ALBUQUERQUE TAKES LITTLE WAIF

Ten Day Old Baby Adopted by Well Known People of Means.

SOCIETY MEETS LONG FELT WANT IN CHARITY

The ten-day-old baby taken in charge by the Children's Home Society has found a home. It will be cared for by a well known Albuquerque family for adoption, and Dr. C. E. Lukens, superintendent of the society, left yesterday to bring the baby to Albuquerque.

Dr. Lukens was visited by a Citizen reporter at his home before his departure. He would not make public the name of the family adopting the baby, but said the people were eminently respectable and of means sufficient to insure the child a good home and an education. The family has one child of twelve years. Two other children were born to them but both died—the last one only recently.

"I just received a letter from the Pecos valley," said Dr. Lukens, "asking me not to give the baby to any one else as the writer would come at once and take the child. The letter came a few hours after I had placed the child in an Albuquerque home."

The work of the Children's Home Society has already resulted in much good. The superintendent has had considerable difficulty in getting his work under headway, but he now has everything running smoothly. Concerning the society and its baby charges, Dr. Lukens said:

"The little baby boy of whom I spoke yesterday, and for whom you kindly asked me to find a home, is a pathetic case, but is one of the many pathetic cases that arise here in this great territory of ours. Though rich as it is in its resources, it is not lacking in a subject for philanthropic work."

"The baby is a little more difficult to place than the baby girl. We have so far had no case that we could not help, except that yet we are not prepared to give permanent care to sick, deformed children, but there are so many more cases of little homeless boys than there are of girls that our list of homes are more quickly exhausted."

"In the case of the little boy we now have, the mention in The Citizen was more as an experiment than a real necessity."

"We wanted to see how quickly the heart of some good woman could be touched, and our belief in the good in the human heart was not unjustified for the paper had scarcely had time to reach the homes of its readers when we received a telephone message from a lady asking if we had placed the child yet, and saying that she wanted to interview the superintendent in regard to the matter with a view of adopting the baby."

"In a short time a gentleman and his wife called saying that they also would like to have the baby. While we have not placed the child with anyone as yet for we are very careful to look up the character and ability of an applicant before we give a child into their keeping, we will no doubt be able to place the child in a good home here in Albuquerque."

"And one might also get the idea that publicity would be given to the families applying for a child and as to the place where a child is placed for adoption but this is not the case. We hold all such matters as sacred between the officers of the society and the home in which the child is placed and the matter of the adoption never becomes public nor is the name of the persons adopting the child ever mentioned either publicly or privately. The work of finding and placing children has some very pathetic sides. In some cases it is a matter of the absolute lack of love on the part of the mother."

A Typical Rescue Scene.
"In many of the cases presented to the society there is such evidence of selfish unworthiness on the part of relatives that we get very indignant and such abounding affection on the part of the neglected and about to be abandoned children, that our hearts nearly break sometimes when the parting occurs. Our anger rises against the sinful and vicious parent; our sympathy goes out to the children who pathetically cling to the departing loved one. We realize that the separation is best for the younger generation, but is frequently a last and public advertisement of the parent's loss of all the higher and nobler qualities associated with parenthood. "Not long ago a group of visiting ladies witnessed such a scene. A divorced woman fargone from righteousness, and undoubtedly in failing health, probably as a result of her own vice, had just placed a sturdy two-year-old boy in the society's care. When the woman started for

FAMILY CITY COUNCIL WILL DISCUSS NEW FOUNTAIN

Albuquerque Has a Thing of Beauty But No Place to Put It.

IS VERMONT GRANITE ARTISTICALLY CARVED

The common council at its meeting tonight will take up this matter of securing a site for the handsome new drinking fountain for horses and dogs, the present of the National Humane Alliance of New York City, which arrived last week but has not been moved from the freight depot because the city had no place to put it.

When the city first received word of the gift from the National Humane Alliance President Ripley assured the aldermen that the Santa Fe would grant a site at the northeast corner of Central avenue and First street. This site received the approval of the city council and was received by it with thanks.

But the Santa Fe reconsidered this matter and finally backed out of its agreement. Officials thought a drinking fountain would prove a great attraction to all the loose gamblers of the city who would assemble there and make life miserable for the fashionable guests of the Alvarado through the long hours of the night.

Then the northeast corner of Central avenue and First street is the site for the proposed Santa Fe employees club house and officials of the road thought that perhaps the fountain would interfere with the club plans.

No sites have been discussed by the councilmen, but business men have taken an interest in the matter. Some suggested Third street and Gold avenue as a centrally located and appropriate place for the fountain. Others talked of First street and Copper avenue.

R. W. D. Bryan, president of the New Mexico Humane society, who secured the fountain for Albuquerque, returned home last night from Chicago and will attend the council meeting tonight.

The fountain is a handsome one. It consists of five solid blocks of granite and is six feet six inches high from the ground to the top.

No witnesses as yet have been summoned before the commission, which will first go over the testimony and information secured by Governor Sparks and General Funston before the hearing of new evidence.

The number of men at work in the mines and at the Consolidated mill has been increased today and a statement made by the operators is to the effect that a majority of the new men are former members of the Federation.

How the Alliance Grew.
Hermion Lee Ensign, the founder of the National Humane Alliance was born in Carbondale, Pa., June 20, 1849. He was reared under religious influences, was a member of the Congregational church, and when twenty decided to become a minister. His health or finances failed and he went to Chicago.

A few years later he became the manager of the Alliance, a weekly journal, mildly religious and widely humanitarian. His experience in journalism he turned to practical account by later engaging in the advertising business, following it with marked success, and acquiring a fortune in twenty years.

Loved Dumb Brutes.
From childhood he was a lover of domestic animals. To him they were not merely inferiors or slaves, they were companions and friends, devoted themselves to man and depending on him for their lives and happiness.

He founded the National Humane Alliance to carry out his idea for the welfare of animals. He intended to give his time and fortune to the work, and the society is administering the trust of Mr. Ensign on the lines of his idea for humane work.

The fountain which the alliance gave Albuquerque cost about $1,000. The alliance also paid the freight on the fountain from New York to this city which amounted to about $400.

ADMIRAL EVANS DRAWS UP ANCHOR

Backbone of American Navy Is Off on 14,000 Mile Trip Around Cape Horn.

FLEET PRESENTS THRILLING SCENE UNDER MOTION

President Views Pageant From In "Tail of Horseshoe" as Ships Steam Out of Chesapeake Bay With Flags Flying and Bands Playing.

Old Point Comfort, Va., Dec. 16.—The backbone of the American navy, sixteen first class battleships, under command of Rear Admiral Robert D. Evans, set sail today for the Pacific ocean, a 14,000-mile cruise, which has set all the world talking.

Parading in review before the president of the United States and saluting as they went stately by the white vessels drew anchors from their rendezvous ground at Hampton Roads, steamed around the famous old Virginia capes and were lost to view on the southern horizon.

At ten knots speed they went, headed for the West Indies. The fleet will bring up at Trinidad on Christmas eve, the first stage of the journey ending there. The fleet passed out in a single column, the Connecticut leading, followed by the Mayflower, included Secretary of the Navy Melcott.

Many yachts and excursion boats accompanied the fleet down the bay. President Roosevelt's party, including the Mayflower, included Secretary of the Navy Melcott.

Upon arriving at the roads the Mayflower anchored in the very center of the thronging fleet. Then followed the reception on board, the president having his farewell message for the four rear admirals and the sixteen commanding officers.

At the conclusion of the meeting on the Mayflower, the president shook each officer by the hand and as they went over the side bade them official adieu.

With the departure of the fleet the officers of the Mayflower proceeded to get under way almost at once, so as to take her place at the head of the formidable column and lead the way to the viewing waters off Philadelphia, where, ten miles out in Chesapeake bay.

Orders were issued at the same time upon all the warships to hoist anchors, and by the time the battleship began to move, the president's yacht was well down the bay, coming to anchor near "Tail of Horseshoe" as the water about Philadelphia light house is known.

The Mayflower let go anchor and stood by to review the Pacific bound parade.

Connecticut Wins Praise.
There was little time to wait before the Connecticut showed off the quarter rail.

The Connecticut's decks were manned by a half thousand sailors in their nattiest suits of blue, with the marine guard, in full uniform and staff at "attention" on the quarter deck. A band was playing the national anthem. Admiral Evans stood on the after bridge high above, and stood by to review the Pacific bound parade.

On receiving a negative answer he moved to strike out Orchard's testimony regarding the crimes committed in Colorado and that the testimony regarding the Coeur d'Alene trouble be stricken out as they did not connect the defendant with the crime charged.

The motion was denied and the state proceeded with corroborative evidence. Judge Luther M. Goddard, of the supreme court of Colorado, was called and examined concerning the finding of a bomb at the gate of his residence. He said the bomb was located after Orchard had confessed.

Bigelow Gets Indeterminate Sentence.
Denver, Colo., Dec. 15.—Kemp V. Bigelow, who pleaded guilty to the charge of assault with intent to kill on Governor Buchtel, Lawrence C. Phillips and Charles B. Kountze, admitting he sent them dynamite bombs, today was given an indeterminate sentence in the reformatory by Judge Carlton M. Bliss.

Bigelow sent the bombs with the intention of giving warning and then securing reward.

RIDGELY MAKES REPORT ON FINANCIAL SITUATION

Comptroller of Currency Favors Establishment of Central Bank.

RECOMMENDS ELASTICITY FOR BANK NOTE SYSTEM

Washington, D. C., Dec. 16.—In his annual report to congress today, William B. Ridgely, comptroller of currency, treats of the recent money tightness in the United States and suggests a remedy. The report says that deposits in all banks reporting to the comptroller amounted to $13,099,615,348, a gain of over $5,860,000,000 within the past seven years. The total stock of money was reported July 1 of the present year to be $2,115,600,000.

"The conditions which led to the panic of October and November, 1907, were not due to the failure of individual banks," says the report. "They were not due to lack of confidence of the people in the banks, but to the lack of confidence of the banks in themselves in their reserves. They feared that they did not have sufficient currency and the result was a currency famine. A remedy for this state of affairs is to improve the reserve system, so that the reserve deposits of banks can be kept in banks where they will surely be available. We must impart to our currency system some element of elasticity, so that when there comes a sudden demand for currency, it can be supplied in bank notes without depleting the supply of reserve money. These desirable changes can best be accomplished and in fact can only be satisfactorily accomplished through the establishment by the government of a central bank of issue and reserve."

TILLMAN MAKES HOT HEADED SPEECH IN SENATE

Washington, D. C., Dec. 16.—In the course of a speech in the senate today Senator Tillman commented characteristically on financial affairs. He said he believed that Roosevelt was a patriot and that while guilty of many indiscretions and said many things which in cooler moments he would have been willing to take out of print, he did not believe that Roosevelt was a traitor or a scoundrel.

Neither the president nor Mr. Cortelyou considers the vacating of his place in the cabinet. The president needs and wants Mr. Cortelyou. The secretary of the treasury needs and wants Mr. Cortelyou. Their interests in this connection are mutual and interdependent.

The only basis for the Cortelyou gossip of today lies in the undeniable fact that there is a white house foundation in some of the southern states, through his friends, to forward his own interests. In other words, with administration backing and senatorial support, in Tillman, in his official capacity, he permitted himself to be placed in the position of "going over" to the "reactionaries" during the last meeting of the republican national committee.

Got Strength From Administration.
Friends of the secretary of the treasury, as well as of the administration, have held all along that Mr. Cortelyou could have strength, if strength was conceded him by the present administration, only because of his identification with it and training under it, and proved through it, in various official and political places. They advised him to wait until things were shaped up and the drift determined, the possible outcome of the various canvases, then the logic of the situation might turn or be turned in his direction. But it is said he was not content to do this; that he went over to the reactionaries too early in the fighting.

As to the retirement of Mr. Taft, it is evident that his friends now believe they have secured all the strength the administration can give them, or that they are assured of all future aid possible from the administration. Now they urge he can best continue his campaign for the presidency through an independent struggle for the plum and can only gain additional strength by working in seeming independence of the administration.

SECRETARY TAFT WILL BEGIN CAMPAIGN ON HIS RETURN

William Loeb Will Doubtless Be His Manager—Calif. Iron Bolling.

ROOSEVELT WILL NOT FIGHT CORTELYOU

Washington, D. C., Dec. 16.—Not for many months has the political not boiled so furiously as it has in this greatest of all political caldrons. These are the outcroppings: William Loeb, Jr., has been soundbitten to see if he will take charge of the Taft presidential boom.

Mr. Cortelyou, represented as in a quarrel with the president and having tendered his resignation during the morning's cabinet meeting, meets the suggestion with the statement: "Like other recent rumors and malicious statements, it is just a plain lie."

Mr. Taft will be urged on his return to this country December 18 to retire from President Roosevelt's cabinet and take upon himself the sole task of being a receptive candidate for the presidency.

Taft Leaders Dissatisfied.
The news about Mr. Loeb was perhaps the latest and most interesting administration development, and that about Mr. Cortelyou the most unfounded, although having just enough basis to cause sensationalism and its persistent circulation.

Investigation of the Loeb story develops the fact that the Taft people are dissatisfied with the way in which his interests have been looked after; that there is no question but that Mr. Loeb has approached and asked if he would take on the duties of the place; that the president is sufficiently interested in the movement to turn Loeb over to the Taft people.

Elmer Dover, secretary of the republican national committee, have been approached and a decision between them and by them will be reached after the session next week of the big war secretary.

Roosevelt Wants Change.
Mr. Loeb not only reveals in politics and has shown a mastery hand in connection with the fortunes of the various chief, but the president is represented as believing that the Taft management has not been as good as it might be up to this time and he would like to see it improved. He would like to see Mr. Taft managers is not new to the readers of these dispatches, where the dissatisfaction in that connection has been often reflected.

The stories as to Mr. Cortelyou found in that foundation in intermingled antagonism to him and some interests associated with the present administration. For the most part it is shown by investigation that they were groundless.

Successes Are Common.
Neither the president nor Mr. Cortelyou considers the vacating of his place in the cabinet. The president needs and wants Mr. Cortelyou. The secretary of the treasury needs and wants Mr. Cortelyou. Their interests in this connection are mutual and interdependent.

CANTALOUPE A PROFITABLE CROP

Rocky Ford Expert Tells Alamogordo Fruit Growers What Profits Will be.

Alamogordo, N. M., Dec. 16.—At a meeting of the Alamogordo Fruit Growers' association held here Saturday night, J. D. Todd, an expert in the culture of cantaloupes, told of the success with which melons have been raised at Rocky Ford, Colo.

According to Mr. Todd, under proper and scientific cultivation and irrigation the general yield from a twenty-acre field would show about the following results:

The cost of plowing, cultivation, planting and labor for irrigation will average $25 an acre. The cost of picking, packing crates and hauling to station will run to $50 an acre. Thus the whole cost of the crop from preparation to delivery for a twenty-acre would be $1,500, without the cost of water for irrigation.

The returns from the twenty acres can now be considered on the following basis:

Twenty acres should produce 2,000 crates of cantaloupes, 75 per cent of which should be the standard size, the balance being "ponies" or smaller melons. With the facilities that Lyon Bros., who Mr. Todd represents, have for marketing the melons, an average price of $1.50 per crate should be realized by the growers. This gives the total gross sum received for the melons as $4,500, for the twenty acres, and, deducting the entire cost of production exclusive of water, which was $1,500 we find the net profit to the grower to be $3,000 for the twenty acres, or at the rate of $150 per acre.

The standard cantaloupe packs forty-five to the crate, which is 12x12x23 1/2 inches in size. The "ponies" pack fifty-two to the crate, 11x11x23 1/2 inches.

The average refrigerator car will load 320 crates of melons, so that with 300 acres of melons planted in Alamogordo next season, we can expect to ship from this point at least 14 to 150 carloads of the finest cantaloupes that have ever been sent to the markets of the north and east.

Attorney General Hervey is preparing an opinion relative to the legality of operating slot machines after the anti-gambling law goes into effect January 1. Slot machines are not specifically mentioned in the statute but the attorney general holds that they are a game of chance and therefore it will be unlawful to operate them after the anti-gambling law becomes operative.

George E. Christlaw, of Kelly, has gone to Glenwood, Minn., where he will spend the winter with members of his family whom he has not seen for many years. Mr. Christlaw came to New Mexico when he was but a boy, and he has had an abundance of the usual rough experience of pioneer days. He is now well provided for in this world's goods and is wisely taking this trip for the pleasure of it. He will return to New Mexico in March by way of Washington, Oregon and California.

It is reported that the population of the mining camp of Goldfield has shrunk from 25,000 to 10,000 under the constant labor agitation in which has been taking place there for the last few months. This news was brought here by Will R. Link, a Philadelphia newspaper man who has been spending a few weeks in the Nevada town and who passed through here on his way east yesterday morning. Mr. Link says the trouble is due to the three cornered fight which has been maintained since last March between the American Federation of Labor, the Western Federation of Miners and the Industrial Workers of the World and which is sustained by the presence of a body of agitators who constantly preach discontent. The matter of unguaranteed scrip also has played a conspicuous part in the difficulty.

PUMICE STONE IN THE UNITED STATES

The production of pumice in the United States in 1905 amounted to 12,200 tons, valued at $16,750, as against 1832 tons, valued at $5,540, in 1905, an increase of 10,368 tons in quantity and of $11,210 in value. This large increase came from Nebraska, from deposits near Orleans, Harlan county, and Ingram, Lincoln county, which are being extensively worked. This Nebraska pumice is chiefly a volcanic ash or powdered pumice, and is used in the manufacture of scouring and cleaning preparations.

Although deposits of pumice are found at several localities in the United States, only those most favorably located as regards mining and transportation facilities can be worked in competition with the foreign deposits furnishing the imported material, the greater part of which comes from the island of Lipari. The value of the imports of pumice in 1906 was $111,685, as against $77,000 in 1905.

489 in 1905, an increase of $34,206. Pumice stone is found on the beach along the east coast of New South Wales and Queensland, probably having been washed across the ocean from volcanic islands. Such pumice must be of good quality, as only the lightest would make such a trip, but it would be necessary to free it from sand which it may have picked up along the beaches before it would be of value for painter's work. The production of pumice and other abrasives in the United States in 1906 is reported by Douglas B. Sterrett, geologist of the United States geological survey, in an advance chapter from "Mineral Resources of the United States, Calendar Year 1906," which is now ready for distribution by the survey.

Purity and Cleanliness

Cleanliness is necessary for purity in foods, and especially in beer. No one realizes this important fact more than Pabst. In the great Pabst Brewery at Milwaukee, everything is as neat and clean as in your own kitchen. Every grain of barley is washed and scoured before it is made into malt. Even the air in which the malt is grown is washed by being drawn through fourteen zinc screens, over each of which flows a constant stream of pure water.

The great shining copper brew-kettles are washed and sterilized before each brew of

Pabst Blue Ribbon

The Beer of Quality

From the time the beer is brewed until it is delivered to your home it never comes in contact with the atmosphere nor with human hands. Before it is bottled, Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer is forced through wood fiber filters. The bottles are thoroughly cleaned, then filled and pasteurized. Pabst cleanliness, like Pabst purity, cannot be excelled.

When ordering beer, ask for Pabst Blue Ribbon.

WAGON LOADS OF TOYS AT HAWLEY'S

This is my last year in the toy business. My store is full of them, and there are unopened boxes of them stored away. I believe I have more toys by a half than any other store in the city, and every one of them must get out by the first of the year. I need the room for other lines, and in order to get it, will cut and slash at the prices until you can't help but buy.

If you can't find what you wish among my toys, you are pretty hard to please. They run in value from one cent to twelve dollars, and stop at all stations between. A partial list:

Teddy Bears, old one and cubs, dolls, large and small, doll carriages, go-carts, trunks, houses, stoves, dishes, beds, and everything else a doll needs. Automobiles, tricycles, wagons, wheelbarrows, tool chests, trains, engines that run, hose carts, mechanical toys of all kinds, air rifles, trumpets, drums, balls, games, banks, cash registers, tops, Noah's arks, animal toys, etc., etc.

The point you want to remember is that THEY MUST GO, REGARDLESS OF PRICE, and go at once.

RAILROAD DEPARTMENT

READING ROOMS FOR ABO STATION

Land Across Street in Front of Alvarado Will be Used For Park.

"We have the plans and we have the money, but we are undecided as to the site."

This was the statement of S. E. Busser, superintendent of reading rooms on the Santa Fe, yesterday at the Alvarado, with reference to the new reading room building proposed for Albuquerque.

The changing of the terminal yards to Abo, three miles south of the city, has caused the matter to be held up," continued Mr. Busser. "We are thinking of building down there, and there are many arguments in favor of it. The company desires to keep the men close to the yards so that they may be reached by the call boy more readily. Too, the men would better patronize a place near where they have to go to work than a place up town."

"The place that we would like to build up town would be an ornament to any city or neighborhood, but though we built a fine building across the street in front of the hotel, a bunch of railroad men lounging on the verandas there is semi-dishabille and untidy, which railroad men likely to be called at any moment find more comfortable, would slightly jar the high toned guests of the Alvarado and would mar the beauty of the place. I think that the company will eventually make a park of the land across the street and that we will build the reading room building at Abo."

ON HIS WAY TO

ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEX.

A fairly well dressed man of middle age, carrying a small bundle wrapped in white domestic, was asking a bunch of railroad men in the Union depot yards yesterday for information in regard to the direction and distance to Albuquerque, says the El Paso News. "But the train doesn't go out until 8 o'clock this evening," said one of the railroad men. "I am not asking about the train," said the stranger. "I am going to walk, and I have fringed off up the track on his 225 mile jaunt. He said he had no money and could get no work, so that to walk out of town was his only alternative."

SURVEY COMPLETED FOR

DENVER-EL PASO LINE

Trinidad, Colo., Dec. 15.—The immense coal fields in the vicinity of Dawson, N. M., controlled by the Phelps-Dodge company, will have a new outlet in the El Paso & Southwestern railroad, according to the statement of a surveying party which reached here Saturday. They have just completed a survey from El Paso touching Las Vegas and Dawson and following along the route of the Colorado & Wyoming from Cat-skill to this city. There are twenty men in the party, who are now in camp at Long's canyon, six miles west of here. This line will give the most direct route from Denver to El Paso and Mexico City.

General Passenger Agent Alex. Hinton of the Frisco has announced the following changes, effective Jan. 1: J. S. McNally is appointed division passenger agent at Oklahoma City, Ok.; J. A. Stewart is appointed assistant general passenger agent at Kansas City, Mo.; J. C. Lovrien, transferred to other duties; C. E. Bascom is appointed traveling passenger agent at Oklahoma City, vice D. C. Farrington, transferred; J. N. Stroud is appointed traveling passenger agent at Kansas City; J. C. Lovrien is appointed general traveling passenger agent, with headquarters at La Salle Station, Chicago.

Miss Caroline Tibbets, one of the Santa Fe apprentice operators who has been for some time past at Navajo, has been transferred to Needles where she enters the service of the Santa Fe in the office of the superintendent of the Arizona division.

Arehle Saylor, who is employed in the new Topeka shops as a car painter, is responsible for saving the lives of three Santa Fe section men a few nights ago. At the time he was on his way home from work and the No. 2, which was late, was approaching behind the section men. The section men were unable to see the approaching train on account of the curve. Saylor heard the train approaching and warned the section men and helped them off the main line with their car. The train whizzed by a moment later and had the men been warned a moment later, it would have been too late.

A. J. Hass, one of the Santa Fe pumpers at Clear Creek, Ariz., slipped on the steps down to the pumps last week and fell about twenty feet, and broke several ribs. He was sent to the Los Angeles hospital.

L. E. Cartwright, special agent of the Santa Fe at La Junta, en route to San Marcel on a business trip, passed through the city Sunday morning.

The remains of A. H. Willman, who was killed in the wreck at Shope, have been taken to Grand Island, Neb., by a brother.

During the absence of Agent Holmes, W. E. Second has charge of the Winslow yard.

John Gibson is in the city on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Gibson.

RAILROAD OFFICIAL ON TRIAL FOR FATAL WRECK

New York, Dec. 15.—Finally it begins to look as if the man at the top may be held to answer for the hundreds of lives being sacrificed annually on the altar of negligent railroad operation.

For the first time in the United States a high official of a railroad corporation is on trial for homicide in connection with a railroad wreck. On February 15 last the Brewster electric express was wrecked at Woodlawn and 23 persons were killed and 67 injured.

The case will be bitterly contested by the railroad company, which has a small army of attorneys defending Smith. A conviction in this instance would mean the letting down of the bars to similar prosecutions at every succeeding railroad horror. The railroad companies want none of that.

The penalty for manslaughter in the second degree is a fine of not less than $1,000 or 15 years imprisonment, or both.

It seems probable that the defense will be that, owing to his many and important duties, Smith was obliged to rely on subordinates and that he could not be held responsible for the details involved in the operation of every train.

Assistant District Attorney Smythe, in his opening speech to the jury, emphasized the claim that Smith had no duty more important than that of safe-guarding the running of passenger trains. He declared that this duty had been neglected in the important particular that a properly trained engineer had not been placed in charge of the train that went into the ditch.

The second witness in the case was S. A. Blackford, who had charge of the company's school for motor engineers. Smith's attorney asked where he gained the experience in electrical engineering necessary to qualify him for the job. His answer was that he had studied the subject at a correspondence school. The lawyer did not pursue that line of inquiry.

A small army of experts will testify.

"STATEHOOD FOR NEW MEXICO"

The Big Fleet Sails

The fleet starts today! You have read ever so much about it—how many ships, how many guns and officers and men, how many tons of coal, even how many pounds of sugar and flour and salt. You have known for months when they would start, and where from, how they would go, where they would stop, what they would be doing when they stopped, how they would maneuver and drill; you know what a splendid force of men they carry, from fine old "Fighting" Bob Evans down, the flower of the American navy; you know that when they finally steam into Magdalena bay these 16 snow-white battleships will be joined by three more, besides eight armored cruisers, nine protected cruisers, a gunboat and a torpedo flotilla, making the greatest squadron and the greatest sea voyage the whole world ever knew.

You knew all that, yet it is only today that it thrills you, because you realize that this is the day when it is beginning to happen! It doesn't make any difference whether you are a belligerent at heart or a "sleeper" in peace, whether you think we have wasted money on battleships or that we should have twice as many, at the very thought of that glistening white armada, ready for peace, ready for war, you can't help holding your head a little higher and knowing that a light has flashed into your eyes.

There has been a thundering of big guns in Hampton Roads today. Suppose you had been there? There is the president's boat steaming along and suddenly you see a cloud of white smoke, and the first great gun speaks, and a band strikes up "The Star Spangled Banner." And then there's another gun and another and another, and the next white monster begins to roar and her band begins to play, and you feel as if you were getting kind of drunk with the exhilaration of the thing. Your breath comes a little quicker—it can't help it. And then the third ship begins roaring and thundering, and more bands start playing across the water, somewhere, and the smell of the powder floats over to you, and you clench your hands—you don't know exactly why, except that you do, and you begin to shake your head from side to side in quick, nervous little jerks, and you want to join in with the bands somehow or other; and then there are still more guns and still more bands, and all of a sudden you become aware that everybody is yelling and cheering, and that you are yelling and cheering too, and trying to make more noise than everybody else, and then you stop and catch your breath for a minute and you say: "By Jimmy, but that's a-r-r-r-r-r!"

Well, it is great. After it's all over, you may wonder whether you weren't just a little too emotional, but you weren't. It was your patriotism, the thing down underneath that has made the country what it is, and the thing, because you have it and because all real Americans have it, that makes us know that the old flag is flying for good and all.

We don't want the big ships to fight. We don't want any one of them to fire a hostile gun. But it is magnificent to look at them in our mind's eye and think what they could do if they had to. We are all for the fleet today.

A representative of the Department of Labor has been making inquiries in England in regard to labor conditions. It will interest you to know some of the facts he will report. He will tell the department that the average wage for the unskilled male laborer in England is 35 per week, and for the unskilled woman laborer $2.50. He will report that women and girls earn $1.50 a week making hosiery at 13 cents for every 1150 nails. He will say that although a machine has been invented which will card hooks and eyes, Birmingham finds it cheaper to employ human hands, whose possessors link 384 hooks with 284 eyes and stitch these on a card, for all of which they are paid 2 cents. He will tell of industries at which women work from 3 a. m. until 11 and 12 o'clock at night. The best thing he will mention will be a proposed bill of Sir Charles Dilke's, which provides that any trade union may ask the appointment of a wages board in its district, and that such a labor board will have the power of determining the minimum rate of wages. The worst thing he will say (if he says the same to the department as he recently said in London) will be that there are places in America where the sweatshop conditions are worse than they are in England. But one thing he can not say—that there are sweatshops of any character in New Mexico and yet we are not civilized enough to be admitted to statehood.

It will no doubt interest a lot of men who consider themselves gentlemen to hear the sermon by Rev. Fletcher Cook of the Episcopal church, in which he says he will tell what a gentleman really is.

The schooner Thomas W. Lawson was lost at sea. The Hon. T. W. ought to issue another pamphlet telling the president how to prevent such catastrophes and permanently fix the blame on the "system."

The postmaster general says any responsible person may get the mail addressed to Santa Claus by calling at the general delivery. As yet there has been no rush for honor.

W. J. Bryan has wrinkles of care on his otherwise placid countenance. No wonder—just think what it means trying to be the Great Commoner all the time and still not lose caste.

They are having quite a time wrestling with the presidential possibility problem since Roosevelt quit the game and it looks as though Taft would not get home any too soon.

Sixty bandits tried to hold up a Russian train Saturday and were driven off by the passengers and trainmen. It's enough to make Jesse James turn over in his grave.

The Albuquerque postoffice doesn't receive many letters addressed to Santa Claus—which goes to show that the Albuquerque child is somewhat precocious.

The Denver young man who mailed bombs to rich men ought to be given transportation to Russia, where he will no doubt be more appreciated.

LOOKING FOR A GOOD TIME?

There are about as many conceptions as to what constitutes a "good time" as there are individuals, but there is one place in New Mexico, not very far from Albuquerque, where 99 out of every 100 people find what they are looking for. That place is the Valley Ranch, at Pecos, New Mexico.

Fresh country produce in abundance, horses to ride or drive, dogs, guns, traps, tackle, all at your disposal. The finest hunting and fishing in the territory. You can live in a house, a cabin or a tent, and come and go as you please.

You'll find plenty of company there, agreeable and refined, if you are sociably inclined, a favorite resort for ladies. Conditions ideal for recuperating, reading, hunting or loafing.

YOU CAN'T SPEND MORE THAN NINE DOLLARS A WEEK ANY WAY YOU FIX IT.

Inquire at The Citizen Office for further particulars, or address The Valley Ranch.

No other food deteriorates so rapidly as the Oyster. Its habitat is the ocean. It requires coolness and absolute freedom from exposure to the air in order to retain its delicate flavor and its wholesomeness. SEALSHIP OYSTERS are brought direct to us from the choicest beds of America. They are shucked into porcelain cases, sealed and packed in ice, which never comes in contact with the oysters. The use of the Sealship carrier is the secret of their superiority.

Curious Ones Saw No Fight.

Those curious ones who found excuse to be at the White House at the hour appointed for the regular cabinet meeting today saw the secretary of the treasury enter the cabinet room in his usual calm and unruffled way. If anybody thought the relations between President Roosevelt and Secretary Cortelyou were such that they could not meet face to face at the president's council table, or that Mr. Cortelyou would be afraid to mingle with his cabinet associates, he found himself greatly mistaken.

Not for an instant has Mr. Cortelyou indicated that he put any faith in the reports that Mr. Roosevelt was angry at him. There is not the slightest evidence that Mr. Roosevelt has said one unkind word about Mr. Cortelyou. On the contrary, those who have talked with the president, on intimate terms, describe him as having been remarkably reserved and to have avoided making any statements which might be regarded as a criticism of the man who has held three cabinet offices under the Roosevelt administration.

Friends of Mr. Cortelyou are predicting that it will not be very long before Mr. Cortelyou's position in the presidential contest is made absolutely clear. What he will do or say or whether he will do or say anything they do not know, for Mr. Cortelyou is keeping his own counsel, and shows no disposition to discuss the details of the complex political conditions which have been injected into Republican national politics.

There is every reason to believe, in spite of the utterances of partisans of Taft, some of whom are in very close touch with the White House, that Secretary Cortelyou has been using the president's name to help Mr. Cortelyou's own candidacy, that the president has been fully aware, all along, of what was being done by politicians who are accounted as Cortelyou men, and that he showed no sign of disapproval.

Mr. Cortelyou's friends say that he is conscious of having done nothing that could be construed in any way even remotely, as disloyal to President Roosevelt, and they are inclined to be angry over the stories that are being put out for the purpose of injuring Mr. Cortelyou.

CUT-OFF TRAIN WILL CARRY A "JIM CROW" CAR

Eastern Will Be a Part of the Rio Grande Division—
Mail Service.

Arrangements for the inauguration next Wednesday of train service between this city and Roswell over the Eastern Railway of New Mexico are about completed. The train crews will be selected by Superintendent F. L. Myers, of the Rio Grande division, and will be under his supervision. The train service will be under the direction of J. V. Key, superintendent of construction for the Santa Fe, on the new road.

Mr. Key was in the city yesterday, and left last night to make the final trip over the road before the opening. The first train will encounter many difficulties. The coal of the engines will have to be done by hand, no coal chutes having been constructed as yet. The agents all along the line have had more or less experience but their duties will be raw for them for a while. There is no telegraph service on the new road as yet. The dispatch of trains will be conducted by telephone for the present. Telegraph service will be established before the first of the year.

The first train in all probability will carry two coaches and a Pullman sleeper, a mail car and a baggage car. It is more than likely that mail service will go on with the initial train. Postoffice agents have been over the road and the matter is now before the department at Washington. This will insure better schedules for the service.

But the oddest feature of the new train will be its "Jim Crow" car, required by the state laws of New Mexico. It will be the first car of the kind ever to run in New Mexico.

AMERICAN LUMBER CO.
CLOSES FOR REPAIRS

The American Lumber company tomorrow will begin the usual mid-winter task of overhauling and repairing all the machinery in its large plant. For this purpose the plant will shut down until the first of the year.

The company's force in the woods, however, will be working steadily and the long trains of saw logs will continue to arrive daily. The logs will be stacked conveniently for on the first of the year the company will begin for business again with a full force, employing more men than at present.

In speaking of the company's plans for the coming year, an official of the company said:

"Business prospects, so far as we are concerned are very bright and there is a large volume of business in sight for the year 1908. The fact that we shut down the plant for a few days does not by any means indicate a suspension of operations. Every winter it has been customary to close down for a week or so to overhaul and repair machinery. Now, voice, etc. That is all we are doing now and we will open up with a full force after the holidays."

United States Marshal C. M. Foraker received a telegram today from Robert Grimmer, deputy U. S. marshal at Carson City, Nev., advising him of the arrest at Lovelock, Nev., of Ed Kelley, who is wanted in New Mexico for violation of the postal laws.

Kelley was indicted at the September term of court at Las Cruces. He was a gambler at Deming and is alleged to have used improper language in his correspondence through the mails with a young woman in the southern part of the territory. He will be brought here for trial.

LICENSE ORDINANCE ON TAPIS FOR THIS EVENING

Council Is Divided on Question—Saloons May Have to Pay $1,500.

The common council will probably decide definitely on the license, whether high or low, to be put on the saloons tonight when Alderman Harrison's ordinance increasing the tax from $200 to $1,500 a year will come up for its second reading and amendment.

Councilmen agree that the saloon license should be increased, but have been unable to come to an agreement on the amount.

Aldermen Harrison, Hayden and Stanley favor a high license and aligned against them for a reduction of the amount fixed by Harrison's ordinance are Aldermen Neustadt, Sherwood and Beaven. Mr. Beaven, however, says he may still be classified as a "doubtful" voter.

Mr. Leonard said not committed himself one way or another. Mayor Frank McKee, who is ill with the grip at his home, 809 West Tijeras avenue, says he will be unable to attend the meeting or the city council tonight, and Alderman Wilkerson, mayor pro tem, will preside.

It is understood the low license advocates will offer an amendment cutting Harrison's figures in half, making the annual tax $750. And then again the high license fighters are understood to be working on an amendment increasing Harrison's license to $2,000 a year or something of the sort.

The absence of Mayor McKee which will put Alderman Wilkerson in the chair, takes away one of the staunchest advocates of the high license. Wilkerson always favored it and was once boomed for mayor by the high license people of the city.

The spot light will be swung on Alderman Leonard, who has not committed himself, and who in all probability will decide whether the city is to have high or low saloon licenses, as the lines are very closely drawn on both sides.

Although considerable pressure has been brought to bear on the council for a high license ordinance certain saloon men have not been sitting passively all the time. The movement, it is being hard but quietly fought by the liquor interests. It is interesting to know that there are some saloon owners who favor the increased tax, as a matter of business.

The anti-high license and the high license forces are quietly waiting for what promises to be the big fight tonight, the last chance either may have to amend the ordinance to suit their desires as it will come up for passage on its next reading.

In the event of a high license victory tonight a hard fight will be made to defeat the ordinance when it comes up for passage later.

Alderman Leonard is probably the only man who knows whether the ordinance will pass its second reading tonight unamended or whether a compromise on the amount will be effected.

The council will be so busy debating on the high license question that it is probable City Engineer Gladding's report, recommending a $375,000 sewerage system for Albuquerque will not be acted upon.

CONDUCTOR MILLER FINED FOR ASSAULT

James Miller, a Santa Fe conductor, was arraigned before Justice McClellan this morning charged with assault and battery. He was arrested Wednesday on a warrant sworn out by Hal Springer.

After hearing the evidence Justice McClellan fined Miller $20 and costs. Miller and Springer met several days ago and passed some harsh words, the charges against Miller resulting.

The case is the outcome of family trouble that has existed between the two for some time.

TO STICK TO ALFALFA

It's The Crop That the Market
Demands That Pays
Best.

Prof. J. D. Tinsley, of the New Mexico Agriculture college, advised the ranchers of Bernalillo county at the meeting held in the court house Saturday, to continue raising alfalfa as long as they had a good market for it.

Some one asked Prof. Tinsley whether he would advise the ranchers to drop alfalfa and go to raising sugar beets. His answer was the most important feature of the meeting.

"Yes and no," said the professor. "But I would advise you to raise alfalfa as long as you have a good market for it. You can raise but two crops of beets on one piece of land. After the second year there must be a rotation of crops to put the land back in condition to raise more beets."

"Alfalfa or peas are put in after the second year beets have been raised, on the ground and are plowed under to enrich the soil and restore the nitrogen."

According to Prof. Tinsley there is no bad alkali in this county. It is all white alkali and comparatively harmless.

"I have held eight meetings for the farmers this year," said Prof. Tinsley in an interview before the gathering Saturday, "and I have found the farmers all deeply interested in the subjects which came up for discussion. The question box was used freely."

"Last year I held meetings in twelve out of the twenty-five counties in the territory. The legislature has made no appropriation for this work and my expenses are paid out of the Agriculture college fund."

"But my work in the last two years I believe, will be the best argument I can take to the territorial legislature for a fund to be appropriated to continue the work among the farmers."

ALBUQUERQUE KIDS ARE TOO WISE

Old Letter. Ruse Don't Go With Them—No Messages to Santa Claus.

"The correspondence with Santa Claus this year has been very light, and all we have not received a half dozen letters. We sincerely hope it will continue so, for at the best it is nothing but a nuisance," said Postmaster Hopkins this morning.

Postmaster General Myers at Washington has issued an order to postmasters to let people of their cities know through the newspapers that mail addressed to Santa Claus will be delivered to any responsible persons who will undertake to act as Santa Claus agents, while heretofore the department has refused requests for the delivery of such letters to philanthropic societies and others. Notwithstanding the usual large number of letters received by the average postmaster addressed to Santa Claus, what Postmaster Hopkins says tends to prove that the youngsters of Albuquerque and vicinity refuse to make their requests to Santa in that manner. The average child has great faith in the postmaster and Uncle Sam's mails, but evidently Albuquerque's youngsters have their doubts or have found some better method of communication.

OKLAHOMA IS CONSOLIDATION AFTER HER OWN OF MINING PROPERTIES

New Legislation Has Missouri Gulf Development Company
Spirit—Has to be Shown. Increases Its Holdings to Sixty Claims.

Guthrie, Okla., Dec. 16.—Declaring that if the United States, by refusing to remove restrictions on Indian lands, deprives the state of Oklahoma of taxes which such lands would return, United States Senator Robert L. Owen, in an address before the Oklahoma state senate maintained the state would have the right to present to congress a schedule of such taxes and demand that the government reimburse the state, and he promised personally to see to it that under such conditions the government must and will foot the bill.

In his address, Senator Owen outlined the bill, which he has prepared and asked the interior department to approve, removing land restrictions. With that department's approval, he expects to have the bill through both houses within sixty days. Admitting that there are aged and incompetent Indians, he asserted that the state rather than the nation, has a more legal and moral right to care for them, but in case the state should exempt Indian homesteads from taxation he believes that in lieu of such taxes the state should take over the numerous Indian school buildings in what was formerly Indian Territory. He does not approve of the suggestion made by Gov. Johnson of the Chickasaw nation that all property of the Chickasaw be exempt from taxation and that in lieu thereof the state take over the 2,000,000 acres of surplus land within that nation.

Features of Owen's Bill.
Senator Owen declared that the McCumber amendment under the federal constitution is invalid, and he expects to prove it in the courts. In the bill which he has drawn Senator Owen would remove land restrictions excepting on an eighty-acre homestead for each Indian. The surplus lands of all quarter and great blood Indians may be sold subject to the regulations and approval of the secretary of the interior; and provision is made to sell homesteads under the same safeguards and purchase others instead, and to sell the homesteads of aged and decrepit persons. Parents may represent their children in relation to nonalienable lands without bond and make leases subject to the agent's approval; a quick delivery of patents is provided; no will of a fullblood Indian is valid that disinherits parent, wife or husband; all town lots within Indian Territory are to be sold to the highest bidder and immediately.

Senator Owen believes the interior department will approve this bill. He paid a high tribute to Secretary Garfield as an official desirous of doing justice in Indian matters. He declared that ultimately he intends to have all land restrictions removed, and whatever course the state may take in dealing with the Indian, the custom followed heretofore by the government in making of the Indian a pensioner will not be adopted.

Supports Guaranty Deposit Bill.
He will recommend in each Oklahoma county, where Indians reside, that they be permitted to elect a curator, who shall be an assistant probate judge, to pass upon all Indian land matters, thus removing the objections of the interior department to white probate judges passing on Indian affairs.

Mr. Owen congratulated the legislature upon the Roddie banking bill, creating the guaranty deposit system and said he hopes to see the comptroller of the currency to approve the passage of a similar bill by congress. If his approval is not forthcoming, Speaker Owen threatened that the national banking system in Oklahoma would be put out of business by the Roddie bill, which would result in all becoming state banks. The legislature expects to adopt the Roddie bill this week.

Senator Thomas P. Gore also addressed the senate, but in a humorous vein, stating, however, that the secretary of the navy had assured him and Senator Owen that the next battleship shall be christened the Oklahoma.

What is by long odds one of the biggest mining deals that has been undertaken in the Burro mountain mining district is now being consummated, so it is understood, whereby the Copper Gulf Development Company will increase their holdings from eighteen claims to over sixty claims and will acquire an average of approximately 1,000 in the very heart of the rich porphyry copper belt of the Burro mountain district, says the Silver City Enterprise. Officials of the company are reticent about giving out any information with regard to the reported deal, but it is learned from an outside source that such a deal is in process of consummation and will be begun at once within a few days. The properties included in the deal are twenty-eight claims of the Alessandro Copper company, called the Gettysburg group, seventeen claims in the Bentley group and six claims in the Leopold-Tyrone Copper company group. All the properties lie in a group and with the eighteen claims of the present Copper Gulf holdings will form nearly 1,000 acres in the copper-porphyry belt of the district. To the north lie the princely mining estates of the Chemung Copper company, to the west the enormously rich deposits of the Burro Mountain Copper Mining company and to the south the valuable group of claims owned by the Comanche Mining and Smelting company. The Copper Gulf group is literally bounded by the mining estates of the four companies mentioned above and with the exception of a few isolated claims takes in all the remaining ground in the center of the porphyry mineral bearing district.

Contemplate Extensive Development.
It is understood that as soon as the deal is completed extensive development work will be begun at once by the Copper Gulf company. Machinery will be installed for going down to a great depth as it is there that recent development work by the Chemung has demonstrated the great bodies of low grade sulphide ore. It is understood that the company has upwards of $275,000 in the treasury to develop the property and that it will be done thoroughly, no one doubts who knows the directorate of the company which includes such men as H. B. Hoveland, and Hovel Smith, prominent in the Globe and Globe fields. E. A. Wayne, the present superintendent of the company, will have charge of the future work which has already been mapped out. Mr. Wayne was superintendent of the Globe Consolidated Mining company at Globe, Ariz., previous to coming here and is a mining engineer of prominence and ability. Under his direction one hundred thousand tons of ore have been blocked out on the 200 foot level of the Virginia mine which is one of the original eighteen claims the Copper Gulf started in with. This ore is a sulphide averaging from two to four per cent copper and the indications are that the body of which it is a part is one of immense size and tonnage.

Very Promising Property.
Mining men who are acquainted with the character of the country which the Copper Gulf is acquiring have no hesitancy in stating that it is very promising ground with all surface and geological conditions favorable to the uncovering of immense bodies of low grade sulphides. The development work done by the Chemung and other companies operating in this mineral bearing district has demonstrated to a reasonable degree, that in all this ground there is a barren zone varying in depth from 100 to 200 feet, according to local conditions, which must be penetrated before the ore bearing zone is encountered. This barren zone extends from water level and is caused by the leaching out of the copper values which sink through the porous porphyry soil sometimes to a depth of 200 feet. This was demonstrated in the No. 2 shaft of the Chemung, where after passing through absolutely barren ground for something like 200 feet, they have encountered an immense body of sulphides at the 500 foot level.

the door the little fellow naturally tried to go along with her. He clung to her garments, cried, and fairly fought to not be left behind. With scarcely a trace of feeling the woman hastened out, leaving the broken hearted boy to be consoled by strangers.

"As we took the boy one of the visitors remarked: 'It seems pretty hard, but I suppose you get used to it, so it does not affect you as it does us.' The reply was: 'Perhaps, but something is making me old before my time. Judge if a succession of such scenes is not one cause.' And it is true. Flesh and blood can not endure the strain of this work without breaking. We 'get used to it'—as we get used to being saddened. The rescue of needy and endangered children is not a pleasant one or both parents, and the parents were very poor, or the child was with a widowed mother, we would try to figure out how that child could be kept with the mother, and if we could interest friends, or find employment, or if any gift of money which might be in our power would tide the parent over and help her to keep the child in mother's care and love, we would do it.

"The cases we find and the ones we are here to help are just those who are absolutely without a home, orphaned, deserted, illegitimate, or those who are in the care of reprobate parents, such we seek and do our best to rescue and we will go to any hardship to help them. 'It is not our hope or scheme to make a moderately good condition better for a child, but to help the plectic, but a hard, serious and responsible task, in which all participants are forced to run the entire scale of human experience from the highest treble of joy to the deepest bass of woe.

"A few weeks ago we were called to look after a little week-old baby girl in the northern part of the territory. We found that the mother, a pretty but dissolute woman, had absolutely determined to get rid of her baby by fair or foul means. The poor, helpless little thing was being starved and neglected that it might die. The doctor, who sent the notice of the helpless babe to the superintendent, said that he felt sure that the babe would be allowed to die unless it was removed. We had plenty of homes for that child.

"We have on hand now three little boys, one of whom is not strong, but would develop into a healthy child if he had a chance, viewed from every standpoint of religion, and humanly speaking, the grander Christian work could be performed by any one than to give home and love and care to this little boy. In the more populous states we have no trouble in placing even crippled children, but our constituency is not so large here and as yet we have no receiving home where a little sick, crippled or maimed child could be cared for until health of body and soul returns. We never take a child from a parent unless it is absolutely imperative for moral or religious reasons that the child be removed.

"Not long ago a gentleman stated that he was under the impression that we were engaged in a luxury of charity. He thought that we were looking up the cases of children who were perhaps moderately poor, or having but little chance and then we would remove them to some home of means, where they would be in high social strata he could not realize that there were cases of any very great or abject need for us to attend to.

"We hastened to assure the man that he had misunderstood our work; that the only luxury of charity about it was that we were able by our methods to do absolutely the best and finest thing for the absolute poorest and needy of all cases, that is a little child without a home and love.

"The fact is that if the superintendent found a child in the care of really destitute and homeless to a place of home and care. And we are doing it for New Mexico babies, who, until we began our work, were brought under no orderly or organized plan of help in this territory. Some of the cases found and helped by our work this past year were the most sorrowful and heart touching that the superintendent has ever known, though he has had to do with the rescue work of our great cities of Chicago and St. Louis, as a rescue worker.

"New Mexico is no more needy than any other state in the union, but we are determined that we are going to the best thing for our homeless and delinquent children. The board of managers are behind the superintendent in his work of trying to get the whole child question before the people and we hope to see the juvenile court system adopted for all our territorial towns and to this end we are now in consultation with some of the leading citizens and officials of this and other cities. It will surely be a part of our new state constitution, but the feasibility of putting into effect some modification of the juvenile system in this and other cities before we get started is being considered by the right men who have position and authority here and announcement of plans will be made soon.

"The Children's Home Society want the whole people to realize that this is their work. The board of management leads in the enterprise but cannot do the work without the cooperation of everyone interested in these paramount; it is a work for the philanthropist and the statesman, and is always considered a work for the churches who are ever to be found behind all good works."

ESTER TO E

Last week Was a Busy
One For the University--
Will Debate.

This week closes the first semester of the University for the year 1907-08. Examinations will be held on Thursday and Friday.

Prof. Richards occupied the assembly on Monday morning. He spoke on the early history of New Mexico. Prof. Richards is thoroughly familiar with this subject, and has spent considerable time in visiting historic places in the territory. His talk was highly interesting.

Friday night at the Casino the girls' basketball team met defeat for the second time at the hands of the girls from the Las Vegas Normal. The Varsity team was considerably handicapped by the inability of Bill Franklin to play. The score was 22 to 10 in favor of the visiting team. The girls will go to Gallup next Friday and play the High school team of that place. On the 27th they will play the team from the Indian school at the Casino. The boys have begun practicing and they will probably play their first game on January 19th.

All arrangements for the intercollegiate debate between the Varsity and the Agricultural college have been completed. The debate will be held here in the month of February. The University has submitted the following question: Resolved: that the United States should subsidize its merchant marine. The college is to choose sides on this question.

On Friday evening in the Presbyterian church a try-out debate will be held to select a team to represent the Varsity. The two teams contesting will be composed of the following students: John A. Wagner, Clarence E. Heald and Roy O. Baldwin and Grover C. Emmons, J. Ralph Tauscher and Kirk Bryan. The subject for the debate, the judges, etc., will be announced later. The program will include some old musical numbers. There will be no admission charged and the public is invited to be present.

THE THEATRE

"Red Feather" January 1.

With a story that is as real and joyous as youth, music that is bright and tuneful, costumes that are pretty and picturesque and scenery that is striking and new and a company of singers and comedians that pleased the New York audience only a few short weeks ago, it is small wonder that Cheriad Simpson in De Koven, Klein and Cook's charming comic opera, "Red Feather," is meeting with unqualified success everywhere.

"Red Feather" has its own orchestra which is under the able direction of Prof. De Witt Coolman, the well known director, which in itself assures a splendid musical production. At the Elks' opera house New Year's day.

Buster Brown Jan. 30.

When Buster Brown was first presented its producers were told by many wise-acres that its life would be short. That those responsible for it proved their keen appreciation of what the theatre wanted is best attested to by the substantial success that has attended this musical comedy since its initial presentation. In the memory of one of the oldest writers on theatrical affairs there has not been in years a musical comedy that has equalled the success of Buster Brown. At the Elks' opera house December 30.

The Royal Slave Jan. 4.

Novelists are just beginning to awaken to the possibilities in the last days of monarchial Mexico, before Emperor Maximilian was overthrown. France and left to die, the story is taken out and shot, giving it a hero. Lew Wallace wrote much of the romance of the time into "The Fair God." Clarence Bennett founded his play, "A Royal Slave," which will be seen at the Elks' opera house Jan. 4 upon General Wallace's famous novel, but was not content to let matters stop there. He has not attempted to paint the life, but he has made romance more romantic. His play fairly tingles with exciting heart interest.

A Reliable Remedy for Croup.

With the dry, cold weather of the early winter months, parents of croupy children should be on the alert for ominous symptoms. There is no cause for anxiety, however, when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is kept in the home. If this medicine is given as soon as the croupy child becomes hoarse or even after the croupy cough has appeared, the attack may be ward off. Mrs. S. Rosenthal, of Turner, Michigan, says: "We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for ourselves and children for several years and like it very much. I think it is the only remedy for croup and can highly recommend it." For sale by all druggists.

RATON WANTS A NEW CITY JAIL

Gate City Ice Company Orders $30,000 Worth of Machinery.

Raton, N. M., Dec. 16.—The Raton Chrysalis Ice and Cold Storage company has given the contract for the machinery for its extensive plant. The cost of the machinery will approximate $30,000.

Mrs. C. N. Blackwell and sister, Mrs. Richardson, are spending two weeks in Las Vegas and other points on the Santa Fe railway south.

Arthur R. Dow arrived the latter part of last week, bringing with him his bride formerly Miss Emma Recke. The marriage occurred at Sedalia, Mo., Dec. 4th. Mr. Dow is a conductor on the Santa Fe railway.

Attorney C. J. Roberts, of the Raton-Eastern railway is absent in Indianapolis, Ind., where he is at the bedside of his mother who is not expected to live.

The Raton Fuel company is opening up a fine vein of coal a mile and a half northwest of the city. The mine will be called the Climax and the coal is of superior grade.

Harper Sprout is spending the winter in Old Mexico.

The city council is advertising for bids for a new city jail. The old building is not adequate and wholly unfit for use for some time. Efforts are being made to get permission to use the county jail until the new structure can be erected.

Hiram H. Wrigglesworth is spending a month's vacation visiting in Denver and Pueblo, Colo.

WILL REMAIN TILL BIG DAM IS BUILT

Uncle Sam's Locating Engineer Has Resolved to Wait Until the Big Dam is Completed.

J. A. French, locating engineer for the United States reclamation service, has arrived here with his family and declares that he expects to stay until the big dam is built, says the Rio Grande Republican.

Mr. French made the first examination of the Rio Grande project for the reclamation service in March, 1903. A party under him made the initial surveys of the dam site and the arroyo above, and it was his first report that first emphasized the practicability of building a high dam to impound the flood waters. In recent years he has been engaged in the north on reclamation work in Dakota, Montana and Idaho.

Mr. French is regarded as one of the strongest men in the service, and his coming at this time is held to be an indication that the work on the big project is to be pushed.

AS WE GROW OLD

The Kidneys Need Constant Help—Albuquerque People Depend on Doan's Kidney Pills.

The constant strain of busy life wears out the kidneys, and in later years the kidneys cry for help. Old backs will ache, day in, day out; urinary ills will add their weight of woe. Until the kidneys have the help they need.

Aid the kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills. Restore a perfect filtering of the blood. Cure the sick kidneys when they're sick.

Albuquerque people endorse this great remedy.

T. A. Barnett, retired, living at 914 South Broadway, Albuquerque, N. M., says: "For years I have been more or less troubled with kidney complaint, the ailment becoming more pronounced than ever about two years ago. Besides having pains in my back and a general weakness extending from my hips down, my condition was so that any little exertion would tire me so that I would have to sit down and rest. There was also a too frequent action of the kidneys, disturbing my rest as often as ten times a night. At times I had no control at all over the secretions, this being so during the day as well as at night. About a year ago I had the good fortune to learn of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured them at the drug store. I can say that no medicine ever afforded me the benefit derived from them. They have spared me a great deal of annoyance and inconvenience and they not only give strength and tone to the kidneys, but invigorate me generally. For sale by all druggists. Price 40 cents.
