STUART WANTS TO SEE GRANT'S LETTER TO DAVIS

Illinois Veteran Does Not Believe That Union Commanders Ever Asked For Confederate Berths.

EDITOR SAYS THAT STATEMENT IS WRONG

He Said That Article Was Published With Misgiving and He Will Retract In Coming Issue.—G. A. R. Men Wroth.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Jas. E. Stuart, past commander of the Illinois G. A. R., issued a challenge last night to the Louisiana Historical Association to produce letters alleged to be in its possession in which Gen. U. S. Grant, Gen. G. H. Thomas and Admiral Farragut at one time offered their services to Jefferson Davis in the Confederate army. The challenge followed the statement made in Baltimore, Md., Saturday by Capt. A. L. Derosssett, of Wilmington, N. C., who said that these three distinguished officers applied to Davis for commissions "on January 15, 1861, according to the original copies of letters which are in the museum of the Louisiana Historical association."

Contents of Letters Unknown. New Orleans, La., Nov. 11.—In regard to the above dispatch, Col. J. A. Chalson, custodian of Memorial hall in this city, said:

"Mrs. Jefferson Davis consigned several packages of letters to the care of the hall and these are to be opened only when authority is given us to do so."

"This authority rests with her daughter, Mrs. Hayes, of Colorado Springs. I do not know the contents of these letters."

Thinks It Untrue.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 11.—S. A. Cunningham, publisher of the Confederate Veteran of this city, the official organ of the United Confederate veterans, stated today in regard to the "publication that Generals Grant and Thomas and Admiral Farragut applied to President Davis for commissions in the Confederate army," that the publication of a letter in the Veteran, he had misgivings as to the correctness of the statement and an investigation convinced him that it was erroneous.

As a result the December number of the Veteran will contain a correction.

Met Hayes Does Not Know.

Colorado Springs, Nov. 11.—In an interview today Mrs. J. A. Hayes, daughter of President Davis of the Southern Confederacy, said:

"I do not know anything about the contents of those letters, nor do I know whether Generals Grant and Thomas or Admiral Farragut ever applied to my father for commissions. I never heard my parents make any mention of their having done so."

She added that she was going to New Orleans in February and would take counsel with friends and relatives regarding opening the letters.

RUSSIA WILL HAVE THIRD PARLIAMENT.

St. Petersburg, Russia, Nov. 11.—It was announced today that the third Russian parliament will assemble on Nov. 14 at the Tauride palace.

"BLACK HUNDRED" WOULD KILL NEW YORK EDITOR

Sends Him a Letter Telling of His Approaching Sudden Demise.

New York, Nov. 11.—A death threat letter, said to have been written by Russian nationalists, has been received by Louis Miller, editor of the Jewish newspaper, "Warheit." The letter has been condemned to death by the foreign society, it is said, because of attacks upon the Russian government by his newspaper.

The letter, which was mailed at Geneva, Switzerland, warns Miller known as M. Bander, while a revolutionist, that he has been condemned to death by the "Black Hundred" for aiding the terrorists.

The letter received by the Jewish editor has been turned over to the postal authorities, who will aid the local officials in finding and punishing the sender and in protecting the editor. Miller says he does not fear the black hundred which he declares is afraid of a cave man.

ENTOMBED BUT UNHURT MINER WAITS FOR DEATH

Blast Covers Him So Securely That He Cannot be Reached.

WILL REQUIRE A YEAR TO FIND HIS BODY

Mahoney City, Pa., Nov. 11.—Alive and unhurt but in darkness that will never be lifted, Michael McCabe, a miner, is awaiting certain death by starvation eight hundred feet beneath the surface in the Draper colliery near here.

While at work McCabe fired a blast that blew away one of the mine pillars. He fled in the wrong direction and got into a blind shaft. The mine officials say that it may be a year before it will be possible to reach the place where the man is shut up.

Seen by Companions. McCabe was noticed by other miners just before he fired the blast. He retired to a proper distance and stepped behind a projection in the wall. After the explosion, he was seen to run away from the falling roof in a direction that took him past all means of egress and before he could return the only opening was filled so full of debris that escape must elapse before it can be drilled through.

Is Alive. That McCabe is alive is certain for his comrades have been able to communicate with him through cracks in the strata which engulfed him, but he is so far removed from all openings in the shaft that no food can be sent down to him. It is believed that McCabe will commit suicide when hunger and thirst begin to affect him severely and he realizes that he cannot be reached in time to save his life. Rescue parties are now working and will continue the work until they reach the body though it may require a year.

HARRIMAN WILL AGAIN TAKE WITNESS STAND

New York, Nov. 11.—Efforts to compel E. H. Harriman to answer the questions propounded to him last spring by the Interstate Commerce commission concerning the Chicago and Alton railroad will be renewed next Wednesday.

C. A. Severance of counsel for the commission has arrived here. He will appear next week before Judge Hough in the United States circuit court, where he will argue in behalf of the petition which asks that the financier be compelled to answer the inquiries.

Mr. Harriman refused to answer when asked whether he owned any shares of the Alton stock sold to the Union Pacific on the ground that it was not within the province of the inquirer.

SKYSCRAPER'S DOOM HAS BEEN SEALED

New York, Nov. 11.—The doom of the modern skyscraper has probably been sounded in this city by the drastic regulations which have been unanimously adopted by the building code commission. These regulations provide that after January 1 no building shall exceed 250 feet in height.

UNITED STATES GOT ALL ENGLAND'S GOLD TODAY

Everything Snapped Up at Considerably Cheaper Rates of Exchange.

NEW YORK SITUATION HAS BECOME NORMAL

New York, Nov. 11.—The week opened with a cheerful tone in the financial district. The two trust companies against which there had been severe runs, were transacting business on a normal basis, receiving deposits and paying out money on checks as if nothing had happened. The flow of gold from Europe to the United States continued. The total engagements since the stringency began are $51,831,810. The United States secured practically all of $3,000,000 gold offered in London today.

There was little competition and the American banks secured it at 5-8 d per pound sterling cheaper than last week. The stock market showed a steady tone during the early trading.

Got It All.

London, Nov. 11.—The United States secured practically the whole pounds sterling of $30,000,000 gold available today in the open market. In the absence of competition the price was reduced 5-8 to 11 1/2 d.

RECEIVER ASKED FOR ARIZONA CONCERN

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 11.—An application was made to Judge Manning in the United States district court here today for the appointment of a receiver for the Consolidated Arizona Smelting company. The application was made upon behalf of Frank L. Crocker, of New York, who alleges that the assets of the company are in a chaotic state, due to attachments in Arizona and charges of insolvency. Counsel for the company opposed the application and denied the insolvency. The judge took the application under advisement. The capitalization of the various companies involved is $17,000,000.

EMPEROR ARRIVES IN ENGLAND DURING DENSE FOG

Party Was Delayed Several Hours Off Portsmouth by Bad Weather Conditions in the Bay.

FORMALLY GREETED BY PRINCE OF WALES

Sarcastic English Admiral Reprimanded by His Superior For Issuing Orders Alleged to Have Been Insulting to Kaiser.

Portsmouth, Eng., Nov. 11.—Owing to an impenetrable fog, the imperial yacht, having on board Emperor William, the empress and other members of the imperial party, who are to visit King Edward and Queen Alexandra, was unable to cross the harbor bar here on the early tide and did not reach the jetty until three hours after the appointed time this afternoon.

The Prince of Wales, delegated by King Edward to welcome the German emperor and empress, accompanied by Field Marshal Lord Roberts, boarded a torpedo boat, which went out in the darkness, and succeeded in getting on board the imperial yacht just as it was for lifting sufficiently to enable the Hohenzollern to proceed to Portsmouth.

Will Go to Palace. The party will proceed at once to Windsor and the king will formally greet his German relative here. The Prince of Wales and Field Marshal Roberts will act as escorts during the trip to the palace. The German party, despite the lateness of their arrival in this city, was met with a tremendous demonstration.

An extraordinary incident has come to light in connection with the visit of Emperor William. It is related that at the conclusion of recent maneuvers the channel fleet and the first cruiser squadron were ordered by the admiralty to repaint, etc. In honor of the German prince. Upon receipt of this order Sir Percy Scott, commander of the cruiser squadron, sent the following signal to two of his vessels:

"Paint work appears to be more in demand than gunnery, so you had better come in time to look pretty by the 8th inst."

Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, in a general order to the fleet repeating the instructions to repaint, refers to the signal sent out by Sir Percy Scott as "contemptuous in tone and insubordinate in character" and orders Sir Percy to have it stricken from the signal log.

Sir Percy Scott and the members of his staff were summoned aboard Admiral Beresford's flagship last Friday and the admiral's reprimand was read to them. This affair has created consternation in the fleet and there is a probability that it will lead to the resignation of Sir Percy.

Rear Admiral Sir Percy Scott is probably the best versed officer on gunnery in the British navy, and is well known as the man who saved Ladysmith in 1899, because he devised a special carriage for the 6-inch and 4.7-inch guns from the cruiser Murchison, whereby these pieces were carried by rail into Ladysmith just before its investment by the Boers. Sir Percy was noted in and about the Boer war, and he has made commandant, and for his blunt and direct statements.

NEW MEXICO PHYSICIAN WINS ST. LOUIS BRIDE

Went to Attend Sister's Wedding and Fell Victim to Cupid.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 11.—A St. Louis society girl has promised to become mistress of a New Mexican hacienda, and at a reception to be given this afternoon the engagement will be announced of Miss Mahelle Sanders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Sanders, of 4393 West Pine boulevard, to Dr. Percy J. Farmer, a local physician, who was married to the daughter of his sister, Miss Eva Marguerite Farmer, and Thos. Deadrick Farmer.

Something about the environment gave Dr. Farmer a dread of going back to his big estate and the man-turism he owns alone. In St. Louis he had a beautiful former patient in Miss Sanders, and he exercised his professional prerogative of calling on the lady to assure himself that she had completely recovered from throat trouble, but he sent her to his care in New Mexico last spring. He found the lady dangerously well.

Since his sojourn in St. Louis he has renewed his suit, with more success, and the young lady has yielded to his efforts to take her back to the perpetual spring of the foot hills. The reception this afternoon, at which the announcement is to be made, is at the home of Miss Helen Dillon, daughter of Judge Daniel Dillon. Miss Dillon is an intimate friend of Miss Sanders, and has closely guarded the secret of the engagement during the very short time that it has existed.

The list of those present includes mining men from Mexico, New Mexico, Colorado, California, and practically every other mining community in the country. Joplin has extended them a welcome which insures them a good time while in the city and today's session proved that the welcome was well bestowed.

President J. H. Richardson, now serving his fifth year, delivered his address at the opening session this afternoon.

Stock, editor of Mines and Minerals, Scranton, Pa.; Dr. Erasmus H. Swarth, of the Lawrence university, Kansas; Dr. James Douglas, New York City; Thomas Ewing, Vivian, Arizona; Dr. E. R. Buckley, of the School of Mines of Missouri at Rolla; Hon. A. L. White, Lima, Ohio; Judge E. A. Colburn, Denver, Colo.; Hon. John Derr, Salt Lake City, Utah; Colonel George W. E. Dorsey, Fremont, Neb.; W. R. Ingalls, New York City, who will report on uniform laws governing mining; Dr. J. A. Holmes, Washington, D. C., who will speak on wasting the nation's resources; Dr. Waldemar Lindgren, and Gregorio Griego, of Texas county, former member of the grand jury. The true bills were the outcome of the recent contempt proceeding, at which Alarid and Griego were fined $200 for an attempt to influence the grand jury in not returning indictments in connection with alleged coal land frauds in San Juan county.

INDICTMENTS AGAINST ALARID AND GRIEGO

Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 11.—(Special.)—Indictments charging perjury were returned this morning by the federal grand jury against Ricardo Alarid, a local justice of the peace, and Gregorio Griego, of Texas county, former member of the grand jury. The true bills were the outcome of the recent contempt proceeding, at which Alarid and Griego were fined $200 for an attempt to influence the grand jury in not returning indictments in connection with alleged coal land frauds in San Juan county.

RUMOR OF ANNA GOULD'S MARRIAGE WILL NOT DOWN

American Relatives Deny That Former Countess Has Wed a Prince.

HE HAS BEEN FREQUENT VISITOR AT HER HOME

New York, Nov. 11.—Members of the Gould family here deny that they know anything of the alleged marriage of Anna Gould Castellane, who secured a divorce from Count Boni Castellane a few weeks since, to Prince Helie de Sagan. They declare that such a marriage would not have taken place without their knowledge, though they admit that the prince and Mme. Gould are very good friends and that such a marriage might not be disliked by all her relatives, though they do not believe she would wed so soon after securing a separation from Castellane.

Mme. Gould is now at her country home, the Chateau de Marais, near St. Cher, France, but all reports from there are that she refuses to see interviews and will not talk of the reported marriage.

She is entertaining a party of friends and at a recent hunt, Prince Sagan, who is a frequent visitor at her home, was an honored guest.

Prince Helie de Sagan is one of the popular noblemen of Europe and it would be a match that would be pleasing to many noble families should the rumor that he has wedded the former countess be true, since she as the wife of Count Boni made herself greatly liked in the royal houses.

The Gould family in America, however, including George Gould, who has just returned from abroad, insists that the marriage could not have taken place without their knowledge and that they do not know of it.

WILL TREAT NEW MEXICO LIKE OTHERS

Washington, Nov. 11.—(Special.)—In reply to a query by a Citizen correspondent as to whether the land cases now before the United States court in New Mexico are to be prosecuted, the assistant attorney general for the interior department, Mr. Woodruff, said today:

"Suits, both civil and criminal, which have been, or may be, instituted in the territory of New Mexico, are exactly in the same position as though they had been begun in any other state or territory. They will be conducted on the same principles. If there is any sufficient valid reason for dismissing a suit when once instituted, it will avail in New Mexico, if it would have been effective in Montana. On the contrary, if any suit should have been vigorously prosecuted in Montana under the same circumstances it will, as far as the department of the interior can bring it about, be vigorously prosecuted in New Mexico. In other words, I can say for the secretary of the interior, at least, that New Mexico is not considered in any different light than any other public land state or territory."

Pool of Largest Consumers of Europe Buys 50,000 Pounds of Metal.

New York, Nov. 11.—A pool in which the largest consumers of Europe are represented, says the Times today, was recently formed in London and purchased fifty thousand tons of copper at a price slightly above the market. The amount involved is approximately fifteen million dollars which is to be paid in London on delivery in November and December.

The deal was kept secret at the time it was made and no more stir in the market was noticed than a slightly increased price would ordinarily make. The pool is said to be worth hundreds of millions and will be in the market in the near future for an even larger amount than it first purchased.

MYSTERIOUS POISON CAUSED BAKER'S DEATH

Autopsy on Remains of Rich Clubman Points to Little Known South American Drug.

A CHEMIST FINDS CURARE IN STOMACH

Would Ordinarily Have Resulted in Instant Dissolution but to a Man Accustomed to Drink Would Act Much More Slowly.

Boston, Nov. 11.—That Walter Farnsworth Baker, the rich clubman who died mysteriously at the home of Frank H. Hurd, at Bogota, N. J., two weeks ago, was killed by a subtle and little known poison, the detection of which puzzles the great chemist who is analyzing the contents of his stomach, is believed by the attorneys and officers who are investigating the strange case.

From what has so far resulted from the chemical analysis that is being made by Dr. William F. Boos, the expert chemist at the Massachusetts general hospital, it is declared that this mysterious poison was curare, a drug about which next to nothing is known in this country, but which is familiar to South American Indians.

A fact which gives color to the suspicion that the deadly South American drug was used in the killing of Baker is that a man who is today under police investigation in this city has spent years of his life in South America and was well acquainted with the natives and many of their habits and customs.

Curare Very Deadly. "Curare is one of the deadliest poisons known, and from what I know of Walter Baker's death it is possible that this deadly drug might have been the cause," declared Dr. Francis A. Donoghue.

Curare, while it usually acts almost instantly, is so deadly that it would, when introduced into a stomach blunted and weakened by the prolonged use of alcohol, as was that of Baker, act more slowly, and it might not produce death until some hours after it was administered, declare chemists who know something about the insidious drug. Curare is a vegetable alkaloid, coming from a bean that is used in the same general family as that from which strychnine is obtained, but its action is opposite to that of strychnine. Strychnine is used as an antidote for it.

Ever since the investigation of the contents of Baker's stomach has pointed to the use of this insidious drug the detectives and police have been working on a clue that leads to a somewhat different direction, than that at first taken, and the surveillance of a certain person has been more strict than before.

About to Leave Hurd Home. "I have reason to know that Walter F. Baker was making preparations to leave the Hurd home forever," said a friend of Edward F. Baker, mother of the dead man. "Walter loved his mother very much and her death came as a great shock to him. He always picked his brother, Edward F. Baker, of this city, and he was usually governed by his advice."

"Not more than five weeks ago Walter paid his last visit to Boston, and to his relative here said: 'Ed, you may expect me back with you. I can no longer remain in a house where fighting is the chief pastime.'"

$15,000,000 WORTH OF COPPER BOUGHT IN LONDON

Pool of Largest Consumers of Europe Buys 50,000 Pounds of Metal.

New York, Nov. 11.—A pool in which the largest consumers of Europe are represented, says the Times today, was recently formed in London and purchased fifty thousand tons of copper at a price slightly above the market. The amount involved is approximately fifteen million dollars which is to be paid in London on delivery in November and December.

The deal was kept secret at the time it was made and no more stir in the market was noticed than a slightly increased price would ordinarily make. The pool is said to be worth hundreds of millions and will be in the market in the near future for an even larger amount than it first purchased.

It is believed that this enormous purchase of metal will stimulate other buyers and that the copper market will arise to its full strength in a few weeks.

Oakland Bank Suspended.

Oakland, Cal., Nov. 11.—The Union National bank closed its doors today, because of its connection with the California Trust company.

RAILROAD DEPARTMENT

SANTA FE MAY TRY STEEL TIES

Railroad Men of Country Much Interested in the New Invention.

Railroad men in this city are being interested in a new steel cross tie. It is claimed for the tie that it may be used with any form of rail clamps. The new tie is formed by pressing or bending a flat piece of steel plate or sheet into "box" form, leaving a longitudinal slot or open space between the abutting lateral edges of the blank which now form the bottom of the tie. The result is a tie of downwardly and outwardly flaring sides, which, although formed of relatively thin material, is of great strength owing to its contour.

The thrust of traffic, owing to its flaring sides, is safely assumed without danger of rupture or flattening, and the body of the tie is resilient enough to take up the wave motion and vibrations of traffic. The result is a tie which does not tend to upset and does not "round the rail" as do the steel ties of girder or I-beam types, which are of rigid construction and have been condemned by railway experts because of their inability to assume the vibration and wave motion caused by traffic.

Of Light Material.
The peculiar structure of the tie enables much lighter material to be used for bending without sacrificing strength. For street railway use, where the tie is embedded under the surface of paving, there is offered a simple form of tie made by bending up a flat piece of skelp of a thickness running from three-sixteenths of an inch up to one-eighth of the point where the rail traverses the tie top in which is seated the fastener.

To the arm of the slots are holes through which bolts extend loosely downward to engage the bolt holes in the lower arms of the Z-shaped fasteners. By tightening the bolts the lower arms of the fasteners are raised and the upper arms correspondingly depressed thus clamping down firmly against the base of the rail.

Several Kinds of Fasteners.
Several types of fasteners are offered. Where, as in ordinary street railway work, the rail is not shifted to take up wear, a simple Z-shaped fastener, having a single engaging face on its upper arm to clamp down upon the rail base, is recommended. Where it is desirable to shift the rail after it has been in service a sufficiently long period to seriously enlarge the track gauge, the type of fastener having a plurality of engaging faces is offered. Thus when the rail is first put into service the outside fastener would engage the rail base with its lower or first engaging face, while the inside fastener would engage the rail base with its second or upper engaging face.

When the rail is worn sufficiently to require shifting to regauge the track, the rail is shifted inwardly and the outside fastener will engage the rail base with its second or upper engaging face, while the inside fastener will engage the rail base with its first or lower engaging face. It is evident that the different shifted positions of the rail are limited in number only, by the number of engaging faces of the fasteners. The new tie is the only steel tie on which the position of the rail may be adjusted.

Accommodates Any Size Rail.
By providing a plurality of engaging faces for the fasteners, it is evident that a broad range of rail base widths can be accommodated on the same tie, so that 100-pound, 90-pound, 80-pound, or any other size or character of rail may be laid on one of the ties without modification of the tie itself. The new tie is, therefore, "standard," and different sizes need not be ordered for different characters of rails.

When it is desired to use one rail as a part of an electric signal circuit, as in the case of block signals, one rail of the track is insulated by the use of insulating rail clamps or fasteners which embrace not only the base, but also the web of the rail bearing against the web thereof, and securing between themselves and the surfaces of the rail sheets or plates of insulating fiber of character used at present on the main railway systems in connection with their signals.

JUDGE ACQUITS SLOAN OF ASSAULT CHARGE.
The case of the territory against Robert Sloan, charged with an assault with deadly weapon on the person of William Allison, came up for preliminary hearing before Justice of Peace H. P. Brown this morning and the prisoner was discharged.

Allison's wife testified in behalf of the accused, and said that she only went to Sloan's room to ask him to go out and buy some lunch, although both Allison and Sloan testified that the cutting affray took place at about 2 o'clock in the morning and that the guilty wife was in the closet at the time. What Mrs. Allison wanted with a lunch at that hour is peculiar at least.

The judge in rendering his verdict, stated that every man's home was his castle and that Allison had no right in there and consequently Sloan had a right to defend himself. W. B. Bunker appeared for the defendant.

GOULD LINES FIREMEN PRESENT A VEXED QUESTION.
St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 11.—General Manager Sullivan of the Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain will return to St. Louis headquarters today from San Antonio, after attending the joint conference on St. Louis-Mexico semi-weekly train de luxe service, to be resumed for the winter season. The management would appear to be in somewhat of a dilemma with regard to the differences that exist between the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Brotherhood of Firemen.

hood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers. This latter is polling those of its members who are employed on the Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain system on the question of demanding representation of engineers who are members of the brotherhood. Several conferences have taken place with the management on the question of representation, and the matter figured incidentally at the recent conferences in St. Louis between Labor Commissioner Neill and the committee of engineers on the one hand and the Gould lines management on the other.

It is believed that a satisfactory solution of the problem may be reached without calling for the mediation of the labor department.

RAILROADS LOSE $60,000 ON MAIL TRAIN SCHEDULES.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 11.—About $60,000 more was clipped off from the railroads' pay during the September quarter by the postoffice department for failures to make schedule time with mail trains. Two main roads are thus fined, the western roads figuring and the amounts deducted from their pay for the quarter being as follows: Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern, $62,415; Big Four, Cincinnati to Kankakee, $19,113; Wabash, St. Louis to Kansas City, $18,745; Chicago & Alton, Wabash to Kansas City, $2,521; Louisville, Iron Mountain & Southern, Kirkwood branch connections, $24,581; Atchafalaya, Topeka & Santa Fe, Kansas City to La Junta, $6,741.

The Pennsylvania railroad was fined $22,49 for failing to make schedule time between Indianapolis and St. Louis.

WILL CONTINUE TO PROSECUTE SANTA FE.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 11.—Following the large fine imposed upon the Santa Fe railway by Judge Wells in the federal district court United States District Attorney Lawrence announced that he would proceed at the coming January term of court to prosecute the road upon the remaining indictments of ten counts charging rebating. In the latter case actual rebating is charged, the government accusing the road of accepting the full tariff rate and then returning a portion of it to the Grand Canyon Lime and Cement company. In the case in which the company was fined yesterday the full amount of the tariff was never paid. The offenses were committed between May, 1905, and July, 1906. Santa Fe attorneys busy preparing their appeals of the cases upon which the company was sentenced yesterday.

$1,000 SCATTERED OVER EXPRESS CAR.

Las Vegas, N. M., Nov. 11.—A thousand silver dollars scattered over the floor of an express car at the Santa Fe depot last evening caused considerable excitement among the loungers about the tracks.

The First National bank received a consignment of silver $12,000, it is understood, all done up in sacks of $1,000 each. One of the men in handling the money dropped a sack and the contents flew in all directions.

With so much silver in sight the depot loafers came to the conclusion that the money crisis was over and the report was circulated today that the banks had received $1,000,000 and that all the clearing house certificates would be taken up by the banks today.

VACCINATING RAILROAD TIES IN THE TROPICS.

"Railway ties are vaccinated in the tropics," said an engineer. "Vaccination prolongs their life three or four times over."

"You see, the soft wood of these ties, unprotected, falls a quick prey to the innumerable fierce hosts of ants and worms and other tropical insects. They go for an unvaccinated sleeper as a tramp goes for a pie, and in a few weeks it is reduced to dust."

"But we vaccinate them. We inject into them creosote, or sulphate of copper, or some other antiseptic. Then, immune to the tropical insects, attacks, they last as long as they would on the Pennsylvania or the Erie line."—The Evening Wisconsin.

Pullman earnings for the fiscal year ending July 31 will be close to 22 million dollars. Final returns are not in the official hands, but enough is known to show that this year was not only the best by far in the company's history, but also that the ratio of increase in past few years has been maintained. The net earnings for the year will show some increase, possibly $600,000.

TWO KILLED ON SANTA FE AT COLTON, CALIFORNIA.

Colton, Cal., Nov. 11.—The Colton switch engine on the Santa Fe took a wrong switch at the ice house one mile north of town, last night and ran into the ditch. Conductor James C. McGregor and brakeman J. J. Stauffer were riding on the front and were buried beneath the engine, being instantly killed.

G. C. Macher, who has been Santa Fe agent at Silver City since February 1st, was checked out yesterday and will be succeeded by G. C. Lucas of Albuquerque. Mr. Macher goes to Deming as Santa Fe agent at that point, the Deming agent being transferred to Mesilla Park.

It is stated that a German engineer has purchased a cow which gives "two gallons of milk and two pounds of butter every day, twice a week, some times. It is a Dutch conductor that makes the statement and its "straightness" may be a trifle elastic.

Are You Sure Your Kidneys are Well?

Many rheumatic attacks are due to acid in the blood. Its presence there shows the kidneys are inactive. Don't dally with "uric acid solvents." You might go on till doomsday with them, but until you cure the kidneys, the acid will never get well. Doan's Kidney Pills not only remove uric acid, but cure the kidneys and then all danger from uric acid is ended.

Anselmo Armijo, living at 124 Cerillos street, Santa Fe, N. M., says: "For several years my wife suffered a great deal from backache, pain in the back of her head and neuralgia. Medicines that she used proved of little or no avail until she commenced with Doan's Kidney Pills, which we had the good fortune to learn of and procured a box at Ireland's Pharmacy. The genuineness of this medicine as a cure for the kidneys was amply proven in her case. After using five boxes she was a well woman and has enjoyed good health ever since. I make this statement unhesitatingly prompted to do so that I may show my appreciation of this remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills."

"WOMAN AGAINST WOMAN" IN THE FAMOUS BRADLEY CASE

Mrs. Adams Will Go on Stand to Testify Against Slayer of U. S. Senator Brown.

Mrs. Annie Adams, Whose Marriage to Senator Brown was Prevented by Mrs. Bradley's Bullets.

Washington, Nov. 11.—"Woman Against Woman" and "A Woman Scorned" are two of the sensational features that will develop when the trial of Mrs. Annie Bradley for the murder of her faithless lover, former United States Senator Arthur Brown, begins this week.

Did Mrs. Annie A. Adams, whose marriage to Senator Brown was prevented by Mrs. Bradley's bullets, know of the existence of Mrs. Bradley and of the wrong that he had done her, the mother of his children?

It has been stated that Mrs. Adams was absolutely ignorant of the relation that existed for years between Mrs. Bradley and Brown and of the fact that only a month before his death he had told Mrs. Bradley in the most passionate language that he loved her and her alone.

But friends of the frail woman in jail here say that this is incredible since even his most casual friends could have given her all details, and the story of the attachment was common gossip among the women of Utah.

It is even asserted now that Mrs. Bradley wrote Mrs. Adams a pleading letter begging her not to wrong a woman so dependent on Senator Brown for her livelihood and for the future of her children. It is alleged that a copy of this letter will be produced at the trial.

Through business sources it is also alleged that Mrs. Bradley got information that Senator Brown had made very generous settlements on his prospective bride. He had neglected to provide for Mrs. Bradley and her two children under the new arrangement, and without a doubt this precipitated the shooting. Mrs. Bradley was aware that no hope remained of getting any provision for her children if once the marriage was consummated.

Mrs. Adams, who is the mother of Maud Adams, the actress, apparently takes much comfort in Mrs. Bradley's frequent expression that she acted to avenge her children and not through jealousy of any other woman. But it is not generally believed that this will be much balm for Brown's fiancée when the trial is on.

Mrs. Bradley's motive so far as it affects the other woman will be the

SHE CUT HOLES IN OTHER'S CLOTHES

Insane Woman Made Life Miserable For Washer-Maids In Segundo.

Trinidad, Colo., Nov. 11.—Armed with a pair of shears with which she made raids on neighbor's clothes lines, cutting their wash into strips and ribbons, is one of the charges made against Mrs. Tomas Brown, of Segundo, who was arrested last night and is in the county jail awaiting trial for insanity. It is alleged that Mrs. Brown would also attack children on the streets, and slash their clothing into threads and that she laughed hysterically at the result of her handiwork, which she considered a good joke. Her own clothing was by no means immune, and was constantly being ripped and torn.

Officials say that several fine silk dresses suffered mutilation at her hand, and a number of new winter cloaks were slit down the back by the woman with the strange mania. Mrs. Brown's arrest was caused by a woman from whose trunk she removed nearly all of her wearing apparel, and cut it up into unrecognizable bits.

The arrest of Mrs. Brown, according to the statement from Sheriff Kreeger has set at ease the fears of all those women of Segundo, who have been keeping their good clothes hid away in their trunks. Now that she is in jail and will in all probability be sent to the asylum, they are getting out their good clothes without fear that they may at any time have the scissors jabbed into them, and a large piece cut out by the eccentric old lady.

She was arrested yesterday by Under Sheriff Kreeger and brought to Trinidad and placed in the county jail. She was sick when she went after her and had been so for several weeks, but her illness did not interfere with her mania for destroying clothes. Since her arrest yesterday afternoon she has refused to take even the most delectable foods and even chicken or ice cream has not appealed to her. Mrs. Brown has no access to any sharp instrument in the jail so that, of course, she is now wearing whole clothes.

Her trial will probably be held tomorrow.

ESTANCIA COURT HOUSE SITE OFFER

Col. Hopewell Would Give Town Lots Near Business Center.

Estancia, N. M., Nov. 11.—Col. W. S. Hopewell, general manager of the New Mexico Fuel and Iron Company, while here recently discussed the location of the court house, having understood that there was some disagreement over the location, some favoring the site in the northwestern part of the townsite, and others clamoring for a site in the south end of town. Mr. Hopewell is anxious to avoid sectional strife in town and is trying to compromise the affair. As a compromise measure he offers to donate instead of the block offered some three years ago, and fenced at that time by the county commissioners, the "east" half of the first block just inside the east end of the park for a court house site.

Near Town's Center.
This location is almost the center of the townsite and would face the park proper, thus making it an ideal court house site. It is within easy access to the business center of the town and the depot and with all that is up to the citizens to agree on some location as nearly central as possible, and see that the commissioners of the county do their duty, and get the court house under way. Mr. Hopewell further offers to deed to a board of trustees in trust for the town, when it shall have been incorporated, the four blocks of the park and four lots of the east end of each of the two blocks west of the park for park purposes. He does this so that the park may be taken care of, trees set out and cared for, and a beginning made in beautifying the land. The Commercial club discussed this matter at the meeting on Tuesday and will probably act on the matter at the next meeting.

With the dry, cold weather of the early winter months, parents of croupy children should be on the alert for ominous symptoms. There is no cause for anxiety, however, when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is kept in the home. If this medicine is given as soon as child becomes hoarse or even after the croupy cough has appeared, the attack may be warded off. Mrs. S. LOS ANGELES WOULD BE EASY PREY FOR ENEMY'S WARSHIPS

Nothing to Prevent Any Foreign Power From "Side-Swiping" the Western Coast of the States at Pleasure.

A Busy Day at the San Pedro Wharf.
Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 11.—"It is far no one has hardly suggested the use of San Pedro harbor as a naval base. I believe a grave mistake will be made if San Pedro is not considered as an important point from which to direct great naval maneuvers."

An expert was questioning U. S. Army Engineer Capt. Amos A. Frier, who is in charge of fortifications in the Los Angeles district as well as being chief engineer of the great 9000-ft. breakwater that is to give San Pedro a magnificent harbor. "There is nothing in the world to prevent such a capture," replied Capt. Frier.

"Didn't a fleet protect the port?"
"Not from where it is now, the Atlantic Ocean. Furthermore, the eastern lawmakers don't even want the fleet to visit the Pacific coast, let alone remain here to protect the weak spots."

Further questioning showed the army engineer to be tremendously interested in adequate Pacific coast fortification, or, to be more exact, the present lack of it.

"But you have not covered the biggest point in the question," he continued. "Once an enemy captured San Pedro, it would be in possession of the most strategic point on the entire coast for a base from which to operate. Los Angeles has large stores of provisions, fruits and grains. With the many towns around her, such as Redlands, Pasadena, San Bernardino, Pomona, Long Beach, Riverside, Santa Monica and Santa Ana, Los Angeles would be an exceedingly rich prize."

A Railroad Terminus.
"Superior advantages would be added to this city as a base for an enemy by the many railroad lines tapping the district. Los Angeles is a great railroad terminus, having three railroads to the east and three to the north."

"Yet there is not a single gun to protect San Pedro. I believe San Pedro should not only be adequately fortified, but that dry docks should be constructed in San Pedro harbor for the taking care of battleships. What amazes me is that so

OLD SORES KEPT OPEN BY IMPURITIES IN THE BLOOD

If Old Sores were due to outside influences, or if the cause was confined strictly to the diseased flesh around the ulcer, then external treatment and simple cleanliness would cure them. But the trouble is in the blood, which becomes unhealthy and diseased, and keeps the sore open by continually discharging into it the impurities and poisons with which the circulation is filled. This poisonous condition of the blood may be the remains of some constitutional trouble; the effect of a long spell of sickness, or because the natural refuse of the body, which should pass off through the proper avenues, has been left in the system and absorbed into the blood. Again, the cause may be hereditary; but it does not matter how the poison becomes entrenched in the blood, the fact that the sore will not heal is evidence of a deep underlying cause. Salves, washes, lotions, etc., may cause the place to scab over temporarily, but the blood is not made any purer by such treatment, and soon the old inflammation and discharge will return and the sore be as bad or worse than before. S. S. S. goes down to the very bottom of the trouble, cleanses and purifies the blood, and makes a permanent cure. S. S. S. enriches and freshens the circulation so that instead of discharging unhealthy matter into the place, it carries rich tissue-building, flesh-building blood to the diseased parts and in every way assists in a natural cure of the sore. BORN--AN IDEA

ABOUT THE RAREST THING THAT EVER HAPPENS IN THIS OLD WORLD OF OURS, IS THE BIRTH OF A NEW IDEA, AND THE FORTUNATE POSSESSOR OF A FINE LARGE ONE IS WORTH MORE TO HIMSELF AND MORE TO THE WORLD THAN THE SANTA FE RAILROAD.

PSYCHOLOGISTS, WHO MAKE A BUSINESS OF SORTING OUT IDEAS AND SPYING INTO THE WAYS THEY ARE BORN, SAY THAT AFTER YOU PASS THE AGE OF ABOUT TWENTY, YOUR IDEA-BEARING DAYS ARE ETERNALLY OVER. IF YOU ARE STILL ON THE TENDER SIDE OF THIS AGE—AND ARE WISE—YOU MAY WISH TO READ THIS STATEMENT AGAIN.

NOW THE ALBUQUERQUE CITIZEN CARRIES IDEAS IN STOCK, WHERE THEY CAME FROM AND WHO THEIR PARENTS ARE, IS NEITHER HERE NOR THERE. SOME OF THEM RUN ALONG THE LINES OF BUSINESS BUILDING AND TRADE GETTING. THESE IDEAS WILL BE SOLD, LEASED OR RENTED TO THE PUBLIC, FOR CASH OR ON THE INSTALLMENT PLAN.

THEY KEEP A YOUNG FELLOW AROUND THE OFFICE, AND PAY HIM EVERY WEEK, TO DO NOTHING BUT LOOK AFTER THE ADVERTISING. THERE IS NOTHING HE LIKES BETTER THAN TO HAVE SOME ONE COME IN AND SAY: "THERE I WANT TO SPEND $50.00 EVERY MONTH IN ADVERTISING. I WISH YOU WOULD TAKE THE WHOLE THING OFF MY HANDS, AND RUN IT AS YOU THINK BEST. I HAVE OTHER MATTERS TO CARE FOR, AND YOU PROBABLY KNOW MORE ABOUT IT THAN I, ANYWAY."

A NUMBER OF ALBUQUERQUE BUSINESS MEN HAVE ALREADY MADE SUCH ARRANGEMENTS—MORE ARE DOING IT EVERY DAY. ONE WISE MERCHANT, WHO ATTEMPTS TO DRAW A LINE DIVIDING THE PATRONAGE HE RECEIVES FROM ADVERTISING, FROM THAT COMING THROUGH OTHER CHANNELS, INFORMED US ONLY YESTERDAY THAT HIS ADVERTISEMENT IN THE ALBUQUERQUE CITIZEN DURING THE TWO MONTHS IT HAS RUN, HAS NETTED HIM SUFFICIENT TO PAY FOR THE ADVERTISEMENT FOR SIX MONTHS. ANY ADVERTISEMENT THAT PAYS FOR ITSELF IN DIRECT, IMMEDIATE RETURNS, IS A GOOD INVESTMENT, BECAUSE YOU GET YOUR MONEY BACK, AND THE EXTENDED PUBLICITY TO BOOT. BUT WHEN RESULTS ARE SUCH AS THIS MAN EXPERIENCED YOU ARE GETTING LITTLE LESS THAN A GOLD MINE.

THE FIRST MAN IN THE ADVERTISING FIELD REAPS THE FINEST OF THE WHEAT, THE LATE-COMERS GLEAN THE STUBBLES. DUKE, THE TOBACCO KING, IN CONVERSATION WITH THE WRITER ONCE SAID: "I BEGAN LIFE ON A STONE PATCH, WITH A WIFE, A BLIND MULE AND TEN DOLLARS. I AM NOW WORTH THIRTY TWO MILLION DOLLARS, BUT I HAVE SPENT FORTY MILLION IN ADVERTISING." PROBABLY NO MAN IN ALBUQUERQUE HAS HAD A MORE MODEST BEGINNING THAN MR. DUKE, AND THERE IS NO REASON WHY ANY MAN WITH EQUAL BUSINESS ABILITY, AND POSSESSED OF THE SAME BUSINESS FORESIGHT, SHOULD NOT SUCCEED AS WELL. IF THERE IS, STATE IT TO YOURSELF AND BE CONSOLED. IT IS AN OLD SAW, BUT A KEEN CUTTER, THAT SAYS: "IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE."

"STATEHOOD FOR NEW MEXICO"

Sailing Over the Boundless Waves

Albuquerque is unlike a whole lot of cities in this dear old world—for which her inhabitants are duly thankful but she has added to her eccentricities now by owning one of the biggest balloons in the country.

The balloon cost $1200 and trimmings.

It happened this way: When the fair association made a contract with Joseph Blondin, aeronaut, to operate a balloon during the big fair it bought the balloon for him, expecting to more than pay for it out of the aerial trips. It would have made good no doubt only the inflating apparatus wouldn't work. Albuquerque had plenty of hot air—all kinds of it—but this was a gas balloon. On the last days of the fair the big balloon made one trip filled with city gas and Rio Grande sand for ballast. Then it returned to earth and likewise to Albuquerque.

The question that now confronts the city is: What will we do with it? Some of the fair officials want to sell it to Taft, but he is too busy killing Philippine mules with autos.

Others think a good way to utilize the balloon would be to inflate it with city gas, load it with all the knuckers in town and set it adrift. This worthy plan would be all right except for the fact that it costs $200 to inflate the balloon and all the knuckers in town aren't worth that much one way or another.

A staid merchant, who rides a bicycle, suggests that the balloon be placed in the city park for the small boy to stick pins in, instead of the tires of his bicycle wheels.

The Citizen hasn't any suggestion to make. This paper is accustomed to taking a stand one way or another on every question of vital importance to this community. It is a duty the Citizen feels called upon to perform. But when it comes to a balloon—a great big bag with a wicker basket, settling down amongst us, Th Citizen is at loss as to just what course it is advisable to pursue. All this paper knows about it is that we've got one more balloon than we really have any particular use for. It doesn't inconvenience us any and we may eventually be able to operate it so as to carry our good citizens across the mud holes on Central avenue—of course, that's the solution of the thing. That's where the Citizen stands on the matter. By all means, let's turn the balloon over to Martin Tierney, our street commissioner, for use in case of emergency. The Citizen was about to say that any one really wanting a balloon could have this one, probably on reasonable terms, but come to think of it Albuquerque really needs that balloon until our new system of canals and lagoons is completed. Anyhow a big balloon is lots more unique than gondolas or row boats. Certainly, why not? Let us keep the balloon. As Aeronaut Blondin said of the air currents, "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good."

Did you know that in the cities, many of the largest business men are advertising by means of want ads. The want ad business of the larger papers forms the biggest department in the advertising line, and brings more results than any other form of advertising, with the exception of the big department store ads of price lists. This is a hint to the Albuquerque man or woman who wants something.

Aren't you glad you're not a bee. Another one of those bothersome old scientists says: It is said that bees must take the nectar from 62,000 clover blossoms to make one pound of honey. This means that they must make 2,750,000 trips from the hive to the flowers. And when the price of honey is taken into consideration it will readily be seen that the price of bee labor is too cheap.

A New York actress said that a pig was preferable to a millionaire and, too, a big fat porker auto riding on the seat beside her where a well known millionaire formerly sat. The actress may be right and against she may not be but at that—most actresses prefer to take their pork in chops and let the millionaire foot the bill.

What mollycoddles the Albuquerque boys are getting to be. They now play basket ball indoors and dance afterwards instead of manfully fracturing arms, legs and skulls on the gridiron. Probably the Albuquerque girls will now devote their time to sewing since the boys usurped their only real game.

Professor Headlee, of the Kansas Agricultural College, spent two weeks looking for green bugs in Pawnee county. No one seems to know why he wanted green bugs, but perhaps he could have seen a few if he had only patronized one of Larned's numerous drug stores.

Kansas City is engaged in a heated debate as to whether or not it wants Tom Johnson, Cleveland's re-elected mayor to speak there or not. It is said on the quiet, that Johnson isn't giving the matter any great amount of attention.

Chicago has given her telephone system away to a little bunch of special privilege grafters to keep for 20 years at fair prices. Of course, the aldermen will not be affected. They use the inexpensive frank.

They have raised the price of milk and shaves at Cottonwood Falls, Kan. Strong City, the neighboring town is going to take similar action with fish hooks and stick candy just to keep even.

It is barely possible that a part of that tribe of people recently discovered in Alaska is composed of individuals from different sections of the country who have "mysteriously disappeared."

A Kansas woman was accidentally shot in the head and killed while kneeling by a cook stove, which goes to show that the worst don't always happen while kneeling at the altar.

Cigars six inches in length are sold in the Philippines. With one of these in Uncle Joe Cannon's mouth at the usual angle he should easily carry de sixt' ward for president.

Thus far no reports have been received from Richard Pearson Hobson or Richard Harding Davis on the manner in which the Ute Indian uprising should have been settled.

A Colorado man killed himself to get away from his wife and she at once committed suicide also. Friends of the couple are now wondering which one won out.

Jim Hill says the recent financial flurry comes from people hoarding their money. Possibly some of them were hoarding it so they could control a few railroads.

If fresh eggs sell at five and one-sixth cents each in Albuquerque, which they do, how many cackles will it take to make the average rancher a millionaire?

Wall street's financial stringency doesn't appear to have affected the price of Rio Grande alfalfa in the least, for which we are all duly thankful.

The club women of Topeka are cooking without the use of fire. Topeka is a good town for attorneys who make a specialty of divorces.

The government is going to try and make the Ute Indian work. The best way will be to put him on a foot ball team or the war path.

The report that a western farmer sold his wheat crop for $70,000 is enough to turn the heads of some of the headlines in vaudeville.

When a Kansas druggist says a medicine is good for the liver he is always sure to make a sale. Kansas is a prohibition state.

LOOKING FOR A GOOD TIME?

There are about as many conceptions as to what constitutes a "good time" as there are individuals, but there is one place in New Mexico, not very far from Albuquerque, where 99 out of every 100 people find what they are looking for. That place is the Valley Ranch, at Pecos, New Mexico.

Fresh country produce in abundance, horses to ride or drive, dogs, guns, traps, tackle, all at your disposal. The finest hunting and fishing in the territory. You can live in a house, a cabin or a tent, and come and go as you please.

You'll find plenty of company there, agreeable and refined, if you are sociably inclined, a comfortable room for ladies. Conditions ideal for recuperating, reading or loafing.

You CAN'T SPEND MORE THAN NINE DOLLARS A WEEK ANY WAY YOU FIX IT.

Inquire at The Citizen Office for further particulars, or address The Valley Ranch.

The "Little Johnny Jones" company arrived from El Paso this morning on the early train. The players occupied two tourist sleeping cars and there were two baggage cars crammed full of scenery. A man arriving from El Paso this morning, who witnessed the Saturday afternoon performance of the company, says that "Little Johnny Jones" and his entire company are artists. The chorus is large and well drilled.

As a result of the breaking of a water main in the northern part of the city, and the subsequent shutting down of the plant while the break could be repaired, yesterday morning a number of bath tubs went unused and a large majority of the people of the city washed their faces in water taken sparingly from the kitchen lavatories. The death of water created a greater panic than the Sunday closing of the soda fountains.

EMINENT MISSIONARY DIES AT ST. JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL

Rev. E. S. Lyman, of Montreal, Canada, prominent in undenominational circles in this country and Canada, died Saturday morning in the St. Joseph's hospital from an operation which was performed a week previous.

He passed through Albuquerque recently on his way to Old Mexico to do missionary work. Two weeks ago he was taken sick at the City of Mexico and returned to this city. He was taken to St. Joseph's hospital and the operation was performed which later resulted in his death.

Rev. Lyman was a graduate of Yale, unmarried and aged 66 years. Services will be held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at St. Joseph's taking place under the direction of the North Fourth street Gospel Mission with which he was identified. Burial will be made at Fairview.

BURGLARS ATTEMPT DAYLIGHT ROBBERY

Burglars broke into the grocery store of Mr. Dragole, 300 North Broadway, in broad daylight yesterday morning, but were frightened away before they had time to take anything. An attempt was also made to enter the residence of Mr. Dragole, which adjoins the store.

Entrance was gained to the grocery store through a rear window. The screen was removed and the glass broken in the window. The window opened to a rear room of the store and the door to the store was locked. The burglars entered the rear room, but it is believed were frightened away before they had time to break into the store.

A screen was removed from a back window of Mr. Dragole's home and an attempt made to raise the screen, but the intruders were frightened away by members of the family.

DAILY SHORT STORIES

THE REWARD

"Ki-yi-yi-ki-yi!" yelled a little black dog as he fled from the missile of suburbanite Jones and dodged around the corner of neighbor Jackson, house into Philmot's tidy lawn.

Aaron Philmot, an eccentric bachelor of 45, was particularly proud of his beautiful lawn, and Jones expected the little stray dog to meet his doom.

But Philmot was not brutal. As the frightened canine rushed across the lawn and leaped upon the porch, a peculiar compassion filled his heart and he took the stranger into the house.

That night as the kindly bachelor sat beside the hearth and petted his new found friend, a notice in the evening paper attracted his attention.

"LOST, STRAYED OR STOLEN—A small black dog with a brown spot over the left eye. If found advise and receive reward. J. L. 121 B-st."

The description tallied exactly with the dog he had rescued. With a feeling akin to sorrow, for his heart longed for the affection manifested by the little fellow, Philmot went to his desk and wrote in his frank, bold script:

"J. L.—Call at 2906 C-st, and you may have the dog advertised in this evening's paper as lost."

"Yours truly,"

"AARON PHILMOT."

The following day he was surprised to receive a sweet-scented missive, addressed by a feminine hand, and, opening it, he read, with some curiosity, the following:

"Mr. Aaron Philmot, City. Dear Sir—Will you please bring, or send, my little terrier to my address? A satisfactory remuneration for your time and trouble will be made."

"Yours truly,"

"JESSE LE SEIGRE."

With mingled feeling of trepidation and anticipation, Philmot set out on his errand the following evening, just as the twilight shades were falling. Beside him, secured by a small rope, trudged the terrier.

As it was quite a long distance, however, his fluttering heart had somewhat regained its composure by the time he reached the correct number on B-st, and he noted the surroundings as he sauntered up the brick walk that led to the house.

It was a small house set well back in the yard, and the giant oaks cast a gloom about it. However, a soft, mellow light from within promised a cheerful interior.

He rang the door bell and listened. In an instant he heard someone walking, and a lady, opening the door, bade him enter. She was middle aged, but her luxuriant brown hair had not the slightest tinge of gray. Her face was fair and full, and her large eyes brown, and withal she charmed the bachelor of 45 as though he were a schoolboy.

"I have returned the terrier," he said, as he entered.

"Oh, I am so glad," she answered sweetly. "He saved me from death at the time my husband was killed three years ago, and I am very much attached to him."

As they stood by the door one evening after the birds had retreated southward before the cold north wind, he held her hand a moment longer and gazed intently into her face.

"A penny for your thoughts," she whispered. "My thoughts were of you. I was thinking of that ad. I read several months ago."

"What about it?" she asked. "I want my reward," he answered earnestly.

Now the little black terrier is at home among the beautiful shrubbery of Philmot's suburban home. Neighbors Jones and Jackson eye the dog with astonishment, and recall his master's kindness months before.

The monuments were restored and the owners of the claims notified of the alleged "claim jumping" today.

SHIPPING GOLD TO DENVER TO BE COINED

Metal Was Encased in Kegs and Went as Any Other Piece of Express.

It has just leaked out that several kegs of gold bullion were shipped from Albuquerque to Denver last week. The exact number of kegs in the shipment is not known. Neither is it known what the value of the gold in them was. Some say that the number was thirteen and others say that it was only three.

The kegs were of oiled oak and the size of a gallon measure. They were hauled to the office of the Wells-Fargo Express company in an ordinary express wagon apparently without guard and were taken from the express to the train on a baggage truck the same as any ordinary piece of express. There was no mark on the kegs to indicate their contents.

There was a number on the end of each keg. That the shipment was consigned to Denver is not known to be a fact, but it is believed that the gold was going to the United States mint there and is there now being coined. When the coining is finished, the gold will be shipped back to Albuquerque.

PROMINENT GALLUP MERCHANT IS SUED

Charged With Violation of Contract to Sell Property.

William H. Morris, of Gallup, filed suit today against William F. Kuchenecker and Louis E. Kuchenecker, of Gallup, in the Second Judicial district court for $500 damages for alleged failure to carry out a deal in real estate, which Morris asserts they promised to consummate with him. According to the complaint, the defendants agreed to sell a piece of property fronting 100 feet on Aztec Avenue and 90 feet on the west side of Third Street in Gallup to Morris for $3,000. Morris says in the complaint that the agreement was made on October 2. He asserts that on October 12 the defendants sold the property. Peter Kitchin for $2,500. He asks for $500 damages with interest and the costs of suit.

FIVE MOURNERS BEFORE JUDGE CRAIG'S BENCH

Antonio Busto, a dishwasher in a local hotel, who lives in Bernalillo, was brought before Police Judge Craig this morning to explain his possession of a bicycle which Jacob H. Myers, of H. Benjamin & Co., asserted was stolen from him several months ago.

Myers saw Busto riding the wheel yesterday and at once identified it as his property. He notified the police and caused the arrest of Busto. In court Busto testified that he bought the frame of the wheel from a small boy for fifty cents and put the wheels in it himself. Judge Craig told him of the dangers of buying bicycles and other articles for such unusually small sums and assessed the costs of the case against him. An aunt of the defendant paid the costs.

Frank Day in Trouble. Frank Day was arraigned before Police Judge Craig on a bench of the peace charge brought by Henry Yanow, pawnbroker of 114 West Railroad Avenue. Yanow says he refused to give Day the amount he wanted on a suit case whereupon it is alleged Day called Yanow a vile name. Day was found guilty and fined $10, which he paid.

Two Drunks Ten Days Each. Joe Pollock and Ed Douglas were each fined $10 for drunkenness and disorderly conduct and in default of payment were placed in the city jail for ten days. Salvatore Romano and Fred Elliott were sentenced to ten days in the city jail for vagrancy.

SCENE IN "LITTLE JOHNNY JONES"

HE WOULD BUY 10 CARS OF PINONS

New York Syndicate Agent
wants New Mexico's Favorite Delicacy.

East Las Vegas, N. M., Nov. 11.—(Special).—New Mexico is to be awakened to the fact that it has within its borders a product of undreamed commercial possibilities. The pinon has been not only the desert and luxury of the natives for many years, and at times their only food supply, but it has been enjoyed by countless tourists as they have wandered over the mesas and walk-through the Indian villages.

But it has been left to a company of New York commission men to take up the matter of exploiting the little nut and introducing it to the epicurean east as a delicacy which they have long been denied.

H. Goldstone, of 192 Melrose street Brooklyn, is interviewing the wholesale men of this city and of other towns in the territory looking toward the purchase of, not pounds, but carload lots of New Mexico's indigenous nut. He wants ten car loads if he can get them.

Mr. Goldstone says that while the east is not educated yet to the large use of the nut it is the purpose of his syndicate to introduce it to the public.

There is yet another field, not on this continent, which is a close rival of New Mexico for the trade in pinons. Siberia furnishes the pinon but the nut is not so large or smooth as the New Mexico product. A goodly annual consignment, however, is shipped from that far away country.

New Mexico could furnish the market ten million pounds of nuts annually, and the crop scarcely ever fails. It grows where nothing else can live and it does very well without irrigation, but what would be its possibilities if it was really cultivated.

It is too late this winter to do much with reaping the practically unknown harvest, but if somebody would awake to the opportunity the territory could market $500,000 worth of nuts next year.

"LITTLE JOHNNY JONES" BILL FOR TONIGHT

So famous has already become "Little Johnny Jones," George M. Cohan's music melodrama, that it goes without saying that the interest of four local theatregoers public is at a high pitch of expectancy over the approaching engagement of this notable attraction at the Elks' opera house tonight.

No production of a musical kind was made last season that created such a flood of favorable criticisms. Everybody spoke of "Little Johnny Jones" as the most original, the most thoroughly American, and the most clever entertainment of the kind that has been witnessed for many years, and it has stamped George M. Cohan as one of the most gifted authors and composers who is now supplying the stage with entertainment. The same beautiful and stupendous production that made "Little Johnny Jones" one of the notable attractions of last season will be seen in this city. The scenery is spoken of as realistic and beautiful and includes three full stage sets of enormous size and massiveness. The wardrobe is also pronounced as being very beautiful, while many consider it the most extravagantly gowned show in America. The cast consists of many well known names, while the ensemble is considered the best in America. The company numbers seventy-five people and is one of the largest and most expensive on tour this season. For this production Mr. Cohan has composed over twenty musical numbers, and in the hands of one of the strongest singing organizations in America it is said to be one of the most delightful features of "Little Johnny Jones," called by many a musical melodrama, inasmuch as it depicts the adventure of an American jockey who goes to England to ride the races, and who falls the victim of a plot and meets with all kinds of harrowing experiences. Mr.

Cohan is said to have displayed much originality in the development of his story and has given to the stage probably the most sensational features ever witnessed in musical comedy. For the proper presentation of the play three massive and gorgeous stage settings are necessary, which for naturalness and realism are said to equal any of the most pretentious dramatic productions. At the Elks' opera house tonight.

"ARIZONA" BASED ON ACTUAL INCIDENTS

Augustus Thomas, in a recent interview, is authority for the statement that his play "Arizona" is in reality based on actual incidents. Mr. Thomas, several years ago, being in poor health, decided to visit on the ranch of a friend located in Arizona. While there several stories were told concerning the actions of a certain captain in the United States cavalry, and the wife of his colonel, who were located at the fort, about fifteen miles from the ranch. On investigating these stories, the fertile brain of Mr. Thomas conceived the idea of writing a play, which would, in the main, take in the principal features of the principal parties' actions. He immediately devoted his time to looking up all minor details of the wife at cavalry fort, and also studied very carefully the people connected with his friend's ranch, not even excepting the ranchman himself, whom he has made the central figure of his charming play. That the idea was well worth the trouble to which Mr. Thomas was put, is shown in the tremendous success which "Arizona" has achieved ever since its initial production.

TOM JOHNSON STOPS HIS ROOM

Not in the Presidential Race,
Says Mayor of Cleveland,
Ohio.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Mayor Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland, has pulled out of the race for the latest presidential nomination. He has had a chance to leave the ground. He has sent word to friends of his here that he is not a candidate. He asks as a special favor that they stop any further attempted flights of that sort and without waiting for special instructions from him. Mayor Tom L. Johnson says he still has a large contract cut out for him in the municipal problems that confront Cleveland. He intends to stay on the job there.

To make this emphatic he announced his candidacy for the term as mayor as soon as enough returns had been received to assure him that he had beaten Congressman Burton. All this is taken to indicate even more than the devotion to the needs of Cleveland it displays. Mayor Tom L. Johnson has won a deserved reputation as a shrewd politician. He has usually forecast his own plausibility with pretty close accuracy, but he also has an eye focused on the weather station of national politics. For some months Mr. W. J. Bryan has been coyly passing along every suggestion of another presidential nomination for himself to some other democrat. His role has been that of a frivolous comedian who made a bit of a season or two ago by pointing to some one else and saying, "Hand it to him," every time a stage character approached him with an effort to shake hands. Mr. Bryan has indicated Senator Cullerton of Texas, Senator Daniel of Virginia, and one or two other distinguished gentlemen as good democratic presidential timbers.

When the Cleveland mayorally campaign assumed something like a national aspect, Mr. Bryan suddenly became interested therein. When the same time Mayor Johnson began to talk about promptly announcing his candidacy for a fifth term as mayor if he was elected a fourth time.

Now Mr. Bryan has not said in so many words that he has no relish for a try at the presidency next year. Nor has Mayor Johnson stated that he considered democratic success in 1908 problematical. Mayor Johnson simply says that he will insist on sticking to his mayoralty job for the present. When he suggests to him that Cleveland municipal problems may be in a condition to be safely left to some one else about the year 1912 and that the chances for electing a democrat to president may have improved by that time, he simply smiles and says he is giving so much attention to local conditions that he has no time to keep abreast of national politics.

But the first suggestion from New York followed by a second from St. Louis, that Mayor Johnson was now available presidentially brought a stern and self-sacrificing denial from the Cleveland champion of 3-cent fares. Charles Murphy was one of the first to rush a telegram of congratulations to Mayor Johnson after his recent victory. Mr. Murphy followed his telegram with an interview booming Mr. Johnson for president and he followed his interview with a trip to Mr. Johnson's Santa Fe City, N. M. Murphy, which is not far from Cleveland. It is understood that certain Johnson democrats from Cleveland were expected to come to Mr. Johnson, or at least that Mr. Murphy expected them to come. But the chances now are that Mayor Johnson will find a great deal of work for these Johnson democrats at home during the next few days and weeks.
