IS CAUGHT WITH THE GOODS ON HER

A Well Dressed Woman Was Carrying Cigars in Her Clothes.

EL PASO, TEX., Dec. 23.—A well dressed lady returning from Juarez on a street car yesterday afternoon was taken from the car and subjected to a searching process in the customs office. The lady attendant found that she had a quantity of cigars concealed about her clothes. They were confiscated and the woman was allowed to go on her way, saying that it was her first offense.

Before she was searched the lady was highly indignant that the officers should insist on examining her when her word was given on her honor that she was not a smuggler.

"This is the first time that a woman has been caught smuggling cigars for a long time," said Special Inspector Ayers this morning. It reminds me of a case that came up a year or so ago, when a man was caught trying to smuggle cigars.

"He was an elderly man and looked like a minister. He had on a high silk hat. When he was asked if he had purchased or acquired anything in Mexico he answered in the negative, but there was that something about his manner that leads to suspicion. We asked him to get off and wait for the next car."

"He arose from his seat and started toward the back door. The eyes of everybody in the car were upon him. Just as he got to the door and was about to step down onto the platform his hat struck the side of the car door. From both sides of the high silk hat a stream of fine Mexican cigars of the choicest brand poured onto the car platform.

"Everybody laughed but the old gentleman. He took the matter graciously, however, and admitted that he was caught in the game. His hat must have had fully a box of cigars tucked into it, all resting snugly upon the top of his head. We took the cigars and allowed him to proceed to Nova Scotia, where he belonged."

"RAFFLES," A THIEF WITH A CHARACTER

No crooks from the worlds of reality or romance ever came with stronger letters of recommendation than does the gentle Raffles through the medium of the dramatic sensation of two seasons and the personality of dashing and handsome S. Miller Kent, who will be seen at the Elks' opera house Christmas afternoon and evening.

Here is a crook with a character. He is warranted to wear for three hours an evening and give complete satisfaction. It is not often that a burglar is welcomed to town, but Raffles has been met at the depot of nearly every city he has visited not by a deputation from the detective bureau, but by a brass band. Raffles really is the suave, most debonaire and irresistible, yet warmest hearted and most lovable villain that ever cracked a safe, or went through the strong box of a belated earl. He does not make crime attractive (no one would ever be inclined toward wrong-doing from seeing the Horning-Presbury drama), but he wins the hearts of his audiences and they wonder why so fine a fellow ever came to deviate from the straight and narrow path. Raffles' splendid references come from New York and a dozen other cities, in fact, wherever he had been seen. When first produced in New York, it made the record run of the year—one of 200 nights. No play has been more talked of in a decade. So great was the impression it made in New York that the question it suggests, is crime a disease? was discussed for weeks in the medical journals and the daily press by celebrated alienists, Max Nordau even entering the debate.

Mr. Kent has not visited this section in some time and he will be warmly received. He is undoubtedly one of the leading young romantic actors of the day and in Raffles has a part for which he is physically as well as temperamentally fitted.

NEW RULING ON THE POSTAL CARD

Postoffice People Are Holding Up Thousands for Lack of Postage.

Hundreds of post and postal cards with gladsome Christmas greetings are already being held up at the Albuquerque postoffice because of the ignorance of the postal laws on the part of the sender.

For the benefit of thousands who send these messages of love and good will the postal authorities have caused the regulations regarding their transmission through the mails printed. The latest ruling on this subject is: "Post cards and postal cards mailed under cover of sealed envelopes (transparent or otherwise) are chargeable with postage at the first class rate—two cents an ounce or fraction thereof. If enclosed in an unsealed envelope, they are subject to postage according to the character of the message—at the first class rate, if wholly or partly in writing, or the third class rate (one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof) if entirely in print, and the postage should be affixed to the envelopes covering the same."

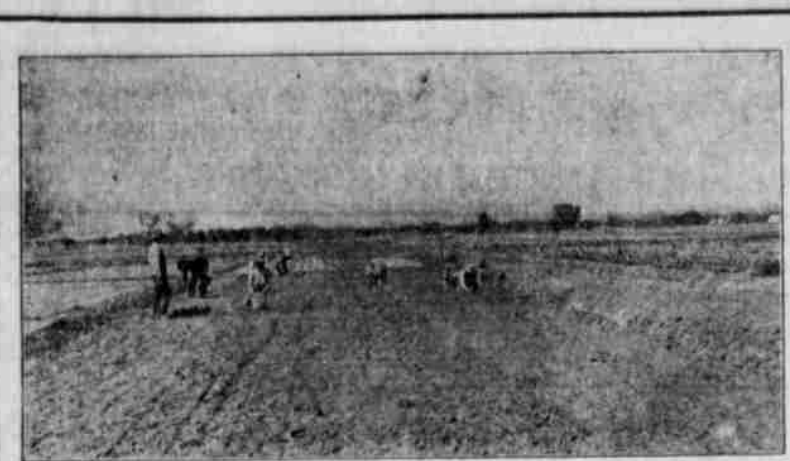

"Postage stamps affixed to such cards enclosed in envelopes having an opening exposing the stamps can not be recognized in payment of postage."

The postoffice this year is handling most of the Christmas presents under four pounds weight, the service being more satisfactory than expressed.

Meeting to be Held in Albuquerque December 31st May Settle Question.

Rev. John Meeker will attend a meeting at Albuquerque on December 31, of a committee which will Meeker and will be favorably considered by the committee. The large Presbyterian churches of the east are now engaged in collecting a fund of $1,000,000 for the erection and maintenance of a sanatorium, which will be located in New Mexico.

NEW LAND LAWS TAKE EFFECT MARCH 1

The following is a circular issued from the general land office at Washington with reference to the new land rules, which will take effect on March 1.

"New forms of applications for homestead entry, soldiers' additional homestead entry, desert land entry and for timber or stone sworn statements, timber or stone final proofs, and yearly proof in desert land cases, have been adopted, and on and after March 1, 1908, no entries will be allowed in the class of cases above mentioned unless executed upon the new official forms, or upon forms which are exact duplicates thereof, both as to wording, arrangement and size. Each of said forms is a combination of the several forms and affidavits formerly required to be filed in such cases, and the use thereof will result in a saving of time, labor and expense to the local land officers, proof-taking officers and claimants."

"R. A. BALLINGER, Commissioner."

RAILROAD DEPARTMENT

EMPLOYEES ARE TO BE SHARE HOLDERS

Novel Idea of Railroad Company to Court Friendship and Protection.

As the most effective step of breaking down popular prejudice against its methods of operation and of railroad management generally the Great Northern road has set out to make the residents in the territory tributary to its lines stockholders in the company.

A circular has been issued by Louis Hill, president of the company outlining a plan by which this is to be done, one feature of which is that it will not be necessary for the intending purchaser to pay any brokerer's commission for the purchase of any shares in which he may desire to invest.

This plan has been adopted. President Hill declares, because since the money stringency set in many employees and residents in the road's territory have written for information as to how small investments may be made in the company's stock. These inquiries come from people who have had no experience with Wall Street methods, and who do not desire apparently to cultivate an acquaintance with that channel of doing business.

In his circular Mr. Hill outlines the conditions and methods attaching to the purchase of stock. Buyers are to be limited to 100 shares, but should they desire more a company to be organized, and to be known as the Great Northern Employees' Investment company, will endeavor to buy the securities in New York at such price as the subscribers may name. All subscriptions for fewer than 100 shares will be filed at the current market price of the stock at the time they are received. A remittance of the approximate price of the shares to be bought is to accompany the subscription, and should be slightly more than the probable cost, in order to allow for fluctuations in the market price.

Employees now holding investment certificates issued by the Great Northern Employees' investment company may surrender all or part of their certificates and purchase Great Northern stock with the proceeds.
Contrary to the custom, such employees will be permitted to take out other investment certificates from time to time, as they may desire, up to the amount of the certificates surrendered for the purchase of stock.

GALLUP RAILROAD MAN KILLED THURSDAY

The circumstances under which William Roy lost his life at Gallup Thursday night are as much of a mystery now as they were the night his associates discovered his overturning with the head mashed lying beside the track in the Gallup yards.
The most probable theory is that Roy was riding on the end of a car,
when a sudden jolting of the train sent him to the tracks below and to his death. The head was mashed in such a way as to leave the belief that the man fell outside the track with the head extending just over the rail enough to miss the flange of the wheels but not out enough to be pushed away by the flat side of the wheels.

The fact that Roy was unexperienced at railroad work is support for this theory. He was a law school graduate and but recently went to work on the railroad as a matter of immediate necessity. He was married. Roy was compelled to come to the southwest for his health.

PUSHING WORK AT SAN BERNARDINO

San Bernardino, Cal., Dec. 21.— Five cars of structural steel for the big Santa Fe machine shops are being unloaded in readiness for erection as soon as the foundations for the immense structure are all in.
This is the first shipment of steel
for the machine shop yet received,
but the balance of the material is expected to follow rapidly as practically all has been sent out from the steel mills.

The work of putting in the foundation for the machine shop goes steadily ahead and the north half will soon be complete, ready for the erection of the superstructure.
The concrete gang is also rushing work on the walls for the big oil cellar under the storehouse platform, a couple of days more finishing that part of the work.

The concrete water reservoir, which the movers have had on the rollers for the past two weeks, has been landed in its new location, west of Mt. Varon avenue, and is being lowered to the ground.

TICKET AGENT FALLS HEIR TO $7,000,000

McAllister, Okla., Dec. 23.—W. F.
Rack, ticket agent at the union depot here, was advised today that by a decision of the federal supreme court he will receive a portion of the estate left by Solomon P. Sublette, valued at $7,000,000, and including property south of Forest park in St. Louis. Mr. Rack says he inherits one-eighth and one-fourth of another eighth of the entire estate.

According to the late invoice of the motive power, made in the Santa Fe Employees' magazine, the Santa Fe has approximately 1,850 locomotives in service; 1,150 of these have been built by the Baldwin Locomotive works at a cost of nearly $23,000,000. About four hundred were built by the American Locomotive company, and the remainder by other small companies, with a few built in the Santa Fe shops.
The entire motive power is valued at about $31,540,000.

The Santa Fe Railway company is installing an electric device on their turn table at the round house in Raton. By this means their heav-est engines are turned with rapidity and ease. There are but two others in use on this system; one at Dodge City, Kansas, and one at Pueblo.
The machinery is being put in by Westinghouse company, and is being superintended by N. Fries of Chicago.

Engineer Rohe of the second district of the Winslow division has been temporarily assigned to switch engine service at Ash Fork, the work at present is very heavy owing to the accumulating of westbound traffic. For the same reason, Engineer J. C. Richardson is handling the second switch engine during the day time in the Winslow yard.

Passenger train No. 12 from Roswell over the Belen cut-off, due here at 10:45 p. m., did not arrive until 4:45 o'clock yesterday evening, having been delayed by the derailing of a freight engine two miles west of Texico and a snow drift three miles east of Vaughn. Snow fourteen inches deep covers the ground near Vaughn.

Engineer A. H. Lingo, who was injured by the derailment of some cars at Holmes side about two weeks ago, is back in Winslow from the hospital in Los Angeles. Mr.
Lingo is not yet able to resume work, but is getting along much better than was at first expected.

Charges Against Curry

The Citizen office has a Santa Fe dispatch which says that charges have been filed against George Curry, governor of New Mexico, and that congress—that is, a senate committee, has deferred action on the governor's appointment.

It is understood that the charges against the governor have been made by New Mexicans—a few so-called republicans and a few democrats. The Citizen is not in full possession of the charges made but understands that they are based upon the governor's career when he was a hunter of outlaws and a rough and ready citizen of New Mexico in the days when New Mexico was a rough and ready country.

Such charges are not only silly—they are positively foolish. Governor Curry to date has made the best governor New Mexico has ever had. He has conducted a clean, straightforward administration and has done all that he could do to give the people what they wanted.

If there are any charges against his administration, they are false or without grounds. Charges that date back farther than his administration are not worthy of consideration. George Curry has never concealed the fact that he lived the life of the frontier while on the frontier and that he lived it in a manly fashion after the style of the west in those days.

It is with regret that The Citizen hears a report that charges of such a nature have been made. It is an outrage. Are the republican papers of New Mexico again to be forced to take up a fight for the republican administration and the republican organization?

Is the governor to be placed in a fighting position by a few ill-minded tale mongers in this territory?

If charges have been brought, the governor may count upon the papers of New Mexico and The Citizen in particular to stand with him.

It is hoped that if any attempt has been made to disparage the character or standing of the governor, in the days when New Mexico was not what she now is, that congress will have the good sense to uphold the governor and that a good administration of public affairs may be continued under the Curry regime.

But The Citizen will still continue to hope that the report of charges is exaggerated and that the fair name of this territory will not suffer at the hands of a few irresponsible men.

Around the World

Chicago and New York are trying for the commuter's record. Chicago pointed with pride to John B. McNeil, a wholesale grocer. For 25 years he has been traveling between Chicago and Elgin, covering a total distance of 755,000 miles, spending 2625 entire days on the train, and paying out $4,200 in railroad fares.

But New York, after Chicago had put her best foot forward, brought out J. H. Pfeffer, who has been commuting between Manhattan and Green Farms, Conn., for 53 years, which, at the rate of 48 miles daily, gives him a record of 1,526,400 miles. He boasts of 2650 entire days spent on the train and a total ticket expenditure of $6519.

These two men spent enough money for car fare to build and own two comfortable homes.

Between them they spent as much time on the train as would be represented by the entire life of a boy of over 14 years old.

Together, they have traveled more than 2,282,000 miles, or more than 91 times around the world.

And what did they get for it? They lived in the country!

Was it worth it? We believe it was, no matter why these men did it. Scientists say that man is a gregarious creature, that he likes to be with other men. That has a good deal to do with the making of cities.

But the scientists also know that there are times when it is good for man to be alone, to be able to stretch his arms out wide, to get away from the crowd and the hurry and the paved streets and the brilliant lights and the sooty air and the quiver that wears out brains and hearts.

The city to make money in; the city for the cultivated enjoyments, perhaps; but it's the green fields and the running brooks that keep men's hearts young no matter how their knees feel.

Some people may think that these men wasted fourteen years of life and $10,000.

But we would rather think of them as two remarkable men who fought off the glamour of the city, and chose at any cost of time and money and trouble to lie down at night where they could be a little closer to nature and therefore a little closer to God.

LOOKING FOR A GOOD TIME?

There are about as many conceptions as to what constitutes a "good time" as there are individuals, but there is one place in New Mexico, not very far from Albuquerque, where 99 out of every 100 people find what they are looking for. That place is the Valley Ranch, at Pecos, New Mexico. Fresh country produce in abundance, horses to ride or drive, dogs, guns, traps, tackle, all at your disposal. The finest hunting and fishing in the territory. You can live in a house, a cabin or a tent, and come and go as you please.

You'll find plenty of company there, agreeable and refined, if you are sociably inclined, a favorite resort for ladies. Conditions ideal for recuperating, reading, hunting or loafing.

You CAN'T SPEND MORE THAN NINE DOLLARS A WEEK ANY WAY YOU FIX IT.

Inquire at The Citizen Office for further particulars, or address The Valley Ranch.

No other food deteriorates so rapidly as the Oyster. Its habitat is the ocean. It requires coolness and absolute freedom from exposure to the air in order to retain its delicate flavor and its wholesomeness. SEAL-SHIP OYSTERS are brought direct to us from the choicest beds of America. They are shucked into porcelain cases, sealed and packed in ice, which never comes in contact with the oysters. The use of the Seal Ship carrier is the secret of their superiority.

part of her obligation to pay indemnity for Boxer outrages is now in the hands of congress, the president having asked authority to make a settlement. It is not proposed to repay to China any money. In fact, even under the terms of settlement proposed by the President and contemplating a considerable remission of the payments to be made under the award, the Chinese government must still continue to make further payments for the next five or six years.

The total amount of the award to the United States was $20,000,000 with interest. Up to the last payment (in June) China had paid a little over $4,000,000. Now the president has caused to be made a more exact calculation of losses incurred by Americans and the military expenses connected with the Boxer uprising. According to this estimate $11,555,492.69 and interest at 4 per cent will cover all proper charges against China. The president proposed to remit the difference between that figure and the award of $20,000,000, but as indicated the effect of this remission will not be felt until China has paid in the $11,000,000.

ORDINANCE

Dealers Who Have County Licenses Say They Are Hard Hit.

City council at an adjourned session at 4 o'clock this afternoon may take further action in the high license matter as saloon keepers have complained bitterly to aldermen that the speedy passage and sudden enforcement on January 1 of the high license ordinance will be an injustice to dealers who have county licenses paid three months in advance and who cannot afford the new and expensive city license.

The dealers with their county licenses paid for in advance want either repatriation or an extension of time in which to comply with the ordinance. It is understood an amendment will be offered at the meeting of the city council tonight granting these dealers an extension of time and that an attempt will be made to pass it under suspension of rules.

Wholesale liquor dealers are also complaining of the stringent regulations of the new ordinance. They say they will have to take out a retail liquor license as the ordinance says anyone selling liquor in quantities less than a quart will be considered a retail liquor dealer.

Wholesale dealers say that all imported wines and liquors are now put up in "fifties" that is bottles containing less than a quart, five of which make a gallon, and that compliance with the new ordinance will mean expensive changes in the business.

The new ordinances will come before the aldermen tonight for their first reading. One is the new peace ordinance, which a decision by Judge Ira A. Abbott in the Bernalillo district court in a peace proceeding, made necessary, and the other is an ordinance providing for a commission of aldermen to pass on applicants for liquor licenses and with power to revoke licenses.

CITY DRINKING
FOUNTAIN

West Central Avenue Property Owners Would Furnish Lamp For It.

Central avenue and Broadway in all probability will be the site selected by the committee of aldermen for the city's new drinking fountain for horses and dogs, the gift of the National Humane Alliance of New York city, which for the last two weeks has remained in the Santa Fe freight depot, because the city had no place to put it.

Numerous sites were discussed by the committee of which Alderman Leonard is chairman and Beaven and Hayden members and it will have its report ready for the next regular meeting of the council. Fourth street and Gold avenue and First street and Central avenue were other sites talked of by the aldermen.

Dr. Walter G. Hope, of the Highlands, is leading the campaign for securing the location of the massive granite fountain at the intersection of Central avenue and Broadway. The residence of the Highlanders want the fountain and through Dr. Hope have offered to buy the large bronze lamp to be placed on top of the fountain.

The Retail Merchants' association object to the site on the west side of the Santa Fe tracks. The association wants a centrally located site in the business district of the city.
H. W. D. Bryan, president of the New Mexico Humane society, who secured the gift for the city from the National Humane Alliance, says he is out of the matter now and that it is up to the city council to comply with its agreement with the Alliance to secure a suitable site. "I have no objection to the Central avenue and Broadway site," said Mr. Bryan today. "And I do prefer it to any other site. The matter is in the hands of the council and I will abide by any action the council may take."

By placing the fountain at Broadway and Central avenue Highland residents and others favoring that site say it will be most convenient for mountain travelers who enter and leave the city by Central avenue.

MATINEE BALL ARE

Unique Affair Promises to Be Great Success—Surprises
Are In Store.

The preparations for the matinee dance Christmas day to be given by the Commercial club are about completed. The hours will be from 3 to 5:30 o'clock, during which time refreshments will be served by the club. The new Phillips orchestra will furnish the music. The hall will be prettily decorated with holly and it is thought that from forty to fifty couples will be present to enjoy the party which will be the first of its kind ever attempted by the Commercial club.

At a meeting of the committee on entertainment held at the club yesterday the committee carefully discussed all plans and completed every arrangement that will tend toward the enjoyment of their guests. The members of the committee are as follows: Leon Hertzog, chairman; Roy Stamm, William White, and Dr. Alger.

On New Year's eve the club will give another large party, the main feature of which remains a mystery and which is intended as a surprise for the guests. The ball will begin at 9 o'clock and it is anticipated that the largest crowd of the season will be present. The professors and teachers of the University and the delegates to the meeting of the Geological Society of America, who will be in the city at the time, will be among those present. Refreshments will be served and the old year ushered out with proper ceremony.

WHAT WEEK'S DIVIDENDS REFLECT

Situation Better Than 1893—
The Western Roads Are More Prosperous.

Practically all of the railway earnings published this week for the month of October showed increases in gross, but a falling off in net. For example, the eastern lines of the Pennsylvania reported a gain of $1,474,700 gross and a decrease of $420,400 net; the Illinois Central an increase of $532,107 gross and a decrease of $102,953 net. Last week the Atchafalaya showed a gain of $35,979 gross and a falling of $1,244,173 net. For some months it has been generally understood that the high cost of labor, fuel and material was cutting down net earnings, but so long as gross continued to increase no apprehension was felt. Railway officials freely admit now, however, that during the month of November gross earnings were affected by the panic. It will be some thirty days before the statements for that period are made public, and in the meantime investors are wondering what the figures will reveal.

Before taking up the question of the future, it might be well to examine the changes shown so far this year. The following table gives the total results as far as has been reported:

1907	Gross	Net
January	$10,170,323	$3,809,374
February	8,975,150	1,650,801
March	12,980,393	68,814
April	12,980,393	8,882,437
May	23,192,776	6,446,546
June	17,225,040	4,704,252
July	19,446,430	2,443,966
August	16,735,273	779,119
September	13,173,222	2,504,503

As a result of the congestion of freight then existing throughout the country a decrease of $800,874 in net was reported last January, the first that had appeared since February of 1904, when the decrease amounted to $3,545,907. From January to May of this year, a gradual improvement in both gross and net was reported; but from that time on through September the gains in gross, as well as net, grew smaller. It is likely that October will show the same tendency. But the real interest is not in the results of October; it centers in November or after the panic spread throughout the country.

While the present situation, as far as the railroads are concerned, does not duplicate 1893, the figures showing what happened during that trying period are of interest. It was in March of that year that gross earnings first began to fall off, but the panic did not occur until July 26. This is what happened to earnings, by months, during the last half of 1893.

	Gross	Net
December	$3,301,150	$3,245,269
November	$4,044,826	$1,899,527
October	$3,731,906	$31,313
September	$6,721,642	$2,064,323
August	$3,109,969	$1,104,027
July	$2,885,329	$1,290,436
June	$1,713,162	$1,035,910
May	$1,703,765	$2,580,143
April	$852,405	$48,281
March	$3,242,218	$19,378

A complete compilation of earnings of the railroads for 1893 shows a decrease of $16,520,098 gross, and $10,429,642 net. The next year, 1894, shows a falling off of $12,972,194 gross and $40,325,953 net. It was in January of 1895, exactly eighteen months after the panic, that the recovery started. By the end of 1895 the figures showed an increase of $61,740,638 gross, and $26,451,609 net. From that point the gains in both gross and net gradually piled up one year after another, until 1906 showed increases of no less than $20,019,143 and $72,904,983, respectively.

No one can safely predict exactly to what extent the gross earnings of the railroads will be affected by the falling off in business. Much, however, can be truthfully said. It was the poverty and virtual industrial insolvency of the west that caused the railway receivership of 1893, whereas the most hopeful factor in the present situation is the great strength of the agricultural districts. Another factor that affects comparison is that in 1893 the railroads were called upon to market the output of $6,345,000 people, whereas now the product of $6,666,000 people must be exchanged for the necessities and luxuries of life. Aside from this increasing domestic traffic, during the same period exports increased from $847,665,000 to $1,380,851,000 and imports from $266,400,000 to $1,434,401,000.

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES.

Kidney Diseases Cause Half the Common Aches and Pains of Albuquerque People.

As one weak link weakens a chain, so weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers from the excess of uric acid circulated in the blood.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills come, and there is an ever increasing tendency towards diabetes and fatal Bright's disease. There is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys and cure every kidney ills. Albuquerque cures are the proof. Mrs. Ida Johnson, living at 414 N. Fourth street, Albuquerque, N. M., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills quickly and effectively relieved me of pain in the back, which had troubled me at intervals for some time. Any preparation which acts as fully up to the claims made for it as Doan's Kidney Pills, deserves unequalled praise and as a genuine kidney medicine can have the confidence of every one."

HUTCHES' CANDIES FOR CHRISTMAS.

HER UNCLE SAM WOULD TAKE $50,000,000 FROM LITTLE

MARGARET CARNEGIE BY ROOSEVELT INHERITANCE TAX PLAN

Washington, D. C., Dec. 23.—The government would take between forty and fifty million dollars tax from Andrew Carnegie's estate, if an inheritance tax law were now on the books, such as recommended by President Roosevelt in his message. Little Margaret, the steel king's only child, would have to worry along on a pittance $150,000,000 or $160,000,000.

This is, of course, assuming that Mr. Carnegie does not get rid of his estate before he dies. It is also assuming that the current Pittsburgh estimate of his estate, namely $200,000,000, is approximately correct. The president cited the inheritance tax laws of England, Germany and France in making his recommendations. He did not outline any specific rate of tax, but suggested that the principle is worth considering.

If we had a law like the one in England, Mr. Carnegie could leave the bulk of his estate to his daughter Margaret, without paying any very heavy tax to the government, but if he tried to leave it to distant relatives, collateral heirs, or to some institution like a library, it would at once become subject to a tax of 20 per cent. In England the bigger the fortune the higher the tax, until five millions is reached, when the fortune pays the flat 20 per cent rate.

In France the rate is the same, 20 per cent to the state, but the top limit where this rate begins is ten millions. In Germany an estate of the size of Carnegie's would pay an even higher per cent, namely 25 per cent, or a quarter of the total to the state. But this applies only when it is willed to collateral or distant heirs.

The theory of an inheritance tax law in the United States is not to make a special exception of the direct heir, but to tax the devised estate, no matter whether it goes to direct or indirect heirs. The American notion is that the very large accumulations of money ought to be broken up, and that this tax will help to dissipate them. So even when left directly to an only child, the estate would pay the tribute of 20 per cent to the government. It goes on the theory that anyone who inherits without any effort or labor, as much as five or ten million dollars, can get along with what is left after the government takes a fifth of it.

MARGARET CARNEGIE, ONLY CHILD OF ANDREW CARNEGIE.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR ARIZONA CONVICTS

Three Prisoners Will Be Released From Yuma Penitentiary Conditionally and One on Parole.

Phoenix, Ariz., Dec. 23.—Governor Kibbey has prepared his Christmas gifts for the fortunate convicts in the Yuma prison who are to receive substantial tokens of his remembrance in the form of pardons or parole. The favors of mercy fall on the shoulders of two Apache Indians and two white men. John G. Sullivan is an Apache who was convicted in Prescott and sentenced Nov. 26, 1906, to serve three years, for an assault on a white man with a deadly weapon. The story is that Sullivan and his father were at a ranch near Jerome when the victim of the later assault threatened the life of the elder Apache. The son stirred by filial impulses secured a weapon and assaulted the man who threatened his father but did not kill him. His previous good conduct was vouched for by the Indian agent at Carlos and the city marshal of Jerome testified to the irritating circumstances that provoked the assault.

The other Indian is named "Te Soh Gay," or "Speedy Tea Gay," and was sent to Yuma from Apache county to serve five years from Oct. 22, 1909 for an assault with intent to commit rape. His time would expire early next year anyhow and facts have been laid before the governor by the trial judge and the Indian agent at Whiteriver which indicate the extenuating circumstances and warrant clemency, these facts not having been at hand at the time of the trial.

J. G. Harter was convicted in Phoenix of the crime of forgery and sentenced to serve eighteen months from Sept. 23, 1906. With credits for good behavior the term would expire in a few weeks anyway and as he has a destitute family he was granted an unconditional pardon, as were the Indians.

The other case is that of Jerry Sheehy, a cowboy who killed another cattleman named Harrison in Santa Cruz county. The case was tried in Tucson on a change of venue by Judge Davis. Sheehy was convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to serve nine years from Oct. 21, 1904. Application for a pardon has been pending for over two years and has been supported by a mass of documents, requests and petitions. It has in like manner been resisted by many friends of the dead man. The governor decided that a parole will be a good compromise providing it is properly observed. It was an accident that might almost be called the result of a feud as almost the entire county was aligned on one side or the other. The terms of the parole are therefore made rigid, as follows: "During the remainder of the term of the sentence he shall conduct himself in a proper and lawful manner. He shall avoid all persons with whom he has not been on good terms personally and if he meets them unprovoked he shall refrain from provoking them. He shall refrain from intoxicating liquors and from all forms of gambling and bearing in mind that he is a prisoner on parole and subject to be returned to prison if he violates this parole; he must at least once in every three months report in writing his whereabouts and his occupation, to the superintendent of the territorial prison for the time being."

GOV. SPARKS, ONCE IDOL OF MINERS, LOST POPULARITY OVER NIGHT

GOV. JOHN SPARKS, OF NEVADA.

Goldfield, Nev., Dec. 23.—"Honorable John" Sparks, governor of Nevada, is the most disappointed official in the country. He was the best liked man in Nevada, but he lost his popularity over night.

When labor troubles first began Gov. Sparks made speeches saying that "soldiers of this country are for wars outside the country, not for police duty inside it." Then dozens of prominent mine owners and other business men induced him to call for troops. The governor's popularity took wings.

Sparks was elected in 1906 by the largest vote ever given in the history of the state. The miners voted for him to a man. He had made them his friends by frequent trips to Goldfield to help them to adjust their difficulties with the mine owners. Now he has lost their friendship because he lined up to the mine owners and called for troops before their presence was necessary.

The governor is a Texan of the old school. He knows that he has lost his popularity and the criticism leveled at him have cut deeply. But he is a proud man and will not say that he was deceived by the men who persuaded him to call the troops.

A Good Lintment. When you need a good reliable lintment try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It has no superior for sprains and swellings. A piece of flannel slightly dampened with Pain Balm is superior to a plaster for lame back or pains in the side or chest. It also relieves rheumatic pains and makes sleep and rest possible. For sale by all druggists.

BOY OF NINE PANS $700 WORTH OF GOLD

Miner With Wife, Three Children and Nine Burros Causes Excitement at Hillsboro.

A man giving his name as W. C. Brooks, created quite a gold excitement here last Tuesday, says the Sierra County Advocate. Mr. Brooks, who is evidently a typical prospector, exhibited some gold specimens that excited the curiosity of the most sedate. Mr. Brooks also had some fine specimens of copper ore. The prospector said he made his discovery last spring in the Black Range on the head of the north Palomas, where he had been continuously at work up to a few days ago when he quit on account of snow. He said he had located six claims in that remote and inaccessible country, four gold claims and two copper claims. Mr. Brooks was accompanied by his wife and three children, said they had seen no other persons during their stay there from the early part of April until they left for civilization. He also claimed that he had done 300 feet of work on one of his claims and that he had a large amount of high grade ore on the dump and that he would return to his mines again next spring. And stock jumped up a few points when he asserted that his 9 year old son panned out over $700 worth of gold in one day. Mr. Brooks has a pack train of nine or ten burros and he and his family left Wednesday, going south.
