Landrith Speaks to Students on Respect For Country's Laws

"Law Enforcement" was the subject of an address delivered by Mr. Ivan Landrith of the student assembly at the University this morning. A large crowd of students, Almonques as well as the students were present for the talk.

The duty of citizens to abide by the laws of the country were the chief points stressed by Dr. Landrith.

He pointed where deliberate attempts are made to break laws, and in certain classes of people and in the danger in such a course.

American citizens, he said, had the duty of living up to American ideals of citizenship if they are to make their government a success. He made practical applications of these points, and throughout his talk brought many laughs from the audience with anecdotes.

Dr. Landrith will speak to the general public of Almonques at the high school auditorium Friday night.

Detective Business In Los Angeles "No Good"; Comes Here

John new scarce, even for detective, according to H. Allen of Los Angeles, who has selected the city jail for the last two nights as the most proper place for him to rest.

Allen, when questioned if police court this morning told J. L. George, "I'm not a Los Angeles detective, but that hill line of business was so on the 'burn' that he had decided to come to Albuquerque. Last night was the second night he had stayed to a flop."

The judge thought he had better have 10 days more and charged him with vagrancy. Allen appeared to be contented when he was taken to jail again.

Court Dismisses a Suit for Damages

The case of Francis P. Franks versus Franklin Ortega, which has been pending in the district court since November, 1920, asking $1,000 damages for crop damage to his cattle, was dismissed by the court yesterday on the grounds that there were not sufficient facts to sustain the claim.

In this suit Franks claims that his herd planted corn, beans and other vegetables on his land, and that as soon as they were well out of the ground Ortega turned about the herd of cattle into the field and they devoured the crop, valued at $250.

Wine Found in Old Cellar on Site of New Bank Building; Skeleton Is Also Dug Up

Many, there have been who have searched for buried treasure in vain. Only the exceptional who are in search of treasure, have had the good fortune to uncover it at their feet.

Workmen on the site for the First National Bank building are the exception. When least expecting it, workmen digging at the corner of Third street and Central avenue yesterday unearthed a case containing FIVE BOTTLES OF WINE.

The wine was found in an anticipated cellar—one which had not been in use for ten years or more. The wine was of the genuine old quality, something even the best of bootleggers cannot fake.

Another excavation on the site of the new bank building was another find, but of a different kind. Bone of a skeleton were found. Workmen do not know whether the skeleton is that of a human or of a wild animal.

The bones ordered the skeleton put into a wagon and hauled to the city dump with other refuse. Workmen are willing to bet that the five bottles did not go to the city dump.

The camp will be open to any boy between the ages of 12 and 18 years. The fee for the 10 days will be $7, and they can register for the camp any time until the night of Saturday, June 3. Beam and L. GRAYS MAY MEET
STARS ON SUNDAY

Santa Fe Nine To Journey to Belen for Contest

Provided Modesto Ortiz, manager of the Old Town Stars, can secure a Texas league pitcher or the equivalent before Sunday, the Old Town Stars will go to bat with the Duke City Grays Sunday afternoon.

Manager Ortiz has been in communication with baseball managers at El Paso in an effort to secure either Gaines or McCormick to come here for Sunday. With a star twirler in the box, Ortiz believes his team can give the Grays a run for their money.

Ortiz said today that if he is unsuccessful in securing an El Paso pitcher, he will wire to Arizona for one. Otherwise, regular catcher for the Stars will do the retiring as no pitcher who takes the box for the Grays and Stars have been meeting daily with the hope that they can cross bats Sunday.

When Grays 19 meet Belen Sunday afternoon at Belen, fans should be given a knowledge of the strength of the Santa Fe team. If the Stars 19 win against Belen, it will be good news when the Grays 19 meet Santa Fe.

You will find it in our Classified Columns.

9 STARTERS FOR KENTUCKY DERBY ARE NOW ENTERED

Morvich Is Favorite
For Classic Horse
Race at Churchill
Downs Tomorrow

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 12.—Nine thoroughbreds, representing the cream of the American turf, are scheduled to take a final walk out at Churchill Downs today in preparation for participation in the supreme test of tomorrow in the 48th renewal of the Kentucky Derby. A tenth may be added to battle for the $50,000 added money in the rich classic.

The blow with which Georges Carpenter knocked out Ted "Kid" Lewis in the first round of their championship bout here last night was legitimate in the judgment of so-called experts who reported the fight. "Crash of Four" came from the point of view of the audited referee. The decisive blow was struck when Joe Palmer, the referee, is quoted in the DAILY TELEGRAM as saying: "The blow was perfectly fair. Then men had broken from the clinch and it was Lewis' business to protect himself. This was a legitimate blow."

It is asserted by some of the newspaper writers that Lewis had several times delivered blows on previous breakaways, though they did not land, and his failure to guard himself in the final break is deemed an amazing blunder which disregards the elementals of boxing.

One or two reporters while concluding that Carpenter by the strict letter of the rules was entitled to act as he did, complain that his conduct lacked regard for the spirit of the regulations which the Frenchman invariably observed in his previous fights.

With the arrival yesterday of Starter, Rygosh, Surf Rider and Lettermann, the field was brought up to nine probable starters, of whom the candidate who already wears on hand, Morvich, the Benjamin black colt, still remains the favorite although Deadlock, John Finn, Bet More and My Play were not without staunch supporters. The tenth still regarded as a very doubtful starter, in Bigs America, and those who have watched the E. R. Bradfield colt in the trials earnestly hope that he will be the one to go to the post. Only one minute will enter the breathless two-minute drive tomorrow according to present predictions, this being Starlite. She will carry 121 pounds while the others will have up to an additional five pounds each.

Interest of nation centers on Morvich, the unbeaten son of Hammydebymer, and indications are that he will enter the race as a heavy favorite. Those who have been figuring the probable odds for the classic predict that Morvich will pay even money but hundreds of others are feeling around for a "long shot".

All were put out without any appreciable damage.

The efficiency of the Roswell fire department which is recognized as one of the best in the entire southwest, is due largely to the efforts of Chief Charles Whittemore who thirty-three years ago today arrived in Roswell from White Oaks, having made the trip on horseback in five days for the trail considered remarkably good time in those days.

American Silver Mine Is Likely to Be Reorganized

(Special to The Herald)

SILVER CITY, N. M., May 12.—By order of the U. S. district court at Santa Fe, Frank N. Skidmore of Mogollon, Catron county, N. M., has been named receiver for the American Silver corporation, holding extensive mining properties at Mogollon. It is believed that this action will lead to a reorganization, by which the properties of the company will be reopened and mining and milling operations resumed, after having been shut down for two years.

In the spring of 1920, a West Virginia corporation, under the name of the American Silver corporation, capitalized at $3,000,000, was organized, acquiring by purchase the entire holdings of the Socorro Mining & Milling company at a receivership sale. D. B. Scott, who had acted as receiver for the Socorro Mining & Milling company from 1919 to 1920, was appointed general manager of the Mogollon corporation, taking charge in March of this year. Operations were resumed and continued for seven months, when, without any planing, whatever mining and milling was discontinued over eight and the mine shut down. Scott resigned and Frank N. Skidmore took charge, being in control since the time of the mine and mill.

Assessment work for 1921 need not be completed until July 1, 1922, education still not being necessary.

Work for 1922 need not be completed until July 1, 1923, since the date on which work for 1922 would start is unknown. From January 1, 1922, to July 1, 1922, under the law of last August, which shifts the period from the calendar to the fiscal year, the old law stipulated that the period of assessment work should begin upon the first day of January succeeding location.

Claims located after July 1, 1921, will be submitted to the board of assessors for 1922, and those located after July 1, 1922, and before July 1, 1923, will be submitted to the board of assessors for 1923.

There has been a question among men claims as to whether work on claims must be started or completed on July 1. It is plain that the work must be completed, and not merely under way.

FRIDAY, MAY 12, 1922

AT LAST!

WE NOTE in the columns of a local morning paper that everything has been made shipshape at the state insane asylum at Las Vegas where "a good appointment" has been made in the place of a regent who resigned and that "it should be possible now for the situation at the asylum to be cleaned up so as to command public confidence."

This should make all lovers of civic righteousness rejoice and should bring comfort to the considerable number of men and women who on or about a year ago invested their good money in bonds on the Dawn and received herefore receipts.

Adjustment of things up at the insane asylum to the satisfaction of the Prophet means that the bonds will now be delivered immediately.

How do we know?

From the pen of the Prophet himself.

On December 29, 1921, when delivery of the bonds was only about eight months past due the Prophet announced in a signed statement that "Evidence of corruption in the hospital or the insane" had "distracted and delayed" its delivery of the bonds. He added: "I am moving as rapidly as possible in the bond matter between bonds. I am a fairly busy man."

This was of course, quite satisfying. Now that the insane hospital affairs have been referred to complete sanity, the bond buyers will certainly receive their first mortgage bonds on the Journal, together with "interest to November 1 from date of payment of your money," as the Journal specifically announced on November 11, 1921, would occur immediately.

The Herald has never held with those skeptical persons among the bond buyers, some of whom have roughly filled suits to recover their money, on the assumption that otherwise they might have to adapt themselves to the scientific theories of Sir Conan Doyle in order to buy it. We have always felt that when all the other public business had been attended to, the Prophet would get around to this detail of business with that portion of the public to whom he sold these bonds and whose money he has had in his possession since about one year ago this month.

Now all these public matters have been disposed of. To be sure there have been other reasons than immorality in the public business advanced for non-delivery of the bonds. As far back as last August the Prophet told his receipt holders that the delay in reading the printer's proof on the bonds had delayed their issue. Of course anyone can understand that such a delay would be likely to happen in connection with such a matter. Any busy man will delay reading a printer's proof on an issue of bonds he has sold and on which he has the money. Why hurry? Especially when the time between breaths is short?

However, we know that the proofs have been read, because on January 4, 1922, the Journal announced that "the bonds were ready last night for delivery to Albert G. Simms, trustee, of his certification that each was one of the original issue. The deed of trust will be delivered to him today for recording. As soon as letters of transmission can be prepared these bonds will go forward to subscribers."

There seems to have been a trifling delay of our months and eight days in preparation of these letters of transmission, because, as far as could be learned today, the new first mortgage bonds on the Journal had not been delivered to subscribers who bought and paid for them in May a year ago, although there was an unconfirmed rumor that some of the bond buyers who had inquired for it persistently had been paid their interest money.

But that is all in the past. Now that everything is hunky-dory with the insane asylum the letters of transmission no doubt will be prepared.

There may be a hang-over here and there in indisposition of public business. On November 6, 1921, the Prophet announced as one of the then urgent reasons why the bonds hadn't been delivered that "there has been a slight delay occasioned by the absorption of the attention of the publisher of the Journal in getting an investigation of the educational department under way. The reorganization of the Chamber of Commerce has also distracted our attention somewhat."

As we recall it a well known firm of auditors were unimpaired as having been put to work in the department of education at about that time. Being highly efficient men they must be through their work by this time, although nothing much has been said about it. We are informed-ready that something's about to be produced from this mountain.

As for the Chamber of Commerce, it has been organized as thoroughly as the ingredients in an old-time prime whip. Mr. Putney, the prophet's ideal of a proper leadership for the mercantile party, is at his head, and things are moving both as to result productive (ham-

A THOUGHT
For in the winter is past; the rains are over and gone; the flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come.—C. articles 2:11-12.

Sweet daughter of a rough and stormy sea,
Dear Winter's blushing child, delightful
Spring!
Whose unknown locks with leaves
Are soft as the dragon, but shorter, the red dog star
Shall snuff the tresses, and the mower's scythe
Thy green, thy flowers all.

—Anne L. Burford.

for of Commerce work and the Putney's candidacy for governor.

Thus it looks as if everything had been attempted to except the transmission of the bonds to the buyers. The only danger is that something else may come up to distract and delay the preparation of the letter of transmission. It has happened several times before. In fact, on January 7, 1922, the Prophet agreed with some of the bond buyers who were displaying a wholly unjustified tendency to become impatient, that "the delay is unfortunate," and added: "I allowed my attention to be distracted by other things. I felt that my associates were more interested in my fanning out and exposing wrong than in hurrying the bonds into their hands."

Of course that satisfied everybody. All were agreed that the Prophet had not permitted himself to be hurried.

Now, however, some of the bond buyers say they hope he will not let his attention be distracted any more and that a little hurry in delivery work would be appreciated. Of course they are ungrateful and unreasonable persons, doubtless inspired by sinister motives having to do with getting something for their money.

The last heard of the bonds, officially either from the lofty pinnacle of editorial aloofness, from the ear to the ground or from the political fence, was on January 10, 1922, when it was announced that "the new bonds are in Mr. Albert Simms' hands as trustee."

So far as the public knows they are still there, although a bond buyer who was over from Estancia the other day said he had hunted all over town and had been unable to find his. He was quite peevish about it. We understood he went so far as to visit the immediate vicinity of the lofty pinnacles of editorial aloofness and threatened to step on the ear on the ground.

—A most unreasonable person, clearly devoid of "deals and without civic righteousness."

But now, at last, the insane asylum has been made safe for the public. The department of education has been audited and the results of the audit disposed of. The Santa Fe bank has been reorganized through the helpful aid of the Prophet. The county commission has been reformed and put upon a sound business basis. An alleged triumvirate has been ousted from its direction of city business and a real one installed in its place. Officers of the fire fighters union have been put back in their jobs. The plumbers have been put back in their jobs, which will come back with a city ordinance which will prevent a citizen from fixing a leaky joint in his house connection. Mr. Putney has been installed at the head of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Putney has been safely launched as the proper leader of the grand old party of Thomas Jefferson, Arthur Seligman and D. K. B. Sellers. Mr. Putney's boom for governor is soaring like a captive balloon, tugging at its anchor. Cheaper water rates have been assured for Albuquerque just as soon as we spend five or ten million dollars for a gravity water system from a supply to be created somewhere when the Prophet smites a rock. The last mosquito has been crushed to death beneath the wheels of a speeding law-enforcing police car.

It does seem as if most of the more pressing matters requiring the attention of a busy prophet had been disposed of and that even an overworked martyr might find time between brawls with sinister conspiracies to "leave the stenographer time to get out the letters of transmission and relieve Mr. Albert Simms' hands of the prolonged strain of holding the new Journal's first mortgage bonds so that they may go to those who bought and paid for them, together with the interest as aforesaid.

That is good, insofar as it goes. Speed is needed. We have got along remarkably well through the first month of the greatest coal strike created by his introduction had subsided, he found a chair by Lucinda's side and when the conversation turned to his own wife he coolly admitted she was the most beautiful woman he had ever seen.

Now is the time to avoid such overwhelming evils, while we still have fuel with which to operate and time to correct the trouble.

—The coal industry is the most important industry of the nation. These troubles can be easily remedied if a national fact finding commission is provided and put under pressure to obtain results.

We know that our Indianapolis miners have a potential capacity of 750,000,000 tons a year, while the normal demand for consumption is only about 560,000,000 tons a year. That obviously means part time operation. The resultant waste in the introduction hours of the workers, the griping done by the miners over the low rates, the strikes and deprivations that go with the mine pits and idle railroad equipment has been estimated at not less than $500,000,000 a year.

The mining wage per day has been estimated at 100,000,000 a year. Much larger sums are due largely to Gaston's demand for coal, which is 162,000,000 tons a year.

—It is the same with the coal miners who have been reduced to about 20 per cent.

What has been accomplished here can be accomplished here according to the laws of the coal industry.

—There can be no strikes if the miners are reasonably compensated. As the result of the strike we have many millions of tons of coal available for export.

10 Horses Will Start in Historic Race at Pimlico

BALTIMORE, May 12.—At least ten crack 3-year-olds, with a few possible addition if the track is fast will face the barrier at Pimlico tomorrow afternoon to compete in the historic Preakness stakes for the $15,000 purse of the Maryland Jockey Club.

Walter J. Salmon's superlatives will be in the field, according to a last minute announcement while it is now said to be unlikely that either Bull Dog Drummond or the Seagram stable, or Delray from the 20th turn would be contenders.

Only three of the candidates were out on trials yesterday.

Today and Saturday and Sunday the candidates went the full distance—1½ miles and an eighth—in 1:58 2-5 and 1:58 2-5 respectively. June Grass' effort was confined to a mile and he was caught by most jockeys in 1:41.

A signal light had been removed from a switch and the switch box broken off the post. It had been left open to a siding, the crew of the first train to approach wondering at the absence of the switch light from the customary place, stopped to investigate. An inquiry and the arrests followed.

Irish Signatories To Keep Faith, Says Austen Chamberlain

LONDON, May 12.—By The Associated Press.—Vice-Chancellor Chamberlain, government minister in charge of commerce, addressing a mass meeting of untutored women here this afternoon declared the time had come when the government might expect the Irish signatories of the Anglo-Irish treaty to stay only to show good faith to those who sent them and also the power to do so.

Russia to Legalize Private Property Rights Recognition

MOSCOW, May 12.—(By The Associated Press)—Legalized recognition of private rights in money, industrial and agricultural products and other personal property to a certain extent in Russia are proposed in decrees which the Soviet government prepared for presentation before the all-Russian central executive committee for passage at its opening session today.
