JEALOUSIES BREAK OUT AND HAMPER OPERATIONS OF ALLIES

Bulgaria is Accused of Trying to Secure Lion's Share of Spoils for Herself at Expense of Greek Claims.

SERVA CONCEDES AN ALBANIAN AUTONOMY

Durazzo is Said to Have Welcomed Conquerors as Deliverers from Tyranny of Ottoman Government.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) London, Dec. 1.—The Russian minister at Belgrade, M. Hartwig, is quoted by the correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, as declaring that Russia has always advised Serbia to observe moderation and to act in harmony with the great powers. He added that it was quite untrue to say Russia had advised Serbia to oppose the creation of an autonomous Albania.

The correspondent says it is understood that Serbia will offer no objection to the maintenance of an independent Albania but he believes the question of a support for Serbia will disturb European peace.

A Constantinople dispatch to the Daily Telegraph quotes the Turkish foreign minister as saying that the proposal of the armistice contains no statement of general conditions of peace but merely provides for a military status quo. The minister further declares that Turkey is now in a position to negotiate favorable terms because Tehtatla has been rendered impregnable. In conclusion he said: "For the moment only two things are in view—the signature of the armistice and the immediate commencement of direct communications with the delegates of the Balkan coalition as to the conditions of peace."

A Brindisi dispatch to the same paper says: The rift between Bulgaria and Greece is growing. There is no partition treaty between the allies and Bulgaria is trying to magnify the result of her victory while minimizing those of Serbia and Greece. Bulgaria is now claiming the rights of partition and aggrandisement in the conquered territory. Ferdinand wishes Bulgaria to be as large as Greece and Serbia combined, but his anxiety to claim the lion's share of spoils jeopardizes the successful termination of the war. He kept idle for sixteen days, 60,000 troops at Saloniki, while his victorious legions arrived before Tehtatla too weak to face the Bulgarians. Working up rather late to the danger, King Ferdinand asks Greece to send transports for his idle troops with the double purpose of conveying the danger he created and enhancing Bulgaria's share. Through a private representative in Constantinople he suggests to the grand vizier to ask Bulgaria for an armistice there by stopping the ports from prosecuting the negotiations opened with Greece.

The Greek and Serbian armies lost no time, though needing rest badly. The Greeks after taking Saloniki started for Monastir, the two carrying on the war as true allies. The Serbians' hands are tied by a secret anti-Austrian treaty with Bulgaria. Meanwhile the common enemy, knowing that dissensions prevail, is not to be outdone in the matter. The command of the sea by the Greek fleet prevents the Turks even now from doing something to lessen the sacrifices to which they have to submit.

An Austrian steamer with wireless left the harbor as the Serbians entered, cutting off telegraphic communication, which existed only through her wireless service. The vanguard of Serbian horsemen accompanied by citizens who had gone forth to meet them were welcomed in the city in behalf of the Moslems by Mohammedan priests while the Christians were represented by the metropolitan. The soldiers who entered the city with flying colors were now raised, unkempt and exhausted, their uniforms tattered, their swords rusty.

Replying to the assurances of the priests that their reception was peaceful, the Serbians announced that the city would be brought back to good order and having reached Durazzo their grand enterprise was ended. The crowd exclaimed: "Long live Serbia and its king."

Almost the first act of the Serbian commander, was the lowering of the Albanian flag. Night fell before the small occupying squadron of cavalry was reinforced by the battalions.

The orthodox bishop went out with letters to meet the commander. The citizens apparently were highly pleased and greeted each fresh regiment as it arrived throughout the night with enthusiasm. It is evident from the appearance of the troops that the campaign in the mountains has worn out the Serbian army. Its officers declare that Albanian autonomy is simply an Austrian device.

Mail. The Constantinople correspondent of the Telegraph, describes the preliminary of the negotiations before Tehtatla a week ago. Edib Pasha was sent with a flag of truce to arrange a meeting between the Bulgarian and Turkish commanders. He was not blindfolded to the town of Tehtatla. There he saw the general in command and arranged for a meeting on Monday last. When Nazim Pasha, the Turkish commander in chief, rode to Tehtatla he was received with full military honors. The meeting of Nazim Pasha with General Savoff and other Bulgarian officers was extremely cordial. Nothing was said about the war. After the courtesies, General Savoff said: "I have full powers to negotiate peace."

Nazim Pasha replied: "I am awaiting full instructions from my government."

General Savoff then asked: "What day may you be ready to hold the first meeting?" which Nazim replied: "Wednesday or any day will suit me."

The Bulgarian delegates said they were anxious to begin negotiations at once and this was agreed upon. When it came to the question of settling the location of the conference General Savoff suggested Silivri, on the Mar-mar coast, but Nazim Pasha objected to it as being too distant and too inconvenient and proposed Tehtatla as the most suitable.

To this the Bulgarians agreed and the meeting was held there. Throughout the conferences all the delegates have been on the best of terms with one another.

A Saloniki dispatch to the Times says Macedonia is being drenched with blood as the result of atrocities committed by Bulgarian irregulars. It is lamentable that responsibility for many of these atrocities lies at the door of the Christian race.

The Bulgarians, needing the regulars in Thrace, practically left Macedonia in the care of irregulars. Besides the massacres already reported at Kavala and Serres, there has been an enormous amount of killing in the district of Avretzissar, where scarcely a single Moslem has been left alive. Mohammedan hands are adding their quota to the general destruction.

Whole villages have been depopulated as the result of their savagery. Tureo-Albanian bands are also taking part. The Servians have a better record. Apart from the slaughter of a number of Moslems principally by irregulars, at Uskup, little complaint has been made against them.

"I have been unable to trace any massacres to the Greeks, but it is stated that their hands are getting into action. The Greek press has been able to control the auxiliaries and there is reason to believe that strong measures will be taken to check the movement before it has any chance to make progress. Further light on the Kavala massacres shows that Armenians who joined the Bulgarian army as volunteers committed them, being led by a man whose family was killed in the Adana massacre.

There is little doubt that the motive was to avenge the Adana massacre. About fifteen bodies of murdered Turks are still lying about unburied. Three or four have been bayonetted while the others are horribly mutilated.

MONTENEGRO PRINCE IS WOUNDED SERIOUSLY.

Paris, Dec. 1.—The Montenegrin Prince of Montenegro has been seriously wounded, according to a Rika report to the Matin. He received his wounds in the assault on the Turkish position at Scutari.

The prince was brought to Rika in an ambulance, according to the reports, where an operation was performed for removal of the missile which had been perforated.

SUPREME COURT TO GIVE IMPORTANT DECISIONS

Settlement of Union Pacific Merger, Hard Coal Suit and Cotton Corner Case Expected in Opinions Today.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Washington, Dec. 1.—Decisions in many of the 161 cases which are under consideration by the supreme court are expected to be announced tomorrow. Chief interest is centered in possible decisions in the Sherman anti-trust cases, such as the hard coal suit, the Union Pacific merger case and the "cotton corner" case. The state rate cases and the "intermountain rate cases" also are anxiously awaited.

After the announcement of decisions on the anti-trust cases, the constitutionality of the "newspaper publicity" section of the postal appropriation act, will be heard. Much of the rest of the week will be occupied with arguments in cases which have been placed upon the "summary" docket. This docket was invented by Chief Justice White to which he assigns cases giving promise of easy disposition and demanding early consideration.

ENRAGED MAN RUNS AMUCK IN DENVER

Denver, Dec. 1.—C. W. Benning drank a bottle of poison, sought to kill his wife with a revolver and held on and took away a policeman's revolver before he was finally put under arrest. The case counted down Benning, brooding over the fact that his wife had left him and was suing for a divorce, attempted suicide by drinking poison with whiskey as an antidote. The case counted down the other. Then he started down the street to the house where his wife was living. She saw him coming with a gun in his hand and called Patrolman Charles Edwards who stopped Benning.

The pair came to an abrupt end when Benning watched the policeman's gun and went running down the street. Edwards and two other policemen captured the fugitive.

CONGRESS BEGINS CLOSING SESSION WITH AMPLE WORK AHEAD

Fifteen Appropriation Bills, Carrying More Than One Billion Dollars, Are to be Presented Early After Meetings.

IMPORTANT LIQUOR MEASURE TO FRONT

Impeachment Proceedings Against Judge Archbald Expected to Engross Attention of Senate at Once.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Washington, Dec. 1.—The expiring sixty-second congress will assemble tomorrow at noon for its final work of legislation. In the brief period remaining before constitutional limitations bring it to an end, fifteen appropriation bills carrying more than $1,000,000,000 for the support of the government must be passed; the impeachment of Judge Archbald, of the commerce court, must be tried in the senate; many investigating committees must make their reports and scores of legislative matters must be disposed of.

Throughout the session, will run the preparatory work for the extra session to be called soon after President-elect Wilson takes office. Committees will thresh out questions of tariff, currency and anti-trust legislation in the effort to have democratic politics shaped and democratic plans made before the new administration comes into power. It is assumed, say legislative leaders, that there will be no tariff legislation this winter. Neither is it expected that the currency or anti-trust problems will receive much attention, the principal work of the session being confined to preparation for the democratic administration and the enactment of the more important bills pending on the calendars of the two houses.

Important bills to receive attention include the bill for a department of labor, which Senator Borah said today would be passed for immediate action; the Sheppard-Kensens bill, preventing shipments of oil liquor into "dry states"; the Page bill to give federal aid to vocational and agricultural schools; and the resolution for a constitutional amendment limiting a president to a single term of six years. The annual estimates for appropriations are ready and will be sent to the house tomorrow noon.

President Taft's message will be brought in the following day with some of his recommendations for the year. Chairman Fitzgerald, of the house appropriations committee, had not reached his office today, but a subcommittee has completed the first appropriation bill and it will be passed on by the full committee tomorrow. This measure carries appropriations for salaries in the legislative, executive and judicial branches of the government. Committees have been at work on other measures and a string of appropriation bills will be poured into the house during the next few weeks. Activity in the senate usually is limited until the house has completed some of the appropriation measures, but this year, the impeachment trial of Judge Archbald will engross the senate from the beginning of the session.

Several new inquiries are in prospect in the house for the short session. The judiciary committee will begin an inquiry into anti-trust problems about Christmas with the hope that some amendments to the anti-trust law can be recommended before congress adjourns.

Either the judiciary committee or the "money trust" committee will be asked, it is believed, to investigate the New England railroad situation to determine what relations, if any, exist between the Grand Trunk and the New York, New Haven & Hartford.

"The money trust investigation" is to continue this month and an effort will be made to secure partial report before the session ends. Many investigations, including that into the so-called "shipping trust" and into the awarding of contracts for army and navy shoes must be concluded before March 4th.

Senators who had reached Washington tonight would not venture opinions as to the outcome of the struggle in that body over the selection of a presiding officer. Senator Bacon will act as presiding officer until December 16th, by an agreement made last August. It is believed the senate then will continue him as presiding officer of the court of impeachment until the Archbald trial is concluded.

Congressman Woods Dangerously Ill. (By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Washington, Dec. 1.—The new congressman Frank P. Woods, of the Tenth Iowa district, is dangerously ill with pneumonia. Members of his family have been called from California.

American Antislavery Meet Today. Chicago, Dec. 1.—The annual meeting of the American Antislavery association will begin here tomorrow. The contest situation, good roads agitation and the election of officers are the principal events scheduled. The aim of the good roads committee is to seek federal aid in highway improvement.

Pensioners Paid Directly from Washington. Old Agency System Abolished Causes Inauguration of New Method of Disbursing Money to Veterans.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Washington, Dec. 1.—The new system of paying all persons on the federal pension rolls direct from Washington, instead of through the eight regional pension agencies, is being inaugurated by the pension bureau. Checks are being sent 600,000 pensioners in the section heretofore covered by the agencies at Augusta, Ga., Boston, Orono, Detroit, Washington and San Francisco. The personnel of the agencies at Indianapolis, Knoxville, Louisville, New York, Philadelphia and Toledo, which have completed their November payments, will soon be brought into Washington, the first of the agency transfers to the pension bureau. For the first time in history the pensioners will be paid without the formality of vouchers, the checks serving the same purpose by requirement of endorsement by the pensioner in the presence of two witnesses. The pensioner also must show to the indorsers his certificate, the number of which must tally with the certificate number on the checks. The new system obviates the necessity of receipts from the pensioners.

FEDERALS PROFESS CONFIDENCE IN PROGRESS OF WAR

Minister of Interior Hopes to Have Rebel Bands Surrender on Assurance That Their Lives Will be Spared.

AMERICAN WARSHIPS CAUSE UNEASINESS

Government of Madero Uncertain as to Purpose of Visit to Harbor of Vera Cruz of Four U. S. Gunboats.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Mexico City, Dec. 1.—Convicted that numerous bands of rebels in the states of Durango, Coahuila and Southern Chihuahua are continuing their operations merely because they believe surrender would mean summary execution under the suspension of guarantees, Rafael Hernandez, the new minister of the interior, announced today that he would attempt to gain for them a promise of amnesty.

Cheche Campos and Benjamin Arguade, officers in Orozco's organization are the chief rebel leaders, in those districts and several engagements have been fought during the latter part of the week; the government is usual announcing victories. These and allied leaders have been making successful raids on small outposts, managing for the most part to evade encounters with superior forces. The rich country is practically at their mercy and the federal forces are able to accomplish little more than garrison the larger towns.

Minister Hernandez is confident the rurales, who report to his department, will be able to cooperate more effectively than the regular troops, and with this object in view, he has conferred with General de la Vega, commander-in-chief of the rurales guard. Hernandez has issued a general order to the rurales to commandeer horses when needed, giving receipts to the owners and notifying the government. The rurales have complained that frequently they are unable to follow the rebels on account of worn out mounts. It is believed this will prevent the rebels from obtaining horses and will assure the owners of payment. It was suggested by complaints from the ranch owners of raids.

Out of the mass of rumors as to General Orozco's whereabouts, that most credited is the report that he has resided at the head of some hundreds of men east of Tijuana, in the state of Chihuahua, after recuperating from a serious sickness. The government professes satisfaction at the improvement in the general situation. In the state of Oaxaca, some diminution of activity is apparent as the result of a campaign of destruction and summary executions. The states of Morelos and Mexico have seen fewer developments than usual recently, but since the rebels are known to be strong, this is believed to presage increased activity soon.

Throughout the republic the number of engagements reported has decreased. Only five were reported today. In one brush yesterday the federal forces defeated the rebels.

On the arrival of a fresh supply of ammunition the federal forces renewed the engagement with the result, according to an official dispatch from the governor of Puebla, that the rebels were routed. The governor of Vera Cruz reports that with the capture of General Bravo, near Tuxpan, "the last band of rebels in the state has been exterminated."

Francisco de la Barra, former provisional president, was one of the candidates in the election today for governor of the state of Mexico, but owing to interrupted communications it is impossible to learn the result.

Mexicans are not wholly reassured by the Washington declarations and are keenly interested in the proposed visit of four American battleships to Vera Cruz and the motive for their coming.

Much interest is displayed in the character of the visit of these battleships. It is no secret that the American note is not pleasing to the Mexican government and the failure of the Mexican foreign office to discuss the nature of the reply gives some basis for believing it is not entirely pleasing to Washington.

Orozon, Arkansas, Dec. 1.—Tony Jannus, accompanied in his hydro-aeroplane by William H. Trefts, a photographer, arrived here today on his way to New Orleans from Omaha. He left Caruthersville, Missouri, this morning, covering the sixty-two miles in one hour and 11 minutes, not stopping five minutes at Gold Dust, Tennessee on account of rain.

BANK OFFICERS IN ALASKA MUST STAND TRIAL

Government Goes After Men Presumed Responsible for Failure of Institution at Fairbanks.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Seattle, Wash., Dec. 1.—The trial of the men indicted for alleged violation of the law in connection with the management of the Washington-Alaska Bank of Nevada, of Fairbanks, Alaska, which closed its doors January 4, 1911, owing $300,000 to depositors, $150,000 having been paid to them, will be begun in the federal court at Valdez, Alaska, tomorrow. E. T. Barnette, former president of the bank, is charged with embezzlement, as also is Frank W. Hawkins, who was appointed receiver after the failure. Former Vice President J. Albert Jackson is accused of aiding and abetting Hawkins and of making an alleged false entry in the bank's books. Lew Wing is charged with perjury in signing alleged false statements of the condition of the Fairbanks Banking Company, of which he was cashier and which was consolidated with the Washington-Alaska Bank of Washington to form the Washington-Alaska Bank of Nevada. Falconer Joslin, W. H. Parsons, E. E. Barbour and E. L. Webster, residents of Seattle, are charged with signing false statements of the Washington-Alaska Bank of Washington, of which they are officers.

It is expected that the trial of Barnette will take place first. He is a millionaire winter resident of Los Angeles and has large interests in Mexico.

On the arrival of a fresh supply of ammunition the federal forces renewed the engagement with the result, according to an official dispatch from the governor of Puebla, that the rebels were routed. The governor of Vera Cruz reports that with the capture of General Bravo, near Tuxpan, "the last band of rebels in the state has been exterminated."

McGillis notified the police of the "proposition" that had been made to him and arrangements were made to trap Preston. Two detectives were hidden in a basement where Preston was to meet McGillis. Preston appeared at the appointed hour and reported his offer, which was overheard by the detectives. He said that "things were dull in the detective agency and he could afford to do the job for $2,000 although his regular price for such work was $2,500."

The local police say Preston's mind has become unbalanced from reading about the Rosenthal murder case in New York.

All Turkish shops were plundered, the roughs of the town taking part in the pillaging. The Greek bishop acted with courage and sent a boat to Boskya bay for help. The foreign warship sent several boats into the harbor at night, carrying big lights, to make them look like warships.

The last train departing before the Bulgarian arrival was stormed by fugitives. One of the engineers was bitten on the hands and legs by frenzied women who tried to climb into the engine. The last train of all was captured.

An official announcement confirms the statement that the armistice protocol will be signed "Monday or Tuesday." Those who will attach their signatures are Nazim Pasha, war minister and commander-in-chief of the Turkish forces, Rechid Pasha and Riza Pasha, also representing Turkey. General Savoff, generalissimo of the Bulgarian army; Dr. Danoff, president of the Bulgarian chamber of deputies, and General Fitcher, Bulgarian chief of staff.

The armistice provides that fortified places may be provisioned and that the siege of Turkish ports and islands is to be contemporarily considered as raised.

In the event of a breakdown of the peace negotiations, the contracting parties must give forty-eight hours' notice before resuming hostilities.

PEACE DELEGATES IN CONFERENCE NEAR TURKISH DEFENSES

BULGARIANS BUTCHER MANY MOHAMMEDANS

Towns Are Plundered and People Shot Down Indiscriminately; Greek Bishop Tries to End Bloodshed.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Constantinople, Dec. 1.—The meetings of the peace delegates have been near the bridge spanning the river Karadeniz between Tehtatla and Hademkenli. The Bulgarians arrived on horseback on both Tuesday and Wednesday. On Thursday Nazim Pasha, the Turkish commander in chief, entertained them at lunch.

Turks arrived early, but there was no sign of the Bulgarians. Presently the approach of a train from Tehtatla was reported. Nazim Pasha was skeptical, not believing that the Bulgarians could repair the bridges which had been blown up. A Bulgarian train soon appeared, however, and fourteen sat down to lunch.

General Savoff, the Bulgarian chief, found Nazim Pasha talked Turkish while the others used the French language. It seemed to be a cordial gathering. The sultan yesterday sent salutations to the troops with gifts of tobacco.

There were forty-eight cases of cholera in Constantinople Saturday with nine deaths. The total number of cases since November 30th, is officially reported as 843 with 415 deaths. Travelers from Dedagah described the massacre of Moslems by the Bulgarians when they entered that town, which is reported to be typical of what is happening throughout Macedonia. The first Bulgarians to enter were an irregular band of not more than 130. A shot was fired from the mosque which was flying the white flag whereupon the Bulgarians demolished the mosque with mortar and burned and looted the Turkish quarter and massacred 500 persons. More than 100 bodies were counted in the streets, some of which were those of Christians.

All Turkish shops were plundered, the roughs of the town taking part in the pillaging. The Greek bishop acted with courage and sent a boat to Boskya bay for help. The foreign warship sent several boats into the harbor at night, carrying big lights, to make them look like warships.

SIR EDWARD GRAY'S PLAN PROVOKES OPPOSITION. Paris, Dec. 1.—According to information in official circles tonight, Sir Edward Gray's suggestion for a conference of ambassadors to consider the Balkan settlement is meeting with opposition from members of the triple alliance who desire that the conference be held in a neutral city, such as Bern, The Hague or Brussels and not in the capital of one of the powers interested. It is considered that it will be difficult to come to an agreement for it is pointed out that "a meeting of the ambassadors" implies the choice of a capital where the ambassadors already accredited, could represent their governments; whereas the choice of a neutral city would involve the sending of special envoys. This would really be a congress and there would then be no reason why delegates from the belligerent states, as well as Rumania, should not be admitted there to.

The Constantinople correspondent of the Temps gives, under reserve, the main lines of a peace scheme as outlined by Turkish semi-official sources. According to this scheme, Greece gets Epirus, Serbia gets old Serbia, Novibazar, and Bulgaria gets Thrace, following the frontier from Midia to Dedagatch or Kavala, but excluding Adrianople which remains connected with Constantinople and the Balcans.

Autonomy is to be granted to Macedonia, with Saloniki as the capital. Albania, minus a part ceded to Montenegro and also the province, is placed under the suzerainty of the Balkans. The final condition is the admission of Turkey to the Balkan league.

PEACE PROSPECTS GROW BRIGHTER IN BALKANS.

Vienna, Dec. 1.—A majority of the Vienna newspapers view the situation more hopefully, chiefly on account of the report that Russia has given assurances to Austria that she does not intend to support all of Serbia's ambitions. Most of the journals think the chance of the crisis is passed, but there is no sign that Serbia has abandoned her attitude on the question of an Adriatic port.

The Neue Freie Presse says that during the present negotiations Serbia demanded from Turkey the cession of the whole Albanian coast from Montenegro to Durazzo, which the Turkish delegates refused. Inspired journals insist that Austria will veto absolutely the acquisition by Serbia of territory on the Albanian coast and a strip through Albania, but will not object to Serbia using an Albanian port under Albanian sovereignty.

SERBIANS DENY STORY OF PREPARATION FOR WAR.

Belgrade, Dec. 1.—An official statement denies reports that Serbia is concentrating troops on the northern frontier and fortifying Belgrade and other towns. The statement says: "The government has not sent and is not sending a single soldier to the northern frontier. It is fortifying neither Belgrade nor any other town on the Danube or Sava, as anyone can convince himself with his own eyes. On the contrary the government is doing everything possible to avoid a superfluous conflict."

MONTENEGRINS KEEP UP ATTACKS ON SCUTARI.

Nike, Montenegro, Dec. 1.—King Nicholas, accompanied by the crown prince, arrived at staff headquarters at Scutari yesterday. The king made a circuit of the town and the surrounding area, visiting the positions and gave orders for the disposition of the attacking forces. The heavy guns bombarded Scutari two hours in the afternoon. Many shells fell in the middle of the town. The attack was resumed today, the king directing personally.

GREEKS DISARM PEOPLE OF CAPTURED CITY.

Athens, Dec. 1.—The military governor of Saloniki, effectively to prevent order, has disarmed the whole population without distinction of race or religion. An official message from China to the Aegean sea says the Greek army is proceeding slowly but surely. The Turkish troops are not routed and the fortified positions. A Greek warship has been ordered and disembarked the Hellenic forces at the shore where the Turks were using as a store house.

SOFA MAY SECURE TREATY CONFERENCE.

Sofia, Dec. 1.—No meeting of the peace delegates was held today, according to information received here. The Greek government failed to receive the necessary instructions from their government. The council of ministers is holding a protracted session at Sofia and the government circles are optimistic and hope for a favorable report tomorrow. The Bulgarians were reported to have proposed that the peace negotiations be held in Sofia, and it is not altogether probable that the Turks will object. The war news from the front is quiet.

RYAN EXPECTS TO TAKE STAND AS WITNESS

Government Closes Its Case Against Alleged Dynamiters and Defense Begins Testimony Today.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Indianapolis, Dec. 1.—As the first of the witnesses for the defense and himself the most prominent defendant, Frank M. Ryan, president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers probably will testify at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial tomorrow at the close of the government's case. The government announced it would close its case with one more witness. The defense is to follow with the customary motions for the dismissal of certain of the defendants on the ground that the government has not sustained its charge. The defendant's attorney then will begin examining the witnesses. The plan is to have each defendant prosecute the witnesses called in his behalf. Altogether 150 new witnesses have been summoned.

President Ryan has been at the head of the union for seven years. He was president when John J. McNamara, the secretary-treasurer was arrested in Indianapolis in April, 1911. He, with other officials, is charged with appropriating the union's money to carry on a dynamiting campaign against non-union work in connection with which the McNamara brothers are now in prison in California.

The charges against Ryan of aiding in illegal transportation of dynamite are based on letters taken from McNamara's files. These letters, the government asserts, show that Ryan and the executive board members stopped publishing the union's expenditures so that McNamara would not have to show in detail what he did with $10,000 a month.

John T. Butler, Buffalo, vice president; Michael J. Young, Boston; Philip A. Cooley, New Orleans; Henry W. Leggett, Denver; and Eugene A. Clancy, San Francisco, present or past members of the executive board, are among other defendants scheduled soon to testify.

District Attorney Miller has said that within a few days he would insist on an endorsement of the courts ruling that fourteen defendants must furnish new bonds or remain in jail between sessions of court. Herbert S. Harkin, taken in custody eight days ago, and Edward Smythe and James E. Ray, Peoria, Ill., taken in custody about two weeks ago, are still imprisoned in default of new bonds.

Joseph McCaffrey, vice pres. for Neb. Groeters of America, Omaha, states: "I cheerfully recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound as a sure cure for coughs and colds. I have used it myself and have recommended it to others who have since told me of its great curative power in diseases of the throat and lungs." J. H. O'Reilly Drug Co.

AERONAUT DASHED TO DEATH FROM PARACHUTE

Richard Frayne Falls Two Thousand Feet to Driveway of Cemetery Near Jacksonville; Every Bone Broken.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Jacksonville, Fla., Dec. 1.—Richard Frayne, an aeronaut, fell 2,000 feet here this afternoon and was instantly killed. Three thousand persons saw the accident.

The aeronaut was thrown from his seat in the parachute immediately after he cut loose from the balloon. His body landed in the driveway of the Jacksonville cemetery near here. Frayne, who was 35 years old, was in his body was broken. With Jack Crosby, his companion, Frayne ascended at the cemetery fair here last night. Both men had individual parachutes attached to the balloon. Crosby saved his parachute from the balloon fire and a moment later he saw Frayne's body dash past him. Witnesses of the tragedy say Frayne's parachute opened successfully and it is believed his fall was due to his failure to place his hands in the safety straps. The momentary halting of descent upon the opening of the parachute broke the line from his seat.

Frayne's home was at Lowell, Mass. He was 25 years old and unmarried. Crosby, who was a business partner of Frayne, also lives in Massachusetts. They had headquarters in Boston.

CABINET CRISIS IS IMMINENT IN JAPAN

Tokyo, Dec. 1.—A cabinet crisis has arisen over the refusal of the minister of war, Lieutenant General Uchida, to accept a cabinet decision relieving the scheme for increasing the military forces in Korea. After a number of extraordinary sittings, Premier Saito informed the war minister that the cabinet adheres to its position. General Uchida then indicated his intention to resign. It is doubtful whether the emperor will accept the resignation. The press and the general public support the cabinet. Lieutenant General Uchida was appointed minister of war April 3, 1911, to succeed General Ishimoto, whose death occurred the previous year.

BLACK CAT'S EAR BALKAN STRUGGLE NEARS END, IS BELIEF IN EUROPE

Purchaser of Feline's Aural Organ Tried Robbery Stunt in Belief He Was Invisible; Seller Arrested.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) Chicago, Dec. 1.—George A. Pupausk, a Polish banker-confederate, recently released from the house of correction where he was sent by Federal Judge Landis to serve a month's sentence for selling invisibility charms and love charms, was arrested again tonight. Pupausk said Anton Lokoritz, a fellow countryman, a black cat's ear made him invisible. Lokoritz gladly paid $25 for the charm and put the ear, according to directions, in his left waistcoat pocket.

Confident in his invisibility, Lokoritz then entered a saloon with the proprietor of which he was not on friendly terms. Making sure the charm was in place he stepped behind the bar and began to help himself to bottled goods.

The bartender immediately fell on Lokoritz and hustled him into the street. "Why, you can't see me. How did you know I was there?" exclaimed Lokoritz in bewilderment. "I saw you all right. Keep out of here," admonished the bartender. Lokoritz went to Pupausk's home, thinking something more energetic than before, so that he was advised he was not by a woman who heard his complaint.

"The trouble is," she said, "that you should have had a magic bean. The ear is no good without the bean." Lokoritz bought a bean and returned to the saloon. No one noticed him and he thought that this time he had the right magic. He went behind the bar again but was discovered without difficulty by the bartender who ejected Lokoritz more energetically than before, so that he had several bruises to show the police when he made his complaint.

Another purchaser of a black cat's ear is sought by the police to testify against the conjurer. This man bought a black cat's ear and was run over soon after by an automobile. The man did not make a complaint, his leg became lame, he was invisible and could not blame the chauffeur for not seeing him.

CHILDREN HATE CASTOR OIL; UGH!

Delicious "Syrup of Figs" Best for Their Little Stomachs, Liver and Waste-Clogged Bowels.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the physic that neither inhaled—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it is different. The day of the harsh physic is over. We don't force the liver and bowels now. We have no dread of after effects. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well founded. Their little stomachs and tender bowels are injured by them.

If your child is fretful, peevish, half sick, stomach sour, breath feverish and its little system full of catarrhs, diarrhoea, and throat, stomach-ache, don't eat or eat well—remember—look at the tongue if coated, give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs, then don't worry, because you surely will have a well smiling child in a few hours.

Syrup of Figs being composed entirely of laxative figs, senna and aromatic simple catarrh, it soothes the bowels and thoroughly cleanses the liver and the stomach. Mothers, in a few hours all your child's undigested, fermenting food and constipated waste matter gently moves on and out of the system without griping or nausea.

Directions for children of all ages, also for grown-ups, plainly printed on the package.

By all means get the genuine. Ask your druggist for the full name "Syrup of Figs and Elix of Senna" prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. Accept nothing else.

Bride-to-be's House Burns to Ground. Grand Junction, Colo., Dec. 1.—The bride-to-be's house, a new frame, was the wedding of Miss Cora Thibault to John T. Jordan of Los Angeles, has been postponed. They were to have been married tomorrow at the home of the bride's mother, seven miles east of here. Yesterday, Miss Thibault came here to make a few final purchases. When she returned home, she found her home had burned to the ground with all that it contained.

READY TO SCREAM

Many women said men, too, allow themselves to get so roused in health from overwork, late hours, and overeating, and improper food that they get into a state of nervous exhaustion. When you hear a woman say, "I'm so worn out, I can't think," or "I'm so high strung, I can't hold my nerves," or "I'm so nervous, I can't sleep," or "I'm so nervous, I can't eat," or "I'm so nervous, I can't live," or "I'm so nervous, I can't work," or "I'm so nervous, I can't be happy," or "I'm so nervous, I can't be healthy," or "I'm so nervous, I can't be anything," or "I'm so nervous, I can't be a woman," or "I'm so nervous, I can't be a mother," or "I'm so nervous, I can't be a wife," or "I'm so nervous, I can't be a friend," or "I'm so nervous, I can't be a neighbor," or "I'm so nervous, LUCK WAS AGAINST U.N.M. IN GAME AT TUCSON

Score Would Have Been More Readable If God of Chance Had Not Shown So Much Favoritism Toward A. U.

Players of the University of New Mexico football squad, who yesterday returned from Tucson, Ariz., where they met the University of Arizona last Thursday, express displeasure with the result of the game.

The game was rough, but the New Mexicans have no complaint to make about that. A broken neck bone for Luckey and a strained neck for Walker attest the roughness of the melee. Walker's neck is encased in leather, but he probably will be able to enter the game against the Albuquerque Indian school Saturday. Luckey's injury, however, will keep him out of the final game.

The team would have returned last Saturday, but Luckey was advised by a physician to remain a day longer, and his teammates decided to stay with him. Walker also was advised not to travel too soon.

Coach R. F. Hutchinson is irate. He declared he would never again schedule a game with Arizona, but the coach's wrath probably will cool before next season. A cold winter, forecasted by the weather seers, favors this. The coach is somewhat torrid in the region of his rear collar button on account of the injury to two of his players and this may influence his views a trifle just now.

A twelfth player lined up on Arizona's side, according to the home comers. It was Luck, and he played a great game. If Luck had been with the New Mexicans, they might have had a chance to win. With Luck neutral the New Mexicans might have reduced the margin between the ends of the score, but with the joyful limp on the other side—well, this isn't ancient history.

With only four minutes to play the Hutchinson crew was ripping its way through Arizona territory. A touchdown appeared inevitable. The Arizona team was weakening fast, but then Luck took a head-on charge, while the variety had the ball and got a pass off all right to the runner, when Pickett, one of the Arizona men, ran at him from a distance of probably five yards behind the line. Pickett weighs many pounds more than does the local boy, and struck him pretty hard.

Perhaps it was the self-same limp who lost another touchdown for New Mexico early in the game. Perhaps it wasn't, but it is safe to charge it up to Luck. He won't side-step. Armijo caught a forward pass behind the Arizona posts, but he was tackled and carried out into the field. The officials said it was a touchback.

Even if New Mexico had embraced the two expected touchdowns it could not have won, but then the score would have been more pleasing to the New Mexican eye.

WALKER HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH

George Walker, center on the variety team, had as narrow an escape as has been recorded in the annals of football. Walker was playing center while the variety had the ball and got a pass off all right to the runner, when Pickett, one of the Arizona men, ran at him from a distance of probably five yards behind the line. Pickett weighs many pounds more than does the local boy, and struck him pretty hard.

Walker knew that he had been hit somewhere in the neck, but was not worried about it, and after the game in his own words, "had a bath and took a smoke." That night I went to the dance the Arizona fellows gave, and the next morning ran around some. My neck had begun to hurt a little, but nothing severe. Later in the morning it got to hurting pretty bad, and I went back to the hotel and sent one of the fellows after Hutch. The first thing Hutch did was to call a doctor.

Asked what happened then, Walker said, "oh, they just put a dog-collar on me and shipped me home. There's my packing case, there," and he indicated a huge bandage wrapped around his neck, some six inches high, which he had worn all the time from Friday morning until his arrival home yesterday morning. The collar was quite six inches high and would have done credit to the most fashionably dressed lady, so wonderful were its powers for discomfort.

Walker was examined by two physicians on his arrival here, and one of them stated that his escape had been little short of miraculous. Two of the vertebrae of his neck were out of place and had the dislocation been a quarter of an inch greater, his spinal cord would have been severed and he would have died almost instantly. Walker takes his injury lightly, and conversed cheerfully with variety men when they called upon him yesterday. His physician says he will be able to be about in three or four days, possibly less.

PITTSBURGH LED IN FIELD; PHILLIES ARE SECOND

New York, Which Won Pennant, Next to Last in League Standing; Hans Wagner Peer of Shortstops.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) New York, Dec. 1.—Pittsburgh, which finished second in the National league race last season, led the league in fielding by a margin of nine points, while the pennant-winning New York club was seventh. This was shown by the official fielding averages made public today. Pittsburgh leading with a percentage of .972 as against .963 for Philadelphia, second, while New York is next to last with .956, two points ahead of Boston, who finished as they finished in the league race—last.

Of individual players Danbert led the first basemen with a close second, while Eagen of Cincinnati was far ahead of the other regulars among the second sackers in percentage.

Robert of Philadelphia fielded .976 in sixty-three games, second man among the regular third basemen being Byrne of Pittsburgh, with .948 in 130 games. Wagner, the Pittsburgh veteran, was easily the premier shortstop.

Pittsburgh players were also to the fore among the outfielders. Donlin, Leach (later with Chicago) and Carey being among the first seven. Pittsburgh's three backstops—Simon, Gibson and Kelley—are three men in a row among the catchers, only topped by Needham of Chicago. Several pitchers fielded perfectly. Robinson of Pittsburgh going thirty-three games without an error and Brown of Boston and Willis of St. Louis, each thirty-one games.

WEST POINT CADETS WELCOME ELEVEN HOME

West Point, N. Y., Dec. 1.—The defeated Army football team arrived home at 2:45 o'clock this afternoon, and notwithstanding the players' defeat and the loss of yesterday's game to the Navy, the cadets generally were enthusiastic over the team's work. Five hundred of them, headed by a band, were at the station to meet the team and gave it a rousing cheer. The players, walked quickly to quarters. They were all in splendid physical condition and had no excuses to offer for their defeat, declaring that the better team won.

DES MOINES BOYS DEFEAT CLAYTON IN BASKETBALL GAME

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.) Clayton, N. M., Dec. 1.—In an exciting basketball game played here Thanksgiving night, the boys' team of the Des Moines high school defeated the Clayton high school five by a score of 21 to 7.

The Des Moines team, playing the game according to the A. F. rules, after having learned under the college rules, was considerably handicapped, but even then they outplayed their opponents. Numerous fouls by both teams reduced the playing time considerably, thus preventing a larger score. The Clayton boys did not make a field goal, their seven scores being secured on free throws.

CLOVIS BASKETBALL GIRLS CONTINUE TO BEAT OTHER TEAMS

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.) Clovis, N. M., Dec. 1.—In the second game of basketball played between the girls of the Clovis high school and a similar team from the Hersford high school, the Clovis team won Friday afternoon by a score of 24 to 18.

The Clovis team continued on to Canyon City where they played the West Texas Normal School last night. This was the hardest earned victory the Clovis team has won this season, they winning by the narrow margin of 23 to 21. Clovis won by superior team work.

The defeated teams mentioned above are reckoned as among the fastest teams in West Texas, Hersford having been victorious in every game played in the past four years until the first game of the series with Clovis. The Texas Normal team has a long list of victories also, defeating Amarillo Thanksgiving.

BRENNAN DECIDES HE WILL NOT SUE FOGEL

St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 1.—William Brennan, National league umpire, tonight announced he would drop his proposed civil suit for damages against Horace Fogel, former president of the Philadelphia club. Mr. Brennan says he had been vindicated by the action of the National league in barring Fogel from further participation in league councils. Brennan recently announced his intention of bringing suit against Fogel for $10,000 damages.

NEW YORK GIANTS MAY PASS INTO NEW HANDS

Edward A. Tipton, Wealthy Horseman, Negotiating with Brush Heirs for Purchase of National League Club.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) New York, Dec. 1.—The New York Giants may be sold by the heirs of John T. Brush in a few days, according to a story printed in the Press today. The newspaper says it is reliably informed that Edward A. Tipton, a well known horseman and owner of the club and that should the purchase of the club and that should the Brush heirs agree to accept a certain sum the sale is practically assured. According to the Press C. G. K. Billings, the millionaire horseman, is associated with Mr. Tipton in the endeavor to secure the club.

FRANK BURNS TAKEN BACK TO BELEN TO FACE FELONY CHARGE

Frank Burns, who was arrested Saturday night on a charge of failure to pay a board bill, last night was taken to Belen by Deputy Sheriff Baca, a Belen officer.

Burns was jailed here by Officer Charles Mainz on the complaint of Mrs. Lou Kuhns of Belen, who said he left there, owing her $35.

FEDERAL OFFICIALS SEARCH VAINLY FOR LUCILE CAMERON

Chicago, Dec. 1.—While federal officials and officers were searching the city for Lucile Cameron, former white companion of Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, the girl was in a room in a downtown hotel, it was learned here today. She is said to have left the hotel in the evening, some hours after Johnson had declared he had letters and telephone messages from her indicating that she had started west.

NEGROES ATTEMPT HOLD-UP, BUT VICTIM RUNS

Armed Highwaymen Accost A Chavez Early in Evening, But Do Not Shoot When He Fails to Throw Up His Hands.

A. Chavez, 301 North Broadway, reported to the police yesterday morning that two negroes made an attempt to hold him up Saturday night. He ran.

Chavez, who works for the Kasegan Coal Company, was on his way home. Two negroes stepped in front of him on the Tijeras road east of the Santa Fe tracks and one, leveling a revolver at him, ordered him to throw up his hands. Chavez's arms were full of bundles, so he fled. They did not fire at him.

It was at 7:30 o'clock when the attempt was made, according to Chavez, and he declares the two would-be holdups were negroes. They were not masked. He furnished the police a fairly accurate description of the men.

EXAMINATION NEXT MONTH FOR RAILWAY MAIL APPLICANTS

An examination will be held January 8th of applicants for the position of railway mail clerk. There is some interest in this examination here as there are several local men who intend to take it.

The subjects upon which the prospective clerks will be questioned are spelling, arithmetic, letter writing, penmanship, copying from plain copy, and geography of the United States. Applicants must have reached their eighteenth but not their thirty-fifth birthday on the date of the examination, must weigh not less than 125 pounds in ordinary clothing, and must be at least five feet five inches in height, without boots or shoes.

The salary paid is $500 at the start.

ROOSEVELT MIGHT BE NOMINATED FOR GOVERNOR

Bull Moose Party in New York Would Run Ex-President Two Years Hence to Put G. O. P. Out of Business.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.) New York, Dec. 1.—In advance of the gathering of the faithful of the bull moose party in Orchestra hall, Chicago, on December 10th, comes the report that leaders of the movement are urging Theodore Roosevelt to be candidate for governor of New York two years hence.

In the last week there have been many conferences at Sagamore Hill. Among the visitors have been George W. Perkins, Senator Dixon, Hotchkiss, Prendergast, Munsey and Amos Pinchot.

While much of the discussion at these conferences has turned upon the coming meeting at Chicago, there has been a particularly keen discussion regarding New York state. In this state alone, out of all the states regarded as important to the progressive party success, did the Roosevelt prestige fail to carry the party into second place and thus give it control of the election machinery.

In New York the standing of the second party is fixed by the vote for governor and already the progressive leaders are hard at work seeking a way to become the contending party four years hence. To do this they must defeat a republican candidate for governor and Roosevelt is looked upon as the man for the job.

COLUMBUS TO HAVE BANK FINANCED BY EL PASO CAPITAL

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.) Columbus, N. M., Dec. 1.—A bank and trust company which is being backed by El Paso capital will be opened January 1 in Columbus. The bank is to have an opening capital of $15,000. Preliminary work in arranging for the opening of the financial institution has already begun and the organization itself will be perfected next week when the stockholders meet in El Paso. The bank will be chartered under the laws of the state of New Mexico and it is the plan of the directors to take over a charter issued a year ago to W. C. Hoover. This will be the first bank opened in Columbus.

$500,000 GIFT FROM MRS. W. K. VANDERBILT

New York, Dec. 1.—An endowment of $500,000 for the big Slater movement for the care of the homeless and wayward girls of the Protestant religion is expected from Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt during the coming week. This will be the first of the movement, intends that this sum be applied, it is stated, to make the organization permanent. Announcement is expected from Mrs. Vanderbilt that she has already given $150,000 for the erection of a spacious new home either on Long Island or in Westchester county for the Big Sisters.

NEW RUSSIAN TREATY TO REORGANIZE JEWS

Washington, Dec. 1.—Chairman Sulzer, of the foreign affairs committee of the house, and Governor-elect of New York, in a statement here today said that a new treaty with Russia is now being negotiated and that the United States will "take no step backward" on the question of discrimination against American passports. Mr. Sulzer continued:

"No treaty will meet the approval of congress unless all passports are recognized regardless of race or religion; and unless the doctrine of extradition is recognized by the contracting parties."

ABSCHONDING BANKER ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

West Point, Ga., Dec. 1.—H. W. Parker, absconding bank cashier of Winnebago, Minn., who yesterday confessed to a shortage in his accounts of $17,000, attempted to commit suicide in the West Point jail last night. The prisoner swallowed twenty-five grains of a drug he secured as a head-ache remedy. He finally was revived. After writing a confession of his guilt, in which he admitted marrying Miss Florence Bauer, of Cleveland, despite the fact that he has a wife and three children in Winnebago, Parker came morose. He refused to see any visitors and late in the night complained of severe headache.

A messenger was sent for headache tablets. Shortly after receiving the medicine Parker swallowed the entire twenty-five grains, one of the turn-keys discovered Parker's condition. Physicians were summoned and they succeeded in reviving the banker. When he became conscious Parker begged the doctors to save his life.

The Cleveland woman whom Parker married while he was known as Charles A. Long, today announced that she would not accompany him to Winnebago, but will return to her home.

LOS ANGELES MAYOR NOT TO BE OUSTED

Los Angeles, Dec. 1.—The movement started last week to bring about the recall of Mayor George Alexander has been abandoned as suddenly as it was begun. Announcement that no further signatures would be secured to the recall petitions was made today, within twenty-four hours after Fred M. C. Chouteau, discharged deputy city prosecutor, withdrew as a member of the "citizens good government alliance."

The "alliance" was said to have been an organization of prominent citizens who wanted a new mayor, but apparently it went out of existence, when Chouteau quit it. The explanation for the discontinuance of the movement was that there was insufficient support, although it was asserted that 5,000 signatures had been obtained.

NEGRESS KILLS WOMAN IN LONDON

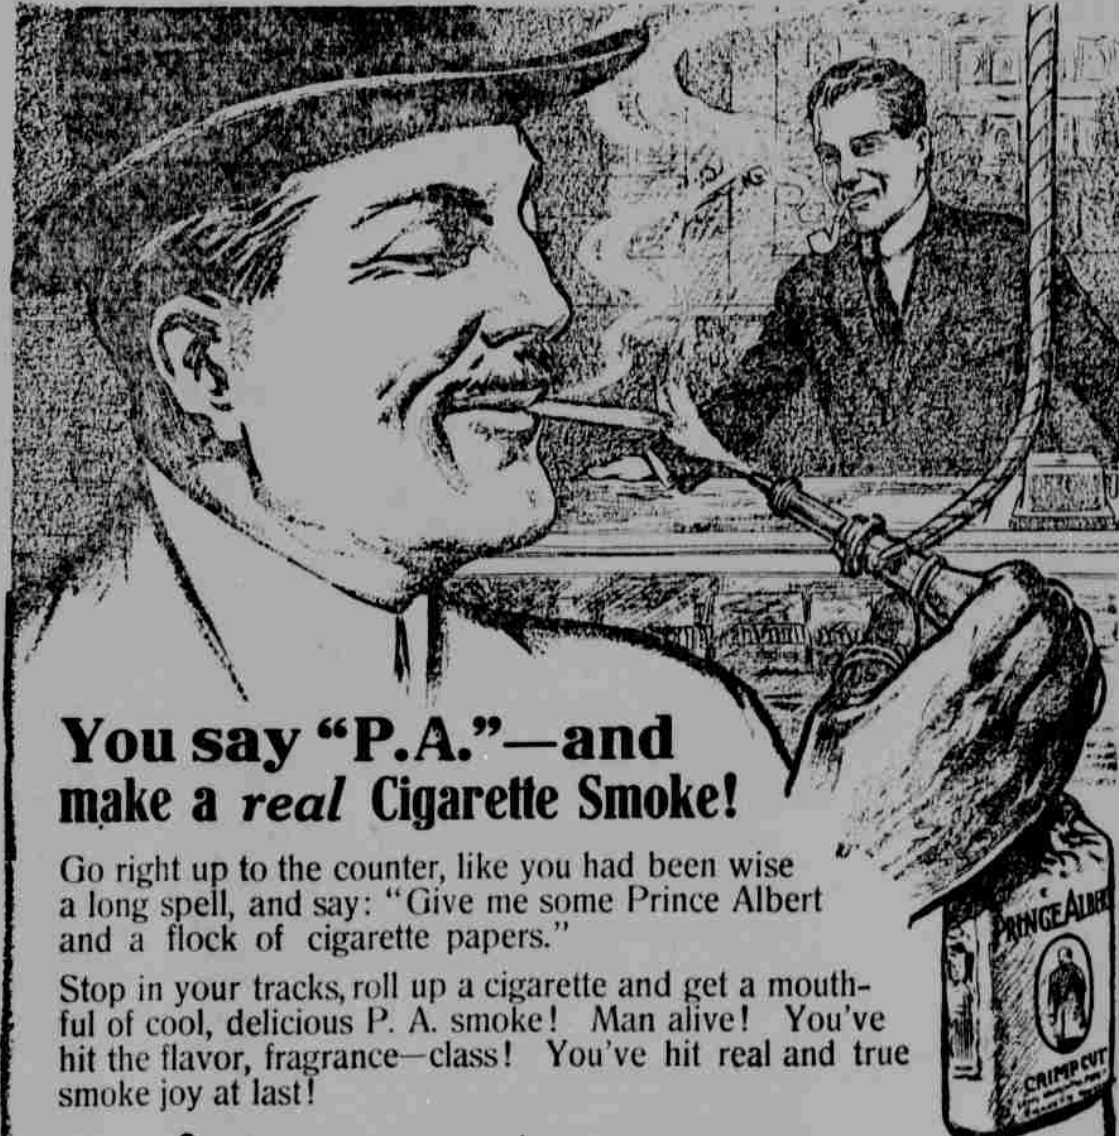

London, Dec. 1.—An American negress, today shot and killed Miss Jessie McIntyre, a young English actress. Mrs. Gross was separated from her husband, Pickie Gross, a vaudeville performer, whom she attempted to kill. Jealousy is said to have been the cause of the shooting. Mrs. Gross was arrested.

Lipton Guest in Mormon Capital

Salt Lake City, Dec. 1.—Sir Thomas Lipton was the guest of former Senator Thomas Kearns here this afternoon and left tonight for Denver. Sir Thomas said he was well pleased with the plans of the championship yacht race, to be held on the Pacific coast in 1915 and that his entry probably would be the Shamrock IV.

ALBUQUERQUE NEW MEXICO

THE ALDRICH PLAN.

Congress begins work today. The session will devote its energies largely to appropriations, with some sort of currency measures as its most important matter of constructive legislation.

The democrats appear to have reached an agreement on a currency plan which is said to follow the Aldrich plan until the central reserve is reached. They will reject that device, but apparently do not substitute anything for it. However, if the party offers a good foundation plan the superstructure can be raised as needed, or if not needed, can be permanently omitted.

The democratic objection to the Aldrich plan appears to be two-fold. First, that it originated with Aldrich, and second, that it looks like stirring a government bank. Obviously the democrats would not be justified in rejecting the association plan simply because Aldrich's name was connected with it. Moreover, it is said they have adopted his idea of grouped banks with enlarged powers to issue notes based partly on bankable paper. It would appear inconsistent to adopt part of his plan and reject the remainder of it simply because he proposed it. But there are real objections to the central bank idea, as well as real virtues. Which overbalance, probably only a test will show.

As to the second objection, the question naturally arises, is a government bank dangerous in itself, or is it dangerous merely because many years ago Andrew Jackson declared it so?

Our law makers should be able to dress themselves of mere prejudices, if they have such. If Jackson was wrong about a government bank, why should the error persist? If he was right at that time was it because of dangers inherent in such bank, or were they merely incidental to the time and to the particular plan of the system headed by Nicholas Biddle?

We ought to settle these questions entirely aside from the matter of Jackson's popularity or of Mr. Aldrich's unpopularity. We should remember that Mr. Jackson was not a banker, he was not a skilled financier. He was a warrior and a politician of the rough and ready sort.

On the other hand, let us be equal to Frank. We have no sort of evidence that Mr. Aldrich plotted the ruin of the country when he devised the currency plan that bears his name. Nor is there much evidence that he continually masked a national bank behind his reserve plan. The central association is logically an outgrowth of the district associations. The plan for electricity was based on the proposition of putting commercial paper behind bank notes. To make this feasible, he suggested the organization of a central association with one or two of the prerogatives of a bank, but not a bank in the accepted sense.

Mr. Aldrich's plan may not be above criticism, but it is significant that no set of financiers or statesmen have been able to get together on any other plan without including many of the fundamental ideas brought forward by Mr. Aldrich.

A BETTER DAY DAWNS.

Robert Hodgson, who was a candidate for governor of Washington state on some ticket, or other, it differs nothing as to that detail, after he was defeated, is quoted as follows:

"I can be a minor again, or I can turn full top-kick off Cape Horn once more. If I must, I can sweep the streets. I'll take the best thing that offers, for there are four fine boys at home who must be fed, clothed, educated and be in the right way of life, and it is necessary that they should have a better chance than their father had."

It seems to be the aim of the political parties now to do something that will give the boys of today and of the future a better chance than their fathers had. And their fathers apparently had a pretty good chance for a lot of them are in Congress, or are governors of states, or are engaged in the professions or in business that they would not accept a governorship or a seat in the United States Congress if offered to them on a silver platter.

The door of opportunity is pretty well open, despite all the talk one hears to the contrary. But the entrance is being somewhat closely guarded against special privileges, against dishonesty, against all forms of crookedness.

The elimination of graft and craft defeats the ambitions of a class that heretofore has preyed on society. It opens the door to honest, intelligent enterprise. The more than one hundred million dollars a year saved by the postoffice department from crooked dealing, and similar fraudulent schemes for fleecing the public, makes that much more capital available for the legitimate business of the country.

As for the governor-non-elect, he will not have "to turn top-kick off Cape Horn" again, for the Panama canal opens a way for his ship by a much nearer and easier route, and it won't cost the captain a cent either provided he is in the coastwise trade.

VINCENT ASTOR, JR. ROIL.

Vincent Astor, who recently inherited about sixty-seven million dollars, seems to have a realization that it is his duty to see to it that he discharges such public obligations as may fall to him. He was summoned for jury duty, and instead of setting up a howl, as most rich men do when such service is required of them, this young man of just a little more than twenty-one years and a little more than three times that number of millions, sent the following reply to the notification:

"It is with pleasure that I have received your notification of my appointment to the third panel, sheriff's jury. My father always highly appreciated the honor of being a member of such a body and I am glad of the opportunity of filling the place which he held."

Young as he is, it is just possible that Mr. Astor has a faint idea that he is not only a responsible member of the government, but that his vast wealth makes it important to him that the entire government shall be administered well—just as all.

$175,000 CATTLE DEAL RUMORED ON MIMBRES

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.)
Silver City, N. M., Dec. 1.—It is reported here that the N. A. N. ranch and cattle have been sold to a firm of Kansas City millionaires. The deal has been pending for some time but whether the sale has actually been consummated has not been verified. The price was in the neighborhood of $175,000.

The N. A. N. outfit is one of the largest in this section of the country. The home ranch is on the Mimbres river near Pecos. The late Jim Holstein was a large owner and manager of the ranch until his death several years ago when his large holdings passed into his estate. Mrs. Holstein and the children still reside on the home place. The Hardesty estate of Kansas is another large owner.

GOETHALS MAY BE GIVEN HIGH HONOR

Washington, Dec. 1.—Colonel George W. Goethals, chief engineer of the Panama canal and its principal builder, will be made a full general in the army with rank corresponding to that now held by Admiral George Dewey in the navy, if Representative Mann of Illinois minority leader in the house, can bring it about in the coming session of congress. The promotion would be for life and no subject Colonel Goethals to retirement for any cause. Representative Mann, who, with a party of other congressmen, recently inspected the canal was enthusiastic tonight in his praise of Colonel Goethals' achievements.

All Idaho Amendments Adopted.
Boise, Idaho, Dec. 1.—All of the Idaho constitutional amendments voted on at the recent election, were adopted according to the figures given out by the state board of canvassers. The vote in favor of the referendum was 42,647, against 12,444; in favor of the initiative 58,321, against 12,377; in favor of the recall 26,827, against 14,094. Less than one-half of the voters expressed themselves.

TOTAL VOTE POLLED ON NOVEMBER 5 WAS 48,566

Congressman Fergusson Receives Plurality Over Jaffa of 4,239; Wilson Leads Taft by 3,303.

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.)
Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 1.—The official canvass has been completed, the figures checked for errors, and tomorrow, without doubt, the canvassing board will officially attach their signatures to the figures.

The figures had been prepared some days ago by employees of the secretary of state's office, and when the canvassing board first met they commenced verifying the figures and checking them over. One precinct had been duplicated in Chaves county, and a few minor mistakes were found. This work was completed late Saturday, and a short session of the board tomorrow will complete the work.

The tabulated figures show that there were 48,566 votes cast for the four candidates for congress, of which number H. H. Fergusson received 22,139, Nathan Jaffa 15,909, Marcus C. de Luna 5,883, and Andrew Keaton 5,644. Mr. Fergusson has plurality of 4,239 over Mr. Jaffa but lacks 2,145 of having a majority of all votes cast.

The surprising feature of the returns is the number of votes received by the socialists. For congress, Andrew Eggum received 2,644, while the socialist electors received 2,339, 2,856 and 2,824 respectively. This is an increase of practically 1,000 votes over the vote cast for the socialist candidates last fall. The socialists were second in number of votes polled in both Curry and Roosevelt counties, running ahead of both the republican and progressive tickets. In Chaves, Otero, Quay and Torrance they were third in the race, the progressive candidates being fourth. In the republican ticket, getting the most votes in these counties. In San Antonio precinct in Socorro county, E. C. de Luna received 36 votes and his companions 22 each; George Armijo 21 and his teammates 15 each; Eufreacio Gallegos 31 and Hughes and Fowler 25 and 26 respectively. As showing where about 40 voters had their votes by thus dividing their vote for electors, the precinct of Arroyo Honda in Torrance county is a good example. E. C. de Luna received 62, Gathum 15 and Stennis 24. George Armijo received 38, his teammates one each, while Eufreacio Gallegos received 69, Hughes 32 and Fowler 34.

Following the rule generally adopted throughout the United States, that is, counting only the first elector, where the state is not in doubt, the vote in the presidential election resulted as follows: Wilson, 29,437; Taft, 12,134; Roosevelt, 8,347 and Debs 2,839. This gives Wilson a plurality over Taft in the state of 3,592, but if the three electors of each candidate are averaged, and then subtracted, the Wilson plurality is reduced to about 2,500.

There were no elections held in precincts 5, 6 and 7 in McKinley county; precincts 14, Otero county; precincts 27 and 28 in Rio Arriba county; precinct 4 in Sierra county and precincts 29 and 30 in Socorro county, a total of nine precincts in all.

SAN FRANCISCO TO GET SHASTA WATER

GOOD INVESTMENT OFFERED IN NEW ADDITION

John M. Moore Co. Opens Tract Four Blocks from New Shop Site; Great Chance to Take Advantage of "Boom."

The John M. Moore Realty Company yesterday announced the opening of the Eastern Addition Extension, a tract of choice building lots only four blocks from the site selected for the big Santa Fe shops, an equal distance from the car line, and just south of the Eastern Addition. The opening of this addition situated at H. is, where the effect of the new shops is certain to be felt first and where land is comparatively cheapest, presents to the public an excellent opportunity for safe investment with assured big returns.

Albuquerque is on the eve of a remarkable growth. The absolute certainty of the location of the big Santa Fe shops here building lots wonder and already the first stirrings of the big boom are felt in the extensive building operations, now under way and in prospect, and in important real estate transactions. It is only natural that the available building property in the immediate vicinity of the new shop site should be first to feel the effect and evidence increased value. This new addition includes the most desirable building property, considering the proposition in all its phases. Easily accessible to both the new shops and the car line, these lots will be in great demand immediately for the erection of dwellings. The site is laid off in good level 50-foot lots, and is endowed by nature with all advantages.

The lots are being offered at a very reasonable figure on an exceptionally inviting payment proposition. Paul G. Brown is in charge of the new addition, and he is anxious to get the lots off the ground at your convenience.

The greatly increased value of realty in Topeka immediately after the establishment of the big Santa Fe shops in that city is being duplicated in Albuquerque. The lots will do just as much or more for this city. The opening of the Eastern Addition Extension by the John M. Moore Company provides an opportunity for you to get into the boom. It offers a safe proposition with certain and quick big returns on your investment. The lots in this addition will go rapidly. Accordingly you should get in touch with Mr. Brown on the proposition at once.

BUSINESS COLLEGE ITEMS

Basket ball is now the principal topic of discussion. Coach Ellis has returned from a hunting trip in the mountains and has both the boys and girls team out for practice regularly. New uniforms have been ordered and the school management is considering entering a team in the Southwestern Basketball tournament to be held at Mesilla Park, February 21-23.

Miss Cecelia Cahill has accepted a position as bookkeeper for S. Kahn. Prof. A. H. Stroup delivered the first of a series of lectures on Business Law for the evening session. The subject was "The Origin of Business Law." Mr. Stroup has made a specialty of Business Law, because of which, and his able manner of presenting the subject, his lecture was intensely interesting to his hearers, especially the Commercial Law classes.

Four students took the civil service examination for stenographer and typewriter last Tuesday. They are now wondering whether the school will be the commission ever plays Santa Claus.

The Spanish class in the evening school is making splendid progress. The department has proved to be such a pronounced success that the management has decided to organize another class about January 1st, in order to accommodate a number who were unable to enter Nov. 1st. The "Quality and success of the class is due to Miss Cartwright's exceptional ability as an instructor and to the fact that the Spanish taught is the same as spoken in New Mexico.

The many friends of Roy Crumblin will be pleased to learn that he will soon leave Magdalena where he is now employed by the Becker-McFarlane company, to accept a better position with the same firm in Springfield, Ark.

MONEY STRINGENCY LIMITS TRADE ON WALL STREET

Financial Experts Believe That There Will be No Easing Up Before First of Year Brings Back Funds to Banks.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Financial New York, Dec. 1.—Dealing in stock last week was on a restricted scale, with the mid-week Thanksgiving holiday aggravating the disinclination to extend the commitments. The limited supply in the money market was the main factor of restraint on speculation. Early in the week the renewal rate for all loans went to 11 per cent, the highest renewal rate quoted at the stock exchange since the close of 1907, when the financial markets were emerging from the effects of the panic. The meagre engagements of gold for import indicate the continuance of world wide strain in money markets.

The immediate strain in New York is expected to relax with the issuance of the expected call from the comptroller for conditions of national banks, the payment of December 28th money settlements and a reflux of cash sent to Canada last week for banks there in preparation for the yearly balance sheets, made up on November 30th. Actual easing on money rates obviously is not looked for until the turn of the year.

Labor troubles in the United States, the decline in copper exports, the estimate of the cotton yield and freight car shortages were unfavorable features in the prevailing promising prospects.

ARCHBOLD CASE IN SENATE TOMORROW

Washington, Dec. 1.—Judge Robert W. Archbald, of the United States commerce court, will appear before the senate Tuesday, to stand trial under articles of impeachment found against him by the house of representatives. The charges against Judge Archbald are that he engaged in business deals with litigants in his court and sought favors from them to an extent that constituted "crime and misdemeanor." Judge Archbald has denied that any of his acts were of an impeachable character.

British Steamer Abandoned at Sea.
Halifax, Dec. 1.—The steamer River Meander, New York for Naples, has been abandoned at sea and probably has foundered. Her captain and crew of thirty men were rescued by the steamer Ithaca, which entered Halifax harbor tonight.

The River Meander left New York November 28th. She is a British steamer of 3,888 tons and was formerly named the Bardonia. Captain McGregor commanded the vessel.

Highwaymen Rob Salt Lake Station.
Salt Lake City, Dec. 1.—Two masked highwaymen, armed with revolvers, entered the Hammer route depot here late tonight, compelled the cashier to open the safe and robbed it of about $300. The robbers then made their "good night" and escaped. There were no passengers in the depot at the time of the robbery.

TESTED AND PROVEN

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.

For months the Morning Journal readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. What other remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit?

J. L. Card, of Albuquerque, New Mex., writes: "Some three or four years ago Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to our attention and the contents of several boxes gave relief to a member of the family who had suffered greatly from kidney complaint. She was benefited so greatly that she gladly testified as to the curative powers of Doan's Kidney Pills in a public statement. Since then I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills myself and have found them very effective in relieving backache and regulating the passages of the kidney secretions. Our experience with this preparation warrants our high opinion of it."

ROY FRANCIS HAS A CLOSE CALL IN 500-FOOT FALL

Aviator Who Flew Here During State Fair Narrowly Escapes Death at Los Angeles; Beachey Big Sensation.

Albuquerque people will read with considerable interest a story appearing in last Friday's Los Angeles Examiner, telling of a 500-foot plunge to earth of Aviator Roy Francis, who flew during the state fair in Albuquerque last October. While flying at a high altitude, Francis' machine went wrong and he attempted to alight. However, the air craft became unmanageable and he planned a distance of 500 feet to earth. He escaped death by a miracle, his engine striking ahead of him, which alone prevented his being crushed to death. The Examiner describes Francis' accident and the sensational flying of Lincoln Beachey, in the following story:

The Fourth International Aviation meet was celebrated at Ascona, Switzerland, yesterday afternoon before a cheering crowd of eight thousand spectators, who filled the huge grandstand and overflowed into the once famous paddock and stretched for a quarter of a mile on either side of the stand.

The meet proved to be everything we had been led to believe it would be, and more, for no poster ever written could adequately describe Lincoln Beachey's "Death Dive," as it really happened to the startled throng of spectators. The meet resembled the former aviation meets only to the extent that the aeroplanes looked like those we have seen only here so many times, but the flying itself was vastly different.

There was an added event on the program which not even the promoters, to say nothing of the spectators, had anticipated. It came at the start of the handicap aeroplane race and consisted of a five hundred foot drop to the ground by Roy Francis in his tractor biplane.

Francis had just started on the first lap of his race and was topping the half mile post when something snapped. Quick as a flash, Francis pointed the nose of his huge machine toward the landing place, but he was not in time. The plane dropped like some huge carcass; the nose of the machine tore into the ground and eight thousand pair of eyes were riveted on the cloud of dust that enveloped the vicinity where the biplane landed.

A violent up from the grandstand, and then a shout of joy, as Francis alighted over the wreck and waved his arms aloft to show that he was unhurt. His escape from death was miraculous and he attributed it to the fact that the engine hit the ground before he did. Aside from smashed propellers, the biplane is in condition to fly and will be in today's meet.

Everybody anticipated sensations when Lincoln Beachey made his 4000-foot dive. It was scheduled for 1 o'clock on the official program. But the sensations came even earlier. At 2:30 four huge machines rose in the air and it took but a moment for the crowd to single Beachey out. He made his trail-breaking "Death Dive" perform like a circus horse.

It "dive-walked." "Turkey-trotted" to it, it did anything that its master wanted done. It skinned just above the ground at seventy-five miles an hour and tore upward into space like some frightened bird, only to drop in graceful curves and bow over the heads of spectators who could only gaze in awe and wonder at the audacity of the man who took such chances with his life. At 3:20 o'clock Beachey rose for his three-thousand mile race against "Dare Devil" Newcomb, the latter driving a fast racing car. The race

Nut Cake

Simply Delicious
By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine

In giving this recipe, Mrs. Hill believes it to be one of the best all-around cake recipes it has been her good fortune to make. The simplicity and uniformly good results will appeal to every housewife.

One-half cup butter; 1 1/2 cups granulated sugar; 3/4 cup milk; 2 cups flour; 2 level teaspoons K. C. Baking Powder; 1 cup of nut meats chopped fine; whites of 4 eggs, beaten dry.

Sift flour and baking powder together, three times. Cream the butter, add the sugar, then alternately the milk and the flour mixture, lastly the whites of eggs and the nut meats. Bake in a sheet in a shallow pan thirty or forty minutes. When cold cover with the icing and decorate with whole nut meats. This is also an excellent white cake recipe when nuts are omitted.

Chocolate Icing
One cup granulated sugar; 1/2 ounce chocolate; white of 1 egg, beaten dry; 1/2 teaspoonful vanilla extract; 1/4 cup water.

Sift the sugar, chocolate and water until the mixture boils; cover and let boil three minutes. Uncover and let boil till, when tested in cold water a soft ball may be formed, beat into the white of egg, then beat until cold, add vanilla. The material frosting given on page forty of the K. C. Cook's Book may be used in place of the chocolate frosting, if desired. A copy of the Cook's Book, handsomely illustrated in 9 colors will be mailed free, if you will send colored certificate packed in 2-cent cans of K. C. Baking Powder to the JACOBUS CO., Chicago.

Itself was fast, wonderfully fast, but the speed faded into insignificance as one watched Beachey, whose fascinating antics never have been equaled in this part of the country. As a hawk would play with some four-legged creature it pursued, Beachey played with the speeding automobile and its wonder-struck crew.

Once, in front of the grandstand, Beachey skidded, ever so lightly, the driver of the car with the left hand. Then he rose high in the air, circled around the track with the auto in the lead and on the back stretch the birdman swooped down to within inches of the ground and neck and neck they raced along the stretch.

Beachey covered the first lap in fifty-one seconds flat, and the last lap of the three-mile event in forty-nine seconds, which is six seconds faster than the fastest mile ever made on the track by Barney Oldfield, who used a 100-horse power Ford.

Hurace "Star Shot" Kearney and Beachey presented their brother act early in the afternoon. One thousand feet in the air they contorted with the spray of the aeroplanes. Winding in and out above and below each other with the gracefulness of trained dancers, their craft were surely monarchs of the air.

Beachey's death dive easily was the big sensation of the day and the spectators forgot the thrill they had at the time of Francis' fall, when they saw the great bird man drop from the sky and heard the whistle of the wind through the planes of the machine, which it tore through the space at the rate of 100 miles an hour. Beachey will perform each of the three remaining days of the meet.

MANY REPORTS ARE TO BE MADE TO LOCAL TUESDAY

Committees Named by Good Roads Organization Last Friday Night Will Present Statements of Work Accomplished

The reception of reports from committees named at the session Friday night will be the principal business to come before the Albuquerque local of the New Mexico Good Roads association when it holds its first December meeting tomorrow night. The local at its last meeting decided to hold sessions on the first and third Tuesdays of every month, those being the Tuesdays when the Commercial club does not meet. The first meeting on the new schedule is tomorrow.

The committees whose reports will be received are those on securing the cooperation of the ladies in the good roads cause, on extension, on seeing State Engineer French regarding the immediate appointment of the third member of the county road board, and on publicity.

The first committee is composed of Mrs. Margaret Miller, Mrs. J. W. Colbert and Mrs. Schwenker. This committee has been active in stirring up interest since its appointment, and it is expected that there will be a number of ladies in attendance at the meeting tomorrow night as a result of its efforts.

The extension committee is expected to report on plans made for carrying the gospel of good roads into the outside precincts, and the other committees will also have reports to make.

The local is daily growing in importance in the public eye and as it seems to be on the eve of accomplishing a great deal, will continue to expand.

PARRAS INQUEST TO BE HELD TOMORROW BY JUDGE MCLELLAN

A coroner's jury, empaneled by Justice of the Peace W. W. McClellan, yesterday morning viewed the body of Lucas Parras at the Strong Brothers' undertaking rooms. Parras was killed Saturday morning by a freight train at the mountain road crossing when he was on his way from his home in Martinatown to Albuquerque.

The inquest is to be held tomorrow morning in the police court room. Funeral services for Parras are to be held at 9 o'clock this morning at the Church of San Felipe de Neri, and burial will be in Santa Barbara cemetery.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

Lucile Wilkinson.
The funeral of Miss Lucile Wilkinson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. T. Wilkinson, of 408 South Broadway, will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home, Rev. P. W. Longfellow, of the Baptist church, will officiate and burial will be in Fairview cemetery.

HARVEY OFFICIALS HOLD CONFERENCE HERE YESTERDAY

John Stein, superintendent of the local Harvey division, and J. P. Jacobson and E. F. Munger, superintendents of the western and eastern divisions, respectively, held a conference here yesterday at which the general efficiency of the service was discussed.

Asked regarding the conference last night, Mr. Stein said: "There is nothing for publication. We simply met and told each other our troubles, the little questions which we had been mulling up for threshing out together. The meeting was devoted to discussion of routine service matters."

H. A. Jastro, Exposition Commissioner, Declares That State Should Display Its Resources at 1915 Show.

H. A. Jastro, one of the exposition commissioners appointed by Governor McDonald to handle matters in connection with the Panama-Pacific and Panama-California expositions at San Francisco and San Diego, respectively, declared yesterday that by all means, New Mexico should be represented at San Francisco. He declared that he favored exhibits at both the expositions, but that if only one could be made, he urged that it go to the San Francisco event, which is really the world's exposition.

Mr. Jastro declared that it was essential for New Mexico land and its possibilities to be adequately represented at this fair if the state was to gain her share of the flood of immigration which would come to the west because of the exposition.

"There are going to be lots of people, thousands and thousands of them, at the San Francisco exposition," he said, "looking for a place to make their homes. Now, California, with her land at $1,000 an acre, and even at prices up to $5,000 an acre in some favored sections, is not going to tempt very many of that class of people. The people of California gets are those who have made their pile and are settling down to rest after their years of work. They are ready and willing to pay big prices for the land there."

"But the people who are available for New Mexico lands are the people that have to work for a living. They want to get land at a reasonable price. They will not be tempted by California lands. But if we fail to show them about New Mexico lands, they will not come here to live."

"Now, what I advocate is an exhibit at San Francisco that will show these people what we have. I am in favor of Colonel Switche's idea of a replica of the Pecos mission, and believe that the plan of using moving pictures of the different sections of our state is also good. We can bank our agricultural and horticultural displays around the hall, and we ought to have some sort of a pamphlet, showing what the land in New Mexico can do and how much land we have that is not being cultivated."

"If, all means, let's have an exhibit at San Francisco. This exhibit will show the people what we have. I am in favor of Colonel Switche's idea of a replica of the Pecos mission, and believe that the plan of using moving pictures of the different sections of our state is also good. We can bank our agricultural and horticultural displays around the hall, and we ought to have some sort of a pamphlet, showing what the land in New Mexico can do and how much land we have that is not being cultivated."

"Another thing that needs immediate attention is the site for our building there. Practically all of the states have selected their sites, and many of the foreign nations have selected theirs. We should not be tardy."

"Colonel Twitwell and myself tentatively picked out a site at San Diego. That is all right, but you ought to get started on the San Francisco show at once."

"I tell you, this is the greatest chance in the world to get people to settle in your state. And all you need to get them here is just a little energy, push and work."

"I have lived in the west a long time, the prospects there were not uncertain of what you have here in New Mexico, right now. You have the best prospects now that I have known this state. You are raising almost enough produce for your home consumption, and soon I expect to see you exporting. Then real prosperity will begin. You can not get very rich, you know, when you are sending all the money you make out of the state to get a lot of beans and a little Kansas City meat. You must keep that money at home and get more money to go with it. You must have an agricultural awakening. This Rio Grande valley is one of the greatest food producers in the world. But it is not being made to produce. You must get started to growing all the land will bear and you must not waste an acre."

Mr. Jastro declared that he believed the advent of the new shops would mean much to this city, but he based his ideas of coming prosperity on the agricultural development of the region. He said that with electric power available at a low rate and with gasoline selling at a low price, it is actually cheaper to irrigate by electric or gasoline than by pumping the water to use water from gravity ditches.

SHEEP SANITARY BOARD OFFICES TO BE MOVED

The officers of the sheep sanitary board are to be moved this week to the First National bank building. Second street and West Gold avenue. The new offices will be ready before next meeting of the board, December 12, when the members will discuss the sheep dipping process now practiced. Whether or not the board will amend the restrictions is problematical.

SANTA FE NAMES ASSISTANT CHIEF ENGINEER FOR WEST

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.)
San Bernardino, Cal., Dec. 1.—The office of assistant chief engineer of the coast line has been created by the Santa Fe and G. C. Millett, engineer of the grand division of the system, has assumed the duties of the new office under G. W. Harris, chief engineer of the coast line.

ELKS ANNUAL LODGE OF SORROW MOST SOLEMN EVENT

Memorial Exercises at Theater Marked by Fine Address by Dr. Mendel Silber and Special Musical Program.

The Elks' memorial day was observed by Albuquerque lodge No. 461 yesterday afternoon with services at the Elks' theater. Relatives and friends of the Elks, living and dead, crowded the house, with the exception of the middle section, which was reserved for the lodge members. The Elks marched into the theater from the lodge room at 2:30 o'clock, the orchestra playing "Ase's Death," from Peer Gynt Suite. They occupied nearly the entire reserved section, and persons who came late were conducted to the unoccupied seats.

The calling of the roll of deceased brothers was solemn. The lights were switched off and a small black screen with a white center, bordered by a wreath, was lowered at the front of the proscenium. As the secretary, Frank A. Storz, read the names, they were projected on the screen while the orchestra played the solemn dirges. A sob broke out when several names were pronounced, probably from a relative of the man named.

Officers of the lodge, seated on the stage, and almost hidden behind the mass of tall palms and ferns, conducted the ritualistic part of the ceremonies, and then, at a signal from A. Matson, exalted ruler, the Elks' section rose to give the sign of grief. The men stood silent for a full minute with their right hands covering their bowed faces.

The officers who were on the stage included G. A. Matson, exalted ruler; J. W. Colbert, esteemed leading knight; W. R. Walton, esteemed loyal knight; G. R. Craig, esteemed lecturer; Frank A. Storz, secretary; Rev. W. E. Warren, chaplain; E. L. Grose, treasurer; J. A. Hawley, treasurer; J. F. Mathis, inner guard; H. E. Fagan, equir.

FEATURE OF SERVICES.
Dr. Mendel Silber, rabbi in charge of Temple Albert, delivered the address, which was the feature of the services, aside from the impressive program of sacred music rendered. In words of consolation, the speaker pointed out the solemnity of the services, saying that it was a noble intention that inspired the institution of the "Lodge of Sorrow."

"Like unto the angel whom Job saw in his dream ascending and descending between heaven and earth are the many kind words and thoughts, the tender regrets and recollections, and the higher hopes that rise spontaneously and in sweet accord wherever Elks are gathered together this day," said the doctor.

"Sad indeed would be it if those who pass away left no influence and no memory behind. Sad, indeed, it would be if friends were forgotten as soon as the grave closed over them. Sad it would be if those who have been enfolded in the mystery and sanctity of the eternal beyond could claim from us who survive no passing thought, no the feeling, no tribute of softened speech."

After dwelling on the good to be derived from fraternal feeling, Dr. Silber turned to the influence of sorrow and struggle upon human life.

"Sunshine by itself," he continued, "cannot give us the rainbow. There must be the shower. Even so does the inner light shine through our tears and make our hopes radiant."

He declared that there is no reason for becoming morbid over the fact that life is short and apparently incomplete.

"Although we cannot determine how long we shall live," he said, "we can determine how we shall live. The length of our life may be beyond our control, but the breadth and depth of our lives may be as large as we choose to make them."

The keynote of the address was the exhortation to what might come after life.

"The emphasis is to be shifted," said the speaker, "from heaven and hereafter to the here and now. We must insist upon the practical moralities instead of mere creed and dogma. We must ask for individual righteousness and social service in place of selfish preoccupation with personal salvation. Good government, honest business and an enlightened public conscience concern us far more immediately and more intimately than the golden streets and pearly gates of heaven. The life of fixing our gaze on Heaven often works harm to life here. There is no need for troubling ourselves about Heaven. Its building, noble principles and creating holy tastes and working these into our conscience and character and conduct we can create a Heaven right here on earth."

The ritualistic ceremony was lengthened by musical numbers, all sacred or solemn. The program follows:
Prelude—Angelus, J. Massenet.
Orchestra.
"Ase's Death" from Peer Gynt.

POLICEMAN LIX TO LEAVE FORCE SOON

Ernest Lix, for some months a policeman on the local force, has tendered his resignation, to take effect at an early date. He will enter the employ of the Kaseman Coal company at Madrid.

It is understood that the position tendered him is one of considerable importance and substantial salary. There is no indication as yet who will be appointed to succeed him.

ROADS SITUATION IS UNSETTLED AS YET

The road situation is no nearer settled now than it was Saturday evening when State Engineer James A. French came down from Santa Fe. Mr. French has consulted with several local people on matters relative to the roads, and will remain until tonight to further canvass the situation. This will prevent the scheduled meeting of the state highway board from taking place today at Santa Fe.

BUTTERMILK FOR SALE

Owing to the cool weather, the Sunshine Creamery is now in a position to furnish buttermilk at 10 cents a gallon to anyone who will call at the creamery for it. Those who wish the buttermilk delivered, and will buy in quantities of from five to ten gallons, may secure it delivered for 15 cents a gallon, by telephoning 281.

THE CONFESSION IS NEXT ATTRACTION AT ELKS THEATER

Play Which Preaches Strong Uplift Comes to Albuquerque for Single Engagement on December 10th.

"The Confession" that will be seen at the Elks' theater on Tuesday night, December 10th, comes to this city after a long and successful engagement at the Bijou theater, Broadway, New York City.

"The Confession" uses in its theme life's most vital subjects, telling a story that is consistent, interesting and with a strong uplift. A priest, a mother, a sweetheart, an innocent man condemned to death are among the central figures of this play of today. It is claimed that no more absorbing tragedy has ever been produced, nor greater stage picture and lesson ever presented. The subject produces material for a play that would be of unusual interest and unlike anything else ever produced. Mr. James Haddock, the author, has submitted his play to the public, firm in the belief that the much abused theater-goer would welcome a play with real life interest, dramatic worth, consistency of plot and literary merit. To this end he has labored. The locale of the play is placed at Gloucester, Mass., Charleston, Mass., and Boston, Mass.

The scenes depicted are the rectory of "Our Lady of Mercy" Church, Gloucester, the preliminary court room, Gloucester, the prison at Charleston, Mass., and the governor's office at Boston. The time of the play is the present. There is a very pretty love story, and a delicious vein of comedy running through the play that relieves its tender moments.

If you are a farmer, we will sell you high grade Holstein dairy cows on the easy payment plan, if you will ship the cream to the Sunshine Creamery.

If you are a dairyman, we will sell you good, fresh cows with which to furnish your milk supply, the cows to be sold on time for bankable note. These cows are the highest grade Holsteins ever brought to the south west.
