JACKSON, Miss., May 2.—The $100,000 damage suit brought by

Miss Frances C. Kirkland, a sisnophor, against Gov. Lee Russell and his wife, died under mysteri-cous circumstances.

In addition, he said two children by his first marriage died from what was claimed at the time to be accidental pos-tions. The woman was divorced from her first husband, her husband of Philadelphia, in March

1912, and her fourth in the same year in 1918, Stanton said.

The woman also died in that year.

The third husband, Stanton said, carried $10,000 insurance, while the fourth was insured for $5,000.

Both husbands were former soldiers, and one died after the death of his fourth husband, and came home to die.

He died suddenly about a year ago, buying government insurance for $5,000.

Efforts to have this increased to $10,000 failed.

The woman claimed that death in that instance was due to her husband having been gassed overseas, and no physician was called, Stanton said.

No traces of disability in the government records of this man could be found, according to Stanton.

The suspicious circumstances were reported to Department of Justice by officials of the Red Cross which, since her arrest, has been caring for the two children of the woman by her second marriage.

CHARGES INTERESTS HAUNT COMMITTEE FRAMING TARIFF

Senator King Asks Why Crowds Fill Capitol Rooms

WASHINGTON. May 2.—Charges that representatives of the pending-tariff interests spent $1,000,000 in New Mexico in the 1920 campaign and Major White views with some disapprobation Major's statement made the 1922 campaign the most venal in history anything at all at the time. It is understood he strongly condemned his previous statement as being false, untrue and erroneous, not to say mendacious.

The U.S. senator declared that on one occasion when he visited the committee headquarters to obtain copies of public hearings, the anterooms and corridors were so crowded with those representatives of the pending interest and with their wives and children that the rates in this bill that I could scarcely effect an entrance to the room.

Why were they there? he asked. The public hearings had closed, the committee majority was investigating another to frame the bill, the documents having been excluded. For what purpose were they there? I have it for members and the public to determine what the purpose was.

A Senator King charged that after the public hearings were closed the pendulum had turned against him and that other speakers had the day before. Senator Frank H. Thompson, Republican, New Mexico, interrupted to say that opponents of the dye embargo also had been heard and that the Glass Senator was unfair and unjust in information any conclusion Senator King denied that he had made such an intimation.

BASEBALL SEASON WILL OPEN WITH STREET PARADE

Chairman of Commission to Be Asked to Throw First Ball

Since the Duke City Doves were successful in their pre-season game with Mountainair, they are now contemplating on staging a public opening next Sunday afternoon when Helen comes here for its grand reunion with Albuquerque. This season, Don Padilla, manager of the Grays, already has started plans to have the season opened with a downtown parade, headed by a band. Manager Padilla is not sure to date just what band he will get, but he says that if the Grays get a band he will get someone to march down the street leading it home.

None will open the season and the manager today.

Efforts to have Chairman W. E. Watson of the city commission the first ball over the plate before the game starts also will be made.

Belen has defeated the Old Town Doves and has defeated the Mountainair bats and it is believed will give the Grays a close contest. The Grays are to practice every night this week so as to be in perfect trim.

Negotiations already are under way for the game to take place on May 14, but these arrangements have not yet been completed.

DEMSEY HAS NO EQUAL, SAYS JESS

Willard, Former Heavyweight Here on Way West

Jack Johnson never saw the day that he could fight like Jack Dempsey.

These are the words of Big Jess Willard, former heavyweight champion of the world who was an overnight sensation yesterday on route to the Pacific coast. Willard said that he was out of the fight game for good.

The big heavyweight said that there was no living soul in the world today who could beat Jack Dempsey in the ring. Willard said that in his fight with Dempsey he knew he was defeated the moment he received a terrific punch in the stomach. He realized he said that Dempsey had a punch that would break him down.

When Willard was asked what he thought of Dempsey as a fighter now as compared to the fighter that Johnson used to be, he only replied as above, indicating that the big negro regardless of his strength would never have been a match for the present champion, who is now looking for a fight in Europe.

ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO, TUESDAY, MAY 2, 1922

SECTION TWO

VORCEE, 19, HELD FOR MURDER OF NEPHEW, AGED 2

bound in Room With Gas Turned on; She Is Revived

CHICAGO, May 2.—Miss Violet Duncan, a pretty 19-year-old divorcee, was arrested today charged with the murder of her nephew, Hollis Boyd, two and a half years old.

The child was found dead in Miss Duncan's apartment last Saturday night. Miss Duncan lay on the floor beside the boy, with gas range jets turned on in full force. Miss Duncan was revived by a physician.

The attempted suicide of the young woman was believed by police to have resulted from a quarrel with H. C. Dubay, said to be a wealthy business man of Atlanta, Ga. It was said Dubay saw a young woman riding in a car bus with another man, as result of which he was said to have killed her.

When neighbors broke into Miss Duncan's apartment Saturday night a note addressed to Dubay was clutched in her hand.

"Dear Hollis, send Hollis to sister Mrs. A. in so tired I don't want live. I love you, Violet."

According to police, Miss Duncan came to Chicago last February from Atlanta, Ga., where she met Dubay, after obtaining divorce from Walter Duncan of Indianapolis, Tenn. Miss Duncan said she was 14 years old, police said.

On his way to a ball game Saturday Dubay saw Miss Duncan board a motor bus with another man. Later in the day he called on her apartment and after a quarrel, it was said to have told her he would not marry her. Several hours later he received a telephone call from Miss Duncan who asked him to come to her home. When Dubay arrived, he smelled the escaping gas and with the aid of neighbors broke into the apartment.

Miss Duncan was revived, but the boy died without regaining consciousness. The boy's mother, Mrs. A. L. Boyd of Alton Park, Ill., was notified.

Fort Worth, Tex., Swept by Flood

The industrial section of Fort Worth, Tex., is shown here under the waters of the Trinity river. The flood in this district was many feet deep, as can be seen by the building in the foreground, submerged in the waves. To the left is the Van Zandt bridge, connecting the business and residence sections of Arlington Heights. Two miles of water separated them during the flood. When the picture was taken 200 men were homeless, 47 missing and eight dead. Property damage is placed at $1,000,000.

France Asked by U. S. About Interest Payment on Debt

PARIS, May 2.—The Associated Press—Large bodies of French public debt were issued yesterday and occupied all the strategic points. They took over a number of buildings including the city hall, the Bank of France, the Comptoirs, and the post office.

The regulars of the military, however, said he would not be sent back to the United States to attend here to wait before the federal grand jury. A strike of 10,000 men, organized by the Comptoirs and among the soldiers, has delayed the hearing of the case.

Officers Search Place Following Charges of Ku Klux Klan

LOS ANGELES, May 2.—Federal officers have investigated the Longwood home and winery of Paul and Mathias Edelstein, alleged by members of a band of masked and armed men who raided it a week ago Saturday, to be bootleggers and found no evidence of violation of the禁酒法.

We are investigating the situation and could find nothing against the law, said Dan O'Leary, prohibition enforcement officer.

GARRET, Ohio, May 2.—A view of delegates to local socialist party convention on the question of membership dues has brought that to the forefront as one chief proposition to be decided. With three motions on active agenda, almost half were voted by delegates, throwing the entire situation into confusion that the one on finance was called off. A motion was carried off in a proposal at the open session, after negotiations with finances on the agenda for consideration.

The proposal was brought immediately after the convention of 12 to 16 had adjourned, it was to co-operate with all former organizations in sending money that would preserve the party's identity.

RISKY LIQUIDATION

PAYING political, or election campaign debts with jobs on the city payroll is a risky kind of liquidation for the city of Albuquerque. One or two such payments by the new commissioners may do no great damage, although the precedent established is about as bad as can be. If the policy established in the fire department matter is followed out, it will prove disastrous, because it will result in an inefficient city government.

We are told by Mr. Magee, proponent of the new city government and sponsor and censor of its actions, that Mr. Henderson, the new fire chief, entered on his office without prior obligations or understandings of any kind, meaning one assumes that he wasn't pledged to give ex-chief Fred Russell a place on the payroll.

"Don't make us laugh, our lip is sure."

Join the Middle Rio Grande Valley association for flood protection and reclamation of this valley. The membership cost is ten dollars a year. Should this association prove successful it will return, in ten years, millions of dollars of increased taxable valuation in this country, and more millions of cash in circulation in Albuquerque. It may not succeed—but it is the first serious effort to get somewhere in reclamation that has ever been made. Therefore it is entitled to the support of every owner of a foot of property in this valley.

GET THE CLIMATE FACTS

THE article in Sunday's Herald on the Albuquerque climate by Mr. M. L. Fox, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, is the clearest, most complete and most compact statement of Albuquerque's climate facts that has been prepared. It was prepared primarily for circulation abroad. Mr. Fox believed, and he was right, that it would be beneficial to circulate the facts at home.

We are all proud of the Albuquerque climate. We refer to it in glowing generalities as the best on earth. Asked why, we are likely to find ourselves in the hole and forced to other generalities.

The facts are all in Mr. Fox's article. They prove that this climate here in the small radius of fifty or sixty miles comes nearer meeting all the scientific requirements for the perfect climate for the cure of tuberculosis than any other on the face of the earth.

If Southern California had this climate its people would have been standing on every house-top, street corner and pullman-car platform in the civilized world shouting it into the world's ears. We have been content to admit that we have that perfect climate, when asked about it.

As a matter of civic duty, memorize the facts that Mr. Fox has condensed so admirably. Have them on tap so you can talk them, write them, argue and debate them—and convince with them.

If this city can get its climate facts over to the people of the United States we will have a winter colony here and a health-seeker population here that will astonish the country—and astonish ourselves most of all.

HOW ABOUT IT?

IN executing his most recent political flip-flop back into the bosom of the democratic party and into renewed association with his ex-captain bold buyers in that organization, our popular local prophet and martyr asserts that "About 80 per cent of the republicans

Care of the Eye

By DR. R. H. BISHOP
Eye injuries are the bane of a number of people. Some sort of speck between the lids or on the eyelid can be removed.

Don't rub the eye, thereby irritating it. If all the moisture has gone, wash the eye, so that it can be removed.

If this does not succeed, close the eye and blow the nose hard.

If still unsuccessful, turn down the lower lid gently and look for the foreign matter. Remove it with the corner of a clean handkerchief.

In the case where the speck has lodged on the inner surface of the upper lid, it is often more difficult to see the speck.

To remove such an obstruction from a person who has lost his sight, stand behind him and place your hands on a pair of glasses about one-half an inch above the edge of the lid. Have him look

A THOUGHT

Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that He was come from God, and went to God, began washing the disciples' feet.—John 13: 2, 3.

Practice humility. Be content to be the last of all and the least of all. Do not be ill-tempered with yourself nor with God because you seem to be the last and least of the saints. If we find that we have to take the lowest place, let us take it quietly, and thank God.—Bishop Wilkinson.

party in the state cannot read and write the English language."

Mr. Magee is sorry for 80 per cent of New Mexican republicans on account of their alleged deficiency in citizenship, or says he is. He also says, in this and in a subsequent editorial, that this 80 per cent of republican voters are subject to purchase at election time and asserts that two $21 dollars has more influence with them on election day than reason and right.

Quite aside from the question of veracity involved, how do you republicans like the classification into which you have been dumped by our local prophet and martyr, now busily burgeoning as the new democratic party boss of New Mexico, and principal promoter of the gubernatorial candidacy of his friend and angel, Mr. Robert E. Putney?

This is "clean-up week." It is an excellent week to observe and if we can observe it conscientiously as to get the habit so we can stay cleaned up throughout the year, "clean-up week" will be worth something.

Some Yarns by Famous Men

Elspie Lewis said, on his return from London: The London library people tried to make fun of my American accent, but I would always retort with the Harrison story. That shut them up, you know, was waybald one day by a chay who said:

"How is your 'ath?" "Arrrson?" My name is not "Arrrson," said Harrison shortly.

Well, grunted the other fellow, if it's hatched, a day or two more, it'll be a buzz, a buzz, and then don't mention what the 'ell do they smell?"

POISON

Home brew should be prohibited. It is poison.

The speaker was Major Thompson of Chicago.

There's a story of a young man, a bit town who was unterstützen the rich old man's son, a member of the aristocracy. Just before he left the old man, as he settled comfortably on a big Havana-cigar, when I'm gone, all that I have will be yours,

Thank you, uncle," said the young man about town. And he added eagerly:

Do let me give you another glass of my home-brew.

THE FEE-LIKE SPIRIT

Stuart Cumberland has just died in London. He was noted for his many exposures of Spiritualistic frauds. His latest exposure was that of Harry Bassett.

Bassett used to materialize spirits that would glide about in the darkness mystically and the man had made a great many dupes when Cumberland one night squirted liquid ammonia in the face of one of his materializations. Later on, the lights going on, he said, that Medium Bassett's face was covered with drops.

The witty H. C. Branson rayned the exposure thus:

Spirits are as slippery as eels to feel.

He, if you catch 'em, smother 'em.

THE WRONG SPIRIT

Judge Gary said at dinner:

The spirit of failure was well exemplified the other day in a sandwich man. This sandwich man was walking along the street between his two sandwich boards, but they were turned wrong side out, so that the advertisements on them were invisible.

Hey there, ver' boards are turned wrong," another man called to him.

"Aw, I know it, don't I?" growled the sandwich man.

Well, why don't you wear 'em right then?"

"Well," growled the sandwich man. "In my dinner hour."

THE HARD-SHELL BAPTIST

"Uncle Joe" Cannon told a hard-shell Baptist story the other day at a Washington luncheon.

A Baptist preacher in the South, he said, was subject to his congregation to repeat:

"Washington White, to have your sins washed away."

Al alone! Wash sins wash away already power! Wash White sang out cheerfully.

"Where at us ask?" said the parson.

"Washington," said the parson. "You ain' been washed yet, yo' jes' been dry-cleaned."

DOUBLE ENTENDRE

Professor Gardner Matthews at a Columbia tea, was giving illustrations of the kind of wit that is called double entendre.

A young man, he said, found himself alone with a girl and tried to steal a kiss. The kiss landed on her chin.

"Heaven above!" she said.

THE DISAPPOINTED SAINT

Bishop Flipper said in an eloquent Atlanta address:

We must not attempt to describe Heaven minutely, as one describes a town or building, for in doing so we fall into the ridiculous.

A little girl's canon died, and her father gave her a piano box to bury it in.

"I'll bury it in the ground after the interment," said the father.

"I think so." In fact, I know so, he replied.

Then the little girl gave a loud laugh and clasped her hands.

"Oh," she said, "now cross St. Peter will be when he opens the box and finds it isn't cigar ash after all!"

Dr. Bishop's Advice

ence of Retail Merchants, called by the association for April 18 at New York.

The Research Bureau's report shows that there are now in the United States 71 licensed broadcasting stations, which are manufacturing stations. Of these, Philadelphia is the location of three, New York, one, Newark, N. J., one St. Louis, Mo., one and Los Angeles, Calif., one.

These stations constitute a chain of broadcast stations, each equipped with every apparatus to take up radio sending directly north and south within the boundaries of the United States.

Sources of applications for licenses have already been filed by other stations throughout the country, for radio is now recognized as an important factor in the development of the sales of radio receivers.

The development of wireless communication with ships at sea in connection with ocean liner service is now in progress, and looks forward to its successful operation.
