WITNESS GIVES LIFE TO STATEMENT IN IMPEACHMENT HEARING

Senate is Shocked at Bald Language Used by W. A. May, General Manager of Property in Question.

ARCHBALD LOSES ON RULING BY BACON

Not Much of Interest Brought Out in Trial of Judge of the Commerce Court for Misuse of Position.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)

Washington, Dec. 6.—The exclamation of W. A. May, of Scranton, that "if that's the claim, it's a lie," thrust into the routine testimony in the impeachment trial of Judge Archibald, of the commerce court, gave the senate a moment of excitement today and brought down upon Mr. May's head, the censure of Senator Bacon, the presiding officer. Mr. May's exclamation was directed toward the managers for the house, who are conducting the prosecution of Judge Archibald for alleged misuse of his judicial power.

Attorney A. S. Worthington, for Judge Archibald, was cross-examining Mr. May, who is general manager of the Erie railroad's subsidiary, the Hillside Coal and Iron Co., as to his motive for recalling a contract of sale of the Katydium bank, which had been sent to a prospective buyer, secured through E. J. Williams, the business associate of Judge Archibald. Mr. May claimed he cancelled the contract because he received letters of notices of claims by others to an interest in the bank.

Mr. Worthington remarked to the witness that the claim had been made that these letters were fictitious and that the real reason for withdrawing the contract was a tip about a Washington investigation into Judge Archibald's conduct.

"If that claim is made, it is a lie," shouted Mr. May.

Mr. Bacon cautioned him and Mr. May apologized.

George F. Brownell, of New York, general solicitor of the Erie railroad, George F. Conn, of Scranton, general manager of an Erie subsidiary, the Lackawanna & Wyoming Valley Electric Railway, and Charles F. Pryor, of Scranton, were examined during the day.

Mr. Pryor testified to having been present when the "silent party" assignment was drawn up and signed by E. J. Williams, in Scranton. In this paper, Mr. Williams purported to assign a one-third interest in his bank property to "a silent party" alleged to have been Judge Archibald.

Little evidence appeared today that had not been given at the investigation last summer by the house judiciary committee. The house managers won a point when Senator Bacon ruled that they could offer in evidence the deposition of Attorney W. B. Brown, of the department of justice, last April, to contradict evidence which Williams has given the senate.

Attorneys for Judge Archibald fought the point stubbornly. The Katydium deal was the subject of the examination of George F. Brownell, general solicitor of the Erie & Hillside Coal Co. He told of Judge Archibald calling at his office. He testified that he was interested in clearing up the title to the property and that Brownell was the only official of the Hillside Company he knew, with the exception of Mr. May. Mr. Brownell said he introduced him to Vice President Richardson.

Representative Clayton was about to ask that a personal attachment be made for Richardson, when Senator Bacon stated he was informed Richardson was in a New York hospital. The matter went over until tomorrow.

JUDGMENT FOR $22,500 IN FAVOR OF ACTRESS

New York, Dec. 6.—Edith St. Clair, actress, won her $22,500 suit against Klax & Erlanger today when a jury declared her contract for that amount with the theatrical firm valid. The verdict came after a sensational trial, during which Abraham L. Erlanger charged a lawyer with blackmail and declared the contract was made under duress to save annoyance to his wife, who was ill at the time and who later died.

SIX TRAMPS FIGHT ON FREIGHT TRAIN

St. Louis, Dec. 6.—Conductor Ogden, in charge of the extra freight train drawn by engine No. 92, reported to the headquarters of the St. Louis Iron Mountain & Southern today that six tramps who were riding on a car on his train between Malvern and Traskwood, Ark., last night, be-can a fight in which Robert Younger, of St. Louis, was shot, and Carl Rogers, of Kansas City, was hit on the head with a revolver.

TAFT APPOINTMENTS LACK CONFIRMATION

Washington, Dec. 6.—Democratic senators won the first skirmish today in the fight to prevent the confirmation of republican presidential appointments. Senators Cullom and Gallinger, republicans, endeavored to secure an executive session for the consideration of appointments. Senator Toke Smith, of Georgia, led a fight against the executive session and finally demanded a call of the senate. Failure to secure a quorum forced an adjournment.

EXTREME COLD DRIVES WOLVES FROM FORESTS

Steamboat Springs, Colo., Dec. 6.—Heavy snows and extreme cold have driven packs of gray wolves out of the timber and many cattle are falling victims to their attacks. Cattlemen have offered bounties for wolf scalps. In addition to those offered by the county and state, a number of the animals have been killed. It was twenty-nine degrees below zero here last night.

GREAT CITIES ARE EVIL IN THEMSELVES

Philadelphia, Dec. 6.—Great cities are an evil in themselves and civilization, by legislation and by setting up different ideals, should encourage in their place many cities of not more than 100,000 population, said James Bryce, the British ambassador, here tonight, in an address at the banquet of the second national housing conference.

Noted Sculptor Dead.

New York, Dec. 6.—Jonathan Scott Hartley, sculptor of the Daguerre monument in Washington and of monuments and statues in many other cities, died of appendicitis today at his home here, aged 67. In 1888 he married a daughter of George Innes, the American painter.

BOA CONSTRUCTORS CAPTURE PARIS POLICE STATION

Two Huge Serpents, Found on Subway Car, Escape from Sack at Headquarters; Owner Ends Panic.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)

Paris, Dec. 6.—Two huge serpents took complete possession of one of the Paris police stations for several hours early today. They had been brought to the station house in a woolen sack, left in a subway car. The sack was thrown into a corner to await a claimant. Suddenly the policemen on duty noticed the sack moving slowly across the room.

Several patrolmen rushed toward it and ripped it open with their sabres, when two great snakes of the boa-constrictor species, reared their heads and caused the policemen to evacuate the station in terror.

Shortly afterward the owner of the serpents, the manager of a show, arrived to claim the sack. Hearing that the snakes were loose, he fetched some live rabbits which he fed to the reptiles and after their meal, they were easily captured.

DYNAMITE CASE IS RIGHT OF WAY MAN SLOWLY DRAWING TO ITS CLOSE FOR SANTA FE IN ALBUQUERQUE TO DO BUSINESS

No Sensational Evidence is Brought Out by Government; Seiffert Explains Meaning of Phrase in Letter.

Indianapolis, Dec. 6.—Seven words embraced in the phrase, "pretty hard to do anything to it," were produced by the government at the trial of the accused "bomb plotters" today as its evidence that Herman G. Seiffert, Milwaukee, was implicated in the McNamara dynamite conspiracy. Seiffert, as one of the forty-one labor union officials, charged with using explosives on non-union work, had waited weeks to testify and he was on the stand less than twenty minutes explaining what he meant by that phrase.

About one month before an explosion in Milwaukee on March 16, 1911, when an unloading hoist and a steamer near the dock were damaged by dynamite with $50,000 loss, Seiffert took the place of William E. Redden, business agent of the Iron Workers' union, who was sick for four days. During that time Seiffert wrote a letter to John J. McNamara, secretary of the International Iron Workers' union at Indianapolis.

Using that phrase the witness said he referred to efforts to unionize the job, for McNamara required reports from all local unions as to prospective work for members of the union. Seiffert said he first learned of the explosion from newspapers the following day. Orrie E. McManigal confessed to having actually placed the explosive.

Redden, also a defendant, testified that the members of the Milwaukee union wanted to work for the contractor on the local job, but Frank M. Ryan, president of the International, forbade them to do so, unless the contractor was induced to employ union men on jobs throughout the country. This resulted in a proposal that the local union withdraw from the International, said the witness, and an appeal was taken to allow unions everywhere to work locally regardless of the general strike called in 1905, and which still is on.

"Did you know before the Milwaukee explosion that it was going to occur?" asked Attorney William N. Harding, for the defense.

"I did not," Redden said in response to demands from the Indianapolis headquarters, he sent information about construction work at Clinton, Ia., which afterwards was blown up. He said McNamara also required him to forward newspaper accounts of explosions at Milwaukee and Green Bay, Wis.

Whether the defendants helped raise a fund for the defense of the McNamara at Los Angeles, and whether they first attempted to ascertain whether the McNamara were guilty, were made points of inquiry in the government's cross-examination of Redden, Seiffert, Charles N. Beaum, of Indianapolis; Daniel Buckley, of Davenport, Ia.; and Murray L. Pennell, of Springfield, Ill.

All replied they had urged contributions to the fund, but they did not make an investigation, "believing the McNamara were innocent until they pleaded guilty."

This line of inquiry was permitted by the court, on the ground that the Los Angeles Times explosion was part of the general conspiracy, in which the defendants are alleged to be implicated.

The negative will be presented by Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania, and Senator Gore, of Oklahoma. John Hays Hammond will be referee.

No important changes were made, it was said, in the schedules. The representatives of the Southern Pacific started for San Francisco this morning. The Portland and Omaha officials will leave tonight and tomorrow.

MARSHALL SPEAKS ON CHRISTIANITY IN THE HOME

Vice President-Elect Says the Sunday School Should Not Take Place of Right Training by Parents.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)

Chicago, Dec. 6.—Governor Marshall, of Indiana, vice president-elect, who is a delegate to the federal council of Churches of Christ in America, in session here today, devoted his address tonight chiefly to the family life and the Sunday school. He said Sunday school takes children through the day school with "a hop, skip and a jump," but that religious instruction in the family was no longer given, and children were supposed to get their knowledge of the Bible in Sunday school.

"This evasion of duty of parents to instruct their children in their religion, the governor said, resulted in irreligion and in wayward children. The return of young people's organizations to Christian unity, was Governor Marshall's topic.

"When Robert Raikes started the Sunday school, a little more than one century ago, he did not have in mind the relaxing of parents from their obligations to give religious instruction to their children," said Governor Marshall.

Governor Marshall said the Sunday school is intended to round out family devotion, not to take their place. In four years as an executive, he said, many had come to him seeking clemency for wayward sons or daughters. If those persons had seen it their duty to lay down fixed rules of life and to teach the higher law of living in their homes, God would not have punished them in the falling away of their children, he said.

LAKE STEAMER GETS OFF DANGEROUS REEF

Duluth, Dec. 6.—Released at 7:15 o'clock tonight, the steamer Easton, of the South Line, escaped from the clutches of the Inouye reef and proceeded under her own steam to Fort Arthur.

All on board are safe. She is expected to arrive in Duluth tomorrow afternoon. Since 5:30 o'clock Thursday morning, the boat had been fast on the rocks. The lightning of the ship's cargo was sufficient to allow the vessel to back off into clear water. Captain Hawkins' examination of his vessel brought to light, no serious damage and by a wireless message he reported the boat's release and safety.

TWO MEN INDICTED FOR CONSPIRACY

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 6.—Indictments were returned by the county grand jury today against Harry Raymond and John Arlington, in connection with the alleged false imprisonment of Fred W. Lloyd, a former policeman and important witness against City Prosecutor Guy Eddy, charged with having contributed to the delinquency of a young woman.

Raymond is the owner of a private detective agency, and Arlington is an intimate friend of Cecil Nicholson, who was said to have given what was alleged to be bribe money to Lloyd at the behest of George Baker Anderson, then secretary to Mayor Alexander. Raymond was said to have planned the trapping of Lloyd.

Tench warrants were immediately issued for the arrest of the two men and bail was fixed at $2,000 for each. Arlington was arrested and lodged in the county jail. It was announced that the grand jury would resume its investigation of the Lloyd case next week.

Demand for Expansion Along Educational Lines is Constant

THE demand for expansion along educational lines is constant. This is no less true in Albuquerque than elsewhere. The laws of the state of New Mexico permit the board of education of a city to annex, for school purposes, any portions of the surrounding territory whose citizens desire such an annexation. Availing themselves of this statute a number of the residents of that section of the county just south of the city limits, from the railroad tracks east to the line of the Terrace addition, and four blocks in width, have asked the school board to take them into the city school limits.

This move will bring a great deal of valuable property under taxation for city school purposes and will give the school board a large sum of money each year in addition to what it now has.

But the annexation can only be made when there is a suitable place in which to house the twenty-five or thirty children residing in the district while they are at school. There is positively no room anywhere in the city where such a number of children can be cared for in school. Thus the board of education is compelled to lose money for lack of room to place the school children who want to attend the city schools.

The petition presented by the residents of the district named has been on file with the board of education for two months. The board has not acted upon it for sheer lack of room in which it may carry on the education of the children and fulfill its portion of the tacit contract formed by the annexation.

It is up to the voters of Albuquerque to remedy this condition. They can do so only by attending the election next Tuesday and voting for the issuance of the proposed $100,000 bond issue, the proceeds of which are to go for a new high school building.

Every citizen of the city can vote. An opinion from Attorney General Frank W. Cheney distinctly states: "If you have lived here a year you can vote at this election. Go out and do it. Your vote helps to make Albuquerque bigger and better; helps to make its school system broader and more adequate, just as though you owned half the town. It is your duty to vote for a better public school education for your children even more than it is the duty of a wealthy man to do so."

Vote for the bond issue.

Monday. Thus far the authorities have been unable to ascertain the identity of the person who provided the funds for the alleged "frame up" against Lloyd.

Arlington was unable to obtain bonds and was locked up for the night. Raymond, whose arrest followed soon afterward, was released on bail. Arlington gave out a statement in which he admitted having taken part in the alleged bribery of Lloyd, but said it had been represented to him by Raymond that it was part of a plan to "clean up" the police force. The indictments charged the men with maliciously bringing about the false imprisonment of Lloyd.

MYSTERY OF GIRL'S DEATH UNFATHOMED

Catlettsburg, Ky., Dec. 6.—The mystery surrounding the death of Minnie Turner, in a hotel, deepened today when a coroner's jury returned a verdict that it was unable to discover by what means the woman met her death. The jury recommended that James York, who was found in the same room with the dead woman, and Ida Gullett, another inmate in the room, be held for further examination.

York has not recovered consciousness and the attending physicians hold out little hope of his recovery, although they are unable to determine what is the matter with him.

Ida Gullett, as she gave her name, testified today before the coroner that when the three went to the hotel on Monday night they had no liquor or anything harmful about them. They retired to sleep a few minutes after reaching their room. As to how the tragedy occurred she was totally ignorant.

County Refuses to Pay Mine Deputies.

Salt Lake City, Dec. 6.—Holding that it would be illegal to pay officers for guarding private property, the commissioners of Salt Lake county refused today the request of copper mine owners of Bingham that the 300 guards who have been on duty during the miners' strike be deputized and placed on the county's payroll. The mines are working almost to their normal capacity.

Nebraska Women Seek Suffrage.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 6.—The Nebraska Woman Suffrage Association today decided to petition for a submission to the people of a constitutional amendment, providing for woman suffrage.

Four times within as many hours, he asserted, his life had been threatened because of his utterances, but this appealed to him as little as the resolution.

The four threatening letters Governor Blease received were all anonymous. One was mailed in Richmond, another in Washington, the third in Louisville and the fourth in Louisville.

The Washington writer told him he would pay the penalty if he ever came to that city. The Pittsburgh writer said: "You will be taken to account on sight for your words." The Richmond and Louisville missives were unprintable.

Governor Blease was taken to task by a dozen governors. Governor Curry, of Wyoming, denounced him for "claiming a monopoly for South Carolina of the respect of the white man for woman."

Governor Hadley, of Missouri, declared that the floor of the conference hall was not a clearing house for "local and personal controversies."

Governor Goldsborough, of Maryland, declared he stood solidly by the resolution because it was a matter of right.

Governor Dix, of New York, thought it would be "most unwise" not to adopt the resolution.

Governor O'Neal, of Alabama, in a ringing speech, was drowned time after time by applause as he gave his belief that the entire conference had been belittled by the South Carolinian's remarks, and that it was the sworn duty of every executive to uphold the law. To those declarations Governor Blease replied that he had been quoted yesterday as saying, "To hell with the constitution," and that what he said yesterday he repeated today "to all the good governors here, to all the governors of all the states, to all the people of the United States."

Once, when his voice was drowned in a storm of hisses, he turned to the galleries and to his colleagues and shouted:

"What care I for your hisses?" he asked.

Then, shaking his clenched fist, he shouted:

"Hiss if you must. Only snakes and geese hiss."

Governor O'Neal unloosened the storm when he introduced the following resolution:

"This conference of governors does not undertake to control the individual views of its members on any questions of law or administration. It declares that this government is based upon the fundamental principle of law and order; that the constitution of each state imposes upon its executive the sacred duty of taking care that the laws shall be equally enforced; that it invites all proper methods for strengthening and simplifying our methods of civil and criminal procedure."

"This conference protests against any disposition or utterance by those entrusted with the execution of the laws in any of the states of this union which tends to the encouragement or justification of mob violence or interference with the orderly processes of the law."

To this Governor Mann, of Virginia, objected and offered the following substitute, which was accepted and adopted:

"Resolved, that it is the sentiment of the governors' conference, in session at Richmond, Va., today, that the whole power of the several states should be used whenever necessary to protect persons accused of crime of every kind against the violence of mobs, and provide for speedy, etc."

GOVERNORS REBUKE SOUTH CAROLINA'S BLATHERSKITE EXECUTIVE

Bleese Denounced for Anarchistic Utterances by Nearly Unanimous Adoption of Resolution Repudiating Beliefs.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 6.—The governors' conference today unanimously repudiated the recent utterance of Governor Bleese, of South Carolina, concerning the lynching of negroes. By a vote of fourteen to four, it adopted a resolution declaring against mob violence and for the impartial enforcement of the law. The four governors who opposed the resolution declared themselves as strongly endorsing its purpose, but voted "no" because they thought they had no right to reprimand a colleague.

Governor Bleese himself, the target of the attack, hotly defended his conviction, snapped his fingers in the face of his colleagues, told them to "go to it," declared he cared not a whit what the conference said, thought, did or did not do, and announced that all the resolutions they might ever adopt would neither keep him from the governor's chair nor from a seat in the United States senate in 1915, or earlier.

Four times within as many hours, he asserted, his life had been threatened because of his utterances, but this appealed to him as little as the resolution.

DYNAMITE STATION NEAR TORREON IN HANDS OF REBELS

Activities of Revolutionists in Mexico Becoming So General as to Alarm the Government.

Mexico City, Dec. 6.—The government dynamite station at Torreón, thirty miles northwest of Torreón, fell into the hands of rebels today. The strength of the rebel force is not known. A train for Torreón was turned back and communication with the place has been cut. Alarm has been increasing in the state of Durango, where the rebels are reported to be concentrated and inciting the people to revolt.

The strike of dock workers at Vera Cruz has become general. Fourteen hundred men are involved. Several passenger steamers including the Ward liner, Monterey, are experiencing difficulty in discharging their cargoes.

Ten men were immediately issued for the arrest of the two men and bail was fixed at $2,000 for each. Arlington was arrested and lodged in the county jail. It was announced that the grand jury would resume its investigation of the Lloyd case next week.

EFFORTS CONTINUE TO GET MADERO REMOVED

Revolutionists Confer with a View to Uniting on Ticket to Overthrow Present Government in Mexico.

El Paso, Tex., Dec. 6.—Another effort to unify all revolutionary elements in Mexico was exposed here today by the secret services. Agents of the various anti-administration parties, including the Orozco movement in the north and the Zapata revolt in the south, are said to have been holding secret conferences in El Paso.

A ticket acceptable to all factions is said to have been selected. J. Flores Magón, former minister of interior under President Madero, is said to have been named as president, with Attorney Emilio Vasquez Gomez as vice president. Gomez is at San Antonio, recently released on bond from a federal court, where he is held on charges of conspiracy.

An amicable agreement was reached by eliminating from the projected portfolio the names of all now actively engaged in open revolution. In this way it is expected to gain also the anti-Madero element at the national capital. It also is said that the army will be attracted by an appointment.

duly and impartial trials by courts of competent jurisdiction, to the end that the law for the protection of life and property be fully enforced and respected by the people.

All measures of correction designed to check the increasing cost of living will prove ineffectual, in the opinion of Governor Hadley, of Missouri, who addressed the governors' conference today. "If the American people continue to produce less and eat more, continue to sell less of foodstuffs to the other nations of the world, and to buy more foodstuffs from the other nations of the world."

"The problem that confronts us, therefore," continued the governor, "is how to increase production, and that problem in turn involves the solution of the problem as to how to get people, and competent people, on the land. The proper cultivation of our farms necessitates smaller farms, or better cultivated farms, and smaller farms or better cultivated farms mean, of course, more people working on the job."

"It is the duty of the people to exert the powers of government to promote the happiness and the welfare of the people. And so a marked function of state and national government should be to bring about a proper distribution of population between the cities and the country, and also to direct the cultivation of our soil."

"While, in a general way, the best results can be secured by keeping or placing upon the farms those who have been trained to the cultivation of the soil, yet we can produce farmers just as we can produce railroad men, machinists, lawyers or doctors. It is a state function to advertise and assist in the development of the resources within its limits."

"It is the duty of the state to assist private enterprise in checking the drift of population from the country to the cities, and in adding those who should go from the town to the country, is by enactment of laws and creating farm credit associations, such as exist in foreign countries."

GOVERNORS HAVE PLAN TO PROMOTE AGRICULTURE.

The fifth annual governors' conference adjourned this afternoon to meet informally tomorrow, with President Taft at Washington, and discuss rural credits and to meet formally next year at Colorado Springs, Colo., at a date as yet undetermined. In its six hours, it adopted a resolution, which in the opinion of many delegates sounded the knell of the time-honored mortgage on the farm and proclaims the advent of a new financial era for farmers. The governors believe their resolution will lead to the establishment of a new system of state banks governed by a uniform state law. These banks, under the resolution, will be financed by private capital, and would operate under legislation sufficiently elastic to enable them to issue bonds for short or long terms, upon American farms, in lieu of mortgages.

The bonds in turn, in the opinion of the governors, would be listed under state supervision on the stock exchanges of the world.

Myron T. Herrick, ambassador to France, addressed the conference on this topic as President Taft's representative, and said the thrifty people of France and other European countries were ready to invest their savings in these securities. The resolution under which it is hoped to bring this about endorses a plan of financing rural credits, yet to be detailed, but similar to those abroad. It provides for the appointment of a committee of five governors to draft such a plan and a bill extending it.

This bill must be submitted to the governor of each state of the union and upon approval of two-thirds shall be sent to the legislatures of the various states for enactment.

The committee was not appointed today, but Governor Plafied, of Maine, chairman of the session, was authorized to name it later. He probably will do so tomorrow in Washington. The governors, or many of them, will leave here tomorrow in a special train for Washington. Before adjournment tonight the executive committee appointed Miles C. Riley, of Madison, Wis., secretary and treasurer, and John Franklin Fort, former governor of New Jersey, manager.

Mr. Fort will have charge of the program of next year.

COLONEL CATROW WILL SUPERVISE RIFLE MATCHESOhioan Chosen Commissioner General for International Competition at Camp Perry Next Summer.(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Washington, Dec. 6.—Colonel H. C. Catrow, of Dayton, Ohio, of the Third Infantry, National Guard, was today chosen commissioner general for the international rifle matches, to be held at Camp Perry, Ohio, next September in connection with the centennial celebration of the Perry victory on Lake Erie. The executive committee of the National Rifle Association of America today approved the program for the official international matches, which next year will be held for the first time in the United States. Camp Perry will witness next year the second Pan-American shoot, held for the first time last May in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Additional matches, open to the world, include the famous Palma trophy competition and a new Pan-American match for a two-man team for a trophy offered by John W. Garret, United States minister to Argentina. One of the most interesting contests will be for the long range international military championship of the world, calling for fifteen shots at 800, 900 and 1,000 yards.

The trophy for this contest was established only a few days ago at the convention of the National Guard Association of America, at Norfolk, Va. The prizes for the international matches alone will amount to about $20,000.

France, Germany, Italy, Switzerland, Sweden, Belgium, Canada, Peru and Argentina already have sent assurances that they will send delegates to the United States for the competition, and it is expected that in all about twenty-two nations will be represented. Formal invitations will be sent to all nations by the state department.

Colorado Springs, Dec. 6.—Whether justice will be defeated by death in the case of John Peter Davis, aged 70, of Peoria, Ore., who, believing that he is on his deathbed, has confessed to the murder of William Atchison, at Castle Rock, thirty-six years ago, will be determined within the next few days.

District Attorney M. W. Puresell, of Colorado Springs, announced tonight that he has taken cognizance of the man's alleged confession and is awaiting the outcome of Davis' illness. If he recovers, Davis will be brought back to Colorado to stand trial for the crime. The letter giving what purports to be the sick man's confession, was written by a Doctor Graham, of Peoria, Ore., to Sheriff Anderson, of Castle Rock, Colo. This has been turned over to a brother of the murdered man, Dr. George Atchison, of Denver.

Davis, who had the reputation of being a gun man in the early days, shot Atchison, one evening in the spring of 1876, following a quarrel over the pronunciation of the word "Newfoundland."

Following the shooting, Davis fled in the night and a heavy snow storm obliterated his trail. Until Sheriff Anderson received the letter from Oregon, no word has been received from Davis.

A few of the older Castle Rock pioneers remember the tragedy on account of the trivial nature of the quarrel. One member of the coroner's jury is still living, it is said. There was only one eye witness to the shooting—a man named Simmons—but his whereabouts are unknown and he is not known whether he is alive at the present time. The sheriff has failed to find any record of the crime in the court documents of Douglas county.

The coroner's records also are missing and the physician who attended Atchison is dead. In the event of the return of Davis to Colorado, the absence of corroborative evidence would make conviction hard, should Davis decide to refute his alleged confession, the authorities admit.

NAME OF SUCH MAN NOT KNOWN IN OREGON TOWN.

Albion, Ore., Dec. 6.—A merchant who has lived in Peoria for the past thirty years stated today to the Associated Press that no one known as John Peter Davis ever had resided at that place.

Interviews and telephonic communication with the settlement of Peoria, and in the surrounding district, disclosed no person by the name of John Peter Davis, who is said to have confessed to the murder of William Atchison, at Castle Rock, Colo., in 1876. According to physicians, there is no Dr. Graham practicing in that vicinity, and no physician can be found who has any record of any aged man seriously ill. The proprietor of the country store at Peoria, said today no John Peter Davis has lived at Peoria, during the past twenty years.

VETERAN OF THREE WARS IS CLAIMED BY DEATHCharley Domineck, Noted Old-Timer, Passes Away at Cerrillos at Advanced Age of 102 Years.(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.)
Cerrillos, N. M., Dec. 6.—Charley Domineck, a noted old-timer, died here yesterday at the age of 102 years. Domineck came to New Mexico as a Confederate soldier, and fought in many of the early Indian wars. He also rode with "Duke the Kid" and was in many a desperate fray.

Though wounded many times, he usually came off the field victorious. Despite the fact that Domineck was mixed up with many desperate characters, he always had a host of friends who stood by him as he stood by them. He always had a helping hand for his old comrades and was generous to all his acquaintances. He was born in Texas in 1810 and passed through the war with Mexico and the civil war, in addition to his many other battles. He leaves a widow and two sons.

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 6.—Considerable headway was made today in the trial of President Patterson and twenty-nine other officials, or former officials, of the National Cash Register Company, charged with having violated the criminal section of the Sherman anti-trust act.

Three witnesses were on the stand today testifying for the government. Joseph E. Walters, of Boston, in concluding his cross-examination and re-direct examination, stated that when the prohibition was swept over Ohio several years ago, a large number of cash registers were put on the market and a number of second hand stores started. Shortly afterward the National Company started stores in the various cities in the state to sell second hand machines.

John S. Inman, of Woodside, Mont., today testifying for the government, testified that an American cash register and one of the efforts of the National's people to make him change. He said he dismissed the National's salesman finally by telling them they were "knockers" and that "I would not buy a machine from a knocker if I could get it for 10 cents."

John R. Walters, of Los Angeles, former National's salesman, but now employed by the American Cash Register Company, testified that a school for National salesmen was conducted in Los Angeles, and that demonstrations, as to the way to show the superiority of National machines, were made as well as demonstrations of how to "knock" Hallwood machines. Judge Hollister made a ruling that testimony concerning acts committed by the defendants prior to three years before the finding of the indictments, would not be allowed, although the court reserved the right to reverse itself at its discretion as to what testimony of this kind should be admitted.

The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger from pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by all druggists.

HAWTHORNE TRIAL DISCLOSES SHARP METHODSGovernment Shows Circulars Printed to Boost Mining Properties Were Unauthorized by Experts.(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
New York, Dec. 6.—The government today introduced testimony to discredit portions of letters and circulars dealing favorably with the various Hawthorne mines, in the trial of Julian Hawthorne, Josiah Quincy, Albert Freeman and Dr. William J. Morton, accused of making fraudulent use of the mails in promoting Canadian mining claims. Federal attorneys sought to show also that "dummy" officers were elected in several companies.

William F. Wilkinson, a London mining engineer, was shown a Hawthorne letter in which he was purported to have offered anything in return for a majority interest. He denied ever having offered to buy a majority of Temagami stock. He had written to Dr. Morton about such representations, he said.

One of his letters was introduced, showing he had objected to the use of his name "in such an impudent fashion."

Woodford Brooks, formerly of Atlanta, Ga., and Fort Worth, president of the Temagami Company, testified regarding a report he was purported to have made in Hawthorne regarding the property. He said he did not make the report and that the only time he visited a mine was when he was a boy.

"I forget whether it was an asbestos mine or a coal mine," he added. Mr. Brooks said Freeman, in 1907, asked him to become president, and he did so holding the position three months. He said he put up no money, visited the office "for a short time once a week," and that his duties were "signing checks, principally."

William F. McElhish, automobile salesman, testified he "believed" he was secretary-treasurer of the Temagami-Cobalt mines. He "did not know" how he came to have this office, he said, and he put up no money and owned no stock. George H. Guy, secretary of the New York Electric society, testified he became a director of the Temagami-Cobalt property at Hawthorne's request, but resigned because he objected to his electric society position being mentioned in Hawthorne's literature.

GENERAL MESSAGE IS SENT BY TAFT TO CONGRESSPresident Indicates That He Will Make No Further Effort to Have Tariff Policies Carried Out During His Term.(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Washington, Dec. 6.—President Taft will make no further effort to have congress reduce the tariff. In a "general" message to congress submitted today the president clearly indicated his intention of leaving further tariff revision to Mr. Wilson and the congress next elected.

"Now that a new congress has been elected on a platform of tariff for revenue only rather than a protective tariff and is to revise the tariff on that basis," said the president, "it is needless for me to occupy the time of congress with arguments or recommendation in favor of a protective tariff."

The message, the second submitted by the president since the present session began, will be his last of a general character. It dealt with every department of the government except the state department, recommended much of the legislation which Mr. Taft previously had urged upon the attention of congress, and took up and discussed at length several subjects comparatively new.

Mr. Taft came out strongly against independence for the Philippines, proposed, he said, in a bill now before congress. He deprecated the new policy of one battleship a year instead of two, and endorsed again the scheme of currency reform proposed by the national monetary commission.

Conservation was lightly touched, the president recommending the enactment of bills now before congress so that water power companies which dam navigable rivers will contribute to the improvement of these streams.

He declared that no radical change in the Sherman anti-trust law was needed, and praised the supreme court for its recently announced changes in rules of equity procedure. In this connection the president asked congress to pass legislation which would allow the supreme court to formulate rules of procedure under the common law in federal courts and predicted that such action would facilitate justice in those courts and reduce the cost of litigation to the public.

The Panama canal was dismissed in a few words, the president prophesying its opening in the latter half of 1915. He took occasion, however, to declare that congress should reward the work of Colonel Goethals by an appointment as major general with the provision that he become chief of engineers when the term of the present incumbent expires. He made only a brief reference to the dispute with Great Britain over the Panama canal and said that when a formal protest was lodged against that act it would be taken up by the United States.

The army the president discussed at some length. He praised the army legislation of the last congress and said that provision should be made by law so that the nation's foreign legations may be always maintained upon a war footing, and he urged the passage of the pending militia pay bill, designed to make service in the militia more enticing, and showed that the home army will be nothing more than a "skeleton" until congress provides that it be concentrated in fewer posts than are now maintained. He urged also the passage of another bill now before congress designed to raise quickly a volunteer army in case of war.

President Taft did not approve the proposal for immediate autonomy for the Philippines and independence in eight years as proposed in a bill pending in congress.

"In the Philippine Islands we have embarked upon an experiment unprecedented in dealing with independent peoples," said President Taft. "We are developing these conditions exclusively for their own welfare. Through the unifying forces of a common education, of commercial and economic development, and of gradual participation in local self-government, we are endeavoring to evolve a homogeneous people fit to determine, when the time arrives, their own destiny. We are seeking to arouse a national spirit and not, as under the old colonial theory, to suppress such a spirit. But our work is far from done. Our duty to the Philippines is far from discharged."

For educational, sanitary and political reasons, the president said this country should not consent to grant independence at this time.

"If the task we have undertaken is higher than that assumed by other systems," continued the president, "its accomplishment must demand even more patience. To confer independence upon the Philippines now, is therefore, to subject the great mass of their people to the dominance of an oligarchical and probably exploiting minority. Such a course will be as cruel to those people as it would be shameful to us."

In addition to his advice in regard to foreign policy, and his opposition to pending measures, the president discussed the prosperity of the nation, its financial condition and the proposed system of a national budget showing proposed expenditures and revenues, and called attention to the balance in the general fund of the treasury, of almost $110,000,000. His remarks on the budget system, he said, would be submitted to congress later, accompanied by a model budget.

The commission was signed and delivered this evening. Governor Oddie is a republican and it was expected he would appoint a republican to succeed the late democratic attorney general. THIS AFTERNOON
IS COMMENCED AT VARSITY

New Mexicans, Willing to Enter Field with Two Good Men Missing from Line-Up, Are Unable to Schedule Game.

The game scheduled for this afternoon between the University of New Mexico and the Albuquerque Indian school has been called off.

The university was willing to play, despite the fact that two of its star players were injured in the game with Arizona university, but the Indians refused to meet the varsity for a second game this season. The Braves having won the previous battle, were content not to risk a defeat.

When it became known that the Indians would not play the university athletic management made an attempt to put on a game with some other school, but could not get a team to play. All teams had disbanded after Thanksgiving day and it was out of the question to get the players into training again so they would be able to put up an effective game against the university.

Good Squad Out to Practice for Winter Sports; Carlyle and Littrell Not to Play This Season.

The basketball squad at the varsity was out yesterday for its first practice this season. A goodly number of players and prospective players reported, and the outlook for a good team is bright.

Carlyle and Littrell, players on last year's five, will not be in the same this year, thanks to the fact that they have taken positions which will occupy their spare time afternoons, and their places will have to be filled.

A number of aspiring players are to contend for the places on the team, practically no one being certain of his position. The varsity will devote a good deal of attention to basketball this winter, both because there are so many applicants for places and because the men wish to retrieve the string of defeats sustained by the football team.

For the present the team will practice in the gymnasium on the hill.

ILLNESS OF LAWYER
HALTS GRAFT TRIAL

Canon City, Colo., Dec. 6.—The penitentiary graft case was brought to a sudden halt at noon today on account of the illness of Attorney Clyde C. Dawson, representing the defense. Mr. Dawson is ill with influenza. The trial of former Warden Cleghorn and others was continued until next Monday.

The last witnesses for the state were called to the stand this morning. Perry Sherman, former bookkeeper for the Gibson Lumber Company, one of the companies alleged to have been involved in the grafting, created a sensation when he denied having given certain information alleged to have been received from him by one of the state's attorneys. It was alleged that he had declared that the books of the Gibson Company had been altered ostensibly for fraudulent purposes by Hermann Loehr, manager of the company.

STRONG APPEAL IS BEAR CAMPAIGN IS MADE IN THE CONFESSION

It is a Play Which Joins Religion and Melodrama; Clever Acting Prevents Cheapening of Church.

Religion is a dynamic force in welding the rivets of moral uplift, which is splendidly portrayed in "The Confession," which comes to the Elks theater on December 10th.

Religious faith, tempered in the furnace of native strength, flows through the play with a dignity inspired by the splendid repression, the sincerity and quiet power with which Richard Sterling portrays the struggle between duty as a Roman Catholic priest and as a brother in the character of Father Bartlett, priest in a small New England fishing village. There is something of a drama of real life and death in the terrific problem presented for solution to the parish priest whose brother's life depends upon a secret of murder poured forth within the confessional of the Roman Catholic church. Steadfast in faith, the priest remains true to the laws of the church and guards the sinner's confession under his own breaking heart.

Entranced by the taunts of his sweetheart, Rose Crockett, at his refusal to stop drinking, Tom Bartlett, brother of the priest, goes out into the night and becomes embroiled in a quarrel with Rose's brother in the village saloon. Later the brother is killed. Circumstantial evidence then weaves its net firmly about Tom. His guilt seems absolute, for he was seen through flashes of fighting struggling with the murdered man—and then, out of the darkness, a shot was fired and by his rifle which was found later by the guard.

The shot in the dark was fired by Josef Dunlop, a half-frenzied French-Canadian. In an agony of fear, and haunted by phantoms of remorse and superstition, the murderer bursts into the rectory out of the storm night and falls at the feet of the priest in confession.

Then follows the arrest, the agony of dragging the son from his aged mother's arms, the trial, the conviction of Tom, and his sentence of death upon the gallows. His case has been appealed to the supreme court, the governor of the state of Massachusetts refuses to sign his pardon, the last hope is gone, and still the priest and brother guards the secret of the crime that would free his brother, but only at the expense of betraying his faith.

Then at the psychological moment the ignorant, remorse-stricken Canadian is dragged at the point of duty into the governor's office, and with his dying breath whispers his confession to the governor and Tom is freed.

Tossed into this revolutionary drama are two strikingly clever character delineations, in the respective roles of Michael Grogan, a genial, ludicrous Irish sexton, and Patsy Moran, a hunch-back boy from New York bawling, who is a master-juggler of slang. Frank Frayne played the bawling tough, with the crooked back but tender, true little heart, and Thaddeus Shine takes the part of the Irish sexton. Adeline Rushnell, as Rose Crockett, satisfies the eye with her warm, Rosetti type of beauty but not the ear, and Adair Gaudier wrings tears and almost sobbs from the hearts in the audience by the realism of her pierced mother-love. Walter Ross does justice to the role of the accused brother.

COUNTY SEAT FIGHT IN VALENCIA NOW
ON WAITING LIST

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal.) Belen, N. M., Dec. 6.—The county seat fight in which Belen is engaged at this time, is on the waiting list for the time being. A short time ago Judge Herbert F. Reynolds, before whom the matter was heard, entered an order for the plaintiff to give an injunction bond, or the injunction would be dissolved. A number of the parties who are interested in the outcome of the fight went to Albuquerque a few days ago, where they consulted with their attorney, Neil H. Field, who advised them strongly against giving the bond in compliance with the order of the court. As a result the order has not yet been complied with, and the suit remains unknown.

After working throughout the summer at almost full capacity, the Kansas City Ice Company's plant at this point has been shut down for six weeks, the storage rooms of the plant being filled with ice sufficient to supply all needs for that length of time.

During the summer months large quantities of ice were consumed locally, and in addition to this carload lots were shipped to various points on the Santa Fe for railroad use, thus giving the plant a very large output for its first season's business. The fruit trade which has been handled by the Santa Fe has all passed through Belen, and the trains have been led at this point. Although the fruit trade still continues in fairly good quantities, the weather is cool enough now so that it is not necessary to use much ice.

Many Stocks Are Carried Below Previous Day But Recoveries Were More General and Market Shows Up Better

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.) New York, Dec. 6.—The bear campaign was resumed on the stock exchange today and prices gave way before a determined onslaught. The movement was less general and of shorter duration than yesterday's. Quotations gave way from 1 to 6 points on the break, but the market recovered handsomely. While there was no apparent change in the factors which determine the state of what is known as speculative sentiment, there seemed to be less eagerness on the part of security holders. There were evidences of forced liquidation yesterday, whereas today's movement appeared to be due more largely to bear selling. The market was helped by a sobering down of the activity of the minor specialties which broke so violently yesterday, presumably because of discrimination of lending institutions against these securities, as collateral.

While the banks still maintained this attitude the result was not as noticeable, since yesterday's movement disposed of large holdings of the loss leaders. The market began the day calmly and a few traders devoted the first hour to testing the list here and there. Then selling increased and during an hour of great activity prices went down rapidly. Some of the prominent issues broke under yesterday's low points to the bottom prices of several months. Steel sold at 67 1/2. Amalgamated at 73 1/2. Union Pacific at 46 1/2 and American Can at 39 1/2. All new low prices for the movement.

Shortly after noon, the market turned and rose easily. Losses were largely made up and at the close there were some net gains. Short coverings played a considerable part in the rally.

Forecasts of tomorrow's bank statement indicated a cash surplus of $1,000,000, or less to $2,000,000. It was the opinion of some bankers, however, that the deficit in bank reserves reported last week would be greatly reduced or possibly eliminated in this week's report, owing to the recent liquidation of stocks and attendant reductions of loans and to a shifting of loans to out of town institutions.

Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, Dec. 6.—Wheat today failed to hold an advance based on earlier count of damage from but winds in Argentina. Closing prices were easy at a net gain of a shade. Bear influence was found in millers' reports showing a larger winter crop acreage in the United States than last year and a higher condition. Heavy increase in offerings from the country eased corn. May closed at 48 1/2 cents. Cash grades were weak. May ranged from 90 1/2 to 91 1/2 cents, with last sales 1 1/2 cent above last night, at 90 1/2 cents.

Short buying on all setbacks, held the oats market steady. May closed at 23 cents.

Provisions had a firm undertone because of a lighter run of hogs and closed steady.

HOW MANY FOREIGN CONSUMPTIVES ARE HERE?

Texas Governor Seeks Information to Further Campaign for Turning Abandoned Military Posts Into Sanitaria.

Governor C. B. Colquitt, of Texas, chairman of the southwestern conference on tuberculosis, is collecting data in regard to the number of indigent consumptive strangers in states which are members of the league. T. J. Naylor, secretary of the Commercial club, yesterday received a letter from him inquiring about the number of consumptives from other states in Albuquerque who are unable to care for themselves.

The data collected by Governor Colquitt is to be used in furthering the conference's agitation to have the federal government convert abandoned army posts and military reservations into sanitariums for the treatment of tuberculosis. The conference regards the care of stranger consumptives an inter-state problem. A resolution, adopted by the conference at Waco, Tex., declares there are not enough state and county hospitals to care for them.

Governor Colquitt was authorized by the conference to appoint a committee of nine to carry on the campaign. This committee includes the governors of Arizona, California, Colorado, Kansas, Nevada, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Utah and Texas. Congressman H. H. Ferguson and Nell H. Field, of Albuquerque, are members.

Governor Colquitt's letter is to be read to the Commercial club at its meeting next Tuesday night.

SHERIFF WILL MAKE INVESTIGATION OF LOS LENTES AFFAIR

Telephone messages were yesterday received by Attorney Isaac Barth and others here from Sheriff Ruperto Jaramillo, of Valencia county, to the effect that he was starting an investigation of the alleged outrage at Los Lentes Saturday night and would appreciate all possible information.

The alleged outrage was reported by Quintin Garcia, Noriega, who declared that he had been bound and his wife kidnapped, and that his own murder had been attempted and $500 stolen from a trunk in his home. He accused two young men who had walked home with himself and wife from a social affair in Los Lunas, which is near his home.

Clerk of Albuquerque Camp No. 1 Continued in Position at Annual Election of Officers Held Last Night.

D. E. Philipps, clerk of Albuquerque Camp No. 1, Woodmen of the World, was signally honored by the camp last night when, at the annual election of officers, he was for the twentieth time elected clerk of the camp.

Last night's meeting of the camp was well attended and enthusiasm prevailed. The following officers were elected: George Clifford, past consul; J. W. Fredericks, consul commander; W. H. Walling, adviser; C. G. Giron, banker; D. E. Philipps, clerk; E. R. Swope, escort; A. T. Smith, watchman; L. J. Fredericks, escort; E. J. Patehin, physician; M. L. Albers, manager for three years; L. PLAINTIFF WINS IN GURLEY VS. GARDNER BROTHERS ACTION

Judge Herbert F. Reynolds yesterday handed down a decision in favor of the plaintiff in the case of Gurley vs. Gardner Brothers, a long business manufacturing controversy. Gurley sued for $252, claimed as a balance due on a note. It appeared that the business manufacturers had paid $200 down on a set of brown corn and had given a note for $100 for the balance. On this they had paid about $600, but declined to pay the balance on the ground that the note had not been up to standard. W. J. Landin yesterday filed a suit against the board of Gallop, to restrain that organization from issuing $50,000 worth of bonds for the construction of a waterworks system. The bonds were voted by an election in April, and carried by an overwhelming majority. The petition is filed to settle whether the board can legally issue the bonds, as it appears that the assessed valuation of the town is only $110,000 and that a 12-mill levy could not be sufficient to pay the interest on the bonds and provide a sinking fund for their retirement at the time specified.

The action will have a hearing here next Monday.

An order was issued by Judge Reynolds yesterday appointing Antonio Armijo guardian of three minors named Chavez to sell certain real estate belonging to them. His bond was fixed at $100.

PRESTON MUST ANSWER CHARGE OF BURGLARY

Tom Preston, charged with larceny and concealing and disposing of stolen property, yesterday morning pleaded not guilty before Justice George H. Craig. Upon his waiving a preliminary examination, he was bound over to the grand jury under $1,000 bond. He has not furnished bail.

The charge against Preston was made by George E. Ellis, manager of the Bennett store, which was entered by burglary November 22nd. Preston was not charged with burglary, but the finding of about one-half of the stolen jewels in his possession furnished grounds for the double charge made by Bennett.

Joe Mahboub has made no complaint against Preston. Three suits stolen from Mahboub's store also were found in Preston's possession. Night of his arrest, Mahboub carried burglary insurance and an adjuster was here yesterday to settle his claim. Whether Mahboub or the burglary insurance company will prosecute is not known to the police.

HYPNOTIZED YOUNG MAN SKATES FIFTY MILES

The feat of skating continuously for seven hours while under hypnotic influences, was successfully negotiated by a young man yesterday afternoon at the Elks' theater rink. Placed under a hypnotic spell at 1:30 by Professor Griffith, now appearing at the Elks theater, the subject, after a few preliminary manipulations, skated continuously until he was removed from the spell at 8:30 p. m., at the beginning of the Griffith show.

Manager Howdich, of the rink, kept count on the distance covered and at the termination of the stunt announced that a total distance of a little more than forty-nine miles had been covered. The young man, although a mere novice at roller skating, pulled off all the fancy stunts known to the experienced skaters and with eyes closed, skated round and round the hall without difficulty.

The Griffith hypnotic show makes its last appearance at the Elks theater tonight.

MAN TAKING HOME GROCERIES IS JAILED ON A DRUNK CHARGE

Jose Aragon, on his way home with an armful of groceries and a bottle of wine, last night was arrested by Merchant Policeman Tony Guayava on a charge of drunkenness. His brother, Cosme Aragon, was with him and followed Guayava and his prisoner to the city jail. Cosme stood outside the door yelling epithets at Guayava. The officer made a break toward him and Cosme ran. Guayava, after a short sprint, overtook Cosme, and he went to jail with his brother. Jose had several bundles of fruit, vegetables and meat, besides his bottle of wine—probably the family's supper. Cosme also had a bottle of wine.

CURATOR OF FIELD MUSEUM IN CHICAGO IS VISITOR IN CITY

Charles L. Owen, one of the curators of the Field Columbian museum, in Chicago, and an ethnologist of wide fame, was a visitor in the city yesterday. Mr. Owen is accompanied by his son and by Louis H. Sharp, a Chicago artist. The three will make extensive studies of the Indian types to be found in New Mexico. They left last night for the Indian pueblo west of the city. Mr. Sharp will make sketches and drawings of the various types and of Indian life, and Mr. Owen will study the ethnology of the Indians encountered.

The trio spent yesterday going over the valuable relics and specimens in the Harvey Indian rooms and museum here. Architect Turrel Loose, Portland, Ore., Dec. 6.—Lionel Deane, an architect, arrested recently on the confession of a youth charged with delinquency, in connection with a sex scandal, was released today by order of State Circuit Judge Morrow on the ground the evidence did not warrant his detention. Deane's case was considered by the grand jury, but that body returned an indictment. Of the thirteen men arrested, Deane is the sixth to be released for lack of evidence.

DAVID GARRICK IS TO BE PRODUCED ON DECEMBER 19

Woman's Club Show, Directed by Mrs. David M. White, Will be Feature of Home Talent Theatrical Season at Elks.

Announcement was made yesterday of the date selected for the production of the Woman's club play, David Garrick, which is being staged under the direction of Mrs. David M. White. The play will be presented on December 19th. It will be handled by a cast of the very best local talent, from star to bit player, and will feature several local players of no mean ability.

The play, a fine old English comedy, written by Robertson, and a man of the same name will play the leading part. This character will be presented by A. B. Robertson, a local attorney, who has taken an active part in dramas in college and in his former home, but who has not yet made the acquaintance of many Albuquerque theatergoers.

The leading woman is to be played by Mrs. R. V. Winchester, who has been hailed with applause on every occasion when she faced the footlights in Albuquerque. As Ada Ingot, she will have a larger field for her ability than heretofore.

The remainder of the cast is as follows:

Richard Chivy (a country squire), Hugo C. Meyers.
Smith, J. E. Goodell.
Smith, Mrs. D. H. Carns.
Simon Ingot (a merchant prince), Charles J. Andrews.
Jones (who stutters), Leslie Briggs.
Araminta Brown, Mrs. Fred Metzger.
Butler, Will Arnot.
Brown (brother of Araminta), Fred Metzger.
Tickets for the play will be placed on sale Monday.

MRS. WHITE TO APPEAR IN THE CURTAIN-RAISER

Mrs. David M. White, who is coaching the play, will appear in a twenty-minute curtain-raiser, entitled "The Other Woman." She will be assisted by Mrs. L. G. Rice, Mrs. White will enact the part of Enid Grey, an actress, while Mrs. Rice will appear as Sylvia Graham, a young widow.

Mrs. White, who has not yet appeared on an Albuquerque stage, is well fitted to handle the directing of David Garrick, although that calls for considerable ability. For three years she supported Richard Mansfield and she has had other valuable experience.

New pictures. Pastime and Crystal. JAMES SMITH IS APPOINTED ON THE CITY POLICE FORCE

James Smith, former deputy United States marshal, yesterday was appointed by Chief of Police Thomas McMillin to fill the vacancy on the police force caused by the resignation of Officer Ernest Lix. The permanent appointment is to be made by the city council.

Officer Ed. Donohue was assigned to Lix's post at Second street and Central avenue, and Smith was given Donohue's beat. Smith will be on the moon to midnight shift. Donohue was changed, owing to the fact that the chief wants a uniformed man at the Second street and Central avenue crossing.

CAPTAIN CASEY IS CALLED TO HIS FINAL REWARD

Silver City Pioneer and Southwestern Frontiersman Succumbs at Ripe Old Age at Home in Silver City.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Silver City, N. M., Dec. 6.—One of the real pioneers of the west, those men who with the zeal and enthusiasm of youth and strength penetrated far into the wild reaches of a little known country and there left their impress upon the development of its natural resources in the making of a vast kingdom, passed away Monday evening in the person of Daniel Charles Casey, for many years a respected resident of Silver City. Mr. Casey had been out of active service for several years owing to his age and an ever developing trouble of the heart. During the past few weeks his sufferings were at times intense, but he bore them with unflinching courage and ever cheerfulness. His strong and rugged constitution finally gave way, and the end came peacefully about 8 o'clock last evening, in the presence of the members of his family.

Mr. Casey had reached the age of 76 years. Born in Madison, Wis., on May 14, 1842, and losing his parents at an early age, he felt the lure of the west in early manhood. With a party of considerable size he left Kansas City in the late sixties and traveled by stage to Colorado. The year 1871 found him in what is now Silver City.

Not long after his arrival here, while on a prospecting trip Mr. Casey discovered the first silver in the Georgetown district, and it was he who gave that town its name, owing to similarity of the location to that of Georgetown, Colo. Mr. Casey was one of the large mine owners in the Georgetown district, and the firm of Casey, Nichol and McGregor will recall memories of the old days to those who knew Georgetown when it was the big center of this section of the country.

Following the downfall of Georgetown, Mr. Casey was connected with mining enterprises in old Mexico and Arizona, where he supervised the construction of many of the large mills. While in Clifton, Ariz., he was caught in a cyclone and almost lost his life from the injuries he received.

On October 15, 1875, he was married in Silver City to Miss Mary P. Richards, and to this union six children were born, nearly all of whom are residents of this community at the present time. The children were: Edith, now Mrs. C. P. Crater, of El Paso; Simon, engaged in mining in Sonora, Mexico; Blanche, now Mrs. Robert H. Boulware; John E. Boulware, for many years for M. E. Dwyer & Co., Patience, who is now Mrs. Harry Glennon, of Pinar del Rio, Mexico; and Daniel, who died at the age of 7. Mrs. Casey died on January 1, 1909.

Funeral services were held at the residence of R. H. Boulware, Wednesday, and interment was made in the Odd Fellows' cemetery. Rev. Francis Carroll officiated. Services at the grave were in charge of the local order of Elks, of which the deceased was a member. The following old friends acted as pallbearers: Charles G. Bell, J. W. Fleming, Herbert McGrath, M. E. Downes, Dr. F. S. Mercer and W. H. Newcomb.

ASSESSMENTS RAISED IN COLFAX COUNTY

The total state tax for 1912 was raised $25,320.66, or about 19 per cent over the old assessment, as a result of the adjustment, the total assessment now being $280,350.65. The school assessment for district No. 11 was increased $1,425.30 and the assessment for the city of Raton $462.98 by the change.

Snow commenced falling at 5 a. m. and continued until noon, reaching a depth of four inches on the level. The snow was general over eastern New Mexico, according to reports received up to late this evening. The snow comes at a most opportune time and will prove of great benefit to farmers. It will insure a big winter wheat crop.

GOOD ROADS LOCAL PLANS INCREASE IN MEMBERSHIP

Campaign to be Carried in Aggressive Fashion on "Local Day," December 17th, by Albuquerque Branch.

Plans are being made by the Albuquerque branch of the New Mexico Good Roads Association for the prosecution of a vigorous campaign for membership on "Local Day," December 17th. While it is realized that "Local Day" will come at a time when all merchants and business men are more or less busy with the Christmas rush, yet the local felt in setting this date, that it was doing the best thing possible when all considerations were taken into account. The day will be one which the local hopes to make long remembered by road enthusiasts all over the state. The project adopted by the local is nothing more nor less than securing one thousand members for the road association, and of course, for itself, also. In the space of a single hour. This will necessitate fast work, but the roads boosters are hustlers. If nothing else, and will get a big share of the desired thousand at any rate.

The city will be divided into a number of districts, such as the Y. W. C. A. divided it for "Block Day," a year or so ago, and a committee of guaranteed live wires will be turned loose in each district. Other committees will be placed on the streets to corner those who are running around and are not to be found in their offices by the canvassing committees. The entire squadron of committees will make solicitations from all whom they meet for membership in the Good Roads' Association. Quick work will be necessary, and no moments will be lost anywhere. The object will be to get a good road built on every main street within the hour.

Probably the hour selected will be from 2:30 to 4:30 in the afternoon, as it is felt that that will be the easiest time for the merchants to get busy.

No one will be asked to spend more than the hour in the work, and this is thought to be a good feature, as it will divide the labor of the canvassing between a large number of men who need each give it but an hour's time.

MOTOR TRUCK SHOW TO BE HELD IN CHICAGO

Thirteenth Annual Automobile Exhibition in Windy City in February Promises to Be Interesting.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Chicago, Dec. 6.—Motor trucks and delivery wagons of all kinds and sizes and adapted to every line of business will be exhibited to the number of 250 or more at the thirteenth annual national automobile show to be held in Chicago next February. Preparations are well under way for the show and more than sixty manufacturing companies have contracted for space already. It is expected that when the truck show opens on February 10th there will be fully ninety exhibitors of complete vehicles, occupying all the main floor space in the Coliseum and First Regiment armory. There will also be about 200 exhibitors of motor car parts and sundries, completely filling the galleries. The automobile exhibition is the only one that is large enough to more than fill the Coliseum building, and it fills both buildings for two weeks in succession, pleasure cars from February 1st to 8th, and commercial cars February 10th to 15th.

This is only the third winter that motor trucks and delivery wagons have been shown separately, yet they will require as much space as the passenger cars. They will range from light delivery wagons of about 500 pounds capacity, suitable for luncheon, florists, milliners and other retail trades of light goods, to monster trucks that can deliver 100 tons of coal a day. Any type of body can be fitted to the running gear of these machines, adapting them to all kinds of work, from fire extinguishing to applying hot tar to road surfaces or hauling dynamite or eggs. There will be many entirely new models, as most of the manufacturers have brought out new ones during the year to supplement their former models of different capacity. There will also be a notable number of new makes never before exhibited. The industry has been growing so fast that there are today as many manufacturers of commercial motor vehicles as there are makers of pleasure cars.

JOINT COMMITTEE WILL DISCUSS TAFT-JAFFA REPORT

Statement Made by Organization of Republicans to Come in for Censure at Hands of Tri-Party Junta.

MEETING CALLED BY REQUEST OF MAJORITY

Great Interest Being Taken in Account Filed by Body Which Paid Out $1,857 at the Last Election.

At the request of a majority of the members of the joint committee formed by the republicans, democrats and progressives shortly before the last election, to promote purity in politics by the handling of all money itself instead of allowing them to be handled by the different county political organizations, a meeting of that committee has been called for December 9th, at which the statement made by the report of the Taft-Jaffa club regarding its expenditures at the last election, and the chapter of the laws of 1912 covering the use of money, etc., at elections, will be discussed. The call for the meeting is signed by Chairman Elfrido Baca, of the joint committee, and contains an invitation to Governor William C. McDonald, his legal advisor, Sumners Burkhardt, and the district attorney to attend the meeting.

Something is due to drop at the forthcoming meeting of the joint committee.

Just what is going to drop and who will be the unfortunate recipient of the dropping article when it does drop is unknown, but it is a reasonable assumption, in the light of events yesterday that something will undoubtedly be precipitated.

The publication in the Morning Journal yesterday of the report of the Taft-Jaffa club, which was filed with the county clerk December 4th, elicited a great deal of comment. Anyone who reads that report will be struck with the fact that there are some notable omissions and some equally notable inclusions therein.

This was the way it struck several members of the joint committee yesterday, and as that committee was formed by the three party organizations in Bernalillo county for the purpose of doing away with the use of money at elections in any way where it was possible to dispense with it, the committee proposes to find out some of the omissions and discuss some of the inclusions.

To that end a number of the members of that committee yesterday requested Chairman Elfrido Baca to call a meeting of the committee to discuss the report and also, at the same meeting, discuss the laws of the last session of the legislature relating to the expenditure of money in campaigns. The call was issued yesterday, and includes an invitation to the governor, his legal advisor and the district attorney to attend the session of the committee.

The call is as follows:

Call of the Joint Committee Composed of Republicans, Democrats and Progressive Republicans:

I, the undersigned, chairman of the said committee, by request of a majority of the said members, do hereby call a meeting of the said committee, to be held Monday, the 9th day of December, at 4 o'clock p. m., at my office, 523 West Gold avenue, for the purpose of discussing chapter 62, of the laws of New Mexico of 1912, and the report of the so-called Taft-Jaffa club.

I have been requested to invite the governor of New Mexico, Hon. W. C. McDonald, and Attorney Sumners Burkhardt, his advisor, and also the district attorney of the Second judicial district, to be present at said meeting.

(Signed) ELFRIDO BACA.

Chairman of Joint Committee.

In discussing the call and the statement of the Taft-Jaffa club yesterday, Mr. Baca asserted that the report would undergo the most careful scrutiny. He pointed out several discrepancies in it, notably one where a certain man received payment for the use of two wagons, and for the services of himself and an assistant, when, as a matter of fact, he asserted, the man did not own even one wagon. Then he mentioned a man in a certain precinct who is reported as having received a sum of money for making political speeches.

Mr. Baca spoke in the bitterest manner of the report, and declared that in his belief, it did not show half the money actually received and expended by the club.

SALOON BURGLARS ARE HIDING IN MOUNTAINS

That the burglars who entered the Bridge saloon in Bernalillo Wednesday morning are hiding in the mountains east of Albuquerque, is the belief of Under Sheriff Dick Lewis. The officer has information that indicates, he says, that the men headed that way. The cash register was found broken open, east of Albuquerque, about a mile from the saloon.

SICK WOMAN CALLS HELP BY FIRING REVOLVER

Sudden Illness Causes Mrs. Ed Vaughn Temporary Loss of Vocal Powers; Presence of Mind Probably Saved Life.

Neighbors heard four shots about 6 o'clock last evening at the home of Edward Vaughn, night cashier at the Fashion cafe, who lives at Tijeras road and Broadway. They investigated and found that the shots were fired by Mrs. Vaughn to attract attention.

Mrs. Vaughn, who was at home alone, had taken suddenly ill and discharged the revolver to summon help. Her throat was affected and she was unable to call. She was just able to force herself to the dresser where the gun was kept and fire it. She was exhausted when neighbors reached the residence. Mrs. Vaughn's condition was dangerous and the investigators called a physician.

Police Captain Pat O'Grady heard the shots and ran to the Vaughn house. Friends of Mrs. Vaughn, however, had already sent for a doctor when he arrived. The physician last night said she was out of danger, but her condition is still serious. She will be taken to a hospital this morning.

REJECTED SUITOR ATTEMPTS LIFE OF HIS RIVAL

Following Marriage of Sweetheart to Another Man, Denver Cripple Goes Gunning for Benedict.

(By Morning Journal Special Licensed Wire.) Denver, Dec. 6.—Zetta Zavitz was married to William S. Gaghagan at 4 o'clock today and when William Dishard, a cripple, heard of it, he swore vengeance on both, according to the police. The bride has been a boarder at the home of Dishard's mother and he had been a suitor for the girl's hand. Dishard obtained a knife and revolver. They were taken away from him by his mother before he could start out for the hotel where the newly married couple had gone. Then he went out, bought another revolver and went to the hotel. When Gaghagan stepped out in the hallway, in response to Dishard's knock, it alleged that Dishard pointed the revolver at him, but before he could fire, Gaghagan knocked it out of his hand.

The groom then yanked his would-be assassin into the room where the bride was and compelled Dishard to offer his congratulations to the happy couple. Dishard later was arrested and held on the charge of attempting to kill Gaghagan.

RAILROAD RULING AROUSSES WRATH OF CAPITAL

Business Men Demand That Santa Fe System Rescind Order Forbidding Local Passengers Riding on Limiteds.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 6.—The capital city refuses to take the place of a way station handed out to her by the recent order of Santa Fe railroad officials, whereby trains Nos. 3 and 4, known as the limiteds, will not take on passengers at any place in New Mexico except Albuquerque. Such was the decision at a meeting of the chamber of commerce held here last night, and a committee was appointed headed by H. S. Lutz, the local Santa Fe agent, to take the matter up with the management of the railroad. This committee will ask that passengers for the east or for the Pacific coast be taken on at Lamy as heretofore. They will point out that the train has to stop at Lamy whether passengers are taken on or not, and that it is unfair to the capital city, from which no small volume of traffic originates, to discriminate against it in this way.

The first suggestion was that the matter be taken up with the state corporation commission, but it was decided after a lengthy discussion to take the matter up with the railroad officials through a committee first.

Bill Brogan made a talk advocating publicity, and the meeting then voted to hold a big booster meeting on January 14th, which Albuquerque and Las Vegas boosters will be invited to attend. This meeting will be held during the meeting of the State Press Association, and the newspaper men from all over the state will be present also.

WOMAN ASSAULTED BY JEALOUS WIFE ABOARD WARSHIP

Naval Board Convened at Mare Island Navy Yard at Vallejo, California, to Investigate Serious Affair.

(By Morning Journal Special Licensed Wire.) Vallejo, Cal., Dec. 6.—A naval board was convened at the Mare Island navy yard today to investigate an affair on board the United States gunboat Vicksburg late last night, which resulted in the removal of Mrs. Andrew Muller, wife of a Vallejo seaman, in an unbecoming condition from the vessel. The identity of the two officers alleged to have entertained the women on the gunboat has not yet been made public.

The first news of the affair received by the police came through a telephone message from the cruiser South Dakota, docked near the Vicksburg.

It is alleged by the police of Vallejo, who conducted a serious investigation, that they have evidence to show that Mrs. Muller did not fall down the gangway, as at first reported, but that she was struck on the head by a beer bottle, hurled by the wife of an officer with whom she had been dining.

A second woman included in the midnight dinner party, it is said, by the police is an employee of a candy store in San Francisco. The identity of the two officers alleged to have entertained the women on the gunboat has not yet been made public.

The first news of the affair received by the police came through a telephone message from the cruiser South Dakota, docked near the Vicksburg.

BULGARIA PLANS TO UTILIZE FRUITS OF VICTORY

Announcement is Made from Sofia That If Saloniki is Neutralized Orfano Will Be Made Great Seaport.

(By Morning Journal Special Licensed Wire.) London, Dec. 7.—A dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from Sofia, says that if Saloniki is internationalized, Bulgaria will devote all her financial energy to the establishment of a great town and seaport at Orfano, south of Serres and the building of a railroad straight down the Struma valley to the sea, placing Sofia in direct and easy communication with the Mediterranean. If this railroad should be built, the correspondent adds, Saloniki would lose much of its importance. A dispatch to the same paper from Vienna declares that Bulgaria and Turkey are ready for an alliance.

Both countries, the correspondent adds, are so well acquainted with each other's intentions that they could draft and sign a satisfactory peace treaty within forty-eight hours. The correspondent concludes by declaring that peace in the Balkans probably will leave Adrianople and Saloniki internationalized.

Pending the assembling of the peace delegates in London, the Balkan allies are occupied in preparing a joint draft of the demands to be made upon Turkey, and it is understood, exchanging communications with a view to arriving at an agreement defining their own mutual obligations. The position of Greece in refusing to sign the armistice remains unchanged. The Greeks are said to be continuing their campaign in the inland at Chios and Janina and their ships are searching for the foreign steamers between the Dardanelles and Smyrna. It is reported from Vienna that Serbia has set up batteries on the Danube, opposite the Hungarian town of Oravov.

Telegraphing from Constantinople, the correspondent of the Daily Express, asserts that Vienna has been chosen as the scene for peace negotiations between Turkey and Greece. He says the Turkish ambassador at Vienna has received full powers to negotiate with the Greeks and that he will be assisted by Osman Nishmi Pasha, the Turkish ambassador to Germany.

A dispatch to the Times from Sofia says there is reason to believe that a conciliatory disposition prevails at Athens and that Greece will sign the armistice before the peace conference meets.

WIDOW SUES RAILWAY COMPANY FOR DAMAGES

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Las Vegas, N. M., Dec. 6.—At the request of the defendant corporation, the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Co., the $5,000 damage suit in which Mrs. Antonio Padilla de Martinez is plaintiff, has been transferred for hearing before the United States court in Santa Fe.

Mrs. Martinez is the widow of Apollonio Martinez, who was killed by a Santa Fe train on September 2nd, at Elbera. It was alleged that Martinez was pushed off the train by members of the crew. Before he died the man stated what had been the facts. The train crew maintained that Martinez, having been carried past his station, attempted to alight while the train was in motion.

As criminal charges may be prosecuted against members of the train crew, the case promises to be of unusual interest.

THERMOMETER TAKES RAPID HIKE FOR BOTTOM OF TUBE

Shortly after 10 o'clock last night the thermometer took a sudden drop, although it had been cold all day and throughout the early evening and Albuquerqueans were all declaring that it "was cold enough for them, thank you." They were quite satisfied to have the temperature stay where it was, or even rise, but when it came to dropping, they were dissatisfied.

It was really cold last night. Probably as cold as 10 above, or perhaps even colder.

Railroad men on No. 9 declared that there was a snow storm headed this way, as they had struck it at Luján, and had been in the storm ever since, until a point a few miles north of the city. Cars on No. 9 carried snow on their platforms and steps and one was partly sheathed in ice from the water tank on the roof. The snow was of the fine, sandy texture that comes only from intense cold.

THERMOMETER TAKES RAPID HIKE FOR BOTTOM OF TUBE

Shortly after 10 o'clock last night the thermometer took a sudden drop, although it had been cold all day and throughout the early evening and Albuquerqueans were all declaring that it "was cold enough for them, thank you." They were quite satisfied to have the temperature stay where it was, or even rise, but when it came to dropping, they were dissatisfied.

It was really cold last night. Probably as cold as 10 above, or perhaps even colder.

Railroad men on No. 9 declared that there was a snow storm headed this way, as they had struck it at Luján, and had been in the storm ever since, until a point a few miles north of the city. Cars on No. 9 carried snow on their platforms and steps and one was partly sheathed in ice from the water tank on the roof. The snow was of the fine, sandy texture that comes only from intense cold.

ment of more than $200,000 in duties on oleomargarine. Several of the largest firms in Chicago, dealing in the product are said to be connected with the cases. Full tax payments on more than 2,000,000 pounds of oleomargarine are reported to have been evaded.

The government tax of ten cents a pound on colored oleomargarine is said to have been avoided by the payment of three-fourths of one cent a pound, the tax on uncolored oleomargarine, the product, however, being tinted with oil that greatly increased its resemblance to butter.

BOTTOM DROPS OUT OF EGG MARKET; SLUMP OCCURS

Over Five Hundred Thousand Cases Dumped on Chicago Market at Loss of Two Cents Per Dozen.

(By Morning Journal Special Licensed Wire.) Chicago, Dec. 6.—Five hundred and seventy-six thousand eggs are reported to have been thrown on the market at a loss of two cents a dozen by Chicago dealers today. Thousands more were offered with no takers.

Commission merchants say the price of storage eggs is now near the bottom and predicted that with more than 1,500,000 cases in storage, eggs will drop nearly ten cents a dozen before New Year's.

According to the Warehousemen's Association, there are 1,670,155 cases of eggs now in storage here, 341,274 more than this time last year.

FRATERNAL SOCIETY SUES FOR BIG SUM

Denver, Dec. 6.—The Americans, a fraternal insurance society, with headquarters at Springfield, Ill., filed suit in the district court here today to recover $50,000 from W. F. Ghronley, Colorado manager of the Colorado Brotherhood of America. It is alleged that Ghronley, together with J. E. Brockway, H. H. Eddy, C. E. Morgan, George E. Lane and Glenn L. Tiddick, were before judges of the Americans and caused them to revolt and renege in the other order.

TUBERCULAR GERMS

flourish in the most unexpected places and quickly attack a body weakened from colds or general debility, but if the lungs are fortified with SCOTT'S EMULSION their progress can be prevented and often overcome. SCOTT'S EMULSION is used in tuberculosis camps because its highly concentrated nourishment builds strength and resistive-power faster than disease destroys. It assimilates without taxing digestion, and contains no alcohol. Absolutely nothing equals SCOTT'S EMULSION to strengthen the lungs and drive out colds and coughs.

WAR OR PEACE?

On the conference of the great powers of Europe, participated in by the Balkan allies and Turkey, called to meet in London before the holidays, depends peace or war for Europe. All signs point to peace as the outcome.

The real bone of contention will be a port for the Servians on the Adriatic. Servia wishes such a port and Russia wishes her to have such a port. Austria places her emphatic veto on the Servian ambition and is backed by Germany and Italy, while France and, presumably, England, stand with Russia.

Servia wants specifically to occupy the port of Durazzo as the terminal of the trans-Balkan railroad, which she and the other allies are to build. Yesterday's press reports from Vienna carry the news that Austria-Hungary and Italy have made it plain that they will not permit Servia to occupy either Avlona, Durazzo or Scutari.

The German newspapers, although friendly to Austria and Italy, recognize the worthlessness of the Servian ambition. One of the principal newspapers of Berlin says: "The Servian demand for communication with the Adriatic is quite justified from the Servian point of view. It is erroneous to treat the question as if it involved some abstract principle of Servian or Austrian rights. The question is practical and calls for some arrangement that may insure free communication between Belgrade and the Adriatic, and between Vienna and Saloniki."

The Austrian newspapers are quite as positive that Servia cannot have an outlet on the Adriatic, and seem to regard it as impudence for the little kingdom to want it. On the other hand, the Russian newspaper, Novoye Vremya, asserts that it remains for Servia and Montenegro to retain the ports they have conquered by force of arms, and that to deprive the Balkan states of the legitimate gains of the war means more war and more bloodshed for Europe, if not at once, at a day not far distant.

Thus the interests of the various countries are lined up, and when the London conference adjourns it will be for peace or war. The peoples of the world will watch the outcome with the greatest interest.

THE LAW'S DELAYS.

Not long ago a man was convicted of a dastardly crime in an American court, but a new trial was granted him because the indictment read: "against the peace and dignity of the state." The article "the" had been left out before the word state.

With this as a text, a former president of the American Bar Association remarked that American courts are so negligent of the real merits of a case that they occasionally "place the definite article 'the' in sanctity above the honor of our wives and daughters."

A prominent teacher observes that our legal system seems to be governed by the "sporting theory of justice"—every time a litigant forgets a rule he is set back so many courts.

Yet it would be unfair to say that this is the fault of the lawyers. The American Bar Association has worked hard for years to remedy these abuses. A committee, after four years of hard labor, formulated a measure that was unanimously recommended at the meeting of 1908, for the reform of these abuses in the federal courts, at least.

Two successive congresses have perished over this measure, amended it in various ways, and then failed to pass it. Here is something more for a democratic administration to try its teeth on.

Even if this congress should pass the pending bill which probably it will not, or if the next congress should pass it—and that contingency is remote, only the federal courts would be improved. The remedy seems to be with state bar associations and in an aroused public sentiment.

A MINORITY PRESIDENT.

Some republican newspapers are making much of the fact that Woodrow Wilson will be "a minority president." That is, he was not chosen by a majority of the voters, being the recipient of a plurality only. Therefore, it is asserted in some quarters that he has no mandate from the people either to lower the tariff, or to solve the trust question, or to reform the currency, or to do anything else.

It is time to have an end of such nonsense. President Lincoln was a "minority president," therefore had no mandate from the people, yet he did not hesitate to do more for the country in many ways than any other president the country has ever known. He obeyed the mandate of duty, of common sense, of obligation as chief executive of the nation. He did things that were quite as important as he could have done had he been a "majority" president.

In the same sense as Wilson, Hayes, Garfield, Cleveland in his first term and Harrison were all "minority presidents."

It is true that our presidents are elected on platforms, but, as President-elect Wilson has said, "a platform is not a program." While the Baltimore platform is an indicator, it would be preposterous to say that the Wilson administration must regard it as a kind of political ten commandments, with imperative "thou shalt" and "thou shalt not." The country is too big for any enunciation by a political convention to be the alpha and the omega of its activities.

Woodrow Wilson was elected because the largest minority cast their votes for him, and what the country wishes and expects is that President Wilson will carry out, not their particular wish, but will use his best judgment as chief executive of the nation and administer the affairs of the government along the lines indicated by the Baltimore platform.

MR. BRYAN'S HERESY.

The fact that Mr. Bryan is trying to impress upon the democratic members of congress a return to a greenback currency system, is likely to precipitate the clash that many people have regarded an inevitable between him and Woodrow Wilson.

President-elect Wilson has been a close student of finances for many years, and refused to vote for Bryan, when free silver was the issue, because he could not endorse the platform of his party. Along with free silver was advocacy of irredeemable treasury notes, fiat money, when stripped to its actual meaning.

Strange as it may appear at this late date, that is the kind of rag money that Mr. Bryan is proposing for the country today, except that it may be redeemed at the option of the treasury department, or be refused, if that department should so elect.

It is to be regretted that Mr. Bryan should have begun a campaign for such measure. It cannot have the endorsement of the next president. Judging from the past, it must have the condemnation of Mr. Wilson. It is to be hoped that Mr. Bryan will not secure any considerable following in congress. If he were to, it would arouse general distrust in business circles and might precipitate a panic of vast proportions. Mr. Bryan should stick to oratory. He is at home there.

WE AGREE PERFECTLY.

Our evening contemporary takes exactly the same view that is taken by the Journal relative to the election of Senator Fall—that it is up to the senate to say whether it was an election legal in form; if so, then it is up to those who have evidence that the election was secured through illegal means to present their evidence to the senate of the United States, so that body may act on it intelligently. If Senator Fall was legally elected, both the Journal and the Herald want him to have his seat for six years from the 4th of March, and if he was not legally elected, both newspapers want him ousted.

At a meeting of women in New York, when a ruling of the chairlady was questioned from the floor, she walked right out of the chair and said that the lady who was not satisfied with her ruling could have the chair herself. Another lady who was present said: "The whole thing is disgusting and no better than men would do." Then there was trouble in earnest, for the third lady was informed that she could have said nothing meaner.

Wayne MacVeagh, secretary of the treasury, is putting the government to considerable expense in order to reduce the size of the paper currency. We have heard of no one complaining about the size of the ten thousand-dollar bill being a burden to him.

Governor Wilson's stay in Bermuda has not been without its drawbacks. In one day he had to pay more than seven dollars for newspaper clippings sent to him containing advice as to how he should run the government when he becomes president.

A vegetable butter seems to have been achieved, but no one seems to have shown up with a vegetable egg. The egg plant is a failure and the price of hen fruit continues to soar toward the dollar-a-dozen mark.

Mrs. Marian Klein was walking on a street of New York when a man tried to flirt with her. In the argument that followed she nearly broke his leg. In the police court Mrs. Klein told the judge she hated to strike a man, for she was of domestic tastes and liked a quiet home life, but that no man could try to scrape an acquaintance with her on the street and not get into trouble up to his neck. The judge took the same view of it and sent the man to jail to think it over.

A Cleveland youth who stole an automobile, "just for fun," struck a judge with a defective sense of humor who imposed a sentence of six months in jail and a fine of two hundred dollars. That sounds about right.

Governor Blease, of South Carolina, gives the people of the north a very wrong idea of the actual sentiments of the people of the state which, in a misguided moment, called him to the executive chair.

With the present cost of living, the world will hardly censure Mr. Carnegie for holding out a mere pittance of twenty-five millions for himself.

A farmer in the east boasts of the name to do Grassie Green. He will be fortunate if he doesn't "meet up" with Goldie Bricks in the city.

A banquet to be given to Uncle Joe Cannon in Washington. Crow will not be on the menu, as Uncle Joe is not a crow eater.

Side whiskers and the war with Mexico are both adrift.

DRY FARMING IN QUAY SHOWS GOOD YIELDS OF CROPS

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Tucuman, N. M., Dec. 6.—Examination of the results from dry farming during the year 1912 at the government experiment station, three miles northeast of Tucuman, show the following yield per acre in the crops named:

Wheat, 494 bushels grain; 4,100 pounds fodder; kafir corn, 35 bushels; 6,100 pounds fodder; broom corn, 600 bush; 2,950 lbs. seed cotton; 750 pounds; Mexican beans, 930 pounds; Indian corn, 26 bushels; 500 pounds fodder; cow peas hay, 4,250 pounds; millet hay, 3,850 pounds; sorghum, 21 bushels; 4,400 pounds fodder. A silo constructed last spring was filled with a portion of the above fodder for winter use for the stock on the farm.

J. S. Poppino, living in the Montoya neighborhood, sold 10,000 pounds of maize and kafir corn last week. Thousands of tons of feed are in stacks over the country, the market at present being overstocked. Expectantly have good crops been grown in the neighborhood of Norton and Lloyd and throughout the eastern portion of the county. It is said that farmers in the section to the north and east of Tucuman are considering the advisability of going in for sheep raising once more and are preparing to consolidate their claims in order to have sufficient range. PLAN IS UNDER WAY TO PREVENT NEW YEAR'S REVELS

Clergymen Takes Up with Chicago Mayor Matter of Preventing Drunken Celebrations and Squandering of Money.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Chicago, Dec. 6.—A plan on the New Year's revels, which in Chicago in recent years have rivalled in wildness the tabbooed First Ward ball, has been set on foot by the clergy and several millions of dollars. Countless cases of waywardness, ruin and domestic tragedy have been charged up to those occasions when in celebration of the New Year, lissome daughters of respectability sing a roundelay from a table top and drink wine from their slippers; occasions when conventions are checked at the coat room and joy and grief rickety are unfurled.

Just how unconfined the joy was last year in the swell cafes of the city was described to the Church Federation council by Rev. M. P. Bennett, who was one of a committee to witness and report the scenes. Tables already are sold at big prices for the repetition which Mayor Harrison may not allow, the aggregate of the night's revels at the hotels and cafes promising to reach a fabulous sum. The fact that other cities follow suit was urged as a reason against unbridled license. "I saw women throwing themselves into the laps of strange men who responded to these unusual attentions in suggestions and jokes of the shady kind," Rev. Mr. Bennett related, "the sale of liquor was continued till 3:00 a. m., when the drunken crowds were dispersed. I protest against this riot and lawlessness which give so many young people their first push down the red ways of sin. I protest against the vice that flaunts itself in the faces of thousands and makes mockery of the most sacred relations of life. Old men and women were seen holding each other up as they staggered down the hall ways with tangled feet. Clothing was besmeared with broken glass, spilled liquors, stabs of cigars and cigarettes. Through this filth the long dresses of the women were trailed. The low-necked gowns of the women were pulled away, their hair disheveled. I saw old men lean over and bite the bare shoulder of the woman sitting next to him, others were kissing and hugging with great abandon."

Shady living is not on the bill of the law and order people can prevent.

FIRE COMMITTEE IS NOT TO MEET TILL MAYOR RETURNS

Vacancies in Local Department Not to be Filled Until Next Week; Temporary Appointments Made by Chief.

Appointments to fill the vacancies in the fire department have been postponed until the return of Mayor D. K. B. Sellers.

The fire committee of the city council was to have met Thursday night, but Mayor Sellers, who is a member of the committee, wrote to City Clerk Roehl from Magdalena that he would be unable to attend. He said he would not be in Albuquerque until Saturday night. This means that the meeting will not be held before next week.

There are two vacancies in the fire department. J. M. Chavez quit recently to work in a foundry and Ed Donohue resigned to take a place on the police force. Both vacancies have been filled temporarily by Chief Jacob Klein, but only the fire committee and the mayor has the power to make permanent appointments.

Economy Measure Passed by Council in Secret Session Asks J. N. Gladding to Reduce Pay Roll in His Office.

Another of the city council's retrenchment measures was the reduction of the city engineer's office force from five persons, including the engineer himself, to two.

J. N. Gladding, city engineer, was instructed by the aldermen to get busy with the guillotine, December 1st was the limit set for the execution. The instructions were given in an executive session of the council and they were not known outside the circle of city officials until familiar faces were missing in the engineer's office.

The engineer's department now consists of Mr. Gladding and Dennis Chavez, his assistant. Work is not pressing in Mr. Gladding's office in winter and the councilmen saw an opportunity to reap a saving in the pay of his force.

The council's action is no reflection on the ability of the men. The same men probably will be taken on again when the work of the engineering department increases and when the municipality's treasury is replenished by taxes.
