GREAT VICTORY OF BULGARIANS MAY END WAR IN BALKANS

Two Hundred Thousand Turks Defeated and Forced to Retreat After Terrific Battle Lasting Four Days.

CONSTANTINOPLE IS AT MERCY OF ENEMY

Council in Session at The Porte, Reported to be Considering Advisability of Suing for Peace.

100,000 MEN ENGAGED IN BIG HISTORIC STRUGGLE.

Sofia, Nov. 1.—News of the defeat of the Turkish army was received here late last night with a feeling of great relief, but no noisy demonstration. Confidence in the success of the Bulgarian arms had been mixed with great anxiety because of the lack of news for the last two days.

The people are now looking forward to Bulgaria becoming a great power in the Balkans, as Turkey formerly was.

It is understood that the fighting has been of the fiercest character, night even affording no intermission.

The Turks suffered severely.
Many were captured and great numbers of dead were left on the field.

News of the capture of Nazim
Pasha's headquarters at Tchorlu is eagerly awaited. Little has been heard from the Bulgarian left wing, which stretches from Bunarhisar to Midia. In this territory the Turks greatly outnumbered the Bulgarians, who have only been able to hold their own. Any slight success which the Turks obtained here, however, was of no material importance.

The Bulgarian victory was due to superior strategy combined with the extreme energy of their offensive movement. It appears that the object of the rapid advance early in the week on Viza and Midia, was not really to outflank the Turkish right, but to mislead the Turks. This was successful. The Turks moved their reserves by sea and along the coast to strengthen the right wing which reached to Istraia and directed their efforts to meeting here what they believed to be the main attack.

Meanwhile the Bulgarians were really concentrating at Eski-Paba, whither troops had been hurried by convergent roads from before Adrianople and Kirk-Kiliseh. The Bulgarian main forces on their right wing were thus superior in strength to the Turks at Lule Burgas and were able to hurt them back.

It is believed that the total Turkish force numbered 250,000
as compared with 150,000 Bulgarians, the latter being obliged to leave many men around Adrianople. Probably the decisive movement on the Bulgarian right was one through Alibulak, fifteen miles to the south of Eski-Paba, which turned the Turkish flank. The Turkish reserves west of Yeniköy, nine divisions strong, were pushed forward towards the center of the Turkish line to check the Bulgarian advance, but it is believed that these reserves are also in retreat.

Their presence being no longer necessary in northern Macedonia, a large body of Serbian infantry, about 80,000 men, thought to join the Bulgarian forces at Adrianople. The Ser-vians' independent campaign is now considered ended, as the whole of Macedonia is practically at their mercy.

It is reported that the Turks
at Constantinople have shot 200 Christian soldiers of the defeated army at Kirk-Kiliseh.

TURKISH RETREAT BECOMES A DEMORALIZING ROUT.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
London, Nov. 1.—A four days' battle in Thrace has ended in the triumph of the Bulgarian commander in chief, General Savafov, whose skillful strategy has probably brought to a close one of the shortest and most remarkable wars on record.

A great Turkish army, estimated at more than 200,000 men, has been defeated and in retreat. Constantinople is believed to be at the mercy of the victorious Bulgarian army, and a council, sitting at the porte, is discussing the advisability of suing for peace.

Such is the news which comes from Constantinople. It is only a fortnight since Turkey declared war. The first week of the campaign closed with the dramatic fall of Kirk-Kiliseh, fully revealing for the first time the disorganization, bad morals and inefficient commissariat of the Turkish army. Today that army is defeated.

M'NAMARA PLANNED TO HAVE BURNS KILLED SAYS HOCKIN

Tending to Substantiate Story Package is Produced in Court Containing Fuse, Caps and Alarm Clock.

GOVERNMENT AGENT TELLS OF CONFESSION

Many Labor Leaders Are Involved in Narrative of Man Who Turns State's Evidence to Lighten Sentence.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Indianapolis, Oct. 31.—That John J.
McNamara, the dynamite, since his imprisonment in the state penitentiary at San Quentin, Cal., has plotted to "get" William J. Burns, the detective, and also to "get" Walter Drew,
who worked up evidence against him was the substance of testimony at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial today.

The story was related on the witness stand that Herbert S. Hockin went to San Quentin last spring and that McNamara while in conversation through the bars of a cell said:

"I would like to see them get Burns and Drew."

It was further related that Hockin confessed to the incident and charged he heard labor leaders in San Francisco repeat McNamara's wishes.

As tending to sustain the story, a package was produced in court and identified as having been taken from the check room of the union station at Indianapolis, May last. When opened before the jury the package was found to contain forty feet of fuse, a parcel of dynamite caps and an alarm clock. The package was wrapped in a San Francisco newspaper of April 15, 1912. Edward J. Brennan, an agent of the department of justice, testified that the plotting was related to him by Hockin. Brennan said that May 25th, last, he was called into the district attorney's office in Indianapolis, and there Hockin had confessed to him in substance as follows:

"Hockin has gone to San Quentin and talked to McNamara. McNamara said, 'I'd like to see them get Burns and Drew.' Hockin then went to San Francisco and met Otis A. Tveitmo, a prominent labor leader. Tveitmo urged Hockin to remain in San Francisco until Anton Johannsen, another labor leader, could be called from Los Angeles. This, Hockin consented to. When he was going to the station to return to Indianapolis, Tveitmo, Johannsen, a man named Lewis and Thicker Yowell accompanied him. Macnamara, saying on the way, 'Mac (meaning McNamara) is anxious for us to get Burns and Drew.' Johannsen then added to Hockin, 'after you return to Indianapolis a strange man will appear on the scene. You will know him when he says, 'I am Arrow, not Darrow.' When he says those words to you, you will know he is the right man.'"

"Hockin did return to Indianapolis and a short time later he was called on the telephone by a man who said:
'I am Arrow, not Darrow.' Later he met the stranger and procured a good description of him. The man brought

WILSON ADDRESSES MIGHTY THROGS IN GREATER NEW YORK

Democratic Candidate for the Presidency is Given Great Reception in Bronx and at Madison Square Garden.

GOVERNOR POINTS TO BETTING ODDS IN CITY

Answer to Prognosticators of Hard Times is That Wall Street Would Not Bet Against Its Interests.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
New York, Oct. 31.—It was Wilson night in New York tonight, the democratic nominee for the presidency addressing a big rally in the Bronx and a tremendous outpouring of voters in the Madison Square Garden.

Governor Wilson early took occasion to reply to the talk of his opponents that the prosperity of the country would be affected by his election.
He pointed to the betting odds in Wall street, so largely in favor of democratic success. This was what he called his "answer in a nutshell," showing, he declared, that there is not the slightest prospect of any check in the country's prosperity. The only way the prosperity of the country could be injured, he said, was by the deliberate efforts of Wall street.

"The gentlemen in Wall street don't bet 5 to 1 on their own destruction and they don't go to their business smiling and complacent when they expect a deluge next week," was his way of putting it.

When Governor Wilson reached Nielsen hall in the Bronx, where he made his first speech of the evening, a big crowd had gathered. He was given a demonstration lasting ten minutes.

"What I am fighting for personally,
I said, 'is that the average man be not kept down and denied opportunity. What I object to in the prosperity of the country is that too small a number of persons originate and manage the property and that the rest of us merely get what is left over after they are satisfied. If the government of the United States is not suited to the fortune and hopes of the average man, then it ought not to be maintained for the benefit of the minority."

"But, suppose, for example, that I should be elected president of the United States? It is a reasonable hypothesis—"

A great shout interrupted the governor and the demonstration of cheers lasted several minutes.

"Suppose I should be elected on the 5th of November and everybody would say on the 6th of November, 'Well, he has got the job and it is up to him.'
Now what do you suppose would happen? Nothing. You've got to stay on the job and back me up, or there is nothing in it. There is no use putting men in office unless you are going to help them do your thinking; unless you are going to help them know your needs. No man can think the thoughts of a nation. The leader must know and think. What is there in leadership if there is no one to follow?"

Governor Wilson was given a big reception in the Bronx. Several times during his speech there were prolonged demonstrations of approval.

The nominee motored to Madison Square Garden, picking up National Chairman William F. McComb at his hotel. The party reached the garden at 9:11 o'clock when a thundering demonstration began.

Congressman William Sulzer, democratic candidate for governor, and Congressman Oscar W. Underwood, democratic leader of the house of representatives, addressed the meeting before Governor Wilson arrived.

The demonstration for Governor
Wilson at the garden lasted for one hour and three minutes. It began when he reached the garden at 9:11

VICE PRESIDENT'S FUNERAL WILL BE HELD ON SATURDAY

Supreme Court and Senators Expected to Go to Utica in Body to Pay Respects; Senator Bacon in Charge Pro Tem

FERGUSON NAMED FROM NEW MEXICO

Tribute Will be Paid by Every Army Post, Naval Station and Warship of the United States at Noon Tomorrow.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.]
Utica, N. Y., Oct. 31.—Arrangements for the funeral of Vice President James S. Sherman, practically were completed today. The services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church and will be attended by President Taft and members of his cabinet, senators and representatives, foreign diplomats and government officials.

It was at first announced that the obsequies would be held in Christ church, of which Mr. Sherman was a member, but as this edifice seats only about 700 persons, the plans were changed when the Rev. Ralph W. Brokaw offered the use of the Presbyterian church, which has a seating capacity of more than 3,000.

The Rev. Louis H. Holden, Mr. Sherman's pastor, will conduct the funeral services, assisted by the Rev. M. W.
Stryker, president of Hamilton college, and the Rev. Dr. Brokaw, pastor of the Presbyterian church. An hour before the church services there will be a private service for members of the family at the Sherman residence.

The body of the vice president will lie in state from 3 p. m. to 9 p. m., tomorrow in the rotunda of the county building. With an escort of citizens, representatives of the chamber of commerce and other organizations with which Mr. Sherman was identified, the body will be taken from the Sherman home tomorrow afternoon and conveyed to the county building.
The local military companies will furnish a guard of honor while the body is lying in state. At 9 o'clock a cortege will form and the body will be returned to the Sherman home.
The county building and many other buildings here have been draped in emblems of mourning and flags. Business practically will be suspended during the funeral services.

At the close of the funeral services
the body will be taken to Forest Hill cemetery, where it will be placed in the beautiful Babcock mausoleum, which was completed but recently and where Mrs. Sherman's mother rests.

Flowers in procession are now where the body lies and there has been an almost uninterrupted procession of messengers to the house during the day, bearing messages of sympathy to the bereaved household from every quarter of the country and from abroad.

Mrs. Sherman is bearing her loss with fortitude. Before he died, Mr.
Sherman had entrusted to his wife a list of those he wished to act as honorary pallbearers at his funeral. Who they are has not yet been announced.
The active bearers will be selected from the employees of the Utica Trust & Deposit Co., of which Mr. Sherman was president.

Political activity has ceased with the death of the vice president. Meetings which had been scheduled have been abandoned by all parties.

spect for the memory of Mr. Sherman. At a conference of the justices tomorrow, action will be taken on the invitation. Chief Justice White has been indisposed for a week with a cold, and barely able to attend court, and probably will not go.

The following committee of the house has been appointed to attend the funeral:

Representatives Underwood, Alabama; Macon, Arkansas; Needham, California; Taylor, Colorado; Hill, Connecticut; Heald, Delaware; Spaulding, Florida; Bartlett, Georgia; French, Idaho; Cannon, Illinois; Crumpacker, Indiana; Murdoch, Kansas; James, Kentucky; Brandt, Louisiana; Guernsey, Maine; Tallott, Maryland; McCall, Massachusetts; Hamilton, Michigan; Stevens, Minnesota; Candler, Mississippi; Barthold, Missouri; Pray, Montana; Kinkaid, Nebraska; Roberts, Nevada; Sullivan, New Hampshire; Gardner, New Jersey; Ferguson, New Mexico; Kitchin, North Carolina; Hanna, North Dakota; Longworth, Ohio; McGuire, Oklahoma; Hawley, Oregon; Dalzell, Pennsylvania; O'Shaughnessy, Rhode Island; Finley, South Carolina; Burke, South Dakota; Moon, Tennessee; Henry, Texas; Howell, Utah; Plumley, Vermont; Jones, Virginia; Humphrey, Washington; Hughes, West Virginia; Cooper, Wisconsin; Mondell, Wyoming; Haugen, Iowa; Payne, New York; and Hayden, Arizona.

A tribute of respect to the dead president, echoing around the world, will be paid at noon Saturday, when from every United States naval station and army post and from every warship, no matter where located, a salute of nineteen minute guns will be fired. Every officer of the army, navy and marine corps will wear a mourning badge for thirty days.

President Taft today received this reply to his message of sympathy to Mr. Sherman:

"Mr. Sherman instructs me to thank you for your gracious words and to inform you that the funeral will occur in this city at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of Saturday."

"H. E. DAVENPORT, Secretary."

o'clock and it was 10:14 before he could begin his speech.

"No man could fail to be moved by a demonstration such as we have witnessed tonight," he said, with evidence of deep feeling, "yet I am the more thrilled because I realize it is a demonstration for a cause, and not for a man."

The governor's motion for quiet brought forth only renewed cheers. Chants of "We want Wilson" shook the hall and twice when the cheerers

CATARRH

Breathe Booth's HYOMEI and Refreshing Relief Will Come in Three Minutes

Australian Eucalyptus is a non-irritating, germ destroying liquid that is largely used by Catarrh and Throat Specialists and by physicians of the modern school.

HYOMEI is Australian Eucalyptus combined with the best of Liberator Antiseptics, and when breathed through the inhaler into the lungs over the nose, inflamed membranes of the nose and throat are surely destroyed, the pernicious catarrh germs and ends all catarrhal misery.

For Catarrh, Coughs, Colds and Croup Booth's HYOMEI is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money returned. Try it on that honorable basis; the directions are easy to follow and a complete outfit (inhaler and bottle of HYOMEI) can be obtained at drug stores for only $1.00. Extra bottle, if afterward needed, only 50 cents. J. H. O'Reilly Co., recommends Booth's HYOMEI.

had slightly subsided it was started with renewed vigor by young women who forced their way to the front of the speakers stand and inspired the crowd to fresh efforts.

Governor Wilson spoke extemporaneously. He had spoken but a few minutes and was declaring that the progressive party "wherever it could capture the regular republican was regular, and wherever it could not, was irregular," when a man directly beneath the speaker's stand, shouted:

"Governor, talk about the Baltimore platform."

"Cries of 'put him out,' came from all parts of the hall, and three police men grabbed the disturber and rushed him to a doorway. Governor Wilson leaned over the rail and called to the police: "Don't put anybody out."

"It is inconvenient to have more than one man speak at a time, but this is a free country," added Governor Wilson, and cheers from the crowd.

Mrs. Wilson and her three daughters, in a box near the speaker's platform, were apparently greatly moved by the demonstration for the governor and exchanged smiles with him as he tried to obtain order.

"Government is an enterprise of mankind, not of parties," said Governor Wilson. "An election day approach, I have a greater and greater feeling of satisfaction because I know that the American people are about to make one of the most vital choices of their life. From ocean to ocean, the men are becoming aware that in less than a week the common people of America will come into their own."

"I know from the reports coming from all parts of the country that the new party has not come from the democrats. Therefore, it must be made up of those republicans who are dissatisfied with the regular organization and its avowed purpose and program."

"All men have to do is to realize that the common enterprises of life are the enterprises of politics; that a man is not voting an abstract political creed, but is voting a program of justice and of right when he votes at the polls. Now, if you want that program, what are you going to do next Tuesday?"

"Vote for Wilson," interrupted a voice, and there were great applause.

"I appreciate the compliment," continued the speaker, "but I want to say this. The one thing that will not reform forward in this country is a united government, and a united government does not consist of a president. A united government consists of a house of representatives, of a president and of something that is more than the people have not yet captured—a senate."

"And it consists of something more. If you have a democratic government at Washington and do not have a democratic government in the states, you have no conducting medium by which to signal to Washington."

"You have got to have a vital organization of purpose spreading throughout the United States, in order that great bodies of men may unite together for the great project of emancipation, and the only possible chance of having a great united organization after the 11th of March next, is to vote the democratic ticket."

"After next Tuesday, we shall know not what men are going to proclaim, not what men are going to profess, but what men are going to do. God be pitiful to the men who promise the American people what he is not ready to perform. The case is made up; the case is before the jury."

Governor Wilson will leave New York at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow for Rochester, where he is to address a night meeting.

JOHNSON ATTACKS WILSON'S TARIFF POSITION

Bull Moose Governor Grows Facetious When Speaking of Democratic Candidate's Plan of Reform.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 31.—At the close of the first day's journey of the "Roosevelt-Johnson" special train, which is making a three days' tour of New York, Governor Johnson tonight addressed a large crowd here.

The governor today took up Dr. Wilson's recent Newark address, in which the New Jersey executive stated his position on the tariff.

"Many times of late we have commented upon the indefiniteness of the position of Mr. Wilson on the tariff," the speaker said, "and tonight before last at Newark he made his position plain."

"As reported in the press, he then said substantially that he would remove the diseased tissue and permit the healthy tissue to remain."

"We now know exactly his intention, because what he is going to remove, when, where and how, he has explained with the same facility as his stand on the governmental questions, which he has announced that he would pick the weeds from the garden and permit the beautiful flowers of opportunity to grow."

"We may now go down the corridors of time with the distinguished candidate, surgically operate as he journeyed and as the time permits, weed the governmental garden. And thus, at last, we know exactly what he is going to do and how he is going to do it."

After the meeting tonight the special started for Dunkirk.

Governor Johnson's meeting scheduled for Utica and other cities in the Twenty-seventh congressional district were cancelled on account of Vice President Sherman's death.

MRS. EDDY'S ESTATE OF $2,000,000 GOES TO CHURCH

Founder of Christian Science Left More Than $200,000 in Massachusetts; Remainder Was in New Hampshire.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Boston, Oct. 31.—Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, founder of the Christian Science church, had in Massachusetts at the time of her death $23,843.75 in personal property and real estate valued at $155,000, according to the report of Thomas W. Streator, Frederick E. Jennings and John W. Worthington, who were appointed by the probate court to appraise the estate. They were instructed to make return to Joseph F. Forman, of Concord, N. H., administrator of the will of Mrs. Eddy, approved by the courts of New Hampshire.

All the personal property goes to the Christian Science church under the decision of the supreme court of New Hampshire, which sustained the will of Mrs. Eddy. The entire amount which the New Hampshire administrator will turn over to the church is about $2,000,000.

The Massachusetts supreme court, which has jurisdiction only over the $155,000 of real estate within the commonwealth, has decided that the state has the Christian Science church as left by Mrs. Eddy's will, but that the property may be administered as a charitable trust by the trustees appointed by the court.

Many States, Ratify Amendment. Washington, Oct. 31.—Thirty-two states have notified Secretary of State Knox of their ratification of the proposed income tax amendment to the federal constitution and four have notified the state department of their rejection. To become effective thirty-six states—three-fourths of those in the union—must ratify.

HARVESTER TRUST PROBE CONTINUES IN CHICAGO

Attorney for McCormicks Refuses to Answer Questions on Ground That Information is Privileged.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Chicago, Oct. 31.—Declaring that information which came to him in his capacity as an attorney is confidential and privileged under the ruling of the courts, Cyrus Bentley, former counsel for the McCormick Harvester Company today declined to answer questions regarding the organization in New York prior to the organization of the International Harvester Company, which called as a witness in the government's dissolution suit.

Counsel for the government put a series of questions to the witness regarding the visit made by members of the McCormick family to New York to confer with financiers concerning the combination of Harvester manufacturers, but Mr. Bentley declined to reveal any secrets.

Attorney Edwin F. Grosvenor, who questioned the witness for the government, pointed out that his understanding of the rule was that where a third person was present with an attorney and his client the subject matter could not be considered confidential and privileged.

"That may be true, but I do not understand it that way," said Mr. Bentley.

After further discussion the witness said he was not present at the meeting in New York July 28, 1902, when preliminary steps for the organization of the International Harvester Company were taken. He was then excused, and William M. Reay, controller of the International Harvester Company, produced the appraisals of the plants of the McCormick, Deering, Plano and Milwaukee companies used in determining the value of the properties when the consolidation was put into effect in 1902. They were offered in evidence.

E. N. Wood, secretary of the International Harvester Company of America, the sales corporation for the alleged combination, was called to identify numerous catalogues and price lists sent out to agents between 1901 and 1911 to show that the different lines of machines bearing trademarks were advertised separately and that standard prices were maintained.

The present hearing in Chicago, it is expected, will be concluded tomorrow.

Joseph McCaffrey, Vice Pres. for Sales, Greasers of America, Omaha, states: "I cheerfully recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a cure for coughs and colds. I have used it myself and have recommended it to others who have since told me of its great effective power in dissolving the phlegm and lungs." J. H. O'Reilly Drug Co.

MURDERED WOMAN PLANNED TO ROB STILLMAN

Mrs. Conway Says Miss Singer Was Not Seen by Herself or Husband After 11 O'clock on Night of Killing.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Lima, Ohio, Oct. 31.—Two detectives from Chicago, who arrived here today to take charge of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Conway, who were arrested here today in connection with the murder of Sophia G. Singer in a Chicago rooming house Monday night, decided to defer their departure for that city until tomorrow. This decision was made after hearing a long statement from Mrs. Conway, who resided in detail their actions in the night of the murder and their movements thereafter. She declared that Miss Singer had told her she was tired of her place, William Worthen, and was to meet a man whom Mrs. Conway believed to be Claude Stillman.

She said Miss Singer exhibited to Mr. Conway an iron door knob wrapped up in a handkerchief and said she would get the man whom she was to meet in a lonely place and wanted Conway to be with her so that she could "get his roll." This, Mrs. Conway said her husband declined to do, and they left Chicago that night and did not hear of the murder until later.

Mrs. Conway's statement in part follows:

"The last Mr. Conway and I saw of Sophia Singer was about 11 o'clock Monday night. We were preparing to leave Chicago. She had given us $35 and two suits of clothes for my husband."

"Worthen had left early in the evening. Miss Singer, who was living with him as his wife, came in the house about 8 o'clock."

"Oh," she cried, "I met the swiftest fellow named Stillman. He is rather elderly and has loss of vision. I am going to a chop suey place."

"Miss Singer asked Conway to go out with her when she went to meet Stillman. She showed him an iron door knob covered with one of Worthen's handkerchiefs."

"I'll get him up an alley or some place," she said, and she ran him with this. We will get his roll."

"My husband refused. She wanted me to go with her but Conway would not let me, and I did not want to go anyway. She was angered at us because we would not go."

"We left Chicago about 11 o'clock. We had been quarreling a little, but she was of a changeable mood and I kissed her goodbye."

"We took a street car to the intersection station and left for Hammond, Ind. I think we got there about 1 o'clock. We stayed all night in a hotel there and then went to Rochester, and the first I knew about the murder was Tuesday evening while we were at Rochester."

Mrs. Conway explained that the $35 had been given to her husband by Sophia Singer because they were entirely out of funds and Mrs. Singer was anxious to be rid of the actor and his wife.

STILLMAN ADMITS HE KNEW MURDERED WOMAN.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—Claude L. Stillman was questioned today by detectives in connection with the murder of Sophia G. Singer, the wife of the actor, as a result of Mrs. Conway's statement at Lima, O. Stillman, who is a traveling salesman and married, voluntarily confessed with the police and admitted that he had known the murdered woman under another name than Singer. He insisted, however, that he had never visited the house where she was killed and that he could account for his whereabouts Monday night.

GARDEN SAGE DARK- ENS FADED HAIR

If You Have Dandruff or If Your Hair Is Turning Gray Try Sage and Sulphur.

The old idea of using Sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers had dark, glossy hair at seventy-five, while our mothers are gray before they are fifty. Our grandmothers kept their hair soft and glossy with a "Sage Tea," which also restored the natural color.

One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it. This objection has been overcome by the Wyeth Chemical Company of New York, who has placed on the market a superior preparation of Sage, combined with Sulphur and other valuable remedies for dandruff, itching scalp, and thin, weak, falling hair.

The beauty of the hair depends more on its rich, even shading than anything else. Don't have dry, harsh faded hair, when a simple, harmless remedy will bring back the color in a few days; and don't be tormented with dandruff, itching scalp and loose falling hairs. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy will quickly correct these troubles, and give color, strength and beauty to your hair.

Get a fifty-cent bottle from your druggist today, and prove this to your own satisfaction. All druggists sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented. The headquarters at Tchorla, to which town the defeated Turks retreated, has not as yet been reported but is hourly expected at Sofia.

In this event, the Turks will be forced within the defensive lines of Tchorla, the only remaining fortified position protecting Constantinople. It lies twenty-five miles to the northwest of the capital.

Adrianople still holds out, but has lost its importance now that the Turks have not their seat at Lule Burgas.

It is believed a peace settlement will be arranged either by the porting for peace or through intervention of the powers, and an interesting question involving difficult diplomatic problems will immediately arise as to the division of the spoils of war—a question concerning not only the victorious allies, but also Russia, Austria, Rumania and possibly other powers.

The campaign of the other Balkan states continues with the success which throughout has attended them. Serbia has not yet been captured, but has fallen to the Montenegrins. The Serbians have taken Priskin and Greece is occupying islands in the Aegean sea in addition to various towns in Macedonia.

The powers, fearing disorders and massacres in Turkey, are hurrying warships to the various ports of that country to protect foreign residents.

A noticeable feature of the war is the insignificant parts played by the Turkish and Greek fleets.

Nasim Pasha, the Turkish minister of war and commander-in-chief in Thrace, has either been shot or taken prisoner, according to a dispatch from Sofia to the London Post.

The exact nature of the latest advances from the battle line in Thrace has not been made known, but last evening the government received the following report from Nasim Pasha, the war minister, and commander of the Turkish forces:

"Our eastern army has been engaged for the last four days in serious fighting with the Bulgarian forces between Lule Burgas and Viza. Our army corps, concentrated at Lule Burgas and to the north, are offering vigorous resistance to the enemy advancing in this direction."

"The Citadel at Adrianople is still holding out. Our forces in the neighborhood of Viza are making a successful advance."

Still earlier official advices stated that a Bulgarian force of 50,000 men had concentrated in the Istranda mountains, where the retreat of the Bulgarians had been cut off.

The Serbian foreign minister and the Greek premier, who brought about the Balkan alliance, started for Paris today, it is supposed to negotiate with Premier Poincare.

It is understood the Bulgarian army in following up its successes, will advance on Constantinople. The Balkan allies will not accept an armistice, but are willing to negotiate peace direct with Turkey.

The Austrian cabinet is considering the French proposal for mediation by the powers. There is a feeling of great anxiety at Vienna, as it is believed Europe's task, confronted by four victorious armies on one Turkish soil, is extremely dangerous one. Austria-Hungary has made preparation for every eventuality, and is ready to deliver a blow in any direction.

The decisive battle of the war has apparently been fought and won, according to later advices. The Turkish retreat eventually became a complete rout. Bulgarians followed up their pursuit energetically, severely punishing the panic-stricken Turks and capturing great quantities of guns, flags, munitions of war and prisoners.

It is reported that Tchorla has been taken and that the Bulgarians are advancing on Thracian.

The Bulgarian cavalry advancing on Kirk-Killesh and Eski-Baba reached Lule Burgas Tuesday morning. The cavalry was followed by the bulk of the combined armies of Generals Dimitrit and Kovatcheff, later in the day. Here they encountered the main Turkish army under Nasim Pasha.

The whole Turkish force numbering 150,000, the Bulgarians being about equal. A great series of battles then began extending over an area of about fifteen miles. The fighting continued for more than forty-eight hours without cessation. The Bulgarians made confident by recent victories, attacked with great impetuosity the Turkish positions which extended from Lule Burgas on the south, to Buzardjik, on the north.

The Turks appear to have resisted with great obstinacy, but eventually gave way all along the line and retreated in disorder.

The news of the victory was received in Sofia, without public rejoicing. Pairs are expressed that in the hour of triumph Bulgaria may now, as in 1885, be deprived of the reward of her victory.

Rumors of the impotence of Austrian and Rumanian mobilization plans ground and no great confidence is felt that the powers of the triple entente will secure fair play for those who risked everything in the cause of freedom.

In Sofia the wounded are arriving literally by the thousands. All the public and many private buildings have been transformed into hospitals. Even at that, some have to be laid on the bare floors. The wounded from the last great battle have yet to arrive.

TURKS ATTEMPT TO CHECK BULGARIAN ADVANCE

Vienna, Nov. 1.—Details of the great battle at Thrace are given by a war correspondent at the front. The Bulgarian staff chose the neighborhood of Lule Burgas as the center of gravity. Therefore, all their available strength around Adrianople, as well as the greater part of the other forces, were concentrated there. The shifting of the center of gravity to the right wing was caused by a displacement which had occurred in the Turkish army.

The Turkish front originally directed north was turned to cover the line of retreat over Istranda and Tchorla. By this change of front the Bulgarian plans to cut off the Turkish army were checked, but as the Turks made the attack before their army was properly grouped, the Bulgarians had an opportunity to defeat the Turkish left wing completely in the plains of Lule Burgas.

In consequence of this the Turkish eastern wing is retreating to Serai and Istranda. Nine divisions of Turkish reserves have been ordered to the center to impede the Bulgarians' advance. The battle front, which today was between Lule Burgas and Viza, is now between Tchorla and Istranda.

Besides the bad supply arrangement and the disaffection among the officers on account of the political trends, two measures of the "Young Turk" regime were responsible for the demoralization of the Turkish army. The first was the admission of non-Mohammedans to the army. From childhood they have been the sworn foes of the Ottoman state and these troops from the beginning of the war proved unreliable, going over to the enemy's camp in Bataan.

The second measure was the dismissal of Old Turkish officers, who, although not highly intelligent, yet maintained the contact between the officers' corps and the soldiers and

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM WEAKENED BY INJURIES

Accidents Prevent Several of the Players from Participating in the Hard Scrimmage Work.

The eleven representing the local high school has been materially weakened since its game with the Normal university last Saturday, by the fact that minor injuries to several players are preventing their participation in hard work, such as scrimmage practice. The rest of the squad, however, is working hard, both early and late. School work that must be made up is taking the time of several of the players, but by tonight they will all be over it, it is believed.

The boys are out to win the coming game, despite their handicap, because the Menaul school defeated them so decisively two weeks ago. They feel that they must win this game, and propose to make the fight of their lives to do so. In view of their own condition, the high school team regards this match as harder even than the coming return contest with the Las Vegas aggregation, which will be played there a week from Saturday.

ASSOCIATION PARK FENCE PROGRESSING TOWARD COMPLETION

The work of building a fence about Association park, a new football grounds being erected by the different schools of the city, is progressing slowly but steadily. The work is already two-thirds done and it is hoped that the field will be completely fenced by tomorrow, when the Menaul school and the High school meet for their second game this season.

OAKLAND CHAMPIONS BEATEN IN GAME WITH ALL-STARS

Oakland, Cal., Oct. 31.—The Oakland team, champions of the Pacific Coast baseball league, were defeated 5 to 1 today by an all-star aggregation of present and former coast league players. "Ping" Bodie, formerly of San Francisco, and now of the Chicago Americans, made a home run in the first inning. Maggart and Krause, of the Philadelphia Americans, and Hamilton and Burns, of the St. Louis Nationals, all former coast leaguers, also played with the all-stars.

Princeton Holds Final Practice.
Princeton, N. J., Oct. 31.—A long signal drill and some defensive work breaking up opposing formations of the scrub team constituted the Princeton team's final practice today for the game with Harvard at Cambridge next Saturday. Captain Pendleton and Holey Baker were given practice in place kicking from scrimmage formations and displayed good form.

Davis Defeats Jim Stewart.
Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 31.—George (One Round) Davis, of Buffalo, decisively defeated Jim Stewart, of New York, in a scheduled 10-round bout here tonight. The referee stopped the bout in the seventh round, after Stewart had twice taken the count. Stewart weighed 204 and Davis 185 1/2 pounds.

REPORTER SHAGS IT FROM SAN FRANCISCO TO NEW YORK CITY

New York, Oct. 31.—Harvey Thoren, a young reporter of the Ukiah, Cal., Daily Republican, was received by Mayor Gaynor today at the end of a walk across the continent in 7 months and 26 days. He bore a letter from Mayor Rolph, of San Francisco, and Mayor Gaynor gave him one to take back, in which he said:

VARSITY ELEVEN IS OFF FOR ROSWELL TO PLAY CADETS

Sixteen Men and Coach R. F. Hutchinson Depart for Pecos Valley Confident of Success; Athletic Rally Yesterday.

The eleven from the University of New Mexico left last night for Roswell, where they will meet the strong team from the New Mexico Military Institute Saturday afternoon in their first hard game this season. The team was confident and expected to make a strong showing, even if the cadets proved strong enough to defeat them. They were in splendid physical condition, and as they arrive in Roswell this evening, will get a night's rest before the contest.

The squad that went included Calkins, Walker, Carlisle (captain), Little, Pease, Lee, Fleming, Balcomb, Laprak, Probert, Elliott, Hunt, Higgins and three others, beside Coach R. F. Hutchinson.

The style of football the boys will use will depend largely on what the institute opposes them. They are well equipped with trick plays, and if all goes with their belief it will, expect to use open play exclusively.

ATHLETIC RALLY HELD YESTERDAY MORNING

A rousing athletic rally was held in the regular assembly hall, at which there were several speakers, including President David R. Boyd.

Dr. Boyd declared that he favored football above all other athletic sports because it best taught the players the value of team work. Captain Carlisle made a short but good speech, and Prof. H. H. Conwell made a fine talk on supporting the team. Dr. M. F. Anzell, of the physics department, delivered a brief but telling speech, and Fred M. Calkins expressed the sentiment of the team that a hard game would be played. Miss Helen James, vice president of the student body, made a brief speech on behalf of the co-eds, promising hearty support for the eleven.

SALOON LICENSE HELD BY JOHNSON RUNS OUT TODAY

Chicago, Oct. 31.—Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, will not hold a license to conduct a saloon after today, unless City Collector Cohen is compelled to issue one to him. The license formerly held by Johnson, expired today.

Johnson has filed a bond for a new license, but I won't issue one until he proves himself to be a man of good moral character," said Mr. Cohen. "He won't get a license unless I'm compelled to issue it."

Johnson is about to leave Chicago. The withdrawal of his saloon license by the brewery which owned it, was followed by the sale today of Johnson's rights in the place to a former manager, according to Johnson, who said he got $25,000 for it.

It was announced that the negro is to leave Chicago November 20th, for the purpose of fighting Sam McVey in Moscow, Russia. He is said to have received a certified check for $5,000 and three round trip tickets to Moscow from Richard Klein of Paris, who says he represents a Russian syndicate.

Johnson's plan to leave Chicago may be interfered with by the federal authorities, the grand jury not having completed its inquiry into the negro's private life.

Shaughnessy Breaks Wrist; Bout a Draw

Roswell, N. M., Oct. 31.—Rube Smith, of Denver, and Pete Shaughnessy, of Fort Worth, went five rounds at Clavis tonight. Shaughnessy broke his wrist in the fifth of a scheduled 10-round bout. The decision was called a draw by the referee to the great surprise of the fans.

WIRELESS STATION IS TUNING UP RAPIDLY

Navy Officials Highly Pleased with Prospects for Success of Powerful New Plant on Atlantic Coast.

(By Morning Journal Special Teased Wire.)
Washington, Oct. 31.—Navy officials are much pleased with the rapidity with which the powerful new wireless station at Arlington, Va., is responding to "tuning up." Already it is working at higher power than had been expected.

Although the official opening of the plant took place last Monday night, when about one-fourth of the sending power was used, today nearly one-half of the full power was on. To date the only three points which have replied by wireless to the calls of the Arlington station were Charleston, Portsmouth and St. Augustine. They report they got the signals with remarkable clearness. The officials expressed pleasure today over a report, not officially verified, that the wireless being operated at Mare Island night caught messages being sent from here.

Tonight a message was started across the continent to Mare Island, with a request for an answer by telegraph tomorrow. Similar messages were flashed to Colon, Guantanamo and Key West.

MESSAGES FROM FAR AWAY ARE INTERCEPTED.
San Diego, Cal., Oct. 31.—Government wireless operators at the Point Loma station here overheard last night messages from Captain Hughes of the cruiser Des Moines, at Vera Cruz, Mexico, and also from stations at Guantanamo, Cuba; Colon, Panama, Pensacola, Fla., and from a Russian station at Petropavlovsk, Siberia. Two messages were also intercepted from a steamer bound from Havana to New York.

Captain Hughes' message was directed to the big station at Arlington and stated that conditions were quiet at Vera Cruz.

MEN ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF ROBBERY

McAlester, Okla., Oct. 31.—Joe Davis and "Buck" Burdett were arrested at the village of Blocker today, charged with complicity in the robbery of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas passenger train which was held up near Wirth, Okla., Tuesday morning. They were brought to McAlester tonight and lodged in the federal prison.

CALL MONEY GOES TO EIGHT AND ONE-HALF PER CENT

Financial Stress Caused by Demand for Cash to Pay $125,000,000 in Dividend Disbursements Today.

(By Morning Journal Special Teased Wire.)
New York, Oct. 31.—Call money advanced to 8 1/2 per cent in Wall street today owing to the heavy borrowing to meet the November 1st, corporation and dividend payments, which will exceed $125,000,000. Not all of that sum will be disbursed tomorrow, but the largest dividend payment will be made that day.

The out of town banks, especially institutions in Chicago, Philadelphia and Boston, were heavy lenders here. The quotation is the highest since January of 1910, when the rate fluctuated from 7 to 14 per cent.

All leading financial markets of the world are experiencing monetary tension just now. The Bank of France today advanced its discount to 4 per cent, a rate not approached by that institution since our panic of 1907.

Other prominent institutions abroad have advanced discounts recently, and this example has been followed by banks in Belgium, Sweden, Russia and the orient.

17-YEAR-OLD BOY CONFESSES MURDER

Sturtevant, Me., Oct. 31.—Edwin Goodwin, a 17-year-old boy, today admitted he was responsible for the death of Captain Harry C. Young, whose body was found near a small stream here yesterday. Goodwin was arrested today and charged with murder. When asked to plead the boy said:

"I suppose I am guilty. I did not calculate to kill him."

Captain Young, who kept a store, was killed Tuesday night. Young's money was missing when his body was discovered.

BANK OF FRANCE SHOWS ENORMOUS INCREASE IN DISCOUNTS; DEMAND MONEY INTEREST RATES UP IN NEW YORK.

(By Morning Journal Special Teased Wire.)
New York, Oct. 31.—Foreign and domestic monetary conditions served to keep today's markets in a state of apathy and general restraint. The undertone here for the greater part of the session was fairly steady, however, in the final hour prices fell away as money rose.

The precarious condition of the money situation abroad was exemplified in the advance of the French bank rate from 3 1/2 to 4 per cent, the highest figure quoted since the panic here in 1907.

The weekly statement of the Bank of France disclosed an increase of $68,000,000 in discounts, due, no doubt, to the exigencies of the settlement now just concluded in Paris.

The showing of the Bank of England was not of the most encouraging character. Its liability reserves falling almost 2 per cent from last week.

Money and discounts were firmer in London and rumors of a further advance in the bank rate there received some credence.

Opening advances in stocks here ran to a point or better in some issues, with Reading, Union Pacific, the Hill and United States Steel most active. Canadian Pacific and its allied property were materially higher, while Amalgamated Copper and American Smelting were in better request than recently.

When call loans rose to 8 1/2 per cent in the final hour the market became dull to the verge of stagnation, and most gains were edged to fractions.

London was a moderate purchaser here, taking some Steel, Erie and Copper.

Returns of the Harriman roads for September were among the few important railway statements issued. Union Pacific's net gain was $256,000 and Southern Pacific, $286,000. Bonds were steady with the demand limited.

Total sales, par value, were $1,620,000.

United States 2 1/2 advanced 1/4 per cent on call.

Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—Too much rain in Argentina helped today to give wheat strength, despite considerable pressure on the selling side. After a moderate rise, however, the market began to suffer from active selling due to beneficial snow or rain over the winter crop belt in the United States.

Diminished receipts northwest tended to aid a rally in wheat during the last hour. This influence was not felt, though, until the fact developed that a good demand had sprung up from Minneapolis mills. December fluctuated between 50 1/2 cents and 51 1/2 cents, with last sales 51 1/2 cents, an upturn of 1/4 cent compared with twenty-four hours before.

Corn scored a net gain of 1/4 cent to 1/2 cent.

Oats declined a shade to 1/2 cent. Provisions finished the same as last night to an increase of 25 cents.

SEVEN YEARS CONFINEMENT

In Advices from Foster, Mrs. Ellis Makes Public Some Startling Statements.

Foster, Ark.—"I was sick for seven years," writes Mrs. Fannie Ellis, of this place, "and half the time could not stand on my feet. I was very near death. I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and in two months I was cured and am now stout and healthy."

I was sick so long that I won the sympathy of my friends, and they all asked what cured me, for my looks are a testimonial to Cardui.

After I was cured, I didn't know just what Cardui was like so many other medicines, that I pretend to cure for a while, but it has been two years since I have taken a dose, and I feel as well as ever.

I can walk a mile, work all day, and walk back home at night and not be much tired. Before taking Cardui I could not walk across the floor.

I cannot recommend Cardui too highly. It is a God-send to suffering women."

Thousands of women who now suffer from womanly troubles, could be relieved and benefited, by following Mrs. Ellis' example.

Are you of this number?

If so, try Cardui today. It cannot harm you, and is almost sure to do you good.

TOMORROW WILSON DAY ALL OVER THE COUNTRY

Democrats of United States Will Hold Series of Advance Love Feasts for Coming Victory on Tuesday.

Tomorrow will be "Wilson Day" all over the United States and the hosts of voters who will cast their ballots for the democratic nominee for president will hold a series of advance love feasts over the coming victory of Tuesday.

The day has been set aside by the national democratic central committee and meetings will be held in every precinct of the United States. In Albuquerque the four voting precincts of the city will unite and meet at the club rooms of the Wilson-McCormack club. It is expected that a large crowd will be present and a number of short addresses will be made by prominent speakers. The meeting will be in the nature of a jubilation and news of the campaign from all over the country will be given out.

Every man in the city who expects to vote for Woodrow Wilson is invited to be present. The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the club rooms on Gold avenue, just west of the Journal office.

A feature of the meeting will be the reading of a special message from Mr. Wilson which he will send personally to the club.

JUDGE RAYNOLDS TO EXCUSE JURYMEN THIS EVENING

Sentences Probably Not to be Passed Upon Men Convicted at This Term Until Some Time Next Week.

In all probability Judge Herbert F. Reynolds will excuse the petit jury tonight, after more than three weeks in session. There will be one more case heard today, which will complete the work of the court for this term so far as trials are concerned.

Saturday, the court will be busy with civil matters and Monday and probably Tuesday, motions for new trials in the cases of Theodore Toulet, convicted of murder in the second degree for the shooting of Policeman Alex Knapp, and of Demetrio Dalgadillo, convicted of murder in the first degree, alleged to have been committed upon the person of Solidad Zarzame, will be heard. It is likely that these motions will take all of the two days, so that it is hardly likely that the sentencing of prisoners will be taken up before Wednesday.

The court was busy yesterday with the trial of Manuel Torres, two indictments against him having been combined. Torres was charged with larceny from a car and with receiving and concealing stolen goods.

Up to a late hour last night no verdict had been forthcoming, and Judge Reynolds instructed the jury to send their verdict if they arrived at any, and give it to their foreman for presentation this morning.

The principal feature of the case against him was that a convict was brought from Santa Fe, where he is now serving a sentence, to testify against Torres. This convict is Julian Barcia, who was supposedly connected with the same larceny with which Torres is charged. The state elected to go to trial on only the larceny phase of the indictment.

BREAKS A COLD, OPENS NOSTRILS.

Pape's Cold Compound cures colds and grippe in a few hours.

The most severe cold will be broken, and all grippe misery ended after taking a dose of Pape's Cold Compound every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken.

You will distinctly feel all the disagreeable symptoms leaving after the very first dose.

The most miserable headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, fever, stiffness, sneezing, running of the nose, sore throat, mucous catarrhs, discharge, soreness, stiffness, rheumatism pains and other distress vanishes.

Take this wonderful Compound as directed with the knowledge that there is nothing else in the world which will cure your cold or grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist can supply—contains no quinine—longer in every home—accept no substitute. Tastes nice—acts gently.

R. H. Moss, Dentist, Texas, writes: "My baby had a dangerous attack of croup, and we thought we would lose him. But one bottle of Pape's Compound and the Compound pulled him through. We would not be without it in our home." J. H. O'Reilly Drug Co.

SHOOTING SUITABLE FERGUSSON GIVEN BUT PLEASE DON'T GREAT OVATION AT LAS VEGAS BURN HIM ALIVE

Henry Hawkins Declares He Really Ought to Have a Trial Because He Had Nothing to Do with Murder.

One of the strangest hallucinations which has come to light in recent months is that possessed by Henry Hawkins, who was placed in the city jail last night suffering from the combined effects of alcohol and altitude. Henry was undoubtedly as crazy as a man ever need be. It seems that whenever he lights the lamps in this high altitude he becomes so, and he admitted having been illuminated to a considerable degree last week.

Henry declared that shooting him would not meet with any objections, although he thought he really ought to have a trial, but that he objected to being burned alive in his cage in the jail. After being assured that if put to death at all, it would be by means of bullets, he quieted down sufficiently to tell his story. He had spent all the hours since his incarceration pleading that a reporter come to take his dying statement and when one appeared, this is what he said:

"I wish to state to you the history of my life. I am 41 years old and I wish to state that I do not want to be burned alive in this cage."

In response to repeated questions he said that his name was Henry Hawkins, that he was born in Platte county, Missouri, and that he had come to work for the Fowler Packing Company in Kansas City. This was his favorite statement—he made it many times.

"I served under Colonel William Jennings Bryan," he continued, "and went to a number of places. At Savannah, Colonel Bryan resigned. Then we went to Cuba."

"I came back to this country and went to work for the Fowler Packing Company again. Then I had charge of the municipal lights of Wichita and later of Oklahoma City."

Asked when he came here, he said: "Six months ago, as near as I remember. I got in this trouble last night because they wanted to kill me. They got me to come up here and then they got to quarrelling among themselves. I never fired a shot. I ought to have a trial, because I didn't have anything to do with the shooting or the stabbing, either."

Hawkins declared he had been induced to go to the Craig hotel by a friend whose name was by turn Myers, Williams and Mason, and that this friend and a boy had gotten into a fight on the stairs. That was all he could say without entering into an impassioned plea that the police do not burn him in his cage.

Hawkins passed through here four months ago on his way to Laramie. He got off a train here, crazy as he was last night, but when the liquor was off was quite sensible and went to work for the Municipal company. Later, it appears, he has been drinking again, and his condition last night is supposed to be the result.

Farley Arrives in Salt Lake.
Salt Lake, Oct. 31.—Cardinal John M. Farley and his suite arrived here at 5 o'clock tonight. The cardinal tomorrow will visit the Catholic institutions. The party will leave Friday night for Los Angeles.

Counterfeiting Is On the Blink.
Washington, Nov. 1.—Counterfeiting materially decreased in this country during the fiscal year of 1912. John E. White, chief of the secret service, ascribing the improvement largely to an era of prosperity, today announced in his annual report that the representative value of spurious notes and coins circulated during the year was $39,000, the lowest since 1907.

HALLOWEEN PRANKS WILL ARGUE ACTION TO STOP BUILDING OF COURT HOUSE

Fences Pulled Down and Other Tricks Played by Several Tribes of the Ubiquitous Small Boy.

Halloween was celebrated in Albuquerque last night with due regard to the customs time has made dear to the small boy, and without any regard for the feelings of his victims. Fences were pulled down, outbuildings overturned and a merry time had by several hundred youngsters, who roamed the city in a score of large and small bands, seeking not what they might devour, but what they might destroy.

There was something doing every minute up to 10 o'clock, and every other minute thereafter.

Several bands were captured by the police and cited to appear this morning for trial. Many others were not caught. The police declared that a trail on a hand was usually fruitless, except for the first boy they grabbed. A large section of wooden steps was piled at the front of the new Central Avenue Methodist church. A number of pieces of sheet iron were piled on the lawn of Dr. J. H. Wright's residence at Fifth street and Copper avenue. A small box at First street and Lead avenue was torn up by the roots. Dozens of other equally useless and annoying pranks were played.

Early in the evening a crowd of boys upset a tangle wagon at Tileras avenue and North Broadway, belonging to a native. The wagon is known as "Nick's Tangle Wagon" and is usually to be seen on a downtown corner. For some reason it was not brought down last night, but was left on the street.

REMARKABLE RECORD

He is a Farmer. Food That Succeeds Nearly Every Time.

A man or woman might as well starve outright as to take food into the stomach and not have it assimilated, yet in Albuquerque, as well as in every other town and city, there are many people who are thin, pale and seem underfed, simply because the food they eat is not assimilated, and fails to make good blood and firm flesh.

Samson, the wonderful flesh-forming food, taken before or after meals, mixed with the food, so that it is assimilated by the system and makes rich blood and pleasing plumpness.

Anyone who is thin, weak, scrawny and emaciated can put 50c on deposit with J. H. O'Reilly Drug Co., and take home a box of Samson. If the treatment does not give a noticeable increase in weight, firm flesh and restore strength and health, they will return the money without any questions.

Homicidal Soldier Not Captured.
Nogales, Ariz., Oct. 31.—After an all-day search, no trace had been found tonight of Andrew Yoshit, private in Troop D, Fourth United States Cavalry, who killed Francisco Grijalva, a Mexican woman, last night and perhaps fatally wounded two Yaqui Indians who went to the woman's assistance.

HALLOWEEN DANCE BY TUXEDO CLUB DELIGHTFUL EVENT

The Tuxedo Social club enjoyed a delightful dance last night at Columbus hall. The affair was in observance of Halloween. About 150 couples were present. The affair was a merry dress ball, in which the prize winners were Miss Virginia Cain, who won the first prize, a silver umbrella. Miss Cain represented spring. Louie Newman was the second prize winner, getting a pair of gold cuff buttons and a scarf pin. He represented a colored winter, his costume being an extremely comical one. The third prize went to Miss Nellie Spolles, who drew a jewelry box. She represented an Indian maiden. The fourth and last prize was carried away by J. H. Pope, who represented "The Chocolate Soldier."

Man Charged with White Slavery to Face Judge William H. Pope in Regard to Order of Removal.

Philip Raynor, who is being held here on telegrams from Denver, charging him with being a "white slave," will today appear before Judge William H. Pope, of the federal district of New Mexico, in regard to the issuance of a court order for his removal to Denver.

Judge Pope is a visitor in the city and he was thought best to ask him to sit here for the issuance of this order, that a day's delay and a trip to Santa Fe, the seat of his court, might be saved.

No pleas for Raynor's removal to Colorado had been received up to last night. It is expected they will arrive this morning.

Raynor when he first reached here, told the police a story of being doped and shipped out of Denver to prevent his testifying in an extortion case against two detectives. He wired several Denver newspapers versions of his tale, and it was through these telegrams that he was apprehended.

Chas. S. Hedger, 146 E. 2nd St., Hastings, Neb., writes: "I have been troubled with severe pains in my back and kidneys, and pains were especially severe mornings. I have tried three boxes of your Foley Kidney Pills and the pains have entirely left me. I now feel well as ever." J. H. O'Reilly Drug Co.

WILL ARGUE ACTION TO STOP BUILDING OF COURT HOUSE

Injunction Suit Against Commissioners of Valencia County to be Aired in Court Saturday Morning.

A suit which will be of material interest here and which will be watched by lawyers all over the state will be argued here Saturday morning before Judge Herbert F. Reynolds. The action is one brought by Frank L. Walrath, of Eden, against the board of county commissioners of Valencia county; Eugene Kempenich, Firmin Marcos and Perfecto Gualdron. Its object is to prevent the building of a court house and jail in Valencia county until such time as acts changing the power of the county to incur indebtedness beyond a certain percentage of its assessed valuation shall be in force.

The complaint alleges that due to certain acts of the legislature, the county is not empowered to use $25,000 arising from the sale of bonds issued by Valencia county to cover its share of the indebtedness of Valencia county when Torrance county was created from it, for any purpose except the reduction of the bonded debt of Valencia county. The complaint further alleges that a certain act of the legislature empowered the commissioners to use these monies for the erection of a court house and jail in the county, but that Congress disapproved this provision of the act, and that in this disapproval, the commissioners of the county of Valencia are about to commit certain wrongs.

It then rehearses that the indebtedness of Valencia county is in excess of the 4 per cent of its assessed valuation provided by law as the limit of indebtedness, and that on a meeting on August 11, 1909, the commissioners pretended to authorize the refunding of $41,000 worth of the bonds of the county, and that they pretended to authorize the sale of the $25,000 Torrance county bonds to raise money for a court house and jail. It continues with a statement that the commissioners authorized Solomon Luna to employ an architect to prepare plans and specifications for the erection of a court house and jail, and that Mr. Luna did employ the L. H. & W. M. Rapp Co., to do this work, and that they were paid under his authorization a sum in excess of $200.

The complaint further alleges that bids for this work were not called for nor was the work advertised for twenty days, as legally required. The alleged ratification of these acts of Mr. Luna is recited, and the complaint charges that the commissioners subsequently entered into a contract with Campbell Brothers to erect a court house and jail and were about to proceed with the work when stopped by an injunction filed in the court then sitting there.

The complaint sets forth that on October 5, 1912, a petition was presented to the commissioners asking that they defer all action until such time as the law in respect to the increase of indebtedness might be changed. This petition, it is claimed, was signed by more than three-fifths of the electors of the county. It is claimed that the commissioners disregarded this petition, to the jeopardy of the rights of the petitioners, who represent a majority of the voters of the county, and to the irreparable injury.

For all of which the plaintiff prays that an injunction may be granted him, which shall restrain the commissioners from fulfillment of their contract with Campbell Brothers until further order of the court, and from using the proceeds of the Torrance county bonds for anything except the reduction of the county's indebtedness.

The plaintiff is represented by Nell P. Field and Felix H. Lester and the defendants by H. M. Dougherty, of Socorro.

STRONG PLEA FOR GOOD MADE IN THE ROSARY

Priestly Zeal Charms Every Audience Which Witnesses Splendid Drama That Comes to Elks Tomorrow.

Albuquerque theatergoers are going to have an opportunity of witnessing this week that splendid drama, "The Rosary," which comes to the Elks theater for an afternoon matinee and night performance tomorrow.

Whatever attitude the church may hold toward the sacrament upon its domain by the theater, there is nothing in "The Rosary" to conflict with the solemnity of the church. It carries a simple story of priestly zeal, and one which however theatrical it may be beneath the surface, none the least conceals a wholesome lesson and makes an appeal for truth and right living. Its characters are in the main so goodly good that the dash of villainy injected to bring their good-nature into contrast makes the one scene of the play, the trial of the accused, a masterpiece of dramatic art.

A non-churchman who has married a Catholic gives a kind of priest a beautiful new chapel to be called "The Rosary." The priest is trying to bring the man into the church. Through the treachery of a friend the fortune of the donor is swept away at the same time he is led to imagine that he has discovered that his wife is untrue.

The once happy couple is separated by the malice of the wife to prove that it was the gracelessness of her twin sister which gave rise to the appearance against her. The husband takes to drink and sinks to the depths. On the day the new chapel is to be dedicated, the heart-broken wife and the fallen husband are brought together; the faith of the good old priest is justified, the perfidy of the false friend duly disclosed and pardoned. Christianity comes at last to the non-believer, and the reunited couple enter the chapel together while the others break out their jubilation of good will to all the world.

Anything but a preachy play, the humanity of the priest and his best beloved parishioners keeps the audience laughing with laughter and enjoying the story immensely.

Six comedies are playing at the country area, and nothing else need be said to attract its popularity. In the company which comes to the Elks, Harrison Terry takes the part of the parish priest; Miss Jean Ward has the dual role of twin sisters; Vera Wilton, a wife and Alice Marsh, whose failure to observe the conventions provides the thread on which "The Rosary" is strung; Helen McCabe and George Tripp make one of the comedy stories incidental to the primary, Addie Dougherty and L. Andrew Carter another.

PROGRESSIVES GET MANY ADDITIONAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Almost One Hundred Thousand Dollars is Subscribed to the National Fund Since Recent Report.

Elly Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.
New York, Oct. 31.—Contributions amounting to $9,350.50 were received by progressive national headquarters during the week of October 15th, the supplemental report for Washington tonight by Treasurer E. H. Hooker shows. More than 2,000 subscribers made up this sum.

The report was forwarded for filing with the clerk of the house, in compliance with the law requiring reports every six days after the first report. The largest contributors were George W. Perkins and Alexander Smith Cochran, of New York, each of whom gave $25,000; A. Heckscher, of New York, $15,000; Robert Bacon, of New York, $10,000; O. C. Barker, of Ohio, $4,000. The $1,000 contributors were William Fellows Morgan, L. O. Blake and F. J. Lipson, of New York.

Disbursement of $75,609.80 are shown, the largest amounts being $24,228 for printing; $12,344 for bookkeeping and traveling expenses, and $27,752 sent out to state committees of seventeen states for local work. Unpaid bills are given as $62,612.86. Contributions amounting to $152,602.52 were received by republican national headquarters last week, according to the supplemental report filed today with the clerk by George R. Eshelton, treasurer of the republican national committee. The report is in compliance with the statute requiring supplemental reports every six days after the first report.

During the last six days, the democratic national committee received contributions amounting to $136,488.72 and borrowed $40,000, according to a supplemental report filed today on behalf of the democratic national committee with the clerk of the house of representatives. During this period the total expenditures amounted to $265,145.20.

VICE CRUSADER IS EXONERATED BY JUDGE

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 31.—City Prosecutor Guy Eddle was exonerated of the charge of having contributed to the delinquency of Mrs. Alma Jones, a minor colored woman, by Judge Curtis D. Wilbur, in the juvenile court late today. Judge Wilbur dismissed the case after referring to discrepancies in the testimony and the general character of the witnesses for the prosecution.

In a statement after his discharge, Eddle said the young woman had been employed by him to obtain evidence in a number of anti-vice cases and had been persuaded by his enemies to institute proceedings against him. His trial in the superior court on the charge of having contributed to the delinquency of Mrs. Alma Phelps, is to begin November 20th.

MUST PAY INSURANCE ON KIMMEL'S LIFE

St. Louis, Oct. 31.—The "Kimmel claimant" failed to prove his identity to the satisfaction of the jury, for tonight it returned a verdict in favor of Mrs. Edna K. Bonsett, who was suing in the city district court to collect the $10,000 insurance policy on the life of her brother, George A. Kimmel, who disappeared in Kansas City in 1898. Mrs. Bonsett was allowed $29,469, including interest.

The claimant who had whittled away the time propounding mathematical questions to the court deputies, smiled slightly and walked from the court room. This was the fourth trial of the case. Mrs. Bonsett won in the United States circuit court, but lost on an appeal. Twice juries failed to arrive at a conclusion.

AFTER GRIP

Physicians agree that grip is not so much to be dreaded for itself as for the weakened condition of the system it produces, which leaves the system an easy prey to other diseases. It is particularly dangerous to old people just on this account.

The very wisest thing that we can advise to all who have had grip is to begin taking Vinol right away. This splendid tonic braces up the body and makes new strength by enriching the blood and sharpening the appetite, causing more food to be used by the stomach. Vinol is out and liver and iron preparation, without oil, and is delicious. An Indianapolis lawyer, Mr. John Kinney, says Vinol built him up wonderfully after grip left him weak and run down. We have such perfect faith in Vinol that we warrant it absolutely—money back if you are not pleased. J. H. O'Reilly Co., Druggists, Albuquerque, N. M.

The Gold Dust Twins' Philosophy

WHEN young Miss Housewife first aspired, to build the home her mate desired, she dreamed of castles in the air, with never toil nor woe nor care. She half imagined, in a way, that keeping house was only "play."

Too soon the sordid side of life—the dust and grime and soot and strife—each one, in turn, reminded her, that little problems must occur. A part of thrift is in the knack of fighting dirt around you, back; of keeping constantly at work where dust and germs of illness lurk.

This housewife had her little cry, gave up—and scarcely knowing why. Then, from the sombre clouds of doubt, two rays of golden hope crept out. The Gold Dust Twins threw wide the door and entered, eager for a chore. They polished all the silverware, they scrubbed the bathroom and the stair. Each mirror soon was shining bright, the kettles shone with gleaming light, and all around, from pit to dome, they garnished up that little home.

Ah! Ye who feel that, once begun, a housewife's work is NEVER done, have cheer! The Gold Dust Twins make play of any task that comes their way. A mop—a cloth—a busy brush, and honestly it makes us blush, to think we ever played the drone by working in the house alone.

OPIMUM SMUGGLING CASE IS TO BE INVESTIGATED

Three Officers of Pacific Mail Liner Manchuria Face Criminal Prosecution for Alleged Conspiracy.

San Francisco, Oct. 31.—The names of three officers of the Pacific mail liner Manchuria were mentioned in an investigation begun by United States District Attorney John L. McNab, today, of recent disclosure regarding an opium smuggling conspiracy which led to the death of Fourth Officer Edward Morse, at Manila. Second Officer W. W. Riehl, Fourth Officer R. W. Locke, who succeeded Morse, and Watchman C. Sogor are the men mentioned. McNab said he had called to Manila, suggesting that criminal warrants be issued.

The story involving the three men was told by Purser John Philip Bourne and corroborated by Chief Engineer William L. Bunker and Dr. Conrad Richter. The purser repeated the account of Morse's death, previously made public, verifying the fact that his body was found floating about the ship with a wound in his head. Riehl, a Chinese boatswain held a rope, the other end of which was tied about Morse's waist, when he swam ashore supposedly with a contraband opium, said Bourne. They were to draw him to the ship at a given signal and fasten to feel the expected pull on the rope, drew in and found the dead body attached. The purser said he had been told by the Chinese boatswain that he, the boatswain, and Riehl, hastily attached a weight to the body and threw it back into the sea. When the body floated near the ship, the next day, according to Bourne, Riehl descended to the water's edge and detached the weight.

Bourne said Locke and Sogor knew of the alleged attempt to land the opium, and that the latter had described the flooding of Morse, dead at the end of the rope, to several persons on the vessel.

McNab included in his indictment to Manila today an order that the bay be dragged for the weight which had been attached to Morse's body. The hearing will be resumed tomorrow.

INTERCHANGEABLE MILEAGE TICKET IS PROPOSED

State Corporation Commission Takes Steps to Compel Railroads Operating Within State to Meet Requirement.

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal]
Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 31.—The state corporation commission has issued an order to the railroads operating in the state to attend a hearing to be held on November 12th, to consider the subject of an interchangeable mileage ticket which the commission proposes to put in force in New Mexico.

The commission has the subject of importance to the traveling public. The order is directed to the following railroads:

The Atchafalaya & New Mexico Railway; the Atchafalaya, Tepeka & Santa Fe Railway; Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway; Chisnor & Northwestern Railway; the Colorado & Southern Railway; Denver & Rio Grande Railroad Company; El Paso & Southwestern System; New Mexico Central Railroad Company; New Mexico Midland Railroad; Santa Fe, Baton & Eastern Railroad; Southern Pacific Company; St. Louis, Rocky Mountain & Pacific Railway.

The commission's order, which is signed by Chairman H. H. Williams and Commissioner O. L. Owen, reads in part as follows:

The matter of local and joint passenger transportation within the state of New Mexico having been brought to the attention of the commission by numerous complaints, the commission has the honor to inform you that it has decided to issue an order requiring the railroads operating within the state of New Mexico to issue interchangeable mileage tickets.

The commission has endeavored to get the ideas of relief before the passenger traffic departments of the various carriers within the state of New Mexico and the different scrip issuing bureaus by correspondence for their consideration and criticism. The replies received therefrom have advanced no valid criticism of objection to a mileage ticket or scrip book in travel. The feature same as on other joint tickets, and as provided for in local and joint tariffs, but such replies have evidenced no particular desire on part of the carriers to grant the relief desired.

The commission has, in the further performance of its duty, ordered a hearing at which arguments will be heard by interested parties upon this subject.

It is therefore, ordered by the commission that the above named carriers appear by agent, attorney or traffic official at the office of the state corporation commission at 10 o'clock a. m., November 12, 1912, to show cause why the commission should not order such carriers to put in force mileage tickets in denominations of $20 per 1,000 miles travel and $75 per 3,000 miles travel, interchangeable upon all lines operating within the state of New Mexico, and to carry the usual free baggage feature as provided for in traffic for joint tickets, and to be placed of sale at all ticket offices of the different carriers now operating within the state of New Mexico, said mileage tickets to be made out all trains which carry passengers, and for a period of one year from date of issue, and all unused portions

FINE OPPORTUNITY TO LEARN SPANISH OFFERED TO ALL

Evening Class in Practical Business Spanish Will Be Organized Next Monday; Instructor Competent.

Every one realizes the advantages of a knowledge of Spanish. In this southwestern country where the Spanish language occupies such an important place in the business world, to neglect opportunity.

Monday evening a class in Spanish will be organized in the Albuquerque Business College. The practical business Spanish will be taught, stress being put on the variations, the idiomatic expressions and the peculiarities so common to the language as it is spoken in Mexico, and particularly as it is spoken here. The class will be under the instruction of Miss Pauline Cartwright, who is well qualified to take up a work of this kind, as she has lived several years in Old Mexico and learned to speak the Spanish language before her native English. Miss Cartwright has a complete understanding of the local language, somewhat different from the Castilian.

By the organization of such a class an excellent opportunity is afforded to secure a practical, dollar-and-cent speaking knowledge of the language. The class will meet three nights each week—Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Full information will be given gladly to every one interested. Special rates will be made to all present and former students in any department.

GRANT COUNTY IS CONCEDED TO THE DEMOCRATS

Indications Are for Wilson to Carry County, Together with Ferguson; All Three Parties Active.

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal]
Silver City, N. M., Oct. 31.—The political forces are warming up, the Wilson followers having a very large and enthusiastic smoker at the old Fellows hall at which Hon. W. B. Walton and other well known democrats made timely and encouraging addresses, all urging democratic voters to turn out and vote. The hall was crowded and the meeting an emphatic success.

The Taft leaders held a masquerade ball tonight at the Elks opera house, the attendance being quite large.

Taft leaders are busy and, apparently, are confident that Taft will sweep the field next Tuesday.

The outlook here is that Wilson will carry Grant county by a vote as large as was cast for McDonald for governor last year. Taft leaders hold the idea of Roosevelt getting many votes in the county, but if the signs do not fall he will receive a much larger number than most people think, most of them coming from the republican ranks, very few if any democrats voting for him.

THE JOURNAL'S POSITION.

Our evening contemporary labors under some queer ethical delusions. It has no opportunity to fool many people, and never will have so long as it proceeds on the theory that a newspaper's mission is to fool, rather than inform, its readers.

For instance, through a succession of issues it tells the people who read it that the Journal has one position on the tariff now and had another position a short time ago. If the Herald will take occasion to consult the files of the Journal it will learn that the position of this newspaper has not swayed one iota.

For instance, from the beginning, the Journal said there were tariff rates that needed revision, schedules behind which monopoly is sheltered. Also it said then, and says now, that the tariff is not responsible for the high prices that exist throughout the world, but it is responsible for certain schedules that exist in the United States, such as selling meats at twice the price in New York that they sell in London, and the selling of nearly $70,000,000 worth of steel trust products to foreigners at about thirty-three and one-third per cent less than the same products are sold in the United States. Against these abuses, the Journal has protested. With due credit to Mr. Taft, he has voiced the same protest, but has been so beset with party leaders committed to special interests that he has been able to do nothing in a corrective way.

On August 5th, before the campaign had begun in New Mexico, the Journal said editorially: "The democratic party appears to have learned some sense. It does not propose to revise the tariff in any way except as the business of the country may warrant."

Again on August 8th, the day following the delivery of Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance, the Journal said in its address: "His position on the tariff can differ little from that of Mr. Taft." Again: "The position is a sound one, and should be elected president, it will give confidence to the business interests of the country. It is in accord with the democratic platform, but not in harmony with the former policies of the party."

Again, the Journal said of the address of acceptance: "As to his method of dealing with the tariff, Governor Wilson has placed himself squarely on the 'shelter plank' of what was formerly known as the 'Iowa idea.'"

Emerson said: "Consistency is the logic of little minds." Yet at the risk of inviting that charge, let it be said that the Journal has been consistent regarding the tariff.

Neither prior to that time, nor since, has the Journal expressed an opinion on the tariff, or regarding the present democratic policy, differing in any way from that quoted above. But that does not mean that the Journal has not called attention to expressions by certain democrats, Hon. A. A. Jones and Editor Tittman, of Hillsboro, for example, that were out of harmony with the position of the democratic national platform as interpreted by Woodrow Wilson and as it is now interpreted by the leaders of the party everywhere.

It would be quite impossible for the Journal to be in harmony with the things wittily misquoted by the Herald. While the Journal does not deem it necessary to make this explanation, it may be well to call attention again to the fact that what the Journal has said and what the evening paper says it has said, are very different matters.

RIPLEY, MILLER AND DODGE.

President Ripley presides over the destinies of several hundred millions of dollars invested in the great Santa Fe railroad system. He is out squarely for the election of Woodrow Wilson to the presidency. He sees not danger of a panic, Roosevelt Miller, chairman and financial head of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, that runs from Chicago to Puget sound, with ramifications through most of the cities of the west, has declared for Wilson. Mr. Miller was one of Mark Hanna's executive committee in the 1896 campaign. He represents hundreds of millions of dollars and was one of the contributors to the Taft pre-convention campaign fund in the sum of $10,000.

There are others, scores of them, who have never voted other than the republican ticket that have come out during the past few weeks for Wilson. They know there is no hope for the election of Taft and they want to make the defeat of Roosevelt as big as possible and they see no menace to business prosperity in the election of the democratic candidate.

We believe these men know a little more about the finances of the country than the young gentlemen who run the Herald. We believe that Mr. Ripley is a better judge of what is best for the people of New Mexico. We believe that he and Mr. Cleveland Dodge, of the Phelps-Dodge Company, have quite a little more financial interest in New Mexico than has the Herald. Mr. Dodge is one of the business men's league that is doing everything possible for the election of Wilson.

Also, we believe that Mr. Ripley has some designs to see Albuquerque grow, and that he has things in view that will greatly contribute to the upbuilding of this city. In view of it all, can we imagine that Mr. Ripley is making a mistake in not first advising with the young men of the Herald before he invests the money of this company in a way that is going to be lost because Wilson and Ferguson are going to be elected?

MAKE IT UNANIMOUS.

The campaign is nearing its close. Nationally, the result is as good as settled. The only questions are whether Roosevelt or Taft will have the smaller vote in the electoral college, or whether either of them will have even one state to his credit.

So far as New Mexico is concerned, the result is equally certain. Harvey B. Ferguson will be re-elected and Wilson will carry the state.

But the people of New Mexico should make their voice emphatic. The re-election of Ferguson is of the utmost importance this state that, so far, has received nothing worth mentioning from the federal government. It needs a number of public buildings. It needs aid for post roads and for the maintenance of schools. Most of all, it has an opportunity to get all the lands within its borders, title to which is held by the federal government, turned over to the state.

A republican member of congress would have no influence with the next congress toward securing any of these things. In fact, it would be better for the state to have no representative at Washington.

Ferguson will aid in securing better protection for the wool growers than would be possible without him. He will be able to get things done. The people of the New Mexico should make it unanimous for Ferguson next Tuesday.

A CALAMITY HOWLER.

Our evening contemporary thus walks:

"The question is, do you want to exchange a national prosperity which the democrats admit is unparalleled, for a repetition of panic and poverty, starvation and disaster, closed factories, idle workmen, fallow farms, hungry wives and children, undeveloped resources, and all the attendant evils which prevailed when the democrats last let down the bars to foreign trade and put American business out of business?"

Sonny, if you were the seventh son of a seventh son of a seventh son, born with a caul and all the other accessories of the seer, fortune teller, crystal gazer, clairvoyant and fortune teller of coming events, and if your forecast were as true as your editorial forecasts are false, you would simply be a mail edition of "Cassandra prophesying woe" whom no one would believe.

Your Jeremiah would not cause the change of a single vote from Wilson to Taft. The democratic ticket will be elected by the biggest electoral vote ever cast for any candidate.

If all the calamity you say is coming, it is all the more reason why New Mexico should send a democrat to congress who will be able to get a few hundred thousand dollars in federal appropriations which will be used to pay for material and labor in New Mexico during the dark days predicted by the Herald. Jaffa could get nothing to help things out.

Really, there is no reason why an editor should be an ass.

Without waiting for the ballots to be cast, the Jaffa men are already trying to place the blame. Some say the big marplot is J. Porter Jones, the nodder of political fortune, others charge it up to David Rosenwald, others find that Judge Mann has caused it, but when the Evening Herald is mentioned, with one accord they say, "The it in the alley."

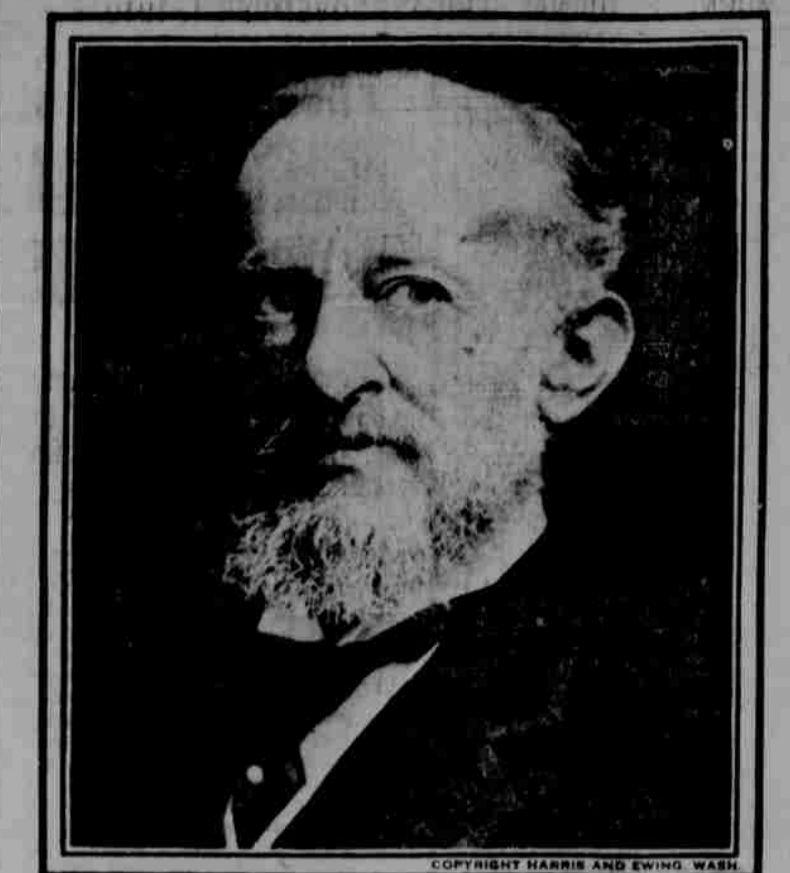

Rosenwald to Benning—"Why did you?"

Benning—"I didn't think."

Rosenwald—"You haven't thought since the campaign began."

We strongly opine that the "cork-screw" statesman will stand without being hitched for some time.

There is a report that Frank Hubbell will be here on the last three days of the campaign to take charge of the fight for Jaffa.

First State Contest of Boys' and Girls' Club Was Feature of New Mexico Fair

The Industrial Club for boys and girls of New Mexico, whose age range from 10 to 18 years, has just rounded out its first year's work. The climax was reached in the state contest held with the state fair, October 7th-12th. The exhibits in this contest attracted a great deal of attention from the visitors and the products shown were pronounced the best of their kind at the fair.

The Industrial club is a success and it has come to stay for the instruction, the encouragement and the help it can give to the boys and girls of New Mexico so that they may become better farmers and better home makers than they otherwise could.

Sixteen counties in the state have organized clubs. Five of these were represented in the state contest. Six products were specified for contest work—corn, kaffir corn, milo, maize, peanuts, bread and sewing—and all six were represented in the contest. There were thirty-two separate exhibits, but the sewing consisted of two articles each.

The prizes this year were uniform, being $10 for first, $5 for second and $3 for third in each product. The winners of these prizes are as follows:

- First.
Corn—Ralph Will, Las Cruces, Dona Ana county.
Kaffir—Tom Skeen, St. Vrain, Curry county.
Milo—Mary Kaye, Texico, Curry county.
Peanuts—Harry Conway, Mesilla Park, Dona Ana county.
Bread—Grace Munro, Tularosa, Otero county.
Sewing—Mary Kaye, Texico, Curry county.
Second.
Corn—Kenneth McClernon, Las Cruces, Dona Ana county.
Kaffir—Harrison Delozer, Texico, Curry county.
Milo—Rue Goodrum, Grady, Curry county.
Peanuts—Gordon Wicks, Chavis, Curry county.
Bread—Hazel Hartshorn, Texico, Curry county.
Sewing—Annie Garley, Peralta, Valencia county.
Third.
Corn—J. Kissinger, Artesia, Eddy county.
Kaffir—Ray Hingate, Texico, Curry county.
Milo—Rue Goodrum, Grady, Curry county.
Peanuts—Juan Garley, Peralta, Valencia county.
Bread—Mercedes Garley, Peralta, Valencia county.
Sewing—Mercedes Garley, Peralta, Valencia county.

In the "Special" bread prize, given by the "Globe Mills" of El Paso, Mercedes Garley got second, $5, and Annie Garley got third, $3.

In the drawing for the $50 scholarship prize, given by the State National bank of Albuquerque, the late fell in the following order: Harry Conway, first; Mary Kaye, second and fifth; Grace Munro, third; Tom Skeen, fourth; Ralph Will, sixth.

To be able to accept this prize the winner must be 15 years old or must have passed the eighth grade in school. The scholarship is to be taken out in the Agricultural College.

Ralph Will, winner of first in corn, has been awarded the scholarship. He also won sweepstakes last year with corn in the Dona Ana county contest.

In the drawing among the winners of second prizes, Kenneth McClernon of Las Cruces, is the lucky boy. He took the $10 incubator given by E. W. Fox Seed Company, of Albuquerque. Kenneth will receive the incubator for 4 months, he can raise plenty of food for his chickens since he grew 3,635 pounds of husked Hickory King corn on a little less than 1.3 square rods of land at the rate of ninety-seven bushels and forty-seven pounds of corn per acre.

Yet there are some people who contend that we can not raise corn in New Mexico. Does this boy's crop look like it? But this is not all. Besides the corn he had 4,960 pounds of good fodder. Counting the corn at 15 cents per bushel which is less than the market price, this 14-year-old boy produced $45.52 worth of corn and at $5 per ton, $19.60 worth of fodder—$65.12 worth of good food on less than one-half acre. How many of the older farmers are doing even half as well? Yet they could if they would.

Every contestant at the state contest will receive the "Business Farmer" one year free. This is a splendid agricultural paper published at El Paso, Tex., for the southwest.

All data on all crops is not yet in. This will be published in due time. Whether it is as good as the above or not, I am quite sure the results will be good.

The extension department is quite well pleased with the first year's results and is now planning to increase them ten-fold next year. We heartily thank all the boys and girls who participated in the work and all those who helped in the state contest. If we had the money, we would be glad to give each one a prize. We are sure there are others in the state who had just as good stuff as that which was presented, but they did not think it quite worth while to push the work to a completion. However, many reported that their crops were not matured. The season was late and the fair came early. Let each year be an exception made and let us encourage to push on.

Let everybody who is interested in better and greater crops for New Mexico boost for the Boys' and Girls' Industrial club. This boys and girls will deliver the goods. We need a state appropriation of $15,000 a year for agricultural extension in New Mexico, one-fifth of that sum to be expended for the Industrial club work. Farmers, merchants, bankers and business men in every section of the state will do well to urge this upon their representatives. As the agricultural products of the state abound or abate just so will the state as a whole be prosperous or poor. Agricultural extension properly supported and persistently pushed will greatly increase the productive power of the state. Let all who favor this proposition say "Aye."

Respectfully,
W. T. CONWAY,
Superintendent of Extension.

among the copper-producing states. She produced 27.43 per cent of the total output of the country for 1911. The steady output of copper from Arizona began about 1875, though there was intermittent production prior to that date, the earliest record of production being for 1862. Since 1880 the growth of the industry has been steady and rapid.

Nine copper-smelting plants operated within the state during the year.

NO SUCCESSOR TO SHERMAN WILL BE NAMED

Chairman Hilles Calls National Republican Committee to Meet After Election to Take Action.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
New York, Oct. 31.—The selection of a successor to Vice President Sherman as the republican candidate to go before the electoral college in January, was the subject of informal discussion today among members of the republican national committee now in New York.

The fact that Chairman Hilles has delayed the meeting of the national committee until November 12th, will, it is believed, prevent any general agreement upon the vice presidential candidate until after the results of the election are known.

Should President Taft, and the republican electors be successful or should the election be thrown into congress by the failure of any candidate to secure a majority, it is said pressure would become stronger on the national committee to name Governor Hadley, Senator Borah, Senator Cummins, or some other man who has been prominently identified in the progressive movement, but who did not join the new progressive party.

GENERAL DIAZ SENT TO CASTLE PRISON

Vera Cruz, Oct. 31.—General Felix Diaz, Colonel Diaz Ordaz and the other prisoners recently sentenced by court martial, were transferred from the military prison today to San Juan de Ulloa, General Beltran, commander of the federals, explained that the latter prison offered more safety in the case of the condemned rebels. The German engineer Victor Louis arrived here this afternoon.

TAFT ADMINISTRATION WORTHY OF CONTINUANCE

Chicago, Oct. 31.—Secretary Charles Nagel, of the department of commerce and labor, in a speech here tonight, declared that the record of the Taft administration was the chief argument for its continuation.

"Protection is the policy under which the nation has prospered," he said. "If Governor Wilson should be elected (backed by a democratic congress) protection would be abolished and manufacturers and wages in this country would go down together."

VOTING MACHINES HELD GIVE AMPLE FACILITIES

Salt Lake City, Utah, Oct. 31.—The supreme court of Utah refused today to issue a writ of mandamus, asked for yesterday by the democratic and progressive party campaign managers, to compel the county commissioners to supply Australian ballots at all the polling places in Salt Lake county, to be used in conjunction with the voting machines. Justice D. N. Straup, who gave the decision, said that inasmuch as the voting machines complied with the state laws in every respect they afforded the voters ample means of voting.

VICTIMS OF ORPHANAGE FIRE LAID TO REST

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 31.—Funerals of the five Sisters of Mercy, who sacrificed their lives in order to rescue one hundred children from the burning St. Joseph's orphanage, took place today. Sister Mary Koska Farrell, whose back was broken when she jumped for the sill, still lives, but cannot recover. The death list now stands at eight—the five nuns and three foundlings.

ARIZONA SUPERVISORS FAVOR BOND ISSUE

Phoenix, Ariz., Oct. 31.—The county road supervisors of Arizona, in convention here today, voted unanimously to ask the state to issue $10,000,000 in bonds for good road building, to be distributed in the counties in accordance with their assessed valuations. Every county was represented.

HOP I INDIAN VICTIM OF FATAL ACCIDENT

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.)
Keams Canyon, Ariz., Oct. 31.—Adam, a Hopi Indian residing at the village of First Mesa, on the Moqui reserve in northern Arizona, was thrown from his wagon while descending the First Mesa wagon road, a few days ago and received injuries which resulted fatally.

The accident was caused by an inefficient brake, which crowded the Hopi's wagon on the horse's heels, inclining them to run down the steep incline, and breaking one of the animal's legs.

This rock road leading from the flat to the summit of First Mesa, some hundreds of feet above is very narrow and steep, and is used by the Hopi in hauling wood, water and other provisions from the trader's post to his village.

Adam was one of the more intelligent Hopis of First Mesa and his loss is mourned by his family and friends.

The Benefits Derived by the Child from Parents' Association

(By Prof. John D. Milne, Superintendent of City Schools.)

It would be great folly on my part to attempt to enumerate the manifold benefits that an association of this kind is capable of rendering to the child of the community. It would be like enumerating the benefits of an ideal home to a child. Every act of co-operation on the part of the parents increases the efficiency of the school. An increased efficiency in the school if it be from the result of better lighting, better ventilation, better playgrounds, better sanitation or better teaching facilities adds to the efficiency of the home citizenship, the only thing that justifies the existence of the public school.

From their inception the public schools have had the co-operation of parents, and no institution with the possible exception of the church has done more for civilization in return. With increased wealth, the result of economic conditions and changed conditions incident to the growth of the nation has come criticism of the public schools. Our age is one that might properly be classified as the age of the money craze, and few among us but have felt its influence. Quite naturally the education which is demanded must bear the mark of the almighty dollar on one corner to signify the earning power of the possessor.

We are told that girls are not taught to be economical housekeepers; that they are not taught to use the cheaper cuts of meat; but we are not told how to get as much nourishment out of the large joints of an animal as we can out of porterhouse steaks taken from the same carcass. They say a soup bone is cheaper. There is reason, I believe, that can not justly be laid at the door of the public schools, and I will venture a prophecy that when the soup bone comes as popular as a porterhouse steak, the prices of the two will be reversed or at least equalized. And when prunes by the methods which your mothers must devise appeal to the palates of the wealthy, some of us less fortunate ones will have less prunes. Our critics have failed to take into consideration the law of supply and demand.

The boys, they tell us, are simply no account. Can not adapt themselves to conditions, must start in at the bottom of the ladder and climb. It is quite true that boys just out of the public schools start at or near the bottom of the ladder, but there's no height to which they can not raise. While some special schools prepare boys and girls to start a few rounds up the ladder, most of them by their lack of breadth fail to give these children the power to raise above a certain level.

Would you be satisfied to have your boy be the expert glass blower of the world and know nothing of the early history of the art, know nothing of the beauties revealed in literature, know nothing of the lives spent in the uplift of the world, and have no other possible means of enjoyment? Would you have your girl find her only enjoyment in the office work for which she is fitted? It is not reasonable to think that you would.

Ever higher and fuller life seems to be the expression of a great fundamental purpose in the world. The course to be followed leads upward. The best service and the best work are ineffective so to the wall. There is everywhere advance and improvement and the field of possibilities is ever widening. The principle of growth is benign, and the evidence borne in on us from every hand that good will and beneficence are at the root of all things; that a power exists that is friendly to men, and it is interested in his welfare; that it is good to be alive. It is the duty of the school to inspire youth with the right attitude toward life.

You are no doubt asking what this has to do with the work of your association. Let me remind you that you are moulders of public opinion and the advisers of fathers, mothers, and children. Look into the school question before you agree or disagree with any one. You, no doubt, will get what you desire. If you wish to destroy public schools as they are today and reorganize a system that will fit your sons and daughters to be laborers only, the right is yours. If you desire to keep all that is good in the present system, and I assure you that most of it is good, and to arrange courses of study to give the children the best of both worlds, you must meet the battles of life at an early age will get more assistance than they do at present, it also lies within your power to do it. But keep in mind that our children must be trained not merely to maintain present civilization but to improve upon it. We must never forget that the present is not a finality, and knowing the spirit of the age we must equally as often oppose it as serve it. It is the business of education to see that no good of the past be lost, and at the same time it must infuse into youth a deep discontent with things as they are, and it must give ideals leading to the next step in human evolution. That is, education must always fit youth to live in the future not in the present, not in the past. It must fit him as our critics said to live in his particular community, and I would add that particular community is bounded by the blue canopy of heaven.

As I have said before money is the all important question today, and the schools if they maintain their proper places must have more of it. Every boy and every girl is entitled to a high school education, and that they may be able to obtain it, many must be helped in the struggle. The sound judgment which comes from complete schooling, the due of every child, is often denied in our country. Other countries contribute to the relief of the child directly or by helping the widowed mother by paying her the amount that she would receive for the services of her son or daughter, that the child may spend its time in school in place of a factory. We must take a broader view before it will be possible to raise such a fund. The question is not can we afford to give every child an education, but is can we afford to have any child in this country without an education. The initial cost would seem trifling if it could be compared with the increased earning power of our nation at large, under the new condition.

We are just beginning that new phase of our education termed industrial. This is also expensive. We are also aware of the fact that better facilities must be had for the schooling of the present generation. In general little has been thought of the health of the child in the public schools. We have been careless of the cleanliness of the building. We have been careless in the matter of lighting, heating and ventilation. While it may not require more material or better material it must be better arranged, and if better arranged the gray matter used in this arrangement must be paid for.

So much for conditions in general. Our local needs are familiar to all of you, or if by chance not to all of you I know that you will familiarize yourself immediately. There are many things that have been known felt by your present board of education, but which they have not been able to supply because funds would not permit. To have less than a lack of playground around each school building is little less than a crime, yet you will find room for walks only. If we are to have sound minds and sound bodies it is absolutely essential that we have the open air in which to develop the body.

The matter of heating, lighting and ventilation in our schools, especially those contemplated, needs most careful study. There have been mistakes in the past which have been partially rectified, but at an expense that would help materially along other lines. If materials or arrangements other than the best are accepted, the cost cannot be reckoned in dollars and cents, but in the agony of childhood and the anguish of broken mothers' hearts caused by carelessness, neglect, and ignorance of the essentials in building—essentials that are not always detected, and if detected, not always possible to rectify.

Sanitation is a broad term, but the lack of sanitary measures has left the bleached bones of its victims in its path in great numbers than it is possible for the human mind to conceive.

You, no doubt, know that a new high school is proposed by your board of education. They have planned wisely, and if these plans do not miscarry you will have a structure that will be the pride of every citizen's heart. Your duty is to see to it that no obstacle is placed in the way of its completion and to see that when completed it embodies all that is known as the best in modern school architecture. The day has passed when four walls with an occasional window, where the builder thought the monotony of the walls should be broken to one looking from the outside, constituted an up-to-date school room. Many eyes have been ruined beyond repair by such buildings, but let it not be to our shame that such a thing happens in our enlightening age. Many children have been forced to leave school and useful occupations because their lungs were denied the proper amount of air. It is tenfold more essential that the pure air in the school room be a condition demanded as urgently as a roof upon that same room, and that both be guaranteed before the building is accepted. Many men and women are walking through life today with backs that resemble rainbows because they were denied the use of a gymnasium when it was possible to correct careless habits, or to overcome slight deformities. It is your business to see the modern gymnasium is included in every building erected in the future. Many people have gone through life without knowing the benefits of baths properly taken. Let the new high school of Albuquerque be properly equipped in this particular. These are but a few of the many things that I could enumerate that not only should be included, but that must be included if the efficiency of your educational system is to be maintained. Your board of education should see the needs at this time. See to it that future generations are acquainted with the needs, and that these needs are supplied. There are places in our United States where organizations of this kind have made possible by funds raised by the organization the erection or fitting out of buildings for instruction along particular lines. It is hardly to be expected that you will be able to do anything of that nature for some time.

Perhaps no greater service can be rendered to the public schools than that rendered by watchful care of the home conditions of every child. My advice is look well to the home. See to it that the home of your boy or girl is more attractive than any other home of which they know. Far more attractive than the street or the pool room. See to it that their diet is proper food, the proper sleep, and the proper atmosphere in which to study. School is a more serious institution than many mothers believe, and if it is worth while it is surely worth your best efforts in the home. Let no trivial circumstance interfere with perfect attendance. One-half day lost has the same effect upon the pupils' studies that one-half day lost by a doctor or lawyer from his office has upon his practice.

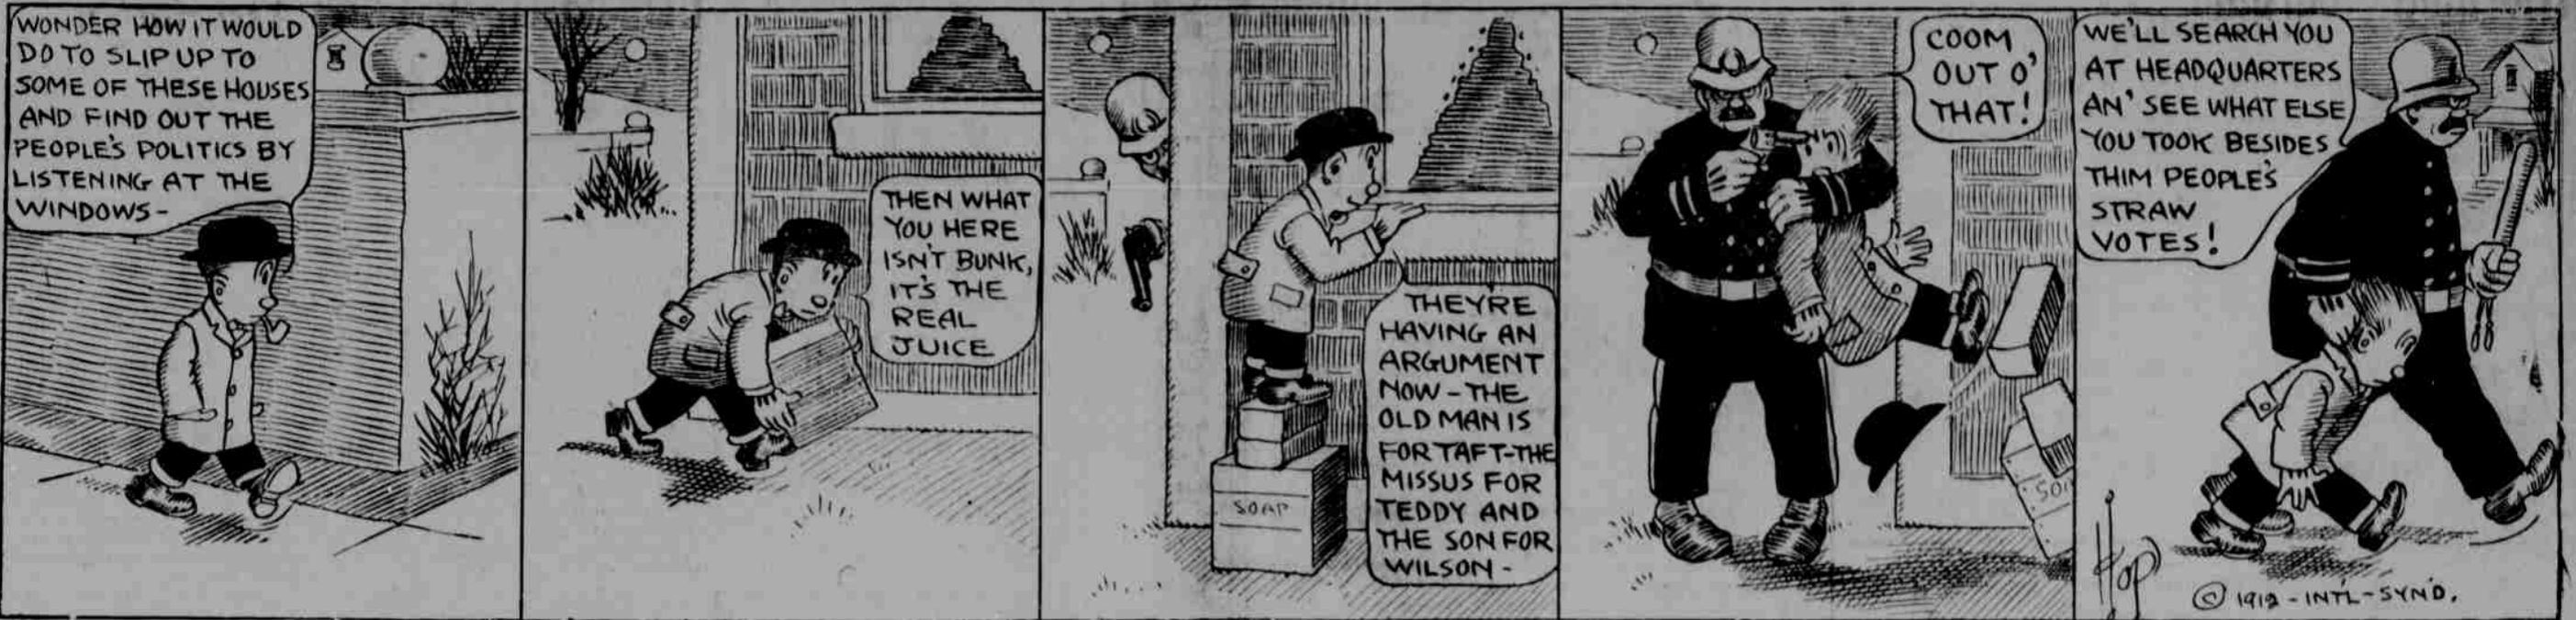

With reference to the teaching force of the city I can say that you will find them as capable, loyal and hard working as you will find anywhere, and if the time ever comes when funds will permit the outlay do all that can be honorably be done to give them wages commensurate with the services they render. Wages that will set them upon a higher plane, and that will induce those who choose to make teaching a life's work to choose Albuquerque as their field.

Finally, I wish to thank you for the interest you have shown in the public schools of your city, especially those who have been instrumental in the formation of this association. You may be assured that your efforts are appreciated by those in charge of our schools and I assure you that their cooperation will be most hearty.

ROOSEVELT TALKS CAMPAIGN WITH LEADERS

Colonel Holds Conference with Dixon and Perkins and Waiks About Grounds for More Than an Hour.

[By Morning Journal Special Licensed Wire.] Oyster Bay, N. Y., Oct. 31.—With George W. Perkins and Senator Dixon, his campaign leaders, Colonel Roosevelt discussed the political situation tonight for two hours. Mr. Perkins and Senator Dixon, too, dined with the colonel.

In the afternoon Colonel Roosevelt took the longest walk he has had since he was shot, tramping about the grounds near his home for an hour. Colonel Roosevelt will go to New York late tomorrow to attend the progressive rally in Madison Square Garden for the New York state ticket. He will probably talk for a few minutes.

FREIGHT RATES IN NORTHERN ARIZONA ARE REDUCED

Efforts of Corporation Commission for Better Treatment by Santa Fe Railway Prolific of Good Results.

[Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.] Holbrook, Ariz., Oct. 31.—On November 20th new rates on coal, coke, charcoal and briquettes will go into effect on the Santa Fe railroad from Gallup, N. M., which will materially reduce the cost of this winter's fuel to the people of northern Arizona. As a result of efforts put forth by the Arizona corporation commission, the Santa Fe railroad has put these reduced rates into effect, but not satisfied that the reductions are as low as they should be made, the commission has already forwarded to the interstate commerce commission a complaint asking for still lower rates on coal.

Industrial plants and consumers in general throughout northern Arizona will be saved several thousand dollars on this year's coal shipments. Recently the corporation commission began to study the coal rate situation from Gallup to Arizona points deciding that the railroads should make material reductions for the benefit of consumers. When the matter was presented to the freight departments of the Santa Fe road, they consented to make important changes. However, before the matter is disposed of by the interstate commerce commission, it is probable that there will be still further reductions as a result of evidence which will be introduced on behalf of the Arizona consumers.

order of the noble grand, J. V. Clark, V. G.

Because of engine trouble, it is said, No. 9 was more than two hours and a half late in arriving this morning.

W. E. Purcell and B. C. Culp, sheep buyers, left last night for Holbrook, Ariz., after several days spent here. Mr. Purcell is from Los Angeles, while Mr. Culp is from Trinidad, but has an office here.

There will be regular services this evening at 7:45 at Temple Albert, the sermon being delivered by Dr. Mendel Elber, rabbi in charge. The subject will be "Man and His Universe." All persons interested are invited to attend.

A force of men spent yesterday and will spend today in repairing the cement work on the Alvarado hotel and Santa Fe depot buildings in preparation for winter. This street requires a considerable amount of touching up each year, due to the effect of the weather upon it.

Arthur Morgan, formerly connected with newspapers at Leavenworth, Kan., and Joplin, Mo., has arrived in the city and will take a position on the editorial staff of the Morning Journal. Mr. Morgan is a nephew of Thomas J. Naylon, secretary of the Commercial club.

Acting on telegraphic instructions from Washington, Postmaster H. W. Hopkins will lower the flag on the postoffice building to half mast until after the funeral of the late Vice President Sherman, which will be held tomorrow. In respect to the dead statesman all flags in Albuquerque were yesterday flying at half mast.

A rig belonging to two ladies, which was tied in front of the Justice Theater last evening, narrowly escaped serious injury when the hoist attached to it became entangled and backed into an automobile which was passing. The car was driven by Joe Twitty, one of the pilots of the Colorado-to-California party spending a few days here.

Congressman H. B. Ferguson left yesterday for San Miguel and Mora counties, where he will close his statewide campaign for re-election as the nominee of the democratic party. Mr. Ferguson's tour has included a visit to every county in New Mexico, except San Juan, which, because of its remoteness and the lengthy railroad journey required, was left out of his itinerary. However, San Juan is a normally democratic county and is expected to roll up a large majority for Mr. Ferguson and the Wilson and Marshall electors.

J. Edward Priest, formerly of this city, but for many years residing at Flagstaff, Ariz., in a letter to an Albuquerque friend, says that his section of that state will roll up a big plurality for the democratic presidential electors and the democratic congressional candidate, Carl Hayden; and, regardless of the recent predictions of J. Lorenzo Hubbell, chairman of the republican central committee of that state, to the contrary, Wilson and Marshall will carry Arizona by a big vote. In fact, Mr. Priest said, he hardly believed that the race, Mr. Priest hopes that Congressman Ferguson, of New Mexico, will be returned to Washington by a large plurality.

Phone 501-502 for light hauling, parcels, messengers. Prompt service.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

Harry H. Headley.
Harry H. Headley, who had been a resident of this city for only three months, died yesterday at his home, 1902 South Elm street. Mr. Headley leaves a wife, a bride of only seven months, and two children, a son and a daughter. His occupation was that of railroad brakeman. Mr. Headley came here from Bradford, O., to which city his body will be shipped for burial.

Carl Zahn.
Carl Zahn, for six months a resident of this city, died yesterday afternoon at 3:30 at his home, 515 South Seventh street. He lived in Alliance, Mo., until he came here. He was a member of the local carpenters' union and will be buried under its auspices Saturday or Sunday. Definite funeral arrangements will be announced later.

REV. MR. ALLISON IS SUCCESSFUL AS BEAR HUNTER

Pastor of Central Avenue Methodist Church Bagged Two Bruins on Recent Trip to Texas.

Rev. S. R. Allison, pastor of the Central Avenue Methodist church, who returned yesterday with his family from a three weeks' trip, most of which was spent in Texas, enjoyed a very successful big game hunt while he was away. The result of his hunt was the bagging of two bears which he, himself, killed.

The hunt for place about 200 miles from El Paso in the picturesque Fort Davis mountains, one of the wildest sections of the Lone Star state.

Rev. Mr. Allison reports having enjoyed his trip, as did also his family. The first stop after leaving Albuquerque, was at Las Cruces, where the pastor attended a Methodist conference. He then proceeded to Dallas, accompanied by his family, where he was present at a conference of the trustees of the Southern Methodist university in that city. While in Dallas the Allisons were the guests of a brother of Mrs. Allison.

REPUBLICANS NOT ADDRESSED BY LEVI HUGHES

Santa Fe Ex-Progressive Does Not Appear Before Taft-Jaffa Club as Scheduled Last Evening.

For some reason not stated to the Taft-Jaffa club last night, the scheduled address by Levi A. Hughes, of Santa Fe, did not materialize as scheduled. Mr. Hughes, it was said outside, was unable to come to the city last night.

Instead, Judge Edward A. Mann and Francis E. Wood, local attorneys, spoke to a small crowd. A loud played several selections before the club room, but only a small crowd was forthcoming.

Judge Mann declared that in this campaign there were but two issues before the people, as there were before two parties before the people, the republican and the democratic parties. He declared that these two issues were the tariff, with its idea of protection for the American working man, and the form of government. He asserted that representative government was what was advocated by the republicans, while "popular" government was advocated by the progressives, and in a sense, by the democrats. He called this type of government a modern fad, resurrected from centuries of disuse which proved its inefficiency.

Mr. Wood spoke in a slow and languid manner, talking, he said, "heart to heart." Mr. Wood declared that there could be but one way in which loyal Americans could vote next Tuesday, that was being for the republican party and ticket.

Both he and Judge Mann devoted considerable attention to the death of Vice President Sherman, both paying the dead statesman a high tribute.

PRIVATE SESSION FOR THE COLORED CITIZENS.
Wednesday night a closed-door session of the club was held at which fourteen colored citizens were addressed. It is said, by former Governor E. S. Stover and Justice of the Peace George R. Craig. The meeting followed an evening of comparative quiet.

Last night the republicans held a meeting at Barajas, at which a fair crowd was out. A band played several selections and John A. Cyle, Nestor Montoya, Thomas Worther, A. B. Stroup and others made speeches.

RAILROAD MEN TO VOTE IF AWAY FROM HOME

Law Enacted by Recent Legislature Makes Possible Casting of Ballot Anywhere Within State.

Even though they should happen to be out on their run and consequently away from home, every railroad man in New Mexico will be permitted to cast his ballot this year somewhere within the state. This is made possible by a law enacted by the first state legislature designated, "An act providing that railroad employees may vote elsewhere than in the precinct in which they are registered and qualified voters when necessarily absent from such precinct."

Chairman Louis McRae, of the Benallie county democratic central committee, has called special attention to this law and states that any railroad man desiring to vote and who will be away from Albuquerque on election day, should call at the democratic headquarters and secure the necessary certificate signed by the board of registration of the precinct of the county wherein he is a qualified voter and resident. These blanks also may be secured at either the progressive or republican headquarters.

When a railroad man thus votes away from home, it is made compulsory by law for the judges of election to receive his certificate, together with the ballot cast by him, pin the two together and securely seal the same in a stamped envelope properly addressed, and mail the same to the county clerk of the county where such voter is a qualified elector, not later than the third day after such election.

Since this law was enacted primarily for the benefit of the railroad men of New Mexico, of whom there are upwards of 2,000 qualified voters, it is expected to be largely taken advantage of on next Tuesday.

BOYS BEGIN EARLY ON HALLOWE'EN BUT GET INTO TROUBLE

Because the police found that they had been tearing up property and raising Cain generally Wednesday night, half a dozen Fourth ward boys were kept at home by their parents last night, on warning from Chief of Police McMillin. The boys tore down a fence on Twelfth street Wednesday evening, apparently just for the sheer deviltry of it, and also carried out other stunts calculated to arouse the ire of citizens and taxpayers.

Their leader was yesterday taken down to the police station and given a lecture and the parents of the others were warned not to allow their sons on the streets last night unless they wanted to spend the later hours of the night and early hours of this morning in the city jail.

UNTOLD WEALTH IN FAR NORTHWEST ASSERTS JONES

Value of Natural Resources of Northern British Columbia May be Guessed Only, Says Albuquerque Mining Engineer

Northern British Columbia—"the last west," as Prof. F. A. Jones, of Albuquerque, terms it—is fast losing its frontier characteristics before the influx of emigrants from the United States. The completion of the projected route of the Grand Pacific will complete the change.

It was to investigate the mineral resources of the country adjacent to the proposed route that Professor Jones went to Canada. Arrangements for the right of way practically have been completed and the professor says only a 400-mile gap remains to be graded. The road, he says, will be finished within the next two years.

Professor Jones, who returned to Albuquerque yesterday, penetrated through the wilds of British Columbia as far as Stuart's lake, 500 miles from the nearest railroad.

The country is rich in resources, he says. The wealth in timber is beyond estimate; and minerals—copper, gold, silver, lead, coal and petroleum—are present in vast quantities. The fisheries promise to rival the Grand Bank.

Wild game abounds in the new country. The professor's party lived almost entirely on game and fish.

The resources of this rich country have been idle because no railroad has penetrated it. The completion of the Grand Pacific will market them throughout the world.

Professor Jones expects to return to that country next year to investigate coal deposits for the railroad company.

WOMAN'S CLUB WILL DISCUSS CIVIC BEAUTY

Today is the regular business session of the Woman's club, and the meeting will be opened with parliamentary practice.

A discussion by the club "Civic Beauty as a Business Asset," will follow, after which the subject musical program will be rendered:

Vocal solo—"Serenade" (Tosti), Lillian Yrisarri.

Piano solo—Allegro from Waldstein's Sonata (Bethoven), Louise Nichols.

Vocal (a) Temple Bells; (b) When I Awake, from Indian Love Lyrics by Amy Woodford Finden.

An important feature of the meeting will be a talk by Professor John D. Clark, chemist at the University of New Mexico. His subject will be "Milk as a Sanitary Product."

A social hour will end the afternoon, when refreshments will be served by Mesdames Nancy Beswick, John Bernadette, A. B. Betz and Miss Lela Arrizola.

Progressive meeting Saturday night, 8 o'clock, 204 W. Gold avenue. Speeches by prominent men. Everybody invited.

Dr. Hope has moved his office to 313 1/2 West Central avenue, over Kistler & Collister.

DEMOCRATS SPEAK BEFORE TWO BIG MEETINGS

Spanish Addresses Made to Audiences Which Turn Out Despite Weather at Del Rio and Ranchos de Atrisco.

Spanish addresses were delivered to good audiences at Del Rio and Ranchos de Atrisco last night by the democratic campaign staff, good audiences turning out at each point despite the inclement weather.

Enthusiasm ran high, and as all the speakers were able to address the voters in their native tongue, recourse to an interpreter and consequent difficulty in making themselves understood, was unnecessary.

The speakers at each meeting were: M. U. Vigil, the district attorney; H. B. Jamison, his assistant; Dennis Chavez, a young civil engineer of this city; A. Broecker and H. L. Wootton.

Mr. Wootton's address was of the old time type and all the speeches were expressions of the confidence felt in the fact that Ferguson and Wilson would win next Tuesday.

DRIVING OF PILES PROVES SLOW WORK

The work of driving piles for the repair of the bridge at Barajas, washed away last May, is progressing slowly. Since the contractors began work ten days or so ago, four piles have been driven. The piles were drilled for angle-irons before they were shipped, and in driving them the drilling causes them to buckle. A hard stratum of cobblestones, sand and clay, all mixed into a heterogeneous mass about forty feet down, causes great trouble.

Boiler and engine trouble on the pile-driver has also caused a great deal of delay.

He was already bound over to the grand jury in a similar suit by the same justice, on a warrant sworn out by the same complainant, charging assault with intent to commit murder. O'Grady declares that both the warrants are due to spite work and that they have no real foundation.

POLICE CAPTAIN IS AGAIN BOUND OVER TO THE GRAND JURY

Appearing before Justice of the Peace Jose E. Romero yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, to answer to a charge of extorting money from Frank Rojas, Police Captain P. O'Grady waived examination and was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $500.

He was already bound over to the grand jury in a similar suit by the same justice, on a warrant sworn out by the same complainant, charging assault with intent to commit murder. O'Grady declares that both the warrants are due to spite work and that they have no real foundation.
