SHOP FEAR VOICED AT MEET OF CONTRACTORS

They Will Lose School Jobs Unless Unions Act

Contractors and union men face to face with the fact that there is a large invasion of shop men into Albuquerque for the meeting of the Contractors' Association with representatives of building trades unions last night.

The union men stated that they did not intend to a proposition for reduction in wages, and expressed confidence in their ability to combat the open shop movement successfully without striking.

The contractors said that they were not making the union reduce wages, but expressed a real feeling of pessimism in face of the open shop movement.

Several of the contractors expressed their fear that contracts for the school buildings will go to an outside contractor for the building work by May 12, and may cost the city for five per cent of the cost of the bid, or from $15,000 to $25,000.

The contractors agreed that they must care to put up with the present union wage in competition with outside contractors who can figure on the shop basis.

To Visit School Board representatives of the unions the contractors that they had a committee go before school board before they would want the contracts to a local man. They stated that they believed the school board would agree to this.

They will not make any more bids until they have a chance to bid on buildings which they had to bid on the present union wage.

PRISONER ANSWERS QUESTIONS ABOUT THE TAYLOR CASE

Man Arrested in Hawaii Completes 15-Page Statement

SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.—Hawaii C. Committee newspaper reported that the prisoner, A. J. Wynn of Los Angeles, in his statement yesterday told Lillo T. H. today had completed a 15 page typewritten statement in answer to questions asked by the officers in the hotel. The statement would throw some light on the death of Wm. Desmond Taylor, film director.

WALTON ACTS ALONE TO BRING OUTSIDE MAN INTO THE CITY AS FIRE CHIEF

Action Causes Stormy Row in City Commission—Tingley Takes A Crack at Weil—Swope Attempts to Bar Reporter While Talking Over City Managership

The first verbal battle which like a thunderstorm cloud of the end of a clear day broke in the ranks of the new city commission of a special budget meeting late yesterday afternoon left indications that a second storm is in the air.

The chief cause of contention which may give rise to another storm came to the surface when W. H. Walton, newly elected chairman of the city commission, announced that he had wired the fire chief at Kansas City, asking that Fire Tingley if he could recommend a suitable fire chief for Albuquerque.

Mr. Walton's words were hardly out, when Commissioner Thomas Hughes made it clear to the commission that he considered that the chairman had usurped his powers as chairman. Commissioner Hughes said that it was not the right of a chairman to hire and fire a chief when there had never been anything said in commission meeting about the city needing any other fire chief.

Commissioner Walton explained that the fire chief in Kansas City had replied that his son who was in Phoenix on account of his wife's health would make a suitable man for Albuquerque's fire chief. Tingley, Commissioner Walton continued that he had wired the letter and that he was coming to Albuquerque to talk to the commission.

Commissioner Hughes charged the chairman with attempting to hire another fire chief without consulting the other members of the commission. He said the power of hiring fire chiefs rests entirely with the city manager.

135 ARRESTED IN GENERAL ROUND UP OF KENTUCKIANS

Wholesale Indictments For Lawlessness Are Expected

MANCHESTER, Ky., April 26.—With the county jail filled and the home of Jailer Harris shattering many women prisoners, the Mill Creek section of Clay county is being today in compliance with District Judge Hiram J. Johnson's orders for the arrest of every person over 21 years of age in the Mill Creek territory, the jail today houses 135 men and women more are under orders to appear before the grand jury to testify regarding the murder of a witness and the wounding of a deputy sheriff.

Deputy sheriffs yesterday swore that there was an organized band to violate laws, and if necessary to kill any one who attempted to break up the lawlessness. Those under arrest are charged with being members of this band.

Some of the men, women and children for whom warrants were issued are crowded into homes here without guards while they await summons to appear before the grand jury. It is expected wholesale indictments will result from the grand jury investigation and that heavy bonds will be demanded of those who are found to be connected with the alleged conspiracy. Judge Johnson's recent action in requiring heavy bonds from persons indicted for general lawlessness is the basis for this belief.

It is understood that a circular, calling attention to the people who have been to pay fines on them, be returned with the monthly bill of the water department. This plan being approved, the commission raised the estimated receipts from $100,000 to $150,000. The commission is to meet tonight for regular business.

BEAUTY AND PROTECTION Plus Lowest Cost Per Square Foot

The real price of Lucas Tinted Glass Paint is as high, if not higher, per gallon than any other house paint on the market.

And yet it is actually the lowest priced paint you can buy. There are three important elements that determine the actual cost of paint—so consider them carefully.

First—Thorough and complete priming in a Lucas Tinted Glass Paint has a covering capacity of nearly double that of ordinary paint. One gallon of Lucas Tinted Glass Paint will cover 350 to 400 square feet, two coats, while ordinary paint will cover but 250 to 300 square feet, two coats. This immediately reduces the price of Lucas Tinted Glass Paint to a lower cost per square foot.

Second—The exceptionally high percentage of pure raw linseed oil used in Lucas Tinted Glass Paint produces a full, even gloss of enduring beauty. Then, the hours of heavy milling that blend the various elements into an perfect paint product assure longer life and greater durability. Thus, Lucas Tinted Glass Paint costs very much less per year of service.

Third—In painting the average house the paint represents about one-third of the cost, and the labor two-thirds. So that it costs just as much in labor to put on a paint that will last only two or three years as it does to put on a good paint that will give good service five years or longer.

Thus, paints costing less than Lucas Tinted Glass Paint are actually more expensive. Lucas Tinted Glass Paint, in Beauty, Spreading Qualities, Protection, and Durability, is not an expense. It is an investment.

Step into our store. Let's talk it over.

ASTOR TELLS HOW WIFE AND HE MIX MARRIAGE, POLITICS

Overshadowed by Wife, Not Much: We Work Together

By EDWARD M. THIERRY
(Copyright, 1922, by NEA Service)
NEW YORK, April 24.—This started out with a unique proposition to be an interview with Woodrow Wilson. Not with Lady Astor at all. It was to be a talk with an obscure husband.

Extraordinary? Why, it isn't. Lady Astor was sitting in the office of the editor, Mr. Charles E. Wilson.

Well, Lady Astor called out. "I told the press in Washington that there is a woman in my husband's life."

The idea, said Lady Astor, "I don't quite like it. I don't like to see my name and that of my husband in the papers. I know he's a great man and I know he's a great worker, but I don't like to see his name in the papers. He'd like to be back in the House of Commons with me."

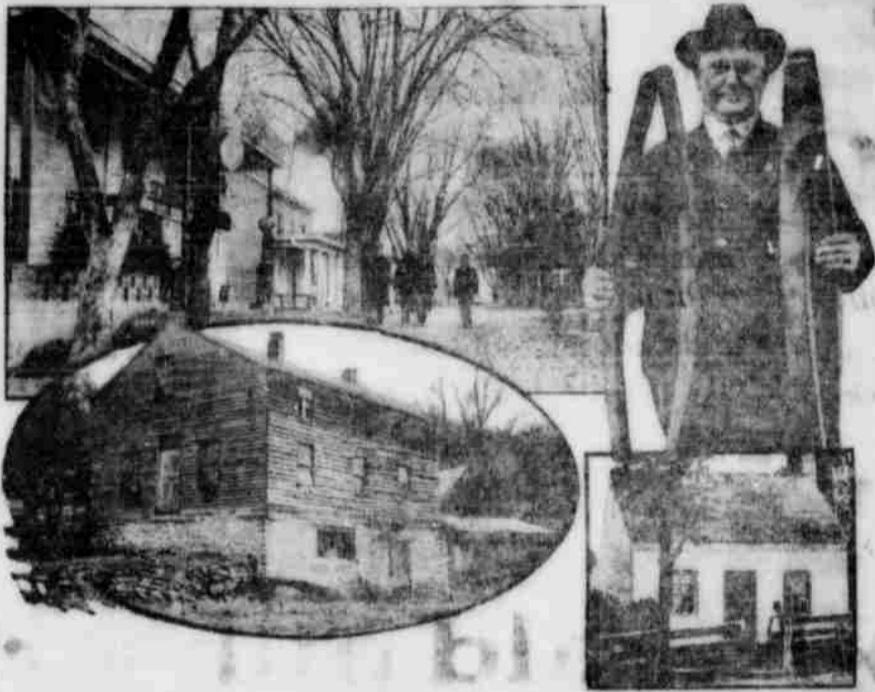

She shook an ornate finger. "He's a power in politics—and he's a power in the House of Commons. He's a power in America. He's a power in the House of Commons."

Lady Astor breaks in. "Lord Astor, will like and dislike in getting Lady Astor to stop talking about him. She looked and left. Then it became his interview."

Overshadowed by my wife? Indeed, I'm not," he said. "We work too much together to have that happen."

He pulled at his wisp of brown mustache and showed his even

POINT PLEASANT, O., April 24.—To this village—population 145—the presidency of the United States will come Thursday to tell the country what he thinks of General Ulysses S. Grant, Union Pleasant's favorite son whose hundredth anniversary will be observed on that day—April 27.

He will address the nation from the porch in front of J. B. Winship's general store, which is

TRAGEDY IN UNVEILING

By NEA Service
WASHINGTON, April 25.—There is no element of tragedy in the belated completion and unveiling of the huge Grant memorial here on April 27.

The man who designed and executed the striking military statue—Henry Merwin Strydom—died in New York on April 12, two weeks before his great work was to be dedicated. His physical breakdown was attributed largely to his work on the memorial which he considered his great life work.

Little Money, Much Health

The circumstances of the circumstances are like the circumstances of the Gracian. Not only money but health and satisfaction, wholesome food and comfortable clothing and rest in the world.

And that is what is needed in this time of our country. They need it as if they were in a village that had gone to sleep and health had changed in a moment. They need it as if they were in a village that had gone to sleep and health had changed in a moment.

THE makers of U. S. Tires made this announcement last November—

"Hereafter the price of the 30x 3 1/2 'Usco' is $10.90."

The lowest price ever quoted on a tire of quality reputation and standard performance.

And now, with the opening of Spring, there seem to be quite a number of "New and Special tires" coming into the market in the $10.90 price range.

Perhaps you are wondering just what there can be either "new" or "special" about these tires.

It can't be the $10.90 price—'Usco' established that five months ago.

Nor quality reputation and standard performance—for it takes more than one full season for any new tire to demonstrate where it stands in quality and value.

people to a smile. "Yes, she gets more publicity—but it'd be rotten to be jealous of one's wife, wouldn't it? Especially since I encouraged her to go into politics of course. I did—she wouldn't have you know, if I hadn't."

Lady Astor, who is 43 and isn't at all the solemn person you might think a peer of the realm would be, utters about as he talks and speaks in short, jerky sentences. He acts well enough.

He's a Her Protector.

"I protect her from all sorts of visitors." He looks tremendously severe. "My love, it's a real job."

I wanted to know whether Lady Astor's political life interfered with her home.

"Oh, it does," he said, "but it's extraordinary the way she is able to have a home life and keep in touch with the children and do her 'stable work' too. Children's life, you know—from three years old."

And I'll tell you one thing—she's a mother of her children (than a lot of mothers) without who haven't a thing to do.

They Live by Schedule.

"We do it by schedule, the only way. At times we cut out from our work—and take a holiday at home."

Lady Astor said Lady Astor is eager to retire from politics and would if it were not that it would look like running away.

She gets from 300 to 1,000 letters a week, he said. Oh, you must have a lot of letters to get away from it. If I could get back into the House of Commons—where I'd like to be—she'd give me the seat from Plymouth to me. But she won't leave yet—she has things she wants to get done."

More Political?

Lady Astor, who is the Hon. Woodrow Wilson's wife, was a member of the House of Commons before her husband's death. She succeeded to her seat upon the death of her father, William Stanley Astor, the American who became a British subject in 1890 and was elected a member of the House of Commons in 1917.

"I'm a mere figurehead in the House of Lords," he said, with a rueful smile. "I tried to get out, I'm still trying—but there's no much hope. The House of Lords is a very old-fashioned body, but for one thing. Imagine 500 members, with 100 or so who've never taken their seats, and a usual attendance of 20 or 40."

Lady Astor thinks more women will strain parliament at the next election in Great Britain.

"I'd like all women to be in office after they get in," he grinned, "but lots of men are dismal failures too. Corrupted husbands should ponder that."

The Modern Mother

Problems far beyond those of her fathers. She herself must be a much more competent person, making in one individual the duties of cook, teacher and moral instructor. It is no wonder that many modern mothers break under the strain, and that others drag out a miserable existence, always tired, and not able to take a day's vacation. Such women will find themselves benefited and their babies made happy by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which has made for suffering women, and does not fail to relieve them.

THEY OVERLOOKED THE DIAMONDS

There is a modern flippancy to the effect that, "What you don't know won't hurt you." It is also a fallacy. For instance:

The farmers of Kimberley were a disgusted, disheartened lot. They said the soil was too rocky to earn them a living. Some of them left. Others died in poverty.

And all the time their children were playing with diamonds.

But the farmers didn't know. They thought the priceless gems were pebbles.

Don't be like those Kimberley farmers. Know!

Don't seek opportunity in some distant place and overlook the diamonds that are daily within your grasp. Know!

KILE'S APPEAL IN MURDER CASE GOES TO COURT

Supreme Tribunal Hears Arguments of Defense Lawyers

(Special to The Herald) SANTA FE, April 25.—The Kile case was submitted to the supreme court yesterday. The principal ground on which the appellant's attorneys, George Klock and A. A. Sedillo, asked for reversal were that the trial court had not given the jury any second-degree murder instruction and permitted the introduction of testimony by three witnesses for the purpose of showing that the appellant had previously given to the appellant's wife. George L. Kile, the appellant, was found guilty of first-degree murder and sentenced to be hanged for shooting J. R. Whitesides, foreman of Capt. W. C. Feld's ranch, near Toltec, Valencia county, nearly three years ago. In support of their contention the trial court should have given a second-degree instruction, the attorneys said. Kile was insane at the time of the shooting, they said, and Whitesides' blood could not be proved to be his. Whitesides' blood could not be proved to be his, after she had testified on cross-examination she had not made any such statement. Attorney General Harry S. Howard and Assistant Attorney General A. M. Edwards represented the state.

MADALENA HOLDS PEP FOR RED LAKE DISTRICT

Test Well to be Dredged About May 1 with Celebration

MADALENA, N. M., April 25.—Maddalena is enthusiastic over the well which will be made in the Red Lake basin about 25 miles west of here. The Texas-Mexican company, especially organized for the purpose, is now engaged in sinking test wells and loading with rigs and machinery on the side track here. Spudding in of the first test well probably take place about May 1. It is planned at that time to have a community picnic at the well site, and to present officials and citizens all parts of the state to the celebration. It will be the first test to be made in the Red Lake basin, which is surrounded by mountains and high gravelly soil. The district of Magdalena declared that when the machinery of drilling company arrived, and a road to the well site, that trucks can transfer equipment and rigs. Charles P. O'Connor, an oil man from Pennsylvania, is at the head of the Texas-Mexican company. The drilling site was owned by William H. Foster, who in charge of the work at the well in Texas. He expects to use the upper and lower Pleistocene strata at a depth of 100 feet. The people of Magdalena look upon the prospect of oil with some activity in this line, many of the land which are being

Spends 23 Years in Prison—All for Stealing Coats

LONDON, April 25.—William Whitman has spent 23 years in prison and has just been sentenced to another four years—all for stealing coats. If he were well-to-do he might be termed a kleptomaniac, not responsible for his acts, but as he is just a very ordinary sort of carpenter, he goes to jail every time he is caught. He began stealing coats in 1847 and says he cannot help taking them. This last time he stole two overcoats from the store of the Metropolitan Railway company. Almost invariably it is from a railway company that he takes the coats. Ordinary coats present a temptation, but those owned by railway companies seem to possess an irresistible fascination for him.

CLEAN-UP IN THE LARGER SENSE

Let your clean-up this year be a real one. Have all the little repairing done that you've been putting off from season to season. The longer you delay it the more it will cost you when you DO have it done. Lumber, Beaver Board, Bishoprie, board, and Nolequin.

roofing will play an important part in your clean-up if you want to make it permanent.

Call us about these things. We're in business to serve you—and serve you promptly.

LET US HELP YOU PAINT UP

The help we can give you in painting up is selling you the world's best paint—Sherwin-Williams. The cost of the paint in a painting job is the smallest part of it. Yet good paint, such as Sherwin-Williams, will make the job last seasons longer than if cheaply made paint were used. For the sake of real economy use good paint.
