Peruna Critics Say

That There Was Nothing Wonderful in the Recovery of Mrs. Eberlein.

DR. HARTMAN REPLIES.

Of course my narrative concerning Mrs. Eberlein, of Pittsburg, who was rescued from apparent death by Peruna, has excited a good deal of discussion and comment. One critic has offered the following explanation. He says that the reason Peruna cured Mrs. Eberlein at such a stage of the disease is explained as follows:

She was probably very weak. She became unable to expectorate. The consequence was huge accumulations of mucus and phlegm gathered in the lungs. On account of her weakness she was unable to expectorate. It was slowly strangling her to death.

Peruna stimulated her, and enabled her to cough up and spit out the accumulated phlegm. This explained why she was cured. There was no miracle about it. Nothing extraordinary either.

To all of which I say, yes, of course. That may be the explanation. And yet it remains true that without the Peruna she would have died. It remains true that I got there just in time to save her life. The doctor had given her up to die. She was gasping for breath, unconscious, cold, in short, dying. However, it is explained, the Peruna saved her life. Of course it did.

I do not believe in miracles myself. I believe there is a natural explanation for everything. Peruna helped Mrs. Eberlein to expectorate her lungs the accumulated phlegm, and thus saved her life. Good.

I assume Mrs. Eberlein is just as thankful that she is alive with an explanation as with another, and I am just as thankful that I was able to cure her, whatever the explanation may be.

FORMAL PROGRAM OF ELKS MEMORIAL IS ANNOUNCED

Entire Lodge to Attend Services in a Body; Rabbi Mendel Silber to be Orator of Occasion This Year.

Sunday afternoon there will take place at the Elks' theater one of the most beautiful and at the same time saddest events connected with the Elks' lodge ritual. This event is the annual memorial service for the deceased members of the lodge. The services are impressive and solemn in the extreme, and fittingly typify the esteem in which the Elks hold their fellow members.

The program is in charge of a committee composed of H. F. Fagan, George H. Craig, Albert Faber, Ernest Fahnstoyer, G. R. Roberts, W. B. Walton, Charles A. Eller, E. B. Morris, under the chairmanship of Dr. John W. Colbert. This committee yesterday announced the program of the occasion as follows:

Prélude, "Anthem," J. Massenet—Orchestra.

March, Elks' entering.

Call of deceased brothers.

"Nearer, My God, to Thee"—Quartet.

"March Pontificale," by Gounod—Orchestra.

Solo, "The Link Divine," Mrs. R. V. Winchester, Mrs. Nell Cavannah, accompanist.

Response by officers.

Charge by exalted ruler.

Sign of grief by lodge (standing).

Opening role, entire lodge and audience.

Invocation by chaplain, Rev. W. E. Warren.

Solo, "Thy Will be Done," by Francis Holt—C. J. Andrews.

Address, Dr. Mendel Silber.

Male quartet, "Remember Now Thy Creator," J. H. Robinson—C. J. Andrews, J. D. Falkenberg, Hugo Myers, T. S. Maynard.

Skating at the rink this afternoon, 2:30 to 5:00. Full orchestra.

MISSING PRECINCTS DELAY CANVASS OF VOTE AT ELECTION

Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.

Three precincts missing when the canvassing board was convened today, and as it will be impossible to announce the official count until these precincts are received, the board will not meet again until Friday when the count will be completed and the result announced.

The representation commission has received a complaint from the citizens of Greenfield, Utah county, on the line of the Colorado & Southern, asking for a depot and an agent at that place. The commission has taken up the matter with the head officials of the road and will try to get relief of some sort, at least a depot, for this place.

BARNETT SECURES YEAR'S OPTION ON TRIMBLE CORNER

Well Known Business Man Pays $5,000 to Buy Bargain, Purchase Price to be Fifty Thousand Dollars.

TRANSACTION IS BROUGHT ABOUT UNEXPECTEDLY

Argument as to Whether Albuquerque Real Estate Values Are to Advance Results in Record-Breaking Deal.

An argument as to whether property values in Albuquerque would advance within the next year, resulted in the closing of a record real estate deal between Joseph Barnett, a well-known business man, and W. L. Trimble, the liverman, by which Mr. Barnett for $5,000, secures a year's option on the Trimble corner, at Second street and Copper avenue, for a consideration of $50,000. The property in question has a frontage of 142 feet on Second street and 150 feet on Copper avenue. It is one of the most valuable pieces of property in the downtown section and within half a block of Central avenue.

Barnett, Trimble and several other friends met last evening at the White Elephant. Conversation turned to what effect the new million and a half dollars shops to be built by the Santa Fe would have on Albuquerque real estate values.

"It will not affect values much," was the remark of one of the party. "I have a piece of property for sale now," said Mr. Trimble, "but I am not nearer a buyer for it than before."

Instantly Mr. Barnett took issue with him.

"What do you want for that piece of property, Trimble?" he asked.

"I'll take $50,000 for it," replied Mr. Trimble.

"All right," said Mr. Barnett, "I will give you $5,000 right now for a year's option on the property at your price of $50,000."

Mr. Trimble accepted the offer, and in a few moments the Trimble property to this effect was written out and signed by the two men, and Mr. Barnett filled out his personal check for $5,000 and handed it to Mr. Trimble to bind the agreement.

The whole transaction didn't occupy to exceed five minutes. In fact, it is believed to have established a record for any deal of similar magnitude ever consummated in Albuquerque.

LOCATION REGARDED AS IDEAL FOR HOTEL SITE.

The news soon spread that Mr. Barnett had bought the Trimble property and it had the effect of reviving the rumor that Mr. Barnett was to make use of the property as a site for a magnificent hotel. The location being regarded as ideal for such a purpose.

Interviewed on the subject late last night by the Morning Journal, Mr. Barnett said:

"I am not prepared to state what I will do with the property. However, you can say that if I do build at hotel it will be a good one. I believe that a $10,000 investment made now in Albuquerque real estate will be worth $20,000 a year from now."

"As to the hotel proposition, I cannot say definitely what I may do, but if I should build one, the structure put up will be in keeping with other buildings I have erected in Albuquerque, for instance the Barnett block and the Crystal theater."

As is well known, the Barnett block is one of the business buildings in Albuquerque today. The Crystal theater is the finest show house in the southwest. Mr. Barnett is known as a man who never does anything by halves. He has large investments here and is one of those who has unbounded faith in the future of Albuquerque as a city of metropolitan proportions at an early date.

BURGLARY CHARGE PLACED AGAINST PRESTON

Chief Makes Complaint, Alleging He Committed Bennett "Job"; To Hold Him Till Investigation is Finished.

Tom Preston, the burglar suspect, will be arraigned next Tuesday morning before Justice George R. Craig.

Chief of Police Thomas McMillin yesterday filed with the justice a complaint, charging Preston with burglary of the Bennett Curio Store. The chief could not hold him longer simply "for investigation," so the chief took this means of keeping the man in custody until the police department completes its investigation in hope of securing stronger evidence against the man.

Preston will not be arraigned, however, on the chief's complaint. District Attorney M. E. Vigil, when the police probe ends, will issue a warrant upon the result of the investigation depends whether he will charge Preston with entering not only the Bennett Curio Store, but also the clothing store of Joseph Mahlbach, 111 South First street.

Practically the only evidence the police have against Preston so far is the stolen jewels from the Bennett Curio store and the three suits of clothes stolen from Mahlbach's store, which were found in his possession.

If the investigation brings to light nothing more, the district attorney will charge him only with having stolen property in his possession.

The police yesterday transferred Preston to the county jail for safekeeping until his arraignment. The complaint made by Chief McMillin gave Justice Craig the authority to commit the prisoner to the county jail.

Big Removal Sale of Indian Goods and Novelties

John Lee Clarke Announces Reduction Sale Before Moving to New Location; Fine Opportunity for Xmas Buyers.

A big price cutting sale of Indian goods and novelties of every description right at the beginning of the Christmas buying season, announced tremendous success immediately upon the announcement. The John Lee Clarke Company, Inc., yesterday announced just such a sale to be inaugurated in the near future.

Clarke Company is to move into the building now occupied by the Everett jewelry store just as soon as it is vacated and it is that the task of moving the big stock may be facilitated that the sale is announced. The sale object is the reduction of stock and price will be only a secondary consideration. The proportions of the stock carried by the Clarke Company are generally recognized. It is one of the most comprehensive and includes everything in Indian and Mexican curios and novelties. It is a certainty that Indian curios will be prime favorites as Christmas presents this year.

Store will be closed all day, Thanksgiving, E. W. Fee.

ELKS MINSTRELS BIGGEST HIT OF SEASON

First Performance of Show is Great; Scream from Curtain to Curtain; To be Repeated Tonight.

Got your tickets for the Elks minstrels tonight? If you have—all right, if you haven't—good night! Say, the show's great. Simply a scream from start to finish—Joe Bren's best local effort. Certainly as excellent an audience as ever graced Elks' theater saw the premier, last night, and enthusiastic welcome accorded it, made it quite evident that Joe Bren's shows have not lost their power to please. And that Bren himself, drawn from a seemingly inexhaustible fund of originality and ingenuity.

No be-whiskered ideas prevailed in the funny situations and the dialogue is terse and unabatedly humorous.

MRS. JOE BREN
Singing "Society Boy."

even illuminative. The show is in two parts, minstrel and vaudeville, and is loaded for laughs throughout—and laughs are captured in plenty, of the boisterous side-splitting variety, of course.

What more is necessary to gauge the dramatic value of the play? To be sure, this particular show hasn't an ounce of dramatic value—that's its charm. It's a sort of delicatessen repast without solid dramatic food and served with musical sauce.

The modern times have been fitted with reflecting music, and the jokes are actually new. The participants enter into the true comedy spirit of the undertaking and the whole is seasoned with a genuine, varied and result is something really worth while in the amusement line.

Apt finishing touches have lent a truly professional air to the production, that of the really splendid talent included in the line-up. And the surprising scenery is wonderful, varied and gorgeous. The black face makeup, too, manage to effectively conceal the true identity of the end men and end women and part of the amusement lies in picking out familiar countenances. Of course, no one failed to recognize the exceedingly unctuous twin comic men, Ernest Landolfi and

JOE BREN
Directing the Show.

Louis Gambiner, otherwise known as "Landy" and "Liner." Their makeupers carefully concealed any symptoms of manly beauty, but only accentuated their clever abilities. Both surrounded themselves with their respective roles and added considerably to already considerable fame.

Mr. Gambiner's song, "Me Man," introduced for the first time last night, was a big success and proved one of the genuine hits of the evening. The festive "Landy" sang a pathetic little ballad about "Beans," with all the traditional touches.

Among the other song numbers were: "Your Eyes, Your Smile and

You" by Ben Puryear; "Waiting for the Robert E. Lee," by Margaret Franklin; "If Every Star Was a Little Puck," by Anita Raca. Those were among the best applauded numbers of the entertainment. Mr. Hugh Collins sang beautifully. "Take Me Back to the Garden of Love," and Mrs. John W. Colbert, in her song number, "When Uncle Joe Plays a Rag," proved a favorite with the audience. The other comedienne of feminine variety were Mrs. W. Y. Walton, Jane Walsh, Mrs. D. H. Carna and Irene Starr, who captured much applause in a clever little song number.

The ragtime burlesque of "Sextette from Lucia" was great and called for repeated encores, as did the finale, "Here's to a Friendly Weather," sung by Hugo C. Meyers.

The second part of the program introduces Frank V. Lanham in monologue, and the grave manner in which he carries off the part constitutes its chief element of amusement. Besides, he had a number of new songs and they gained in humor by his easy, nonchalant delivery.

Evelyn Mearns, a diminutive song bird, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. "Billy" Mearns, in several song numbers quite took the house by storm, and is followed on the program by Bob Sewell, who pulls off a stumpy speech in imitable negro dialect.

Last and best is the hedge-podge of up to date novelties called "A Little Bit of Everything." This is where Mr. Bren puts in an appearance, and she is as fetching and attractive as of yore, and has a number of new songs and pretty dances to regale her audience which last night waxed enthusiastic over her every effort. In this part of the performance she is ably assisted by Mr. Landolfi and Mr. Gambiner, also Mr. Bren.

Bren's "broomphone" was a terrific hit; also Landy's terpsichoreanology, whatever that is.

John Lee Clarke officiated as interlocutor.

Briefly, in costume, stage arrangement, speed and suitability of action, the "Grand Minstrel Extravaganza" leaves nothing to be desired—unless you're of it.

BRIDGE COMMITTEE APPOINTED BY KASEMAN

Commercial Club Desirous of Hastening Repair of Structure Spanning Rio Grande to Get Trade from Across River

G. A. Kaseman, president of the Commercial club, yesterday appointed a committee to probe the delay in the construction of the Barcelona bridge.

The appointment was made under a resolution adopted by the club at the meeting Tuesday night. Members of the club are anxious to have the structure over the Rio Grande completed. The merchants here are losing trade, they say, on account of the fact that persons whom the bridge is intended to accommodate have to ford the river or take a circuitous route.

The committee named by President Kaseman are F. E. Wood, W. P. Metcalf and A. E. Stroup. All have accepted the appointment.

"THE CONFESSION" TELLS DRAMATIC LIFE STORY

Next Attraction at Elks Theater is Interpreted by a Cast of Distinction and Merit and Cleverly Staged.

A mother's love, a mother's grief, a broken-hearted sweetheart, a wayward lad, man-made laws against heaven-made laws, the everlasting truth and power, are among the features of James H. McKel's play, "The Confession," which will appear at the Elks theater on December 10th, after having met with such tremendous success at its New York debut at the Bijou theater, Broadway.

Interpreted by a cast of unusual distinction and merit, names that stand for the best of everything, dramatically, Seldom has the theatergoer had an opportunity of witnessing a dramatic offering interpreted by a cast of such excellence. It is unnecessary to here describe the achievements of the players, or of more have figured prominently in most every important dramatic production of the past decade, brought together to portray one dramatic offering, they as a cast, appear unique, extraordinary and exceptional.

"The Confession" dares to tell the truth, and in its telling unfolds a dramatic story of the keenest interest, power and literary merit. There is not a line in James H. McKel's manuscript that will offend the most sensitive, rather, it will enthrall and captivate with its beauty, its strength and its wonderful lesson. Any afternoon or evening that you witness "The Confession" will remain in your mind for all times to come the red letter day of your theater going.

Albuquerque Will Return Thanks for Blessings Today

PRISONERS GIVEN A THANKSGIVING THE TURKEY DINNER FIRST NATIONAL BY SHERIFF HOLIDAY

Every One in Albuquerque Will Dine in Traditional Style; Union Service at Lead Avenue M. E. Church This Morning.

There will be no one in Albuquerque today who will not have a chance to get at least one meal in the traditional Thanksgiving style, with turkey, cranberries, and all the fixings. Even at the county jail the prisoners will be well fed and happy, for Sheriff Jesus Romero has made all arrangements for giving them such a "feed" as many of them have never had before.

The affair will be a regulation turkey dinner, with all the attendant sauces and vegetables. This is a little outside of the usual jail menu, but for this one occasion, Sheriff Romero is going to sponsor himself.

The menu includes roast turkey, oyster stew, green peas, etc., just as though the county mansion were a hotel of the first class. Mince pies and Edam cheese will wind up the repast, and Sheriff Romero has provided a box of excellent cigars for the inmates to consume after the meal.

WOMAN'S CLUB GIVES MORE BASKETS TO POOR. Nine more Thanksgiving dinners were distributed yesterday by the philanthropic department of the Woman's club. The dinners were prepared from the donations of provisions made Tuesday by school children.

The nine cases reported yesterday were not on the women's list of poor families, but after investigation, they learned that all really deserved charity and sent the dinner boxes.

One case commended to the attention of the women was that of a woman with nine children. They sent the family a box crammed with things to eat; not one of those pasteboard boxes, but a shipping box four feet long and two feet wide. An extra sack of flour also was sent to this family.

EXERCISES HELD AT VARIOUS PUBLIC SCHOOLS. Exercises were held at the different public schools yesterday, celebrating Thanksgiving, and brief exercises were also held at the University, the Harvard school, and the Indian school.

At the University, Dean C. E. Hodgson read the first Thanksgiving proclamation issued by Governor Bradford and the latest one, by President Taft. Several numbers were sung by the church sextette.

CHURCH SERVICES WILL BE HELD THIS MORNING. Union church services will be held this morning at the First Methodist church, at which Rev. T. L. Dyer will preach. The program is as follows:

Reading of President Taft's Thanksgiving proclamation by Rev. H. W. Young, pastor of the Gold and Broadway church of Christ.

Reading of Governor McDonald's Thanksgiving proclamation by Rev. S. E. Allison, pastor of Central Avenue Methodist church, south.

Prayer by Rev. W. S. Oberholzer, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church. Scripture lesson, Rev. P. W. Longfellow, pastor of First Baptist church.

Sermon by Rev. Thomas L. Dyer, pastor First Congregational church, Music.

Benediction by Rev. Hugh A. Cooper, pastor Presbyterian church. Services will be held at St. John's Episcopal church, Archdeacon W. E. Warren celebrating holy communion at 7 o'clock.

A Thanksgiving service at 10 o'clock, at which he will deliver a sermon. A special Thanksgiving service also will be held this morning at the Immaculate Conception church. The musical program will be rendered by the Junior choir, under the direction of Sister Mary Regina. Catholics and non-Catholics are invited to attend.

The old service and thanksgiving to a public man—Almighty God for the many benefits He has seen fit to confer on the American nation.

As the day is a legal holiday, the banks will close, and most of the mercantile establishments will do likewise. The offices in the federal building will remain closed all day and the court house offices will not open their offices. The postoffice will observe Sunday hours, namely: General delivery windows open from 10 to 11 a. m. Carriers will make the morning delivery only.

The Luna Memorial motion pictures contain views covering the life of the late Solomon Luna, scenes around Los Lunas and Albuquerque. Gem theater, corner Second and Gold.

Shadow dance, Colombo Hall, Thursday night. Booster orchestra. Skating at the rink this afternoon, 2:30 to 5:00. Full orchestra.

A new lot of old and modern Japanese wares. Clarke's Curio store.

• Eat your Thanksgiving meal at the Home Restaurant. An excellent turkey dinner with all the trimmings will be served from 11:30 to 2:00 p. m. • 5:00 to 7:30. The music will make the dinner all the more enjoyable.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

A Pure Cream of Tartar Powder

Dr. Wm. Sedgwick Saunders, Medical Officer of Health of the City of London, Eng., was good enough to say that a long and universal experience has proved a cream of tartar powder the most efficient, safe and economical, making food which could not be deleterious to the most delicate stomach.

In England the sale of baking powder containing alum is absolutely prohibited.

PRINTERS' HOME IS FEATURED IN FILM TO APPEAR HERE

At the special request of a number of the printers of the city, Manager H. E. Sherman has secured the strong feature film, "A Curable Disease," which shows a number of excellent pictures of the Union Printers' home in Colorado Springs. The film tells a story whose dramatic possibilities and scenic setting are all that could be desired. It is a simple story, yet one ever new and is told in a splendid way.

The announcement of the exhibition of the picture here is made by Thomas Hughes, president of the local typographical union. The pictures of the home are particularly fine photography.

REBUILDING A PARTY.

On authority of President Taft, it is announced that he will make a number of speeches both before and after he quits the White House in view of the rebuilding of the republican party. But he insists that it shall be understood that he is not going to be a candidate for the presidency in 1916.

The purpose of the president is a commendable one, but it is doubtful if it will be of any particular benefit to the country at this time. Nor is it likely to do any good to the party. The election is too recent. The prejudices engendered by it are yet fresh in the minds of the voters.

A waiting policy is the only one that will bring results worth while. Woodrow Wilson has just been elected president. Congress has had no time to act. It is today a little uncertain as to who will control the United States senate, owing to the death of Senator Rayner, whose place will be filled by a republican. At best, the democrats will have a narrow margin in that body.

As shown by the statement published in the Journal yesterday morning, the combined vote for Roosevelt and Taft was 1,147,814 greater than that of Governor Wilson, who had a popular plurality over his two highest opponents in the following states only: Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia.

The total electoral vote of the states in which Governor Wilson has a plurality over both Taft and Roosevelt is 176, or 161 less than a majority. Except in the southern states, Roosevelt received few votes that would have gone to Wilson had there been a united republican party and had there been no serious dissatisfaction with the Taft administration. The progressive movement was not recruited from democratic votes, except that in the southern states there have been some splits owing to unpopularity of local machines. For that reason, Tennessee elected a republican governor in 1912 and again in 1912.

The best the republicans can do is to sit still and watch the trend of events, taking advantage of such mistakes as the democrats may make. Then there will have to be a reorganization with the objectionable men eliminated.

The result of the last election indicates clearly that New Mexico is republican when the party is united. But with split leading in the senate it will become democratic as solidly as Oklahoma within a very few years. Also split must be eliminated. It is now generally reported that he means to assume an attitude of conservatism in the next senate, if he is elected to it, that will throw his vote to the democrats most of the time if not all the time.

But the democrats distrust him. They don't want him. They do not mean to have him. The republicans can reunite the party by retiring him permanently from politics in New Mexico.

MAKING THE WORLD BETTER.

Andrew Carnegie has arranged to die poor. Of his vast fortune, aggregating approximately four hundred million dollars, he reserves to himself a paltry twenty-five millions, and all that remains of that sum will go into a trust fund for educational and charitable purposes, when Mr. Carnegie is dead.

He has set a pace likely to be followed by many millionaires of the future. The fact that a man has accumulated a great fortune may not be a disgrace to him. It depends on how he got his gold. But he cannot leave the world with credit to himself unless first he has made provision for its use after his death.

Year by year, people are looking more and more with disfavor upon the acquisition and holding through life, and transmission to heredity after death, of abnormally large fortunes.

It may never be necessary to enact laws limiting the amount of wealth one person may own, but laws are being placed on the statute books each year hedging about the methods that may be used by Napoleons of finance in the accumulation of money.

There must be a greater regard for the rights of others than has been shown in the past. More of the money earned by labor will find its way into the pocket of the laborer. The creators of wealth will own it.

Then there are the incompetents, mentally and physically, who have a right to live in comfort, not as objects of charity, but as brothers and sisters of all of us. The time is passing for so much talk of the charity that does out a grudging pittance to the children who are orphans or whose parents are unable to care for them.

The doctrine of the survival of the fittest has no longer a place in our economic philosophy. The old idea that those who suffer here should look forward to a correspondingly happy hereafter has also been consigned to the scrap heap.

We are living in the world and people are entitled to be comfortable and happy in the world if they do their duty according to the ability they have for such duty.

Andrew Carnegie has done what he could toward the last of his life to make the world happier and better. signed to the scrap heap.

ANOTHER STEP TAKEN.

The Santa Fe Railroad Company has taken another important step toward the erection of shops in this city. It has filed a copy of the resolution passed by the board of directors authorizing the building of shops, with a plat of the land to be acquired, on which they are to be erected.

Albuquerque is to be congratulated. That San Bernardino should be a bit chagrined over the announcement that the shops here are to be larger than the shops in that city, was but natural. But we cannot understand the management of newspapers that refuse to publish a fact of so much importance.

Had the improvements been announced for San Bernardino instead of for this city, the Morning Journal would have given the fact the widest publicity, just as it would have done had Santa Fe or East Las Vegas been the favored location, only had it been one of the last municipalities we would have given just as much space to the announcement as we did when we learned that Albuquerque was to have them.

It is because of that policy of giving the news that the Journal has grown until it has no rival in New Mexico. The people of the state know that our news columns are for the news regardless of where it occurs or who may reap the benefit. It is a business policy that pays the Journal, and it is justice to our subscribers.

ANOTHER LIBEL SUIT.

It seems that indictments against persons connected with the Journal are becoming popular. On the morning of November 24th the Journal had the following editorial:

"We are informed by the Las Vegas Optic that Mr. A. A. Sena has just bought a fifty-horse-power Abbott-Detroit automobile, a costly car. Can it be possible that it is Ex-Policeman Sena who assisted in pulling off the deal at 'room 44' in the Palace hotel? It will be remembered that Mounted Policeman Sena, whose salary was $1,200, soon after the 'room 44' incident resigned. He had aided greatly in making it possible for Judge Fall to be elected to the United States senate."

At the time the editorial was written, the editor of the Journal had no knowledge as to whether the purchaser of the big buzz-wagon was former Policeman Sena or not. There was no purpose to have the public believe that it was the same Mr. Sena. He had come by his machine in any manner that was dishonorable.

It was merely a facetious reference to the "room 44" incident with which Mr. Sena was connected, an incident that has been made the subject of both serious and humorous remarks by many paragraphs. It has even been made the basis of a play by George Cohan, the comic playwright who achieved fame and fortune as the "Yankee Doodle" comedian.

CHINA AND HER FINANCES.

However strong numerically a people may be, trouble comes to them if they are not prepared to defend their title to independence. The population of China is greater than that of any other nation in the world, and the Chinese are both brave and intelligent. But the philosophy of Confucianism and the negative religion of Buddha, controlling forces in Chinese thought discourage war.

The Chinese decided not long ago to have a republic, and they overthrew the Manchu dynasty. They showed signs of modernization, and six of the great powers of the world decided that a modern nation should have a debt secured by interest-bearing bonds. Also that the bankers of those nations should lend the money and own the bonds.

It was decided that China should borrow $500,000,000, a very small debt for a nation so numerically strong. But the Chinese had never issued bonds. When the boxer insurrection had to be paid, they refused to give bonds but secured the debts by means of port duties.

When the proposition was made to loan China three hundred million dollars, her statesmen figured that they needed only fifty millions. But the ambassadors of the six nations insisted that China wanted three hundred millions and Japan diplomatic-bally rattled the sword in her scabbard.

While the squabble was going on, a London broker saw an opportunity and had impudence to "put one over" on the bankers of the six powers. He got up a fifty million dollar private loan, with no extraordinary guarantee, as the Chinese have a remarkable reputation for paying their debts, and China jumped at it.

The ambassadors said he mustn't. The British foreign office advised the impertinent Mr. Birch Crip that he shouldn't. But Crip stuck, and he has China. Meanwhile the powers fume and rage because the loan was not made through semi-official sources and for three hundred millions instead of fifty millions.

Also, while the attention of Europe is centered on the Balkans, Russia has succeeded in entering into an intrigue with Mongolia, a large dependency of the Chinese empire, and is trying to have an independent government set up there—at least a government independent of China and dependent upon the will of the czar.

PENSIONING EX-PRESIDENTS.

The Philadelphia Public Ledger is quite indignant over the Carnegie proposition to pension ex-presidents and the widows of ex-presidents, a duty that should have been done by the United States long ago. The Public Ledger says:

"Andrew Carnegie's proposal to pension ex-presidents and the widows of ex-presidents of the United States is a gross impertinence, the impertinence of which is not in the least mitigated by the probable innocence of its author of any intention to insult the nation or the prospective beneficiaries. Perhaps Mr. Carnegie did not stop to consider in making his offer that he was seeking to usurp the functions of the government or to place the nation's most distinguished citizens under an obligation which could only be accepted with grace or dignity from the representatives of the whole people."

Mr. Carnegie is a very shrewd as well as a very rich man. It is not likely when he made the offer that he believed that it would be permitted by the nation for any considerable length of time. He took a very practical way of putting up to Congress a matter that should have been acted upon long ago.

It will now be acted on without delay, whereas had not Mr. Carnegie made his offer, it probably would have dragged for years.

Lawyer Patrick, once sentenced to the electric chair for the murder of Millionaire Rice, and later incarcerated in the penitentiary for life, has gained his liberty through an executive pardon. Patrick made a fight for liberty that has no parallel except in the case of Caleb Powers of Kentucky, charged with the murder of Governor Goebel. Powers was liberated through a pardon and is now a member of Congress. Patrick will hardly break into Congress.

Albuquerque has just started on her third lap toward making a big city.

The Bulgarians have had to postpone their Turkey dinner for this Thanksgiving.

Joe Barnett has started the boom in Albuquerque real estate. He never does things by halves.

Governor Wilson went away to avoid reporters, but one sneaks into his island retreat almost every day.

Our democratic friends should realize that there are more than six millions of them and only a few thousand jobs—not enough to go around.

HURLEY BOASTS HE OLDEST BOILERMAKER ACTIVELY EMPLOYED

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Hurley, N. M., Nov. 27.—Few people know that the oldest working boilermaker in America used to be a daily toll in this camp and keeps up to the present day by the younger boiler-makers employed by the China Copper Company's shop in Hurley.

If there is an older working boiler-maker in America than Thomas McCormick, aged 87, that man is yet to be discovered. Recently the local branch of the Brotherhood of Boiler-Makers at Hurley celebrated the eightieth and sixtieth birthday anniversary of a famous man in his honor. The "boys" are proud to have the oldest man in the world and the fact that he is with them whenever the opportunity presents itself.

In fact, the old gentleman is one of the "boys" and is considered by them as such. His age seems to have no effect upon his working capacity and very seldom is the time he misses even one hour's work.

TRAIN SERVICE ON SILVER CITY-RINCON BRANCH TO BE BETTER

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Silver City, N. M., Nov. 27.—Word has been received from the general offices of the Santa Fe by the Silver City Chamber of Commerce that commencing December 15th, there will be a change in the daily train schedule of the Silver City-Rincon division. Under the new ruling the train will leave Rincon at 7:20 a. m., arriving in Silver City at 9:20 a. m., leaving Silver City at 10:15 a. m., and arriving in Rincon at 12:15 p. m. It is due in Rincon at 6:15.

For some time the Chamber of Commerce has been trying to effect this change and it comes as welcome news both to the traveling men and public in general. When the new schedule is put into operation, convenience can be made with both east and west bound Southern Pacific trains out of Rincon, thus saving a long wait in that city.

BELEN WILL HAVE ANOTHER WEEKLY NEWSPAPER

P. A. Speckman, of Socorro, to Establish English Publication, Taking Place of Plant Destroyed by Fire.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Belen, N. M., Nov. 27.—Announcement has just been made that Belen is to have another weekly newspaper published in English, the first number of which will appear during the month of December. Ever since the office of the Belen Tribune, owned and operated by William M. Berger, was destroyed by fire some six or seven months ago, Belen has been without an English newspaper. The announcement that a new publication will soon enter the field here is received with pleasure.

P. A. Speckman, who is at present with the Socorro Chieftain, has made arrangements whereby he will take over the plant owned by Saturnino Baca, the county school superintendent. Mr. Baca has been printing the paper which is known as El Hispano-Americano for some time, and has made a great success with it. However, his other duties make it impossible to attend to the newspaper work properly, and he has consequently disposed of it to Mr. Speckman.

The new proprietor will continue the publication of El Hispano-Americano and will also print a newspaper in English, which will be known as the Belen News, and which, he promises, will be a live, up to date paper in every sense of the word, such as Belen has been in need of for a long time.

In addition to the publication of both the English and Spanish papers, the new proprietor announces that he will conduct a complete jobbing department, such as will be equipped to handle all the job printing of the city and community. There is a good field for a complete plant of this kind in Belen, and there is every reason to believe that the new venture will be a success.

Dr. Silber Urges Pressing Need of New High School

(Editor Morning Journal.) Dear Sir:—The question of the bond issue for the erection of a new high school building cannot fail to interest everyone who has the least concern for the cause of education. The need of a new high school building which would not only meet the requirements of the high school, but which would also relieve the congestion in the grades is only too well known to be gainsaid. It is also known, for instance, that at the beginning of the present school year there were 167 pupils for whom no accommodation could be found in the school buildings now in existence. It is also known that sixty-five pupils had to be refused admission for the same reason. It is equally well known that about $2,500 will have to be paid this year in rentals because of insufficient accommodation for school instruction and school activities. The bond issue, which would involve an annual expenditure of about $4,500, would, therefore, be but a small addition to the present expenditure.

But what I wish to emphasize in this connection is not so much the need of a new high school building as the need of a new high school. Many institutions that would provide of inestimable advantage to our city's welfare, the establishment of a civic and social center is entitled to our first consideration. I know of no better way in which this could be brought about than by the building of a new high school with that in view. People all over the country are beginning to realize that we do not make enough use of our schools. One thoroughly equipped school building should exist, this is almost a conviction in every city, in which educational and civic activities could be carried on, continuing and supplementing school instruction. And it is this advantage particularly that makes my wish for a new high school building and makes me hope that it will soon be an accomplished fact.

Sincerely yours,
MENDEL SILBER.

Abraham Lincoln Set the Precedent for Thanksgiving

The people of the United States have observed the last Thursday in November as a day of Thanksgiving, since the proclamation fixing that date was issued by President Lincoln, in 1863. There had been Thanksgiving days observed before, even in colonial days, when the Pilgrim fathers set apart a day of Thanksgiving as early as 1621. The continental congress recommended annual days of Thanksgiving during the revolutionary period and in 1784, because of the return of peace, President Washington appointed such a day in 1789, after the adoption of the constitution, and again in 1795, for the general welfare and benefit of the nation. President Madison issued a Thanksgiving proclamation for the peace treaty that had been made between the United States and Great Britain in 1815.

But the following is a copy of the first annual Thanksgiving proclamation which has become an unbroken custom of all presidents since the time of Abraham Lincoln.

A PROCLAMATION.
The year that is drawing toward a close has been filled with the blessings of fruitful fields and healthful skies. To these bounties which are so constantly enjoyed that we are prone to forget the source from which they come, others have been added, which are of so extraordinary a nature that they can not fail to penetrate and soften even the heart which is habitually insensible to the ever watchful providence of Almighty God.

In the midst of the civil war of unequal magnitude and severity, which has some times seemed to foreign states to invite and to provoke their aggression, peace has been preserved with all nations, order has been maintained, the laws have been respected and obeyed, and harmony has prevailed everywhere, except in the theater of military conflict, while that theater has been greatly contracted by the advancing armies and navies of the union.

Needful diversions of wealth and of strength from the fields of peaceful industry to the national defense have not arrested the plow, the shuttle, or the ship; the axe has enlarged the borders of our settlement, and the mines, as well as of iron and coal as of the precious metals, have yielded even more abundantly than heretofore. Population has steadily increased, notwithstanding the waste that has been made in the camp, the siege, and the battlefield, and the country, rejoicing in the consciousness of augmented strength and vigor, is permitted to expect continuance of years with large increase of freedom.

No human counsel hath devised nor hath any mortal hand worked out these great things. They are the work of God's almighty power, and of His merciful providence, which has in His kindness given us health and increase, abundance of all things within and without us. And I recommend to them that while offering up the aspirations justly due to Him for such singular deliverances and blessings they do also with humble gratitude acknowledge His boundless beneficence for our national perseverance and disobedience, commend to His tender care all those who have become widows, orphans, maimed or sufferers in the lamentable strife in which we are unavoidably engaged, and fervently implore the interposition of the Almighty Hand to heal the wounds of the nation and to restore it as soon as may be consistent with the divine purposes to the full enjoyment of peace, harmony, tranquility and union.

(Said). In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington, this 28th day of October, A. D. 1863, and of the independence of the United States the eighty-ninth.

By the president:
ABRAHAM LINCOLN,
WILLIAM H. SEWARD,
Secretary of State.

"Partly. That is, I would rather th audience three cabbage and beets than lead cake and eggs."

OBSTINATE CATARRH

cannot be corrected by local treatment; to arrest the flow of secretion you must remove the cause; this symptom is only one of nature's warnings of a run-down system.

Build your strength and vital forces with SCOTT'S EMULSION; it supplies the needed lime and concentrated fats; the glycerine soothes and heals the delicate organs; the emulsion nourishes the tissues and nerve centers and makes red, active blood.

Scott's Emulsion overcomes catarrh by compelling health and vigor.

is the result of years of scientific study and experimentation. It is today the most efficient and yet the most economical heating device obtainable.

The Perfection Heater burns nine hours on one gallon of oil. A simple, automatic device prevents smoking. Easy to clean and re-wick. It is ornamental (nickel trimmings, with plain steel or enameled turquoise-blue drums). Inexpensive. Lasts for years.

FAMOUS HORSES BRING SMALL PRICES AT SALE

New York, Nov. 27.—The Abbey, formerly world record-holder among 3-year-old stallions and later famous as a pacer with a record of 2:04, was sold today to J. L. Billings, of Nashville, Tenn., for $1,900 at the old glory horse sale. The day's top price at the sale was $2,250 paid by K. G. Billings, for a 19-year-old bay mare trotter with a record of 2:10. Leon was sold by A. C. Penick, of Cleveland, who also sold Kentucky Belle, 6-year-old trotter, 2:14 to John E. Oldfield, of Belmar, Md., for $1,125.

W. E. D. Stokes announced tonight that he had sold Kilpatrick, a 4-year-old stallion with a mark of 2:05 3/4, 18½ years ago to the Kansas government for $12,000 at a private sale. Twenty-two other horses of the Stokes stable disposed of publicly at the sale brought $14,125. Those included two sold tonight, Junior Stokes, 19-year-old trotter, 2:26 1/4, to J. S. Shultz, of Port Chester, N. Y., for $2,600, and a chestnut filly, 1-year-old trotter, to Mrs. K. L. Wilkes, of Galt, Ont., for $2,200.

Markets

Chicago, Nov. 27.—Unfounded, but disturbing rumors that French troops were being mobilized led to a decided advance today in wheat. The close was firm, cent over last night. Resting commission orders to sell wheat at a 1 cent advance acted as the chief barrier against the bulls. A 1 cent increase of the world's available supply total counted somewhat in favor of the bear side but was without effect later to prevent a strengthening of prices at the closing. May fluctuated between 99 and 91 3/4 cents, with last sales at 90 1/2 cents. Corn advanced with wheat, despite sales of 1,000,000 bushels by a leading house. Fine weather failed as a bear factor.

May ranged from 47 1/2 to 47 3/4 to 48 1/2 cents, closing firm at 47 3/4 cent up.

Cash grades were in fair demand. Receipts disappointingly small, furnished a reason for outs to climb. May closed with 1/2 cent gain, at 32 1/2 to 32 3/4 cents.

Provisions developed considerable strength owing to the fact that offerings dwindled after the opening hour. In the end pork was leading the rally and became dearer by 1/2 to 3/4 cent.

Chicago, Nov. 27.—Wheat—Dec., 81 1/2; May, 90 1/2; July, 88 1/2; Corn—Dec., 47 1/2; May, 48; July, 48 1/2.

Cash—Dec., 31 1/4; May, 32 1/2 to 32 3/4; July, 32 1/2.

Moss Pork, per bbl.—Jan. $19.30; May, $18.62 1/2.

Land, per 100 lbs.—Nov. $11.25; Dec. $10.95 to 10.97 1/2; Jan. $10.65; Short Ribs, per 100 lbs.—Jan. $10.27 1/2; May $9.92 1/2.

Treasury Statement.

Washington, Nov. 27.—The condition of the United States treasury at the beginning of business today was: Weekly balance, $40,228,002. Banks and Philippine treasury, $24,319,247.

Total of general fund, $148,313,775. Receipts yesterday, $2,165,399.

Disbursements, $682,419.

The surplus this fiscal year is, $460,727, as against a deficit of $22,826,848 last year. The figures for receipts, disbursements and surplus exclude Panama canal and public debt transactions.

The Metal Markets.

New York, Nov. 27.—Copper—Market steady. Standard spot and November, $17.00 bid; December and January, $17.00 to 17.25; electrolytic, $17.62 to 17.75; lake, $17.62 to 17.75.

St. Louis Spelter.

St. Louis, Nov. 27.—Lead, dull, $4.20; spelter, firm, $7.25 to 7.37 1/2.

New York Money Market.

New York, Nov. 27.—Money on call, steady, 3 1/2 to 4 percent; ruling rate, 3 1/2 percent; closing bid, 3 1/2 percent; last loan, 4 percent; offered at 4 1/4 percent.

Time loans, strong; sixty days, 6 1/2 to 6 3/4 percent; ninety days, 6 3/4 to 6 1/2 percent; six months, 5 1/2 to 5 3/4 percent.

Prime mercantile paper, 6 percent.

Stirling exchange, easy; 100 days, business in bankers' bills at $4.80, for sixty day bills, and at $4.84 for demand. Commercial bills, $4.80 1/2.

Bar silver, 43 cents.

Mexican dollars, 48 1/2 cents.

London Wool Auction.

London, Nov. 27.—The offerings at the wool auction sales today consisted of a larger and better selection of 18,888 bales. All grades were readily absorbed and the opening level of prices was firmly established. American buyers bought suitable parcels of merino and cross breeds and the home traders were active purchasers of secured merinos.

Frank Strothers and Fred Marley left this morning for the Mammoth mountains, where they will spend several days in hunting rabbits, quail, and even larger game.

L. B. Walmer, of Kenney, Neb., returned yesterday from a short visit to Grants and Holbrook, where he bought a number of sheep for the eastern markets.

Antonio Morala yesterday morning was fined $19 by Judge Craig on a charge of assault and battery. Juan Labato, who was arrested on the same charge was dismissed.

Round Duck will be a feature of the dinner to be served to persons in the city hall today. Green Waterbury is not sure what the rest of the menu will be, but says he probably will serve vegetables and apple dumplings.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Branstetter, of 208 South Broadway, a daughter. The little girl arrived while Mrs. Branstetter was on a visit to her parents in Wichita, Kans., and the proud father received word of the arrival yesterday by a telegram.

General W. H. Bixby, chief engineer of the United States army, left for the east yesterday afternoon, after stopping over in this city twenty-four hours to break the trip from the coast. He was accompanied by his wife and aide.

M. Abousselman, of Jemez, who was wounded last week in a raid upon a camp of supposed sheep thieves, is reported to be recovering rapidly. He is attended by Dr. C. LeRoy Brock of Jemez pueblo. There are no indications of blood poisoning setting in.

The regular business meeting of Court No. 313 of the Woodmen of the World, which will be held this evening at Redmen's hall at 8 o'clock. A social hour will follow the transaction of business. Cards and refreshments will furnish the diversion.

Thirty-four members of the Universal Film Company's staff of actors, operators and actresses, stopped here for thirty minutes yesterday on their way to the Pacific coast to begin their winter work. A pool was taken of the different scenes about the depot, to be used as part of the Universal animated weekly film series.

The eighth grade school held its annual election of officers yesterday afternoon. There is every indication that this year's class will be as large as was last year's, while the class standing is excellent as usual. The officers elected follow: President, Toy Shock; Vice President, Helen McClay; Secretary, John Sullivan; Treasurer, Florence Waller.

A meeting of the Order of Railway Employees, to have been held last night has been postponed until the night of the second Thursday in December. Important business is to be transacted at the postponed meeting. The election of officers for the next year is to be held and final arrangements are to be made for the dance to be given by the organization December 15th, at Columbus hall.

R. C. Nesbitt, superintendent of the Famous Indian Point ranch near Fort Sumner, who had charge of a magnificent display of products at the last state fair, yesterday invited Colonel D. K. H. Sellers, Frank A. Storts and Prof. J. D. Timbley with a box of fine celery grown on the ranch. There was enough of the celery to be distributed among the friends of the three named gentlemen, and New Mexico grown celery will be on more than one table in Albuquerque today as the result of Mr. Nesbitt's generosity.

PADILLAS TO ADOPT

DARK-EYED BABY LEFT AT DOOR

Under Sheriff Lewis Leaves Child with Them and They Will Apply for Papers When Legal Time Arrives.

Mrs. Federico Padilla will keep the dark-eyed foundling left on her doorstep in San Jose Tuesday morning.

The motherly woman, who already has a child of her own, yesterday morning informed Under Sheriff Dick Lewis, when he called at her home, that she wanted the child. The officer, convinced that he could not leave the infant in better charge, decided to allow Mrs. Padilla to keep him until she may legally adopt him. Mrs. Padilla says she will take the legal steps necessary to make the child hers when the time arrives.

Whoever left the waif on the Padilla threshold, perhaps its father, evidently wanted to leave it in good hands. Mr. Lewis learned yesterday that the man, who deposited the tiny bundle on the doorstep early in the morning, watched until the door was opened.

It was Federico Padilla, himself, who was first to come outside the house. He saw the bundle dimly in the faint dawn, but thought it was a dog, and he went back to bed. He could not give the officer a description of the man. It was too dark to see clearly, he said.

The Padillas are not worrying about the parentage of the child. Their chief concern right now is the selection of a name for him.

MEETING OF ROADS

LOCAL AT CLUB

TOMORROW

Many Important Items to be Presented for Discussion by Albuquerque Branch of State Organization.

Tomorrow night at the Commercial club there will be held a meeting of the Albuquerque local of the New Mexico Good Roads association, which is likely to be a very important one in the light of future developments.

This session will be devoted largely to the consideration of a program of work which has been prepared by a committee named for that purpose, but it was declared yesterday by at least two prominent good roads boosters that they believed the barehanded bridge was the proper business to come before the local and they proposed to discuss it at this meeting.

Indignation over the delays in the repair of the structure has grown as time passed, until now it is at fever heat. Unless some material progress is made before very long, the people interested will be likely to rise in their wrath and complete the bridge themselves.

Aside from the program and the bridge, subjects for discussion will be the reports of the committee on signing the roads and of the committee on new membership for the local.

Phone 501-502 for light hauling, parcels, messengers. Prompt service.

PRETTY WEDDING AT CENTRAL AVENUE CHURCH PARSONAGE

The Central Avenue Methodist parsonage was the scene at 9 o'clock last night of a pretty wedding, when the pastor, Rev. S. E. Allison, united in marriage Mrs. Alden N. Suggs and Jerome Merker, both residents of this city.

Mrs. Suggs has resided here since last April and is popular among those who know her. Mr. Merker is engaged in the grocery business, being one of the proprietors of the Indiana Grocery, and is a well-known local business man. Mr. and Mrs. Merker will continue to make their home in Albuquerque.

SANTA FE READING

ROOM EVENTS TO BE ANNOUNCED

Superintendent S. E. Busser and Wife Return from Trip to Chicago, Which He Expected Would Settle Schedule

Sometime today, it is expected, Superintendent S. E. Busser, of the Santa Fe reading room system, will likely announce in a general way what entertainments the system will provide this winter for its employees.

Ten days ago, Superintendent Busser and his wife started for Chicago, where Mr. Busser expected to conclude arrangements for the season's events. Last night he returned. It was his expectation that he would be able to give a statement of scheduled entertainments on his return.

In an interview given some time ago, Mr. Busser declared that he expected to carry four large companies this year, enabling more smaller companies of better class talent into the one large troupe will be carried, however, and that is a famous band.

There were several notable singers and a party of European musical classes engaged by Mr. Busser while on his current trip abroad last summer. The entire season's program will be one of the most notable ever held.

REPAIRING OF STATION TO BE STARTED SHORTLY

Repair work is to begin soon on the Santa Fe passenger station. The work, it is reported, will cost about $7,000. Bids will be opened Saturday and work will be started soon afterward. Several changes in the arrangement of the station are planned. The waiting room is to be enlarged, and the baggage room is to be moved to the space occupied before the fire last October by the mail transfer clerks.

Prof. J. D. Timbley, of the Santa Fe, returned to Albuquerque yesterday after a tour of Arizona on an agricultural special. The professor has been boosting Arizona farm produce for the last few weeks by traveling through the state with a portable agricultural and stock exhibit.

W. H. Lund, a banker of Fort Sumner, arrived in the city last night on the cut-off train. He will spend a day or so here.

JOHN BEAVEN

IN ALL SINCERITY we thank the people of Albuquerque for favors past, present and future.

This is merely a vote of thanks to those who have so kindly supported us in the past—to those whose consistent patronage has helped us to bigger and better things.

The success of our methods has been proved; we know that integrity pays, that honesty is worth while, that fair dealing is appreciated. And so we shall aim to carry out these principles in the future, as we have tried to do in the past, so that those whom we have served will visit us again and again, and those who have not favored us will quickly join our army of staunch friends and supporters.
