moted to Destroy Work by Non-Union Contractors.

$119,000 FUND FOR WORK IN LOS ANGELES

Witnesses Explain Correspondence Between Officials as Meaning Other Than Directions for Explosions.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Indianapolis, Dec. 7.—Funds contributed by the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers to sustain its strike against "open shop" iron and steel contractors, which was begun in 1905, and which still continues, were investigated in the cross-examination of witnesses by the government of the "dynamite conspiracy" trial today. The government charges that money was contributed to promote violence, out of which grew the McManama dynamite plot.

Patrick F. Farrell, of New York, former member of the union executive council of iron workers, on account of the strike, testified that $10,000 was used for improper purposes. Asked about a letter to John J. McManama, in which referring to organizers, he said, "It takes good hard cash to push them along." Farrell replied he meant only that the men required pay for the work.

On February 3, 1908, a draw-bridge in construction for the city of New York at Pelham, fell into the bay, because of the supporting cables had been removed. The next day Farrell wrote to McManama: "I enclose a newspaper clipping about what the high winds did last night." The witness said he understood the wind had blown down the structure. Two days later, and one explosion occurred on structural work in and around New York, in the following April, but Farrell asserted he knew nothing as to the cause.

"As an official of the international union, did you ever appropriate money for buying nitroglycerin or dynamite, or did you know McManama was engaged in dynamiting?" asked Senator John W. Kern for the defense on direct examination.

"I never heard of it until McManama was arrested," answered the witness.

Andrew J. Gallagher, member of the board of supervisors of San Francisco, who was secretary of a committee appointed in connection with the building traders' council of San Francisco, to minimize trades in Los Angeles, testified that he received $10,000 from the iron workers through Olaf A. Tveitmoen, a defendant, and alleged from other sources he received $119,000. After the Los Angeles Times building was blown up, Gallagher said, he sent Eugene A. Clancy, another defendant to eastern cities to solicit for the fund.

"Was any part of that strike fund used to defend the McManama trial in Los Angeles?" asked District Attorney Miller.

"About $1,000 was loaned to the defense fund, but later it was returned," said Gallagher.

Other witnesses had testified that when Clancy came east, after the Los Angeles explosion, he met James E. McManama in Chicago, when the latter was in hiding and a fugitive on charges of murder and that Tveitmoen met John J. McManama at a labor convention in St. Louis and asked that other explosions be caused in Los Angeles, as a result of which Orville E. McManama caused an explosion, in an iron works in Los Angeles, in December, 1910.

CALIFORNIANS ASK
TAFT TO SETTLE
CANAL MUDDLE

Prominent Men Petition President to Appease Great Britain
Through Diplomacy or Have Act Amended.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Dec. 7.—A petition to President Taft that the administration seek "an honorable and amicable settlement" with Great Britain of that country's protest against the Panama canal act has been forwarded by Benjamin Ide Wheeler, president of the University of California; David Starr Jordan, president of Stanford University; Archbishop P. W. Riden, of the Roman Catholic diocese of San Francisco; Representative William Kent and other influential Californians, to whom it seems that parts of the act are a violation of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty. The text of the petition and the list of signers were made public here tonight.

It is recommended that the administration seek an amicable and honorable settlement of this matter, by through diplomatic negotiations or by recommending to congress amendment of such parts of the act as may be questionable.

HAS TWO WIVES YET IS NOT A BIGAMIST

Kansas City, Dec. 7.—To possess two wives and yet not be a bigamist, to be the father of a child born in wedlock and yet not its father, are the eyes of the law, in the position of W. A. Erake, who was freed in the criminal court here today, of a charge of bigamy. In 1909 Erake and Miss Gertrude Myers, his first wife, were wedded through the marriage ceremony in Kansas. A child was born. Later Erake deserted his wife and married Miss Ethel Ayres of St. Louis. Last month his first wife discovered his second marriage and Erake was arrested.

In addition to a charge of bigamy, Erake was forced to answer to that of wife and child abandonment. Judge Ralph S. Latham dismissed all the complaints today. The judge pointed out that the Kansas law forbade the marriage of first cousins. Therefore, in the eyes of the law, Erake had neither wife nor child when he married Miss Ayres, and had committed no crime.

San Francisco Asks for Liberty Bell Philanthropist, Dec. 7.—Mrs. Emma Damsie, the representative chosen by the children of California to present to Mayor Blankenburg, of this city, a petition signed by them asking that the Liberty Bell be sent to San Francisco to be exhibited during the Panama exposition in 1915, arrived here today.

M'COMBS TO SELECT INAUGURAL CHAIRMAN

Washington, Dec. 7.—William F. McCombs of New York, democratic national chairman, is expected to settle upon the organization of the local inauguration committee before he leaves Washington. Mr. McCombs will take up the inauguration question tomorrow, or Monday with the chairman of the general committee, who has charge of all affairs connected with the parade, ball and general festivities of inauguration day.

TITANIC DISASTER WRECKED SURVIVORS

New York, Dec. 7.—Many Titanic disaster survivors are agreed, according to one of them, that their harrowing experiences in that calamity will have the effect of shortening their lives. W. R. Daniels, a bond salesman, who was one of the last taken from the wreck of the sinking steamer, with the late Colonel Archibald Gracie, who arrived on the Celtic today, had an engagement to dine with Colonel Gracie, of whose death he was ignorant until informed by a newspaper man.

Mr. Daniels nearly collapsed when told that Colonel Gracie's funeral had just been held.

"It is hard for me to explain just how terrible that news is to me, over and beyond the respect and affection I had for Colonel Gracie," he said. "All of us who came through that experience have felt that our lives were shortened. There is a great fear and apprehension in our minds which will follow us for the rest of our lives."

ENGLAND EXCITED
BY NAVAL POLICY OF CANADA

Manchester Guardian Fears
Proposition Would Give Dominion Too Much Influence in British Affairs.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
London, Dec. 7.—Canada's naval contribution has far overshadowed the eastern war, as the topic of the week in England. The politicians and newspapers, with very few dissenting voices, welcome the dominion's gift for its own sake and as a memorable step toward consolidating the empire. Uncertainty exists as to whether the government proposes to receive Canada's ships as an addition to the minimum fleet considered necessary to maintain naval supremacy, or as a part of that fleet.

The only feature of the policy causing uneasiness is the innovation of giving the colonies a place on the committee of imperial defense. The Manchester Guardian says:

"From the English viewpoint we view with distrust the admission of a Canadian representative to the committee of defense and especially when he is armed with a power, if his advice is not taken, of withdrawing nearly one-half of a squadron from the imperial navy."

"We are certain that this power would not be exercised frivolously or at a time of national danger, but the fact that it exists could give the Canadian member of the convention more than ordinary influence."

BANKER RECOMMENDS SEARCHING PROBE

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 7.—Frank examination by a clearing house committee, supplemental to but more searching than those of the federal bank examiners, formed the subject of an address tonight by James P. Foran, president of the First National bank of Chicago, in which city a committee of the clearing house has, for some time had supervision of the affairs of its members. Mr. Foran, addressing the Bankers' club of Detroit, strongly advocated this system of clearing supervision and said that while "it partook of the nature of a gentlemen's agreement" it worked with satisfaction in every one of the clearing house associations.

WIDNEY ADMITS HE WAS SHOT BY WOMAN

Los Angeles Real Estate Dealer Declares He Never Attempted Suicide and Has Not Contemplated Divorce.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Dec. 7.—Two statements in which he declares positively that he did not shoot himself were issued today from his room in the hospital by Robert J. Widney, the Los Angeles real estate broker, who was shot and severely wounded in the apartments of Mrs. Vivian Lyons, in a downtown hotel, last Wednesday. Mrs. Lyons is said to have made the statement immediately after the shooting that she fired the shot for the reason that Widney called her "Boss," his wife's name. Widney's friends claim he had gone to the woman's room to recover certain letters he had written to Mrs. Lyons.

The first statement written by Widney is as follows:

"Referring to the recent affair at the Hotel Sorrento, wish to say that all of the stories recently printed in newspapers to the effect that I was to leave my wife are unqualifiedly false; also all the rot about leaving my present wife when this trouble is over. Also, in justice to my wife, I wish to state that it would be impossible for me to attempt to kill myself over another woman, and I did not."

(Signed) "R. J. WIDNEY."

The second one is more detailed. It reads:

"Owing to the numerous misstatements which have been printed at the instance of Mrs. W. C. Lyons, it seems to me that it is the right time that the truth be told.

"First, my affection is altogether for my wife and not Mrs. Lyons.

"Second, over 95 per cent of the stories recently printed as coming from her are foolish and false.

"Third, so long as matters have been forced so far by Mrs. Lyons herself, I regret that it has been necessary, on account of family and business interests, to tell the truth. I did not shoot myself. Mrs. Lyons' statements at first to Mr. Joslyn were correct."

(Signed) "R. J. WIDNEY."

ALLEGED EMBEZZLER MAKES RESTITUTION

Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 7.—John C. Keefe, aged 67, who was brought here from Grand county, California, where he had established a prosperous farm, to answer to a charge of embezzling $4,000 from two girls, was today making restitution in the sum of $2,750. The plaintiffs, Catherine and Elizabeth Dunnigan, now reside in Chicago.

TRANSFER OF MILLIONS EASILY ACCOMPLISHED

Salt Lake City, Dec. 7.—Thousands of persons passed $5,000,000 in the street today and not one cent was taken. The money, honesty of the populace was testified in this instance by a steel safe weighing several tons, in which the wealth of a local bank was transported from its old quarters to a new skyscraper building on the opposite side of the street. A single policeman looked on idly as the transfer, which consumed about two hours.

OFFICIAL FIGURES OF WASHINGTON VOTE

Olympia, Wash., Dec. 7.—Ernest Lister, democrat, was elected governor of Washington over Governor Marion E. Hay, republican, by a plurality of 622 votes, according to the figures announced tonight by Secretary of State I. M. Howell, at the completion of the official canvass.

Former President Roosevelt carried Washington by a plurality of 26,836 over Wilson, who led Taft by 16,395. The vote was:

Roosevelt, 115,695; Wilson, 86,840; Taft, 70,445; Debs, 46,134; Chafin, 9,870.

VANDALS BREAK INTO ROYAL MAUSOLEUM

Turin, Dec. 7.—The mausoleum of the House of Savoy, in the Superga, the royal burial church, has been broken into and the tomb of the Dowager Duchess of Genoa profaned. The dowager duchess was the mother of Queen Margherita and the grandmother of King Victor Emmanuel. She died last August. It has not been ascertained whether the motive of the vandals was robbery.

Roswell Citizens Gave Note for $16,500 of Cost of the New High School Building in That City

ROSWell citizens set a splendid example of public-spirited devotion to the cause of education when they made notes aggregating $16,500, the proceeds of which were used on the new high school building erected there. These notes were later taken up by a bond issue, but they showed the spirit with which the people of that city greeted progress. Roswell spent $65,000 for a high school building. With only a population of between 8,000 or 9,000 it has, with possibly one exception, the finest high school building in the state.

Albuquerque can have as fine a one, or a finer one, even, without going to such extremes to raise the money as did Roswell. All that is necessary is for the citizens of Albuquerque, the voters, to go out Tuesday and cast their ballots for the bond issue. Every vote for the bond issue is a vote for a greater Albuquerque.

Mr. American Citizen, are you as public spirited as those fellows down in Roswell who signed a note to help their school board? Are you? Well, then get out and show that you are by voting for the bond issue Tuesday!

Vote for the bonds!

GRAND DUKE GIVES UP POSSIBILITY OF THRONE

Czar's Only Brother Prefers
Wife Not of Royal Blood to Reigning Over Russian Empire Should Crown Prince Die

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
St. Petersburg, Dec. 7.—Emperor Nicholas and the members of the imperial family are greatly upset by the determination of the emperor's only brother, Grand Duke Michael Andreevich, definitely to renounce his rights of succession to the throne. The morganatic marriage contracted in 1910 by the grand duke with the divorcee wife of a brother officer was recently blessed by the birth of a son. This event prompted Grand Duke Michael's decision. He wishes to retire to the private life of a country gentleman, assuming the title of count, in order to enjoy domestic bliss far from the atmosphere of the court, for which he never has had any predilection.

The emperor is opposed to this step. All the more because of the recent illness of his only son, Crown Prince Alexis, which has revived fears for the succession. The sons of the late Grand Duke Vladimir, who would become the next candidates for the throne, mutually share their father's intense unpopularity. All classes of well-informed Russians, indeed, regard the possibility of their ascending the throne as disastrous for the dynasty.

The Dowager Empress Marie is so incensed at the action of the Grand Duke Michael that she announces that she will not return to Russia unless he changes his mind. Such a change would involve dissolution of the morganatic marriage.

GENERAL SYSTEM FOR FINANCING
FARMERS

House Banking and Currency
Committee Favors Plan Proposed by Taft and Conference of Governors.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Washington, Dec. 7.—A general credit system for the financing of farmers, as outlined by President Taft to the governors' conference here today, will be considered as a part of the general currency reform to be attempted by the sub-committee of the house banking and currency committee. It was decided today. Myron T. Herrick, United States ambassador to France, will be accorded a special hearing by the sub-committee seeking a substitute for the Aldrich currency bill.

At the instance of Representative Bulkeley, of Ohio, Chairman Glass decided to call a special meeting of the sub-committee on either Tuesday or Wednesday of next week to hear Mr. Herrick.

Anti-Typhoid Treatment Effective.
Washington, Dec. 7.—Surgeon General Clegg, of the navy, today told the house committee on naval affairs that there had not been a single case of typhoid in the entire American navy, with its previous record of 4,000 men, since the adoption, eleven months ago, of the new anti-typhoid treatment.

THE DAY IN CONGRESS.

SENATE.
Resumed consideration of the omnibus bill.

Senator Chapp introduced a bill to prohibit sending campaign funds from one state to another. Archibald court of impeachment resumed.

Adjourned at 4:09 o'clock this afternoon until noon Monday.

HOUSE.
Legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill again taken up.

Indian and rivers and harbors committee went to work framing appropriation bill.

House Representative Johnson introduced a bill for the government to take over the Lincoln farm in Kentucky.

Military affairs committee concluded hearing on army appropriation bill, which probably will be reported Monday. Indian affairs appropriation bill carrying $8,122,028, was reported. Adjourned at 4:33 o'clock this afternoon until noon Monday.

TOLSTOI REGARDED HIMSELF AS ONE
INSPIRED

Last Testament of Great Russian Novelist Shows Belief
That Divinity Spoke Through His Writings.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Paris, Dec. 7.—One of the most striking sentences in the diary of the late Count Leo Tolstoy, (which is printed this evening in the Journal des Debats, as his hitherto unpublished testament, and was replaced by a brief funeral will dated July 27, 1910, by which he left all his literary property to his daughter, Alexandra), reads:

"If the people of the world wish to read my writings, let them dwell on those passages, where I know the divine power has spoken through me, and let them profit from them, throughout their lives."

The diary is printed on the authority of Count Sergius Tolstoy. It was written by his father under date of March 27, 1895, Count Leo Tolstoy asked that all refrain from saying good of him after his death. After referring to himself as the interpreter of divine power, he said:

"I have had moments when I felt myself to be the medium for the expression of the divine will. I have sometimes been so inspired and so subject to personal passions that the light of this truth has been obscured by my own obscurity, but, despite all, I have continued to request to be buried where he dies—"If in a city in the least expensive coffin and in the least expensive cemetery, as the poor are buried."

He continued: "Let there be no flowers, no wreaths, no discourse and, if possible, let the funeral take place without priests and without liturgy, but if that is disagreeable to those who bury me, then let me be interred with the liturgy, only as simply and cheaply as possible."

After asking that no announcement of his death appear in the newspapers, and that no obituary be printed, Tolstoy wrote at length concerning the disposition of his works.

Referring to his unpublished writings, he prescribes that only those be printed which will be "useful to mankind."

FIRST BIG SUPPLY
BILL IS AMENDED

Washington, Dec. 7.—When the house adjourned tonight word to the legislative, executive and judicial committees to begin work on the government's great supply measures, was so far advanced that a vote not later than Monday night seemed probable. Very few changes have been made in the measure as reported by the committee.

By an amendment offered today by Representative Cox, of Indiana, chairman of the committee on expenditure in the treasury department, appropriations aggregating $10,700 for maintenance of the assay office at Deadwood, S. D., were stricken out.

NEWLY ELECTED INDIAN CHIEF ASSUMES CHARGE

Redding, Cal., Dec. 7.—George Anderson, chief of the Wintoon Indians last week, took the oath of office today. "White man fashion." He swore before a notary to uphold the customs and laws of the tribe and to support the constitution of California and the United States. In the election at which Wesley won the chieftainship, the squaws of the tribe were permitted to vote.

KIRBY COLLAPSES ON LEAVING COURT

Chicago, Dec. 7.—Dr. W. T. Kirby, proprietor of the Kirby Savings bank, which failed recently, collapsed today after leaving the court of United States District Judge Landis. His fainting spasm occurred and his physicians asserted that the banker's death might halt the inquiry into the failure of his bank. Both Kirby and his wife have been ordered by the federal court to turn over large sums of money to the bank's receiver.

Kirby was declared insane before the federal inquiry began, but the adjudication was set aside that the adjudication might not be hampered. Kirby asserts he lost much money gambling.

NAVAL OFFICERS ARE SILENT AS TO WOMAN

Vallejo, Cal., Dec. 7.—Physicians attending Mrs. Andrew Muller, who was mysteriously injured on board the gunboat Vicksburg at the Mare Island navy yard Thursday night, said today that she would recover. The report of the naval board of inquiry, which investigated the case, will be sent to Washington on Monday.

No official explanation of Mrs. Muller's injury has been made public and the names of the two officers, who are said to have entertained Mrs. Muller and another woman at a midnight dinner on the Vicksburg, have not been disclosed.

Dr. Wiley's Successor Appointed.
Washington, Dec. 7.—President Taft and Secretary of Agriculture James Wilson, after months of consideration, today decided upon the appointment of Dr. Carl Albert, a chemist and foreman, as chief of the bureau of chemistry, of the department of agriculture, a position that has been vacant since the resignation last spring of Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, the famous defender of the pure food law.

CHICAGO HOOSIERS BANQUET STATESMEN

Chicago, Dec. 7.—Some 500 Indians who have resided in Chicago gathered at the Indiana society's eighth annual banquet tonight to praise the virtues of the Hoosier dominion and to do honor to its former vice president and its vice president-elect, both of whom were present. Charles W. Fairbanks, formerly vice president, first referred facetiously to the recent democratic victory, and later paid a high tribute to Vice President-elect Thomas R. Marshall, who sat beside him.

Indian Appropriation Bills in House.

Washington, Dec. 7.—The annual Indian affairs appropriation bill, providing $1,722,928 for conducting the bureau of Indian affairs and fulfilling treaty stipulations with the Indians, was reported to the house today. There is a reduction of $1,046,345 from last year's appropriation. The measure probably will be passed during the coming week.

WILSON'S MAJORITY IN TEXAS IS LARGE

Austin, Tex., Dec. 7.—Woodrow Wilson carried Texas by 190,929 over President Taft and 102,744 over Roosevelt, according to a canvass of the vote completed today in the office of the secretary of state.

Wilson received 219,498 votes, Taft 25,630, Roosevelt 26,745. Eugene Chafin, prohibition candidate, polled 24,985 votes, and Eugene V. Debs, socialist, 13,358.

The socialist vote has doubled since 1910 and tripled since 1908.

ARCHBOLD HEARING
UNINTERESTING TO SENATORS

Not More Than One-Fourth of Upper House Members, Sitting as Impeachment Jury,
Are Present.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Washington, Dec. 7.—Roosevelt was not more than one-fourth of the senators present, most of the time, additional witnesses in regard to the Katynid cult bank deal, were heard today by the senate, sitting in the hall of Robert W. Archibald, of the commerce court.

The deal in which Edward J. Williams and Judge Archibald were connected, to buy the Katynid bank from the Hillsdale Coal and Iron Co., a subsidiary of the Erie railroad, furnishes the basis for the principal charge against the judge.

Charles F. Conn, a prospective purchaser of the bank, concluded in a few minutes today his testimony about the endeavor to sell the Williams Archibald option on the bank to him. The deposition of Williams, given months ago, to an agent of the department of justice, was read to the senate, "in contradition" testimony in regard to Judge Archibald's part in the deal, as told to the senate committee by Williams early in the week.

Richard Bradley, of Scranton, Pa., another prospective buyer, told of offering $200,000 for the option and of W. A. May, an official of the Hillsdale Coal and Iron Co., sending him a form of a contract of sale just before the investigation of Judge Archibald's conduct became public.

The witness was questioned closely by Representative Clayton as to the reasons which May gave for recalling the contract a day or two later. The latter was produced in which May wrote to Bradley that "the cause of complications brought to your attention yesterday," he called off the sale. Bradley swore that he never gave any reasons for ending negotiations and that he was unable to explain the phrase. Bradley was certain that May did not say it was because of the Archibald investigation. May testified that he had explained it as it was because of complications as to title, but Bradley could not remember them. At $200,000, Bradley testified, he expected to make "a little money" out of the deal.

He said he did not know Williams and Archibald were only paying $8,000 for the property.

The trial will continue Monday.

PEACE PROSPECTS BRIGHTER THAN HOPE FOR RECENTLY

Next Friday Begins the Most Important Diplomatic Conferences Europe Has Known for Many Years.

BULGARIA AND TURKEY REACH UNDERSTANDING

Ottoman Empire is Expected to Lose Two-Thirds of Its European Population to Victorious Allies.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
London, Dec. 7.—The prospects for a satisfactory and reasonably rapid settlement of the Balkan war and of the greater European interests hanging upon it, seem brighter tonight than at any time since the allied armies took the field against Turkey. The envoys from the Balkan kingdoms, Greece, Bulgaria, Serbia, to participate—and the Ottoman empire will hold the first meeting of the peace conference next Friday. At the same time the ambassadors of the great powers, at London, charged with the task of protecting the interests of their countries, will meet as a sort of court of appeals to watch, advise and admonish the peace delegates.

To reach this condition, even by complicated arrangement, has strained all the resources of European diplomacy. There have been times in the last month when even the consent of all the powers to the disengagement gathering appeared beyond the range of possibility.

This will be by far the most important assembly of diplomats since the Berlin conference of the Russo-Turkish war. One question charged with the possibility of disaster, is Serbia's unquenchable determination for an Adriatic port and Austria's determination that she shall not have it.

Servian official newspapers make it plain, however, that the little kingdom has made up its mind to take instructions from the powers, so far as public opinion in Serbia will let it.

A second interesting struggle will take place over Turkey's endeavor to hold as much of the conquered territory as oriental diplomacy, and the help of friendly powers, can save for her. The best bargain the sultan can make probably will reduce his subjects in Europe from more than 6,000,000 to less than 2,000,000 and the Turk seems reconciled to this.

A third important factor will be the Greek attempt to gain Salonika. That the peace negotiations proper will be less complicated than had been feared, is promised by the two facts that Turkey and Bulgaria appear to have reached an understanding already, and that the disengagement among the allies portended by the failure of Greece to sign the armistice is mostly a myth, a prearranged plan having been agreed to by the allies that Greece should stand out so that her navy could continue the blockade and acquire the islands, which are Greece's natural share of the spoils.

The Greek premier, M. Venizelos, who shares with King Ferdinand, of Bulgaria, the credit of having started the Balkan league, has started for London.

The Egyptian prince, Ahmed Fouad, who is a candidate for the Albanian throne, is coming to make a personal appeal in his own behalf. The premiers of three of the Balkan kingdoms are also expected.

ROOSEVELT CARRIED
CALIFORNIA BY
174 VOTES

Despite This Fact, Progressive
Presidential Candidate Will Get But Eleven of Thirteen Electoral Ballots.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Sacramento, Cal., Dec. 7.—Roosevelt carried California by 174 votes, although he will have but eleven of the state's thirteen electoral votes. The other two will be cast for William H. Taft. The figures are final, but will not be made official until the returns from Los Angeles county have been formally audited by Secretary of State Jordan. Mr. Jordan announced today that he would certify the result to the governor immediately upon the completion of that audit next week. The Roosevelt plurality is based on the totals of the two electoral candidates receiving the highest vote. They were A. J. Wallace, republican, 283,670; Thomas Griffin, democrat, 283,426. Griffin ran 283 votes ahead of R. F. DeBully, the other democrat elected, who, in turn, was but three votes behind Ralph Hall, the eleventh successful republican. The high man of the two defeated republicans ran fifty-seven votes behind DeBully.

WILSON WILL SPEND
BIRTHDAY AT HIS BOYHOOD HOME

Citizens of Stanton, Virginia, to Make December 23 Homecoming Week, with Big Jubilee as Feature.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Stanton, Va., Dec. 7.—President-elect Woodrow Wilson will be entertained on December 23rd, the fifty-sixth anniversary of his birth, in the house where he was born in this city. Soon after his election, a delegation of citizens waited on the president-elect at Seagirt, and received from him a promise that he would visit his native city this month. Plans have been made to make the occasion a homecoming week and jubilee. The citizens' committee have sent several cablegrams to Mr. Wilson in the morning, asking him to name the date of his arrival, but owing to interrupted cable communication, a reply has not been received. It has been assumed Mr. Wilson will come on his birthday, as was suggested when the delegation visited him at Seagirt and the preparations are being made for that date. The Presbyterian mansion, occupied by his parents here when the president-elect was born, has been put in first class condition and its present occupant, Dr. A. Frazer, is to entertain Mr. Wilson and such members of his family as accompany him on the visit.

DAMAGING EVIDENCE AGAINST ACCUSED WOMAN

Houlton, Me., Dec. 7.—"I hate Jacobson, I hate Jacobson worse than Satan," was a statement attributed by a witness today to Mrs. Annie Jacobson, one of three defendants on trial in the supreme court here on the charge of murdering her husband, C. Augustus Jacobson. The witness was Mrs. Otto Jenson, whose husband had employed Jacobson, the victim's son, who is also on trial.

Mrs. Jenson testified that she had talked with Mrs. Jacobson several days before the father's death. The witness added that when she asked Mrs. Jacobson why she did not get a divorce, Mrs. Jacobson said: "I am afraid he would hurt me."

Discharged for Violating Rule G.

Colorado Springs, Dec. 7.—Seven employees of the Rock Island railroad at this point and 120 on other western divisions of the line have been dismissed for violating rule G of the instructions, which says that employees shall not drink intoxicants while on duty. Superintendent E. M. Part is in Goodland, Kan., conferring with other division superintendents relative to the company ruling. Those dismissed are employed in all departments of the operating service.

Preceded Attack.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Constantinople, Dec. 7.—The following message has been received from the staff of Adrianople, under date of December 4th:
"At 10 o'clock yesterday evening, before the armistice was signed, the enemy, with the intention of approaching the forts, made a general charge with all their forces of infantry and artillery on the south, north and west, and also on the city. Our brave soldiers repulsed the attack with great vigor and did not give a step from the advance position which they were occupying."
"During the fighting, which lasted nearly six hours, the enemy sustained considerable losses and had to retreat on all sides in a lamentable state. The enemy fired nearly 100,000 shells at the town, without, thanks to God, causing any loss. The armistice was proclaimed today."

GREEK TROOPS TAKE MORE TURKISH TOWNS.

Athens, Dec. 7.—The Greek troops operating in Epirus have occupied the towns of Delvino, Argyro-Castro and Santi Quaranta, about fifty miles northwest of Janina. The bombardment of Avlona, on the Adriatic sea, which has evoked Austrian and Italian protests, was insignificant, according to official statements. All occurred as a result of the flight of a few shots at a body of armed Albanians gathered on the shore. Fifteen Albanians are reported to have made an attempt to capture the Hellenic steamer by surprise. A force of volunteers dispersed and pursued them.

TRIPLE ALLIANCE RENEWED ON SAME TERMS AS BEFORE.

Vienne, Dec. 7.—The alliance between Austria-Hungary, Germany and Italy has been renewed without alteration. Information from Belgrade received today is that the Serbian merchants union has decided to boycott all Austrian products. On the banks of the Danube below Belgrade the Serbian artillery has taken positions commanding several important points on Austrian territory.

TURKS ATTACK FORCES OF MONTENEGRO KING.

Cettigne, Montenegro, Dec. 7.—Notwithstanding that an armistice has just been concluded, the Turks have attacked yesterday made a heavy attack against the Montenegrin front, in accordance with orders, the Montenegrins refused to return the Turkish fire, which did no damage. The Montenegrin troops around Scutari and Tarabosch have received the news of the armistice with great impatience.

Public opinion is gradually becoming reconciled to autonomy for Albania, but the proclamation of Albanian independence at Avlona is not regarded seriously.

ADRIANOPLE HAS FOOD FOR ONLY FIFTEEN DAYS.

Sofia, Dec. 7.—According to reliable reports, Adrianople has provisions enough to last only fifteen days. Dr. Radoski, president of the chamber of deputies, has returned from the negotiations at Cachtche. He expressed the opinion today that peace would be arranged successfully with little difficulty. The Turkish delegates to the armistice negotiations proved to be extremely conciliatory, he said, and the fact that Turkey was willing to leave the besieged fortress without evacuating was considered as proof of the sincerity of her declarations that she did not wish to waste time.

SENATOR PENROSE
FAVORS SERVICE
PENSIONS

In Speech Before Banquet of Classified Federal Employees
at Philadelphia, He Places
Himself on Record.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Philadelphia, Dec. 7.—United States Senator Boies Penrose, in a speech at a dinner tonight given by classified and retired employees of the government and the city, declared himself in favor of congress enacting a law providing for old age pensions for federal employees. Senator Penrose said in part:
"I have had, as chairman and member of the committee on postoffice and postroads of the senate for many years, opportunity to realize that the pension system for postal employees is especially desirable. The old-fashioned idea of a pension as an annuity for a stated amount paid when the retiring age is reached, and based on contributions from employees, private officials, and perhaps appropriations by the government is considered to be ineffective and unsatisfactory and gives no assurance of security. This plan is being supplanted everywhere by the service pension, wherein the allowance made to the employee is a percentage of his average salary for the preceding term of years multiplied by the number of years of service. The evolution from the contributory plan to the service pension system is gradually coming to be realized, and the expense of the government and without contribution from the employees is the only one that will in the end prove satisfactory and give assurance of security."

BANKER BELIEVES
LIFE IN DANGER

Denver, Dec. 7.—Frank Crouch was arrested here tonight on the charge of kidnapping after L. D. Gale, a wealthy banker of Sherman, N. Y., had complained to the police that he feared Crouch was seeking to take his life. Several times today Crouch inquired of his hotel and his insurance aroused suspicion.
Gale came here to get his kidnapped grandson, Dewitt Gale, from the detention home. He is waiting in Denver to be taken to the Los Angeles police whether his other grandchild, Laura Gale, is still there. According to the story Gale told the police, his son, Leon F. Gale, of Sherman, Ohio, and his wife, who then kidnapped their two children and went to Los Angeles with Crouch. Crouch recently left the woman and her small daughter in Los Angeles, he says, and came here with the boy. The authorities took from him. Gale has conducted a search all over the United States for his grandchild.

Struggle for Gasoline Supremacy

Los Angeles, Dec. 7.—A great struggle for supremacy in the gasoline industry throughout the western part of the United States soon will be in progress, between the Standard Oil Company and its principal European rival, the Asiatic Petroleum Company, according to an announcement made here today.

SIDNA ALLEN WAS ATTENDING COURT
AS WITNESS

Member of Clan Accused of Murder in Connection with Slaying of Court Officials,
Testifies in Own Behalf.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Wichitville, Va., Dec. 7.—Sidna Allen, on trial for the murder of William M. Foster, when the Allen clan shot up the Carroll county courthouse at Hillsville, was a witness today in his own defense. He said his presence in the courtroom was due to the fact that he was under bond to appear as a witness, and not to any other reason. He denied that he shot at Judge Massey or at Commonwealth Attorney Foster, and after telling of his flight to Des Moines, Ia., where he was captured, he said it had been an intention to kill, and the excitement over the shooting had died down and then return to give himself up.

Cameron Montgomery testified he had been present for the shooting for six months, while Walter Webb, of Paducah, stated he heard Clerk Goad say he had drawn his revolver before the first shot was fired.

This evidence was offered to support the contention that the court officers had prepared for trouble with the Allen and that they and not the Allen were responsible for the tragedy. Only four more witnesses remained to be examined. Arguments in the case are expected to begin Monday.

WILSON IS ANXIOUS TO SOLVE THE HIGH COST OF LIVING

President-Elect Quoted as Favoring Sulzer-Crawford
Bill Providing for International Conference.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Washington, Dec. 7.—President-elect Woodrow Wilson tonight was quoted as in favor of the Sulzer-Crawford bill providing for an international conference on the high cost of living. Representative Curley, of Massachusetts, presided over a meeting to discuss chances of passing the bill, with which other present included Frank S. Gardner, secretary of the New York board of trade, and Professor Irving Fisher, of Yale university.

It is understood the bill will have little opposition. Commercial, agricultural and scientific organizations were quoted as endorsing the movement for a world-wide study of the cost of living from England, France, Germany, Austria, Belgium, Holland, Denmark, Italy, Japan, New Zealand, Canada and the United States.

Jury Has Case of Alleged Murderer.
Fairview, Mich., Dec. 7.—The case of G. H. Arlt, of Chicago, charged with the murder of his employee, Harry W. Fisher, went into the hands of the jury early tonight. At a late hour, the jury was still deliberating.

REPUBLICANS HOPE TO REUNITE PARTY
NEXT YEAR

Plan Proposed by Governors
Hadley and Tener Fails to Bring Enthusiastic Response from Party Leaders.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Washington, Dec. 7.—Republican governors from a dozen states, and party leaders in congress, with whom they informally conferred today, have agreed that no definite steps toward a reorganization of the republican party and a reorganization of its working forces are practical within a year. Opposition from progressive republicans whom it was desired to bring into the number, and apathy on the part of the men who have been identified with the party's greatest activity, have helped to convince the leaders in the reorganization movement that no concerted plans should be undertaken until late next year.
A conference planned by Governors Hadley, of Missouri, and Tener, of Pennsylvania, and presided over by Governor Goldsborough, of Maryland, brought together here today republican executives from states covering the entire area where the progressive republican fight was most severe during the recent campaign. The conference was called for an "exchange of views," and nothing further was attempted by those back of the movement. As the result of the conference, however, it became apparent that any general plan of reorganization will embrace a reduction of representation from southern states and an adoption of primary systems for the selection of delegates to the national convention of the party.

REPUBLICAN GOVERNORS
HOPE FOR PARTY'S FUTURE.

New York, Dec. 7.—Governors Hadley and Eberhart were to have been speakers at the second annual dinner of the New York Young Republican club tonight, but sent word that the party conference in Washington had detained them at the capital.
"Any wrong there may be in party management can be made right," said Governor Eberhart in his letter.
"Nothing but selfish leadership can prevent this, and it behooves every loyal republican to work in securing united action."
Governor Hadley wrote:
"With such rules for the conduct of party affairs as will insure at all times a complete recognition and expression of the wish of the majority in the nomination of candidates and the decision as to its policies, I am satisfied that there is in the future as great work for our party to accomplish as has proven in the past."

Fine Remedy for A Backward Child

Continue It for Only a Brief Period and the Good Results Will Surprise You.

A low state of the general health is now the accepted cause of backwardness in children. So in the case of a backward child it is best to look towards building up its health. It will usually be found that the main trouble is in the food, in lack of assimilation and digestion. Hence care should be taken in the kind of food given to the child. This, with plenty of air and exercise, should bring about a change for the better.

Watch the condition of the bowels, to note whether the waste is being passed off or not, or whether it is being passed too freely. If either condition prevails give a small dose of that gentler of all laxative tonics, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Thousands of mothers will testify to the wonders it has wrought in the lives of their own children, and for that reason mothers of families like those of the mother of Albert Addison Spence, Reeds Springs, Mo., and Mr. A. F. Carmichael, Arras, Cal., are never without it in the house. It is pleasant to the taste and so perfectly safe that it is given to infants, and yet is equally effective for grown people. All druggists sell it and the price is only fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, the latter for families who need it regularly.

Syrup Pepsin has no equal as a cure for constipation, indigestion, biliousness, headaches, sour stomach, gas on the stomach, liver trouble and kindred complaints. It has so many advantages that those who once use it forever after discard cathartics, salts, pills and other coarse remedies, for they are seldom advisable and should never be given to children. If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal will do—to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 415 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

SPORTS

FOOTBALL WARRIOR
AGAIN ABLE TO BE ABOUT

George Walker's Dislocated Neck Back in Place and He Will Be Out for Basketball at Varsity Monday.

To have a dislocated neck and live through the ordeal of having it set again is no mean experience. George Walker, center on the varsity football team, two of whose vertebrae were pushed out of place in the game with the University of Arizona at Tucson on Thanksgiving day, had that experience and is now none the worse for it.

Walker's neck was a matter of some trouble to him for several days, but after ten days in the hands of a physician he is now in as good condition as he was before the game, and will be out for basketball practice on Monday, when the varsity squad takes up work in earnest.

The strangest thing about the accident is that the injured player did not discover it until the next day, finishing the game in such condition that any blow which had shoved his vertebrae another quarter inch to the side would have ended his play and his life at the same time.

HOPPE WINS ANOTHER TOURNAMENT.
PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 7.—Willie Hoppe won the final game of the 3-cushion 18.2 ball billiard tournament here tonight, defeating Kodli Yamada, 400 to 244. The winner's high run was 90 and his average 20. The Japanese high run was 68 and his average 12.6-19. Hoppe won all four games played in the tournament, while Yamada and George Slosson each lost two games to him and won and lost one to each other.
REDS AND VARSITY
CONTEST ON PAPER

The final game between the Albuquerque Indians and the University of New Mexico is on paper. The University secured the first touchdown by declaring the Braves refused to play its warriors Saturday. The Indians came back strong. They say to game was scheduled for a total of 212 yards, giving him an average of 3.29.

SHORTSTOP BUTLER
HEAVIEST HITTER IN THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

Chicago, Dec. 7.—Batting honors of the American association, go to Shortstop Butler, of the St. Paul club, according to President Chalmers. In 125 games, Butler, who, before the close of the season, was purchased by the Pittsburgh National league club, pounded out 169 hits for a total of 212 bases, giving him an average of .329.

Two former major leaguers, Rossman, of Minneapolis, and Carr, of Kansas City, are second in the list. Rossman's average is .322 and Carr's, .320. Seventeen players batted in the select 200 class.

PRINCETON FOOTBALL STARS TO GRADUATE

Princeton, N. J., Dec. 7.—Six regular members of the Princeton varsity football team, will graduate in June, leaving a nucleus of six players for the 1913 eleven. All six of these men are forwards and as a couple of sub forwards, will also be missing next September, the season will have to devote most of their energies to the development of a line. The men who will graduate are Captain Penfield, Dunlap and Andrews, ends; Penfield, tackle; Logan, guard, and Blumenthal, center.

AUTOMOBILE OWNERS
SECEDE FROM A. A. A.

Los Angeles, Dec. 7.—Twenty-four leading automobile men of Los Angeles, issued a declaration of independence from the Automobile Association of America, today and made plans for the formation of the Western Automobile Association. A telegram to that effect was sent to William Schimpf, of the contest board of the A. A. A., at New York.

The telegram expressed a desire for the American Automobile Association's co-operation in order to avoid any unnecessary conflict of authority. It also stated that the proposed new association would confine its field to the west.

CHAVEZ WILLING TO MEET RYAN IN A RETURN BOUT

Trinidad Bantamweight Champion Agrees to Box San Francisco Boy, Letting Him Weigh 122.

Benny Chavez vs. Tommy Ryan, Texan, to a decision. The foregoing is the card which Director Mark Levy of the New Mexico A. C. is to offer Albuquerque fans on New Year's day, the fight to be staged at Elks' theater at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Director Levy yesterday made this announcement, following receipt of word from Chavez that he was willing to meet Ryan in a return bout, permitting the San Francisco boy to weigh 120 pounds six hours before the fight. This will permit Ryan to come in at his usual weight, 122 pounds, ringside.

Ryan meets Jack McMahon, featherweight champion of Arizona, in a twenty-round bout at Prescott a week from tomorrow. Immediately thereafter he will come to Albuquerque and prepare for his New Year's match here.

SWIMMER EQUALS WORLD RECORD.
URBANA, Ill., Dec. 7.—J. P. Lichter, the University of Illinois swimmer, equaled the world's record in the tank here today when he plucked high run was 90 and his average 20.

Railhead, a Frenchman, was the surprise of the meet, defeating Vosberg, the varsity star, in the 220-yard swim and passing him in their lap of the relay race. The meet was held as a try-out for the contest with the Missouri Athletic club next Friday.

FORTUNE IN HORSES
SHIPPED TO EUROPE

New York, Dec. 7.—One hundred and sixty thousand dollars' worth of horses shipped for Europe today on the liner Minnawaska. The fortune was represented by seven horses, six of which James R. Keene has just sold to William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., and the seventh the famous Peter Pan, which Mr. Keene recently denied having sold for $100,000 to George Gould.

The six horses purchased by Mr. Vanderbilt are Maskette, Masqueto, Early and Offen, Court Dress, Ort Wells and Ocean Bound.

PHILADELPHIA CLUB
NOT SOLD SAYS FOGEL

Philadelphia, Dec. 7.—Robert A. Raftord, Philadelphia capitalist, tonight refused to discuss a rumor that he had, with John K. Tener, governor of Pennsylvania, purchased the Philadelphia National league club, Governor Tener at Washington, D. C., denied that he had acquired any part of the property. Horace S. Fogel, former president of the club, who insists that he holds an option on the share of the company owning the team, said tonight that there was no truth in the rumor, but that the club would be offered for sale next week, through popular subscription, at $100 a share. He said the club would be reorganized with a capital of $120,000.

LIFE OF EASE FOR WORLD-FAMOUS PACER

Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 7.—John R. Gentry, famous pacer, today, holder of the world's record and sire of sixty-four turf winners, was brought back to Tennessee from New York on a special car today to spend the remainder of his life. The horse is the property of the E. H. Harrison estate.

INDOOR FIELD MEET
OPEN IN NEW YORK

New York, Dec. 7.—Team racing at twelve miles, was inaugurated at the indoor track of the country at Bradhurst field club games in the Twenty-second Regiment armory tonight. Hagen, Kolehmainen, the Finnish Olympic runner, and Harry Smith, of this city, ten-mile national champion, paired, established the first world's record in this event, 52 minutes, 2 seconds.

Two other features of the game were the wonderful running of Howard Drew, the colored Olympic runner, representing the Springfield, Mass., high school, and the defeat of Ben Adams and Platt Adams, Olympic champion standing high jumpers. Drew twice equalled the world's record, 7 1-5 seconds, in the 70-yard indoor dash.

To Censor University News. Stanford University, Cal., Dec. 7.—No more news from this institution unless it shall first have passed through the net and filters of the official censor, such is the decision promulgated today by the undergraduate body known as the Associated Students, which, when it sits jointly with the faculty, is known as the university conference.

THEATRE ENGAGED FOR GOOD ROADS
LECTURE

Elks Opera House Leased for December 21, When Maurice Owen Eldredge Will Appear Here.

Arrangements were yesterday completed by Secretary E. L. Gross, of the Albuquerque good roads local, for the use of the Elks' theater on the evening of December 21st, on that date the local, aided by the state association, will present a free lecture upon good roads. The lecture will be delivered by Maurice Owen Eldredge, a speaker sent out by the bureau of public highways, at the request of the state association, to aid in stirring up interest in the roads of New Mexico and their improvement.

Mr. Eldredge is a lecturer of no mean ability and has spent many years in the building of highways in the eastern states. He has just completed a detail of twelve months' duration in Pennsylvania, where he acted as consulting engineer for the state road building authorities.

His coming to New Mexico is considered especially fortunate, for the good roads people, as he will be able to aid materially in the arousing of sentiment in favor of better roads. A big crowd will undoubtedly be present to hear him, as the evening selected is Saturday, when most people are down town. His lecture will not begin until 9 o'clock, in order that as many as possible may attend. Mr. Eldredge will lecture at Taton, Las Vegas and Santa Fe before coming here, making his first address at the Gate city on December 18th.

EDUCATION BOARD
HANDLES ROUTINE
BUSINESS ONLY

That the state board of education had handled routine matters only at the three-day session completed at Santa Fe yesterday, was the statement made last night by Dr. C. M. Light, who is president of the normal school at Silver City, passed through his was none the less, attending the board meeting. He was accompanied from the capital to this city by C. C. Hill, county superintendent of schools for Chaves county, and also by a member of the board, who left for Roswell on No. 811.

The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger from pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. FIREMAN ARRESTED ON
DISTURBANCE CHARGE

J. F. Conklin, a temporary apprentice on the fire department, yesterday morning was arrested by Officer Fahn in Lujan on a charge of disturbance. He probably will be arraigned in police court Monday.

Conklin was appointed by Fire Chief J. W. Klein to take the place of Ed. Donohue, who went to the police department, until the council permanently filled the vacancy. It is understood that Conklin, who stood first on the extra list, was slated for the permanent job.

MARKETS RECOVER FROM RAIDS BY BEAR TRADERS

Heavy Selling Movement is Arrested and Fluctuations Are Comparatively Unimportant.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire) New York, Dec. 7.—While it is yet to be shown whether the stock market has recovered its former buoyancy, selling movement for the time being at least, has been arrested and fluctuations today were comparatively unimportant. The rally which followed yesterday's severe break, marked the crisis in the week's movement for there was no recurrence today of the persistent pressure which unsettled the list on previous days.

After an earlier opening, stocks gained ground slowly. A break of 2 1/2 points in American Steel Sugar and 5 points in the Texas Company, affected the general list adversely and encouraged bear traders to renewed operations. The list sold off easily, but the movement was limited and changes for the day were small.

The clearing house banks and trust companies, made their expected favorable return, showing that the debt reported last week, had been wiped out, a surplus of $30,000,000 appearing in the actual balance. There was a decrease of $4,000,000 in deposits, indicating that out of town institutions, had assumed a part of the burden of loans as they went from the controller for a statement of their condition out of the way.

Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, Dec. 7.—Wheat slid down under moderate selling, due mainly to fine weather for the Argentine harvest. The market closed easy, 3/4 to 1/2 c. under last night, influence against the wheat bulls, continuing to be found in miller's reports, pointing to good prospects for the winter crop in the United States. May wheat sold from 90 1/2 to 90 3/4 c. per bushel, with the close at 90 1/2, a decline of 1/2 c. net.

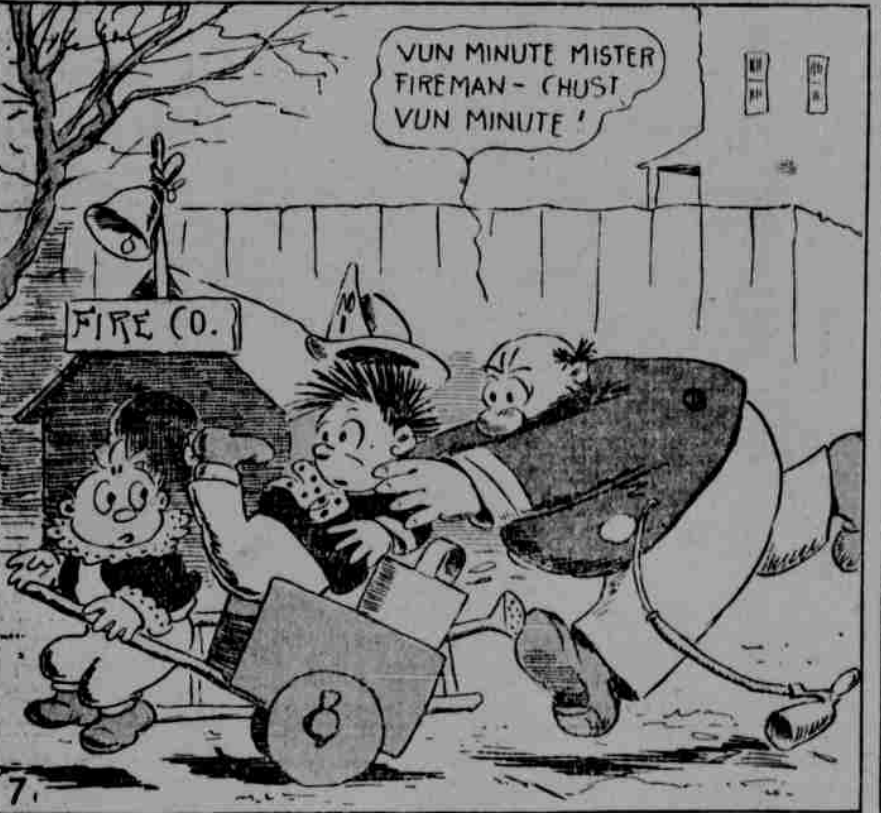

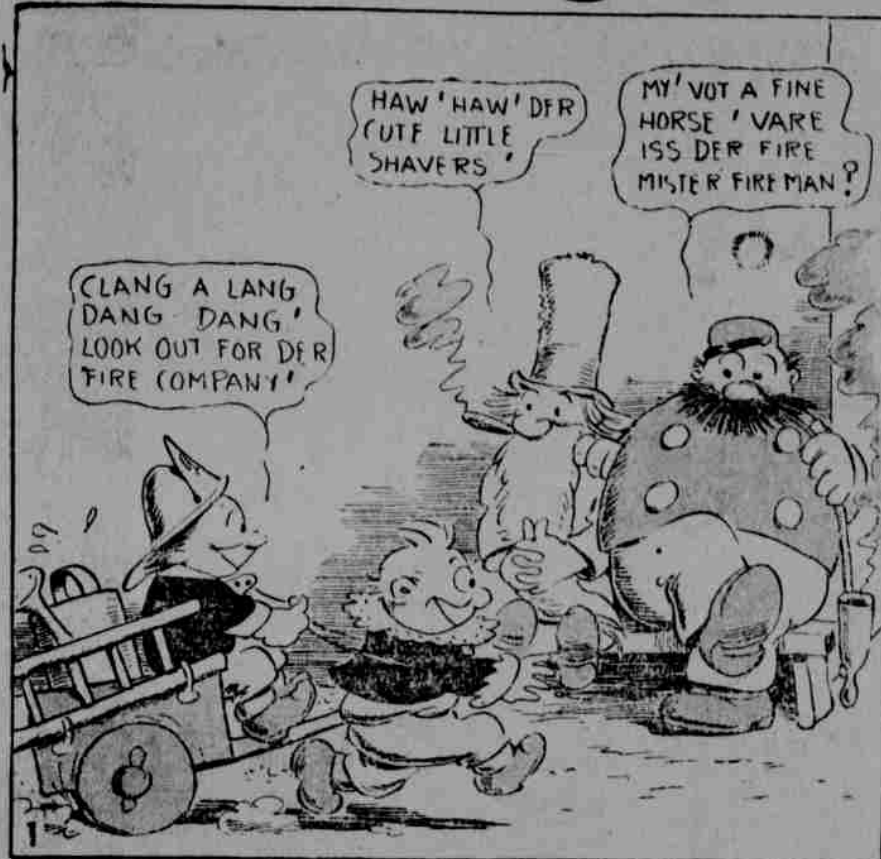

May corn closed at 35 1/2 c. per bushel, a decline of 1/2 c. net. Cash grades were weak.

At noon, closed at 22 1/2 c. Slowdown of trade in provisions was general. The close was 7 1/2 c. lower to a shade advance.

Dang! Dang! And der Fire Vent Out!

If You Can't Be Good--Be Careful

GRANDSTAND plays are always thrilling—even the grandstand plays for morality. In this connection I would call your attention to a certain interesting and significant editorial published a few days since by a rival sheet. It had to do with the evil of gossip and the plague of the scandal mongers, and the writer thereof was so carried away with his subject, that, next day, he answered his own editorial with a clever little letter, in which the suggestion was made that a "Don't Gossip Club" be organized, and the scandal mongers of our good old town be dealt with in a no uncertain manner, which may have meant "hanging" or a "life term"—that point was not made clear.

Oh, there was no half measure in the denunciation. It was a glorious and glittering triumph for righteousness and universal regeneration, a stern, sharp and stinging rebuke for the gossipers and their mouthpiece—one humble, little society sheet!

Whether they rushed into print on the threadbare subject of "gossip," because it is before the public at this time, and because it was pretty certain to attract attention to themselves, or in an honest impulse, if ill-digested effort, to protect the morals of our poor mortals, I can't for the life of me decide.

Was it that we might be protected morally without need of personal worry, or was it to gain the coveted "pat on the back"—the encomium of those who delight in grandstand plays for morality? I answer in the ever ready Delphic phrase—search me!

Anyhow, and to paraphrase a bit, "Condemn gossip, belittle it as you will, Everybody will talk about everybody else still."

That's a cinch, as the small boy succinctly and sufficiently would say, You know the Irish have a proverb:

"Gossip is the best policeman." And, I wonder, after all, if the philosophy of gossip is not contained in that one little line. We can't do away with gossip, but there certainly is no law which makes it incumbent upon any man or any woman to put himself or herself in a position where they can be criticized. Of course, it would be a lovely scheme of things, if we could do exactly what we pleased without regard for the conventions, it would be nice to be able to snap our fingers in old Mother Grandy's face—and get away with it. Oh yes, if there were a law against gossip, we would all be glad enough to have it enforced, and but few of us who wouldn't take advantage of it. We would be happier, but it's a question whether the town would be any better or not.

Here, we are a bit cut and dried in our conventions, and the man who flouts his preference for another man's wife in the face of public opinion, or the woman who goes about with another woman's husband, is very likely to be talked about. And once anybody gets in the thought of caustic comment—chances are they will break into print on the society page!

And why not? It is not necessarily condoning gossip to publish it. Newspapers don't condone murder—yet they print it. I haven't been in the business long—this editing a society page—but long enough to know that scandal makes lively reading, and—as my job depends upon it—I think I may be pardoned for catering to public taste.

Folks, there is just one rule which applies—and it isn't the golden rule, either. It's simply this—BE GOOD. Of course, if you can't be good, then for goodness sake, BE CAREFUL. For if you bring it right down to a fine point, it isn't what you do, but what the town finds out, that counts. And remember this, nobody is generous to a fault—unless THE FAULT BE HIS OWN.

As for the society page—well—it is better to be read and roasted than never to be read at all.

"The Comedy Has Begun"

Dear, dear—where to begin? It is not easy for a writer to be original, four times a month, and I believe it has been demonstrated that it is not altogether safe to stray too far from beaten tracks. I might begin my little "revue" this week by saying "Here we are again—just at the threshold of the Christmas season," or "I might draw in by the ears the 'Pagan' prelude and announce that 'the comedy has begun.'"

So it has—so it has—and say, do you? I introduce this little remark because it is timely and the thing to say, whether anybody says any attention to you or not.

But where am I bringing you? I must keep to my straight and narrow path. Sorry—but nothing very startling occurred out society way, the week just gone. It was a very quiet week and the "banter" pose, as a consequence, will be very tame. I tell you this at the start, so you can turn to the sporting page or to the editorial columns for amusement.

The many social cliques, of which the local elite is made up, confine their activities just now to preparing for Christmas. It's "bring your sewing" more frequently than "come over and play auction" these days and, over it, ever, is the time to watch your "pie" and "aid." There's a danger in the conventional few and needlework. Card parties are larger—and there's safety in numbers. Besides, a good auction bridge player finds no time to talk, and those less expert have all they can do to follow the game. With needlework—ah, that's different.

Conversation flourishes over a bit of sewing and nobody's safe.

Excepting, of course, those who have no cause to fear the scandal mongers.

All this is digression. But space must be annihilated somehow, and digression is as good way as any when little diversion exists of which to write.

The Stortz-Canfield Series

It remains to see how Mrs. Frank Stortz and Mrs. Fred Canfield to pull off "the" society events of the week just past.

I use the plural, not to suggest that each of them performed to a plan, but to indicate that they performed the social stunt, jointly and twice. Theirs was a jolly series. They took two afternoons to canceling social obligations and did the deed well. In the matter of decorations, the Stortz-Canfield series, Thursday and Friday afternoons, were indeed notable. Everybody remarked the profusion of chrysanthemums used, and the charming arrangement of these big, showy flowers, which lend themselves admirably to interior decoration. The decoration scheme was further elaborated with California peppers. This pretty greenery with its vivid scarlet berries, banded the fireplace and hung in graceful garlands from chandeliers and archways. A most effective portiere arrangement of the foliage separated the two rooms where the guests played cards.

Prizes for each afternoon were identical, the first prize, a cut-glass centerpiece, and the cut prize, a hand-painted plate. The prize winners on Thursday afternoon were Mrs. Tom Wilkerson and Mrs. L. J. Rice, and Mrs. Ross Adams and Mrs. Bert Fox, carried off the coveted trophies of victory Friday.

On each afternoon a luncheon topped off proceedings in the usual way, only the "costs" in this particular case were said to be unusually nice.

All in all, the series proved delightful, and as smoothly unimpeded and successful as any local society folk have had the good fortune to attend. The Stortz home was crowded, although not uncomfortably filled, both afternoons, and the sartorial showing was quite worthy the importance of the occasion each day.

As the Other Fellow Sees It

Speaking of reforms, an editor down in Silver City has insisted on voicing a few choice thoughts on the subject, which I herewith reprint for your lone perusal.

(Note:—The only trouble is, said editor does not make it plain who should be reformed, the town or the society editor. Rather, he very politely suggests reforms for reformers, in both instances, and, personally, I don't know but what he's right. But I, after all, a mere matter of cause and effect? As I said before, if everybody in town would be real, real, real, what chance would the society editor have to write scandalous things?)

Sidelight on Society Journalism

"The society page of the Albuquerque Journal Sunday edition has long furnished mental pabulum for thousands of feminine—yes, and masculine readers, too, not only in Albuquerque, but wherever the Journal circulates. Not that the people in the least bit in how the haute monde of Albuquerque disports itself, but because the editor, or rather editors, Coral Clyde and she, show a knack of pandering to the taste of scandal-loving people in a way that is shocking to the sensibilities of sensitive persons, but is proving exceedingly healthy in the reform of old Albuquerque."

Time was when a man's wife was away, he could go out occasionally and enjoy himself. But all this is now changed since the Journal's society editor took to chronicling the doings of sportive husbands, without mentioning any names, of course. A great wave of moral reform has swept over Albuquerque, and everybody's afraid to look even sideways for fear Coral may be peeping around the corner.

Recently Coral handed out a piece of gossip that made everybody in Albuquerque sit up and take notice, etc. No names were mentioned in the article, but four men, it is said, all took it upon themselves to resent the implication, which goes to show that Albuquerque is not so slow after all. However, none of them let their passions carry them any further than making threats, except one man, a physician who has started the Journal and Coral for criminal libel.

And the Old Order Changeth

Time was when our servants had to cultivate pleasant manners to hold their places, but the old order changeth, and now we must bend our charming lips to keep a cook or housemaid. This was demonstrated last week in a Honeymoon Row household. Mary had been with the family a week, and both Mr. and Mrs. Brown were delighted with her. She was a good cook and seemed willing, so Mrs. Brown felt her troubles in regard to domestic labor were settled for all time.

Imagine her surprise then to have

Mary come to her one morning the next day and say "Mrs. Brown, I guess you better get another girl."

"Why?" exclaimed Mrs. Brown. "I thought you liked your place. What's the matter?"

"I do, but—Mr. Brown, he don't like me."

"What makes you think that, Mary? I'm sure he hasn't scolded you. He never spoke crossly to a servant."

"Well," said the girl, "He doesn't speak smiling-like when I come in the morning. I always say 'Good morning, Mr. and Mrs. Brown,' and he barely nods his head."

No odds.

There will be a jolly little party tomorrow morning, at the office of Justice of the Peace George B. Craig.

A most interesting program has been prepared, and will include a bout between Honorable Summers Burkhardt and Honorable Francis E. Wood. A dispensation has been secured from Governor McDonald to let the bout go twenty rounds—if necessary. His honor—the judge—will act as the referee.

No odds.

De John W. Colbert will be in the receiving line, wearing his regular clothes and an injured air. And Danny Macpherson, wearing a broad shift from nobody loves a fight better than he.

The society editor will also receive.

(To be continued in our next.)

Smoke? Cigarettes, Maybe

One girl went to call on another the other day, and in the course of a pleasant afternoon, the young hostess suggested they smoke a cigarette.

"Mother's away," she said "come on, let's—"

"I never did," demurred the visitor, "What it make me sick."

"Of course not, you baby," laughed the other.

They went into the pretty bedroom of the hostess, and she drew from beneath the mattress a box of cigarettes. They proceeded forthwith to take a lot of fun so deliciously wicked, you know, and the girls were having the time of their lives when—steps in the reception hall.

"Mother!" exclaimed the hostess, and there was a wild scramble to dispose of the cigarettes. Too late. In walked "mother," who stopped in amaze at sight of the smoke-filled room. She whiffed audibly. "Why, Ann," she questioned her daughter in astonishment.

"You see, mother," the girl said quickly, "I brought over some cigarettes, and we thought we would smoke one just for a lark. We—"

"The idea!" exploded "mother," and the storm burst—on the visitor's head, who was told in any other but a polite manner that she didn't want cigarettes brought to her house.

The visiting girl's mind was blank, her feelings numb at the unexpected and foxy maneuvers of her hostess. Very naturally she was not appalled at the profuse apologies of the other, later, when she said "I had to do it, honey. Mother would have killed me, and I know she wouldn't say very much to you."

But where does the friend stand in the opinion of the mother, and what does the mother care so long as she was protected?

Ab! well, 'twas ever thus!

To Entertain at Cards

Mrs. D. A. Macpherson will entertain at cards Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. About a hundred and fifty are invited for the two afternoons. Just thought of something funny:

Mrs. Macpherson called her friends informally over the phone in extending the invitations. The time of arrival was rather explicitly stated—2:15 o'clock.

Said Mrs. Margaret Medler, when asked:

"Sure. But, Mrs. Danny, would you mind if I come at two twelve and a half?"

A characteristic remark. I take it.

Mrs. George Klock is giving a series of parties—but don't look to me for interesting particulars. Mrs. Klock is modest, not affectedly and aggressively so, but genuinely and inconspicuously modest, just the same. And pleasant, without. So charming and gracious when dispensing meager information, that one is content with the crumbs, so to speak. Of course, it is no easy matter to build a loaf of bread out of crumbs, so, as I said, I can tell you little of the Klock series.

Two evening parties, at which auction bridge was played, were given at the Klock home—blessed if I even know what nights—anyhow, they happened, and with great eclat, I imagine.

Then, on last Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Klock had six tables of five hundred. Mrs. Frank Wilson won the first prize, Mrs. Harry Owen the cut prize, and Mrs. O. N. Marmon the consolation.

On Wednesday Mrs. W. S. Strickler entertained the German club, and a few additional friends, at a Dutch party.

The eats, the amusements, and even the conversation were German, and to say that they had a hilarious time is putting it mildly. It was a very informal party, as everybody brought along their sewing, and exchange of ideas in the making of Christmas gifts and other needlework suggestions were in order.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Rotherger are the guests of the Alfred Grunfelds, on their first trip to Albuquerque since they left here a little over a year ago on their honeymoon trip.

Reina Grunfeld as Mrs. Rotherger is quite as charming, and a bit more stunning, than of yore, and her friends are making a big do over the first visit home. They will stay a month with the Grunfelds.

The Thirty Club Dance

A rather small crowd, but a real "large" time, marked the regular dance of the Thirty club, Wednesday evening.

The dancers included Misses Sue Dolson, Alice Stern, Eleanor Marmon, Gertrude Pfeifferberg, Kathryn Grimmer, Pauline Sewell, Lillian and Bernice Hesselden, Laureen Asselin, Frances Strome, Ruth Simpson, Charlotte Pratt, Jean Hubbs, John Tierney, Ralph Kelecher, Will Kelecher, Roy and Ray Strome, H. Carlisle, Bob Sewell, Will White, Jim Skinner, Charles Kunz, Will McMillan, Ray Bailey, Junior O'Reilly and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Skinner.

A big, jolly dancing party is booked for New Year's eve at the Masonic Temple. This will be given by the L. H. B. A. society, and with such well-known society women as Mrs. Alfred Grunfeld, Mrs. Lillian and Bernice Hesselden, Laureen Asselin, Frances Strome, Ruth Simpson, Charlotte Pratt, Jean Hubbs, John Tierney, Ralph Kelecher, Will Kelecher, Roy and Ray Strome, H. Carlisle, Bob Sewell, Will White, Jim Skinner, Charles Kunz, Will McMillan, Ray Bailey, Junior O'Reilly and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Skinner.

The Monday Afternoon Auction Bridge club was entertained by Mrs. D. E. Gill, the past week, at her pretty little home on the Highlands. The Gills have a summer ranch home across the river, and the luncheon was entirely of home-grown products, even to the salted almonds, most delicious, of course, and—in courses, too.

Some of the members were unable to attend and substitutes were allowed, the players being as follows: Messdames E. L. Bradford, George Stinson, Mary E. Higgins, John W. Wilson, C. E. Lowher, John Venable, A. F. Morrisette and Jacob Yrisarri, Sr.

Cards are out for the annual dance of the Tri Alpha fraternity of the University of New Mexico. This will be given at Masonic Temple next Friday evening, December 13th, and despite the blizzard date is planned as a rollicking event.

Mrs. M. E. Higgins entertained at cards Wednesday evening. Five hundred was played and a most enjoyable evening spent. The guests were Mrs. Chas. Camp, Miss Elizabeth Fitzhugh, Miss E. J. Bartlett and Miss Ida Brown.

A jolly stag party was given Friday night by Paul Camp. Cards, topped off by a supper, went to make the evening a merry one. Mr. Camp's guests were Frank Shuffelbarger, Verne Werning, C. Matz, Matt Higgins and W. J. Higgins.

The Amateur Piano club will meet Wednesday evening at the home of

Confidential Guide to Prominent People

ALGER, DR. EDMUND J.—A man who is not afraid to look his fellowmen in the face. Nor does he flinch when they show their teeth. Noted for the painful extraction of hard earned dollars.

BYRAN, R. W. D.—Is popularly supposed to have begun life as a "professor," but believing in the conservation of energy, he transferred his labors to Law. Believes in the Presbyterian church, his only other hobby being "How to Make the Cottonwood Trees Cottonless and Wormless."

CHADBOURNE, M. O.—An individualist. He does not agree with the people who ride on his street cars when they express their opinion as to how they ought to be run. No antidote has been discovered for him, and everybody has philosophically decided it is better to have cars run once in a while than not at all.

METCALF, W. P.—Takes socialism and chess seriously. An able scholar and an earnest advocate of the impossible. Will be nominated for president on the socialist ticket when Debs is through running permanently.

WILKERSON, TOM—A gentleman at one time famous as a dangerous delinquent, or in other words, as a gay and festive bachelor. Now engaged in living down his past. Is said to be New Mexico's cleverest divorce lawyer, but that is, after all, merely incidental.

WOOD, FRANCIS E.—The only lawyer in captivity who looks like a Sunday School teacher. He is upright, able and uninteresting—enough to condemn him. He has decided to devote his later life to protecting the public against the wiles of the society editor.

Mrs. M. S. Hince, when a C. M. von Weber program will be rendered as follows:

"Invitation to the Dance"—Mrs. Hardin, Hilda Grunfeld. "The Perpetual Motion"—Louise Nichols. "Overture to the Freischütz"—Marie Higgins and Mrs. Cavanaugh. "Aria from the Opera Fledora"—Charlotte Pratt. "Rondo Brillante"—Marie Higgins. Talk on Weber's music by Mrs. Hinc.

"David Garrick" to be Staged

There is great and continuous activity in local theatrical circles in preparation for "David Garrick," to be presented under auspices of the Woman's club, at Elks' theater, the evening of December 19th. The exact date of the production was only decided upon the past week. The committee in charge have every reason to congratulate themselves upon the choice of director, Mrs. David A. White, a newcomer, here, who has many past successes as a theatrical producer to her credit, and who bids fair, in the forthcoming play, to establish a new and enviable record in amateur theater.

The town has been scoured in search of talent, and the cast of characters leaves no room for doubt that the best available has been secured. The line-up is as follows:

David Garrick—A. B. Robertson. Mrs. Simon Ingot—Charles W. Andrews. Ada Ingot—Mrs. R. V. Winchester. Esquille Chivy—Hugo Meyer. Mr. Smith—J. E. Goodell. Mr. Brown—Fred Metzger. Mr. Jones—Leslie Briggs. George, the valet—Will Arnold. Thomas, the butler—Will Arnold. Mrs. Smith—Mrs. D. H. Carns. Miss Araminta Browne—Mrs. Fred Metzger.

The A Tempo club, composed of vocal pupils of Mrs. E. L. Bradford, will reorganize at her home next Wednesday evening. The subjects to be discussed at the first meeting will be Handel's Oratorio, "The Messiah," and current musical events.

A Christmas Entertainment

An entertainment, which, in the course of rehearsals, is attracting interest, and which, in a finished state, is bound to attract patronage, is "The Toy Shop," to be given Christmas week by St. John's church.

It is planned as a matinee performance, and, if suitable arrangements can be made, will be given in conjunction with the regular afternoon matinee of the Crystal theater. The presentation requires only forty-five minutes, and as it is musical in nature, and includes in the cast about twenty-five children, the entertainment may be anticipated as a real treat.

Mrs. E. L. Bradford is directing the rehearsals, and her abilities in that line are too well known to need any special comment at this time. The cast of characters in full is as follows:

Daddy Tack Hammer—Hugo Meyer. Jack-in-the-Box—Richard Szymanski.

The musical program was especially fine, and included song numbers by Kathryn Grimmer and Frances Strome and piano selections by Hazel Rogers. The program in full was as follows:

1. Vocal (a) "In a Garden", Cecile (b) "You'd Better Ask Me", Lilli. 2. Reading—Selected—Mrs. William Hueston. 3. Vocal duet, "May Belle", Hazel Rogers, Mendelssohn. 4. Piano—"Kammeti Ornstrum", Rubensfeld. 5. Discussion by club—"Open Air Schools," led by Mrs. W. R. Cannon. (Continued on Page Three).

Social Brevities of Interest

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. David A. Lawson, of Chicago, have received cards announcing the birth of a son to them, Friday, November 23, Mrs. Lawson was formerly Mary Menaul, and was well known in musical and social circles of this city. At the time of their marriage several years ago, Mr. Lawson was stenographer for Neil B. Field. He is now a court stenographer in Chicago.

Miss Marnette Myers, teacher of domestic science in the public schools, has been appointed superintendent of industrial education, to succeed Mrs. Theresa B. White, whose resignation was recently made public. While the many local friends of Miss Myers regret her departure from this city, they are glad of the recognition accorded her abilities by State Superintendent Alvan N. Wiley.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank E. Tull have returned home from a six weeks' trip spent in Los Angeles and at other California coast resorts.

Mrs. Isaac Barth and little daughter, Iren, returned the past week from a brief visit with Mrs. Leo Hersch at Santa Fe. The Barths will go to Santa Fe in January to remain during the sessions of the New Mexico legislature.

Miss Estelle Kelly and little brother, Marcus, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Kelly, have returned from an extended visit with relatives and friends in Montreal, Canada.

Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Harrison, of Denver, and former residents of Albuquerque, left a few days ago for Jemez Springs after a visit here with friends. They expect to return for another brief stay before going on to Denver.

Mrs. A. E. Boyle, of Trinidad, left early the past week for her home after a delightful visit with her sister, Mrs. L. T. Delaney.

Mrs. E. E. Aldrich, of Gallup, grand matron of the New Mexico Eastern Star, was a local visitor for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Springer returned Thursday from El Paso, where they have been visiting the Ralph Hunts for the past month.

Mrs. M. A. Block and her little nephew, James Block, of St. Louis, arrived recently to spend the winter months. Mrs. Block is the wife of a prominent dentist of St. Louis, and will visit her husband's brother, J. B. Block, at Jemez Springs in the spring.

Eleanor Vaughney, the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Vaughney, is reported as quite seriously ill at the Vaughney home, 723 West Copper avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. N. John Strumquist, Jr. and their little daughter, Nilo, returned yesterday from a trip to southern California. The Strumquists visited Los Angeles and various coast resorts.

Annual Election of Officers

The annual election of officers of Adah Chapter No. 5 O. E. S., was held

Friday evening, and resulted as follows:

Worthy Matron, Mrs. John W. Wilson.
Worthy Patron, A. J. Peterson.
Associate Matron, Mrs. T. L. Williamson.

Conductress, Mrs. J. W. White.
Associate Conductress, Mrs. W. N. Hayward.

Treasurer, Mrs. A. Harsch.
Secretary, Mrs. C. F. Myers.
Following the business session, a pleasant social affair was held in honor of several members, who plan to leave the city soon. They are Mrs. Jessie Kirch, Mrs. E. White and Mrs. Stokes. A musical program was a feature of the proceedings and a delightful evening enjoyed by the many Eastern Star members in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Booth of Mountain View ranch entertained the Progressive Country club at their home Wednesday evening. Five Hundred was played and the prizes were awarded to Mrs. Ed Kneese and Mr. Sam Wagner. Refreshments were served and the good time prolonged until late.

Some of the advanced pupils of Miss Estelle Valck gave a violin recital at Miss Valck's studio, Saturday afternoon. The program was delightful throughout and provided eloquent testimonial of the talent of the students and the ability of the instructor. Those participating in the program were Ethel Kieck, Hortense Switzer, Grace Stortz, Lorna Lester, Cecilia Spaulding, Arthur Becker, Ralph Miller, Chester Miller and Charles Heyn.

Benevolent Association to Meet

The Non-Sectarian Benevolent Association will hold an important meeting at Guild hall, Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. This is planned as a re-organization event and all women and men, too, interested in local philanthropy, are urged to attend. The association needs new members and will welcome all who care to join.

Mr. R. H. Green, recently returned from a trip to Mount Taylor, brought with him a twenty-pound turkey, which was served in royal style to a party of friends Friday evening.

Among the guests at Mr. Greenleaf's enjoyable dinner party were Mr. and Mrs. John Mann and son, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Becker and son, Miss Lottie Millett and Mr. J. La Motte of Vermont.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. met in regular session, Friday, and elected the following officers for the ensuing term:

Delegate to National Convention, Mrs. Martha Mulligan.
The secretary will be appointed by the president.

A wedding, savoring much of the "stolen march," was that, Wednesday, of Miss Ethel Graham and Otto Scheer.

The young couple, accompanied by Miss Lillian Schrader and Oliver Wellman, went to Bernadillo by automobile, where they were married by a justice of the peace.

They returned that afternoon for parental forgiveness and congratulations. Mr. Scheer is the son of Alderman George C. Scheer, and his bride is a well known and popular young lady of this city.

Activities in Club Circles

Mrs. Edward Rodgers was hostess, Tuesday afternoon, to the members of the Auxiliary of the Railway Mail Association. The afternoon was pleasantly passed in games and concluded with a light luncheon. Mrs. Joe Stamps was a guest of the auxiliary for the afternoon.

The Fraternal Mystic Circle entertained members of the lodge and a number of friends, at a dancing party at A. C. U. W. hall Wednesday evening. Excellent music was provided and dancing was enjoyed until late when a supper was served. About 150 people enjoyed the delightful affair.

The Girls' Choral club of the University of New Mexico will give a musical entertainment at the Presbyterian church the evening of December 17th. The program is to be an elaborate one and will be announced in full later. Another entertainment is planned for the same night at the Central Avenue Methodist church. This is to be given under the direction of Miss Olga Selke, assisted by Mr. Ben Puryear.

The U. N. M. girls, who comprise the Y. W. C. A. branch of that institution of learning, gave a most successful candy sale of Rodey hall, Wednesday. The students and faculty liberally patronized the sale, and a neat little sum was realized from the venture.

Among the Church Societies

The Woman's society of the Congregational church held a tea and apron sale Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. F. Robinson, 701 South Walter street. A large crowd attended and the affair netted a neat little sum, besides a delightful social afternoon for all attending.

A feature of entertainment, greatly enjoyed, was the musical program, in which Mrs. Thomas Hughes and Miss Mary McEly were the chief participants. Both are talented musicians, the one a pianist and the other a vocalist, and their selections added considerably to the social success of the affair.

The ladies of the First Baptist church gave a home cooking sale and bazaar at 215 West Central avenue yesterday, which received the liberal patronage deserved. The big store-room was attractively arranged, and good things to eat as well as pretty things to wear, and all kinds of dainty and serviceable Christmas gifts, went like the proverbial "hot cakes." A big supper was served from 5 to 8 o'clock, and a large number took advantage of the opportunity to get a fine home-cooked supper. Financially and socially the affair was an entire success, and the ladies in charge deserve high praise for their untiring efforts in the cause.

The Mission Circle of the Baptist church met, Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. C. M. Kappie, 615 S. Broadway. A brief business session was followed by a pleasant social hour, when refreshments were served by the hostess.

DONA ANA COUNTY CONVENTION IS A HUGE SUCCESS

Don Cruick, N. M., Dec. 7—one of the largest and most enthusiastic county conventions ever held in New Mexico was that called to order here yesterday morning when the first Dona Ana county good roads convention met. The convention endorsed heartily and by an unanimous vote the proposed $100,000 county bond issue for good roads. If this issue carries, as it seems likely it will, Dona Ana county will be the best place in the state for the autoists for the expenditure of such a sum will make it better provided with roads than any other section of New Mexico.

The convention organized shortly after the call to order. On roll call it was found that seventeen of the nineteen precincts in the county were represented. Each precinct was entitled to ten delegates. Las Cruces was given a larger number because of its size.

There were over fifty delegates from the Rincon valley, and a big representation from the lower Rio Grande valley. Many natives were included in the convention.

Mayor Mitchell gave the address of welcome to the assembled delegates, and the election of officers resulted in the following selections:

Francis E. Lester, president; Jose Lucero, secretary; Judge E. L. Meder, chairman of the resolutions committee.

The bond issue was the next order of business, and the vote on it was taken amid tremendous enthusiasm. The popular vote on this will be taken December 28th.

The Dona Ana County Good Roads Association was organized with Francis E. Lester, chairman; Numa Frenser, secretary; Percy Barker, treasurer, and an executive committee composed of three from each precinct.

At the afternoon session the hall was packed to the doors. Stirring good roads addresses by ex-Mayor Young, Preciliano Moreno, President W. E. Garrison, of the College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts; Judge Lucero, A. Sutherland, and Judge Meder and others were listened to with evident interest.

Colonel R. E. Twitchell and State Engineer J. A. French arrived on a delayed train from the north and attended the later sessions of the convention.

At the evening session Colonel Twitchell, who is president of the state good roads association, delivered a stirring address, pointing out the historic points of interest made available by good roads in New Mexico. This lecture was as great a success as was the convention proper, and a crowded house greeted the colonial.

The entire meeting was the greatest exhibition of public enthusiasm ever witnessed in Dona Ana county.

YOUR HAIR IS FLUFFY, BEAUTIFUL AND LUSTROUS IN A FEW MOMENTS

Girls! Get a 25c bottle of "Danderine" and try this. Also stops falling hair; destroys dandruff.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and brightens the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—but really new hair, growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it, surely get a 25c bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any druggist or toilet counter, and just try it—the expenditure of such a sum will make it better provided with roads than any other section of New Mexico.

NEW MEXICO PRINTER INVENTS INK FOUNTAIN
(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal)
Albuquerque, N. M., Dec. 7.—C. E. Raymond, a Deming printer, has received a patent for an invention which fares well in overcoming a great many difficulties in platen press ink fountain. The local printer's invention combines a long and short ink fountain into one, which may be set to full or small form work. A great many obstacles are met with by printers who use ink fountain but the Deming man's idea overcomes them all and gives good service with one fountain for all varieties of printing whether on platen or cylinder presses. The new fountain is a bonanza in order press work and it will no doubt receive a large demand as soon as it is placed on the market. Mr. Raymond has had his invention fully protected and working models are now being manufactured.

DEMING IS REAPING HARVEST FROM ADVERTISING
Forty Inquiries Daily Being Received as Result of One Thousand Dollars a Month Spent in Publicity.
(By F. V. Bush).
Deming, N. M., Dec. 7.—At present an average of forty inquiries a day are being answered by the Deming Chamber of Commerce in regard to this city and the fertile Mimbres valley. The $1,000 a month spent in advertising is bringing Deming before the agricultural possibility seeking class in a manner which, when combined with actual investigation of the conditions in this section is bound to make a deep impression upon the land seeker and sooner or later time finds him wielding the hoe and plow in Luna county. The latest literature being sent to the inquiries is a circular entitled, "Reports From a Few Mimbres Valley Farmers." The testimonials of six men who have been very successful in their undertakings are recorded in the circular which will no doubt have a great deal of influence in making matters clear to the minds of the more sceptical land investigators.
"Stick-to-it-iveness" is a great factor in agricultural development and its value is verified many times in the little circular which relates to the investments of men who firmly believe in the Mimbres valley and have made good by "doing things" in the form of well and pump installation.
A party of sixteen persons from southern California is expected to arrive in Deming today or tomorrow and investigate land conditions in the Mimbres valley. All persons in the delegation are keenly interested in this section and intend to settle here in the near future.
To Sell Small Tracts.
The Home Plot Company, which owns 2,000 acres of choice land a mile to two miles out from Deming, is making plans for the development of ten and twenty-acre tract divisions of its entire acreage during 1913. Each division is to have an electric pumping plant, a modern style of residence, a forced concrete fence posts and all modern facilities for successful farming. The tracts are to be put on the market for sale on a cash investment and terms.
The Wilton hotel is undergoing a general remodeling at present. Manager Howard leaving nothing undone to add to the completeness of his hostelry.
Five crude oil burning Benson engines were sold at the local agency yesterday.
The first snow of any consequence in these parts fell last night, averaging about three inches.
New Telephone Building.
As soon as the ground can be cleared construction work on the new Mountain State Telephone & Telegraph Company's district office will begin and the local exchange will occupy its new quarters on Gold avenue no later than next May. E. K. S. is general district manager, with offices at El Paso, and J. A. Hannas, building foreman, with offices in Denver, left the city Monday after going over the plans and specifications with District Manager E. K. S. at Deming.
The structure will be of brick, thirty-two by sixty-five feet, one story high with basement, and will occupy lots eight, nine and ten, with a frontage of forty feet on Gold avenue.
When the improvements now under way at the Adelphi Club building on Gold avenue are completed the organization will consist of the best grounds in this section of the state and the maple wood dancing floor, eighty-five by thirty feet, will be the pride of Deming. The enlarging of the floor space was made possible by removing the partition between the bowling alley and the gymnasium. Futral & Stroup, contractors, are doing the work.
Thomas E. Taylor was in Deming Friday last to make final proof on his land south of town. Mr. Taylor raised 10,000 pounds of potatoes on ten acres of land. The produce was all taken by local dealers.

NEW SCHEDULE IN EFFECT TODAY AT 12:01 A. M.
No. 8 to Spend Hour and Fifty Minutes Here; Cut-Off Train Arrives Thirty-Five Minutes Earlier.
At 12:01 this morning the Santa Fe's new time card went into effect putting into action several changes in the time of arrival and departure of trains here and once again placing the "Santa Fe de Luxe" on the schedule. The De Luxe will arrive here at 7:50 Wednesday evening and depart ten minutes later, when westbound. The eastbound section of this railroad train will pass through here Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock, also spending ten minutes in the city.
No. 8 will arrive at the same time at 6:55 p. m., and will remain here until 8:45 to make connections with the cutoff train, which will arrive at 8:40. This will give passengers from the Pecos valley and from eastern New Mexico generally a chance to continue their journey northward without spending a night here as was formerly the case.
No. 816, the daylight train from El Paso, will arrive at 8:20 instead of at 6:20 as at present. The eastbound California limited will spend only twenty-five minutes here instead of half an hour, leaving at 5 o'clock instead of 4:05 as formerly. No. 1, the California express, will arrive at 7:25, instead of at 7:20 as formerly, and will leave at the same time as of old, 8:10 p. m. No. 10, from California, will leave at 8:25, five minutes earlier than the present time, and No. 2, the fast mail from the west, will spend ten minutes here, passengers on that train stopping at Lamy instead of here as formerly. No. 2 will arrive at the same time as before, 3:55 p. m.

TEAM ATTACHED TO CONCRETE MIXER RUNS AWAY
Machine Breaks Down After a Half Block Run and Threatened Damage on Crowded Street is Averted.
A runaway team, hitched to J. A. Harlan & Son's heavy concrete mixer, yesterday morning threatened serious damage on West Central avenue. The runaway came to an abrupt stop, however, when the front wheels were pulled out and the team brought up against the water fountain at Second street and Central avenue.
The team was hitched to the ponderous machine in front of the site of the Hugh Trotter building, now under construction, to pull it around to the rear. As soon as the horses started, the noise of the engine rattling behind, frightened them and they bolted.
The front wheels slipped out at the corner of Central avenue and Second street, after the team had run about half a block. Despite the weight of the machine and the uphill pull, the team was going at a fast clip, when the wheels came out and the horses shot across the street, unable to stop themselves, and fell sprawling on the sidewalk at the fountain. Officer Ed. Donohue caught them as they got by.
It was at noon and the street was crowded with automobiles, wagons and buggies. A street car was standing at the intersection, leaving little room for the machine to pass and but for the accident, it would have crashed into the vehicles. Its weight would have crushed anything it struck.
When the front wheels came out the front part of the engine dropped to the pavement. It tottered for a minute, threatening to fall over on the crowded sidewalk, but finally steadied.
The mixer was repaired yesterday afternoon and hauled to the rear of the Trotter building.

HEAVIEST SNOW IN YEARS WEST OF ALBUQUERQUE
D. K. B. Sellers and E. C. Butler, Who Started Monday to Log Road to Springville, Snowbound at Magdalena.
A phenomenally heavy snow on the plains and in the mountains west of this city has blocked roads so that Colonel D. K. B. Sellers and President E. C. Butler, of the good roads local, are snowbound at Magdalena.
A telephone message from the colonel yesterday was to the effect that they had gone as far as the Arizona line and had logged and mapped the road the entire distance, sometimes going through a foot or eighteen inches of snow. When they reached Magdalena on the return trip they found that there was twenty-seven inches of snow on the road between that city and Socorro, and they were consequently unable to go any further. They are traveling in Mr. Butler's big steam car, and the snow makes considerable trouble.
They do not know just when they will be able to return, but are waiting impatiently in Magdalena.

BELIEVE SMALLPOX WAS CARRIED BY A PEDDLER
City Physician of Opinion That Contagion Was Brought Into Loomis Family in That Way; Only Case Here.
Goods bought from a peddler are believed to have introduced smallpox into the Loomis family, 467 East Coal avenue. Mona Loomis, 16 years old, a high school student, is the only member of the family ill.
The Loomis family has lived in Albuquerque three months and they know of no cases of smallpox in the city from which they came. Dr. L. G. Rice, city physician, learned that Mrs. Loomis bought some goods from an itinerant vendor at just about the time when the girl must have been exposed. He is not positive, however, that the disease was carried into the family in this manner, but it is possible way, he said yesterday.
The house was put under quarantine yesterday, and the city physician says there is no chance for the contagion to spread outside the family. In fact, the girl's parents probably will not contract the disease.
Although the girl was a high school student, she has not been to school since the day before Thanksgiving. When school reopened she was too ill to go and she has been too sick to leave her home, although it was not determined she had smallpox until yesterday.
The case is mild. It is the only case of smallpox or any other contagious disease on the city physician's records at present.

CLAYTON DEMANDS IMPROVEMENT IN TRAIN SERVICE
(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal)
Clayton, N. M., Dec. 7.—That portion of the Colorado & Southern railroad between Textile, Tex., and Trinidad, Colo., is now without day passenger or mail service. The only trains of this kind passing these points are both near midnight. A petition signed by several hundred business men both at this place and Des Moines has gone before the New Mexico corporation commission requesting them to take some action in this matter.

Dr. Hartman Speaks About Catarrh of the Lungs

S. B. Hartman, M. D.

Quite a stir in medical circles was produced by Dr. Hartman's last article in which he refers to remarkable cures of Mrs. Eberlein, of Pittsburg. The impression prevails that Dr. Hartman claims to be able to cure incurable diseases.

A report of these statements reached the doctor's ears. As soon as he heard what people were saying he was very quick and emphatic in his denial of any intent on his part to create such an impression.

No, said the Doctor, I do not claim to have any magical cures. I do not claim to have a cure for anything. Judging from the number of letters I receive, however, concerning Mrs. Eberlein's case, from people who have similar complaints, I should judge that catarrh of the lungs is very prevalent. The number of people afflicted are increasing. In spite of the strenuous efforts of health boards catarrh prevails more and more every year.

No, I do not claim to have a miraculous cure. I only recite some of the things the people tell me who take Peruna. The case of Mrs. Eberlein, for instance, she was apparently dying of catarrh of the lungs. Her physician had told her so. Many people who had seen others die under similar conditions thought her to be dying. She commenced taking Peruna and recovered.

Now, I do not undertake to explain her recovery. I certainly do not undertake to say that Peruna will cure anybody in the last stages of catarrh of the lungs. I make no such claim. But I do undertake to say this: As long as there is life there is hope. The doctors are liable to be mistaken. They often condemn people to die when they do not die. They say, "Mrs. So-and-so can not live twenty-four hours," and then Mrs. So-and-so gets well. They say, "Mrs. So-and-so has not a ghost of a show of living," but Mr. So-and-so gets well. Now, what is it that cures such cases?

Every doctor knows that it is the vitality of the patient. The last grain of vitality was not exhausted, just enough vitality left to make one more struggle, and the disease was overcome.

Now, it may happen that Peruna is taken at the critical moment in the patient's struggle, against disease. The patient may have been long ground day after day. At last the first seems hopeless; death inevitable. Some one suggests Peruna. The patient takes it without any hope. The medicine actually does infuse new life into the circulation. They feel its genial influence as soon as it is swallowed. This constitutes the turning point in their disease. The little assistance which Peruna gives Nature at this important point turns the tide of affairs in favor of the patient.

Not that Peruna cures incurable diseases. No, not at all. But Peruna does lend a little much needed assistance at a time when a feather weight on one side or the other of the balance turns the scales in favor of or against the patient. Scores and scores of times Peruna has come in at these critical moments and saved patients from imminent death. At least it seems so. I have bushels of letters reciting such things.

Peruna is a diffusible stimulant. It stimulates the circulation. It causes a warm glow of health to pervade the mucous membranes of the body. The mucous membranes of the stomach, alimentary canal, kidneys, bladder, lungs, all the mucous membranes are apparently revived, rejuvenated, re-endowed with the glow of health. That is what Peruna will do. And this often saves life. There can be no doubt of it.

Whether the case be one of catarrh of the lungs or any other chronic prostrating illness, the right stimulant at the right time, in the right doses, does the work. Explain it as you may, such things are happening every day.

I prefer not to use the word cure. I do not like the sound of it. I do not like the idea that people generally attach to the word. But that Peruna helps Nature, and helps Nature sometimes when she is sadly in need of help, that I know to be the truth. That I do not hesitate to proclaim. That is exactly what occurred in the case of Mrs. Eberlein, the account of which has caused so much comment.

If I or any of my immediate relatives had catarrh of the lungs, Peruna would be given a thorough trial, I assure you. That being the case, I can conscientiously advise any one else to do the same.

SPECIAL NOTICE—Many persons inquire for The Old-time Peruna. They want the Peruna that their Fathers and Mothers used to take. The old Peruna is now called Kataro. If your druggist or dealer does not keep it for sale write the Kataro Company, Columbus, Ohio, and they will tell you all about it.

BOY, INJURED BY A TICKET SALE FOR DAVID GARRICK IS FOUND IN YARDS ON TOMORROW

Walter Simpson Taken to Police Station, Where City Physician Sets Fractured Collar Bone; Spends Night in Jail.

Two negroes about 10 o'clock last night found Walter Simpson, 20 years old, his left collar bone broken, lying in the Santa Fe yards north of Central avenue. The boy was taken to the police station, where Dr. L. G. Rice set the fractured bone. Simpson came to Albuquerque last night on Santa Fe train No. 1 from Trinidad, Colo. He was just about to jump off the train before it reached the station when one of his companions stepped on his fingers, he said, and he fell. His shoulder probably struck a tie or rock. He also received a scalp wound, but it was slight.

The boy was unable to arise. He laid there until the two negroes, John Ferns and Arch Jennings, who came here last night from Gallup, found him. They said they were directed to where Simpson lay by a Pullman porter. Simpson stoutly denied that he had been thrown from the train. It was simply an accident that his companions stepped on his fingers, he declared.

Policeman Joe Salazar was informed of their find by the negroes. He helped Simpson walk to the station and called the physician. Simpson says his home is in Kentucky and that he was on his way to Gallup to go to work. He has a position there. He was placed in the city jail for the night and the policemen, their sympathy aroused by his youth and injury, got his supper. Simpson is a clean-cut young fellow. He told the police this was his first attempt at hobnobbing and that it would be his last.

The negroes who found Simpson, also were given beds in the jail for the night.

CATHOLIC CHURCH TODAY OBSERVES TITULAR FEAST

Special Musical Services Announced at Immaculate Conception Cathedral at High Mass This Morning.

The feast of the Immaculate Conception is to be observed today at the Church of the Immaculate Conception.

An unusual musical program has been prepared for the 10 o'clock mass. Fuhmeyer's orchestra will furnish the music, together with the senior choir, under the direction of Mrs. T. J. Shook. Miss Cecelia Spaulding, of Louisville, Ky., will assist the orchestra in violin numbers. She is a sister of Mrs. Cleaver, of Albuquerque, Organist, Mrs. Thomas Dehshoyde.

A triduum, or three days of prayer, was observed at the church last Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The musical program for this morning, follows:

Psalm, Gloria, Anthem (Rossi), Organ and Orchestra.

Asperges Me, Chorus (Pecher).

Kyrie, soprano solo and chorus (Millard Mass in G). Miss May Maher.

Gloria, tenor and bass duet, Messrs. Andrews and Palladino.

Qui Tollis, soprano solo, Miss Alvina Letarte.

Communio, chorus.

Credo, chorus (Millard Mass in G).

Et incarnatus Est, tenor solo, Mr. Charles Andrews.

Et Resurrexit, tenor and bass duet and chorus.

Et Expecto, Amen, full chorus.

Santus, soprano solo and chorus, Miss May Kauffman.

Offertory, Ave Maria, soprano solo, Mrs. T. J. Shook.

Benedictus, soprano and alto duet (Millard Mass in B flat), Mrs. J. Yessari and Miss Maher.

Angus Dei, bass solo, Mr. M. J. Palladino.

Poma Nobis, chorus (Millard in B flat).

Postlude, Pilgrim Chorus (Tannhauser), Organ and Orchestra.

Major W. H. H. Llewellyn, of Las Cruces, a member of the lower house of the state legislature, was a visitor in the city last night between trains, on his way to the capital on local business.

The police last night received a telegram from Los Angeles, Cal., asking them to notify Miss Gertrude Thompson of the death of her mother there. The police know no one by that name.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS TO BE AT POLLS TUESDAY

Girls Will Urge Voters in Their Wards to Vote for Bonds While Other Students Will Distribute Ballots.

High school students, both girls and boys, are to take a lesson in practical politics Tuesday when the question of a $100,000 bond issue for a new high school building is to be decided by Albuquerque voters.

The high school will be closed election day. The boys will work at the polls in distributing ballots for the bonds, while the girls will urge the voters in their wards to go to the polls. The youthful workers will wear no badges. The high school colors, however, will be seen on the streets and at the voting places.

The idea of a parade of high school students Tuesday was suggested to Superintendent John Milne, but he rejected the plan. The students will be more efficient at the polls, he believes.

TICKET SALE FOR DAVID GARRICK IS ON TOMORROW

Large Attendance Expected at Play to be Presented by the Woman's Club at Elks Theater December 19th.

Tomorrow morning the sale of tickets for the coming theatrical production to be staged by the Albuquerque Woman's club will begin in earnest. The play is the first to be staged by the club for many years, if not indeed the first effort of the sort ever produced by the club. That it will have a large attendance and a warm welcome at the hands of the local public is assured.

The play is a fine old English comedy which has been presented by many of the foremost actors of modern times. It is based upon a fictitious incident in the life of the great English actor from whom it takes its name.

The action of the play is such as to render it rather difficult for amateur players, but under the coaching of Mrs. David M. White, who supported Richard Mansfield for three years, the local talent which is to present it has developed a very creditable production. Rehearsals are being carried on regularly and it is expected that a well finished production will be the result.

Miss Adeline Ellen Hart.

Miss Adeline Ellen Hart is one of the most talented members of the Hart Family Stock Company, playing at the Orpheum. She is a charming little bit of femininity with a sweet disposition that is constantly exhibiting itself in the clever, happy-go-lucky manner in which she puts her work over the footlights.

Hart Brothers, managers of the Hart's Orpheum theater, starting with today's matinee and continuing for four days, present "A Devil of a Mixup," a modern comedy in one act. A special program of three reels of the best motion pictures completes an exceptionally strong bill that will occupy the Orpheum boards for the first half of this week.

The Hart Stock Company, composed of the several Hart brothers and sisters, played to good houses all of the past week, and the rapidly increasing attendance at the Third and Best playhouse to date evidence that speaks louder than words of the popularity of the company with the theater-going public of this city. Seances changed every Sunday, Monday, Wednesday and Friday, Matinee Sunday at 2 p. m. Evening shows at 7 and 9:15. Vaudeville changed twice weekly, Sunday and Thursday. Any seat, any time, 10 cents.

FOREST FIRE VIEWS MAY BE SHOWN HERE SOON

Motion Pictures Taken in the Sierra National Reserve in California May be Reproduced at One of Local Houses

Information has been received at the headquarters here of the third forest district that the Thomas A. Edison Company has released a series of motion pictures taken on the Sierra national forest in California.

The action of the play is such as to render it rather difficult for amateur players, but under the coaching of Mrs. David M. White, who supported Richard Mansfield for three years, the local talent which is to present it has developed a very creditable production. Rehearsals are being carried on regularly and it is expected that a well finished production will be the result.

Third district officials will make an attempt to have the pictures shown in Albuquerque soon.

The views were taken in October under the supervision of officers of the forest service and the department of agriculture. In all, sixty-five views were taken. It is understood that the pictures were released December 6th and they will be shown in all the large cities.

To the public interested in forest work, this picture will show many features of the work which never before have been thoroughly understood. Especially will this be true in the views of fire fighting. To a certain extent the fire protective plan of the forest and how it actually works when a fire is discovered, is vividly shown. In the last few years the service has made remarkable progress in the perfection of fire protective plans.

ALBUQUERQUE NEW MEXICO

THE CONSTITUTION STILL VITAL.

The supreme court of the United States is apparently doing all it can toward "betting the government free," to use the phrase of Woodrow Wilson.

The supreme court has upheld the government in every case where a valid complaint has been made, from the Northern securities case down to the Hartman merger suit, just decided a few days ago.

Notwithstanding the fact that that prices of trust stocks have risen in most cases following such decisions, substantial victories for the public have been gained. The court has held steadily to the theory that if competition cannot be enforced, at least the opportunity for it must not be cut off.

The wrong way to do business has been rebuked in a variety of ways by the supreme court. One by one the gateways to monopoly have been closed—the holding company plan, the pure trust, the mixed trust, the patent leasing, and last of all, the stock ownership device. Monopoly is thus being marooned.

Moreover, it is the supreme court, so much distrusted by some excellent but impatient politicians, that is doing this work. The supreme court cannot take the popular side merely because it is the popular side. That would involve the principle of recall of judicial decisions in a far more form than that advocated by Colonel Roosevelt. But its trust decisions are based on the theory that monopolies are repugnant to the genius of the American people, and therefore cannot be in harmony with the spirit of American law. Hence we find a series of decisions which upset monopoly without upsetting the constitution of the United States. This is the difference between the court and the crowd. It marks the difference in the mental processes of supreme court judges and the blather-skilled governor of South Carolina, who shouts, "To hell with the constitution!"

The suggestion by these decisions is that there is less need for new machinery than many people think. "The constitution is still working. The courts are as nearly down to date as it is possible for them to be, or as it is wise for the country to be. And all is not ill with the world."

Realization of this fact will be a cruel shock to some men, like Mr. Bryan and Colonel Roosevelt, for instance, who feel that the people must needs, every now and then, pocket the constitution while they take their rights.

FINANCING THE FARMER.

The fifth annual conference of governors, held this year at Richmond, Va., was advertised chiefly on account of the incendiary utterances of South Carolina's chief executive. There is a young man with a head full of foolish ideas and a mouth that speaks foolishness most of the time.

But there were sensible men in that conference, and they set in motion a measure that is destined to be remembered long after Bismarck is forgotten.

One of the greatest drawbacks to the development of agriculture in the nation is the difficulty of securing rural credit. National banks are not permitted to take farm mortgages, or other kinds of mortgages, for that matter. State banks have not looked on such mortgages with favor because of the long time they must run and the low rates of interest if the farmer is to meet his obligations.

The conference of governors has decided a plan whereby it is expected to bring in more money for the farmer and cheaper money than he has been able to secure in the past. It is proposed to inaugurate a new system of state banks under uniform laws. They will be financed by private capital and will operate under laws sufficiently elastic to enable them to issue bonds for short or long terms upon American farms in lieu of mortgages.

It is then planned to list the bonds under state supervision, on the market of the world. Myron T. Herrick, ambassador to France, addressed the conference as the representative of President Taft, and said that if such schemes were put into effect, the thrifty people of France and other countries of Europe would buy them readily at low rates of interest.

Also it would enable thousands of Americans to invest their savings in such securities at a rate just a little higher than is now paid for United States bonds. The formality of having mortgages drawn and recorded, and the greater difficulty of having lands properly appraised would be obliterated for the purchasers of such bonds by the joint action of the banks and the states, acting under well concerted laws in order to protect the bondholder from loss.

Such a system would bring to the farms hundreds of thousands of people now deterred from undertaking agricultural pursuits on account of the difficulty of securing necessary finances for carrying on the complicated business of operating a successful farm.

HITTING THE RIGHT SPOT.

The government of the United States is attacking the high cost of living in its most vital spot. In Europe the average production of cereals per acre is about twice as great as that of the United States, hence it costs the American farmer much more to produce a bushel of corn, wheat or oats than it should cost him. Therefore, if he conducts his farm at a profit, he must charge more for his wheat, corn and oats than otherwise would be necessary.

The United States government is doing all that it can to educate the people to the attractiveness of the farm. Sixty-eight agricultural colleges are receiving aid from the government to the aggregate of about twenty-five million dollars annually. Under the Hatch and Adams acts, thirty thousand dollars a year is allowed to each of the "land grant" colleges for scientific experimental work.

There are about seven hundred agricultural professors and nine hundred women teachers employed. They have a student body of more than one hundred thousand young men and women working at scientific agriculture. Many of these colleges have short courses which farmers and their wives may attend during the winter months. There are college extension courses and rural lectures. In some states agriculture has won a place in the public schools.

Rural schools have gardens, boys' corn clubs, girls' tomato clubs and domestic science classes. All this work cannot fail to show results during the next decade. The population is growing rapidly, but the cost of living is being attacked at the right spot. In fact, at the only spot where there is any hope of hitting it hard.

Booker T. Washington, in the last issue of the Century Magazine, tells of a recent trip to Europe and is of opinion that Denmark is about the happiest country in the world because the people are educated to get out of the land all there is in it. We ought to content with Denmark for the title of the happiest land on earth, for we have the people and the soil and a far better climate, and are learning to get them together again.

It may be well to speak here again of the possibilities of New Mexico. While our area of cultivable land is limited, a vast deal more of it is susceptible of reclamation, and our crop yield can be made the greatest on earth by a little scientific effort.

VOTE FOR THE BONDS.

Whether or not Albuquerque shall have a new high school building next year depends on the approval of the bonds by the voters at the election next Tuesday. Every business man in the city should vote for the bond proposition because it means providing for school facilities now that are imperatively needed and that must be provided very soon.

People with children of school age should favor it, because it means better educational facilities. That is a duty they owe that cannot be ignored and the interests of society should not allow them to be slighted.

Working men should vote for it, not only because it means better educational facilities, but because it will improve the business conditions of the city and would give employment for labor, both directly and indirectly.

There is every reason why the bonds should be authorized. Albuquerque is at the beginning of an era of great prosperity, and nothing is more important for the future of the city than adequate school facilities. They are needed now and they must be provided for at once.

Therefore let everyone turn out on Tuesday and vote for the school bonds and a greater and better Albuquerque.

A St. Louis pastor says the United States has become a nation of liars. So we were led to infer from things said by Colonel Roosevelt in the last campaign. Also, from a remark credited to King David, we are of opinion that the United States, not this age, have a monopoly on lying.

Pitts clerical men are unanimously of the opinion that Billy Sunday is not needed for a series of revival meetings in St. Paul. But there are a larger number of business men who think differently, and it is quite probable that the Reverend Billy will be breaking chairs on the stage within a short while.

Governor Blease said to the listening audience at Richmond, "What care I for your hisses? Shakes and goose hisses." That was about as loudly as the South Carolina governor could have sprung on the hissing.

Governor Hiram Johnson made a hit with a twenty-word Thanksgiving proclamation. But he could not make it, like Perry, "We met the enemy and they are ours."

A California murderer, just before execution, was permitted to hear the band play. Doubtless that was more pleasant than "a consultation of physicians."

They are talking of making Colonel Goethals a general in the army for life. And he has hardly killed anybody either.

Colonel Roosevelt says it costs him $5,000 a year in postage and telegrams to be an ex-president. It will cost him less from now on.

STANDARD GAUGE IS RESULT OF SIZE OF OLD GATES

Curious Accident Permanently
Affects Width of Tracks
Used by Almost All Modern Railroads.

Doubtless a good many people have wondered why the standard railroad track gauge came to be set at four feet eight and one-half inches. The following article from the Locomotive Firemen and Engineers' magazine gives a very interesting explanation.

It is amazing the number of track gauges for railways to be found in the world. There is decided advantage to people paying for the construction of a railway to have the track gauge the same as others in use, for it saves money in the purchase of rolling stock, but some builders of railways appear to have prided themselves in having something different from the rest.

One of the most curious things met with in railway development is the influence through which certain track gauges were established. The settling upon a gauge likely to prove most convenient for the business of transportation to be done with due consideration as to cost, is an engineering problem which ought to have received careful study and profound calculation. Instead of that the width of gauge has been generally decided by some whim or trifling accident.

In 1840, ten years after the first commercial railway was in operation, there were thirty-three separate railways in the British Isles with 1,552 miles of track, and they had five different gauges, ranging from four feet eight and one-half inches to seven feet, the narrowest gauge having more mileage than all the others. That was George Stephenson's gauge. It was established in a curious way. The pioneer coal-carrying railways were run through the fields, and the wheels of the engines made the width of the rail head was two inches, so the flange gauge was two feet eight inches. When the Liverpool & Manchester Railway was under construction a few years later, the engineers concluded that it was well to give the wheels five and one-half inches running easy, so they made the gauge four feet eight and one-half inches. The success of the Liverpool & Manchester Railway was the motive, "Rocket," made. George Stephenson a great man, who as an example was well worthy of imitation, so his track gauge of four feet eight and one-half inches was adopted by most of the British railway companies. His son Robert had locomotive building works which supplied many railway companies with motive power, and the track gauge was frequently established to fit the wheels of the locomotives imported. That established the four feet eight and one-half inches track gauge on the continent of Europe and the United States.

There is still, however, great diversity of track gauges used in different countries. The Baldwin Locomotive works build engines to the following gauges: One foot seven and one-half inches, one foot nine and one-half inches, one foot eleven and five-eighths inches, two feet, two feet and six inches, two feet six and one-tenth inches, two feet and eleven inches, two feet eleven and one-half inches, three feet and three-eighths inches, three feet and three-eighths inches (metric), three feet and six inches, three feet eight and one-half inches, four feet and nine inches, four feet five and one-eighth inches, five feet, five feet and six inches.

The Trespass Evil on American Railways

If all the trespassers who have lost their lives upon the railway tracks in the United States during a ten-year period, ending June 30, 1911, could be called back to existence and marshaled together, they would form a city of 11,983 inhabitants. Thousands of homes on which the shadows of life would be happy and prosperous; thousands of widows and orphans struggling along life's highway, would be enjoying the support and guidance of husbands and fathers, whose lives were crushed out in the commercial arteries of this country. More than 50,000 maimed and crippled human beings, dragging their way along in an unequal contest, meditating and charges upon society, can trace their misfortunes back to a time when they ventured thoughtlessly upon railroads during the period mentioned, and find their classification under—"Trespassers injured on American Railways."

There is a lack of uniformity in statistics showing the classes of trespassers killed and injured, but it is safe to assume that a majority are workers in the coal and iron mines, and in the lumber and timbering industry. Numbers of trespassers use railway tracks going to and from their work and this is especially true where streets are muddy and uninviting. Figures compiled by Mr. Whiting of the New York Central, show that of one thousand persons killed while trespassing, four hundred and eighty-nine resided near the place of accident, three hundred and twenty-one at a place distant from where the accident occurred, and the residence of the balance, one hundred and ninety, was not ascertained. The conjugal state of the deceased was as follows: Single, 129; married, 354; widowed, 268; farmhands, forty-four; minister, one; actor, one; asylum inmate, one; engineer, ten; chemist, one; clerk, four; hotel men and barkeepers, six; merchants, salesmen and agents, eighteen; coachmen and chauffeurs, two; linemen, three; cigarmakers, three; shopmen and mechanics, eighty-one; barbers, two; contractors, one; laborer, three; passengers, two; soldiers, five; sailors, eight; railway trainmen and other employees, thirty-one; musicians, three; teacher, one; fishermen, two; patrolman, one; shoemaker, two; horse dealers, four; lumbermen, four; watchmen, three; miners, eight. There are in addition to this enumerated list six small children and thirty women. Statistics show fourteen trespassers killed every day, 140 every week, 1,296 every three days.

It may appear a trifling brutal or harsh to speak about pecuniary loss or measure by dollars and cents the pain and anguish of thousands who fall beneath the wheels, but in the last analysis, the subject becomes a practical one and the railways are involved in perpetual and costly litigation for killing or crippling persons who have no right upon their tracks.

In addition to the expenditures in court costs and judgments directly attributable to the trespass evil, the railways are confronted by enormous losses through constant pilfering and destruction by the adroit and unscrupulous trespasser who works inside the cars and does not fall beneath them. It is impossible to accurately estimate the annual loss to railways by vicious trespassers who confine their travels to railroads alone and embrace in the pilfering every conceivable article of merchandise from a case of booze to a baby grand piano.

They frequently build fires in box cars, become disgruntled at being ejected from trains, and in a spirit of revenge tamper with switches, place obstructions on tracks, cause wrecks, killing and crippling passengers, and not infrequently shoot and slug trainmen who attempt to force them from the cars. Costly timber, cotton and prairie fires, saddled upon railways, and attributed to escaping sparks from "a passing locomotive," in a number of instances undoubtedly originate from the cigarette or pipe of the "hubo." The vagrancy question, a serious one the world over, has been handled in a crude fashion in most of the states. The practice in the greater towns of our towns and cities is to give the tramp or vagrant "hours" and unload him on the next town at which he elects to stop.

If the tramp was barred from the railroads, his favorite means of transportation would be gone, and he would face a crisis in his existence that might well calculate a transformation from a wanderer into a worker. If the lure of the rail and the "side door Pullman" were removed from the path of the venturesome youngster, just emerging from the knickerbocker and marble stage, many a mother's darling, limping and skulking down the alleys and byways, begrimed and blackened by the soot and cinders of a puffed puffing engine, would remain beneath the parental roof until he secured the training calculated to equip him for the serious duty of assisting in the working out the destiny of the country in which he was born. A law, strong enough to deter the American boy from clinging to truss rods and brake beams in the unproductive search of Utopia, and Eldorado, would at once cut off the source to which transients must look for their supply. The marks of "A No. 1," "O. K. Kid," and "Tex Slim," are not to be seen along country lanes and macadamized pikes, but upon box cars and railroad water tanks. With the elimination of the tramp, together with the nomadic working man, who persists in leading his way, and whose roving disposition urges him from place to place, the trespass question would narrow itself down to those who live near the railways and use them as a convenience. The enactment of a federal law, prohibiting trespassers from using the cars or tracks of railways engaged in interstate commerce, will, in my opinion, furnish the only adequate relief.

Experience shows that the state laws on this question have been disregarded and when arrests have been made the parties promptly turned loose. The general public has a wholesome regard for federal laws and with crossing flagmen, section men, station agents, special agents, trainmen, linemen, and roadmasters authorized to make arrests together with such additional assistance as the government might deem necessary, trespassers as a serious factor, would soon be numbered among the things that were.

The apathy and indifference shown by our lawmakers at Washington towards the trespass question is worthy of mention, especially in view of the many guardship measures recently passed. Our public men are chanting requiems over our treeless tracks, viewing with alarm soil erosion, and the disastrous consequences, pushing back with an iron hand the greedy speculator who would butcher our coal lands in far away Alaska. The alleged germ-laden drinking cup has been snatched from the hand of the unsuspecting public. The life line has been thrown out to muskrats and squirrels. Safe-guards have cast about the birds in the air and the fish in the sea. Oysters, dumb and unable to vote, are watched with infinite care. The bureau of entomology is spraying hackberries and blackjacks, slippery and other elms; rich prizes are being hung up for anyone who can successfully sanding the boll weevil that cotton may grow; mounted guards are protecting jack rabbits on our game reservations, and yet the United States government is permitting thousands of its citizenship to be killed and maimed annually without making one move to protect them from their own folly. Magazines and newspapers are periodically informing the public about the terrible butchery on American railways, presenting comparative statistics between this country and Europe, but seldom, if ever, state that over 50 per cent of those killed in the United States were not passengers or employees and had no business upon the tracks. The fact is rarely cited, also, that trespassing is not permitted upon European railways, either by the higher or lower animals.

The government, with paternalistic solicitude for passengers and employees, has, at an enormous cost to the railways, brought about the installation of block systems and safety devices, frequently rendered inoperative through vicious vandalism of trespassers, but for some inexplicable reason have ignored the railways and made no effort to prevent indiscriminate trespassing upon their premises and property.

I will believe our political leviticians are on the square with their square deal talk when they deal on the square with the railways.

DATA IS COMPILED ON NEW MEXICO CORPORATIONS

Complete Figures of All Corporations
Organized Since 1865
Are Placed in Shape for Future Reference.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 7.—In order that the state corporation commission have all available data on the subject of New Mexico corporations, it has had compiled by T. J. Sanford, one of the clerks of the commission, a list of all the corporations organized in New Mexico since 1865. This list also shows which have suspended, which are active, meaning by this designation, those filing annual reports in accordance with the law of 1905, and those which are dormant. This includes all the corporations which have not filed annual reports in the past few years, and included many corporations known to be operative, while the dormant list, which is still further investigation, will be shown to be dead, rather than dormant.

In making up this record the archivist in the office of the secretary of state, through which official all the corporation business was formerly conducted, have been searched, and the name of every one recorded on the commission's list. It was found that there was practically no present-day knowledge about more than two-thirds of the corporations, and Mr. Sanford set to work to ascertain the present status of each and every one of them. To date his efforts have added over 500 to the active list, while it is estimated that there are between 500 and 600 concerns now in the dormant list, which will soon be changed to the active list.

The law of 1905 provides that each corporation must file an annual report for which a filing fee of $1 is charged. A penalty of $200 is also imposed on a corporation which does not file the annual report as required by the law. This is collectible in a civil suit in the county court.

Since 1865 there have been 4,288 corporations organized for profit, and 318 not organized for profit. Of the 4,288 incorporated concerns, 145 are known to have suspended, and of the remainder, 1,551 are on the active list, that is, are filing their reports, and 2,572 are on the dormant list, that is, are not filing reports annually, and the commission does not know where they are. These concerns are out of business or are still in business but are not filing their reports.

A careful perusal of the list, however, shows between five and six hundred which are known to be operative, but are not filing reports, and by the first of the year, it is expected that these will be lined up with the active corporations.

It is the intention of the commission shortly after the first of the year to go into every county, and in the county court bring civil suits to collect the $200 penalty for failure to file the

COURT HOUSE CASE IS SUBMITTED TO LOCAL COURT

Attorneys for Plaintiff and Defendants in Los Lunas Action Agree to Allow Judge Reynolds to Decide Pleadings

Arrangements were made yesterday by attorneys representing Frank L. Walrath, of Belen, and the county commissioners of Valencia county, the plaintiff and defendants, respectively, in the Los Lunas courthouse suit, whereby the action will be decided on the pleadings by Judge Herbert F. Reynolds.

The suit is one for an injunction to restrain the commissioners from using certain funds, which the defendants claim should go toward reducing the county indebtedness, for the erection of a courthouse and jail at Los Lunas.

It is believed to be actually the first step toward removing the county seat from Los Lunas to Belen. The case has been off and on in the district court here for several months.

Briefs on the law to be cited by counsel will be submitted at an early date.

PROBATE COURT WILL HOLD SESSION MONDAY.

For the first time since October 8th, the probate court for Bernalillo county will hold a session here Monday, December 9th. Judge John Stubb, the judicial officer of this court, has been in the east for several months and court has not been held because of his absence.

Many cases are on file to be submitted to him Monday.

SANTA FE YOUNG PEOPLE ARE TO BE MARRIED IN CHICAGO

(Special Dispatch to the Morning Journal.) Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 7.—A group of young people, collector of internal revenue, and Miss Mary Gray will be married in Chicago Monday, according to an announcement made here today, following the departure last night of Mr. Otero for Chicago. Miss Gray and her mother left Santa Fe about a week ago for Chicago, where they have been the guests of relatives. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Otero will visit in Minneapolis and spend a few days in the east. They will return to Santa Fe about the last of the month.

It is understood that former Governor M. A. Otero, who went to Chicago to attend the gathering of the progressive leaders, will be best man at the Otero-Gray wedding.

Patrick on Visit to Brother-in-Law.
St. Louis, Dec. 7.—Albert T. Patrick, recently pardoned from Sing Sing, arrived here tonight and departed for the east. He is the brother-in-law of John T. Patrick, at present, Mo., where tomorrow he will meet his sister, Mrs. Patrick. Patrick refused to talk at the depot, saying that he had asked him not to give any interviews.

Divine Sarah Shops in Chicago Stores.
Chicago, Dec. 7.—Madame Sarah Bernhard had her Christmas shopping here today. She took most shops with the toy engine and dolls she bought for her great-granddaughter, Sarah Gross, who lives in London, England. She spent a large part of the day selecting gifts. Her purchases included nearly $2,000. "All my Christmas gifts this year will be from Chicago," she said.

CORPORATION LAWS AND FORMS

New Mexico now has a Commission empowered to regulate corporations. Corporation officers, attorneys, irrigation engineers should know corporation laws and procedure. For this purpose get KANE'S NEW MEXICO CORPORATION LAWS, RULES AND FORMS. All laws on General Corporations, Banking, Insurance, etc., with citations; rules and forms for drawing and filing corporation, irrigation papers, etc. Also U. S. laws and forms; the only compilation of these laws from 1897 to 1912.

The 1912 legislature made but few changes in corporation laws; many New Mexico laws are out of print; no revision made since 1897, none adopted until 1915. Such conditions make this book indispensable.
