FOREIGNERS FEAR DEFEATED TURKS MAY RESORT TO BUTCHERY

Fever of Excitement Prevails and Warships Are Badly Needed to Protect Christians at Constantinople.

SULTAN PROVIDES TO PROTECT LIFE

Mohammedan Generals Outline Plans for Surrounding and Exterminating Their Bulgarian Enemies.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Constantinople, Nov. 3.—(Unconfirmed.)—Constantinople is in a fever of excitement over the alarming reports from the field of battle.

Foreigners and natives are suffering from tension caused by the series of military disasters, and although the city is in a state of siege, crime in some quarters is unchecked. Many families are leaving the city. The people fear, first an outbreak of Moslem fanaticism by the turbulent elements, the lower classes, and secondly, a rising of hordes of maddened soldiers, who are being driven by the Bulgarians to take their last stand a few miles outside of Constantinople and then perhaps to fall back on the capital.

The battle still continues on the plains of Thrace and if the Turkish soldiers fall back within the gates of the city it is feared they would turn their guns and bayonets on those who are awaiting the outcome of the conflict.

There is a large and unruly element of the population which would be glad of any pretext for massacre and pillage. The presence of more than 10,000 Moslem refugees from the war zone, who have lost all their possessions, adds to the danger of the situation. Rumors are current that the Young Turk committee may start rioting with the object of overthrowing the government, but there have been no tangible proofs of such a plan. It is doubtful whether a rising would be directed against foreigners as much as against native Christians, but the danger to foreigners is real. If the Turkish army sustains complete defeat, the lives and property of thousands of foreigners, as well as native Christians, would be in peril.

The presence of foreign warships is of the greatest importance and will be the surest guarantee of public order generally. The government has made more severe the state of siege; strong patrols circulate through the streets and the police have received orders to use the utmost vigilance and to repress disorders rigorously.

A brigade of infantry has been despatched to Thessalonica, with orders to prevent all fugitives, principally soldiers, from going to Constantinople, but it is questionable whether the brigade under certain conditions would carry out such an order.

On Thursday the diplomats of all nations held a conference. Just what measures were decided on is not known, but the Austrian ambassador visited the foreign minister and called attention to the disquietude on the part of foreign residents respecting their safety.

Different reports of the great battle are coming in hourly. According to government officials, Naxim Pasha's plan is to surround the Bulgarians, while Mahmud Muhar Pasha is working to the northwest of Viza. A column of 20,000 will then be ordered to make a sortie from Adrianople to join hands with him and harry a Bulgarian retreat to the north.

The Turkish army at Dedagatch is to hold the western flank of the Bulgarians while the main Turkish force, occupying the line between Tcherla and Sereka, is expected to deliver the decisive blow against the enemy.

The defenses at Tcherla have been repaired and strengthened and during the last few days many guns have been mounted there, but if the Turks are beaten at Tcherla and Tcherkesskey, an effective resistance along the last line of forts is improbable.

The Turkish army is retreating in the last line of fortifications outside the capital. This was announced in the first bulletin admitting defeat in the great battle which the government issued tonight.

The ports have applied to the powers for mediation with a view to the cessation of hostilities and for the negotiation of peace. Application has been made to the embassies here and by circular to the Ottoman representatives in the European capitals.

The bulletin admitting defeat follows: "The fortunes of war are variable and it is not always possible to be successful on all sides. A people which accepts war must admit with resignation to all its consequences. To overlook this obligation is to fail in one's duty. Consequently, while it would be unwise unnecessarily to be proud over victories, if likewise would be incorrect to be alarmed at want of success."

President Gives Pleasing Record of Efficiency Made During Four Years of His Administration.

DEFICIT BECOMES HEALTHY SURPLUS

Republican Party, Says Chief Executive, Should Not Be Turned Out of Office to Make Way for Woodrow Wilson.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] New York, Nov. 3.—President Taft issued the following statement tonight shortly before his departure for Cincinnati:

"On the eve of the national election it is suitable that a short summary should be made of the reasons why the republican party is entitled to support. That party for four years has been responsible for the administration of the government and has left a record of success in effective and efficient executive administration and of executive accomplishment that is not surpassed by any administration since the war."

"It has changed a deficit of more than $50,000,000 to a surplus of more than $30,000,000 by increasing the revenue and by reducing governmental expenses."

"His achievements in legislation show that it has made definite progress so far as national legislation can produce progress, in statutes looking to the aid and relief of those classes in the community who have had reasons heretofore to complain of the unjust operations of the laws governing their relations to employers and to the community at large. The record is plain."

"Almost everybody who wants to know the truth knows that this is the case."

The same rank which on April 24th, 1912, seated Senator Romero in the state senate, held a republican convention in Albuquerque September 12th, 1912, and nominated Mr. Jaffa for congress.

Those who voted to unseat Senator Romero without a trial, without a hearing being held, without the taking of evidence of any kind, were voters in the counties mentioned may blush with shame when they read this list, but it's what the record says:

John S. Clark, of San Miguel county; Juan Navarro, of Mora county; Louis C. Hild, of San Miguel county; T. D. Burns, of Rio Arriba county; E. A. Miera, of Sandoval county; E. C. Crampton, of Colfax county; E. B. Gallegos, of Union county; Benjamin E. Pankey, of Santa Fe county; Squire Hartt, Jr., of Taos county; Federico Romero, of Valencia county; C. J. Laughren, of Luna county; H. B. Holt, of Dona Ana county; Gregory Page, of McKinley county; J. M. Bowman, of Otero county.

There were FOURTEEN of them, and a majority of these fourteen men were active participants in the republican convention at Albuquerque which nominated Mr. Jaffa for congress.

E. C. Crampton and John S. Clark, of the above named fourteen, were members of the committee on Rules and Order of Business of the republican convention which nominated Mr. Jaffa for congress.

H. B. Holt, Gregory Page and E. A. Miera, of the fourteen who voted to unseat Senator Romero, were members of the committee on Resolutions in the republican convention which nominated Mr. Jaffa for congress.

Holt was vice chairman of the Resolutions committee and probably dominated it as he dominated the senate which unseated Senator Romero.

C. J. Laughren and T. D. Burns, two others of the fourteen who voted to unseat Senator Romero, were members of the committee on Permanent Organization in the republican convention which nominated Mr. Jaffa for congress.

Benjamin E. Pankey, another of the fourteen named men, according to the newspaper accounts of the convention, was among those present and participating in the convention which nominated Mr. Jaffa for congress.

This convention, with these men, leaders in their party, occupying prominent places on its three big committees, nominated Mr. Jaffa for congress. That ought to prove that Mr. Jaffa was nominated by, and is the candidate of, the old republican ring.

But that is not all. After nominating Mr. Jaffa, this convention selected a new state central committee for the ensuing two years. This is the governing committee in the republican party and will have charge of the party affairs until the next convention, which will be just as long as the term of the office of congressman, for which place Mr. Jaffa was nominated.

This committee, to all intents and purposes, will be the republican organization of New Mexico, and will, in a large measure, voice its sentiments and dictate its policies.

On this new committee selected by the convention which nominated Mr. Jaffa, we find a number of the famous fourteen. Here's the list:

E. C. Crampton, representing Colfax county; Gregory Page, representing McKinley county; T. D. Burns, representing Rio Arriba county; E. A. Miera, representing Sandoval county; John S. Clark, representing San Miguel county.

A check the president's name occupying Mr. Romero's seat in the state senate, representing Socorro county.

The above is the record in the case. For personal reasons you might wish to vote for Mr. Jaffa, but in the face of the above facts can you vote to return to power, even through such a representative as Mr. Jaffa, this republican ring?

The Albuquerque Herald, now supporting Mr. Jaffa and swallowing his republican ring companions without a grimace, on April 25th, 1912, referring to the unseating of Senator Romero, said: "The course taken in this case is a reversion to the old-time methods, which we fondly hoped had been discarded in the state of New Mexico." The Herald does not seem so particular about discarding these "old-time methods" now, for some reason or other, but we believe the voters generally, once they understand the case, will vote for the discarding of these methods for all time to come. There is only one way to do it and that is to vote against every one of these fourteen men mentioned above, and to vote against any man who will lend himself to them and their cause at every opportunity. You will have an opportunity on tomorrow to vote against these men and their old-time methods by voting AGAINST Mr. Jaffa. Vote AGAINST Mr. Jaffa; vote AGAINST the republican ring back of him; vote AGAINST the old-time methods. Vote for a newer, cleaner, better way of doing things in New Mexico. VOTE AGAINST MR. JAFFA.

MURDERESS IS HAPPIEST IN MANY YEARS

Mrs. Pansy Hastings Lesh Glad That She Has Revealed Poisoning of Women Who Befriended Her.

ANXIOUS TO RETURN AND STAND TRIAL

If She Must Go to Penitentiary, Slayer Says She Will Be Satisfied, as She Can Start Life Anew.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Los Angeles, Nov. 3.—Declaring that she is happier than she has been in years, because of her confession yesterday to having killed two women in Missouri, Mrs. Pansy Hastings Lesh is in the city jail here tonight awaiting the arrival of Sheriff M. T. Henderson, of Pettus county, Missouri.

Except for two speeches tomorrow in his home county he has ended the struggle which has kept him hard at work since he threw his hat into the ring last spring. He spent the day with his family and was so far recovered from his bullet wound that his physician permitted him to go to church.

Colonel Roosevelt gave out his statement under the date of November 4th as his appeal on the day before election. He urged every voter to read the progressive platform before going to the polls. His statement follows:

"I wish to appeal as strongly as I can to the men and women of this country, to all good citizens throughout the union, and ask them to support this great progressive movement for righteousness and for fair dealing. The progressive movement is in the interest of every honest man and woman in the land, and therefore, we have a right to ask that all good citizens, without regard to their past political affiliations stand with us in this fight for clean politics and for the square deal in industry."

"The young woman told her story today with utmost frankness. She showed remorse and emotion only when relating the story of how she came to poison Mrs. Eliza Coo at Sedalia a year after who had caused the death of Mrs. E. M. Quaintance at Greendale, twelve miles from Sedalia."

"Mrs. Coo was good to me, though she scolded me some times. She had taken a baby to the poor farm through the rain and caught a bad cold. I nursed her and gave her two capsules about half full of rough on rats. She got worse and was so good and kind to me then that I was sorry I poisoned her, but I was afraid to tell the doctor. When she died the doctor said it was due to promine poisoning."

"I never really felt bad about causing Mrs. Quaintance's death, except that I knew it was wrong. But she and her husband were not kind to me. I was only a year old when I was sent to the orphanage. Mrs. Quaintance, who was about six years old, mistreated me and I had trouble with his wife because he encouraged me to be disrespectful to her. We quarreled one day and he took her part and that is why I gave her poison."

"After his wife's death, Mrs. Quaintance wanted me to stay with him and I refused and he got me a place with a couple about half full of rough on rats. I joined the Methodist church there and one night while I was walking home with my Sunday school teacher, I told her about an attack on me by a young man in that town. She took me to the justice of the peace, I think it was, and after a lot of questioning by him I admitted my relations with Quaintance."

"The old man came to my house that day and I guess heard about it, because he went right out to his farm and shot himself."

"I don't know why I killed either of the women. That's a question I have asked myself several times. All I know is that I wanted to get it off my mind. I used to think about it when I was alone and got depressed. If they put in the penitentiary I will serve my sentence gladly, because then I can start in over again and with a clean slate."

"When it was suggested to Mrs. Lesh that she had better have something to do with her crimes, she said: 'Possibly it might. My mother did not lead a good life and my father received about a great deal and changed his name often. But that's no excuse for me. I knew right from wrong. I have a bad temper, but I never wanted to kill any one since, even when I was a rage. I don't think now that I really wanted to kill Mrs. Quaintance and Mrs. Coo.'

"After leaving Sedalia in 1905, the young woman said she was placed in the House of the Good Shepherd in St. Louis, where she stayed a year and then ran away. 'That was the happiest year of my life, too,' she added. 'Now that I look back at it.'

Shortly afterward she married Lesh.

Bull Moose Asks That Every Man Read Progressive Platform Before He Goes to Polls on Tuesday.

Colonel Says Remedies Proposed by Other Parties Are as Inadequate as Flintlocks in Modern Warfare.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Oyster Bay, Nov. 3.—At the end of the hardest campaign of his career, Colonel Roosevelt tonight made a final appeal to the voters of the country on behalf of the progressive ticket.

Except for two speeches tomorrow in his home county he has ended the struggle which has kept him hard at work since he threw his hat into the ring last spring. He spent the day with his family and was so far recovered from his bullet wound that his physician permitted him to go to church.

EXPRESSES NO CHOICE BETWEEN CANDIDATES

Predicts If Ever Republic is Doomed to Decay, Downfall Will be Due to Political Apostasy of Its Citizens.

[By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.] Baltimore, Nov. 3.—Cardinal Gibbons, in the cathedral here today, delivered an election eve sermon designed to awaken "the supine citizen who never takes an interest in the political welfare of his country." He declared that if the future historian is called upon to record the decline and fall of the American republic, he will ascribe the cause "the indifference, lethargy and political apostasy of her own sons."

The sermon was non-partisan as to the personal preferences of the cardinal toward the three conspicuous candidates for president. He asserted his intolerance toward pessimistic prophets, who each campaign predict the end of the government unless their favorite candidate is elected and by a discussion of our form of government sought to show that the results of our election cannot seriously affect the endurance of the republic. The sermon follows:

"It is the habit of pessimistic prophets to predict that our government will soon come to an end, and that it is already in the throes of dissolution, and the disaster is sure to occur if their favorite candidate is defeated. These prophecies are usually more frequent on the eve of a presidential election. I have been listening to these dire prognostications for over half a century."

"But in every instance the American people wake up on the morning after election to find that they are disappointed by false alarms and that the government is transacting its business in the same quiet and orderly manner as before."

"I propose this morning to state as briefly as possible the grounds of my confidence in the stability and endurance of the American republic."

"By a wise provision of the constitution of the United States political authority is not concentrated in one individual or one department of the administration, but is judiciously distributed so that the balance of power may be preserved. Our general government consists of the executive, the legislative and the judicial branches. If anything goes wrong with one of these departments, the evil is checked by the other two, and usurpation of power is prevented. There is a natural jealousy among these branches. They are on the alert, anxiously watching one another, so that no one branch may exceed its legitimate bounds. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty."

"Then, again, besides the federal administration, we have state governments and county rule; we have city and town and village governments; and all these are under the control of the president; if he could at will decapitate all obnoxious subordinate rulers, with one blow, all our political liberties would be at an end. But, happily, all these lesser officials are not full autocrats in their spheres and are independent of the chief magistrate."

"Our system of government is very complex. It may be compared to a colossal engine containing innumerable wheels within wheels. Each wheel works in its own orbit, like the planetary system. If the great federal wheel gets out of order, the smaller wheels are not much affected, but keep on moving till the big machine is repaired."

"We are all familiar with the memorable Titanic disaster, which resulted in the loss of so many precious lives, as well as the peerless vessel itself. Had all the compartments of that ship been watertight, the loss of life would have been avoided."

"Now, our government is often called a ship of state. This great ship of state is divided into forty-eight minor states. Each of these states may be said to be watertight. In the sense that the engulfing of one would not involve the sinking of the other. California, for example, might be overwhelmed by the waters of a political revolution without disturbing the neighboring states of Washington, Nevada and Arizona."

"If our states were mere provinces or territories, without autonomy and sovereignty, like other republics less favored than ours, we would enjoy less stability and less hope of enduring freedom than we now possess."

"The safety and permanence, therefore, of our republic largely depend on the autonomy of the several states, without the danger of absorption by the general government. Should our government and legislators ever become the subservient creatures of the federal government they would be mere puppets, subject to the will of

CHAMPIONSHIP IS BETWEEN BADGERS AND GOPHERS

Ill Experts Agreed That Wisconsin and Minnesota Elevens Must Fight Out 1912 Honors.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—The defeat of Wisconsin by a decisive score by Wisconsin and comparatively poor showing by Minnesota which won the game by a much smaller score than was expected, were the features of the "big nine" conference games today.

Chicago is expected to improve much in later games and has an excellent chance with Minnesota, according to experts, who have followed the midway team's games. Although Wisconsin defeated Stagg's men 31 to 0, the Chicago team played a fine football game. Team work was lacking and Wisconsin line was attributed to it.

That the result of the games leaves the result of the championship between Minnesota and Wisconsin, is a forecast that has gained the widest currency among conference football men.

Outside of the conference, Michigan crushed football followers by its victory over South Dakota, after crushing predictions by Yost that the heavier team would overwhelm the Arthur men.

Cornell and Pennsylvania, Penn's coming opponents, were defeated, so prospects look for Michigan.

The most interest was centered on Harvard-Princeton game. Some faint eastern critics had picked Princeton to win, but Harvard's impetuous defense turned the scale.

CHICAGO OFFICIAL COMING; TO BE MET BY A COMMITTEE

S. Greig, vice president of the Chicago route, is expected to arrive tonight. The purpose of his visit is to be to look after the railroad's property interests in New Mexico.

Committee of friends of Mr. Greig will meet him at the Santa Fe station. They are J. E. Smit, E. J. Poleson, J. H. O'Reilly, Frank McLean, G. A. Kasebaum and T. J. Naylor.

Mr. Greig is to stay here until tomorrow night.

WOLGAST TAKES ON MANDOT TONIGHT AT NEW ORLEANS

Lightweight Champion May Lose Title in Bout with Southerner; Betting Even on Outcome.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.) New Orleans, Nov. 3.—The stage is set, the fighters are ready and the house completely sold out for the ten-round boxing bout tomorrow night at Donnell's Tottorich's arena, when Ad Wolgast, lightweight champion of the world, risks his title in a meeting with Joe Mandot, the prize of the south and acknowledged to be the most formidable rival of the Cadillac boy for the honors which the latter holds.

Indications are that the bout will draw a $20,000 house. Of this, Wolgast gets $15,000, win lose or draw, while Mandot will be satisfied with $5,000 and the chance given him to administer a knock-out and thus be returned the world's champion in his class. The referee will be Ed W. Smith, sporting editor of the Chicago Examiner.

Neither Wolgast nor Mandot did anything more than take a long walk today.

Backers of Mandot made it known this evening that they had $10,000 to bet on the French jockey boy at even money on the ten-round decision and that they could find no takers. Admirers of Wolgast evidently fear the verdict of the newspaper men here, figuring the prejudice in favor of Mandot will prove too great a handicap to risk. They say Wolgast will have to stop his man to win.

Mandot's friends are shouting that this is the first time since Wolgast has been champion that he has not been a big favorite in the betting. They are betting Tom Jones because he does not grab off wages offered him and say that is evidence that Jones thinks Mandot is the better lad.

Jones denies he has refused any bets. He claims he has taken a bundle of them and has $2,000 more to bet. He made the startling assertion tonight that Wolgast would win by the knockout route inside of three rounds.

VARSITY ELEVEN IS BACK FROM GAME AT ROSWELL

University Men Battered and Sore, But Elated That Cadets Failed to Gain Through Their Line.

Suffering from numerous bruises sustained in what they say was one of the hardest games of football ever played in the state, the varsity eleven returned last night from Roswell, where on Saturday they were defeated by the cadets by a score of 29 to 0. The game was a grueling one all the way for the military institute team outweighed the locals, nineteen pounds to the man. Notwithstanding this advantage, however, they were unable to gain consistently through the line.

The University of New Mexico team on forward passes, the speed of Williamson and efficient playing organization. The game was just what was needed to show up the weak spots and to demonstrate the efficiency of Williamson, the opposing quarterback, who really carried away the laurels for the soldier boys. They played a hard game, and did wonderful work at times, but without Williamson, the score would very likely have been a far different proposition.

While the varsity men were defeated, they say that Roswell beat them fair and square and they are not wearing any mourning about it. They played the best they knew, which was a good deal better than would appear from the score, and was a great deal better than indicated by the fact that the Indian team scored upon them in practice a scant ten days back. The main thing that the game did for them was to show the entire team and the students at the local institution, as well as the eleven is really a team and not a collection of players.

Cadkins sustained the worst injury, being gashed severely about the mouth in making a diving tackle for a runner. Luckey was the only man taken out of the game. He being knocked down and put out for several minutes by a runner's shoe coming in contact with his inferior maxillary bone. In other words, he was kicked on the jaw.

The boys declare that Roswell outplayed them on forward passes, that they had better luck, and that Williamson helped the cadets a great deal.

The game, it appears from the Roswell Morning News, was anything but a one-sided affair. Once, with the ball on the varsity's one-yard line, in the third quarter, the institute fumbled, and Laprak captured the oval. He was off like a shot and made thirty-five yards before two institute men downed him.

Closson, fullback for the cadets, did much of the stunting, carrying the ball across for a touchdown with a varsity man on his back.

Roswell plainly outplayed the locals on forward passes, the speed of Williamson and his passing ability being a large factor in this phase of their success. While the locals do not say so, it is apparent that they were outplayed in the department of the game that is winning most games this year, that is, the trick play department.

They are confident that the Agricultural team will be able to defeat the cadets, and believe that with the addition of some fast and tricky plays they will clean up on the Aggies when they come here November 16th. At all events, that game will be worth anybody a cent.

The university boys will be hard at work this afternoon again, getting ready for the Aggies and for the Indians, whom they meet Saturday. They believe that they have now solved the proposition of holding anything that strikes their line, from a billy goat to a Mallet locomotive. Attention will consequently be concentrated upon trick plays, freak formations and forward passing.

The cadets weighed an average of 159, the University eleven an average of 140 4-11 pounds to the man.

STEEL ORDERS ARE PLACED FOR LATE NEXT YEAR

Mills Work to Capacity and Demand Cannot be Supplied as Rapidly as Trade Wishes to Absorb Stocks.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) New York, Nov. 3.—The most significant feature in the steel trade last week was the placing of heavy contracts for finished steel products by large consumers for shipment over the third and fourth quarters of 1913.

Manufacturers outside of railroad equipment matters apparently have become convinced of the necessity of covering their requirements far ahead to insure reasonable shipments next year. The heavy contracts included steel plates, hoops and bands, steel pipe and tin plate as well as rails.

Contracts for 241,000 tons of rails were placed directly with the mills, or reservations were made for 1913 rollings. The railroads placed orders for nearly 15,000 cars and ninety-seven locomotives, with inquiries still in the market for 49,000 cars and 200 locomotives.

GRAPHIC STORY OF BLOODY BATTLE AND ROUT OF TURK ARMY

Bulgarian Artillery Mows Down Enemy Who Offer Stubborn But Ineffectual Resistance to Attack.

Dreadful Scenes of Carnage on Field

Ottoman Cavalry Make Furious Charge But Nearly the Whole Force is Destroyed by Machine Guns.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) London, Nov. 4.—The Times correspondent with Nazim Pasha's army, pays tribute to the Turkish retreat after the battle of Lule Burgas. He says:

"In all my long experience of the miserable scenes of war, I have observed nothing finer than the retirement of the Turkish infantry. Just as they scattered into action, so they scattered out, beneath a terrific fire from the Bulgarian artillery."

"There was no mass formation in the retirement. It seemed as if suddenly the whole land had become people. The men were in hundreds, but they were shaken out in wonderful extension. They seemed to care nothing for the rain of metal which swept down upon them. Nor could I see that the fearful storm of shrapnel and any destruction among those men whose steps it could not even hasten."

"Slowly and deliberately, with indomitable dignity, the Turkish infantry retired and we retired with them. Nor had they to retire far, for this country is one long succession of admirable positions from Lule Burgas to Tehtaltia."

The correspondent of the Chronicle, who was with the Turkish command-in-chief during part of the operations, calls the battle in "Thrace" a terrible and appalling defeat.

After making his way back to Constantinople and thence to Constantia, he sends the following:

"Brigades dissolved into regiments, regiments into companies, companies into small groups. By handouts the army has found its way back to Tehtaltia. The Bulgarian artillery cruised moving them down in thousands."

Describing the fighting at Lule Burgas, the correspondent says that throughout, the superiority of the Bulgarian artillery was very pronounced. The Turks, unable to withstand the murderous fire, slowly withdrew. The numbers being dead and the horses killed, the guns were left to the enemy.

"Having successfully and effectually silenced the life of the Turks, the Bulgarians stormed the town (Lule Burgas), with the bayonet. The great part of the Turkish garrison already had withdrawn. Those who remained as the rear guard were caught in a trap. The men of the Fourth corps, although without food for two days, offered stubborn resistance and died to a man."

"After raising the flag on the principal mosque, the Bulgarians attacked the railway station four miles distant. As they approached they were subjected to a fierce fire from the batteries at the station and the neighboring hills. While the confusion caused by the continued fire was at its height, the Turkish cavalry under Salih Pasha, dashed from concealment with their swords and shot. 'Allah! Allah!' swept like a tornado on the exposed infantry. The Bulgarians turned, but the Turks simply rode them down, causing extraordinary havoc."

"Elated by success, the Turks continued the forward movement and suddenly came within the fire of the Bulgarian machine guns which brought both the Turks and their horses to the ground, a torn and tangled mass. Few of them came back. The Bulgarians recovering their temporary check, rushed forward."

"The great artillery duel around Lule Burgas lasted nearly all day. The Turks ammunition before night, practically gave out."

"Many of the gunners awaited death, which came swiftly with true Ottoman courage. It became simply a short respite. The Turks were badly in need of food, but the Turkish commissariat is non-existent. The dead and wounded lay everywhere. Doctors were few and there were no ambulances. Some attempt was made to rescue the wounded, but the greater number perished during the bitter cold of the night."

"The retreat began in the morning. For an hour it was carried out in good order. Two hours after sunrise the Bulgarians started in pursuit. Thenceforward it was a disorderly rout."

"Pressed by the mass behind, the Bulgarians lost all semblance of an organized army. The men abandoned all their rifles, haversacks and baggage. These fell into the hands of the enemy. The wounded had to shift for themselves. Those who were unable to walk, limped along, posied in the flight."

"By noon shells were whistling around them and struck down some of the unhappy fugitives."

"The correspondent says the last news of Mukhtar Pasha, who commanded the right wing, was that he was slowly retreating in tolerably good order. He was fiercely contesting his ground, but was being heavily and sacrificing his men cheerfully in the hope of giving the other shattered half of the Turkish army breathing time."

and the Turkish government has asked the powers to intervene. An official bulletin was issued by the government at Constantinople tonight, admitting defeat at the hands of the Bulgarians in the great battle on the Thracian plains.

Application was made to the embassies in Constantinople tonight for mediation by the powers and to end the hostilities and arrange a peace agreement.

The ambassadors, prior to this, had asked the powers to grant permission to each of the great powers to send one warship through the Dardanelles and this request had been complied with. The only guarantee of safety for the native Christians and perhaps foreigners in Constantinople is to be found in the presence of the warships of the great powers in the harbor of the Turkish capital.

It is the general belief that Bulgaria will refuse to listen to anything in the way of intervention until the Bulgarian army is at the gates of Constantinople and will insist that Turkey make an appeal direct to the allies without interference from the powers.

The powers have not been able to agree upon the French premier's formula of "territorial indisposition," which is not acceptable to Austria or Germany. The powers are taking steps for the protection of Christians and their own political interests in Turkey. One warship in addition to the vessels already dispatched to Turkish ports, will be sent through the Dardanelles by each of the powers.

GOVERNOR HADLEY FIRST CHOICE FOR VICE PRESIDENT

Eighteen of Twenty-Four Members of Republican National Committee So Far to Report Declare for Missourian.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) New York, Nov. 3.—Eighteen of twenty-four members of the republican national committee who have notified Chairman Charles D. Hilles of the choice of a vice presidential candidate to succeed the late James S. Sherman, favor Governor Hadley, of Missouri.

In a statement tonight, Chairman Hilles said no selection would be made by the national committee until November 12th, but he made public the desires of the twenty-four committee members who have openly stated their choice of those aside from the majority for Governor Hadley. Two favored John W. Wainwright, of Philadelphia; one, Secretary Sherman; one, Congressman S. W. McCall, of Massachusetts; one, Justice Hughes, one, Governor Goldsborough, of Maryland.

Among the members of the committee who have publicly announced their preference for Hadley are Max Gregory, of Texas; (Hadley or Wainwright); Harlow, of Montana; Maxson, of Nevada; Peckton, of Wyoming; Shivers, of New Mexico.

Governor Hadley also had been recommended by State Chairman Herbert W. Clark, of New Mexico; State Chairman McElroy, of Colorado; and Congressman E. W. Martin, of South Dakota.

LARGE DELEGATION IS COMING FROM TUCUMCARI

Forty Teachers and Pupils Will Visit Albuquerque This Week to Attend Educational Association Meeting.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.) Tucumcari, N. M., Nov. 3.—The board of directors of a special meeting last week decided to declare this week a vacation for the boys and girls of the Tucumcari public schools. This was done to allow the teachers to attend the New Mexico Educational association which convenes at Albuquerque next week, beginning on Wednesday. The teaching force will attend as a body, and several of the students of the high school will also attend. Superintendent Pack reports an excellent showing will be made by teachers in other parts of the county, so that Quay will again be well represented at the forthcoming meeting of the pedagogues. This county has taken the banner for attendance the last two years, and will no doubt do so again.

There will be a number of out of town pupils that will take advantage of this vacation to visit father and mother next week. This will be the last opportunity to do so until the Christmas vacation.

Miss Maple Naefus, who will represent the Tucumcari high school in the inter-scholastic debate at Albuquerque will leave for that place on Tuesday morning, along with about forty others who are ready to do what they can to advance the cause of the educators. Miss Naefus was second place in the last contest, and she now stands an excellent chance to bring back the gold medal on this occasion.

The members of the Tucumcari high school orchestra have shown their willingness to stand the fare and incidental expenses to make the trip to Albuquerque and Turkish music for the meeting.

ALBUQUERQUE NEW MEXICO

FACTS ABOUT WOOL.

The wool industry is an important one in New Mexico, but it does not mean so much to the state as some of our hysterical friends, who never owned even a lamb, would have the public believe. But even if the industry were worth $25,000,000 a year to New Mexico, we have it on the authority of Hon. Levi Hughes that the proposed democratic tariff bill will give much more actual protection than is now secured under the republican "shell game," riddled up in the interest of the manufacturers.

However, relative to the actual value of the wool industry, the Santa Fe Eagle says:

"The tariff editor of the Albuquerque Evening Herald has stated several times recently that the value of the annual product of wool in New Mexico is $5,000,000, and has attempted to frighten the voters of the state into voting the republican ticket in order to protect this great industry."

"We have suspicions that the old comptometer has been patched up and that it is now in the office of the Herald. This machine has a reputation for twisting figures in a most unaccountable manner and it has increased the wool production of New Mexico by nearly $5,000,000."

The statistical abstract of the United States places the production of wool in New Mexico for the year 1911 at 20,250,000 pounds of the value of $3,804,300 and the sheep of shearing age in the state at 3,000,000. According to the statistical abstract the average fleece is a little less than seven pounds, but if the figures of the Herald are to be accepted, instead of the figures prepared by the bureau of statistics, under the direction of the secretary of commerce and labor, the average New Mexico sheep would have to produce about seventeen pounds of wool. There are sheep that produce more than seventeen pounds of wool, but the average sheep in New Mexico falls far short of it.

The total value of wool produced in New Mexico per year amounts to about $10 per capita for the total population of the state and the entire amount does not represent more than the additional cost to the consumer of manufactured woolen goods under the protective tariff. The consumers of New Mexico would better ponder the wool growers of the state than they do prices for their woolen goods."

UNFORTUNATE FOR NEW MEXICO.

It is unfortunate that an effort is being made to inject local prejudices into the campaign that is just closing. The Las Vegas Optic attempts to arouse sentiment against Hon. H. H. Ferguson because he is a resident of Bernalillo county. Only one congressional man can be elected from New Mexico. He can be elected from only one county in New Mexico. He should represent every county in New Mexico.

The Portales Times, edited by Mr. T. J. Molinari, is attempting to have the people of the Pecos Valley vote for Hon. Nathan Jaffa on the ground that he will be the representative of that section of the state rather than the representative of New Mexico. The Portales Times says:

"There is no doubt but that Mr. Ferguson is a very gifted man in his own peculiar way; also that his aims, ideas, his never been questioned, but of what benefit is all this to the people of eastern New Mexico? What will it profit us to send the most gifted man in this broad land to congress if his talents are all at the disposal of the people of the west side? All the oratory and personal magnetism that could possibly be hidden in the anatomy of any man would avail us little unless it was used to our own advantage. Mr. Ferguson is a man whose every interest is centered in the western part of the state, hence any good thing that might fall to New Mexico would come from him to wield his influence for the certain portion of the state where he lives and where he has his money invested. The same reasoning will also apply to Mr. Jaffa, only that instead of the western part of the state Mr. Jaffa has his home and his personal interests on this side of the state and will by his very reasoning use his talents and his influence for the eastern tier of counties."

It is to be regretted that Mr. Molinari is attempting to arouse prejudice against Bernalillo county. No appeal has been made by Mr. Ferguson or his friends to the voters in this county because he is a local man. No effort has been made to appeal to the voters of western New Mexico on the ground that Mr. Jaffa would unfairly use his influence as a member of congress in the interest of the eastern part of the state.

It was reported some time ago that Mr. Jaffa himself had made a speech at Durango, south of Roswell, in which he said if elected he would do all in his power first to serve the interests of the section of the state in which he lived. The Journal refused to print the article because we did not know all that Mr. Jaffa said and we did not want to arouse prejudice in the western part of the state against the eastern part.

Also we know that if Mr. Jaffa should be elected he would not be able to do anything in the next congress for any part of the state. So there was no fear of any effective discrimination, whatever his will might be.

But the people of New Mexico will not forget that the interests of this state are one. No section of it can be hoisted at the expense of any other section.

Resides, Mr. Ferguson was the unanimous choice of the democrats of every county in the Pecos valley. They were strong for him because they knew him. He has been quite as friendly to them at all times as he has been to his home county.

The people of Curry, Roosevelt, Chavez and Eddy counties should show their disapprobation at the polls of the spirit displayed by the Portales Times. It would be ruinous to New Mexico. It would damage the Pecos valley more than any other counties of the state, because the other counties would resent any effort by them to secure an unfair advantage.

The Journal speaks for all New Mexico. It is supported by every county in the state. Only about one-third of its circulation is in Bernalillo county and it makes every effort to cover all important news in every locality. It reports every locality just as far as possible. It gave its columns just as freely to the fair at Roswell as it did to the fair at Albuquerque. Every item of news it could secure that would help Curry county or Grant or Luna or Dona Ana or San Miguel or Union—from any county, in fact—has been gladly printed.

That is the spirit of the Journal. It is the spirit of Ferguson. It should be the spirit of Jaffa and of Molinari and of the Las Vegas Optic. It should be the spirit of New Mexico.

VOTE YOUR SENTIMENTS.

New Mexico will take part in a national election tomorrow for the first time. It is important that a full vote be cast. Heretofore much money has been used in county and state elections. This year the law has a stringent prohibition against it. The results must indicate the preference of the voter, otherwise there is likely to be trouble.

While the Journal firmly believes that the people of New Mexico will vote their interests best by voting for Hon. H. H. Ferguson, and while every indication points to his reelection, if a majority of the voters should think otherwise and cast their ballots that way without having yielded to any illegitimate influence, we will cheerfully bow to the will thus expressed.

From every part of the state come reports of gains from the standard republicans. It is not because men have ceased to be republicans, but because the party has fallen into the hands of unworthy men and must be rescued.

The only way to rescue it is to vote the democratic ticket this year and then undertake to have a reorganization that will have the good of the state in view first. Heretofore, the party has been run in the interests of a "gang."

BALKAN WAR RESULTS.

After that splendid act of treason had been consummated by the signing of the Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1776, Benjamin Franklin said to his fellow patriots: "We must now hang together or we will hang apart."

The Balkan states have reached the conclusion that they must hang together or they will be crushed by the power of the Turks, or by some of the big nations of Europe.

The great point to be decided now is what will be done with Constantinople. It is quite certain that Russia will not permit any other power to hold the outlet from the Black sea to the Mediterranean, and thence to the Pacific and the Atlantic oceans.

So far as we know, the neutralization of Constantinople, with its command of the Bosphorus and the Dardanelles, has not been suggested. That has been done with Switzerland, Belgium and certain other territory. It might be done with Constantinople. Should that policy be adopted, it is likely that a commission of the great powers would be placed in charge and that the dominions of the sultan would be confined to Asia, or it might be completely extinguished.

TRYING TO "CON" THE VOTERS.

The Evening Blade organ says: "Taft's fearless votes of vicious democratic legislation has saved over $5,000,000 a year to this state."

The financial wizard who wrote that is wasting his time on North Second street—he should be employed on Wall street.

And another: "No foe of local controversy obscures this issue. It is plain, clear and unmistakable—Co."

issue of Prosperity versus Hard Times.
 The "owners" should not kick about hard times. They got $250 for selling out their editorial space during this campaign.

More con: "President William H. Taft has been the loyal friend of New Mexico."
 If we remember correctly, it was this portly gentleman who vetoed the statehood bill, keeping us out of the Union. We would like for the "owners" to be more explicit and file a bill of particulars wherein the Honorable Taft ever showed any affection for us.

THINK IT OVER.

Before casting your ballot tomorrow, think it over carefully as to whether H. H. Ferguson or Nathan Jaffa can best serve the interests of New Mexico in the next congress. Remember that the next administration will be democratic and that the democrats will have an overwhelming majority in the next congress. While Woodrow Wilson will appreciate having the electoral vote of this state, his assured majority in the electoral college will be greater than the electoral vote of forty such states as New Mexico. Make up your mind as to a citizen of this state whether it is to your interest to vote for Mr. Ferguson or for Mr. Jaffa, and then cast your ballot, not because you are a republican or a democrat, but for the man who can do the most good as your representative in congress.

WEATHER CHANGES PREDICTED BY BUREAU

Storm West of Rocky Mountains is Moving Eastward, Followed by Higher Temperature.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
 Washington, Nov. 3.—A storm center west of the Rocky mountains is coming eastward, bringing local rains and snows for the northern and central portions of the country. The storm, according to the weather bureau's weekly bulletin, will prevail over the great central valleys Tuesday, and the eastern states about Wednesday.

This disturbance, says the bulletin, will be preceded by a general rise in temperature the first of the week in the eastern and southern states and be followed by a change to colder weather which will appear in the northwest Tuesday or Wednesday. Another storm attended by general precipitation will prevail over the middle west Friday or Saturday, and the eastern states near the close of the week. A change to decidedly warmer weather will follow.

Joseph McCaffrey, Vice Pres. for Neb. Growers of America, Omaha states: "I cheerfully recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a sure cure for coughs and colds. I have used it myself and have recommended it to others who have since told me of its great curative power in diseases of the throat and lungs."

ATTACHMENT FOR HORSE LEADS TO TRAGEDY

Arizona Miner, Brooding Over Ill-Treatment of Equine, Kills Animal and Then Attempts Own Life.

 Bisbee, Ariz., Nov. 3.—His remarkable attachment for a horse, the use of which had been denied him, led Glen Shipley, a young miner to kill the horse and then attempt to commit suicide after gaining forcible possession of the animal.

Early this morning Shipley went to the livery stable where the horse was kept, held up the man in charge at the point of a revolver, rode the animal into the hills and at a point five miles from town gave the horse a lead feed of oats and then put a bullet through his head. Lying down beside the dead horse, Shipley sent a bullet through his body just below the heart.

Shipley has used the horse for six years and recently he quarreled with the stableman because of the use of a check rein. He had previously complained that others who rented the animal mistreated it and frequently he rented the horse and kept it tied up all the day so careless drivers might not get it.

Prospectors heard the shots and brought Shipley to town. At the hospital it was said that he had a chance to recover.

GOVERNOR WILSON FIRST LEGISLATURE SUSTAINS SCALP WOUND IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Limousine Hits Bump in Road and Democratic Candidate is Thrown Against Steel Rib in Top of Car.

PHYSICIAN PRONOUNCES INJURY NOT SERIOUS

Victim Reassures Anxious Friends and Asserts He is Not Suffering in Least from Laceration.

 Princeton, N. J., Nov. 3.—Governor Woodrow Wilson wears a narrow strip of colloid and gauze across the top of his head, covering a scalp wound three inches long, which he received early today in a motor car mishap on the way home from Red Bank, N. J.

His auto struck a mound in the road and jolted him up against a steel rib in the roof of the limousine car. The wound is not serious and the democratic presidential nominee will fill his speaking engagements in Paterson and Passaic, N. J. tomorrow night.

Tonight the governor was in the parlor of his home, the center of a group of friends. There was nothing in his manner to indicate that he met with any mishap. He said he did not feel the wound in the slightest degree.

Dr. J. M. Conocan, the governor's family physician, who dressed the wound, issued the following statement tonight:

"When I saw Governor Wilson this afternoon I found he had received a laceration of the scalp about three inches in length. Otherwise he was in good condition and seemed to be suffering no ill effects."
 The governor's family was kept busy answering the telephone tonight, alleviating the worry of friends who had heard alarming reports about the accident.

The mishap occurred in the early hours of the morning. The governor had spoken last night at Red Bank and left for Princeton shortly before 11 o'clock. He rode in the limousine car of Abraham Lelke, a New York lawyer who lives at Red Bank, accompanied by Captain William J. McDonald, his personal body guard, who was shaken up and bruised.

"The machine was running about fifteen miles an hour," said the governor, "and we were going very smoothly near Hightstown when the mishap came. When we struck, Captain McDonald and I were thrown against the roof of the car. I felt of my head and found that it was bleeding. I knew I was not severely hurt, but knew that it was imprudent to continue the journey in the cold, so we stopped some passersby and within a few minutes found the home of Dr. Titus at Hightstown. He dressed the wound carefully and cleaned it, and we went on to Princeton."

The physician shaved the governor's hair immediately surrounding the injury and the strip of antiseptic plaster partly covered the bald spot.

RESULTS DOUBTFUL IN COLORADO ELECTIONS

Progressives Claim It for Roosevelt and Democrats Feel Sure of Carrying State for Wilson; Taft Men Hope.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
 Denver, Nov. 3.—Hundreds of meetings in all the cities and towns of the state yesterday practically closed the speaking campaign for all parties, and now the leaders are directing their attention toward turning out their full strength at the polls next Tuesday.

The question of which of the three leading parties will carry the state is a mooted one, but Roosevelt is indicated as having the advantage.

Both the democratic and progressive state chairmen expressed confidence tonight that their national, state and county tickets would be successful. The republican chairman expects Taft to carry Colorado by a small majority. An amendment to the state constitution providing for state-wide prohibition is one of the issues that is attracting greatest interest.

PROGRESSIVES BELIEVED STRONGEST IN ONLY TERRITORY ON THE AMERICAN CONTINENT; LOCAL ISSUES TO FRONT.

 Juneau, Alaska, Nov. 3.—Alaska territory will elect next Tuesday its first legislature, composed of eight senators and sixteen representatives. There are four parties in the territory, ranking numerically as follows:
 Progressives, republicans, socialists and democrats.
 In the large mining towns the socialists are strong and the republican and democratic parties have failed in such places. The progressives are headed by Delegate to Congress Wickensham. The party platforms treat of issues vital to Alaska, such as development of the mineral resources, removal of fish traps, restriction of fishing privileges to Americans, prohibition of the use of bearing in manufacture of fertilizer and votes for women. The legislature will meet at Juneau in March.

WYOMING CLAIMED FOR WILSON BY 11,000 VOTES

Vigorous Fight is Waged by All Parties in State Heretofore Regarded as Stronghold of Standpat Republicans.

 Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 3.—The campaign in Wyoming will be carried on vigorously up to the night before election. Tomorrow night Senator F. E. Warren, republican, and T. E. Foley, democratic candidate for congress, both will speak at mass meetings here.

Chairman S. G. Hopkins has not changed his estimate of a 11,000 democratic plurality in Wyoming for Governor Wilson, Patrick Sullivan, republican chairman, says Taft will carry the state by a comfortable majority, that Congressman Mondell will be elected by a plurality of 5,000 and that Senator Warren will carry the next legislature by over 50. The progressive party claims the state for Roosevelt by a small majority.

FORMER BANKER OF TAOS CONVICTED OF FELONY

Jury Finds A. C. Probert Guilty of Embezzlement of Funds Held in Escrow; Recalls Checkered Career.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.)
 Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 3.—A telephone message received here today from Taos announced the conviction there last night of A. C. Probert, formerly vice president and cashier of the State Savings Bank of Taos, which institution closed its doors about a year ago, following an examination by the traveling auditor, who reported the bank in an insolvent condition. Probert was indicted for embezzlement of escrow funds belonging to Rock Clifford, and it was upon this charge that he was found guilty.

He came to New Mexico several years ago and organized the State Savings bank, of which Hubert E. Probert, a relative, was the president, and Henry Gonzales assistant cashier.

HAPPY WOMEN

Plenty of Them in Albuquerque, and Good Reasons for It.

Wouldn't any woman be happy. After years of backache suffering, Days of misery, nights of unrest, The distress of urinary troubles, What she finds freedom.

Many readers will profit by the following:
 Mrs. E. Adair, 817 S. Edith St., Albuquerque, N. Mex., says: "Two and a half years ago I had Doan's Kidney Pills and was so pleased with the benefit I obtained that I was glad to publicly recommend them. In giving this second statement it is my desire to show that I value this remedy as highly as ever. I had such severe pains across my loins and between my shoulders that I was greatly inconvenienced in getting around. The contents of one box of Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me so greatly that I could not do otherwise than praise them."

MEXICAN CHARGED WITH KIDNAPING AMERICANS

Jury Returns Verdict of Guilty and Recommends Sentence of Four Years in Penitentiary as Punishment.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
 El Paso, Nov. 3.—Charged with kidnaping two Americans on American soil and delivering them to a foreign army, is the unique charge of which Ramon Nunez stands convicted. The jury of a district court here returned the verdict late last night, recommending a sentence of four years.

The conviction will tend to lower the claim for $50,000 each of Lawrence Converse and Edwin Bluff against the Mexican government for their detention by Mexican federal troops and their imprisonment in the Juarez jail prior to the capture of the town by Madero's revolutionists last year. Nunez was charged with kidnaping the young Americans below Tornillo, Tex., and delivering them to General Navarro. This appeal of the claim case is before the army board now operating out of El Paso in investigating American claims by order of congress.

BUSINESS DEMANDS CAUSE STRINGENT MONEY MARKET

Disbursements of Profits for November Show Increase of $13,000,000 Over Same Period Last Year.

Returns from wheat threshing and corn husking raised the estimates of the grain yield. Railroad net earnings indicated record returns in many cases. The country's bank clearings and the extent of the borrowing demand and the requirements of circulation witnessed the activity of trade. This dislocation of the relief anticipated by recovery to foreign money markets continued to influence the financial markets with the rapid course of events in southern Europe. The rise of the official discount by the Bank of France to 4 per cent at the conclusion of the settlement was an unsettling influence. This rate has not been touched since the panic in 1907 in New York. Ninety-day loans in New York, in some cases, have commanded a premium for the first time since early in 1909.

HURRICANE SWEEPS THROUGH ACAPULCO

San Diego, Cal., Nov. 3.—Telegrams from Acapulco received today report much damage done by a hurricane there yesterday. The little steamer Cora Belle and nine iron lighters were sunk, over one thousand tons of coal being lost. The wharf was damaged and the coal shed and packing house went down. Buildings in different parts of the city were unroofed. So far as known there was no loss of life. The cruiser Maryland, which is at Acapulco, will attempt to raise the sunken lighters.

MOTIONS FOR NEW TRIALS WILL BE HEARD TODAY

Counsel for Demecio Delgadillo and for Theodore Goulet to Make Another Effort to Free Clients.

Motions for new trials in the cases of the State vs. Demecio Delgadillo and of the State vs. Theodore Goulet will be argued today, the first named coming up at 10 o'clock this morning before Judge Herbert F. Reynolds, of the district court.

Delgadillo was convicted of murder in the first degree at the term of court just closing, and Goulet, who was charged with shooting Policeman Alex Knapp last January, was convicted of murder in the second degree.

Delgadillo is said to have shot and killed a woman named Solidad Zarrazino, with whom he was enamored. The trial was quite a sensational one, evidence being introduced to show that Delgadillo had threatened the life of his alleged victim several times. Most of the evidence was purely circumstantial. The main point made by the defense was the testimony by O. A. Burtner, a gun and bullet expert, that the bullet which had caused the woman's death had been fired from a gun of different caliber than that found on Delgadillo when he was arrested.

The sentencing of prisoners will be delayed until the court has settled whether or not these motions will be sustained and new trials accorded the convicted men. Likely the sentencing of the prisoners convicted and those who pleaded guilty at this term will take place Wednesday.

PROGRESSIVES HEAR PARTY ORATORS AT COURT HOUSE

Audience That Fills Auditorium Attends Meeting; B. Ruppe, Henry Gleason, Modesto C. Ortiz and J. B. Burg Speak.

A crowd of about 200 attended the progressive meeting held last night at the court house. Jesus Romero, county chairman, presided.

The speakers were B. Ruppe, Henry Gleason, Modesto C. Ortiz and John Barton Burg. Mr. Burg's speech was the only one delivered in English.

The speakers were enthusiastically applauded and especially the mention of the name of Colonel Roosevelt evoked applause.

Tonight the progressive county campaign will be brought to a close with a rousing meeting in Martinez, where the same quartet of speakers will deliver addresses to the voters.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

Robert Neal Curry.

Robert Neal Curry, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Curry, of 812 North Fourth street, died yesterday.

The baby passed away six and a half hours after his birth. The funeral will be held from the family home this morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Hugh A. Cooper officiating. Burial will be in Parkview cemetery. The funeral services, as well as the burial, will be private.

Mrs. Clara Battelle.

The body of Mrs. Clara Battelle, who died here yesterday after a residence of two and a half years in this city, will be in state at Strong Brothers' chapel today from 10 o'clock until 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Battelle was 54 years of age, she leaves a husband. She died at her home, 231 North Broadway.

The body will be shipped this afternoon on No. 2 to Greenville, Pa., for burial.

J. P. Roth.

E. L. Winstead, of Richmond, Cal., a brother-in-law of John P. Roth, who died here Saturday after a residence of two months in the city, will arrive tonight to take charge of the body and arrange the funeral. Preliminary arrangements will be announced after his arrival.

Mr. Roth was a car repairer who had been treated at the Santa Fe Coast line hospital. He hailed from Berkeley, Cal. The body will be shipped to Richmond for burial. He was 22 years of age and unmarried.

DEMOCRATS GAIN IN VALENCIA COUNTY SAY SPEAKERS

A. Broessier and H. B. Jamison Address Good Crowds at Tome and Los Lentes on Issues of Campaign.

That the democratic party had gained greatly in Valencia county in the present campaign was the statement made last night by Assistant District Attorney H. B. Jamison, who returned during the evening from a short campaigning trip in that section. Mr. Jamison was accompanied by A. Broessier.

The two spoke yesterday at Tome, where a crowd of over 150 people turned out to hear them. Mr. Jamison said: "They certainly seemed strongly favorable to the democrats this year, and you know that Tome has always been a republican stronghold. We had a good crowd there, over 140, and they all listened with great attention. When we had finished our speeches, we distributed democratic literature to them, and they went for it just like it was hot cakes."

ETERNAL FATHER AMONG THE AUDITORS AT TOME

"One of the features of the meeting was an aged priest, Father Res-salder, whom the people down there call 'The Eternal Father.' This aged priest has been in charge of the parish at Tome fifty-six years, first coming there in 1856. He is believed to be the man longest in charge of a single church in the state."

"The father listened with the others to what we had to say."

"After leaving Tome, we went to Los Lentes, which is about a mile and a half from Los Lunas. Although it is but a small place, there were forty people there to hear us. They were so enthusiastic as the crowd at Tome had been."

DEMOCRATS ARE TO MEET TONIGHT AT HEADQUARTERS

County Chairman McRae Promises That Important Matters Will Come Up; Fifty Party Men Volunteer.

A meeting of democratic workers at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the party headquarters has been called by Louis A. McRae, county chairman.

Matters of importance are to be considered, according to Mr. McRae, and he urges all volunteer workers to be present at this meeting. Fifty democrats have volunteered as workers and more are expected to offer their services at the meeting tonight.

COYOTE CAPTURED ALIVE BY TRIO OF LOCAL NIMRODS

A party of Albuquerque nimrods, composed of Louis Newman, Leo Garcia and Ivan Mohan, yesterday while hunting on the Rio Puerco, captured alive a full grown coyote.

The boys cornered the coyote in a large crevice and after considerable maneuvering, finally roped the animal, hog-tied it and brought it back with them.

They are undecided whether to dispatch the coyote and secure the bounty of $2 on its scalp or sell it to some menagerie.

MUSICAL PROGRAM THIS EVENING AT THE Y. W. C. A.

It will be "Mendelssohn evening" tonight at the Y. W. C. A., when a specially prepared program of Mendelssohn music will be rendered.

Mrs. Mabel Stevens Hines will give a brief talk on the music of the famous composer, following which the pupils of Mrs. Bradford will render selections from "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

While the entertainment is to be a privileged one for Y. W. C. A. members, each member will be entitled to invite two friends.

FAST DRIVING LANDS TWO MEN IN JAIL

Fast driving, loud and obscene talking, and resisting an officer last night landed Joe Meyers, and A. Cavalieri in the city jail. They were arrested by Mounted Policeman A. J. McKee at Central Avenue and Broadway last evening about 6:30. McKee declared that he could hear them when they left First street.

There was a third youth in the crowd, but he jumped from the buggy and got away, despite a couple of shots fired by McKee to frighten him. The horse which the trio had been driving was in a pitiable condition from fast driving. It belonged to a localivery stable.

REPUBLICAN VOTES OPINION PUBLICA WILL HELP ELECT WOODROW WILSON

Hon. Felix Martinez, of El Paso, in Interview Declares Fear of Roosevelt Insures Democratic Success.

"Fear of the possibility of Colonel Roosevelt being elected on Tuesday is going to result in Governor Wilson polling a large standstill republican vote in the pivotal states—New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Illinois. The opposition to Roosevelt among the old guard is so bitter, that rather than see Roosevelt elected, the republicans who are for Taft, or at least thousands of them, will vote for Mr. Wilson."

This is the logical way in which Hon. Felix Martinez, capitalist and democratic leader, summed up the national political situation last night, a short time before he boarded a train for his home at El Paso.

Mr. Martinez talked interestingly of the national campaign, as well as of the probable outcome in New Mexico. "In my opinion, the total vote polled in New Mexico on Tuesday will perhaps not exceed 65 per cent. It may fall below that. Of course, this will, in a way, redound to the benefit of the democrats."

"From what I know of political conditions in New Mexico and the results of the three-cornered political campaign waged throughout the state, Mr. Ferguson should be re-elected and Governor Wilson should get a plurality in the state. I would not venture a prediction as to the probable plurality for either of the candidates."

"There is no reasonable man who will deny, that if elected, Mr. Wilson will make a good president. He is a big man and will solve the intricate political, industrial and social problems of the country in a way satisfactory to the great masses of the American people."

CRYING NEED FOR DESIRABLE RENTING HOUSES IN CITY

That Albuquerque is rapidly growing in population is shown by the fact that every desirable renting house in the city is now occupied, with the demand for more in excess of the supply.

True there are any number of houses for rent, but for the most part these are situated in undesirable localities or else they are so badly in need of repair as to be practically uninhabitable.

Several families, who had come here to spend the winter, left the city yesterday for El Paso, having failed to find a suitable place in which to live during the winter.

The scarcity of houses has called attention to the urgent need of a desirable family hotel in Albuquerque, said a prominent citizen yesterday. Such a hotel, if moderate in its prices, would reap a harvest the year around, in his opinion.

SANTA FE DE LUXE RE-ENTERS SERVICE ON DECEMBER TENTH

The Santa Fe de Luxe, the first extra fare trans-continental train, which ran all last winter on a six-to-three hour schedule, will again be placed in service on December 10th, according to an announcement in the Railway Age-Gazette. The first train will leave Chicago on that date, reaching this city about thirty hours after its start. The de Luxe westbound is known as No. 15, eastbound as No. 26.

The train is composed of all-steel equipment, generally of only five cars, and is handled over the whole line as the particular pet of all the employees. A minute's tardiness for this train is a calamity, yet last year it was several hours late more than once, due mostly to unavoidable causes.

An extra fare of $25 is charged on it.

JAMES MENDEZ CAZEN IN HANDS OF POLICE

James Mendez, a Cuban negro who has been in trouble here several times, and who was sentenced to a term in jail for the theft of a number of cigars from the New Mexico Cigar Company, not very long ago, was yesterday evening arrested again. This time the charge was that he had stolen a shirt from Severino Jolola, an Indian. When arrested, Mendez had a shirt, alleged to be the same one, in his possession.

PASSERBY SEES SMOKE; TURNS IN FIRE ALARM

The fire department yesterday morning responded to an alarm at the Montezuma bank building, Second street and Gold Avenue, only to learn there was no fire. A passerby seeing smoke pouring from the building gave the alarm. The smoke came from a stove.

The pump on the auto truck was tested yesterday morning at the hydrants at First and Copper and Second and Copper. It was in perfect working order.

CARE OF COUNTY POOR BEFORE CITY COUNCIL TONIGHT

The city council will hold a regular meeting tonight at the city hall. The matter of caring for the county poor probably will come up again, and the routine business of the month will be disposed of.

SPANISH NEWSPAPER, OF WHICH ELFEGO BACA, REPUBLICAN COUNTY CHAIRMAN, IS EDITOR, GIVES VOTERS FACTS.

It will be with considerable interest that the voters learn that La Opinion Publica, the Spanish weekly newspaper, owned and published by Elfeego Baca, republican county chairman, in its issue of last week, came out against the candidacy of Nathan Jaffa for congress and advised the voters to choose either between H. B. Ferguson, democrat, or Marcos C. de Baca, progressive, for congressman from New Mexico at tomorrow's election.

The stand taken by Editor Baca against Mr. Jaffa, no doubt was dictated by the insult offered him as chairman by the organization of a Taft-Jaffa club, which usurped the powers of the county chairman in the campaign, after the standstill element and gang adherents had failed in an attempt to force him to vacate the chairmanship.

The following translation from La Opinion Publica, will be of considerable interest to the voters:

We are not so much opposed to the credentials of Nestor Montoya, E. A. Mann, Stroup and Dave Rosenwald, nor are we opposed to the candidacy of Mr. Jaffa, but we wish to state that they have insulted the voters of the county and specially the central committee, by ignoring them and by permitting themselves to be guided by the advice of David Rosenwald, whom no one knows at the present time to what political party belongs.

As Mr. Jaffa has ignored the republican party in this county, that party ought to repay him with the same coin.

In the coming election the only candidates which deserve consideration at the hands of the voters are H. B. Ferguson, democrat, and M. C. de Baca, progressive. We see no harm in republicans voting for Mr. Baca as we consider him a better republican than David Rosenwald, the staunchest supporter Mr. Jaffa has in this county.

We repeat, that the only candidates that ought to be taken seriously are those of Mr. Ferguson and Mr. Baca. Both have made speeches throughout the state, explaining what they stand for and what they expect to accomplish if elected. Mr. Jaffa so far has not said anything. In Washington we want and need men who speak and say what they want. Even a man who will do this can not always get everything that he wants, but one who will not say anything, should not get anything, and in all probability would accomplish nothing.

Our republican friends have been saying that if Ferguson is elected to congress, a serious failure in business will follow. We notice that Mr. Ferguson has been in congress for the last year and so far no business that we know of has failed on that account.

They also tell us that if Ferguson is elected, the sheep and wool industries will be ruined. During the last year that Ferguson has been in congress, the sheepmen of New Mexico enjoyed one of their most prosperous years, and Frank Hubbard now has a greater number of sheep than he ever had.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS TO HAVE CHARGE OF ROOMS

Committee of Local Young Men to Handle Business of Placing Visitors Who Come to Educational Meeting.

A committee of High school boys, appointed by Superintendent of Schools John Milne, has been placed in charge of the work of securing rooms for the visitors who will crowd the city to attend the Educational association meetings this week. The committee is headed by Joe McCann, and all local people having one or more rooms to let during the last four days of the week are requested to communicate with him, if inconvenient to see Mr. McCann, word be sent, mailed or telephoned to T. J. Naylor, secretary of the Commercial club, who will see that the information is placed in his hands.

The crowd which is expected to attend the convention of the New Mexico Educational association will begin to arrive tomorrow night, and will likely be as large that which was here for the state fair.

The committee plans to see that every visitor is comfortably located in rooms not too far out, although if the closer rooms are taken by the early comers, those farther out will be called into service. The association sessions begin Wednesday, and continue until Saturday evening.

Many of the school boards over the state have not only allowed their teachers full pay for the time they are attending the meeting, but in some cases are paying their railroad fare as well. This shows the high regard in which the association meetings are held by the school authorities over the state.

CREW OF DUSSELDORFF IS SAFE IN RUSSIA

Kansas City, Nov. 2.—George M. Meyers, president of the Kansas City Aero club, received a cablegram today from John Watis, pilot of the balloon Dusseldorf, one of the entrants in the international balloon race which started from Stuttgart, Germany, stating that he had landed at Pskov, Russia, a short distance from St. Petersburg, and that both Watis and his aide, Atherholt, were well.

The cablegram received by Mr. Meyers read:

"Both well and free.—Watis and his aide, Arthur Atherholt, have been held prisoners by Russian authorities. With the maps which Watis had, said Mr. Meyers. 'The must have known that he had crossed the rail line. I believe that he landed not later than Tuesday evening. He must have known that he was in a wild country and would surely stay in another night. He probably came to earth many miles from the place where he sent this message. The use of the word 'free' in the cablegram, looks like a hint that they had been prisoners.'"
