the sixth round, with a ten-ounce glove. Ever since that meeting,

Williams has been anxious to get Chavez

into the ring with him again, asserting he was double-crossed at Las Vegas by the Trinidad boy. However,

those who profess to know, claim that

Chavez had been tipped off that Williams was going to try to put him

away, and beat him to it.

While Williams fought several times

here in short round contests, he never exhibited any special class and the fans believe that in the coming bout

Chavez will have little more than a good work out before he finally disposes of the kid and his aspirations for ring glory.

HALLOWEEN CUSTOMS.

Adrienne—Don't you believe in the observance of these old-fashioned Halloween customs?

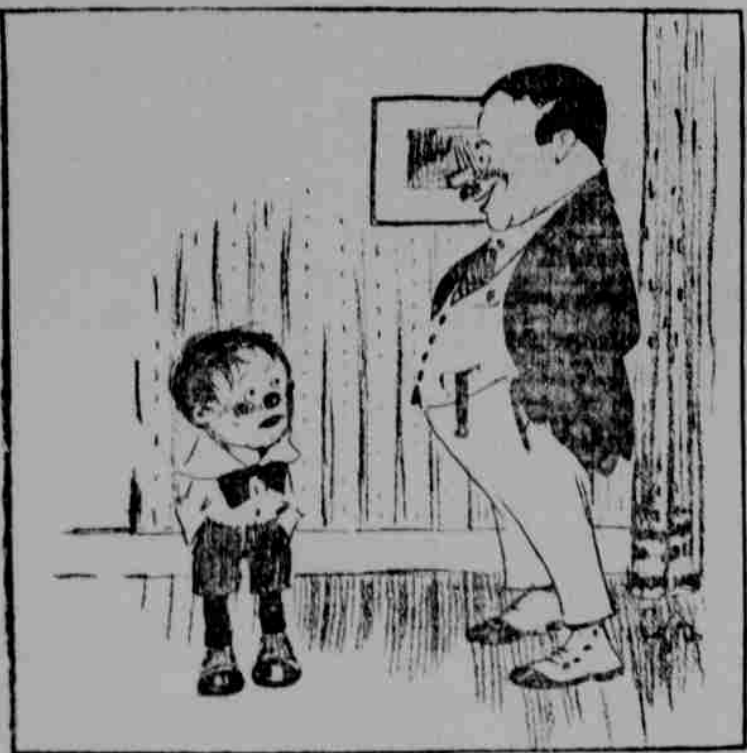

Constance—Why, I think they are as foolish as the fellow who would marry a girl that fancies she can find her future husband by performing idiotic pranks.

WHAT?

Deacon—Gracious! My boy, what language.

Kid—Aw! Wot do you say when your best marble rolls down a sewer?

DIFFERENT NOW.

Father—It used to be great fun in the good old days on Halloween to write front gates and change the sign on store doors.

His Son—Maybe it was, but if I were to play such idiotic practical jokes you would have me arrested or else beat the life out of me.

WM. TELL SHOWS MARKSMANSHIP.

Shoots Ben Davis Apple From Head of Young Son at Request of Gov. Gessler - Jailed as a Result.

Altorf, Switzerland, Nov. 2, 1907.—(Special to this paper)—This city is completely agog today over the arrest of William (Bill) Tell, a popular farmer living about three miles east of town. The incarceration of Mr. Tell is but another example of the high-handed tyranny of that large Vienna sausage, the Rt. Hon. Gov. Gessler, and gives great impetus to the movement on foot for the initiative, referendum and recall—especially the latter.

Mr. Tell, with his young son, William Tell, Jr., 11 years old, drove into the city yesterday on a load of Edelweiss flowers. He is a famous shot with the cross bow and he brought the instrument along with him to defend himself and his son should they be attacked by rabbits, squirrels or other game while en route.

The two arrived safely, however, and Mr. Tell disposed of his Edelweiss to the Lucerne Perfume and Cheese Company, of Altorf and Part. He then took his son by the hand and started out to show him something of the town. They intended to take a sight seeing motor car, but since the one machine in commission here was laid up in the garage undergoing treatment for the results of a joy ride, Mr. Tell took the lad to a couple of moving picture shows, and then sauntered into the National Shooting Gallery, the only targets that I really care to practice on."

Gessler was enraged at the laughter that followed.

"Beat it all you boobies!" he called turning to the crowd. "Show a little speed or I'll have you run in. Furthermore, I'm going to revoke the license of this shack, it won't do for you guys to learn to shoot too well."

As each man passed out he tipped his cap to an old brown derby of Gessler's which hung upon a lamp post just outside. It was one of the rules inaugurated when Gessler was appointed, that all Swiss, both male and female, be required to take off their hats when they passed it in acknowledgment of Austrian sovereignty. He and glanced off, sticking in the leg of a citizen who had fought the constable to stand where there was most danger.

Young Tell picked up the apple and began eating it. As his father turned to leave Gessler put his hand inside his coat pocket and alleges that he pulled out a second arrow. He immediately had Mr. Tell arrested on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. He furthermore ordered that Tell be denied him. Witnesses say that the Governor put the arrow there himself when Tell wasn't looking.

Habeas corpus proceedings have been begun for the liberation of the arrow artist. Meanwhile the fame of his shot has gone all over Europe and his trail is flooded with offers of vaudeville managers who want to feature him as a headliner.

William Tell, Jr., is stopping with an aunt out on Geneva Avenue. When seen by a reporter last night, the boy gave out the following statement:

"Now! I wasn't sneered. I knew my pop could have knocked that apple off my head a mile away without moving a hair. He could have shot it off around a couple of corners. My pop is there with the cross bow! I've seen him bring down humming-birds on the wing with a handkerchief over his eyes. In the clay pigeon shoot last year he broke 165 out of a possible 100."

When told that his father was in disgrace, he at first refused to believe it. He later declared that as soon as his father wanted to get out he would bump off a couple of guards, push out a side of the jail, and walk home.

The apple after being halved by Mr. Tell's arrow, with worm which escaped unscathed.

put it in a ring at first, but they kicked it about so much that he had to hang it off the ground.

Mr. Tell came out last, leading his son, who was absorbed in a stick of striped peppermint candy, by the hand. Gessler watched to see what Mr. Tell would do about the hat. He not an eye full all right. As Tell saw the old derby, he reached up to his cap and pulled it on tighter.

The Governor made a jump for him and grabbed him by the back of his suspenders.

"Here," he growled, and pointed to the hat on the post.

"Well, well," said Mr. Tell with somewhat surprised, "that's that many headpiece roosting up there for? I didn't think you folks here in town would have any use for scarecrows. I wonder where they picked up such a flea-bitten disgrace of the hat tribe? I never saw a worse one in my long life."

"An' that!" commanded the Governor, whose temper was fast slipping. "Up your hat to that hard boiled old mine, and act as though it was the lady you are in love with."

Tell pulled his cap down on his head tighter and refused to obey. He stomped to emphasize his refusal, and in doing so came down on the foot of the Governor, who wears his shoes too small and whose toes sport a very fine collection of corns and bunions.

William Tell, Jr., had finished the candy by this time and he butted it in with the final suggestion that his father "pass the fat man one in the eye."

Gessler looked at the youth and then at the apple he still held in his hand.

"For your life," he said to Tell, "I'll give you the choice of two punishments. I'll send you up the river for thirty-five years on the penitentiary rock pile, or you will shoot this apple from the head of the boy from across the market place. Since you are such a bear cat with the cross bow, here is a chance for you to let the people get a look at you in action."

Mr. Tell, at the suggestion of his brave son, chose the puppet test. The Governor then decided that the apple he held was too large and crowded over to seize the smallest in the whole collection of the crippled fruit seller. In measuring off the distance he stretched the tape until it broke, and in playing the apple on the boy's head he bent up a running line of obituary notices about it being the worst looking cork he had ever seen on a lad that age, and predicted that he would grow up to be a senator.

Instead of giving Mr. Tell a sportsman-like silence, he stood just back of him making continuous remarks, such as:

"You can't hit that apple in a thousand years—not in a thousand years! You couldn't hit a flock of warehouse doves with a handful of bird shot Miss it!"

In spite of this the arrow went true, splitting the apple exactly in half.

ALSO HALLOWEEN.

It is the time for pranks and tricks. When merriment and shudders mix, And superstitions, tuned to play, O'er young and old bear lofty sway, When spirits of light fantasy Float through the air and frolic free, Ah, merriest of all times I ween, This merry time of Halloween.

NEW FOOTBALL RULES.

"I understand they are going to revise the football rules right away."

"Yes. They all agree there should be an entirely new assortment of accidents."

A SLY DIG.

Lorraine—Fred wants me to mask and go out with him after our masquerade party and have a good time.

Louise—Did he seem particular about the masking part, dear?

The "ghost"—Hoo-oo-oo!

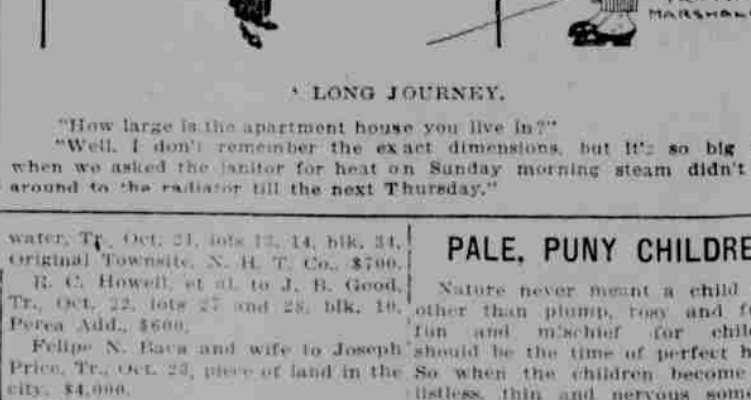

The lady—You can't scare me, Jimmy Jones! I know your feet; an' 'sides, you always was a pumpkin-head!

LONG JOURNEY.

"How large is the apartment house you live in?"

"Well, I don't remember the exact dimensions, but it's so big that when we asked the janitor for heat on Sunday morning steam didn't get around to the radiator till the next Thursday."

PALE, PUNY CHILDREN

Nature never meant a child to be other than plump, rosy and full of fun and mischief for childhood should be the time of perfect health.

So when the children become pale, listless, thin and nervous something is wrong, and careful mothers begin searching for the cause at once.

The very safest and surest remedy we know of is Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic that children love to take. It regenerates the blood, makes it rich and pure, and sends it bounding through the veins to nourish the nerves and muscles. We could tell you of many children right in this town who have been greatly benefited by Vinol. And we give back the money if you are not pleased. Vinol makes children strong.

AMERICAN BALLOON IS DESTROYED AT START OF RACE

Kansas City II Blows Up While Being Inflated Preparatory to Participating in International Contest at Stuttgart.

(By Morning Journal Special) Leased Wire.

Stuttgart, Germany, Oct. 27.—An hour before the time set for the international balloon race for the Gordon Bennett cup, the American balloon, Kansas City II, exploded while being filled. No one was injured although the pilot, John Watts, was standing nearby. The cause of the explosion has not been learned.

The French entries, piloted by Dr. Bruchmann, who had been named in place of Lieutenant Kerkhove, who was killed in a balloon explosion over Chamonix, second place. The protest was allowed and Bruchmann's balloon, "Eclair," was placed at the disposal of Mr. Watts for an attempt at a record. He was not permitted, however, to contest for the cup.

Germany and the United States, therefore, were each represented by only two contestants, the latter country by John Berry, balloon "Million Population," and H. E. Honeywell, balloon "Victory Seven."

Belgium and Italy also have two entries each, France, Austria and Switzerland three each and England and Denmark one.

The race began in the presence of the king and queen under favorable conditions. If there is no change in the upper air currents the balloons should be in the vicinity of Cologne tomorrow afternoon. From there they will head toward the Mecklenburg coast, where they possibly will meet with stormy weather.

ALBUQUERQUE NEW MEXICO

MR. CLANCY'S ARGUMENT.

Attorney General Clancy made a speech Saturday night for the benefit of the standard republicans. Mr. Clancy is a good lawyer, so good that it is never difficult for him to construct a curcum-bomb as to make it look like a half-mile of barbed wire fence. In politics, Mr. Clancy is for good government always, except during election time. Then he is for what ever bears the republican trade mark. It differs little how much the pure food law against misbranding may have been violated. In the campaign last fall, he fought the gang until the Las Vegas convention. Then he swallowed it all, hook, sinker and line.

In his speech Saturday night he declared that the higher the prices the better the times. As a platitude, the statement is all right. It is quite true that you cannot have a panic on rising prices, unless the rising prices are the result of curtailed production or of combinations in restraint of trade.

For illustration: Mr. Clancy would hardly hold that a combination between importing companies and the Brazilian coffee growers to sell only so much coffee and to fix the price about one hundred per cent higher than coffee had been before, the increased cost to the consumer amounting to about fourteen million dollars a year, was beneficial to the business of the United States.

That was an example of what has been going on in the United States for the past twenty years. For instance, the same grades of American meats sold in London for about one-half the price charged for them in American cities. We hardly believe Mr. Clancy will claim that the discrimination against the American consumer is beneficial to business or contributes to the prosperity of the country.

Another example is that the steel trust delivers at New York for export, wire nails for $1.65 a keg of one hundred pounds, and for home consumption delivers the same goods for $1.94—quite a difference in favor of the foreigner as against the American. Will Mr. Clancy contend that the discrimination is a benefit to any one in the United States except the manufacturer?

The contention that the amount of steel trust products thus sold abroad is negligible is hardly borne out by the fact that in 1911, the exports for that company alone amounted to $89,142,625. Also it was shown by the testimony of the officials of the steel trust before the Stanley commission that all products shipped abroad were sold at a substantial profit and that the trade of China and Japan, for example, was much sought.

Mr. Clancy also contends that the difference between the cost of such articles at home and abroad is accounted for by the difference between the cost of American and foreign labor. If so how could the same articles from American mills be sold so much cheaper abroad than they are sold at home and still make a profit? The cost of manufacture is the same. The labor argument is exploded as easily as it becomes ridiculous, for the production of a pair of stockings sold in New York at fifty cents a pair, the labor cost less than four cents. The tariff is thirteen and one-third cents a pair, or about four times the cost of the labor involved.

According to Mr. Levi Hughes, who is a candidate for election on the republican ticket, the proposed democratic tariff on wool goods about four times the actual protection given under the Payne-Aldrich law to the New Mexico wool grower.

Now they shift the ground of opposition and say that the trouble is not with the protection proposed to the democrats for the raw material, but that the manufacturer is not to be given sufficient protection to enable him to pay the wool grower a profit on his products. It was shown by the congressional investigating committee that one manufacturer, William Wood, has made from practically no capital, more than fifty million dollars, during the past twenty years, on his output from the Lawrence woolen mills. He is only one of a large number of manufacturers who own palaces and sail the ocean in steam yachts because of the profits they have made in the manufacture of woolen goods. They already pay their labor on the European basis because they get practically all of it from Italy and Poland, Austria-Hungary and Greece, the cheapest paid labor in Europe.

In view of these facts wouldn't it be well for Mr. Clancy to study things over a bit before he does any more speaking and see if he doesn't find some flaws in his sweeping contention?

LABOR FOR WILSON.

Heretofore the labor unions have largely supported the republican party, but indications point this year to a nearly unanimous vote for Woodrow Wilson because of his record as governor of New Jersey. Efforts have been made recently to prejudice labor against Governor Wilson because of some things he is alleged to have said while teaching in Princeton university. The labor leaders have answered with a strong statement endorsing him, not for what he has said, but for what he has done.

The appeal to labor is issued by Secretary Hannah, of the federated labor party, and says:

"The federated labor party has looked into the political situation and finds that labor stands pat on the question of supporting the candidate whose records show that they have done something for the advancement of the labor interests in the legislative assemblies.

"We find that Governor Wilson has done more than any other governor of the state of New Jersey in the way of practical support of labor legislation. He gave more consideration to labor measures than any other governor of the state, and did more for the enactment of labor laws than any other executive head of the state of New Jersey. He has given a practical demonstration of his friendliness for organized labor."

A plea is made on behalf of the following labor organization leaders:

Edward L. Hannah, president of the federated central body, representing the Central Federated Union, Brooklyn Central Labor Union, Essex County Trades Council, United Hebrew Trades, Trades and Labor Council of Patterson, Hudson County Central Labor Union, John Kennedy, president of the Brotherhood of Butcher Workmen of America; Thomas E. Lennon, president of the Safety Engineers' Union; M. T. Noyland, president of the Central Federated Union, John C. O'Brien, of the Harness Makers' Union; William Gallagher, Safety Engineers; Alexander Kelso, Greater New York Carpenters' Council; Matthew McConville, Safety Engineers; K. W. Edwards, Web Pressmen's Union; William H. Kelly, Copper-smiths; J. C. O'Donnell, International Brotherhood of Steam Shovelers and Dredgemen; Thomas J. Curtis, president of Tunnel and Subway Constructors' International Union; N. A. Schindl, secretary of Upholsterers; Joseph Healy, Brotherhood of Painters; Frank Farrell, business agent of the Asphalt Workers; Edward Brady, business agent of the Stone Cutters; Michael Eastman, Newspaper Deliverers; Robert Grindell, Dock Builders.

NEW MEXICO'S INTERESTS.

Whether New Mexico's three electoral votes shall be cast for Wilson or Taft, will have no influence on the result. Wilson's election is an certain as sunrise.

Whether New Mexico shall elect Ferguson or Jaffa to congress will not effect the big democratic majority in the house of representatives.

The question is: Will the people of New Mexico vote for their own interests?

Attorney General Clancy said Saturday night that the fact that Mr. Jaffa is a republican while congress is democratic will not interfere with Mr. Jaffa's ability to get things for New Mexico. He said members of congress are too broad minded not to give a state justice whatever the politics of its congressmen may be.

Just an illustration for Mr. Clancy's consideration: Tennessee has two congressional districts that are republican always. Eight districts send democrats. The two senators have been democrats, until a few months ago, a republican succeeded the late Senator Robert L. Taylor.

Yet, during the past fifteen years, each of these two districts has secured more money from the federal government than has been received by the eight democratic districts combined.

Yet, Mr. Clancy tells us Jaffa can do as much for New Mexico as Ferguson can do with a democratic president, a democratic senate and a democratic house.

WOTE BUYING MUST STOP.

Many who buy votes in New Mexico this year are going to get in trouble. Also the man who sells his vote is more than likely to be sent to jail for an unpleasant length of time and to be disfranchised for life. There is a new deal in the country. The machinery of the law is in different hands. The business man who contributes money for the purpose of influencing voters is just as culpable as the man who pays out the cash.

The Journal gives this warning for the purpose of keeping certain men in Bernadillo county from getting into trouble.

TAFT MAY LOSE UTAH.

Most people had thought that Taft would carry Utah, Wyoming and Vermont. The latest polls show Vermont for Wilson and a strong sentiment for Roosevelt in Wyoming which may so split that state that it will be found in the democratic column. Senator Warren has so far lost his grip that he was not able to control the election of a chairman of the central committee. It looks very much like Taft will have to be content with the electoral vote of the Mormons of Utah. But a disturbing report comes from Salt Lake City to the effect that the prophet, seeing that Taft has no earthly chance of election, is about to have another "revelation."

The Mormons always want to be on the winning side in politics, and it is not improbable that Mr. Taft may be retired from the presidency by unanimous consent.

STATE FAIR STATEMENT.

The Morning Journal publishes special attention today to the financial statement, covering receipts and expenditures of the Thirty-second annual New Mexico fair, submitted by Secretary Frank A. Stortz. With the amount of money available for holding the fair and the magnificent showing made at the recent state-wide exposition, credit is reflected on the officers of the fair association, the members of the executive committee, and those who had charge of the various departments. The success of the Thirty-second annual fair, and the value it is to the state and to Albuquerque, is the best possible argument why the next legislature should recognize it as a permanent state institution and endow it with a liberal annual appropriation.

Excitement takes strange forms. A man in New York lost his power of speech and makes no sounds except "short staccato barks." That sounds like a standpatter in New Mexico trying to explain why the voter should elect Jaffa to congress.

A Canadian court finds that the shoe machinery company is a trust. You could hardly consider it a branch of the associated charities.

SECTION FOREMAN KILLED IN FIGHT WITH LABORER

Pete Sanchez, Employee of Zuni Mountain Railway, Works Despite Injury Which Later Proves Fatal.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.)
Thornton, N. M., Oct. 27.—A coroner's inquest held at Section No. 2, of the Zuni mountain railway, about a mile from Sawyer, this morning formally charged Juan Hernandez with the death of Pete Sanchez, who died Saturday night from meningitis caused by a wound on the head. The fight in which Hernandez, a laborer, is said to have struck his foreman, and inflicted the wound, which later caused death, took place October 23rd.

Sanchez' wound was a gash an inch and a half long in the scalp and skull, and appeared to have been caused by a blow from a hammer. The evidence at the coroner's inquest showed that it had been inflicted by some blunt instrument. Hernandez's injury, Sanchez worked the day after the fight. Saturday night he died from meningitis, declared by the inquest to have resulted from the wound.

Hernandez has been taken in charge by Mounted Policeman G. F. Murray, who has wired Captain Fred Fornoff, of that force, for instructions as to the prisoner's disposition. He will likely be turned over to the county authorities.

The quarrel was of unknown origin, but is supposed by the workmen under Sanchez, to have been over a misplaced or misused railway tool of some kind.

MOGOLLON IS SCENE OF SMALL STRIKE; WORK UNINTERRUPTED

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.)
Silver City, N. M., Oct. 27.—Word has been received here that some of the miners working for the Ernestine Mining Company went on a strike and quit work at Mogollon the other day. Other men took their places and there was no interruption in work, and everything is running full handed as usual. Some of the men who quit work have passed through Silver City on their way to Arizona.

The funeral of Ralph W. Hooker, son of Horace Hooker, a well known and prominent citizen of Grant county, took place Friday afternoon, interment being in the Hooker cemetery on the Olla. Young Hooker was accidentally killed while running a calf, by being thrown against a snag sticking out from a tree. It is believed the horse he was riding, on reaching the tree, swerved to one side causing his rider to strike the snag which entered his body and passed through the left lung almost to the heart. Hooker fell from his horse, drew the snag from his body, fell to the ground and must have died a few minutes after. He was very popular, was a member of the Loyal Order of Moose and many friends of his and the family attended his funeral from Silver City.

MAN ACCUSED OF MARSHALL DELIVERS BEING FIRE BUG BOUND OVER NON-POLITICAL ADDRESS

Pinkney H. Head, of Farmington, Remains in Jail in Default of Four Thousand Dollar Bond.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.)
Farmington, N. M., Oct. 27.—Pinkney H. Head, who was jailed last week to await investigation in regard to his possible connection with the fire which destroyed the plant of the Durango Planting Mill & Lumber Co., on the night of the 16th, was this week bound over to await the action of the grand jury on the charge of arson. The charge was made by C. C. Munna, local manager of the lumber company. Head waived preliminary examination and his bond was fixed at $4,000, which as yet he has not succeeded in getting.

The events which led up to Head's arrest have caused considerable excitement in Farmington within the past few weeks and speculation is still rife as to whether they "have the goods" on him. About midnight on the night of the 8th an alarm of fire was given and it was discovered that the San Juan Chief Canning factory was in flames. The fire had made such headway that it was impossible to save the building or contents, which were a total loss, with only about $2,500 insurance. During the progress of the fire, Head was present among those who were fighting it, was more or less intoxicated, so it is alleged, and was heard to make such remarks as "let it burn" and others of a profane nature.

Exactly a week later, a little after midnight of Wednesday, the 16th, fire was discovered at the lumber yard, the next establishment east of the cannery. This also was beyond all control when discovered and was a total loss outside of the insurance of about $8,000.

The coincidence was so striking that an investigation was at once started. Footprints were found leading away from the scene of the fire into which Head's shoes were said to fit. Inquiry developed the fact that he was at home during the progress of the fire, but it is said that the lumber people have evidence which tends to show that he might have been the guilty party.

Head is an Oklahoma Indian of the Catawba tribe who has lived in Farmington for a number of years. During that time he has been more or less in trouble in connection with scrapes of an unsavory nature. Several times when incarcerated in the town lock-up, he has attempted to burn the jail over his head.

COX-GRAVES-TRUBY FEUD HAS BROKEN OUT AFRESH

San Juan Cattlemen Fired on While Riding Range by Colorado Ranchman Who Makes Good His Escape.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.)
Aztec, N. M., Oct. 27.—While the Cox and John Graves were looking after cattle just above Cedar Hill, they ran onto Sam Truby, who made for the brush as soon as he saw them. When about 200 yards away, Truby opened fire on the others from behind a pile of rocks. They could not locate him among the rocks. So Cox remained to watch Truby while Graves started for Cedar Hill, to get the sheriff. Truby shot three times at Graves as the latter was leaving, but missed him. When Graves returned from Cedar Hill, no trace of Truby could be found.

It is feared that this affair will bring on more trouble between the Graves and Truby factions. The Trubys live just over the state line in Colorado, but have cattle which range in New Mexico, and the same is true of the Graves and Cox faction.

Sheriff Duffin has a warrant for Sam Truby, but was refused requisition papers last fall by the Colorado authorities. The trouble between these factions has cost one life and hundreds of dollars already, and the end does not seem to be in sight yet.

INCENDIARY FIRES OF FREQUENT OCCURRENCE

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.)
Vincennes, N. M., Oct. 27.—Fire bugs, who have been at work in Quebec during this month, caused their fourth fire only today, when at 3 a. m., a fire broke out in the grain stack of M. Cieneros, in the upper part of the town, and before morning four small barns together with much grain and hay were destroyed. So frequent and destructive have the fires become that the citizens are considering putting together a fund as a reward for the capture of the criminal.

SANTA FE DOCTORS THANK LOCAL MEN FOR COURTESIES

Letters of Appreciation Sent to Commercial Club, Elks' Lodge and Bernalillo County Medical Society.

The Santa Fe Railway Medical and Surgical association has sent formal letters of appreciation for courtesies extended to several local organizations. The doctors met in this city for a two-day session early in the month, and Albuquerqueans did what they could to show them a good time while here. The Elks' lodge, the Commercial club and the Bernalillo County Medical association took the lead in this entertainment. Letters were yesterday received by officials of all three, expressing the appreciation felt by the doctors for this treatment. The letters were signed by M. L. Bishoff, secretary of the association. They were sent by one of the association, put in effect by unanimous vote.

FOREIGN COMMERCE BREAKS PREVIOUS HIGH RECORD

United States Imports More and Exports Larger Amount of Products Than Ever Before Known in Country.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Washington, Oct. 27.—The foreign commerce of the United States during 1912 promises to establish high records in both imports and exports, according to a statement issued today by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce for the nine months ending with September.

The imports during that period amounted to $1,332,169,721, an increase of $296,258,000 over the first nine months of 1911. The record year for imports was 1910, with $1,577,000,000 for the entire twelve months. Exports during the current year up to the end of September amounted to $1,163,160,268, an increase of $166,925,000 over the corresponding period last year. During 1911 exports for the first nine months exceeded $1,000,000,000. September exports this year were valued at $139,475,002, an increase of $2,789,000.

TIMBER EXPERT IN CITY STUDYING CONDITIONS ADDRESS BIG CROWD TO BE COMPUTED UNTIL TODAY

Franklin H. Smith, Forest Service Official from Chicago, Here Gaining Information at First Hand.

Following out the aggressive policy of United States Forester Henry S. Graves in making sales of available timber on the national forests, particularly in the southwest, and thereby bringing about greater development of the country's resources, Franklin H. Smith, assistant in timber sales, is visiting district headquarters of the forest service in Albuquerque. Mr. Smith's official station is in Chicago where the service has offices in the Fisher building.

Chicago was selected for the placing of a forest service office to promote timber sales, because of its being the greatest lumber market in the United States and in a measure, a central point for lumbering operations. Tributary to Chicago are the old pineries of Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota, while the yellow pine field of the lower Mississippi valley is not far distant. In the eastern section of the country are many lumber operators whose timber holdings are rapidly being cut out and who must seek new locations to continue operations, since they are unable to get areas of timber accessible to their present operations. These operators have the alternative of moving west or quitting business. It is this class of lumbermen with whom Mr. Smith comes in touch and endeavors to interest in investigating national forest stumpage.

Mr. Smith's visit to Albuquerque is for the purpose of going over with District Forester A. C. Ringland and Assistant District Forester A. E. Recknagel reports of lumber on the national forests in New Mexico and Arizona. He has been supplied with all the data on available logging chances within the district and purposes to go over one or two of the areas personally, so that he may more intelligently present the propositions to prospective purchasers of government timber.

Incidentally, Mr. Smith is a booster for Albuquerque in particular, and New Mexico in general, since he says he finds no climate comparable with that of the Sunshine state.

MANY GREEKS PASS THROUGH CITY ON WAY BACK HOME

Nearly Every Eastbound Train Carrying Ten to Twenty Patriots Bound for War Against Turkey.

Almost every evening at the Santa Fe station there can be seen from five to twenty Greeks bound from various points west and north of here to their native land, where they plan to enlist in the war against Turkey. Last night 288 carried a band of fifteen all from Los Angeles and neighboring cities.

Several of this party wished to buy steamship tickets here, and made corresponding inquiries to local people. The patriots are returning to their native country in great numbers and all sections of the west are represented in those who pass through here. Most of the eastbound trains are carrying parties of them.

LINCOLN CAMPAIGN BADGES ON DISPLAY AT LOCAL STORE

Considerable interest has been shown in two old campaign badges, relics of the Lincoln presidential fight of 1864. The badges are on display in a window of the L. M. Fee store, on Central avenue, near Third street.

Each is of brass, suspended by a narrow, red-colored ribbon. Each bears a small picture of the great president. Mr. Fee says that they belong to a friend of his and have been loaned him for display.

STATE DEMOCRAT BIG EDITION

As a final word on the campaign the New Mexico State Democrat will issue a monster edition on next Thursday for general distribution all over the state. Besides the regular campaign matter, much of which has been specially furnished by the democratic national committee for this issue, there will be exclusive matter on the campaign which will not appear in any other publication in New Mexico.

The chairman of the several democratic county committees will be furnished with copies for distribution among voters.

This edition of the Democrat will be worth preserving for comparison with election returns on the following Tuesday, evening.—Adv.

President of New Mexico Good Roads Association Will Face Large Audience at Commercial Club.

"Good Roads as a Business Proposition," will be the subject of an address to be delivered tonight by Colonel R. E. Twitchell, of Las Vegas, president of the New Mexico Good Roads association, to what promises to be a large crowd. The address will be the principal feature of a meeting in the interest of good roads which will be held at the Commercial club. At this meeting it is hoped the spirit of good roads boosting will be thoroughly awakened in the minds of all who attend and that great good may be done the cause of highways in New Mexico.

It has been found that many people do not understand the true work of the proposed $500,000 bond issue, the ratification of which at the election on November 5th the association is advocating and the facts on this will be a feature of the meeting. If there is anyone there who gets away without thoroughly understanding that the bond issue is simply a funding of the existing road tax, which will not increase existing taxes one penny, the meeting will have been a failure in the estimation of the good roads boosters. All good roads enthusiasts, whether members of the association or not, are requested to attend the meeting. The session will be brief and business will be the rule all through.

The meeting will be called to order promptly at 8 o'clock.

NINETEEN PERSONS STRICKEN BLIND IN STRANGE WAY

Victims Who Gazed at Light Caused by Workmen Using Electric Welder at Anderson, Indiana, Lose Sight.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Anderson, Ind., Oct. 27.—Nineteen persons are reported to have been stricken blind as a result of gazing at a light caused by workmen welding with an electrical process on a trolley wire early today, according to physicians who treated the cases.

A local eye specialist said tonight that in each case attended by him the inside of the eyelid was greatly irritated. He gave as his theory that the peculiar rays of light given by the welding process caused the quick development of bacteria, already lodged in the eye and blindness resulted.

"I'm going blind," he had not regained his sight tonight. Practically all the nineteen were kept in dark rooms today.

MILITARY PATROL KEEPS ORDER IN HAVANA

Indications Are That All Political Activities May be Suspended by Candidates Until Elections Are Held.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Havana, Oct. 27.—While not actually under martial law, Havana is now under absolute military protection against disorders arising from the heated political campaign. In accordance with orders issued by General Pablo Menditea, who yesterday was appointed by President Gomez to take charge of all the police and military forces in the capital, the streets were patrolled today by police and mounted and foot rural guardsmen. Detachments of regular troops were stationed at strategic points.

Conferences held last night between government officials and leaders of the political parties failed to reach an agreement to suspend all political meetings. Several large meetings were held tonight, but the military precautions were effective in checking all symptoms of disorder.

It was reported tonight that an agreement had been reached between General Menéndez and Alfredo Zayas to suspend all political meetings from now until the election and that assurances have been given by the participants that they will refrain from exciting utterances in order to avoid all danger of hostilities on election day.

Wm. A. Allen, Chacon, N. M., writes: "My wife had a cough that nearly choked her to death, the worst I ever saw. We tried everything we could think of but did her no good. By good luck I happened to get a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and it helped her at once. It is the best cough medicine I ever heard of." J. H. O'Reilly Co.—Adv.

Books Close Saturday Night, But Exact Figures Cannot Yet be Ascertained as Old Lists Must be Included.

An official of the inter-party committee which is handling a large portion of the work of the forthcoming election, who is particularly charged with the registration work, declared last night that actual accurate figures on the registration in the city for the coming general election could not be ascertained as yet. This official said that the registration in all the city precincts was very light.

At the last moment Saturday evening a number of names were placed on the different books by one of the parties interested in the election and the committee does not propose to allow these to go onto the books until it is determined that they are actually bona fide citizens and entitled to vote.

The committee is including on the registration lists all the names on the registration list last fall, as is required by law. But some of these names represent men who have died, or moved, or who have already registered themselves, and the men in charge are making a careful check to see that every man on last year's list is registered if he is still entitled to a vote in the precinct where he then voted, and to see that no names of deceased or departed persons are included in the list. Because of this, it will be impossible to secure exact figures of the registration in the various precincts until, probably, some time tonight.

Accurate figures are available for one city precinct, Division 1 of Precinct 12, where there are 567 names on the books.

The first division of Precinct 26 has about 300 names registered, but these have not yet been counted, and the figure is purely approximate. The lists for the other two city precincts have not yet been completed. The actual registration, each man for himself, is very light all over the city.

ATTEMPT MADE BY CHINESE TO GET INTO COUNTRY

Two Celestials Taken from No. 816 Saturday Night; Were Secreted Into Space Above Ceiling of Car.

Two Chinese were arrested here Saturday night by inspectors of the immigration service when they were caught without proper papers and the suspicious circumstances. The Chinese were Hong Wu and Hong Lee and both had been secreted in the space above the ceiling of the baggage car on Santa Fe train No. 816, between the ceiling and the curved roof over the platform.

The inspectors took the celestials to the county jail and are now holding them there pending final disposition of their cases.

While it is certain that some outside person must have sealed the trap door leading to the space where they were found after they had secreted themselves within, the service officials are at a loss to know who did this, or whether it was done at El Paso, the terminus of the train's run, or elsewhere.

They are hard at work on the case, but as they are practically without clues have small hope for immediate success.

WATERMAN CONCERT COMPANY ARRIVES FOR ENTERTAINMENT

The Emily Waterman Concert Company arrived last night to appear tonight at the Elks' theater under the auspices of the Popular Star Entertainment course. The company is one of great merit and consists, beside Miss Waterman, the talented reader and head of the trio, of Miss Lillian Whitman, pianiste, and William T. Shaffer, soloist.

The company has traveled all over the western part of the United States, having had many dates in Texas, North and South Dakota, Arkansas, Colorado, Montana, Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin. As a child Miss Waterman was always speaking pieces at school.

Miss Waterman has spent some time abroad in the atmosphere of the great poets and authors of Europe, and she was a great lover of literature. She has traveled in England, Scotland and Ireland, visited the homes of Burns and Lord Byron, and the burial place of Scott, also the country churchyard where Gray wrote his elegy.

The Royal Neighbors will give another of their social dances Monday evening, October 28th, in the new Old Fellows' hall. Admission 50 cents. Ladies free. Booster orchestra.

RAFT STRIKES BOAT; FOUR PEOPLE DROWNED
Automobile Party Attempts to Ferry Delaware River; When Near Center Frail Craft is Upset with Fatal Results.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Belvidere, N. J., Oct. 27.—Four members of an automobile party bound to Shawnee, Pa., from their homes in Noble, Pa., were drowned in the Delaware river today while being ferried across from Delaware, N. J. The dead:

Mrs. Leon H. Gilbert, Miss Rebecca Tyson, Mrs. H. W. Trump, Leon Gilbert, Jr., seven years old. There were eight members in the party, in two automobiles.

The party motored up through New Jersey today and arriving at Delaware drove the machines on the flat bottomed boat used as a ferry at that point. When the middle of the stream was reached the boat was struck and knocked from its course by a raft. L. H. Gilbert and H. W. Trump were thrown into the water and swam to the Pennsylvania shore, while Miss Gilbert and Nathan Trump jumped on the raft and managed to wade to the New Jersey shore where the raft swung that way. The others clung to the machines and when the ferryman lost control of the windings which propelled the boat, were thrown into deep water.

CITY COUNCIL WILL ATTEMPT TO SETTLE CARE OF PAUPERS

A large meeting of the city council and other interested persons will be held tonight at the city council chambers, at which it is hoped some settlement regarding the care of the sick and poor of the county will be arrived at. The meeting will include, by invitation, all the physicians of the city, the county commissioners and district attorneys, the officers of the former Non-Sectarian Benevolent society, the heads of the local hospitals, the ministers and others.

For some time the council has maintained that the care of the sick and poor of the city of Albuquerque, as well as those outside the city, but within Bernalillo county, properly belongs to the county commissioners. The commissioners, on the other hand, hold that it does not and that they are not empowered to care for them by any statute of the state. At the meeting tonight it is hoped to settle the question once and for all. Mayor D. K. R. Sellers will preside.
