INJUNCTION AGAINST THE HARRIMAN INTERESTS

Fish Will Seek to Prevent Volting of Stock Held by Union Pacific Company.

FIGHT AN ECHO OF PANAMA CANAL

Deposed President of Illinois Central Believes He Can Prevent Adverse Crowd From Controlling Meeting at Chicago Tomorrow.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 15.—Driven to despair by his inability to arouse the stockholders of the Illinois Central railroad to the hanger which, he says, threatens the property should E. H. Harriman continue to dominate it, Stuyvesant Fish has decided to make an appeal to the courts. All of Monday he remained closeted with his attorneys, P. L. Burmeister of New York and H. W. Leman of Chicago, at the Auditorium Annex preparing a petition asking the courts to enjoin any person or corporation from voting and stock in the coming annual meeting that may be shown to be owned or controlled by the Union Pacific railroad.

In anticipation of this action, William Nelson Cromwell, formerly of the Panama canal commission, and one of the most noted corporation lawyers in the country, is hastening toward Chicago to take charge of the Harriman interests.

Preliminaries Ready. The preliminary papers are being drawn by the two attorneys now on the ground, but J. B. Dill, a no less noted corporation attorney than Mr. Cromwell, has been summoned from New York to take charge of the Fish interests in the courts here.

Unless there is some change in the program, it is likely that court proceedings will be commenced this afternoon. It is understood that the court will be told that the building of the Panama canal has made it imperative that all transcontinental lines should have an outlet to the gulf.

Harriman, it will be represented, seeing that the canal would threaten the supremacy of his east and west lines if he did not have something to offset it, determined to obtain control of the Illinois Central.

Under Illinois Statute. The action, it is said, will be brought under an Illinois statute which prohibits one corporation from owning stock in another. The attorneys for Mr. Harriman have already declared in view of possible proceedings along this line, that the Illinois Central, by reason of its special charter, would be exempt from the operation of this law even if it were not a fact that railroad corporations are by implication exempt from its operation.

It is understood that it is the intention of Mr. Fish to obtain a temporary injunction by which the annual meeting will be delayed until the court can pass upon the important question involved in the present dispute.

HARRIMAN PRESENT.

E. H. Harriman arrived in the city early today to take an active part in the fight for control of the Illinois Central. He declined to make any statement, Chief Justice in the struggle centered in the court room of Judge Hall, where both sides lined up at the opening of court to fight for and against the temporary injunction, whereby 226,721 shares of stock are for the time being withdrawn from the Harriman voting strength.

TEXANS WOULD HANG NEGRO FOR KILLING

Weatherford, Texas, Oct. 15.—The town of Big Springs is in a state of excitement over the case of Sam Hargreaves, a negro, charged with the murder of J. P. Burke last night. Immediately after the killing several hundred negroes, many of them owning considerable property, were forced to leave the town and since then not a negro has been allowed to remain or come in.

Last Saturday the case was up in district court with the court room jammed with Big Springs citizens. Judge J. L. Shepard presiding. Attorney Sam Shadle, from Weatherford, representing the defendant, made a motion for a change of venue, alleging that his client could not get a fair and impartial trial in Howard county.

Immediately after this motion was made citizens massed in front of the bench and informed the judge that if the motion was granted there would be a hanging in ten minutes. The crowd would listen to no reason and Judge Shepard immediately adjourned court till Wednesday and at once telegraphed Governor Campbell for a full company of rangers to maintain law and order.

People coming from there today seriously doubt the rangers arriving in time to save the slayer.

19 KILLED IN WRECK ON AN ENGLISH RAILWAY

Disregard of Order to Stop Slow on Sharp Curve Was the Cause.

CARS PILED UP IN A TANGLED MASS

Shrewsbury, England, Oct. 15.—A train made up of passenger coaches bound from Scotland and the north of England to Bristol, left the rails while entering the station here early this morning. Sixteen persons, including ten passengers, were killed and many injured. The train was running curves sharply near Shrewsbury, and there is a standing order not to exceed ten miles an hour at that point. Disregard of this order is believed to have been the cause of the accident. The cars piled up in a tangled mass of wreckage beneath which were the dead and injured. Fortunately the wreckage did not catch fire.

Among the killed were the engineer, fireman, guards, and the postal clerks in the mail car.

41 Injured. The wreck was one of the most frightful that ever occurred in this country. The men to blame are undoubtedly among the killed, as it must have been due to the negligence of the engineer that the wreck was caused.

A careful search of the wreckage brought to light sixteen dead and 41 injured, some of the latter so seriously that death is probable. All of the injured have been brought to the local hospital, where they will be cared for until they are able to travel.

KILLS YOUNG BRIDE AND THEN SUICIDES.

Pikeville, Ky., Oct. 15.—General Webb Sykes, a civil war veteran with a brilliant record, is believed to have murdered his young bride of two weeks and himself at their splendid mansion in Fairview, a suburb of Pikeville.

Just before daylight a shot was heard in the handsome Sykes home and a few moments later another was heard. In the yard General Sykes was found. The entire top of his head had been blown away. Inside the house lay the body of Mrs. Sykes, blood oozing from a terrible bullet wound in her forehead, where the bullet had passed out after tearing its way entirely through.

PETTIBONE TRIAL ON OCT. 28

Boise, Idaho, Oct. 15.—The trial of George A. Pettibone was postponed today until October 28. Judge Wood said that he was certain that defendant's physical condition would permit of trial, but the defense requested a few days' longer delay and the 28th was agreed upon.

AUTO KILLED HIM ON HIS FIRST TRIP.

Morenci, Mich., Oct. 15.—Arthur Onweller, a merchant of Lyons, O., was killed in an automobile accident yesterday five miles east of this city. Mr. Onweller had purchased a new automobile, and was taking his first ride in it. His wife and two children were in the machine with him. While driving at fair speed he lost control of the machine in some way, and it ran into a deep ditch, turning turtle and crushing him to death beneath it. Mrs. Onweller and one boy were seriously hurt. The boy was internally injured and has a broken arm.

JAP SUICIDES FOR AMERICAN WOMAN

Denver, Colo., Oct. 15.—Heartless because Miss Katie Kansik, pretty American girl of Salt Lake City, upon whom he is said to have squandered every cent that he had earned, the last three years, failed to answer his last letter, I. P. S. Ann, a Japanese laborer, shot and instantly killed himself yesterday afternoon. The suicide was committed in the Korean house, a Japanese rooming house at 2255 Arapahoe street, where Ann roomed since coming to Denver three weeks ago.

$30,000,000 CONTEST OVER WILL S AVERED

Nelson Morris Estate Peaceably Divided Among Direct Heirs After Long Discussion Over Affairs.

EACH OFFIVE HAS AN EQUAL SHARE

Lawyers Had Been Retained and Long Lawsuit Was In Sight When Agreement to Settle Was Made—Charity to Benefit.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 15.—A thirty million dollar will contest that was argued and settled out of court was disclosed yesterday when the last testament of Nelson Morris, the packer, was filed for probate. The principal provision of the will has been nullified. Instead of carrying out the arrangement which would have held the bulk of the estate in trust at least fifteen years, the widow and four children will divide the property equally among themselves at once. Instead of half a million and an annuity of $150,000 during the next twenty years, each of the five principal heirs will receive at once six millions in cash and securities.

The property was allotted in equal shares to the widow and children in binding agreements signed by the executors of the will.

Elderly Gave In. All members of the family except Edward Morris, the oldest son and present head of the Morris packing corporations, favored this plan, and Edward yielded to their wishes after lawyers had been retained and a long drawn legal contest was threatened.

The Will. The original will contained the following provisions: The portion accompanying the will estimates the estate at not to exceed $30,000,000. Of this amount not more than $130,000 is in personal property, and the remainder is real estate. The bulk of the estate is left in trust to the executors for the various members of his family. The sum of $300,000 is to be paid immediately to Mrs. Morris, and she will participate in the income from the estate at large. The following bequests are made to charitable institutions: Hebrew orphan asylum, Cleveland, $10,000; Jewish orphan asylum, Chicago, $10,000; and $5,000 each to the following Chicago institutions: Home for aged Jews, visiting nurses' home, home for courtesans, home for destitute crippled children, and Little Sisters of the Poor.

Fifteen thousand dollars is set aside for the endowment of beds in various hospitals for the benefit of the employees of Morris & Co.

MANY WIDOWS AND ORPHANS AFFECTED

Montreal, Canada, Oct. 15.—The stock market was in a panic as the result of the passing of the quarterly dividend of the Detroit-United Railway, which stock was dealt in yesterday. From 50 at the close of the previous day, it dropped to 28 1/2. The whole market was badly affected. A good sized fraction of the total common stock is held here and widows and orphans in plenty are depending upon the dividends of this stock for part of their sustenance.

Scene of Disorder. The stock exchange was a scene of ill-disorder yesterday when the price of the stock began to drop, and this morning the same state of affairs prevailed, though under better control, as the officials of the exchange had arranged for additional guards and the crowds of angry men, weeping women and children, and other owners of Detroit-United stock were kept out of the pit into which they had crowded yesterday.

It is figured that at least 48 per cent of the Detroit-United stock is held by Montreal people, much of it belonging to estates, and through it hundreds derive a living. Its rapid decline to almost half its price of yesterday morning was quickly hoisted around and within a few hours after the decline began, the market was surrounded by an angry throng, which blamed the decline on the fact that the stock was going downward and that the holders were not to be trusted. The market was in a state of confusion, and the price of the stock was falling rapidly.

Quicker This Afternoon. On assurance that the market would undoubtedly right itself and that their stocks if they held on to them, were not in any great danger, many of the holders were prevailed upon to behave quietly today, though they watched the exchange during the open hours with a hawklike and perceptible degree today, but there is a prospect that it will react tomorrow and again reach its proper stage.

The only reason given for the decline is the fact that the company would not pay the dividend without a sacrifice of some of its surplus fund, which the directors did not deem wise. Extensive improvements necessitated by poor condition of equipment, coupled with the financial stringency is the principal reason for the failure to pay the dividend.

KILLED BY HER SON IN FIGHT WITH A BURGLAR

Awakened by His Mother's Screams, Lad Fires and Hits Her.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 15.—Geo. Smiley, aged 17 years, shot and killed his mother, aged 42, in their home at 2243 Myrtle avenue this morning. In a statement to officers Smiley said that he shot his mother in defending her against a burglar. He is being held for investigation.

The woman was Mrs. Lizzie Scholfer and she was separated from her husband. The boy was her son by a former marriage. He said that he was awakened by his mother's screams. She was struggling with a man and urged her son to get a shotgun and shoot the burglar. As he fired, he said, the burglar pushed the woman in front of him.

An investigation of the house showed that the burglar had taken $130 and a gold watch and escaped through a window. Smiley's story is believed by the police since they investigated.

It is evident that the burglar alarmed the woman, who rose and started to light a lamp, but he seized her before she could get through the door. Her cries alarmed the boy and he jumped up, but in the darkness, the police believe he fired without knowing at whom he was shooting. Tracks in the yard indicate that the burglar was a big man. He gained entrance through a rear window, which he had to take completely out before he could get through.

The police at first were of the opinion that the woman's husband might be implicated but they now believe that the burglar was a negro.

POWDER MILL EXPLODES KILLING 20 AND DESTROYING A TOWN

Lafayette Plant at Fontanet, Indiana, Entirely Destroyed This Morning. 100 Men Are Badly Hurt and the Bodies of Many Employees Are in the Blazing Ruins—Not a House Left Intact and Most of Them Are Ruined—Relief Physicians From Terre Haute Hurt When Big Magazine Blows Up—People Frantic With Grief and Fear Over Terrible Accident. Many of Them Being Related to Men Who Were Killed or Injured—Wounded Are Being Taken to Surrounding Towns For Care in Private Homes.

SHOCK FELT FOR MANY MILES AND BELIEVED TO BE AN EARTHQUAKE.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 15.—The Lafayette and Rand powder mills at Fontanet, eighteen miles northeast of this city, exploded at 9:15 o'clock this morning, with all hands on duty, practically wiping out the little mining town, killing twenty men and seriously injuring one hundred more. The mills are burning and the bodies of the killed cannot be recovered. Every building in the town and within a radius of half a mile was wrecked. The Big Four ran a special train to the scene of the accident with physicians and the injured are being brought to hospitals in this city. Supt. Monahan, of the powder mill, is missing and his body is supposed to be in the debris. A state of panic prevails among the residents of the surrounding country. The telephone and telegraph wires are down.

Many Ran From Death. The first explosion occurred in the glazing mill and quickly following the other mills blew up, there being three distinct concussions at intervals of a few minutes. The mills at the time 70 or 80 men were at work. When the glazing mill went up the men ran for their lives from their mills and many escaped death, but received serious injuries. At the first explosion the inhabitants of the town ran from buildings and thus saved themselves. No one was killed in the town, but there is not a building left standing.

Great Magazine Explodes. At 9:45, ninety minutes after the first explosion, the heat of the burning mill exploded the great magazine which was situated in the mill at a distance of about a hundred yards from the mills. It contained many thousands of kegs of powder and the concussion was even greater than that from the explosion of the mills. Among those injured from the magazine explosion were several physicians who were at work among the injured. The heat was so great that many of them were unable to remove the dead from the ruins.

Shock Widely Felt. The explosion was heard and felt over a wide area. It was heard in Indianapolis and at Crawfordsville, thirty-five miles from Fontanet. The shock cracked a brick wall and sank the tiling in a floor there one inch. Many windows were shattered at Cincinnati, Ind., fifteen miles away. Cincinnati reports feeling the shock. It was thought to be an earthquake.

The flames which destroyed the ruins began to burn the town and it was then that the people awoke to the fact that they were still in danger and the fight against the fire began, with sufficient success to save the greater portion of the ruins of their homes. Not a house, however, is standing intact, everyone of them being badly damaged if not wholly destroyed.

The arrival of the Big Four special with physicians and volunteers signaled the end of the fight against the flames, which has been going on all day. It is believed possible that when a full investigation is completed, the death list will be considerably heavier.

TRIBESMEN PREPARE TO MAKE RENEWED ATTACK

Mulal Hagig and 8,000 Troops Are Marching on Casa Blanca.

Paris, France, Oct. 15.—A dispatch from Tangier, Morocco, says Mulal Hagig's army, 8,000 strong, is marching on Casa Blanca with the intention of attacking General Drude, commander of the French forces. The tribesmen, who recently attacked the French column near Oudka, also are preparing for another attack.

General Drude cabled today that he is ready for the attack, but that if possible, he will take the offensive as soon as the Moors get into striking distance. He has a sufficient force, he believes, to easily overcome the tribesmen, armed as they are with old time guns of poor quality, and without proper discipline among the ranks.

The whites in the vicinity of Casa Blanca have all fled to the city, bringing in their valuables, and it is likely, should another attack occur, that those who braved out the first war some weeks since will leave the country.

TRAINMEN WILL ASK FOR UNIFORM WAGES

New York, Oct. 15.—A joint convention of the Order of Railway Conductors and Railway Trainmen is announced to be held here tomorrow. The delegates will represent more than one thousand railroad employees. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss a uniform wage scale.

At the present time men in some sections are getting more pay than others for the same work. Many railroad presidents, it is said, have expressed themselves in favor of a uniform scale.

CHILD BURNED TO DEATH AT HOUSTON

Houston, Texas, Oct. 15.—After suffering hours from burns that left the flesh cooked in strips, Elizabeth Lambert died at her parents' home, 2707 Sorrel street, from injuries inflicted in a kerosene explosion at 3 o'clock today.

About noon the child attempted to pour oil from a can on the fire under a pot in the yard.

An explosion occurred and wrapped in flames she started for the house. Her clothing could not be extinguished in time to save her life.

STATEHOOD OPPONENTS CAN NOT BE PATRIOTS

Governor Curry Talks Straight to the Point Before Santa Fe League Today.

CHAIRMAN BURSUM PLEADS FOR CO-OPERATION

Intention to Organize Prominent Citizens of All Counties in New Mexico to Work For Great Cause Regardless of Party Affiliations.

Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—"The man who will dare to oppose statehood now is not a patriot and a loyal New Mexican, and such a man can never hope to again swim in the political waters of New Mexico."

With this remark George Curry, governor of New Mexico, opened the statehood meeting which convened shortly after 10 o'clock in the hall of the house in the capitol building in this city.

It was attended by about two hundred representative business men and citizens of Santa Fe county.

The meeting resulted in the organization of a statehood league with R. J. Pallen, the well known Santa Fe banker, as president. Mr. Pallen is a republican and B. Renshan, a democrat, was chosen vice president. Meliton Garcia was made secretary.

The league adopted the name of the STATEHOOD LEAGUE OF SANTA FE COUNTY. It is the purpose of the governor to organize such leagues in every county of the territory for the purpose of aiding in the great statehood fight, which will undoubtedly result in the admission of this territory to the union. H. O. Bursum, chairman of the territorial republican central committee, was one of the speakers upon this occasion.

Mr. Bursum made one of the finest speeches he has ever made and he aroused the audience to a high pitch of enthusiasm. The meeting was entirely non-political.

Mr. Bursum declared that the republican organization of New Mexico would be in the van of the statehood fight and that it would do all it could to aid the governor in this worthy undertaking.

Would Bury the Hatchet. The chairman of the republican central committee further stated that he was in favor of burying the political hatchet at once in order that all parties and all factions might aid the movement to statehood. He said that the thing to do now was for all parties and all factions to unite in one solid delegation to fight the statehood battles and secure an enabling act. All matters of political control could be left until after the enabling act had been secured when the political parties could meet in political battle for supremacy in new state. The remark met with general approval and was received with applause.

The meeting today was not entirely composed of men. A large number of the women attended and they were just as enthusiastic statehood advocates as any.

Gov. Curry Speaks. Governor Curry's remarks were straight from the shoulder. He declared that he was in the statehood fight to win and he asked for the aid of every man, woman and child, regardless of party or faction. He agreed with the party leaders that the control of the new state could be left until after the enabling act was secured and that a strong united effort on the part of all was what was now needed to secure favorable action from congress.

The other speakers were equally as enthusiastic and were greeted with as much applause.

Speeches for statehood regardless of party affiliations were made by W. B. Childers, of Albuquerque; Thomas Catron, of Santa Fe; Charles F. Easley, also of this city. A. B. Renshan made a short but eloquent appeal for united work for the great cause.

It is believed that the meeting held here today will start the work of organizing the forces for the campaign and that within a short time, every county will comply with the governor's request and form a league for the statehood campaign.

ALLEGED SLAYER CAUGHT ON RANCH

Denver, Colo., Oct. 15.—Forced to stop at the Dickson ranch house, situated in a wild part of the mountains north of Morrison, to relieve his hunger, Edward L. Pierce, the railroad clerk, who on the night of October 7, shot and instantly killed E. S. Osburn in Kelly's undertaking establishment at 410 Fifteenth street, was recognized by C. E. Bishop, an officer of the state bureau of child and animal protection, who covered him with a revolver and forced him to surrender.

Pierce was armed with a revolver, the same weapon that he had used when he killed Osburn, but he offered no resistance whatever. He admitted his identity, expressed a willingness to be taken to Morrison and locked up and said that within another day he had intended taking a train to Denver and giving himself up to Chief of Police Michael A. Delaney.

RAILROAD DEPARTMENT

OLD ENGINEERS FAVORED BY ROADS

Aged Employees Find Preference In Eyes of Their Superior Officers.

Engineer A. J. Ingie, of Baltimore, who is in charge of the engine drawing the passenger train between that city and Winchester, Va., entered his seventy-fifth year last January. He is a good illustration of the contention that locomotive engineers, as a class, are a flat contradiction to the cry that modern methods are pushing the old men to the rear.

Scores of the best and most reliable engineers all over the United States are from 50 to 60 years of age. Many have reached the 65 while there are still others who have reached the 70 mark, and are still at the throttle on the speediest trains.

A few days ago a big locomotive coupled to one of the fast trains of the Pennsylvania. Slowly making his way out of the cramped cab came a man with bent shoulders and wrinkled face. With aged hands on which the veins stood out strong he shoved his long-spouted oil can into the depths of the great machine, at times unsteadily climbing upon one of the big side-rods connecting the driving wheels, that he might be better able to get the oil to the right spot.

Careful Work. With short steps he made his way around the locomotive, peering in this place and that, examining bolts and running gear with eyes that nothing escaped. Assured that all parts were in perfect working order, he climbed unsteadily back into the cab. Then the signal for the start sounded, and soon the train was flying across on its journey.

But there was nothing unsteady about the running of the train. It was now in complete mastery of a trained mind, backed with years of experience that embraced everything that could possibly arise under any circumstances. Everything was done with the certainty and regularity of clockwork. The old engineer had done this one thing long that it had become second nature to him.

Age Limit Abandoned. Several times the railroads thought there ought to be some age limit, but each and every time have been finally forced to abandon it, so far as the engineer is concerned. "On our road," said Traveling Engineer Dellert, of the New Haven, "the age of our engineer cuts no figure so long as he can pass his examination. We've got men running who are pretty close to 70, and they not only can do their work, but are among the best engineers on the road. Nearly all of our best engineers, in fact, are men pretty well along in life. Instead of seeking to lay them off on account of their age, we hate to see them go and hold on to them as long as we can."

TRINIDAD MAY LOSE DIVISION POINT. Trinidad, Colo., Oct. 15.—There is a prospect that the Colorado and Southern railroad will remove the passenger division point which has existed for years at Trinidad, to Texline. Effective today, all passenger crews will have Texline as their division point, instead of Childress, Texas, which has been a principal point for a number of years. It is proposed to make the division at Texline and to run all Colorado and Southern trains from Denver to Texline, making Trinidad nothing but a way point.

This will give the crews a sixteen hour run from Denver to Texline, and give the railroad men on the Texas end of the road less than fourteen hours run.

The Colorado and Southern is now thinking seriously of changing the division point to Texline, removing it from Trinidad, for several reasons. One of these is to comply with Texas law which stipulates that train crews shall not be worked over fourteen hours. The run from Trinidad to Texline is over a four-day run, and to reduce this the Southern must abolish Trinidad and make one at Texline.

RATON ICE COMPANY IS INCORPORATED

New Concern Is Known as "Raton Crystal Ice and Cold Storage Company." With $50,000 Capital Stock.

Raton, N. M., Oct. 15.—(Special) The Raton Crystal Ice and Cold Storage company is the title of a new corporation which filed its papers with the territorial secretary last week. The incorporators are:

Wm. F. Degner, C. M. Hayne, J. M. Young, Benjamin Sherrard and John H. McIntosh, of Raton, and John Hadeck, of Trinidad, Colo. The capital stock is $50,000 and the corporation commences business with $9,000.

Dr. Kohlhausen, president of the Raton National bank, has recently bought the ranch of Parker Wells, of La Cima canyon. The purchaser expects to use the ranch as a range for blooded stock.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Studley was the scene of a pretty wedding here last week, when Wm. Smyth and Winifred Delaney were united in marriage. Rev. Father Cooney performing the ceremony. The couple left immediately following the ceremony for an extended trip to the east and south. They will make their future home in Raton.

The tax returns of Colfax county show a most healthy growth of the business interests of the county during the year 1906-7. The gain is shown largely by three interests: the growth of Raton as a city; the increase of the agricultural acreage; and to the development of mining in the county.

The growth of the county is shown by the fact that in 1906 the assessed valuation was but $2,242,311, while in 1907 the valuation is $3,248,841, making a net gain in taxable property of a half million of dollars.

BEST DRESSED WOMAN BALKS AT PRESENT CURVELESS STYLE

Proposes to Dress as She Pleases Regardless of Edicts of Fashion or Sneers of Her Rivals.

New York, Oct. 15.—Miss Gulla Morosini, the best dressed woman in the United States, whose novel and dazzling costumes have caused all New York to sit up and take notice, refuses to be built upon the straight lines as decreed by fashion.

This social leader, with an annual expenditure of $200,000 for wearing apparel, tells me that she sees too much beauty and grace in symmetrical curves to adopt the new figure as designed by fashion's dictators. She proposes to take liberties with the pronounced styles and strike out or modify features not meeting her approval.

Miss Morosini has just placed an order for three gowns, any one of which will exceed in value her famous gold gown. All three of the gowns are being built on the princess lines, a style to which she is extremely partial.

A friend asked Miss Morosini to discuss 1907 fall styles. She directed her view to her new gowns. "In them," she said, "you will find my idea."

CHANGES MADE A GOOD SIMPLE ENGLAND EXPECTS TROUBLE IN IN SEVERAL MINES HOME MADE IRELAND OVER HOME RULE

Management of Interior Trust Company Goes Into
New Hands.

Wickenburg, Ariz., Oct. 15.—Several changes have been made in the management of the Interior Mining & Trust company. F. X. O'Brien has resigned as manager and will devote his attention to other interests. W. J. Casey, formerly mine superintendent, has succeeded Mr. O'Brien. The mine is now on a paying basis.

The Monte Christo group has been bonded by Oscar Jennings, formerly with the Hale Mining & Milling company. The property is an old and rich one and it will be extensively worked by the new owners.

Owners of the Venus copper property near Vulture Peak, are preparing to do extensive development work this fall. They will install a hoisting plant and sink about 500 feet or deeper enough to determine the character and size of the ore-body.

On the Copper Giant, seven miles west of here, development work has been pushed very rapidly in charge of Byron Smith of Congress. The shaft is down 65 feet and with depth the ore seems to increase in quantity and quality.

Satisfactory Development.
The Black Rock, Ltd., is developing satisfactorily. The mill is running smoothly and its output justifies the expenditure of a large amount of money on proposed improvements. The mill was built with the expectation of working very low grade ore; but it seems that the grade, as far as workings have shown, has increased from $4 to $8 per ton. The $8 ore was found in a tunnel that extends entirely through a mountain.

One of the handiest specimens of copper ore that ever came into Wickenburg was brought from the Spring mine last week. The mine, owned by Yuma parties, is located in the Hauray mountains about seven miles from Wendendale on the new A. & C. railway.

A hoist was installed at the property of the East Copper-Gold Co., about 12 miles east of here, and it has been running continuously for the past few days. The water in the 160-foot incline shaft has been reduced 100 feet and it is expected that two or three more days will see it entirely drained. Work in a crosscut to tap the main ledge is also being pushed. E. L. Mott, treasurer of the company, who has been on the property for the past three weeks, has gone east.

Will Renew Operations.
It was learned this week that the old Keystone mine near Constellation is soon to be started up again. It was purchased from Yavapai county last month by Prescott mining men, who now have an absolutely clear title to the property. This mine has been tied up by litigation for several years and neither the western claimants nor the contestants in the east could do anything to it though willing purchasers offered to pay $50,000 for the property. There are many improvements made on the property in the way of buildings and machinery and also many hundred feet of development work, sufficient to show that it is undoubtedly a good mine.

At the Congress.
The Congress Co., near Junction, has an abundance of good ore and the increase in its working force speaks well. It is rumored that operations are soon to start on the Coronado. Some ore is being taken from the claims of the United Gold Mines company. It is thought that this property will again begin shipping this fall. The 10-stamp mill on the Gold Dollar mine is being moved and will be started up as soon as the engine arrives. The Alvarado is doing a lot of preliminary work for the installation of additional machinery. The Rincon mine is still running a shift and a half. Work on the Marcos is progressing rapidly as is also work on the Marcos extension. The Congress company is sinking a 100-foot prospect shaft on the east end of the Loviathan, where it has two patented claims. Work has been resumed by the Southwestern Development company.

Miscellaneous Camps.
Philadelphia people have purchased the old Ajo mine in Pima county. The name of the new company is the Rendell Ore Reduction company, and the price paid by it for the property is said to be $70,000. Six carloads of machinery are now en route to Gila Bend, from which point it will be hauled by wagon to Ajo. This indicates that no time is to be wasted in adding the Ajo mines again to the territory's list of producers. In pursuance of this determination it is the intention of the Rendell company to sink a deep shaft and to go about development in a systematic way. On the property there are 23 parallel veins of good ore within a distance of 1,500 feet.

TRAVELER ACCIDENTALLY SHOOT HIMSELF

Painful Wound Self Inflicted by Tourist at Lordsburg, N. M., While En Route to California.

Lordsburg, N. M., Oct. 15.—While at Lordsburg on his way from California to Mexico, Valentin Rula, a traveling man, accidentally shot himself. While bucking a 25-caliber revolver to his belt it was accidentally discharged, the bullet piercing the abdomen and then the left leg causing four wounds in all. The injuries are not fatal.

It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles too and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by all dealers. 50c.

This Splendid Home Recipe
Should be Used in Kidney Trouble.

A well known authority states that there are more cases of kidney trouble here now than ever before, while recent reports show that more people succumb each year to some form of kidney disease than any other cause.

When there is sickness, examine the urine. Rheumatism is only a symptom of kidney trouble. It is nothing more or less than excessive uric acid in the blood, which the sluggish, inactive kidneys have failed to sift out, leaving it to decompose and settle about the joints and muscles, causing intense suffering, frequently resulting in deformity, often reaching the heart when death ensues.

Pains across the back, frequent, painful and suppressed urination and other symptoms of weak bladder are not the only signs of kidney trouble; many cases of stomach disease, headache, pain in the head, inactive liver, etc., are but symptoms; the cause of which can be traced to feeble, clogged kidneys.

The physicians for the insurance companies always carefully examine and report on the condition of the urine. It is a certain sign of sickness or health of the human body.

A test of the urine should be made by every man and woman at least once each year. A simple test is to void a small quantity of urine in a bottle or glass and let it stand over night; next morning, if there is a reddish brick-dust sediment, or white fleecy substance present, either consult some reputable physician or take a good vegetable treatment. The following prescription is recommended highly in these cases, and if desirable the sufferer can mix it at home. Any good prescription pharmacy has the ingredients, which are harmless and inexpensive: Compound Kargon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime. Where any of the symptoms enumerated above are present, good results are sure to follow immediately the use of this simple prescription.

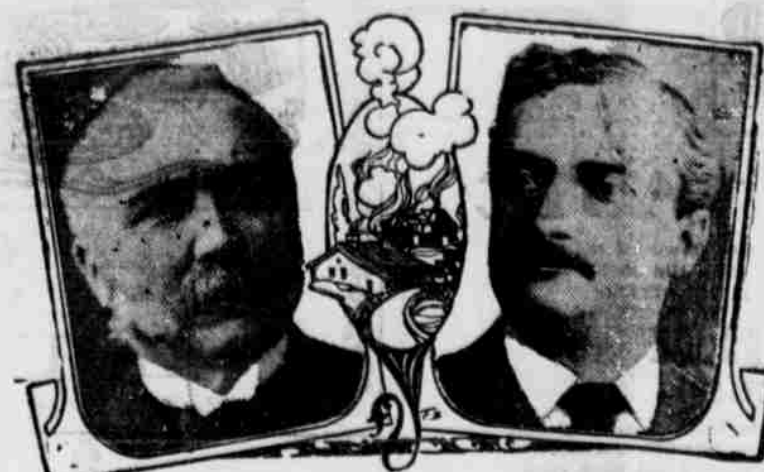

PROSPECTOR FIRES BULLET INTO HEART

Many Who Located Well Known Claims in Sierra County Suicides Without Apparent Cause.

Hillsboro, N. M., Oct. 15.—The body of James M. Smith, one of the first prospectors in the Apache mining district, Sierra county, was found by T. A. Slater and Martin Miranda, in front of the Bowker cabin on the Embolite mine. A bullet wound in the breast, the bullet having penetrated the heart, and lying nearby a thirty-caliber rifle, told the story of the suicide and such was the verdict of the coroner's jury that was empaneled by Justice of the Peace Philip Zoller. Smith was the locator of the Wall street, Lombard street and other well known mines in the Apache district and had accumulated a competence. He is survived by his blind wife and three children. No cause can be assigned for the suicide.

Nationalists Will Use All Means to Block Parliamentary Business in Retaliation.

Premier Campbell-Bannerman.

London, Oct. 15.—Exciting times are expected with the opening of the next parliament. The storm is expected to use every constitutional means to block important business in parliament, in order to call their grievances to the attention of Englishmen. Appeals have so far been in vain and they believe that by making themselves intolerable nuisances they may gain some consideration for their cause.

It is the old, ever new, question of home rule, and with their patience almost exhausted, the followers of John Redmond have pledged themselves to a campaign that may even include violence.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman has repeatedly been asked as to the intention of the government in making good the pledge to legislate for Ireland as well as Ireland would legislate for herself, if she had the power.

John Redmond.

With no satisfaction from this source in sight, the Nationalists will attempt to use every constitutional means to block important business in parliament, in order to call their grievances to the attention of Englishmen. Appeals have so far been in vain and they believe that by making themselves intolerable nuisances they may gain some consideration for their cause.

Meanwhile serious agrarian crimes and outrages are taking place in the south and west of Ireland, due to the avowed policy of organized disorder upon which the most desperate of the Nationalists depend to help their cause.

That more serious trouble is feared is indicated by the unusual number of troops that have been sent into Ireland recently.

CAPITAN PEOPLE ARE BUILDING CITY

New Corporation Formed There to Do General Merchandise and Real Estate Business.

Capitan, N. M., Oct. 15.—(Special)—A corporation under the title of Welch and Tittsworth has recently been launched at this place. A prominent El Paso capitalist, Eugene B. Welch and George A. and Will Tittsworth are the stockholders. The corporation, which is organized with a capital stock of thirty thousand dollars, is comprehensive in its scope being empowered to deal in merchandise, real estate, live stock, coal and other mines. The principal place of business is Capitan.

The El Paso and Southwestern railroad shops at Carrizozo are now completed. The round house is brick, 14 stalls and the machine shops consist of two large buildings, the main shop being 170-180 feet and the store room 30x60. The pipe line, which brings water from the head waters of the Honda river, tapping the springs from the Bonita and Ruidoso, and being piped over the mountain, is being rapidly installed and the railroad will have a splendid supply of good water in a short time. The mining camp at Parsons is reported as making things hum with their five Huntington mills and the new cyanide plant. The development work has recently struck a very large body of ore which yields $8 a ton.

Mrs. J. G. Riggle and children are spending the winter in White Oaks. Mr. Riggle will remain in Capitan.

J. C. West has just bought the C. F. Henley ranch on the lower Ruidoso. Mr. Henley has not determined his future location.

The farmers living on the unsurveyed land in township 10, range 11 east, in the Bonito district are at last to have their locations surveyed and to be able to perfect title to lands on which many of them have been living for twenty-five years, and on which they have fine fields of alfalfa and splendid bearing orchards. The contract for the sub-division of the township has been let to Corbett and Smythe, who have also the contract for the survey of the scenic route between Santa Fe and Las Vegas. The work is expected to begin by the middle of this month.

One of the Important Duties of Physicians and the Well-Informed of the World is to learn as to the relative standing and reliability of the leading manufacturers of medicinal agents, as the most eminent physicians are the most careful as to the uniform quality and perfect purity of remedies prescribed by them, and it is well known to physicians and the Well-Informed generally that the California Fig Syrup Co., by reason of its correct methods and perfect equipment and the ethical character of its product has attained to the high standing in scientific and commercial circles which is accorded to successful and reliable houses only, and, therefore, that the name of the Company has become a guarantee of the excellence of its remedy.

TRUTH AND QUALITY

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing, therefore we wish to call the attention of all who would enjoy good health, with its blessings, to the fact that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and the use of medicines dispensed with generally to great advantage, but as in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time, the California Fig Syrup Co. feels that it is alike important to present truthfully the subject and to supply the one perfect laxative remedy which has won the approval of physicians and the world-wide acceptance of the Well-Informed because of the excellence of the combination, known to all, and the original method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects always note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., and the same heretofore known by the name—Syrup of Figs—which has given satisfaction to millions. The genuine is for sale by all leading druggists throughout the United States in original packages of one size only, the regular price of which is fifty cents per bottle.

Every bottle is sold under the general guarantee of the Company, filed with the Secretary of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., that the remedy is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906.

An Honest Man

In these days of investigations, exposures, prosecutions, stock manipulations and charges of graft and corruption among men whose positions should be their guarantee of honesty, it often sets one to thinking—is there an honest man?

Naturally it does not take long to answer the question. To say no would mean a loss of faith in humanity and there is much good in humanity—just as much as there ever was.

There is a lot of discussion as to whether the world is growing better or worse but such a question doesn't enter into the life of the individual. It is certain that it is becoming harder and harder for the average man to live a clean life because he must meet in competition men who have no principles and to whom honesty conveys no meaning.

But the great law of the eternal fitness of things is still in working order. The man who is dishonest plays with fire and the man who plays with fire sooner or later gets burnt.

Dishonesty is paraded before the public until it is believed to exist in greater proportion than it actually does.

Dishonesty in our so-called big men, occasions surprise and so long as it occasions surprise, it is the exception and not the rule.

The honest man not only still exists, but he still predominates and so long as he does, the get rich quick and dishonest man knows that while today he may prosper, tomorrow the fire he kindled will consume him and his. The study of sociology is one of the most intensely fascinating subjects to which one can devote his spare moments.

While the honest man is too numerous to really come under the heading of sociology, still he forms the bulwark of life and he fills the most important role in the make-up of humanity.

He is the mainstay to which all else is lashed and no stable government, state or home could be maintained without him.

A lot of slick rascals may seem to thrive off the things that he produces and often the honest man suffers and suffers pitifully, because he had too much real manhood to avail himself of the same dishonest means by which his neighbor enriched himself.

But the man who sold his honor for thirty pieces of silver hanged himself with a halter, and he still suicides figuratively and otherwise today.

History repeats itself and the laws of God are inexorable while just. The world is just as full of honest men as ever, perhaps even more so. There are just as many striving against mistakes to bring forth the best they have in them, as there were in the olden times.

The newspapers are full of the downfall of weak men, but that should occasion no alarm in the hearts of the honest men.

When fate deals the cards it often throws some strange hands, but the man who stakes his honesty on fate is at heart a dishonest man anyhow and he deserves to live or fall by the rules of the game.

Not all the honest men are dead and not all of them are mentioned in the Bible.

The honest man still lives all about us and he is the monument of the nation, the state and the home.

Some times a patch on the trousers is worth more to a man than a bank account—particularly when the trousers are worn by an honest man, which is usually the case.

Santa Fe New Mexican: The chances for the passing of an enabling act for New Mexico during the first session of the 60th congress are becoming brighter daily. Governor Curry has done splendid work for success already and Delegate W. H. Andrews has been busy during the past two weeks interviewing United States senators and members of the house of representatives, whom he went to see in Washington, in Pennsylvania and in New York state in favor of the project. He has met with gratifying success so far. The people of the territory must do their share. They must work unitedly and loyally, hand in hand and as one mind, for the project, thus to convince the president and congress that they are in dead earnest and will put every other consideration aside to obtain the boon of self-government.

The president thinks the constitution of Oklahoma is unfit for publication. No one will object to its being suppressed if the president will also put the ban on a few of these latter day novels.

Manager Hubbs last night gave out the following notice which will be of interest to all persons having bills against the association:

"All persons having bills against the fair association are urged to get them into the hands of the manager not later than Thursday, October 17, 'J. A. HUBBS, Manager."

The home of Edward Farr, 316 South Seventh street, received a visit from the proverbial stork on last Sunday morning, and according to the proud father there is another sheep herder in New Mexico.

The new arrival tipped the scales at ten pounds. Mr. Farr, who is one of the largest sheep raisers in western Socorro county, Albuquerque last Wednesday to be present on the arrival of the little stranger and Mr. Farr's many friends are smoking pure Havanas in honor of the event.

C. A. Wright, formerly of the Harvey curio rooms, returned last night from a trip to Chicago, Kansas City and Oklahoma. While in Kansas City he tendered his resignation to the Harvey people as he has made arrangements to conduct a general merchandise store and sheep ranch at Canyonito, thirty-five miles west of Albuquerque. He will also engage in Indian trading. Mr. Wright was connected with the local curio store of the Harvey system for several years and made many friends in this city who wish him success in the business enterprise which now will claim his efforts.

MISS CELIA GIBSON BECOMES MRS. A. E. DAVIS

Marriage Performed Saturday
Afternoon, But Kept Secret
Until This Morning.

A marriage in local official railroad circles took place Saturday afternoon at the parsonage of the Congregational church when Miss Celia Gibson, daughter of Superintendent E. J. Gibson of the Santa Fe, became the bride of A. E. Davis, superintendent of the Pullman company, with headquarters in this city. The ceremony was performed by J. Marsh, pastor of the Congregational church, and was witnessed by Mr. McClintock, a warm friend of the young people who are widely and very popular in the set in which they move. Mr. McClintock only one of their many friends who were present. The ceremony was called out on the road on Sunday and did not return to the city until this morning. In the mean time Mrs. Davis remained at the Gibson home on West Gold avenue. Announcement of the wedding was not made till this morning. Mr. Davis has been a resident of Albuquerque about six months, coming here in the employ of the Pullman company from Chicago, where his father is chief inspector for the Pullman company. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will continue to make their home in Albuquerque.

THE CRYSTAL SHOW

The Crystal presented a most pleasurable show last night, headed by Stanton and Sauberg, rapid fire conversational comedians. Like the majority of the Crystal shows lately, the present week's bill is for comedy purposes solely. The scheme of finishing the bill with a laughable comedy farce is quite a brilliant one, and one that should keep the house well patronized. The farce is well staged by Mr. Behan and his little company and evoked thunderous applause last night. Patrons should not overlook the fact that, commencing with this week, the bill at the Crystal undergoes a complete change every Monday and Thursday—new moving pictures, new illustrated songs, a new comedy farce, and a complete change of specialties by the other performers of the bill.

A. O. U. W. CONVENTION ATTENDED BY FORTY DELEGATES

Officers Will Be Elected Tomorrow Morning—Banquet Tomorrow Night.

At 9 o'clock this morning at Odd Fellows' hall on South Second street the grand lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen of New Mexico and Arizona met and organized. The entire morning session was taken up with routine business, the appointing of committees and hearing of reports. The convention is attended by representatives from the thirty-six lodges in the two territories, about forty delegates being present. The past year in the history of the order has been a prosperous one and plans are being consummated to make the ensuing year still more so. The grand lodge met again this afternoon and by 4 o'clock had not finished the routine business. The election of officers will take place this afternoon or tomorrow. This evening the delegates with their friends and families will attend the performance of the Hollingsworth Glee and Eke's opera house and tomorrow night there will be a banquet at the banquet hall of the Eke's building.

The various lodges are represented by delegates as follows: Arizona lodge No. 1, J. A. Dufton, B. Harrell; Nogales lodge No. 2, A. A. Doherty, W. A. O'Connor; Tombstone lodge No. 3, Ray Swain, Florence lodge No. 4, Juan Aguilera; Phoenix lodge No. 5, Frank Smithline, H. B. St. Clair, C. J. Leonard; Queen lodge No. 7, C. W. Hicks, Sam Verran, Jr., P. J. McCollough; Tempe lodge No. 10, George W. Nichols, Henry Schoshusen; Flagstaff lodge No. 13, W. H. Anderson; Prescott lodge No. 14, Charles Born, Jr., M. T. Broadhead; Globe lodge No. 15, G. W. M. Carver; Copper lodge No. 18, Horace P. Merrill; Copper Mountain lodge No. 21, W. C. Crawford; Silver City lodge No. 1, James St. Clair, H. L. Bolton; Benedict lodge No. 2, J. H. Shuffelbarger, James J. Votaw, A. D. Johnson; Golden lodge No. 3, C. C. Pierce; Diamond lodge No. 4, J. K. Martin; San Marcial lodge No. 5, Francis Wilson; Deming lodge No. 7, A. J. Clossin; Hood lodge No. 8, C. F. Edle; Lordsburg lodge No. 11, George W. Bailey; Hillsboro lodge No. 12, E. A. Salen; Carlsbad lodge No. 15, A. A. Bearup.

WANTED—OWNER OF TWO DEAD CATS

Sewer Inspector Martin Tierney offers a $25 cash reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who threw two dead cats in the man-hole of the sewer at the corner of Mountain road and Second street. While passing in that vicinity this morning Mr. Tierney detected a vile odor and upon investigating found that it emanated from the sewer. Lifting the lid on the man-hole he found two dead cats, and his wrath was like the wrath of King Saul, to think that in this city there lived persons too lazy to bury dead animals, and so regardless of the public health as to deposit the decaying felines in a city sewer.

WELL-TO-DO RANCHER GOES CRAZY OVER DEATH OF WIFE

Awakes From All Day Dream With Insane Desire to Kill Some One.

Driven insane because of grief over the death of his wife, Francisco Aragon y Otero, a well-to-do ranchman of the town of Valencia, Valencia county, was taken to Las Vegas today to be confined in the territorial institution for insane people. Otero was on train No. 10, which passed through the city this morning, and was so violent that he had to be bound to a seat in the car with cloth bandages to prevent him from doing himself or those around him injury. He was in charge of Sheriff Carlos Baca of Valencia county, assisted by a deputy.

Mrs. Otero, wife of the demented man, died last Tuesday. All day long the bereaved husband sat motionless with grief. Tuesday night he awoke suddenly from the lethargy which had enveloped him during the day, and made a vicious attack upon his 15-year-old son with a heavy stick. He knocked the boy down and had secured a knife and was going to cut his throat when relatives interfered. After being thwarted in his effort to kill his son, the demented man ran to his room and closed the door. When the room was finally broken into, Otero was found armed with a club and had several heavy irons and other implements of war in his possession. He was overpowered and bound. His insane desire is to kill some one.

This is Otero's second visit to the asylum. He was sent there last winter for a slight aberration of the mind, but was released in the spring as cured. On this first occasion he was not violent as is the case now, but talked to himself, walked to and fro and seemed bent on destroying window panes, many of which he broke.

The case is one to elicit the deepest sympathy. The demented man is about 60 years of age.

TWO DECAYED TEETH CAUSED DEATH OF WM. MORRIS

Mrs. William Morris, widow of the late William Morris, the Central avenue jeweler, who died in Chicago recently, returned to the city Saturday accompanied by a sister, Mrs. A. E. Thiffault, of Chicago. Mrs. Morris said this morning that she intended to continue the business left by her husband, through the holidays at least. Regarding her husband's death she said that his demise was caused by a cancer of the throat, which began in the spring of 1906, and was attended by a surgeon in Chicago who attended Mr. Morris during the last days of his illness. The mouth became affected from the teeth in the mouth, the disease ran into the throat, where a cancer formed.

GARCIA WILL SUFFER NO PERMANENT INJURY

Tony Garcia, of E. G. Garcia & Co., wool and hide buyers, was knocked down and quite severely injured by a falling bale of hides Sunday while working in the company's hide house on North First street. Garcia was unconscious for a short time and it was feared at first that he had injured his spinal column. Physicians, however, say that the spine is not injured, and that Garcia will recover and suffer no permanent injury as a result of the accident.

IN JUSTICE COURT.

The Long, charged with stealing $7 from Murray and Lazario's saloon on Third street last Saturday afternoon, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace McClellan Saturday and fined $10 and costs.

Callenito, chief of the Navajo Indians, who four months ago had eleven horses stolen from him by unknown parties, recognized and identified two of the animals at the fair grounds last week and regained their possession by writ of replevin. The horses were found in the possession of one J. L. Lester, of Belchita, who bought them in good faith.

George H. Goehle will lecture on Socialism on Tuesday and Wednesday nights at the corner of Second street and Central avenue. The Western Clarion from Vancouver, B. C. He is one of the most highly recommended of the socialist speakers now in the field. A workingman himself, he represents the worker's political party in an effective and convincing manner. Do not fail to hear him.

GARBER AND HOWE PROVE TO BE ROYAL ENTERTAINERS

First Number of Congregational Church Lecture Course Well Attended.

The first of the series of lectures and entertainments scheduled to be given at the Congregational church during the winter, was given last night before a large audience assembled at the church. The entertainment was provided by the Garber-Howe company. The program rendered was high grade in every respect and was most heartily appreciated by the audience as was evident from the vigorous applause and frequent encores.

The Garber-Howe entertainers came here under the direction of the Midland Lyceum bureau of Des Moines, Iowa, as will come the other attractions offered in the course. The entertainment was of a musical character with the exception of the final number which consisted of tricks of parlor magic. Homer Chalet Garber, magician, banjoist and saxophone player, did things on the banjo which excited much wonder and amusement. He played "Old Black Joe," "Yankee Doodle," and other airs, introducing unique and startling variations. The rendition of "Asleep in the Deep" on a banjo eight feet tall, the largest banjo in the world, according to an advertisement in the program, was a novel feat for a banjo player to perform, but the results repaid the effort. Mr. Garber's Saxophone was also most effective. How rendered a number of beautiful solos, and gifted with more than ordinary talent on the violin, played with much feeling and skill. His performance on the musical classes was especially popular and beautiful and his feats in producing music from a broom stick and a cigar box showed that no instrument is too humble to be favored of the muses. Mr. Howe rendered several classical pieces on the violin, among them "Cavaleria Rusticana," and his playing was exceptionally pleasing. Maude Ingram Howe, as the accompanist on the piano, was most satisfactory.

The audience was highly pleased with the entertainment and if the succeeding events of the course are as meritorious as this performance no one will have any reason to regret attending them. The Congregational church is to be commended for providing such a wholesome and delightful entertainment as that of last evening.

The following is the program rendered:

METHODISTS TO HOLD CONFERENCE IN ALBUQUERQUE

Ministers Will Be Present From Both New Mexico and Arizona.

The annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet on Oct. 23 at Albuquerque. The conference will last over Sunday and will be largely attended, not only by ministers of New Mexico and Arizona, but a number of the prominent secretaries of the mission and benevolent boards will be present, and also the heads of the church publishing houses. The presiding bishop will be Rev. Earl Cranston, D. D. The superintendent of missions for this district is Rev. Samuel Blair, who has been located at El Paso, but is now removing his home and office to this city. Rev. J. C. Rollins, the pastor of the local church, is making great preparations for the entertainment of the conference. It is expected that a protracted meeting will be held following the service of the conference.

NEW PHONE LINE IN ESTANCIA VALLEY

Sunshine Valley Public Utility
Company Will Begin
Work at Once.

Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 15.—Articles of incorporation have been filed in the territorial secretary's office by the Sunshine Valley Public Utility company, which has for one of its objects the operation of local and long distance telephone lines in the Estancia valley town. Other purposes of the new corporation as outlined in its charter are to operate electric light and power plants and water works systems. The total authorized capital stock is placed at $25,000.

The company is composed of some of the prominent business men in the Estancia valley. Dr. W. A. Wilson is the president, Dr. C. D. Otosen, secretary, E. P. Davies, treasurer and H. A. Hart, general manager. Dr. Wilson is proprietor of a drug store at Willard and is also engaged in the practice of the medical profession. Dr. Otosen is also a physician who has had many years of experience in several eastern states and is looking for a location in the Estancia valley to practice his profession. Mr. Davies is cashier of the Torrance County Savings bank and is also an attorney at law. Mr. Hart, who is the general manager of the company, is a son of Mrs. H. W. Warner, manager of the office of the Postal Telegraph company in this city, and who was for some time located at Texico. He is an expert electrician and has had several years' experience in telephone operation.

It is the intention of the company to proceed at once with the construction of telephone toll lines and exchanges through the Estancia valley and extending the system in to Santa Fe. The materials to be used will be of the best obtainable and it is said the exchanges to be put in will be as fine as any in the territory outside of those operated by the Bell companies. One exchange is already in operation at Willard.

The company has entered into negotiations to connect with the Colorado Telephone company, which will give it telephonic communication with all points in northern and western New Mexico, El Paso, Texas, and all Colorado points reached by the Colorado Telephone company.

TUCUMCARI CHURCH TO INSTALL PASTOR

Rev. Warner H. DuBoise is Second
Presbyterian Minister to be Installed in New Mexico in Past Three Months.

Tucumcari, N. M., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—The Presbyterian church of this place, though but two years old as an organization, is an illustration of the wonderful growth of the country and the public spirit of the rapidly increasing population. The church on Wednesday night will install their present minister, Rev. Warner H. DuBoise, as pastor, and the money is practically raised for the building of a $5,000 structure. The church has grown from a mere handful at its inception to a large congregation.

Rev. John R. Gas, the synodical missionary of the territory, Rev. Manuel Madrid, of Mora, N. M.; and Rev. Samuel Magill, of Raton, N. M., will be the committee appointed by the presbytery of Santa Fe of the synod of New Mexico to preside and install the pastor.

Mr. DuBoise will be the second pastor of this presbytery to be installed in the last month. Rev. J. W. Purcell, Ph.D., of the church at Santa Fe, having been installed at that place two weeks ago.

The long distance telephone to the southeast, which makes connection at Texico with the Roosevelt County Telephone company, and thus reaching all points in Roosevelt county and in both directions on the Pecos valley lines of railway and the Eastern Railway of New Mexico is now installed and is giving excellent service. The line is owned by Tom Reagan, of Texico, N. M.

The business interests of this town and Melrose, N. M., appreciate the direct connection which is given both places through the automobile line, which is in operation between Tucumcari and Melrose. The Hartford Development company, with headquarters at Melrose owns the line. The service is daily and traveling men especially appreciate the advantage of the short line between the two places and touching as it does the towns of House, Quay, Roosevelt and Cap Rock, town of Hartford.

The colonist excursions of the Rock Island railway are bringing train loads of immigrants to this country each excursion week. The real estate men and the locators for government land are kept busy. It is not believed that so many have come prospecting in previous years. There is scarcely a piece of government land to be found in the county, and most prospectors are buying out claim holders at good prices.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, due to cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and he is right. Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets—cures blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effect is charming, pleasant, delicate, gentle, though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure. If it's painful periods with women, same cause. If you are restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 30 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unusual blood pressure.

Brush your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does, it's congestion, blood pressure. You find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense. We sell at 25 cents, and cheerfully recommend

STOCK MARKET UNSETTLED AGAIN

Metropolitan Securities Disclosures and Other Features
Responsible This Time.

New York, Oct. 15.—Confidence has received another rude shock through the amazing exposures resulting from the Metropolitan Securities investigation. It is now over two years since public disclosures of breach of trust in high finance circles began, followed by the collapse of the copper manipulation, and finally these scandals connected with the local traction situation.

Hence no wonder confidence is seriously disturbed! And who is responsible? Messrs. Roosevelt and Hughes, who have been instruments of exposure—or the individuals who conceived and conducted these operations and abused the trusts placed in their charge? Of course the guilty protest against financial house-cleaning. Of course, they endeavor to ward off official investigations on the plea that they disturb confidence. But responsibility for the latter should be placed distinctly where it belongs; upon the perpetrators of misdeeds and not upon those who are the means of turning on the light and preventing future operations of this sort.

Those who have trifled contemptuously with public interests and displayed blind disregard of stockholders' rights are the real culprits. It becomes daily more evident that when our corporations are honestly managed, the public and stockholders will get their dues, values will become more stable, and American credit which is now at such a low ebb in all the great financial centers of the world will be restored to its rightful status.

Throughout all these disclosures there is one gleam of encouragement and that is that public opinion is aroused and will insist upon clean, as well as capable management. Eventually these disclosures will result in the raising of the standard of corporate management, but meanwhile the public is dazed by these scandalous revelations and wonders what financial inquiry will be brought to light.

Other Influences.

Stock market values were also unsettled by other influences. Monetary conditions are still very unsatisfactory. The demands for raising the crops and for general business are very large; the situation being materially aggravated by the high prices of wheat and foreign buyers. The situation is rendered more acute by the fact that we cannot depend upon Europe for financial aid to anything like the degree which we have done for the last three or four years. Our credit abroad has not only been impaired by well known conditions, but we are less able to command that assistance than usual.

Usually at this season there is an ample supply of grain and cotton and the market which can either be depended upon to bring gold this way if needed, or to extend our credit abroad. Exports of both wheat and cotton, however, are more or less restrained by high prices. It is probably true that eventually Europe will be compelled to take our wheat and cotton on a high basis, but the fact that foreign buyers at present are holding off is more or less detrimental to the local financial situation.

Bank Reserves.

The Bank of England reserve declined this week to 46 1/2 per cent, and the Bank of France is also rumored to be figuring on drawing gold from this side. Were our bank reserves in a position to stand any increased strain, the situation would be more assuring, but surplus reserves are very small, and their restoration will be difficult until crop funds begin to return from the interior, which at the earliest will not be before November first. It is possible that Secretary Cortelyou will be able to give the market further assistance in case of emergency, and his prudent course, of relieving pressure at points of necessity without unduly exhausting his sources of relief, is one that gives hope that further aid will be forthcoming if needed.

Situation Unsatisfactory.

The situation abroad is still unsatisfactory. On the Continent especially there seems to have been a very similar overdoing to that which has been experienced in the United States. Capital is practically as scarce over there as here; the principal difference being that the situation is not aggravated by the discreditable operations which have unfortunately occurred on this side. Local bankers are exceedingly conservative, showing a disposition to curtail credit and to be much more exacting as to collateral.

Just One Element.

There is just one other element which tends to delay the restoration of confidence, and that is the growing conviction that the present year has witnessed a turning point in business and that we are to face at least a moderate business and industrial reaction. Wall street has held to this opinion for some time past, but the conviction is now extending beyond, and naturally has a perceptible—though indirect—effect upon stock market values—chiefly the industrial.

It is quite evident that any curtailment of manufacturing profits would quickly affect the common stocks of these properties; and since many of these still contain a large proportion of water the shrinkage would naturally become more severe. This explains why bankers are discriminating more and more against this class of collateral.

Substantial Investment.

The railroads, are of course, a much more substantial class of investment. They are not dependent upon a single industry for their support as are many of the industries, and what they may temporarily lose in one division of their traffic can be compensated for in other. It is a matter of easy demonstration that railroad traffic is a much more stable element in business than the sales or profits of any mercantile or industrial corporation. Of course, the net profits of our railroads are more or less threatened by the enormous increase in expenses, which puts them in a poor position to meet any contraction of traffic.

Nevertheless, railroad securities have had an extraordinary decline; quite sufficient to avert any serious panic and even should dividends be reduced many of them would ultimately prove profitable investments at present prices, although it need cause no surprise if they recede to still lower levels before the close of the year.

The bond market continues in a very unsatisfactory condition. Here, too, are the possibilities of profitable investment with little danger from loss of revenue; but the general exhaustion of buying power is evident and shows that the country has not yet had the opportunity of accumulating a sufficient supply of new capital.

The outlook of the market is extremely uncertain. This is not a good time for buyers to get into debt, and conservatism is strongly urged in all stock market operations. For the present at least, I continue to advise my friends to try and keep what they have got instead of trying to make more through hazardous risks.

EIGHTEEN PENSIONS FOR NEW MEXICANS

Delegate Andrews, Secures the Allowance of Another Large List of Claims of War Veterans.

Delegate W. H. Andrews has been very successful in securing the allowance of pensions to New Mexican war veterans, his untiring efforts to secure the granting of all just claims being responsible for that success. Every few days a large number of pensioners are granted largely through his efforts, and as an evidence of his good work, he has just been notified that the following list of eighteen have been allowed pensions:

James Curtis, Fort Bayard, $17 per month from February 15, 1907.
Foster P. Crichton, Santa Fe, $15 per month from May 1, 1907.
L. Tressell, Las Alamos, $12 per month from March 29, 1907.
Jose S. Esquivel, Las Vegas, $12 per month from February 25, 1907.
William A. Mills, Elida, $15 per month from March 25, 1907.
Jacob M. Aurandt, Santa Cruz, $12 per month from March 11, 1907.
Edward E. Kelsey, Armistad, $12 per month from June 28, 1907.
Samuel W. Hoffman, Artesia, $15 per month from March 5, 1907.
Gabriel Taylor, Mogollon, $12 per month from June 10, 1907.
Mrs. Victoria V. Merrifield, Albuquerque, $8 per month from February 12, 1907.
William D. Vencil, Allen, $12 per month from June 15, 1907.
Lorenzo Sanchez y Labadi, San Rafael, $6 per month from August 18, 1905, and $8 per month from July 19, 1906.
Dementrio Martinez, Albuquerque, $12 per month from March 25, 1907.
Antonio Velasquez, Ojo Caliente, $20 per month from April 22, 1907.
William R. Smith, Fort Bayard, $8 per month from March 13, 1907.
Francisco Lucero y Trujillo, Puerta de Luna, $12 per month from February 25, 1907.
William H. Barney, Albuquerque, $12 per month from March 4, 1907.
George H. Pratt, Laguna, $12 per month from May 6, 1907.

Territorial Topics

A custom smelter is to be erected at Paradise, Arizona.

Douglas, Ariz., boasts of a lower tax rate than any city in the territory.

Morrison Garst, a well known capitalist of Roswell, N. M., is dead there, aged 55 years.

Mistaken for a burglar, W. P. McClelland was shot and seriously wounded by John Comer near Prescott, Ariz.

The nineteenth annual convention of the Arizona Woman's Christian Temperance union will meet in Mesa, October 17 and 18.

D. B. Wright, 75 years old, and one of the pioneers of Arizona, is dead at Phoenix of injuries received in a runaway accident.

Cofax county, New Mexico, shows an increase in tax valuations of $444,530 in 1907 over 1906. The total valuation is now $3,748,841.

The Graham, Ariz., county jail contains sixty prisoners, the greatest number in the history of the county.

The postoffice at Humboldt, Ariz., becomes presidential today, with a salary of $1,200. The postmaster at Prescott was allowed one additional carrier October 1.

Twenty-three miles of new mains are to be added to the Tucson, Ariz., water works system, and a supply of 800,000 gallons daily will be given the city.

Three cars loaded with honey have been marketed in Arizona by the farmers of Gila valley. Two cars went to Chicago. Six cents per pound was the price received.

Near Williams, Arizona, two men killed 137 cottontails in less than an hour, when a gun barrel bursted and the balance of the cottontails escaped.

Relatives in Melrose, Mass., are anxious to secure the address of Robert A. Moroshead, who went to Arizona last March. Mrs. Moroshead makes the inquiry.

The condition of the cattle ranges near Engle and Garfield in Dona Ana county is quite satisfactory. Grass is plentiful, and the cattle generally are in good shape to winter well.

J. W. Arthur, treasurer of the Globe Barbers' union, is under arrest at Roosevelt, Ariz., on a charge of embezzling $110 of the union's funds and will be taken back to Globe.

The ordinance which destroys the last vestige of open gambling in Douglas, Ariz., became operative last week when Marshal Stambaugh posted copies of it in three conspicuous places in the city.

Distribution of poles along the Naco, Ariz., for the new street railway is in progress, and it is promised that before the end of the week laying of steel will commence at War-

Nothing New Under the Sun

Solomon says there is nothing new under the sun, and Solomon is an authority. He may have done some things that were somewhat shoddy, but it has never been satisfactorily proven that he ever misrepresented.

Conceded, then, that he knew what he was talking about when he made that statement, how do you account for the queer things that bob up now and then that nobody ever saw before?

My dear Sir, they are all merely new combinations of old things. You can't even think of a really new thing. Try to think of a new animal. To save your soul, you can't help thinking of legs and eyes and teeth and tails, which are all old and well known things. Try something else.

The Albuquerque Citizen doesn't claim to have discovered something elementally new, but they have some fellows around the place who are mighty slick at hanging the old things together in new and taking ways. They'd fix you up an ad that would make even Solomon himself have some doubts about the old proverb.

GRANT COUNTY'S MINES ARE ACTIVE

Santa Rita, Columbia and Other Companies Pushing Development.

Santa Rita, N. M., Oct. 15.—The Columbia Copper Co., operating the Clearwater mine and adjoining claims at Santa Rita, Grant county, is making rapid progress with its new working shaft. Three shifts are being worked, averaging 3 feet every 24 hours. The shaft is a 2-compartment affair, with cage and ladder and pump line. A new hoisting plant is being installed of a sufficient capacity to go to the 1,000-foot point. This new shaft will probably be put down 500 feet at this time, and the known ore bodies opened up by laterals from each 100-foot point. When that work is completed the Columbia Company should be in a position to produce a large tonnage of 4 to 6 per cent copper ore. The ore carries a large percentage of iron, 15 to 25 per cent, which, by the virtue of its fluxing quality, insures a lower treatment rate, and even at the present price of copper a fair profit can be made on 3 per cent ore of this kind.

The Santa Rita Mining Co., controlled by the Standard Oil Co., is joining the Columbia on three sides, is working several hundred men. The net monthly profit is said to be from $50,000 to $60,000. The properties cover an area of nearly 2,000 acres, and outside of the Columbia Copper Co. is the only company operating at Santa Rita.

Within a couple of miles to the west in the Hanover camp the Hermosa Copper Company, which is backed by the General Electric Co., has expended several hundred thousand dollars in development during the past two or three years and has opened up large bodies of copper ore. A couple of miles above Hanover, at Cerro, the Colorado Fuel and Iron Co. has shipped on an average of 25 cars daily of iron ore for their furnaces at Pueblo, Colo. These iron deposits are changing to copper ore at about 100 feet below the surface and considerable iron-copper ore is being shipped out from there now.

At Parsons. The Mines Management Syndicate has been organized at El Paso to operate and develop mines. The president of the company is W. J. R. Cowell, an English engineer, with extensive experience in Africa, Alaska and Mexico. Mr. Cowell was for some years manager of the Baranca Copper Co. of Chihuahua, of which company he is now consulting engineer. The syndicate has recently completed the erection of a plant at the Eagle mine at this place to treat a large low-grade free-milling ore body.

It has long been a disputed question as to the amount of intelligence possessed by "man's best friend," the horse. Many are the experts who have declared that the horse has no brain at all, that they are naturally easy, showing no disposition to work, have absolutely no reasoning power, etc.

Frank Miller, famous as an equestrian, direct an premier rider and rider of horses with all the largest circuses and hippodromes in all parts of the world, has had as much, and probably more, experience than any other living horseman. As a trainer he has handled every variety of the four-footed brute that has ever been produced, and as a professional back-bumper, high school, can-can and premier jockey rider in the world, Mr. Miller is acknowledged to stand without a peer. There is never a time when several circus owners are not bidding for the services of Miller, so his opinion of the horse should carry some weight.

Said Mr. Miller in an interesting interview: "I have made an exhaustive study of the dispositions of various horses for almost a decade now, and believe I am as competent as any one to tell of their faults and virtues. I have handled all sorts of thoroughbred racers, Arabian stallions, heavy stock and the oddly marked piebald or plinto horses. My experience has been, and I am sure that every experienced horseman will coincide with me, that horses have as many sided dispositions as the human being. Some do not appreciate their power and will quickly take advantage of it, and then there is the deuce to pay to see who maintains the mastery. Of course, I must be the master, for the horse that masters me would be of little account in the arena. Oh, yes; horses have intelligence and mighty acute intelligence at that. Probably the plodding, hard-working horse shows but little but it is only apparent, for even he could be taught tricks. The circus terms, menage, high school, principal, jockey, hurdle, etc., are hardly understood by the public. Menage and high school are about the same; that is, the horse is worked with riders in the saddle; the horses place their feet upon pedestals, lie down, sit erect upon their haunches and forelegs, etc. A principal act is worked without a saddle, the rider standing erect upon the bare back of a swiftly running horse, turning somersaults, etc. A jockey act is run with and without saddle, but at twice the speed of the other acts. A hurdle is, of course, leaping high barriers, etc."

LOOKS UPON HIS DEAD FATHER'S FACE AND FALLS IN FIT

First Ward Pupils Badly Frightened by Boy Having Spasms.

Frank Montano, 14 years old, living on North Broadway, suffered several fits this morning, first at his home and then in school, and caused no little excitement.

The first fit occurred just after the young man had his breakfast and stricken down by the malady the boy groveled on the floor beneath his father's coffin, with the dead body in it. He was looking upon the face of the dead parent when his own face grew pale and began to twitch as though he was trying to cry. He did not cry but screamed and throwing his arms in the air fell on the floor in convulsions. He struggled for a few moments and then came out of the fit.

By the time the hour for school came the boy was able to go. Young Montano is a pupil of Miss Tustin in the second grade in the first ward. Miss Tustin had just called her pupils to order when she noticed the boy begin to twitch. He raised up in his seat and began waving his arms in the air. All the scholars in the room became terribly frightened before the boy came to himself again.

The third fit over came the boy as he was playing with the other children at recess. The symptoms were the same as in the previous fits. A doctor was driving by the school yard and saw the young man fall. Noting the symptoms, the doctor took the boy in the buggy and drove to St. Joseph's hospital. He was given relief at the hospital in a very few minutes, but was cautioned to remain at the hospital for further treatment should it be necessary. However, relatives went to the hospital before noon and took him away.

SUNTAAGG IS MADE DEFENDANT IN SUIT FOR $1,174.29

Plaintiff Charges Restaurant Keeper With Attempting To Defraud Creditors.

Yesterday afternoon there was filed in the district court an attachment suit entitled Trotter & Hawkins vs. C. E. Suntaagg. The plaintiff alleges, first, that the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of $118.59 on account of merchandise sold to him; second, that he is indebted in the sum of $165 on a promissory note, dated July 20, 1905, with interest; third, the plaintiff complains as assignee, and alleges that the defendant is indebted to the assignor, The William Farr company, in the sum of $311.20 on account of merchandise bought; that on the 14th day of October, 1907, The William Farr company assigned said claim to the defendant, for consideration. Fourth, the plaintiff complains as assignee and alleges that the defendant is indebted to the assignor, Stevens, Elchar & Co., in the sum of $59.79 on account of goods purchased; that on Oct. 14 this claim was assigned to the defendant for consideration.

The plaintiff states that although demand has been made for payment and time of payment is passed due, wherefore the plaintiff brings suit and demands judgment against the defendant on each and all of the above counts in the sum of $1,174.29 and interests, together with costs of suit.

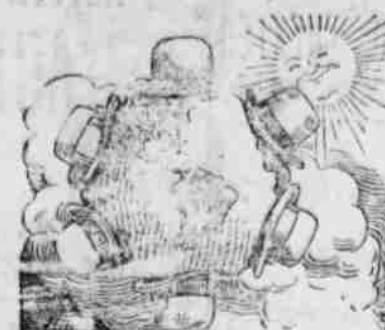

In the affidavit for attachment the affiant, W. L. Hawkins, of the firm of Trotter & Hawkins, states that he has reason to believe that C. E. Suntaagg has removed from the territory of New Mexico, and has fraudulently concealed and disposed of his property and effects so as to defraud, hinder and delay his creditors. A. B. Stroup appears as attorney for the plaintiff.
