AFTER ILLEGAL PENSIONS.

Money Received by Re-rating may be Called Back.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The decision of Sec. Noble in the re-rated pension case of Senator Manderson, may be regarded as a precedent in a number of other similar cases. There are, it is understood, some twenty-one of the employees of the pension office whose pensions have been re-rated. In some instances this re-rating was done upon their application, and in other cases was done without the knowledge of the pensioner, and some of these cases were allowed by Tanner while they were on appeal before the secretary of the interior.

The present acting commissioner, Hiram Smith, was re-rated, but it is understood that he made application to that effect, and in that particular the legal requirements were complied with.

There are others in the pension office as well as outside whose pensions were re-rated, and who received arrears from $5,000 to $15,000, and under the ruling in the Manderson case all are characterized as being illegal. The question now arises to what extent will Senator Manderson's example be followed by those who occupy substantially the same position. It is thought the new commissioner of pensions will have this question to consider among the first duties which he will be called upon to perform.

The commissioner has the right to recover all money illegally paid on account of pensions, and in cases where arrears have already been expended the government can confiscate all future payments. So far there has been no attempt made to recover any money which has been found to have been paid illegally to pensioners. It is said to be a desire of the secretary of the interior to enforce as far as practicable the collection of the money, and that active measures will be adopted as soon as a commissioner of pensions has been appointed.

Some of the twenty-one employees of the pension office, whose pensions were re-rated, have left the government service since action in their cases was taken.

Whisky War.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 17.—The Constitution's special correspondent sends the following facts regarding the whisky war at Dothan, Ala.: The farmers' Alliance of Henry county established a warehouse at Dothan. The town authorities endeavored to close license fees for their dry. George Stringer, manager of the warehouse, drove a dry himself yesterday and was arrested. The Alliance men attended the trial in force, and B. Stringer, a relative of George, quarreled with the marshal and flourished a knife in his face. This started the trouble. A fusillade of shots followed during which George Stringer and Jeff Walker, of the Alliance forces, were killed. Peter Tom Green, Stringer and B. Stringer were seriously wounded. Marshal Dominguez, Deputy Marshal Powell and a townsman named W. B. Craddock were mortally wounded.

The terror which reigned during the remainder of the day was indescribable, and a renewal of the fight was looked for last night, but all is now quiet. The farmers claim that the townspeople treated them wrongfully and that a riot was inevitable under the provocation given.

Dusky Historian.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—A Sun cable from London says: George W. Williams, of Worcester, Mass., a colored lecturer, and author of the "History of the Colored Race in the United States," has become involved in a romance. Williams stopped in London a week or two, having met on the steamer an English girl traveling with her brother and sister. Williams and the girl fell in love with each other, and with the consent of her family they have become engaged to be married.

The name of the lady is not known, as she refused to identify herself when she called at the American consulate to ask General New's advice on the legal points involved in her marriage with a colored gentleman. Williams is at present in Belgium, but is expected to return to England soon to claim his English bride.

Warm Reception.

DENVER, Oct. 16.—A Leadville, Colo., special says: A frightful accident happened to James McHasty, a workman at the American smelter. He was standing upon a pot of hot slag, and he rested for a moment on the edge of one of the pots filled with burning slag. He lost his balance and fell forward. In attempting to save himself he plunged his hands and arms into the liquid, which caused him such fearful agony that he lost control of himself and fell into the burning mass. From the waist down to the knees the flesh was horribly burned, as were also his arms, hands and head. He was a most pitiful sight. He was removed to St. Vincent's hospital, where he is receiving every attention. It is doubtful if he can recover.

The Huntington Mill.

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 17.—J. C. Crenshaw, assistant superintendent of the International company's mines at Alamo, Lower California, came up from below the line yesterday, bringing a gold brick that weighed over 21½ ounces and was valued at over $3,500. The brick represented the clean up of five and a half days' run with a Huntington mill. The first run of five days was brought up by Superintendent Sutherland last week, and was worth $2,100.

Sheridan's Secretary Sentenced.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 17.—H. D. Gregg, for many years state secretary to Gen. Sheridan when the general had headquarters in Chicago, and for some time department clerk at Washington, and later a newspaper man at Omaha, Neb., was sentenced to the penitentiary yesterday for five years for horse stealing.

The Pope's Temporal Power.

ROME, Oct. 17.—A banquet was given at the Palazzo to Prime Minister Crispi. In the course of an address he touched upon the temporal power of the pope, declaring that complaints or threats either from home or abroad would have no effect on the government's position. He declared that the pope has perfect religious liberty, and is restricted only from encroaching on the sphere of national right.

Resigned and Died.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Oct. 16.—Hon. Newton W. Nutting, who on Saturday last resigned his seat in congress, died last evening of cancer of the jaw.

Getting Shaky.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 17.—A Pioneer-Press special from Helena says: Democrats claim that the contest on Silver Bow county will delay the admission of the state, but the Republicans hold that statehood is contingent only on the adoption of the constitution. Power, Republican candidate for governor, it is claimed, is likely to institute a contest before the canvassing board on the vote of Deer Lodge county.

Liquor Seized.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 17.—United States government officers have seized the distillery of Freiburg & Warkum, at Lynchburg, upon charge of defrauding the United States by equalizing shortage from shrinkage before the gauge measured the packages. The whisky seized amounts to more than 1,000,000 gallons.

Cronin Again.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—It has been arranged that one of the first incidents after a full jury has been secured in the Cronin case will be an exhibition in court of the skull and bones found in the right hand and of the body found in the catch basin. They will be used for identification of the body as that of Dr. Cronin.

INDIAN SCHOOL TEACHERS.

Charges of Religious Prejudices in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The controversy over the appointment of teachers in the Indian school promises to be revived at the opening of the next congress. It is one of the difficult tasks in the administration of the Indian office to so select teachers that the various religious sects shall have a proportionate representation. Every Indian commissioner has had this embarrassing task to perform, and generally there is more or less criticism following a change in teachers.

Comr. Morgan is now being criticised for alleged discrimination against Roman Catholic teachers at the Indian agencies. It is reported that Senator Plumb will introduce a resolution to investigate the practice in making the appointments. The resolution will not be in the interest of any religious body, but merely that the facts can be disclosed, and some method devised to prevent a recurrence of the charges that religious prejudices affect the administration of the Indian office.

The Race Racket.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 17.—The Negro Democratic state committee yesterday adopted a set of resolutions setting forth that Republican leaders of the north are misrepresenting the two races of the south by incendiary speeches, wholly uncalled for; and that the committee thinks that what will do the Negro of the south and north more good than anything else, is a division of the Negro vote. They say that in education, the Negroes are doing better in the south than in the north, and that the best thing the southern Negro can do is to cease his war policy upon his white neighbors.

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Buckle's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. C. M. Creamer, druggist.

Open to Engagements.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—John L. Sullivan announces that he is ready to fight again, and would like to have a match arranged as soon as possible. He is anxious to meet Jim Smith. His next choice is Charlie Mitchell, but he is ready to meet anybody that will challenge him.

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other."

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." Mrs. ELLA A. GORR, 61 Terrace Street, Boston.

ARE YOU LOOKING

For a place you can call home? You are tired, perhaps, of "quarter-section farming," even though broad acres of the fairest portions of Uncle Sam's domain yet tempt you to change your base of operations further west. Ten, twenty, thirty or forty acres of Rio Grande valley land will furnish you an ample and varied arena for the display of muscular ability, while common sense, taste and a modest capital will in three or four years produce results eminently satisfactory to a man who, to a laudable desire for a reasonable pecuniary return for his labor, carries with it a purpose that the balance of his days shall, with his family, be spent amid pleasant and healthful surroundings. With these remarks, point west.

The Mesilla Valley!

He must be blind indeed who can not see that it is a most favored section. Seekers after health, profit and pleasure after a thorough search from the lakes to the Pacific coast are finding their El Dorado in New Mexico; and to these new comers, as well as to everybody else, the

extends a cordial greeting, and invites a careful and thorough inspection of its FINE COLONY LANDS. Some 2,000 acres of which are subdivided and platted into ten and twenty acre blocks (from which incomes can be produced equally as great, not greater, than the average farms of eighty and 160 acres in the western and northwestern states), and all within a radius of one and one-half miles of the railroad depots at

LAS CRUCES AND MESILLA PARK

Some of these blocks are cultivated, or have bearing orchards and vineyards; others not. Some have tasteful and modern cottages upon them; in others Nature has undisputed dominion. It's merely a question of choice—and money—although the latter does not cut such a figure as one might suppose in these days of booms; and one "long term" payment and low interest" plan often adds a little spice to a transaction to one who has an eye to the future. Warranty deeds given. Write or call for plans and circulars. Command us for carriages or other necessities within our power to give.
