MOVEMENT OF GOLD FROM EUROPE CONTINUES

$56,000,000 in Coin Engaged to Date by Banks of This Country From London.

STOCK BROKERS ARE AGAIN BUSY

Orders For Solid Industrial Shares From All Sources—Chicago Financiers Pleased With Prospects For Prosperity.

New York, Nov. 12.—The movement of gold from the vaults of European banks to the United States, which has been in progress for several weeks, still continues. The total, which passed the fifty-five million mark yesterday, was increased today when the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago completed negotiations for the importation of a million dollars, bringing the total to date up to $56,000,000.

Brokers Very Busy.
The brokerage houses, which make a specialty of dealing in small lots of standard industrial and railroad shares, continue to be swamped with work, and houses with foreign connections report a wave of buying orders from Europe that is unprecedented. Probably the most striking feature of the financial situation at present is the big scale on which this investment buying by persons of small means is going on.

Stock Market Easy.
The stock markets of the country, which have shown strongly the effects of the panic, are easier and there is every reason to believe that they will regain their normal tone within a few days, though some highly "watered" stocks may be thrown clear of the market in the process of regeneration.

The markets today have been easy and Wall street has ceased to tremble when the opening hour comes and to hope fervently that the day will close without trouble.

Money in Sight.
The fact that millions of gold coin have already arrived from Europe and that millions more are coming has eased the situation wonderfully, and the horde of gold and silver money, which was drawn from the banks and trust companies during the runs, are being rapidly returned to circulation.

It is estimated that within the next two weeks the banks will have wholly regained all they lost during the stringency and that their conservative business principles, which stood the storm, will build up their reserves to a high point.

Chicago Has Gold.
Chicago, Nov. 12.—With the Chicago banks richer today by nearly $2,500,000 in gold, it is confidently predicted that the tension of the money scarcity will not be prolonged beyond a few weeks.

While the banks continue to encourage more gold into the clearing house is rushing the work of getting out cashiers' checks in small denominations, which will be used locally in lieu of currency.

There is a steady demand in Chicago and vicinity for small size cashier's checks, the demand coming from many sources. The checks are freely accepted and pass as money without comment throughout the vicinity. The fact, however, that currency is expected in large amounts within a few days is causing the bankers to restrict the numbers of these checks as much as possible.

JURY DECLARES DAY NOT GUILTY AT DURANGO.
Durango, Colo., Nov. 12.—In the case of David Day, charged with selling liquor at the Trimble Springs hotel, the jury, which was out all night, early today returned a verdict of not guilty. Day was brought out at the trial, but the hotel did not belong to Day but to his wife and the jury failed to connect Day with the charges.

BIG ARIZONA FAIR IS IN FULL BLAST

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 12.—With Dan Patch, the champion pacer of the world as the star attraction, and with a larger line of racing entries and more exhibits in all the departments than ever before, the territorial fair opened in this city yesterday. Every indication points to the big fair in the history of the territory. Phoenix is gay with banners and hunting and the streets are already thronged with visitors who came here two days in advance of the opening in order to get choice accommodations.

According to the announcement made by the fair committee, arrangements have been made for taking care of visitors and seeing that they get comfortable accommodations. A free information bureau will be maintained and strangers will be told where they can secure rooms in private residences in the event that they do not care to go to the hotels. The fair opened this morning and will continue every day during the week, closing on Saturday afternoon. Dan Patch will endeavor to break his record this afternoon.

The weather bureau has issued a bulletin predicting fair weather for the week.

Giant Steamship Lusitania Ready to Start For Europe For Great Sum of Gold

On Her Return from This Trip the Big Vessel May Carry $20,000,000.

LUSITANIA WILL BRING ANOTHER CARGO OF GOLD

Steamship Will Probably Carry $20,000,000 on Her Return to America.

LAST SHIPMENT WAS HANDLED VERY EASILY

New York, Nov. 12.—The steamship Lusitania, queen of the seas, when she leaves for Europe this week, will start on a trip from which she will return probably carrying $20,000,000 in gold from London for Uncle Sam's bankers. While a portion of the gold bought abroad has been shipped already, the Lusitania having brought in $12,000,000, a few days ago and other ships over $3,000,000, there is still a vast quantity of gold which is to come to this country and such safe methods of conveyance as by the steamship which holds the world's record for size and speed, are most desirable. None of the gold is entrusted to the smaller ships.

Excited no Comment.
The arrival of the Lusitania the other day caused much interest, but when the $12,000,000 in gold she carried was unloaded, no interest at all was excited.
The principal reason for this lack of enthusiasm at the arrival of the metal which meant the solution of the financial problem was the fact that only a half dozen people knew when the gold was unloaded. An order of the day, driven by a secret service man dressed as a drayman, pulled up at the docks and the cases of gold were rolled out. Five or six other apparent laborers aided in handling the shipment, and when it was loaded ten jumped into the wagon and rode to the subtreasury. They were all employees of the secret service, which, however, did not arise.

WOMAN SAYS BURGLARS MURDERED HER HUSBAND

Cleveland Woman Discharged From Custody at the Preliminary Hearing.

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 12.—Mrs. Charlotte Phillips was freed from the charge of killing her husband, John P. Phillips, a coal operator and broker, at the conclusion of a preliminary hearing today. The judge held that there was not sufficient evidence to warrant him in binding Mrs. Phillips over to the grand jury. According to Mrs. Phillips, her husband, who was shot and killed in his home on September 2, was shot by a burglar. Some confusion in her statements led to her arrest.

The action of Justice Brown, according to the state prosecutor, will not prevent the grand jury from making an independent investigation.

SMALL ILLINOIS BANK SUSPENSE PAYMENT.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—The Ravenswood Exchange bank, a small institution in the suburb of Ravenswood, closed its doors today. It has no connection with the Chicago clearing house.

PIERCE FREED FROM CHARGE OF MURDER.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 12.—The jury in the case of Edward L. Pierce charged with the murder of Edward Osborne, returned a verdict today of not guilty. The case was sensational throughout.

RICH RANCHER MAY BE HELD CAPTIVE BY THUGS

John Gunnison Mysteriously Missing From Farm Near Los Angeles—Probably Still Alive.

HOME SEARCHED BY THIEVES FOR CASH

He Was Known as "The Miser" and Was Supposed to Have Coin Hidden Beneath His House in Small Tunnel.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 12.—Fearful that John Gunnison, a wealthy rancher living at Figueroa and Manchester streets, has been murdered or is held a captive while search is being made for money which is thought to have been buried by the rancher, the police are making every effort to locate the man or his body. Yesterday afternoon four detectives were dispatched to the home of Gunnison, who has been missing since early on the morning of November 1.

Clues secured by detectives late yesterday afternoon show that persons have entered the home of the aged rancher and apparently have been searching for hoarded treasure. Close scrutiny shows that entrance was effected by a pass key through the front door and every effort made to conceal the search which was made under the building.

Probably Held for Ransom.
After questioning neighbors and acquaintances of the missing man, the police say Gunnison has either been spirited away and is held captive while a search is being made for his money, or that he has been murdered.

S. G. Wettern, a rancher who lives near the Gunnison place, is positive that the man has met with foul play. Wettern yesterday afternoon gave the police information regarding the life of Gunnison, and it is admitted that several clues were secured from the missing man's neighbor.

"Gunnison," said Wettern yesterday, "has been a most peculiar character and who is locally known as 'the miser.' He owned a great number of fancy bred horses, and was considered in affluent circumstances."

Had Hidden Treasure.
"Although I am not positive of it, I am morally sure that the man hid his money in secret recesses, and that even now he has a vast fortune hidden near his home."

"It has been generally considered for a number of years—in fact for the past ten years—that the man has been hoarding his wealth in a tunnel leading from the floor in the kitchen in his home to the cellar in the place."

"Last Saturday morning I noticed that Gunnison was missing and I made an investigation about the place. He last came to the house expected to be gone from his home, and had made no arrangement for the care of his stock."

Someone After Treasure.
"I did not think anything was mysterious about the disappearance until Wednesday. Then I noticed that the blinds on the window had been pulled down. I searched around the house thoroughly, but was unable to find any trace of where Gunnison had been. Today the police claim that an attempt has been made to locate the buried money underneath the floor of the building."

"I have known Gunnison for ten years and never before, during that time, had he been away from his home for more than two days."

PASSENGER TRAIN RUNS INTO A HEAVY FREIGHT

Three Passengers Are Seriously Injured and Coaches Are Practically Destroyed.

Greensburg, Nov. 12.—Passenger train No. 28, the Pennsylvania "Special," eastbound, on the Pennsylvania railroad, was wrecked this morning at Larimer, twelve miles south of here, in a rear end collision with a freight train. Three persons were seriously injured. The passenger train is supposed to change from track 3 to track 1 at Larimer and it is alleged that the towerman neglected to throw the switch.

The passenger train was running at full speed with an apparently clear track when the freight train suddenly noticed the freight moving slowly just ahead. He endeavored to stop the train but could not avert a collision. The passenger engine was wrecked and several cars following were thrown from the track and badly damaged. Half of the freight train was destroyed.

MINERS' CONVENTION IN SESSION TODAY

Joplin, Mo., Nov. 12.—Three hundred delegates from thirty states were present today at the business session of the American Mining congress, whose annual convention began yesterday. Men of high authority in mining and metallurgy made addresses.

USUAL DIVIDEND WAS NOT DECLARED TODAY.

New York, Nov. 12.—The directors of the Parrot Silver and Copper company, one of the subsidiary companies of the Amalgamated Copper company, today voted not to declare the usual quarterly dividend of 25 cents per share. The directors announced that this action is due to the curtailment of production, depression of the copper industry, and the fact that the ore treated are lower grade than formerly.

JOHN R. WALSH TRIAL BEGAN TODAY IN CHICAGO

Former Millionaire Promoter Will at Last Face Criminal Court Jury.

WAS INDICTED ON 160 SEPARATE COUNTS

Chicago, Nov. 12.—The trial of John R. Walsh, former president of the Chicago National bank, on a charge of misappropriating the funds of that institution, commenced today in the United States district court before Judge A. B. Anderson. The indictment under which the trial is brought contains 160 counts. The offense charged is punishable by a term of five to ten years in prison. It is generally believed that the trial will last at least one month. The chief issue is whether Walsh used the funds of the bank to aid his own enterprises.

It is also charged that Walsh borrowed from his own bank more than the legal amount of 10 per cent of the capital stock, but the trial will not touch the latter question.

Walsh Nearly Ill.
Walsh has aged considerably since his arrest and he is hardly in a physical condition to stand the strain of a long trial. On several former occasions he has secured continuances for the reason that he was too ill to appear but this time Judge Anderson refused to longer permit the cause to be delayed.

Walsh's attorneys declare that they are in a position to clearly prove his innocence of any criminal intent in connection with the bank deals. The prominence of the defendant, who was at one time one of the foremost promoters in the United States, is causing great interest in the trial.

FIVE SERVANTS BURN TO DEATH IN HOTEL

Blaze Today at New Haven, Conn., Was Disastrous in Its Effects.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 12.—Flames swept through the servants' rooms on the fifth floor of the hotel Garde in Meadow street early today and burned to death four employees. A fifth was so badly injured when using a rope as a fire escape that he may not recover. The guests made a hasty exit but it is said that all escaped. The fire is thought to have started from a smoldering cigar or cigarette stub.

New York, Nov. 12.—Plans are being discussed, according to the Times today, for a federation of railroad employees so that a strike of one brotherhood will involve others. The brotherhoods are already federated on some lines.

$20,000 STOLEN FROM MINING COMPANY PAYMASTER

Money Mysteriously Missing From Buggy Seat in Which He Rode to the Camp.

AUTHORITIES UNABLE TO PLACE BLAME

Robbery Evidently Occurred Just Before Start For The Mine When Occupants Were Momentarily Out of Vehicle in Trinidad.

Trinidad, Colo., Nov. 12.—Twenty thousand dollars, constituting the complete payroll of the American Smelting and Refining company of this county, was mysteriously stolen last night while the paymaster was driving from the city to the coal camp to pay off the miners.

According to Abraham Thompson, the paymaster, who was accompanied by Jim Williams, a guard, the money was in two canvas sacks under the seat of the buggy. They encountered no one en route to the camp, but when they reached Coke Dale, the money was missing. The authorities are searching for the missing money and say that they do not suspect Thompson and Williams of complicity in its theft.

Both Are Prominent.
Both Thompson and Williams have been residents of Trinidad for years, and the former has been a trusted employee of the smelting company for a long time. Their high standing in the city and vicinity practically assures them immunity, though they have offered to submit to arrest and examination and begged for surveillance of officers in order that they may be protected from possible error until the guilty party is apprehended.

Numbers of Notes Known.
The numbers of some of the bank notes which were in the sacks are known to the officials of the bank which issued the money, especial care having been taken in handling this consignment owing to the currency stringency.

With the number of a few of the notes to work, detectives may be able to locate the men who got the money.

The route from the camp to this city has been gone over carefully and nothing has been found that would indicate that the buggy in which the paymaster and guard rode stopped or passed anyone, and was an impossibility for the money to have slipped out unnoticed.

Robbed Before They Started.
After securing the money and placing it in the sacks, the two men drove to their homes where they secured overcoats and immediately started for the coal camp. They do not recollect a moment at which both were out of the buggy at the same time, but admit that there may have been a minute or so while they secured their coats, it is probable, according to local officials, that the robbers got the cash during that moment, having apparently shadowed the men until opportunity to commit the robbery offered.

OSAKA EXPLOSION SHOCKING AFFAIR

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 12.—Japanese newspapers received on the express of India give news of horrible scenes following the recent explosion of ammunition at Osaka, reported by cable.

Of 140 workers, mostly women and children, 120 were killed or injured, 60 mangled bodies being found. The victims were either blown into the air or hurled against the wooden fence, and many were killed by flying splinters. The noise of the explosion was heard for eight miles. One boat cargo also exploded and took fire, but others were worked down the river.

POWDER EXPLODES IN ARMS, MAN NOT KILLED.

Sheridan, Wyo., Nov. 12.—Fred Hamilton, a miner employed at Monarch, is probably the only man who has had a 25-pound keg of powder explode in his arms without fatal results. Hamilton was carrying 25 pounds of black powder into the mine at Monarch when a spark from his lamp fell into the keg and caused an explosion. By a seeming miracle Hamilton escaped with only a severely burned face and scorched hands. The heat of the burning powder was so intense that nearby mine timbers were set on fire.

RAILROAD DEPARTMENT

TRACK Laid ON LINE TO RIO PUERCO

Mixed Passenger and Freight Service Now Operated on New Rails.

Rails have been laid the entire length from Belen west to Rio Puerco on the Belen cut-off, and as last week witnessed the completion of the line from Belen east to Texico, officials inaugurated a through freight and passenger service between Belen and Vaughn Sunday.

There are two trains a day on the cut-off. They are mixed trains, made up of freight cars and one or two passenger coaches. The train going east leaves Belen every morning at 7 o'clock, arriving at Vaughn at 5 in the evening. The train west leaves Vaughn at 7 a. m., arriving at Belen at 3 p. m.

Work on the uncompleted part of the cut-off is progressing rapidly and it is announced that the contractors will have it finished and the entire line will be in operation by February 1. Langtry & Sharp completed their contract from Belen east to Texico Saturday and left Belen.

Grant Brothers have the contract for the work from Belen west to Rio Puerco. It has been laid the entire distance, connecting with the coast line, but no ballasting has been done yet. Grant Brothers are working about 150 men now.

Three engines are working on ballasting alone now. Eighty miles have been ballasted on the first division and there are thirty miles yet to ballast.

The round house at Vaughn will be completed in two weeks and ready for use. Work has commenced on the new Harvey house at Vaughn.

DOUBLE TRACK COMPLETED IN EAGLE RIVER CANYON

The work of double-tracking the Eagle River Canyon on the main line of the Denver and Rio Grande, just west of Leadville, is now completed. The contractors, the Phillips Construction Company and O'Garra, who commenced work a little over a year ago, have finished their contract, and one of the greatest engineering feats of the year has been successfully accomplished. The new second track built through the narrow Eagle River Canyon, with a total length of 500 feet, being 100, 300 and 400 feet, respectively. There are five steel bridges with reinforced concrete floor slabs, which are built on the track of crushed rock. The steel girders are probably the heaviest ever used in bridge construction. The track is laid with new steel rolled by the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company at the Pueblo plant, with tie plates and entirely new track material throughout. The new line, which is used for the east-bound on up-hill haul reduces the grade from 3.3 per cent to 2.3 per cent and the curvature is also greatly lessened.

VICE PRESIDENTS TO MEET ON CAR HIRE AGREEMENT

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 12.—A call has been issued for a conference of the operating vice presidents of all the railroads in the United States to be held in Chicago, November 20, for the purpose of considering a new car hire agreement. It is hoped that the railroads will be able to agree upon some measure which will insure the more prompt return of foreign cars to their home roads and thereby reduce the oft-occurring car congestion.

The conference is the result of failure to carry the proposition to charge 15 cents per mile for a car loaded in the opposite direction from the home road. It is now proposed to adopt a submeasure.

ROCK ISLAND COUNSEL FOR GOVERNMENT CONTROL

Prescott, Ariz., Nov. 12.—Robert Mather, general counsel of the Rock Island system here, last night declared that he emphatically endorsed President Roosevelt's policies for the government regulation of railroads. "I believe," he said, "that a uniform system of federal regulation of railroads would be advantageous to the public."

OVER TWO THOUSAND VISITORS A DAY

Cooper Explains Reason For Remarkable Average of Boston Callers.

During L. T. Cooper's recent stay in Boston, it is estimated that sixty-five thousand people talked with him and purchased his medicine. This is an average of over two thousand a day.

His success was so phenomenal as to cause universal comment both by the public and the press. There must be a reason for this. Here is the reason given in his own words by Mr. Cooper when interviewed on the subject. He said:

"The immense numbers of people who are calling on me here in Boston is not unusual. I have had the same experience for the past two years wherever I have gone. The reason is a simple one. It is because my medicine puts the stomach in good condition. This does not sound unusual, but it is in fact the key to health. The stomach is the very foundation of life. I attribute 90 per cent of all sickness directly to the stomach."

"Neither animals nor men can remain well with a poor digestive apparatus. Few can afford to neglect it in perfect condition. As a matter of fact, most men and women today are half-sick. It is because too much food and too little exercise have gradually forced the stomach into a half-sick condition. My medicine gets the stomach back where it was, and that is all that is necessary."

Among Boston people who are staunch believers in Mr. Cooper's theory, is Mr. Frank D. Brown, of 67 Bloomingdale street, Chelsea, Mass. He says:

"For five years I have sought relief for indigestion, stomach trouble and dyspepsia, spending nearly all my wages with doctors and obtaining no results. I had dull pains across my back, radiating to the shoulders. I had splitting headaches which nothing seemed to cure. There was a gnawing and rumbling in my stomach and bowels. I was troubled with vertigo and dizziness, and at times almost overcome by drowsiness."

"I felt tired and worn out all the time. My sleep was not refreshing, and I would get up in the morning feeling as weary as when I went to bed. My appetite was variable—ravenous at times, then again nauseated at the sight of food. Sometimes my face was pale, at other times flushed. I was constipated and bilious, and had catarrhal affection in nose and throat, which caused me to hawk and spit a great deal, especially in the morning. I heard so much of the Cooper remedies that I decided to try them. After taking one bottle, a tapeworm 50 feet long passed from my system. I felt better almost immediately. All my troubles disappeared as if by magic, and my improvement was rapid. I now feel entirely well, and can honestly recommend Mr. Cooper's medicine to anyone who suffers as I did."

We sell the Cooper medicines which give universal satisfaction. J. H. O'Reilly Co., Second and Central.

CIMARRON WILL HAVE NEW MAIL SERVICE

Railroad Has Displaced Old Star Route—New Daily for That Hustling Town Has Been Started.

Cimarron, N. M., Nov. 12.—(Special.)—Rev. B. T. James, presiding elder of the northern M. E. church for the northern part of New Mexico, preached at this place and held quarterly conference Sunday. Rev. James has his headquarters at McIntosh, N. M., where he has a fine homestead. He reports that on a stretch of fifty miles along the new Belen-Texico railway, there are not less than a dozen preachers who have been attracted by the climate and free land.

W. A. Logan has started a dairy. The ranch was located a mile west of the depot, and he will put milk wagons on the road.

B. P. Williams, of Raton, is a new employee of the Cimarron Lumber company.

Miss Walker, wife of Dr. Horatio Walker, left Tuesday morning for a visit at her old home at New Burnswick.

Miss Margaret Christie, formerly of this place, was wedded at Grand Rapids, Mich., to George R. Fryman, of Johnston, Pa. Mr. Fryman is also known in this country.

Cimarron has a new saloon, at the corner of Tenth and Lincoln streets. H. K. Grubbs is the proprietor.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whitney are expected to visit from their niece, Miss Margaret Dawson.

The St. Louis, Rocky Mountain & Pacific railway has secured the contract for carrying the mails between Raton and Cimarron. The mail has been carried up to this date by a star route. Cured of Colds and Croup by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Geo. C. Bowden, of Little Rock, Ark., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in his family for many years, and is seldom without it in the house. He says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has proved a great relief to our boys in their throat and lung troubles. A few doses of it will ward off a threatened attack of croup, and a bad cold is quickly cured by its use. I take pleasure in recommending it." The prompt cures of colds and croup effected by this preparation, the fact that it can always be depended upon, is pleasant to take and contains no opium, chloroform or other objectionable drug, has made it a favorite with the parents of young children. When you have a cough or cold, try it and see for yourself what an excellent medicine it is. Price, 25 cents. Large size, 50 cents.

WHERE TEACHER HAS TO USE NERVE

Backwoods Districts of Indian Territory Are Fiercest on Earth.

Muskogee, I. T., Nov. 12.—Is it more than the law should permit to allow a well bred, well educated girl to teach school in the rugged sections of Indian territory, where she has to live in a house with two rooms occupied by a large family and teach children, half of whom are Indians and cannot understand English until she teaches them?

For pure grit the girls who have come from Missouri and Kansas to Indian territory and taken positions as teachers of some of the day schools for the government, have given striking example. It is the policy of the government to extend its educational system into the back woods sections as much as possible. This means that schools are sometimes thirty miles from a railroad and in a section where there has been practically no development. Half of the people in the district contiguous to the school are Indians. The white residents are pioneers in the back woods sense.

This One Backed Out.
Down in the Chickasaw nation a girl was assigned a school to teach. The authorities had been petitioned to establish a school and the patrons had built a log schoolhouse. The petition showed that there were nearly forty children within reach of the school. The teacher arrived and commenced looking for a place to board. She spent two days and the only house she could find where they would take a teacher to board was a 2-room house in which a large family lived. There were two beds, both in the same room. The children were put in a pallet on the floor and the teacher given the bed. She remained one night and the next morning she sent word to the school authorities that she would not teach the school. In one of the schools of the Creek nation a girl was assigned a school and when she arrived she found that the only place in the district where she could get board was in a dugout.

A government school was established in the Seminole nation and an unusually large number of pupils were scheduled. When the teacher arrived she could not find a place at which she could board. Supervisor Fairwell was notified of the situation. He promptly went to that district and told the patrons that he would rescind the order to establish one unless they provided a good place for the teacher to board. This got the desired result.

The Pay is Small Too.
The average salary received by these teachers is from $35 to $50 a month. They pay for board and board, though in some instances they get it as low as $6.00 a month. The hardships that some of these teachers endure would appall anyone with less grit and never-give-up spirit. When they come to Indian territory they usually do so because they need the money. As soon as they get there they usually do not come prepared to go back immediately. The result is they are determined to make it go. They pay every three months and they must teach that long before they get their first pay check. By the time three months have elapsed they usually have adjusted themselves to their surroundings and they will not give up then until the school term closes. Many of the teachers are from colleges in Kansas and Missouri.

A Reliable Remedy for Croup.
With the dry, cold weather of the early winter months, parents of croupy children should be on the alert for ominous symptoms. There is no cause for anxiety, however, when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is kept in the home. If this medicine is given as soon as child becomes hoarse or even after the croupy cough has appeared, the child will be ward off. Mrs. S. Rosenthal, of Turner, Michigan, says: "We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for ourselves and children for several years and like it very much. I think it is the only remedy for croup and can highly recommend it." For sale by all druggists.

"WILD GIRL" IS BITTEN BY SNAKE

Supposed Female Freak Proves to be Man. He May Die.

Tucson, Ariz., Nov. 12.—John Pike, the "Australian wild girl," who has been the star performer in an exhibition given on Lower Congress street in a small tent, was bitten in the tongue last night about 9 o'clock by a moccasin snake, and he now lies at St. Mary's hospital in a serious condition as a result of the poison from the fangs of the deadly reptile.

Ten minutes after he had been bitten, Pike was a horrible sight. His face was swollen out of all proportions. His tongue, black from the poison and several times its normal size, protruded from his mouth, and the glands stood out strong on his neck.

He was hurried to the Windsor hotel and a quick call was sent for Dr. Crepin and Purcell. The physicians responded immediately and labored over the unfortunate young man for several hours, administering antidotes and doing all in their power to relieve his suffering.

Was a Man Disguised.
Pike had been advertised as a "wild girl." He was announced as having been captured in the wilds of Australia and the only one of his race in captivity. The enticing speller who "barked" for the show was graphic in his description of the magnetic power which the "wild girl" had over snakes and the general public was invited to pay 10 cents and step up and see the "wild girl in the den of snakes."

A good crowd had gathered and was looking on at the "wild girl" when the accident occurred. The "wild girl," who in every day life is a fairly good looking young man, picked up a moccasin snake and was holding its head close to his mouth when suddenly the snake struck. The fangs penetrated the "wild girl's" tongue and he dropped the reptile hastily. Several persons in the crowd that was watching the performance let out shrieks when they saw the accident. The crowd was quickly dispersed and the "wild girl" was pushed to the Windsor hotel, as it was quickly seen he was poisoned.

There his disguise was shed and it was found that he was a young man whose name is John Pike, and no wilder than the average citizen.

You can tell a Blatz Bottle a block away.

Beer "body" is predetermined by the Quality of the Malt. Blatz Malt is produced by trained Malsters—years in service. "Not only how much malt, but how good" is the inviolable rule. By the Blatz method the vital ingredients of the malt and the aromatic properties of the hops are successfully and uniformly brought out and retained. These are basic factors, ever important in the brewing of good beer. This Blatz achievement is at once manifest to all judges of beer quality by whom it is so obviously appreciated.

BORN--AN IDEA

ABOUT THE RAREST THING THAT EVER HAPPENS IN THIS OLD WORLD OF OURS, IS THE BIRTH OF A NEW IDEA, AND THE FORTUNATE POSSESSOR OF A FINE LARGE ONE IS WORTH MORE TO HIMSELF AND MORE TO THE WORLD THAN THE SANTA FE RAILROAD.

PSYCHOLOGISTS, WHO MAKE A BUSINESS OF SORTING OUT IDEAS AND SPRING INTO THE WAYS THEY ARE BORN, SAY THAT AFTER YOU PASS THE AGE OF ABOUT TWENTY, YOUR IDEA-BEARING DAYS ARE ETERNALLY OVER. IF YOU ARE STILL ON THE TENDER SIDE OF THIS AGE--AND ARE WISE--YOU MAY WISH TO READ THIS STATEMENT AGAIN.

NOW THE ALBUQUERQUE CITIZEN CARRIES IDEAS IN STOCK, WHERE THEY CAME FROM, AND WHO THEIR PARENTS ARE, IS NEITHER HERE NOR THERE. SOME OF THEM RUN ALONG THE LINES OF BUSINESS BUILDING AND TRADE GETTING. THESE IDEAS WILL BE SOLD, LEASED OR RENTED TO THE PUBLIC, FOR CASH OR ON THE INSTALLMENT PLAN.

THEY KEEP A YOUNG FELLOW AROUND THE OFFICE, AND PAY HIM EVERY WEEK, TO DO NOTHING BUT LOOK AFTER THE ADVERTISING. THERE IS NOTHING HE LIKES BETTER THAN TO HAVE OTHER MATTERS TO CARE FOR, AND YOU PROBABLY KNOW MORE ABOUT IT THAN I, ANYWAY.

A NUMBER OF ALBUQUERQUE BUSINESS MEN HAVE ALREADY MADE SUCH ARRANGEMENTS--MORE ARE DOING IT EVERY DAY. ONE WISE MERCHANT, WHO ATTEMPTS TO DRAW A LINE DIVIDING THE PATRONAGE HE RECEIVES FROM ADVERTISING, FROM THAT COMING THROUGH OTHER CHANNELS, INFORMED US ONLY YESTERDAY THAT HIS ADVERTISEMENT IN THE ALBUQUERQUE CITIZEN DURING THE TWO MONTHS IT HAS RUN, HAS NETTED HIM SUFFICIENT TO PAY FOR THE ADVERTISEMENT FOR SIX MONTHS. ANY ADVERTISEMENT THAT PAYS FOR ITSELF IN DIRECT, IMMEDIATE RETURNS, IS A GOOD INVESTMENT, BECAUSE YOU GET YOUR MONEY BACK, AND THE EXTENDED PUBLICITY TO BOOT. BUT WHEN RESULTS ARE SUCH AS THIS MAN EXPERIENCED YOU ARE GETTING LITTLE LESS THAN A GOLD MINE.

THE FIRST MAN IN THE ADVERTISING FIELD REAPS THE FINEST OF THE WHEAT. THE LATE-COMERS GLEAN THE STUBBLES. DUKE, THE TOBACCO KING, IN CONVERSATION WITH THE WRITER ONCE SAID: "I BEGAN LIFE ON A STONE PATCH, WITH A WIFE, A BLIND MULE AND TEN DOLLARS. I AM NOW WORTH THIRTY TWO MILLION DOLLARS. BUT I SPENT FORTY MILLION IN ADVERTISING." PROBABLY NO MAN IN ALBUQUERQUE HAS HAD A MORE MODEST BEGINNING THAN MR. DUKE, AND THERE IS NO REASON WHY ANY MAN WITH EQUAL BUSINESS ABILITY, AND POSSESSED OF THE SAME BUSINESS FORESIGHT, SHOULD NOT SUCCEED AS WELL. IF THERE IS STATE IT TO YOURSELF, AND BE CONSOLED. "STATEHOOD FOR NEW MEXICO"

Our Greatest Fault

Albuquerque has fewer faults than most cities of her size, but she has one which sticks out prominently and which should not much longer be neglected.

Albuquerque doesn't advertise enough. A tourist, who passed through this city recently at night wrote to a friend here and this is how he described Albuquerque:

"A little town with a sprinkling of lights, sitting out on the sand in the darkness of night; a low roofed depot, hotel and a few railroad buildings with a number of Indians offering earthenware for sale on the platform."

It was enough to make the average citizen of Albuquerque take a gun and go back east on a carnage bent.

If there is one thing we have, its the finest depot, railroad hotel and railroad buildings in the southwest. The man who wrote the above must have been blind, drunk or locoed.

But too many eastern people have that idea. It can't be cured; there is no use in trying; such people are past help.

But still there is another class that does see us in our true light only they don't see enough of us.

The twenty minutes or the half hour that the big through trains spend at our station, is not long enough for the "casual visitor" to get a really fair impression of Albuquerque.

Out at Kingman, Arizona, where they haven't one-twentieth of the things to be proud of that we have, the enterprising citizens have adopted a method of advertising, which it would be well to adopt here.

They have built a monument of all the ores to be found in the adjacent mountains and it stands an everlasting advertisement of their resources, on the depot platform in full view of every passing train.

Visitors chip off specimens of ore for souvenirs, ask questions and a whole lot of them come again, with money to develop mines.

The people of Albuquerque are just beginning to realize that within less than twenty miles of us, the Sandia mountains are showing some of the richest ores yet found in New Mexico.

A citizen representative recently visited this new mining field. On the dumps of the prospect holes are to be found ore that does the eye of a mining man good.

There are all sorts of ore and it ought to be put where others can see it. A mining man stated today that there was enough ore of different varieties to build a monument such as Kingman has two stories in height.

Our Commercial club ought to see that such a monument, or some similar method of advertising, is placed on our depot platform at once.

There could not be a better advertisement and the prospectors and those actively engaged in mining operations in the Sandias and adjoining mountains would gladly furnish the ore free of charge.

Such an ad would surprise the average tourist and the average visitor. They ought not to get the impression that we depend upon tourists in winter and Indian pottery for a bare existence. Nothing could be more non-sensical.

The city also, could use thousands of postal cards with scenes of the city and her rich adjoining territory to good advantage. Post cards are not costly and a picture does not lie—when it is not a photograph constructed to make you good looking.

The Bureau of Immigration might do a whole lot of missionary work along the same line and not seriously damage itself.

While Albuquerque is better known than any other spot in New Mexico and is a thriving, growing city, at the same time much good could be accomplished by a little inexpensive advertising.

There are people who come to Albuquerque every day sightseeing, who don't know of the biggest lumber plant in the country, which is just at our city limits.

Why don't they? Because there isn't any way to find it out until they have met some of our people and have been directed to it.

With eight or nine passenger trains passing through our city every day, it's a shame that we have no better system of reaching the people they carry.

The Citizen does not for a minute mean to say that Albuquerque is not already the most enterprising city in New Mexico. She is that in every sense of the word. But she has grown so fast and has been so busy, she is likely to forget that she still has room to grow and expand.

The advertising of a city like the advertising of a business, is absolutely necessary for substantial growth and prosperity.

Let the people know what we have—they'll do the rest.

Love and Affinities

Another busy old scientist is trying to figure out just what love is. Most any one with average experience could tell him. It's a feeling something between a shiver and a chill which hits the youth of seventeen summers on up. It makes him and eyed, lazy and full of tumultuous emotions more or less. It makes him sit up late at night and get up late in the morning; plaster his hair down with a part in the middle of much precision; wear a necktie of violent hue; shine his shoes until he wears blisters on his hands; and his trousers at least once a week and carry a soiled lace handkerchief pinned to his undershirt next to his heart; and sometimes it drives him to write bad verse with the best of intentions in which event, his case is serious.

At least that is the love of the good old days.

However, if the old scientist is trying to solve the brand that causes some gray haired old fossil to shake his good old wife and six kids and go hunting for an affinity whose hair is a doubtful yellow and who wears drop-stitch hose, high heeled shoes and chews gum, then we can't elucidate more.

If that is love the best explanation that we can dig up is that it is the same sort of a feeling which tempts a man to pull the tail of the average Missouri mule and said feeling is damfoolishness in its worst form.

A few of those Arizona papers who are continually casting aspersions upon the "uneducated native horde" of New Mexico, should remember the noble sacrifice of Jesus Garcia, a Mexican engineer, who stuck to his engine and pulled a burning train loaded with dynamite away from the little town of Nacozari after the American members of the train crew had deserted their posts of duty in the face of danger. Jesus Garcia was blown to atoms with his train but he saved the town and the lives of several hundred people to it. Arizonians are not likely to erect a monument to his memory and neither is the Republic of Mexico. He was only one of the "uneducated native hordes," but he had the same stuff in him which showed row boats across the Delaware one bitter winter night. It ill behoves people who live in glass houses to throw stones.

Farrington Times, San Juan county: S. W. Wightman finished delivering his apple crop yesterday. He had 545 boxes of Fancy and No. 1, which he took off about an acre of orchard. He sold these to E. D. Kellogg, agent for the Langley Grocery Company, of Pueblo, and received $1.95 per box straight. This makes a cash receipt of $1,062.75 from about one acre of orchard. His best yields by varieties was from the Rome Beauty, with the Winesap a close second. His best tree of Rome Beauty yielded 13 boxes, and his best Winesap 12 boxes. The trees are ten years old. Several Winesap trees made 10 boxes per tree.

When you see a man these days who is predicting that the country is going to the dogs, that hard times have come to stay and that the financial institutions of the country will soon crumble to bug dust, you may know that he is either an old moss backed democrat from the interior of Arkansas, or that his wife takes in washing to pay the grocery bill.

"There is no art in the United States," says Geraldine Farrar, prima donna. "Americans are the best judges of music and art," says Lillian Nordica. Our right hand to Lillian.

Taft has decided to continue his journey as planned. It's a hard matter to turn large bodies around when once they get started.

LOOKING FOR A GOOD TIME?

There are about as many conceptions as to what constitutes a "good time" as there are individuals, but there is one place in New Mexico, not very far from Albuquerque, where 99 out of every 100 people find what they are looking for. That place is the Valley Ranch, at Pecos, New Mexico.

Fresh country produce in abundance, horses to ride or drive, dogs, guns, traps, tackle, all at your disposal. The finest hunting and fishing in the territory. You can live in a house, a cabin or a tent, and come and go as you please.

You'll find plenty of company there, agreeable and refined. If you are specially inclined, a favorite resort for ladies. Conditions ideal for recuperating, reading, hunting or loafing.

YOU CAN'T SPEND MORE THAN NINE DOLLARS A WEEK ANY WAY YOU FIX IT.

Inquire at The Citizen Office for further particulars, or address The Valley Ranch.

SCHMITT SAYS THAT HE NEVER SIGNED A RELEASE

Suit Against Brewery Seems to Rest on Variety of Witnesses.

Was Joseph Schmitt unconscious, delirious and mentally incapable of such an action when it is alleged he signed a paper releasing the Southwestern Brewery & Ice Co., from all obligations and damages on condition that he be given a lucrative position for life by the company, and be paid for time lost owing to injuries received in the brewery, are his hands in as good a condition for stand over a day, and positively that no time during his illness resulting from his injuries was Schmitt unconscious or incapable of knowing what he was doing.

According to the defense the release was signed by Schmitt at the St. Joseph hospital, Attorney Marston and Jacob Loeb, now dead, president of the brewery, being present. Attorney Marston signed the release for Schmitt and Schmitt, it is alleged, took the pen in his crippled hand and made his mark after his name.

ALBUQUERQUE POLICE CAPTURED DIAMOND THIEF

Man Confesses and Digs Up the Sparklers--Wanted in Los Angeles.

A self confessed felon, Sam Solomon, aged 27, said to be well known in Los Angeles, is pacing a cell in the city jail waiting to be taken back to the metropolis of southern California on a warrant charging him with the theft of valuable diamond rings from a pawnbroker in the coast city.

Chief McMillin was notified yesterday by wire from Chief Kern, of the Los Angeles department, that Solomon was probably a passenger on Santa Fe train No. 2. Chief Kern instructed the Albuquerque police to arrest Solomon as he held a felony warrant against him and hold him until Los Angeles officers could come after him.

On the arrival of No. 2 at the Santa Fe depot this morning at 8 o'clock Officers Knapp and Quier, who were detailed on the case, boarded the train and kept a close lookout for Solomon. A man in one of the Pullmans corresponded with the description of the diamond thief furnished by the Los Angeles police and he was immediately placed under arrest.

His Name Was Smith. "Wanted for felony! You are mistaken. My name is Smith and not Solomon and I don't see what under the sun you want with me," said Solomon when first placed in custody by the officers.

"It may be that I am wanted as a witness in a case I was subpoenaed in," said Solomon a few minutes later.

But a change came over him after he reached the city jail and had a few minutes conversation with Chief McMillin. He admitted that he was bluffing when he said his name was Smith. He said his correct name was Sam Solomon and that his home was in New York City.

Then he confessed the theft of two diamond rings from his employer in Los Angeles. He said that he had been employed in a pawnbroker's shop in Los Angeles, but refused to give the name of his employer or his place of residence.

Going Back to Godham. To Chief McMillin he said he found his income was not sufficient for his needs and as he was anxious to return to his home in New York and didn't have the ready cash to pay the expenses of the trip he decided to take the diamond rings and decamp for New York.

He surrendered the rings to Chief McMillin, one a one-carat diamond and the other seven-eighths carat diamond.

Solomon, alias Smith, is a stylish appearing individual. He is slender, stoop shouldered, clean shaven, light complexion, with light brown hair, thin long hatchet face and bulging forehead. He was attired in a gray, double breasted sack suit, black soft telescoped hat and medium length mixed gray overcoat.

Solomon expressed no desire to communicate with friends or relatives. Chief McMillin has wired Chief Kern of Los Angeles of the arrest and confession of Solomon and is now awaiting word from the Los Angeles officers.

SNOW NORTH AND SOUTH OF ALBUQUERQUE

A cold, dismal, cloudy, back east November day greeted Albuquerque this morning. Overcoats, winter caps, ear muffs and mufflers were brought from their moth protected summer homes in the back closets and put into immediate active use, for the thermometer at the New Mexico university registered as low as 21 last night—in Albuquerque.

Resurrection of Winter Wraps. Early this morning on almost any street could be seen individuals wildly swinging their arms to keep up circulation or others on a dog trot to their office, their hands covering their cold ears. It was cold, and the man with the fur overcoat and fur cap was to be envied.

But at noon the overcoats, winter caps and mufflers began to disappear as quickly as they appeared. The clouds had drifted away and the sun was beginning to get in its work. In a few hours Albuquerque was again in its normal state.

The Coal Man Gets His. But the cold snap put many dollars into the coal man's bulging pockets and incidentally came very near putting a few gray hairs into his head. Orders came in thick and fast, faster than they could be filled, but the supply of coal and wood in this city was not near exhausted, so the fuel dealers say.

"No, there is no shortage in the coal supply in Albuquerque," said a local dealer. "We had enough on hand to last through the coal snap and longer. But its surprising how Persons arriving from the north report more snow on the Raton mountains and at Las Vegas. Two heavy freight trains creaked into the local yards early this morning bearing decidedly significant evidence that snow had been falling to the north. The tops of the cars were covered with several inches of the beautiful.

From the south, though, comes a real plaintive cry of alarm. Snow fell in El Paso yesterday. Is it any wonder that it was cold in Albuquerque last night. The snow was preceded by sleet and the sleet was preceded by a drizzling rain, which dampened the summer feelings of all the sunny southland. It snowed at San Antonio, where the annual record of that part of the country is taking place. They are playing baseball at Phoenix with their gloves on.

"ARIZONA" IS TRULY A WELCOME DRAMA

Many Albuquerque Theatre
Goers Will Recognize Where Plot Is Laid.

Much interest will attach to the engagement of Augustus Thomas' play, "Arizona," which comes to the Elks' on Friday.

When Augustus Thomas wrote "Alabama," the ablest critics in America said he had written the best American play. The day after "Arizona" was produced in New York, three of that city's best newspaper cornerstone of that institution's foundation. The scenes of the play are on a ranch close to the Mexican border, and Fort Grant, one of the United States military posts established primarily to keep the Indians in a passive condition. The dramatic motive is simple, and the complications which lead to the denouement rational. The young wife of the colonel, many years her senior, being wearied to the point of despair by her lonely life, has a passing spasm of romance and is on the verge of elopement with almost too transparent a villain, when the young lover of her sister foils the plan, but at such a critical moment that he must himself bear the burden of suspicion or reveal the wife's frailty to her husband who has been to him almost as a father. With genuine manliness he chooses to shield the woman and wait the future for his justification. By thus sealing his lips, he innocently develops a series of crimes that are highly tragic and eventually a catastrophe that halts the movement of every corpse. But when it is all over and the sun breaks through the heavy clouds, one feels that in every step of the affair his judgment was critics said it was "a greater play than Alabama." The logical inference is evident, "Arizona," as the title would indicate, is a stage-told story of the lives and loves of men and women living in that picturesque section of our national domain, which is now knocking at the doors of congress with the demand for the dignity of statehood. The characters are typical of the sturdy civilization of a new country. Canby, a splendid ranch man, who dominates the Aravaipa valley; his kind-hearted, but peppery-tempered wife; their two beautiful daughters, children of the plains, venerated with San Francisco culture; the officers and soldiers of a frontier cavalry post—these are the principal types that move and live in the play, said to be the best contribution to the American stage since Bronson Howard and Dion Boucicault laid the sound and his conduct gallant and heroic.

J. J. Hyland, as Colonel Bonham in Arizona.

"LITTLE JOHNNY JONES" WAS JUST AS THE PRESS AGENT SAID

A Really Live Musical Drama.
With Lots of Dash

While "Little Johnny Jones" did not have any very extravagant array of vocal talent with him, the performance given at the Elks' opera house last night was one to elicit words of praise even from the most fastidious critic of this western country. There was enough dash and color about it to make up for what was lacking in the quality of vocal music. Come again Johnny and stay a week.

The house was not jammed but it was comfortably well filled. The musical numbers were seventeen and every one was a winner because of the attendant gyrations of a well drilled chorus and a splendor of appropriate costumes. There was a story with the play and every song was quite in line with the thread of the tale.

It was a story of two continents and love. Johnny was a jockey and ran two races—one with cupid and another in which he rode a losing pony, Yankeeoodle by name. And there was a song to go with the horse, with the stars and stripes and the chorus in red, white and blue.

The girl was an heiress and her wealthy aunt sought to give a few millions for a title. The girl preferred Johnny to the title, so to defeat the aunt, the girl masqueraded as the man with the title. Miss Bixler made a very clever earl and her song "Good Bye Flo" was one of the highlights of the performance. The race for love leads Johnny over two continents. The scenes were in a hotel in London, Southampton Pier and Chinatown, San Francisco. There was a clever moving boat scene and the stage effect in the scene in Chinatown was a work of art.

There was a philosopher, a large heavy individual, in the play, who appeared on the scene at moments where there was nothing else doing, with a quality of droll wit in a class by itself. For instance, he said that London was a great place for fun. If you went to London, you were better off as a place for fun.

The third musical number "Madame Faucette," that of a French woman, was Miss Bixler's best effort.

"Little Johnny Jones" was written, words and music by Geo. M. Cohan, and is staged by Joe. M. Gates. Mr. Gates has several other attractions booked for the Elks' this season and if they are on a par with "Little Johnny Jones" they should draw crowded houses.

Another great turkey dinner at the Home Restaurant, Sunday.

RICH VALENCIA COUNTY STOCKMAN SUE FOR DIVORCE

Plaintiff Asks for Equal Share of Fortune of $75,000.

The naming of three co-respondents asking for a one-half share of a fortune of $75,000, are the chief features of the suit which Mrs. Jaunilla Padilla has had her attorney file in the Valencia county district court asking for a divorce from her husband, Zacarias Padilla, a well-to-do stock raiser of San Rafael, N. M.

In her complaint Mrs. Padilla alleges that she was married to the defendant on the 27th day of November, 1897, a Catholic priest of Gallup, performing the ceremony. Two children were born to the union, a boy and a girl the former is now 5 years old and the latter is ten months old.

The complaint further alleges that the defendant has lived with three different females since the marriage and asks for a divorce on the grounds of abandonment and non-support.

There are three different and distinct clauses in the complaint setting forth notorious conduct on the part of the defendant and naming the co-respondents, all of whom are alleged to be residents of San Rafael. The complaint sets forth that the defendant came to Albuquerque on the 13th day of last October with a woman by the name of Dolores Chavez and has since been living with the said Dolores Chavez.

Wants Share of Property.
The complaint further reads as follows:

"On or about the 14th day of October, 1907, the defendant, abrogating the solemnity of his marriage vows, wilfully and without cause, abandoned the said plaintiff, and up to this time the defendant so continues to live separate and apart from her without any cause or reason, and against her will and consent.

"That for over a year prior to the 13th day of October, 1907, which date was the date of the separation, the defendant has failed and neglected to furnish the plaintiff with any money or provisions whatsoever for the support of herself and of their children, according to his means, station in life and ability; that the said defendant is guilty of habitual drunkenness and at various times has subjected the plaintiff to cruel and inhuman treatment.

The plaintiff alleges that on the 13th day of October, A. D. 1907, the date of the separations as aforesaid, the plaintiff and the defendant were and are at present time, the owners of the following enumerated goods and chattels:

1. Seven thousand (7,000) head of sheep, valued at three dollars ($3.00) per head, being of the total value of twenty-one thousand ($21,000) dollars.

2. Five hundred sixty-five head (565) of cattle; four hundred head of which bearing the brand "SP" are in the possession of the defendant; sixty head in possession of Esteban Murrieta; fifty (50) head in the possession of Rafael Valdez; thirty (30) head in the possession of Antonio Sanchez; and twenty-five (25) head in the possession of Toribio Chavez, which said total number of cattle, valued at fifteen (15) dollars per head, making a total value of $8,475.

3. Money deposited in the First National Bank of Albuquerque, N. M., thirty thousand ($30,000) dollars, which said money is deposited in the name of Manuel Padilla and son.

That the said plaintiff and defendant were and are at the present time seized of and in possession of the following described parcels of real estate:

1. Forty (40) acres of land in Valencia county, township ten (10), section ten (10) north, range ten (10) west, valued at one thousand ($1,000) dollars.

2. One hundred sixty (160) acres of land in Valencia county, comprising about twenty-four (24), township eleven (11) north, range twelve (12) west, valued at five thousand ($5,000) dollars.

3. Other houses and lands in and about San Rafael, Valencia county, N. M., valued at two thousand ($2,000) dollars.

Wherefore the plaintiff prays for a judgment and asks that the bonds of matrimony existing between herself and the defendant be dissolved, and that the custody of their two minor children, to-wit, Manuel Padilla and Reyes Padilla, be awarded her.

The plaintiff further prays for a judgment awarding her one-half (1/2) of all the property, real and personal, now owned and held by the said plaintiff and defendant as husband and wife; which one-half (1/2) interest as herein claimed, will amount to the sum of thirty-three thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven (33,727.50) dollars; and, besides, plaintiff prays for one thousand ($1,000) dollars for attorney's fees and for all the costs of the suit.

Eliego Buca appears for the plaintiff and it is understood that the defendant has employed the law firm of Chavez and Sedillo as counsel.

ROSVELL ELKS' CARNIVAL MADE MONEY FOR LODGE

Financial Success Despite Adverse Conditions, and Next Sum Will be Realized.

Roswell, N. M., Nov. 12.—The Elks' Carnival closed last week after three nights of fun and frolic. Although there were many adverse circumstances, the carnival was a financial success this year, more so than the management had anticipated. The total receipts were about $1,800 for the three nights. Last year the total receipts were $2,700 for four nights, and on that occasion the expenses were enormous, amounting to about $2,900. This year the expenses were much less, and the Elks hope to clear as much if not more than they did last year. It will be a week before the accounts are adjusted and the amount cleared can be learned.

RUSSIAN SUPPLEMENTED WHISKY FOR VODKA

Subject of the Czar Gives Vaudeville Performance at Depot.

Michael Shoupe, a Russian as yet unacquainted with American ways, was arraigned before Police Judge Craig this morning for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Shoupe missed his vodka when he arrived in America, but he soon came to know, and like American whisky and it was due to his indulgence in the latter that he fell into the hands of the police.

It was in the women's waiting room at the Santa Fe depot that Shoupe disturbed the waiting passengers with his maudlin singing in Russian. It took three of his companions to overcome him and take him to the city jail in a hack. Officer Habbitt pressed the Russian's companions into service in making the arrest.

In police court this morning the four Russians had quite a time deciding which one "had money" to pay Shoupe's fine. "He has money," chorused the three pointing their fingers at Shoupe when Judge Craig assessed the fine, but Shoupe had only $3.10 and a railroad ticket to Chicago.

Then "he has money," said two of the Russians, point to another, but he mournfully shook his head and turned his pockets inside out to show that the stringency in the money market had seriously affected him. The comedy was carried on until the fun got so stale the judge ordered Shoupe taken back to his cell.

"I got money, plenty of money. Let me pay the fine," then chorused each of the three, who struggled for the honor of paying their countryman's fine. Enough money was quickly shown to pay many men's fines, but one produced a ten dollar bill and Shoupe added fifty cents which totaled his fine and costs and he was released.

William Gilfoyl was sentenced to ten days in the city jail for vagrancy.

EXPRESSMAN MORRIS ON TRIAL FOR HIS LIFE

Killing of Lobato at Lamy
Is To Be Fully Investigated.

The sensational killing of Catalino Lobato at Lamy on last New Year's night by J. W. Morrison, an express messenger of the Santa Fe-Lamy branch of the Santa Fe, and the subsequent barricading of himself in the Lamy eating house of Morris to keep at bay an angry mob of natives, who had a rope and threatened to strangle him up, is revived by the calling of the case, in which Morris is charged with murder, in the San Juan county court.

Self Defense Will Be Plea.
Morris will plead self defense and endeavor to prove to the court that the killing was a case of justifiable homicide. According to the story published about the shooting immediately after it occurred, Morris was trying to sleep in the Santa Fe station house and was disturbed by the man killed and a brother. In the quarrel which ensued, Morris struck one of the men with his revolver and put them to flight. A short time after that Morris was in the lunch counter, which is in the same building with the station, when the two men opened the door and started in. The shooting followed, one man being hit and killed and the other running away. Morris then heard that the natives were gathering with the intention of lynching him and fortified himself in the Harvey hotel until the arrival of Sheriff Cloonan, of Santa Fe. Morris has been in jail since his arrest.

Case Will Be Expensive One.
There are a large number of witnesses summoned in the case and considering the difficulty in reaching Aztec, the trial promises to be a very expensive one. The case was taken from Santa Fe county to San Juan county on a change of venue.

The clothing of Catalino Lobato worn at the time of the fatal shooting affair will be used as evidence to show the course of the bullet which inflicted the mortal wound. Lobato's revolver and Morris' gun will also be exhibits at the trial.

Colonel E. C. Abbott of Santa Fe, who has been retained as counsel for the defense will endeavor to show it is understood that Lobato, who was left handless had his arm extended at the time he was wounded. He expects to prove this by the bullet holes in the coat and underclothing.

Members last week Judge John B. McFie overruled a motion to compel the prosecution to produce all of the eye witnesses to the shooting at the trial as several of them are out of the jurisdiction of the court but sustained a motion for issuance of compulsory process for three other witnesses.

ALBUQUERQUE IS THE FAST GROWING CITY OF SOUTHWEST

There Will be 30,000 People Residing Here Before 1910. Geographic Location Is Perfect and Climatic Conditions Cannot be Excelled Anywhere on Earth—Railroad Advantages Include Transcontinental Train Service, Big Shops Employing Hundreds of Men and General Offices and Other Institutions of Santa Fe. With Prospects of Another Road to the East—Great Manufacturing Industries, Including Wool Mill, Wool Scouring Plants, Ice Plants and Breweries, Foundry, Gas and Electric Plant Are Features of Industrial Life—Commercial, Social and School Advantages Are Unexcelled, and City Is Ample Provided With Churches.

Owing to the fact that The Citizen is constantly receiving inquiries for information about this city, the paper today publishes a short and condensed statement of facts about Albuquerque which will be of interest to every one.

The Citizen suggests that residents of this city who have friends asking for information, secure copies of this short article and forward them or else send the names to their friends to this office.

In this way, The Citizen will be saved much correspondence and the persons seeking information will have more of it than could be given in a short letter.

The article will be added to from time to time and will be published at intervals in this paper.

Making Phenomenal Growth. Albuquerque is the metropolis of New Mexico and the logical business center of the southwest. It is the largest city on the Santa Fe railway between Topeka, Kan., and Los Angeles, California. It now has a population of 20,000 people, and has grown at a rate for the past six years, which if maintained, will make it a city of 30,000 inhabitants by 1910.

The increase in population since 1900 has been at the rate of 1,200 people a year, and the value of city realty has increased 50 per cent generally over the city and 100 per cent and better in many districts.

Geographical Location. Albuquerque is located in the widest and most fertile part of the Rio Grande valley. The river is a half mile to the west of the city and furnishes a plentiful supply of water for the truck gardens, fruit and alfalfa ranches.

To the west above the Rio Grande are several long extinct volcanoes and above them and farther to the west stretches prairie land for fifty miles.

The stately timber clad peaks of the Sandia and Manzano mountains rise to an altitude of 12,000 feet eighteen miles to the east, northeast and southeast, for a hundred miles north and south. Between the valley and the mountains is a flat mesa, dotted with ranches and farm houses. The soil of this mesa is sandy and grows a grama grass of superior quality for stock.

Where the Rio Grande emerges through White Rock canyon fifty miles to the north of Albuquerque, rise the foot hills of the Santa Fe mountains and there ends the valley as far as Albuquerque is benefited.

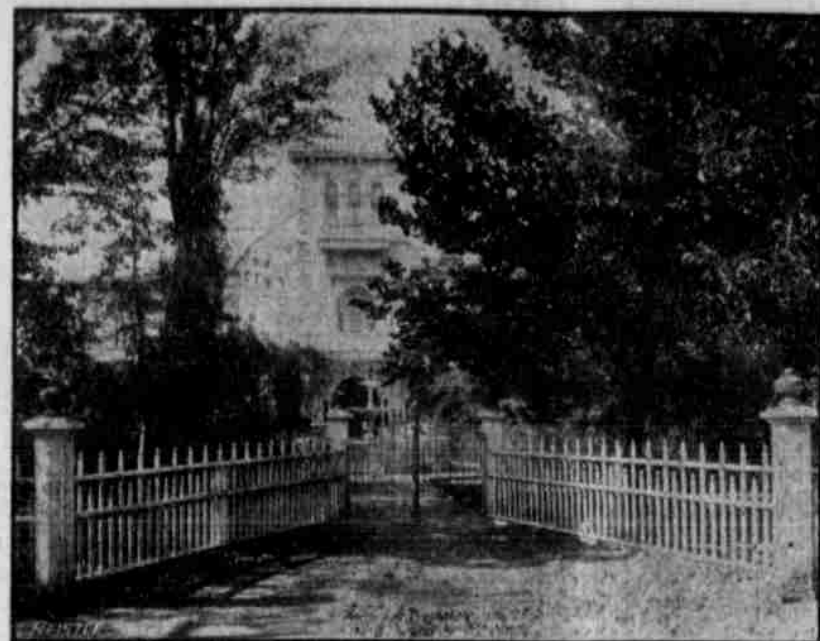

To the south the valley is wide and fertile and alive with prosperous farms, clear to the Mexican line. El Paso, the nearest large city, is 250 miles to the south.

Railroad Center. The railroad advantages of Albuquerque are better than most western cities of its size. The Santa Fe graded. The Santa Fe has a pay roll in Albuquerque of $35,000 a month.

Leading Manufacturing Interests. Wool scouring mills, handling over 4,500,000 pounds annually. Rio Grande Woolen Mills Co., manufacturers of cassimere, clothing, dress goods, leather, clothing, blankets, Angora and sheepskin rugs, capes, moccasins, etc., annual output $150,000.

Albuquerque Foundry and Machine Works, largest in the southwest. Southwestern Brewery & Ice Co., annual capacity of 50,000 barrels; moderate temperature throughout the year renders it a preeminent location for invalids. The sun shines every day in the year, warm and bright, carrying with it death to tubercular germs.

This is an ideal climate for an outdoor life. Though snows lay on the top of most of the peaks of the nearby mountains for four months of the year, an inch of snow on the streets of Albuquerque is an almost unknown break of the weather. The entire territory of New Mexico, of which Albuquerque is the center, is considered one vast sanitarium for the cure of the great white plague.

ququerque, to witness the Indian dances, which occur there at intervals. Evidence of the Spanish regime in New Mexico exists principally in the language and customs of the Mexican population and in the noted church structures still standing in different towns. The American occupation was marked by the gradual introduction of modern commercial improvements. The Santa Fe trail came in for good service. In 1875 Albuquerque obtained telegraphic communication with the east. On the 20th of April, 1880, the first railroad iron was laid in the city. The old street car system was organized on May 14, 1880. The first

Last, but not least, the American Lumber Co.'s new saw mill and box factory, now completed; this plant occupies 110 acres in the northern part of the city; capacity 175,000 feet per day; best white pine on the market; employ 350 men, pay roll

History of Albuquerque. Albuquerque derives its name from the Duke of Albuquerque, who was governor of New Mexico from 1763 to 1770. It was first visited by Europeans, according to the best authority, in 1549, being then a pueblo town of probably 12,000 inhabitants. Coronado, the intrepid explorer, Spanish governor of Sonora, Mexico, stopped here on his renowned journey to the Missouri valley. Accompanying Coronado was for a time governor of New Mexico, and always remained a staunch friend of the territory. Albuquerque being located on a great transcontinental railway system has been favored with many important visitors. Space will not allow details in this respect, suffice it to mention the visit of President Roosevelt on May 2, 1903, when he received a notable welcome, and the city assumed an appropriate splendor.

"GOLD IS THEIR ONLY GOD" SAYS HE

New York Preacher Makes Comments on Design For New Coins.

New York, Nov. 12.—"Gold is the only god of the American people. By dropping the words, 'In God we trust' from all coins in the future, the government is casting aside the work of hypocrisy which for years has hidden the real divinity of the Americans. 'In gold we trust' would be the true motto."

The Rev. Dr. S. A. Preston, assistant pastor of the Metropolitan Temple, expressed these views today regarding the dropping of the phrase from the new gold coins, the first of which has just reached the treasury department in Washington from the Philadelphia mint.

"A Judgment of God."

"The recent financial trouble is nothing more or less than a judgment sent by God to a mammoth following race," continued the Rev. Dr. Preston. "God has been forgotten in the United States for years and the inscription that has marked the coins of the nation has been nothing more than a mockery. I am surprised, however, that the nation has had the courage to drop the misrepresenting words and by doing so make a public abandonment of the situation."

Dr. Preston predicted that if this country did not soon awaken to its shocking spiritual condition it would quickly receive the punishment accorded the cities of ancient days.

Lazarus in Wall Street.

"Everywhere in Wall street may be seen the tracks of Lazarus," he said. "Christianity is only an echo and it is not strange that God should visit a punishment in the shape of the recent panic on such an unchristian community. Let me repeat that the dropping of the motto from the coins is only tearing off the veil of alleged Christianity that the country has been wearing for generations. Even churches are owned by rich men, who use them as they do their yachts for personal ends. The people who have amassed great wealth are the rulers of the community. I don't believe the United States ever trusted in God, especially the rich."

BETTER FEELING EXISTS IN COUNTRY

Henry Clews Says Better Times and Cheaper Commodities Are In Sight.

New York, Nov. 12.—A much better feeling exists in New York owing very largely to two circumstances: first, the engagement of over $42,000,000 of gold, and second, the saving of two big trust companies from suspension. Other factors also tend to give relief, such as the clearing of the situation of the situation exercised by strong financial leaders, and the timely assistance rendered by the government at Washington.

In consequence of these developments the security markets, though quiet, have shown a substantial recovery, thus materially facilitating the liquidation which has been necessary in various quarters. While the strain upon New York has thus been moderated and the crisis apparently passed without further disaster, the financial pressure has spread to all parts of the country with varying severity. In all of our principal cities the monetary stringency, though less acute than in New York, has been exceedingly pronounced, calling for similar methods of relief to those adopted in this city.

The situation, moreover, was seriously aggravated by the disposition of the public to hoard currency; but this evil, which is a feature in all panics, is gradually disappearing and the ship of finance, though badly crippled by the recent storm, is emerging in much better condition than anticipated.

Now that the worst is over, the universal question asked is, what must be now expected? All previous panics show that after the acute stage of crisis is passed a substantial recovery followed on the stock exchange, to be succeeded by a period of more or less inertia and depression. There is no reason to anticipate any departure from this rule in this panic, although the conditions are not precisely similar to those of previous crises.

The one saving feature in the situation is the general soundness of our banks. These institutions, though in the past not always managed on the lines of strict prudence, are now as a whole eminently sound and have endured the tremendous strain of the last few weeks in splendid fashion. Dishonest management has been thoroughly eliminated from our banks and railroads and it is safe to say that soundness and lawfulness were never more prevalent in these institutions than today. There is no reason for distrust in this quarter.

The Weak Element. The weakest element in the financial field has been amongst the commercial companies which had entered the field of banking in competition with the banks, but without the restrictions and safeguards of the latter. A breakdown in this quarter has long been expected, and one important advantage from recent experiences will be that in the future all trust companies will have to be managed on sound and conservative lines.

The effects of the financial disturbance are now extending into the commercial world. For self-protection the banks are compelled to materially restrict their credit operations. Many business concerns will consequently have much difficulty in repeating obligations and business will naturally be compelled to contract more or less in accordance with the restriction of credit. How far this contraction will go and with what consequences it is impossible to predict, but the sooner the fact is recognized that general business must take its share of the present depression which has fallen upon the street, the better for all concerned.

Everything possible should now be done to rebuild confidence and credit. Hoarded money should be re-circulated to the banks in order to enable them to better grant the accommodations which it is their business to furnish. It is sheer folly to take money out of the banks and hide it in stockings or safe deposit boxes. If depositors are unwilling to invest their funds they should put them in sound banking institutions, of which there are plenty, and not deprive the community of the life blood of commerce. Let these hoardings be put back into the banks that the latter can exercise their legitimate function of giving credit and recovery will be quickly expedited.

Gold Imports. Gold imports will do much to relieve the situation and the further expansion of the currency now contemplated will temporarily counteract the hoarding tendency, but the limit of assistance from this source has been almost reached. We must now look for liquidation in other directions. Commodity prices must decline and we will be forced to find a market for all the surplus products—wheat, cotton, etc.—even at the expense of lower prices, if necessary. It is only by such contraction and by bringing our markets down to a lower and more normal level that we can avert further disaster. This process of readjustment may be unpleasant but it is inevitable and will in due season put the country on a better and stronger basis for a fresh forward movement.

The country must have lower costs of production and this means lower prices for commodities and labor. After enjoying a period of nearly thirteen years' uninterrupted prosperity and rising prices and wages, it is but natural to expect a movement in the opposite direction. On the down grade because of resistance the recession is usually violent, and consequently less protracted. It is to be hoped that we have seen the worst of the panic, although not the end of reaction, and fortunately there are many features of encouragement which were not in sight a few weeks ago.

While there are no prospects of easy money for some time to come, the stringency shows some signs of abatement. We have received more than $42,000,000 of gold from abroad which is being scattered all over the United States. In some quarters it is anticipated that the imports will increase to $50,000,000, but that depends on the course of affairs abroad.

The Rate on Money. The advance of the Bank of England rate to the unusual figure of 10 per cent is significant. It is the highest rate since 1873. The advance by the Bank of France to 4 per cent and the Bank of Germany to 7 1/2 per cent, and the fact that the foreign markets have parted with about as much gold as they can afford. Perhaps we may have to get on without further European assistance, especially as Europe has difficulties of its own to meet. There is more or less danger of a crisis in Germany, where there has been great industrial expansion. Paris has shown much willingness to help London, thus placing the latter in a position to aid New York, but it is quite evident that we have almost run to the limits of our tether in getting gold from Europe. The bulk of this gold will soon be in the hands of the banks enabling the latter to extend their credits to the extent of between $150,000,000 and $200,000,000. This is very substantial and practical relief.

It is questionable if it is good policy to continue this raid upon European gold. If prolonged it will provoke resentment abroad and tend to delay the progress of readjustment on this side which is both inevitable and desirable. If we persist, and pay no heed to European warnings, foreign bankers will begin to send back our securities, instead of gold at a time when we are in no condition to buy them. Moreover excessive gold imports will tend to inflation later on when the crisis is past, and very likely lead to heavy gold exports in the coming spring, especially in view of the further expansion of an already redundant currency. We had better be satisfied for the present with our recent liberal acquisitions of gold.

The Youth's Companion Calendar For 1908.

The publishers of The Youth's Companion will, as always at this season, present to every subscriber whose subscription ($1.75) is paid for 1908 a beautiful calendar for the new year. Four paintings by artists of distinction are reproduced in the four panels of the calendar by a process of color printing which has been recently brought to remarkable excellence. The first of the panels is an inspiring sea scene, full of the beauty of the wide ocean and sky, and the joyous rush of the homeward-bound ship. The second is a fine cattle piece. The third picture is an old mill at Zaandam—typically dutch in treatment. The fourth panel depicts a "Girl with Roses"—a charming face, exquisite in color and expression. All the pictures are worthy of preservation long after 1908 has passed into the good old times.
