PRESIDENT WILL OLD MONTPELLIER TOMORROW

Start Will be Made Early in the Morning so That He May Return Before Evening.

DINNER WILL BE SERVED AT THE WHITE HOUSE

Old Madison Home Is One of Virginia's Most Prized Relics of National Historic Value—Thanksgiving in 1825.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 27.—President Roosevelt will make a pilgrimage to the old home of President Madison, Orange, Va., tomorrow before eating Thanksgiving dinner at the White House. The president will start early in the morning on his pilgrimage to the historic old Madison home, which is known as Montpelier, so as to get back to Washington in time for dinner, which will be served in the evening.

Montpelier is one of the famous old mansions of Virginia, and it was from there that Madison used to start out on horseback to attend the meetings of the early Board of Visitors of the University of Virginia when it was founded, nearly a century ago. Jefferson, Madison and Monroe were three of the first members of that board. They all lived within horseback rides of Charlottesville.

It is understood that the journey of the president to Montpelier will complete his circuit of the homes of former presidents from the southern states. On his way back from his recent Mississippi trip he visited the former home of Andrew Jackson, the Hermitage. He has made a number of pilgrimages to Mount Vernon, and in June, 1903, he visited Monticello, the home of President Jefferson.

Owned by DuPont Family.

Montpelier is owned by a member of the DuPont family of Delaware, and a relative of Senator Du Pont. James Madison, Sr., the father of President Madison, built the original Montpelier, a very much smaller building than the present residence. It is thought to have been the first brick house in Orange County, the first term of President Madison's service, doubtless just before the war of 1812, it was enlarged. It was finished in a style that could hardly be called ornate, but still for that time it was an expensive domicile.

Altogether it was a fine old mansion, and is associated with the name of Virginia's greatest statesman. The people of the state were blessed with great means and abundant leisure, and both were devoted without stint to the stranger within their gates. The courier, planter and scholar were met in one person, Montpelier dispensed a generous hospitality.

House Full of Visitors.

"I find the house full of particular friends," wrote Madison to his neighbor, Jefferson, for so he considered him, though thirty miles of excruciating road laid between them, "who will stay some weeks, receiving and turning visits."

"Yesterday," wrote Mrs. Madison, "we had ninety persons to dine with us."

Such was the Montpelier of Madison's time. There he spent the last years of a useful career in the quiet pursuit of a country gentleman in pleasant companionship with favorite authors.

It was there that his wife was "bied by Dr. Wilks" for inflammatory rheumatism and wandered about the gardens some times, as in 1825, accompanied by Gen. Lafayette. There his mother spent the closing years of her life.

Mother a Gentle Soul.

This mother of Madison was an important member of the household at Montpelier. She attracted many friends by her gentle manners and her sincere interest in the throng who called to pay their respects to her distinguished son.

About 500 yards southeast of the mansion on a lower ground, though still on a ridge, is the old Madison cemetery, surrounded by a brick wall. An iron gate on which are the words "Madison, 1720," is swung to locust posts. The stone above Madison's grave is perhaps 15 feet high, 5 feet wide and 2 at top. It is severely simple, bearing no inscription beyond "Madison," and the dates of birth and death.

Shaft to Dolly Madison.

On the side of the Madison shaft opposite the inscription is a smaller one of polished marble, about 8 feet high, bearing the inscription, "In memory of Dolly Payne, wife of James Madison," and the dates of her birth and death. There are at least fifteen other gravestones over the Lees, Conways, Willises, Masons, etc.

Madison was not born at Montpelier. At the time of his birth his mother was on a visit to her sister at Port Conway, on the shores of the Rappahannock River.

FORCE OF FORTY MEN HOLD UP R. R. STATION.

Samarkand, Russia, Nov. 27.—A force of forty men surrounded the main railroad station here today, blew open the safe and secured $10,000.

They moved off afterward, evidently disapproving as they had expected to seize one of the large shipments of government's bond funds that safes frequently hold.

AMERICANS MAY NOT BE SHOT IN MEXICO

Mother of Insurance Fraud Murderer Appeals to Mexican Ambassador.

TWENTY YEAR SENTENCE IS RECOMMENDED

Acting Governor of Chihuahua Is Asked to Stop Shooting Which Is Set to Take Place December 5—Could Not Assert Innocence.

Chicago, Nov. 27.—A special to the Tribune from Washington says: "Moved by a mother's tears and pleadings, Ambassador Creel of Mexico, wired last night to Jose Maria Sanchez, governor of Chihuahua, recommending that the sentence of Dr. Charles S. Earle, William Mitchell and Leslie Hubert, Americans who are condemned to be shot there, be commuted to twenty years imprisonment.

The execution of the three men, who were condemned for two murders in connection with an insurance fraud, had been set for December 5. Ambassador Creel, who is acting governor of Chihuahua, but has no authority to act while detached to Mexico on a diplomatic mission to the country, said that he felt sure Sanchez would follow his recommendation.

An appeal to Creel was made by Mrs. Anna Earle, mother of Dr. Earle, after practicing every other means of obtaining clemency had been exhausted.

The three men, two of whom are from New York, were convicted and sentenced in 1905.

Numerous petitions in their behalf have been received by the state department but as none asserted the innocence of the men no grounds could be found upon which to base the claim.

MOSE LEWIS WITH- DRAWS PLEA OF GUILTY

Charge Is Made That Confession of Murder Was Drawn From Him Under Unfair Circumstances.

Roswell, N. M., Nov. 27.—In the case of the Territory vs. Mose Lewis on the charge of killing his partner, Leland S. Terhune, the defense has asked that the evidence detailing Lewis' confession of the murder be stricken from the record. The charge that the confession was drawn from Lewis by undue influence, by bringing the wife of the murdered man before him in his cell, in shackles, and telling him she was accused of being an accomplice and unless he exonerated her by telling the truth, she would probably be made to suffer the penalty.

UNCLE SAM OIL CO. RECEIVER MAKES REPORT

Net Earnings Since April Have Been Less Than $1,000.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 27.—J. C. O. Morse, appointed receiver for the Uncle Sam Oil Company, has filed a report in the United States court, made his report to Z. T. Hansen, referee. Morse took charge of the company April 23 and turned it over to the receiver, Peter Goebel, November 8. In that time the receipts were $55,581.16. The expenditures amounted to $54,365.58, leaving a balance of $1,215.58. In the expenditures in the expenses account of the receiver, amounting to $1,425, used in looking after the affairs of the company at its different plants. In the receipts two items for borrowed money appear. One is an item of $6,000 borrowed from a Kansas City bank and another is $10,000 borrowed from another Kansas City bank.

When the receiver took charge of the company he found one oil lease on which there were fourteen wells. Some of these were working. The company had a working refinery at Cherryvale, another at Atchison and one partly completed at Tulsa, Okla. The refineries were connected with 670,000 feet of pipe line, with seven pumping stations. The oil sold by the company was shipped to thirty-two storage and sales stations.

In the report is given the list of money received by the company through the mail which was held up by the postoffice department under a fraud order. About 175 postal and express orders and checks were received. These averaged about $5. In the registered mail there were about seventy-five letters containing cash and checks, averaging about $10 each.

MEXICO MILLIONAIRE IS CURED OF LEPROSY

Returns to America and the Bosom of His Family After Years of Exile.

MIRACLE WAS EFFECTED OVER IN EUROPE

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 27.—Juan M. Bringas, the Mexico millionaire who went to Europe a couple of years ago suffering from leprosy, has returned to America and is cured. He was a passenger on the private car of a Mexican government official through this city yesterday, accompanied by four daughters and the daughter of the official on whose car he rode.

Bringas passed through here about a year ago en route to Europe in a private car, segregated and alone except the company of his private physician. He had to pay for the entire furnishings of the car before he could secure his passage. The car was burned—and when he took a steamer at Vera Cruz for Europe, he had to put up the money to pay for the furnishings of the car before he could secure his passage. The car was burned—and when he took a steamer at Vera Cruz for Europe, he had to put up the money to pay for the furnishings of the car before he could secure his passage.

After an absence of less than two years, he returns home well and completely cured, so much so that the vice president of Mexico, an old friend, risks having his daughter travel in the same car with him and visit at his palatial country home near Guaymas.

Was Leper for Years.

For years Bringas had been a leper and had spent money in his native country on every known remedy, including a residence for many months in the wild Yagu country where he sought a cure from some noted hot springs; but all to no avail. For years he had not known the touch of the lips nor even the hands of his dear ones and his family, like himself, had been ostracized. When they drove or walked out, their friends bowed to them, but never a handshake, for there was the dread of the awful disease in the family, a disease that has been feared since the days of man began.

Bringas was a prisoner in his own home and his own apartments, in which he ate and lived alone. His clothing was burned when soiled and when he touched anything in the house except his own possessions in his own apartment, it was only with rubber gloves.

Now he is said to be a well man and is returning to his family and his friends to enjoy his accumulated wealth and mingle with the people of his acquaintance whom he was compelled to shun or be shunned by during all the years of his affliction.

If he is cured permanently it marks a new era in medical science, for leprosy has always been looked upon as a disease incurable, that slowly sapped away a life and never loosened its grip once it fastened upon a human form.

Mr. Bringas owns a large hacienda near Guaymas and a big mercantile house in the city of Guaymas.

EXODUS OF FOREIGNERS REACHES REMARK- ABLE STAGE

Steamship Men Say Total Will Probably Pass the 50,000 Mark.

ITALIANS ARE IN THE MAJORITY

New York, Nov. 27.—Never since ships first sailed out of the New York Harbor has there been anything like the present exodus of emigrants from this port. Thousands of passengers were carried from New York and this week the steamship men say the total will reach fifty thousand. The exodus was raised from $21 to $31 in hope of staying the exodus, but without avail.

For a week the stream has been gradually going a rowing. Many of those taking passage carry large amounts of money with them, the most part of it being gold.

Every outboard steamer is loaded to its fullest legal capacity. A great crowd of Italians fill Jane Street in front of the Cunard pier, clamoring for passage. The St. Paul sailed with $27 fares. The California of the French line, had 1,000 aboard. The Caronia carried away 2,221 persons.

STOCK DEALER SAYS BUYERS ARE HIT HARD

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 27.—J. S. Neuman, an extensive stock dealer, who makes his headquarters in Montana, but who deals largely in all parts of the country at different seasons of the year, was a visitor at the yards today. Mr. Neuman has just returned from a five weeks' stay in New Mexico where he went to buy sheep. He says numerous sheep buyers have lost heavily owing to the big slump in prices and those who had put up margins on sheep and lambs are going out broke and losing what they have advanced. The same is also true on cattle purchases. Mr. Neuman says it has been almost impossible for a man to buy anything owing to the high prices which owners have insisted upon getting. He says the range is better in New Mexico than it has been for years owing to good fall of rains.

ALLEGES SANTA FE TOOK POOR CARE OF HIS SHEEP

R. F. Bicknell, through his attorney, Thomas W. Wilkerson, today filed suit against the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Co., for $500 damages for alleged neglectful care taken of a shipment of sheep from Albuquerque to Willard and Encino.

In his complaint Bicknell says he shipped ninety head of sheep Oct. 25, which he says he contracted to sell for $15 a head, fifty head of the sheep being bled to Willard and forty head to Encino. He says the sheep arrived at Encino Oct. 27, that the company had failed to water or feed them the fifty-four hours they were on the trip.

SHAW SAYS WEST HAS LOST CONFIDENCE IN NEW YORK

When Money Stringency Came Eastern Bankers Thought Only of Themselves.

WESTERNERS WILL NOT SOON FORGET

President Tells Chicago Banker That Conditions Are Improving and That Nominal Currency Payments Will Be Resumed Soon.

New York, Nov. 27.—Former Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw, president of the Carnegie Trust company, returned to New York yesterday from Chicago, where he conferred with many bankers regarding the financial situation.

"The west has lost confidence in the east," he said. "It will cost us here millions of dollars before we regain the prestige and the cordial relationship of the past. Men out west say that New York is responsible for the financial stringency, and that when squeeze came the banks of New York resorted to clearing house certificates and forced the rest of the country to do the same."

"The bankers of western cities have no love now for the bankers of New York. They had placed their money on deposit here, but when they asked for it they were refused."

"They say that New York sought to protect only itself," continued Mr. Shaw, "and tied up everything so that all the rest of the country was forced to adopt urgent measures to save itself."

EVIDENCE IN BRADLEY TRIAL MAY BE ALL IN BY TONIGHT

Stenographer For Late Senator Brown Tells of Buying Ticket For Defendant.

SHE PROMISED TO BLOW HIS HEAD OFF

Court Stops Proceedings and Orders Parents to Take 11 Year Old Girl From Room—Mrs. Brown Said She Would Kill Mrs. Bradley.

Washington, Nov. 27.—It is expected that by the close of today's proceedings in the Bradley murder trial, that all the testimony will be in.

There will be no session tomorrow and it is believed that the closing remarks may begin Friday.

Archibald Livingstone, stenographer to the late Senator Brown, was the first witness today. He testified that he secured a ticket for Mrs. Bradley to Los Angeles and that it was on this ticket that she rode to Ogden and then bought a ticket to Washington.

He said Mrs. Bradley asked him if he thought Brown would marry her and the witness told her that he did not believe so.

She then said "He will have to or I will blow his head off."

The witness was asked concerning a conversation which took place the summer of 1902 at the time a divorce from Mrs. Brown was talked of.

"I will protect Mrs. Bradley so long as life lives in me. I will state in the presence of my bitterest enemy (referring to Col. Talbot) that I will stick to Mrs. Bradley as long as my life lasts."

On cross examination Livingstone said that he had told Mrs. Bradley falsehoods several times "in order to get along with her."

All the witnesses called in rebuttal today testified that Mrs. Bradley appeared rationally.

Many of these witnesses came here shortly after the shooting and talked with her but none regarded her as insane.

JUDGE ORDERS CHILDREN FROM COURT ROOM

Justice Stafford halted trial and directed that the eleven-year-old girl be required to leave the room with her parents, who accompanied her.

P. P. Christensen, an attorney from Salt Lake City, was the next witness.

He said that he witnessed the scene at the depot the summer of 1905 between Mrs. Bradley and Sen. Brown. Mrs. Bradley insisted on going away with Brown, and fairly hung to him. Brown, said the witness, repeatedly repelled her.

Soern Christensen, also of Salt Lake City, testified that on one occasion, while in Pocatello with Brown Mrs. Bradley suddenly appeared and Brown chastised her for following him.

On this same occasion Christensen said Mrs. Brown appeared on the scene and engaged in a personal struggle with Mrs. Bradley, clutching her by the throat and exclaiming: "Let me kill her."

The witness further stated that at Pocatello Brown declared in the presence of Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Brown and himself that he was not the father of Max Brown and Mrs. Brown upbraided him for denying his own children and admitting the fatherhood of bastards.

Mrs. Bradley Admitted Killing.

The court took a recess at 12:30 o'clock after several police officers and a police matron had testified that Mrs. Bradley had admitted to them that she shot Sen. Brown.

The physicians, who treated Mrs. Bradley at the house of detention, declared that she was rational all the time, although nervous.

RAILROAD DEPARTMENT

HARVEY SYSTEM INCLUDES 69 HOTELS

Famous Eating Houses May be Extended Along New York Central.

There are 69 hotels in the system of Harvey houses on the lines of the Atchafalaya, Topeka & Santa Fe and St. Louis & San Francisco railroads. These are the only lines where Harvey has hotels at present, but it is the belief of many people that this famous concern will soon open a hotel in New York City and will have a line of hotels along some line of railroad, possibly the New York Central, from that city to Chicago. A line of diners would also be equipped with Harvey service. It is known that the New York Central lines have for years tried to arrange for the Harvey management for the dining service for the entire Four Track system. It is probable that this may be done and that one of the finest of the fine hotels in New York City may be under the management of the Harvey system.

Certain it is, though, that the houses along these two roads at the present time are doing a big business. The Santa Fe has a list of Harvey houses now at a distance of about 100 miles apart all the way from Kansas City to California. There is no chance to miss a meal. A train cannot be far away from some of the houses at all times. Besides dining cars are run on two of the through trains.

It is found that these houses are so highly patronized that the new additions are being built to many of them. The Harvey system economizes as much as possible by having its own dairy and poultry farms wherever convenient, and also in many other kindred ways. One of its methods of saving is by its mattress factory, which is located at Hutchinson, Kan. F. F. Stichel has charge of this factory which turns out practically all of the mattresses used in the great hotels along the two roads controlled by the Harvey system. They are made up with wooden and bamboo frames, with coil springs underneath. The mattress, proper, is of South American horse hair. The quality is of the finest and it is said they cost about $30 to manufacture.

Recently this factory sent a large and some are being made now for two new houses in California and two new ones down on the line of the Pecos Valley division in New Mexico.

An epidemic of marriages has struck the railroad population of Raton. No less than fifteen Santa Fe employees living in Raton have taken upon themselves matrimonial obligations within the past three weeks. Some of them have married young ladies with the consent of their parents and some of them have married without consent. Harry Griffith, a Santa Fe fireman, was one of those to commit this latter offense. Mr. Griffith and Miss Jean Thomas, an estimable young lady of the Gate City, closed to Trinidad and were married twenty-four hours before the rate father and a deputy sheriff caught up with them.

Two machinists in the round house got into a fight yesterday over the ownership of some tools. After the men had beaten one another up considerably the foreman informed them that their services were no longer needed by the Santa Fe.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Reynolds, a nine-month boy, Mr. Reynolds is a Harvey curio agent who travels between Albuquerque and Winslow.

D. A. Shope, general foreman of bridges and buildings on the valley division, Fresno, Calif., was a visitor in Albuquerque yesterday.

Earnest Cordeal, assistant general roundhouse inspector on the Santa Fe coast lines, arrives in the city today from Los Angeles.

C. W. Youkum, general yardmaster, is recovering from his recent illness and will be able to return to work soon.

V. C. Proctor, general foreman of bridges and buildings, of Winslow, Ariz., was in Albuquerque yesterday.

Mrs. C. C. Milnes, wife of Special Officer Milnes of the shops, has gone to Temple, Texas, on a visit.

Highland Lodge No. 467, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, will meet tonight in Odd Fellows' hall.

A Hard Debt to Pay. "I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equalled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by all druggists, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Fine, fat young turkeys for Thanksgiving. Place your order early.

ELKS OF ROSWELL WILL BUILD NEW CLUB HOUSE

Roswell, N. M., Nov. 27.—(Special.)—The Elks of Roswell propose to build a new club house. The movement was started at a meeting of young men a few nights ago, but it was not fully decided that the movement would result in anything tangible until yesterday.

A quarter of a block centrally located has been purchased and an endeavor is being made now to negotiate a loan for the money with which to build.

The new club house will be something of which all the members may be proud, and yet will not cost much. It will be a temporary structure, in a way, and will be built at the rear of the immense lot, leaving all the corners open for an opera house later. With other funds available the Elks will have about half enough to build the club house as a result of the carnival. They are going to put it to good use. The building will be put up by next March, unless all plans fail.

STATEHOOD LEAGUE IN UNION COUNTY

New Settlers Coming Into That Part of the Territory Are All in Favor of Joining the Union.

Clayton, N. M., Nov. 27.—(Special.)—There is a marked growing statehood sentiment in this part of the territory. The new settlers coming into Union county are solid in favor of statehood. This was demonstrated at a meeting held here, at which a Union County Statehood league was organized.

Officers of the league are as follows: Hon. Geo. W. Detamore, chairman; Dr. Charlton, secretary; and J. F. Branson, treasurer. Pak Valverde was made chairman of the executive committee. Mr. Valverde is authorized to select five committeemen to act with him on the above named committee. The duties of this committee will be to draw up resolutions and to appoint sub-committees, from men in each precinct in the county.

Those present were unanimously in favor of statehood. This is strictly a non-partisan move and every citizen in the county should lend his assistance. That a united voice from every county in the territory, may be sent to Washington asking for statehood, when this is done we will get the desired results.

The next meeting of the league will be December 14. J. F. Branson and Mr. Souza, of Don Mainer, J. D. Steere and Mr. Stubbs, of Nara Vasa, and C. M. Sanchez, of Texline, were representing the people of the county.

CATARRH A SERIOUS

FAR-REACHING BLOOD DISORDER

Even in its early stages Catarrh is almost intolerable, caused by the stuffy feeling in the nose, the buzzing noises in the ears, the continual "hawking and spitting," difficult breathing, etc. But when the blood becomes thoroughly polluted from the catarrhal matter, the inflammation extends to the bronchial tubes, causing hoarseness, and often an aggravating cough; the stomach is affected, resulting in dyspepsia, loss of appetite and strength, and gradually all the mucous membranes of the body become diseased and the system upset and deranged. Frequently blood through the bladder is attacked, and the constant passage of impure blood through the Conduits, diseases these important members, and Catarrh terminates in Consumption. Catarrh is a deep-seated blood disease, and must be treated constitutionally, for it is beyond the reach of local treatment. S. S. S. cures Catarrh by cleansing the blood of all the impure catarrhal matter and at the same time building up the entire system. It goes down and attacks the disease at its head, in the circulation, and removes every trace of the impurity that is causing the trouble. Then as rich, pure blood circulates through the body, the inflamed membranes commence to heal, the mucous discharges grow less and finally cease, and all the disagreeable and disgusting symptoms of Catarrh disappear. S. S. S. has no equal as a cure for this disease. It refines and purifies the entire circulation and repairs the damage done by Catarrh. Special book on Catarrh and any medical advice free. CATTLE ARE UP 15 TO 25 CENTS

Small Receipts Seem to Affect the Market—Chicago Weak.

Kansas City, Nov. 27.—Smaller cattle supplies after Tuesday last week caused a recovery of 15 to 25 cents in prices by the close of the week. The run was fairly good today, 12,000 head, but the feeling is weak, account of an over supply at Chicago. An extra large proportion of Colorado and New Mexico cattle have been included the last ten days, and they have been selling fairly satisfactory, in view of the general financial conditions. Stockers and feeders took on more life the middle of last week, with the appearance of a large number of buyers, and as the yards were cleaned up close at the end of the week, this class is selling stronger today. Western beef steers are selling at $3.75 to $4.15, stockers and feeders $3.25 to $3.75, heavy Colorado cows at $2.00 to $2.50, eastern Colorado, New Mexico and Panhandle cows $2.25 to $3.00, canners around $2.00, top veals $6.50, heavy calves $3.50 to $4.25, bulls $2.10 to $2.60. Packers are getting back toward normal buying and conditions are not as nervous as a week ago.

Range sheep and lambs are growing shorter each week, and the quality is not as good as it has been, running more to tail ends of herds. The market on killing kinds advanced 10 to 20 cents last week. Some range lambs sold at $5.25 to $5.75 today, while fed lambs reached $6.25 the market being considered steady on a supply of 9,000 head. Fed wethers bring up to $4.50, range wethers and yearlings $4.25 to $4.75, fed yearlings $5.20, range ewes $3.75 to $4.25, feeding lambs $4.90 to $5.25, feeding sheep $3.25 to $4.25. Receipts will likely run small for a few weeks, although fed stuff may be marketed earlier this year than usual, feeders being anxious to get out of the bad situation which their high priced purchases have put them.

DAILY SHORT STORIES

AS THE BIGOT SAW DUTY.

Old Deacon Simpkins had one foot in the grave and the rest of him was swiftly following. Neighbors wondered if it could really be true. For years he had exerted a spiritual tyranny over the congregation at their little church, holding up continually the terrors and tortures awaiting the frivolous and gayly inclined in the world to come.

There always seemed to be a mystery connected with the life of the hard, unyielding old man, and somehow he was feared by young and old.

But now he was dying! Beside his bed sat Dr. Doane and old Deacon Sadler. "Doctor," he asked, as if merely to assure himself, "is my time about up?"

"I am afraid you have only a few hours at best," said the doctor kindly. "Then, said the sick man quietly, 'I have something I wish to tell, God called upon me once to perform a very hard task, but I discharged my duty.'

"Geo. Brown and I were raised up together; we loved each other and were always competitors for first honors in all classes in the public school. But he seemed to have no regard for the future of his soul. After finishing at the school George went to college. Later he graduated with highest honors as a doctor. But he had no thought of practicing. He was carried away with a desire to find a panacea, a universal remedy for all kinds of human suffering. With this idea in mind he went to study chemistry in a big eastern university. He so distinguished himself that they wanted him to take the chair of chemistry in that school. He next went to study botany at another big university, and upon leaving it was forced to decline the chair in that subject. He then came home and spent three years' hard study and work in his own laboratory, his light often twinkling all night.

"I had tried to dissuade him from his object, telling him that God never intended for man to have such a remedy, but he merely laughed at me. 'One night with wild eyes and body trembling with ecstasy he came to my home and told me he had at last made his discovery and wanted me to come and see.

"I went. A spoonful of thick, amber-colored liquid made my chronic rheumatism disappear like vapor. Dancing with joy, George brought out a little dog and gave it several grains of strychnine; it was soon writhing on its back. He poured the amber liquid down its throat and it instantly capered about the room.

"I realized that I was observing the works of the devil, and I trembled with fear. 'George,' said I, with a warning voice, 'you are meddling with God's plan of salvation; you are taking away the pains and afflictions of the world God in his wisdom prescribed for us; you are doing away with suffering by which God intended for us to make our garments white with the golden crown. Your discovery would damn the world, and you must destroy it.

"He laughed at me boisterously and said that he was going to present his discovery to the academy of medicine on the morrow, and thus give it to all the world free, asking only gratitude from the future generations.

"I realized that there was only one way to prevent this and that God had put me in the position and had given me the power to do it. I picked up a bit of wood at hand, and a moment later he was lying still at my feet. Taking his medicine I threw it all on the fire and pitched all his papers and formulae after.

Kneeling on the floor I prayed: 'Oh God, who commanded Abraham to slay his son, thou hast given me a sore task; pardon my reluctance and forgive this man, for he knew not what he did.'

The deacon's throat rattled and his breath stopped; bending over him the friends shuddered.

$12,000,000 RENT FOR A LOT IS PRICE NAMED IN LEASE

Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald Gets Nice Competency For Use of Her Corner Property in New York.

New York, Nov. 27.—A collection of one story shacks at Broadway and East Forty-third street cover a site that figures in probably the biggest private rental proposition ever put through in America. The property is owned by Mrs. Mary A. Fitzgerald, who lives in Europe.

Harry Levey, who is looming up as a real estate Napoleon, has sought control of the corner for two years. Mrs. Fitzgerald would not sell and she was not at all anxious to grant a long-time lease. Levey's attorney made several trips to Europe to interview her and $8,000 was paid for cable messages.

Levey has finally secured a lease for 195 years, for which he and his heirs will pay $12,000,000. He will pay $4,000,000 for 42 years and $8,000,000 for the balance of the term. Mrs. Fitzgerald is therefore assured an income of a little less than $100,000 a year for more than a century. Levey will erect on the site a 12-story building, which will be devoted to offices, a theater and a restaurant.

HOW TO BE A REAL WEATHER PROPHET

Weather forecast: "Slightly rising temperature, rain tomorrow." And then you laugh and leave the house without your umbrella, upon the theory that the weatherman is always wrong.

But if the weatherman is wrong, nature is not always in so trifling a mood. The old dame has provided, say those who study such things, means whereby everyone can forecast the approach of rain, several hours in advance, by simply keeping an eye on things.

"STATEHOOD FOR NEW MEXICO"

Believes in Asking

Under the heading of "An Editor's Thanksgiving Soliloquy," the Capitan News perpetrates the following:
"The open season for deer will close November 30, and the open season for wild turkey will close December 31. Now, the editor of this sheet, notwithstanding that he has lived on this magnificent game preserve for nigh on fourteen seasons, has yet his first bear, deer or wild turkey to kill. We feel ashamed to acknowledge it, but such is the case. In order to make up for our remissness, we have been seriously contemplating borrowing a gun, 'showing our face' for ammunition (made necessary by the stringency in the money market), and hiking to the hills to 'get ours,' but find that pressure of business, as usual, may prevent us. In fact, it is more than probable that at the time when we should be jogging along the mountain side in quest of our quarry, we may be found at our desk thinking up news for our readers, or, in lieu thereof, manufacturing bear stories for their edification. But Thanksgiving is drawing near, and our larder is minus a turkey. We must, therefore, rely solely on the generosity and thoughtfulness of our readers, commended by years of friendship, to supply the missing bird, so that we may, with the rest, enjoy the great annual feast. It would be useless to tempt us with a venison, for the law states very plainly that it must be killed for your own use, and far be it from us to compromise a felony; but the statutes are silent as to a nice juicy hindquarter, or a good, fine, fat and untamed gobbler. This has been written chiefly for the purpose of filling space, as news items in Capitan are as scarce as hen fruit; and, besides, it is very likely that if we happened to meet a bear face to face we would drop our gun, run for the nearest tree, and if cornered would defend out with a Faber No. 2, and if possible give the varmint a subcutaneous injection of vitrol from our fountain pen. But, nevertheless, if an untamed, bronze-colored bird does not show up at this office within the next week, it will be a case of 'Johnny get your gun.' However, we believe we will be spared this unpleasant alternative."

It is very encouraging to know that the president has renewed his promise to aid this territory in its fight for statehood and that he has told our governor that he will do all that he can to that end. Governor Curry upon his return from St. Louis, where he met the president said that the president had promised us assistance. Now upon his return from Washington he says that the president repeated that promise upon the eve of the convening of congress. The governor also saw a large number of congressmen and has received such encouragement that he does not hesitate to say that the chances of this territory's admission to the union are the best in its history. A territorial statehood meeting has been called to assemble in Santa Fe November 30, for the purpose of selecting representative men to go to Washington and aid in securing the passage of a statehood bill, which will be introduced by Delegate Andrews shortly after congress convenes. People all over New Mexico are so universally in favor of statehood that they have grown to take statehood meetings as a matter of course. It is very important, however, that the meeting at Santa Fe on November 30th be largely attended and that every one who can possibly do so, should take an active part in the selection of the men who will visit Washington. There are no politics in the meeting. It is a citizens' gathering, for the purpose above named and no other. Governor Curry expects to return to Washington just as soon as possible and he needs the help of every New Mexican. The governor desires all the influence that it is possible to secure for the purpose of bringing the statehood question squarely before congress in the right light. Those who know the governor believe, that he, if any one, can secure statehood for this territory and it is up to every one to co-operate. Bernalillo county should send a large delegation of her best citizens, and Hon. W. B. Childers, the president of our local statehood league, should call that organization together promptly in order to make the necessary arrangements. The Bernalillo County Statehood League is composed of good substantial business men and citizens of this county and they ought by all means to lead in the fight for statehood. It is a duty to ourselves, the territory and our governor.

What has become of the Bernalillo County Statehood League? Let's get together and go to the territorial meeting at Santa Fe.

THE SPIRIT OF THANKSGIVING.

So tomorrow is Thanksgiving day again—and me without an invitation out to dinner. That goes pretty hard with a fellow who is accustomed to dining at small functions every year—at least I suppose it does, not speaking from experience.

I hinted to the editor this morning that last year I had a fine dinner, but all I could hold, and he hinted right back that this year it might be all I could do to hold my job, so I won't carve his Thanksgiving turkey. I don't care much though because I saw the turkey he's going to have. A woman sent it in to pay her subscription with. She sent a note along with it, like this:

I owe for your paper six years, which is just the age of this turkey, so we ought to be even, as I had to feed him all the time. He is awful poor, but so was your paper, and they could both make more noise over nothing than anything else I ever seen. Being an editor, I suppose you will want it roasted, but tell your wife to boil it a couple of days first. Please give me a nice write-up."

(This hasn't anything to do with Thanksgiving, but I've always noticed that when anybody hands a newspaper man a lemon they get awful mad. I don't write all about what a fine luscious peach it was. I once knew a man who telephoned to the office that he had just finished beating his wife, and wanted a nice write-up, but that was different. He deserved it. So did she.)

The editor told me this morning to go out and get some "Thanksgiving sentiment" from a few business men. Now I always had a suspicion that when you ask most men for "sentiments" they dig back in their memories for a lot of nice platitudes they used to learn in Sunday school, so I made up my mind to get the truth—and nothing but the truth.

I picked out a man carrying a bucket of paste up Central avenue, and asked him to tell me what he had to be thankful for during the past year. He told me to chase myself around the block but I finally got him to set the paste down and figure it out. He thought a long time, and then he asked me what I had to be thankful for. I confessed I couldn't think a single thing. "Haven't you held your job," he asked.

"But I had my wages cut," I objected. That seemed to comfort him a lot. "I can't think of a thing kid, honest, that would do to print. I do remember that my wife left the trap door in the kitchen open one night, and I might have fallen into the cellar and sprained my ankle—only I never got into the kitchen in the dark."

That was a pretty bad start, so I decided I needed a man with more imagination. I stopped a lawyer. "Thankful? Yes. A man just died that I owed forty dollars. What's that? Well, of course, I mean I'm thankful he didn't owe me the forty dollars. Of course you understand I'm not talking for publication. Come up to the office, and I'll dictate you something nice."

The next man I asked said he would ask his wife. He said she always went to church and was thankful for him. He didn't look like he was very thankful for her, though. The next two men I met tried to get funny about the price of coal, but I wasn't looking for people who weren't in earnest. I stopped a lawyer. Along about noon I came past a little unpalatable shanty, with a genuine old darkey Mammy sitting on the front stoop. "Thankful? Lawd chile, now I reckon Iae the thankfulestest pusion in dis town. You know my boy Sam—he done makin' fough dollahs

MISS COLTRANE ASKS $27,000 DAMAGES

Foomer Albuquerque School Teacher Says She Was Injured on Santa Fe.

Miss Ella Coltrane, formerly a school teacher in the Albuquerque public schools, has brought suit against the Santa Fe railroad company for $27,000 for injuries she says she received while traveling between Albuquerque and Los Angeles in 1904. The trial of the suit has been begun at Topeka, Kan., and regarding it, the Topeka Journal says:

"Miss Ella D. Coltrane's suit to recover $27,000 damages from the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway company as damages for personal injuries she suffered as a result of an accident which befell her while traveling, was placed on trial today before Judge Dana and a jury in the district court. There are some decidedly interesting features to the suit.

Miss Coltrane is making her home at present in Lawrence, Kansas. In 1903 she was teaching school at Albuquerque, N. M. During the summer of that year, she and a friend took a trip to California and were at Williams, Arizona, en route for home when the accident happened. The Pullman, in which they were traveling, had been cut off at the first section of No. 2 and left on a siding at Williams for the purpose of being hooked on to the second section. This was early in the evening of August 27. While the porter was making up their berth Miss Coltrane was standing in the aisle at one end of the car. The second section of No. 2 backed up to hit on the Pullman and struck it with sufficient force to throw Miss Coltrane down. She was considerably jarred but able to continue the journey to Albuquerque. She did not think much of her injuries and went about her work as usual, but it was not long before she became subject to spells of nervousness and suffered with a pain in the back of her head which has been continuous ever since. She had to give up her school work in June, 1904, because of her failing health which she and physicians have attributed to the fall she received in the car. So she brought the suit for the damages stated.

Shortly after the accident Philip Zimmerman, a claim agent for the Santa Fe, and a brother of S. G. Zimmerman, the county clerk, called on Miss Coltrane at Albuquerque and talked over her accident with her. He expressed the opinion that the company would offer her remuneration if she would put in a claim. Miss Coltrane replied that she did not think she had been sufficiently hurt to justify her making a claim. Mr. Zimmerman then discussed with her some trouble that she and her friend had on the Pullman over the occupancy of their berth which was claimed by another person and which had disturbed their rest for the better part of a night. He told her that the company felt disposed to return to them the price of their Pullman fare because they were so disturbed. Miss Coltrane was agreeable to accepting this money, which amounted to $10.50. Mr. Zimmerman brought her a check for the amount and also a receipt to sign. Miss Coltrane objected to signing the paper at first because the amount she was to receive from the company was referred to in the receipt as being in settlement for her "claims" against the company. Mr. Zimmerman told her that this was a mere formal expression used by the company in settling up all kinds of accounts against it and Miss Coltrane signed the receipt, her niece also signing it as a witness. It turned out later that the paper signed by Miss Coltrane was one releasing the company from any further claim for damages on her part for the injury she had received.

These facts in the suit were outlined to the jury by Miss Coltrane's attorneys when the trial was begun this morning. The taking of testimony in the case followed.

PADILLA IS BROUGHT BEFORE U. S. COM- MISSIONER

Will Have to Answer to Charge of Violating the Edmunds Act.

Zacarias Padilla, wealthy stock raiser and justice of the peace of San Rafael, Valencia county, defendant in a sensational divorce suit brought by his wife, was taken in custody by a deputy United States marshal yesterday at San Rafael and brought to Albuquerque to be arraigned before United States Commissioner Whiting this afternoon on a charge of violating the Edmunds act brought by his wife.

Padilla is also under bond of $500 to appear before a justice of the peace in Cubero this week and answer to the charge of assault and battery with intent to kill brought against him by Martin Galdabon and Geronimo Ortiz, merchants of San Rafael, as a result of a fight in their store Nov. 15, in which Galdabon was stabbed and beaten.

The first charge against Padilla was brought by his wife in October. She afterward brought suit for divorce, naming three co-respondents. Padilla answered the complaint of his wife, setting forth that he was a faithful husband. His wife asks for a division of his property, which she says is worth $75,000.

Has Bad Record. Geronimo Ortiz, who conducted a general store at San Rafael, called at the office of District Attorney Clancy Nov. 29 and told of an assault made on them in their store a week previous which they said was led by Padilla, five companions aiding him in the fight. Galdabon and Ortiz gave their assailants names as Timoteo Torres, Castmoro Sanchez, Manuel Sanchez, Francisco Apocana, Fermín Torres and Zacarias Padilla. They said one was armed with a six-shooter, another with a knife and another with a whip.

In the fight Galdabon was stabbed in the side and beaten over the head with the knife. Ortiz was badly beaten. The merchants told District Attorney Clancy that Padilla had already caused charges of assault and battery to be brought against them in his own court.

On the advice of Clancy the men went to Cubero and filed charges of assault and battery with intent to kill against Padilla in the justice of the peace court there. A warrant was issued and Padilla arrested and placed under bond of $500 to await a hearing.

Christmas Suggestions

NOTHING is so appropriate for a Christmas gift as jewelry. Emerson says the ideal gift is one in which the intrinsic value of the article is lost in the kindly feeling that prompted the giver. Jewelry is a luxury. It is enduring. It affords opportunity for a finer exhibit of taste than almost anything else. During the year we have accumulated a fine lot of jewelry. Diamonds in all sizes, prices and settings, rings, studs, brooches, bracelets, cuff buttons, scarf pins, fobs, watches, chains, necklaces, cut glass, emblems and everything else that properly belongs to the jewelry business. Owing to the manner in which we obtain our goods, we CAN SELL FOR LESS THAN WHAT OUR COMPETITORS BUY. Come early and inspect our stock. Select what you wish, and we will lay it aside until Christmas. TAXPAYERS FLOCKING TO COUNTY TREASURER'S OFFICE IS THE BEST YET

Rush Increases With the Approach of Penalizing Day.

Taxpayers are beginning to flock to County Treasurer Heaven's office in the basement of the court house in large numbers to pay the first installment of their taxes for 1907, before the allotted time expires and the penalty is attached.

All taxes not paid by December 1 become delinquent and a penalty of one per cent is attached. Then if they remain delinquent until after January 1 an additional penalty of five per cent is added.

Deputy Treasurer McManus says the number of taxpayers increases daily as the time for penalizing delinquents draws near. Every street car to the court house now carries a number of taxpayers. Only two more days remain in which to pay taxes before Dec. 1, Friday and Saturday, as all county offices will be closed Thanksgiving.

Treasurer Heaven added another window in his office to care for the usual rush of taxpayers this time of year and there are now two clerks ready to receive the taxes all the time. With this improvement the Treasurer's office has been able to care for the crowds in a short time and not keep the people waiting.

MASONS PROVE TO BE ROYAL ENTERTAINERS

More than two hundred people were present last night at the reception given to the ladies by Temple Lodge No. 6, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons at the Masonic Temple, which proved one of the most brilliant and enjoyable Masonic social affairs.

An interesting musical program was rendered, one of the features being the initial appearance of the High School Glee club composed of twenty young women, who have been trained by Miss Carolyn Strong, director of music in the public schools. "I Love the Winter Best of All" was the first number. The club was encored again and again. Dr. J. C. Rollins, pastor of the First Methodist church, was the speaker of the evening. He endeavored to explain "Why a woman can't be a Mason." T. V. Maynard, the basso, sang "A Man of Mass Man." Miss Kunz gave a recitation, "The Dream of Mrs. Mablette Bird." Miss Odjard gave a violin solo; J. A. Blondin a cello solo; Misses Zoila Keller and Viola Blum members of the glee club, a duet; Mr. Kurzman a whistling solo, and Mr. and Mrs. Grady a cornet duet.

The Non-Sectarian Benevolent Association will give a charity ball on Thanksgiving evening in the ball room of the Elks' club. The public is cordially invited.

The largest Tuesday night audience by far that has assembled at the Crystal theatre since the fair week attended last night and witnessed the best vaudeville show that has been there in that time, if not the best that has been presented there since the house's opening. The remarkable character actor, Richard Mandell, in his superior creation of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, was the great drawing card, and only too well did he please the large crowd that he attracted, but all who were present were mighty glad that they came and enjoyed and applauded the whole from start to finish.

Cutter and Elwood do a nice clean comedy sketch at the beginning of the bill, which is varied by three splendid singing selections and a few minutes of clever fancy rifle shooting by Miss Elma Elwood. Mr. Scott sings an illustrated ballad that will touch every parent who comes within his hearing. It is called "And a Little Child Shall Lead Them." Mme. Lazette's dog and bird circus is the prettiest thing that has appeared upon the local stage. Both the half dozen French poodles and ditto of Australian cooncats know their business and furnish fine amusement. This should be a great drawing card among the children. Some new genius in getting up funny moving pictures is displayed in the series called "Jones Hunting for Smith."

Mandell's physiological study of Jekyll and Hyde transpires just before the moving pictures and is worth twice the admission. Everyone is anxious to see this beastly but artistic characterization.

Palmer for feed, that's the place to trade.

WORMS.

There are seven kinds of round worms found in the intestines of a horse. Some are small but some of them grow to a length of over three feet and enter the stomach and are very injurious. Worms are indicated by a ravenous appetite, dry hair and a pot belly. A yellowish mould will be seen around the anus. When they get into the stomach, the horse will turn up his upper lip and rub them against the wall or manger. "International Worm Powder" is positively guaranteed to rid your horse of worms and correct the disordered condition of the system that tends to produce them. If it ever fails your money will be promptly refunded. E. W. Fee, 602-604 South First street. Phone 16.

POPE CRITICISES MANY PERSONS HAD A RADIUM PARLIAMENT WAIT UNTIL WE HEAR MEMBERS TOO LATE THIS CITY

Representatives Elected by Catholic Votes Not True to Trust.

Rome, Nov. 27.—A sensation of the week in Rome has been the reprimand of the pope directed toward certain French priests, like Abbé Lemire and Gayraud, who are members of parliament, elected by Catholic votes, but who have done little or nothing to check the tide of anticlericalism. Catholic voters believed that the election of priests to parliament would help the church, but such has not been the result. When the separation law was discussed last year neither of the Catholic representatives in parliament seems to have made any effort to help the church. The condition disturbed the Vatican authorities, for while they were glad to have representatives in the French parliament, they looked for some activity on their part. But the impression has gained ground at the Vatican that neither of these representatives made any effort to protect the interests of the church in France, and the pope is much disturbed. A short time ago Abbé Lemire was denounced in several English and American Catholic papers for his policy in the French parliament, and this publication has now been followed by a formal reprimand by the pope.

It is believed here that the pope's censure will cost the two clerical members of the French parliament their seats at the next election. In Vatican circles it is frankly held that there is little use in having priests as members of parliament, when such laws as that abolishing the concordat can pass without their opposition. It is held to be probable that both priests will be deprived of their priestly functions by a decree from the Vatican. In such a case they could no longer wield any influence over Catholic voters and would have to resign positions. Plus X, is very firm about this matter and will carry it to a conclusion, because he thinks that a priest of the church invested with political powers ought to be active in furthering the interests of the church and in defending it against its enemies.

Pope Honors Composer.
The pope expressed himself as having enjoyed an unusual treat a few days ago, when Abbé Perosi, the famous composer, went to the Vatican at the special invitation of Pius X, and played several selections from his new compositions, the oratorio, "Transitus Animae," or "The Passage of the Soul." The pope was exceedingly pleased with the music and arrangements have already been made for a rendition of the oratorio in one of the leading theatres of this city. It is the opinion at the Vatican that this new work is the best that Abbé Perosi has yet produced. The music has an emotional character and seems certain to meet with popular approval.

Special instructions have just been issued by the Vatican authorities in order to provide for the support of the church in France. According to the Vatican decree every French Catholic will hereafter be under obligation to contribute something every year for the support of the priest and the necessary expenses of worship. For a long time the Vatican authorities have been seeking to find a remedy for the troubles of the church in France, which, when all is said and done, are more of a financial than a religious character. Hundreds of priests deprived by the law of separation from the support of the state have had to turn to the laity for a livelihood. The situation could not be improved at the Vatican, and the order just issued will provide in a measure food and lodging for many French priests, making it unnecessary for them to seek secular pursuils. It was felt in church circles here that such action, taken by a number of French priests, compromised the dignity of the church, and therefore this order to French Catholics has been issued and they are now to be looked to for the support of the clergy and the church.

Too Much Serious Kidney and Bladder Trouble
Here Now.

Take care of backache. A great many cases of kidney complaint are reported about here, also, bladder trouble and rheumatism. An authority once stated that pain in the back, joints or region of the kidneys is the danger signal nature hangs out to notify the sufferer that there is something wrong with the kidneys, which should receive immediate attention. Only vegetable treatment should be administered and absolutely no strongly alcoholic patent medicines, which are harmful to the kidneys and bladder.

The following prescription, while simple, harmless and inexpensive, is known and recognized as a sovereign remedy for kidney complaint. The ingredients can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy and anyone can mix them: Compound Kargon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

This preparation is said to restore the natural function of the kidneys, so they will sift and strain the poisonous waste matter, uric acid, etc., from the blood, purifying it and relieving rheumatism. Backache will be relieved, the urine will be neutralized and cleared and no longer a cause of irritation, thereby overcoming such symptoms as weak bladder, painful, frequent and other urinary difficulties.

This is worth trying and may prove just what many people here need.

CHICAGO AND NEW ORLEANS ARE DRY

Saloon Keepers in Both Places Attempt to Make Law Appear Ridiculous.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 27.—With a dry New Orleans as the aim of prohibitionists, and "reformed" New Orleans as the object of saloon keepers, a crusade reflecting the prohibition movement in other parts of the south has begun here. Ministers in nearly all churches devoted part of their sermons to appeals for prohibition of the liquor traffic. The announced plans of influential liquor dealers is first to force the resignation from the Louisiana Liquor League of objectionable members, and, second, to petition the city council to close up the saloons of such retired members.

The closing of dives, especially negro resorts, is one of the objects of the liquor dealers. Another is to create such surroundings where drinks are sold as will minimize drunkenness and violence. Chicago, Ill., Nov. 27.—Nov. 27.—Some 200 volunteer detectives of the subsidiary organizations of the Chicago Law and Order League visited saloons in Chicago Sunday in an endeavor to obtain evidence that the Sunday closing law of Illinois was being violated.

The action is in furtherance of a campaign inaugurated by the league after the successful election struggles for local option waged in seventeen counties of the state earlier in the month. The evidence collected today, it is announced, will be presented to the grand jury of Cook county.

"THE MAYOR OF TOKIO," MONDAY, DECEMBER 2

Richard Carle's gorgeous comedy hit, "The Mayor of Tokio," will be seen here on next Monday. John L. Kearney is the leading comedian and is a great favorite wherever he goes from Atlantic to Pacific. He assumes the character of Marcus Orlando Kidder and creates no end of laughter with his clever impersonation of the stranded theatrical manager. The "Mayor of Tokio" is proving a musical comedy of unusual attractiveness being, in many respects, one of the brightest pieces of its kind that will be seen here this season.

While Some Times They Have Something Good, More Often They Are Bluffing.

"You know in mining, as in all other walks of life, one meets with a certain class of people that it's a waste of time to pay any attention to," said S. K. Behrend, a mining promoter of Denver, in the lobby of the Alvarado. "Some call them fools, but I think most of them are just plain bluffers. One of them, a bluffer, caused me to make a will of the trip to Albuquerque once that I shall never forget."

"I ought to have known better, but when I first met him I picked him out as the proverbially lucky fool, you know some fools are very lucky, especially so in mining. But I was wrong. He was a bluffer, the kind that talk in millions and really live in a state bordering on penury."

"It was in the Brown Palace at Denver where I first met him. I was favorably impressed with his appearance and his intelligent discussion on the subject of uranium, thorium and radium, with which I was not very familiar. I knew of the fabulous value of radium and that it was extracted from uranium and kindred substances."

After Radium.

"I knew there were traces of uranium in western Colorado and I had heard there were traces of it in New Mexico. I never forgot my friend when one day I chanced to meet him again in the Brown Palace. We talked of radium and he grew enthusiastic in his discussion of it, telling of the vast wealth that would come to the man who would unearth a bed of uranium that would run a reasonable percentage of uranium oxide from which radium is extracted."

"Then he grew confidential. He told me he knew where there was enough uranium of sufficiently good grade to supply the world's market for radium. I thought of the fabulous price of radium and he seemed like seven or eight million a pound—and I scoffed at his statements. But he seemed so sincere that I decided that he was the luckiest dog I ever met."

"But it looked kind of queer to me and I wanted some more proof. He seemed familiar with the process of extracting the radium, which he explained fully to me and offered to show me a small quantity of radium which he said he had extracted from uranium brought from his own finding."

Had the Real Stuff.

"He must have got the radium from the Curie's in Paris, for it was real radium. I took particular pains to find that out. As a physician, he said he was experienced with the radium in the treatment of skin diseases and was meeting with success in his treatment. He put it in a tube and placed the tube over the part of the skin affected a few minutes at each treatment."

"The subject of ingrossed my attention for the next few days and I decided that if the fellow leaked the location of this wonderful find I would investigate it thoroughly."

"He told me by his manner of confidence with eastern parties who were going to float the venture for him. I told him that if he would let me investigate it and find out if it was as valuable as he said it was it would be worked. He hesitated, but I had him in a corner as it were and I held him there until he divulged the information."

Found It While Hunting.

"He had been on a hunting trip down in New Mexico he said and being interested in mining he had prospected around a little and found this file described the place, it was not so very far from Albuquerque, and I decided to come down to Albuquerque and investigate. I arrived here and spent the night, taking a train the next day for a point closer to the ground. There I got a horse and started for the finding. His description was accurate. I found it and puttered around a little taking samples."

"Back to Denver I went with my samples and awaited anxiously for the assayer's report. I didn't see the doctor, he was around at his old maunts and I learned that he had moved his office. Of course I didn't expect the kind of a report he said I would get, but I expected something good. Well there was a trace of it found in my samples of such insignificance that I felt like kicking myself for having bothered the chemist with the stuff."

"The millions I had permitted myself to dream about vanished so quick for my comfort. I was in no mood to meet the doctor, who had boasted to me about the matter. It was a bluff and he did it pretty well and in a pretty convincing manner, but it seemed like it was all for his own amusement. I didn't look for him, I concentrated my mind more on my work and tried to forget the incident."

The Doctor Came Back.
"But a year later while sitting in the lobby of the Brown Palace I caught stray bits of a conversation from a party of two who were sitting behind me and seemed to be engaged in a very confidential talk. 'The's a million in it,' we've got 'Curie busted,' radium, why man ought to supply the world for years to come,' were some of the stray bits of talk that caught my ear."

"I observed closely the speaker. He was well dressed, had the appearance of prosperity, but he was my friend of radium fame. He saw me, his face flushed, he talked a few minutes with his companion then excused himself and hastily departed through a side door to the street. 'I think I've got him in the right class at last. He lives on bluff, talks millions, puts up a prosperous appearance, mingles with men of wealth, the haunts of millionaires, but probably never has more than ten dollars in his pocket at a time and little more in the bank if any at all. He talks of mines, sometimes 'his mines,' and seldom says anything unless there is 'millions' in it. He really doesn't like to be believed, as remember in my case he hesitated to divulge the location of his finding when I pinned him down to it and offered to float his proposition if it proved valuable.

"He probably lives in some hall bed room and eats at a cheap restaurant, his 'bread and butter' of life being the few hours he mingles with wealth in the lobby of a first class hotel, putting up the bluff of being a man of the world and of wealth himself. And there quite a number of such fellows too."

"I am on my way to Arizona now to meet an old prospector who has a bed of uranium that would run a million dollars and I—well I am going to offer him just $20,000 for it. I am not taking these fellows who talk in millions so seriously any more. At the same time the moral to all this is: That now and then one of these fellows really has a big proposition."

PRESIDENT URGES NEW SHIP-PING BILL*Democrats Will Support Measure It Is Said—Committees Busy.Washington, Nov. 27.—Though the president in his coming message will urge the enactment of a new shipping bill, the Senate will introduce, in the Senate, the measure which will have the cordial support of the administration and it will be introduced, simultaneously, in the house."There will be a determined effort in the new congress to secure some positive legislation for the upbuilding of the merchant marine," said Senator Gallinger. "It will be remembered that the enactment of a bill designed to rehabilitate the American merchant marine was defeated in the closing hours of the last congress only by partisan filibuster in the Senate. The leader of the filibusters has now passed into private life.Life. Maritime Victory Predicted.
"It is significant in the movement for encouraging the merchant marine, that it is constantly winning new supporters among public men all that will be seriously attempted in the new congress will be the enactment of some substantial ocean maritime legislation, particularly for the creating of new lines to South America and across the Pacific ocean.""Another object lesson is that the postoffice department, since last March, has found it necessary to direct the United States mails for South Brazil and Argentina via Europe, because of the wretchedly inefficient and irregular service furnished by the foreign tramp steamers now plying between South America and New York. This, in effect, thrusts the United States 3,000 miles further away than they are, to the great injury of the trade. Recently a subsidized steamship, sailing regularly from South America direct to Europe, conveyed a party of merchants, who were going to Europe on orders for $25,000,000 worth of manufactured goods and other articles. Most of those orders might have come to this country if transportation facilities were adequate."Democratic Support Pledged."Along of maritime nations, the United States makes a great deal of money, $3,000,000 or $4,000,000 a year out of its ocean mail system.
Great Britain spends $6,000,000 or $7,000,000 a year in steamship sub-ventions, and Japan $4,000,000 or $5,000,000. From $3,000,000 to $4,- 000,000 a year would create American steamship services from the Atlantic and Gulf coasts to South America and from the Pacific coast to Japan, China, Philippines, India, Australia. Some of us can see no reason why the profit derived from our ocean mail service should not be used to assist in building up steamship lines to carry our mails across the seas.""At the close of last session I received important assurances that such a bill, carefully drawn, would receive the support of several of the ablest and most influential of the southern democratic senators, and I believe that it will command a practically united support on the republican side."HOTEL ARRIVALS.*Alvarado.W. A. Tipton, Texico; S. Blath,

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

W. S. Hopewell returned last night from Santa Fe. Tickets for the charity ball may be had at Mason's book store. Watch for our announcement on Thanksgiving Day. Benham's Indiana Deputy United States Marshal C. M. Foraker went to Santa Fe today on business.

Howard Clark, of the Benham Indian Trading company, has returned from a business trip to the northern part of the territory. Mrs. F. L. Myers is visiting her husband and Albuquerque friends. Mr. Myers is superintendent of the Rio Grande division of the Santa Fe. Ellsworth Ingalls, special attorney to New Mexico from the Department of Justice, has returned to the city from attending to official business at Watrous, N. M.

Clarence Eddy, who it was announced some time ago would give an organ recital in Albuquerque in December, will appear here sometime in January instead.

Dr. D. H. Carnes and his brother, Lee Carnes, of Pittsburgh, Pa., returned today from the Socorro mountains where they have been hunting deer for the last ten days. Each secured a magnificent buck and have sent the heads to a taxidermist for mounting.

Mrs. J. E. Gatchel, of West Central avenue, has returned to the city from an extended visit in the east. Mrs. Gatchel was accompanied on her return by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher, of Bradford, Ont., who expect to spend the winter here to escape the rigorous winter of Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Johnson left this morning for New York, where Mr. Johnson is called to attend a meeting of the stockholders of the American Lumber company, of which he is president. Mrs. Johnson will visit in New York and may not return with Mr. Johnson, who expects to be back in the territory within ten days.

Miss H. V. Moore will give a musicale at her home, 217 South Fourth street, Friday evening, Nov. 29th, at 8:30 for the benefit of the church of the Immaculate Conception. The program will consist of selections by Mrs. Dewolf, harpist; J. Leonard Miller, Mr. Engle, violinist; Miss Yrisarri, Mrs. J. F. Whitford and Mrs. C. B. Reynolds, vocal solos by Mrs. Roy McDonald, Miss Phea Reynolds, Harry G. Buillard and readings by Misses Harriet W. Kunz and Virginia M. Carr. All are invited to attend.

LAS VEGAS HAS DONE ITS PART

It is Up to the Territorial Treasurer to Get Busy With That Armory Bond Issue.

"Las Vegas, Nov. 26. Major B. Ruppe, Albuquerque, has returned to purchase armory site today. Deeds will be made as soon as possible and placed in the hands of the attorney general with abstract.

"R. E. TWITCHELL." The foregoing telegram was received by Maj. Ruppe last night from Col. Twitchell, of Las Vegas, and removes the last obstacle in the path of the new Albuquerque armory as work may begin on the structure as soon as the $15,000 bond issue is disposed of.

The bonds were voted by the territorial legislature and validated by congress for armories in Las Vegas and Albuquerque. Albuquerque met the requirements first, securing a site and feeding it the $7,500, and then asked for the $7,500 for its armory, but found the bonds would be disposed of only in a lump sum and not until Las Vegas had secured a site and made it over to the territory.

As Las Vegas has finally met with the requirements work will probably begin soon. "I am going to get out and hustle up some more cash," said Major Ruppe, "because we will need more than our appropriation of $7,500 to build the kind of an armory we want. Probably $2,500 more will be all that is needed."

RED LIGHT SALOON EMPLOYEES ARRESTED

Raymond Pool, colored, and C. Salazar, employees of the Red Light saloon, were arraigned before Police Judge Craig this morning for fighting. Salazar was sentenced to ten days in the city jail and Pool was dismissed on promise of good behavior.

Salazar is alleged to have called Pool names at 2 o'clock this morning the fight resulting. Both were behind the lunch counter and grabbed for catapult bottles and salt cellars to use as weapons. Pool used a salt cellar on Salazar's head before bystanders separated the men.

Salazar admitted he was drunk and said he supposed there was a fight if Pool and Pool's witnesses said so.

BIG RABBIT DRIVE IN ESTANCIA VALLEY

Hunt Will Start at Midnight and End at Willard—Farmers Have Much To Be Thankful For.

Estancia, Nov. 27.—(Special) Two hundred men will join in a grand rabbit drive on Thanksgiving day. The start will be made at Moriarty and end at Willard. Rabbits are so plentiful in this section that they are a real pest to the farmers, and a wholesale gathering in of the varmints will not be sport only but a real nuisance to the farmers. R. O. Soper is captain of the hunt.

Thanksgiving services will be held in Estancia and in the surrounding neighborhood. Union service will be held here in the Methodist church and an all day meeting, with dinner served on the grounds will be held at the Estancia draw school house. A great deal of corn has been raised this year in this community on sod. The yield has been good, while practically no work is done in the matter of cultivation of sod-corn, yet the yield has been better than in most places. R. D. Vaughn raised on his farm north of town, sod-corn that twenty-five bushels to the acre.

An evidence of the enterprise of the settlers in this valley in the way of improvements is shown by the fact that in Estancia there are more than five well drilling rigs and all of them are kept reasonably busy. The wells drilled are for stock and domestic purposes, but a number have been put down with view to using the water for irrigation purposes. A good well for irrigation makes gardening and tree growing a safe proposition in the valley and a good well and windmill is within the reach of practically every settler.
