WILSON DENOUNCES CHARGE THAT HE LEANS TOWARD FREE TRADE

Democratic Candidate Declares He Would Change Tariff Only Where It Can be Shown to Shelter Abuses.

NEARLY USES SHORT AND UGLY WORD

New Jersey Governor Says It is Awkward to Characterize Statement in Detroit Free Press Properly.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Newark, N. J., Oct. 29.—Governor Woodrow Wilson in three speeches filled with satirical attacks on his opponents, emphasized in North Jersey tonight that he was not a believer in free trade and that the democratic party did not intend to disturb legitimate business or the prosperity of the country if put into power.

"The democratic nominee said that those of his opponents who constantly asked him to define his position on the tariff, 'could not read English.'"

"He said he had repeated time and again in his speeches his policy of cutting out of the tariff merely the special privileges lodged in it."

"No thoughtful democrat," he added, "has advocated free trade."

To President Taft's statement published today with regard to the panic of the early 90's, Governor Wilson made an extended reply, first at Montclair, where he addressed a big audience and again at Newark, where he spoke tonight. He said it was wrong to attribute that panic to the tariff legislation, "because the panic started before the tariff bill was enacted."

"He attributed the panic to republican currency legislation."

"I find I am invited to return to my old occupation," said the governor, "I used to be a teacher of history and I find it necessary to teach it some more."

"I find myself absorbed in trying the necessity of teaching it to the president of the United States."

"And when the president of the United States makes himself responsible for the statement that the panic of '93 was due to a tariff bill that came a year afterward and came because of Mr. Cleveland's administration, I can only express my deep regret that the president of the United States has not read the history of the United States."

"Any statement that Mr. Taft makes, I believe to be made in honesty, but this statement, if he has made it, he has made in ignorance, because the panic of 1893 can be shown to have arisen out of currency legislation of a government absolutely controlled by the republican party. The panic of 1893 was on its way before Mr. Cleveland became president and it matured merely in the first part of his administration and would have been stopped if the senate of the United States had yielded more promptly to the advice of the administration."

"The governor said that the programs of the other two parties were 'programs of postponement.'"

"One of the evidences of the weakness of the regular republican party," he said, "is its misstatement and misrepresentation of the tariff. All we have to do to know Governor Wilson's position on the tariff is to be able to read the English language."

"In almost every speech I have defined my exact position. This evening, I had a telegram from a man in Wisconsin saying that the Detroit Free Press had announced that I had declared for free trade."

"But for those who are curious or can not read English I will explain my views again."

"In the first place, I have not heard a single thoughtful democrat declare for free trade. I have heard every democrat declaring for a policy of going through all the schedules of the tariff and finding all the illegitimate concealed privileges cutting every one of them out, leaving absolutely safe every sound and healthful fibre of American business."

"If a crisis comes," he added, "if panic comes on top of that, they can come only through those who control the credit of America. It is not a prediction of panic which they make. It is a threat. I want you to mark it and watch it as a threat of men, who, if they dare, can show they hold the credit of America in their hands."

FIVE INJURED BY BOILER EXPLOSION

Salem, Ore., Oct. 29.—The explosion of a boiler in the basement of the Salem Bank & Trust company today injured five persons.

W. C. East, cashier, who had been called into the basement to examine the boiler suffered the most serious injuries. One of his arms was blown off, and he was badly burned. Harry Ahlers, son of the president of the bank, was burned on the body and suffered a fractured skull. J. B. Mutchmore, L. H. Roberts and J. F. Mueller received burns and bruises.

MARSHALL SCORES SOUTH DAKOTA PROGRESSIVES

Democratic Candidate Refers to Fact That Taft Men Must Vote in That State Either for Wilson or Roosevelt.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Lemmon, S. D., Oct. 29.—Governor Thomas R. Marshall, of Indiana, democratic candidate for the vice presidency today sent several train loads of politics into the state of South Dakota, when he delivered an unscheduled speech in Lemmon, where his train had been held up for nine hours by a freight wreck.

Governor Marshall's audience at the city hall was composed mainly of passengers for the Seattle-Chicago limited on the Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound railway and from several other passenger trains blocked at Lemmon by the wreck. Political debates were rife about the waiting trains after the governor had concluded his speech.

While the vice presidential candidate was speaking, Mrs. Marshall was busy seeking aid for the family of Brakenham Brothing, killed in the freight wreck, who was reported to have left eleven children.

In opening his speech, Governor Marshall attacked the progressive party in South Dakota.

"I would like Governor Wilson to carry South Dakota," said Governor Marshall. "But I want him to carry it because the people of South Dakota want him and not because certain men here who may not believe in his policies will be forced to vote for him or stay away from the polls because they have been disfranchised by the purists of South Dakota who have removed the Taft electors from the official ballot. But if you vote for Governor Wilson, I urge you most earnestly to elect democratic congressmen from South Dakota to back him up in carrying out the pledges in the democratic platform. We don't want a half-way victory in November."

"The question now is not whether Wilson will be elected, but whether he is to have a unanimous vote in the electoral college."

"The question is not whether the next senate will have a democratic majority, but whether the majority will be six or nine over all."

"The question is not whether the national house of representatives will have a majority of democrats in it, but whether that majority will be above one hundred."

"The question in New Mexico is not whether Hon. Harvey B. Fergusson will have a majority, but whether that majority will be nearer five thousand than twenty-five hundred."

"It is well that New Mexico is getting in line with the party that will be in power after the fourth of next March."

"It was recognized by the republicans in territorial days that a delegate, acting in harmony with the party in power, had much more influence than one of opposite politics. That was the strongest ground urged for support of W. H. Andrews."

"With a full-fledged congressman representing New Mexico, there is much more reason why he should be in harmony with the powers that be, because he has a vote on every question that comes before congress. Also he can be taken into the councils of the party and assist in shaping the bills before they are introduced."

"Mr. Clancy has said that a republican could do as much in congress as a democrat, because of the high ideals that will control the deliberations of that body."

"If that were true, the democrats would have much higher ideals than the republicans have shown up to the present time."

"For illustration, during the past fifteen years two congressional districts that are republican in Tennessee have each received more federal appropriations than was allowed to the remaining eight combined."

"The Ninth district of Virginia is republican. During the past eight years it has received more federal appropriations than the nine other democratic districts combined, excluding the districts in which the government navy yards are located."

"The state of Wyoming, with one republican congressman, has received more federal appropriations during the past fifteen years than has been had by any ten democratic districts in the United States that were not located where commerce made it necessary for the government to expend large sums of money."

"These facts are well worth considering by the people of New Mexico."

SHERMAN'S LIFE IS SLOWLY EBBING BUT STEADILY TO ITS END

Serious Setback Occurs and Physicians Fear Death is Not More Than Few Days Off at Most.

PATIENT SLEEPS IN CHAIR, RESTING WELL

Seriousness of Illness Had Been Realized for Some Time, Says Family Physician; No Immediate Danger.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Uluda, N. Y., Oct. 29.—After a restful night, and a generally improved condition, which continued well into the forenoon, Vice President Sherman this afternoon suffered a recurrence of the distressing conditions which marked his case yesterday.

Dr. Peck, Mr. Sherman's attending physician, just as he left the house today, was hurriedly recalled. He found the vice president again suffering from an aggravation of his kidney trouble and remained with him for two hours. When he left he admitted the extremely critical condition of Mr. Sherman, but he gave assurance to the family that there was no danger of a serious termination in the immediate future.

Dr. Peck believes there is no immediate danger of death yet to the patient; his condition is such that it is a matter of conjecture how much longer he can withstand the ravages of the disease with which he is afflicted.

At 6 o'clock tonight, Dr. Peck issued the following statement relative to the condition of his patient:

"For the last week or ten days Mr. Sherman's friends and physicians have felt a great deal of solicitude about him, and for the last three or four days his extreme condition has caused a great deal of alarm. After a very disturbing day yesterday, he fell into a natural sleep at 11 o'clock last night, during which he slept peacefully without the aid of sleeping pills. He awoke at about 5 o'clock this morning, quietly and comfortably."

"This afternoon there has been a recurrence of his disturbance, but for the larger part of the afternoon he was resting quietly. His heart strength is keeping up well, his pulse is from 88 to 96; temperature practically normal; respiration from 17 to 20."

"During the days there were several emergency calls from the Sherman household, but the patient has been able to remain in bed, and the complete restoration of peace in Mexico."

"The state of Jalisco is showing greatly increased rebel activity, according to the official report of the governor who recounts in detail the operations of numerous bands in at least twenty towns."

"The state of Michoacan continues a favored field for rebel movements. One band is operating a few miles from Morelia, the capital. The southern part of the state of Mexico is practically dominated by Zapatistas."

"General Orozco with a small force is now on the Santo Domingo ranch in the northern part of the state of Coahuila. Campos is operating in the neighborhood of Torreon to the south of which another station on the line of the Mexican Central has been burned and the railroad cut. Two stations of the line to Guadalupe have been sacked."

MRS. LINDLOFF IS CHARGED WITH FOUR DEATHS

Crystal Gazer, Trance Medium and Clairvoyant is Said to Have Caused Events She Predicted.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Chicago, Oct. 29.—Evidence that three other members of her family died from poisoning besides her son, Arthur, with whose murder she is charged, was heard in the trial of Mrs. Louise Lindloff here today.

The Crystal gazer, trance medium and clairvoyant heard witnesses tell how she predicted the death of two former husbands and a daughter and then heard three physicians testify that Julius Graunke and John Otto Lindloff, her husband and Frieda Graunke, died from poisoning.

Dr. John H. Frank, Dr. C. P. Harrington and Dr. A. A. Ludwig, all of Milwaukee, brought here by the state to testify, said poison caused the death of the two men and the girl, and testimony to the same effect was given by five Milwaukee doctors. Former friends of Mrs. Lindloff.

TO BE EXECUTED ACCORDING TO REPORTS

Colonel Ordaz, Chief Lieutenant of Rebel Leader, is Captured Near Vera Cruz; Small Force with Him Escapes.

INSURRECTOS STILL ACTIVE IN MEXICO

Bands Operate with Little Opposition in Many Parts of Republic and New Uprisings Are Reported.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Mexico City, Oct. 29.—That General Felix Diaz and his associates will be executed at Vera Cruz in accordance with the decree of the court martial, in spite of the order of the supreme court, is the disquieting rumor that reached the capital today. There is reason to believe that they were placed in San Juan de Ulua prison today.

Colonel Diaz Ordaz, chief lieutenant in the Diaz revolt, who escaped in the confusion on the day of the fighting, was captured last night ten miles from Vera Cruz. The small force of rebels that followed him to the hills is still at large.

With the capture of Ordaz the government expresses the belief that the Diaz revolt is ended, but reports from various parts of the republic indicate that much time must elapse before the complete restoration of peace in Mexico.

Tuxpam and Oaxaca are the centers of the revolt in the coast region between Vera Cruz and Tampico, where a rising is headed by minor officers of the regular army. A gunboat will go from Vera Cruz to Tuxpam and co-operate with a land expedition at that point. Local and foreign companies at Tuxpam and in the adjacent territory are the victims of forced loans.

BANDITS OVERLOOK $50,000 BUT GET HALF THIS SUM

Daring Train Robbery in Oklahoma Nets Gang Fortune in Currency; Hold-Ups Make Their Escape.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Muskogee, Okla., Oct. 29.—Four men who held up and robbed Missouri, Kansas & Texas passenger train No. 9 at Wirth, Okla., early today, overlooked a package containing $50,000 in currency from the express car safe, according to a statement of express company officials tonight. It is reported that they got $25,000.

The bandits had succeeded in eluding several posses up to late hour tonight and are believed to have made their way to the Windy Star mountains, the most primitive hide-out of Oklahoma and used as a hiding place by outlaws for years.

The bandits, who are described as being young men, in fact mere boys, were unusually cool in executing the robbery. They compelled the engineer to cut out the express car and run back with it two miles to a lonely point on the line. They burned a bridge in between and cut the telegraph wires, so that it was some hours before the alarm was given. After dismantling the safes in the express car, they mounted horses and rode away in the darkness.

TURKS USE DEAD AS BREASTWORKS TO CHECK MARCH OF ENEMY

Greeks Show Great Courage in Assailing Their Mohammedan Enemies; Difficulty in Bringing Up Supplies.

BULGARIANS SUFFER ALLEGED REVERSES

London Newspaper Reports National Movement in Poland to Unite for Common Action If Opportunity Offers.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] London, Oct. 29.—The Journal was correspondent at Kozani describes the Turkish force opposing the Greeks as entirely disorganized and incapable of offering resistance. He says that the Greek force is advancing by mile lead to Cavarrila, while the Greeks also hold the Monastir railway and adds that if the Turks have no reinforcements at Saloniki, that town will soon be in the hands of the allies.

"The Greeks showed great dash and bravery in carrying the positions in the long defile of Sarandapor where they suffered heavy losses."

"Terrible details are reaching Belgrade, according to the Standard's correspondent there, of the retreat of the Turks from Kumanova. They tried to stop the Serbian advance by making breastworks of dead bodies."

Six thousand corpses were found on the road from Kumanova to Uckop and six truck loads of petroleum had to be brought from the rear for the purpose of burning the dead.

"The Constantinople correspondent of the Standard says it is regarded as a bad sign by the Turkish authorities that no news has been received from Zekki Pasha's army in the north of Macedonia."

"It is officially announced that the railway to Kik-Kishinev is again in operation and that the Turks have begun the offensive movement."

"The Turkish forces at Velez numbered 8,000, says a Belgrade despatch to the Express. The fighting there was exceptionally sanguinary. The Turks were demoralized and made a wild retreat in the direction of Monastir and Saloniki."

"The difficulties of the Greek army in transportation and commissariat, in the absence of a railway, are detailed in a Barissa despatch. Everything must be carried by pack animals. The roads are in a terrible condition and are cut up by artillery."

"The Daily Mail's war correspondent at Vienna reports the existence of a great national movement in Poland aiming to unite all the Poles for common action in the event of the Balkan war leading to hostilities between Austria and Russia."

FORMER POSTOFFICE OFFICIAL FINED

Washington, Oct. 29.—Arthur M. Travers, former acting third assistant postmaster general, indicted for conspiracy and embezzlement in taking valuable postage stamps from the post-office department, today withdrew his plea of not guilty, submitting a note contending and was fined $1,500.

It was charged that Travers took from the postoffice rare stamps of high philatelic value and substituted current issues.

INTERSTATE ORDER IS RESISTED BY PIPE LINES

Arguments Begin in Commerce Court to Determine Whether Companies Shall Publish Scale of Charges.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Washington, Oct. 29.—Arguments were begun today before the commerce court on the application of five oil pipe line companies for an injunction to restrain the interstate commerce commission from enforcing its order requiring them to publish their scale of charges for the interstate transportation of oil. Substantially the court must decide whether the pipe lines are common carriers under the laws.

"The petitioners declared they are not, inasmuch as they transport oil only for themselves and not for the general public."

"They maintain that the lines they operate are merely plant facilities to enable them better to transport their business in refining petroleum. Over these plant facilities, they argued, the government has no control."

"The government maintains that oil is a commodity of commerce and that its interstate movement through pipe lines, subjects it to the power of Congress. Congress has declared that companies transporting oil between states through pipe lines were common carriers and the government counsel maintains they must conform to the act regulating commerce."

AMERICAN HELD BY REBEL LEADER FOR RANSOM

Brigandage Becomes Common in Casas Grandes District Since Rojas Entered Country with Six Hundred Men.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] El Paso, Oct. 29.—The rebel leader, Antonio Rojas, has begun his former brigandage in American settlements of the Casas Grandes district, according to refugees arriving here today. Rojas is holding A. P. Spillbury for $3,000 ransom. Spillbury is a wealthy ranchman of Colonia Pacheco, a Mormon settlement, but himself not a Mormon. Other Americans have been released on the payment of smaller ransoms.

"It is said that federalists are not pursuing Rojas, who with about 600 men, is encamped in the American colony. Inez Salazar is reported moving south to form a junction with Rojas, which would create a formidable force. The Mexico Northwestern railway remains out of commission as a result of destruction by rebels. Mines and wood-working mills soon must shut down for want of supplies."

"Rebel representatives here today received word that General P. Flores Orozco, with the main group of the rebel army in the north, will re-enter Chihuahua in view of the withdrawal of federal troops to the south. Rebels in small bands already are moving along the Texas border to the west."

BATTLE OF KUMANOVA CAUSES GREAT LOSS.

Vranja, Servia, Oct. 29.—At the battle of Kumanova the Servians lost 500 killed and 2,000 wounded. The Turks lost 10,000 killed or wounded.

All accounts of the fight pay tribute to the valor of the Servian officers and men. Lieutenant Mitich, commander of the Serbian forces, was killed.

PRESIDENT RIPLEY, OF THE SANTA FE, DECLARES HE WILL VOTE FOR WILSON

President E. P. Ripley, of the Santa Fe railway system, who is one of the most prominent railroad magnates of the country, in an interview at Topeka, Kan., a few days ago, predicted the election of Woodrow Wilson as president. President Ripley made the further declaration that he was going to VOTE FOR WILSON.

"The statement of President Ripley, touching on the outcome of the election this year, is said to be the first prognostication he has ever been known to make regarding a presidential election."

"In the course of the interview, which appeared in the Topeka State Journal, a republican paper, which is supporting the candidacy of President Taft for re-election, Mr. Ripley is quoted as venturing a prediction on the outcome of the national election—in fact, actually prognosticating the election of Woodrow Wilson as the next president of the United States."

"And that isn't all, the interview continues: 'I AM GOING TO VOTE FOR MR. WILSON.'"

BATTLE EXPECTED TO BE DECISIVE IS RAGING IN TURKEY

Nazim Pasha, Commander of Ottoman Forces, is Fighting to Retrieve Defeats Suffered from Allies.

BULGARIANS MOVE TOWARD CONSTANTINOPLE

Greeks March Victoriously in Direction of Saloniki Where Provisions Are Now Running Short, is Report.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] London, Oct. 29.—The long awaited battle which will decide the fate of Turkey is now being fought. The army under Nazim Pasha, minister of war, and commander in chief, is engaged and, according to Constantinople official despatches, the operations are favorable to the Ottomans. The despatches, however, do not indicate where the chief action is taking place or how the opposing forces compare.

"It is Turkey's last chance to retrieve an almost hopeless campaign. Nazim Pasha is fighting with his back to the wall; his communications have been cut and it is impossible for him to get fresh supplies or reinforcements."

"In Constantinople the feeling of confidence is reviving. It is believed that the war minister has at last assumed the offensive. But this is by no means certain, as the battle may have been forced upon him."

"Sofia despatches indicate a continued forward movement of the Bulgarians, but give no details. There is still no confirmation of the reported capture of Lule Burgas, Demotica and Drama. The Bulgarians are fighting in the direction of Viza in pursuance of their plan to advance to the extreme end in the direction of Constantinople."

"The Greeks also are marching, with victories to their credit, toward Saloniki, where a feeling of extreme anxiety is said to prevail and provisions are running short. The fact that no apparent effort is being made to stem the Greek advance to Saloniki is held to indicate that the bulk of Turkey's army there has been transferred to Thrace."

"No recent information has been received of the operations around Scutari or other points to the west and Sofia today observed a significant silence."

EUROPE MAY INTERVENE TO END WAR SOON.

Berlin, Oct. 29.—The Frankfurter Zeitung prints a Vienna despatch, evidently emanating from official sources, which says:

"The time for intervention by the powers is near, whether requested or not. If Turkey is defeated in the impending battle between Adrianople and Constantinople it will be high time for Europe to look to its interests, since the destruction of European Turkey could not be tolerated, nor could the occupation of Constantinople by another power."

"Blood enough has been spilled and peace can be offered to both sides, if Bulgaria is defeated, with good prospect of acceptance. Austria is not likely to attack Servia, as that would mean immediate war with the Balkan alliance. A decisive battle is expected in a few days; hence intervention is likely within a week."

manding an infantry company, blew out his brains rather than to obey a command to retire from an exposed position, whereupon his men charged the Turks, with the result that all were killed.

The cavalry, with the king's brother, Prince Arsenale at the head, charged repeatedly. The commander in chief, Crown Prince Alexander, was frequently on the firing line and entered the town while the battle was in full swing.

TURKISH COMMANDER REPORTS GREAT BATTLE

Constantinople, Oct. 29.—The minister of war has advised the government that an important battle was in progress this afternoon along the whole front and that the Turkish troops were gaining ground.

A later telegram received from Nazim Pasha says that the battle begun today is still being waged with great violence. He adds that the situation for the Ottoman troops is very favorable.

Another official despatch reports fighting yesterday and today between Unkup, east of Kirk-Kiliseh, and Viza. Two battalions of Bulgarians were cut off from the main body and sustained heavy losses.

Fighting continues between the Greeks and Turks in Kodoni region of Macedonia. According to reports given out, the Turks are being driven back.

Despatches dated three days ago give the first news received here of the precarious position of the western army, which was grave. It is asserted, however, that a great force is concentrated at Vales disputing the advance of the Serbians and Bulgarians.

Kiamil Pasha, president of the council of state, assumed the office of grand vizier this afternoon, in succession to Ghazi Mouskhar Pasha, who resigned.

An imperial decree commands the new grand vizier to prosecute the war with all energy in order to secure a victorious issue.

Although all the changes in the cabinet have not yet been made it is announced that Nazim Pasha will be retained as minister of war and Noredin Pasha as minister of foreign affairs. Jamaleddin Pasha will be retained as sheik-ul-Islam.

The change in the grand vizierate is not expected materially to influence either the internal or external situation. When Kiamil Pasha, three months ago, accepted the presidency of the council, he became the dominant figure of the cabinet and it was foreseen that he would succeed to the grand vizierate at an opportune moment.

The motives for the resignation of Mouskhar Pasha are not known. It is supposed he began to feel that the responsibility for the crisis was burdensome, while unfavorable reports as to the success of his son's operations against the Bulgarians doubtless caused him much chagrin.

The retention of Noredin Pasha, as foreign minister, shows that no startling innovations in foreign policy are likely.

ALLIES HAVE 166,000 MORE FORCES AT FRONT

Athens, Oct. 29.—According to reliable information the Balkan allies have at the front 166,000 more men than they have been credited with.

house for the physician. The vice president was not in great pain but was extremely restless and at times irrational. Both of these conditions were caused by the presence of uric acid in the blood, due to the fact of the kidneys. Dr. Peck makes no effort to minimize the seriousness of this condition, but is hopeful of being able to stimulate the kidneys and if he succeeds, expects a marked improvement. In no event does he anticipate a crisis for a day or two.

There is no effort to conceal the facts concerning the vice president's condition. On the contrary both Dr. Peck and Mr. Sherman's family concede its critical nature. The doctor says, however, that kidney diseases are of such an illusive nature that it is impossible to predict the course of a given case. Mr. Sherman's robust constitution is in his favor, but the fact that he has lost ground steadily since August, weighs against him.

Dr. Janeway, of New York, and Dr. Elmer, of Syracuse, both of whom have been called into consultation during the last ten days, confirm Dr. Peck's diagnosis, leaving no doubt that the kidneys are the seat of the malady, while the heart, the arteries and the muscles about the heart are all seriously involved.

MUCH SPECULATION OVER POSSIBLE COMPLICATIONS.
Washington, Oct. 29.—Deep interest was manifested here today in the condition of Vice President Sherman. Confidence was expressed in many quarters that the vice president would recover, although the most optimistic did not expect him to be in the chair when the senate reconvenes in December.

The absence of the presiding officer, however, will give the senate no new problems to solve. The bitter fight over the election of a president pro tem ended last session in an agreement to have Senator Gallinger, of New Hampshire, republican, and Senator Bacon, of Georgia, democrat, alternate in the chair. Just before congress adjourned, Senator Bacon was chosen to serve as president pro tem until December 16th, and the understanding is that the rotation with Senator Gallinger will continue indefinitely.

No precedents were found today covering the situation of the withdrawal or death of a vice presidential nominee before the November election, inasmuch as party procedure is not governed by statute, some of the parliamentarians said the party had the legal right to handle the situation in whatever manner it pleased. The opinion was expressed that this would result in the national or executive committee selecting a sub-candidate and printing his name on the ballot in states where the tickets have not already been sent to press.

The discussion which arose over the death of Morace Greeley, in 1872, was recalled in the investigation today. His death occurred after the November election, but before the electoral college met to select a president and vice president. The ability of electors to vote for others than those nominated by the party convention or whose names have been printed on the ballot was then demonstrated, many democratic electors voting for others than Greeley. The Georgia electors conceived it their duty to vote for Greeley, although he was dead. The senate decided that the Georgia vote should be counted, but the house voted that it should not. It is contended that since congress amended the manner of canvassing the ballots in 1887, voters for a candidate dying between the November election and the meeting of the electoral college on the second Monday in January, must be counted by congress unless they are held to be votes not "regularly given."

The most serious situation, which could develop, it is said, would result from the death of a choice of the electoral college between the time the college voted on the second Monday in January and the inauguration on March 4th. The constitution authorizes congress to provide by law for the devolution of the duties of president in cases of "removal, death, resignation or inability" but does not declare what officer shall act as president in case anything occurs to the president-elect or the vice president-elect. Some parliamentarians contend, however, that congress would have power to act under the clause which enables it to pass such laws as are necessary to carry into effect the powers granted the federal government.

After a restless and unsatisfactory day, Vice-President Sherman dropped off to sleep while sitting in his chair at 8:30 o'clock tonight and at 11 o'clock was still sleeping. Dr. Peck, who had been with his most of the time for twenty-four hours, left for home expressing confidence that his patient would go through the night without great distress. His kidneys are acting more favorably.

J. C. Ray, Winfield, Ala., says: "My father, T. J. Ray, suffered with kidney and bladder trouble so bad he had to use a catheter. Various kidney remedies were tried without result, and finally we gave him Foley Kidney Pills. In three days he could pass some water and on the fifth, no longer needed a catheter. He continued to use Foley Kidney Pills until entirely cured." J. H. O'Reilly Co.—Adv.

MRS. CLEVELAND IS ENGAGED TO MARRY PROFESSOR PRESTON

Widow of Former President Makes Announcement But Fails to Say When Wedding is to Take Place.

BRIDGROOM TO BE IS NOTED EDUCATOR

After Winning Fortune, at Age of Forty He Resumed Interrupted College Course, Graduating at Princeton.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Princeton, N. J., Oct. 29.—Mrs. Grover Cleveland has authorized the announcement of her engagement to Thomas Joseph Preston, professor of archaeology and history of art at Wells college. The date of the marriage is not yet determined, but will be announced later.

Mrs. Cleveland is a graduate of Wells college and has been a trustee of that institution since 1887. Her wedding took place in the executive mansion during his first administration, was one of the notable events in the history of the White House. Her father, Oscar Polson, was a law partner of Mr. Cleveland, who, upon Mr. Polson's death in 1870, became Francis Polson's guardian.

After his retirement from the presidency, Mr. Cleveland made his permanent home in Princeton and Mrs. Cleveland has continued to reside there since the former president's death in 1908. Her two daughters, Esther and Marion, and her son, Richard, are living with her here.

The announcement of the engagement was made tonight by President Hibbin, of Princeton University, who said:

"Professor Preston is 50 years of age. He is a graduate of Princeton and one whom we hold in very high esteem. As a young man he began his university studies at Columbia, which, however, were interrupted on account of illness. At that time he gave up the idea of completing his education and went into business in which he made a very rapid and notable success, establishing himself at the head of a prosperous manufacturing company in Newark, N. J.

"After securing a substantial fortune and feeling keenly that continued business could not compensate for his abandoned college career, he determined to attain a long desired end and, with his earlier years had devoted him. Although, nearing the age of 40, he nevertheless closed his active business career and went abroad to study for two years, at the Sorbonne, Paris.

"Returning to America, he came to Princeton for two more years of additional study, on account of the wide range and unusual excellence of his work both in undergraduate and graduate studies he took at the same commencement not only the degree of Ph.D. but the degree of M. A. as well, a unique attainment.

Professor Preston was exceedingly popular and made many friends while at Princeton. He was subsequently appointed fellow of the American school of classical study at Rome and later won in a competition open to all universities of the United States the fellowship of the archaeological institute of America. After pursuing his studies abroad, he returned to Princeton and took his degree of doctor of philosophy. He was then called to his present professorship at Wells college.

POLICE BELIEVE CONTRACTOR WAS MURDERED

George Miller Left Sioux City in Company with Four Others; Body is Found in Missouri River.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Sioux City, Ia., Oct. 29.—The murder theory is now being entertained by the police in the case of George Miller, the Sioux City contractor whose body was recovered from the Missouri river near Winnebago, Neb., Monday. Miller is known to have had several hundred dollars when he left here only $50 was found in the pocket of the dead man.

Miller and his party consisting of Frank Shumier, "Louie" Matwig, Ida Hall and Bertha Hubbard, left Sioux City October 2nd, ostensibly for an automobile trip to Omaha. They visited a road house at South Sioux City, Neb., and were not seen again. Two days later, October 4th, Matwig made a draft on his home bank at Danbury for $50, announcing his intention of going to Minneapolis.

The finding of Miller's body in the river led at first to the belief that the automobile party while riding had dashed into the river near Dakota City, Neb., where the stream recently had cut into the highway.

TAFI PROPHECIES GOOD TIMES FOR 1913 WHATEVER PARTY WINS

President Would Like to Succeed Himself and Carry Out Policies He Has Inaugurated for Reforms.

TARIFF DISTURBANCE NOT DESIRABLE

Many Committees Engaged in Working Out Plans to Put Government on a Scientific Basis.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Washington, Oct. 30.—President Taft in an authorized interview given to a local newspaper for publication this morning, outlined the accomplishments of his administration and the policies on which his heart was set.

"Some of the great policies on which I have set my heart are just now coming to focus," declared the president. "The period of reconstruction began when I took office, but we have yet to finish the work. The steel frame work has been erected, but we must now put in the floors and ceilings. I say that it would be dangerous to change the whole force of workmen at this crucial period."

"Had I signed the tariff for revenue only bills submitted to me by the democratic congress," he declared, "the present era of prosperity would not be here today. The business world would not have been able to adjust itself to those bills for many years. And even the present prosperity is not great enough to act as a shock absorber to a democratic administration."

Throughout 1913, the president declared, prosperity would continue, no matter which special party triumphed and it would receive another impetus when the Panama canal was opened.

"But," he continued, "if there should be a disturbance of the tariff now—the shaking up that only the democratic can give—there would be another era of business effort that will affect the whole country."

Naming the accomplishments of his administration, the president pointed to the economy and efficiency, commission, which he claimed had saved millions of dollars and had made recommendations for further savings. He contended the public should know about public expenditures and to this end he said he would send to congress this fall a budget as citizens could see how the money was to be spent.

An industrial committee is studying conditions between capital and labor would soon be appointed, he said, while parcel post, postal savings banks, a bureau of mines and a children's bureau were all accomplishments of his administration.

Another term as president, he concluded, would enable him to accomplish a large number of reforms already outlined by him in his various messages to congress and in his statement to the people.

JOHNSON'S IDEA OF BULL-MOOSE CONTEST

California Governor Receives Enthusiastic Welcome in Nutmeg State Over Route Roosevelt Would Have Traveled.

RESULT AT BALLOT NOT GREATEST GOOD

Progressive Candidate Attacks Wilson for Failure to Oust All Trusts Domiciled in State of New Jersey.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Norwich, Conn., Oct. 29.—Over the trail Colonel Roosevelt had promised Connecticut progressives he would cover Governor Hiram Johnson traveled today and received an enthusiastic welcome. He spoke in Meriden, New London and Norwich. The latter two meetings were held tonight.

The zeal of party followers in Meriden caused them to explode torpedoes and fire cannon in honor of the governor's arrival, with the result that a report spread that an attempt had been made to assassinate him. A squad of policemen guarded him in New London tonight, but Governor Johnson laughingly remarked that no one would attempt to injure a man who aspired to the vice presidency.

"The victory is won," the governor told his audience. "Not the victory that hinges on the counting of the ballots, the mere election of one party over its opponents, but victory in a bigger and broader sense, a great moral victory."

"As our forefathers met the mercenaries at Lexington so we met them in Chicago last June, and like our forefathers we fired a shot that was heard around the world, making for common honesty and decency in public life."

The speaker charged Governor Wilson with lacking "the punch" and the "courage to go to bat with the trusts."

"Within the last twenty-two months," he declared, "it has been within the power of one man to crush the majority of our indigent trusts, had he had the punch and the courage to go to bat with them. That man is the governor of New Jersey, the state which has spawned the most of our trusts—and also has given its governor the right, if he desires, to curb or dissolve those same trusts."

Tonight Governor Johnson left for New York, where he is to appear with Colonel Roosevelt at Madison Square Garden tomorrow evening.

BECKER RECEIVES SENTENCE TODAY TO DEATH CHAIR

Former Police Lieutenant Convicted of Directing Murder of Gambler Will be Taken at Once to Sing Sing.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] New York, Oct. 29.—Charles Becker, deposed police lieutenant, will be sentenced tomorrow morning to the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler. Becker will be brought before Justice Goff in the criminal court building at 10:30 o'clock. He will be told that he must die in the electric chair in Sing Sing prison.

Mrs. Becker will be present to hear her husband's sentence pronounced. The "death house," at Sing Sing, will be Becker's home, beginning not later than Sunday, the state plans. District Attorney Whitman does not want the responsibility of Becker's presence in this city when he places the man on trial. The first of them probably will be tried Monday. Sheriff Harbinger says he will not delay Becker's removal from the jail.

The task of the state in the prosecution of the gangsters—"Lefty" Louis, "Whitey" Lewis, "Gyp" the Blood," and "Dago Frank"—was made less difficult this afternoon when William Shapiro, driver of the "murder car," made what was purported to be a complete confession.

Shapiro was escorted with District Attorney Whitman several hours. For days his counsel, Aaron J. Levy, had urged his client to tell all he knew. Shapiro feared to do so, said the lawyer, because he believed he would be killed.

If Shapiro tells a story which will help convict his passengers in the murder car, he probably will be tried on some less serious charge than that of murder. Mr. Whitman is said to be willing to agree to this, but is not prepared to grant Shapiro complete immunity.

"Red Phil" Davidson, slayer of "Big Jack" Zelig, is expected to plead guilty either to murder in the second degree or to manslaughter when brought to trial tomorrow.

JOHNSON REBUKED FOR TRYING TO ADDRESS COURT

Chicago Judge Silences Negro Pugilist When He Persists in His Attempt to "Vindicate" Himself.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Chicago, Oct. 29.—Charges of abduction against Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, were to be heard before Judge Hopkins today, while at the same time a hearing in the municipal court was scheduled at which the closing of Johnson's saloon was the point at issue.

Hearing of charges of disorderly conduct against Lucille Cameron today was postponed until November 9th.

During the negro pugilist's hearing on the abduction charge in the municipal court he was silenced and ordered from the court room by Judge Jacob Hopkins, when he attempted to make a speech to "vindicate" himself.

Judge Hopkins had ordered the case continued to November 19th.

Attorney Day for Johnson objected, but the court refused to change the date. Johnson then approached the rail and said:

"Judge, may I have a few words? I want to prove to the world that I am innocent and that I have meant no harm to any girls, white or black."

"I don't want to hear any speeches from you," interrupted the judge.

"But—" began Johnson.

"There are no buts about it," said the judge. "You can't make any speeches here. Leave the room. Your case goes over until November 19th."

Mrs. Cameron-Falconet, mother of Lucille Cameron, whose infatuation for Jack Johnson has caused city and federal authorities to investigate their alleged relations, refused today to discuss a report that her second husband, Mr. Falconet, in Minneapolis, had informed her that she must give up either her daughter or him.

It was reported Mr. Falconet had said the girl might not enter his home again, because of the notoriety attaching to her escapade with Johnson, and that if the mother desired to remain with her off-spring, she would have to do so outside of his home.

DENVER NEWSPAPER GIVES MARK LEVY BOOST AS PROMOTER

The sporting page of the Denver Times, of its issue of Monday, contains an excellent likeness of Mark Levy, director of the New Mexico Athletic club, together with a brief sketch of Mr. Levy's success as a boxing promoter. The article is a boost for the club, of which Mr. Levy is the directing head. It reads as follows:

Mary Levy, manager and match-maker of the New Mexico Athletic club of Albuquerque, N. M., is one of the most successful promoters in the west. He was one of the first promoters in the new state to stage bouts under proper regulations. His club, which is the largest in New Mexico, is giving the fans of Albuquerque some of the best bouts ever witnessed in the Rocky Mountain region.

Denver boys have appeared in a number of bouts at the New Mexico club and have always met with fair treatment. Levy conducts his club in a clean manner and does not allow betting in the arena. None of the officials are allowed to be interested in any of the bouts who appear at the club, and Levy always protects his patrons.

Fighters must submit to a physical examination before entering the ring, and must fight clean, as Levy does not cater to the foul or quitting fighter. The New Mexico promoter has the confidence of the fans in New Mexico, and his success has been great. He hopes to stage several important fights in the near future.

TONY CAPONI PUTS RAY MARSHALL AWAY IN FOUR ROUNDS

St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 29.—Tony Caponi, of Chicago, won here tonight in the fourth round of a scheduled fifteen round bout, from Ray Marshall, of Atchison. The referee stopped the fight after Marshall had been floored three times, to prevent a knockout. Caponi refused to weigh in and was apparently twenty pounds above the 160 pound limit.

Kilbane Knocks Out Dugan. Johnstown, Pa., Oct. 29.—Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion of the world, knocked out Tommy Dugan, of California, in the fourth round here tonight. Honors were even in the first round. Kilbane had the best of the second. Honors were even in the third and in the fourth Kilbane shot his right to the jaw and Dugan went down for the count.

TINKER IS SECURED AS MANAGER OF CINCINNATI

Chicago National League Club Shortstop to Direct Destinies of Garry Hermann's Reds Next Season.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Chicago, Oct. 29.—Shortstop Joe Tinker, of the Chicago National League baseball team and Garry Hermann, owner of the Cincinnati team in the same league, today agreed upon terms upon which Tinker will manage the Cincinnati club next season if he can obtain his release from Chicago.

Tinker has announced that he will not play again with the Chicago Nationals. "I can't play the same kind of ball under Evers that I did under Chance," said Tinker. "I will never put on a Cub uniform again."

Tinker and Hermann had a long conference. The Chicago shortstop said Hermann was prepared to trade several players for him. "He will give me an infielder and two outfielders for me," said Tinker. "No pitchers are to be included in the deal. I told Hermann that I did not want the Cincinnati club weakened. After our talk he decided that he would give Grant for me, so that Evers might have two of the following outfielders: Mitchell, Kinsley, Bates or Kyle.

"Evers says he will not consent to a bargain unless he can get Mike Doohan, of Philadelphia, for a shortstop. That is unjust to me. There are Cincinnati players available that would help make up a good Cub infield. I was offered the management of the Cub team two years ago by Murphy, but I declined it. He said he wanted me to take charge if anything ever happened to Chance."

Bronson Shakes Clarence English. St. Louis, Oct. 29.—After eight rounds of hard and fast fighting, during which he was the aggressor throughout, Ray Bronson, welterweight championship claimant, was awarded the popular decision over Clarence English of Omaha, before the St. Louis Athletic club tonight.

MINING ENGINEER AGAIN FIGURES IN TRAGEDY

W. P. McComas Held Under Surveillance in San Francisco Pending Result of Mysterious Shooting of His Wife.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] San Francisco, Oct. 29.—Before W. P. McComas, a mining engineer of Arizona, Mexico and California, can regain his full liberty, he must explain the shooting of his wife, with whom he quarreled this morning and who is lying at a private sanitarium with two bullet holes in her forehead, too weak to make a statement. McComas is at liberty, but will remain under surveillance until the case is cleared up.

Mrs. McComas probably will recover. Captain Wall, of the detective bureau, said tonight after quizzing the husband, that he was sure the case was one of attempted suicide, but that on account of McComas' history, he felt it wise to hold him in custody. Four years ago McComas was acquitted in Los Angeles of the murder of Mrs. Charlotte Noyes, after a sensational trial.

McComas Principal in Los Angeles Murder. Los Angeles, Oct. 29.—W. P. McComas, whose wife was shot under mysterious circumstances in San Francisco last night, was tried here and acquitted of the murder of Mrs. Charlotte Noyes, who was killed in her apartments on the night of February 28, 1908. The tragedy occurred about four years after McComas was married to Miss Leona V. Anderson, a school teacher of Denning, N. M. McComas did not deny that he was with Mrs. Noyes when she was killed. After the tragedy McComas rushed out of the Noyes apartment with his face seared with acid and declared that the woman had hurled vitriol upon him. The prosecution held that he had thrown the acid upon himself after the shooting, but the jury believed otherwise.

LIQUIDATION WAVE CARRIES STOCKS DOWN SHARPLY

Canadian Pacific Weakest of International Group While Reading and Amalgamated Both Suffer.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] New York, Oct. 29.—After several days of comparative calm, today's stock market was subjected to another wave of liquidation and a series of bear attacks which sent prices to the lowest level of the current movement.

Canadian Pacific was weakest of the international group, declining over two points in London before our opening. Its maximum decline here, was seven points from which it made but slight recovery. The urgency with which this stock has been offered on the European exchange points to an over-extended bull interest.

The settlements in London progressed without great strain, although a failure of some importance occurred at that center. Reading and Amalgamated Copper were singled out for short selling and other copper reflected the change, which is said to have come over the condition of that industry. United States Steel, too, was the object of extensive bear sales, with resultant substantial declines. The statement of the Steel corporation for the third quarter of the year was issued after the close of the market.

Chicago Board of Trade. Chicago, Oct. 29.—Bizzard conditions expected to interfere with farmers' deliveries northwest brought about an uptick today in wheat, but failed to prevent weakness later due in the main to bearish cables. The close was easy 1/4 to 1/2 cent under last night.

Heavy increase of the European supply counted gradually but in a decided manner against the wheat bulls. The total holding was lifted to nearly the same level as a year ago. On the other hand, failure of the board of trade, grain committee to agree with the state inspection department in approving a big Duluth cargo as suitable for filling speculative contracts had only temporary influence toward helping sustain the market. STEEL TRUST SHOWS BIG GAIN OVER LAST QUARTER

Statement is Not Quite So Good as Corresponding Quarter a Year Ago Owing to Charges and Allowances.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] New York, Oct. 29.—The financial statement of the United States Steel corporation for the third quarter of the calendar year, issued today, shows total earnings of $20,063,212 and net earnings of $20,777,446, representing gains of $4,961,257 and $2,348,171 respectively, compared with the preceding quarter. The surplus for the quarter amounts to $4,434,801 against $5,434 three months ago.

The showing is up to general estimates, but compares unfavorably with the same quarter of last year, when net earnings and surplus were larger than those reported today. This is partly explained, however, by the fact that in this year's third quarter "charges and allowances" aggregated $7,658,049 against $6,806,568 last year. Analysis of the latest statement shows that business for August was much in excess of that in July and slightly better than that of September. Officials of the corporation declined to comment on the present status of trade, but the month now ending is believed to show a slight falling off from recent high pressure.

Today's meeting was of brief duration and the attendance of directors was smaller than usual. Regular dividends were declared on the preferred and common shares.

BOWELS GET WEAK AS AGE ADVANCES

The First Necessity is to Keep the Bowels Gently Open with a Mild Laxative-Tonic.

Healthy old age is an absolutely dependent upon the condition of the bowels that great care should be taken to see that they act regularly. The fact is that as age advances the stomach muscles become weak and flaccid and the liver does not store up the juices that are necessary to prompt digestion.

Some help can be obtained by eating easily digested foods and by plenty of exercise, but this latter is irksome to most elderly people. One thing is certain, that a state of constipation should always be avoided as it is dangerous to life and health. The best plan is to take a mild laxative as often as is deemed necessary. But with equal certainty it is suggested that cathartics, purgatives, physic, salts and pills be avoided, as they do but temporary good and are so harsh as to be a shock to a delicate system.

A much better plan, and one that thousands of elderly people are following, is to take a gentle laxative-tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which acts as nearly like nature as is possible. In fact, the tendency of this remedy is to strengthen the stomach and bowel muscles and so train them to act naturally again, when medicines of all kinds can usually be dispensed with. This is the opinion of many people of different ages, among them Mr. William Deibert, Hoxie, Kan., and Mrs. Pearl Wilson, Sandpoint, Idaho, and they have Syrup Pepsin constantly in the house.

MR. W. DEIBERT.

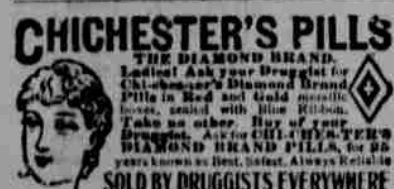

A bottle can be bought of any druggist at fifty cents or one dollar. People usually buy the fifty-cent size first, and then, having convinced themselves of its merits they buy the dollar size, which is more economical. Any elderly person can follow these suggestions with safety and the assurance of good results.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal note—to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 415 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

NOVEMBER 11 DATE FOR CONVENTION OF BOOSTERS

Ocean-to-Ocean Highway Association Scheduled to Begin Sessions in Santa Fe Within Two Weeks.

New Mexico good roads boosters were reminded through a telegram sent to Colonel D. K. B. Sellers yesterday that the annual convention of the Ocean-to-Ocean Highway association is to be held in Santa Fe on November 11th and 12th.

Colonel Sellers is vice-president of the association for New Mexico. The telegram was from John S. Mitchell, president of the association.

The convention will be composed of twenty-eight delegates from each of the states interested. The wire sent was specifically to remind the good roads people of this state that it was necessary to name New Mexico's delegates within a few days.

The telegram is as follows: Los Angeles, Oct. 28.

D. K. B. Sellers, Albuquerque, N. M.: Please remember that New Mexico should have twenty-eight delegates at Ocean-to-Ocean Highway association convention in Santa Fe, November 11th and 12th.

JOHN S. MITCHELL. Steps have been taken to arrange for the naming of the twenty-eight men who will represent this state in the convention. There are a great many matters of importance which will come before this meeting, especially the work of keeping the proposed trans-continental national highway located along the route of the Ocean-to-ocean highway. This is a matter in which the state is vitally interested, and only five ones who will attend the convention and work hard will be named as delegates.

LUCERO DECLARES FERGUSSON WILL PROSPECTS BEST IN MANY YEARS SPEAK TONIGHT AT COURT HOUSE

Secretary of State Says That Indications Are for the Greatest Majority That Was Ever Polled.

Antonio Lucero, secretary of state for New Mexico, declared last night that indications were for the greatest democratic majority ever cast in New Mexico in a statement made for publication. Mr. Lucero said that the splitting off of the progressives from the republicans had weakened the total vote that might be polled by the combination very much.

He said that democrats everywhere were alive to the possibility of electing a national ticket for the first time in years and that all the doubtful ones were hastening to identify themselves with the party they felt was to win. Mr. Lucero said he believed the vote all through the state would be lighter than usual because of the fact that there were no county officers to be voted for.

"I have had a very successful trip through the state," he said, "and have found good crowds awaiting me everywhere. But in that respect, the runner must go to Sandoval and Bernalillo counties. The three largest crowds which I have addressed were at Anton Chico, Guadalupe county, Bernalillo and Alameda. I had a splendid crowd at Alameda, also at Bernalillo."

"I believe that Mr. Fergusson will win this year for several reasons. I also believe that Wilson will carry both New Mexico and the nation. Democrats everywhere are seeking to renew allegiance to the party they feel is to win, especially the stay-at-home sort, who feel that this year they will have a chance to take the national offices for their party's candidate."

INFORMAL SMOKER HELD BY DEMOCRATIC CLUB

Members of the Wilson-Marshall-Fergusson club held an informal smoker at the club rooms on Gold avenue last night. There were no speeches, but the members discussed plans for the closing days of the campaign, felicitated each other on the brilliant prospects for a sweeping victory for Wilson and Fergusson in New Mexico and spent an enjoyable social evening.

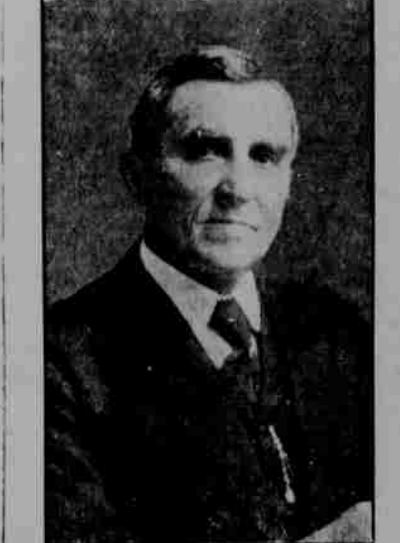

The club rooms will be open every evening until election day and the members are invited to gather and talk over political matters.

The voters of Albuquerque and Bernalillo county, the home city and county of Congressman H. E. Fergusson, the democratic congressional nominee to succeed himself, will have an opportunity to hear Mr. Fergusson tonight, when he speaks at the court house at a meeting at 7:30 o'clock, and later at Bernalillo, Mr. Fergusson will speak in the afternoon at 2 o'clock at Rancho de Atlixco, across the river.

Tonight's rally at the court house is expected to be the most notable one held locally of the present campaign.

HON. H. E. FERGUSSON Democratic Nominee for Congress to Succeed Himself. Who Speaks Tonight at the Court House.

Until Mr. Fergusson arrives, District Attorney Manuel Vigil will address the assembled voters.

Mr. Fergusson returns home today from a triumphant tour of the state in behalf of his candidacy and that of Wilson and Marshall, and that his election, together with the election of the democratic vice presidential candidates on next Tuesday assured by an overwhelming victory, no well informed voter will deny.

All voters, irrespective of party, are invited to attend the meeting tonight at the court house.

MOTHER WOULDN'T LET HER HAVE COMPANY

And Big Brother Abused Her, So Etta Jones, Seventeen and Pretty, Ran Away from Her Las Vegas Home.

If you were a pretty girl of seventeen, and mother wouldn't let you have company, would you run away? Etta Jones, of Las Vegas, did, and she was taken from No. 2 here last night by the police on a charge of leaving home. Etta spent the night in a local hotel, guarded by a special police matron. Sometime today, it is expected, an officer will come from Las Vegas to take her home again.

Etta lives with her mother, Mrs. C. E. Jones, at 1005 Diamond street, Las Vegas. She has a big brother, also, and Etta says he abuses her. Ever since she was 12 years old, according to her story, she has worked for her own living and up until a short time ago was employed in a restaurant in the Meadow City.

Lately she began to tire of her mother's refusal to let her have company, for mother, it appears from her story, is one of the old-fashioned sort that believes her daughter's friends should be subject to her censorship. Etta disagreed. So yesterday she packed a few belongings in a suit case and started for Albuquerque, where she expected to go to work in some store or restaurant. Mother appealed to the police, and the result was that an accurate description of Etta was on hand when she got here, together with a couple of policemen on the station platform. As she left the train she was taken into custody and after a brief questioning, taken to a hotel to spend the night under the care of a special police matron.

Etta declares that if taken back to her home she will run away again and keep on running away until she gets loose from her mother's apron strings.

CHIGUIGUI CASE IS AGAIN ENDED BY DISAGREEMENT

Jury Finds It Difficult to Determine Whether Isleta Indian Committed Assault Last Year or Not.

The case of the State vs. Augustin Chiguigui ended in a disagreement on its second trial yesterday, as it had in its first, which was held at the fall term of court last year. Chiguigui is charged with criminally assaulting one Maria Refina Chavez, also of Isleta, sometime in August of 1911.

Numerous witnesses were presented in the action by both sides, but after being out about an hour the jury reported its inability to agree on the guilt or innocence of the defendant, and the case will have to be tried again.

The case against E. W. Hill was begun yesterday afternoon. Hill was indicted for the embezzlement of $1,000 from Mrs. Mary Duncan. Mrs. Duncan declared on the stand yesterday that she had given Hill a check for $1,000 to purchase stock in a corporation which he claimed he was forming and which was to handle the entire clothing cleaning business of the city. She said he promised her a return of $25 per month on the investment.

Wilson & Lewis are appearing as special prosecutors, representing Mrs. Duncan. Francis E. Wood is appearing for the defendant.

Three more criminal cases are likely to be heard at this term of court. These will be the actions against Manuel Torres, indicted for receiving stolen goods; that against Jose Griego, for resisting an officer, and that against Salvador Arriola, charged with perjury.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Josephine Perez, of this city, and Charles J. Eckert, of Santa Fe.

MUNICIPAL LEAGUE TO MEET HERE NOVEMBER 9

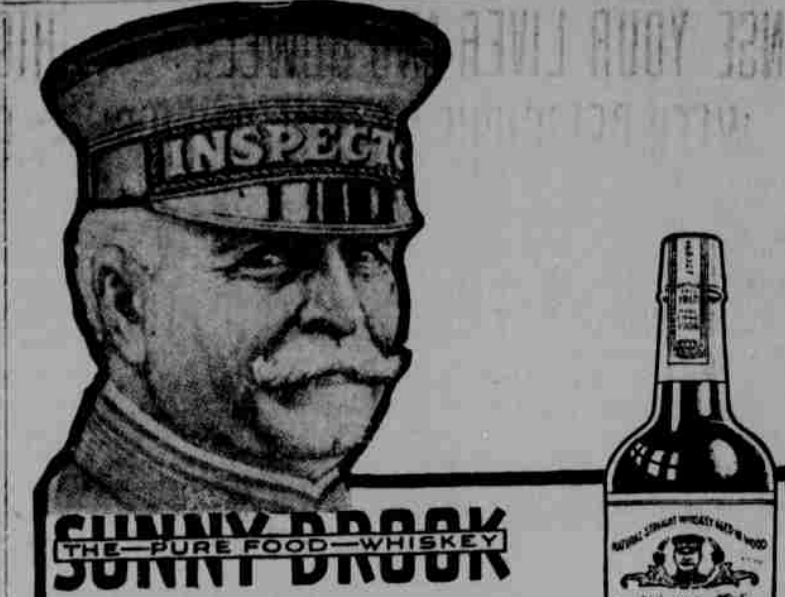

Second Session for Organization Purposes Called with Approval of Many Mayors and City Officials.

A call for the second meeting of the proposed State Municipal League has been issued by Dr. J. J. Shuler, mayor of Tucson, who was chosen president of the league at its first meeting here during the state fair. The call is for a meeting in this city, November 9th, and is approved by Mayor D. K. B. Sellers, City Attorney Felix H. Lester, R. J. Taupert, mayor of Las Vegas; E. V. Long, city attorney for the same municipality, and H. L. Bickley, city attorney of Tucson.

The call sets forth that it was the unanimous opinion of those present at the meeting during the state fair that it would be to the advantage of all the cities in the state were such a league to be organized from their mayors and city attorneys, especially in the outlining and prosecuting of a program of municipal legislation which should be enacted by the state legislative assembly.

The call provides for three delegates from each city which wishes to enter the league, the mayor, city attorney and one member of the city council being suggested as suitable delegates. The call urges that the expenses of the delegates be paid by the municipalities represented.

The municipal league is a matter which has been attempted before without marked success, but this year it is hoped to formally organize an association which will be of material benefit to all the cities entering it.

LEADER OF MARINE BAND MUSICIAN OF WIDE NOTE

Born in Germany of Long Line of Talented Ancestors William H. Santelmann is Able to Play Any Instrument.

It will be of interest to many who will attend the concert of the United States Marine band in this city at the Elks' theater tonight, to know something about the leader of this chief military band of the government, William H. Santelmann, who was born in the province of Hanover, Germany. Descended from a long line of musical ancestors, he showed, when still quite young, a marked talent for music. He chose the violin for his special study, and at the early age of fourteen took up the study of harmony. The further he progressed in this study, the more he became convinced of the great advantage in acquainting himself with all the instruments used in an orchestra as well as in a band. He acted upon this conviction, and thus it is that there is not an instrument of the many which the United States Marine band does not play if it is necessary arose.

At the age of eighteen Mr. Santelmann enlisted as a volunteer in the band of the 134th Infantry Regiment, then stationed in Leipzig, one of the great musical centers of Germany. For three years his connection with his band continued and afforded him the best possible opportunity not only to acquaint himself with the intricacies of the different instruments, but to assimilate the exceptional advantages in the field of music, especially instrumental music, which are offered to the student in Leipzig. At the conclusion of his term of service, he resumed his studies on the violin and in harmony and composition, and after another three years' sojourn in Leipzig he came to the United States, having accepted an offer from Philadelphia. When the Philadelphia orchestra terminated, two offers were made to him, one from New York, and the other to enter the United States Marine band. He chose the latter, and in 1887 entered the band as its first violinist and baritone player. After a service of eight years he retired from the band and organized an orchestra, which in a short time became one of the musical attractions of the National Capital, but in the year following his retirement he returned to the band, this time as its leader.

When Mr. Santelmann assumed the leadership of the Marine band it was but a small organization consisting of thirty classified musicians and eight privates. He saw at once that if the band was to attain its proper importance as a distinguished governmental institution its membership would have to be very largely increased, and its facilities for doing the best possible work greatly augmented. He immediately set to work to persuade his superior officers to urge the necessary legislation upon congress, and on the 3rd day of March, 1899, just one year after his assumption of the leadership, President McKinley signed the act which provided for the United States Marine band a leader, a second leader, thirty first-class and thirty second-class musicians, all of them at considerably increased salaries. This reorganization of the band enabled Mr. Santelmann to get the very best men from all parts of the country. He was not satisfied, however, with having merely a body of wind instruments. His tastes naturally gravitated towards an orchestra, as he himself was a rarely proficient violinist. Consequently he required that every man engaged as a member of the band should also know how to play some instrument used in an orchestra, and to play it well. Thus it happens that the United States Marine band is practically two organizations in one, and at its concerts in the big music hall built by the government at the Marine Barracks, band as well as orchestral music is performed.

In the year 1908, the George Washington University of Washington, conferred upon Mr. Santelmann the degree of Doctor of Music, in recognition of his excellent work and notable achievements, as leader of the United States Marine band. He has also received diplomas from the Trans-Mississippi Exposition at Omaha, the Columbian Exposition at Buffalo, and the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis, for his services at those world-renowned exhibitions.

The second leader of the Marine band is Mr. Walter F. Smith, of Michigan, where he was at one time leader of the famous Constantine band. He first enlisted in the Marine band in 1885 as solo cornetist. He withdrew from the band when Sousa resigned his leadership and traveled in his band for four years, but returned to the Marine band at the end of that time as solo cornetist and second leader.

PROGRESSIVES HOLD A ROUSING RALLY AT LOS GRIEGOS MONDAY

One of the most enthusiastic and largest rallies held during the present campaign took place on Monday night at Los Griegos, when Sheriff Jesus Romero, chairman of the Bernalillo county progressive committee, County School Superintendent Atanasio Montoya and Hon. John Baron Burg addressed over a hundred voters, who had gathered to hear the speakers discuss the issues of the campaign from a progressive standpoint.

The meeting, in point of attendance, enthusiasm and interest displayed, was in striking contrast to that held by the republicans for the same afternoon, when but nine people were on hand to hear Nestor Montoya and A. B. Stroup speak on behalf of President Taft and Nathan Jaffa.

CLEANSE YOUR LIVER AND BOWELS WITH DELICIOUS "SYRUP OF FIGS"

Removes the sour bile, gasses and clogged-up waste without gripe or nausea. No headache, indigestion, constipation, biliousness or coated tongue.

Foul breath, coated tongue, dull, injury. Its action is the action of fruit—of eating coarse food—of taking exercise. It is a true and effective liver and bowel cleanser and regulator.

Most folks dread after-effects—they shrink from the taste and after-effects. Syrup of Figs is delicious, and besides, you don't realize you have taken anything until morning, when all the clogged-up waste of the system is gently but thoroughly moved on and out of the bowels without gripping or weakness.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna." This is the old reliable and only genuine. Refuse, with contempt, any other Fig Syrup recommended as good. They are imitations meant to deceive you. Read the label carefully and look for the name California Fig Syrup Company.—Adv.

FEDERAL OFFICIALS TO HANDLE CHARGE AGAINST RAYNOR

Alleged Waiter Who Claims He Was Shipped from Denver to Prevent His Testifying, is Wanted for White Slaving.

Philip Raynor, who claimed Monday night that he had been doped and shipped out of Denver to prevent his testifying against two detectives, was arrested yesterday by Chief of Police Thomas McMillin, on a charge of white slaving. Last night word was received from Denver that the case had been placed in the hands of federal officials and that it would be handled throughout by them. Telegrams from Denver say that there is a clear case against Raynor. Raynor told a wonderful story on Monday night, claiming that he had been put on the train with the connivance of Mrs. Theresa Arnet, who had bought his ticket, that two men had accompanied him to Albuquerque and on his arrival there placed him in the Savoy hotel. Raynor declared that he was a waiter by occupation, and that his deportation was caused by his knowing too much. He said it was to be called upon to testify to charges of extortion preferred against detectives in Denver named Len Rogers and Watson.

Raynor said that his home was in New York, and that for a year and a half previous to his coming to Denver two years ago, he had lived there as man and wife with a Miss Belle Kennedy. He said his Denver home was at the corner of Valjejo and Thirty-second streets, and that he had stayed there for two years.

Last night's telegram from Chief of Police Felix O'Neill, of Denver, stated that the matter had been placed in the hands of a federal official named Daley, who was bringing the

HIGHEST OFFICIAL OF COLUMBIANS VISITS CITY

James A. Flaherty, of Philadelphia, Supreme Knight, Addresses Local Council at Special Meeting.

James A. Flaherty, of Philadelphia, supreme knight of the Knights of Columbus, spent yesterday afternoon and evening in the city, the guest of Albuquerque Council No. 641. He arrived from the west on No. 2 at 3:55 p. m., and from that hour until he was ready to retire last night there was not a time when he was absent from the local knights. Each and all of them were busy telling him what a fine place Albuquerque was, and Mr. Flaherty agreed with them. His address to the local council last night was an especially fine one and reflected the appreciation he felt for his warm reception here.

Mr. Flaherty is on a tour around the North American continent, on which he has visited councils in a great many of the more important cities. His visits are official ones and as he is stopping at the larger cities, Albuquerque is honored by his coming. This is his only stopping place between Los Angeles and Kansas City.

On his arrival here yesterday afternoon, Mr. Flaherty was met by a committee of the local knights, and after a few moments rest, taken on an automobile tour around the city. He visited the old church of San Felipe de Neri in Old Albuquerque, and was driven up to the mesa that he might have a view of the valley and also of the splendid sites there available for a Knights of Columbus sanatorium, which the local knights assured him should be built here.

Mr. Flaherty said last night: "Of course, the sanatorium idea is just an idea as yet, but it is a growing one, and some day will likely be a reality. I believe you have a splendid climate here for the location of such an institution."

He was enthusiastic about the order, of which he is a charter member, and said: "We now have $4,250,000 in our reserve mortality fund, which is a million and a quarter more than the government requires us to have for the membership we have. The order is a large one, now numbering 300,000 and is growing. We have councils all across Canada, and I visited those in the western half of the dominion on this trip. We have councils every where in the United States, in Porto Rico, Cuba, and even one in the Philippines."

This is Mr. Flaherty's fourth year as supreme knight, he having been elected for a second term not very long ago.

The meeting of Albuquerque Council, at which Mr. Flaherty presided last night, was largely attended and very enthusiastic. Mr. Flaherty is a scholar and a gentleman and a brilliant and polished orator. His speech lasting an hour and a half teemed with splendid ideas for the advancement of Columbianism. The supreme knight briefly related the remarkable achievements of the order in the last few years, one of the greatest of which he declared to be the half million dollars donated to the Catholic university at Washington as an endowment for that institution. "The address was listened to with very close attention by the members of the order present, the speaker being frequently interrupted by rounds of applause. The supreme knight was introduced by Grand Knight J. W. Prostel and an address of welcome was delivered by Past Grand Knight Francis E. Wood. Chaplain A. M. Mandalari, S. J., delivered a brief speech of thanks and appreciation to the supreme knight for his visit here."

EDUCATION OF SICK GREATEST NEED SAYS SHORTLE

Speaker at Anti-Tuberculosis Meeting Urges That All be Informed of What Their Carelessness Costs.

At a well attended meeting of anti-tuberculosis fighters, Dr. A. G. Shortle last night declared that the greatest need in the campaign was the education of those afflicted with the disease, that they might not expose others to danger through their own ignorance or carelessness. The speaker impressed the educational need strongly upon his audience, and urged that an anti-tuberculosis society be formed here which would undertake the work.

The meeting, which was held in the assembly room of the Central school building, was under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. A short musical program was rendered preliminary to the address by Dr. Shortle. Those numbers included selections by Stanley Seder on the piano and by the Y. W. C. A. trio of vocalists.

The meeting was a great success and considerable spirit was aroused for the crusade against the dread white plague.

LEVI HUGHES WILL ADDRESS TAFT- JAFFA CLUB

Prominent Ex-Progressive to Speak to Republican Citizens Thursday Night Under Auspices of New Organization.

The announcement was made last night by President D. S. Rosenwald, of the Taft-Jaffa club, that Levi A. Hughes, of Santa Fe, a convert from the republican ranks after a slight defection to the third party at the time when it seemed as though that organization was to clean up affairs in New Mexico, would speak to an audience of club members and voters of all political creeds tomorrow night. The address will be delivered at one of the regular club meetings, and there will be one or two other speakers, although Mr. Hughes' address will be the feature of the evening.

The announcement followed a meeting of the advisory committee of the club which was held last night. Mr. Hughes will undoubtedly draw a large crowd to hear him.

While business of importance was transacted at the session last night, the plans for the last few days of the campaign being reviewed and final arrangements for several matters perfected, there was no regular speech making.

H. E. Archer, merchant of Westover, Ala., states: "My boy had a severe attack of acute bronchitis, so severe he could not get out of bed for a week. The first few doses of Foley's Honey and Tar relieved him, and before we had given him the contents of one bottle, he was well. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is kept continually in our house. It is perfectly safe and effective." J. H. O'Reilly Co.—Adv.

VALENTINE CLEARED FROM GRAVE CHARGE

Washington, Oct. 29.—The department of justice has decided there is no ground for prosecuting Robert G. Valentine, former commissioner of Indian affairs, on charges that he carried whisky on an Indian reservation during a tour of inspection while he was at the head of the Indian bureau. The allegations previously made before a congressional committee were laid before the department of justice shortly after the announcement of Mr. Valentine's resignation. They were investigated by an assistant attorney general, who found no violation of the law.

WHY MEN BREAK DOWN

Europeans cannot understand why American men so often break down in health at forty years or younger, just when the Englishman or German is in the very prime of his manhood. But the American throws himself so fully into his daily work that he speedily uses up his reserve strength. Hasty meals, long working hours, and business worries will soon use up any man unless he is very careful. For the worn-out, overworked, man nothing is so good to build him up and help him stand the terrific strain as Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic. It so enriches the blood and fortifies the body that it gives him new normal strength. Try Vinol at our risk—we pay back the money if you are not pleased. J. H. ALBUQUERQUE NEW MEXICO

THE GOOD ROADS BONDS.

Every voter should cast his ballot in favor of the proposed $500,000 road bond issue for the following reasons:

1. It does not increase the taxes one dollar. The bonds will be paid for entirely from the present state road tax.
2. The money derived from the sale of the bonds goes to every county in the state, in proportion to the taxes paid by each county. The amounts vary from $5,500 to $42,000 to each county.
3. This money will be spent in each county for labor and materials. This bond issue is far less than the amount which is being voted by the states of Colorado and Kansas for good roads, taxable wealth considered.
4. A vote in favor of the bond issue is a vote for reduced cost of hauling, increased property values, better living conditions and good citizenship.
5. Every political party in the state has endorsed this bond issue.

FERGUSON FOR NEW MEXICO.

The Las Vegas Optic has discovered a man's nest. It issues a warning to the state that if Ferguson is elected he will get everything for Bernadillo county and nothing for the rest of the state. The Optic says:

"Aside from his unwholesome free trade views, which make him impossible, Mr. Ferguson is not popular in Las Vegas, as he has shown a tendency to throw all possible favors to Albuquerque while leaving the other towns of the state to rustle for themselves or take the very meager 'leavings.' The federal government proposes to do many things for New Mexico during the next two years. The voters do not care to see Albuquerque get the lion's share. And that is what will happen if Mr. Ferguson is re-elected."

Let us see how much occasion there is for alarm by the Optic. It seems that Las Vegas has fared pretty well. For instance, it has the United States district attorney, the United States marshal, the assistant district attorney, the republican national committeeman, the democratic national committeeman, the republican state chairman, the district judge, the district attorney and a few other men of prominence in political and official life.

What are the facts as to Mr. Ferguson's attitude since he has been a member of congress? The work he has done has been for the whole state.

How about the work by Senator Cation? His greatest effort has been for a federal building that would cost $450,000 for Santa Fe, a sum that if divided up, would give the City of Holy Faith all the building it needs or will need for the next half century, and would give an ample building to Roswell, Las Vegas, Clovis and Silver City, besides leaving the other cities to be taken care of by other appropriations. For only so much money, as a rule, can be had by any one congressional district.

How about Senator Fall? He has indicated that he is chiefly interested in getting a big appropriation for El Paso to put an enormous army post near that city.

The United States senators represent the interests of the cities in which they live. There are two of them. Mr. Ferguson will be the sole representative of the state of New Mexico which comprises one congressional district. He will be in harmony with the majority in both houses of congress. He will be able to approach the administration with confidence, for it will be democratic.

His interests will be for Las Vegas, Santa Fe, Roswell, Clovis, Tucuman, Raton and every other town and city in the state, and particularly for the homesteader, the dry farmer, the man who lives near the forest reserve, where he is in danger now of arrest and imprisonment if he takes a stick of rotting wood for his own use.

Mr. Ferguson can assist the senators and representatives from other public land states to secure all of the lands, including those in forest reserves, for the states in which they are located. He will have the assistance of the members from the southern states. Mr. Jaffa could do nothing more than record his vote in favor of the measure.

Let it be borne in mind, however, that Mr. Jaffa has given no indication as to whether he favors taking over the public lands by the states. It is not probable that he does favor that measure, for there are a number of big livestock men ranging their cattle on the public domain that would much rather deal with the federal government than with the state of New Mexico.

GOVERNORSHIP CONTEST.

Unusual interest for a presidential year, attaches to the gubernatorial candidates in a number of states. One reason for it is the fact that the country considers the question of the presidency settled and interest has turned elsewhere.

The Illinois question is whether Deussen will be elected for a third term. In Wisconsin the fight is between McGovern and Karel. In New York the contest is between J. H. Hughes, republican; Oscar Straus, progressive; and William Sulzer, democrat. The people of that state are viewing the struggle complacently, though interestedly, because each of the men would make almost an ideal governor.

It is reported that Tammany is knitting fingers for Hughes and that the Taft republicans are going to vote for Wilson in order to make sure the overwhelming defeat of Roosevelt.

In South Dakota the contest is between E. S. Johnson, a democrat, and Lieutenant Governor Byrne, a progressive. While the state is small in population, great interest attaches to the contest because South Dakota is normally republican by about thirty-five thousand. The Taft men have been disfranchised there as they have been California and are supporting the democratic ticket. There is no question about Wilson carrying the state, but a number of strong Wilson men are supporting Byrne for governor because of personal opposition to Johnson.

The country will watch more eagerly this year for reports from the various contests for governor than for returns on the presidency. Considerable interest, however, still attaches to the returns from Vermont, Utah and Wyoming regarding the presidency to determine whether Taft is to have a single state, and as to Washington and Oregon to determine if Roosevelt is to have any electoral votes cast for him.

HUBBELL WANTS TO END IT.

The "owners" of the evening paper make an appeal to the voters that Hubbell is not an issue in this campaign. They have for their authority David Rosenwald, who for the past ten days has been making a noise like a real politician.

The "owners" end up their article by saying, "Let this end it"—but like Hubbell's ghost, the thing will not go down. Let us look more carefully into the matter and see what prompts these young men to make this appeal "to end it."

Who owns the Herald? The official records of this county show that on March 15, 1912, the Herald Publishing Company assigned to Frank A. Hubbell the printing plant, etc., for $18,000.00, on a chattel mortgage.

Any financial institution that held an $18,000 mortgage with such security would hardly deem it necessary to ask for a bill of sale to insure their ownership.

APPOLOGY TO JUDGE MANN.

The Journal wishes to apologize to Judge Mann for failing to mention the fact that he is one of the committee with Mr. Nestor Montoya and Mr. A. B. Stroup to manage the campaign for the Jaffa committee in this county. Leaving out the name of Judge Mann was purely an oversight. In no wise intentional, and the apology, we hope, will be accepted in the spirit in which it is made. The judge is always a stand pater, even if the nominee on the ticket should be so crooked that he could stand in the shade of a corkscrew all day. Less our evening contemporary should say the Journal is charging that Mr. Jaffa is crooked as a corkscrew, we wish to make it plain that Judge Mann was referring to a previous candidate he was supporting. Mr. Jaffa has no reputation for crookedness in any particular.

The only question now is the amount of Ferguson's majority over Jaffa. It will not be less than twenty-five hundred, and we believe that partisanship has something to do with estimates of above five thousand.

The hot air furnace does not take time enough away from its duties to study the political situation properly. If so it would give more heat.

If the Greek letter fraternities catch fire and rush to the front the Turks won't last long.

FREIGHT RATES IN NORTHERN ARIZONA ARE REDUCED

Efforts of Corporation Commission for Better Treatment by Santa Fe Railway Prolific of Good Results.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Holbrook, Ariz., Oct. 25.—On November 20th new rates on coal, coke, charcoal and briquettes will go into effect on the Santa Fe railroad from Gallup, N. M., which will materially reduce the cost of this winter's fuel to the people of northern Arizona.

As a result of efforts put forth by the Arizona corporation commission, the Santa Fe railroad has put these reduced rates into effect, but not satisfied that the reductions are as low as they should be made, the commission has already forwarded to the interstate commerce commission a complaint asking for still lower rates on coal.

Industrial plants and consumers in general throughout northern Arizona will be saved several thousand dollars on this year's coal shipments.

Recently the corporation commission began to study the coal rate situation from Gallup to Arizona points deciding that the railroads should make material reductions for the benefit of consumers. When the matter was presented to the freight department of the Santa Fe road, they consented to make important changes. However, before the matter is disposed of by the interstate commerce commission, it is probable that there will be still further reductions as a result of evidence which will be introduced on behalf of the Arizona consumers.

Hartman testified that Miss Singer had been married to a man of the name of Wells eight years ago but was divorced after they had lived together two months.

Mrs. Charles E. Sucky, owner of a rooming house where Worthen and the woman formerly lived, testified that Miss Singer drank heavily at times and that she tried to keep Worthen in ignorance of it.

STUDY OF SOILS IS RECOGNIZED AS IMPORTANT

How to Use and Not to Abuse This Great Resource One of Big Problems Today Facing Farmer.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Washington, Oct. 25.—No industry is so vital to the well-being of a nation as agriculture, and nothing is so vital to agriculture as the soil. From its treasury it has been estimated that we drew during the year 1909 more than $8,296,000,000, and its possibilities are as yet only partially realized. There are still in this country millions of acres which have never felt the plow, while those which are now under cultivation can, by the application of scientific principles, be made to produce many times the present value of their products. How to use and not abuse this great resource is the most important problem which faces the farmer of today—one worthy of the best efforts of our most profound and learned scientists; for upon its solution depends the future prosperity of the nation.

The above is a statement from Bulletin 86 of the bureau of soils relative to the soils of the country. While a comparatively small percentage of the soils of the United States have been surveyed and analyzed by the department, more than 800 types have been discovered during the progress of the soil survey. The existence of such a large variety of soil types, each possessed of definite and peculiar characteristics calls attention to the importance of a careful study of the soils and their relation to agriculture. The Bulletin says:

"The old idea of soil investigation was to collect samples, examine them in the laboratory, and see what differences could there be determined; the newer idea is to study the characteristics and properties of soils in the field, classify them according to obvious differences, and with this information in hand, use the laboratory as a means of ascertaining the cause of such variations as can not be determined in the field. This method of attacking soil problems is the reverse of the usual practice, but because of the great difficulty in duplicating field conditions, it is believed that a field examination should precede laboratory studies. The field observations can thus be used as a check upon laboratory investigation and as an aid in their interpretation. Field studies furnish a safe and necessary anchor with which to keep the laboratory experiments from being dashed against the rock of pure speculation. The classifying and mapping of the various soil types, together with the study of the conditions and processes under which they have been formed, will furnish essential and invaluable data for the conduct of laboratory investigations. Nature's great laboratory is in the field, and a study of her methods can not fail to offer many valuable suggestions, and in some cases, is the only means of solving her problems. It is through a combination of field and laboratory investigations that an understanding of this extremely complex body—the soil—can be reached."

The Bulletin treats exhaustively the soils, their origin, formation and best treatment for agricultural purposes, the great difference between the many types, and adds:

"Since the soil varies so much as regards both its inorganic and organic constituents, marked differences in character must necessarily result from the almost indefinite number of combinations which may be found. All these differences, however, may be traced to two sets of factors: First, the character of the rock or material from which the soil has been derived; and second, the processes or agencies by means of which this material has been changed from mere rock or rock debris into a medium suitable for the growth of plants. The former has to do with soil-forming material, the latter with soil-forming agencies. To these two groups of factors are to be attributed the numerous variations in soil conditions found over various parts of the earth.

"The importance of distinguishing between these two groups of factors can not be too strongly emphasized."

AVOID BEER IN LIGHT BOTTLES

When beer is pure there is nothing more healthful. Pure beer brings no after-effect, no biliousness.

Schlitz is not only made pure but is kept pure.

Light starts decay even in pure beer. Dark glass gives the best protection against light. The Brown Bottle protects Schlitz purity from the brewery to your glass.

ROUGHHOUSE SCENE ENACTED IN COURT BY JUSTICE

Jose E. Romero Tips Over Table and Chair When Stenographer Attempts to Take Notes at O'Grady Hearing.

A fair imitation of a rough house was enacted in the justice court of Jose E. Romero in the court house in Old Albuquerque yesterday afternoon about 2:30, with Justice Romero as the instigator and sole actor.

A stenographer had been engaged to transcribe the proceedings, which had been set for 2 o'clock; and with Police Captain O'Grady, the defendant, Policemen J. R. Galusha and Pablo Lyman and numerous others were in attendance in the court room ready for the hearing. The stenographer moved a table and chair a few feet from their former location in order that he might better take notes of the events about to take place.

Shortly afterward Justice of the Peace Jose E. Romero entered the room and delivered himself of a long and impassioned harangue to the stenographer, waving his arms before his face and making a considerable demonstration all the while talking in Spanish. The stenographer, not understanding that tongue, paid no attention, and the justice left the room. He returned in a few minutes.

On his return, he began an even stronger harangue, and the stenographer, seeing that there was about to be something doing, but not understanding what, gathered up his notes and moved away. The justice upset the table twice, and it is said, kicked over a chair. Those present declared that the chief of his remarks was that he was the judge of that court and that if there was anything to be moved around there he would move it.

The stenographer said nothing because he feared that any action on his part would result in prejudice to Captain O'Grady's case.

O'Grady was present in court to answer to a charge of assault with intent to commit murder. He was served with a warrant, sworn out by Frank Rogers, Saturday night.

Last week he arrested Rojas in the bar of Commerce, a South First street room. Rojas had jumped town without paying $3 which he owed the city as a fine, about a year ago.

O'Grady took him to the police station, and he there paid the fine. Later he swore out a warrant before Justice Romero, and O'Grady was served with it.

O'Grady declares that he did not even use force in taking the complainant to the city jail.

After the fracas in the justice court yesterday O'Grady waived a preliminary hearing and was bound over to await the action of the grand jury in the sum of $500, the furnished bond.

USE OF LIBRARY AT VARSITY

ANTONIO LUCERO CAMPAIGNING

President David R. Boyd Declares Magnificent Collection of Reference Works is Not Consulted Enough.

Several hundred voters in Bernalillo county yesterday afternoon and last night had the pleasure of meeting and hearing Hon. Antonio Lucero, secretary of state, and one of the most prominent democrats and gifted Spanish orators in the state.

Mr. Lucero addressed two rallies held in the outlying precincts on behalf of the candidacy of Hon. Harvey B. Ferguson for congress and the ticket of Wilson and Marshall.

An enthusiastic meeting of the voters of the precinct of Alameda was held yesterday afternoon at the school house. Ninety-two voters, by actual count, were present to hear Mr. Lucero, who held his audience for over an hour in a most forceful speech, favoring the election of Ferguson and Wilson and Marshall. The speaker frequently was interrupted by applause and at the conclusion of his speech was congratulated by the numerous voters present.

Last night at San Jose, Mr. Lucero addressed a large and attentive audience of voters, who had gathered to listen to the exposition of the truth of the democratic creed.

Monday night, at Bernalillo, Mr. Lucero spoke to the largest political meeting ever held in Sandoval county.

It will be remembered that Antonio Lucero was one of the chief factors in the democratic victory over the gang ticket in the first state election, by having toured the state during the first state campaign, making speeches in every county and all the principal towns, as well as country precincts. He has no superior as an orator in the Spanish language.

Later he came back to the city and addressed a number of members of the Wilson-Marshall-Ferguson club, who had stayed patiently at the club rooms waiting for him.

The ballot boxes will begin to be delivered to the different precincts today, some of the voting places being far distant from this city and several days being required for their transmission.

The boxes will be in the custody of the judges of election until after the election, when they will be returned to County Clerk A. E. Walker.

Dr. Hope has moved his office to 313 1/2 West Central avenue, over Kistler & Collister.

The next number of the course will be Judge George D. Alden, of Boston, in "Needs of the Hour." He will appear on November 24th.

Nothing but praise for the evening as a whole is heard and it is certain the company would be greeted with an equally appreciative audience should it come again.

The first number of the Redpath entertainment course for this season, was held at the Elks theater Monday night. A special audience greeted them and the entire evening was one of rare enjoyment. Every number was cheered and for upwards of an hour the audience drank in the varied thrills of a delightfully varied program. The members showed wonderful mastery of their parts.

The enviable reputation of Miss Waterman and her company was abundantly sustained. The evidence was clear that Albuquerque's appreciation and interest in such high class productions is growing rapidly.

If the interest in this number is to be a criterion then all the entertainments will have a strong support. It would be hard to say which rendition was the most pleasing or impressive, but it was a great uplift to hear the closing number.

TAFT-JAFFA CLUB HAS KILLED OFF THIS TICKET

Its Usurpation of Control of Party Affairs, with Shadow of Frank Hubbell on It, Means Ignominious Defeat.

"Bubble, bubble, toil and trouble."

The "Bard of Avon" might have been writing in this day and referring to republican political affairs in Bernalillo county, so aptly does he sum up the present situation in the above lines.

Ten days ago, after vainly attempting to oust Effego Baca from the chairmanship of the county executive committee, preparatory to again placing Frank Hubbell in control of the county organization, the now notorious "Taft-Jaffa" club was formed. The real object of this club, thinly disguised, was to usurp the functions and powers of the regular county organization, ignore Baca and the regularly appointed executive committee, raise a big cash fund and conduct one of the old-time Frank Hubbell campaigns.

It looked like a simple matter to those who originated and engineered the plan. As a first move they secured the co-operation of the men who controlled the greater part of the wealth from which the campaign funds must be raised and got them to agree that the executive committee should not handle any money. Deprived of the shadow of war, they naturally figured that Baca and his adherents would throw up their hands and quit, but these men underestimated two things, viz: the fighting capacity of Baca and the loyalty of the average republican citizen to the party organization.

The results to date are so plain that "a wayfarer man though, a fool, need not err." Taft and Jaffa have lost any faint chance there might have been of carrying Bernalillo county. With every step the managers of the "Taft-Jaffa" club are plunging deeper into the bog and losing any little prestige that some of the names connected with the club might have given it. Dissensions and dissatisfaction are daily growing in their own ranks and it is a safe prediction that before the end of the week this subdivision of the subdivision of the loyal republican party will itself be split into hostile though possibly secret factions.

Abortive efforts have been made within the past few days by the club managers to hold meetings in some of the outside precincts, but the speakers on their arrival have been met with the query from the regular leaders of the precinct, "Who authorized you to hold a meeting here?" When told that they were sent by the "Taft-Jaffa" club, the precinct leader invariably replied, "We didn't know anything about the Taft-Jaffa club, we only recognize the right of the chairman of the central committee to order meetings." In several instances the club managers have sent for leaders from outside precincts and requested them to hire halls and arrange for meetings, promising to pay all expenses, but in every instance the aforesaid leaders have gently but firmly declined to arrange for any meeting not authorized by Chairman Baca.

Thus, brought up against a stone wall, the Hubbell men are frantically running around in circles and spitting at each other. Prayers, threats and entreaties to Baca have no effect, his invariable reply is, "You took charge of this campaign, now run it," and he is pursuing the even tenor of his way, with only an occasional deviation to see his subordinates throughout the county are not affording aid or comfort to the enemy.

Undoubtedly the situation is unique. For a band of volunteers to attempt, on the eve of a national election, without color of authority, to take the reins from the hands of the organization and run a so-called campaign, is causing the democrats and progressives, and even a considerable number of republicans to smile broadly. Every politician of any experience knew from the beginning and predicted that the attempt could end only in one way, complete smash for the republican ticket at the election, and every day strengthens their conviction.

That practical politicians of experience should have originated such a move has only one meaning to the general public—Frank Hubbell was determined to destroy Baca, and the men who ousted Hubbell from control of the republican organization, at any cost to the party. This well known Hubbell policy of rule or ruin was never more glaringly exemplified than in the present instance, in the opinion of all who have followed the embroilment.

Republicans of the most stand-pat variety admit almost openly that neither Taft nor Jaffa has a chance in a thousand to carry New Mexico and declare that when the campaign is ended the responsibility will be placed where it belongs and predict that there will be a big shake up in the local republican ranks.

Work was continued yesterday on the fencing of Association park, the new football and baseball grounds which are being arranged by the students and faculties of the local educational institutions. The park is progressing nicely, and will shortly be completed as far as the fence is concerned.

The work of erecting bleachers will then be begun, and it is believed that these will be done within ten days or so at most. The gridiron will be fenced off from the rest of the field, so that spectators will be unable to crowd onto the space reserved for play and thus impede the players.
