AMERICAN GIRL'S COUNT WAS NOT A REAL NOBLEMAN

Edith Van Buren Bought His Title After Their Marriage In Order to Avoid Scandal.

SHE IS RELATED TO FORMER PRESIDENT

In Obtaining a Divorce at Naples, She Tells Story of Her Wrongs and Also Learns That Her Husband is an Ex-Convict.

Naples, Italy, Nov. 9.—The Countess di Castelmenardo, who was Miss Edith Van Buren of New York, has obtained a legal separation from her supposedly titled husband. The beautiful countess appeared in the court of appeals here and testified to her husband's cruelty and rapacity.

It then became known publicly for the first time that the countess's title was bogus when he married her in Nice seven years ago. His American wife, to prevent scandal, spent $4,000 to gain the count a certain legal right to the name he had appropriated. Such affairs can be arranged here.

Learned He Was an Ex-Convict. But, bad as she knew him to be, the countess received a frightful shock when the chief of police of Naples testified that the man with whom she mated had undergone penal servitude and is still subject to police surveillance.

The man's name is Gennaro Vesichio, said the chief of police. In emphasizing her demand for separation the countess testified that her husband represented himself to be Count Vescichio Giorgio di Castelmenardo. After their betrothal she received from Naples—probably from a confederate of his—excellent testimonials respecting her husband's family. She was assured that his mother was the Duchess di Belvidere Giuditte Georga di Castelmenardo and that the count was beyond reproach.

Bride Paid Honeymoon Expenses. The countess, who restrained her emotion with dignity, went on to testify that her honeymoon had scarcely begun when she realized her true character. On one or another pretext he induced her to pay all the expenses of their bridal trip. Soon acknowledging himself penniless he got money from her and squandered it in gambling and fast living.

Finally, at the urgent request of her brother, the American consul at Nice, she caused his arrest in Genoa last year. He was convicted of unfaithfulness and cruelty and was sentenced to three months' imprisonment and to pay the costs of the action. The chief of police, aware that the chief of police was to testify, did not defend the suit for separation.

The Countess di Castelmenardo is the great grand niece of President Van Buren and the daughter of the late General Thomas B. Van Buren, formerly American minister in Tokio.

Was New York Belle. Miss Edith Van Buren was one of the belles of New York's exclusive circles. She was still a beautiful woman at the time of her marriage, although she had for several years been "class" among the "old maids." She had won a reputation as a globe trotter, and went to the Klondike at the time of the breaking out of the gold excitement.

HAYES SAYS NAVAL BASE IS IMMEDIATE NECESSITY

California Congressman Will Introduce Bill at Next Session Providing For Appropriation For Work.

WESTERN COAST IS WITHOUT PROTECTION

More Fortifications Are Needed and Place Where Fleet of Warships May Be Cared For Is Imperative—Illustrates His Argument.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 9.—Congressman Everis A. Hayes, of the fifth California district, is preparing a bill which he will submit to the next congress, providing for an appropriation that will be sufficient to finance the beginning of the work on a Pacific naval base of dimensions large enough to adequately accommodate a fleet of warships.

He is also a strong advocate of a Japanese exclusion law and his speech on that subject on the floor of the house at the last session made him a leading figure on the Pacific coast.

In discussing the need of a naval base on the western coast, he said: "Considering a Pacific naval base from the standpoint that we may be plunged into war some day, it is imperative that we should have it. Considering it from the standpoint that we never want war, it is absolutely necessary, in my mind, that a Pacific base come into existence at the very earliest possible moment. I always believed preparedness for war to be the best method of discouraging the hospitality of other nations."

"By a naval base I mean a navy yard equipped with drydocks large enough to accommodate the largest warships in our navy. The largest warships in existence is the largest warship in existence."

useless without a base to operate from, where repairs can be quickly made and supplies of all kinds secured.

It is a ridiculous fact that at the present time there are but two navy yards on the entire Pacific coast, and only one of these, the Puget sound navy yard, has a drydock large enough to accommodate our largest cruisers and warships. Nor is it less amazing that neither of these navy yards have railroad facilities. All supplies must be handled and reloaded while being shipped in on steamers. An illustration of the uselessness of the drydock at the Mare Island yard occurred only a couple of weeks ago. The cruiser California was at Mare Island, but the water at the entrance of the drydock was so shallow the ship could not enter. The California had to be taken clear up to the Puget sound navy yard to be docked. If more than one of the big ships should need repairs at the same time—and this is always the case—they will either have to go out of commission awaiting their turn in the one drydock or be repaired in private drydocks at great expense to the government.

Better Fortifications. "Besides, a central base such as I have described, we need better fortifications all along the Pacific coast, and in our island possessions; more drydocks and increased facilities at San Diego; in the Hawaiian Islands, and at Olongapo or elsewhere in the Philippines."

"The visit of the Atlantic squadron to Pacific waters is a most interesting thing, because it will demonstrate our unpreparedness to care for a fleet. Unpreparedness to care for a fleet is unpreparedness for war, and unpreparedness for war is weakness as a nation."

"I cannot now give all the reasons why we should have a Pacific naval base and a big Pacific fleet. Our commerce is gradually shifting from the east coast to the west, and we need ships to protect and attract it. The wealth and population of the Pacific coast states have grown tremendously in the last few years, and these interests are entitled to protection as well as those of the Atlantic coast."

WORKMAN KILL ELEVEN
STORIES TO DEATH

IT'S ALL PRETTY SOFT FOR THE FLESHY PERSON

ELEVATOR BURNS WITH LOSS EXCEEDING $3,000,000

Three Mills, Forty Homes, and 700,000 Bushels of Grain Are Destroyed.

BLAZE BURNED FOR OVER TWELVE HOURS

Duluth, Minn., Nov. 9.—Fire which started in the Great Northern elevator at Superior, Wis., about 9 o'clock last night was still burning today after having destroyed the elevator, three flour mills, forty homes, seven thousand bushels of grain, two saws and two tugs. The loss is estimated at three million dollars. One man is believed to have perished. The origin of the fire is unknown.

The fire was one of the most spectacular ever seen in the state. It had gained such headway before it was discovered by a night watchman at the elevator that the entire interior of the building was soon a mass of flames. The blaze evidently started at the rear of a hoisting shaft and pushed up the flue like a piston to the top of the structure. It was impossible for the firemen to combat the flames because of the height of the structure and the fierce heat which they encountered.

Spread Over Large Area. As soon as the elevator was found to be afire beyond control, the surrounding residents began to move their goods and by this means a large number of them saved much of their household belongings and valuables. There was a closely congested district around the elevator and mills, occupied by workmen and their families.

The blaze spread rapidly and fifteen minutes after the first alarm, two of the big mills nearby were afire, and explosions of dust in their bins carried the fire over the structures. The third mill and the residences burned before the fire could be controlled.

A high wind aided the flames and in the direction of the breeze, the destruction had been much greater. The fire is still burning in the grain pits and the ruins are too hot to explore for the supposed missing man, but the danger of conflagration is over.

Clearing House Statement. New York, Nov. 9.—A statement of the clearing house banks for the week shows that the banks hold $1,944,425 less than requirements, a 25 per cent reserve. This is a decrease in cash reserve of $13,035,809 as compared with last week.

WIFE OF MILLIONAIRE MUST GO TO PEN FOR THEFT

States Attorney Says Mrs. Romadka Will Get Regular Sentence.

HE DOES NOT BELIEVE THAT SHE IS INSANE

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Mrs. Evelyn Romadka, the wealthy Milwaukee woman, who informally pleaded guilty to larceny in this city, must go to the penitentiary, according to the declaration made today by States Attorney Healy. Counsel for Mrs. Romadka announced today that when the trial comes up next week he would permit the plea of guilty made by the woman when first arraigned to stand.

"If she pleads guilty," said Healy, "she will undoubtedly be sentenced to a term of one to fourteen years. This office would oppose any effort to have her sent to an asylum. Our information is that she was sane when the theft was committed and is sane now."

First Plead Guilty. When Mrs. Romadka, who is the wife of a Milwaukee millionaire visiting in Chicago, was first arrested charged with the theft of a number of articles, she made a confession to the police, and before her husband arrived with counsel for her, she pleaded guilty in court. Later her attorney asked that this plea be changed and she was permitted to plead not guilty.

With the showing that the police are able to make, however, it is believed by the officials that this plea will again be changed to guilty and that her husband will endeavor to show that she is insane.

Did Not Need to Steal. There was no need for the woman to steal, as her husband gave her unlimited spending money, but she left Milwaukee some days ago and came to Chicago without informing her husband, who did not know where she was until her arrest took place.

She committed several rather surprising stunts at hotels and restaurants previous to her arrest, and there are said to have been others, probably including men, in the case.

The woman is now a nervous wreck and shows signs of a breakdown, which may result in insanity, should she be held on the charge.

KILLED WOMAN WHOM HE HAD FOLLOWED 10 YEARS

Angered Because She Wedded Another, Joseph Schmilowitz Shoots Mrs. Dora Stebel to Death.

HER FAMILY MOVED OFTEN TO AVOID HIM

He Traced Them From City to City and Finally Enacted a Tragedy Which Ended Her Life—Gave Himself Up.

New York, Nov. 9.—After pursuing her with unwelcome attentions for ten years, Joseph Schmilowitz, a cabinet maker of Cleveland, Ohio, today shot and killed Mrs. Dora Stebel in the presence of her two children in Brooklyn. Before her marriage Mrs. Stebel is said to have accepted Schmilowitz's attentions as a suitor. For ten years he has been constantly writing her and had so persisted in his annoyance that the woman, with her husband, had been compelled to flee from Philadelphia to Boston and thence to Brooklyn in hope of eluding him. Schmilowitz submitted to arrest saying:

"It is a life for a life with me. I don't care what happens to me now."

Followed Her to Brooklyn. After being compelled by the unwelcome attentions and threats of Schmilowitz to leave Cleveland, the Stebel family moved to Philadelphia where for a time they were not bothered by his attentions, but he finally traced them through letters to mutual friends, and again took up his correspondence with Mrs. Stebel. She refused to answer his letters and his attentions finally became so violent that she besought her husband to again flee and without notifying anyone of their intentions, they went to Boston.

In a few weeks after they arrived in that city, Schmilowitz found their address, coming to Boston, where he discovered their flight from Philadelphia. He learned their whereabouts from a description which he furnished to the station agent, whom they bought their tickets, he alleging that he was searching for them on a criminal charge.

They Had Resided in Brooklyn for some time, and had been safe from Schmilowitz's interruptions until today, when he suddenly walked into their home during the absence of Stebel.

Mrs. Stebel ordered him to leave the place, but he sat down and told her neither he nor she would leave until she consented to accompany him.

Shot Her Down. Mrs. Stebel indignantly refused his advances, and was attempting to leave the room with her two children when Schmilowitz, with a curse, drew a revolver and fired shots into her body. The children ran screaming into the street, where neighbors, attracted by the sound of the shots, arrived with an officer, they found Schmilowitz sitting beside a table with his revolver by his side, looking at his victim with no concern whatever.

The Stebel family had become popular during their residence here and Schmilowitz had been frequently seen in the street, and made. The slayer is being closely guarded, and a mob would be unable to reach him.

ALLEGED SLAYERS ARE PLACED UNDER BIG BONDS

Mason and Van Derweide, Accused of Killing Secret Service Agent Walker Are at Liberty.

THEY GAVE SECURITY FOR $20,000 EACH

District Attorney Strenuously Fought Granting of Such a Motion But Without Avail—They Claim Shooting Was in Self Defense.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 9.—William R. Mason and Joseph VanDerweide, accused of the murder of Joseph Walker, secret service agent of the government, who was shot and killed by VanDerweide at the Hesperus coal mine last Sunday, were admitted to bail in the sum of twenty thousand dollars each by Judge Pike this district court today, over the protest of District Attorney Pulliam. In support of the motion for bail, affidavits were submitted from Mason and VanDerweide affirming that Walker fired first and that the shooting was done in self defense.

Still Investigating. Durango, Colo., Nov. 9.—For the time being government officials investigating the shooting of Agent Walker will not attempt to participate in the prosecution of Mason and VanDerweide, further than to gather evidence against them. The idea that others were involved has not been abandoned and may lead to additional charges being preferred later on. A part of the federal officials will start for Denver tomorrow, leaving some here to work on the case.

One thing established by the investigation is that although it was his life, Walker accomplished his purpose. His companions got all the evidence they wanted, according to the officials here, and will work along until they have completed the investigation.

Many Mysterious Features. The case has not developed as rapidly as expected and much remains to be explained that now appears an unsatisfactory mystery. The reluctance of the secret service in running down men who have killed members of their staff has been emphasized in the past and they are moving heaven and earth to bring the slayers of Walker to justice.

Sheriff John Clark tried on Walker's coat today at the undertaker's, before the federal court and State District Attorney Pulliam. The bullet holes in it were in the back. Two had pierced the coat collar back of the left ear, one was only an inch from the spinal cord and two others were located on the left side of the back, lower down. The theory of the prosecution is that he had had a discussion with the two men and had turned away from them to walk toward the shaft when shot. The theory that Walker was asleep when shot seems improbable. The bullet wounds entered the body at an upward angle and went toward the right.

No Reason for Killing. District Attorney Pulliam believes that there was actually no occasion for the killing of Walker. "Walker was not destroying property, or in any way injuring it," he said. "He was simply there to make observations, to which the company's officers had said they had no objection, and as Mason must have known that Walker and his companions were there for, he had no business to go to the air shaft. Even if it were conceded that Walker was trespassing, the penalty for that offense is not death, and he and VanDerweide were not in any danger of their lives."

"Officials Too Flip." W. A. Reese, attorney for the defense, said today:

"We are facing an exceedingly embarrassing position owing to the interference of government officials," he said. "They are a little too flip in the matter. They have every advantage, as there are plenty of agents at their disposal, and the state has them working for it. We would have to hire detectives at great expense to offset this. But I always fight harder in a hard case."

RAILROAD DEPARTMENT

CONSTRUCTION STOPPED FOR WINTER

Roads Are Reducing That Branch of Service to a Minimum Now.

The fact that certain of the western railroads have laid off large forces of men, coming at the time it does when there is so much being said against the two cent rate as a money making proposition of the railroads, has caused a great many idle rumors to crop out to the effect that the railroads are trying to reduce their expenses and cut out improvements in order to get even with the public. However, any intimation to the effect that it is being done for spite work, the officials say, is unfounded.

Every year about this time the railroads commence reducing their extra forces which are used in track construction. This work has already commenced this season. The Union Pacific was the first western road to start the ball rolling. Only a few days ago the announcement emanated from Omaha to the effect that 4,000 of the special employees of this road were to be thrown out of employment. This was taken as an insult given by Harriman to those who helped to curtail the profits of the roads with a two cent fare rate. A few days later the Rock Island system announced the retirement of 1,200 men. Other roads have since that time followed suit.

There is no cause for alarm in this situation. The roads commence every year to lay off men at the beginning of the winter season on account of the fact that there is a great deal of construction work that cannot be pursued in winter. During the past summer there has been a great deal more construction work than ever before during a season, and a great many more men have been employed. Consequently the curtailment of the construction gangs on account of the coming of bad weather cuts off more men this year. The reductions for this year are well under way and by the time that the weather becomes so severe as to prevent the roads from doing all the extra and special employees will be out of service.

The managements of the various western and southwestern roads are now considering the number of employees to be used during the winter and also the number to be cut off the payroll. How many men will be retained depends to a great extent on the work that can be pursued during the winter.

Much Work in Sight.
It is certain that the western and southwestern lines will not discharge men without reason as there is a great deal more work to be done this winter than ever before. The western and southwestern roads during the summer season have had but one object in view, to take care of the heavy traffic of that season and to keep the traffic in movement as much as possible. As a result, a repetition of the car shortage conditions of a year previous. Consequently certain betterments to tracks, roadways, and terminals have been abandoned temporarily. All such improvements as far as possible will be carried on during the winter. All the locomotives and cars were used during the summer season in order to keep freight out of the congestion at different points. There is a great need for improvements in these different departments. The railroads are determined that they must carry on improvement operations which circumstances prevented earlier in the season and whatever men can be kept for these purposes will be kept and only those who cannot be used will be cast adrift.

However, it is unlikely that any other than the improvements which have been already started will be worked out to completion during the winter season. The money market which is now in somewhat of a flurry will prohibit new extensions. Plans for new improvements will as a rule be set aside until the roads can get an opportunity to dispose of their securities at reasonable rates and obtain funds for further work. A great deal of construction work will consequently be abandoned for months—work that under ordinary conditions would be pushed to the end. Consequently there are two good reasons why men are being thrown out of employment by the

EMMONS CAPTURED THE CHAMBERLIN PRIZE

Young Orators Appear to Fine Advantage Before Large Audience and Give Credit to U. N. M.

The First Methodist church was crowded to the doors last night by people who assembled to hear the speakers in the American Oratory Declaration Prize contest. Seven students of the University of New Mexico were the contestants for the prize which was a set of four handsome volumes of the best examples of American orations by the great statesmen of the country.

It took the judge twenty minutes to decide which of the speakers was entitled to the prize, but at length they agreed that Grover Cleveland Emmons, who spoke on "Burr and Blennerhassett," by William Wirt, was the man. Roy A. Baldwin, who had for his oration, "Liberty and Union," an extract from Daniel Webster's famous reply to Hayne, was given second mention.

All the speakers showed considerable ability in public speaking and the program was one of interest from start to finish. The musical part of the program by local talent was also pleasing. The contestants for the prize, "American Orations," given by Dr. J. B. Chamberlain, were Chas. S. Leaming, Roy A. Baldwin, Clarence E. Heald, Kenneth C. Heald, Harvey H. Ferguson, Grover C. Emmons and Fred Browning. The judges were Rev. Fletcher Cooke, Ph. D., Supt. J. C. Ross and Hon. George S. Klock.

In awarding the prize Mr. Klock spoke highly in praise of the ability of the speakers and the work of the university. His reference to the way the institution has been treated by the territorial legislature was received with an outburst of applause.

HAS LOVE AND MILLIONS BUT SHE IS STILL UNSATISFIED

Mrs. Joseph Lewis, Formerly Fanny Ward, the Actress, Pines For Her Old Place on the Stage.

Mrs. Jos. Lewis, Formerly Fanny Ward, the Actress.

London, Nov. 8.—If you had a fortune of a cool seventy millions, you society woman, would you be content?

If you had a kind, loving, indulgent husband, whose chief delight was to humor you, would you be satisfied?

If you had a lovely little daughter, just at the interesting age when the lips of little lips and the clasp of little arms tell the world-old, ever-sweet story of childish love, would you be happy?

Mrs. Jos. Lewis, formerly Miss Fanny Ward, the American actress, has all of these, yet she is breaking her heart today, steeped in the misery of discontent and disappointment.

When several years ago she married Joe Lewis, the African diamond king, former partner of Alfred Beit, whose fortune is estimated at easily seventy millions, it was supposed she had made herself to the stage forever. Yet the longing lived.

One night she returned from a brilliant reception at the house of a duchess in Mayfair, frankly wretched. Her husband vainly sought to comfort her. When he spoke of her wealth, her jewels, her position, her daughter even, she burst forth passionately.

"I would give them all up for a little dressing room in a dingy theater," she sobbed.

Lewis, ever indulgent, vowed she should have the little dressing room if it meant happiness. So she is back on the stage this season. London spoke of her wealth, her jewels, her position, her daughter even, she burst forth passionately.

There critics and audience refused to take her seriously. In disgust she sought America.

There critics and audience refused to enthrone. When she pouted and refused to appear for two nights and unknown understudy made a hit with her part. Mrs. Lewis packed her half-million dollar wardrobe and sailed home.

The richest woman in the world, perhaps, she is consumed with a sense of failure, an ungratified ambition.

A Hard Debt to Pay.
"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equalled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung ailments. Guaranteed by all druggists, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

He Fought at Gettysburg.
David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weakness. Great alternative and body builder; sure cure for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by all druggists, 50c.

CLIMBING HIGH NEW YORK CLUBBOM

"Rocky Mountaineers" Said to Have Wealthiest Eastern Social Organization.

New York, Nov. 9.—The metropolitan "millionaires' club" will have to look to its laurels for a new organization has come into existence that bids fair to depose the famous Fifth Avenue institution from the position it has held so long as the wealthiest club in the country. The Rocky Mountain Club, which has taken possession of sumptuous quarters in the Hotel Knickerbocker, numbers among its new charter members nearly two score men whose fortunes run into seven figures, and includes nearly every one of the names of those sturdy men who have done so much to develop and bring the west into prominence.

John Hays Hammond, who is called the greatest mining expert in the world, is president of the club, but is desirous that it shall not be known merely as an organization of wealthy men.

For Westerners.

"The Rocky Mountain Club," said Mr. Hammond, "was formed and rooms engaged so that the western men who live here or visit New York might have a place where they might meet on purely social grounds. The idea of the club for western men grew from the occasional dinners at the Waldorf-Astoria attended by men who came here from Colorado. We have about 100 members now, and shall add more than a hundred more. We have admitted to the club only truly western men—that is, men who are members of other clubs out west or were born there and have been closely identified with western life. The idea is not to be exclusive, but representative."

For the purposes of the club a suite of rooms on the second floor of the Knickerbocker Hotel has been leased for a term of years, and the price paid is greater than that paid by any other club in New York for similar accommodations. Eventually the members intend to have a clubhouse of their own. In the suite at the hotel is included an immense living room, besides card rooms and private dining rooms. The long hall that runs the whole length of the suite is furnished in Empire style, and everything throughout is of the costliest.

An Elegant Place.

Priceless rugs are on the floors, and even the windows are screened by curtains of costly lace. The furniture is of massive mahogany and Circassian walnut, the walls are covered with silk tapestry and silk plush, and adorned with the heads of caribou, rocky mountain goats, and other trophies. Western magazines and newspapers will be kept on file, and every comfort and luxury of modern civilization will be at hand. The club will have its own staff of servants and many of the members will have apartments in the hotel.

A. J. Sellman is vice president of the club. William B. Thompson is treasurer, and James J. McEvilly is secretary. Among the more prominent of the members are A. Chester Beatty, Jonathan Bourne, Jr., United States Senator from Oregon; Edward H. Clark, of California; W. A. Clark, Jr., of Butte, Col.; H. C. Davis, A. Eilers and Carl Eilers, of Colorado; J. B. Farris, B. Denver; Simon Guggenheim, United States Senator from Colorado; and William Guggenheim, S. T. Hauser, ex-governor of Montana; William R. Hearst, of California; Thomas Kearns, of Salt Lake; George A. Knight, of Colorado; Ogden Mills, of California; C. K. McCormick, of Salt Lake; George S. Nixon, United States Senator; Lemuel E. Quigg, of Montana; and Harry Payne Whitney, of Colorado.

A Significant Prayer.

"May the lord help you make Bucklen's Arnica Save known to all," writes J. G. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. It quickly took the pain out of a felon for me and cured it in a wonderful short time." Best on earth for sores, burns and wounds. 25c at all druggists.

BURGLARS EVEN ROB
GAS METER OF COIN.

Tucson Thieves are Greedy and They Are Also Bold for They Work in Daylight.

Tucson, Ariz., Nov. 9.—Burglars yesterday entered the residence of W. T. Mobley on Fifth Avenue near Fifteenth street and secured jewelry and silverware valued at several hundred dollars. Not satisfied with ransacking the house, the thieves robbed the gas meter of several dollars in quarters.

The burglary was the third one on Fifth Avenue within the past ten days and the striking similarity of the three robberies and the fact that they all occurred within 100 yards of each other has led to the belief that they have all been the work of the same party or parties.

PEOPLE CAN MAKE THIS HOME REMEDY

A well known authority says that backache is often nature's danger signal, which notifies the sufferer that the kidneys are sick. The following simple home-made mixture is said to relieve backache and cleanse and build up weak, disordered kidneys, if taken before the stage of Bright's Disease; Fluid Extract. Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking well in a bottle, and take in teaspoonful doses after meals and at bedtime.

A well known local druggist is authority that these ingredients are mainly of vegetable extraction and harmless to use, and can be obtained at small cost from any good prescription pharmacy. Those who think they have kidney trouble or suffer with lame back or weak bladder, or such symptoms as frequent desire to urinate, especially at night; painful, thick, discolored urine, etc., should give this prescription a trial, as no harm can possibly follow its use, and it is said to do wonders for many people.

GIRL WHO REFUSED 2000 PROPOSALS DESCRIBES HER IDEAL OF MEN

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Having said "no" to 2,000 ardent suitors, Miss Dorothy D. Deene, "the most courted woman in Chicago," has agreed to tell The Citizen readers her ideal of what a husband should be. She says:

"He must not be a divorcee. He must be a gentleman, a Bohemian—and become jealous if his wife has several men friends. 'Finally he must be an American, own good horses or an automobile, and have enough money to continue my art work without interruption.' Some time ago an admirer of Miss Deene entered her photograph in a beauty contest. It won a prize and since then the possessor of the pretty face has been deluged with offers of marriage."

BORN--AN IDEA

ABOUT THE RAREST THING THAT EVER HAPPENS IN THE OLD WORLD OF OURS IS THE BIRTH OF A NEW IDEA, AND THE FORTUNATE POSSESSOR OF A FINE LARGE ONE IS WORTH MORE TO HIMSELF AND MORE TO THE WORLD THAN THE SANTA FE RAILROAD.

PSYCHOLOGISTS, WHO MAKE A BUSINESS OF SORTING OUT IDEAS AND SPYING INTO THE WAYS THEY ARE BORN, SAY THAT AFTER YOU PASS THE AGE OF ABOUT TWENTY, YOUR IDEA-BEARING DAYS ARE ETERNALLY OVER. IF YOU ARE STILL ON THE TENDER SIDE OF THIS AGE--AND ARE WISE--YOU MAY WISH TO READ THIS STATEMENT AGAIN.

NOW THE ALBUQUERQUE CITIZEN CARRIES IDEAS IN STOCK, WHERE THEY CAME FROM AND WHO THEIR PARENTS ARE, IS NEITHER HERE NOR THERE, SOME OF THEM RUN ALONG THE LINES OF BUSINESS BUILDING AND TRADE GETTING. THESE IDEAS WILL BE SOLD, LEASED OR RENTED TO THE PUBLIC, FOR CASH OR ON THE INSTALLMENT PLAN.

THEY KEEP A YOUNG FELLOW AROUND THE OFFICE, AND PAY HIM EVERY WEEK TO DO NOTHING BUT LOOK AFTER THE ADVERTISING. THERE IS NOTHING HE LIKES BETTER THAN TO HAVE SOME ONE COME IN AND SAY: "HERE I WANT TO SPEND $50.00 EVERY MONTH IN ADVERTISING. I WISH YOU WOULD TAKE THE WHOLE THING OFF MY HANDS, AND RUN IT AS YOU THINK BEST. I HAVE OTHER MATTERS TO CARE FOR, AND YOU PROBABLY KNOW MORE ABOUT IT THAN I, ANYWAY."

A NUMBER OF ALBUQUERQUE BUSINESS MEN HAVE ALREADY MADE SUCH ARRANGEMENTS--MORE ARE DOING IT EVERY DAY. ONE WISE MERCHANT, WHO ATTEMPTS TO DRAW A LINE DIVIDING THE PATRONAGE HE RECEIVES FROM ADVERTISING, FROM THAT COMING THROUGH OTHER CHANNELS, INFORMED US ONLY YESTERDAY THAT HIS ADVERTISEMENT IN THE ALBUQUERQUE CITIZEN DURING THE TWO MONTHS IT HAS RUN, HAS NETTED HIM SUFFICIENT TO PAY FOR THE ADVERTISEMENT FOR SIX MONTHS. ANY ADVERTISEMENT THAT PAYS FOR ITSELF IN DIRECT IMMEDIATE RETURNS, IS A GOOD INVESTMENT, BECAUSE YOU GET YOUR MONEY BACK, AND THE EXTENDED PUBLICITY TO BOOT. BUT WHEN RESULTS ARE SUCH AS THIS MAN EXPERIENCED, YOU ARE GETTING LITTLE LESS THAN A GOLD MINE.

THE FIRST MAN IN THE ADVERTISING FIELD REAPS THE FINEST OF THE WHEAT, THE LATE-COMERS GLEAN THE STUBBLES. DUKE, THE TOBACCO KING, IN CONVERSATION WITH THE WRITER ONCE SAID: "I BEGAN LIFE ON A STONE PATCH, WITH A WIFE, A BLIND MULE AND TEN DOLLARS. I AM NOW WORTH THIRTY TWO MILLION DOLLARS, BUT I HAVE SPENT FORTY MILLION IN ADVERTISING." PROBABLY NO MAN IN ALBUQUERQUE HAS HAD A MORE MODEST BEGINNING THAN MR. DUKE, AND THERE IS NO REASON WHY ANY MAN WITH EQUAL BUSINESS ABILITY AND POSSESSION OF THE SAME BUSINESS FORESIGHT, SHOULD NOT SUCCEED AS WELL. IF THERE IS, STATE IT TO YOURSELF, AND BE CONSOLATED. IT IS AN OLD SAW, BUT A KEEN CUTTER, THAT SAYS: "IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE."

THEY SAY NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS.
I SUPPOSE THIS IS TRUE. BUT IN ORDER TO HAVE SOME SUCCESS WITH WHICH TO SUCCEED IT IS NECESSARY TO HAVE SOME OTHER THINGS. ONE OF THESE IS BRAINS, AND ANOTHER IS SOME MONEY. WE DO NOT FURNISH BRAINS IN SETS, BUT A PERUSAL OF OUR COLUMNS WILL SHINE UP THE ONES YOU HAVE, AND AN ADVERTISEMENT IN THE EVENING CITIZEN WILL GO A LONG WAY TOWARDS SUPPLYING THE DINERO.

She Didn't Holler

The Citizen believes that Judge has actually found a "new one." This being so rare an event, it ought to receive all possible publicity. At all events, new or old, the story is a good one, and Judge deserves full credit. "Colonel W. P. Thorne, the present lieutenant governor of Kentucky, is one of the best campaigners and story tellers to be found in Kentucky. One of the best he told in the recent campaign runs as follows:

"It was just after W. O. Bradley was elected governor of Kentucky, in 1905, and the republicans in my county were holding a big ratification meeting. Brass bands, all kinds of floats and banners and hundreds of men and women and boys had been parading the streets. A young girl claimed that, while standing on her front porch, which was almost covered by vines and foliage of different kinds, she was repeatedly hugged and kissed by a young man whom she hardly knew. A warrant was sworn out for her arrest. He was arrested, and it was my duty as commonwealth's attorney to prosecute him. John Carroll, who is at present a judge of the Kentucky court of appeals, had been employed to defend him. I soon finished my examination of the witness and turned her over to Carroll for cross examination.

"What night was this?" thundered Carroll.
"Thursday night," answered the witness.
"Thursday night, you say? What time of night?"
"About 8 o'clock."
"That was about the time the parade was passing your house?"
"Yes, sir; the parade was just passing my house."
"Streets full of people?"
"Yes, sir; the streets were full of people."
"Did you cry out or scream?"
"No, sir; I did not."
"Will you please tell this jury," asked Carroll with rising voice, "with the streets thronged with people and this man hugging and kissing you against your will, as you claim, why you never uttered a single cry for help or assistance?"
"Yes, sir. I will tell the jury, and everybody else, that you'll never catch me hollerin' at no republican gatherin'!"

Henry Clews on "Volubility"

Henry Clews, the New York financier, when the Roosevelt policy was lately under discussion, deprecated the president's "volubility."
"The president," he said, "has probably been a little too outspoken at a time when silence would have been golden. There are periods when the least said is the soonest mended."
The joke of this is that it was Clews who said it.
The memory of the metropolitan reporter runs not to the time when Clews was not bursting with an interview. He talks in season and out of season. If ever a New York newspaper man wants a Wall street interview and is failed by the shining lights, he has only to fall back upon Clews. Generally, however, he runs when he sees Clews coming. There are interviews and interviews. Some the city editor wants; of others he says, "Here, Jimmie, throw this in the waste-paper basket, and write me a story about a real good dog fight."
The president has been voluble. But it was the kind of volubility that the country needed.
Clews was only speaking for Wall street, and Wall street is only trying to conceal its own weakness. The country doesn't care a fig for Wall street one way or the other.

Mining Reporter: The rise of a couple of cents in the price of copper means to indicate that better prices are in sight. New Mexico has not felt the low price of copper near as much as the rest of the copper producing states for the reason that the greater portion of the work in New Mexico was only in the development stage, and had not become producers, consequently, except where the improvements were dependent on popular subscription for money to work with, the work has mostly continued, but the camps around Silver City, which were producing copper, have mostly curtailed the expenses by cutting down the force of men or by closing down entirely. If copper goes up a couple of more cents we look for all the camps in New Mexico to resume work.

Western Liberal: The Liberal is glad to learn that W. B. Walton, of Silver City, is fast recovering from his attack of typhoid fever. As is often the case with patients suffering from this disease, Mr. Walton was at one time delirious. Last week, when in this delirium he wrote a three column article for his paper, the Independent, showing that all the counties of the territory, except Socorro and Valencia, would go democratic at the next election and that a democratic delegate would be elected by a majority of several thousand.

A New York tailor dropped dead the other day upon being informed that he had inherited $10,000. If people would train themselves to expect such little windfalls, they would not be overcome by surprise when the news arrives.

An Indiana girl worth $100,000 has announced that she has no intention of marrying. She has probably concluded that she has too much money to be happy with a poor workman, and not enough to purchase a foreign count.

The El Paso Boosters met with a frost at Deming, according to the Herald, which says: "They have come and gone and we are still here intact." Brotherly love is apparently just a little "shy" in Deming.

A Virginia man who shot himself in the head is still living and will probably recover. It will be some time, however, before he knows whether or not to be proud of the kind of brains he is carrying around.

The city marshal of Las Vegas was found guilty of assault and battery on the person of a citizen. This is encouraging—it is not often a Las Vegas policeman has even that much energy.

Now a prominent physician gets into the limelight with the assertion that whisky is neither a food nor a stimulant. Still, he will have to admit that it is splendid nose paint.

A Chicago doctor declares that lay men are really sick. Now there may be a little less grumbling among the women who take in washing to support their husbands.

A Kansas City man reports that he was held up by a highwayman and robbed of a bottle of beer, a dash of whisky, and a gold watch. He was evidently figuring on having all kinds of a time.

When "Fighting" Bob Evans gets into Pacific waters people on the coast will doubtless have an opportunity of hearing some new expressions in the English language.

The news that a string of women's clubs is to be started on the isthmus of Panama is evidence that something besides dirt is flying in that locality.

The man who reads only the news in his home paper don't know half of what is going on. He should read the advertisements.

It's about time for reports to be coming in of fool hunters who crawl through a fence and draw their guns after them.

The big smelter at Orogrande has been blown in, and now the town is celebrating with a big blow out.

Independent cracker manufacturers are contemplating a $330,000 combine. What will "Polly" say to this?

LOOKING FOR A GOOD TIME?

There are about as many conceptions as to what constitutes a "good time" as there are individuals, but there is one place in New Mexico, not very far from Albuquerque, where 99 out of every 100 people find what they are looking for. That place is the Valley Ranch, at Pecos, New Mexico. Fresh country produce in abundance, horses to ride or drive, dogs, guns, traps, tackle, all at your disposal. The finest hunting and fishing in the territory. You can live in a house, a cabin or a tent, and come and go as you please. You'll find plenty of company there, agreeable and refined, if you are sociably inclined, a favorite resort for ladies. Conditions ideal for recuperating, reading, hunting or loafing. You CAN'T SPEND MORE THAN NINE DOLLARS A WEEK ANY WAY YOU FIX IT. Inquire at The Citizen Office for further particulars, or address The Valley Ranch.

The trial of the case of Joseph Schmitt vs. the Southwestern Brewery and Ice company, now being conducted at the court house, promises to be a long drawn out proceeding. The suit is an action for $25,000 damages for injuries alleged to have been sustained to the plaintiff when he worked at the brewery and was scalded as the result of a defective mash cooker.

C. Schermerhorn, of Los Angeles, has been appointed the territorial manager of the Universal Order of Foresters to succeed Dr. McLaughlin, resigned. Mr. Schermerhorn gave a banquet to the local lodge at the banquet hall of the Elks last Thursday night which was well attended. Prof. Frank J. Emmett and Mme. Adams, the celebrated mediums and clairvoyants, will give another seance in the I. O. O. F. hall, 319 1/2 South Second street, tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. The one given last Sunday night was a success in every sense of the word. Messages and business communications from spirit friends were transmitted through Prof. Emmett, who is himself had no natural understanding either of the questions asked or the replies given. Many other demonstrations were given that were also interesting and inexplicable. Door collection 25 cents.

At the town hall of Old Albuquerque next Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock there will be an educational rally, at which all the school teachers of the county, together with their friends, the parents or pupils and all interested in the school work, are invited to attend. The principal speaker for the occasion will be Hiram Hadley, ex-superintendent of public instruction, and there will be others who will address the assembly both in English and Spanish. Possibly the present superintendent, Clark, of the territorial public instruction, will be present to speak.

THE CUB'S CORNER

The price of bon bons has gone up again. Even the preliminaries to housekeeping are to cost more.

In the meantime Albuquerque is putting in a few flicks repairing its reputation for "andlers sunshine."

The time when you could answer inquiries about Albuquerque with a stereotyped letter is past. Nowadays the P. O. soon becomes longer than the original.

Look Out. The deer season has closed. And peace reigns the open range. But the season for dears has just begun. And Cupid is getting your range.

Financiers have decided that the country's cash is not properly distributed per capita. Now, why didn't a lot of us who have been helping to keep the average down tell Wall street about it before—we all knew it.

Not the Worst. "Dear, what's that noise?" she cried. Said he "It's burglars in the house." "Oh, I am so relieved," she sighed, "I was just sure it was a mouse." THE CUB.

Albuquerque is a Good Place to Live In.

It may go hard with papa to be deprived of his Sunday cigars and newspapers, but after all you'll receive just a little note of pride in his voice even when he's kicking the hardest on the Sunday law. Down the street he knows he's glad of it; he's glad to send his children off to Sunday school through quiet, clean streets; he's glad his boy's idle hours on Sunday aren't filled with the temptations of pool rooms and slot machines; he likes to send the newspaper clippings back east; when he goes away he brags about Albuquerque being the cleanest city in the southwest; he's a little proud of himself and his town when Sunday tourists look askance at the sealed lid—he knows they will always remember Albuquerque as a city with the moral stamina that means wholesome municipal strength; he knows people will seek homes here in preference to a "wide open" town. Papa may kick like a mule, maybe he would pry the lid up just a little if he could, but he wouldn't let it off. Papa may be a little selfish, but he is not short sighted.

"ARIZONA" NOVEMBER 15TH

"I saw a funny thing last night," said Tom Johnson of Kansas City. "I went to see 'Arizona' and set next to a party from East Orange, led by a gentleman with multifarious whiskers. Underneath the setting forth of the cast in the program was the usual synopsis of the scenes, and the last line read, 'Act IV same as Act I.' When the curtain fell on the third act, Mr. Whiskers picked up his hat and umbrella and said to Mrs. Whiskers, 'Come along, Maria, we can catch that 10:30 train if we hurry. The program says, last act is same as the first, and I don't see no use waiting to look at it over again.' And they, marveling at his cleverness, hustled off with him Jerseyward." Arizona will be at the Elks opera house next Friday evening.

DEFICIT OF $2,000 MAY BE REDUCED TO
$1,500

Full Report Will Not be Published Until All Matter Is Cleaned Up.

The adoption of a resolution to the effect that the delinquent subscribers of the late territorial fair should liquidate immediately, and the appointment of a committee of three to confer with the irrigation congress committee, which was appointed at a recent mass meeting, was all that resulted from last night's meeting of the executive board of the twenty-seventh territorial fair association.

On ascertaining that the late fair would have a deficit of any where between $1,500 and $2,150, the meeting adjourned to meet again at the call of the president. There were no remarks of censure on the part of any of the committee against the officers of the fair because they had failed to make both ends meet and there were no excuses offered by the officers. It was a genial, pleasant meeting, each one present showing a disposition to make the best of the situation and get rid of it.

The Citizen yesterday announced that the deficit would be close to the $2,000 mark and the committee men went to the meeting prepared for the worst, which, however, is not near as bad as it might have been.

President Weinmann called the meeting to order and Secretary Stamm jumped right in to the business in hand by reading a short synopsis of his report. The principal credits and debits and the receipts of the various departments were read. Also, several of the names of the delinquent subscribers and the departments of the fair that had failed to make good. The "Fighting the Flames" attraction, although a good advertising medium, had failed to be a money producer. The Montezuma ball was another money losing proposition, but that was to be expected. Montezuma balls have always been losing propositions, the losses varying from $58 to $650.

Among the assets of the association are several rebates and advertising bills yet to be collected and Blonkin's balloon. The balloon was a losing proposition to the association, according to Secretary Stamm, to the extent of $1,000, but the association still has the balloon and the secretary thought that the association could realize at least $500 on it. With the collection of delinquent subscriptions and by disposing of the balloon at its worth, the association might get out with a deficit of $1,200 or something near that.

The secretary's report in full will be published as soon as the association knows "where it is at" for sure. In the meantime Manager Hubbs and Secretary Stamm will endeavor to sell the balloon and collect the delinquent subscriptions.

WEEK END NOTES FROM THE NEW MEXICO UNIVERSITY

Editorial Staff for Annual is Named—President Tight In Washington.

The monthly morning assembly was conducted by Prof. Angeli, head of the department of physics. He gave a most interesting discussion on the subject of "Radio-Active Substances." This is one of the youngest of all sciences and as yet there has been but little data collected on the subject. Prof. Angeli, however, presented the subject in a manner that made it very attractive. He explained clearly the properties of thorium, radium and kindred substances.

On Monday a meeting of the student body was held and the staff for the Mirage, the yearbook annual, was elected. Mr. Abright was made editor-in-chief, and Hugh Bryan, business manager. Both of these men have been associated with the publication of the Mirage for the past two years, and the annual for this year will doubtless be the most creditable issue yet gotten out.

President Tight left on Thursday evening for Washington, D. C., where he expects to attend the meeting of presidents of state universities which meets there November 18 to 20. Dr. Tight is scheduled for an address on the subject of "Entrance Requirements."

The first year preparatory students held an important meeting on Thursday. This year's class is the largest in the history of the school. They have a strong class organization and intend to make their presence known to the older students. At the meeting of the class on Thursday plans were made to hold a class party one week from next Friday.

The young men who contested in the Dr. Chamberlin declamation contest last night, enjoyed themselves in a manner most creditable to the school. The large audience thoroughly enjoyed the program.

HE PAID LOAN AFTER 16 YEARS

Billy Levels Dropped Off Santa Fe Train and Called on Old Friend to Hand Him $25—Dr. Macbeth Didn't Fail

Sixteen years ago Billy Levels, an iron moulder, borrowed twenty-five dollars from Dr. W. N. Macbeth, proprietor of the Booster Cigar store, with which to pay his expenses in leaving Albuquerque for a new position.

Last evening, as Levels was entering Albuquerque on an eastbound train he picked up a copy of The Citizen and saw the name of Dr. Macbeth in its news columns.

When the train stopped at the station, he awoke from the steps and remained over night in this city, during the evening, he inquired for Dr. Macbeth, learned that he was conducting a cigar store and he visited his old friend.

He walked into the little store, then twenty-five dollars down on the show case and said:

"Much obliged Doc—I would have paid it before but lost track of you." Dr. Macbeth studied a minute and then he recognized his old friend of sixteen years ago and remembered the loan he had made him.

Levels left on the next outgoing train and did not meet many of his old friends.

"I only wanted to repay you that loan," he said to Dr. Macbeth, "and that was why I stopped off. I saw your name in The Citizen and it reminded me that I still owed you twenty-five dollars. Gee, how old Albuquerque has grown since I was here last—don't seem like the same old place."

Dr. Macbeth said that since leaving Albuquerque Levels had spent a number of years in the northwest and had met with considerable success in business. He was well dressed and appeared to have plenty of money. Levels was well known here sixteen years ago.

$10 MORE A MONTH FOR ALL SCHOOL HOUSE JANITORS

Board Pays E. V. Chaves $2.800 for Four Lots in Fourth Ward.

Janitors of the Central school and the four ward schools came in for a handsome raise in salary at the special meeting of the city board of education at O. N. Marron's office yesterday afternoon. It was voted to $10 a month and hereafter to pay the janitors twelve months a year. Hereafter they have not been paid during vacation.

The four ward janitors have been paid $50 a month and the Central school janitor $60. The increase in salaries brings the pay of some of the janitors to an equal with the salaries of some of the teachers employed in the city schools.

The board authorized the purchase of four lots adjoining the fourth ward building from E. V. Chaves for $2,800. It is probable that the board will soon be called upon to either enlarge the fourth ward school or erect a new building on the lots. If the fourth ward school is enlarged the lots will be used as a playground.

Superintendent W. D. Sterling classifies three children to the fourth ward to one child in any other ward in the city, and the school population of the ward is constantly increasing. There is one overflow school in the ward now.

W. H. Hahn & Co. were awarded the contract to furnish anthracite coal to the city schools this year. Those present at the meeting of the board were President R. W. Hopkins, Geo. R. Craig, E. H. Strong, C. O. Young, E. L. Washburn and Supt. W. D. Sterling.

MESSAGE TO END THIRD TERM PROBLEM

Whether Roosevelt Will Make Definite Announcement Is the Question.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Within a month the Sixtieth congress will convene. The president will present his message, some parts of which can be predicted with confidence and some possible phases which are now ground for speculation in Washington and elsewhere. The one great absorbing bone of contention in this regard is whether the message will or will not contain some definite declaration concerning the third term. The president's office of the state and at least three United States senators, the speaker of the house, and at least three cabinet officers will be more interested in some declaration along this line than anything else the president might say. Congress and the country are already clamoring for some unequivocal announcement on this matter. Will the president clarify the political atmosphere by some such statement?

In the house John Sharp Williams will again lead the democratic minority. At the end of this congress he will retire to spend two years in travel and study abroad, returning to Washington to take his seat in the senate as the successor of Senator Money. There has been some slight opposition to Williams in the house but it has never really endangered his leadership. The minority leader has the gift of sarcasm, and its use by him in the repartee of debate has sometimes left something rankling in the hearts of his opponents. But both his supporters and opponents frankly admit that with his departure the house will lose one of its most brilliant and picturesque personalities.

Cannon for Speaker.
Uncle Joe Cannon will succeed himself as speaker without opposition. The statehood fight, it is true, caused some friction, and the attitude of Mr. Cannon against the Philippine tariff and some other administration measures resulted in some vexation on the part of the more rabid of the president's partisans. But inasmuch as the stand-pat element in the republican party overwhelmingly predominates the house Uncle Joe has nothing to fear. In fact the only contest that is liable to occur in either the majority or the minority house organization is a little skirmish among the Ohio republicans for the office of postmaster of the house, an office apportioned to Ohio under the old "hog combine."

In the senate Mr. Frye of Maine again will be chosen the president pro tempore, an office of doubtful value when one considers the constant and punctual attendance of the vice president. Assuming that the Rhode Island legislature elects a successor to Mr. Westcott in the senate, when it convenes, will consist of sixty-one republicans and thirty-one democrats. Oklahoma will probably be a state before congress assembles, and although the Oklahoma legislature does not meet till next January Mr. Gore and Mr. Owen, the primary nominees, will be appointed by the democratic governor immediately upon the assumption of his gubernatorial duties, following the president's proclamation. When the legislature meets Messrs. Gore and Owen will be regularly elected. Including Senators Curtis of Kansas, Smith of Michigan, and Dupont of Delaware, who took their seats filling vacancies late in the last session of congress, there will be eighteen new men in the upper chamber of congress.

MORE FURNACES ROUND ROBIN IS FIRE-BUG BURNS OPERATED IN A TROUBLE THE WALKER GLOBE MAKER HALL

Outlook Is Brighter Than Usual In the Copper Mining Community.

Army Officers Who Signed One Are Given a Severe Reprimand.

Citizens of That Place Are In Arms Looking For Dynamiter.

Globe, Ariz., Nov. 9.—During the month of October the Old Dominion smelter turned out slightly over 4,000,000 pounds of blister copper, the record for the smelter and the record monthly production of the Globe district. The first half of the month all of the battery of five furnaces were in commission, but when orders were received from the east to curtail production, one furnace was discontinued and subsequently another was placed out of commission leaving three furnaces at work. It is understood that Superintendent Hegardt has received orders to run only two furnaces beginning November 1, but when he received word to make the reduction in wages he wired to Boston for permission to continue with three furnaces. Yesterday he received a telegraphic answer, granting his request.

More Mining Necessary.
To keep three furnaces in operation, more mining will be required than can be done in five days, and taking for granted that the instructions to operate three furnaces implied a six-day week in the mines, Superintendent Hegardt announced that beginning next Saturday the six-day week would be resumed. In an interview last night Mr. Hegardt stated that although his action was not directly authorized, he was certain it would be endorsed by the management of the company. Asked as to whether the full seven-day week would be resumed in view of the increasing price of copper and the fact that the large surplus was being rapidly consumed, he stated that he had no knowledge of what the management intended doing, but that there was a possibility that the seven-day week would be resumed shortly.

Accept Scale.
The members of Globe Miners' union held a special meeting last night to consider the posted reduction of wages. While no official information was given out, it is understood that the miners agreed to accept the reduction of 50 cents per day, providing a six-day week was inaugurated. There was some opposition to this. It was held that under the posted notice the same conditions were to exist as prior to November 7, 1906, when a seven-day week and $3.50 per day prevailed. After thorough discussion and with the assurance that the six-day week would be given almost immediately, with prospects for the early return of the seven-day week, the majority voted to accept the new scale and the six-day week.

DINNER AND DUTCH LUNCH.
The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church will give a dinner at noon, and a dutch lunch in the evening, from 5 to 8 o'clock, Friday, Nov. 22, in the parlors of the Presbyterian church. Everybody invited.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 9.—Thirty-seven officers of the Ninth cavalry, who signed a "round robin" in behalf of their colonel, Edgar B. Robertson, hoping to prevent his involuntary retirement, were severely reprimanded by order of President Roosevelt today.

The officers of the Ninth, it is said here, were made an example of, in view of a "wave of insubordination" which, according to war department officials, is spreading among the officers everywhere. The "round robin" habits appears to have broken forth with unprecedented vigor. It has been used in behalf of officers in special cases and for expressing army opinion for or against legislation. The officers of the Ninth signed a statement in praise of Colonel Robertson and arguing against his retirement although they knew he had been summoned before the retiring board on grounds of physical disability. Accordingly a letter has been drawn up and sent today to each of the thirty-seven signers. It conveys a severe reprimand.

A Flagrant Case, the Letter Says.
Colonel McCain, adjutant general, in whose name the letter goes out, describes the offense of the officers as a most flagrant violation of the paragraph of the article on discipline in the army. The letter, which has been ordered marked up against the record of each of the officers, probably will be published in the orders in the next few days as a warning to the entire service. It is directed to Lieutenant Colonel Charles W. Butler, who temporarily succeeded Colonel Robertson in command of the Ninth. The conduct of the officers signing the "round robin" is officially pronounced to be a departure from military propriety, approaching open insubordination and "calls for the strongest possible disapprobation." Colonel Butler is directed to lay the letter before each officer, who signed the paper.

Trouble a Few Days Ago, Too.
This is the second step taken within a week to punish officers for like offenses. Officers of the Twentieth infantry, who sent a "round robin" opposing the new army pay bill, which is advocated by the department, were promptly reprimanded.

LINGERING COLD.
Withstood Other Treatment But Quickly Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks," says J. Uquhart, of Zephyr, Ontario. "My cough was very dry and harsh. The local dealer recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial. One small bottle of it cured me. I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Prescott, Ariz., Nov. 9.—Yesterday morning, a few minutes before 2 o'clock, the Walker hall, in Walker, burned to the ground. The loss is estimated at $1,700, partially covered by $800 insurance.

The property belonged to A. D. Barnhart of this city, who left here a short time ago, to attend the funeral of his father, who died recently. He gave the alarm at once and almost the entire population of Walker rushed to the place and made every effort to stay the progress of the flames, which had already gained great headway. The fire rapidly spread, in spite of the efforts of the assembled populace, until the entire building was a total loss.

Citizens of Walker were wrought to a high pitch of indignation over the outrage. They are all, without exception, of the opinion that it was the work of an incendiary. The fact that several explosions were heard in the building during the progress of the fire after it was first discovered, leads them to believe that the perpetrator of the crime, in addition to setting the building on fire, used dynamite to make the destruction of the building certain.

The hall has been the meeting place of the people of Walker for many years. It was used by the Walker Miners' Union as a meeting place during the prosperous days of the camp, and on its polished floors the youth, beauty and old age of the place spent many enjoyable hours, tripping the light fantastic.

RICH WOMAN'S
NEGRO

Had All Kinds of Diamonds,
Several Trunks and Much Cash.

Trinidad, Colo., Nov. 9.—Lying in a drunken stupor by the side of a negro, a mysterious white woman with her fingers covered with diamonds and with plenty of cash and a clearing house certificate for $700, was picked up last night in the Santa Fe depot and taken to the city jail, where she was held until this morning. She gave her name as Grace Grooms and refused to tell where she was from, but the clearing house certificate was issued in Denver. She had seven trunks, which were checked through to Raton, and she had the check slips for these in her possession. When asked why she was traveling with a negro she said that he was merely looking after her baggage, but the attitude in which she and the negro were found by the police indicated that they were traveling together as companions.

Aside from having several thousand dollars' worth of diamonds, seven trunks and the clearing house certificate, the woman had considerable money on her person, but this fact was not known until she went down into her stoking at police headquarters for some small change. The negro made his getaway this morning instructed to leave town and never return. After her release she telegraphed to Raton giving instructions that her trunks be sent to Kansas City.

The name of Grace Grooms does not appear in the city directory of Denver, nor do the authorities at the Denver banks have any knowledge of recollection of any such woman.

KIDS PUT ONE OVER
ON HERE-TO-FORE VIC-
TORIOUS MINORS

Score 15 to 12. Elliott Played the Game for the Juveniles.

In a close, scrappy game, in which fifteen fouls were marked up against the Minors, the Kids captured the first game of the championship series at Colorado hall last night by a score of 15 to 12, thereby dealing the Minors their first defeat they have suffered in three years.

Referee Lee called foul after foul on the Minors in the first half for holding and it was on the fouls that Elliott made eight consecutive goals in this half. He scored one goal from field in this half bringing the Kids points up to 10.

The Minors lacked snap and ginger when the game opened but after the Kids had gained quite a lead the old champs got together and by fast playing made seven points before the whistle sounded for time. At the opening of the second half they soon tied the score and it looked for a time as if they would hold the Kids.

Elliott missed two chances to goal on fouls but a few minutes later Benjamin shot the ball into the basket from the field and the Kids were again in the lead. Elliott scored on a foul and Lemke made a goal from field.

Myers and Strumquist did effective work for the Minors and Belger made a pretty goal from field in the last half. A dance followed the game.

The line-up and summary:
Minors—Bearup, guard; Myers, guard; Anderson (captain), center; Belger, forward; Strumquist, forward.

Kids—Benjamin (captain), forward; McMillen, forward; Elliott, center; Bronson, guard; Lemke, guard.

Score—Kids, 15; Minors, 12. Goals—Elliott, Benjamin, Lemke, Strumquist, Belger, Myers, Fouls—Minors, 15; Kids, 11. Referee, Lee. Umpire, Tischer.

One man, alive and dreaming that he was falling in a creek, and four others believing that they were jumping in after him, was a feature of the performance of the Griffiths at the Elks' opera house last night.

The hypnotist caused his entire class to believe that they were fishing, one of them got into the water, foot lights and toppled over into the orchestra pit. Four other subjects saw the man fall and dove head first into the imaginary stream after him. Strange to say all escaped from the fall on the floor below without injury.

The Griffiths are giving a matinee this afternoon and will close their engagement at the Elks' tonight.

LOCATED IN ALBUQUERQUE 27 YEARS AGO

Thomas F. Keleher, the well known Central avenue wool and hide merchant, yesterday celebrated the 27th anniversary of his coming to Albuquerque. He has lived continuously in this city for twenty-seven years.

Mr. Keleher first came to Old Albuquerque over thirty years ago with an ox train over the old Santa Fe trail from Fort Leavenworth, Kan. Then it took as many months to make the trip as it does days now. After several months stay in Old Albuquerque he returned to Kansas and traveled through the western part of the Sunflower state buying buffalo hides. He then again crossed the plains and settled in Old Albuquerque and lived there until the arrival of the railroad, when he moved to the new town.

Mr. Keleher is well versed in early Albuquerque lore and when in a reminiscent mood can tell many stories of the early days of Albuquerque and the west.

Bring your job work. Prices the very lowest and the work will stand inspection anywhere. Business and calling cards a specialty.

CONTRACTION OF THE FOOT.

Contraction of the foot is generally caused by navel disease, founder, corns, etc. Any chronic lameness will induce contraction of the foot, because the horse will favor the lame foot which retards the growth. Sometimes contraction is caused by shoeing or allowing the shoes to remain on too long. "International Honey-Tar Foot Remedy" will cure contraction if used as directed on the label. The use of this remedy will prevent contraction by keeping the foot healthy and in good growing condition.
