ALLIES ANNOUNCE TERMS TURKEY MUST MEET TO END WAR

Immediate Surrender of Scutari, Adrianople and Janina Among Principal Demands Insisted Upon.

SULTAN MUST GIVE UP VAST TERRITORY

Shall Cede to Greece Aegean Islands, Including Rhodes and Eleven Others Held Now by Italy; Indemnity Asked.

(By Morning Journal Special Lensed Wire.)
London, Dec. 14.—On the eve of the peace conference the Associated Press has gathered from the representatives of the Balkan kingdoms and the foremost Turkish delegate an authoritative declaration of the terms which the victorious kingdoms propose to American citizens, are in the ranks at the front giving proofs of valor and bravery, of which Uncle Sam should be as proud as we are."

"The Turks are much mistaken," said one of the chief delegates, "if they entertain such an idea. Peace will practically be concluded between Christmas and New Year's around the diplomatic table in St. James palace, or we will finish it in Constantinople."

The main conditions of the allies include the immediate surrender of Scotland, Adrianople and Janina, the garriens of which will be granted full military honors; the evacuation of eastern Europe by Turkey, as far east as Tchatalja to a line which experts appointed by the contracting parties will delimit on the spot; the cession to Greece of all the Aegean islands, including Rhodes and eleven others, which Italy is keeping as a pledge for Turkish fulfillment of the treaty of Lausanne; the annexation of Crete to Greece and the payment of a war indemnity and the expenses sustained, on account of the Ottoman prisoners. In return the allies will grant complete amnesty to the Mussulman population in the territories they annex, for any acts of hostility during the war; the return of all prisoners; the recognition of the spiritual sovereignty of the sultan over Ottomans becoming subjects of the Balkan states and the free administration by the Mussulmans of their pious funds in the Balkans.

The Serbian ex-premier, Stojan Ninkovic, head of the Serbian plenipotentiaries, informed the Associated Press that he was satisfied an agreement would be reached on the question of an Adriatic port, on which Serbia and Austria are at sword's points.

Rechid Pasha, the most distinguished Ottoman delegate who has resided so long abroad that he is a type of the intelligent cosmopolitan, expressed he hope that with the assistance of the powers on the one side and moderation on the part of the allies on the other, the conference would result in a solution, which if not satisfactory to Turkey, would safeguard her liberty. He feared the apparent bar-mony of the allies will last only while the common enemy is before them, but the moment they are left to themselves they will be plunged into anarchy over the division of the spoils, rendering intervention by the powers necessary.

He said he would have to raise the question at the first meeting of the cabinet of Greece to join the armistice. "Is it possible," he asked, "to treat for peace while war is in progress?" "Some understanding would be reached," he said, "which might be annulled by he progress of the military operations. What would be the use of a discussion about Janina, if, while the discussion is going on, it would be agreed to capitulate? Or about Sarniki, if it were recaptured by the on the question of the armistice, asserted that peace between Italy and Turkey went through several months of negotiations and was finally concluded without any previous armistice.

To this, Reisch Pasha retorted that the situation with respect to Italy was quite different, because the negotiations were unofficial and the continuation of the war could never affect the positions of the two belligerents, as it may in the case of Turkey and Greece.

In diplomatic circles, it is believed that after some skirmishing on this question, a middle course may be found on the lines that Greece, although not adhering to the armistice, will promise to suspend war operations during the conference and that Turkey shall do the same.

The outlook, with respect to the conference of ambassadors, tonight is optimistic. The chances of an agreement on autonomy for Albania, under the protection of the powers, are regarded as favorable, the expression used being:

"Albania must not become the Schleswig-Holstein of the Balkans, but the Belgium of the Balkans."

showing down impulses of securing respect for the rights of every man and every section of the people. Such services would seem to you much more wonderful if it were not that you are so familiar with them. Look at other popular governments and see how much they have suffered from the want of similar safeguards, if you wish fully to realize what your constitution, federal and state, have done for you.

"Every government in which popular sovereignty is recognized needs to be in some way or other attended."

"With you, where class counts for so much less than it does in Europe and where traditions have not so much power, there have been many moments when things would have gone badly had it not been for the respect you have all formed for the constitution. In particular, you have shown the world how it is possible to reconcile national unity with the existence of local self government in larger and smaller communities over the immense spaces of a continent, a problem which a century and a half ago, every one would have thought insoluble. Thus has the constitution of the United States become, by the example of its working and the help of force which now surrounds it, one of the vitalizing forces of the world. Nature's Own Remedy for Tuberculosis

A. J. Nunnemaker, professor of anatomy in Cincinnati (Ohio) College, who was suffering from severe hemorrhages when he began taking NATURE'S CREATION, says in a statement to the public on October 18, 1910: "I commenced improving while taking the first bottle of the medicine and am now back to my normal physical condition."

In a letter to W. P. Stevens, 27 West 3rd ave., Denver, on October 21, 1912, he says: "The testimonial as stated is true and was written by myself personally to help those who have the disease. However, medicine is not all, with it you must have good fresh air all the time and plenty of rest—exercise is not good as a treatment. Combining some and instructive facts about tuberculosis and kindred diseases are told in Nature's Creation new booklet, 'Positive Facts,' which will be sent free to any person. Write today."

MEXICAN CONGRESS TRIALS SQUADRON LEAVES ENDS VALUELESS COST BIG SUM VERA CRUZ FOR SESSION TO COUNTY HOME PORTS

Few Measures Are Passed, Most of Them for Floating Loans to Pay Expenses Incurred by Two Revolutions.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)

Mexico City, Dec. 14.—With a record of few more than one dozen measures enacted and about still pending, the first congress elected under the Madero administration, which was expected to carry out many revolutionary promises, closed its three-month session tonight.

The more important bills passed include authorization for a 20,000,000 pesos ($10,000,000) loan as yet unissued, and authorization for a 40,000,000 pesos bond issue. The budget also was approved, providing for an increase of 13,000,000 pesos. The 40,000,000 pesos bond issue is for the purpose of railroad subsidies and other public works and for the payment of the public debt in connection with the revolution of 1910.

Congress also made a number of appropriations of the account of war expenses. One of the deputies declared in the chamber that including 8,000,000 pesos voted to the Diaz administration, which was still in the treasury when the Madero administration came into power, the present executive had asked for 13,500,000 pesos, which sum, with the exception of 5,000,000 pesos, was on account of the war. One of the early measures enacted provided for an increase in the salaries of the deputies to double the amount they now receive. The salaries of supreme court judges were also increased by ten pesos a day, a special taxation bill affecting textile mills was adopted, while the other measures related to pensions and contracts.

The formal adjournment of congress is scheduled to take place Sunday. The upper house today approved a treaty with China in which Mexico agrees to the payment of 3,100,000 pesos indemnity for property lost and the deaths of Chinese massacred at Torreon during the Madero revolution. The payment is to be made by February 15th next.

On account of unfinished business, it is almost certain that the president will ask the permanent commission to call a special session immediately.

ality that Kearny lost his course and was forced by lack of gasoline to come down far out at sea."

KEARNY BELIEVED HE WOULD BE FLYING

Kansas City, Dec. 14.—Realizing the hazardous nature of aviator, Horace Kearny, the aviator, soon after his first successful flight, sent a substantial sum to his mother, who lives here, to be used to pay funeral expenses in case of his death. The money is deposited in a local bank. He also made a will bequeathing his property to his mother, brother and sister. Kearny was born and reared here. His death in dropping his plane has attracted much attention and resulted in his being suspended from a firm in Chicago after he had been fined $200.

DISABILITY STATUTE REPEAL ENDORSED

Washington, Dec. 14.—Repeal of the last of the civil war "disability" statutes was endorsed by the Senate today, when an amendment offered by Senator Johnston, of Alabama, to the omnibus claims bill was adopted, repealing the section of the revised statute which prohibits the auditing of the claims of regular army officers who resigned to enter the Confederate army. There are about 150 of such claims which are generally for long pay. Among those represented are the heirs of General Robert E. Lee, Stonewall Jackson, Joseph E. Johnston, Fitzhugh Lee and Joseph B. Wheeler.

Los Angeles Figures That Expenditures Resulting from Explosion Under Times Building Are About $500,000.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)

Los Angeles, Dec. 14.—The trials of the McNamara brothers, the dynamiters, now in San Quentin penitentiary, and of Clarence Darrow, who was acquitted of having bribed a juror in the case of James B. McNamara, cost Los Angeles approximately $250,000.

The sum was estimated by other county officials that since the Los Angeles Times explosion, fully $500,000 had been expended in this county on criminal investigations growing out of that case. Part of the sum was spent by the federal grand jury, whose investigation was separate from that of the county grand jury.

The expenses in the case of Darrow, who is not yet indicted, have a second trial on a juror bribing charges, scheduled to be begun January 8. It is said that evidence obtained at the trial of the alleged dynamite conspirators at Indianapolis will be brought here for use at Darrow's second trial.

DEAD FISH CAST UP ON GULF COAST

Washington, Dec. 14.—Millions of dead fish have been cast up from the Gulf of Mexico at Tampico, Mexico, and vicinity during the past ten days, according to a report received today from American Vice-Consul Thomas H. Ryan, by Surgeon General Blue of the public health service.

Supposedly a poisonous volcanic disturbance killed the fish. The yellow fever epidemic of 1902 was preceded by similar conditions.

America Addicted to Opium Habit

Berlin, Dec. 14.—America is addicted to opium, according to Prof. H. Hueppe, of Dresden. He addressed the association for the scientific investigation of sports last evening on the subject of "Sport and Stimulants" and in his lecture enumerated the stimulants to which the various nations are addicted. Professor Hueppe holds high rank as a writer on alcoholism.

THE FIRST GRAY HAIR SIGN OF AGE

Harmless Old Fashioned Remedy Brings Back Color to Gray Hair.

A harmless remedy, made from common garden sage, quickly restores gray hair to natural color. The care of the hair, to prevent it from losing its color and lustre, is just as important as to care for teeth to keep them from discoloring. Why spend money for cosmetic and creams to improve the complexion, and yet neglect your hair, when gray hair is even more conspicuous and suggestive of age than wrinkles or a poor complexion? Of the two, it is easier to preserve the natural color and beauty of the hair than it is to have a good complexion.

All that is necessary is the occasional use of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of common garden Sage and Sulphur, combined with other valuable remedies for dry, harsh, faded hair, dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair. After a few applications of this simple, harmless remedy, your hair will gradually be restored to its natural color, in a short time the dandruff will be removed, and your hair will no longer come out but will start to grow as Nature intended it should.

Don't neglect your hair, for it goes further than anything else to make or mar your good looks. You can buy this remedy at any drug store for fifty cents a bottle, and your druggist will give you money back if you are not satisfied after using. Purchase a bottle today. You will never regret it when you realize the difference it will make in your appearance.

American Admiral and Mexican General Exchange Visits Before Ships Leave for Atlantic Coast.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)

Vera Cruz, Dec. 14.—The United States squadron, comprising the battleships Minnesota, Kansas, Michigan and South Carolina, under command of Rear Admiral Fletcher, concluded its visit here and sailed at sundown. Admiral Fletcher came ashore this afternoon and repaid the official call of General Austin Valdez, military commander of the district. The officers of the squadron enjoyed a few hours of shore leave, but owing to the limited time, this privilege was denied the men.

Visitors to Vera Cruz, both American and Mexican, many of whom came from the capital and interior towns, were keenly disappointed at not being able to go aboard the war ships, but although the weather was fine, the heavy swell made boarding difficult and dangerous.

General Valdez went out to the flagship in a Mexican launch and was drenched. He was glad to return in the admiral's launch.

The Minnesota fired eleven guns in honor of his rank as brigadier. The Minnesota and Kansas are proceeding for Philadelphia, the Michigan and South Carolina for Norfolk.

BOOK PUBLISHER IS INDICTED FOR THEFT

Boston, Dec. 14.—Herbert S. Virtue, head of Virtue & Co., book publishers, and John R. Williams, a book agent, were placed under arrest today on a secret indictment in connection with the so-called de Luxe book investigation by the grand jury. Both men are accused of being principals in the alleged swindling of Mrs. Mary L. Rogers, of Beacon street, who is said to have paid $5,500 for alleged "de Luxe" editions on November 24th, last. Virtue, who is 52 years old, is charged with conspiracy to steal in three counts, and with obtaining by false representations. Mrs. Rogers' signature to a written instrument. The police say the men sold Mrs. Rogers supposedly rare editions for which it was claimed she would later receive $150,000 when the books were resold for her to a Chinese mandarin. Williams surrendered voluntarily. Both men were released on $5,000 bail each.

ing and discussing Ibsen's "Pillars of Society," just now, and will follow it up with another of his famous plays.

The Tuesday Literary club was entertained the past week by Mrs. W. G. Hope. Mrs. M. E. Hickey led the class study, and the discussion on current events was led by Mrs. J. H. Wroth.

Miss Anne Marie Avery of El Dorado, Kan., is the guest of Mrs. John Fleming of 217 South Walter street. Miss Avery is a charming girl and is being considerably entertained. Thursday night Mrs. C. R. Roberts entertained at dinner at the Alvarado in her honor, and Mrs. Fleming will be hostess at a theater party to "Madame Sherry," Tuesday.

"Solomon in All His Glory"

A Philadelphia member of recent date has the subjoined "story" concerning a recent dinner-dance given by the Stotesburys. As the big Eastern exchanges are full of it, and the usual criticisms of the lavish expenditure of the "400" are forthcoming on account of the splendor and cost of the entertainment, I think the following will be of interest to acquaintances of Mrs. Stotesbury in this city. The list of guests, including the more prominent of the New York-Nebraska millionaires set, description of gowns and other thrilling details are omitted for lack of space. This, however, will give anyone interested a very good idea of the unparalleled brilliancy of the event:

A dinner-dance, which cost more per guest than any private affair ever held in this city was given last night by Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury in the ballroom of the Bellevue-Stratford. The affair was one of a series of entertainments costing thousands of dollars which the Stotesburys have planned for this season, the first for Mrs. Stotesbury in this city. The Stotesburys were married last January in Washington, previous to which time Mrs. Stotesbury was Mrs. Oliver Cromwell, one of the best known of this country's hostesses.

The Stotesburys had already given one large affair in the Bellevue-Stratford, at which thousands of dollars were spent for the entertainment of about one hundred guests, the affair being an after-the-opera supper on the opening of grand opera season in this city. They have planned, also, to give the first large affair in the ballroom of the new Ritz-Carlton, at which, also, a large amount of money will be spent for the entertainment of their guests.

night in feverish haste to get the ballroom in readiness.

Many novel effects in lighting and decorations were obtained by the use of specially imported apparatus, and thousands of flowers, in season and out of season, were used to beautify the ballroom.

Gentle Dances for Guests.

For the entertainment of their guests, the Stotesburys brought Ade-line Genee, the famous toe dancer, over from New York, the young woman being accompanied by her company and twenty-one pieces of baggage. Conrad's orchestra of thirty men was brought from New York also. An electric fountain played near the entrance of the ballroom, and among the exquisite flowers which were used were about 500 carnations, imported from the south. The flowers, which resemble gardenias very much, but are without the fragrant odor which goes with the gardenias, were used on bushes around the room.

For the purposes of the Stotesbury dinner and dance the ballroom of the hotel might have been a scene from fairyland. The original room except the stage, on which Miss Genee appeared. The room was banked from top to bottom on a line with the balcony, the entire floor, which was used by the house being entirely invisible. In the spaces between the pillars on the ground floor were alcoves, with parrots in cages swinging overhead. This small fountain played in the ballroom. The fountains were banked in with pink roses, which were also used in the foyer of the ballroom, where Mr. and Mrs. Stotesbury received their guests. The affair, which consisted of a daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brooks, Jr., of Baltimore, Mrs. Walter Brooks, Sr., was also one of the guests.

Mrs. Stotesbury was radiant in a gown of white satin, made rather simply and with a short train. On her head she wore her famous diamond tiara, which consists of rings of diamonds about two inches deep, placed on edge in a semicircle, and resembling very much a coronet.

Fountains, Stars, Clouds.

Two large cases of Kilmer roses stood on either side of the receiving line, and gold chairs were placed nearby for their comfort. The party stood before a large bank of cyclamen, ferns, azaleas, yellow carnations, pink and white carnations, white lilac and clematis and cat-eleas orchids.

Even the waiters who served the dinner were attired for the occasion.

Each man was in black-tie knickerbocker, with large buckles at the knees; silk stockings and pumps, with large buckles. A coat of livery, with gold braid and brass buttons, completed the waiters' garb.

virtually the whole lighting for the room.

Another of the surprises of the ball was the ceiling effect, which represented moving clouds. The effects were obtained with the aid of spot-lights, and in the moving clouds could be seen shining stars, with the light of the decorations turned low the scene was so much like outdoors at night that it seemed as though the hotel roof had been removed.

Another novel effect was produced by the table decorations. On each table was a sort of model of an ancient temple, in white turned wood. From the top of each temple rose a straight rod from which hung a canopy of natural smilax. The smilax, stiffened by hoops of metal, was entwined with flowers of all sorts and colors, carnations, hyacinths, lilacs, and in fact, almost every flower, whether in season or not, was to be seen. Beneath the temples were plates of glass, which reflected the tiny electric light, with which the canopies were also entwined.

Many small Dutch bouquets were brought over from New York for additional table decoration, and these were added to the decorations already furnished by Habermehl. Twelve spot-lights were used, and on each side of the stage was a large parrot cage. Grass matting covered the floor and gave additional evidence of the outdoor character of the affair. After the dinner all the mats, tables and everything else were removed hurriedly, and the guests danced until a late hour this morning.

Mrs. Stotesbury introduced a rather novel effect in the manner of the cards. Boutonnieres were provided for the men, each of the seventeen tables being represented by a different flower. When a man found his boutonniere he found in a small envelope the name of the woman whom he was to take to dinner, and on a name card was a hand-painted flower corresponding to his boutonniere.

Besides each table was a page boy, blue and white peasant costume, holding a gilt pole, bearing a basket of flowers corresponding to the boutonniere worn by the men. Each pole was topped by bright-colored ribbon, and the flowers in the baskets were yellow, pink and bronze chrysanthemums; pink, red and yellow roses; lavender and pink sweet peas, cyclamen, pink azaleas, yellow carnations, pink and white carnations, white lilac and clematis and cat-eleas orchids.

Even the waiters who served the dinner were attired for the occasion. Each man was in black-tie knickerbocker, with large buckles at the knees; silk stockings and pumps, with large buckles. A coat of livery, with gold braid and brass buttons, completed the waiters' garb.

It strikes me that the complaints against the ancient custom of giving holiday presents come from those who never give any.

I cannot understand anyone taking up with the new fad, unless of necessity, and I do not believe it is going to be an easy matter to exorcise the Christmas spirit.

It is going to have one day in the year when we verify the adage that it is more blessed to give than to receive; when everybody feels liberal, generous, extravagant; when the only use of money is to make ourselves happy by making other people happy. I think that, as a rule, we give too little, rather than too much, and that no giving is useless if it warms the heart of the donee. Make Christmas merry. Don't be a spug!

Well, they have taken a new lease on existence, and plan to continue their philanthropic and charitable work, the loss of a stated income from the municipal treasury notwithstanding. Nobody has decided just how it is all to be accomplished, but the members, with characteristic stick-to-it-iveness, are developing a get-to-it-iveness, in the interests of the city's indigents, that promises real results.

A meeting was held last Monday, when twenty-two new members were enrolled, and officers elected as follows:

President—Mrs. E. M. Coombs.
First vice president—Mrs. Roy McDonald.

Second vice president—Mrs. John Lee Clarke.
Secretary—Mrs. R. R. Pollock.

Treasurer—Miss Brent.

Tomorrow a special called meeting will be held at the office of George S. Klock, at 2:30 o'clock, when ways and means for financing the society will be considered. Every member is urged to attend, and anyone else interested in the work, or desiring to become an active member of the organization.

And Cupid Still Pursues Them!

Of all things, Bob Kuhns is married. Remember Bob? But, of course, everybody does, especially the hundreds of friends who will be greatly interested to know of his marriage in Ocean Park, Cal., November 24. His bride was Helen Schenck, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Schenck of Ocean Park.

Mr. Kuhns was in the First National bank here until his departure, about three years ago, for California, where he has lived since. Announcements of his marriage have been recently received by local friends.

Another wedding in California, of considerable local interest, was that of Mary Louella Smith to William J. Morning, which occurred at Hollywood, Cal., December 5. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Smith of this city, and has a wide circle of local friends. They will make their home at 2255 Terrace Heights, Los Angeles.

On Wednesday, December 11, at St. John's Episcopal church, Miss Olga Mallinda Miller of El Paso was united in marriage to Franklin Mitchell Hayner of Las Cruces, N. M. Archdeacon W. E. Warren performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sheehan, friends of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Hayner left for a honeymoon trip to California immediately following the wedding.

Mr. Hayner is a prominent contractor of Las Cruces, and his bride is a talented reader, who has appeared in this city under auspices of the Redpath Lyceum bureau.

In Musical Circles

The A Tempo club held an interesting meeting, Wednesday evening, at the home of Mrs. E. L. Bradford. The first part of the program had to do with current musical events, and was divided into three papers, read by Frances Strone, Louise Watson and Hortense Switzer. These covered events of importance in the musical world in America and abroad, and afforded an opportunity for interesting discussions.

The second half of the program took up Handel's "The Messiah." Kathryn Grimmer read a paper on the life and works of Handel, and Mrs. C. H. Carnes gave a graphic description of the annual presentation of "The Messiah," which is given at the University of New Mexico. Mrs. Bradford then discussed the oratorio, after which arias from it were sung by Mr. J. H. Falkenberg and herself. The arias, beautifully rendered by Mr. Falkenberg, were "He Was Despised" and "He Shall Feed His Flock."

Mrs. Bradford sang "Rejoice Greatly" and "Come Unto Him." Miss Gertrude Kenworthy was the accompanist.

Miss Marie Higgins played "The Hallelujah Chorus."

That concluded the regular program, after which a social hour and an impromptu program was enjoyed. This included song numbers by Helen Hope and piano selections by Miss Higgins.

The Amateur Piano club met, Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Hume for a Von Weber program. His "Invitation to a Dance" was given by Mrs. Horden and Miss Grunfeld. "Perpetual Motion" by Louise Nichols, "Overture to Freischutz" by Marie Higgins and Mrs. "Cavendish" and "Ronde Brillante" by Miss Higgins. Charlotte Pratt sang an aria from Preciosa and Mrs. Hume had a talk on Weber's music. The program throughout proved most interesting and enjoyable.

"The Toy Shop," a juvenile cantata to be given by St. John's Episcopal church, under the direction of Mrs. E. L. Bradford, will be staged at the Crystal theater the afternoon of December 28, following the regular matinee performance. Thirty children will participate in the production.

The date of the concert to be given by the Central Avenue Methodist church has been changed from December 17 until the Friday following Christmas, December 27. Miss Olga Seike is directing the music.

Parent-Teachers Club to Meet

What promises to be the most notable meeting yet held by the Albuquerque Parent-Teachers Co-operative association will be the open session tomorrow (Monday) evening in the Central school building.

On account of the large number of teachers and parents expected to be in attendance, it has been deemed advisable to meet this time in the assembly room of the Central school instead of in the First Ward building. The program and social committee have jointly arranged the entertainment, so that half the evening will be devoted to a meritorious program and the latter half will be of an informal social nature, affording opportunity for the parents and teachers to cultivate closer acquaintance.

It is the desire of the officers of the association that every father and mother having children in the public schools will come out to meet the teachers of their children, as it is assured that the teachers will be present.

A cordial invitation is extended to the Manual school faculty, the Harwood school, Indian school, Rio Grande school and the parochial schools' faculties to attend and affiliate with the association, as through union the power for accomplishment of great things is greatly increased, and will rebound to the benefit of all the children in all the schools.

All meetings are without charge, and open to all interested in child welfare.

The program committee, headed by Miss Nancy Hewitt, has arranged the following order of entertainment and discussion for the meeting tomorrow evening, to begin at 8 o'clock:

1. Quartette—Lullaby from Brahms
Mrs. Bradford, Miss McFie, Mrs. Don Sterling, Mrs. Wilson.

2. How the Parent May Help the Teacher—Mr. C. E. Jones, principal of Second Ward.

3. Vocal Solo—"A Necklace of Love"..... Nevlin
Miss McFie, instructor in music.

4. How the Teacher May Help the Parent—Mr. E. M. Hodgins, dean of U. N. M.

5. Violin Solo—Melody..... Rubenstein
6. Children's Reading—Miss Nell M. Wetherill, librarian of Reynolds' Public Library.

7. Reading—"A Russian Christmas"..... Grace Storck.
8. Vocal Solo—"Goodbye, Sweet Day"..... Vannah
Miss Trotter, supervisor of Music in public schools.

ALBUQUERQUE NEW MEXICO

A SPECTACULAR FIGURE.

When ex-Senator Jones, of Nevada, died a few days ago, the news was conveyed in a five-line press dispatch. Yet it marked the passing of one of the most interesting characters in American history. He was a giant in his day.

Mr. Jones left the senate in 1893, after he had served thirty years covering an important period following the Civil war. He was one of the ablest orators in the senate, and one of the rarest. When he spoke he was listened to, for his speech was an epitome of about all the information to be had on the subject. It became a textbook. Such was his speech on the tariff, and such was his famous speech on silver, the delivery of which covered nine sittings of the senate and occupied ninety pages of the Congressional Record. He presented the whole case of silver from the creation of the world to the election of Grover Cleveland and the repeal of the silver purchase clause of the Sherman law. It was the source from which ten thousand other silver men drew their information for the campaign of 1896.

Incidentally, Senator Jones acquired great wealth, on various occasions making and losing fortunes with astounding indifference. His first great fortune was acquired from the "Comstock lode," following which he went "broke" three times, each time only to become a millionaire again within a few years more. He left an estate valued at more than two million dollars, accumulated after he was 50 years old.

Almost equally picturesque was the career of William M. Stewart, who entered the senate before John P. Jones was first elected and held the position until after the latter was re-elected. He died three years ago after having made and lost many fortunes. Both were inveterate gamblers in the larger sense, playing with speculative investments involving millions apparently indifferent as to whether they won or lost, so long as they had the fun of playing the game.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

Negotiations will begin in earnest in London tomorrow. The result probably will be peace, but it may be war involving all of the great powers of Europe, as well as the allies and Turkey.

It is understood that the Balkan states want about all of Turkey in Europe, except the city of Constantinople, which they want worst of all, but know that the great powers would oppose an unanimous front against such proposition. The real struggle will be over Adrianople, still in possession of the Turks, but closely invested by the Bulgarians and the Serbians and suffering from lack of food.

While the allies are in sight of Constantinople and the ruins of the victorious Bulgarians have shaken the Moslem capital, Adrianople, more than one hundred and twenty-five miles to the northwest, holds out, as Metz held out against the victorious Germans invading France. So long as Adrianople remains in the hand of the Turks, the sultan must rule the country between that city and the Mohammedan capital. Hence the diplomatic contest centers around the surrender of Adrianople and the division of Thrace among the allies as part of the spoils of war.

Rum involved in the settlement are the ambitions of the great powers. Austria is determined that Serbia shall not grow measurably stronger than she is now, and Italy looks without favor on the proposition for Balkan ports on the Adriatic. Germany looks upon a confederation of the Balkan kingdoms as in the interest of Russia, and Great Britain is favorable to the proposition because it would mean limiting the ambitions of Germany. France is in sympathy with any proposition that will injure Germany. Russia is hunting for an outlet for her fleet, ice bound during the long Russian winter months. England wants to protect her commerce and India and Egypt.

Thus the game will be played during this week and such other weeks as may be required to reach a number of necessary compromises that will bring peace to Europe. Failure means the most gigantic war the world has ever known.

American can has declared another dividend. That shows how many have been tied to the public of late.

CHARTING DEATH VALLEY.

It is proposed to chart and signpost the roads through New Mexico. Some objection to the proposition has been made because of the cost of the undertaking. But the Automobile Club of southern California has undertaken a task compared with which the New Mexico proposition dwells into insignificance.

Death valley has been about the most untraveled and uncharted portion of the North American continent, but the automobile and the locomotive are now in league to reduce it to its lowest terms. This impressive and abhorrent waste, covering many thousand square miles, has long lain shrouded in mystery to those who have ventured upon this burning desert, but civilization is breaking in upon it with wagon roads, irrigation projects, and even signs to show the way.

The Los Angeles newspapers tell us that only a short time ago representatives of the southern California automobile club started to map ways and place signs along fifteen hundred miles of desert road in the valley and surrounding territory.

The water holes will be charted and heavy steel signs will give their location, as well as road directions and distances. Seven roads are to be charted through this, the most arid and desolate region in America, or in any other country for that matter, except the infernal regions themselves.

Another fascinating country is made up of the Bad Lands of the upper Missouri river country in South Dakota, North Dakota and southern Montana. Portions of these lands were described by General Sully as "hell with the lights out." But three railroads now traverse them and automobile routes are being laid out through them. Tourists will soon pass through them to wonder and admire.

Everything has its value when you look at it through the right glasses.

KILLING THE WRONG MAN.

The speech of Governor Blaine, of South Carolina, before the conference of governors at Richmond, has excited wide comment in the press of the country. One of the hopeful signs of the times is that, without exception, the newspapers of the south have joined with those of all other parts of the union in condemnation of Blaine's utterances relative to lynching.

There are crimes so atrocious as to excite the rage they excite in men. Such is the crime for which Blaine said the punishment inflicted should be by lynch law while he is governor of South Carolina. The crime merits the punishment, only the means should be legal and there should be certainty that the right culprit suffers.

But lately a southerner, in one of the popular magazines, tells the story of how an old judge stopped a mob by a display of sheer grit. He told the mob they didn't know whether they had the right negro, and as it turned out, the negro they were about to hang was shown to be perfectly innocent.

That is the trouble with all such summary processes. Lynch law is not discriminatory. Many times on evidence that would not convict a dog, to say nothing of a human, the mob convicts and kills. And an excited mob, when it undertakes wholesale redress, often confounds good with bad men and wreaks vengeance on the innocent. Life is too sacred to be given up to the indiscriminate fury of a mob.

If a court of law is not always able to find out who is guilty, how much less chance has a mob to make such inquiry as would justify taking the law into its own hands, and constituting itself judge, jury and executioner? It is because of this uncertainty that organized society, acting through the courts, must pass upon all offenses against the peace and order of the state.

WHAT WAS THE STORY.

The Missouri papers are just now telling a story of a story, and they are having fun with Governor Hadley. There is one former inmate of the Missouri penitentiary who stands small chance of having his sentence commuted by the present governor, should that convict be recaptured. Henry Williams was a "trusty." It appears that he went to the house of the warden on an errand and arrived just as Governor Hadley was telling the warden a fishing story. Except to land a term as president, it has leaked out that there is nothing that appeals so much to Hadley as to land a fish. While the governor was telling his story, the "trusty" took the suspicious occasion to bolt.

The escaped convict is sought in all directions, and Governor Hadley has issued an order for his capture at all cost. It is said that he wants to know what there was about that story that caused the man to want to get away. The newspapers are pushing the governor about it unmercifully, and unless they let up, he is likely to issue an order to bring in that convict dead or alive, preferably dead.

Has it come to this that a gubernatorial fishing story will drive a man to do as Henry Williams did? Some of them have been known to drive men to drink, but not to the woods. Wonder what the story was, anyway?

The Turks are a hard lot, but they are not guilty of making the Turkish cigarettes.

MONTICELLO.

Mr. Jefferson Levy is the owner of Monticello, the home of Jefferson. He bought the property many years ago when it was untraveled and falling into ruin. Without consulting him as to his purpose for its disposition, Mrs. Martin W. Littleton began a crusade for its acquisition by the federal government. Mr. Levy does not want the property taken from him at this time without having some voice in the matter. He is a very rich man, and keeping up the property so long neglected has cost him a lot of cash. He is an ardent democrat, a close student of Jefferson's works, a worshiper almost, of Jefferson's memory. To attempt to confiscate the property does not seem the proper way to go about it. In his own time, when he can induce the government to make proper provision for its care, it is probable that Mr. Levy will make a present of it to the government—a government that, under numerous republican and democratic administrations, has shown no disposition to acquire or care for the property.

CHIEF THE HEN.

In India the cow is sacred. In this country the hen—but why pursue the subject further? Yet it may be well to cite the fact that a farmer declares that hens should be cheered up with gaudy colors. Since that farmer painted his coops red and began draping himself in a long red robe and a green hat when he is attending his hens, he finds they have all but laid down their lives for him. Who can blame them when such devotion is shown to her majesty of the 2-cent egg?

Austria seems to be preparing for war while peace negotiations are beginning in London. Austria doesn't know what a day may bring forth.

CAPACITY AUDIENCE SURE TO WITNESS MADAME SHERRY

Opening of Ticket Sale Marked by Rush to Secure Advance Reservations for Attraction Tuesday Night.

A capacity audience will probably greet "Madame Sherry," the French musical comedy, on its appearance at the Elks' theater Tuesday night. Yesterday, when the advance sale of seats opened at Madison's, there was a rush to secure reservations and if the demand keeps up, the house will be sold out by Tuesday night.

"Madame Sherry" is one of the daintiest and most unique musical comedy creations of a generation. Adapted by Otto Hauerbach from a French original which won success in Paris, Berlin and London, with its positively enchanting melodies by Karl Hoschna, with a cast of the remarkable strength, and produced by Woods, Frazee and Lederer in a style that appeals perfectly, "Madame Sherry" is one of those rare theatrical gems that are offered once in a very long while. Coming here at the height of the winter show season further adds to its attractiveness.

FIRE ENGINE FIRM ACCEPTS CITY'S COMPROMISE?

City Clerk Sends $1,000 Check as Part Payment of $3,000 Note; Receives No Word of Unsatisfaction.

City Clerk H. Charles Roehl yesterday telegraphed the American-La France Fire Engine Company that he had sent a check for $1,000 as part payment of a note due December 4. If the compromise was not satisfactory, City Clerk Roehl said the engine company to telegraph at once. No response was received yesterday and the clerk hopes that the company approves the plan.

The $2,000 note is the city's last payment for the $9,000 auto fire truck bought from the American-La France company. The city clerk sent a $2,000 note with the check to take up the $3,000 note.

ARCHBOLD CASE IS CLEVELAND BORNEARING CLOSE IN SENATE

House Presents Direct Testimony on Which Impeachment Charges Against Federal Jurist Were Based.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)
Washington, Dec. 14.—The testimony upon which the house managers ask the senate to convict Judge Robert W. Archbold, of the commerce court, in misbehavior and misdemeanor in office, was concluded today.

On Monday attorneys of the accused judge will begin the presentation of the witnesses for the defense. The witnesses include C. Larue Munson, of Williamsport, Pa.; Samuel H. Swingle, of the Premier Coal Company, of Scranton; Fred W. Jones, of the Delaware & Hudson Coal Co.; O. W. Yonostock, of Scranton, a lawyer; W. W. Klinegar, a coal miner of Scranton; W. M. Ruth, bank cashier of Scranton; J. E. Wilson, secretary of the Scranton-Honduras Mining Company; Edward R. Searle, clerk of the federal court in middle Pennsylvania; and T. F. Farrell, of New York.

Most of the witnesses testified in regard to Judge Archbold's alleged acquiescence in regard to culm bank leases and discounting of notes bearing his name.

Munson and Searle were examined in regard to the raising of $500 as a bribe toward defraying Judge Archbold's expenses on a trip to Europe in 1910.

Mr. Munson said he was asked to subscribe to the purse and that he declined because of his high regard for the judge and his desire not to embarrass him.

"I would like to say," added Mr. Munson, "that I always found Judge Archbold absolutely fair and impartial and that I never tried a case before a more honorable and upright judge than he."

Mr. Searle declared that since testifying before the house judiciary committee he had refreshed his memory in regard to the purse. He said the plan to present it originated in talk about giving the judge a dinner before leaving for Europe. It developed that only eight or nine could attend the dinner and so those who had planned the affair agreed to give the judge the money raised.

The money raised, they feared that the judge would refuse it and so put the money in an envelope marked "sailing orders. Do not open until two days out."

Mr. Searle said Judge Archbold came to him upon receiving a letter from the judge's wife's cousin, Henry W. Cannon, inviting him to be his guest on the European trip. The witness explained that Judge Archbold hesitated to accept because those he owed most felt that he should have used the money it would have cost for the trip paying his debts.

Mr. Searle was pressed to the judge's debts. He testified there were debts but that the judge's credit was good. "Judge Archbold has been held in and is now held in the highest respect by the people of Scranton," said the witness.

BILL IN CONGRESS TO AID PROHIBITION

Washington, Dec. 14.—The long contented for legislation to prohibit shipments of liquor into "dry" states, will come for a focus in the senate Monday when consideration of the Sheppard-Kenyon bill will begin. Senator Kenyon today obtained an order for the convening of the senate at 11 o'clock Monday, giving two and one-half hours for consideration of the bill before the Archbold impeachment trial intervenes. An effort will be made to pass the bill next week.

LIED ABOUT HUSBAND; $15,000 DAMAGE ASKED
Sacramento, Cal., Dec. 14.—Contributing toward the loss of affection between husband and wife is a serious offense in the eyes of the California supreme court, which rendered an opinion on the subject today. The court reversed the action of the Kings county supreme court, which had thrown out a suit for $15,000 damages brought by Beulah Work against J. B. Campbell.

Mrs. Work alleged that Campbell had told her untrue stories about her husband, on the strength of which she had driven the latter from home. Leaving later that she had been deceived, she instituted search for her husband, but was unable to find him. The supreme court holds that Mrs. Work has good ground for an action for damages.

Worth Memorizing

The Old Spelling Book.
A country schoolhouse weather-worn. Far from a club or college. Was where my infant feet first sought To climb the hill of knowledge.

And from an ancient spelling book Bound in a stiff board cover. From a b. b. spelled to cat. From cat went on to lover.

And fired with zeal to still ascend. I learned, on foot and physic. And reached triumphantly at last The page on which was phthisis.

And conning all the stately rows Of words, from dot to dimple. I soon began to look in scorn On early lessons simple.

Despising monosyllables I joyed in complication. In words like met-a-mor-pho-sis. And trans-sub-stan-ti-a-tion.

And in an old-time scribbler. With many a valued treasure. A worn-out spelling book now lies. Reminder of that pleasure.

LAST CHANCE AND TOP MINES MAY CHANGE HANDS

Persistent Rumor That Ernestine Company's Valuable Holdings at Mogollon Are to be Disposed of Soon.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Silver City, N. M., Dec. 14.—A report lacking confirmation, but which nevertheless has gained much ground in the past few days, is that the Ernestine Mining Company's famous property at Mogollon has been sold to a group of eastern capitalists. If the report is true it will involve one of the largest and most important mining transactions in New Mexico for the year of 1912. The Ernestine property includes the famous Last Chance and Top Mines which are considered as being the biggest gold and silver producers in the state and are well known throughout mining circles all over the world.

E. Craig, the president of the Ernestine Company, was recently elected to parliament in England and has been desirous of disposing of his shares in the company in order to retire from mining life and settle down in his native land. A. H. G. Palmer, manager of the company, and E. A. Wayne, who is interested in the Mogollon district, are both in New York at present which adds a firm foundation to the report of the big transaction.

During the past week 750 tons of ore were mined from the Ernestine Mining Company's property, producing 57 sacks of high grade concentrates, 9,330 troy ounces of gold and silver bullion and 8,450 pounds of concentrates were yielded in the last 10-day cleanup in November. It is said that December promises to be a good month for the Ernestine workings and that the year 1912 will record the largest production in the history of the mine.

Auto Truck Via Silver City and Mogollon.
That the automobile can take the place of horses and mules in even the longest runs where over five stage changes are necessary and prove satisfactory, is being tested by Charles W. Marriott, who is shipping express from Silver City to Mogollon, a distance of over ninety miles, in a new auto truck which made its first trip yesterday. It has a capacity of one and a half tons and if it proves successful in carrying baggage, it will be used by the United States mail service.

New Depot for Silver City.
The new depot for Silver City is coming slowly but surely and the matter has been greatly facilitated during the past week through the annual visit of General Superintendent J. M. Kurn, of the Santa Fe's western grand division, and F. E. Summers, superintendent of the Rio Grande division. The two officials arrived in their private cars and were greeted by a delegation of members of the Silver City Chamber of Commerce. It happens that during a severe rain or snow storm the station is to be found in a lake of mud and water. In this condition the officials found the Silver City depot and agreed to make the trip in their cars that a new station would be a great improvement at this place. As yet no word has been received in Silver City as to when the Santa Fe will commence work upon the new station, but the business men will never give up hopes until better railroad accommodations are afforded Silver City which is one of the best paying branches of the Santa Fe railroad system.

The report has reached here that the Phelps-Dodge Company has made traffic arrangements with the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad whereby the use of the latter's track from Deming to White-water, The Phelps-Dodge people are the owners of the El Paso & Southern railway and have large mining interests in the Burro mountain mining district where they are at present constructing a 7,000-foot tunnel. To connect with the Santa Fe at White-water there will be built a company line from Tyrone to White-water and it may be extended to the Phelps-Dodge operations at Pterro and Hanover. This report has not been verified but comes from parties in a position to know.

"What has caused you to believe in them?"
"I don't believe in them; but the public seems to."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Ignored.
"You say that eminent dramatic producer treated you with scorn?"
"Yes," replied the author. "He didn't even read my play."
"What makes you so sure of that?"
"None of his subsequent productions."—Washington Star.

CAMPAGN BEGINS FOR GOVERNMENT BELT ROADS

American Automobile Association Opens Headquarters in Washington to Further the Movement Now Under Way.

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Washington, Dec. 14.—With the opening of headquarters in Washington by the American Automobile Association, the campaign of the organized motorists of the United States for national roads takes on new vigor and becomes centered, properly, at the national capital. While the principal headquarters of the A. A. A. will remain in New York, the association's policy of promoting the plan of road building by the federal government has been found to necessitate such close and constant touch with the various federal agencies involved, including the office of public roads of the department of agriculture, the engineering corps of the United States army, the department of the interior, etc., that it is felt the work can be greatly expedited through the maintenance of a permanent Washington office.

Chairman George C. Diehl of the A. A. A. national good roads board, advises that the outlook for the national roads convention to be held in Washington, March 6th and 7th next, is very promising indeed. Every mail is bringing announcements from every part of the country of the appointment of additional delegates to this convention, and it is already assured that it will be the most widely representative and nationally influential good roads gathering that has yet been held. A very encouraging feature of the convention preparations is the remarkable interest that is being displayed in the national roads proposal by the great bodies of organized business men, who are at present more active than ever before in the development of various sections of the country. Chambers of commerce and boards of trade from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from the lakes to the gulf, are naming delegates, or have announced their intention to do so, while it is now practically assured that every state will be represented by official delegates named by its governor.

In the eleven months that have elapsed since the first federal aid convention was held at Washington, the sentiment in favor of national participation in highway construction has developed to a point where there is no longer any apparent opposition. The question at issue is as to the form which federal aid shall take. The "gospel of good roads" has become as definite an American policy as the right to vote or trial by jury. No arguments are needed anywhere to convince a farmer, a business man, a manufacturer, a merchant, or anyone else of the essential importance of good roads. The point to which attention must be given now is how to get good roads, and the quickest and best way to get them is for the federal government to lay out and construct a system of national roads connecting all the states, providing a medium for interstate traffic and furnishing an object lesson to the states, as well as relieving them of the burden of improving the main traveled routes.

The subject of highway improvement will be the dominant one in many state legislatures which are to meet next month. The "Suggestions for a Model Highway Law" and the "Uniform Automobile Law," prepared by the A. A. A., are being studied in many states by legislators and state officials, and copies have been requested by several influential leaders who are preparing to make the fight in their legislatures this winter for better road and motor laws. It is the policy of the A. A. A. to give every possible aid and encouragement in the upbuilding of state highway systems, all the while at the same time actively working for a system of national roads, which is bound to be developed in the course of time.

MESSAGES FROM DEAD

RACE FOUND IN CAVE

(Special Correspondence to Morning Journal) Los Angeles, Dec. 14.—(Hiram O. Denby, teacher of geology in Drake University, Des Moines, Ia., explored the mysterious cave on Point Dume that has long been the objective point of numerous searches. For many years there has been a vague story that a cavern had been discovered, but up to this time it has not been possible to definitely locate it or find any human being who had found its hidden opening and penetrated its depths.

Denby, who returned today, found the entrance and followed the cleft in the earth forty feet. The floor and walls gave evidence that the cavern at one time contained great chests. Denby made discoveries which convinced him that the natural cave had been the retreat of a people who antedated Sir Francis Drake. These evidences appear in the form of hieroglyphs painted with an enduring ochre upon the walls.

The paintings are such in form and character as might have been executed by Aztecs, cave dwellers of Mexico or those flatheaded races who were driven westward from the deserts of what is now New Mexico, says Denby. The paint is covered with an enamel which at first glance seems to have been burned or baked over the drawings. Moistening and vigorous scrubbing makes no impression upon the ancient messages, and a small piece which was broken off in the investigation revealed the earthen part beneath a colorless coating not unlike quartz.

The Deserter.

The poet wandered to the wood
When it was May
To see the pixies pranking breed,
At nightily play.

The pixies crowned him fellow sprite
Beneath the bough,
But autumn came, and they are quite Deserted now.

The pixies shiver in the grove
And on the green,
The poet writes behind the stove,
Of Hallowe'en.

The Ladies' Aid society of St. John's church met Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. Van Cleave at her home, 424 North Third street. The time was pleasantly passed in needlework in preparation for the bazaar and home-cooking sale, which was held yesterday at 295 West Central avenue. This was an attractively arranged event, and received liberal patronage from the Christmas shoppers.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Lutheran church was held Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. Bohuke, 415 South Seventh street. It was well attended and proved enjoyable in every way.

Saturday the young ladies of the Lutheran church held a holiday bazaar in the Metcalf building, corner of Gold avenue and Fourth street. The bazaar was a big financial success.

Mrs. J. H. Heald, of 124 South Edith street, was hostess, Thursday afternoon, to the Women's Society of the Congregational church. The business session was followed by a pleasant social hour.

Mrs. A. B. Stroup presided over the regular Monday evening parlor talk at the Y. W. C. A. the past week. The topic was "Catholic Events," and a number participated in the discussion, led by Mrs. Stroup.

The W. C. T. U. held its regular business meeting, Tuesday afternoon.

One of the prospering social, educational clubs of the Young Women's Christian association is the Circule club, that is each meeting growing in membership and interest.

At the regular meeting of the club last Monday evening, her topic being "A Christmas in Germany." A feature of the entertainment tomorrow evening will be a number of Christmas carols to be sung by the Y. W. C. A. Glee club.

The Vesper service Tuesday evening will be conducted by Miss Edith Gorbey, and will be well worth every woman's time for an hour. The steady progress of the association in all departments is most gratifying to the board of managers and secretaries, and the new year that will be ushered in with the annual meeting in January is rich in promise of great things for the uplift of Albuquerque young womanhood.

The increasing demand for rooms by girls who are in the city for climatic reasons is more than the home can supply, and the secretaries will appreciate lists of rooms by those who have them for rent.

In common with many other organizations throughout the United States, the local chapter of the D. A. R. is circulating a memorial petition to congress, to have requisite appropriation made and necessary measures taken to gain possession of Monticello, on River Rhanna, in Charlottesville, Va., the mansion and grave of Thomas Jefferson.

The Jefferson Memorial association of America, of which Mrs. Martin W. Littleman, wife of the New York congressman, is managing director, is sending the petitions broadcast over the land, and patriotic societies, magazines, newspapers and others are identifying themselves with the efforts and work of the association.

Monticello is at present owned by J. M. Levy, and it is the desire of patriotic Americans that the home of the author of the Declaration of Independence be owned by the government, that their descendants may have the rights and privileges of visiting the historic place unrestrictedly.

APPOINTEES RAISE AVERAGE HEIGHT OF FORCE

Five of Members of Police Department Now Over Six Feet Tall; Beats to be Rearranged When Vaughn Takes Place.

When W. B. Vaughn, new appointee to the police department, goes to work, five of the seven members of the force will be over six feet tall. Vaughn touches the six-foot one inch mark. The other stunts of the force are: Chief McMullen, 6 feet, 1 inch; Charles Mainz, 6 feet, 3 inches; Ed Donohue, 6 feet, 2 inches; Captain Pat O'Grady, 6 feet, 10 inches; Ed Bernier, who was appointed at the same time as Vaughn, does not add to the average inches of the force. Bernier took his beat Friday night and Vaughn will receive his star tonight.

A change of beats is to follow the addition of the two new men. Bernier will be mounted officer and Vaughn will take Mainz's station at Second street and Central avenue at night. Mainz will have his old stand, but in day time. Donohue, who has been stationed at the crossing days, will take the "split shift." That is, he will be on duty from noon until midnight.

ENTERTAINMENTS ON SANTA FE WILL BEGIN JANUARY 1

Superintendent S. E. Busser Promises Fifty Fine Attractions for Employees Who Attend Reading Room Affairs.

Beginning January 1st, fifty splendid attractions will commence their tour of the Santa Fe system, playing before the employees of that road, according to a statement made last night by Superintendent S. E. Busser, of the reading room service. Mr. Busser left last night for the Pecos valley, but will return to Albuquerque Wednesday night, when he promises to have more definite announcements to make.

Albuquerque employees will see most of these attractions, many more than other cities and towns will see, because of its advantageous location on the main line north and south, as well as practically on the east and west line. Among the attractions scheduled are the Philharmonic choir of Chicago, the Pasadena Episcopal choir, the Washburn Glee club, and many others.

Dr. Fralick, a surgeon of New York, will deliver stereoscopic lectures on his work operations, at many points along the system. The entire schedule is the result of careful investigation of each of 1,000 applications received from companies and individuals anxious to make the trip over the Santa Fe.

FOOT BRIDGE BUILT ACROSS GAP OVER THE RIVER AT BARELAS

A temporary foot bridge has been constructed across the gap in the bridge at Barelas, spanning the waste of ice water over which the pile bridge to replace the structure washed away last June has not yet been driven. The foot bridge is purely a temporary structure, but is safe and wide enough for a man to walk across.

Yesterday while it was under construction, a drunken man assailed the passage, walking over the workmen and finally dropping off into the water. This sobered him immediately.

BUSINESS IS GOOD IN MIDDLE WEST SAYS DAVIDSON

One of Receivers of Kansas City, Mexico and Orient Declares That Moving Crops Strained Country's Resources

J. O. Davidson, one of the receivers of the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient railroad, passed through here last night on his way to Arizona to look into some mining matters. While here he declared that business all through the middle west was good, but that the unusually large crops of last fall and summer had strained the country's resources a little in the moving of them.

"Business is fine through our section," he said. "The crops last year were big and I don't believe politics are going to affect the prosperity of the country. Money is a little tight, but that is due to the strain of moving the crops and to this little war in Europe, which has caused a flurry in stocks."

Mr. Davidson was accompanied by a number of friends. He and they will inspect some mines in Arizona, take a short trip to Los Angeles and pass through here on their return trip next Saturday.

ATCHISON EDITOR ON ANOTHER TRIP AROUND THE GLOBE

Ed. W. Howe, former editor of the Atchison, Kan., Globe, and magazine publisher, yesterday morning spent a few minutes in Albuquerque. He was on his way to Los Angeles on the California limited.

Mr. Howe is off on another trip around the world. He made the journey several years ago, but this time he is going in the opposite direction. Kansas furnishes little excitement since the election, so he seized the opportunity to take the jaunt.

Jack Fisher, Santa Fe conductor, and Mrs. Fisher, old friends of Mr. Howe, met him at the station. The Atchison Globe, under Mr. Howe's editorship, attracted world-wide attention. His son is in charge of the paper since Mr. Howe's retirement, two years ago.

Rocky Mountain Bantamweight Champion Proposes to Seek World Title If He Beats Ryan in Coming Bout.

Benny Chavez is going to the Pacific coast and take on all comers with a view to winning the world's bantamweight championship, providing he beats Tommy Ryan here New Year's day, in the 10-round bout scheduled for that day by Mark Levy's New Mexico.

This announcement was made last night by Director Levy.

"Chavez will quit wasting his time fighting around the southwest, if he wins his coming battle," said Levy. "He figures that a decisive win over Ryan, who is well known in Pacific coast fighting circles, will give him an introduction to California fight fans, who will give him a chance to fight his prowess. Once he gets a check at a few of the coast bantams, such as Battling Chico, Eddie Campi and Jimmie Austin, and trumps them—if he does—Chavez will be entitled to bouts with Kid Williams, of Baltimore; Lardoux, the French champion, and Johnny Coulon, the title holder of his class at the present time."

The match of Chavez and Ryan for a return bout here the afternoon of January 1, starting at 2:30 o'clock at Elks theater, is just as good as staged. Chavez has accepted the terms offered him by Levy for the best of three, five rounds before the contest. Articles of agreement were forwarded to Trinidad yesterday for Chavez to sign.

Patry Holihan, a well known cigar manufacturer of Arizona, acting in the capacity of manager for Ryan, arrived here yesterday and signed the articles for his boy. He also will post a forfeit, guaranteeing Ryan's appearance and that he will make the required weight. Holihan is willing to wager most any sum up to $1,000 that Ryan stops Chavez in ten rounds.

That he will be accommodated by local admirers of the Trinidad boxer, there is no doubt. Last night numerous friends of Chavez were looking for Holihan to get him to post his money, they being willing to cover any sum which he desired.

In the New Year's card, Director Levy has decided on an afternoon bout as one calculated to best suit the fans. New Year's eve there will be many boxing bouts, New Year's night there will be a show. By making the time of his fight card 3:30 in the afternoon he has picked the best possible time, it is believed, and the bout should draw a capacity crowd.

The preliminaries will be announced for the New Year's card within the coming week.

Ryan fights tomorrow night at Prescott, meeting Jack McMahon, an Arizona featherweight champion, in a 20-round contest. Immediately after this bout, he will come to Albuquerque, where Chavez will arrive during the coming week, if he sticks to his tentative agreement made with Levy to meet Ryan on New Year's.

Chavez wants Levy to become his manager, making the trip to the coast with him. The offer is being declined as yet about what he will do. He says he does not care to make any terms with Chavez in this regard until he has the coming card off his hands.

Los Angeles, Dec. 14.—Frank Chance received a telegram today from President Frank H. Farrell, of the New York Americans, asking him to come to New York at once to talk over the management of the club.

Chance said he could not leave his orange ranch at Glendora for a time and wired to Farrell, asking that more details be sent regarding his proposition, and that he would give him before starting out. Chance said there was no mention of a $20,000 salary in Farrell's message and added that he would not go to New York unless a worth-while wage was given him. Farrell's telegram today was the first official notice Chance has had of the proposal to make him manager of the New York American League team.

Farrell anxious to sign ex-club leader.

New York, Dec. 14.—President Farrell, of the New York American League club, intends to open negotiations with Frank Chance shortly after the holidays. In a statement made tonight, following his return from Chicago, Mr. Farrell indicated that he hoped to sign Chance and expressed gratification that the way seemed open for the former leader of the Chicago Nationals to take up the managerial reins here.

"While, of course, it is taken for granted that Chance's release will be turned over to the New York club," said Mr. Farrell in his statement, "it is true that I have received no official notice of his release by President Herrmann, of the Cincinnati club. Until I have been notified that Chance is eligible to consider an offer from me, I shall be compelled to remain inactive. Nothing will suit me better than to have him manage our team."

"I intend to open negotiations with Chance after the holidays. Then I will be ready to sign him to a contract. It is my desire to give the New York American League public a championship American league team, and I am sure that there is one man in the world capable of achieving this task, that man is Frank Chance."

Reluctance to Make Commitments at End of Week and Fear of Supreme Court Decisions Given as Reasons.

(By Morning Journal Special Leased Wire.)

New York, Dec. 14.—Speculative activity in stocks diminished largely today and during most of the session movements were inconsequential. The tone at the opening was steady, but the market was influenced unfavorably by the ease with which some stocks yielded on moderate offerings late in the session. Stocks were offered more freely and prices of a number of the standard issues fell. Selling was heaviest in Reading, which lost nearly 2 points. Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, Lehigh Valley, St. Paul, Northern Pacific, Baltimore & Ohio and Amalgamated Copper dropped 1 point under yesterday's close. Trading was restricted by the usual reluctance to enter upon extensive new commitments at the week end.

Another restraining influence was the approach of the supreme court's decision day. There was unusual activity for a Saturday in foreign exchange rates, demand rising 40 points. The movement may have been influenced by unfavorable advices as to the European financial situation. The effect of liquidation in stocks was recorded in the weekly bank statement in a reduction of $20,000,000 in averaging loans, although in the actual table the shrinkage was only $7,325,000.

Instead of the predicted small loss in cash, there was a gain of $4,600,000, and the excess reserve was increased by $5,000,000.

Closing stocks:

Chicago, Dec. 14.—Assertions that the price of wheat had improved brought about considerable selling of wheat today in the last hour. As a result the market closed heavy, 4 to 4 1/2 c. under last night. Weekly Bank Statement.

New York, Dec. 14.—The statement of the actual condition of the clearing house banks and trust companies for the week shows that they held $8,074,650 reserve in excess of local requirements. This is an increase of $5,959,450 from last week. The statement follows:

Actual Condition.

Loans, $1,339,325,000; decrease, $125,000.

Specie, $296,626,000; increase, $3,276,000.

Legal tenders, $82,581,000; increase, $1,396,000.

Banks' cash reserve in vault, $319,634,000.

Trust companies' cash reserve in vault, $59,475,000.

Aggregate cash reserve, $279,107,000.

Excess lawful reserve, $8,074,650; increase, $5,959,450.

Trust companies' reserve with clearing house members carrying 25 per cent cash reserve, $45,980,000.

Summary of state banks and trust companies in Greater New York not included in clearing house statement:

Loans, $573,223,300; decrease, $7,011,700.

Specie, $61,198,100; decrease, $6,122,700.

Legal tenders, $8,328,000; decrease, $118,600.

Total deposits, $612,700,600; decrease, $7,254,000.

Financier's Statement.

New York, Dec. 14.—The financier tomorrow will say:

The clearing house banks of New York City made an exceptionally strong showing Saturday, the weekly report, based on actual conditions, having indicated an increase of $1,671,000 in cash and an expansion of $5,959,450 in reserve, bringing the aggregate surplus above the 25 per cent requirement to $8,074,650. The gain in cash was larger than anticipated, while the decrease of $7,011,700 in loans was smaller. Thus, the week's liquidation in the stock market seemed to foreshadow. Deposits fell off $4,519,000, and this also strengthened the reserve position. The statement figures on the system of daily averages reflected the operations of a previous week rather than of the present, which accounts for the Saturday decrease of about $20,000,000 in loans and deposits reported.

The gain in reserve, taking the system of averages as a basis, was $5,529,000, making the present excess cash reserve $5,465,450. The weekly statement of trust companies made independently of the clearing house statement showed some rather interesting and unusually large changes, the loans of these institutions having decreased $16,528,700, while cash fell off $8,441,000.

THREE SMALL SUITS FILED IN DISTRICT COURT YESTERDAY

Yesterday was a dull day in the district court office, only three suits being filed. None of them were large. R. Ruppel entered an action against A. J. Otero for $105.90 claimed to be due for a drug bill which had its beginning on June 1, 1909, and its ending May 2, 1912. The demand bill attached includes everything from cough syrup to toothbrushes and from liniment to soap and candy.

Gross, Kelly & Co. entered suit against the Otero Brothers Company for $1,344.22, claimed to be due as principal, interest and fees on a note of $1,117.50 made October 20, 1911, to run for six months.

The same plaintiff entered suit against Jose E. Torres to collect $350.42, claimed to be due as the unpaid balance, interest and fees on a note for $1,675 made July 1, 1911. In both cases interest and costs of suit are asked.

SCHEDULE OF RATES FOR NEW PARCELS POST SYSTEM.

Tax on Some Fourth Class Matter More Expensive Than Postage; Subject to Zones Which Are Established.

According to the schedule published by the postoffice department setting forth the rules governing the parcel-post which is to go into effect January 1st, the rates of all fourth class mail matter weighing less than ten ounces and traveling more than a few hundred miles will be about twice what they are at present. The rates increase for each successive one of the eight zones into which the country is divided, the maximum rate being 12 cents a pound, which will carry a parcel across the continent or even to Alaska and the Philippines.

The local rate is 5 cents for one pound, and this is increased by 1 cent for every additional pound up to eleven. There are eight zones as follows: First, 50 miles, 5 cents for 1 pound; second, 50 to 150, 6 cents for 1 pound; third, 150 to 200, 7 cents for 1 pound; fourth, 200 to 300, 8 cents for 1 pound; fifth, 300 to 400, 9 cents for 1 pound; sixth, 400 to 1,400, 10 cents for 1 pound; seventh, 1,400 to 1,800, 11 cents for 1 pound; eighth, all over 1,800 miles, 12 cents for 1 pound. All merchandise sent by mail after January 1st, must be brought to the postoffice, where it will be weighed and the necessary stamps fixed on it. There will be no more guessing at the weight of anything sent by mail and no more dropping such packages into mail boxes at the nearest corner.

PERSONATOR WEARS A FREAK GOWN OF SNAKESKIN

Charles Hilliard, with George Evans "Honey Boy" Minstrels, is Real Sensation of Production.

A snakeskin gown, the latest decree of Dame Fashion, is part of the wardrobe of Charles Hilliard, clever personator of a scoundrel, who appears in simulation of an alluring, fashionably gowned, ectoplasmic beauty during the performance of George Evans "Honey Boy" minstrel, which is the attraction at the Elks' theater on Friday night, December 20th.

Discussing this latest freak gown of the sex opposite his, Mr. Hilliard said:

"For once fashion has taken a direction which promises to be a general benefit to humanity. Womanhood, or at least such of them as have access to the longest purses, are shortly to use snakeskin for garments for quite every day wear. Once can scarcely imagine a more poetic revenge by the daughters of Eve on their old enemy, the serpent tempter.

"Whether the new robes will prove as artistic as expected remains to be

YOU MAY BENEFIT BY EXPERIENCE OF OTHERS

A Well Known Fact Among People Who Have Taken Advantage of the Opportunity to Compare Prices.

Shoppers who have investigated prices of the genuine Mexican hand-drawn work and lace, fancy Navaho rugs, pillow tops, genuine Navaho silver jewelry and hundreds of other genuine Indian and Mexican curios, have shown their appreciation the last week by not purchasing early, but also by bringing in their friends in order that the friends might profit by their experience. The first remark heard after prices are quoted is, "I told you so. Things are cheaper here than anywhere else." Wright's Trading Post stands for fairness to customers. No goods marked up. No fabulous discounts. We merely do what we advertise, just naturally and do give better values in genuine Indian and Mexican handicraft than any other concern in the city. We respectfully invite your inspection of our new Christmas goods and it will be our pleasure to show them whether you desire to purchase or not. We guarantee to meet all competition. seen. They will certainly lend themselves in skilful hands to the emphasizing of whatever graces they may be in the person of the wearer, and if the fashion thinks out the number of dangerous reptiles all over the world humanity will owe a debt of gratitude to the inventor of the new mode.

"We may yet come to see python skin sold by the yard over the dry goods counters, for the python is a big reptile, occasionally reaching, when full grown, thirty feet in length, and a foot of more in diameter. Thus a single skin will supply enough stuff to make an ordinary gown on modern lines. Properly prepared snakeskin is soft and durable. The amanita is already 'bespoke' for the latest thing in motor coats, and thus used makes an attractive novelty. Made up in delicate shades of cream, color and brown, and lined with satin to match the material forms most attractive garments, which are especially suitable by reason of their lightness. The other beautiful goods seen at this eleven personator are extremely costly and represent the best of the modistes of the metropolitan.

The material for them was selected by Hilliard and was under his personal direction.

CORPORATION LAWS AND FORMS

New Mexico now has a Commission empowered to regulate corporations. Corporation officers, attorneys, irrigation engineers should know corporation laws and procedure. For this purpose get KANEN'S NEW MEXICO CORPORATION LAWS, RULES and FORMS. All laws on General Corporations, Irrigation, Mining, Railroads, Banking, Insurance, etc., with citations; rules and forms for drawing and filing corporation, irrigation papers, etc. Also U. S. laws and forms; the only compilation of these laws from 1897 to 1912.

The 1912 legislation made but few changes in corporation laws; many New Mexico laws are out of print; no revision made since 1897, none adopted this year and none will be adopted until 1915. Such conditions make this book indispensable.

ROUND THE WORLD AUTOIST VISITS IN CITY

Melvin S. Hall Arrives on Last Lap of Lengthy Tour Through Both Foreign and Native Lands.

After traveling more than 36,000 miles in an automobile and visiting all the countries of the northern hemisphere with a few exceptions, Melvin S. Hall, of New York, arrived here Friday. Mr. Hall is accompanied by his mother, Mrs. William A. Hall. He has been nearly two years on his trip. For the first nine months his father was with him, but he gave up the trip and arrived in America yesterday after a stay on the continent.

Young Mr. Hall is just out of college, starting on a round the world tour by the conventional means shortly after his graduation and then, after three months in New York, making a trip to Europe. On this trip he took his car with him, and from England, where he first landed, it was an easy matter to start a tour on the continent, which grew and lengthened until he planned a visit to the coronation durbar in his auto. He made this visit, motored the length of India and traversed Java, Sumatra and Ceylon. His description of his travels in these climes is most interesting and the book which he declared he meant to write about the trip will surely be an entertaining and instructive one.

Mr. Hall motored through Japan, experiencing great difficulties with the narrow roads and right-angled corners of the country's highways, as well as with its lack of bridges. Through the Malay states and in Cebu-China, as well as in many other places, his was the first car to make its appearance.

Mr. Hall's comments on the roads of the United States, after his extended trip through some of the countries best provided with highways anywhere in the world, are illuminating if not pleasant. The score American road builders and authorities for their failure to maintain their roads and describe scenes of varied and beautiful nature made available in foreign countries by splendid roads.

He will leave tomorrow for Santa Fe, and will continue along the route of the proposed national highway to his home in New York, accompanied by his mother.

ONLY BRIEF DAY OF LIBERTY FOR JOSE LIMON

Sent Back to Jail for Thirty Days Within Twenty-Four Hours After His Release at End of Sixty-Day Term.

Jose Limon, who last Friday was released from the county jail, was turned there yesterday by Justice George R. Craig to serve thirty days. Limon was charged with larceny. The theft for which Limon served the sentence which expired last Friday, and that for which he was incarcerated yesterday, were committed the same night, two months ago. Limon received sixty days at his first trial on a charge of stealing a rifle.

The same night Limon is said to have taken a suit of clothes and a pair of shoes, but the owner of the rifle beat the owner of the shoes to Justice Craig's office for a warrant. Limon, it is said, wore the suit when he was arrested, but the owner recovered it and charged him only with the theft of the shoes.

Limon wore the stolen shoes yesterday afternoon in Judge Craig's court. At least the erstwhile owner said they were his.

EXCELLENT GIFTS IN PROFUSION AT MATSON'S

Popular Gift Books in Variety; Also Many Other Articles Including Hand Bags, Toilet and Military Sets.

It is practically impossible to secure a gift more artistically expressive of the Christmas spirit than the popular, dainty gift books at Matson's. There are represented the best works of the most capable modern illustrators and each book is dainty, pretty to the extreme, and delicately expressive. "A Young Man's Fancies," by Cole Phillips, "Maidens' Fair," and "American Beauties," by Harrison Fisher, "Girls of Today," by Underwood, and Henry Hutt's "Picture Book" are some of the artistic creations offered.

It is unnecessary to say much of the illustrated works of Riley, as they are always in popular demand at Christmas time. This year they appear so illustrated as to even increase their popularity as bearers of the Yuletide message.

The Matson store is also well-stocked with a very reasonable line of hand bags, toilet sets and military sets. These are in such variety as to insure wide scope in selection and they make very desirable presents of a practical nature.

SALVATION ARMY BEGINS COLLECTING CHRISTMAS FUNDS

The Salvation Army yesterday began raising funds for providing dinners for the poor at Christmas and for the children's Christmas tree. Kettles were suspended from tripods at Second street and Central avenue and Fourth street and Central avenue. The day's receipts were fair.

SENSATIONAL CHARGES.

Sensational charges were made public today involving a local boy and bringing to light a deplorable condition of plot and intrigue. Messenger 3, of the Bryant Delivery Service, made complaint to Manager Bryant of the charges. Messenger 5, with under hand methods in his overzealous attempt to win the $10 prize offered to the boy making the greatest number of trips during the month. No. 3 is charged with carrying a sanding device on rainy days to prevent his tires from slipping. The boy will probably be excused this time, as it is a well known fact that the messengers are so anxious to win the prize that they will resort to anything to increase speed. Your Xmas delivery work will be done promptly. Phone 501-502, you know.

"77" FOR GRIP & COLDS

Doctors "duck" giving advice about catching Cold, according to Medical Review of Reviews.

If you will live in moderation, not stuff or drink too much; wear suitable clothing, no low shoes and silk stockings in winter.

Take ample exercise in the fresh air; sleep in a properly ventilated room and keep "Seventy-seven" handy—taking a dose at the first chill or shiver, you will seldom catch Cold.

If you wait until you begin to cough and sneeze it may take longer.

A small vial of pleasant pellets, fits the vest pocket. At your Druggist 25c, or mailed.

WILL PHOTOGRAPH CAST OF DAVID GARRICK TODAY

Pictures of Characters in Handsome Costumes to be Made for Display in Downtown Windows.

Today the entire cast of the W. A. G. play, "David Garrick," which is to be presented here Thursday, will be photographed both singly and in groups. The pictures so made will be placed in the downtown show windows tomorrow to aid in advertising the show. Already a number of handsome display cards have been made and placed in the different windows about the city, and are attracting much attention. The photographs, however, are the best advertising feature possible.

Ticket sales so far have been most gratifying. It is expected that the seat sale will be large enough to pack the theater. Reserved seats will go on sale at Matson's Wednesday morning, and there the card tickets sold by the members of the club and the sales committee can be exchanged for reserved seat coupons.

The dress rehearsal for the play will be held Wednesday evening, although semi-dress rehearsals will be held both Monday and Tuesday nights, to allow the players to become thoroughly used to the costumes in which they will appear. The costumes themselves are very beautiful and will add much to the general production.

CURTAIN RAISER IS ATTRACTIVE FEATURE.

One of the features of the play which will be especially attractive is the curtain raiser which will be presented. Mrs. D. M. White, who is coaching "David Garrick," will enact the part of David Vivian, an actress in this. The only other character will be portrayed by Mrs. L. G. Rice, whose skill and ability as a reader have delighted Albuquerque audiences on the few occasions when she has appeared. This other character is that of Sylvia Graham, in whose honor the action takes place.

Enid has come to coach Mrs. Graham in a part which she is soon to enact in a play. They discover that they are girlhood friends, who have drifted apart, and that they love the same man. Which finally gets him charging Messenger 5 with under hand methods in his overzealous attempt to win the $10 prize offered to the boy making the greatest number of trips during the month. No. 3 is charged with carrying a sanding device on rainy days to prevent his tires from slipping. The boy will probably be excused this time, as it is a well known fact that the messengers are so anxious to win the prize that they will resort to anything to increase speed. Your Xmas delivery work will be done promptly. Phone 501-502, you know.

The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger from pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by all druggists.

SISTER OF WOMAN WHO SHOT HUSBAND WANTS CHILDREN

Mrs. J. A. Wells, of Pueblo, Colo., last night stopped in Albuquerque on her way to Socorro, where her sister, Mrs. Mabel Bliss, is held for killing her husband.

Mrs. Wells probably will take charge of her sister's two children while their mother is in jail. Mrs. Bliss told the Socorro officers that the children are in El Paso, but Mrs. Wells will have to learn from her sister who is taking care of them there.

NO MORE DANDRUFF, NO MORE FALLING HAIR

HERPICIIDE

Nearly everyone has dandruff, and must reconcile themselves to the idea of becoming completely bald or resort to the use of Newbro's Herpicide. The manufacturers have absolute faith in Herpicide to kill the germ and remove all traces of dandruff. So perfect is this belief that all dealers are instructed to sell the preparation with a "money back" agreement.

Such supreme confidence is the best evidence in the world of the merit of Herpicide. They know the result, hence the guarantee. It protects the purchaser.

Used as directed, Newbro's Herpicide kills the germ that causes dandruff and prevents the hair from coming out. It stops itching of the scalp, which is so disagreeable.

Send 10c in postage or silver for sample and booklet to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich.

Newbro's Herpicide in 50c and $1.00 sizes is sold by all dealers who guarantee it to do all that is claimed. If you are not satisfied your money will be refunded.

...OR...

VICTROLA For Christmas

No one thing will give so much pleasure, to so many people, for so long a time, at so little cost.

Our easy payment plan enables you to secure any of the many models of Victor and Columbia machines, at once, with a small payment down and the balance in monthly installments.

You can come here and pick out the records you want and hear them before you buy them. We will gladly play for you any selection at any time that you may wish to listen to it, and in case you decide on buying a machine, we will make terms to suit.
