ROOSEVELT AND TAFT OUTLINE FUTURE POLICY

The Coast Defenses Must Be Promptly Brought Up to Their Most Efficient Standard.

$38,000,000 NEEDED FOR COAST DEFENSES

Present Attitude of United States Toward Japan Is Amply Justified and Legislation Will Not Be Made, As Immigration Is Stopped.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 24.—President Roosevelt, after an extended conference with Secretary Taft, agreed upon the future policy of the United States.

Matters agreed upon were as follows:

The coast defenses of the United States must be brought up promptly to their most efficient standard. Submarine must be placed on a basis of practically impregnable defense.

The 10,000 members of the coast artillery which are lacking must be supplied, and the army in general must be filled to its normal strength. The Philippines must be guarded against any enemy for the next thirty years.

The Philippines are not now, and will not be for a generation capable of self-government, and it is for the United States to hold the islands against any nation.

That $38,000,000 will be necessary for the coast defenses of the United States and that a large part of this sum could well be expended in the Philippines, in Manila and Subig bay.

That the Chinese sentiment is more American than Japanese.

That the secretary of war preferred to ignore the invitation of the Kaiser and made his engagements to suit the case.

That every effort of the secretary of war will be to increase the strength of the army, to look after the old soldiers, and to make every one of the thirty-two coast defense ports of the United States impregnable to a foreign enemy.

That there shall be the closest cooperation between the army and navy in all matters affecting the welfare of the United States, the secretary of war standing especially for the policy of despatching the Atlantic fleet to the Pacific coast.

That the present attitude of the United States toward Japan is amply justified, and that there shall be no legislation adverse to Japan if Japan will take care of the immigration question with ample guarantees to the United States against the importation of Japanese labor.

That the president will stand by Taft as the presidential candidate until it is shown by the declaration of state delegations that Taft is no longer in the running.

CHRISTMAS TREE FOR STREET WAIFS

Albuquerque's Poor Children Will Find Cheer and Presents at Salvation Army Barracks.

The Albuquerque Salvation Army corps has not planned to supply any dinners for the poor families, as the Benevolence society has that in charge, but for the benefit of those children who will have no other Christmas, they have planned a Christmas tree for Thursday evening to be given at their hall. Each child present will be remembered with candy and presents and it will be seen that no child is slighted.

"Some clothes have been given away, especially to the destitute little ones on the street that could not fail to draw our attention, but the main feature of our Christmas here will be the tree," said Ensign Griffin today.

Presents of clothing for the tree would be gladly accepted by the army from anyone who would like to help give the little waifs as happy a Christmas as possible.

ARGUMENTS BEGUN IN PETTIBONE TRIAL

Boise, Idaho, Dec. 24.—The state rested its case in the Pettibone trial today after the examination of Justice Gabbert, of Colorado, concerning an attempt to kill him to obstruct justice, but the jury was called upon to decide the case. Arguments were then begun.

Taylor's Deposition Read.—Georgetown, Ky., Dec. 24.—The reading of Gov. Taylor's deposition begun yesterday was completed at Powers' trial today. Taylor made general denial of any knowledge or participation in the plot to murder Gombel as alleged by Youtsey, Golden and Noakes.

THREE BREAKS WINDOW GETS AWAY WITH $1800

Denver, Dec. 24.—Rings, watches and trinkets to the value of $1800 were stolen by a daring thief, who broke a window in the Enterprise jewelry company's door, 1115 Sixth street, early today.

KENTUCKY'S STEERING GEAR OUT OF ORDER

Ships Now Anchored Off Port of Spain—Sojourn Will Last Several Days While Coal Bunkers Are Filled—Jackies Will Not Go Ashore.

New York, Dec. 24.—Special dispatches from the port of Spain, Trinidad, announce the arrival there of the Atlantic fleet on its way to the Pacific. The fleet is said to have passed into the Gulf of Para and anchored in four columns, five miles off the town.

According to dispatches the only mishap on the trip from Hampton Roads was a temporary derangement of the Kentucky's steering gear.

The entire fleet stopped engines for nine minutes Sunday and half masted the flags while the ordinary seaman G. B. Hipes, who died of meningitis aboard the Alabama, was buried.

The fleet will remain at the Port of Spain several days and will call there.

PEOPLE OF PORT OF SPAIN IMPRESSED

Port Spain, Trinidad.—Daylight showed the American ships anchored in column formation about four miles from the wharf. People crowded to the water front to view the imposing array. The town has arranged to welcome and entertain the officers and men of the fleet, many of whom have been given shore leave.

Rear Admiral Evans called upon governor of Trinidad, Sir Henry Moore Jackson this morning. The warships are coaling from the wharves and the fleet are well. The torpedo boat fleet sailed south this morning.

Mercy Recommended for Murderer.—Dayton, Ohio, Dec. 24.—The jury today returned a verdict finding Dayton Hines, colored, the self confessed slayer of Anna Markowitz, and Abe Cohen guilty of murder in the first degree, but recommended mercy.

SALVATION ARMY WILL FEED 120,000 PEOPLE

New York, Dec. 24.—More than 120,000 people will eat Christmas dinners provided by the Salvation Army in New York tomorrow.

Never in the history of the Salvation Army have there been so many applicants for help as there have been this year, and never in the history of the army has it been so difficult for the workers for this charity to collect sufficient funds with which to meet the demands.

"It is the hard times, and not the hard hearts of the people that make our celebration so difficult this year," said Miss Eva Booth, commander of the army. "We have found that our subscribers have suffered in the financial stringency and while they are willing to give all they can, still they are not able to help us as they have in previous years."

MRS. LONGWORTH WELL ENOUGH TO GO HOME

Washington, D. C., Dec. 24.—Mrs. Longworth has so far recovered from the effects of the operation for appendicitis, which she underwent Dec. 11, that she will leave the White House for her own residence Thursday.

FORAKER SUPERSTITIOUS OF 13 AND 23

Senator Foraker is superstitious. A few days ago in Washington he was preparing to take a train to Cleveland to attend a meeting of the Merchant Marine League. A member of the league, who had arranged for the trip, called the senator up over the telephone a few hours before the train was to leave. "Hello, senator, are you all ready?" he said. "Our train leaves at 11 o'clock. It's train 23 on track 13."

"What's that?" said the senator. "Train 23 on track 13? Not for me, my friend. Now that I think it over, I don't see how I can make the trip."

Friends of the Cleveland man thought he had been the victim of an electric shock. He recovered himself with a gasp and saw the significance of the combination of numerals.

"Not at all, senator," he said, "you misunderstand me. Our train will be found on track 17."

"Very well," came the answer, "I will go."

PRESENT GENERATION WILL NOT SEE ERIE CANAL FINISHED

Gov. Hughes Is Confronted by Delegation of Indignant Business Men.

SYSTEM OF LETTING CONTRACTS POOR

Albany, Dec. 24.—"One hundred years will be required to complete the Erie canal improvements at the present rate of progress," said Frederick C. Stevens, state superintendent of public works, in an exclusive statement today to the New York World. "Any one can figure it out as a simple proposition in mathematics. Twenty per cent of the contracts for the entire project have been let, and in four years of work only 20 per cent of these contracts and equipment have been completed. Twenty per cent of 20 per cent is 4 per cent or 1 per cent a year. That rate means 100 years before a widened and deepened canal will be ready for 100-ton barges."

Asked what was the cause of the delay, Mr. Stevens replied: "That is what nobody has been able to find out exactly. My own opinion is that the system of contracting is chiefly at fault. The work has been let in such small pieces that no contractor has sufficient operating plant and equipment to go ahead on a rapid and extensive scale. It requires two years merely to get together a proper plant for this canal work. With many independent contractors each doing a little section, the work drags in piece meal fashion."

A delegation of representative business men from Buffalo, Rochester and other cities along the canal appeared before Gov. Hughes to protest against the interminable delays on the $101,000,000 improvement. Their principal spokesman was Geo. Clinton, descendant of Gov. De Witt Clinton, who is called the father of the Erie canal.

Clinton and others pointed out how business is suffering from traffic delays. They cited James J. Hill's interview in the World recently, warning New York of the coming diversion of trade route away from New York and out the St. Lawrence or down the Mississippi when those waterways are deepened.

The delegation urged on the governor the immediate need of radical changes in the canal improvement system to save both New York state and city from its loss of commercial prestige. The governor said he would give the matter careful consideration.

BREWER SAYS BEER IS GOING UP

Scarcity and Price of Barley Is Given As the Cause.

Chicago, Dec. 24.—Adam Orzick, president of the McEwen Brewing company, predicts that over one thousand saloons in this city will go out of business by May 1 in consequence of an increase in the price of beer, which, he says, will be necessitated by the scarcity of barley. Brewers and maltsters for several weeks have been bidding almost to a point of wiping out margin of profit in order to get the few carloads of barley that arrive in this market daily.

BURNS AND ROCHE WILL FIGHT IN DUBLIN

London, Dec. 24.—Articles have practically been signed for a contest in Dublin, March 17, between "Tommy" Burns and Jim Roche, the Irish champion, the fight will be for $2500 a side and a purse of $5,000.

COLORADO LAND FRAUD INDICTMENTS ARE QUASHED

Court Said That No Evidence Had Been Produced Showing Crime.

PAGOSA LUMBER COMPANY RELEASED, ALSO

Denver, Dec. 24.—United States Judge Lewis today granted a motion to quash indictments against E. M. Biggs, Charles D. McPhee, J. J. McGinty, Charles S. Freeman and W. W. Nossaman, charging conspiracy to defraud the government and of timber lands in Archuleta county, Colorado.

The order to quash is based upon the ground that no crime had been shown.

The court also quashed an indictment against A. F. Sullenger, president of the Pagosa Lumber Co., and others in connection with that company's operations.

MOTION FOR ANOTHER TRIAL OVERRULED IN SCHMIDT CASE

Defendant Was Given Judgment Against Southwestern Brewery for $7500.

Motion for a new trial, which was made by the defendant's attorneys in the $25,000 damage suit of Joseph Schmidt against the Southwestern Brewery & Ice Company, was overruled today by Judge Ira A. Abbott in the Bernallillo county district court.

The Schmidt case dragged over a week in the November term of court. The jury awarded Schmidt a verdict for $7,500, less the expenses of his illness resulting from injuries received at the brewery, which the brewery paid. That placed Schmidt's damages at $6,500 approximately.

Immediately after the verdict was returned Attorneys Childers and Marston, who appeared for the defendant, asked for a new trial. Judge Abbott heard the arguments for a new trial today and overruled the defendant's motion. Neil B. Field appeared for Schmidt.

MEMPHIS SAVINGS BANK CLOSES

Memphis, Dec. 24.—The Memphis Savings bank failed to open this morning, and E. B. McHenry has been appointed receiver. The officers of the bank went before Chancellor Heiskell last night and applied for a receiver. No reason for suspension has as yet been announced.

C. W. McRae, a capitalist, is president of the bank, which carries deposits of over a million and a half dollars.

Several weeks ago a statement was published that the bank had been heavily loaded with paper, which it could not realize on and the bank's officers published a statement that this loan was made good to the bank at maturity by certain officers and directors.

President Rand of the clearing-house association said today that no other institution in the city would be affected by the suspension of the Memphis Savings bank.

ELOPEMENT REVIVES DU PONT DIVORCE SCANDAL

Daughter Sails for Europe Without Mother's Good-Bye.

SHE SYMPATHIZES WITH HER FATHER NOW

New York, Dec. 23.—Miss Madeleine Du Pont and John Bancroft, Jr., who antedated the fashionable set of Wilmington, Del., by eloping to Washington, where were married have sailed for Europe. The father of the bride, Alfred I. Du Pont, multi-millionaire and vice president of the Du Pont Powder works, at Wilmington, accompanied the couple to this city and saw them safely on board the steamship. Young Mr. and Mrs. Bancroft will go first to England and visit relatives. The bridegroom is related to the family of the late John Bright. They will then go to Germany, where the twenty-one-year old husband, who was a sophomore at Princeton, will complete his education at Heidelberg.

The bride remained at the mansion of her father, a mile out of Wilmington, until she started for this city. She left Wilmington without a word of farewell from her mother, Mrs. Bessie G. Du Pont, the divorced wife of Alfred I. Du Pont. Up to two weeks ago the girl lived with her mother on the handsome estate "Breckinridge," where she begged her father, who had married again, to take her into the house.

It was learned yesterday that on her return to Wilmington from the elopement to Washington the bride wrote her mother a letter which threw considerable light on the life in one of the most notable homes in Delaware. This letter bore, "My Dear Mother," and then said:

"Just a line to tell you that John Bancroft and I were married today. I never would have thought of taking this step (meaning the elopement) had I received the proper sympathy and affection which a mother should accord her daughter."

The letter then said: "I have heard the truth of the disagreements between my father and yourself, not from one or two people, but from half a dozen."

The bride then wrote she was sorry she did not leave her mother's residence six years ago, when her father left, adding:

"Through his kindness I have been made well and happy, and I will never forget all he and his wife have done for me since I have been with them. I only regret in taking this step, that I have not had many years under their roof to show my gratitude."

This letter was simply signed "Madeleine," with no term of endearment.

It is particularly desired that you be present at the meeting."

BETTER ACQUAINTANCE ABROAD WILL BE COURTED

Members of the Albuquerque Commercial Club and Business Men Will Get Busy Immediately.

PRESIDENT BROOKS WRITES PUBLIC LETTER

Propose Booster Trip Over Belen Cut-Off to Meet People Living in New Towns—Meeting to Be Held Over Zelger's Cafe Friday Night.

The reports brought by the newspaper presentations from the Pecos valley and the lands along the route of the Belen cut-off of the rich trade territory and of the push and progress of the people, as a result of the irrigation congress campaign, has resulted in the Commercial club and the business men of Albuquerque in taking immediate steps to visit these sections and to become better acquainted with conditions there.

As a result, a call has been issued for a meeting Friday night in the rooms over the Zelger cafe, at Second street and Central avenue. It is desired that every business man and every citizen attend as far as possible.

All should unite in this movement and the business men who have started in for a trade canvass of this district, believe that they will receive the united support of every one.

Committees Appointed.—Committees have been appointed by the Retail Merchants' association, the wholesale dealers and by the Commercial club.

There are thousands of people settling the lands along the Belen cut-off; there are new towns springing up and the field both retail and wholesale is one of the best in New Mexico.

The trade which can be brought to Albuquerque is of prime importance.

There is not a town on the Belen cutoff where the people will not find a saving of time and money to come to Albuquerque to do their shopping in preference to El Paso, or any other point.

This condition applies from Texico north to this city and there are some of the best towns in New Mexico between this city and Texico.

No plans have been outlined other than that the merchants will service the trade by a trade excursion and probably make the trip over the cut-off about the first of the year.

However, the matter will be taken up at the meeting—it will be discussed—suggestions of all kinds will be in order and it will be up to the business men of this city—and all—whether or not they desire some of the best trade in New Mexico south of them or whether they will sit quietly by and see it go to points as far east as St. Louis.

Notice to Public.—President G. L. Brooks of the Commercial club has addressed the following circular to the public regarding this matter:

"Dear Sir:—That consideration may be given to the subject of the various towns along the new cut-off from Belen east to show up the advantages of this city as a trading center the Commercial club has appointed a committee of ten to meet with similar committees appointed by the Wholesale Merchants' association and the Retail Merchants' association, over Zelger's cafe at 8 o'clock Friday evening to determine upon the advisability of such a move and to arrange for ways and means of carrying it into effect. The committee appointed on the part of the club being George Arnold, A. J. Maloy, G. A. Kaseman, Wallace Heaselden, F. J. Wilson, W. E. Hahn, J. H. O'Reilly, H. B. Wellner, C. F. Wade, M. L. Stern, Chas. Melini, D. S. Rosenwald, Wallace Heaselden.

It is particularly desired that you be present at the meeting."

SEVENTY-FOUR BODIES PILED IN HEAP

Jacobs Creek, Pa., Dec. 24.—The searching parties in the Darr mine today reached the entrance of No. 21, where they found 74 bodies in a heap. The total number recovered to date is 120.

Funeral ceremonies over twelve identified bodies were conducted in the open today with a hundred spectators present. The attending scenes were extremely pathetic.

WEATHER FORECAST

Denver, Colo., Dec. 24.—Fair and warmer tonight and Wednesday.

NAVY DEPARTMENT WILL REORGANIZE PACIFIC FLEET

New Formation Will Comprise Three Squadrons of Two Divisions Each.

ARRIVAL OF NEW SHIPS MAKE CHANGE NECESSARY

Chicago, Now at San Diego, Will Be Sent to Annapolis and Used as a Practice Ship—Fleet to Continue in Command of Admiral Dayton.

Washington, Dec. 24.—The navy department has issued orders reorganizing the Pacific fleet. The new formation will comprise three squadrons each of which will have two divisions.

The reorganization is made necessary by the arrival of the special service squadron, consisting of the armored cruisers Tennessee and Washington, which are now at Acapulco and will reach San Francisco in two or three weeks, and the completion of the new cruisers California and South Dakota.

Chicago Around Horn.—The Chicago, which is now attached to the third division of the second squadron, is not included in the reorganized fleet.

A plan is under consideration by the officials of the navy department to send the cruiser Chicago from the Pacific coast around South America through the Straits of Magellan, to Annapolis, where she will be used as a practice ship. The Chicago is now at San Diego and is commanded by Commander Robert M. Doyle. The fleet will continue in command of Rear Admiral James H. Dayton.

Make-up of the Fleet is to be as follows:

First Squadron—First division, West Virginia, Colorado, Maryland and Pennsylvania; second division, Tennessee, Washington, California and South Dakota, to be assigned later. This division is to be in command of Rear Admiral Seabree.

Second Squadron—Third division, Charleston, Milwaukee and St. Louis; fourth division, Albany and Yorktown.

Third Squadron—Fifth division, Chattanooga, Galveston, Denver and Cleveland; sixth division, (special service), Rainbow, Commodore, Wilmington, Callao, Quirao and Villalobos.

Coast Defense—Monterey, Monadnock.

First Torpedo Flotilla—Barrington, Dale, Chauncey and Decatur.

Fourth—Torpedo flotilla, Perry and Frolic.

All the vessels of the Third Squadron are in Asiatic waters.

MARRIAGE MUST BE FOR PRESTIGE OR MONEY

Madrid, Dec. 24.—The real cause of the failure of the marriage project between Miss Mathilde Townsend and the Duke D'Alba was the opposition of the royal family, particularly the King's mother, who pointed out that in these days, when dynasties are none too secure, every effort should be made to secure the prestige which even artificial conditions give to royal families.

King Alfonso thereupon forbade the marriage saying, sentimentally: "There are many Miss Townsends; there is only one Duke D'Alba."

Upon this the Duke bowed low and acquiesced.

Miss Mathilde Townsend is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Townsend and granddaughter of the late William Scott, railroad magnate, of Erie, Pa. She is a strikingly handsome blonde and has attracted attention wherever she has gone, both at home and abroad, royalty itself being among her admirers. Mrs. Grundy has persisted for a long time in saying that she was engaged to the Duke D'Alba, one of the greatest generals of Spain, but about a month ago her mother, at the Hotel Plaza, positively denied that there was any engagement or any prospect of one. Nevertheless it was pretty generally understood that the Townsends at one time counted on having the duke for a son-in-law.

GRAND TRUNK WILL PENSION EMPLOYEES

Portland, Me., Dec. 24.—The Grand Trunk railroad will put into effect January 1 a pension system claimed to be the most comprehensive and one of the most generous in the country embracing every employee on its system in the United States and Canada. The railroad company will finance all the details of the scheme, levying no assessment upon the employees.

The minimum pension has been fixed at $300 and there is no maximum. The compulsory retiring age is fixed at 65 years.

RAILROAD DEPARTMENT

Leaves Local Santa Fe Hospital to Answer Call to Los Angeles, Cal.

Dr. J. B. Cutter, for the past five years surgeon in charge of the Santa Fe hospital here, has resigned his position to become chief surgeon in the Emergency hospital at Los Angeles, and assistant to the chief surgeon of the Pacific Electric railway and affiliated lines, the great Huntington system. This promotion is a recognition of his skill and attainments as a physician and surgeon. As a proof of the Santa Fe's appreciation of his skill he has been asked to retain a connection with the medical department of the road, probably in the connection of consulting surgeon at Los Angeles. Dr. and Mrs. Cutter leave here January 15, and as yet his successor has not been announced. Under Dr. Cutter's skillful management the hospital here has become one of the best managed and successful on the Santa Fe system.

OKLAHOMA BOARD ISSUES SEVERAL RAILROAD ORDERS

Guthrie, Ok., Dec. 24.—The State Corporation board has signed the following orders for immediate official publication: Restraining railroad under any conditions from charging more than 2-cent passenger rates; requiring railroads to establish depots on boundary lines between states having 2-cent fare laws; requiring railway companies to submit all depot plans, changes and locations to the board for approval, and establishing a 50 per cent reduction in freight rates on hay and grain. A hearing will be granted railroads on this last order January 19. The state line depot order was drawn several weeks ago, but was held in abeyance until railroads could establish an interstate 2-cent passenger rate. All have done so but the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe, and the order was issued to compel that road to grant the rate.

PASSENGER MEN WORRIED BY ELECTRIC COMPETITION

Chicago, Dec. 24.—Passenger officials of the roads operating in territory traversed by electric traction lines say that the rival roads are taking nearly all the short-distance travel, and in the gradual development are attracting long-distance travel, comprising distances of from 50 to 100 miles. The interurban rates of fare, frequently concealed by zone system, are, as a rule, barely under those charged by the steam roads, but this does not draw the travel so much as the frequency of the service.

HARRIMAN SYSTEM LAYING OFF MEN

Sacramento, Dec. 24.—Today orders from the Southern Pacific general offices in San Francisco were posted in the railroad shops to the effect that the shops will close, with the exception of enough men to handle the roundhouse work, next Tuesday, and remain closed until January 1.

It is stated unofficially that after the first of the year the force in the shops will either be reduced or the men now employed will be given from three to four days a week. It is also said that a like cut will be made all over the Harrison system in the west.

Two thousand men in this city will be affected by the cut. Peter Hansen, after 20 years of service in the store department of the Santa Fe in this city has resigned, to take effect January 1, when he will retire to a quiet life on his Rio Grande ranch, says the San Bernardino Sun. In point of continuous service he was the oldest employee in the store department of the Santa Fe Coast Lines. For some years he has held down the price desk in the office of Division Storekeeper O. P. Sloan. He entered the service of the department in December, 1887, so that he is completing just 20 years continuous service. It is with general regret on the part of his fellow workers that he is to leave the service, as he has proven a most efficient employee in every way.

H. C. Herby has resigned his position in the operating department of the Eastern Railway of New Mexico and will leave in January. Mr. Herby was chief clerk at Winslow, Ariz. He is obliged to make the change on account of his health. S. E. Vitzelle, head timekeeper at Point Richmond, Cal., has been chosen as his successor.

R. M. Shoemaker, operator at the shops, returned to his work this morning after a pleasure trip to California.

Miss Sykes, who held his position during his absence, has left for her home in Chambers, Ariz., to spend the holidays, after which she will return to Albuquerque. Brakeman Pilgrimage, of the Santa Fe, who was injured by falling under a freight train last week, had his right leg amputated at St. Joseph's hospital Monday. On account of his strong constitution it is thought he will recover.

M. W. Garwood, superintendent of the Pecos valley lines of the Santa Fe, who was the guest of General Agent T. E. Purdy Sunday, left yesterday for El Paso to spend the holidays.

W. M. Wilcox, a fireman on the Albuquerque division, and Miss Hatfield Zyzell, of Gallup, were married last Saturday. They will reside in this city.

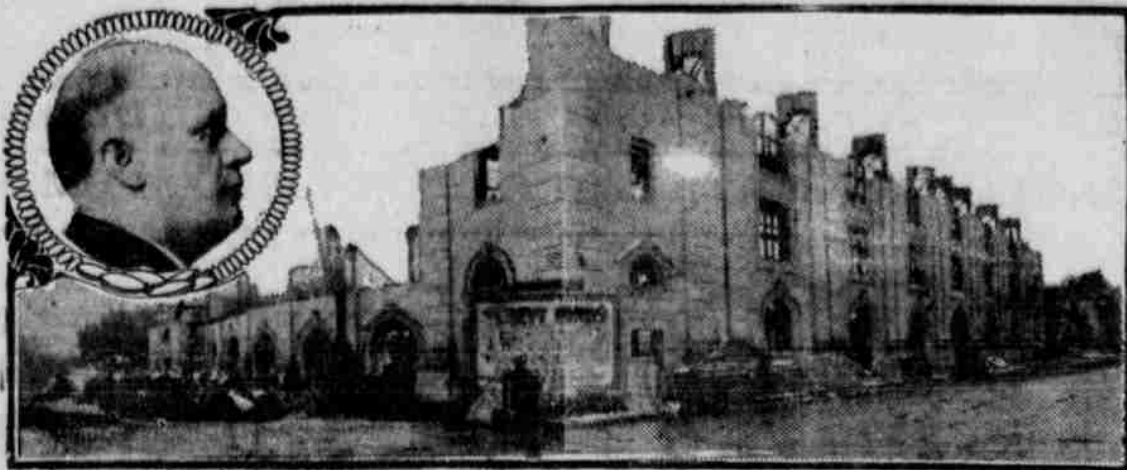

Miss Ethel Benton, stenographer in Master Mechanic Harlow's office, has returned to her work after a two week's absence on account of sickness.

R. E. Dobson, assistant foreman at the shops, with his two children, left for the coast, where they will spend the holidays with friends.

MAYOR SPEER AND DENVER'S AUDITORIUM AS IT LOOKS TODAY

Denver, Dec. 23.—All precedents are to be broken by Denver in preparing for the next democratic national convention which has just been awarded to this city.

The city will expend city funds; raised by a bond issue, in equipping the finest auditorium in the west for the accommodation of the hosts of democracy. The structure will be ready a month in advance of the convention.

A small army of workmen is to be put to work on the building at once. The bonds have been authorized and the money will be available shortly.

"We will put on three eight-hour shifts and work continuously until the auditorium is completed," Mayor Speer says. A municipally owned auditorium is the mayor's own scheme.

When the announcement came that the $100,000 in gold from Colorado's mines, and the prospect of cool breezes even in the hottest season, had won the convention, expressions of doubt were frequent. The big structure was only just begun. Skeptics freely predicted that a junk pile rather than an auditorium would greet the delegates.

The mayor is more confident of completing the auditorium than he is of being able to attend the convention as a delegate.

There is a taint upon Speer's democracy. Although elected a democrat the last state convention refused to recognize the credentials of himself and his followers, who were elected delegates at the regular primaries, declaring his delegation to be "corporationists."

Democrats through the state still regard his democracy as only skin deep and insist that the rejected ones be given no place in the national gathering. For all that the mayor will make a fight for a seat.

ARIZONA SUPERVISOR SUSPENDED BY GOVERNOR

Phoenix, Dec. 24.—Governor Kibbey, by virtue of the power vested in him by a law enacted by the twenty-fourth legislature, and according to the request of the board of supervisors of Cochise county, supplementary to charges filed with Public Examiner W. C. Foster, against F. W. Shelly yesterday suspended Mr. Shelly from the performance of the duties of district attorney of Cochise county. The charges, which allege drunkenness, incompetency and neglect of duty, were published in yesterday morning's Republican.

That there might be immediate action the governor wired Mr. Shelly as follows: "Please take notice that I have this day suspended you from the further performance of the duties of district attorney of Cochise county. Written notice goes to you by mail."

Under the law it became the duty of Public Examiner W. C. Foster to designate some person to perform the duties of district attorney temporarily and he therefore sent the following message to D. L. Cunningham of Tombstone:

AN ENCHANTED BEING, THIS JEKYLL AND HYDE GIRL, WHO IS STRANGELY GOVERNED BY DUAL PERSONALITIES

SUSANNA E. M'GEE, THE STRANGE "JEKYLL AND HYDE" GIRL.

St. Louis, Dec. 24.—Even as Robert Stevenson conjured his great characters, Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, so has the complex modern life developed a prototype of the mythical beings in Susanna Edwards McGee, a prisoner at the city hospital, charged with grand larceny.

Susanna McGee possesses a dual personality. She is a sweet faced nurse, an author of live stories, a writer of verse, an artist's model, a domestic. Her position in life depended upon her financial condition.

And when her finances ebbed she did not hesitate to steal. One day the author of a charming love romance, the next she seems dominated by some unseen power, which blinds her sense of right and wrong and permits her to commit crime without a thought of the consequences.

Were she a man the dual existence might have been continued without detection. But woman-like she fell in love. She lavished her affection upon a physician, deformed, sick and destitute, and she stole jewelry from her employer to give him.

The physician finally spurned her and in revenge she complained to the police. The result was the recovery of the jewels, the identification of the thief and her arrest. Now, suffering from a nervous affliction of the eyes, she is in the city hospital, a prisoner.

That her crime has been discovered does not worry her. Although tripped by the law she passes this over with an airy wave of the hand and talks sweetly and hopefully of the day when she will be free. Her dreams include a return to the other life. She longs to write stories, to nurse the sick and injured, to perform good deeds. This is the other personality—the one by which she was known to hundreds before the other took possession of her.

Allenists declare that the girl is a great puzzle. They say that her nature is far from vicious, but that through it runs a coarse fiber which throws out its base influence in a strange way that makes it impossible for her to see the wrong there is in wrongdoing.

Even in the shadow of the penitentiary this girl dwells in a land of dreams and smiles—dreaming and smiling her days away, an enchanted being.

BORN--AN IDEA

ABOUT THE RAREST THING THAT EVER HAPPENS IN THIS OLD WORLD OF MINE IS THE BIRTH OF A NEW IDEA, AND THE FORTUNATE POSSESSOR OF A FINE LARGE ONE IS WORTH MORE TO HIMSELF AND MORE TO THE WORLD THAN THE SANTA FE RAILROAD.

PSYCHOLOGISTS, WHO MAKE A BUSINESS OF SORTING OUT IDEAS AND SPYING INTO THE WAYS THEY ARE BORN, SAY THAT AFTER YOU PASS THE AGE OF ABOUT TWENTY, YOUR IDEA-BEARING DAYS ARE ETERNALLY OVER. IF YOU ARE ON THE TENDER SIDE OF THIS AGE--AND ARE WISE--YOU MAY WISH TO READ THIS STATEMENT AGAIN.

NOW THE ALBUQUERQUE CITIZEN CARRIES IDEAS IN STOCK, WHERE THEY CAME FROM AND WHO THEIR PARENTS ARE, IS NEITHER HERE NOR THERE. SOME OF THEM RUN ALONG THE LINES OF BUSINESS BUILDING AND TRADE GETTING. THESE IDEAS WILL BE SOLD, LEASED OR RENTED TO THE PUBLIC, FOR CASH OR ON THE INSTALLMENT PLAN.

THEY KEEP A YOUNG FELLOW AROUND THE OFFICE, AND WHEN EVERY WEEK, TO DO NOTHING BUT LOOK AFTER THE ADVERTISING, THERE IS NOTHING HE LIKES BETTER THAN TO HAVE SOME ONE COME IN AND SAY: "HERE I WANT TO SPEND $50.00 EVERY MONTH IN ADVERTISING. I WISH YOU WOULD TAKE THE WHOLE THING OFF MY HANDS, AND RUN IT AS YOU THINK BEST. I HAVE OTHER MATTERS TO CARE FOR, AND YOU PROBABLY KNOW MORE ABOUT IT THAN I, ANYWAY."

A NUMBER OF ALBUQUERQUE BUSINESS MEN HAVE ALREADY MADE SUCH ARRANGEMENTS--MORE ARE DOING IT EVERY DAY. ONE WISE MERCHANT, WHO ATTEMPTS TO DRAW A LINE DIVIDING THE PATRONAGE HE RECEIVES FROM ADVERTISING, FROM THAT COMING THROUGH OTHER CHANNELS, INFORMED US ONLY YESTERDAY THAT HIS ADVERTISEMENT IN THE ALBUQUERQUE CITIZEN DURING THE TWO MONTHS IT HAS RUN, HAS NETTED HIM SUFFICIENT TO PAY FOR THE ADVERTISEMENT FOR SIX MONTHS. ANY ADVERTISEMENT THAT PAYS FOR ITSELF IN DIRECT, IMMEDIATE RETURNS, IS A GOOD INVESTMENT, BECAUSE YOU GET YOUR MONEY BACK, AND THE EXTENDED PUBLICITY TO BOOT. BUT WHEN RESULTS ARE SUCH AS THIS MAN EXPERIENCED YOU ARE GETTING LITTLE LESS THAN A GOLD MINE.

THE FIRST MAN IN THE ADVERTISING FIELD REAPS THE FINEST OF THE WHEAT, THE LATE-COMERS GLEAN THE STUBBLES. DUKE, THE TOBACCO KING, IN CONVERSATION WITH THE WRITER ONCE SAID: "I BEGAN LIFE ON A STONE PATCH, WITH A WIFE, A BLIND MULE AND TEN DOLLARS. I AM NOW WORTH THIRTY TWO MILLION DOLLARS, BUT I HAVE SPENT FORTY MILLION IN ADVERTISING." PROBABLY NO MAN IN ALBUQUERQUE HAS HAD A MORE MODEST BEGINNING THAN MR. DUKE, AND THERE IS NO REASON WHY ANY MAN WITH EQUAL BUSINESS ABILITY, AND POSSESSED OF THE SAME BUSINESS FORESIGHT, SHOULD NOT SUCCEED AS WELL. IF THERE IS, STATE IT TO YOURSELF, AND BE CONSOLED. IF IT ISN'T, BUT A KEEN CUTTER, THAT SAYS: "IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE."

CATHOLICS WANT MORE EQUAL RIGHTS

American Bishops Strong In Favor--Young Man Preferred.

Rome, Dec. 24.—The movement among the Catholics of different countries in favor of a better proportioned representation in high positions of the church is increasing, and is finding its staunchest supporters among the Poles and Irish in Europe and among Latin-Americans in the western hemisphere. This insistence has, of course, brought again to the front the eternal question of another cardinal for the United States and corollary of the question as to who he should be.

Farley Has Strong Support.
There is a strong faction which, at the Vatican, they call "old Catholics," favoring the election of Mgr. Farley, archbishop of New York, or Ryan, archbishop of Philadelphia, on the ground that they represent two of the most important dioceses, and that both are veterans of the American episcopacy. Indeed, Archbishop Ryan is the doyen among his colleagues with regard to his appointment, he having been nominated to the see of Philadelphia in June, 1884. Only Archbishop Riordan of San Francisco, who is now in Rome, approaches him with regard to the length of his office, for he was placed at the head of the Catholic province of California on December 25, 1884.

Opposition from America.
Mgr. Farley, however, is more strongly supported on the ground that 1,500,000 Catholics are under his jurisdiction and that New York had the honor of having the first American cardinal and should again have this distinction. The greatest opposition to the "old Catholics" comes from a party called here "the Americans," which includes the clergy, as well as laymen, and Catholics as well as Protestants and proclaims that there is only one man who deserves the honor, and whose elevation would immensely strengthen the prestige of the Catholic church in America, Archbishop John Ireland. They point out he also is a veteran of the episcopacy of the United States, being the oldest after Archbishop Ryan and having been named archbishop of St. Paul May 15, 1888, so he is the only junior to Monsignors Ryan and Riordan.

Mgr. Glennon in Favor.
There is also a party of young Catholics who insist on the selection of a man relative by young in age, ideas and methods, but they are themselves not in accord about the same person, some proclaiming as the ideal man, Mgr. Zuñiga, archbishop of Chicago, who is 33 and was appointed in January, 1903, to that see, which contains as many Catholics as that of New York. Others favor Mgr. Glennon who has been archbishop of St. Louis since October, 1903, and is the youngest archbishop in America, being only 45 years old. Finally, another section favors Mgr. William O'Connell, who is 47 years old, and has just succeeded Archbishop Williams at Boston, being therefore, the junior to all in his office.

MRS. POTTER PALMER, SOCIETY QUEEN, LEADS AID PLANS FOR CONVICTS

SNAPSHOT OF MRS. POTTER PALMER IN STUNNING COSTUME.

Chicago, Dec. 24.—Leading society women of Chicago are taking an active interest in the assistance of convicts who desire to make another try before the world.

They declare that with the present attitude of society toward the man who has worn prison stripes there is no hope of the rehabilitation of his honest effort once he is branded as a felon. Their aim is to make the pathway back to rightness living easier for him.

Mrs. Potter Palmer, long society queen of Chicago, is the leader in the movement. Associated with her are such women of social prominence and wealth as Mrs. Ogden Armour, Mrs. Arthur Meeker, and Mrs. Geo. M. Pullman, with scores of others. Daily new recruits are being added to the list.

They are working with Maude Ballington Booth, "the little mother" of Hope Hall, the institution founded by Miss Booth for the sheltering of released convicts until employment has been obtained for them. Primarily their effort will be toward finding new avenues of employment.

They have pledged themselves to give their personal attention to the work. They must go into the prisons themselves, talk with the convicts, learn their possibilities and ambitions, and lend every possible assistance to putting them in the way of ultimate reform upon their release. And they are really doing this.

Whenever a prisoner evinces a desire to reform, his name is enrolled upon the books of Hope Hall. When released the convict goes to the hall, is suitably clothed, provided with accommodations, and maintained until a position is found for him.

The employer is put in full possession of the facts regarding the employee. His sympathies are enlisted, and he becomes the convict's defender as well as his employer. The fellow employees know nothing of the convict's past. He is sheltered on every side until hope is revived and ambition restored. Comparatively few of these men betray this trust.

The local organization, with which society leaders are allied themselves, is the Volunteer Prison League. It operates under the auspices of the Volunteers of America.

Burton Caldwell, $1,000; to Samuel Torrey, $500; to Adolph Richter, $500; to Hubert Taft, $250; to Charles P. Taft, the marble bust of his father, done in 1869 by Hiram Powers.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism. Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn boys grown back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pains of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredients with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfect, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient I successfully treated many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, I can cure all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those much like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

"STATEHOOD FOR NEW MEXICO"

We Should be Neighborly

William F. Brogan, managing editor of The Citizen, has returned from a trip over the Belen cut-off and through the Pecos valley. He is engaged in preparing a number of articles on that section of New Mexico. He will write of what he saw in a conservative manner. It is impossible to enter into details as concerning each locality because time and space would not permit. But Mr. Brogan will write along general lines of the condition, the lands, the people, the magnificent resources, etc.

Albuquerque, while the metropolis of New Mexico, does not begin to realize the resources and the fertile trade field of her neighbors to the south.

This city, always first in the ranks of progress in the southwest, must be more neighborly. We must become better acquainted with the people in the land to the south. We must invite them here, we must visit them in their homes and we must get into the field personally for trade, for business of all kinds and for mutual benefit.

The Pecos valley is a garden spot on earth. It is a second Eden in New Mexico and we who live in this section of the territory, can not comprehend the wonderful changes that have taken place—making wealth and prosperity out of the cattle ranges of long ago.

Beautiful homes, fertile farms, spouting artesian wells, trees, grass and produce of all kinds abound in the Pecos valley. Her citizens are wide awake Americans, who are putting every acre under the plow, inducing their fellow men from the four quarters of the globe to settle upon the still remaining acres and in every way advancing the most wonderful spot on the globe.

The cliff dwellings, the ancient churches, the historic settlements, the hundreds of monuments that mark history in our section of the territory, sink into semi-insignificance as compared with the greatest wonder of modern times—the artesian belt of the southwest.

We, of Albuquerque, who have not seen the development of the Pecos Valley can not comprehend what it has meant to the people of that section. It has driven the cattleman—he of the long horned range stock—into obscurity. He has now become a wealthy owner of thoroughbreds and of acres and acres of the richest farming lands in America.

The ranches of that section more closely resemble the great estates of the older countries, with their handsome homes, well kept orchards, highly cultivated fields of alfalfa, grains, vegetables, etc.

The new towns are well laid out, wide streets, brick buildings and comfortable, well kept residences.

The people are not those of the frontier. They are progressive business men every one of them, fully alive to their possibilities and working in unison to further develop and enrich a country blessed by providence far in excess of any other portion of the great southwest.

And the roads. For mile upon mile, automobiles travel over country roads such as would cause a blush of shame upon the face of any Albuquerquean when compared with our best cared for streets. The farmers, the ranchers, the bankers, the merchants—all up to one platform—good roads. They work the roads summer, winter, fall and spring. They keep them as level and as well drained as the streets of a city.

The artesian wells are capped in order that they may not overflow, and no more pleasant day can be spent than in driving about the country roads of the Pecos valley. The people of Roswell, the leading city in the valley, take a hearty interest in their country. They are proud of their city first, their institutions next, and last, but not least, of the wealthy farming districts about them.

Every Roswell man boasts for the New Mexico Military Institute as though it were a private concern and he owned all the stock. The institute is a credit to New Mexico. Its cadets are soldierly and above all gentlemanly.

The public schools of Roswell are creditable to a city of the size and will be improved from year to year.

The Pecos Valley has already become a leader in agriculture in the southwest, but a few more years will see it crowded to its limits with people, its every acre of land under irrigation and more natural wealth than any section of this great domain.

The people of Albuquerque have done much. They have built a city that is not excelled anywhere in the southwest and never will be. At the same time, it is absolutely necessary that we do not stop. We must advance with the other portions of New Mexico and the Pecos Valley is well in the lead.

Trade excursions should visit that section. Our people should know intimately the people of that valley, and we should profit by the things that they have done that we may enter upon a rather era of growth which will keep us well abreast of our southern neighbors.

We, of Bernalillo county, must work our roads—we must be able to drive for miles and miles up and down our big fertile Rio Grande Valley, and we must have well kept lands and streets and homes to show our visitors as is the case in even the newest towns of the Pecos Valley.

But before we reach the Pecos Valley we will find thousands upon thousands of settlers all along the Belen cut-off. There are dozens of new towns in the making and some very substantial ones already under headway. These people are new to this territory. They have come in the night, so to speak, and we must care for them. They must be welcomed to our largest city with their produce for sale and their trade for our merchants.

Our wholesale companies must supply their stores and their stores must send thousands of dollars' worth of produce to our dealers. It is time for Albuquerque, her business men, her officials and her commercial club to be again up and doing.

Next year we will entertain the big Irrigation Congress, assisted by the whole territory. Those people—thousands of them—will then be our guests and we must be in shape to show them the resources that are ours.

Albuquerque and Bernalillo county can profit much by what Chaves, Eddy, Roosevelt, Quay, Lincoln and other counties have done. The special articles upon this section of New Mexico will be well worth the reading and if we do not want to be outdistanced, we must enter the field which has already been developed awaiting our coming.

Above all, we must become acquainted with the people in those counties—they are the sort of people the territory needs and a credit to us in every way. The Citizen, while constantly boosting Albuquerque and Bernalillo county, will never fail to say a good word for the Eden of the southwest, and the great districts that are fast being turned from stock ranges into productive farms.

New York World: More than a century ago Matthew Lyon, of Vermont, and Roger Griswold, of Connecticut, set the standard of congressional rough-and-tumble fighting. Lyon spit in Griswold's face, and when the house refused to expel the member from Vermont, Griswold avenged himself one morning after prayers by beating Lyon over the head with a heavy cudgel until both contestants fell fighting to the floor, while "the speaker looked on with manifest delight." All friends and admirers of the strenuous life will note with mingled shame and humiliation that not only did John Sharp Williams and David Alburgh De Armand wait until the adjournment of the house recently before punching each other's honorable head, but that the total damages consisted of a red welt and a small gash. This is indeed a generation of mollycoddlers!

It is reported that charting operations show the Philippine Islands to number 2600 instead of 1200. The discovery is a pleasant one, provided ships do not bump unexpectedly into the surplus.

Russian generals and admirals are trying to explain how it happened. The poor progress is due to the fact that the grand dukes are not subject to a subpoena.

Secretary Taft avoids the guide books and encyclopedias in what he has to say about a trip around the world. Travelers often forget that guide books can be read at home, but seldom are.

Admiral Rojestvensky sees success for the Pacific fleet. So do we, Ad.

LOOKING FOR A GOOD TIME?

There are about as many conceptions as to what constitutes a "good time" as there are individuals, but there is one place in New Mexico, not very far from Albuquerque, where 99 out of every 100 people find what they are looking for. That place is the Valley Ranch, at Pecos, New Mexico.

Fresh country produce in abundance, horses to ride or drive, dogs, guns, traps, tackle, all at your disposal. The finest hunting and fishing in the territory. You can live in a house, a cabin or a tent, and come and go as you please.

You'll find plenty of company there, agreeable and refined, if you are sociably inclined, a favorite resort for ladies. Conditions ideal for recuperating, reading, hunting or loafing.

You CAN'T SPEND MORE THAN NINE DOLLARS A WEEK ANY WAY YOU FIX IT.

Inquire at The Citizen Office for further particulars, or address The Valley Ranch.

No other food deteriorates so rapidly as the Oyster. Its habitat is the ocean. It requires coolness and absolute freedom from exposure to the air in order to retain its delicate flavor and its wholesomeness. SEAL-SHIP OYSTERS are brought direct to us from the choicest beds of America. They are shucked into porcelain cases, sealed and packed in ice, which never comes in contact with the oysters. The use of the Seal-ship carrier is the secret of their superiority.

SALOON ORDINANCE EDDY COUNTY WILL BE WILL NOT BE CHANGED

Aldermen Fear That the New Councilmen Will Not Pass It.

A dozen saloon keepers appeared before the city council at its adjourned session yesterday afternoon and asked the aldermen to hold off the new high license ordinance six months so they can wind up their affairs and get out of the business.

The council disliked the idea of an amendment to postpone the enforcement of the new ordinance until July 1, when a new set of aldermen would be in charge of the city's affairs, and told the liquor men to make their objections to the grievance committee which will hear the complaints the rest of the week.

The grievance committee of which Alderman Wilkerson is chairman and Harrison and Hany members will report to the council at another adjourned session on the night of Dec. 30 when the council will devise some means of satisfying the claims of the saloon men without tinkering with the new ordinance.

Many of the saloon men have county licenses paid from three to nine months in advance and leases for a year or more on buildings occupied by them and they say the new ordinance, which virtually forces them out of business, is an injustice to them as they stand to lose the money paid in county licenses and leases and cannot sell their stock of liquor without securing a wholesale liquor license.

Wholesale liquor dealers do not want to be confused with retail dealers and ask the council that it substitute the word "pint" for "quart" in that part of the ordinance which says that anyone selling liquor in quantities less than a quart be considered a retail liquor dealer.

Wholesale merchants who deal in imported wines and liquors sell in quantities of a fifth of a gallon as the liquor is bottled in those quantities for shipment.

Under suspension of the rules council passed two new ordinances one providing that the city council pass on all applicants for saloon licenses. The other was the much talked of ordinance of the peace ordinance, which provides a fine of from $5 to $100 or imprisonment of from five to one hundred days for anyone found disturbing the peace anywhere in the city limits.

BUILT FIRE IN CAR; GIVEN THIRTY DAYS

Four tramps were found huddled about a fire built on the floor of a box car in the lower Santa Fe yards this morning by Officer Joe Sheridan, of the Santa Fe, who arrested the men and placed them in the lock-up of Justice of the Peace Gurrule in precinct 5.

The men had found a piece of an old stove and made their fire on it placing it on the floor of the box car. They gave their names as Vera Frichtendall, Harry Mitchell, H. H. Tunstall and William Burns. They were arraigned before Justice Gurrule and each sent to the county jail for thirty days.

Returning Irrigation Congress Boosters Tell Rosy Tales of Success.

One of the unique features of the National Irrigation congress will be a cotton palace made of New Mexico grown cotton by the cotton growers of Eddy county. They made arrangements with Chairman W. S. Hopewell Sunday at Carlsbad for space at the congress for their exhibit of cotton.

Clovis and Melrose will also have cotton exhibits at the big congress. Governor Curry, Chairman Hopewell and Secretary Twitchell, who returned to Albuquerque last night, are more than pleased with the booster spirit of the people of the Pecos valley and of the Belen cut-off where they stopped.

At Carlsbad the governor's party inspected the Avalon dam and were given an informal reception by the business men of that city at the Commercial club. The Commercial club members talked over the plans for the cotton palace with Chairman Hopewell and the governor.

The Commercial club, acting for the cotton growers, will ask for several thousand feet of space for the big cotton palace.

On the return trip to Albuquerque yesterday the governor spoke to a large crowd at Portales and Col. Twitchell at Pecos. After his speech at Portales the governor got off the train and was mingling with the crowd when the train pulled out.

Col. Twitchell saw the governor was left behind and pulled the bell rope stopping the train. It backed to the station for the governor.

Col. Twitchell addressed a large number at Pecos. In their address the governor and Col. Twitchell told the people they would return and explain the irrigation congress more fully. The people were enthusiastic and pledged their support to the congress.

The governor's party arrived in this city last night and Governor Curry left this morning for Santa Fe. The people of the Pecos valley and the towns visited pledged $3,500 towards defraying the expenses of the congress and asked for more than 5,000 feet of space for exhibition purposes.

"The people of the Pecos valley and those out of the valley that we visited are right in the game and are all going to help us with the irrigation congress," said Chairman Hopewell this morning. "Albuquerque wants to wake up and get busy now."

"They all wanted space for exhibition purposes; people living in irrigated districts and those living in non-irrigated districts. They were bubbling over with enthusiasm and ready to jump right in and work hard for the success of the congress."

TWO TRAINMEN HURT IN TRAIN NO. 7 WRECK

Broken Rail Is Said to Have Been Cause—No Passengers Were Aboard.

The second section of west bound Santa Fe passenger train No. 7 was derailed near Bernalillo about 1 o'clock this morning by a broken rail. Conductor James Dougherty was badly bruised and brakeman Monroe was badly cut about the head.

Word of the wreck was received in Albuquerque about 1 o'clock and Agent Purdy sent the wreck train from here to clear the track. Several of the smashed cars from the wrecked train were brought into the shops here this morning.

Only meager reports of the wreck were received here as it occurred on the New Mexico division, but it is understood all the cars were derailed. Officials say the train was composed of baggage and express cars that all the passengers were on the first section.

A customer came to us saying his valuable cow was doing so badly he would have to dispose of her. It was a case of indigestion. A dollar package of Dr. Hess & Clark's stock food placed her in best condition. A saving of $75.00. E. W. Fox, 602-604 South First street.

EASTERN BANKS WERE HURT WORST

Clews Says the Stock Market
Panic Cannot Obliterate
Farmers' Profits.

New York, Dec. 24.—The only way to meet the present situation is to at once recognize changes in fundamental conditions which have taken place during the closing year. We have descended with unpleasant violence from an abnormally high level to an exceedingly low level, and the succeeding process of readjustment is painful but imperative. The more promptly it is recognized and the more promptly arrangements are made to go ahead on the new basis, the quicker will be real recovery. While there are still many unsettling elements in the situation, it is satisfactory to observe some compensations, which may be too easily lost sight of in the prevailing gloom. It must not be forgotten that our farmers are in strong financial condition, the happy result of a series of very profitable harvests. This season is sure to be a good one for all engaged in agricultural pursuits. No such situation existed in previous years when our farmers suffered to a degree which is now impossible. This may be classed prosperity and therefore, less desirable than universal prosperity, but the financial strength of our agriculturalists is going to prove no mean bulwark against the attacks of depression. Our farms produced $7,000,000,000 of wealth this year, which cannot be obliterated by any stock market panic.

Another consideration that should not be overlooked, and to which due weight has not yet been given, is that our mercantile and industrial conditions are generally sound and free of the overabundance which characterized the panic in 1903. Thus far there are few signs of overproduction in the textile field, the principal strength of our agriculturalists is going to prove no mean bulwark against the attacks of depression. Our farms produced $7,000,000,000 of wealth this year, which cannot be obliterated by any stock market panic.

Such industrial overdoing as is apparent has been chiefly confined to interests connected with or dependent upon the products of the mine. Great development has occurred in the general industrial plant of the country, although apparently not yet in excess of the demands of a rapidly growing population. The greatest degree of overdoing outside of Wall street has unquestionably been in copper mining. The enormous expenditures of the railroads for improvements and the rebuilding in many of our cities undoubtedly cause an extraordinary expansion in certain industries; and the cessation of these enterprises—partial or complete—will necessarily be severely felt in those branches of industry and labor in the ranks of labor thus employed.

More or less inertia still prevails in the financial district; because the housecleaning process is evidently not yet complete, confidence recovers slowly after so violent a disturbance, and the purchasing power of investing classes has been greatly diminished. The discouraging influences in Wall street have, however, been so thoroughly discounted that it is prudent to begin to look upon the more hopeful side. There is no doubt but that prices are still abnormally low and must in due season reach a higher level. Corrective influences have been at work so long that improving conditions must soon result; and, saving the temporary stringency usually experienced in January, the money market ought to gradually become easier and more plentiful with the approach of spring. The last bank call proved that the amount of the panic fell upon the New York banks which depleted their reserves and expanded their loans to the limit in order to give help, while the interior banks often drew their funds from New York and piled up unnecessarily big reserves. The interior banks are generally strong, and upon them should chiefly fall the withdrawal of government deposits which Secretary Cortelyou is expected to shortly announce. Before the first of June money threatens to become a drug in New York and interest rates considerably lower; though not as low as in the flourishing era before the panic. The condition of the bond market is steadily improving and desirable securities of this class promise to be maintained. As to stocks, many dividends may be reduced either as a necessity owing to the diminished profits or as a matter of policy in times of adversity. The action on Pennsylvania and New York Central dividends this week has been severely criticized and is hardly likely to be repeated by other railroads; all of which are feeling the effects of a shrinkage in traffic and heavy increase in expenses. These contingencies have

In some instances been so largely discounted as to justify still better prices for best class hares; though the possibility must be considered that liquidation in some quarters postponed during the panic may have to be carried out to its completion. Another feature affording encouragement is the course of our foreign trade. Our exports in November were $294,000,000—probably the heaviest total on record and an increase of $22,000,000 over last year. Our imports during the month were less than $111,000,000 and $3,000,000 less than a year ago. With lessened purchasing power on the part of a very large number of heretofore rich people, the tendency will be toward a diminution of imports and an expansion of exports; the healthiest and most natural means of strengthening our credit abroad and retaining the gold recently imported.

THE CUB'S CORNER

Among the Christmas Shoppers.

The editor told me this morning to "dash off half a column about the Christmas shoppers—something full of local color, you know." That sounds easy, don't it?

I went over to a drug store and told the clerk I wanted to stand around a while and absorb some local color. He looked at me thoughtfully and suggested that "a bromo seltzer is good to clear the head." Some people haven't an iota of higher sentiment.

The first customer was a young lady, who whispered something to the clerk. "Two boxes of Poxon's Red Rose Tan and Freckle Eradicator, Jim," he yelled to the man behind the prescription case. Of course I didn't crack a smile, but I looked at the young lady. She was looking a few holes through the drug clerk, and her face—well, I didn't have to look further for a condensed suffusion of vivid "local color."

The next customer was a man, a real Christmas shopper. "I want one of those red plush photo albums with a mirror on the cover and in sign about 'Our Friends' tacked on it." The clerk shook his head. "Don't carry them any more—entirely out of style nowadays. We have some nice post card albums."

"What! Haven't got a single red plush photograph album! Why I have been sending my nephew one of those every Christmas for seven years."

"Isn't it about time you sent something else?" suggested the clerk tactfully. A crafty look crept into the customer's eyes.

"Nope—the son-of-a-gun, nothing but the red plush albums. I know how he hates 'em. I'll try somewhere else," and he went away chuckling.

Just then two ladies came in and asked to see the cut glass, the burnt leather work, the alligator purses, the bead chateaus, and, oh yes, the prices on bon bons and perfumes. The clerk littered the counter with a mirror on the cover and in sign about "Our Friends" tacked on it.

The clerk bowed them out graciously, and surveyed the wreckage. Then he muttered some rude remarks, and began slamming the door back on the proprietor glowered after the retreating women and came over to help. He was cross too in his haste he upset a nice gold and glass sign standing on the showcase. I turned it up again. It read:

"If you don't see what you want, ask for it. We are always pleased to show our goods whether you wish to buy or not."

QUICK WAY TO GET STAR ON FLAG

Globe, Ariz., Dec. 24.—The silk flag which was presented to Gila county by Delegate Mark Smith for casting the heaviest vote against joint statehood in last year's election is on display at the Old Dominion Commercial company's store. It is probably the most beautiful "old glory" in the southwest, being made entirely of heavy silk and stitched by hand. With the flag is a willow banner also of silk in red and white bearing the following legend: "To Gila, the Banner County Against Joint Statehood; Presented by Marcus A. Smith."

"BUSTER BROWN" AT ELKS' THEATER DEC. 30

Fun will reign supreme at the Elks' theater, where on Monday night, Dec. 30, "Buster Brown" will play an engagement. Innocent little "Buster" starts the ball rolling as soon as he puts in an appearance and it gains in speed until at the end his auditors having had their capacity for laughing fully tested are glad of the rest that the finish makes possible. Since its last presentation here the play has been written and the promise is made that it is now funnier than ever. In addition to the improved book, the music is new in its entirety, the scenery fresh from the artist's studio and the costumes direct from the costumers. For the interpretation of the several roles a company of even balance has been engaged. In the role of "Buster" as played by Master Rice that most popular of cartoon creations is given life. According to Mr. Outcault, who invented "Buster" Master Rice is the only one who has played it correctly. He treats his character as if it were actually a part of him and engages in his various pranks with all the zest and enthusiasm of a boy who did what he did just for the fun of doing it. One can easily imagine Master Rice to be the original of the character he portrays. With "Buster" will be seen his canine fellow conspirator "Tige" who assists him in keeping everybody within hailing distance in constant doubt and fear as to what is going to happen next. "Jack" Bell, whose excellent work as the dog will be recalled again, appears in that role. "Dainty" Lella Cantina as "Mary Jane" and Nellie V. Nichols as "Susie" are seen in congenial roles. Others in the cast include Beatrice Flint, Lizzie Goode, Mamie Goodrich, E. Colt Alberston, Roger Gray, George Yeoman, Percy Walling and a large chorus. Of the several specialties engaged the most prominent is that of the Hughes Musical trio, vaudeville stars.

It isn't often an actress chooses the vehicle of her success, much less finds it. In the list of the exceptions is Rose Stahl, who in the last four years had played in "The Chorus Lady" something more than 2500 times. Today the comedy is more popular in New York than was the original one-act vaudeville sketch. Miss Stahl was on the road playing one-night stands, when she bought a magazine one day and read a story, "The Extra Girl." Something about it impressed her with the possibilities of a playlet. Correspondence with the author resulted in the one-act sketch. When she had played in this successfully from coast to coast and in London, it was enlarged to a four-act comedy. With it Miss Stahl has graduated into a star.

"RAFFLES" MADE A HIT IN ARIZONA

The Phoenix Republican has this to say: "Raffles" of course, was a great success. S. Miller Kent was called upon to portray most extraordinary character and he did it in a manner beyond criticism. The play is full of thrilling situations, but none of them were overdrawn. In fact the drama is one of those which in the hands of a poor actor would become mere trash, but when acted by one who understands his business, has a rare power and charm."

KODOL is offered on a guaranteed plan for the relief of heart burn, flatulence, sour stomach, belching of gas, nausea, and all stomach troubles. It digests what you eat. It will make you healthy. Sold by J. H. O'Reilly.

Christmas has always been a glorious day! A day to think of others, those in need and those not in need. A day to forget self in love of others. A day to worship the Redeemer, as well as Christ and be glad. A day of joy if we produce joy. But we have no right to the joy it brings if we are so selfish we neither worship Him on this day nor sacrifice for his children. Go to worship in the morning of this holy birthday. Make by a gift some unhappy one glad and then be glad yourself. Fletcher Cook.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church—Corner of Sixth and Silver ave. Rev. E. Moser, Ph. D., pastor. In the evening at 7 o'clock the following Christmas program will be rendered by the Sunday school: Prelude—"Gloria in Excelsis." Chorus—"Von Himmel Hoch." Responsive Scripture Reading. Invocation. Catechizing with the children on the Christmas story. Recitation by 14 children—"Friede auf Erden." Hymn—"O du froelichste, o du selige." Recitation—"The Promised King." Recitation—"Christmas." Recitation—"Das holde Kind in der Krippe." Chorus—"Kommt, stummet alle jubelnd ein." Recitation—"The Christmas Tree." Hymn—"God is Love." Recitation—"Christmas Prayer." Singing—"Thi Kinderlein kommet." Closing Prayer. Benediction. The public is cordially invited to these exercises.
